Bridge controversy puts off storm drain vote

Final action by the Mountainside Borough Council on a $300,000 bond ordinance to fund a storm drainage project for the New Hope Brook was delayed last week after objections were raised by a number of borough residents in attendance at the June 16 meeting in the Beechwood School.

The motion to table the ordinance came from Councilman Nicholas Bradshaw, who acknowledged "a problem of documentation and credibility" regarding construction details for the New Providence road bridge near Children's Specialized Hospital.

Approximately 50 persons, the largest number in recent years to attend a monthly council session, were in the audience for the ordinance hearing, and many raised questions as to why the county, which is funding the bridge portion of the project, has suggested a widening of the bridge to 40 feet if it does not plan eventually to widen New Providence road itself.

Borough engineer Robert Koser, who displayed a project plan for the construction, stated it was "strictly limited to a hydraulic design concept and no commitment has been made regarding the width of the bridge or the roadway." However, the design does indicate a 40-foot curb-to-curb roadway on the bridge, a width which could carry three lanes of traffic.

Mayor Thomas Ricciardi, who assured the residents that the borough has not made a "trade-off" with the county to permit bridge widening in exchange for the county's monetary contribution in improving the waterway, admitted there had been "pressure" for widening New Providence road "for many years."

Bradshaw, in making his motion to table, stated he was "not prepared to cast a vote for or against this ordinance. I would like to try to get in writing what the width of the bridge would be and who is telling us what the width of the bridge would be."

Council voted unanimously for the tabling, despite the fact the ordinance was simply an approval for funding the storm project, and was not a plan approval.

In addition to the bridge reconstruction, the purpose of which is to widen the culvert to relieve the current flooding in the New Providence road area during heavy storms, the project proposals include channel improvements west and east of the bridge and upstream piping of the brook on the north side of Rt. 22, where ponding also occurs.

Concrete storm sewer lines would be installed paralleling S. Fork road and crossing Force drive, connecting with an existing storm sewer there. The new lines would recommence on Partridge run, follow the upstream channel and connect to another existing sewer on Meeting House lane.

Councilman Bruce Geiger, public work-commissioner, noted that, in addition to the bridge plans, residents have also expressed concern over the effects on properties by the piping, and some have objected to the piping of the open stream because of ecological reasons. He promised that before final plans were approved, the council would hold a series of public meetings on the project.

In other action at the meeting, the council adopted an ordinance to appropriate $25,000 for improvements to the 1936 Echobrook School building, recently acquired from the Board of

Citizens can talk at DOT hearing next week

Registration required for all speakers

Mayor urges defeat of South of Park line

Mountainside citizens will have an opportunity to present to the New Jersey Department of Transportation their feelings regarding the proposed alignments for Rt. 78 from Berkeley Heights to Springfield at a four-day public hearing, Monday through next Thursday, at Gov. Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights.

The five-minute per person speaking time has been allotted on a first-come, first-assigned basis—will be speakers signing up in advance with DOT Highway department officials will give two half-hour formal presentations Monday at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. The remainder of the hearing—Monday from 10:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and from 7:30 to 11 p.m., and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 7 to 11 p.m.—will be for public testimony. A display and information area is to be set up through the course of the four-day program.

Persons who wish to speak and who have not registered in advance with the DOT's Office of Community Involvement in Trenton must register upon arriving at the hearing. They will be called upon to speak in the order in which they signed in, if there are available time slots," a DOT spokesman said.

"A person who has pre-registered may give his or her time slot to another speaker if he or she is present at the hearing when his or her name is called by the hearing officer. However, the speaking time may be transferred to only one other speaker."

MAYOR THOMAS RICCIARDI and other borough officials are expected to present testimony, and have urged other residents to do so, particularly in objection to the "South of Park" alignment, the most threatening to the community. Ricciardi also noted that written statements are just as valuable, and may be sent to J. F. Andrews, Director of Division of Economic and Environmental Analysis, Department of Transportation, 1035 Parkway Ave., Trenton 08625. Deadline for submitting such written statements or exhibits is July 31.

Following next week's hearing, the transcript will be open to the public for 30 days. Persons wishing to review or copy it may arrange to see it at the Trenton office.

The reviews of the public hearing testimony and of the written statements are the final steps to be taken before the DOT makes a recommendation on which Rt. 78 alignment should be on the Rt. 78 "South of Park" line, last week presented to the governing body its first completed study, a 48-page volume on borough socio-economic factors which would be adversely affected by the superhighway's routing through the town.

The library will also be closed on Saturdays during July and August. Summer hours for the library will be: Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Library officials also announced that the Dictionary of American History is being revised and will be published in July. Libraries are being offered the seven volume set and index for pre-publication price of $265 plus shipping and handling.

In a letter to Mayor Thomas Ricciardi, which accompanied the report, Dames & Moore noted, "We are of the opinion, as set forth in our report, that these (social) consequences will be significant and severe in terms of Mountainside's neighborhood cohesiveness and character. Although the western portion of the borough is proposed to receive the I-78 corridor, the entire borough will experience its consequences in terms of decline in rates, changing character and loss of community leaders."

Dames & Moore noted that for its study, it interviewed a sample of 20 persons who "shall remain anonymous" and "who may be con-

Cantabile Singers going to Poland

Student chorus to present 5-city concert tour

The Cantabile Singers, a 37-voice chorus composed of present and former Jonathan Dayton Regional High School students, will depart next week for Poland where they will take part in a five-city concert tour from June 29 to July 20.

The singers, including high school and college students from Springfield and Mountainside, have been named "Friendship Ambassadors" under a United States cultural exchange program, designed primarily for Iron Curtain countries. In keeping with the program's motto, "Music is the medium, friendship is the message," Gov. Brendan Byrne and Mountainside Mayor Thomas Ricciardi have both written letters of greeting which will be read to the Polish audiences following each concert.

The Cantabile Singers will present programs in Warsaw, Lodz, Poznan, Gdansk and Cracow, and also will represent the United States in the first Polish-American Festival of Music in Cracow.

The chorus is conducted by E. Edward Shiley, director of vocal music at Jonathan Dayton. The assistant directors for the tour are Ed Bilous, a student at Manhattan School of Music, and George Esparza, a student at Tulane University. Kim Martinelli, assistant director of vocal music at Jonathan Dayton, will be the accompanist for the tour—Ronald Kamen, a student at New England Conservatory, will be assistant accompanist.

