Borough scholars earn high grades in statewide tests

Mountainside fourth and seventh graders who participated in statewide mathematics and reading tests in October 1975 produced "very good to excellent" scores in the exams, according to a report by Dr. Levin B. Hanigan, borough superintendent of schools. The results were released today.

For the purposes of the exams, communities throughout New Jersey were grouped according to common socio-economic characteristics, and differences in the scores were attributed to these characteristics by percentages, Hanigan explained.

He said educational background accounted for 27.82 percent of the differences, occupational background, 24.17 percent; per capita income, 19.26 percent; poverty level, 13.32 percent; unemployment rate, 10.33 percent; population density, 4.19 percent; degree of urbanization, 3.81 percent; and population mobility, .03 percent.

Data from the 1970 United States Census were used to develop the District Factor Groupings (DFG) for score interpretations. Using that data, all N.J. communities were rated and placed in 10 groups of about 50 each, with Mountainside placed with the "top" DFG districts.

"With this kind of competition in mind, the Mountainside test results were very good to excellent," Hanigan stated. "Certainly they were consistent with the high standards the community has set for its schools—effective college preparation, basic skills of reading, writing, spelling, mathematics, collection and application of desirable information, problem solving, critical thinking and communication. Implied, too, is a strong relationship to appropriate experiences in cultural activities—art, music, theater, physical education, athletics, typing, home economics and shop."

In presenting an overall statistical summary of the test results, Hanigan noted:

In the fourth grade reading test, with 95 items, 70, or 73.6 percent were above the DFG reference point; 12, or 12.6 percent, were equal to the DFG; and 13, or 13.6 percent, were below the DFG. In mathematics, with 72 items, 44, or 61.1 percent were above the DFG; nine, or 12.5 percent were equal to the DFG; and 19, or 26.4 percent were below the DFG.

Transport calls pose problems for aid squad

The Mountainside Rescue Squad, while continuing its efforts to provide increased services to the community, this week also reminded borough residents that, at present, it must follow certain restrictions for non-emergency transportations.

It is the policy of the squad always to maintain one unit in the borough for possible emergencies. Since there is a critical shortage of daytime volunteers, the only time a back-up crew can be readily assembled is at night—making the best time for the non-emergency transportation to be scheduled between 7 p.m. and midnight.

A borough resident may obtain the non-emergency transportation when it is authorized by a physician, a squad spokesman noted. If possible, at least 24 hours' notice should be given to the squad captain, via the Police Department, so the back-up crew can be assigned. If advance notice is not given and a second crew cannot be assembled to remain in the borough, the non-emergency service call cannot be answered until after 7 p.m., the spokesman explained.

He emphasized that all emergencies will be handled immediately, 24 hours of every day. However, unlike the non-emergency cases, emergency transportations are only to Overlook Hospital, Summit, since it is the closest medical facility. Using Overlook permits the patient to obtain assistance quickly and enables the ambulance to return to Mountainside within a reasonable amount of time to stand by for other possible calls.

All members of the Rescue Squad are volunteers, and any borough resident 16 years of age and older may apply for membership. Information may be obtained by calling the squad captain Ronald Romak, at 376-8459; Len Marx, president, at 376-1704, or Jean Rawlins, secretary, at 232-4360.

Recently, the squad completed renovation of its Rt. 22 headquarters, converting the attic into sleeping quarters for the crew. Now, six nights a week, members sleep in to provide even quicker service on an emergency call. Members now respond from their homes during the day, but if more volunteers can be recruited, 24-hour live-in coverage may be provided.

Tennis players to reserve courts

The trial reservation system at Mountainside's Echobrook tennis courts will begin on May 20. The system, which will be in effect for seven weeks, will provide players with the opportunity to reserve a court weekday evenings between 5-9 p.m. and on weekends and holidays between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m. A fee of $2 per hour will be charged to reserve a court.

A court attendant will be on duty during these hours. In addition to the supervision of the reservation system, the attendant will check all players for tennis badges. Anyone without a badge will not be allowed to play.

Details of the reservation system are available at Borough Hall. They may also be obtained at the recreation table at the PTA Fair, and at the Borough Hall on Wednesday evening, May 12, from 8 to 9. Tennis badges will also be on sale during these hours.

Applications are still being accepted for the position of court attendant. Readers may call the Recreation Office, 232-0015, for additional information.

Meeting on Tuesday for Regional Board

The Board of Education of the Union County Regional High School District will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m. on Tuesday in the cafeteria of the Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School on Westfield avenue, Clark.

The public has been invited to attend this meeting which will be held to transact regular board business.

Little League teams open '76 season following traditional borough parade

By RICHARD REITER
This past Saturday marked the opening day of the Mountainside Little League baseball season. The day began with the traditional parade through the borough streets to the Deerfield School for the festivities. Players from the American League, Major League and Girls' Softball League marched, accompanied by the Rescue Squad ambulance, fire trucks, the Jonathan Dayton Bulldog Band, under the direction of Jeff Anderson.

The ceremonies at the Major League Field included an invocation by the Rev. Charles Urick of Our Lady of Lourdes Church. Master-of-ceremonies Bill Biunno presented the following dignitaries: Councilman Bruce Geiger, representing Mayor Thomas Ricciardi; Councilmen Donald Halbsgut, John O'Connell and Abe Suckno; Ron Wood, school board representative; Ron Romak, Rescue Squad; Bob Sherry, Fire Chief; Lt. Joseph Mazur, Police Department; Sue Winans, Recreation Department; and Ronnie Geiger of the Girls' Softball League.

The president of Little League, George Yoggy, introduced the League's board members and asked Michael Ruggieri of the Major League Mustangs, grandson of C. A. Parry, one of the founders of Mountainside Little League 23 years ago, to sell its first contest ticket to Geiger. The drive, conducted by the League directors, will get into full swing this Saturday. Geiger threw out the first ball, and the '76 season was officially under way. A good-sized crowd showed up to cheer the teams on, and even the threat of foul weather and a brief shower or two didn't deter them. The fields were in excellent condition, and the new Bicentennial paint on the Major League dugouts added a festive touch.

In the opener of the American League, the Brewers shut down the Cardinals' late rally to protect their lead and win the game 16-4. The Cards began to spark under the relief pitching of Peter Grett and the bats of Chris Dooley and Glen Stummer, but they fell short of the mark.

The Brewers were paced by two shut-out innings from pitchers Mickey Tomko and Vince Manning, who also had two hits. The base running of Walter Heckel, the hitting of Timmy Carter and Steven Sokohl, and the fielding of David Bizzo and Matthew Miller all contributed to the victory.

The Blue Stars and Giants battled in the Major League opener. The Giants took an early lead, but the Blue Stars fought back for a 12-10 triumph. Frank Gagliano went the distance to become the winning pitcher, contributing to his own victory with three RBI. Greg Van Name also had three RBI. Steve Scholes and Kirk Yoggy each had two.

In other Major League action the Orioles decisively topped the Dodgers 24-2. Danny Weiss was the winning pitcher. Weiss and Frank Knoll each hit home runs. Steve Vitello fielded strongly at short-stop.

The first Senior League game saw the Tigers defeat the Orioles 5-1 on seven hits. Gregg Rusbarsky won the game from the mound, pitching all eight innings. He allowed only one run and struck out 12 batters. Tim Holleran hit a three-run homer for the Tigers. Gregg Ponagos, Kevin Iacone, and Keith Mirto all had key hits, and Kerry Lesslauer made a double play in the field. Steven Gallagher was a strong fielder.

The Twins and Indians went into extra innings to decide the game. The Twins emerged victorious, rallying for three runs in the top of the ninth. Jeff Brown pitched the game for the Twins, striking out 17 batters and hitting a home run. Dave Lauhoff hit in two runs. Key fielding by Bob Anderson and Glen Mortimer helped insure the victory.

Cancer Crusade under way here; goal is $4,435

The American Cancer Society's 1976 fundraising and educational Crusade is in full swing in Mountainside.

"Our Crusade goal this year is $4,435," said Connie Whalen, Crusade chairman, "and so far, we have raised one-fourth of this total. We are counting on the support of Mountainside residents in this mass educational and fund-raising effort, which is conducted by the Society every April."

She added, "The funds, which are raised by volunteer crusaders, are desperately needed to help support the society's programs of research, education and patient service. These programs are implemented in our county through the Union County Unit of the Society."

"Last year 702 patients received services which totaled over $22,000. Our education programs reached 80,000 people, adults as well as children. More than $300,000 in society research grants is currently in effect in four New Jersey research facilities."

"Mountainside's 180 volunteers, part of the New Jersey Division's volunteer force of 60,000, are visiting every household in Mountainside with life-saving information about cancer. Please contribute generously so that cancer can be wiped out in our lifetime."

Hahn is awarded ice boat trophies

Charles Hahn of Coles avenue, Mountainside, received two trophies for ice boating recently at a dinner in Sea Bright. He had placed second in Yankee Class racing this past winter at Greenwood Lake and finished second in Eastern Ice Yachting Association races.

Hahn has been a member of the Lake Hopatcong Ice Yacht Club for 30 years. He is also a member of the Lackawanna Power Squadron.

The awards dinner was preceded by a cocktail party at the Long Branch Ice Yacht and Boating Club.

Suckno issues warning on skateboards hazard

Skateboards, an increasingly popular form of recreation for Mountainside children, also are causing danger to the youths who ride them on the local roadways—and the result may be preparation of a borough ordinance to regulate use of the boards.

In a report presented at last week's Borough Council meeting, Police Commissioner Abe Suckno noted receipt of a number of complaints by residents, especially motorists, about children riding in the streets, during both day and night.

He cited a report by the Consumer Products Safety Commission which shows that at least 23,522 persons received emergency hospital treatment in this country last year for injuries suffered in skateboarding accidents. Skateboard-related injuries now stand at the fifth highest accident frequency from children's toys, the commission said. And the rate could be expected to increase as manufacturers bring out "better" and faster boards.

"We ask that the children use the skateboards only under controlled conditions, not in the streets," Suckno said. "And they also should not use them in driveways leading into the roads. We appeal to parents to share the responsibility we all face."

Police Chief Edward Mullin also has issued an appeal to parents "to make them aware that their children are exposing themselves to serious injury and could be the cause of an accident by riding skateboards in the street."

Mullin noted that at least one Essex County town has an ordinance prohibiting use of the boards in roadways, and holding parents responsible for any violations of the law. Mountainside Borough Attorney John Post has been directed by the governing body to research that ordinance and present his findings to the council for discussion.

Second date set for registration

Because of a small initial turnout, a second date has been scheduled for the Mountainside kindergarten registration for the 1976-77 school year. Parents who could not attend the first time are asked to come on May 5 to Deerfield School, either in the morning between 9 and 11, or in the afternoon between 1 and 3.

To be eligible the child must be five years old on or before Dec. 1, 1976. The child's birth certificate must be presented at the time of registration. If at all possible, the child should be in attendance because a vision test is administered at this time. Further information is available from Mary Post at 232-2150.

Bicycle contest to precede fair

A "Bike-Centennial Contest" for students in kindergarten through 5th grade will be held at 10 a.m., May 8, at the Beechwood School, preceding the annual Mountainside PTA Fair. Judging the decorated cycles will be Mayor Thomas Ricciardi, who will award the three top prizes. All entrants will receive a small gift.

Following the judging, the bicycles, accompanied by a band from Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, will come from a parade to the Deerfield School for the official opening of the fair, to be held from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Further information on the "Bike-Centennial" may be obtained by calling 232-1851.

Rupp: school enrollments facing continued decline

A continued decline in Mountainside school enrollment has been forecast by Walter H. Rupp, chairman of the long-range planning committee of the Mountainside Board of Education, in a report presented recently to the board.

