Dual posts retained by Brandt in council organization

By JACK PFANNE

Incumbent Councilman Wilfred H. Brandt and John A. Hechtle were administered the oath of office at the annual organizational meeting of the Mountainside Borough Council Monday night at the Beechwood School.

Brandt was again elected council president. He also remains as public works commissioner—a post to which there was some speculation another councilman would be named. Brandt is convalescing from a recent operation, and Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr. had indicated during the holidays that the assignments of council president and public works commissioner might be a strain on the councilman.

Two new members were named to both the Board of Health and the Recreation Commission.

Tapped for the Board of Health were Joseph Car and Lewis Borchert. Their terms expire in December, 1971.

Thomas Phillip and Harry Nash are the new recreation commissioners. Their terms expire in December, 1973.

In a surprise at the outset of the meeting, former Councilman Gilbert B. Pittenger was presented a plaque "in grateful appreciation for unselfish and dedicated service in the codification of the ordinances and codes" of the borough from 1966 to 1968.

Pittenger's effort was the first time since the borough was founded that the ordinances were recodified.

In accepting the plaque Pittenger praised Mrs. Helena Dunne, deputy borough clerk, who assisted him. Resolutions were introduced commending outgoing members of the Board of Health and the Recreation Commission. They include Dr. Henry Langhein, who served the Board of Health from 1950 to 1968, and Dr. John Fenton, who served from 1963 to 1968.

Also commended were Recreation Commissioners Richard Collins, who served from 1963 to 1968, and William Styler, who was a member of that board in 1968. Borough clerk Elmer A. Hoffarth was appointed business administrator and borough tax search officer. He was also reappointed borough treasurer, tax collector and court clerk.

Hoffarth's salary as business administrator will be fixed as the council prepares its 1969 budget due by March 10.

It was indicated at the organizational meeting that salaries of all borough employees are being reviewed for possible increases.

Safety programs, sewer project listed among Wilhelms' major goals for '69

At Monday night's annual organizational meeting of the Borough Council, Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr. outlined the major goals of the governing body for 1969. They include:

The implementation of a borough-wide safety program affecting both pedestrian and vehicular traffic;

The construction of the Nemehegan Brook storm sewer in the Central ave. watershed area as the second phase of the storm sewer improvement program;

The appointment of a special committee to "advise and recommend to council" specific needs of local youngsters;

A study of the "problem" of Borough Hall, Police Department and Fire Department facilities;

Renewed efforts to "maintain a reasonable tax cost for borough operations."

Mayor Wilhelms said that working with the newly-organized Safety Advisory Committee and a traffic consultant, the council this year anticipates a program which would include speed limit revisions, stop street designations, traffic light installation, intersection improvements, sidewalk construction in high density areas, increased police surveillance and increased traffic safety education.

Concerning the storm sewer project, the mayor said plans are nearing completion and an ordinance would be introduced within two months to authorize the necessary expenditures. At that time, the mayor said, bids would be sought for construction this spring.

AS FOR MEETING the needs of borough youngsters, the mayor said:

"In this age of confrontation, it is obvious that new methods must be adopted if we are to properly guide and instruct our youth and their parents in responsible civic responsibility and behavior."

In calling for a special committee, the mayor said, "It is distressing to report that we continue to have problems with vandalism and disruptive behavior. Our schools, churches, library, swimming pool and tennis courts have all been targets for senseless and costly depredations."

In connection with the municipal building facilities, the mayor said that "the inadequacy of our existing buildings is woefully apparent. We have a responsibility to borough employees, our policemen and our volunteer firemen to provide adequate, safe and efficient quarters."

For 1968, Mayor Wilhelms kicked off some of the more significant accomplishments of the all-Republican council, including the recodification of all borough codes and ordinances and the dedication and opening of a new library.

In these areas, the mayor lauded ex-Councilman Gil Pittenger and deputy borough clerk Mrs. Helena Dunne for their work on codifying the ordinances, the library trustees and library director Emily Hoffarth.

"In my 13 years' experience in public affairs in Mountainside I know of no singular effort the equal of Gil Pittenger's in this project," Mayor Wilhelms said.

In closing, Mayor Wilhelms thanked all members of the borough council, members of borough boards and agencies, borough employees, the Fire Department volunteers and the Rescue Squad for their work in 1968.

Wilhelms lauds cooperation of local citizenry

"People who 'Give a Damn' have helped make Mountainside an outstanding community," said Mayor Frederick Wilhelms Jr. in an address at the annual organizational meeting of the Borough Council Monday night in the Beechwood School.

Borrowing a phrase from the New York Urban Coalition, the mayor said the "people who 'Give a Damn' will assure that Mountainside maintains and improves" its high reputation and position.

"It has been one of the joys of my experience as your mayor to be able to work with capable, creative and talented citizens we are fortunate to have in Mountainside," the mayor said, especially when "many of the ills of municipal government...have been caused by people who didn't care; people who permitted apathy and lack of concern to capture their communities."

The per capita book circulation in Mountainside has increased 50 per cent since the opening of the new library early last year, Mayor Wilhelms also reported at the organizational meeting of the Borough Council.

The mayor said the per capita circulation, even before the new library was built, was "among the highest in New Jersey."

He added that school students have increased their utilization of the library and the meeting room has been well used by community organizations.

Red Cross cites acute blood need

The Westfield-Mountainside Red Cross blood program is scheduled Tuesday from 1 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church, 1 E. Broad st., Westfield.

This is the community blood program usually held in November, a spokesman said. However blood shortages are acute at this time, and it was urged that persons between the ages of 18 and 60 participate by giving the "gift of life," one pint of blood. This blood program covers all residents of Westfield and Mountainside for blood needs in the coming year.

Appointments may be made by calling the American Red Cross at 232-7090. "Your gift of blood will protect you and your family," the statement added.

Modern dance classes sponsored by MMA

Modern dance classes, sponsored by the Mountainside Music Association, will be offered again this year for girls in the first through fifth grades. Classes will be scheduled for 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. on Thursdays at Beechwood School. The instructor is Mrs. Sandy Davis.

The MMA will also sponsor a class for women on Tuesdays from 8 to 9 p.m. at Beechwood School. The first class will be held Jan. 14. Mrs. Mary Lou Lunin will be the instructor.

Registration for all classes will be held tomorrow from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. at Beechwood School. For further information call Mrs. Sandy Davis, 376-7193.

HOME FOR HOLIDAY—Eight-year-old Ramon Murphy had been working on those Christmas presents ever since last February when he entered Children's Specialized Hospital, Mountainside, for extensive rehabilitation from a crippling bone disease. Christmas morning, his sister, Ella, 7, and his parents, Juana and Antonio Murphy, shared his big moment as he handed his gifts around. After an over-night Christmas at his East Orange home, Ramon returned to the hospital and is already at work on next year's gifts.

Local couple 'adopt' girl through Foster Parents

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McAuliffe Jr. of 1650 Nottingham way, Mountainside have financially "adopted" Leonilde Bautista, a 9-year-old Colombian girl, through Foster Parents Plan, Inc., 352 Park ave., South, New York.

The Foster Parents' responsibility if financial, not legal and the child grows up within his own family.

The $16 a month (or $192 a year) contributed by the Foster Parent through PLAN for a minimum of one year, provides a monthly cash grant, supplementary new clothing and household goods carefully selected to meet the needs in each area. In addition PLAN offers medical care when called for, primary school education and in some cases vocational training. The family receives guidance and counseling from the North American Director and a staff of trained local case workers.

PLAN's purpose is to help the child, and family to become self-supporting through improved health, nutrition, and educational opportunities.

Foster Parents Plan stresses help to the entire family as well as to the child. In most countries where PLAN maintains offices there is a Foster Parents medical clinic with doctors, nurses and drugs. The doctors treat the child's immediate family as part of the service. Experience has shown that it is impossible to keep a child healthy in a sick family. In some countries where poor teeth are common among the children, PLAN also provides dental service.

Despite the distance that separates Foster Parents from their children overseas, "adoption" is very personal. Monthly letters between them (original and translation) keep both parties in constant touch, and over the years they often develop fast and loving friendships.

The original case history and photograph of the child sent to the Foster Parent at the time of "adoption" are supplemented by regular reports and photographs to chart the progress of the child.

THE REPORT to the McAuliffe's stated: "Leonilde is a cute brunette, with a round face. She loves dolls, balls and dainty dresses and says that she will be a dressmaker, when she grows up. She started school a bit late, is in 1st grade. A polite, well spoken and amiable girl, she has many friends. After school, she helps at home, is affectionate and obedient with her family."

"Like thousands of others, the parents came to Bogota in search of better jobs. The father is a mason, but cannot earn more than $1 a day. Jobs are scarce here and pay is miserable. Both parents are semi-literate.

"The married daughter, Maria del Carmen, is too poor to help. Aura Cecilia 18, is a factory hand. She helps with $3.50 a month. Pedro Alfonso 17, has stomach ailment and eye troubles. He is still in school. Ana Christina 14 and Jorge Enrique 10 attend school too. Armando is 5, he stays home. The parents try to educate at least some of the children, but cannot even manage.