The Cantabile Singers will be presenting a program of American music to the Polish audiences. Spirituals, Broadway show music, barbershop songs, sea chantees, patriotic and American folk music will be featured. In addition, there will be music by Bernstein, Thompson, Copeland, Elfinger and Berger, and a composition by Bilous.

The group will give a free concert this Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Community Presbyterian Church of Mountainside, at which time they will present the program they will be taking to Poland.

Students participating in the trip are: Glen Ames, Pam Bieszczak, Edward Bilous, Barbara Bongiovanni, Christine Bunin, Helene Bunin, Kurt Christophers, Deborah DeMeo, Kathy DiGeorgio, Ted Dutkowski, Gwyn English, George Esparza, Bradford Gianno, Louise Gollub, Jud Graham, John Hulecky, Alison Hart, Ann Indick, Murray Indick, Donald Jeka, Ronnie Kamen, Kathy Krajick, Michelle Kurtzman, Jeff McKay, Nancy Muirhead, Christine Picut, Joan Radding, Joan Ragno, Richard Schmedel, Sue Stogniew, Cheri Swanson, Van Vitale, Hillary Walter, Lindsey Weeks, Carol Wingard, Tom Zelman and Susan Ziobro.

The Cantabile group is not sponsored by the high school.

Burglary losses can be minimized if family's away

"Every citizen of Mountainside can help reduce losses because of burglary," according to Abe Suckno, police commissioner. He said cooperation is needed to prevent burglaries during the summer months when families leave for vacations, trips and weekend outings.

Police Chief Edward Mullin suggested the following precautionary steps be taken before going away:

1. Lock all doors and windows.
2. Arrange lamps, radios and TV in various parts of your home to be connected to automatic timers for use at customary hours to create a lived-in appearance.
3. Leave shades and blinds in normal positions.
4. Make sure that no deliveries of any kind (mail, newspaper, milk, etc.) will be made in your absence.
5. Arrange to have your lawn mowed if gone any length of time.
6. Store valuables in a safe deposit vault.
7. Ask a neighbor to be alert for unusual activity in your absence.
8. Refrain from notifying the newspapers of your whereabouts until you return.
9. Notify your Police Department, 232-8100, when you will be leaving and how long you expect to be away.

The chief added, "By adhering to these suggestions, you can help your police department and enable you to enjoy both security and peace of mind."

Non-members get chance to try pool

A free swim—and a chance to inspect the Mountainside Community Pool facilities—is being offered to non-members in an effort to boost membership. Recreation Commissioner William Cullen has announced.

Non-members may take advantage of the offer any weekday though one visit per person is requested. They must produce identification showing they are Mountainside residents.

Cullen reported that, as of last week, approximately 477 family memberships had been recorded, 73 fewer than had been projected in the 1976 pool operating budget and approximately 120 below last year's total at this time of the season.

Brewers win American League title; Chiefs, Indians take playoff crowns

By RICHARD REITER
With the 1976 Mountainside Little League Baseball regular season over, the Major League All-Stars are now competing for selection to the team.

In this past week's playoff action, the Brewers won the American League title, beating the Angels, 8-1. The Brewers jumped off to an early lead, and held off several determined Angel rallies. A two-run homer by Mickey Tomko, two-run doubles by Matthew Miller and Billy Knedel and strong offensive efforts by Tommy Jackson, Myles Carter and Walter Heckel, marked the winning drive. Vincent Marnion pitched for the Brewers. The Angels were led by the pitching of David Gagliano, the hitting of Kyle Wissel and Steve Burton and the fielding of Steve Doten and Brian Miske.

In a Major League regular game, the Mets triumphed over the Cubs, 11-8. In the bottom of the sixth inning, with two outs, and the score tied at 8-8, Alfred Heckel hit a three-run double. Patrick Esenplare, the winning pitcher and Ben Mirto each had three RBI. Glen Delaney pitched well for the Cubs, and Jeff Bradshaw, Delaney, Scott Connolly and M.J. Castelo started at bat.

In playoff action, a strong hitting Blue Star team lost to the Orioles, 11-6. Doug Adams, Kirk Yogy and Frank Gagliano contributed to the 12-hit attack. The Orioles collected 10 hits. Frank Knoll hit four RBI, Matt Gallaher and Dan Weiss two RBI each. Knoll pitched the whole game.

The first-place Chiefs began the playoffs by defeating the Giants, 9-4. Stewart Jurczak and Keith Hannigan combined for the Chiefs on the mound. Hannigan also made outstanding plays at short stop, as did Ricky Kontra at third. Kontra, Hanigan and Andrew Grett provided hitting power; timely singled by Mike Dailey and Kent Murray helped the Chiefs. David Crane starred for the Giants on the mound and at bat.

In the final playoffs for the Major League championship, a best-of-three series, the Chiefs defeated the Orioles twice by 2-1 scores. In the final game, the Chiefs relied on the bats of Andrew Grett, Matt Dooley, Kieth Hanigan, Ricky Kontra, Mike Liddy and Kevin Koy. Stewart Jurczak and Kiehl Hanigan again combined on the mound. Jurczak pitched three innings, allowing only three hits and one run. Hanigan took over the pitched three no-hit innings to preserve the Chiefs' lead. The last out of the game—and the season—was a grounder to Kontra, who flicked it to third base for a close force-out.

Matt Gallagher was outstanding for the Orioles in the playoffs. He batted .545 and starred defensively. Danny Weiss, a strong pitcher, almost won his own game with two hits. Frank Knoll played a strong steady game at shortstop.

Klebos receives university degree

Lori A. Klebos of Mountainside received a bachelor's degree from the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Va., at the university's 104th commencement exercises held June 5.

Klebos was awarded a degree in human nutrition and foods. She was among the approximate 4,250 Virginia Tech students to participate in the ceremonies.

Edgar F. Shannon Jr., former president and Commonwealth Professor of English at the university, was the speaker at the commencement, which was followed by individual ceremonies at each of the school's seven colleges.

Pool picnic is planned

The Senior Citizens of Mountainside will hold a picnic outing at the Mountainside Community Pool on Wednesday, July 7, from noon to 4 p.m. On June 9, the group sponsored a bus trip and luncheon at the shore.

