Little League lists registration dates, placement tryouts

April 25 has been named as opening day for the 1970 Little League baseball season in Mountainside, it was announced by EdGibadlo, chairman of the Little League, Registration for all Little Leaguers will be held Saturday Feb. 28 and Mar. 7 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the all-purpose room of Deerfield School.

Registration will be followed on the 28th by a Little League organizational meeting at 3 p.m. in the all-purpose room, Anyone interested in helping the Little League is urged to attend, Placement tryout dates for the Major League will be held on Saturday Mar, 14 and 21, at 10 a,m, at the Major League field behind the Deerfield School, The Mar, 14 tryout date is for 10-year-olds (Rain-date: Sunday, Mar, 15), Mar, 21 is for 11- and 12-year-olds (Rain-date, Mar, 28).

date, Mar. 28).

Harry Heide, president of the Major League, has announced that to achieve a proper balance of talent between the Major and National leagues, every boy, age 10 through 12, signing up for Little League, who is not presently on a Major League team, will be required to attend the placement tryout. This will give the managers a better opportunity to evaluate each boy, according to Heide.

Mrs. Gloria Rapp, president of the girls' softball league, has announced that the registration date for girls (Grades five through eight) will be Saturday, Mar. 14 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the all-purpose room of the Deerfield School.

John Rusbarsky will take over as president of the American League, replacing Bob Van Buskirk, who will manage in the Major League, Jim Foties will head up the National League, and Joe Mazur will lead the Senior

New board picks the same officers

Continuity was the keynote of the organizational meeting of the Mountainside Board of Education Monday night as the board retained the same officers.

Changes did take place, however, Frank A. Lombard was sworn in as the newest member of the board by John M. McDonough, secretary and business administrator. Newly-elected member Thomas J. Spina was absent from the meeting, Spina and Lombard defeated former board members Mrs. Marjorie Bradshaw and Abe Suckno in last week's Unanimously reelected Board president Grant H. Lennox expressed the hope that in the upcoming year the board could resolve two particular problems that have plagued the borough as well as three problems of a more general nature which our whole society must face.

face,

"First, we hope to resolve the Echobrook School situation in light of the recent referendum defeat," Lennox stated,

"Second, we hope to receive clarification from Trenton, either from the legislature or from the courts with respect to collective negotiations and conflicting laws 303 and 18A. Until we get a clarification, we'll continue to flounder," Lennox added.

The other problem to which Lennox alluded were the use of drugs. ("We must continue to work at educating our younger children on the unhappiness that comes from such use"), respect for property, both private and public, and the study of American history. "We must teach our youngsters about our country's past," he stated "so that they will learn to honor the flag and the men who made this country what it is today."

THE BOARD PRESIDENT added after the meeting that he favored a continuous, but subtle, approach to the study of America's history and its institutions. He looks upon that approach as a more effective method, stating that he doesn't believe students respond as well to overplayed, once-a-year specials like Law sch

cancer fund drive for Mountainside

John H. Palmer of 144 Greenwood rd., will serve as Mountainside chairman of the 1970 educational and fund-raising Crusade of the American Cancer Society starting April 1. "We're out to tell people that it's what they don't know about cancer that can hurt. We mean to instruct them in personal ways of protecting themselves against cancer," Palmer said. "We'll be marshalling the efforts of volunteers in Mountainside to bring home the message '- 'Fight cancer with a checkup and a check,'" he added, His appointment was announced by Arthur C. Fried, Union County Crusade Chairman, Palmer was district captain in last year's fund drive. He operates the Palmer Insurance Agency in Union. In addition to being active in local politics, Palmer is chairman of the Methods Committee, Citizens to Preserve Mountainside and a member of the organization's board of directors. He is also a member of the Knights of Columbus in Mountainside.

of the Knights of Columbus in Mountainside.

"We have a triple aim this April," Palmer explained. "First, we want to encourage every member of the community to have a regular health checkup, including cancer tests.

"Second, we hope to teach people protective measures against cancer.

"Third, we must raise the money to support vital ACS programs of research, education and service to cancer patients. We look to the laboratories for the final solution to the cancer problem. Today there are 1.5-million Americans alive and cured of cancer. What tomorrow may bring depends on the imagination and expertise of scientists and the support of us all."

2 'Sound of Music' dates are sold out at Regional High

"Ticket sales are going so well that Friday and Saturday nights will be sold out well in advance of the performance," Walter Both, inchest of the Governor Livingston Regional High School tenth annual musical, "Sound of Music," said this week. Curtain time will be 8:15 p.m. on Feb. 26, 27 and 28 in the high school auditorium.

