Bidon flood work rejected by board; no funds for Heide The Regional High School District Board of Education Tuesday night-rejected a previously received flood control contract bid for work adjoining Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield as the first step in seeking bids on a revised contract. Costs of the work along Van Winkle's Creek will be shared by the Regional District, the Township of Springfield and the Union County Board of Freeholders. The audience of some 20 persons at Dayton also heard that a board representative was conferring with the Springfield Planning Board on the exact location of four tennis courts to be constructed on the front lawn at Dayton. In other business, board members discussed the achievements of two star athletes, one at Dayton and one at David Brearley Regional in Members approved participation by

John Conlin, buildings and grounds chairman, declared that work on the long-sought Van Winkle's Creek Project should be com-pleted "in the coming year." The project had been planned as a joint project of the Regional District and the township, but the low bid on the job last year came in at $421,000, more than twice the anticipated figure. The freeholders have now committed $100,000 to the job, along with $100,000 from the school board and $225,000 from the township.

The changes in the contract, required by the freeholders, call for elimination of a pumping station and construction of a ponding area instead. Conlin said this should cut the costs significantly. The project is designed to end chronic flooding in the Garden oval area.

The tennis court construction has also been sought for the past several years, but the board until recently had been unable to agree on a location. The Dayton varsity this spring was forced to hold all its matches away from home, because of limited time available on Springfield municipal courts.

Primary result: No surprises in 360-vote turnout

The annual primary election, which consistently fails to attract a significant number of voters, drew an even poorer turnout this year, which saw no Democratic candidates for local office. Of the 5,046 borough residents registered to vote, only 360 cast ballots

Republican Thomas J. Ricciardi, seeking his third term as mayor, drew 242 votes. Incum-bent Borough Councilmen Peter Simmons and John O'Connell received 243 and 242, respec-

In the only GOP contest on the ballot, William J. Maguire and Donald DiFrancesco, party-backed candidates for two-year terms in the state General Assembly easily led challengers Arthur A. Manner and Linda Wnuk, Local tallies were: Maguire, 204; DiFrancesco, 200; Manner, 61; Wnuk, 34.

Vote totals for the unchallenged GOP can-didates for three-year terms on the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders were: Herbert J. Heilmann Jr., 242; Walter E. Ulrich, 246, and Rose Marie Sinnett, 243. Heilmann and Ulrich are incumbents; Mrs. Sinnott is a former freeholder

Betty Wilson, incumbent Democratic General Assembly member, was the top vote-getter for her party in the borough, with 76. A fellow Dem candidate for Assembly, William Wolf, garnered 68.

The only contest on the Democratic side of the ballot, saw William A. Pagano, challenger for a Board of Freeholders seat, win only 15 votes. The regular Dem candidates, Leda (Confinued on page 4)

Hambacher receives UC associate degree

Allen J. Hambacher of Charlotte, N.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hambacher of Mountain avenue, Mountainside, was among 417 students who received associate degrees at Union College's 41st commencement on Saturday.

The students represented the largest class in Union College's history, according to Dr. Saul Orkin, president.

Two questions frequently asked of Mrs. Love are: "What are these processing fees? I thought you were supposed to be a nonprofit organization. Mrs. Love answered that one by saying, "We are a nonprofit organization. The blood is voluntarily donated. We send it to the hospitals and do not charge a cent for the blood itself.

"However, the blood, before being sent to the hospitals, must be tested for ABO grouping and Rh factors and checked for certain antibodies so that the blood will make the patient better. not sicker. It must also undergo, by law, serological tests for venereal diseases and hepatitis. All this must be done by registered nurses, skilled technicians and technologists under the supervision of a physician.