High school band vies this weekend in Virginia parade

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Bulldog Marching Band of Springfield and Mountainside will participate Saturday and Sunday in a national marching band competition and apple blossom parade in Buryville, Va., sponsored by the Shenandoah Conservatory of Music. Bands from all over the United States will show off their techniques, talents and styles in marching, judged by members of the National Judges Association. The 1972 Bulldog Marching Band also attended the festival.

After the Virginia trip, the Bulldogs will compete in symphonic performance (Jonathan Dayton Concert Band and Wind Ensemble under the direction of Dr. Jeffrey Ernest Anderson) and field show performance (Jonathan Dayton Marching Band under the

The forecast, to 1981, includes major factor trends which influence school population: home construction, birth rates, number of families moving into a community and the effects of other schools in the area.

According to Rupp, the kindergarten enrollment forecast for September 1976 is 75 children, dropping to 55 in September 1978 and rising to 79 in 1981. Total enrollment for all grades will be 881 in September of this year, Rupp said, will drop to a low of 702 in September 1980, and then rise again, to 706, in 1981.

Rupp noted that in 1966 there was a total enrollment of 1,327 in the borough school system, compared to the 1976 total of 915—a 31 percent decrease. "The cost per student has increased by 196 percent for current expenses and 177 percent for total costs. Thus, quality has not been forgotten," he commented.

According to the report, home construction in the borough has decreased by 92 percent since the peak year of 1950; births have declined by 59 percent since the peak year of 1957, and kindergarten enrollment has dropped by 56 percent since its peak year of 1962.

"The forecasts confirm the board's policy of shutting down Echobrook School several years ago," Rupp concluded. "The enrollment decline anticipated, the decreased staffing projected, and the timing correctness are all confirmed."

Rupp has been preparing long-range enrollment forecasts for the board since 1962.

KEY CLUB VOLUNTEERS—Three members of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Key Club use their free time to help catalog and shelve library materials in the school's instructional media center. Regional board adopts cuts totaling $260,911 in budget

The Board of Education of the Union County Regional High School District agreed upon cuts totaling $260,911 from its 1976-77 budget at a regular business meeting held last week at Gov. Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights.

The cuts were made from both the current expense and capital outlay portions of the budget. Capital outlay saw a total reduction of $117,022. In current expense, the major reductions came in salaries, with $79,952 being pared from the budget and building and grounds items, with a decrease of $43,037.

The board reduced the Regional District's staff by a total of 30 positions. Prior to the budget defeat last month, the board had prepared a budget that had eliminated 20 positions. Those cuts included 12 teaching positions, four cafeteria teacher aides (a part-time position) and four custodial positions. Speech therapy was reduced by two days of service per week, and one part-time administrative assistant's position was also eliminated.

As a result of the budget defeat and subsequent budget cuts as well as the declining enrollment, 10 additional positions were eliminated. The staff was reduced by five additional teaching positions, one media aide and four audio-visual technicians. As a result of attrition (teachers leaving the district because of leaves of absence, retirements and resignations), only 17 staff members were actually terminated by the board from employment in 1976-77.

Other reductions in the current expense portion of the budget included: $1,000 from professional in-service meetings and $9,900 from replacement equipment.

The filming of athletic events ($10,911), which had been originally eliminated from the budget, was restored. This was done at the recommendation of the superintendent after the district's athletic directors informed the board and administrators that a number of students received college scholarships as a direct result of having their game films viewed by college coaches.

In the capital outlay portion of the budget, major reductions included: Port-a-Sheds at Jonathan Dayton and Governor Livingston ($11,822), exterior window replacement at Dayton ($43,000), folding doors for the gymnasium at David Brearley ($25,000), regrading of a hockey field at Arthur L. Johnson ($7,700) and a track drainage improvement project at Governor Livingston ($29,500).

Miss Alessi picked for 'Who's Who' list

Denise Gail Alessi of Knollwood road, Mountainside, is among 27 Union College students selected for inclusion in the 1976 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges.

Miss Alessi is enrolled in the three-year cooperative program in professional nursing conducted jointly by Union College and Mulenberg Hospital School of Nursing. She has been named to the president's list for three of her semesters at Union College and to the dean's list for one semester. She is active in extra-curricular activities at the School of Nursing and served as vice-president of her freshman class.

Tenure voted for Fiordaliso

The Regional High School District Board of Education last week voted to hire Anthony Fiordaliso for a fourth year as principal at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School in Springfield, a move which will give him tenure in office when the school opens in September. He was approved by a vote of seven to two, with Sonya Dorsky of Springfield and William Keyes of Berkeley Heights opposed.

The board also voted to rehire 19 nontenured teachers at Dayton. Six staff members were not rehired, because of budget cuts as well as a continued drop in student population.

Mrs. Arrowsmith; former resident

Funeral services were held yesterday for Mrs. Fannie Boyton Arrowsmith of Martinsville, formerly of Mountainside, who died Saturday at age 83.

Mrs. Arrowsmith was born in Mountainside and resided here most of her life, moving to Martinsville two years ago. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Westfield.

Mrs. Arrowsmith was the widow of John Arrowsmith. Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Gladys Kersting of South Plainfield. Funeral arrangements were completed by the Gray Funeral Home, Westfield.

FRIDAY DEADLINE

All items other than spot news should be in our office by noon on Friday.

Seven drivers are penalized by Judge Baurer for offenses

Seven motorists were fined for vehicle violations at the April 21 session of Mountainside Municipal Court, with Judge Jacob R. Baurer presiding.

The heaviest penalty went to Dennis M. Kelly of Elizabeth, found guilty of driving on New Providence road while under the influence of alcohol. He was fined $115 and had his license revoked for six months.

Hugh L. Burton of Newark paid a total of $70, including $15 for contempt of court, for permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car on Rt. 22. Vincent Frasco of Fanwood, ticketed on the highway for driving 80 mph in a 50-mile zone, was fined $40 and had his license revoked for two months. Other drivers and their fines included: George P. Grigg of Westfield, careless driving on Rt. 22, $30; Martin F. Cody Jr. of Pembroke road, illegally passing a school bus on New Providence road, $20; Samuel E. Robinson of Plainfield, failure to make vehicle repairs, Rt. 22, $15, and contempt, $10; David S. Klein of Scotch Plains, operating an unregistered vehicle, Rt. 22, $15.

In other court action, Richard J. Mullarkey of New Rochelle, N.Y., was found innocent of charges he had attempted to defraud Dr. Arthur G. Williams of Mountainside by falsely representing the value of a fur coat he was offering for sale.

Lampshade craft topic of Y session

Ruth Keller of Union will give a demonstration of lampshade piercing at the Westfield YWCA tomorrow from 1 to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Keller will show how to select a design in proportion to the size of the shade and how to cut, pierce and line the shade. She also will suggest ways in which one can transform old shades into new ones.

This event is open to the public. A nominal fee will be collected at the door. Coffee will be served, but no baby-sitting is available.

ARTHUR M. GOLDBERG

Goldberg named director of bank

Arthur M. Goldberg of Coles avenue, Mountainside, has been elected a member of the board of directors of County Trust Company of North Jersey, Tenafly. It has been announced by Frederick J. Scholz, the bank's president.

Goldberg, an attorney, also is vice-president of Gross and Hecht Trucking Company of Edison. He is a director of the New Jersey Motor Truck Association and the New York Motor Truck Association. He is also a member of the board of advisors of Liberty Mutual Insurance Company.

He serves as chairman of the Mountainside Juvenile Conference Committee, is on the board of managers of the Union County Cancer Society and is a member of the 200 Club of Union County.

Goldberg is a graduate of Rutgers University and holds a doctorate in law from Villanova Law School.

Maguire surgery set for next week

Assemblyman William J. Maguire of Clark will enter Point Pleasant Medical Hospital on Sunday for major surgery on his lower back. He will undergo spinal fusion and the removal of two discs.

Maguire said he delayed the operation until after the public hearings of the legislature's Joint Appropriations Committee, of which he is a member. "The doctors simply will not tolerate further delay, and I expect to be laid up approximately six to ten weeks," he added.

Maguire said he has arranged with the Assembly minority leadership and with his own staff to be briefed regarding legislative proceedings during his convalescence. He stated "I regret that I will apparently miss several key votes regarding the new state budget and other matters, but I confess I am anxious to have the operation performed so that I can return to my duties before the legislature adjourns for the summer."

GENERAL MATTHIAS OGDEN Elizabethtown Patriot

(Part II)

During the Revolution there was no more patriotic or daring soldier in New Jersey than Matthias Ogden. At the age of 21 he left Elizabethtown and, with his close friend, Aaron Burr, journeyed to Boston to join the embattled farmers of that area in their fight against the British.

Shortly after they arrived in Cambridge, Massachusetts, a call was issued for volunteers to undertake a hazardous march through the Maine wilderness in order to combat King George's army in Canada. Both Ogden and Burr offered their services. Ogden became a captain in a regiment of Grenadiers under Lieutenant Christopher Greene.

Traveling was not easy and after overcoming many hardships, the Americans finally joined General Richard Montgomery and his Army under the cliffs of Quebec. It was here on the night of December 31 that Ogden was wounded in the shoulder while storming the enemy fort. Another of Ogden's friends, William Crane, the son of Elizabethtown Mayor William Crane, was also wounded in this battle.

When the Canadian Campaign was over and the defeated American Army was back in New York, Ogden married Hannah Dayton, daughter of General Elias Dayton. Not long after the marriage Hannah left Elizabethtown for the safety of the interior, and Matthias went to the northern frontier to assist General Philip Schuyler combat the British, Tories and Indians.

Matthias Ogden distinguished himself on many occasions with his exploits. One such time was when he, with a few chosen companions, attempted to capture the Crown Prince of England, afterwards King William IV, in New York City.

William, son of King George, when 14 years old, was appointed a midshipman in the British Navy, and to broaden his knowledge of the sea and distant lands accompanied Admiral Digby to America. The admiral's fleet arrived in New York in 1779 and remained there for some months.

The Crown Prince, who liked to enjoy himself, was allowed to have his own way in pretty much everything. He spent much of his time ashore having a good time with companions. He went about unattended by pomp, display or guard, and was wasteful in the use of money, with which he was ever well provided.

Knowing of the Prince's presence in New York, Ogden thought it might be possible to capture England's future ruler and bring him to New Jersey as a hostage. He thereupon worked out a plan and submitted it to General Washington in camp at New Windsor on the Hudson River.

"I do not altogether favor such a mode of warfare," said Washington after hearing Ogden's intentions, "but it will give you a little diversion and prove of some value to the cause. You have my permission to engage in the enterprise, but if you succeed in capturing the young man you must treat him with all the honor due his great rank. I cannot but impress upon you the necessity of extreme caution if you wish to escape the fate of Nathan Hale."

Armed with his permission and elated at the outcome of his interview with Washington, Ogden hurried back to Elizabethtown and selected four trusted men from his regiment upon whom he could depend.

Early in the fall the men made their way to Paulus Hook (Jersey City) where they appropriated a skiff suited to their purpose. Weather caused a postponement for two nights. On the third night they set forth on their mission; and, while eluding British vessels lying at anchor, almost reached New York when they were suddenly hailed from an enemy launch filled with soldiers.

Taken unawares and unprepared to return a satisfactory answer to the challenge, Ogden veered off and rowed up the river followed by a hail of bullets. Being unable to find a safe haven for his boat, Ogden made for the Jersey shore and finally reached what is now Hoboken, where he and his men landed safely under a fire which the American outpost located there directed against the approaching British boats that were following in close pursuit.

This adventure or misadventure of Ogden's formed interesting conversation... and some laughter... in American camps for many months after.

Some years later when William IV heard that Washington had ordered Ogden to treat him kindly, if captured, he remarked: "I am obliged to General Washington for his humanity, but I'm damn'd glad I did not give him the opportunity of exercising it toward me."

