School board candidates tell citizens why they seek to serve the community Three Mountainside residents, out of the:

seven who have filed petitions as candidates for the four seats open this year on the sevenseat Board of Education have so far replied to the questionnaire submitted to them by the Echo.

Those who have answered to date are two newcomers, Allen W. Dehls of 1491 Deer path, Mrs. John Miller of 278 Pembrook rd., and an incumbent, Mrs. Gloria S. Johnson of 1358 Birch Hill rd., who was appointed last summer to replace Mrs. Mary Rosenquest

Dehls and Mrs. Miller filed for three-year terms, and Mrs. Johnson is seeking a two-year

Other candidates are incumbents Walter Rupp and Donald Jeka and newcomers Mrs. Alan Rehbock and Mrs. William Gutman, All have filed for three-year terms except Mrs. Gutman, who is a candidate for a two-year

Mrs. Johnson, in answer to the questionnaire, stated "As an incumbent, I feel I can bring at least a small amount of experience to the Board of Education, My initial reason for accepting an unexpired term on the board was that I have always had a keen interest in education and even more so, since my children entered the Mountainside school system.

"I feel I have something to offer, having coped with the dual role of mother and father. Because of my background and inquisitive mind hope I have already benefited the existing board, I realize the tremendous responsibility of the position and I have endeavored to live up to the trust the people have placed in me, and should I be re-elected, I shall continue to carry out the task to the very best of my ability."

Mrs. Miller, in her statement, said, "I am greatly interested in the Mountainside public school system. For the past seven years I have attended most public meetings of the Mountain-side Board of Education. I feel the time is now ripe for me to make a personal contribution to this organization."

Dehls stated, "As a business manager with experience in all related fields of financial policy and control, production planning, labor negotiation, marketing and sales management, product development supervision, personnel administration, advertising management and neral administrative experience of 17 years, believe I can contribute positively as an advisor and counsellor to the administrative staff of our school system."

Area captains chosen to head local fund drive

A briefing for the chairmen and area captains of the Mountainside Community Fund was held last night at the home of the Fund president, Gerard S. Dillemuth of 1143 Peachtree

Harvey D. Kirschenbaum, coordinating chairman, and area captains Mrs. Margaret Pillatt of Orchard road, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Junker of Saw Mill road, Frank Torma of Sunrise parkway, and George Stillwell of Rolling Rock road, were introduced. Mrs. Sydney H. Reiter of Clearview road, publicity chairman, was also introduced.

Dillemuth and Kirschenbaum outlined the geographic areas for the captains and explained why each service organization named is included in the community drive. They also emphasized that all money collected in Mountainside is used for Mountainside residents. The amounts allocated for Boy and Girl Scouts, represent the percentage of youngsters from Mountainside in the area troops. The District Nursing Association, Union County Psychiatric Clinic, Youth and Family Counseling Service, and Mental Health Association of Union County base their assessments for Mountainside on the number of families served in this community. The Mountainside Rescue Squad and Youth Employment Service are manned by Mountainside volunteers and depend on contributions for their income. The total goal of $22,100 represents amounts needed by these organizations to serve the residents of Mountainside, Dillemuth said,

Top priority neededtoget help by state

Mayor promises fight, says project qualifies

By PAT DONALDSON An application to the State Highway Department on Jan, 9 for state funds to install sidewalks and curbing on New Providence road was denied by the state on the grounds the application was not of the highest priority, Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr., announced at the meeting of the Borough Council Tuesday

The mayor said the borough will appeal the decision "and will go to battle with the state as we feel we do qualify.

The Council appointed Alfred E. Alliston as constable for a three-year period effective in July 23, 1968, It amended the temporary budget by raising the snow removal cost from $3,750 to $6,000.

Also approved was a variance to permit the erection of a water tower and observation tower by the Elizabethtown Water Co., subject to the following conditions: the water company is to construct a six-foot-high cyclone type fence approximately 10 feet from the end of Prospect avenue on the lands of the Union County Park Commission, to run for an over-all distance of 225 feet; the observation tower is to be locked to the public no later than the official closing time of the Union County Park Commission; any coloring and lettering for the water standpipe and observation tower shall be subject to the approval of the Borough

The mayor and Council accepted and filed communications from E.O. Rohardt, assistant general manager of the American Hoechst Corp., asking that another roadway be opened to permit faster and safer exit from Sheffield street at closing time; a request from the Rescue Squad to consider purchasing Plectron alerting radios to hasten the response to emergency calls, and an inquiry from Harvey D. Kirschenbaum regarding service on the lower portion of OldFarm road, for snow removal, street cleaning and repair work.