"Further," Mrs. Love added, "the blood is separated by sophisticated machinery into components, so each patient will get that part or portion of the blood he specifically needs. In some cases it would actually be dangerous to transfuse him with whole blood. In addition, vehicles, equipment and drivers must be used to deliver blood to hospitals in first-rate usable

"These large staffs of trained personnel must be paid and equipment and transportation must be maintained properly in order for us to operate efficiently. So we charge the hospitals a processing fee just in order to keep going. Hospitals pass that charge along to the

To the second question, "Must all patients needing blood or one of its components pay this fee?" Mrs. Love replied, "No; if the patient belongs to a donor group and is covered by Blue Cross, Blue Cross will pay the processing fee and the patient will pay nothing.

"However, if the patient does not belong to a blood donor group, such as a Red Cross group, and has no Blue Cross coverage, some hospitals will charge whatever they feel the traffic will bear for the blood, the processing fee and the transfusion fee-all of which can add up to as much as $100 a unit. There are various ways of "The large charge for blood to patients who do not belong to a donor group is sometimes called a penalty fee. Some hospitals require that the patient round up enough relatives and friends so that the hospital will receive two pints of blood for every single pint ad-ministered to the patient. Our policy has always been that this is a punitive and wasteful way to manage blood resources."

Mrs. Love concluded by saying, "You may save a life by being a blood donor at the next blood bank to be held on Wednesday, June 25, from 1:45 to 6:45 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield. Call 232-7090 for an ap-pointment or just walk in the day of the bank."

Rape victims get help through new answer service

The founders of the Rape Survival Center with headquarters on the campus of Kean College, Union, met recently with the Union County Advisory Board on the Status of Women to explain their activities and objectives.

The spokeswomen, Sandra Flack and Kathy Enerlich, explained that although the center has been in operation only a short time they see "a great need for a resource and educational center on the subject of rape." They are meeting that need partially through telephone answering service (527-2450) manned by-volunteers to aid the rape victim in all aspects of the crisis by reporting the rape to the police, getting medical help and seeing the victim through the court proceedings where necessary. Mail to the Center should be addressed to P.O. Box 1600, Hillside.

The speakers emphasized that many of the myths concerning rape need to be dispelled. They are preparing materials for distribution and are available to conduct programs and seminars for schools and groups that are interested.

Because only one out of 10 rapes are reported, the center is supporting sex crimes analysis squads in all police departments as well as the employment of policewomen and policemen trained in the social and psychological aspects of the crime.

This meeting was one of several where testimony is being received by the board to help make up the report on the status of women ir Union County to be presented to the Board of Freeholders in September.

The next regular meetings are scheduled for June 7 and 21 at 9:30 a.m. During July and August the meetings will be held on the first and third Tuesdays at 8 p.m. All meetings are held in the County Courthouse in Elizabeth and are open to the public.

Seminar planned on 'water quality'

The quality of Union County's drinking water will be discussed in a public seminar Thursday, June 12, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the County Administration Building, 300 North Ave . East, Westfield. The seminar will be sponsored by the Union County Environmental Health Advisory Committee.

Kenneth B. Marsh, principal hydraulic engineer for the Union County Planning Board, will provide background information about our water resources. Marsh has proposed several measures for water quality and flood control, including that of a detention basin in Lenape

William Whipple, Jr., director of the Water Resources Research Institute, Rutgers University, will discuss the factors affecting water quality from urban runoff. Donald M. Robertson, a supervisor from Elizabethtown Water Company, will discuss water supply and treatment in Union County. A question answersession will conclude the program.

"Our water problems can be solved," Mrs Phyllis J. Quain, chairperson, noted but only if there is a complete understanding of the role water plays in our environment. An informed citizenry, willing to exert a full measure of power, can demand and get safe water '

A recent auction of eight county-owned cars which had been declared obsolete by the Board of Freeholders realized a profit of nearly $1,100, according to Harry P. Pappas, Union County purchasing agent The vehicles had been in the county motor pool since 1966. In the past, Pappas noted, they would have been declared as "junk" and sold to a buyer for a nominal price. But Pappas in-stead received approval for the auction, first soliciting a bulk bid of $1,075, and then opening the sale to individual bids. Since the latter amounted to only $915, the bulk price was approved. The money was turned over to the county treasurer.