Board elections a tea party for 2

This year's campaign for election to the Mountainside Board of Education began and ended last Thursday as the deadline passed with only two incumbents filing petitions to seek the two seats on the school board to be filled on Feb. 11. The two incumbents seeking reelection are Grant Lennox, president of the board, and William J. Blunno, vice-president.

The board will hold its annual budget hearing Jan. 21 at 8 p.m. at the Deerfield School. A spokesman commented that no firm agreement had yet been reached with the Mountainside Teachers' Association on faculty salaries for the next school year.

Miss Rehbock first in speech contest at Deerfield School

Anna Rehbock won first prize in the recent 13th annual speech contest at the Deerfield School, Mountainside. All contestants presented Christmas readings, with Patricia Foidy, school librarian, serving as adviser. Miss Rehbock, an eighth grader, won with her rendition of "Santa Claus and the Sales Girl." Deborah Reich, a seventh grader, placed second with "How the Grinch Stole Christmas."

Tied for third were Helen Saloom, a seventh grader, with "Plum Pudding for Christmas," and Randy Holcombe, a sixth grader, with "Unpublished Adventures of Santa Claus."

Other contestants and their topics were: Lydie Oesterle, "Father Christmas;" Nancy Lawrie, "Two Lambs;" William Blunbaum, "A Charlie Brown Christmas;" Colby Johnstone, "A Christmas Carol;" Barbara Middlekauff, "Is There a Santa Claus?;" and Karen Kaplan, "A Charlie Brown Christmas."

Officers installed at church service

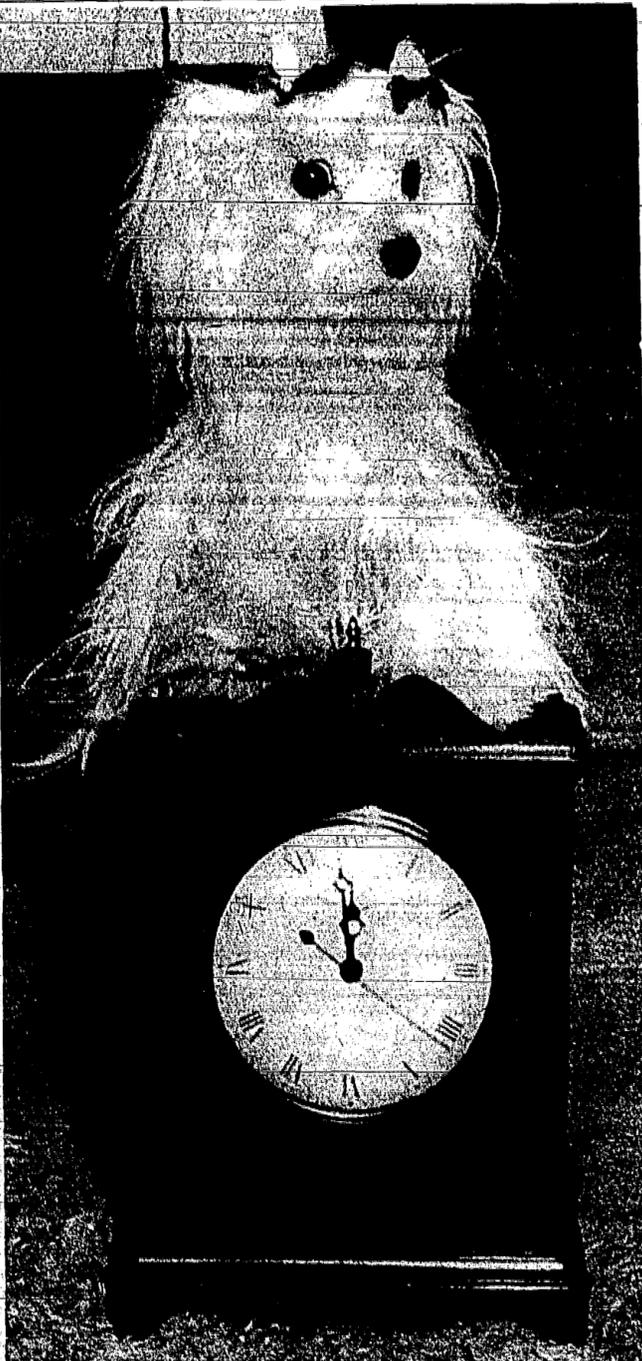

New officers were installed at the Community Presbyterian Church in Mountainside on Sunday at the 11 o'clock service.

The new elders elected for the session were: Henry Bosman, Robert Britton, Edward Harvey and Robert Reel; deacons, Donald Pote, Mrs. Eugene Rodgers and Norman Whiteley; Trustees, Nicholas Bradshaw, John Dyer, David Riker and Mrs. Walter Young. Re-elected were Werner Schmidt, treasurer, and Michael Sgarro and Edward Luckenbach, assistant treasurers.

Local alumna serving on college fund drive

Mrs. John Podmayer of 305 Old Tote rd., Mountainside, is serving as a committee member for the Northeast Coast region of the University of Cincinnati's Sesquicentennial Fund drive.

Mrs. Podmayer is a graduate of Cincinnati's McMicken College of Arts and Sciences.

N.Y. restaurateur dishes out praise after visit by high school choristers

A letter praising the "well-behaved young adults of Gov. Livingston Regional High School" was received recently by Frederick S. Aho, principal. It was written by Stefan Stamper of Henry Stamper's Restaurant in New York, where a group of students dined earlier this month.

The letter stated:

"We just had one of those experiences that makes one proud to know that the American youngster is not all long-haired, unbehaved and anything but fine.

"We had the pleasure of serving a group of boys and girls from your high school. Their group was a choral club who had performed at the Waldorf-Astoria the same evening (under the capable supervision of Mr. Dorhout).

"These youngsters were the most well-behaved young adults we have ever seen. They are a credit to their parents, their school and, most important, to themselves.

"They were also kind enough to favor us with a few songs, and they sing beautifully.

"You can be sure that we would love to have them dine here again if they should be in New York."

PROFILE--Sgt. Joseph Mazur

When the Borough Council last fall officially created the post of safety officer within the Police Department, the natural choice to fill it was Sgt. Joseph Mazur.

After all, he had been giving safety lectures, showing safety films, making bicycle inspections and patrolling roadways in Mountainside for the last nine of his 10 years on the force. Then as winter winds rose and made their first icy dives down the eastern slopes of the Watchings, concern for the welfare of borough school children again mounted. A council-promoted citizens' safety committee was formed, and Sgt. Mazur was one of the first to be asked to serve.

Sgt. Mazur sees safety as a two-way street. Not only must parents impress upon their children the absolute reality of 3,000 pounds of throbbing steel, but they, themselves, as drivers must be totally aware of their responsibility, too.

"With no sidewalks in Mountainside, the kids are forced to walk in the street," Sgt. Mazur explained as he relaxed in his 175 Sunrise pkwy. home.

"Therefore, not only they, but their parents, who drive, must be safety oriented.

"Our program is a combination of two things," Sgt. Mazur said. "If we can get to parents about their driving and to the kids about their behavior on the roads to and from

Highlanders host Hillside tomorrow after winning three of last four games

By BILL LOVETT
Finally exhibiting the playing ability of which it is capable, the Gov. Livingston Regional High School basketball team raised its record to 3-4 by posting victories in three of its last four games. The Highlanders have three games in the coming week. They host Hillside tomorrow, traveling to Rahway on Tuesday and to Clark Jan. 17.

The Highlander quintet has so far won the games it was supposed to win and lost the games it was supposed to lose. Coach John Kyreakakis' team had a slow start this season, (they lost their first three games) mainly because the Highlanders opened against Westfield, Scotch Plains and Hillside, three of the top teams in the Watchung Conference. Improvement in the team showed as no team ever completely dominated Regional. Westfield downed the Highlanders, 64-52, while Scotch Plains and Hillside won, 75-54, and, 47-39, respectively.

In their fourth game of the season, with Watchung Hills, the Highlanders finally hit their stride. With four players in double figures, Regional mopped up Watchung Hills, 81-43.

The game was suddenly halted with 4:54 remaining when Northrup of Watchung Hills fell and sustained a serious hip injury. Because of the extent of the boy's injury and the lopsided score, both coaches agreed it was useless to try to continue the game.

JEFF BURDETTE led the high-powered Regional scoring attack with 25 points. Other top Livingston scorers included Eric Wichelhaus with 18 points, Mike Rugen with 13 and Rich Weiss with 12.

Burdette played one of his greatest games as he dazzled Watchung defenders with behind-the-back passes, between-the-legs dribbling and accurate outside shooting.

Regional lost its next contest to a good Summit team, 63-44, but came back to defeat Clark, 62-55, and North Plainfield, 78-62.

The Clark contest was a close one and was won by clutch shooting. Even though Regional led from the first quarter on, Clark was always within striking distance and several times climbed within a single basket. But clutch shooting by John Adriance, Weiss and Burdette, (they scored Regional's last 19 points) preserved the margin of victory.

