A 'grand' feeling for the students

Hero-ic efforts collect $1,000 for Peace Corps

A check for $1,000 was presented to the Peace Corps Partnership School Program by the students of Gov. Livingston Regional High School last week, according to Hollis Burke, recently returned from Turkey as a Peace Corps volunteer, who accepted the check for the Peace Corps, Washington, Hank Gutman, president of the student council said the money will guarantee enough ma-terial to build one school in a rural or slum community of a developing nation to battle illiteracy. Students raised the money by taking orders for hero sandwiches in Berkeley Heights and Mountainside. A total of $600 was realized in two weeks from the sandwich project; the balance of the sum came from proceeds of school dances and other events.

Before adopting the project, students viewed a film describing the project and showing how the community receiving the money must guarantee a teacher and 25 percent of the cost and provide a site for the school, Labor for the building of the school-comes from people of the community.

Burke, a reporter for the Plainfield Courier News for nine years before his two years in the Peace Corps, has returned to reporting for the Courier, in accepting the check he said:
"If the Peace Corps experience teaches nothing else, it teaches that the world out there is really just another part of the 'village.' The center of things is not Washington, Moscow or Peking, but wherever people happen to be Certainly, events of the past few days have touched your fellow students in 'that part of the village' in the same way they have touched you.

"In Turkey, the portrait of John F. Kennedy is often seen beside that of Ataturk, father of modern Turkey, an honor not even accorded their own leaders. It is likely that the portrait of Robert F. Kennedy has been raised to a place

"I know this gift from students of Gov. Livingston will be translated into walls of the Gov. Livingston partnership school in some developing company.

'It is not for me to thank you, as I am only a returned volunteer. You will be thanked by an active volunteer in the field and by the students with whom that volunteer is working.

"In this way you will share in the Peace Corps experience. I know you will find it a rich Burke also said that the gift was of special significance in that it was from the "youth of one land to the youth of another."

Regional PTA gives GLRHS annual awards

JOHN MAIORANA The PTA of Gov. Livingston Regional High School honored several Mountainside students during the annual awards assembly on June 7. Winner of a $300 scholarship was John Maiorana, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Maiorans of 1181 Foothill way, Mountainside, John, who will graduate in the top 15 percent of his class, was active in sports and is a member of the National Honor Society. He is interested in business administration and will attend

Rutgers University, in the fall. Two other scholarship winners were Diana Hotz and Beth Naylor from Berkeley Heights. Special awards were given by the PTA Booster Club for Knowledge to students who showed outstanding ability in specific fields. Each winner was presented with a plaque, and the names of these students will be engraved on trophies in the trophy case at the

An extra service agreement was authorized for Andrew Ray, intramurals coach at Beechwood and Echobrook schools, at a total of $378 (fall soccer, $126; winter basketball, $126; spring softball, $126). The agreement superone authorized for John Langstaff last March 12.

Officials of Gov. Livingston Regional High School in Berkeley Heights are asking parents of students attending the school to emphasize their children that litter should not be own out of windows of school buses.

Peter Festante, assistant principal of the high school, said:

For the past few years, Principal Fredrick Aho and I have been greatly concerned with the huge amounts of litter thrown out the bus windows, on the last day of school, by Gov. Livingston Regional High School students. In attempting to solve the problem, we have tried many approaches and have met with little

'It is with this thought in mindthat we make plea to all parents who have children in our high school that they cooperate with us by emphasizing to their children the great concern to local residents as well as residents of surrounding towns.

"Last year, much to the embarrassment of the staff and administration of this high school, a good deal of this litter was deposited in New Providence, which at the time was in the midst of an anti-litter campaign. Your child may be contributing to this problem and considers it mothing but a joke. This is why we are making an appeal that the matter be discussed with your children."

Two National Honor Society students have been selected by the Gov. Livingston Regional High School scholarship committee to receive scholarships of $200 each, annual award of the Mountainside PTA, it was announced last week.

They are Mary Lou Young and Victor Tom. Miss Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Young of Wyoming drive, is a member of the Future Teachers Club, the Spanish Club, the CYO and the color guard. She plans to enter Douglass College in September. Tom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ping Tom of Mountain avenue, placed first in the regional mathematics in 1966. In 1967, he won the Rensselaer mathematics and science award. He was also representative to the North Jer-sey Junior Science and Humanities Symposium, He will enter Massachusetts Institute of Technology in September. It was also announced that three Mountainside elementary school students have re-ceived PTA scholarships for instrumental music study in summer school, Honored for their achievements are: Ann Schmitz, a sixth grade drummer at Deerfield School, Sandra Smith, a fifth grade violinist at Echobrook School, and Laura Geiger, a fifth grade cellist at Beechwood School.