While still a young man of 36, Ogden contracted yellow fever and died suddenly on March 31, 1791. He is buried in the First Presbyterian Church graveyard on Broad Street. The epitaph on the stone that marks his grave reads as follows: "If manly sense and dignity of mind, if social virtues liberal and refined nipped in their bloom deserve compassion's tears, then reader weep, for Ogden's dust lies here."

Did You Know

... that Aaron Burr, Matthias Ogden's boyhood companion, classmate and wartime comrade-in-arms, was defeated when he ran for governor of New York because of Alexander Hamilton's control of the Federalist vote in that state. Letters written by Hamilton in which he labeled Burr "a dangerous man" and one of whom he entertained "a still more dispicable opinion" led to a duel between the two men in which Hamilton was mortally wounded.

New Regional board athletics policy awaits approval at meeting Tuesday

The Regional High School District Board of Education last week introduced a new policy governing the high school athletic program. It will come up for approval at the board's meeting Tuesday at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark.

Principal changes from the previous policy include permission, in some instances, for athletes to go away on family vacation during the varsity season without forfeiting membership on the team. In addition, permission may be granted for athletes to compete on an AAU team or with another group, during a varsity season.

Portions of the proposed policy are printed below:

It is recommended that teachers be allowed to coach in only two sports each year. In an emergency, however, with the approval of the principal and athletic director, coaching of three sports is permitted. The duties and responsibilities of the athletic director do not permit sufficient time for coaching in addition to being athletic director. For this reason athletic directors should not serve as coaches except in an emergency.

No player of an interscholastic athletic team, either varsity, JV, sophomore or freshman, shall participate on another school team simultaneously. Outside of school, competition may be permitted provided it has prior approval of the head coach and athletic director and it is clearly understood that school sponsored interscholastic athletic team activities have first priority.

Each head coach, with the approval of the athletic director, must fully explain and distribute in writing copies of all requirements and responsibilities for that athletic team to each candidate trying out for that team. This is to be completed at the initial tryout meeting. The requirements and responsibilities set forth by that coach must be developed in accordance with discipline required for serious team participation as well as with concern for individual needs and differences of students.

There may be times during a sport season, when an athlete must miss a practice or competition. Although this is not encouraged because of a student's commitment to the other members of the squad and a school's commitment to the NJSIAA to field a team, excused absences are permitted as outlined in the student attendance policy.

Excused absences include: personal illness or injury, illness in the family, religious holidays, funerals, a period of bereavement for death in the family, family vacations, doctor or dental appointments, college visitations or other reasons that are considered by school administration to make absence from practice or competition a necessity. Upon return, the student continues as a member of the team.

It is important for all students to be able to participate in family vacations. Family vacations for athletes, however, may result in interruption of practices, competitions or tournament play. For this reason, specific rules for athletes to be granted excused absences for family vacations must be maintained. The rules are as follows:

1. Parents must make requests for excused absences from athletics as far in advance as possible and shall make such requests in writing to the principal of the building in which the child is enrolled.

2. The principal will, by written notification, advise the parent that the athlete's standing on the team or squad may suffer as the result of the absence from athletic participation and that upon return the athlete is not guaranteed the former place on any team or squad. The athlete, upon return, may resume the athletic participation but might have to compete with others of equal or greater athletic ability whose performance improved during the period of vacation.

3. Absence from athletics for family vacation at the end of a season is especially serious because of the post-season championships, playoffs and tournaments. Family vacations for athletes could have an impact upon the total team and therefore should be planned with care.

4. Athletes excused for family vacations are considered as valid team members upon return and are eligible for all awards and honors accorded other athletes who did not go on vacation.

A STUDENT HAVING satisfactorily honored the requirements and responsibilities set forth by that coach for that sport, and who is a valid team member at the conclusion of the sport season, shall be awarded a letter for each sport in which he or she qualified. Seniors may be awarded letters for conscientious attendance at practice even though they fail to play the required length of time or score in meets. Varsity letters shall be awarded after the first year and chevrons each succeeding year. A student who letters four years will be awarded a gold monogram.

Grievance procedures slated for board action

The proposed new policy for the handling of grievances against school procedures or personnel by parents or students which was introduced at last week's meeting of the Regional High School District Board of Education is scheduled for final action at the board meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark.

The new policy is designed to streamline the processing of grievances and to speed the hearing process.

Portions of the proposed grievance policy are printed below:

The Board of Education recognizes the rights of students and parents to grieve educational or administrative issues arising within the Regional District and to seek relief via orderly and equitable procedures. The Board of Education also recognizes the responsibility of the school administration to develop and implement an orderly and equitable pupil-parent grievance procedure.

Any student(s) or parent(s) having a grievance with the educational or administrative processes of a particular school or the Regional District, or against a specific member of the faculty or administrative staff of one of the schools within the Regional District, shall make every effort to resolve such grievance in informal conferences with the staff member directly concerned.

All conferences shall be carried out in an atmosphere of mutual goodwill and respect. No more than three students or three sets of parents shall be involved in a single grievance conference. Grievant(s) involving more than this number of people shall designate representatives to attend the conference.

If the grievance cannot be resolved at the informal conference level, the grievant(s) shall file a written statement with the school principal setting forth the following information:

A. A brief statement of the specific nature of the grievance.

B. A brief statement of the relief desired.

C. A brief statement of the reasons why the grievant believes he is entitled to the relief sought.

D. Whether the grievant(s) desires the school Student Council officers to make a non-binding recommendation concerning the grievance. In the event that such recommendation of the Student Council officers is desired, the principal shall within two days transmit a copy of the grievance to the Student Council and request its recommendation. The Student Council officers shall furnish their recommendation to the principal within five days of receipt of the copy of the grievance.

The school principal shall furnish a copy of the grievance to the member of the faculty or administrative staff involved. Upon receipt of a grievance, the principal shall promptly schedule a conference with the grievant(s) and the members of the faculty or administrative staff involved. The principal shall render a written decision within five days following the conference, and shall furnish copies of such decision to the grievant(s), the staff member and the superintendent.

If either the grievant(s) or the staff member is dissatisfied with the decision of the principal, he shall, within five days of receipt of the written decision, file a written statement with the superintendent, with copies to the principal and the other party, briefly stating the reasons upon which the appeal is based. Upon receipt of the grievance appeal, the superintendent may decide the grievance upon the written statements submitted by the parties, hold a conference with the grievant(s) and the staff member involved or take whatever actions he shall deem appropriate. The superintendent shall render a written decision to the grievant(s), the staff member, and the principal within five days following the conference (if this is necessary).

If either the grievant(s) or the staff member is dissatisfied with the decision of the superintendent, he may appeal such decision to the Board of Education by filing within five days of the rendering of the superintendent's decision a written notice of appeal with the secretary of the Board of Education. The notice of appeal shall briefly state the basis of the appeal and copies shall be furnished to the other party, to the principal and to the superintendent.

The Board of Education may decide the grievance upon the written statements submitted or, at its option, may hold a hearing at which both parties may present testimony. The board shall render a written decision to the grievant(s) within 15 days following the hearing if this is necessary.

The following provisions have general application to the grievance procedure set forth above:

No step of this procedure may be bypassed on the way to a higher level, except that a grievance based upon a previous grievance decision will be initiated at the level of such previous grievance decision.

The invocation of the grievance procedure shall not relieve the grievant(s) of the responsibility of complying with any order which may have been issued, unless the implementation of said order shall have been stayed by the superintendent of schools or by the Board of Education.

No punitive action of any kind shall be taken against any grievant(s) solely on account of having filed a grievance.

All information elicited during any stage of the grievance procedure shall remain confidential, unless such information is specifically made accessible to the public by state or federal law or all parties involved agree to disclose such information to the public.

Stolen van recovered after chase

A high-speed chase by Mountainside police through borough streets Saturday night resulted in the recovery of a van stolen eight months ago in Newark, but the driver of the vehicle escaped.

According to police, Officer Wayne Martin was on patrol on Central avenue near Wyoming drive at 8:35 p.m. when he spotted the white van, which he did not recognize as being familiar to the area. When he started to follow the vehicle in an attempt to halt it for a routine check, it reportedly took off at a high rate of speed down Knollerest road.

The patrol car pursued it through Old Farm road, Holly Hill, Cedar avenue, Central avenue, Blaz terrace and Iris drive to Summit road, where the van skidded out of control and struck a tree. Martin reported that a young male jumped from the vehicle and fled on foot through a backyard. The driver was described as being well under six feet tall, with medium length dark hair and wearing a white T-shirt and dark pants.

The van was traced to its owner in Newark, who had reported it missing Aug. 8, 1975.

History tips for tourists

Morristown will be among the historic sites highlighted in the first program of the 18-week series, "The Tourists are Coming, The Tourists are Coming," on New Jersey Public Television Channels 50 and 58 next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The series of half-hour travelers' tips will give a description of the desperate winter of 1779 and visit Washington's headquarters, the Ford Mansion and Jockey Hollow.

There will also be a special report on the planned candlelight tour of Washington's headquarters to be held on May 21, and information on daily demonstrations of camp life and musket drills.

Baccalaureate at bible college

The annual baccalaureate service of the Northeastern Bible College will be held on Friday, May 14, at 11 a.m. in the chapel of the college on Oak Lane, Essex Fells.

Dr. Gary G. Cohen, director of post-graduate studies, Biblical School of Theology, Hatfield, Penna., will speak.

Toll free loan info to homeowners

How much are you good for?

Now, homeowners anywhere in New Jersey can call 800-492-4031. This toll free number leads to THE MONEY STORE, a major lending institution specializing in homeowner loans, where courteous experts are available from 9 A.M. to 9 P.M. daily, and up to 2 P.M. on Saturday, to analyze your property equity plus your income and repayment capabilities and tell you exactly how much you can borrow and what your payments should be. All conversations are held in strictest confidence.

SECONDARY MORTGAGE LOANS

The figures quoted will be based on a highly popular method of borrowing, licensed under state law, which allows homeowners to cash in on the equity of their homes without selling. This method of borrowing has become so popular that literally tens of thousands of homeowners file applications every year.

BIG MONEY LOANS SMALL PAYMENTS

Under this method a homeowner can borrow any amount from a few hundred dollars up to $25,000 and sometimes much more. The money can be used for any major purpose at all including debt consolidation, payment of taxes, medical expenses, college tuition, purchase of an automobile, new furniture, or even for business purposes. This type loan permits for long term payout, therefore payments can be as small as needed.

NO OBLIGATION

Modern Acceptance Corp. of Roselle, N.J., better known as THE MONEY STORE, with 13 offices throughout New Jersey, is making this service available free of charge, even though the caller may have no intention of borrowing. So why not find out "how much you are good for." The toll free number to call is 800-492-4031.

Track and field championships scheduled for Saturday

The Springfield championship track and field meet of the AAU Junior Olympics will be held this Saturday at Meisel Field, starting at 1:30 p.m. Every boy and girl in Springfield is eligible to participate and has been urged to take part.

The bantam division for boys and girls nine and younger have the following events: 50-yard dash, 100 dash, standing long jump (girls), running long jump, 440-relay, baseball throw and 880 run.

The midjet division, for boys and girls 10 and 11, have the 50-dash, 100-dash, standing long jump (girls), running long jump, running high jump, shot put (6 lb. boys), baseball throw (girls), 440 relay and 880 run.

The junior division, for boys and girls 12 and 13, has the 100 dash, 220 dash, running long jump, running high jump, running triple jump (boys), shotput (8 lb. boys), baseball throw (girls), 440 relay and one mile run.

The age of a boy or girl as of May 1 determines the division in which he or she must compete. All events are sanctioned by the N. J. Association of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Martin Sherman will again serve as meet director, assisted by a staff including Roland Marjoni and Bob Nardone, who will coach the winners in future competition; Martin Taglienti, coach of the 1975 Suburban Conference championship Jonathan Dayton Regional High School track team, and Dave Brown, long a local leader in youth and sports activities and state U.S. Olympic team finance committee chairman. Many other adults, as well as members of the Dayton track team, will also aid in operations.