Burdette paced the Highlanders with 18 points, with the other Regional scoring coming from John McElgunn, 15; Wayne Helber, 11; Adriance, 9; Weiss, 4; Doug Rau, 3; and Mike Rugen, 2. Dunn of Clark led all scorers with 20 points.

North Plainfield fell to the Highlander quintet, 78-62, as all five Regional starters hit double figures. Burdette again led the team, but this time concentrated on setting up his teammates for easy baskets.

Rugen led both teams with 20 points, while other Gov. Livingston players scored highly included McElgunn with 18, Wichelhaus with 15, Weiss with 12, and Burdette with 10. These five accounted for 75 of the 78 points. Seventeen points by Moore and 15 by Holland led North Plainfield.

Coming up this week will be three games that promise to be close, hard-fought contests. Against Hillside, Regional will try to avenge its earlier defeat in what was not one of its better games.

Clark will again be close, but like the Rahway contest, Gov. Livingston should triumph. The Highlanders are a vastly improved team over last year, and Regional could surprise a few teams in the next several weeks.

Awards presented to Cubs at annual party of Pack 177

The annual Christmas party of Cub Scout Pack 177 of Mountainside Church was held at the Presbyterian Church recently. The theme was "Winter Wonderland." Mrs. Ruth Goense, den mother of Den 11 and Mrs. Sandy Chapman, den mother of Den 3, were in charge of the program. The Christmas tree was decorated with ornaments, made by the boys at their den meetings; each boy then placed a toy for a needy child under the tree.

Christmas meaning and the explanation of Chanukkah were given. During the singing of Christmas songs, Santa Claus arrived. He presented candy to all the Cub Scouts and the little children present. Santa aided Cubmaster Gordon Batten in giving out the awards to the following boys:

Service stars were awarded to the following den mothers: Peg Cullen, Betty Lou Irwin, Stephanie Szabo, Marjorie Conley and Ruth Goense. Stars were then awarded to the following boys, John Allan, Richard Ayres, David Batten, Mark Borkowski, David Brazier, Perry Carvallis, John Chambers, Michael Bearison, Brian Conley, William Cullen, Henry Daas, Vincent Di Giorgio, Gerard Dilleumuth, Robert Figular, Gordon Greedman, Brandon Gambee, John Gleser, Paul Greenberg, James Hancock, Steven Hechtle, Murray Indick, Harry Irwin, John Irwin, Eric Kempner, Charles Kell, Tom Malzberger, Jonathan Marcus, Scott Masters, Alan Layton, Billy Mucke, Richard Miller, David Minard, Craig Mueller, Bill Neal, Rick Nelson, Matt Olson, Richard Retter, Ted Sels, Barry Steel, Leslie Suckno, Richard Sutton, David Steel, Randy Tausig, Robert Von Buskirk, Brian Wasko, Ralph Weikel, Richard Weinberg.

Cubmaster Batten thanked Mr. and Mrs. John F. McCarthy for their work on the candy sale.

school, we'll continue to have a safe, accident-free community."

Sgt. Mazur said the most critical problem areas now are the streets around Deerfield School, New Providence road and the feeder roads to Beechwood School.

Deerfield, he said, now with its kindergarten to eighth grade set-up, is a hazardous area based on sheer volume of children alone -- once again all walking in the street, except, of course, those bused to school.

"IT'S PARTICULARLY BAD on rainy or snowy days when a lot of children are driven to school by their parents," Sgt. Mazur said. "On those days I would request drivers to be especially careful with their speed, perhaps by leaving for school a little earlier than usual, which would also ease congestion."

Snowy days, especially, give Sgt. Mazur the shivers. "The streets are cleared, naturally," Sgt. Mazur said, "but they are also considerably narrowed. It doesn't leave much room for the jam of cars and kids."

Sgt. Mazur works closely with school officials. "During the last snowfall," Sgt. Mazur explained, "I asked the kids not to bring their bikes to school, not only because of the icy roads they would have to ride on but also because the roads are narrowed by the snow."

room, in a slum. Facilities are primitive and must be shared with others. The dirt, noise and commotion are appalling. Only the wash-inplace has running water. For all the family, they have two beds, a wardrobe, two old trunks which double as chairs, a table and some pots and pans.

"Meat and milk are beyond their means. Meals are based on corn soup, rice, potatoes, macaroni, bread, bananas. All of them are lamentably underfed. The native drink, agua de panela, tends to fatten but lacks nourishment. It is a mixture of water and raw, brown sugar.

"Leonida is indeed a child in dire need of a warmhearted friend, who reaches out, to help. Your kind acceptance of her as a foster child enables her to study. Under the PLAN program a monthly cash grant is given, new clothing, supplies and medical care for the family. Our skilled social workers can guide them. Your goodness is returned in the love of a needy child and deep gratitude of her family."

The Foster Parents Plan program has been working since 1937 and has "graduated" more than 110,000 foster children thanks to more than 600,000 United States and Canadian foster parents, including groups. Some of the "graduates" are professionals, others are industrial or agricultural workers.

Currently Foster Parents Plan is operating in Greece, Hong Kong, Korea, the Philippines, Vietnam, Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador and Peru. A child may be chosen according to country, sex, and age and PLAN will try hard to meet the specifications. Foster Parents Plan is a non-sectarian, non-profit, non-propaganda, independent organization. "Adoptions" and contributions are tax deductible. For information write to Foster Parents Plan, Inc., 352 Park Ave., South, New York, N.Y. 10010.

banks. They cooperated with me beautifully," he said.

Referring to auto traffic once again, Sgt. Mazur said there would be some relief if parents, chauffeur-mothers and businessmen alike, would avoid roads in the Deerfield School area, New Providence road, Meeting House lane and Wood Acres drive, from 8:30 to 9 a.m. and from 3 to 3:30 p.m.

Going on, Sgt. Mazur said that there are enough school guards (six) to handle major crossings. "Crossings are not really the concern," Sgt. Mazur said. "It's still the kids walking in the street."

Warning to his subject, Sgt. Mazur declared, "I know that sidewalks are a touchy subject in town. What with the suburbia-look attitude. But at present, what else could the problem be?"

Sgt. Mazur said that the borough owns 10 feet in from the edge of all roads -- plenty of room for sidewalks.

Sgt. MAZUR and his wife, the former Sophie Zielonka, moved here from Manville in 1954 in order to cut the travelling distance down to and from his job in Newark. At the time, Sgt. Mazur was working with his brother, Matthew, operating an auto service station. In 1959, Sgt. Mazur joined the Police Department.

There are three Mazur children -- all in college. Carol is a junior majoring in elementary education at Newark State College. Regina is a freshman at Rutgers by night and a beautician by day. Joseph is a freshman business major at Bethel College in McKenzie, Tenn.

Sgt. Mazur graduated from Bound Brook High School in 1944 and served with the Marines in the Pacific aboard the USS Boxer during the war.

He recently completed a course in traffic accident investigation given by Northwestern University -- the finer points of which he hopes, with disuse, will become rusty memories.

Lieutenant completes basic engineer course

First Lt. Ewald W. Paul, son of Mrs. Charlotte Paul of 1127 Peachtree lane, Mountainside, has completed the engineer officer basic course at the United States Army Engineer School, Belvoir, Va., and has been assigned to USA Engineer Division, South Pacific, with duty assignment in San Francisco.

Lt. Paul is the husband of Mrs. Barbara G. Paul, formerly of 1219 Rony rd., Union. He was graduated from the University of Delaware and Newark College of Engineering and formerly was vice president of Elco Tool Co., Springfield.

Cost of living relative

Cost-of-living for United Nations officials stationed in various capitals of the world indicate that 16 world capitals including Paris, Djakarta, Bujumbura, but particularly in Africa, have higher cost of living indexes than New York City; among the lowest are London and Montevideo.

FAMILY POT LUCK
BY HELEN HALE

Two medium-sized fresh sweet potatoes will equal about 1-1/4 cups of cooked mashed sweet potatoes.
You can add honey, mustard and a bit of ground ginger to canned baked beans, with exciting results. Or, blend honey with peanut butter to create a fine glaze for a baked ham.
If you make sandwiches nearly every day for school children or a working husband, variety is essential. One tasty spread required 1/3 cup mashed liver sausage, 3 hard-cooked eggs, 1/3 cups chopped ripe olives, 1/4 cup mayonnaise and a dash of Worcestershire sauce. Blend ingredients well, use enough sauce for pleasant flavor.
Sesame seed biscuits are right for a change of pace. Take 2 cans oven-ready biscuits and arrange on baking sheet. Brush each biscuit with butter and sprinkle with 1/4 teaspoon sesame seeds on top. Bake in a pre-heated 450 degree F. oven for 8 to 10 minutes.

Defense of Israel will be discussed by Colonel Shany

Lt. Col. Ben-Zion Shany, Jewish National Fund emissary from Israel, will be the guest speaker tomorrow evening at 8:30 at Temple Sharey Shalom, Springfield. His topic will be "Present Defense and Security Posture of Israel."