A teacher of German at Gov. Livingston High School, Berkeley Heights, is going to jet across the Atlantic this summer with a group of students to attend classes at a campus in Austria.

Mrs. Barbara M. Oberding, of Mountainside has been appointed by the American Institute For Foreign Study (AIFS) to chaperone a group of high school students on a six week European study tour during July and August. They will attend classes at the Internationale Ferien-kurse in Salzburg. The study program will not be substantially affected by recently proposed travel restric-tions. Because of the low cost of the flight fare for the trip, any travel tax that might be approved by Congress will have only a minimal effect on the participants, according to AIFS.

Although Mrs. Oberding will do no teaching in Europe-all instruction will be by European university staffs -- her role as AIFS chaperone will be to act as a combination guardian, advisor, and friend, All student life in Europewill revolve around her, and she will help her students make the necessary adjustment to European life.

Student 'sleuths' to read mysteries in library program

The Mountainside Public Library has announced plans for a summer reading club for boys and girls who have completed first grade.

The theme of the program is "Book Detectives," Boys and girls will "investigate" the fun of reading. Clues (graded lists of books) to help children "track down" good books to read will be available. However, children are welcome to do their own "sleuthing," a spokes-

Upon registration, children will be given reading folders to keep a record of books read. If a child completes 10 books, a "Sherlock Holmes' figure bearing his name will be placed on the bulletin board, if he reads 20 books a magnifying glass will be added to his figure. The "Sherlock Holmes" mouse is adapted from "Basil of Baker Street," by Eve Titus, published by McGraw Hill. Mrs. Helen M. Kelly, children's librarian, emphasized that the program is not a contest. The purpose in having a summer reading program, she said, is to encourage children to discover the fun of reading.

quiet and somber week at the United Nations

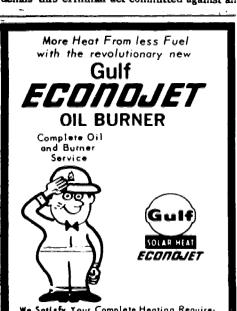

By TRUDINA HOWARD Kennedy, King, Kennedy--the "K"s seem to be ill-omened.

At the United Nations the Arab members seemed to be ill at ease after the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. It was difficult to find an Arab who would even speak. As the week wore on they were hardly to be seen at all. A spokesman for the UN stated there would be no special guards assigned to Arab members but later it was reported that it was thought advisable and the order was changed to arrange for guard protection. The rumor was that the

In speaking to a man who is an interviewer for a radio program, I asked what reactions he had received to the assassination. I fully expected the usual sorrowful reply, but he said, Well, it ranged full scale!" In sheer surprise I turned and queried, "You mean you have found anyone who is GLAD?"
"'Hmph," he said, "Have you talked to any Arabs?"

So it might seem that there were some whose hearts were not heavy, but it was not generally so. The Jordanian Mission was among the first to issue a press release of sorrow and shock.

'The Jordan Delegation was shocked to learn of the tragic death of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. The Jordan Government strongly condemns this criminal act committed against an outstanding American and a leading public servant. We in Jordan have already expressed through our King, our horror at this murder and our condemnation of acts of violence of this kind. The Jordanian people are dismayed, and in their name and in the name of my Government as well as in my own name and in the name of the Jordan Mission to the United Nations, I wish to offer to the bereaved Kennedy family, and to the American Nation, the expressions of our sincere sympathy and condolences.

'The following message of condolences was to Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy today: 'We are deeply shocked and dismayed to learn of the tragic assassination of Senator Robert F. ON THE WHOLE, the mood at the UN was one of sorrow, sadness and concern for both the Kennedys and the U, S, Many people simple shook their heads and said nothing. It was a quiet and somber UN this week.

By order of Secretary-General U Thant the UN flag flew at half staff. Several committees held two-minute sessions of silence or interrupted their routine to hear short tributes to the late Senator. Some meetings were can-celled, others were shortened. In the Security Council where Rhodesia is under discussion and where U.S. Ambassador to the UN Arthur Goldberg is this month's president, a brief tribute to the Senator was given Wednesday, and at the opening of the UNICEF executive board meeting. U Thant spoke on behalf of Robert Kennedy. In response to the many messages of sym-

States Mission to the United Nations, it was available for signature by members of Missions and the Secretariat on June 6 and June 7, and the president of the General Assembly, Corneliu Manescu of Romania, was among the first to walk across the street to the U.S. Mission to sign the book. Messages of sympathy were sent to Mrs. Kennedy by the Secretary General, the president of the General Assembly, Ambassador Goldberg and other officials at the UN. Also, they or their representatives, attended funeral services at St. Patrick's or at the Holy Family Church near the Robert Kennedys* New York apartment at UN Plaza which the Senator and his wife attended when in New York.