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to the top finishers in each event. Last year Springfield youngsters set 11 new meet records:

Bantam—Tom Ard, baseball throw, 162; Tom Ard, 880 run; 3:03; Michelle Steir, standing long jump, 6-11; Perri Teitelbaum, baseball throw, 118-1; Karen Apicella, 880 run;

Midjet—Steve Wright, 880 run, 2:50; Jill Jacobs, baseball throw, 141-10; Linda Graziano, 880 run;

Junior—Peter Keramas, 220-dash, 29.1; Jeff Knowles, one-mile run, 5:27.5; Barbara Martino, one-mile run, 8:05;

Following last year's Springfield championships, the Recreation Department Junior Olympics track squad amassed a total of 33 medals in district championships. This medal total included 13 golds and 13 silvers.

Springfield youngsters were also reminded that the Recreation Department sponsors a boys' and girls' track and field team for youngsters in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. All youngsters of this age group have been encouraged to sign up with Marjoni any afternoon at 3:30 at the rear of the Florence Gaudineer School.

Track and field records for boys and girls in Springfield are:

Colonials stun Cedar Grove in Suburban League opener

The Colonials, the Springfield Recreation Department's ninth grade girls' softball team, launched their 16-game Suburban League schedule this week by defeating Cedar Grove, perennial league champions, by a score of 5 to 4. Coming home games, at 6 p.m. at the swim pool diamond, are Wednesday against Summit and next Friday, May 7, against Livingston. Other teams in the league are Maplewood,

Booters confident for game Sunday with Bridgewater

The Mountside Recreation soccer team will resume play, following a two-week lay-off, with a game Sunday at Bridgewater. The team will seek its second victory against an opponent which has not shown great offensive strength. Coach John Knodel, who has been stressing basic skills and proper field positioning, predicted that the team will do well in its remaining games as its teamwork and ball-control skills improve.

Prior to last Sunday's games, Chatham Township and New Providence, with three victories shared first place in Division II north, Berkeley Heights and Mendham shared third place with 2-1-1 records. Next were Westfield (2-0), North Plainfield (1-0-1), Somerset Hills (1-0-1) and Mountainside (1-3). Bridgewater, Hillsborough and Summit (all 0-3) occupy last place.

On May 8, the local team will travel to Yankee Stadium to watch a game between the Cosmos and Philadelphia.

The Mid-New Jersey Youth Soccer League is formulating plans for its 1976 fall season. Local officials hope that several teams representing Mountainside can be entered, for ages 10 through 15. Parents of girls or boys interested in soccer may contact Robert Shields (232-4208) for additional information.

Wasserman competes for spot on tennis team

Phil Wasserman of Greenhill road, Springfield, is among 13 Union College students who are candidates for this year's varsity tennis team. It was announced by William Dunsmuir, director of athletics.

Wasserman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Wasserman, is a graduate of Gov. Livingston Regional High School. He is majoring in business administration at Union

South Orange, Millburn, Verona and Caldwell. Ellen Steve starred on the mound against Cedar Grove, which had won the last three league titles and gone 43 games without a defeat. Steve struck out seven and allowed only five hits. Along with her sharp fastball, she showed excellent control, walking a single batter.

Others on the team are Michele Gan at second base; Barbara Martino, pitcher and shortstop; Lori Gabay, shortfield; Cricket Franklin, third and catcher; Mindy Schneider, catcher and outfielder; Jill Lipton, third and outfielder; Randi Scheneman, Shari Reich, Lisa Kurtzer, Lauren Gelayder, Lena Segall and Debbie Weinbuch, outfielders; Fran Corey, shortfielder and outfielder, and Debbie Scelfo, first base.

Lipton, Reich and Kurtzer has two hits apiece against Cedar Grove. Scelfo and Franklin each had a hit and two RBI. Gan and Martino rounded out the attack, each blasting one hit and scoring one run.

SOCCER SCENE

The Elizabeth Lancers will host Cleveland Croatia this Sunday at Farcher's Grove in the Eastern semi-final of the National Open Challenge Cup. Croatia downed Pittsburgh, 2-1, in a downpour last week to advance to the semifinals.

Gametime will be at 2 p.m. with a preliminary match between the boys teams of the Lancers and the Newark Ukrainians.

Oddly enough the Lancers' last opponent was Croatia of the GASL last Sunday at the Grove. Second place was at stake and the game was fast and the players played very hard. The Lancers came out on top in that match, 2-0.

Player-coach Ed Kelly opened the Lancers' scoring in the first half when he took a pass from Ed Jijon and headed it in. Kelly also got off a blistering 20 meter shot that had the goalie beat but hit the lower part of the crossbar and came back out. This was one of Kelly's better games.

Jan Swiernak scored the second goal with 10 minutes left in the game. Jan picked up the ball left of center in the penalty area, faked one defender and let the ball ride into the right side of the goal. Everyone in the place knew the shot was coming but it was the kind of goal that would have been in — nothing could stop it.

Trackmen beat West Orange, to face Summit

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School track team increased its record to four triumphs and one loss this week by defeating West Orange by an exceptional score of 95 1/2-35 1/2.

On Tuesday the team was scheduled to compete with Caldwell. Today the team will compete against Summit, and this is expected to be one of their toughest meets.

In the high hurdles competition, Steve Pepe placed first and Brian Bellevue took second. Kevin Doty tied for third with Bob Lang of West Orange. Pepe led the intermediate hurdlers, placing first. Bellevue took a third in the event.

Greg Rusbarsky placed third in the 880-yard run. The two mile was led by Chris Clunie, placing first. Greg D'Angelis placed third in the event. Brad Weiner took first in the mile, while Brian Rohe placed second.

The 100-yard dash was led by Hugh Cole and Brandon Gambee who placed first and second. Cole also took first in the 220. Billy Bjorstad placed first in the 440, while Stadler placed third.

Pole vaulters Pat Smith and Jose Mediros placed second and third. The shotput was led by Gambee who placed first. Bob Potomski, second, and Andy Herkalo, third. Mike Carroll placed first in the long jump, and Bellevue took second in that event.

The discus was led by Potomski, who placed first, and Andy Herkalo, second. Bobby Conte placed first in the javelin, and Pepe took second. Bellevue led the high jumpers, and Carol and Doty tied for second in the event.

The mile relay team of Bjorstad, Pepe, Carroll, and Harvey Kaish placed first.

Free tennis clinic listed in Millburn

The Tennis Academy of Millburn will celebrate its second summer at the Millburn Tennis Center May 22 at 10 a.m. with a tennis exhibition and a free clinic. All interested players and novices may have their strokes video-taped.

The stroke exhibition will feature Brant Switzler, president of the Brant Switzler Tennis Academy of Warren, and onetime head pro at the orange Lawn Tennis Club; Donna Lies, a top ranked 16-and-under girl from Springfield; Tom Pardee, head professional of the Millburn Tennis Academy, and Rick Jones, head professional of the Brant Switzler Tennis Academy.

When you're ready to play on a sunny day, you'll probably find the outdoor courts full. Did you know that 84% of all the people who play tennis only play in the summer? No wonder those outdoor courts are so crowded or, often, in such bad condition! Why take pot luck on crowded public courts when you can join our club and play indoors enjoying reserved courts and perfect playing conditions? Best of all, you can enjoy it ALL YEAR!

For Teenagers About

THIS WEEK'S LETTER: I am 16, have quit school, am three months pregnant and both my parents were killed two years ago. The father of my unborn child is 45 years old, married, with six lovely children of his own. I am living with my grandparents at the present time. I don't know where to go, who to go to or what to do. My mind is in a turmoil all the time. If I don't get some help soon I'm afraid I'll do something I'll regret in the future. Desperate.

OUR REPLY: Dear Desperate: Slow down. There are many people who are willing to help you with your predicament. Take responsibility for the position you've gotten yourself into, and you

State testing

(Continued from page 1) scores. Study skills produced scores that were equal to or above DFG on all questions ... Dictionary guide words were the weakest area. ... All in all, the fourth grade reading test scores were excellent. ... In fourth grade math—addition, subtraction, multiplication-division, number and operation, numeration, geometry, measurement, word problems, equations-inequalities, sets, and fractional numbers were test sections. The scores generally were excellent, but isolated concepts will have to be reteached. ... All in all, the fourth grade math test results were excellent, and in many cases, they greatly exceeded the DFG reference. ... A detailed analysis of seventh grade reading results revealed excellent scores in phonetic analysis, structural analysis, and word usage. ... While the area of interpretation produced satisfactory scores, drawing inferences, predicting outcomes, and classifying fact, fiction, or opinion need additional emphasis. ... The test section on study skills reveals the need for more work on the glossary, dictionary, index, and following directions. ... The seventh grade reading scores seem to indicate good achievement in the working tools of reading-phonics, structural analysis, word usage—and very satisfactory accomplishment in literal comprehension. ... The seventh grade mathematics tests included whole numbers, fractions, decimals, measurement and denominate numbers, number and operation, word problems and graphs, geometry and percent. ... Hanigan noted, "All scores in the whole number sections were very satisfactory. For the 17 items under fractions, five were significantly higher, four were significantly higher, three were better, four were roughly equivalent to the DFG and one was lower. ... Of the nine items included in decimals, our scores were very significantly greater in three, greater in three and equivalent in three. Measurement results were very good ... "Number and operation included 21 items. In 12 of them, our scores were equivalent, in one far greater, in 2 greater, lower on five and two were non-relevant.

"Word problems and graphs included nine items, and our scores were equivalent to DFG in eight and lower in one. The lower one dealt with the interpretation of a graph. While the scores in this area were very acceptable, word problems can always receive emphasis in our teaching. ... Five items were included under the heading of geometry and percent. In two our scores were equivalent, one was greater, one lower, and one non-relevant, because it is taught later in the year. More time could be profitably spent in this area of the math curriculum, but the other topics are of greater importance to us in the sixth and early seventh grades. ... In the summary," Hanigan concluded, "Mountainside test results reflect very favorably on the children, the school system and the teachers. The parents, too, can take bows because of the effect of good homes, a relatively high economic and social level, and a desire for good education makes a significant difference in test results." ... Parents who desire to see their children's individual test results may do so by contacting Edwin Sjonell, guidance director at the Deerfield School. ... School personnel who assisted in the preparation of these test data were Richard Adinolfi, Gertrude Rockett, Charlotte Ross, Martha Podmayr, James Johnson, Virginia Foulke, Ann Bergquist, Kenneth Johnson, Bette Neroda, Herbert Brown, William Hummel, Sjonell and Hanigan.

The spring marching band is also scheduled to march in the Summit Bicentennial parade, the Mountainside Little League parade and the Springfield Memorial Day parade. ... The 1976 Dayton Spring marching unit is the first all-voluntary band program in the Regional District. The repertoire for field show and parade includes such Latin tunes as "Quejada," "El Cumbanchero" and "Samba D'Orpha" and two American tunes to salute the Bicentennial—"Everything's Comin' Up Roses" from the Broadway musical "Gypsy" and "The Sinfonians," originally an arrangement for concert band by Clifton Williams.

First B'not Torah are celebrated at Sha'arey Shalom

Springfield's Temple Sha'arey Shalom celebrated the temple's first B'not Torah (Daughters of the Law) ceremony on a recent Friday evening when Ellen Einhorn and Sandra Schey participated in a service signifying their adult commitment to the continuation of the temple's spiritual leader, Rabbi Howard Shapiro.

Inspired by a Rosh Hashanah sermon two years ago, in which Rabbi Shapiro explored the question, "Where is Our Adult Commitment?" Mrs. Einhorn and Mrs. Schey expressed the desire to become Bat Mitzvah. Both women attended the temple's adult education classes in Hebrew, Jewish history, and Judaism's ethical and cultural background. In addition they studied privately with Rabbi Shapiro and attended courses given in neighboring communities.