Col. Shany was educated in Israel and at the age of 21 joined the Jewish Settlement Police in the District of Jerusalem in 1946, and also matriculated at the Hebrew University. While in the Jewish Settlement Police, Col. Shany attended and completed a course for senior non-commissioned officers under the British Mandate while at the same time he was appointed a corporal in the Hagannah.

During the war of independence, the Jewish Settlement Police were inducted into the Hagannah Zehal (Israel Defense Forces), and Col. Shany served in the Sixth Brigade under Commander Moshe Dayan. He commanded squad convoys bringing food, water and ammunition to besieged Jerusalem.

After the war, he stayed on in the army, attending staff college and attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel. Col. Shany served in the Sinai Peninsula during the war of 1956, and in 1967 served in the Golan Heights area, during the Six Day War.

In June of 1968, he was released from the Army for a special mission to the United States on behalf of the Jewish National Fund.

Rabbi Israel S. Dresner, religious leader of Temple Sharey Shalom announced that Col. Shany's talk will replace the fourth of a lecture-sermon series the rabbi has been delivering on the state of Israel, entitled "Israel: A Foreign Policy and Security Critique."

LWV anniversary to be discussed at luncheon Tuesday

A luncheon will be held next Tuesday at 12:45 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, 170 Elm st., for members of the board of directors of the Westfield League of Women Voters. Workers on the Westfield committee for the 50th anniversary celebration of the League of Women Voters have also been invited. The purpose of the luncheon-meeting, according to Mrs. John Thatcher, president of the Westfield League, is to give board members and committee workers an opportunity to hear an evaluation of the reasons for the 50th anniversary celebration and what it means for the League. Mrs. Roma A. Betts of Summit will speak on "The Possibilities for Development and Expansion of League Work." Mrs. Betts, a charter member and past president of the Summit League, has also served as first vice-president of the state league. She is currently a member of the 50th anniversary celebration committee on a state level. Mrs. Wilbert Allen is chairman of the Westfield committee for the 50th anniversary celebration of the League.

BOB TANSEY
YOUR Independent AGENT
"It seems that crime is becoming a more serious problem every day," a reader notes. "If this is so, how can I make certain my home and possessions are fully protected by insurance?"
Crime is showing a distressing rise in every section of the country. The Federal Bureau of Investigation says that a burglar breaks into a building somewhere in the United States about three times a minute.
The F.B.I. further reports that 42 per cent more homes were robbed last year than in 1960. Burglaries rose during this period by 55 per cent.
The total loss that year due to robbery, burglary, larceny and auto theft has been set at $4.2 billion.
The well-known homeowners insurance policy provides the family with generous financial protection against the acts of a criminal. Under this policy, you are covered against many perils, including theft, vandalism and fire. The house itself is protected, as are household contents and personal belongings.
If you live in a rented apartment, you can buy a tenant's package policy. This is similar to the protection afforded by the homeowners policy, except that coverage of the apartment building itself is usually purchased by the landlord.
Under the homeowners policy, valuables of considerable worth -- such as jewelry, paintings, furs and antiques -- are generally covered up to 40 per cent of the face value of the policy. We can tell you if any of these more expensive items should be insured under a separate policy so as to be fully covered in case of burglary or theft.
Now is the time for a thorough review of your property and liability protection.

programs for handicapped children. Support is available through a grant to the State by the U.S. Office of Education.

Deadline for application for a summer traineeship is Feb. 1. The cut-off date for the fellowship program is April 30.

Fellowships are for full-time study for a doctorate and are only for study in the area of administration of special education programs. Awarded for an academic year, they carry full tuition and fees plus a stipend of $3,200 for a fellow in his third or fourth year of graduate study. A $600 allowance is also made for each dependent.

Fellowship recipients will be selected primarily on the basis of leadership potential in special education in New Jersey.

Summer traineeships are in the fields of teaching mentally retarded, speech and hearing handicapped, emotionally disturbed, visually handicapped, and crippled or other health impaired children.

Further information and application material may be obtained from Arthur Shapiro, Office of Special Education Services, New Jersey State Department of Education, 225 West State Street, Trenton. Applications should be directed to the Commissioner of Education at the same address.

Summer job guides for collegians

Students looking for summer jobs can now get help from the American Association of College Students.

In response to requests from college students throughout the country, the association has prepared three booklets listing organizations interested in hiring college students for summer employment.

One booklet lists jobs available in recreation and resort areas. More than 450 dude ranches, restaurants, hotels, and camps are included in the catalog. It also discusses ways to get jobs in national parks.

The second booklet deals with jobs in business and industry. More than 60 companies are listed with information on what the company does, what type of background is required for summer employees, and how many students the company plans to hire.

Information on more than 25,000 jobs with the federal government is included in the third booklet. Each department agency of the federal government which hires students in the summer is listed along with the academic majors students should have to apply to that agency.

"These booklets should be a tremendous help to students looking for jobs outside their home towns," according to Alan Jenkins, executive secretary of the AACCS. "Together they represent more than 50,000 jobs. There should be something there for students with any type of background or interest."

The booklets may be obtained by writing: Summer Jobs, American Association of College Students, 30 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60602.

There is a $2 service charge to cover the cost of printing and handling for each booklet. Requests should specify which catalog is desired: recreation, business or government.

Second annual book exhibition

More than 3,000 books from 70 publishers will be on display in a combined book exhibit at the Newark Public Library from Jan. 20 to 25. This is the second annual such exhibit for teachers and librarians jointly sponsored by the Newark Public Library and the Department of Libraries and Audiovisual Education of the Newark Board of Education.

The exhibit will be held in the fourth floor auditorium of the Main Library at 5 Washington St. and will be open during the library's regular hours, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

FRIDAY DEADLINE

All items other than spot news should be in our office by noon on Friday.

NSC to be site of finals of Junior Miss Pageant

Finals for New Jersey's Junior Miss Pageant, sponsored by the Greater Elizabeth Jaycees, will be held on the campus of Newark State College, according to an announcement by Sheldon Nagrod, president of the pageant committee.

Pageant week starts Monday and continues through two nights of final competition, culminating Sat., Jan. 18.

The contest is held at the college because the contest has grown to such an extent that additional parking facilities and auditorium capacity were needed, a spokesman said.

Some of their activities include luncheons at the General Motors plant in Linden.

Scherling Corporation in Union, Eastern Union County Chamber of Commerce and a tour of one of the hospitals in the city.

The five top winners in the State Pageant will split almost $3,000 in prize and scholarship money in addition to numerous other prizes and awards. The contestants will all compete for special awards from the John Brock Co. and Scott Paper Co.

'Lion in Winter' held in Millburn

In filming "The Lion in Winter," Joseph E. Levine's production, which begins a third week at the Millburn Cinema in Millburn, director Anthony Harvey saw that care was given to historical accuracy to recreate the true primitiveness and unadorned crudeness of castle life in the 12th century.

Chinon Castle, where most of the action takes place, was recreated by art director Peter Murton on three acres of land in Bray, Ireland. For exterior filming, Murton used the actual battlements, ramparts, abbeys and great halls of the virtually intact 12th century Norman castles at Tarascon, Montmajour and Carcassonne in Southern France.

Scenes of Queen Eleanor's (Katharine Hepburn) arrival at Chinon were filmed on the Rhone river aboard a specially built royal barge transported to France from the docks at Southampton.

Peter O'Toole portrays King Henry II of England.

the flu," the remaining performers brought the house down with their antics in the traditional "Show Must Go On" manner.

Comedian Rummy Bishop (who had teamed with Joey Bishop for many years) has an absolutely marvelous face for comedy and is one of the funniest people this reviewer has ever seen on the stage.

EQUAL TIME AND credit must be given to Billy Lee, a veteran tap dancer who toured with Mary Martin in "Hello Dolly" and repeated his performance recently in Vietnam with Martha Raye.

And last, but not least, one of the waitresses was enlisted to aid the comedy routines and to fill out the show by singing in a good, deep throaty voice, "It Had to Be You".

The Theatre Seen

By ROBERT LYONS Majestic Theatre, West 44th St., New York--"Fiddler on the Roof" should now be called Anatevka, the peasant Russian village that seems to permanently reside in Manhattan.

For Anatevka is where its inhabitants are born, grow, squabble, marry, move away, dream, know joy and sadness, and most of all, sing and dance. It is a tale of changes over which there is little control and the graceful endurance of the people who face them.

The principal story is of Teyve, a milkman, who with wistfulness, then sadness, and finally quiet rage, watches his three eldest daughters marry a poor tailor, a revolutionary and a gentile.

The musical ends as the village scatters, oppressed, to the four corners, with, for some, the promise of America.

Among the rich score by Sheldon Harnick and Jerry Bock I liked "Tradition," an explanation of how the village keeps its balance. Also "Sunrise, Sunset," which sounded as though it combined a wedding march and a spiritual. There is a marvelous dance in which the men perform with tall wine bottles balanced precariously on their hats.