No one at the UN spoke of "plot" or "conspiracy" except a Negro taxi driver who drove me to UN Headquarters, Said he, "I think the Communists hired Sirhan Sirhan, He wasn't angry enough to shoot in rage, He was paid to do it."

And that was the week at the UN. No matter whether you agreed with Robert Kennedy or not, no matter what your politics, it was an ill-fated, ill-begotten week.

N.J. Residents Find Poconos Perfect Retreat

Long a favorite with vacationing Pennsylvanians, the Pocono Mountains have become a lure for more and more Jerseyans over the last few years . . . and as land in the Metropolitan area becomes scarcer and more expensive, it is expected that the trend to the Poconos will continue.

'There's no question as to what motivates the hundreds of N.J. residents who have made the Poconos one of the prime second-home markets in the East," says a noted land developer.

"These families, weary of the pressures, clamor and hustle-bustle of city living are seeking a leisure-time haven . . . rustic and secluded . . . on 'away-from-it-all' spot from which they can return to their work-a-day environment relaxed and refreshed."

"This is what we have for them high above the Delaware Water Gap in the green-forested Poconos. It is among the last of the region's mountain sanctuaries.'

"Because of their high altitude, up to 2,500 feet above sea level, their magnificent mountain scenery, their many lakes and their pure, dry health-giving air, the Poconos are often called 'The Colorado of the East'. Folks in North Jersey are just beginning to realize that this wonderful mountain region can be reached over new super highways within two hours and is available for low-cost summer and winter vacations."

This combination of accessibility, good air, spacious surroundings, and a variety of summer and winter sports activity, has made the Poconos an increasing favorite retreat for New Jersey residents.

Consultant to study expansion needs of high school district

When proposal by the Regional High School Board of Education for building expansion was defeated in a referendum last March 19, some who opposed it indicated that a more complete, analysis of trends in population growth and housing development and evaluation of essential factors for quality education by a consultant should precede the adoption of any long-range issilding program.

The need for resubmission of a referendum and concern because the rapid population growth of the six communities served by the Union County Regional High School District No. 1 is causing serious overcrowding in the high schools of the district, have led the Regional Board of Education to employ Dr. Henry J. Rissetto, make a further, more detailed study of the building needs of the high school district.

Prior to the March referendum Dr. Rissetto had advised the Board of Education concerning school building plans, but he was not asked at that time to make the type of complete study for which he has now been employed.

The new study will include an analysis of school inruliment trends and a projection of probable enrollments in grades 9-12 over the text few distance; a detailed study of the district's existing facilities to determine their physical condition, capacity and adequacy for desired educational uses; an analysis of fi-hancial factors, including trends in assessed and true valuations, tax rates, and probable effect of additional debt service; and specific recommendations concerning size, scope, lo-cation and timing of future building projects.

In addition to a detailed, final, written survey report. Dr. Rissetto will meet several times with the Board of Education to discuss the work of the survey and will make oral progress reports to the board on findings and tentarive conclusions between Oct. 15, 1968, and Jan. 15,

PROFILE--Frank Schlunsen

kids, like our own kids at home."
Released in 1950 from the Army to the reserve, he was called back to the service during the Korean War. Although he was not engaged in active warfare, two years were to elapse before he was formally discharged.

SCHLUNSEN RETURNED to Piscataway and worked for a time reading water meters for the Elizabethtown Water Co., and with a printing company in Dunellen.

"But," he says, "something kept drawing me back to being around kids, so I became a scoutmaster and Little League coach. Then, 14 years ago, I heard of a job opening at the Baltyn Bus Saystes of Kentlyoneth I beaut the Beirn Bus Service of Kenilworth, I knew the company operated school buses, and I figured that was for me.

'I'd be around kids again. So I went and got the job driving the Jonathan Dayton High School bus. I stayed there five years. Then Gov. Livingston was built and I was transferred. While in Springfield, I had also driven elementary school youngsters, and when, in 1965, the company lost the contract at Gov. Livingston, I was glad to come back to driving the kindergarten and elementary school boys and girls in Mountainside.

"But, you know," he continues, "I still see high school students now that I used to drive here to the grammer schools, and it makes me feel good to see them growing up so well." Reminded of stories one reads of school bus drivers complaining of children 'carrying on' in the buses and reports of acts of actual vandalism, we questioned Frank as to whether he had ever had this experience, and if the children of today differed much in behavior patterns from those of 14 years ago.

he answered, "nothing really serious, Once in a while, particularly this last year, a few of them will stand up in the bus and carry on a bit, yell out of the windows and such, but I show them who the boss is. I don't los patience, but I holler at them and some will answer back, claiming I am picking on them.

