GOP has edge in all contests

Victors unopposed in local races

In a lighter than anticipated turnout, though understandable because of the lack of local contests, about 60 percent of the 4,970 registered voters in Mountainside came to the polls on Tuesday.

As in the past, borough voters threw strong support to Republican candidates in all the races. Mountainside residents supported, almost two to one, GOP gubernatorial candidate Raymond Bateman in his losing effort against incumbent Gov. Brendan Byrne. Bateman won in the borough, 1,986 to Byrne's 1,101.

In the 22nd District legislative races, the borough voted almost three to one for incumbent Senator Peter McDonough over Democratic challenger Harry Pappas. McDonough took the community, 2,043 to 857.

The two GOP Assembly incumbents were handily helped to reelection by Mountainside voters. William McGure garnered 1,940 votes and Donald DiFrancesco received 2,035, to James Spagnoli's 929 and Melvin Cholewich's 861.

Three Democratic candidates swept the county in their bid for Union County freeholder slots, but they lost in Mountainside by about a two-to-one vote. The borough tallies for that office were Republicans: Robert Morgan, 1,280; Herbert Heilmann, 1,880; and William Ruocco, 1,859; Democrats: Walter Boright, 939; Joanne Rajoppi, 965; and Thomas Dillon, 916.

The Democratic candidate for sheriff, Ralph Froelich, won by a large margin in the county and in the borough he proved to be the strongest Democratic vote getter. Mountainside voters narrowly favored Republican candidate Lester Sargent Jr., 978 to Froelich's 937.

In the uncontested borough slots, Bruce Geiger, in his third successful bid for borough council, received 2,222 votes. His running mate, Tim Benford, who will fill retiring councilman Bill Cullen's shoes, received 2,153 votes. Tax collector Ruth Gibadlo, who after Tuesday's election now has tenure in the post, received 2,185 votes.

The two bond issues on the ballot appeared to have won easily throughout the state. The first question, providing $30 million to municipalities on a

Republicans pleased but hardly surprised

Despite the defeat of Republican gubernatorial candidate Raymond Bateman, Mountainside GOP members celebrated the victory of their standardbearers for local offices at a small party at the Mountainside Inn Tuesday night.

The candidates for Borough Council — Bruce Geiger, elected to his third term and Tim Benford, a newcomer to local politics — and Ruth Gibadlo, winning her second term as tax collector, each took turns thanking the gathering of about 50 people for electing them in their unopposed contests. Geiger thanked the voters for returning him to office and for their confidence in him. In a prepared statement issued to this paper, Geiger said, "The endurance of the Republican Party in Mountainside stresses dramatically the confidence our voters have in us. We will not disappoint that confidence as we cope with changing conditions."

Benford smilingly told the partygoers he was "very excited and very happy about getting aboard." He added, "the team (that is the Republican ticket) has been elected since 1895 and only the faces have changed." In his

Training right on target

Officers fulfill shooting requirements

By DENISE RENNER MARTIN

Four times a year, Kennedy takes the 18 municipal policemen in shifts to the Union County police combat target range in Kenilworth. All officers must fulfill pistol shooting requirements and will soon have to undergo the same tests with shotguns.

A recent visit to the range with

Kennedy and Officers Herman Hafeken and John Olock, Det. Sgt. Walter Betyeman and Det. Steve Semancik proved those five municipal officers fired well above the minimum shooting accuracy requirements.

The officers first fire 12 rounds at a distance of seven yards from the man's silhouette target in 40 seconds. Each man gets off six rounds, reloads and resumes firing while standing in a fixed position.

Kennedy has them all move back to the 15-yard line and each then fires five rounds into the unsuspecting target in 15 seconds.

At the 25-yard line, the men are told they have 90 seconds to pump 18 rounds. The first six are fired from a kneeling position. The men reload. The next six are shot from behind a right-hand barricade with the right hand. Reload. Then they fire from behind a left-hand barricade with the left hand.

Then come five fast rounds in 15 seconds from 25 yards in the ready position.

The thundering noise dies down and only a mist of smoke remains as Kennedy approaches the targets for scoring.

The minimum requirement for all 40 policemen is that 70 percent of all 40 shots fired must be successful hits.