Director Jerome Robbins charges the production with an energy that never seems busting or desperate, Harry Goff is the fourth actor to play Teyve and he is like the title one of the songs, a "Miracle of Miracles." You will take leave of the villagers of Anatevka the same as they take leave of you--undefeatable.

Versatile 'Star' in Bellevue film

For her role as Gertrude Lawrence in the Robert Wise roadshow musical, "Stari", now in its third week at the Bellevue Theater, Upper Montclair, Julie Andrews had to rehearse, pre-record some of her 15 musical numbers and be fitted for the first of the 96 gowns she wears, two months before filming actually began.

Upon the start of filming, Miss Andrews had to work a 13-hour day, every day except weekends, for 32 weeks.

Hair stylist Lorraine Roberson used 12 wigs as bases for 28 different hair styles spanning 1917 to 1940. There were four major changes in color and hair lengths.

Willard Buell, the star's make-up man, had to cope with about 35 different make-up styles, each matching a year or stage production in Gertrude Lawrence's career.

"Stari," which is a 20th Century-Fox release, was directed by Robert Wise and produced by Saul Chaplin from an original screenplay by William Fairchild.

Roselle educators will head college opportunity program

The appointments of Henry T. Pryor of Cranford as part time director and Esau Brockington of East Orange as part-time assistant director of Union College's new Evening Session Educational Opportunity Fund Project were announced this week by Prof. Elmer Wolf, acting dean.

Union College has been awarded a grant of $5,000 by the board of directors of the New Jersey Educational Fund to establish the Evening Session program for economically and educationally disadvantaged students for the coming spring semester. The part time evening program will serve between 20 and 25 students.

Pryor and Brockington will each teach one course.

Pryor, who is dean of students at Abraham Clark High School, Roselle, taught history at Thomas Jefferson High School, Elizabeth, and Abraham Clark High School for two years each and taught civil affairs in the U.S. Army for 12 years. Brockington, who teaches English at Abraham Clark High School, worked

New Dem group will meet Monday at 'Y' in Westfield

The newly-formed New Democratic Coalition of Union County will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in Westfield at the YMCA on Clark street. Dr. David McGuire of Union, chairman of the group, announced that all persons assigned with organizing responsibilities in the individual towns are expected to attend.

"The organization is not a third party movement," the chairman emphasized, "but part of a national reform movement interested in affecting policy and the selection of candidates within the Democratic Party. The Union County committee wishes to bring together both individuals and groups who feel they are not represented by either major party."

The county coalition will eventually comprise the state coalition. Union County will be entitled to send 50 delegates to a state convention March 8, Saturday, Jan. 18, there will be a statewide conference at Rutgers which will be open to all interested persons. Speakers and workshops will focus on explaining more fully how meaningful participation at all levels of government can be accomplished. Such nationally prominent figures as Julian Bond and Allard Lowenstein are expected to attend.

Organizing responsibilities have been assigned in Roselle to George Hulse, John Worthington and Father Elmer Sullivan; in Elizabeth and Linden to Richard Samuel, Rev. Joseph Garlick, John Harvard and Richard Avanti; in Scotch Plains to Richard Samuel and George Hulse; in Plainfield to John West, Paul X. Riccobono, and Mrs. Nancy D'Amato.

Anyone interested in joining may call one of the people named above, Dr. McGuire in Union, Larry Lerner in Springfield, Jon Plaut in Summit, Mel Cohen in Berkeley Heights, or Mrs. Saul Harrison in Westfield.

NSC will repeat graduate course in Negro history

The Negro in American History, one of 91 graduate courses that will be offered to evening and part-time students at Newark State College, Union, this spring, is being repeated by popular demand, according to Charles J. Longacre Jr., director of the Division of Field Services. One hundred and fourteen undergraduate courses will also be offered.

The 'Negro history' course will be taught by Dr. Arnold Rice, a member of the social science faculty at the college, who initiated it last fall and conducts teacher workshops on the subject in high schools throughout the state.

The Division of Field Services offers evening degree programs for undergraduate students in liberal arts, fine arts, industrial education, early childhood education and general elementary education. Master's degree programs are offered in the following areas: elementary education, general education, reading specialization, supervision and administration, teaching the handicapped, speech correction and teaching the emotionally disturbed and socially maladjusted.

Extension classes will begin Monday, Feb. 3. Registration will be from 1 to 5:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 27, and Tuesday, Jan. 28. Undergraduate students who are not enrolled in a degree program can register from 1 to 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, by presenting evidence of a high school degree or other college work.

Slide competition at Trailside nears deadline for entries

Those interested in participating in the "Salon of Nature Slides" planned to be presented at the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation, on Sunday, Feb. 23, beginning at 2 p.m., were requested this week to submit slides now.

The public, young and old, may submit favorite slides concerning nature — birds, animals, plants, minerals, as well as general scenic vistas — to Donald W. Mayer, director of Trailside, before Sunday, Feb. 23.

Three areas will be included in the Salon: the Watchung Reservation including the Trailside area; any park in the County Park System, and general nature photographs from anywhere in the world. Only amateur photographers will be permitted to submit slides for showing.

Mayer stated that he is anxious to promote nature photography in the area and would encourage everyone, young and old, to submit their favorite nature scene to be on display at the Salon. The slides may be submitted in person or by mail. It would be appreciated if those who are submitting slides would enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for the return of the slides.

Certificates of Merit will be awarded to first, second and third place in each category.

For further information contact Mayer at the Trailside Nature and Science Center, Coles Avenue and New Providence rd., Mountainside.

New chemistry lab to be opened at UC

A second chemistry laboratory will be opened by Union College, Cranford, with the start of the second semester, it was reported this week by Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen, acting president.

The new chemistry lab was developed in the former engineering graphics laboratory in the Nomahegan Building. The engineering graphics laboratory is now located in the new Science Building.

The remodeling and renovation of the chemistry laboratory completes the Science Building project, Dr. Iversen said.

With the opening of the Science Building in 1967, a biology laboratory and the engineering graphics laboratory in the Nomahegan Building were moved into the new Science Building. The biology laboratory was converted into a physics laboratory, and the engineering graphics laboratory has been converted into a chemistry laboratory.

Substitute clerk-carrier exams listed by P.O.

Civil Service examination for substitute post office clerk-carrier is open for applications. The minimum age is 18. There is no maximum age limit.

"In all of the Union County post offices, there are favorable prospects for early appointment for those who qualify on these examinations. Applicants will be considered for employment according to the rating attained in the examinations. There is an urgent need for those who are interested in full-time employment, a spokesman said.

The next series of examinations will be given during January and February. The starting hourly pay rate is $2.95 per hour for clerk and carrier positions. In addition, the federal government offers job security, eight paid holidays for regular employees, life insurance, hospitalization, periodic pay increases, and uniform allowance for carriers and window clerks.

Federal legislation insures that all qualified applicants will be considered for employment without regard to factors of race, religion, color, sex, national origin, politics, or any other non-merit factor.

Applications may be secured at any post office in Union County, or by contacting Michael Steffan, examiner-in-charge, Board of Civil Service Examiners, Room 18, (Second floor), Elizabeth Post Office or by telephone, (352-8400).

New Jerseyans are a talkative lot

Rank near top in telephone calls per person

New Jerseyans are among the world's leading phone conversationalists, averaging 858 calls annually per person during 1967. This is an increase of 52 calls annually per person over the previous year.

In the United States, the average number of calls per person for 1967 was 667.0 -- up 19 from the previous year. Among nations, Canada ranked first in talkativeness, with an average of 667.7 calls per person.

Phone customers in Iceland did their share of talking, too: 606 calls per person, just slightly more than the Swedes, who put through 599 calls annually.

People in Burma, however, won the close-mouthed award. In Burma, the average number of calls per person for the year was 0.7. The Republic of Burma is in south-east Asia.

World-wide telephone statistics appear in "The World's Telephones-1968" compiled annually by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, parent company of New Jersey Bell. Since it takes a year to gather the telephone data from all sections of the world, most of the statistics are as of Jan. 1, 1968.

Today, telephone customers in New Jersey can reach more than 96 percent of the world's 222 million telephones, 14 million phones more than last year. Connections of five new points were established during 1968 -- Christmas Island, Equatorial Guinea, the Falkland Islands, Laos and the Seychelles.

By the end of 1968, New Jersey Bell had 4,254,000 phones in service, an increase of 196,000 telephones over last year. In 1967, 92.3 percent of the households in New Jersey Bell territory had telephone service. During 1968, this increased to 92.8 percent.

The United States continued to top the list in terms of relative telephone development, with almost 52 telephones for every 100 persons. Sweden trailed closely behind, with 50 phones for every 100 persons, followed by Switzerland, 42; Canada, 40.7; and New Zealand, 40.6.

Atlantic City held sixth place among United States cities in the ratio of telephones to people, with 78 phones per 100 people. Washington, D.C., continued in first place with 97; Skokie, Ill., with 86; second; followed by White Plains, N.Y., 85; San Francisco, Cal., 83; and Southfield, Mich., 82.