Mrs. Einhorn and Mrs. Schey led the entire service, illustrating their newly acquired command of the Hebrew language by reading from the Torah.

Mrs. Einhorn resides with her husband, Dr. Richard Einhorn, and children Marci and Evan at Golf oval in Springfield. Mrs. Schey resides at Redwood road with her husband, Edward, and sons, Michael and Steven. Both women are active members of the temple Sisterhood. Mrs. Einhorn is on the temple's ways and means committee. Mrs. Schey is a member of the Religious School board.

Marland honors two

Annie Oertel and Ken Perlmutter of Springfield have been honored for their volunteer service to Marland Hospital, Newark, the primary teaching hospital of the New Jersey Medical School of the College of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey.

Syllabus is published

LANCASTER, Pa.—Frances S. Wildman, a senior from Springfield, N.J., is a major contributor to a new publication, called the "F&M File," which is issued periodically as a forum of instruction and learning for school teachers. The publication is being issued by Franklin and Marshall College's education department.

For the first issue, Ms. Wildman wrote a 33-page syllabus for a six-week classroom unit on "The Industrial Revolution." The unit, according to Ms. Wildman, is designed especially for ninth-grade European history students with a high reading ability.

She is majoring in history at F&M. She is seeking a position as a history teacher in the fall and will attend graduate school after she graduates from F&M in June. She is the vice-president of the history club at F&M.

Ms. Wildman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Wildman of Woodside road, Springfield.

County senior citizens plan annual convention

The Senior Citizens Council of Union County will hold its fifth annual convention and installation next Thursday at Roland's, Westfield avenue, Roselle Park.

Peter M. Shields, executive director of the Union County Office on Aging, will install the following officers: President, Mrs. Evelyn Frank of Union; vice-president, Jack N. Landau of Kenilworth; recording secretary, Mrs. Madeline E. Lancaster of Springfield; treasurer, Mrs. Genevieve Botelho of Hillside; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Alma Zeller of Springfield; trustees, John Murphy of Roselle Park, Raymond O'Day of Linden and Mrs. Veronica Kane of Elizabeth.

Mrs. Frank is now serving her fifth year as president of the council. Others in their fifth term are Landau, Mrs. Lancaster, O'Day and Murphy.

The theme for the convention is "Action in '76." The council will present several resolutions for adoption, including two endorsing the establishment of a home supportive services program and a home maintenance and repair program. Recommendations will be made on how a countywide implementation of these programs can be done. The role of public and private agencies, the local governing bodies and volunteers will be explored.

The council also will present for adoption a resolution for a revised "Declaration of Rights and Obligations" to be forwarded to Trenton for consideration during May, which the governor has declared Older Americans Month.

Mayor Eugene Carmody of Roselle Park will welcome the council. The opening prayer will be given by the Rev. Albert Beimer, Community Methodist Church, Roselle Park, and the benediction will be given by the Rev. George Belger, Church of the Assumption, Roselle Park.

O'Day is installation chairman. The luncheon and reservations chairman is Mrs. Margaret Clark and the co-chairman is Mrs. Marguerite Andrews of New Providence. Hosts and hostesses are Raymond McElroy of Kenilworth, John Murphy of Roselle Park, Mrs. Florence O'Day of Linden, Mrs. Helen Murphy of Roselle Park, Mrs. Madeline Lancaster and Mrs. Ida Steimle of Springfield, Mrs. Marion Tamburino and Mrs. Marion Carbone of Berkeley Heights and Mrs.

MRS. EVELYN FRANK

Florence Mead of New Providence.

Harold J. Seymour Jr., chairman of the Board of Freeholders, will make a presentation on behalf of the board. Presentations also will be made by Larry J. Lockhart, executive director of the Union County Department of Manpower Services, and Peter M. Shields, executive director of the Union County Office on Aging. Invitations have been sent to state legislators, mayors, freeholders, congressmen, agency representatives and others.

Coin and stamp show

A coin and stamp show will be held Sunday at the Ramada Inn, Rt. 18, East Brunswick by the Central Jersey Stamp and Coin Exchange. The show will run from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. More information can be obtained by contacting Larry Liebowitz at 251-1651.

Three hikes scheduled

Members and guests of the Union County Hiking Club have a choice of walks on Saturday.

Albert Ross of Newark will lead a six-mile ramble through the South Mountain Reservation, with participants meeting at the Tulip Springs area at 1 p.m.

On the same day, Lee Fanger of Summit will conduct an 11-mile hike from Pyngyp to Lake Tiorati in New York State. The meeting place will be north of the Essex toll barrier on the Garden State Parkway at 8:30 a.m. or at the Lake Tiorati circle at 9:30 a.m.

A hike on Sunday over the Mt. Tammany-Sunfish Pond Circular will be led by Robert and Anne Vogel of Cranford. The group will meet at Nomahegan Park, Cranford, at 8 a.m. or at the Rt. 80 parking lot at Delaware Water Gap at 9:30 a.m.

Indian cultures will be discussed by anthropologist

Nancy Carlson will present a slide lecture on the origin of the American Indian, a study of the variations in Indian cultures, and a history of the Indians of New Jersey on Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Trailside Nature and Science Center in the Watchung Reservation. The Center is located at Coles avenue and New Providence road, Mountainside.

A Columbia University graduate in anthropology, Mrs. Carlson has participated in archaeological work in Peruvian and Mayan studies at the Museum of Natural History in New York City. In addition to participating in archaeological excavating at the cliff dwelling of Mesa Verde, Colo., she also has been active in archaeology and research of New Jersey's past Indian inhabitants. She is a frequent lecturer on Indian history at schools and colleges and to private groups.

For the past year, she has been actively involved in anthropological work in New York City and New Jersey, helping to get grants-in-aid for the Indian people in this area.

"Spring-Blooming Wild Flowers" will be the subject of a nature talk for school children at 4 p.m. on Wednesday and next Thursday at Trailside.

"Circle of Stone" will be the new program at the Trailside Planetarium on Sunday. This story of Stonehenge, repeated at popular request, will be presented at 2, 3 and 4 p.m. An additional presentation will be given Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Since the Planetarium has a seating capacity of only 35 persons, tickets issued at the old Trailside office are on a first-come, first-served basis for the Sunday performances. Children under eight years of age are not admitted.

Trailside programs are reported on a Union County Park Commission "events" telephone, 352-8410.

Bar to honor essay winners at ceremonies for Law Day

Winners of an essay contest sponsored by the Union County Bar Association will be presented with $100 U.S. Savings Bonds at Law Day ceremonies Monday at the Union County Courthouse, Elizabeth.

Alfred M. Wolin, president of the association, said the bonds will be presented to Adrienne Taub of Union High School, Carole Twardy of Roselle Girls Catholic High School, Clark Abrams of Cranford High School, Emily Quinn of Oak Knoll School of the Holy Child and Carl Henry Becker of Westfield High School. Guest speaker for Law Day will be Judge William A. Dreier of Union County.

Chairman of Monday's Law Day observance will be Alan J. Schnirman, who maintains a law practice in Linden. Schnirman, who will also serve as master of ceremonies, is assistant treasurer of the Linden Bar Association. He is also a member of the Piscataway Township Planning Board.

Also participating in the program will be John Pisansky, former president of the Township Committee in Clark and former president of the Linden Bar Association; Dr. Gershon B. Chertoff, rabbi at Temple B'nai Israel, Elizabeth; the Hon. V. William DiBuono, Union County Superior Court assignment judge; Walter G. Halpin, county clerk; Marie G. Oakie, Union County Board of Freeholders staff member; the Rev. Kenneth E. Walter, pastor of Linden Presbyterian Church; members of the Union County judiciary; and the Rev. Gerald B. Whelan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Elizabeth.

Dystrophy group begins campaign

The house-to-house fund raising campaign of the Muscular Dystrophy Association will be held Sunday and Monday in Union County, according to the Northern New Jersey chapter.

The chapter funds a clinic at United Hospitals Orthopedic Center in Newark. Also, dystrophic patients are provided with various orthopedic equipment, appliances, counseling services and physical therapy treatments. Another aspect of the association's work is its recreation programs for children and adults.

Last year the chapter raised $144,757 through its house-to-house campaign, telethon and other fund-raising projects. More information about the group's services may be obtained by calling 379-6042.

Aide to Carter addresses group

Members of the Black Elected and Appointed Democratic Officials of Union County heard a representative of Jimmy Carter's presidential campaign at their April meeting in Roselle. Steve Downey told members of the group that the former Georgia governor has been responsible for much of the advancement of blacks in his home state. Also at the meeting, it was announced the organization will hold a dinner dance on Oct. 16 at the Ramada Inn, Clark.

Members of the group include Councilmen James Watson of Linden, Ronald Hayman of Roselle and Roselle Democratic Chairman George Woody.

Watchung Troops set May 21 date for spring show

The 43rd annual Watchung Troops Spring Horse Show will be held at the Union County Park Commission's Watchung Stable, Glenside avenue, Summit, beginning Friday, May 21, at 4 p.m., and continuing for the following two days. The first events on Saturday and Sunday will be called at 9 a.m.

Entries close on May 8. Boys and girls who are members of the Watchung Troops are eligible to participate in the show. There will be 49 events for beginners, novice, intermediate and advanced troopers.

The Doug Bailey Memorial Trophy will be awarded to the winning senior troop team of three following a Sunday morning competition.

The Snips-Willy Memorial Trophy, named in memory of two horses which accumulated over 40 years of service to troopers at Watchung, will be awarded to the winning pair of junior troopers on Saturday afternoon.

The Bertram N. Miller Memorial Trophy for the walk, trot, canter and gallop will be in competition on Sunday morning.

Free tests on hearing are offered

A series of free hearing tests will be given during May by the Plainfield Hearing Society, in observance of Better Hearing and Speech Month. For a hearing test, without charge, readers may call the society any Thursday at 756-6060, Ext. 12, or write the Plainfield Hearing Society, YMCA Building, 518 Watchung ave., Plainfield.

The tests are scheduled as a public service in the interest of early detection of hearing problems. Hearing loss can be helped if caught early, total loss of hearing can often be prevented.

The society also sponsors classes in lipreading and auditory training in manual communication with the deaf, and offers assistance to the deaf and the hard of hearing. Most of its services are free.

The society, a branch of the National Association of Hearing and Speech Action, is planning a garage sale in Westfield late in May to raise funds to help continue its work. Contributions of unneeded items would be welcomed; tax receipts will be given.

For further information readers may call the society's office, 232-7830 Thursdays or 233-5673 at other times.

Meeting listed by ostomy unit

The Ostomy Association of Union County will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Schering Corp., Morris avenue, Union.

John Seger, state coordinator for the United Ostomy Association, will discuss the 14th national conference, to be held in August in Pittsburg, and will describe the various insurance programs available through U.O.A. for ostomates who cannot get insurance through regular channels.

N.J. osteopaths convention set

Members of the Union County Osteopathic Society will attend the 75th annual convention of the New Jersey Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons today through Sunday at the Hyatt House, Cherry Hill.

The delegates will join members of 14 other state association component societies as well as osteopathic physicians from New York and Pennsylvania at the conclave, which is expected to attract some 1,500 persons associated with the profession.

CITY FEDERAL SAVINGS

Would you like a checking account that earns interest?

We'd like to offer one

...but the Commercial Bankers of New Jersey—and those throughout the nation—have declared all-out war against the law which would allow it.

The "Financial Reform Act" now pending in the House of Representatives and the "Financial Institutions Act" passed last year in the Senate would allow NOW Accounts (checking accounts that pay interest) for Savings and Loans, Savings Banks, Credit Unions and Commercial Banks! But the Commercial Bankers don't want to pay interest on checking accounts—and they don't want us to do it either!