Club is opposed to 'South of Park' Rt. 78 alignment

A telephone poll conducted last week of members of the Mountainside Women's Club Inc. showed that 234 of the organization's 235 members are opposed to the "South of Park" alignment for Rt. 78. One member said she was undecided.

The poll was conducted by Mrs. John Allen and Mrs. Herbert Hagel following the June 10 Department of Transportation information meeting at the Deerfield School.

"The Mountainside Women's Club Inc. has always been a leader of community affairs," a spokeswoman commented. Noting that the "South of Park" route "would drastically upset community life in the entire borough," she said the club felt it "must take a stand regarding this matter."

Mrs. John P. O'Connell, club president, ordered the telephone canvass after "a flood of phone calls" to her home by members following the DOT session.

used to fill the five-mile gap now existing. This decision is expected before the end of the year.

The DOT must then write a final Environmental Impact Statement on the selected route, which will take another 12 to 18 months to prepare. When that is completed, it will be submitted to federal agencies, including the Department of the Interior and the Environmental Protection Agency for review. The final "OK" on the route will come from the Secretary of Transportation.

When that approval is received, the DOT must then hire a design consultant and hold a design public hearing before actual construction begins. One DOT representative said it would be at least 1980 before all necessary approvals have been granted.

The MOUNTAINSIDE Borough Council held a special meeting last Thursday night to review the Rt. 78 socio-economic impact report prepared by Dames & Moore of Cranford, environmental consultants hired by the governing body to help in its fight against the "South of Park" route.

Air quality, noise and water pollution and other effects of the superhighway's routing through the borough were to be covered in a second Dames & Moore report—a review of DOT's Draft Environmental Impact Statement—which was to be presented to the governing body this week.

Both reports will be used in Mountainside's arguments against the "South of Park" alignment at next week's hearings.

In addition, Councilman Donald Halbsgut has been assigned to consult public relations firms regarding the possibility of hiring one to present the borough's case on the highway to the public outside Mountainside.

sidered as leaders in many facets of Mountainside community life.

Segments of the report are as follows: "The stratification system of Mountainside is dependent upon the mountain. A person in Mountainside may demonstrate his success to the community by moving up the Mountain."

"The borough draws heavily upon all areas of Mountainside for leadership; however the areas near the top of the mountain (the ridge) or on the ridge seem to contribute the most."

"The perception of Mountainside by residents as being a suburban community with a rural atmosphere is important in attracting persons to and keeping persons in Mountainside."

"The borough has maintained a close sense of community in spite of Rt. 22."

Degradation of the ridge area by the highway "will cause persons with high administrative and technical skills to leave Mountainside. The loss of these people will be critical as Mountainside has to solve future problems." The study also notes the rural character of the borough would be disturbed, causing still more people to leave, and will further divide the borough, making it difficult "to establish a strong sense of community."

Other segments of the report, which Dames & Moore noted are based upon the "perceptions of Mountainside" by those interviewed, include a description of community setting, a study of population growth and population turnover in residential neighborhoods, the geographic desirability of the borough's various neighborhoods, neighborhood structure and community involvement by residents.

Maps show the borough's topography, zoning districts, Perceived Income Distribution among areas of the borough, Perceived Neighborhood Stability, Perceived Areas of Residential Desirability, Perceived Neighborhoods, and Spatial Distribution of Perceived Community Leaders.

Copies of the report—which is to be supplemented by a Dames & Moore study of the Department of Transportation's Draft Environmental Impact Statement on Rt. 78—are available for public review at the Borough Hall.

The appropriation made by the council to hire the firm was $18,521, but no figure is available to date as to what was the exact cost of the socio-economic study.

Education for use as a municipal building.

The monies will go toward the installation of an air conditioning system and other renovations to make the school usable by the borough's clerical staff and for staff transfer costs. The requirements of the local police department, which also eventually will be housed in the structure, are being studied. The police committee of the council, but a report on this is not expected for several months.

Also adopted was an ordinance setting the 10-week summer season salaries for playground supervisor and assistant supervisor at $1,039 and $840, respectively—an increase of approximately $4 per week. The salary of the arts and crafts supervisor remains at $800.

The council noted it had received a letter from John McDonough, Board of Education secretary, requesting $15,000 in aid from the governing body to supplement the costs of student-bus transportation for 1976-77. The board's bus contract is for $49,950, but its transportation budget, no longer supplemented by state aid, is only $35,000. Ricciardi said the council had discussed the request "informally," but as yet had adopted no plan regarding it.

The council did approve a resolution reaffirming one passed last month by the borough Planning Board objecting to the Union County Planning Board's proposal to make W. R. Tracy drive a part of the county road system. Copies will be sent to the county manager, county Planning Board and Board of Chosen Freeholders.

The 1976 borough road maintenance and repair contract was awarded to Dorsch-King Co., Inc., for the lump sum bid of $60,421.

Borough residents were invited to attend an Army Corps of Engineers meeting at 8 p.m. June 30 in the Watchung Municipal Building, the purpose of which is to obtain public input for an Environmental Impact Statement on the Corps' proposed flood control work in the Green Brook Basin, which includes a portion of Mountainside.

Hearing is waived by woman, case forwarded to prosecutor

The case of a Garwood woman, arrested in Mountaintide May 25 by Union County Park Police for possession of amphetamines, was forwarded to the Union County Prosecutor's Office after she waived preliminary hearing before Judge Jacob R. Bauer at the June 16 session of Mountaintide Municipal Court.

The defendant, Linda Guerriero, also is accused of possession of less than 25 grams of marijuana—a charge to be heard in connection with the indictable offense.

In other court action, Alexis Diaz Quesada of Orange was fined $60 for possessing and exhibiting a counterfeit driver's license. He had been apprehended in the water tower parking lot in the Watchung Reservation. Fines totaling $45 were paid by Ronney Major of Jamaica, N.Y., for being an unlicensed driver, for failure to make vehicle repairs, and for operating a vehicle with two bald tires. He was ticketed on Rt. 22.

Other motorists and their penalties included: Allen Grundy of Piscataway, $15 for operating an unlicensed car, Rt. 22, and $10 for contempt of court; Michael A. Truncala of Bedminster, $20 for passing on the shoulder of Rt. 22; George R. Leeds of Warren, $15 for driving the wrong way on a one-way road in the Watchung Reservation; Lillie M. Johnson of Plainfield, $15 for failure to make vehicle repairs, Rt. 22.