Among the New Jersey cities that topped the national average of 52 telephones for every 100 persons were Bloomfield, with 68.8 phones per 100 residents; East Orange, 66.8; Newark, 60.4; Trenton, 58.5; Elizabeth, 57.6; Camden, 55.0; Passaic, 54.4; and Union City, 53.4.

Japan continued to rank second to the United States in the number of telephones, with 18 million phones, followed by the United Kingdom (12 million), West Germany (10.3 million), the U.S.S.R. (9.1 million), Canada (8.4 million), Italy (7.1 million) and France (7 million).

During 1967, growth in international calling resulted in 12.3 million calls between the United States mainland and points overseas,

Education center planned by group

The Ethical Culture Society of Maplewood will open an educational center with humanistic studies, it was announced by Mrs. Betty Levin of Short Hills, formerly of Troy drive, Springfield.

Mrs. White, who will be director of the center, said that courses are planned in the fields of anthropology, sensitivity training, religion, and psychology. The sensitivity course will get under way Feb. 7.

Further information about the new center, including a catalog describing the courses, may be obtained by calling the Ethical Culture Society at 763-1905.

Sisterhood is host to area meeting

The Sisterhood of Temple Shomrei Torah in Hillside is hosting a meeting of the Northern New Jersey Branch of National Women's League of the United Synagogue of America today. Mrs. Martin Berger of Millburn, president of the branch, will call the meeting to order at 10:30 a.m. Reports will be given by Mrs. Herman Ulaner, conference chairman; Mrs. Rubin Auerbach, Torah Fund chairman, and Mrs. Hyman Schwartz, United Nations chairman, during the plenary session.

Adult education will be highlighted at the meeting. Mrs. Herbert Breskey, branch adult education chairman will be chairman of the day and Mrs. Emanuel Mohl, vice-president will serve as meeting coordinator. The program will feature 20 questions in a Judaism quiz.

Up 2.3 million -- or about 23 percent -- from the previous year. There were five times as many overseas calls from the United States in 1967 as there were just ten years ago.

So. Orange Orchestra in concert Saturday

The South Orange Community Orchestra will hold its winter concert on Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at the South Orange Junior High School auditorium, 70 N. Ridgewood rd. Rita Shiman will be flute soloist.

The concert is the first of two major events

- Thursday, January 9, 1969 scheduled for the orchestra's 20th anniversary year. Admission is free. Stephen Shiman is conductor and Marjorie Bram, music director.

STOCK EXCHANGE

The beginning of the New York Stock Exchange was in May, 1792, when 24 New York brokers met under a buttonwood tree on the present site of 68 Wall Street and signed an agreement to fix uniform rates of commission in the sale of stocks and bonds.

Lectures on humanities for elementary school

Mrs. Annette Shapiro, a consultant in social studies and language arts at the Bank Street College of Education in New York, will lecture on humanities in the elementary school tomorrow afternoon as part of the Arts-Humanities Leadership Institute at Newark State College.

The program is sponsored by Classroom Renaissance, a statewide project in the arts sponsored by the New Jersey Department of Education and the New Jersey Art Education Association. It is funded under Title III through the Dover Board of Education, headquartered in Union, it is headed by Dr. Thelma Newman.

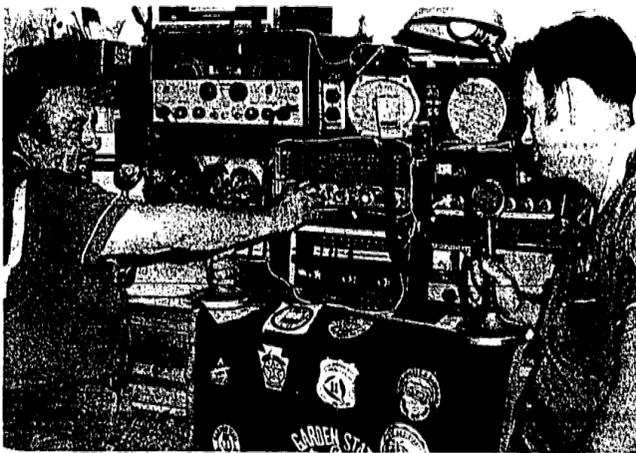

Tomorrow's session at Newark State College is the 11th of 15 day-long programs for 45 New Jersey educators. The Arts-Humanities Leadership Institute has been established by Classroom Renaissance to keep New Jersey educators abreast of the latest developments and teaching techniques.

Mrs. Shapiro, who has given workshops and prepared written materials for teachers, is co-author of "Creative Activities for Gifted Children," a soon-to-be-published book. She serves as a consultant to the New York City Board of Education, in which capacity she conducts a humanities program two days a week in the public schools.

The morning session in the program will be led by Dr. Elaine Block, professor at Hunter College in New York, who will discuss art and music in the teaching of language arts.

Scouts will tackle 14th Klondike derby

The 14th annual Klondike Derby for Boy Scouts of the Colonial District will be held Jan. 18 at Watchung Reservation, according to George Johnson of Scotch Plains, derby governor. Johnson of Troop 172, Westfield, said the rain date would be Feb. 1. The Colonial District, a section of the Watchung Area Council, consists of scouting units in Scotch Plains, Fanwood, Westfield, Garwood, and Mountainide. A traditional winter event, the Klondike Derby features patrol competition in selected scouting skills. The patrols will haul a sledge which they have constructed and loaded in accordance with precise specifications over a prescribed route in the Surprise Lake area of the reservation. Along the trail each team will find six "Alaskan towns" presided over by a "scout leader" ("mayor") who will direct the patrol to solve a problem in scouting and will award the sled "nuggets" depending on the proficiency of the group's performance. The unit completing the course and the six problems in the fastest time with the most nuggets will be the winner of the derby.

Nathaniel Cohen; long civic leader

Funeral services for Nathaniel Cohen, 66, of 1478 Woodacre dr., Mountainide, were held last Thursday. Mr. Cohen, long active in civic and charitable organizations, died the previous Monday in Overlook Hospital, Summit. He was the husband of Mrs. Beatrice Cohen. Mr. Cohen, who operated the Made in America store at 128 Elm st., Westfield, for many years, was managing and purchasing director of the Children's Specialized Hospital, Mountainide. Mr. Cohen was a director of the Westfield Federal Savings & Loan Association and a former president of Temple Emanu-El, Westfield. He also was a founder of the former Westfield-Mountainide Ambulatory Book Bank; president of the TSB Realty Co., Westfield, and a former president of the Housewares Club of New Jersey. Born in Newark, he lived in Westfield prior to coming here in 1963. He also lectured on retailing at Rutgers and Princeton universities for many years and had served on the boards of the United Fund and Red Cross. A life member of the Masons, he also was a member of the Rotary Club of Westfield. Surviving also are a daughter, Mrs. Lois Silverlight of Scotch Plains; two brothers, Irving of Denver and Dore of Pittsburgh and three grandchildren.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

WHAT WE NEED What the country needs now is a revival of the great American spirit. We're talking about the spirit that sent the pioneers westward to face hardships and countless dangers to turn wilderness areas into towns and cities. We're talking about the determination to succeed and the subsequent contributions to progress that came to this country in the hearts and minds and duffbags of immigrants from many, many lands. America became great because men were given the opportunity to use their minds and energies and talents to earn for themselves a place in the business and social communities. The United States is still the greatest of all the lands of opportunity. Rewards await the proper application of individual effort and toll. Our country will remain great only so long as she is blessed with citizens who believe that the only way to succeed is to try.

Choosing new mattress has more aspects now

By CAROLYN F. YUKNUS, Senior County Home Economist

The need to purchase a new mattress often leaves a potential consumer wondering what to look for in making the purchase. Since mattresses are not frequently bought items, it is quite possible that the last time you shopped for a mattress was ten to 15 years ago.

The construction and materials used in mattresses today have changed. A consumer now is confronted with selections from three major types of construction. There is still the familiar coil type that has been improved. But there is also latex and urethane foam being used extensively in mattress construction.

Most good coil constructed mattresses have 220 to 300 coils for a double bed size. Check for pocket coil construction which allows each coil to act independently of each other. Higher count of coils for a double bed size may present a crowded condition and result in a squeaky bed.

Latex foam is molded into the mattress form and has excellent compression resistance. Urethane foam is cut into slabs to fit the specified size. Urethane foam is less expensive than latex foam and is also lighter in weight. The lightness of this material makes it easy to move, but it also may present a problem in keeping the bed covers in place. Both latex and urethane foam are allergy free and neither one collects dust or has an odor.

Consider only those mattresses made by a reputable company and sold by a reliable dealer. This combination makes a real effort to help you, the consumer, know what a mattress is made of and how long it will last.

The cover on a mattress will often help to indicate the quality underneath. A firmly woven ticking is a better indicator than a sleazy printed cover. Designs that are woven into the cover will fade less than those that are printed.

The best final test for a mattress is to actually lie down on it. Although you may feel a little obvious doing this in a store, how else are you going to know how a certain model of mattress feels and is best suited for you?