Pappas commended members of his staff who volunteered time at the auction, and Matilda McGowen, clerk of the Board of Freeholders, who also volunteered to work at the sale and who was responsible for the transfer of vehicle titles.

Quiz on cancer reaches 100,000

"A Cancer Quiz for Every Family," featuring lifesaving answers, is the theme of the American Cancer Society's newest leaflet circulated in more than 100,000 homes during the 1975 educational and fund-raising campaigns, according to George Perselay, Union County Crusade chairman

"If you know the correct answer to the 10 questions you are in a good position to help protect yourself and your family," he said Then pass it on to a friend or relative."

All of the questions relate to vital information about breast cancer, cancer of the cervix and other major sites, as well as eigarette smoking and health checkups.

"What is your best everyday protection against cancer?" asked Perselay quoting the "Is it knowing the Seven Warning leaflet. Signals of cancer, jogging or taking multicitamins? If you don't know what the "Seven Warning Signals" are, they're listed on the back of the leaflet to be distributed this year by the more than 10,000 ACS volunteers in Union County."

Ted Mayhew to retire after 40 years' service Union County Tercentenary Committee, Rotary Club of Hillside and the Dramatic Club of Hillside. He and his wife Paulie live on North avenue in Union. The Mayhew daughters, Paula and Susan, are both married and live in New York "The Pingry Review," with a circulation of 12,000, is edited and published by Mayhew. Mayhew is particularly proud of the Friends of the Pingry Library. He was founder of the group and now serves as its president. As a member of the Union County Cultural and Heritage Commission, an organization which deals with the American Bicentennial and the role Union County has in celebrating America's 200th anniversary, he serves as editor of the group's newsletter. After leaving Pingry, Mayhew hopes to travel abroad and, for a change, he would like to do some creative writing. But he plans to remain a resident of Union.

Speaking about Pingry, Mayhew believes that the honor system is a very important aspect of the school, providing a much more relaxed atmosphere during examinations and delegating a good deal of responsibility to the students. During his 40 years at Pingry, he feels that the honor system has contributed significantly to Pingry's consistently high quality of education.

Throughout the decade, Mayhew says, the question of a private school's place in society has continually been asked. Mayhew feels strongly that private schools, and particularly Pingry, provide students with a "master key." giving them the skills necessary to successfully involve themselves in their chosen fields. He feels that Pingry's current function is just as vital as it was 20 years ago.

Mayhew has come to realize that a coeducational atmosphere is most conducive to the reality of learning. He adds that the event of the coeducational system at Pingry (the school merged with the Kent School) "makes all the difference in the world-for the better."

Condon two-hit shutout Youth Major League highlight

Bill Condon's two-hit shutout over American Legion highlighted a fine week of play in the Springfield Youth Major League

Springfield Youth Major League.
Rotary's Bill Condon pitched probably the finest game of the year, including the first shutout of the Major League season, as he two-hit American Legion, 2-0. Condon was in complete control allowing only singles by Roy Zitomer and John Meisel, walking two and striking out five. He also helped his own cause by belting two singles to give him five hits in his east six at-bats. Rotary's Kevin Karp blasted a triple, Wayne Mayer drilled a double and Don Magers and Jerry Blabolit had singles.

Rotary Club, capitalizing on the wildness of Lions pitching, defeated the Lions Club, 8-6. Lions' Joey Dorfman breezed through the first four innings with a 4-2 lead, allowing only one hit—to Michael Kaulman, However, several walks helped produce Rotary runs.

In the first, Lions' Andy Dewey walked and scored on Jon Levine's home run. Lions added another in the third when Jim Craner reached base on an error, and hustled home on another error by Rotary. Lions rounded out their scoring on consecutive hits by Steven Novich, Jon Levine and Scott Worswick.

In the fourth, Lions Club ran into trouble as three runs were walked across the plate to give Rotary the edge.

Rotary the edge.