The target is a silhouette of the upper portion of a human torso. The "bullseye" is marked with an "X" and is in the center of the "body." Outer circles marked from nine to seven indicate a hit from about waist high to around the neck, and each area has a numerical scoring value. The hits are tallied and a percentage determined. Each Mountainside policeman who fired that day hit at least 91 percent.

When Kennedy unholstered his gun and fired off a fast five rounds just for practice, he hit 100 percent. The instructor is rated one of the top five shots in Union County.

Kennedy has been on the Mountainside force for 11 years and is in his second year as firearms instructor. He has attended the firearms instructor's school at Union College and classes

Suspension possible for teacher who quit

An eighth grade science teacher who was hired to teach at Deerfield School this year but, two days before the fall term opened, notified Mountainside school officials he would accept a position in New York City, has been ordered to appear before the state school authorities to show cause why his license should not be suspended in New Jersey for one year.

Gregory Gallo will appear before the Department of Education's Division of Controversies and Disputes in Trenton the week of Dec. 12. Mountainside school board attorney Ray O'Brien and Superintendent of Schools Dr. Levin Hanigan will also be present at the hearing and are expected to testify.

Gallo had previously taught in the New York City system and was a part of the massive teacher layoffs two years ago. He taught in the borough system last year and his contract was renewed to continue in the post.

Gallo informed Hanigan of his intentions to accept the position in New York just before the opening of school. Under state law, and included in teacher's contracts, an educator must give 60 days notice of his intention to resign. Likewise, a school system must give appropriate notice if a teacher is to be let go.

At its September meeting, the Board of Education directed Hanigan to write a letter to Commissioner of Education Fred Burke informing him of the situation and asking a resume of the

GOP club to meet next Thursday night

The Mountainside Republican Club will meet next Thursday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m., instead of the usual Wednesday meeting night, at the home of Councilman-elect and Mrs. Tim Benford.

A report on election returns and an update on the club's membership drive are scheduled topics, according to Roy Mumford, president. Prospective members have been invited.

Meeting postponed

The regular monthly meeting of the Mountainside borough council has been postponed until Tuesday, Nov. 22. It was originally planned for Tuesday, Nov. 15.

'Week' is set aside for children's books

The week of Nov. 13 to 20, designated as Children's Book Week, will be observed at the Free Public Library of Mountainside.

Maryann Sheehan, children's librarian, has compiled a list of "Selected Children's Books 1977" which will be available to patrons throughout the week. Books on the list will be on display in the children's department.

AFTER CLASS—Teachers from Union County Regional High School District picketed the school board offices in Keyes-Martin Building on Mountain Avenue, Springfield, after classes last Friday. Inside, fact-finding sessions were beginning in an attempt to unblock the impasse between teachers and the district board over a new contract. A spokesman for the Regional Education

Association said there were almost 200 demonstrators from all four district high schools: Jonathan Dayton in Springfield, David Brearley in Kenilworth, Gov. Livingston in Berkeley Heights and Arthur Johnson in Clark. Regina Rice, president of the teachers' group, said "some progress was made" at the Friday session which lasted until 2:15 a.m. Saturday. The negotiations were scheduled to resume yesterday. (Photo-Graphics)

Audubon group sells bird seed at discount rate

"Bird Seed Savings Day," sponsored jointly by the Reeves-Reed Arboretum in Summit and the Summit Nature Club, a local chapter of the Audubon Society, will give area residents the opportunity to buy bird seed at bargain prices this fall while providing financial support for the educational programs of the two organizations. Arboretum president Arthur Ackerman and Nature Club president William Boyle announced this week. Individual bird seed orders with covering checks must reach the Arboretum before Tuesday, Nov. 21, so the seed can be purchased in time for distribution at the Arboretum on "Bird Seed Savings Day," Saturday, Dec. 3, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Marguerite Krieger, who is director of the arboretum, explained that the seed will be bought in large quantities at bulk prices from the National Science for Youth Foundation Co-op, which sells only to nonprofit organizations. Assortments of sunflower seeds, wild bird mixes, cracked corn, peanut hearts and suet-seed cakes will be available for pickup at the arboretum, 165 Hobart ave., Summit, on Dec. 3. Several types of feeders at various prices are on sale at the arboretum on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the fall and winter.

Further information regarding seed and prices can be obtained by calling Elizabeth Rosenthal of the Nature Club at 273-4976 or the Arboretum at 273-8787.