Featuring a large cast, the musical has been in intensive rehearsal for the past month with Norman Schneider directing the staging, Albert Dorhout handling the vocal coaching and Carol Forsman and Mrs. Natasha Lazar creating the choreography.

94-point tax hike anticipated for 70

The Borough Council is expected to introduce at a public hearing on Thursday, March 19, the 1970 local purposes budget, which will call for an increase of 22 points in the municipal portion of the tax rate. This increase, coupled with an anticipated hike of 35 points in the local school rate, 22 in the regional school rate, and an estimated 15 in the county levy, is expected to boost the 1970 Mountainside tax rate approximately 94 points, or about 14 per cent, according to Councilman Lou Parent at the Borough Council meeting Tuesday night at Beechwood School.

The 1970 tax rate will be approximately 7.53 points, compared with 6.59 in 1969. This means that the owner of a home valued at $30,000, and assessed at about $12,000, will pay slightly more than $900, as opposed to $790.80 last year, according to Parent's fig-

Job service has phone valet now

The Youth Employment Service of Mountainside has installed a telephone valet in order to make this organization more efficient. 233-4505 will be answered at anytime a resident of Mountainside needs a baby sitter, lawn work done, help at a party or someone to help around the house. "The youth of this organization can do almost any job you can think of," a spokesman said this week.

"The telephone valet will record your message. Our volunteers will play back the recordings while at our office and quickly and efficiently return your call. If a resident wishes to speak to a volunteer directly they may be reached by calling 232-3975 between 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. at Borough Hall."

Rutgers scientist studies oil slicks

Seeks to speed up process of decomposition

A Hungarian-born scientist who has shifted the focus of his research from the soil to the sea may shed valuable light on the problem of dispersing oil slicks.

Dr. Richard Bartha, associate research professor of blochemistry and microbiology at the Rutgers College of Agriculture and Environmental Science, New Brunswick, says that it's only a short distance from the disintegration of pesticides to the disintegration of collegics. of oil slicks.

Dr. Bartha has been awarded a two-year grant from the Department of the Navy for a research project entitled "Biodegradation of Oil Slicks in the Marine Environment.

"When oil is accidently spilled onto the water," he says, "the more volatile fractions promptly evaporate. Therefore, you can't burn what's left behind, and, in most cases, it's necessary to wait for the natural process of decomposition -- technically known as biode-gradation -- to occur.

"My project is to study this phenomenon, with emphasis on possible ways of speeding it up."

Present practice in dealing with major oil spills is to apply various detergents to break up and disperse them.
"I feel that this is helpful in that it increases the area of the slick and consequent biodegradation," Dr. Bartha says.

"However, it is also possible that the toxi-city of certain detergents may kill the microbes responsible for blodegradation and actually slow the process down. After the wreck of the tanker Torrey Canyon in 1967, the addition of massive amounts of such detergents actually caused more damage to marine life than the oil itself. "Since 1964, I and a number of others at Rutgers have been studying biodegradation of pesticides in the soil," Dr. Bartha says. "Many of the same techniques developed for this work also apply to oil in water.

"I plan to measure many of the quantitative aspects of oil biodegradation. How much and how fast? These are little-understood factors, mainly because the techniques haven't been available to measure them." Whether crude or refined, petroleum is an extremely complex substance containing more than 200 known compounds as well as many unknown ones. To simplify things, a "model unknown ones. To simplify things, a "model petroleum" has already been formulated for experimentation.

Dr. Bartha, together with Dr. David Pramer, chairman of the biochemistry and microbiology department and consultant to the project, and Ronald Atlas, a graduate student, will firs run extensive laboratory tests. Then they will conduct field studies on the beaches and estu-addition of nitrogen and phosphorus promotes biodegradation of oil in seawater. But at the present it is useless to scatter this in the open sea because it will be diluted too rapidly. What is needed is some kind of 'binder' material. This is just one of a number of possibilities we'll be examining."

FRIDAY DEADLINE

At First New Jersey, the Sixties were only a prelude. In the last year of the decade, we grew by $10 million, capping a five year doubling of our assets.

A wise man once said: "The future belongs to those who prepare for it:'

We like to think we have been doing just that throughout our innovative early years. Certainly, few financial institutions have so ceaselessly sought to widen its range of services, markets and assets as our bank. And fewer still have been as willing to adapt to what is clearly the new role of banks in helping Americans achieve the good life. One result has been one of the most dazzling periods of growth

Students aim at environment

A group of students at Upsala College, East Orange, has embarked upon an ambitious program to make the public more aware of the problems of overpopulation, air and water

-...A new organization, called "Students for An Ecologically Aware Society," has been founded with Gordon Peabody of Verona and Frank Panek of Clifton selected as co-chairmen. The organization seeks a membership of 200 students who will serve as researchers, office workers, and speakers in an attempt to alert college and high school students and the general public of facts about overpopulation and pollution.