Also noted were a report on 1967 from Robert E. Garrett, secretary of the Planning Board, and a request from Robert Koser, superintendent of public works, to authorize preparation and execution of a 15-foot-wide sanitary sewer right of way and easement agreement on Lot 7, Block 5A.

Councilman Wilfred H. Brandt, president, reported on the continued progress of the sewer construction program. Councilman Robert Ruggiero in reporting on building inspections, noted there was a sharp drop in fees and valuations during 1967.

in the absence of Councilman Fred Swingle, Ruggiero also reported that there had been calls answered by the Police Department in 1967, the total mileage covered by police was 118,278 miles, and a total of 2,568 traffic tickets was issued.

Councilman Don Robertson reported on the planned ski trip to Camelback. He said basketball games for boys, 6-12 years were continuing on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 12. Robertson also reported dances were held issued an urgent appeal for new members, particularly volunteers available to serve during the day. The complete appeal follows:

"The Mountainside Rescue Squad desperately needs daytime volunteers. At present there are some days when we, a town of 7,000 people, are not covered by our own first aid squad. We must ask for coverage from Westfield and Springfield squads. Good neighbors though they are, it is not fair to call their volunteer squads away to help us. We do have pride in our community. Let's show it by having enough members to give our town full coverage.

"Our squad broke its previous record by answering 362 calls for 1967. Of these, 115 were for transportation, and 247 were emergencies, including auto accidents, maternity calls, heart cases and home accidents. Calls from industry and business almost doubled those of 1966. Mountainside has grown. Now, we must have more members on the squad if we are to continue offering this needed ser-

"If you haven't joined in the past because you felt you couldn't perform this type of service, please reconsider. Most of us felt the same way and later discovered there was no cause for hesitation. Actually, it is similar to helping a neighbor child when he is hurt at play. Often, merely your quiet presence in uniform is of great comfort to an injured party and his family.

"Remember, we are not doctors. We give immediate and temporary aid. We transport the injured person the simplest and safest way to the hospital. We frequently transport the aged and infirm to hospitals and rest homes. Their need is surpassed only by their gratitude.

"First aid courses are all that is required. This training is of great benefit to you and your family. A five week standard first aid course will start Monday at 7 p.m., at the squad building. If this is not suitable, we will put you in touch with other courses in the

"You will be asked to stand by one day a week, either from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. or 7 p.m. to 7 a.m., in your own home. Assignments are made for one month at a time. You may usually have your choice of days. Many of these days will pass without a call, and you will derive personal satisfaction from knowing you are contributing immeasurably to your community's welfare.

"At present we are in greatest need of daytime volunteers. Housewives and shift workers with free days are highly desirable; Drills are held every third Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. at the squad building. Please come as guests to see how our squad operates. Of course, this does not put you under any obliga-

"Officers elected in December assumed their duties at the January meeting. They are as follows: president, T.G. Knierim; vice-president, Neil McLaughlan; treasurer, Mr. G.H. Batten; recording secretary, Mrs. J.L. McCaffrey; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fredrick Gross, Operational officers are: cap-C.W. Shomo: first lie and second lieutenant, John Kenny.

"Please give careful thought to becoming a member, if you have further questions call Mr. Knierim at 233-0588, Mr. Shomo at 233-0737 or Mrs. R.A. Leach, membership chairman at 233-6599."

Ski trip scheduled for borough youth 5 at Camelback area

The Mountainside Recreation Commission has announced that a ski trip to the Camelback Ski Area in Tannersville, Pa., will be held on Feb. 10. The one-day trip is open to all boys and girls in Mountainside and "their Berkeley Heights friends' who are in the eighth grade through high school.

William Ditzel, chairman, said that Camelback had been chosen as the site for the trip "because it seems to provide a greater variety of skiing, whether you are a novice or an expert. We realize that the cost will be slightly higher than our earlier trips because the bus will cost more and Saturday rates prevail at Camelback. It is the commission's belief that the good skiing offered is worth the added expense," he added.