N.J. Taxpayers Association

New Jersey's per capita property tax burden in fiscal 1976 was second highest in the nation, behind only Alaska, according to the New Jersey Taxpayers Association. Alaska must be considered a special case because much of its tax revenue is derived from oil, gas, or pipeline properties.

In fiscal 1976, the year before enactment of the personal income tax which is dedicated to various property tax relief programs, New Jerseyans paid property taxes of $446 per capita, up $34 per capita from fiscal 1975, according to data recently released by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Massachusetts, ranked first in 1975, California and New York lined up below New Jersey as high per capita property tax states. Nationwide per capita property tax burden was $266. Jersey's property taxes, nearly all locally assessed and collected, accounted for more than 56 percent of total tax revenue financing both state as well as local governments, including schools. Only New Hampshire relied more on property tax revenue — 61 percent of total taxes. Among all 50 states, property taxes average 36 percent of total state and local taxes.

New Jersey's per capita burden of "other taxes" — mainly non-property state taxes — ranks low among the states (47th in fiscal 1976) at $346, although it also increased nearly $34. New Jersey moved from 11th to 10th among the states in total per capita tax burden in fiscal 1976, rising $67 to nearly $793. Alaska jumped to first at $1,896 per capita while New York ranks second at $1,139.

These latest tax data for the year before the income tax and tax reform program demonstrate that in the overall New Jersey tax system, local taxes, principally on property, raised for local governmental units (municipalities, counties and school districts) represented 60 percent of the total while state taxes provided 40 percent, pointed out NJTA. Moreover, nearly half of state-budgeted expenditures went to state aid—payments to local units or state payment for services which otherwise would come from local property taxes such as the employers' contribution to the Teachers' Pension & Annuity Fund.

The State We're In

N.J. Conservation Foundation

Despite all the words flying around this state we're in, basic communications frequently fail to happen. This is certainly true in the case of the environmental and economic sectors, which tend to blame each other for a lot of problems.

Caught somewhere in between those two outposts of opinion are a whole lot of interests such as academic, labor, minorities and health. We at the New Jersey Conservation Foundation have decided to open dialogue to remedy this situation.

It will happen at a two-day conference next Thursday and Friday in North Brunswick. Its theme will be "New Jersey: Environmental and Economic Health." Our sponsorship has been augmented by the support of some 25 other organizations representing a cross-section of business, labor, community, minority, environmental and labor viewpoints. The conference will be partially funded by the Urban Environment Conference of Washington, D.C., under a grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

There will be a dozen workshops, each of which will be held twice. That casinos versus wetlands in Atlantic City and housing and environmental regulations.

On the second day, topics will be coastal zone planning, the regulation of flood plains, the stringency of New Jersey's air pollution standards, preservation and development of the Pine Barrens, the compatibility of energy conservation and economic development and the logical limits of highway construction.

"The Economic and Ecological Impact of Toxic Substance Regulation" will be discussed by Warren Murr, deputy administrator of the EPA, on the second day.

The conference will focus on New Jersey's unemployment and continuing urban decline, loss of open space, increased air and water pollution and other social and economic conditions which involve all of us. It may not result in any solutions, but I think it will get a lot of people talking to one another, in a way which can only prove constructive.

The registration fee for both days is $15, which includes luncheons and all conference materials. Registrations can be made through the New Jersey Conservation Foundation, 300 Mendham rd., Morristown 07960.

way, an individual will be able to attend four of his or her choice during the two days. Every workshop will relate to some phase of the environmental-economic issues (which, I believe, will in each case turn out to be less of an issue than a lot of people seem to think).

Edward Gray, director of Region nine of the United Auto Workers; Assemblyman William Perkins of the 31st District from Hudson County; Hazel Henderson, co-director of the Princeton Center for Alternative Futures, and James W. Riley, economist for Merck & Co., will provide discussion leadership, along with many other group leaders from across the state.

Three persons representing different viewpoints will speak at each workshop, after which open discussions will provide needed communications for all concerned.

School board meetings set

The Union County Regional High School District Board of Education will hold an adjourned regular meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Gov. Livingston Regional High School Instructional media center.

The Board of Education will also meet to discuss items to be included in the 1978-79 budget Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the board offices at the Keyes, Martin Building, 841 Mountain ave., Springfield.