"We hope to startle people about ecology, so they will have a better understanding of it," "Peabody said. "Our long range goal is to iden-Tify local polluters, to produce evidence with photographs and to show that our laws and penalties are much too lenient. We want the public to know how their environment is affect-

Ecology, Peabody said, is the study of interactions of all living things with their environ-ment and with each other.

The plan is for a task force of 200 students to research publications, study appropriate TV and radio programs, correlate the information and write articles based on their studies. Members of the group will be educated by their own findings and booklets will be printed for student and public use, according to Peabody.

Also scheduled is an Earth Day program on April 22 which Peabody described as a moratorium on the subject of ecology. Prominent speakers from science, government, and industry will be invited to speak on the Upsala

Once the research and correlation of information are completed, Upsala students will make their services as speakers available to high school students. Plans are being made to address high school groups in East Orange first and then the rest of Essex County, Weekly radio broadcasts over Upsala's FM radio station, WFMU, also are planned.

"We just don't want to be a protest group," Peabody explained. "We want to be an educa-tional group. We want the people to know what's going on. We want the public to be aware of the alternatives."

The idea for the program came from students in Upsala's biology department. Their faculty advisor is Dr. Richard Graham who teaches ecology. The organization meets every other

I to a unappointing 3-10 and extended its losing streak to four games.

The season is shaping up as a carbon copy of last year's. At one point last season, Regional's record was 9-7 but Gov. Livingston finished 9-13, including losses to Scotch Plains in the state and county tournaments. This year, the Highlanders opposed Hillside in the opening round of the county tourney.

Ironically, the chances of Regional in the state tournament may be better than in the county. Teams like St. Mary's (fifth in the state), Jefferson (sixth) and Scotch Plains (12th) are in the county tournament. The game was close all the way. In the fourth quarter, Westfield led by as much as fourth quarter, Westfield led by as much as five. Rich Weiss pulled Regional to within two with some fine shooting, but once Petrulla's team got the ball again there were only nine seconds left. With Burdette having fouled out, Petrulla told Weiss to go one on one. Richie got by his man but missed a 12-footbank shot. McBrien and Rau took shots on the subsequent rebounds but the ball would not drop in.

The first two pertain to the purchase of fire equipment. The third would appropriate $36,000 for site acquisition and construction for concrete curbs glong both sides of New Providence road and sidewalks along one side of New Providence road from Rt. 22 to Mountain avenue to be financed $27,000 from state aid and $9,000 from capital surplus.

COUNCILMAN WILLIAM HECHTLE reported on the most recent case of vandalism at the Borough pool. He described it as 'ma-licious damage' stating that the vandals ripped hay phones off the walls, used them to smash die window of the manager's office, forced open find ruined the metal filing cabinets, and slit the pool cover. The latter alone cost $2,500 to repair similar damage last year.

Mayor Thomas Ricciardi was disturbed by this report, commenting that the Council works hard to save the taxdollar only to have t depleted by some of our own children."
"We cannot do a complete job," he stated, as long as parents don't control their children." The Mayor and his wife will chaperone the Borough's next ski trip to Great Gorge Saturday. Councilman Hechtle informed the council that the last two ski trips, sponsored the Recreation Commission, served more by the new substers.

Councilman Wilfred H. Brandt announced that Borough police during the month of January answered 385 calls, including 25 for ambulance service, four break and entries, one attempted break and entry and five fire calls. The three Borough patrol cars covered a total of Turner will be associated with William R. Hawkins, assistant executive director and program supervisor, and Harry L. Lesher jr., physical director. His duties will be primarily in the area of physical programs for high school youth and younger boys. His YMCA activities included membership in the Carver-Branch YMCA, Trenton. He is married and the couple plan to make their home in the Westfield area.

Vernon has been a member of the local Y staff since June, 1967, when he was assigned duties as youth director. He transferred to the post of assistant physical director year later. His work included supervision of Hi-Y Clubs, Junior and Senior High School boys athletic programs, Indian (boys in first through third grades) gymnasium and swimming classes, and Kindergym classes for pre-school boys and girls.

Vernon is a graduate of the University of Maryland. He was certified a senior pro-fessional staff director last June by the Association of Physical Directors upon completion of special course re-quirements. He plans to return to Y work upon completion of his master's program.

1790 to 1970 an unbroken record Compiling of 19th census to begin April 1

at themselves to reinforce the platform of facts on which to base plans for the future

The occasion is the census of population and housing conducted once each decade as required by the Constitution. The 19th in a series stretching back without interruption to 1790 will be taken on April 1.