"But those kids are smart, in answer to your first question, the eighth graders now are wiser then they were, 14 years ago, but they still know that I show no favoritism. I know every one of them by name and I make it clear to them I am responsible for their safety, and that is the only reason I demand obedience.

"TOO, THE PARENTS and teahcers here in Mountainside stand firmly behind me, and kids know they won't get any sympathy from home or at the schools, so they simmer down fast,

"Children," he goes on, "are real mimics.
One or two start up, and the rest will follow, I what I have been saying is very minor.
"On the whole, the kids in Mountainside are the finest bunch of kids in the whole world, I should know, because I have them of every age and from every school, private and parochial, must say the boys are no different from the girls, they are evenly divided when it comes to behaving. I want to make it very clear that in the town. I feel toward them as if they were my own, and I know each one of them as their own parents know them."

in answer to this reporter's question as to what he does with crying youngsters or those who get sick on the bus, he says, "I kid the crying ones. I tell them they are getting the floor all wet and they stop and look down and forget to keep on crying. As for the sick ones, if I am near the school, I take them to the nurse, but if I am not, I just stop the bus and clean up the mess."

HE TELLS OF his most memorable experience during his years of driving school children. "It was back in 1958," he recalls, "when I was driving the high school bus to Jonathan Dayton, A 16 or 17-year-old boy had a bottle of chemicals in his pocket, and the heat from his body ignited the contents and they blew up. The boy and two others were burned, but not badly, and all recovered, "Fortunately," he says modestly, "I did not panic or lose control of the bus. I just stopped it, got my passengers all out, put the fire out and called the fire department and the ambulance."

Talking to a man like this, we wondered how it was possible for him to retire and how he was going to get along without "my kids."
"Oh," he answers. "I have been so touched by the children and their parents, who by the way have been very good to me at Christmas, giving me gifts and all, begging me not to leave, that I decided that I would accept a job as custodian at The Deerfield School next year.

'This way, I will be in close contact with the kids and will be able to see from a distance what is happening to them. Now that I am getting older, driving is getting a bit monotonous, but children are more important to me than any job and I have no intention of ever being so far away from them that I might lose track of them, or never see them again." Every story must have a punch line and we hope the reader is ready for it: Frank Schlunsen is a bachelor!

Clubs present donation for library landscaping

A check was presented to Mrs. Elmer Hoffarth, director of the Mountainside Public Library, at the 20th anniversary luncheon of the Blue Star Garden Club which was held last week at the Tower Steak House on Rt. 22. #### Price level higher than real wages

WASHINGTON -- Hourly earnings rose again in April. but a small drop in weekly hours, coupled with the continued rise in prices, caused a further decline in the purchasing power of the nation's rank and file workers, the Labor Department announced last week.

With hourly earnings mov-ing up two cents to $2,79 in April, gross weekly earnings rose to a record $104.63 despite a small decline in weekly hours. Net spendable earnings (gross pay minus Federal taxes and Social Security deduction) averaged $93.09 for a worker with three dependents and $85.50 for a worker with no dependents, an increase of 16 and 15 cents, respectively, over March.

Rising prices, however. more than offset the April increase in take-home pay.

"Y" camping has changed since the good old days -and many parents of today's campers believe that young people of the last generation didn't reap the full benefits of camp life. The YM-YWCA of Newark and Vicinity, which will open its camp season on June 23, has released findings of a poll taken of parents of last summer's campers.

Campers have come from such communities as Irvington, Vallsburg, Union, Moun-tainside, Roselle, Roselle Park, Springfield, and Linden. During the last camp season the residence camps in Sussex

MacDonald for girls, were completely diversified from an economic, cultural, racial, religious and geographic viewpoint. In all camp periods last summer the camps had a racial mixture of about 48 percent Negro children and 52 percent white, Of 75 Negro and white parents replying to the poll conducted by the Camping Ser-vices Branch of the Newark all commented favorably to the question, "How do you feel about having your son (daughter) living with boys (girls) of different races, religious faiths, cultural backgrounds and economic levels? A mother observed, "I think it is a good idea, because it helps them to understand that we all live and do about the same things no matter who and what we are." This parent also noted, "I think camp helped him a lot, because not having a father, he was able to do some of things he would never get a chance to do otherwise."

A former camper himself, an East Orange father writes about the culturally mixed program, "I think it's swell, and I also feel that if more people had had this experience, this would be a better country to live in."

Another enthusiastic parent comments, "We really like this, because it is right that they should really live together and treat one another as they would like to be treated." Yet another parent ob-

MISQUOTED

Gee, I liked my picture--most people like their picture if it's over five years old--but honest, I didn't invent radio, not even TV, and what's more, I didn't even beat the whole Presbyterian denomination into submission to my ideas. Maybe next week.