Rt. 78 alternative will be opposed by DiFrancesco

Assemblyman Donald DiFrancesco this week announced he will present testimony at the public hearing, June 28-30 at Governor Livingston Regional High School, Berkeley Heights, concerning the completion of Rt. 78. DiFrancesco's testimony will primarily be on the South of the Park alternative which will parallel Rt. 22 through Scotch Plains and Mountaintide.

"To use the South of the Park alternative would not only take 63 acres of Watchung Reservation, but also have the greatest impact on the residents of Mountaintide and Scotch Plains by further dividing them from their respective towns," DiFrancesco stated. "The two towns are already divided by Rt. 22 and more than 100 homes would be further isolated from the communities by Rt. 78."

"Although the congested traffic conditions on Rt. 22 need to be alleviated, construction of Rt. 78 would increase air and noise pollution and create inconveniences from construction in the Scotch Plains and Mountaintide areas," he says.

"Sixty-five homes and a business would be demolished in Mountaintide, causing a loss of seven percent in tax rates to that community. The already flood-besieged areas of Scotch Plains would be further hurt by this alternative, causing untold amounts of financial loss to the local residents."

"The South of the Park alternative is not a feasible one," DiFrancesco said, "and should not have been conceived in the first place. The impact of this alternative would be the most severe, and I shall continue to press the Department of Transportation to discontinue this alternative and will contact federal authorities to express my opposition."

An 18 year-old Westfield man was arrested Monday after he allegedly assaulted a Mountaintide police officer who stopped him for questioning.

Gerald L. Canfield was stopped by police at 1 a.m. while walking on Mountain avenue after borough officers had received a report that a man had attempted to break into an auto on a nearby Westfield street. Police said Canfield, while being questioned by Det. Sgt. Jerry Rice, used loud and profane language, and when Officer Herman Hafeken attempted to handcuff him, he punched Hafeken in the face.

Canfield was charged with assault on a police officer; no charges were made regarding the break-in attempt. He was remanded to Union County Jail, Elizabeth, in lieu of $500 bail, pending an appearance in Mountaintide Municipal Court June 23.

Letters to Editor

'DISASTROUS EFFECT'

It is my opinion that constructing a highway through the Watchung Reservation would have a disastrous effect on the flora and fauna of this very unique area. This is an oasis in an industrial area that should never be tampered with, so that future generations may enjoy it for years to come.

There may be irreparable damage to the flora by the actual construction of the road and also because of the damage in drainage, which in turn may cause flooding and erosion of the valuable topsoil. So the actual destruction of the flora could be very extensive.

The road would inhibit the movement of animals from one part of the park to another. It is almost inconceivable to estimate the number of animals that might be killed by speeding automobiles.

In the past 10 years there has been a constant increase in the bird population of the Watchung Reservation. This has been due to the ever-increasing building programs in the vicinity, making the Reservation become a sanctuary for birds. A great deal of this is due to the lack of air, soil and water pollution. Of course, when the highway goes through, all of the pollution factors will rise tremendously.

One of the unique birds nesting in this area is the yellow-breasted chat, which does not nest anywhere else within 50 miles of the Reservation. Each year there seems to be another bird taking up permanent residence.

We have a varied terrain, including swamps, meadows, evergreen forests, deciduous forest, brooks and ponds. This habitat, which is so essential to the wild life of the area, may be changed to the detriment of every living thing.

ABRAHAM CLARK
Patriot and Statesman

Abraham Clark, the only son of Judge and Mrs. Richard Clark who arrived in this area in 1678 from Southold, Long Island, was born in what is now Roselle, February 15, 1726. As a boy he was too sickly for hard work, but matured early in life, and in time acquired a knowledge of surveying which resulted in his appointment by the Colonial Assembly to survey and divide the lands of Bergen Township. He was later designated by the Royal Governor, William Franklin, to survey, lay out and build a road between Newark and Trenton.

In addition to his surveying he also gained an understanding of the law. Although he never was a qualified lawyer, by 1773 he had established a fairly good law practice, and was drawing up wills, deeds, mortgages and other legal documents. Since he never charged legal fees to people who could not afford them, he gained the reputation of being the "poor man's lawyer".

In 1784, while a member of the state legislature, Clark was able to push laws through that severely restricted the power of lawyers and the fees they were able to charge. At the same time he was responsible for the lessening of court costs. These measures became known as Clark's laws.

Abraham Clark began his political career as high sheriff of Essex County, of which Elizabethtown was a part. At the outbreak of the Revolution, being a staunch advocate of American independence, he was made Secretary of the New Jersey Council of Safety.

When the First Continental Congress met in 1774, Clark was one of the four New Jersey delegates. In 1775 he was again made a delegate to the Second Continental Congress which continued in session throughout the war. He ably represented New Jersey and the nation, and when the Second Congress drew up the Declaration of Independence, was one of the signers.

Although he advocated separation from England and signed the Declaration with "a bold flourish", he did it with some uneasiness knowing the possible consequences of his act. He realized with the British stationed only a few miles away in Staten Island that if they decided to move westward across the state, his family, home and law office would be vulnerable to British reprisals since he was an outspoken revolutionist.

In a letter dated July 4, 1776 written to his wife at home, he made this observation "We can die but once. We are now embarked on a most tempestuous course. It is gone so far that we must now be a free independent state or a conquered country". So at the age of 50, Abraham Clark faced "perfect freedom or absolute slavery".

In 1787, despite opposition from the lawyers because of the Clark Laws, and the army who he antagonized by stating that enlisted men should be paid before the officers, he was elected to the Philadelphia Convention that framed the Constitution, but poor health prevented him from attending. However when the Convention appointed a committee to draw up a constitution for the new country, Clark was a member. Fearing the loss of liberties, he opposed the Constitution until the adoption of the Bill of Rights removed his objection.

Clark, one of the few men who worked personally on both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, continued to serve in Congress until his death in 1794 at the age of 68. Next to Governor William Livingston, Abraham Clark, was the most outstanding statesman from the Elizabethtown area during the Revolutionary period.

As a memorial to Abraham Clark, the Roselle Chapters, Sons of the American Revolution and Daughters of the American Revolution had a replica of his house erected on land once owned by Clark at the corner of West 9th Avenue and Chestnut Street, Roselle.