Again Crestmont Savings out-hit the number one team but lost to Rotary, 12-11 Jerry Blabolil went the distance for Rotary; he allowed seven hits. Rotary's Jeffrey Knowles hit a three-run homer in the top of the fifth. Other Rotary hits were by Jerry Blabolil, a triple and a single, and Larry Maier, a double.

For Cresmont, Chuck Bell drilled a double: Andrew Peskin, Ken Palozzi, Jeff Engelhardt, Joe Demark, John Gambrino and Steve Tennenbaum all had singles.

Keyes-Martin snapped Rotary's winning streak with a 4-3 victory in a tight pitchers' duel between possibly the two best pitchers in the Majors. Onzillor Pulliam received the win as he kept the Rotary batters off stride, allowing only four hits while striking out 13. Kevin Karp pitched an excellent game for Rotary as he recorded eight strikeouts but spotty defense proved to be his downfall.

Each pitcher had a shaky first inning. A walk to Alan Berliner and a triple by Onzillo Pulliam produced one Keyes' run. Then Tony Gargiulo hit a shot back to pitcher Kevin Karp, and was tossed out at first base; first baseman Wayne Mayer's perfect throw to catcher Don Magers doubled up Onzillo Pulliam trying to score from third, Jerome Pulliam hit a home run to make the score 2-0. This lead did not last very long as singles by Bill Condon, Jeffrey Knowles, and Larry Maier produced two Rotary runs.

With Onzillo Pulliam and Adam Bain supplying the key hits, Keyes-Martin took a 4-2 lead after three innings. Utilizing two walks. Rotary closed the gap to 4-3 after five innings. In the last of the sixth, with one out, Bill Condon lined a single to center field, his third of the game. When the next batter struck out, Bill Condon stole second base. Clean-up hitter Wayne Mayer then lined a sizzling shot right at third baseman Robert Steir for the last out of the game.

Jerome Pulliam led the way for Keyes-Martin, banging out a home run and a single. The winners' Onzillor Pulliam drilled a triple; Robert Meskin, Adam Bain and Geoffrey Snyder had singles.

Bill Condon collected three of the four Rotary hits, all singles. Don Magers had the other single. Wayne Mayer's hitting streak was stopped at seven games.

The power of Joey Dorfman was too much for PBA to handle as his eight RBI led Lions Club to a 9-6 victory. PBA was off to a 3-0 lead on four walks and a double by Agapias Kyritsis. In the top of the third, however, Lions got three runners on base by walks, then Joey Dorfman unloaded a towering shot to center field for a grandslam home run. In the top of the fourth, Steven Novich beat out a sacrifice bunt, and Joey Dorfman powered a drive to right-center which was good for a three-run homer as he slid nder the tag at the plate.

PBA came back with three runs in the bottom of the fourth on a single by Scott Consentino, and a double by Scott Henkle. Good catches by Jonathan Usdin and Steven Warner cut the PBA rally short.

In the sixth inning, Lions added an insurance run as Scott Worswick doubled and Joey Dorfman drove in his eighth run with a single.

PBA won its first game of the season beating Crestmont-Savings, 10-5, behind the excellent-pitching of David Wasserman and the powerful hitting of Vincent Cervone. PBA's scoring began when Scott Henkle and Scott Consentino led off the second inning with singles; Doug Forman followed with an RBI single and Vincent Cervone smashed a double to right, scoring two more runs.

In the fourth inning, Richard Genzer and Doug Forman led off with singles, followed by another double by Vincent Cervone. In the fifth, Vincent Cervone's single scored two more runs; he finished the game with six RBI. Also hitting well for PBA was Eric Rutstein with three hits. Crestmont's Michael Silver and John Gambrino each had two hits, but PBA always came up with the key plays to end any threat. David Wasserman was the first PBA pitcher to go the distance as he allowed only seven hits and three earned runs.