I think maybe the quotation mark key on your linotype got stuck or something. #### County park pools to operate soon on full-time schedule

The swimming pools operated by the Union County Park Commission, located at John Russell Wheeler Park, Linden, and Rahway River Park, Rahway, will begin operating at the full-time summer schedule next Thursday, June 20. The pools opened on a part-time schedule on May 30.

Beginning next Thursday, the pools will open weekdays, including Saturdays, and holidays, at 10 a.m. On Sundays the pools will open at 11 a.m. The pools will remain open on weekdays until 8 p.m., and on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, until 7 p.m., weather permitting.

Children 13 years of age and under may swim free of charge from 10 a.m. to noon, each Monday, except holidays.

Boys and girls, eight to 14 years of age, may now register at either pool for the an-nual "Learn to Swim" school which will be conducted daily from 9 to 9:45 a.m. beginning Monday, June 24 at both pools.

Union County residents may still take advantage of the 'family membership plan' now being offered at both pools. A family may apply for a special rate of $25 for the entire swimming season and this will entitle husband and wife and all their children, 18 years of age and under, to swim in the pools without additional charges during the summer. Applications are now available at both pools. Each pool has a sand beach and a refresh-

Summer programs at 'Y' reported filling rapidly

Registration for the I-ive Points YMCA summer programs is continuing. The programs are expected to be filled by the middle of June, Howard Merrick, branch executive, said this week.

The Learn to Swim program this year operates for eight weeks with three separate times to choose from and is filling rapidly, Merrick said. The swim program operates in the Whale at Five Points YMCA and is geared for heginner boys or girls four years of age and up, Classes are kept small for more concentrated instruction with about eight to 10 in each class. Seventy-five different boys and girls are already enrolled for one week or more of instruction, he said, The Fun Club program that served more than 120 different boys and girls last year operates four two-week periods beginning July 1 for children K-4. Registration for the second period is almost closed. The first period is two-thirds filled and is expected to close in one week.

The program will operate, rain or shine,

Trips to interesting places geared to the age level interest and abilities will be part of the program. Swimming instruction and fun swims, arts and crafts, stories, and singing will also be part of the program with games of all types added. Special events each week with occasional family programs in the early evening is being scheduled, Merrick said,

THE BICYCLE DAY CAMP program is getting a good response, he said. Designed as a small group experience for boys and girls 4-7 grade it will offer a day camp experience with camping skills taught. At least two meals per week will be planned and prepared over open fire, an overnight campout each period. and conservation and nature science skills will be emphasized.

Call the Five Points YMCA for information or application for any of the Summer Programs at 687-5570, Merrick added.

Why we don't call the Volkswagen on the left the Volkswagen Station Wagon.

How rash. Its storage capacity is much too modest. (Even with its seats folded down it's just 42 cu. ft.)

Its seating capacity is much too conventional. (4 passengers is nothing to write home about.) And the size of that door in the back is much too commonplace. (A mere 42.7" by 25.4".) But unstartling as these features are in a station wagon, they're very startling in a sedan. And that's exactly what this squared-off car on the left is. A regular sedan for people who irregularly need a little station wagon. We call it the Volkswagen Squareback.

Now look at the monster on the right. Its loading capacity is an incredible 176 cu. ft. It can seat up to nine—yes, nine—very tall passengers. And it doesn't content itself with just having a door in the back. It also has a kind of sliding side gate that measures an awesome  $3\frac{1}{2}$  by 4'.

Now that's what we call a station wagon.

Joey Bishop has signed an exclusive recording contract with ABC Records. His first project for ABC will be an album of Country & Western material. This marks Joey's initial recording venture. Bishop chalked up one of the most important milestones of his career during 1967 when he returned to television as the star of his own late-night "The Joey Bishop Show" on the ABC network. Despite the opposition of firmly entrenched competition, Bishop not only quickly carved himself a solid position on the television scene but drew such outstanding critical and audience reaction that, within a year, ABC-TV extended his contract into 1969.

A native Philadelphian, Bishop entered show business with an act known as the Bishop Brothers Trio although the other two members of the group were unrelated. They became professional burlesque entertainers and eventually Joey became a single at a Cleveland night spot and entered the Army where he served in the Special Services division for four years. Resuming his night club career

after his discharge, his reputation rapidly built him into one of the most successful wits in show business. CHANNEL CHATTER -- The 14th annual "National College Queen Pageant" will be seen live from Palm Beach, Fla., via NBC June 17. Co-ed beauties from 50 states will participate...Then on the eve of June 28, via ABC, 60 of the best graduate football stars of the 1967 season compete in the Coaches All-America game to be played in Atlanta, Georgia -- Speaking of football, CBS plans to do an hour special Sept. 15, on Vince Lombardi, long-time coach and general manager of the champion Green Bay Packers, entitled "Lom-bardi"...