His original home, which was destroyed by fire around the turn of the century, was situated a short distance away on what is now Crane Street, near Wheatseaf Road, also on land that at one time was a section of his property.

The replica, built in 1940, stands as a fitting tribute to a great American whose belief in liberty and human dignity never wavered during the dark days of the Revolution before final victory was achieved over a strong and powerful foe.

Did You Know

... that the signing of the Treaty of Paris ending the 'War for Independence did not end Abraham Clark's fight for liberties. He made numerous enemies including many in the Army when he opposed paying officers before the enlisted men. He said "officers should be content with victory achieved instead of demanding individual financial gain."

Bands are sought in Roselle parade

Roselle is still accepting marching bands for its Fourth of July Parade. There is also room for additional floats and groups. Interested bands and groups to march or present floats, should contact the Borough of Roselle Free Public Library, according to Sidney G. Olson, chairman of the Bicentennial Fourth of July Committee.

Tentative plans call for an ecumenical church service at 7 a.m. at Warinoco Park, a flag raising at noon and the parade at 12:30. After the ringing of all church bells at 2 p.m. for two minutes, Olson will read the Declaration of Independence. Roselle Mayor Anthony Amalfi will then introduce the speaker, Francis X. McDermott.

The program will include a Golden Gloves boxing exhibition, a fashion show, awards for floats and citizens handicraft displays. The festivities will conclude with a block dance, he said.

Buggelli supports Rodino for V.P.

Richard A. Buggelli, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 12th District, this week urged Jimmy Carter to choose Rep. Peter W. Rodino of New Jersey as his running mate in the presidential election.

In a letter to Carter this week, Buggelli said that Rodino, the dean of the state's congressional delegation, "is an eloquent reminder that our system of government can overcome and survive the self-serving manipulations of evil men, of Watergate scandals and of White House tampering with justice."

Buggelli wrote that Rodino "serves with distinction as chairman of the prestigious House Judiciary Committee, and in that capacity he conducted the historic inquiry into Richard Nixon's impeachment, bringing to the awesome task the qualities of fairness, patience, tenacity and knowledge of the law and legal precedents."

Excessive sun dangerous, Cancer Unit official warns

In an effort to alert Union County residents to the dangers of excessive sun, the American Cancer Society is urging everyone to practice precautionary measures.

Warren H. Knauer, M.D., of Elizabeth, chairman of the executive committee of the Cancer Society's Union County Unit, pointed out that most skin cancers are caused by excessive exposure to the ultra-violet rays of the sun.

"A great many cases of skin cancer can be prevented if people would avoid excessive sun," Dr. Knauer stated.

As chairman of the Department of Malignant and Allied Diseases at Elizabeth General Hospital, Dr. Knauer has seen many cases of skin cancer and has noted that "if detected early, skin cancer is one of the most curable forms of cancer. The American Cancer Society estimates that 95 percent of all skin cancers could be cured if detected early." Although the cure rate is so high, prevention is preferable to and easier than cure, according to Dr. Knauer.

He listed the precautionary measures everyone should take:

- Take the sun in small doses;
 - Wear a broad-brimmed hat in the sun;
 - Wear other protective clothing;
 - Use a beach umbrella;
 - Use lotions or ointments.
- In addition to taking these precautionary measures, Dr. Knauer urged everyone to be aware of the warning signals for skin cancer—any color that does not heal or a change in size or color of a wart or mole.

Persons wishing further information on skin cancer, or any other form of cancer, may contact the Union County Unit of the American Cancer Society, 512 Westminster ave.

Nadel cited for charity

Dr. Charles Nadel, one of the founders of the United Cerebral Palsy League of Union County, was honored June 16 for his 30 years of service to the physically handicapped.

Julius R. Carl W. Kirk, former president of the league, also praised Dr. Nadel's efforts and called for a standing ovation to further recognize Dr. Nadel.

In his remarks, Dr. Nadel, said his interest was still in the league's program and its clients and his efforts are now directed towards socio-economic efforts for the handicapped.

UNDERSTANDING MENTAL HEALTH

Bertram S. Brown, M.D., Director
National Institute of Mental Health

ECONOMIC RECESSION AND MENTAL ILLNESS

In the past, a decline in the United States' economy has been accompanied by a rise in mental illness.

Recently, two psychiatrists at the National Institute of Mental Health undertook to find out whether the same pattern of troubled spirits emerging in a troubled economy holds true today. In the course of a survey of mental health centers across the country, they found that it does.

"The present economic recession and inflation are taking a toll on the mental and physical health of the Nation," the investigators stated. "For the first time in their lives, millions of Americans are losing confidence in their ability to achieve a more prosperous future and even to maintain their present economic condition."

"The emotional climate in which people work and live has recently undergone considerable change, with the result that worrying about job security, bills, taxes and skyrocketing costs of food and essential commodities has reached epidemic proportions."

"It is not surprising to find that, when the Nation goes into recession, there is a concurrent increase in emotional distress and increased use of mental health facilities. Some facilities report increased use of outpatient services, not only by the unemployed but also by those persons still working, but in new lower-status jobs. In Michigan, for example, many men in the auto industry with 15 to 20 years of service, who thought they had left the assembly line, are now being returned to it and are having to adjust to the pace and pressure of this work again, as they absorb the work of others who are being laid off."

"In the beginning, unemployment means a loss of social role, group acceptance and prestige....In the long-term phase, sustained belt-tightening or actual unemployment can produce strained family relationships, aggravation of physical health problems and, in some individuals, a precipitation of maladaptive behavior such as mental illness or occasional criminal behavior."

While these conditions and resulting strains can affect all members of a family, mental health specialists point out

Financing is arranged for condos

The David Cronheim Co. of Newark and Chatham has arranged financing for a 53-unit condominium development planned by Donald Kiken of Woodbridge in Old Bridge Township.

Charles J. Dodge, manager of the Cronheim company's mortgage department, reports the $1.8 million commitment covers a land mortgage, construction financing and permanent mortgages.

Planned in the townhouse style, the condominiums will rise on a 6.236-acre tract on Rt. 34 and Morrissett road in Old Bridge. Carl Post of Brielle, the architect, has designed the units in one-bedroom, two-bedroom, three-bedroom and four-bedroom layouts.

Kiken hopes to have models open for showing in late summer. Prices will start at $39,990 for a one-bedroom unit and run to $46,990 for the larger condominiums.