All residents of the Regional District have been invited to attend both meetings.

Letters

'MISQUOTED'

Since being elected to the Union County Regional High School board, I have been mildly surprised at times to read the interpretation of proceedings of the board meetings by various newspapers in the area.

Last week I was misquoted in the Mountainside Echo and Springfield Leader as saying that I was not on the board when the ranking system was adopted. This smacks of "passing the buck," which is not one of my attributes.

I also did not "call for a review of course categories and ranking"—but, Mr. Charles Vitale, president of the board, did instruct the administrative employees to have a committee, including citizens from the entire district, review the ranking policy.

Thank you for correcting the record.

Youth film set for Kent Place

"The Lion Who Thought He Was People" will be shown at Kent Place School, Summit, tomorrow at 2:45 p.m. and on Saturday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

The film, which has not previously been distributed in the metropolitan area, tells the story of a lion who makes a journey from the United States back to his native Africa.

Admission will be $1 per person for all shows. Refreshments will be sold.

Dr. Love appointed associate professor

Dr. Linda C. Love of Mountainside is among the new associate professors at Seton Hall University, South Orange.

A member of the department of chemistry, Dr. Love is a graduate of the University of Missouri and holds a doctorate from the University of Illinois.

Gieser named to 'Who's Who'

Carol Gieser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gieser of Peachtree lane, Mountainside, N.J., and a senior elementary education major at Lebanon Valley College, has been selected for inclusion in the 1977-1978 edition of "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." She was one of 26 students selected by Lebanon Valley and the editors of the annual publication.

A dean's list student, she is president of the Childhood Education Club at Lebanon Valley College. She is past first vice-president of Gamma Sigma Sigma, national service sorority on the LVC campus, and a 1974 graduate of Gov. Livingston Regional High School.

PRESENTATION—Jacqueline Vincent of Mountainside, a 1972 graduate of Keen College in Union, donated a framed picture of an Abraham Lincoln monument to be hung in the college's library. James Daniel, alumni association president, accepted the gift.

Remedial education enters second year

The Deerfield School, in Mountainside, has received $21,700 in state compensatory education funds to be used to finance a supplemental communication and computation skills program for 67 students in grades 5-8.

According to Superintendent of Schools Levin Hanigan, "The New Jersey state compensatory education program is designed to prevent further regression in the areas of mathematics and language arts."

Children are recommended to the program on the basis of percentile ratings achieved on the State Assessment Tests, the Stanford Achievement Test or the Iowa Test of Basic Skills. Child study evaluations by Special Services, as well as teacher evaluations are part of the screening process.

Herbert Brown, principal of Deerfield School, said the relatively small size of the school district enables the staff to be in an excellent position to identify appropriate assessment needs.

All new entrants to the district who are performing below grade level, are tested and evaluated by the learning disabilities consultant and the school psychologist to determine if remediation is necessary.

Parents of students in the compensatory education program are kept informed of their child's progress by periodic reports and parent-teacher conferences. Compensatory education teachers Lorraine Leber and Ken Johnson work with classroom teachers to establish a coordinated reinforced teaching situation.

Compensatory education emphasizes small group instruction (teaching groups average about six students.) Pre and post testing monitor individual progress and help the teacher to determine if taught concepts have been retained. Students remain in the program until they can function on grade level.

This is the second year Mountainside has participated in the compensatory education program. Last year's records show that there was a significant improvement in the achievement of 95 percent of the compensatory education students.

Clifford Case

International terrorism continues to plague the world. The scope of the problem is staggering.

When the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Foreign Assistance held hearings on the issue in September, a staff study found that about 180 groups around the world "claimed responsibility" for acts of terrorism. At least some of the groups, ranging from Japanese to Palestinian and German terrorists, have been collaborating in an informal network.

Figures compiled by the CIA indicated more than 1,150 acts of international terrorism between 1968 and 1976, with at least 391 involving U.S. citizens or property. About 800 persons have been killed and another 1,700 wounded in the various incidents. A Library of Congress summary of terrorist and terrorist-related developments since 1969 covers 23 single-spaced pages.