Registration for the trip will be held on Saturday, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Beechwood School. Registration must be accompanied by a $5 deposit and will be limited to the numbers that the buses will hold. Additional buses will be chartered only if the demand is high. "We would be very happy to have three or four buses, but only if we are assured of having them practically full." Ditzel said. He also stated complete information will be available at Beechwood on Saturday, or anyone wishing prior information may contact him, personally, or call Mrs. J. H. Foster at 232-7636.

A FORMER MEMBER of the New York Athletic club, Dillemuth says his only mem-bership now, "because of business pressures," is as an active worker in the Mountainside Republican party. He says his presidency of the Community Fund drive has been his first communities affairs activity, "because I am a comparative newcomer to the community, but I feel certain this fund participation will lead to more activity in community affairs".

Dedication to this office he has assumed is so important to this man. The intensity of his belief in the project is expressed when he says "Fellow residents give of their time and effort without monetary or, indeed, without thought of any reward, their satisfaction comes from service to their fellow residents. Therefore, it occurs to me, it behooves the beneficiaries of all the eight service organizations of the community, which include all residents, to reciprocate by seeing to it that these organizations, have sufficient funds for the operation of these services.

THE WISE HUNTER AIMS AT INSURANCE

"I plan to do some hunting this year, Is there an insurance policy available in case I accidentally wound another hunter?" a reader asks.

With an estimated 18-1/2 million hunters in this country, such questions are raised frequently. The last few years have seen as many as 2,000 accidental gun-shot deaths occurring annually. If you injure snother hunter, you may be subject to a lawsuit. Chances are you already have insurance protection against such an eventuality.

Personal liability protection is provided as part of your homeowners package policy. You need such protection in case of injuries to persons or damage to their property for which you are found to be at fault. If you do not have a homeowners package policy, personal liability in-surance can be purchased separately. You can check with your independent insurance agent or broker to see if you are fully protected.

A good (wise) hunter always observes the following rules:

1. He makes sure the gun and the ammunition are in good condition. 2. He keeps every gun unloaded -- until he is in the field. 3. He treats every gum as if it were loaded.

4. He always points the muzzle in a 5. He wears clothes easily recognizable

10. He keeps his gun in one place, his ammunition in another,

Physics education changes to attract more students

Dr. Peter R. Weiss, professor and chairman of the Department of Physics at Rutgers College, hoping to change the trend, has instituted changes in both philosophy and practive in the physics curriculum at Rut-

"We rotate our faculty through the various courses so their outlook and presenta-tions of course material are fresh," Dr. Weiss explained, "and we show our students that physics is a dynamic field in which ideas are proposed, considered, studied, refuted, defended, and sometimes discarded.

"Also, we are now putting more emphasis on undergraduate education. For a number of years, graduate education was stressed here and at other American universities, while undergraduates were left partially unattended. Now that graduate education has been developed we can once again focus more attention on the undergraduate."

Helping to implement the changes in the program at Rutgers is a grant of $2.7 million given to the Department of Physics over a year ago by the National Science Founda-

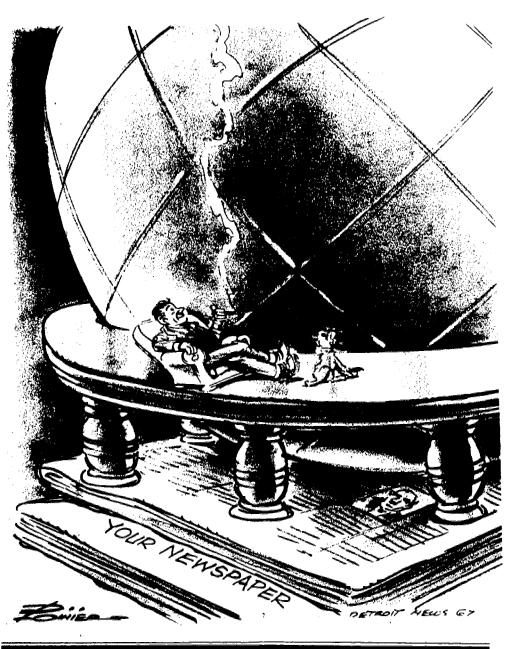

Development Program. One million of these "Centers of Excellence" funds is being spent for faculty recruitment, fellowships, scholarships and the remaining $1.7 million is devoted to equipment.