"The California Girl" special, narrated by Sally Field, is repeated on ABC July 1... Nancy Sinatra guests on a Jackie Gleason Show in the fall...ABC launches its telecasts of the Summer Olympics from Mexico City with two hours of the opening ceremonies on Oct. 12... On the same network, the final seven holes of the PGA championships from San Antonio, Texas, will be aired on each of three days, July 19, 20 & 21...

Registration open for Union CYO's summer day camp

Raymond S. Molnar, Union County CYO Program Director, announced this week that reg-istrations are now being accepted for the 1968 Day Camp season.

The season will begin on Monday, June 24, and close on Friday, Aug. 16, with camp open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. Bus service will be provided at an extra charge, Molnar said.

A staff of 51 people will supervise the activities, according to Molnar, it will include 22 adult instructors and 29 junior counsellors. They will serve at two campsites; St. Michael's in Elizabeth and St. James in Springfield, Norbert G. Van Bergen, assistant program director, will coordinate the activities for both camps. Directing the Elizabeth camp will be Thaddeus Leonard, a teacher in the Elizabeth arts and crafts director. Directing the Springfield camp will be Rudy Fender, a teacher in the Bound Brook school system. Assosting Fender will be Miss Carol Downey, Swim Director and Melvin Weiss, arts school system. Assisting Leonard will be Miss Susan Crystal, swim director and Eddie Smith,

Again this year, the CYO program will offer four week enrollments for campers who do not wish to complete the full season program. The first four week session will run from June 24 to July 19 and the second from July 22 to Aug. 16.

The camp program includes games, arts and crafts, shows, swimming, tours and trips to Sandy Hook State Park and Lake Hopatcong. A new addition to the program this year is Miss Anje Lucco, Music Director. "Call 354-4747 for a free brochure, Registration is limited," Molner said.

Mrs. Hughes joins state group board

Former Senator Mildred Barry Hughes of Union has been elected to the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Association for Mental Health at its annual meeting in Princeton, it was announced by Dr. Marshall J. Hanley, president of the Union County unit of the organization.

In making the nomination of Mrs. Hughes, it was pointed out that for many years she has been in the forefront of those seeking improvement in the care and treatment of the mentally ill. "While a member of the legis-lature, Mrs. Hughes proposed many important measures that sought to modernize the programs for belping mentally and emotionally disturbed people in our state," Dr. Hanley

Mrs. Hughes will continue to serve as a member of the board of directors of the Mental Health Association of Union County on which she has been active for many years.

The New Jersey Association for Mental Health serves as the citizens organization seeking to improve treatment programs for those suffering from this nation's most widespread illness.

Volvos last an average of 11 years in Sweden. They average about a day and a half in our showroom.

> The best reason for buying a Volvo is because it lasts so long. Exactly how long we don't guarantee. But we do know that over 95% of all the Volvos registered in the United States in the last 11 years are still on the road.

The best reason for buying a Volvo now, is because we have a few in stock. And frankly, we don't expect to have them around too long.

Which brings up an interesting paradox about Volvos. Our customers like to buy them because they last. We like to sell them because they don't.

Directory Assistance

We called this telephone service the wrong name. So, many people called for the wrong reasons.

Information Operators spent most of their time looking up numbers in local directories. They've also been called for train schedules, baseball scores and whatnot.

So, we've changed the name of this service. It's now Directory Assistance. We think this new name is much better. After all, that's what the service is for. To assist you with numbers not in your directory: numbers outside your directory area and new numbers not yet listed.

How do you call Directory Assistance? The same way you called Information before it died.

But whenever you have to call Directory Assistance, it's always helpful to have a pencil and your personal phone list handy so you can jot down the number. Then, you won't lose time when you want to call the same person again.

If you'd like a handy booklet to keep your personal numbers in, or a directory for other areas you call often, just call your Telephone Business Office. We'll be glad to send them

A FEMININE LOOK AT SOME MID-EUROPEAN CITIES: 1968

(Commentary on a Study Mission to Germany, Hungary, Yugoslavia and Greece) MII BY TRUDINA HOWARD III

Second In A Series

To all outside appearances Greece seems to be call. 'y content with itself and the new Army-backed, Colonel-backed regime that took over in a coup a year ago April 21.

The voices of the people—from the man in the street to the business man to the executiveseemed to have a common tune: "We like this government better than the one before."

EVEN THE TOURISTS are there-acting like tourists. Greece's visitors come predominantly from Britain, Scandinavia, Germany and its own immediate neighbors, as well as the United States. Yet despite the reported Scandinavian ban on its citizens visiting Greece, and despite the fact that it was mid-May and pre-tourist season, the port at Piraeus (of 'Never On Sunday' fame or should we say Melina Mercouri fame) was filled with vibrating cruise ships. The Acropolis was teaming with eager tourists and a great portion of the voices at the sidewalk cafes were English or German or Yugoslavian, etc.