Responsible for the census is the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce, the count will be conducted from 395 temporary Bureau district offices throughout the United States, each of which cover an area containing approximately 500,000 persons. District offices began opening

The census tells us what we are as a nation and is a necessary stocktaking, it will throw light on all the changes that have taken place in recent years.

For the average American, the census will be a simple exercise. The government asks that he devote a few minutes to answer ques-tions about himself and his housing. The questions will be on printed forms that will be sent by mail to each household.

For 80 percent of the households there will be about 23 questions that require perhaps 15 minutes to answer. For the other 20 percent of the households, there will be an average of 69 questions that will require about 45 minutes.

Crucial decisions affecting every person in the nation depend upon the accuracy and completeness of the census. To begin with, political power hinges on the census count: Official population figures are used to determine the fair apportionment of seats in the Congress as well as in state and local legis-lative bodies. Federal funds are distributed

Government leaders from the highest federal authorities to local officials plan and develop programs involving billions of dollars on the basis of what the census tells of the characteristics of people and their housing. And the same holds for non-government leaders responsible for the stewardship of many enter-

President Nixton has said of the census: "Even as our population has grown in size over the decades, so the functions of the regular census also have expanded. Today, we are interested not only in an accurate counting of heads but also in a better description of our social condition. We know that unless a people can be adequately informed about their present, they cannot make intelligent judgments about their future."

For the individual, the census is secret. The answers he gives about himself and his housing are held in confidence. Census employees are forbidden by law from disclosing any fact about a person and would be subject to heavy fine or imprisonment for a violation of the law. In the remainder of the nation, people will be asked to fill out the form on April 1 and hold it until it is picked up by a census taker.

About 185,000 temporary workers will be hired by the Bureau to take the census. Included will be 160,000 census takers (called enumerators); 13,000 workers in the 395 temporary offices, and 12,000 crew leaders and other supervisors, including a manager for each district office. Had not the changes in census taking methods been made and successfully proved out in field tests over a period of several years, it is estimated that 220,000 workers would have been needed to take this year's census using the same pro-cedures employed in 1960. The 1960 total population was 180 million compared with an estimated 205 million for 1970. The cost of taking and compiling the 1970 census will be about $210 million.

Census workers will be employed four to six weeks, some longer. The process of hiring and training is underway now and will coninue until April.

Williams opposes legislation that would dictate jetport site

Williams Jr. (D-NJ) has introduced legislation designed to prevent the Secretary of Trans-portation from dictating the site of jetports.

The legislation is an amendment to the Airport and Airways Redevelopment Act. That bill contains a provision that would give the Secretary of Transportation the authority to choose a jetport site even if local and state officials are opposed.

"While general in its language, this provision obviously is aimed at the New York Metropolitan Area. And, I do not believe that the people of New Jersey should have a jet-port rammed down their throats by officials in Washington," Sen. Williams said.

The existing language provides that if no decision is made on a jetport within three years, the secretary shall, "after notice and opportunity for a hearing, select a site for such additional airport."

It also states, "Unless the secretary, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, shall modify any site selection made by him under this section, no other site in such areas shall be eligible for assistance under this part for the construction of an additional airport in

SENATOR WILLIAMS' amendment would strike both provisions from the bill. His legislation would give the secretary the right to assist in the selection and development of a

In view of winter keep windows clean to treeze out risks

You have to see danger first to avoid it. Many motorists take unnecessary risks during cold weather when they attempt to drive without adequate visibility. The hazard of snow, ice or adequate visibility. The nazard of snow, ideor fog covering car windows can be stricken from the list of serious winter driving dangers, if you follow these simple rules:

1. Clean all windows, inside and out, before starting. A clean cloth and an ice scraper will help you to remove dirt or ice from the windows without scratching the glass. Pressure cans of defrosting chemical are handy and safe when used according to directions.

 Clean off your headlights and tail lights.
 Check windshield wiper blades and make sure winter solvent is in the windshield washer jar, to prevent freezing. 4. Be sure to open a window or vent to allow air to circulate inside. This will prevent misting of windows.

5. Clean snow and ice from your outside heater air intake. If this is not done, the snow and ice in your heater intake melts; the water drops on to your heater coil; turns to vapor and is blown through your defrosters onto the windshield, fogging the inside of your glass.
6. Always use wipers, defrosters and headlights when driving in bad weather. Visibility is sharply curtailed in fog, rain or snow and all available equipment should be used for maximum protection.

Windows can fog and freeze for a number of reasons. This condition may appear in seconds, or may be the result of a slow build-up. The end result can be the "blinding" of a motorist in heavy traffic or at high speeds. This can be avoided if defrosters are putting out engine-

-From December to January total unemploy-

From December to January total unemployment in New Jersey went up by 35,100 to 164,800, according to estimates prepared by the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Labor. The jobless rate rose by 1,3 over the month, reaching 5,6 percent of the work force. The scassonally adjusted rate inched upward by 0,1 to 4,7 percent.