FAMILY POT LUCK

BY HELEN MALE

Two medium-sized fresh sweet potatoes will equal about 1 1/4 cups of cooked mashed sweet potatoes.

You can add honey, mustard and a bit of ground ginger to canned baked beans, with exciting results. Or, blend honey with peanut butter to create a fine glaze for a baked ham.

If you make sandwiches nearly every day for school children or a working husband, variety is essential. One tasty spread required 1/3 cup mashed liver sausage, 3 hard-cooked eggs, 1/3 cups chopped ripe olives, 1/4 cup mayonnaise and a dash of Worcestershire sauce. Blend ingredients well, use enough sauce for pleasant flavor. Refrigerate between using.

Sesame seed biscuits are right for a change of pace. Take 2 cans oven-ready bis-cuts and arrange on baking sheet. Brush each biscuit with butter and sprinkle with 1/4 teaspoon sesame seeds on top. Bake in a pre-heated 450 degree F. oven for 8 to 10 minutes.

Nut Chewies (Makes 3 dozen)
1 cup light brown sugar

1 egg
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon almond extract
1 cup coarsely cut nuts
Sift together flour, salt and soda. Mix sugar, egg and almond extract. Beat well. Stir all together and add nuts. Pour into a greased 8-inch square pan. Bake 20 minutes in a moderate (350 degree F.) oven. Cut in squares when cool.

Easy tricks for bound buttonholes

By CAROLYN F. YUKNUS, Senior County Home Economist

Bound buttonholes have long been a custom detail on dressier, more expensive garments. The latest trend has been to feature bound buttonholes on costumes by either making them much larger than the button, working them in a triangular style or making them on the slant.

With a revived importance of bound buttonholes, home sewers can apply this detail to their spring outfits if they perfect their method of making bound buttonholes now.

Of all the directions available for making bound buttonholes, most home sewers have success with one pet method.

Regardless of the method of making bound buttonholes, the criterion for a professional work remains the same. Bound buttonholes should be all the same length, have narrow even welts, and the welts should meet at the ends and lay flat.

The success of whichever method you use for bound buttonholes depends on your accuracy and judgment in handling the fabric.

Certain tricks can help you do a better job of bound buttonholes. It can be helpful to make a practice buttonhole first to determine what technique you will need to use to make a good looking buttonhole.

For any method, it is necessary to hand baste the center front marking through the interfacing or underlining of the section on which you are working. Measure from this line to get the width of the buttonholes and baste this line. Then baste the horizontal markings for each buttonhole.

If the fabric frays, you may find that by using small strips of thin "press on" interfacing on the wrong side of the fabric, it will be easier to cut through the fabric neatly. This same type of interfacing can be used to advantage on the strips that make the welt for the buttonhole, also on the facing section which will be the back side of the buttonhole and must be cut through and finished by hand.

By using only small strips of this type of interfacing just the length and width of the buttonhole, the outline of the "press on" interfacing will not show on the right side.

Installation for COPO Wednesday

The Catholic One Parent Organization (COPO) will install its 1969 officers at the first meeting of the new year, Wednesday at the Westwood Lounge, 438 North ave., Garwood. The Rev. Joseph M. Doyle, moderator, will install the new officers.

Joe O'Neill, the group's new president, has requested that only those who are widows or widowers attend the functions of the group, which is an affiliate of the Family Life Apostolate of Newark. The exception to this rule would be former members of COPO who have married.

Larry Heister of Union will be installed as treasurer; Mrs. Fay Confalone, secretary; John Paulik of Union and Mrs. Ruth Mangano of Roselle, first and second vice-presidents, respectively.

Following a brief installation ceremony, music will be furnished by the Music Man for an evening of dancing and refreshments.

Dues for the group is $5 per year, payable this month. A Saturday social is planned for Jan. 25 at the Cranford Elks Club, 951 Lincoln ave. East, Cranford.

Rutgers prof built career with bricks

Journeyman mason now on grad school faculty

Bricks and books have played almost equal roles in the life and career of a Rutgers University associate professor of education.

Gordon F. Law of New Brunswick, recently appointed to the faculty of the vocational-technical departments of the Rutgers Graduate School of Education, holds a doctor's degree in education and the credentials of a journeyman mason.

It was, in fact, as a bricklayer that he earned his way through the bachelor's and master's degree programs.

Dr. Law, like many others at the time, found a college education a financially impossible dream in the mid-1930s, when he left high school in Cornwall, N.Y.

After beginning his career as a journeyman brick mason, he became an instructor in masonry construction at the two-year technical institute at Delhi, N.Y. Then he worked for several years in the construction business before entering military service in World War II.

Following the war, Law enrolled in Rutgers University and earned a bachelor's degree in education while working with a construction firm in Princeton. Following his graduation he returned to Delhi as an instructor for several years.

Returning to New Brunswick, Dr. Law enrolled in the Rutgers School of Education, and while studying for a master's in educational administration, he again worked as a mason and as a teacher in the Middlesex County Vocational Schools.

After receiving his master's degree, the educator returned to New York State and became active in the initial planning of the Lewis A. Wilson Technological Center in Suffolk County, which he served as first director from 1961 to 1966.

He also served as administrator of vocational education in Huntington, I.L., and was a member of the faculty and director of research at the State University College, Oswego. During this period he earned a doctor's degree in vocational education administration from New York University.

His most recent position before coming to Rutgers was as research director for the American Vocational Association in Washington, D.C., and editor of the Research Visibility section of the Association's monthly journal.

As an associate professor at Rutgers, Dr. Law's duties include helping vocational teachers at high schools and two-year colleges, and teaching curriculum and research courses.

Having given up bricks several years ago, Dr. Law now is totally involved in the world of books. He is writing one about cooperative education, a program in which schools and industry cooperate in providing study and work experience as part of the curriculum.

Special classes set at 3 synagogues

The spring term of the "Torah Workshop For Special Education," sponsored for children with learning disabilities by the Jewish Education Association of Essex County, will begin Saturday morning, Feb. 1, for the class meeting at Temple Emanuel in Livingston, and on Sunday morning, Feb. 2, for the classes held at Congregation Beth Torah in Orange, and at Congregation Beth Shalom in Union. All pupils who attended during the fall term are expected to be present with their parents at the opening of the new semester, and new pupils together with their parents are also invited to join the group on that occasion, the statement added.

Children with any kind of mental or emotional limitation, or who are attending a special education class or group in any public or private school in the area are eligible. They may visit the Torah Workshop for one session or a few sessions without charge on a trial basis.

When a child is once in attendance regularly, he will be assigned to the class found to fit his specific needs, including the preparation for a limited form of Bar and Bar Mitzvah.

For further information regarding the Torah Workshop, readers may call the Jewish Education Association at 120 Halsted St., East Orange. Sylvan H. Kohn is director of the Torah Workshop.

Gropper art at Montclair
A major retrospective exhibition of the work of the noted American artist William Gropper will open at the Montclair Art Museum Sunday and continue through Feb. 9. Some 90 works are on view, filling all the museum galleries.
The exhibition spans a 44 period dating from 1922, when Gropper worked as an illustra-tor and cartoonist for such periodicals as the New York Tribune, New York Post, Bookman, New Yorker and Vanity Fair, to the present.
The wide range of Gropper's subject matter is well represented with cartoons of political and business figures; several studies of the Senate, including the most famous one from the collection of the Mu-seum of Modern art.

Ask Amy
By AMY ADAMS
Dear Amy:
Recently my husband and I had dinner with new acquaint-ances. Before dinner, drinks were served. Nothing but an alcoholic beverage was of-fered to us. When we did not drink, we were given funny looks. It was quite embar-rassing.
When are people going to realize that not everyone likes alcohol. After all, a person might be allergic to alcohol or have a condition which war-rants not drinking it (i.e. an ex-ecutive).

A Non drinker
I think people who entertain must be educated to the fact that soft drinks should always be included for those who do not indulge. If you find your-self in a similar position in the future, don't hesitate to ask for "one soft drink, please!"

Dear Amy:
I am a 16 year old girl, a junior in high school and I am going out with a terrific guy the same age. We have been going out with each other for two months and we have en-joyed every minute of it.

My father constantly lec-tures my that I should behave and control my emotions. I am getting sick and tired of it because both my boyfriend and I understand that we shouldn't get serious.
What should I do? I'm sure many teenage girls would like to know what to do with a nag-ging father.
Nagged!
Dear Amy:
Your "nagging" father sup-ports you, protects you, loves you and is responsible for you. How do you have the nerve to ask what to do with him!
Frankly, your intolerance prompts me to advise you that you have a great deal to learn before you can hold a candle to your dad's wisdom.
Dear Amy:
Maybe I shouldn't even bother you with my problem, but I'd sure feel better if I got some encouragement from a stranger rather than my friends.
May 13th I met a divorced man, I also am divorced but I have 2 small children. They think the world of him, and he feels the same about them. He says he really loves me. Well, things got carried away between the two of us and now I am pregnant. He has told me countless times of his in-tentions about marriage. We are supposed to be married soon.