Craig Clickenger's four hits, including two triples, a single, and a double, led Lions Club past PBA, 14-8. While PBA got off to an early 6-1 lead, mainly on walks by Steven Kessler and David Wasserman and two infield errors, Lions Club had a big third inning and took control of the game. Jon Siegel had three singles; Scott Worswick drilled a triple but was thrown out at the plate trying to stretch it; Steven Novich and Steven Warner also hit well for Lions. Craig Clickenger tallied seven RBI. Jon Levine pitched a beautiful game, settling down after the first inning. Throughout the entire game he gave up only four hits; only two reached the outfield.

With the lead changing five times and 22 hits being issued, American Legion held on to beat Lions Club. 15-11.

Lions Club jumped to an early lead on consecutive hits by Steven Novich. Craig Clickenger, Scott Worswick, Jon Levine and Joey Dorfman. Hits by John Alexey, John Karp, John Meisel, Drew Johns, Jill Jacobs, Rot Zitomer and Barry Sherman erased that early lead. As the fifth inning rolled around and darkness threatened, the Lions Club trailed, 10-5. A double by Scott Worswick, walks to Jon Levine, Steven Warner, Jonathan Usdin and Jon Siegel, and singles by Steven Novich, Craig Clickenger and Joey Dorfman produced six runs for Lions. American Legion then came back to score five times to win.

American Legion defeated Keyes-Martin, 10-

In a tight game, Crestmont Savings came from behind in the bottom of the sixth to nip Keyes-Martin, 8-7. With runners on second and third after two consecutive walks, Jay Bruder delivered the ice-breaker with a single to right field. Other Crestmont hitters were Ken Palozzi, who drilled a three-run homer to left field—but only two runs counted as he just missed home plate; Jeff Engelhardt, a single and a double; Michael Silver, two singles and a double; Francis Clemson and Andrew Peskin, singles; and David Moss, two-run double in the bottom of the fifth.

Keyes-Martin's Onzillor Pulliam, Jerome Pulliam, Tony Gargiulo, Robert Meskin and Adam Bain all had singles. Adam Bain pitched no-hit baseball for four innings.

American Legion jumped on Crestmont pitching right away, collecting ten runs in the first two innings on six hits to defeat Crestmont, 13-6. John Karp had a double and two triples for Legion; John Alexey a double and single; Drew Johns two singles; and Roy Zitomer and Ira Tauber contributed a single apiece.

Crestmont Savings' hits belted by: Joe Demark, Donald Zahn, Jeff Engelhardt and Michael Silver, doubles; and Ken Palozzi, John Gambrino and Chuck Bell, singles.

PBA continued to out-hit its opponents yet lose the game, this time falling to Rotary, 15-9

In the top of the first, Scott Henkle's single scored two runs and Michael Rutstein's squeeze bunt scored another, to give PBA a 3-0 lead. Wayne Mayer's home run in the second put Rotary in the lead. In the fourth, Doug Forman, Vincent Cervone and John Fingerhut hit singles to put PBA back on top, 7-6. Again Rotary came back in their half of the inning. Seven batters reached base on walks, and Jerry-Blabolil's-grand-slam-home run gave Rotary a 14-7 lead. PBA scored twice in the fifth but darkness halted the game at 15-9.

but darkness halted the game at 15-9. In a closely contested battle, American Legion edged PBA 19-18. Going into the bottom of the fifth inning, PBA trailed American Legion 17-6. But PBA came through with nine runs on the homer of Scott Henkle and key hits by Doug Forman, Vincent Cervone and Eric Rutstein. In the sixth, American Legion scored another run to make it 18-15. But in the bottom half of the inning, Richard Genzer, Steven Kessler, David Wasserman and Eric Rutstein singled to tie the game.

American Legion won the game in the seventh inning. The key hit for Legion was a double by Drew Johns; the key fielding play was a diving catch by Roy Zitomer in center

The Youth Major League standings as of June 1 are as follows: Rotary Club, 10-2; American Legion, 8-4; Crestmont Savings, 6-6; Keyes-Martin, 5-6; Lions Club, 4-6; PBA, 1-10.