Compared with January 1969, there were 12,600 more persons unemployed this January, and the rate increased by 0,3. The scassonally adjusted rate also rose by 0,3 over the year.

All of the state's 15 labor areas had December-to-January increases in jobless rates. The January preliminary rates ranged from 4,0 percent of the work force in the Trenton and Phillipsburg areas to 17,5 percent in the Ocean City-Woldwood-Cape May area.

Seasonal factors, particularly the extremely cold weather which halted most outside construction activities, caused much of the in-crease in joblessness. In addition, some nonseasonal joblessness occurred, particularly among workers in instruments, transportation equipment and apparel. #### Walkers warned on turning autos

R.J. Vialle, general manager of the New Jersey Automobile Club AAA, this week urged pedestrians to "watch for turning cars when crossing streets—even when crossing with the walk or green signal light."

New Jersey Automobile Club, AAA stressed that clear pedestrians are the labor pedestrians.

New Jersey Automobile Club, AAA stressed that older pedestrians particularly are often struck by turning cars for they are preoccupied with the need for hurrying across the street before the light changes. To avoid this problem, Vialle urged older citizens to always watt for a fresh green light or walk signal before crossing to utilize maximum safe crossing time.

"Drivers, too, have a responsibility to signal their intention to turn," said Vialle, "for it is important that drivers cooperate with pedestrians by communicating their intended actions iso that pedestrians can react accordingly."

He urged all pedestrians to take an extra moment to make certain that no cars are approaching before proceeding to cross.

to $1.45 for

WASHINGTON -- Some

2,100,000 workers are getting pay increases amounting to $486 million, Wage-Hour Ad-ministrator Robert D. Moran announced this week. The in-creases are due to a federal minimum wage boost Feb. 1 from $1.30 to $1.45 an hour for workers who were first brought under coverage of the Fair Labor Standards Act in

The $1,45 rate will apply chiefly to employees of smaller retail or service establishments, laundries and dry cleaners, hotels, motels and restaurants, schools, non-federal hearitals, and repring federal hospitals, and nursing

The new minimum remains in effect until Feb. 1, 1971, when it will go to $1.60 an hour. The $1.60 rate already applies to 35,366,000 workers in employment who were subject to the Act before the 1966

Administrator Moran said the $486 million that workers stand to gain will benefit many members of minority groups working in low-wage jobs.

Moran said the increase in the minimum wage rate will-not have an inflationary im-

Eclipse can be blinding experience No safe way to view occurence directly

The eclipse of the sun on Saturday, March 7, will be fascinating as all eclipses are, but there is no safe way of directly watching one, warns the National Society for the Prevention of Blides.

Dr. Wildred D. David, executive director of the society, said that "although any eclipse poses an eye hazard, the danger of the March 7 eclipse is multiplied — simply because of its availability."

The eclipse will be total in the southeastern part of the United States with all other parts of the nation experiencing various degrees of

of the nation experiencing various degrees or partial eclipse.

It is estimated that the path the eclipse will take makes it "available" to more people than any other in history. Added to this, said Dr. David, is the fact that the eclipse will be on a Saturday, and at approximately mid-day, further increasing the opportunity for eclipse-watching.

The eye-damage hazard of an eclipse, said the Society, is due to the fact that the sun can be looked at "comfortably:" Normally the dazzling visible rays prevent anyone from looking directly at the sun. And although these rays are blocked during an eclipse, the invisible, dangerous infra-red rays continue to Infra-red rays can cause damaging burns to the eye's retina, the delicate back inner layer of the eye which transmits images to the brain. The retina is not sensitive to pain, so a retinal burn is not "felt," But retinal burns are incurable, and produce a blind spot in the victim's field of vision — in the vital small area used for reading and all "fine" seeing.

A SAFE, INDIRECT method of viewing the eclipse, recommended by the society, is a simple projection device which anyone can make: Two pieces of white cardboard are all that's needed. A pinhole or pencil hole in the top cardboard serves to project and focus the image of the eclipse on the second cardboard,

"The public must be made aware that socalled protective devices, such as sunglasses, called protective devices, such as sunglasses, smoked glass or film negatives, do not protect the eyes from infra-red rays," said Dr. David. This view is amplified by a recent report in the British Journal of Ophthalmology, in which the author, reporting on eye-damage cases following the 1966 partial eclipse of the sun,

Sophisticated Singles planning a dance party

The Sophisticated Singles of the YM-YWHA of Essex County, will hold a dance next Sunday from 8 to 12 p.m. at 760 Norfield ave., West

Music will be provided by the Steve Rosenfeld, and champagne will be served. The dance is open to single women from 21 to 30, and single men from 22 to 32.