Amy, do you think I should quit worrying myself sick and go along with what he says or
Dear V.W.:
Quit worrying about your unpendable friend; be con-stant with the support money...
W.W.

MISS JANET E. KELLER

November wedding for Janet E. Keller

The engagement of Miss Janet E. Keller of Mountside to Robert L. Dubell of Clifton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dubell, 19 Gilbert pl., has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Keller Jr. of 1365 Wood Valley rd.

A party honoring the couple was given for the immediate families at the Keller home. The prospective bride is a senior at Mountside Hospital School of Nursing, Montclair. Her fiancé is a senior majoring in chemical engineering at Newark College of Engineering. A November wedding is planned.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN

Have you been concerned about your youngster's safety away from home, yet been reluctant to set up rules which would make you appear overprotective?

Helping to protect your children from molesters and preventing crime has been recognized by the commission on crime as an important task not only for the police force but for you, the parent.

Below are a few practices suggested by the police department to make work and play safer for your children:

- *Know the length of time it takes your child to walk to and from school. Insist on your child telephoning if he is delayed en route. Immediately check any delay in arrival home.
- *Plan the safest route to and from school and instruct your children to follow it. If children use the same route to and from school, it will be easier to locate them should they be delayed en route.
- *If it is necessary for your children to arrive home after dark, arrange to meet them.
- *Know who your children's playmates are, and where they congregate to play.
- *Instruct children to report to you suspicious persons or attempts by unknown adults to approach them or become friendly with them.
- *Forbid your children to accept rides or gifts from anyone without your approval. Train your children to check with you before going anywhere with another person.
- *Visit the school and become acquainted with teachers and school officials. You may learn of delinquent behavior before it is apparent and becomes a serious problem.
- *Report to the police suspicious actions of adults in the vicinity of school yards and playgrounds.

Mary Lou Bresky sets wedding date

MISS MARY LOU BRESKY

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Bresky of 625 Myrtle ave., Roselle Park, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Lou Bresky, to Melvin Howard Casey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Casey of 1141 Erhardt st., Union.

Miss Bresky, a graduate of Roselle Park High School, is head of the billing department at Gourmet Bakers Inc., Linden. Her fiancé, who was graduated from Union High School, is employed as a mechanic at Norris Chevrolet Co., Westfield.

The wedding will take place Nov. 29.

Harry Devlin set to talk at meeting

The Past President's Club of the Seventh District will feature at its meeting Jan. 16 at the Summit Fornoightly Club, a combination of architecture, preview and an art exhibit, Harry Devlin of Mountside, author of several books on old houses in New Jersey, will be guest speaker. He has written "To Grandfather's House We Go" and "What Kind of House Is That?" The latter will be published this year. Some of his oil paintings on exhibition at the meeting will be used in the illustration of his latest book.

Prior to the business meeting, the board of trustees will meet at the Short Hills home of Mrs. Donald Burgess, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Kenneth R. Robson, president, will preside.

Miss Ferrari sets Feb. 22 wedding

Warm up to a pudding

When the cold winds blow, maybe you'd rather be in San Juan, Miami, or Montego Bay. If that's not in the cards this year, you can at least put some tropical sun on your dinner table with a warm fruity pudding. This one's a layered affair that's rich with pineapple and coconut. And it has Post Super Sugar Crisp Puffed Wheat for a crunchy topping.

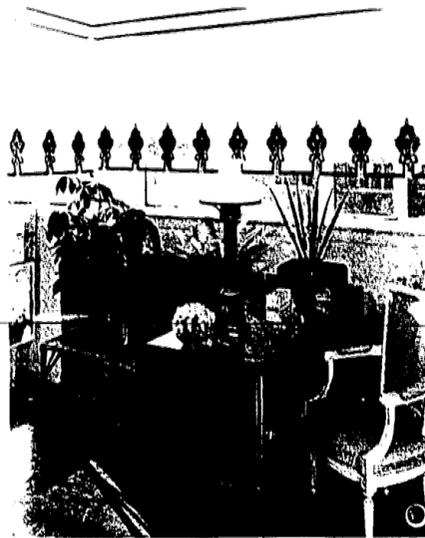

TROPICAL CRISP PUDDING

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 can (20 1/2 oz.) crushed pineapple | 2 egg yolks, beaten |
| 1/2 cup granulated sugar | 1/2 cup flaked coconut |
| 2 tablespoons cornstarch | 1 cup honey-flavored puffed wheat |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt | 2 tablespoons brown sugar |
| 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon | 2 tablespoons butter, melted |

Drain pineapple, reserving 1/2 cup of the syrup. Spoon pineapple into a greased 1-quart casserole. Combine granulated sugar, cornstarch, salt, and cinnamon in a saucepan. Stir in reserved pineapple syrup. Bring to a boil over low heat and simmer 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Stir a little of the hot mixture into egg yolks, mixing well. Return to remaining hot mixture. Continue cooking, stirring constantly, until mixture returns to a boil. Remove from heat; then stir in coconut. Pour over pineapple in casserole. Top with cereal. Sprinkle with brown sugar and melted butter. Bake at 400° for 10 minutes, or until sugar has melted and cereal topping is lightly browned. Serve with light cream, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

THREE-IN-ONE-- Living, dining and sleeping is provided for in the same room, thanks to a space-saving sofa bed. Equipped with a cotton and innerspring mattress, the unit affords comfort and resiliency for easy sitting and restful slumber. Cheerful floral-printed cotton adorns the sofa bed and makes tie-back ruffled curtains. The reproduction of an old iron Franklin stove does even better than a fireplace. Photographed at Chicago's Merchandise Mart.

PROBLEM-SOLVER-- The L-shaped window that turns a corner can be difficult to decorate effectively. Here the problem is solved by the use of handsome window shades. Appliqued cut-outs from cotton paisley fabric, used elsewhere in the room, create an interesting shade border. Fabric loops cradle a black rod that serves as a shade pull, and the shade cloth valance is trimmed with rows of black patent leather buttons.

UN opening Swiss PO

In an august Geneva chamber traditionally reserved for signing history-making international treaties, United Nations and Swiss government representatives affixed signatures to an agreement initiating the UN Postal Administration's "second post office."

Since UNPA began in 1951, UN headquarters in New York has been the only permanently authorized mail drop for letters bearing UN stamps. But starting this year, Swiss-denomination UN stamps also will be valid for worldwide mail posted at Geneva's Palais des Nations, the UN's European headquarters.

Robert Maxwell, UNPA's chief, says the first Geneva issue will comprise eight stamps, two postal cards and an airmailer, estimating that philatelic sales of the Swiss UN stamps will increase the UN's annual income by $650,000. He reports that 1968 sales to collectors grossed over $3 million in 1968.

Tips for Today's Homemaker

From Anne L. Sheelan, County Home Economist

WINTER MEAL SUGGESTION
Here's an easy way to brighten winter meals for your family. It's called Deviled Casserole. The highlight of this recipe is that it uses deviled eggs which are served with a mushroom, cheese sauce. The eggs can be prepared in advance and the sauce added just before it is placed in the oven for about twenty minutes.

Deviled Casserole can be served plain or on toast triangles. Both color and texture would be added to the meal if either crisp celery or a fresh green salad were included in the menu.

Nutritionally, this casserole dish adds both protein and calcium to the daily diet. It is an ideal way to get a member of the family to eat dairy foods if normally he or she does not prefer to drink milk.

DEVILED CASSEROLE

- 6 hard cooked eggs
- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
- 2 tablespoons cider vinegar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper
- 1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk
- 1 1/2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese

Cut eggs in half lengthwise; remove yolks. With a fork mash yolks; add mustard, vinegar, 1/4 teaspoon salt and pepper and blend thoroughly. Fill egg whites with mixture. Arrange stuffed eggs in single layer in 1 1/4-quart shallow casserole; add mushrooms. In a saucepan melt butter; blend in flour and salt. Gradually add milk; cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to boil and thickens. Remove from heat; add 1 cup Cheddar cheese and stir until cheese melts. Pour mixture over eggs; cover casserole and bake in a preheated 350 degree oven 20 minutes or until bubbly and heated through. Top with remaining 1/2 cup Cheddar cheese; return to oven uncovered until cheese melts. Makes four servings.

CLOTHES CARE COMMENTS

by SAM MANN (Diamond Cleaners)

Weren't the holidays wonderful... and wasn't it fun to get all dressed up for the special parties?

I don't remember a more beautiful season. Gowns this year seemed lovelier than ever before... rich, gleaming velvets; sparkling sequins; and delicate laces. It was a pleasure just to see them. However, these same gowns that were such a pleasure to see during the holiday festivities may turn into sad sights if they're put away for any length of time without cleaning. Some spilled liquids may cause no immediate stain, but time and heat can make one appear almost by magic.

And by all means, don't let a lipstick smudge remain on your husband's suit. Lipstick presents no problem if it is removed as soon as possible, but after any length of time, spot removal is difficult if not impossible. So, check those suits and gowns now. Diamond Cleaners care will assure a Happy Holiday look that lasts -- and lasts!