The three-bedroom units, the most numerous, will have two baths, a 21-foot living room, full dining room, kitchen with a breakfast room, laundry room and outdoor dining deck at the rear. Offered at $43,990, these two-story units have optional features, including a built-in garage and a basement. Fireplaces in the living rooms are optional on all models.

Dodge reports that the favorable mortgage terms are indicative of the change in the mortgage market in recent months. Purchasers will be offered 30-year mortgages with as little as five percent down. With a down payment of 20 percent, lower-interest rate mortgages can be obtained.

Landscaping under way at Clearwater homesites

A full-scale landscaping plan for Clearwater Village in Spotswood has been undertaken by Oak Tree Nurseries, Inc., of Edison. The plan is part of a contract, arranged with the firm in November 1974, which has been progressing along with development of the mobile home community.

"We were called in by the developers at the time they were designing the community," stated Jerry Schaeffer, vice-president of the award-winning landscape firm. "We carefully analyzed the growth, vegetation and trees then on the property and advised that they were not strong enough, or 'civilized' enough, to become part of permanent landscaping environment."

"We then coordinated a plan to sod, landscape and plant medium-sized eight-year-old trees on each homesite as it was created. The developers accepted the plan and we have been progressing on it since."

The site for Clearwater Village was purchased from the Borough of Spotswood in 1973 specifically for development as a senior citizen housing community. The community opened in November 1975, with just the model area completed.

Construction has continued since then on the first section, which now houses several residents. Although below-ground construction has progressed rapidly, landscaping efforts have been held up due to a series of weather conditions and availability of proper plantings.

"We are now right on schedule and expect to have the entire first section of the community landscaped by mid-June," Schaeffer stated.

Clearwater Village features seven model homes, from a two-bedroom efficiency model priced under $16,000, to a three-bedroom luxury design, complete with recreation room and wood-burning fireplace, for $31,990. Each model has numerous floor plan variations and each is double insulated, built for fuel conservation and features central air conditioning.

Purchase price includes wall-to-wall carpeting, floor covering, lighting fixtures, drapes and curtains, all in choice of color and decor style. Each home has a wooden outdoor deck and is located on a site with minimum footage of 4,500 square feet.

The community is on Manalapan road, a mile from the center of Spotswood, convenient to the Rt. 18 shopping and services and six miles from N.J. Turnpike Exit 9. Models are open from noon to 5 p.m. daily, except Tuesday and Wednesday.

CLEARWATER GREENERY—Extensive landscaping work is in progress at newly-opened Clearwater Village, an adult mobile home community in Spotswood, which has eight model homes on display. Some homes in the nearly-completed first section of the development are ready for immediate occupancy.

Fawn Lakes community designed for middle-aged

When it came to the middle-aged persons, still employed, retired or nearing retirement, Long Beach Township Mayor James Mancini decided nobody was thinking about providing him or her with housing.

"We were taking exclusive care of the senior citizens, but no concern was being shown for those people in their 40s, who had raised their families and were looking for a vacation house where they could retire in a few years."

So, he decided to do something about a particular group which he felt was being neglected. The result was Fawn Lakes.

"Our formula was quite simple. First, we selected a lakeside site set in green woods surrounded by emerald green lawns."

"It was a rural setting only a few miles from the Atlantic Ocean and Barnegat Bay."

"Maybe we were trying to be all things to homeowners, but after we picked a rural site it just happened that we had an ocean and bay only nine miles away," Mancini explained.

"Another prerequisite for the leisure minded person, either nearing retirement or already retired, was price. This was accomplished with a special unit in our existing inventory which sells for under $19,000."

"Many of those who have looked at our homes are becoming buyers for the first time. Unlike most senior citizens, they didn't have funds from the sale of previously-owned homes. But, our pricing and available financing for qualified buyers make Fawn Lakes the perfect community investment."

Mancini, besides being a mayor and former State Assemblyman, comes from a long line of builders. The Mancini Brothers firm, which he heads, is one of the leading builders in Ocean County.

At the Mancini Fawn Lakes development, just off of Rt. 72 in Manahawkin, homes are in the low $20,000 range, while more spacious homes are in the $30,000 range.

"This has been made possible by our format of attached duplex and quad, or four-family unit housing," Mancini explained.

"Exterior space is saved without any loss to the interior. You need less land, and by using less you have more of the countryside picture left."

Fawn Lakes is a planned adult community for those aged 45 and over. The project—located three miles east of Exit 63 of the Garden State Parkway—when complete will include 2,100 units and have its own shopping complex, transportation, recreation and clubhouse facilities. It is located at the Gateway to Long Beach Island in Manahawkin. For information, readers may call 609-597-1776.

Century Village has 'unobtrusive security' system

DEERFIELD BEACH, Fla.—A secure environment benefits the citizens of Florida's best-selling adult club condominium community.

"Contrasted to recent northern-built 'fortress developments,' our Florida life-styled community provides peace of mind—without the look of a medieval castle, sprinkled with cannon," commented George Bergmann, president of Century Village East.

Bergmann cited designs of new developments in several northern cities, including a project in Washington, D.C., company's continuing success. She agrees with Baris in the belief that frequent sessions on changing laws, market conditions and buyer-seller relationship are vital in building a strong organization.

Mrs. Chambers has found real estate an ideal career. It was one of the earliest fields to eliminate artificial barriers of sex. Performance is the primary standard.

"A woman has the same opportunities as a man at Jordan Baris, Inc.," she notes. "It has been that way as long as I've been here, which is why I enjoy the business so much. I'd never consider doing anything else."

which will erect 25-foot walls. "This is a symptom of what is happening in our overcrowded population centers where, it appears, it may no longer be possible to erect the restful, recreation life-styled community with complete protection our residents take for granted," he said.

"Security is paramount in any community today but few, if any, provide the many safeguards inherent in the concept of Century Village. Life in our community is preserved exactly as desired by our citizens who walk, day or night without being afraid. It is the feeling of our citizens this should operate without destroying the concept of life in a closely-knit, protected community."

A prime element in the community safeguards provided at Century Village East is the single, main entranceway, equipped with electrically-controlled gates, and 24-hour, seven-day-per-week security guards.

"Yet our gatehouse is beautifully-landscaped and architecturally aesthetic, blending with the natural countryside atmosphere of our environment," Bergmann pointed out.