The admission price is $2,00 for members and $3.00 for non-members.

said such devices "may even facilitate injury by prolonging the time of exposure."

The last total eclipse of the sun observable in the U.S. was in 1963; and was total only in Maine and parts of Alaska, although all parts of the country experienced partial eclipse, in a survey by the society, ophthalmologists reported 247 cases of visual damage from direct observation of that eclipse. And that figure represented cases seen by less than half of the country's ophthalmologists. It can also be assumed that many other persons especially children—may have received eye damage without realizing it, or failed to see an ophthalmologist.

TOTAL ECLIPSE will be experienced in the southeastern portion of the U.S. at about 1:30 p.m. with the total eclipse path averaging 85 miles wide, All of the country will experience a partial eclipse, with the magnitude of sunblockage decreasing with the distance from the path of the total phase. (For example, the portion of sun blocked at maximum eclipse portion of sun blocked at maximum eclipse will be 72 percent in St. Louis, and 35 percent in Los Angeles.)

The length of totality for areas in the path of the eclipse will average about three minutes.

New York's Hayden Planetarium notes that the March 7 eclipse will be the last total eclipse of the sun observable in the eastern

U.S. in this century. In the northwest the final total eclipse visible in the U.S. during this century will be February 26, 1979.

for UC president

Dr. Albert E. Meder Jr. of Westfield, vice-provost emeritus of Rutgers University, New Brunswick, will serve as chairman of the inauguration of the of Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen as the second president of Union College, Cranford, it was announced this week by Hugo B. Meyer of Summit, chairman of the board of trustees.

Dr. Iversen was elected president of Union

College by the board of trustees effective Feb. 1. He had been serving as acting president for nearly two years and prior to that had been dean since 1957.

Dr. Iversen is only the second president of Union College in its 37-year history. Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay of Madison served as president from 1947 to 1969, He had served as the college's chief administrative officer with the title of dean since 1943.

Dr. Meder is chairman of the education committee of the board of trustees of Union College and served as chairman of the ad hoc committee which recommended Dr. lversen's election to the board of trustees.
The ad hoc committee, which included trustees, three senior professors elected by the faculty, and alumni and student representatives, conducted a year-long search for candidates prior to recommending Dr. Iversen.

Cancer Society urges breast self-examination

a woman's best protection against breast cancer," Dr. John K. Donahue, a member of the medical committee of the Union County Unit of the American Cancer Society, said this week, "The simple technique of breast self-examination can be learned quickly and can be practiced routinely. We urge every woman in Union County to ask her physician for instruction or contact the Union County Unit of the American Cancer Society for an explanatory leaflet."

According to American Cancer Society estimates, more than 20 million such leaflets have been disbributed since the breast self-examination program was launched in the early 1950's, More than 13 million women have seen a teaching film on the subject, which is available for showing in the County.

"Why are we stressing this technique?"
asked Dr. 'Donahue. 'Take these two facts and put them together to understand why: first of all, breast cancer is the chief cause of cancer death among American women; second-ly, breast cancer is most likely to be cured if detected and treated early. Therefore, women must examine themselves regularly and check with a physician if anything unusual is discovered, if we are going to win in the fight against this form of cancer."

Breast cancer begins as a solitary lump that is usually painless. As the disease progresses, it tends to spread to the lymphatic system which drains the breast. The stage at which breast cancer is detected is crucial to the outcome of treatment,

For example, there is an approximately 85 percent five-year survival rate when breast cancer is treated at a time when it is confined to the breast.
"Let me emphasize that a breast lump does not necessarily mean cancer. It is up to a physician to make a diagnosis...just as it is

Corduroy is a favorite among people of all ages

comes to clothes for the family, says Carolyn F. Yuk-nus, Senior County Home economist, It is a sturdy, colorful fabric that serves many purposes for all ages. In making corduroy gar-ments, first select a pattern with a simple design to best utilize the beauty of the fabric. Corduroy is a fabric with nap and extra yardage is required so that all pattern pieces can be cut with the nap going in the same direction. In pattern layout for corduroy and other napped fabrics, the tops of all pattern pieces are placed facing the same To determine the direction of any nap, and particularly corduroy, run your hand light-ly over the surface—the smooth feel indicates the pile direction. For a richer color the pile should run upward toward the face. If the pile runs downward, a grayed effect of the color will result.