Dr. Weiss believes that by upgrading the undergraduate program his department will be able to interest and hold students in the physics curriculum. He thinks this is of utmost importance in the face of reports that there are as many as 10 openings in various branches of the discipline for each qualified candi-

SCIENTISTS AT COLUMBIA University's Lamont Geological Observatory reported that their instruments north of New York City heard the sound of the Saturn rocket launching at Cape Kennedy, more than 900 miles away. The air waves were "unexpectedly strong" and "quite sensational."

Senior Research Associate Dr., William Donn said that U.S. and Soviet nuclear explosions in the atmosphere are the only man-made events which have produced stronger readings on the Lamont instruments. Only two natural events created stronger air waves -- the eruption of the Krakatoa volcano in the East Indies in 1883 and the fall of the Great Siberian Meteorite in 1908.

CHILDREN NEED ADULT IDENTITY When was the last time you saw your preschool youngsters making believe they were someone else? Perhaps, you and your husband have gone to a ball game or a school band concert and your children set their own stage. Every child wants to be somebody, doing something, at various stages of their development. Your youngster will try to show you in different ways how he wants to grow up. Your child's feelings about his identity begins to develop within your family circle very early. Have you recognized it and helped to guide him in the way you wish him to grow? What do you do when, at the age of two years, Jimmy or Tommy begins to look at you and "No me do - all by myself!" Do you get angry because you wish to hurry to do something else? Do you say, "No you're too little. Let me do it." Or, do you take time to wait and see your youngster try? Do you, perhaps, give him a little assistance along the way, but only if he asks for it?

An important part of your youngsters growing up is the desire for independence such as

by GARY LESSING, Manager SOMERSET TIRE SERVICE

Our friend from Scotland, a profootball fan, posed this question: who is the only coach in either AFL or NFL league to ever play college ball against a player on his present squad?

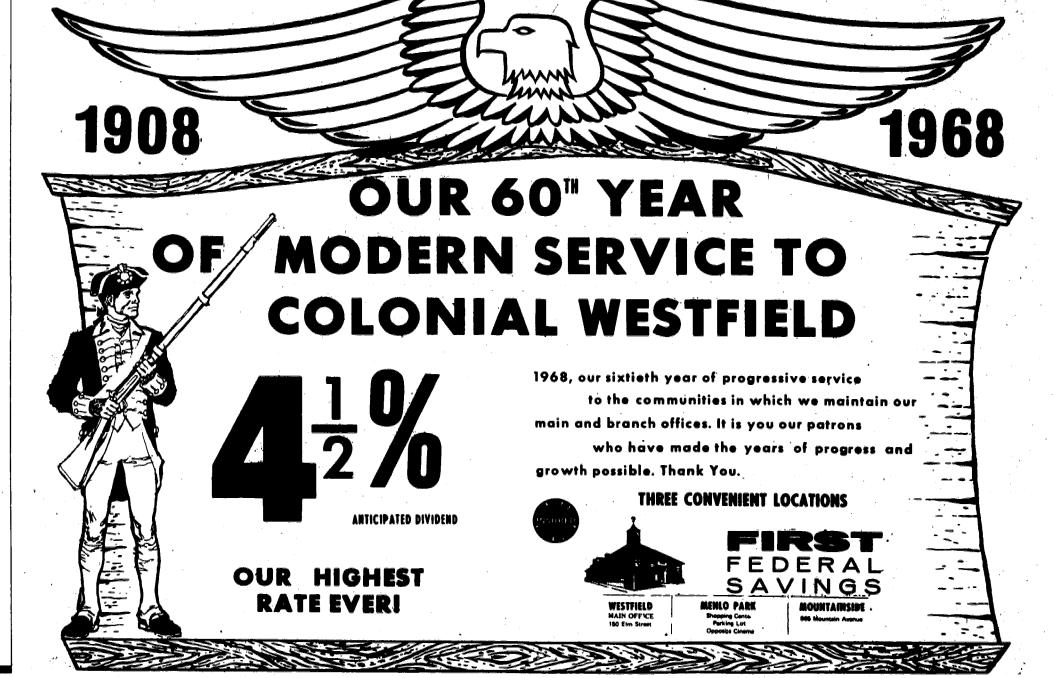

Did you name Johnny Rauch, the coach of the Oakland Raiders who is his senior year as quarterback for Georgia, played against George Blanda, Kentucky quarterback. Blanda, the field-goal-kicking phenomenon for the Raiders this past season, is considered ancient when matched in age against the present crop of profootballers while Rauch is considered a youngster in the ranks of pro football coachs. They played against each other in 1948. Both are now 40 years old.