Protected, open space and waterways surrounding Century Village additionally separates building clusters

Laurel Brook sales high for 133 condominium units

The long, low red brick condominiums of Laurel Brook, Rt. 88, Brick Town, are now being offered for sale from a low $27,990 for a two-bedroom home with paneled recreation room and private garage. The condominium community includes a swimming pool, tennis court and full clubhouse with kitchen and other amenities. Homes are built around quiet private roadways and cul-de-sacs.

Laurel Brook Sales Corp. credits the location with the high pre-opening sales of the 133-unit community.

The homes are built in variations of a spacious, floorplan with entry, living room, dining room, main bath and bedrooms on the main level. A graceful stairway—carpeted, as is the entire wall-to-wall carpeted oak-floored main level—leads to the lower level recreation room, which is also carpeted. Other rooms of the versatile lower level offer many variations, including study, additional bedrooms, storage and utility room, plus powder room. The four basic models are priced from $27,990 through $32,490, all with the "extras" of lower levels that may serve many purposes for resident owners.

Condominium maintenance at Laurel Brook starts at $40 per month to cover all upkeep of amenities, structures and the care of walkways and lanes, lawns and the abundant shrubbery featuring the Mountain Laurel the community takes its name from.

Financing has been arranged for qualified buyers, and residential units will be available almost immediately. The Laurel Brook sales and information office is located just within the gateway to the community, facing Route 88, two miles west of the Laurelton Circle in Brick Town, northern Ocean County.

'People interest' led to real estate

Some 20 years ago, when Florence E. Chambers first entered the Baris Real Estate office in Newark, she wasn't personally interested in professional real estate. Instead, she was helping friends who were looking for homes.

"That was back in 1956," says Mrs. Chambers, "when Jordan Baris suggested that I could help people and also find a rewarding career with his company. I've been there ever since."

The double promise made by Baris has been more fulfilled for Mrs. Chambers. As a professional associate at Jordan Baris Inc., she has been instrumental in selling homes and a broad variety of other properties to hundreds of clients. This success has satisfied her interest in dealing with and helping people and also has made her a substantial earner in this highly competitive field.

While some real estate practitioners specialize in houses, or some other phase of the industry, Mrs. Chambers has steadily expanded her scope of operations. She has sold everything from churches and nurseries to supermarkets and factories.

"I just concentrate on selling," she affirms. And her high average monthly sales volume is ample evidence that she does this very well. Originally from Nashville, Mrs. Chambers attended Tennessee State College before she decided there were more career opportunities in Newark. She and her husband, Hewitt Chambers are the parents of two children. Daughter Lori is a pre-med student at Farleigh Dickinson University and son Hewitt is attending John Jay College in New York.

Since joining Jordan Baris, Mrs. Chambers has completed various business and real estate courses. "Actually," she comments, "those formal classes were just the beginning. We have frequent professional development seminars at the Jordan Baris Co. Continuing education has always been stressed here and it's a major factor in the

GHA lists sales of $24 million

The investment real estate market is alive in New Jersey. This fact is being demonstrated by the sales pace being set at Gebroe-Hammer Associates, the Clifton-based organization that succeeded Gebroe Associates. Sales activity at the new firm reached a dollar value of $24 million in the first 17 weeks of 1976.

"Very technically," said Mel Gebroe, principal in the firm, "this isn't a record, because this is the first year for Gebroe-Hammer Associates. However, there is a definite continuity with the previous company, which posted transactions valued at $12 million in the comparable period of 1975."

So far this year, GHA has been averaging approximately $1-one third million per week in volume for a four month period, Gebroe reported.

"Even during the worst days of the recession," Gebroe said, "we found that there was a very firm market for investment real estate properties in New Jersey. Now that the economy is on a very positive rise, investors are even more inclined to commit themselves to this market."

The reason for Gebroe-Hammer's success in this field was cited as specialization. In each stage of the firm's growth and development, it has focused exclusively on the requirements of investment real estate. This concentration of effort has resulted in continued expansion of the firm's staff and activities.

"Our ability to provide exhaustive analysis on each transaction," said Gebroe, "is one of the factors that has led to a tremendous repeat business."

"We at GHA," he continued, "believe that specialization has been the major underpinning of our continuing expansion. By concentrating our expertise, experience and abilities, we have been able to build a reputation for client-service and reliability that is unmatched in the industry."

One day the scariest thing about cancer may be the needle that makes you immune to it.

The theory: build up the body's defense to fight off a disease naturally.

Dramatic research in this direction is going on right now.

Scientists are working on mechanisms to make the body reject cancer.

And the promise for the future is staggering.

Bells will be ringing at 2 p.m. on July 4

The New Jersey Bicentennial Commission this week called for a statewide ringing of bells at 2 p.m. July 4 to herald this country's entrance into its third century.

Former Gov. Robert B. Meyner, chairman of the commission, said the bell-ringing program will take place simultaneously in all 50 states and U.S. territories.

The time span will range from 2 p.m. in New Jersey to 7 a.m. (Bering Time) in American Samoa. The time selected is exactly 200 years from the moment that the Liberty Bell proclaimed the independence of the new nation.

Communities, churches, schools, fire departments, universities and individuals will toll bells and carillons for two minutes in commemoration of the nation's first two centuries.

In Philadelphia at 2 p.m., the Liberty Bell will be rung (amplified electronically because of the crack) in a symbolic national ceremony conducted by the Sons of the American Revolution at Independence National Park.

The nationwide effort is being coordinated by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration in accordance with a concurrent resolution passed by Congress.

Meyner also called for a mass display of American flags on homes, public buildings and business and industrial firms in the state for several weeks preceding and following the July 4 weekend.

Excursion in fireworks Benefit cruise to see display

Passengers on the S.S. Duchess on the evening of July Fourth will get a first-hand view of the Walt Disney fireworks, a spectacular which will be seen throughout the New York Port area. Tickets for the cruise, at a $15 per-person donation, will benefit the programs of the American Diabetes Foundation.

Local government 'how-to' manual issued by Rutgers

A third, extensively revised edition of a comprehensive "how-to" manual of Local Government in New Jersey was issued last week by the Bureau of Government Research, Rutgers University.

Edited by Julius A. Mastro, professor and chairman of political science at Drew University, the book spells out the nature and limits of the powers granted local officials.