On a pattern layout, the diagram can be used on the lengthwise fold. Never follow a crosswise fold disgram for the pattern or the result will be two different directions of the nap. In sewing seams and darts, Corduroy is a favorite when hand basting or close pinning is necessary since the pile makes the fabric shift easily. Usually a longer than average stitch is satisfactory, Because of the pile, zippers will look best if put in by hand.

Pressing can be done on a velvet board, or a good sub-stitute is a heavy Turkish towel under the area to be pressed; steam the area and pat gently with the fingers.

Corduroy can be washed by following some special instructions. Turn corduroy garments inside out to avoid lint clinging to the pile. It is best to wash corduroy garments alone.

Use mild soap and warm water or cold water and cold water soap. In a washing ma-chine use a short cycle, As for hand washing, squeeze the suds through the fabric; never wring or twist the garment.

Add a fabric softener to the final rinse each time the garment is washed. Corduroy can be dried in a dryer at a medium setting but should be removed while slightly damp.

Hang on a hanger and smooth

Shades on windows help to beautify rooms in home

How you treat your win-dows can make all the difference in the world when it comes to decorating. Treat them indifferently and they show it. Treat them imaginatively and they respond by becoming a vital part of room One of the most effective ways of dealing with windows is to treat them to handsome new shades. Use shades to play up color or design points made by upholstery, rugs, wallpaper, paint or draperies. Or let them make important decorating points on their

For example, shades can be laminated with the same cotton fabric that's used for chair or couch covers. You can have the work done by a shadedealer, or do it yourself with a new adhesive-coated shade cloth that's heat sensitive. Any cotton fabric can be ironed on to the specially treated shade cloth. The heat does all the work by activating the adhesive. Solid-colored shades can be tied into the room's decor by applying cut-out fabric de-signs or bands of ribbon. Closely woven cottons are the best fabrics for appliques.

To keep fabric from raveling, paint the cutting line on the back with clear nail polish before cutting. Cut out motifs carefully with sharp scissors and arrange the design on the

Then apply glue to the reverse side, making sure to cover the entire surface before pressing onto the shade. Smooth out, checking to see that all edges are attached securely and no air bubbles remain.

After gluing is completed and adhesive has dried, the face of the fabric can be pro-tected by a coating of clear acrylic spray.

While shades add a big plus to ordinary windows, they have a special talent for transforming problem windows into dec-orative assets. Any windowwhether it's a bay, casement, jalousie, or L-shaped type that turns the corner-can be shaded to perfection.

Board schedules meeting at Dayton

A meeting of the Union County Regional High School Board of Education will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield. The board this year will continue its policy of rotating the meetings among the six communities in the district to give as many people as possible the opportunity to attend.

"One way the public can be kept informed about its schools is to attend Board of Education meetings," Manuel S. Dios, president, said, "We urge all interested residents to come to these meetings,"

The regional district comprises Berkeley Heights, Clark, Garwood, Kenilworth, Mountainside and Springfield.

Easter Seal drive will open Monday in Union County

Ronald Myers, chairman of the Easter Seal Committee for Crippled Children and Adults County, said this week the 1970 Easter Seal Appeal will open Monday and continue through April 10. Funds raised by the committee will finance treatment and rehabilitation of New Jersey's crippled children and adults. "Needs of the handicapped and costs of providing expert professional care are rising,

The campaign will include the traditional mail appeal to more than 178,973 Union County residents and businesses, in addition to special "The people of Union County have always responded generously to our appeal. I feel certain they will make it possible to maintain and increase Easter Seal services to the crippled during the coming year, Funds from the appeal support numerous programs including Camp Merry Heart, a residential summer camp for crippled children and adults located near Hackettstown; the Raritan Valley Workshop in Franklin Township, which offers training and sheltered imployment for mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed and physically handicapped; speech and physical therapy; equipment loan; in-formation and referral services; and office skills training programs.

County agency for education funds reverses the trend to higher tuitions

Establishment of the Union County Coordinating Agency for Higher Education has resulted in additional state aid to Union County in the 1969-70 academic year of more than $800,000, Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, executive director, said in his annual report submitted to the Union County Board of Freeholders.

Dr. MacKay added that by making immediate use of two existing educational institutions, Union College in Cranford and Union County Technical Institute in Scotch Plains, it is estimaged "the county effects an immediate capital saving of $15 million, the cost of construction of a new college and campus.

'in fact, the cost of such construction in nearby counties has already skyrocketed to figures from $20 million upwards," Dr. Mac-Kay said, "Moreover, in utilizing the on-going facilities, the county is engaging the on-going facilities, the county is engaging the services of experienced administrators, faculty and staff, receiving the benefits of fully accredited programs at Union College, and making prime use two campuses, one in Cranford, the other in cational purposes before present day inflationary values set in." Dr. MacKay added that the new arrangement also enabled Union College to lower its tuition for Union County residents who are fulltime students from $400 to $300 per academic year, and for part-time students from $25 to $12 per credit hour each semester. For out-of-county residents, the new charges are $600 for full-

'Promises, Promises' a fine book musical

BY ROBERT LYONS The gratifying thing for me in view of the pular success of "Promises, Promises" popular success of 'Promises, Promises' is that a good book is the backbone of a successful musical.