Even the difficult journey to Delphi was busy. It is approximately a 150-mile tripfrom Athens, over mountainous, winding, narrow roads to get to Delphi, and it was jammed. A hotel-restaurant there was filled to capacity and there were no less than 23 buses at the door. At a large halfway rest stop (the equivalent of a U.S. hamburger stand; except in Greece, instead of hamburgers they serve "souvlakia" with a Fix--that is shish-kabob and the name of a popular Greek beer in case you were worrying) the crowds were so thick with tourists that one could scarcely get served, even without the Scandinavians. At the sidewalk cafes in Athens itself, many of the voices were speaking American English. A goodly number of the Americans were young and of the hippy brand. Greece had put a ban mini-skirts and the hippy mode of dress and actions, so there were not many Greek hippies to be seen, "Although," one official remarked to us, "the ban had been lifted, but no one saw the rescinding notice in the

One young sweater-clad American was talking excitedly to his companions during the time we sat there. His companions consisted of a white girl with very long red hair, a Negro girl with extremely short RED hair, and a white boy dressed in a business suit, Amusingly, when he noticed that we could hear him, he said to his companions, "Let's talk Yiddish so no one can understand us!"

At another sidewalk cafe on another day, there were two American cars parked in front and both had New Jersey license plates.

IN THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF, the officials remaining from the previous regime, say the system is more efficient. They say the chief reason is that in the former government the prime minister or other ministers were busy all day seeing endless lines of farmers, workers, laborers, people, just to gain votes. As one official said, "Anyone from anywhere could see the prime-minister and long lines would be outside his door all day. Now it is stopped." Ministry staffs were comprised of people who could work or did work for votes.

and all the leaders within a winning party would be appointed as cabinet ministers. 'Everyone wanted to be a minister," the same official said.

In the current government the system is different, we were told. The ministers can be seen only by appointment, thus giving them time to attend to their duties, and complaints are handled by staff members who are chosen for ability rather than reward. The prime minister can appoint anyone from any party as a cabinet minister, again according to ability rather than political affiliation or "payoff."

THE AMERICAN OFFICIALS also seem content with the new order and find it cooperative. They feel it is stable economically and good for investment. Litton industries apparently does, too, for during our stay it purchased additional Greek-based operations. There is something to be said for the Drachma, too. It still has the same value as it did in 1957, and not every country can make THAT Most of all, and rather rare, Greece approves of our Vietnam policy and says so, It very pro-U.S. The communist party consists of less than 25 percent of the people.

In the offices of the officials of the new Army regime, pictures of the King and Queen still stand in prominent places. They say, rather defiantly, "Greece is still a kingdom and the King is still the King. The King's picture should be here. We want him here. We are the Kingdom of Greece and we have no wish to change our title."

What the Greeks' seem to want is a presidential system under the forms of a monarchy. They want the King and his Queen to return, but apparantely not to "work," The King, on the other hand, reportedly wants to be a ruling monarch. And so there is friction. He and his family are now in Rome.

'How we wish he was here with us in Athens though!" seems to be the wish of most Grecians. In the country, in wide fields of grass and on broad areas of rock, bold white-lettered slogans tactfully proclaim, "Long Life the King! Long Live the Armyl"

And on Tuesday, the 21st day of May, all of Greece was closed for a holiday. In the

WITH THE UNDERSECRETARY to the Prime Minister of Greece, Michael Sideratos, whose title is somewhat equivalent to Secretary of State in the U.S. The minister, who is a former lawyer and not a former Army Colonel, received our Study Mission group, pictured with him, for approximately an hour in the Parliament building on Constitution Square, and asked us to please not base our opinion Greece on the poor propoganda abroad. Two large framed graphs of the King and Queen hung on the wall above camera a (Photo compliments of the Foreign Press Division, Ministry streets of Athens, past the flag-decorated, crown-decorated Constitution Square in the center of town, a three-hour parade marched by with no less than a 21-gun salute finale. There were NO stand-by watchers but it hardly seemed to matter. Everyone was celebrating anyway. The holiday? The King's Name Day, St. Constantine Day.