If you agree with us that checking accounts—with interest—should be offered by all Financial Institutions—we urge you to write to your Congressman, Senator Clifford P. Case, Senator Harrison A. Williams, Jr. (they both voted in favor) and President Gerald R. Ford.

Let the people be heard!

This Bill would be of great benefit to all consumers, but unless they're heard from, self-serving special interest groups will prevail.

Italian-American fund-raising effort

Goal is ambulance for rural province in Italy

MICHAEL CERRACCHIO

Michael Cerracchio of Union is nurturing a dream of providing medical help to injured persons in the province of Avellino, Italy. To this purpose, the Conzato Italo Americano Organization (CIAO), was organized to supply an ambulance to serve the town of Conza della Campania and nearby communities.

In August 1967, Cerracchio was visiting Conza, his birthplace, when he witnessed a collision between a truck and a motor scooter. Two teenage boys were seriously hurt in the accident. Cerracchio was aware Italian law mandated that the first available person with a car must take the injured to the nearest medicare facility, which was Hospital Civil in the city of Avellino, about 45 miles away over mountainous roads. To date, even a first aid station near Conza.

Another American, Antoinette Marano, also of Union, was in Conza, the hometown of her parents, and also rushed to the scene. Cerracchio went back to town for a car, as someone else hurried to notify the families of the two boys. Don Luigi, the town priest, who happened on the scene, placed the boys in his auto to begin the long trip to the hospital. The two Italian-Americans returned to the United States to begin a campaign to raise funds for an ambulance. Cerracchio, as chairman, and Mrs. Marano, as secretary, have become dedicated to the cause of getting emergency help for the sick and the aged in the

JWV, Auxiliary to hold joint officer installation

Blood available in Masonic bank

A blood bank established by the New Jersey Masons is available for emergency withdrawals by all members of the public, according to John R. Rutledge Jr., Grand Master.

"We are anxious to be of service to the community and to help all who are in need of assistance when possible," said Rutledge. More than 8,000 pints of blood have been distributed to more than 3,000 persons, more than half of whom were not members of the Masons, said Rutledge.

Persons in need of emergency blood may contact the state Masonic blood bank coordinator, John J. Wills, at 226-5539.

'Catonsville 9' drama is scheduled at church

"The Catonsville 9," a play by Daniel Berrigan, will be presented Wednesday by the American Issues Forum of Maplewood-South Orange at 8 p.m. at Morrow Memorial Methodist Church, 600 Ridgewood rd., Maplewood.

The courtroom drama is based on the trial of Daniel and Philip Berrigan, two priests, and their colleagues who destroyed government files in an act of civil disobedience to protest the Vietnam war.

LET'S NOT MOVE BACKWARD!

For over 100 years, New Jersey has had good schools.

Survey after survey shows New Jersey has some of the best schools and teachers in the country. But these schools and teachers are being threatened by the stalemate over State funds.

Think what this means to the children! Last year, New Jersey adopted a new school aid program. It promised to improve programs for kids. At the same time, it promised to keep your property taxes in line.

So far, the promises have not been kept.

Instead, some school boards are laying-off teachers, dropping programs, cutting courses and planning to do less and more for the children.

Don't let it happen! Call your State Legislators. Tell them you want action now to:

- restore school programs
- rehire laid-off teachers
- restore college budgets
- keep vital human services in next year's State Budget.

Make sure New Jersey moves forward, not backward. Make sure your State Senator agrees.

Second pool constructed for Greenbriar residents

The first swimming pool at Greenbriar in Brick Town made a big splash—so big that a second pool has been constructed to serve the recreational interests of the adult residents of the community.

"Since the residents are freed from home exterior and grounds maintenance, which is performed by the community's own staff, they make good use of the pools and all the other Greenbriar Country Club facilities," said William Steinfield, vice-president of marketing for U.S. Home Corporation of New Jersey. The Olympic-type pools have their own filtering systems, and a Red Cross-trained lifeguard supervises daily pool activity from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Membership in the Greenbriar Country Club is a privilege to purchasers of the Greenbriar single-family homes. Besides the pools, other outdoor recreational facilities for residents include a six-hole golf course, putting green, shuffleboard courts, horseshoe pitching areas, and boating on Greenbriar Lake.

The rest of the year-round recreation is centered in the Greenbriar clubhouse, with card rooms, billiard room and library, rooms for ceramics, woodworking and sewing. Theatrical productions and other entertainment takes place in the professionally-equipped auditorium, and residents' parties are facilitated by the clubhouse kitchen.

The residents also operate their own closed-circuit television system, producing special community programs that are fed into every home. One of the newest community activities is a Greenbriar theater group, which has performed at a local college.

Greenbriar features one and two-bedroom homes, all with wall-to-wall carpeting in the residents' choice of colors and central air-conditioning. Kitchens and laundry rooms come equipped with appliances. The bathrooms have ceramic tile walls and floors. The attached garages have raised storage areas and rear entrances.

The entire Greenbriar community is professionally landscaped with irrigation through an underground sprinkler system. The wiring also is underground.

Greenbriar homes are priced from $35,990, and provide all the tax advantages of home ownership. The sales office and model area are open seven days a week.

The community is located at Exit 91 of the Garden State Parkway, just 10 minutes from the Jersey shore resorts. Shopping, cultural attractions and dining are a short drive away. And, for more water sports, there are numerous ocean and bay activities.

U.S. Home Corporation of New Jersey is one of 22 divisions of the U.S. Home Corporation, the nation's largest home builder. Its shares are traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

INDIVIDUAL DESIGN—The Hastings, $28,000, at Laguna Village, Point Pleasant, is a home design located at the head of Barnegat Bay. It is a four or five bedroom home with two and a half baths, formal living and dining rooms and family kitchen. Laguna Village is built by Trend Homes. Information and sales center is located opposite entrance to community at 2133 Bridge ave., Point Pleasant west of the Lovelandtown bridge.

Waterfront homes attract buyers to Ocean County

A major factor in the upswing of interest in Ocean County residential sales is waterfront homesites, according to Joseph Todino, of Trend Homes, whose Laguna Village in Point Pleasant faces private lagoons near the head of Barnegat Bay with easy access to ocean and bay waters.

Todino's concentration on outstanding structural components—as well as the unique land area encompassing five private lagoons—has lifted Laguna Village well above the level of most waterfront residential offerings. The community has shown a steady stream of sales of homes priced from $70,000, even during the past two "depressed" years for the overall housing industry.

The houses—which will total 106 when Laguna Village is complete—are built on spacious sites, all bulkheaded for private docking. Two unfurnished models are now available for inspection, both offering more than 2300 square-feet of living space, plus garage, and including design pluses rarely found except in the finest individually custom homes.

Typical of Laguna Village's large family homes is the two-story Hastings model which has a 25 x 15' family room with natural wood beamed ceiling and brick fireplace. The custom kitchen includes custom cabinets and appliances, with a divider bar separating the dinette area at a bay window overlooking the water.

Just off the wide entry foyer with its graceful staircase, the living room of The Hastings measures 20 x 13½ feet, with windows carefully placed to allow versatile furniture arrangements. The formal dining room is a comfortable 13 13½ x 11'.

The home's design allows for four or five bedrooms (four are shown in the model), with two upstairs baths, plus lavatory and laundry room on the main floor. The Hastings is priced at $78,900 including the waterfront lot.

The builder, explains about the oversized homesites: "We have found that our buyers want space for swimming pools at the rear of their homes, so we start with well-proportioned sites and place the house in a manner that leaves ample room for pool, patio and other outdoor living areas between house and water."

The same attention to details is shown in the outstanding structural components and detail craftsmanship that raises Laguna Village to the level of a true custom community. Homes are framed with Douglas fir. Walls are insulated to full thickness with three and a half inch fiberglass batts and six inch fiberglass batts insulating ceilings. A Lenox heat pump system provides heating in winter, cooling in summer, at operating cost of approximately 50 percent savings over more commonly used electric systems.

The community is located west of the Lovelandtown Bridge from Bay Head to Point Pleasant. Entry is from Bridge avenue, only moments from beaches and major recreational centers as well as local shopping, schools, churches and all the advantages of an established municipality. The Laguna Village sales and information center is located in the Trend Homes office at 2133 Bridge Ave., facing entry to the lagoon-front homesites.

The sales and information office is open seven days a week, showing several custom home plans. The builder adds that—as well as altering current plans to fit individual family's taste—he will build to custom specifications if the overall design fits into the styling of the Laguna Village community.

Builders' group selects new v.p.

Frank Gambony of Basking Ridge, was recently elected the 1976 first vice-president of the New Jersey Builders Association.

Representatives of the 1800-member Association met at the Hyatt House in Cherry Hill for NJBA's 27th annual convention.

In addition to Gambony, other new officers include: president, Barry Rosengarten of Metuchen; second vice-president, Peter A. Tucci of Hackensack; treasurer, Thomas A. Paparone of Moorestown, and secretary, Blaze Itonno of Point Pleasant.

Gambony, who serves as the chairman of the association's legal action committee, has been an NJBA member since 1963 and has been a member of both the NJBA and National Association of Home Builders Association board of directors for the past 11 years.

In 1967, he served as the president of the Home Builders Association of Somerset and Morris Counties—one of the 10 local NJBA affiliates.

A native of Chicago, Gambony has been active in the home building business since 1957. Among his developments are Deer Ridge, with 21 custom-built homes, and Grist Mill Estates, 48 custom homes, which he is completing. Both are in Basking Ridge.

FRANK GAMBONY
He also owns and manages Mt. Kemble, a small apartment complex in Morristown. Gambony holds a B.S. degree in biology from the University of Iowa.

RECREATION CENTER—Holiday City at Berkeley, near Toms River, a retirement village for persons aged 52 and over, boasts this on-site clubhouse for residents. The facility features swimming pool and rooms for hobbies, cards, billiards and meetings. Outside recreational areas include shuffleboard courts, picnic sites and private lakes. Club membership fees range from $14 to $16 per month.

For people 52 and over.

'CARES' group aids Crestwood Village residents

"CARES," the self-help service organization that opened its doors in Crestwood Village last year and has since become the model for similar operations in other retirement communities, celebrated its first anniversary with an Open House at its offices on Rt. 530 at the retirement community in Whiting.

"CARES stands for Crestwood Village Assistance Referral and Employment Services," explained Naomi Rice, its executive director. "It is a service organization to help the senior citizens in this community. It is manned by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 8745 of Whiting. A sickroom supply house, where all manner of supplies are kept, is manned by the men of the VFW Post.

"The cost of the project is underwritten by Crestwood builder, Mike 'Kokes,' who supplies the building and furniture and pays all expenses. The only thing volunteers donate are the hours. During the first year of operation, the VFW ladies and their friends donated 3,292 hours, at $2 per hour, worth $6,584. They have managed to help, in different ways, 3,927 residents of the Crestwood Village-Pine Ridge area.

"The assistance program takes care of people who are blind or lame or incapacitated. 'Meals on Wheels' is another program. People who are not able to cook for themselves receive at noon a hot meal, consisting of soup, salad and a platter. They have to provide their own bread, butter and beverage. This costs them $2 a day and also is delivered by volunteers.

NORFOLK—One of four luxury townhomes introduced at Panther Valley. Priced at $70,500, the Norfolk has a massive two-story brickfront. With a spacious entry foyer, the floor plan contains three bedrooms, 2½ baths, paneled family room and a one-car garage. The combined living room and dining room form a 27½-foot entertainment center. The master bedroom contains two walk-in closets and a separate dressing area with double bowl vanity. Other two-bedroom-with-den plans are from $58,500. Panther Valley is located on Rt. 517 one mile south of I-80.

Thimble Brook blends conservation and luxury

The focus was on conservation as well as luxury recently during the formal opening of Thimble Brook, the latest section of Shadow Lake Village. Located on Nut Swamp road near Red Bank, the new neighborhood in Kevork S. Hovnanian's adult community will combine excellence of design with the latest advances in residential construction.