It also explains, among other things, how to stay within ethical guidelines, how to structure a council agenda, how to conduct a program of municipal public relations, how to get along with municipal employees, how to manage the town debt and increase purchasing efficiency, and where to find information and financial assistance in solving local problems.

Dr. Ernest C. Reock, director of the Bureau, reported that the volume has been in steady demand, not only from politicians but from political action groups, students, and civic-minded citizens since its initial publication in 1970. It is also used as a text in a course the Bureau offers annually in December at various locations around the State for newly-elected officials.

The manual is available at $10 a copy from either the Bureau of Government Research, Rutgers University, New Brunswick 08903, or the New Jersey State League of Municipalities, 433 Bellevue Ave., Trenton 08618.

'Wiz' singer is guest

Esther Marrow, dynamic singer who appears in "The Wiz," will be the featured guest on "Express Yourself" which will be aired Sunday, June 27, at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday, July 3, at 6 p.m. on New Jersey Public Television Channels 50 and 58.

Teachers' Center offers elementary education course

The Rutgers University Graduate School of Education, New Brunswick, and the Center for Open Education at Tenafly are offering a six-credit graduate course at the Tenafly center on "Independent Study in Elementary Education."

The course, directed primarily at school teachers and administrators from the nursery to the middle school level, will be conducted at the Tenafly center Aug. 9 to 27.

The Teachers' Center workshops are active learning environments for adults, with choices of activities and the expectation that teachers will undertake studies in depth.

Participants have the opportunity to explore such matters as:

- Classroom arrangement and management.
- The experience of a "living and doing" school program.
- Development of reading, language and math skills.
- Curriculum interrelationships in math, language arts, music, science and art.

Among the courses offered is marine biology-oceanography, an integrated study project from Aug. 16-19. Using the ocean environment as a theme, teachers will learn through classroom and field experience how to structure an integrated curriculum environment.

A spokesman for the center at Tenafly said it was attempting to reserve a campsite at the Assateague Island, Maryland Seashore and Environmental Center, for the course.

For further information, readers may contact the Center for Open Education, 30 Franklin St., Tenafly, 07670, or Extension Graduate Studies, Rutgers University, 35 College Ave., New Brunswick, 08903.

Retired chemist heads pilot program at Drew

Drew University, Madison, has named William J. Moran of Chatham, former technical advisor to the vice-president of production at CIBA-GEIGY, as its first adjunct research professor of chemistry.

Dr. Moran's two-year appointment will constitute the trial run of a program, believed to be the first of its kind involving newly-retired industrial chemists as directors of undergraduate research at Drew. The innovation has been funded by a grant from the Camille and Henry Dreyfus Foundation of New York.

Banks is selected to convention post

S. Alexander Banks of Cranford has been appointed chairman of the Northern New Jersey Region, the United Synagogue of America, 1976 biennial convention, which will be held on Sunday, Oct. 31, at Ramada Inn, East Brunswick.

A former president of Temple Beth El in Cranford, Banks is a vice-president of the region and the president of the Solomon Schechter Day School of Union and Essex Counties. Among those serving with him on the

LOSE FAT!

WHAT A WONDERFUL WAY TO LOSE FAT!

THE "MODEL-ETTS" WAY HELPS CURB YOUR APPETITE—HELPS YOU LOSE THAT EXTRA WEIGHT—NO CALORIE COUNTING! •NO EXERCISES! •NO SPECIAL DIETS!

Thanks to a group of New York doctors, you can now lose pounds of ugly fat without going on any special diet, without cutting out any special foods.

HELPS REDUCE HUNGRY MOMENTS

These New York doctors discovered a food adjunct called "MODEL-ETTS".

"Model-etts" does remarkable things. It helps you cut down your calorie intake by a natural automatic curbing of the appetite and of the desire for foods, resulting automatically in a reduced intake of food.

Before "Model-etts" was offered to you, it was tested clinically by the doctors on a large group of non-glandular overweight men and women.

The doctors carefully checked results, and here is what they found: 1. Weight losses of 6 to 20 pounds without any ill-effects whatsoever. 2. 96% of the men and women who used "Model-etts" lost weight. "Model-etts" is absolutely safe. It is a food adjunct—not a drug. So, start today to shed those unwanted pounds and inches. If your condition is glandular or organic, see your doctor. "Model-etts" may help you stay on the diet your doctor recommends. Ask him about it.

You can get a two-month supply of "Model-etts" for $5.00 on money back guarantee. In clinical tests, "Model-etts" was 96% successful. "Model-etts" may not be 100% successful in all cases, but you take no risk in trying "Model-etts" on our Money Back Guarantee. Come to General Nutrition to get "MODEL-ETTS". The sooner you start, the sooner you may have the loss of weight you search for.

Shawnee Inn Vacationland
 On The Historic Delaware River

Shawnee Inn, located at Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., is a golfer's paradise. Not only are the championship 27 holes a mere 27 steps from the inn, but they are ideally situated along the historic and picturesque Delaware River. There is also an 18-hole putting green, driving range and a complete pro shop offering the finest equipment and instruction.

Golfing is only one of the many activities offered at the Shawnee Inn. The sportsman or woman can enjoy the all-weather tennis courts (lighted at night), archery, badminton, boating and fishing as well as two heated swimming pools and a wading pool. The Shawnee Inn also offers a wide variety of winter sports, such as skiing on the expert and novice trails, ski mobiling and indoor pool and suana facilities.

The Shawnee-Pocono area abounds with attractions such as antique shops, scenic tours, hiking, Pennsylvania Dutch shops, race tracks and the summer theatre. A visitor to the Shawnee Inn will never want for activities or attractions.

A Shawnee Inn representative will be coming soon to the Livingston Mall. Be looking for the upcoming ad for details.

Bicentennial Life Theatre

The Fantasy Players, consisting of approximately twenty teenagers under the direction of Alice Dysart of Pearl River, will be performing improvisational theatre sketches at 3 and 7 P.M. on June 26th in center court at the Livingston Mall.

For those who may not be familiar with the word "improvisation" it means to compose, recite, or sing extemporaneously; to make, invent or arrange offhand, which is what this concept of live theatre entails. This is not meant to imply that the performances lack cohesiveness or purpose, in fact, all the performances have a definite theme and purpose. The theme is our bicentennial and the purpose is to involve the audience in the performance through the medium of audience participation.

The performances originally geared toward children will be equally enjoyed by parents. The performances are free and the public is invited to attend.