Our Scottish friend then wondered how many of our readers knew the recipe for the dish most identified as his land's favorite.

We won't go into the complete details on cooking it, but here's what composes Scottish Haggis: take the coat of a sheep's stomach, wash it in cold water, plunge it into boiling water, scrape it very clean. Soak it overnight in cold salted water. Turn the stomach inside out, fill it with a mixture of minced sheep's heart, grated sheep's liver, Scottish oatmeal, some grated onions, salt, petter and a good pinch of

In Scotland, Haggis is served very hot, with mashed potatoes and a 'wee whisky.' . . .

We're not Scottish and if we were we doubt that Haggis would be our dish. To each his own. But when it comes to tires we're completely sold on Firestone being the very best and if you're in need of the finest see our selection...we're open six days, Monday thru Friday 9-9; Saturdays to 4 and we're SOMERSE'T TIRE SER-VICE located at Rt. 22 at Springfield rd, Union. Psychiatric clinic has 560 patients

The Union County Psychiatric Clinic has a case load of 560 patients at its various treatment centers throughout the county, according to a report by Benjamin H. Haddock, execu-

He said that for a recent 30-day period the clinic's psychiatric staff has seen 579 applicants and patients, including 395 children

There were 16 children and five adults added to the waiting list during the 30 days," Haddock said, "bringing our total waiting list throughout Union County and North Plainfield to 122 children and 40 adults."

Haddock explained that the clinic has hired new personnel, and is hopeful of financial assistance from the Union County Freeholders to offset the termination of certain federal funds which will permit further personnel improvement and thus a better opportunity to reduce the waiting list of patients.

KNOW YOUR GOVERNMENT

More effective and efficient use of the tax dollar is essential if New Jersey's problems of growth and expanding governmental services are to be met without adversely affecting the State's tax and economic climate.

Clarence J. Ziegler, executive director of the New Jersey Taxpayers Association, today pointed to "a general concern that efficient administrative management practices and effective financial controls be the accepted standard for state and local government," as 1968 programs and spending plans were being unfurled.

Citing a three-fold increase in State appropriations to $993 million and a doubling of the local property tax levy to $1-1/2 billion over the past decade, he declared that better utilization of the tax expenditure dollar must be achieved if New Jersey is to keep competitive economically, while providing for its social, educational and other needs.

He called attention to NJTA recommendations for modern administrative methods, procedures, programs and organization in state and local areas of government.

In the Executive Branch of State government, he listed opportunities for exploration of organization and operating procedures; greater stress on efficiency and economy through an independent study committee; improved personnel and fiscal reporting; long-range capital budgeting; updating and completion of master planning in education, water resource devel-

In local government, recommendations included: (1) work toward consolidation, func-tional or otherwise, of small units of municipal and school district governments; (2) consider broadening the base of financial support by authorizing permissive sources of revenue for municipalities and counties; (3) improvement in the structure of county

Apply early in disability

Ralph W. Jones, manager of the Elizabeth Social Security office, said this week that many persons eligible for disability benefits apply too late to receive their checks as early as they should. According to Jones, anyone whose work activity was covered by Social Security for five of the past 10 years, and is expected to be out of work for at least 12 months (because of sickness or injury) should apply for disability payments immediately.

Jones explained that although benefits cannot be paid for the first six months of disability, medical reports and other data needed from the applicant can be collected, evaluated, and a decision reached before the six-month payments to begin on time. Anyone in the Somerset-Union County area who wishes to apply for disability bene-fits should visit the social security office at Elizabeth. The office is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and to 8 p.m. Thursdays. A person unable to come to the

`For those who would lose by default' Honolulu fashions Legal Services office offers aid to indigent

"We represent the person who cannot af-for to pay a layer...who would otherwise lose

This was the way Donald Smith, the young lawyer who heads the Legal Services office serving Union Township and neighboring communities, including Springfield and Mountainside, described his job. Smith is a member of the staff of Union County Legal Services, which is financed by the Office of Economic Opportunity and operates in cooperation with the New Jersey Bar Association.