Recently, there was the six-day hijacking ordeal in which the passengers of a Japan Air Lines plane were finally taken to Algeria and freed Oct. 2 in exchange for the release of six colleagues of the Japanese "Red Army" terrorists and a $15 million ransom. The terrorists were reported to have been released from custody by Algeria.

On the heels of that incident, a West German Lufthansa airliner was hijacked by four persons—apparently Palestinians—and taken to Somalia. There, after a grueling ordeal climaxed by the execution of the pilot by the hijackers, the passengers were freed in a commando attack Oct. 18 by a specially-trained unit of West German police.

That operation has been compared with the daring July 1976 rescue by Israel of passengers of an Air France jet hijacked to Entebbe, Uganda. But there was one important and hopeful

U.S. Senate difference. At Entebbe, Ugandan dictator Idi Amin had supported the terrorists, even using his troops to guard the passengers.

In Somalia the government assisted the German rescue, reversing, at least in this instance, its prior policy supportive of terrorism.

It may be that other nations which have assisted terrorist groups in the past are coming to realize that they too are vulnerable. For example, there have been a number of assassination attempts recently against Syrian officials.

In the western world, there has been growing cooperation. The United States and its European allies and Israel have been exchanging information on training and counter-terror techniques. The Pentagon recently disclosed the training of special military units for rescue missions.

But the key problem remains—how to prevent the incidents from happening in the first place.

The United Nations and the authorities controlling airports and airline traffic have to tighten security procedures.

There is no easy or direct way to exert pressure on some of the nations which aid and abet terrorists—they do not receive foreign aid from us. But we must continue doing what we can to ostracize them; if necessary, paying the price of reduced trade and profits to close off havens for terrorists.

We also should give serious consideration to having the U.S. government issue travel advisories warning of airports which do not meet security standards. The possible impact on the local tourist trade might help to prod negligent governments into enforcing security precautions. Another proposal, which I joined in sponsoring, would permit suspension of commercial air service to countries which aid and abet terrorists.

Nobel laureate associated with MOD research

The selection of Dr. Roger Guillemin to share the Nobel Prize in medicine made the Californian the 20th Nobel laureate associated with the National Foundation, March of Dimes, according to Dr. Edward Goodkin, Union County chapter chairman.

Dr. Guillemin, a resident fellow and professor at Salk Institute, San Diego, heads a research group which is studying the brain's control over the chemistry of the body. The March of Dimes has awarded the group $390,000 since 1975 for work which may lead to improved treatment of birth defects such as juvenile diabetes and some forms of dwarfism. A total of more than $36 million in March of Dimes funds has been spent to build and partially support the Salk Institute.

The 1977 Nobel Prize in Medicine is shared by Dr. Guillemin, Dr. Andrew Schally of New Orleans and Dr. Rosalyn Yalow of New York City.

The citation for the Nobel award, which will be presented in Stockholm in Dec. 10, said that the three scientists' discoveries "have led to a formidable development of their own fields of research" and "have opened new vistas within biological and medical research far outside the border of their own spheres of interest."

High mark set on mortgages

City Federal Savings, the state's largest savings and loan association recently surpassed the $1 billion mark in total outstanding mortgages according to an announcement made by Gilbert G. Roessner, president of the 66-office association.

City Federal becomes the first savings and loan association in the state to surpass this milestone as total mortgages reached $1,005,746,000 as of Sept. 30 — up $57.8 million from year-end 1976.

Savings deposits for City Federal were reported at $1,028,375,000 as of Sept. 30, an increase of $93.8 million or 10 percent since Dec. 31. Total assets for the association were $1,310,307,000 as of Sept. 30, an increase of $85 million since year-end.

Net earnings for the nine-month period ended Sept. 30 were up 6 percent to $5.06 million versus $3.16 million for the comparable period last year.

Dystrophy unit offers flu shots

The Northern New Jersey Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association is offering free anti-influenza inoculations again this year to patients afflicted by muscular dystrophy or related neuromuscular diseases. Eric Stoll, president of the chapter, announced this week.

MDA's medical advisers recommend that patients 7 to 8 years of age be given a single dose of split-virus vaccine and that patients 6 years old or younger be given two doses of split-virus vaccine, separated by an interval of four weeks or more in order to achieve satisfactory antibody responses, Stoll said.