DISC 'N DATA

Pick of the LP's, HELLO IT'S ME; by Lani Hall (A&M SP-4508). Lani weaves pure magic with her selection of these ten numbers: the title "Hello It's Me," "Peace In The Valley," "Time Will Tell," "Banquet," "Wheelers And Dealers," "Happy Woman," "Exclusively For Me," "Save The Sunlight," "Savet Jams And Jellies," "Corrida De Jangada "Give the LP disc a spin, and enjoy this latening treat.

After nearly a decade of professional singing, Lani has achieved a maturity and purpose unfortunately rare in the meruruial world of

During ber very first nightelub engagement she was discovered by Sergio Mendes, and-still a teenager-Lam became the lead singer with Brasil '66. For six years she toured and recorded with that group, insinuating ber sinuous phrasing into the rhythms of the late Sixties It was a valuable episode, and Lani remembers it with affection; but eventually it crased to offer any opportunity for growth

Sun Down Lady," Lani's first solo recording, was a transitional album. She says of it: 'As a listener, I'm still impressed. It was the test I could do at that time, and I feel it stands up well. I came part of the way then, in the direction I really wanted to go towards expressing myself completely

This, her second album signals Lani's arrival at that destination. Lani Hall-like "Sun Down Lady," produced by husband Herb Albert-teatures the songs of gifted but relatively. unknown writers like TJB planist Dave Frischlerg as well as the week of celebrated lyricists such as Join Mitchell and Todd Rundgren. All twocht from Lam's individual intelligent, immediate approach. Lang Hall has the rance and depth of feeling of a major artist who has tested and learned to trust her instincts

POST 2 PM . Daily Double 1:50 PM

The State of New Jersey placed for adoption nearly 400 children last year, including more than 200, who, because of age, race or special problems are considered hard-to-place. Commissioner Ann Klein of the Department of Institutions and Agencies reported this week. Mrs. Klein said "there still remains a great need for adoption homes" and she urged interested persons to apply.

Mrs. Klein said the department's Division of Youth and Family Services found adoption homes last year for a total of 394 children, including those adopted by their foster parents as-well as by individuals or couples who had approached the agency.

Of these, she said, 215 children were considered hard-to-place. Sixty-three children (29 percent) were more than 10 years of age, and 96 (45 percent) had special mental, medical, physical or emotional problems. Others were considered hard-to-place because of race or a combination of problems. Three of the children placed were victims of Downs Syndrome, also known as Mongolism.

"One of the primary reasons for our continued success in placing these children," Commissioner Klein said, "is the subsidized adoption law, which had its first real impact during the 1974 calendar year."

In previous years, even without subsidy, the state has ranked among the top nationally in the actual number of black youngsters placed in adoption homes. Comparative statistics are not yet available for 1974.

N.J. researchers earn $422,000 for cancer study

Nine grants totaling more than $422,000 have been awarded to New Jersey researchers in the field of cancer, it was announced this week by Joseph J. Ippolito, president of the New Jersey

Division of the American Cancer Society.
"These grants," said Ippolito, "are part of the American Cancer Society's continuing effort to seek out the causes of this cruel disease, to find more effective means of combatting it, and to discover new means of alleviating the suffering it causes.

"It is estimated that 53 million Americans now living eventually will get cancer. This is one in four persons at present rates. This year an estimated 365,000 Americans will die of cancer-14,300 in New Jersey alone," said Ippolito

"We in the American Cancer Society are determined to use every means at our command to lower these projections and, hopefully, to eventually wipe them out altogether

"This is not a wishful dream. In the last 40 years we have seen the survival rate improve from one in five to one in three. We know that early detection combined with the current knowledge of treatment could lower this ratio to one in two.

'That is why we urge everyone-men and women, young and old- to seek competent medical help at the first suspicion of cancer. That also is why we apply at least 40 percent of our financial resources to seeking new knowledge through research," concluded