His office in Union is one of four in the county. The others are in Elizabeth, Plainfield and Rahway.

From his headquarters in the new Multi-Service Center (the old Vauxhall firehouse), he offers legal aid to the indigent in a wide variety of civil matters, including defense in contract cases, tort actions (civil actions for some wrongful act other than contractual), bankruptcy cases, defense in foreclosure actions and domestic relations cases.

INDIVIDUALS WITH INCOMES of not more than $3,000 a year are eligible for Legal Services aid. The income limit provides for an additional $500 for each dependent. Smith noted that many of those who come to his office for help would otherwise lose legal actions by default, simply because they cannot afford a lawyer. He cited as an example a case of a woman in a community near Union who was told by the building inspector in her town that she must replace a hazardously damaged flight of stairs in her home. She signed a contract with a firm to do the repair work for $300. When she heard nothing from the contractor for two weeks, the woman signed another contract with a second firm-- this one for $600.

The second firm subcontracted the work quirement -- the ability to understand the printfor $200 and the new stairs were installed. But the woman was left with a bill for the There are those who, like the woman who signed the two contracts, "do not have an understanding of the written English language," two contracts which--including interest--came to about $1,300.

SMITH POINTED OUT that the law applies one set of statutes to "the rich and the poor, the uneducated." He said that, in defending

"It is most fitting that a man of Mr. Page's character be remembered in this permanent fashion in the town where he contributed so much of his time and administrative skills, commented Robertson D. Ward, chaiman of the Overlook board of trustees, in making the announcement that this new section of the hospital has been named the Parker Webster Page Out-Patient and Emergency Service.

What's the catch? There isn't any.

$1,699% the suggested retail price at the port of entry for the VW sedan

The price includes Federal axcisa tax and im-It also includes the built-in heater defroster, windshield washer, electric windshield wipers, outside rear view mirror, and seat belts front and Not to mention the padded dash and front seat

It's the price of the real thing, not a strippeddown economy model. What else do you have to pay?

The charge for transporting the car from the port of entry. The dealer delivery charge. And local sales tax. There is one optional that makes a lot of sense.

The matching leatherette upholstery. For $30.00 extra. (Nearly everybody gets it because it eliminates the need for slipcovers.) Well, that's it. Unless, of course, you count the cost of gas and oil it takes you to get here in your present car.

AMY ADAMS

Dear Amy:

I have something to say and if this little "say" is not said, I will cry or something bad will happen.

1 am 13 years old and my little brother is 9. My mother and father have been married 19 years. My father tells my mother that he has a son by another woman. They have a war every Friday night. For Christmas, he gave the boy a $40.95 present and gave the woman $40,00. He gave my little brother a $13.00 present and my mother $6.00.

Mother says that she doesn't want to get a divorce and break up our home. Please helpl He gets drunk every Friday night and 'her'' is what he talks about.

Lost Out

It's too bad that your family is subjected to this "war" every Friday night, but your father needs help. Urge your mother to enlist the aid of your clergyman and a member of your local chapter of Alcoholics Anonymous. With the proper help and your dad's cooperation, he can resolve his personal problems and peace will reign in your home once more. Good luckl

Dear Amy: I am a sponsor (or godmother) to a boy who is going to be 19 this month. He will graduate in lune. I have given him a gift for his birthday up to his eighteenth and also a Christmas gift every year including the past year, I am now wondering when does the gift-giving stop?

I have children of my own, and as they are getting older, they need so many things that sometimes I feel I can't afford these extra This young boy was confirmed at age 14 (I gave him a cash gift at that time), and someone once told me that gift-giving stopped after the person was confirmed. Your opinion on the above matter please?

Dear Mrs. L. K.:

You were never obligated to give the young man gifts. The only gift expected from you as at his birth. Godparents are to oversee

Employers will get information packet on new wage laws

Nearly two million U.S. employers -- employing about 42.5 million workers who will be affected by new changes in the Federal minimum wage law -- will receive a special informational package from the Department of

The package will contain information about changes in the Fair Labor Standards Act that become effective on Feb. 1.