"Thimble Brook offers the unique Shadow Lake Village lifestyle while emphasizing low upkeep and affordability," says Hovnanian. "At Thimble Brook, we're introducing all of the latest techniques in residential conservation.

"Actually, each phase of development of the entire community has incorporated evolving improvements in construction and materials. But one of the positive results of the fuel shortage and subsequent price increase has been a dramatic speed-up in the creation of energy-preserving methods."

Homes in Thimble Brook will sell for $31,990 to $540,990. "We honestly believe," says Hovnanian, "that this new section represents the best possible value in today's housing market. Owners will share the many recreation-oriented amenities and also gain the special tax benefits of private ownership. At the same time, the community takes over all of the exterior maintenance jobs usually associated with a private home."

"There are many attractive aspects at Shadow Lake Village. Its contemporary architecture blends gently with the surrounding woodlands. Townhomes and terrace apartments are arranged to create the atmosphere usually found in individual homes. But the most important characteristic, according to Hovnanian, is the sense of old-fashioned community.

"While Thimble Brook and Shadow Lake Village utilize every technique of modern construction technology, the environment provides a tranquility that people usually associate with distant rural villages."

The recreation complex and the man social activities play an important role in the mood of the community. "It is impossible to remain a stranger here," says Hovnanian.

Each home in the Thimble Brook section will provide generous living areas, walk-in closets, extra storage facilities and patios or balconies. Among the money

Plaza has office space

Morristown Plaza, 163 Madison Ave. in Morristown, is proving to be very popular as a major executive center. With the exception of one floor, the 115,000 square foot office complex is completely leased, according to Lew Brounell, partner in Brounell-Kramer, agent for the landmark.

"Interest in the Plaza has been very strong from the first construction stage," says Brounell. "Location, design and visual impact have all been factors in attracting prestigious tenants. Only one floor, with 14,000 square feet, remains to be occupied."

The building's tenant roster includes White Motor Corporation, which relocated from New York City; the law firm of Pitney, Hardin and Kipp; Prudential Insurance Company of America, and Lawyers Title Insurance Co. The main floor of the first section of the Plaza is occupied by Midlantic National Bank. Lobby floor of phase two will be occupied by the brokerage firm of Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis.

Brounell-Kramer is one of New Jersey's leading real estate organizations, with executive offices at 1435 Morris Ave., in Union. The firm's operating divisions include industrial real estate, investment properties, commercial and office leasing as well as residential sales.

24 homesites available in Whittier Oaks models

The buying pace at Whittier Oaks at Freehold leaves just 24 home sites still available in the current section of this distinctive community of single-family homes. Located off Rt. 9, Whittier Oaks is one of the many successful residential environments created by U.S. Home Corporation of New Jersey.

"Part of our success is the result of our reputation," says William Steinfield, the firm's vice-president for marketing. "U.S. Home is the nation's largest home builder, with 20 years of experience in meeting the most important need of any family: attractive, quality shelter."

In addition designs, buyers are attracted to Whittier Oaks by convenient financing and moderate prices. Homes are available from $49,990 with as little as 10 percent down and eight percent mortgages for qualified buyers on these specific home sites.

"Our houses are so well planned," adds Steinfield. "The only options are fireplaces and central air conditioning, and on one model, a second garage. Whether its a ranch, Colonial or split level, each house includes all the amenities and technological advances that make the single-family home desirable for millions of families."

The Bryant Colonial, with nine rooms, two and one-half baths, basement and garage, is typical of the Whittier Oaks quality and luxury. The model has four bedrooms, separate living and dining rooms and a large family room. The country-style kitchen features GE appliances, including a 14 cubic feet refrigerator-freezer, built-in dishwasher, oven and range and ductless exhaust fan plus hood.

U.S. Home selected the location for Whittier Oaks with the same care that goes into its construction. The community is adjacent to a new public elementary school on Rt. 9 linking the area with the metropolitan regions to the north as well as communities to the south. The seashore is about 16 miles away.

Homes at Whittier Oaks are delivered with the buyers' choice of decorator colors, hardwood floors and a selection of interior and exterior color schemes. Sites are provided with sanitary sewers, city water, sidewalks and curbs.

To reach the sales area, take the Garden State Parkway to Exit 123 or the New Jersey Turnpike to Exit 11. Continue south on Rt. 9 for approximately 13 miles. The office is open from noon until 5 p.m., weekdays, and from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

and energy-saving features, are maintenance-free aluminum windows with insulated glass and screens, insulated steel exterior doors, insulated glass and screens in the aluminum patio doors and extra-thick wall and ceiling insulation.

Masonry dividing walls between units will enhance privacy and also increase fire protection. Residents will have maximum control of interior temperatures throughout the year. Every room has its own thermostat. In addition, individual room air conditioners provide the same convenience in warmer weather. Summer or winter, the temperature of each room may be set to meet immediate requirements.

Personal privacy is assured by controlled access through a manned entry gate and the operation of a 24-hour mobile security force. Each Thimble Brook home also has a highly sensitive smoke-alarm system, another mark of Hovnanian's comprehensive approach to community development.

Shadow Lake Village is an adult, condominium community where at least one family member must be at least 52 years old. It is readily accessible from the New Jersey-New York metropolitan area. To reach the model area, readers should take the New Jersey Turnpike south to Exit 11, then the Garden State Parkway to Exit 117, drive south on Route 35 for nine miles, following signs, turn right onto Navesink River road, then turn right at the end onto Nut Swamp road.

Many people have said a lot of nice things about Lakeridge, an extraordinary townhouse community in Connecticut's mountain country. They, and the residents of Lakeridge, agree that it is the perfect place to live life as it should be lived. And now, even the experts agree with us. In a national competition sponsored by Better Homes & Gardens Magazine and the National Association of Home Builders, Lakeridge was selected the 1975 GRAND AWARD WINNER as the best second home community in the nation. From among entrants from across the country, Lakeridge was cited as the "outstanding example of a comprehensively planned living environment demonstrating excellence in its concern for people, the environment, good planning and design, and market acceptance." We are, of course, proud of the award. It's always great to be number one. More important, however, is what it means to the people who make Lakeridge their home. It means exciting country living at its finest among tall, full trees and fresh mountain air. Just perfect for a weekend hideaway or for a year-round home. One visit will show you why. There's so much to enjoy here. Two beautiful clubhouses offer both indoor and outdoor tennis & swimming, whirlpool bath, gyms, saunas, lounges, snack bar, game rooms, arts & crafts, and much more. There are also numerous additional tennis courts, paddle tennis courts, riding stables, cross-country skiing, ice skating, boating, fishing, and ski slopes with a double chair lift, snowmaking and ski lodge. And it's all private. It's all here now, at Lakeridge, almost surrounded by 2,000 acres of state forest with its clear lake and 5 miles of unspoiled shoreline. Visit Lakeridge soon. You'll easily see why it's the best. Two to four bedroom homes from $42,500 to $65,000. 90% financing available. Write Lakeridge, Dept. SP 429 Burr Mountain Road, Burrville, Connecticut 06790, or call toll free at 1-800-243-5374. In Connecticut, call collect at 203-482-3591. Open daily 10-5, weekends 'til 6. (Appointment recommended.) Directions from N.Y.C. - North on I-684 to Exit 9. East on I-84 to Exit 20. North on Rt. 8 toward Torrington. Take Exit 46. Follow signs to Lakeridge.

In recent months a chemical compound called PCB has come to the forefront of the national attention. It has been found in great quantities in the flesh of fish which are born and spend the early years of their lives in the rivers and estuaries which are prime commerce and transport routes as well as the sites of electrical and industrial plants using PCB in the production of insulators and brake linings. PCB has been determined to be hazardous to the health of human beings when ingested in sufficient quantities in the flesh of fish. Striped bass and bluefish are two of the fish that are thought to have been affected.

state. In one state, more than $32 million annually will be lost when an industry now under pressure takes its business elsewhere. Industry, then, possesses a significant bludgeon which amounts to economic-ecological blackmail. A firm simply threatens to move out of the state. Millions and millions of tax dollars are then lost by the state upholding significant standards for its waterways.

Turkey consumption up

In 1975, Americans—on the average—ate about 10 pounds of turkey, including white meat, dark meat, wings, necks and drumsticks. In 1940, that figure was 2.9 pounds. Of all animals raised and sold for meat, turkey has the highest protein and lowest calorie content.

signed by Governor Brendan T. Byrne. Sponsoring Nursing Care Week is the New Jersey Association of Health Care Facilities (NJAHCF), which represents most of the state's long-term care facilities.

"Our main purpose is to focus community interest on our elderly patients who have worked and contributed to our country's heritage," explained NJAHCF President Richard F. Grosso, administrator of Lakeview Convalescent Center, Wayne. "Visitors supply a tremendous boost for patients' morale. When a member of the community drops in to spend a few moments, however brief, with a patient, he provides an uplift that no amount of nursing care and medicine can match."

"To attract visitors, most of our facilities are holding open hours ceremonies on Mother's Day. Those who cannot attend on that day are invited to visit their local nursing homes throughout Nursing Care Week," Grosso said. "We know that many will find the experience rewarding and will want to continue visiting interesting and appreciative elderly patients throughout the year."

Open house programs will give communities an opportunity to learn directly of the wide variety of professional services provided for patients in nursing homes, all of which must provide nursing care 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

"New Jersey's long-term care facilities, which operate under the highest nursing care requirements in the nation, are professionally staffed by registered nurses, licensed practical nurses and nurses' aides," Grosso said. "This service, which is essential for the convalescent and the chronically ill, is offered at an average daily cost of about one-fourth that of a hospital."

"Elderly nursing home patients too often are forgotten members of our society," said Grosso. "They've made their contribution, and they deserve our interest, compassion and understanding. Often we find that many people would like to share some time with the elderly, but they're either too shy or they think they're not allowed in."

"For them, we hope Nursing Care Week will be the beginning of a rewarding experience."

Al Pacino at Cinema

The Five Points Cinema, Union, is offering a double feature this week: "Dog Day Afternoon" and "Hustle," starring Al Pacino. "Dog Day Afternoon," is based on real-life events as they were catalogued in a magazine article about an ineffectual attempt by a pair of amateurs to rob a bank in broad daylight. The picture was directed by Sidney Lumet. Burt Reynolds stars in "Hustle," a film about a Los Angeles detective in liaison with an expensive call girl, played by Catherine Deneuve. Robert Aldrich directed the picture.

DISC 'N DATA

By MIL T. HAMMER

Pick Of The LP's. Tennessee Ernie Ford, born Ernest Jennings Ford, who is nothing short of a legend, has never been one to rest on past laurels. His long stream of country, pop, religious and patriotic records goes back several decades.

O'Neal star of Park film

Latest in this long line is his just released LP album, filled to the brim with hymns, and titled with the plea to SING HIS GREAT LOVE (CAPITOL ST-1195). Ford's deep, rich voice swells through 10 heart-felt performances such as "Sing His Great Love," "Nothing Between," "Holy Holy," "The Haven Of Rest," "Sweet Sweet Spirit," "Blessed Land," "He Is Here," "Peace Wonderful Peace," "Does Jesus Care," "My Tribute."

This marks the first time Ford has ever recorded an album in Nashville, which resulted in his ability to use many of the finest country musicians and vocalists in the business—including the Jordanaires, Charlie McCoy, Buddy Harmon, Bill Pursell, Lloyd Wells, Farrel Morris and Bill Wiggins.

Ford's first big hit record, was "Shotgun Boogie." Soon followed his "Mule Train," "Cry Of The Wild Goose," "Farewell" and "The Ballad of Davy Crockett."

In September 1955, Ford recorded "Sixteen Tons," Merle Travis' blue-grass tune about a coal-miner. It became the fastest and biggest selling record in history up to that time. By 1962, Ford had no less than five gold records.