Neil Simon has adapted the film "The Apartment" and he has caught the slick sleaziness of office society and projected it into all our way of life. The premise of a man working his way up the corporate ladder by lending his apartment to executives for their assignations can be pretty shaky unless the writing is first rate. Mr. Simon is not only quite funny, but he has the ability to recognize types without making smug judgements of their foilbles.

"Promises, Promises" has perceptive mus-ical staging by Michael Bennett who is one of the best young choreographers now current in the musical theater. A dance number staged in a Second avenue saloon is a classic of frenetic, crowded loneliness.

Robert Moore's direction keeps a fine line of believability within the musical form. Jerry

`Cowboy' wins 7 nominations

Jon Voight won an Academy Award nomina-tion for Best Actor of the Year this week for his first movie role of Joe Buck in "Midnight Cowboy," currently at the Union Theater, Cowboy," currently at the Union Theater, Union Center. The picture earned six more Oscar nominations including "Best Picture," another "Best Actor" (for Dustin Hoffman, who stars opposite Voight), "Best Supporting Actress" (Sylvia Miles), and "Best Director" (John Schlesinger), "Midnight Cowboy" is based on the controversial best-seller by James Leo Herlihy, Voight, who has established his acting talents on the contemporary stage and on relevi-ents on the contemporary stage and on television, plays a swaggering young Texan in 'The Midnight Cowboy,' who comes to New York to make his fortune.

Born in New York, Voight was graduated from Catholic University with a fine arts de-gree. He continued his studies in New York with acting teacher Sanford Meisner at the Neighborhood Playhouse and in private classes. He won a Theatre World Award for his performance opposite Irene Pappas in 'That Summer, That Fall' on Broadway, and ap-

Broadway musical on Bellevue screen

"Paint Your Wagon," Paramount pictures' wide-scale musical film version of the Broadway stage hit, continues at the Bellevue Theater, Upper Montclair.

The picture, which stars Lee Marvin as Ben Rumson, Clint Eastwood as Pardner, Jean Seberg as Elizabeth, Harve Presnell as Rotten Luck Willie, and Ray Walston as Mad Jack Duncan, introduces the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band.

The film, photographed in color and wide screen, was produced by Alan Jay Lerner, who also wrote the screenplay and lyrics. Music is by Frederick Loewe with additional songs by Andre Previn, Joshua Logan directed "Paint Your Wagon," and Paddy Chaypeared in the award-winning off-Broadway pro-duction of "A View From the Bridge."

Television audiences saw Voight in the premiere of Harold Pinter's 'The Dwarfs." He played Romeo at the San Diego Shakespeare Festival and has appeared on many major television series.

WANT A JOB WITH THE CENSUS BUREAU? WANT A Joh WITH THE CENSUS BEACH We're now in a year ending with a zero—the year 1970. That means—a new decade, It also means a great stirring around in Washington and the fifty states, not forgetting the territories under U.S. jurisdiction.

For this is another year of the census. Uncle Sam is about to take our-national pulse—mainly by mail—to see what condi-tion we're in as a people. We're about to be set down in a complex series of statistics tables, maps, graphs, and charts.

Astronomical is the only word for this type of information. And it grows more asconomical with every decade.

So, this year's census will be the most complex ever assembled.

Consider the single fact that over 200,000,000 Americans will have to be accounted for in one way or another. How do you make sure of getting so many people into an accurate tabu-

Answer -- if they don't answer by mail, you hire enough help to complete the job. Obviously the government doesn't maintain a permanent staff big enough to do the job. Every time a census year comes around, extra employees have to be added.

The figure this year comes to about 160,000 temporary positions that will be offered by the United States Bureau of the Census,

A good percentage of these temporary employes will be of retirement age. So, if you're looking for temporary work, the census might be worth considering. Pay is $2,00 an hour. Workers will be expected to work at least thirty hours a week and to be available for Some evening and week-end duty.

You can apply at your local office when it opens. But you would be advised to make inquiries at public employment services before then,

That way, you'll know about the tests, wages and hours expected of those who help put the census together. You'll be able to make a better judgement as to whether this is really your cup of tea.

If it is, you might make a little for the few weeks you're on the money to add to the family kitty. And you may well have some fun for the few weeks you're on the payroll of the Census Bureau,