The Northern New Jersey Chapter of MDA will pay for flu shots given to all patients it serves, whether shots are administered by the patients' personal physicians or by physicians at MDA clinics. MDA supports 181 clinics throughout the U.S. including Puerto Rico and Guam. The MDA clinics serving this area are located at United Orthopedic Hospital in Newark, Englewood Hospital in Englewood and JFK Medical Center in Edison.

Institute is closed

The Union County Technical Institute and Vocational Center, Scotch Plains, will be closed tomorrow in observance of Veterans' Day. All offices will be closed and classes suspended.

EARTHBOUND

By JOSEPH TOBIN Environmental consultant, New York Botanical Garden

The car rolled out into the daylight of New Jersey and around the great curving ramps which lead modern-day sojourners to and from Manhattan: via the great caverns of the Lincoln Tunnel. My mind was captured for the moment, as always, by the vista of skyscrapers, monuments to men's desire to reach and to leave a mark of their reaching—the boats at the water's edge, the giant vessels of commerce, and the broad expanse which is the Hudson.

A little way along, jutting out on the right, a house or two aloft and Ailanthus growing everywhere, begins the rock.

The dark grey, blocklike rock which is the westernmost container of the power of the Hudson is the age-old edifice we call Palisades. Now it is the container. It was not always so. We continue up over the geologic hump and down into another expanse—the lowland meadows of Hackensack—the great marsh which is now being replaced by commercial concern in large part—hotels, parking lots, race tracks, hamburger heavens, storage areas, football stadiums, highways and the like.

Here is where the Hudson once flowed, not over there on the other side of the Palisades Ridge, but on this side. At Tappan Zee, there is a gap in the Palisades called Sparkill. This made an exit for the nutrient-rich waters of the Hudson in ancient times. Sandstone hills prevented the river from taking its present course. The river poured through the gap and filled the 10-mile-wide valley with its freshest water in spring and dinosaurs roamed about nibbling on giant ferns and horsetails in late summer when the flow was least. These waters flooded the Meadowlands from what is now the New Jersey—New York State line all the way south to around Carteret. It could only be the thundering waters of a river the size of the Hudson which could create a marsh the size of the Hackensack. The two rivers which presently run through it and which we cross as we travel along Route 3 and other highways, the Passaic and the Hackensack, are mere streams compared to the ancestral river.

There was only a trickle of some kind winding its way through the sandstone hills next to Manhattan, where the present Hudson bed is. It was only when this small stream began to wear away the soft sedimentary rock, creating a river bed which was contained on both sides then by hard rock it could not wear away—one side of which were the Palisades—that it chose a new course. The erosion took millions of years, but it produced one of the truly great geologic features of the Garden State—the Palisades wall—as well as a vast and unappreciated tidal meadow—which now provides a home for spectator sport, ribbons of roads and big and bigger business.

English course will be taught

English as a second language will be offered in a free, 60-hour course at the Union County Technical Institute and Vocational Center, Scotch Plains, beginning Monday, it was announced by John Dolinaj, supervisor of adult education at the vocational center.

Funded by the New Jersey State Department of Education, the course is intended to provide basic language skills in English for speakers of other languages who need to improve their proficiency in English to meet social and employment objectives, he said.

Two sessions will be conducted, one on Monday, the other on Wednesday. Hours for both sessions are 6:30 and 9 p.m.

Those interested in enrolling may call Dolinaj at 889-2000, ext. 203, for information on registration.

Deadlines set for applicants to seek grants

The New Jersey State Council on the Arts has announced deadlines for receiving grant applications for 1978-79 and established a series of seminars around the state to brief potential applicants on criteria for receiving grants.

Jan. 2, was set as the deadline for applications for matching grants in dance, film, music and environmental design.

Feb. 1, will be the deadline for matching grants in expansion arts, visual arts and theater.

The council set March 1 as the deadline to receive fellowship applications.

Barbara Furst, chairman of the council, said the seminars would be held at three locations throughout the state to give artists, arts organizations, groups, councils and other possible applicants the chance to acquaint themselves with the types of grants available and the criteria for being approved by the council.

The schedule of seminars to be conducted by Arts Council officials is: Northern New Jersey—This Saturday, at 2 p.m. at the Essex County Community College in Newark.

Central New Jersey—Thursday, Nov. 17, at 2 p.m. in the auditorium of the State Museum in Trenton.

Southern New Jersey—Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Millville Public Library.