Included will be an official poster which must be displayed in the establishments, highlights of the amended law, a listing of regional, district, and field offices of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions and a coupon that may be mailed to the Divisions' offices for further information.

The new changes, resulting from the 1966 Amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act. establish a wage of at least $1,60 an hour for employees covered by the provisions of the Act before last February 1. These employees are presently entitled to $1.40 an hour.

Employees brought under the law last February will be entitled to not less than $1.15 an hour. The rate for these workers is now at least $1.00 an hour. A non-technical pamphlet explaining the provisions of the amended Fair Labor Standards Act is now available from the offices of the wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions. The "Handy Reference Guide to the Fair

Labor Standards Act" gives basic information about the law's minimum wage overtime pay, equal pay, and child labor standards. Copies of the amended law of the Reference Guide are available from the U.S. Government Printing Office Washington, D.C., 20402 at 15 cents each. There is a 25 percent reduction in price for orders of 100 or more.

N.J. mayors ask more participation by public in local government affairs

The New Jersey Conference of Mayors will urge in 1968 "a greater public participation in local government and will seek to develop a broader public interest in municipal problems," leaders of the state-wide mayors' organization stated in the annual statement released this week.

Mayor James W. Kelly Jr. of East Orange, president of the Mayors Conference, said the group will be asked to "seek new means of casing tax burdens on real estate, give greater study to utilization of computer equipment in compiling minicipal records and statistics and to give intensive study to the regionalization of some essential municipal services as a means of reducing costs." "Caught in a growing financing squeeze, rising cost and demands for more municipal services, the problems of New Jersey municipalities are further aggravated by interest costs on municipal bonds, which are among the highest in history," he reported. "While Federal and State aid have tended to give some degree of relief, it is clearly evident that 1968 must bring with it a reevaluation by county, state and federal officials of the growing complexity of the problems which confront municipal governments," the statement said.

"AS A FEATURE of a program aims at boosting the economy of the State's 567 municipalities, the Conference of Mayors will accelerate a four-pronged promotion drive, aimed at attracting new business, industry, home owners and recreation seekers into the state from among the millions of out-of-state

1967 receipts up $6,027 in County Surrogate Court

Surrogate Mary C, Kanane, in her annual report of the receipts of the Surrogate's Court for 1967, reported receipts totalling $143,385,42, an increase of $6,027,29 over the revenue in 1966.

The greatest revenue was realized from the probate of 2,171 wills, which netted the county $38,970.78; 162 accounts of executors, administrators, trustees and guardians produced a revenue of $27,837,49, and 25 of these accounts were Veterans Administration accounts where no fees are paid to the surrogate, she said.

Union County residents have become more will-conscious, Miss Kanane said, with five times as many persons dying testate as in-testate. In addition to the probate of wills: 426 administrations of estates in excess of $2,500 were granted.

413 affidavits were issued to surviving spouses, on estates which did not exceed

211 affidavits were issued to next of kin of decedents where no spouse survived. 311 letters of guardianship were issued on estates of minors.

Proceeds lagging in Yule Seal drive

The TB-Respiratory Disease Association of Central New Jersey reported lagging returns this week as it announced that the Christmas

Dr. Stephen Ayres of Westfield, Union County chairman for the tri-county drive which also takes in Monmouth and Hudson Counties, said contributions to date are approximately $9,000 less than the comparable totals for last year.

He pointed out that the campaign is the first attempt by a tuberculosis association to raise funds on a regional basis in New Jersey and is a result of the merger of the organizations in the three counties. He urged those who have not yet mailed their contributions to the TB-Respiratory Disease Association to do so

Dr. MacKay said Union College has offered opportunities for high school graduates to make up deficient entrance credits for many years, but now a more formalized type of program is being developed.

LYNES SAID GUIDANCE counselors in area high schools have been requested to recommend students they feel should be considered as pre-engineering or pre-science candidates.

Prof. Elmer Wolf, chairman of the engineering department, said the new pre-engineering program is designed for the high school graduate who is not academically ready for the demanding college program.

'Our new program will be geared to the scholastic achievements and potential of these students, and will give them an opportunity to move into the college program at a somewhat slower pace than our usual engineering and science majors," Prof. Wolf said.

A typical student in the new pre-engineering program would take an English review course, in mathematics depending upon his background in the field, engineering drawing, fundamentals of engineering and government.