Ford is a happy man and a versatile singer. There is probably not a single vocal genre he hasn't mastered, since he has recorded practically everything but the famous aria from "Pagliacci"—and if someone could get a microphone into his shower, you might get that too!

'King' seen in Linden

The picture was made in color

"The Man Who Would Be King" arrived yesterday on a double bill with "Interneecine Project" at the New Plaza Theater, Linden.

Rudyard Kipling's "The Man Who Would Be King" was brought to the screen by director John Huston, and stars Sean Connery, Michael Caine and Christopher Plummer as Kipling, with Saeed Jaffrey, Shakira Caine and Daghini Larbi.

The story concerns two tough, shrewd and inseparable soldiers of fortune, who, in the 1850s, decide to make the hazardous journey from India through Afghanistan to the wild and primitive country of Kafiristan and there make their fortunes and set themselves up to be kings.

Kipling wrote the book when he was working as a young journalist in India.

Huston and Gladys Hill expanded Kipling's original story for the screen adaptation.

We'd Like You to Know...

Our Customers Remember Us

All of us at Geiger's know Ted Catino...he's been a customer of ours for the past 13 years (that's a long time!). We see him every night for dinner and he regularly stops by to take out our homemade pies, ice cream, cider, etc. for his friends and co-workers.

He's told us many times he likes our casual, family atmosphere, our varied menu and our friendly, courteous staff. (We, too, think we have a pretty good group of people working with us - that's Thelma Bowen serving Ted some of our delicious rye bread before dinner.)

Of course, Ted isn't without any complaints. After dinner he's been heard to say, "I'm too full - the food is so good!" (That-a-way, Ted!)

We're proud to have a reputation built on people like Mr. Catino who have watched and helped us grow over the years and for that reason we make a special effort to give you the quality food and service you remember and expect from us today...

We're glad our customers remember us, but more importantly, we remember our customers.

Sheeran protests 'discrimination' in flight insurance

State Insurance Commissioner James J. Sheeran said this week that air travelers using Newark Airport are discriminated against in the price they pay for flight insurance, compared to the price charged at New York airports.

Commissioner Sheeran said the cost of flight insurance in New Jersey is three and three-tenths cents per $1,000 of coverage. In New York, he said, the traveler has to pay only two cents for the same amount of coverage.

Such insurance is sold through travel agents and through machine and counter service at airports.

Seeking to put an end to what he terms a discriminatory practice, Sheeran said, he is writing to the presidents of three companies that sell flight insurance, requesting them to reduce the New Jersey rate to the same level as that in New York. The companies are Mutual of Omaha, the Fidelity and Casualty Company of New York, and the Commercial Insurance Company of Newark.

In his letters, Sheeran states: "To the best of my knowledge there is no difference in the risk presented by residents of New Jersey who fly from Newark Airport or from JFK or LaGuardia Airports. Yet under your current pricing system, the New Jersey resident using a New Jersey airport is forced to pay a higher price than he or she would pay at a New York airport."

Teen Arts Festival date set by Jablonski, Burke

The New Jersey State Teen Arts Festival will be held May 19-21 at the Garden State Arts Center, Holmdel. It was announced by Commissioner Robert J. Jablonski of the New Jersey Highway Authority and Education Commissioner Fred G. Burke.

The festival will include performing and visual arts. Dancers will appear on the stage of the big amphitheater. Vocalists and instrumentalists will perform on the Arts Center plaza, and artists will display their works in a large tent on the grounds. Included will be presentations in creative writing, film and drama.

The Arts Center is located in Telegraph Hill Park at Exit 116 of the Garden State Parkway. The program at the Arts Center will run from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. each of the three days. New Jersey school children, through school principals, are invited to attend. Visitors of all ages will be welcome. The festival is open to the public no admission charge.

The festival, funded by the National Endowment for the Arts, is a program for New Jersey students between 13 and 19 and is designed to foster the growth of arts education and develop student creativity through performing, exhibiting and learning from each other and from arts professionals. Integral parts of the festival are the pre-registered clinics and master classes and a large variety of workshops and demonstrations open to the general public offered by professional artists and performers.

The fee eligible for participation in the State Festival as performers or exhibitors, students should participate in one of the local or county festivals scheduled. Information is available at the State Teen Arts Office, N.J. Department of Education, 225 West State st., Trenton, N.J., 08625.

Any student of any public, parochial or private school in New Jersey is eligible to take part. Pupils or institutions and agencies requiring special education also are welcome as participants or visitors.

The Highway Authority operates the Arts Center.

Media programs offered to groups

The New Jersey School Media Association announced this week that a sound-filmstrip presentation, "Elementary School Library Media Programs: A Success Story for Kids," accompanied by a speaker, is available to groups.

The NJSMA said the project, a joint effort of the state association and county media associations, was developed because of the increasing inquiries from boards of education and parent-school groups. The New Jersey Administrative Code (Title 6) (6:8-3.5) states that schools must provide all pupils continuous access to sufficient programs and services of a library-media facility to support the educational program for a thorough and efficient education.

The presentation outlines the role of the library-media center in the elementary school. Organizations and groups interested in presentations may contact Dora Stolfi, Brooklawn Junior High School, Parsippany, 07054.

Irish setter club to hold fun match

The Irish Setter Club of Northern New Jersey will hold its spring fun match Sunday, May 29, at the United Methodist Church on Horseneck Road, Fairfield, (just off Rt. 46, Plymouth street exit).

The breed judge will be Madeline Blush, obedience judge Barbara Fontano and Junior Showmanship judge Deanne Reynolds. Bred classes will be broken down by sex: puppy 3-6 mos., 6-9 mos., 9-12 mos. Novice, Bred by Exhibitor, American Bred and Open. Obedience classes feature Sub-novice, Novice, Open, Utility, and Graduate Novice. Jr. Handling classes will be divided into junior and senior divisions.

Entries will be taken from 10 a.m. and judging will start at noon. Trophies and ribbons are offered in all classes.

Food will be available as well as ample parking. For further information readers may call Mike Fahmie, show chairman, at 335-8518.

Job fair will help minority women

A free "Job Fair for Minority Women" sponsored by EVE—Women's Center at Kean College, will be held Saturday May 8, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 at the Elizabeth YWCA, 1131 East Jersey st., Elizabeth.

Viola Van Jones of Montclair, an EVE counselor coordinating this event, says the job fair will offer minority women an opportunity to meet company representatives, learn about job and training opportunities, and find out about various careers in business and industry.

Month-long drive aims at securing jobs for veterans

A special may-long drive to develop job opportunities for unemployed veterans, particularly Vietnam-era veterans, was announced this week by Thomas J. Stanton Jr., the Region II chairman for the National Alliance of Businessmen NAB and Frank D. Riccardi, state commander of the American Legion. "Governor Brendan T. Byrne has issued a proclamation in conjunction with the campaign kick-off in which he urges leaders of government, labor and industry to join him in a concentrated effort to make the widest range of employment opportunities available to our unemployed New Jersey Veterans during this special one month effort," Stanton added.

The jobs campaign, a cooperative effort among NAB, the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry, State American Legion and the Veterans Education Corps is aimed at sharply reducing the number of unemployed New Jersey veterans, now believed to be in excess of 100,000.

Riccardi added, "We have recently seen a welcome upturn in New Jersey's economy. This factor, coupled with the dedication of all of the people involved in this placement effort will, I feel certain, do much to put veterans back on the job rolls. That's what the campaign is all about," Riccardi concluded, "and those of us in the American Legion look forward to meeting this challenge."

'Ah, Wilderness!' at Kean May 6-8

The Kean College Theatre Series will present Eugene O'Neill's comedy, "Ah, Wilderness!" on May 7, 7 and 8 in the Eugene G. Wilkins Theater. Union. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

The play blends a nostalgic look at the America that was. It is O'Neill's ode to youth, love, and joys of life and the American Dream. It is directed by Marting Winkler, the college's first guest director, with scenic production under the direction of Robert Allan Harper, a member of the faculty. Assistants to the director are Lisa DiGiacomia and Ed Faver, both of Elizabeth. The stage manager is Rita Donald of Union.

The role of Richard, the awkward adolescent, is played by Doug Fogel of Glen Rock and his father by James Neis of Newark. Other roles are played by Kathleen Sharkey of Elizabeth, Gregory Rusin of Roselle Park, Susan Drake and Steven Drake of Belleville, Gordon Wiener of Elizabeth, Karen Luccisano of Bridgewater, Tim Coyne of Union, Tom Bamburak of Union, Pam Collins of East Brunswick, Carla Miller of Verona, Alexandra Durant of Elizabeth and Robert Sharkey of Chatham. Reservations may be made by calling 527-2337 between 9:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. after April 26.

Coffee to benefit Seals campaign

Several hundred restaurants, diners, luncheonettes and coffee shops throughout New Jersey will begin selling Easter Seal Coffee Day buttons today, under the sponsorship of the N.J. Restaurant Association.

Waitresses, waiters, and cashiers will be selling buttons for $1 apiece for a two-week period.

The purchase of a Coffee Day button entitles button holders to drink all the free coffee they want on Coffee Day, Thursday, May 13, in all participating establishments.

"A buck-a-cup helps handicapped people in New Jersey Easter Seal programs" is the theme of this annual fund-raising endeavor.

Proceeds from the event will be used to help improve the quality of life for handicapped children, men and women through statewide and local Easter Seal service programs. Easter Seals works the year-round helping handicapped individuals.

SCORE unit conference

Leonard Goldner, financial analyst of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry, will speak at the ninth annual statewide conference of SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives) next Wednesday at the Coachman Inn, Cranford.

Goldner will discuss SCORE's relationship to the state's program of encouraging new business and helping existing businesses to succeed. SCORE is sponsored by the federal Small Business Administration.

SCORE members are all retired business executives who volunteer their services without pay as counsellors to small businesses or people considering going into a small business. The New Jersey chapters handle more than 1,000 cases a year.

Museum offers Eskimo display

Tools, weapons and a variety of other objects utilized by the Alaskan Eskimo to create an efficient material culture despite the harsh realities of his environment set the theme for "Masters of the Arctic," an exhibition in the Main Galleries of the New Jersey State Museum, W. State street, Trenton.

It will continue through Labor Day.

The Bicentennial edition of the guide to New Jersey's hotels, motel and resorts is now available free to the traveling public.

Published by the Travel Council of New Jersey, a subsidiary of the New Jersey Hotel-Motel Association, (NJHMA), the 36-page travel and vacation brochure is printed in two colors.

NJHMA member properties are listed according to their respective locations and include their addresses, telephone numbers, room rates and ancillary services.

The state's historical, cultural and natural attractions are also highlighted and a map of New Jersey pinpoints the interstate highway systems.

Some 250,000 copies of the guide are currently being distributed by the Council through local Chambers of Commerce, travel agents, The New Jersey Department of Tourism and Promotion, corporate meeting planners, and major information centers on New Jersey, out-of-state, and Canadian roadways and travel outlets.

The brochure can be obtained free by writing the Travel Council of New Jersey, 826 West State st., Trenton, 08618.

GI'S DECADE
The current GI Bill, the third such program since 1944, became effective June 1, 1966, according to the Veterans Administration.

Q. What pickup has the lowest price, biggest payload, and the best mileage?

A. Dodge Spartan '76

Introducing Dodge Spartan '76. Spartan has the lowest manufacturer's suggested retail price of any pickup made in America. Only $3,677* But that's not all. Spartan carries more than any other pickup. EPA estimates show Dodge pickups equipped with a 225 Six and manual transmission got 25 mpg highway and 18 mpg city. That's better gas mileage than any other pickup made in America got. Of course, your actual mileage may differ depending on how and where you drive, the condition of your vehicle, and its optional equipment. Got any more questions?