ON THE BUSINESS SIDE, one executive said, "We have to make many requests for certain actions from the government, and while we get a lot of negative answers from this government, as least we get an answer. With the previous government we never got any answers at all. It was always 'tomorrow. At least now, we know what we have to do." "Things get done now," another said, "Last year during the former government you could never depend on anything. The buses, for in-succumbed, the new government of Greece seems to have gained strength. It seems to have won over the people, it has survived a royal revolt in December, it is recognized by other nations, the Drachma remains stable at 30 to a dollar, foreign tourists still come, and foreign investors are still there, to wit: Litton, Shell, Esso, Reynolds Aluminum, First National City Bank, Chase Manhattan and American Express to mention only some. Even Melina Mercouri's tunes are no longer stance, didn't always run. Or the trains, Some days they would be there, other days not.' So it would seem that the Army regime has established itself. In the first hard year when many another "illegitimate" government has

Fund allows programs for children at Center

The Garden State Arts Center this week announced es- privileged children from New tablishment of a special fund from contributions to finance programs especially designed site to listen to rehearsals for the young people of New for scheduled night perfor-Jersey.

Executive Director D. Louis Tonti said the Garden State Arts Center Fund, created and administered by the New Jersey Highway Authority, is dedicated to providing "cultural enrichment to our young people and particularly to the disadvantaged."

The fund is to be built up in the first instance with con-tributions made by purchasers of box seats for the first season of the Arts Center at Telegraph Hill Park on the Garden State Parkway. The Center opens this week. In conjunction with the fund planning, a series of special matinee programs at the Arts Center for children from lowincome areas is being arranged this Summer.

The $6 3/4-million cultural complex was designed by famed architect Edward Durell Stone and built by the New Jersey Highway Authority as a Parkway roadside development under terms of the 1952 law which created it.

Accessible only from the 173-mile Parkway both north and south, the Arts Center is the first recreational-cultural establishment of its kind to be built along a superhighway. The Authority operates the toll road and will administer the Parkway's Arts Center.

New Jersey Governors past and present are due to head the audiences of first-nighters during the opening week, Gov. Richard J. Hughes being scheduled to take the preperformance stage for the public premiere on Thursday.

While season subscriptions are closedboth classical series were sold out several weeks ago, there remain single-event tickets for all performances. #### Water company seeks approval for rate hike The Elizabethtown Water

Co. today asked for an increase in water rates that will amount to about 25 cents per week for the average family. The request was filed with the Board of Public Utility Commissioners in Newark this

The increase would apply to 25 communities in Union, Somerset and Middlesex counties served by Elizabethtown, including Union, Kenilworth, Linden, Roselle, Roselle Park and Mountainside.

According to Robert W. Kean Jr., president of Eliza-bethtown, the application for higher rates is the first increase affecting a substantial number of customers in more than eight years, and, for its customers with all the many Elizabeth area customers, the first increase in 13 years.

our last rate increase, Elizabethtown has spent over 25 million dollars in Capital improvements such as pumps, filters and mains to keep abreast of the growth in our service area," Kean said.
"During this period, we have been faced with very substantial increases in the cost of chemicals, power, wages, taxes, interest rates and the water we purchase from the state," he reported.

come when the present income of the company can no longer adequately support present expenditures and, at the same times, provide the financial basis so that we can borrow the additional substantial sums necessary for the additional facilities which we know will be needed in the future, Kean said.

"We intend to keep on providing the best possible water service to our customers and an increase is necessary to assure that the water system can keep pace with customer demands," he said.

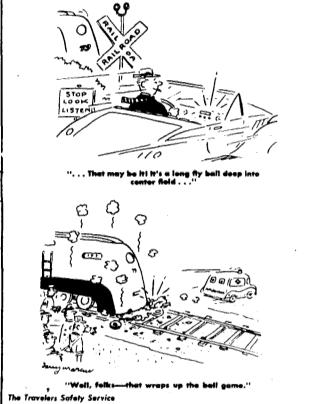

Kean pointed out that during the recent drought years, Elizabethtown was one of the few companies able to provide water they wanted without any restrictions. Industry in the area served by Elizabethtown also had plenty of water and did not have to curtail production at any time, he said.

The company is also seeking proportionate increases in the munities for municipal fire

The request for higher rates must be approved by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners before it becomes ef-

OUTDOOR

Now, with a few easy strokes, you can efficiently repair or resurface interior and exterior areas around your home with the most beautiful and colorful surfacing material you've ever seen. The amazing new PORADEK has all the color and excitement of carpeting, yet this mirate of modern science outwears the material it covers, whether state, wood, ceramic tile or concrete. PORADEK is a combination of epoxy tesins colored stone aggregate... makes an ideal non-slip surface for patios. porches, pooldecks, walkways, stairways, as well as balconies, terraces, garages and basement areas. PORADEK is tough, about times stronger than concrete, highly resistant to cracking or chipping. Normal hosing or washing is all that is necessary to maintain its sparkling appearance.

PORADEK is easy to apply to concrete, life, slate, murble, wood . . to almost any clean, rigid surface. Simply pour and spread, in one application you create a beautiful new surface and at the same time in unsightly cracks and holes, it hardens to any thickness in a matter of hours. PORADEK comes in a rambow variety of colors including metallic effects.