Each year the State Arts Council awards both matching grants and fellowships in a variety of disciplines, including music, dance, visual arts, theater, film, environment and design, writing and expansion arts.

Matching grants are available to non-profit community groups and arts organization for projects which provide arts programs or services to the public. Fellowships are awarded to individual artists for the creation of new works or the completion of works in progress.

A series of staggered deadlines has been established to allow comprehensive consideration of grants and to better handle projects on a chronological basis.

Two will speak to county group

Vincenz Cianci and Susan Moseley will be speakers at a meeting of the Union County Speech and Hearing Association in Children's Specialized Hospital, Mountainside, at 3:30 p.m. next Thursday.

Cianci, the coordinator of pre-school programs for the state's Department of Special Education, will present a film strip dealing with new legislation.

Moseley, who operates a language program for pre-school children in Bernardsville, will discuss changes anticipated as a result of the new regulations.

Nutritionists to meet

Dr. Aloen Cott will speak on "A Biochemical and Nutritional Approach to Learning Disabilities" at a meeting of the American Academy of Nutritional Consultants on Nov. 20 from 1 to 5:30 p.m. at the Coachman Inn, Cranford.

Red Cross has tickets for trip

The special projects committee of the Union County Chapter, American Red Cross, has announced it has some tickets available for their trip to the Meadowlands race track on Tuesday evening, Nov. 22. Details are available at the chapter house, 353-2500.

The special projects committee will sponsor a trip to the Ice Capades at Madison Square Garden, to see Dorothy Hammill in "Make A Wish." The trip is planned for Sunday, Jan. 15 for the 5:30 show. Seats, dessert and transportation will cost $15 per person.

The Christmas show trip to Radio City is completely sold out as is the theater trip to see "Annie." However, the committee has obtained tickets for a Saturday matinee to see "Side by Side" by Sondheym in February.

Jobs available for county vets

Veterans who are looking for jobs—even if they are attending school—were asked this week to get in touch with the Union County Department of Human Resources.

Brendan Ast, placement coordinator for the Division of Employment and Training, said his office has a number of vacancies—both full-time and part-time—in a variety of fields. "The primary requirement is the applicant live in Union County, excluding the City of Elizabeth. Veterans will get preference on all vacancies, and there are numerous positions that must be filled."

Those who are interested should get in touch with Mary Fougere at 757-9090.

JV record falls to 1-4 following defeat by 28-6

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High junior varsity football team saw its record dip to 1-4 last week, dropping a 28-6 tilt to always-tough New Providence. The young Bulldogs showed a good deal of offense with the running of Bob Irene and Ed McGrady and the accurate passes of Ken Klebous to Dave Vargas, but the defense was unable to halt the Pioneers. Dayton's lone score came on a rollout by Klebous, and the offense put together some good drives.

Doing an outstanding job for the defense were linebacker Ed Johnson, who should see some varsity action, Anthony Circelli and Chris Dilemuth. The squad was hampered by injuries to fullback Joe Dorfman, defensive back Rick Souders and wingback Joe Policastro.

In freshman football action, the Dayton yearlings lost to New Providence, 36-0. Although small in numbers, the boys continue to make progress and show improvement. The New Providence game marked the unveiling of Fran Clemson at quarterback, and both Coach Roland Marionni and Coach Rick Iacono said they were pleased with his play. Bill Meyer again sparkled both ways, and Mike Caricato and Paul D'Andrea continued to show well for the Bulldog pups.

Alholm gets 2 as lightweights win 3rd, 37-6

The Mountainside Jets lightweight football team played an outstanding game in defeating the Berkeley Heights Golds, 37-6. The Jets scored quickly in the first quarter when David Gagliano tallied from seven yards out. John Fischer plunged for the extra point. Moments later Jeff Ahlholm intercepted a lateral and ran 30 yards for another touchdown.

Behind the strong blocking of Darren Iacono, Alfred Heckel, Greg Goldenberg, Kyle Wissel, Russell Picut, Bob Micke and Steve Burton, the Jets' Matt Dooley and Walter Kempner scored on long runs.

In the second half, Ahlholm went through center for 28 yards and a touchdown. Berkeley Heights finally scored on a 50-yard run by a halfback. The final score came when the defense stopped Berkeley Heights behind the goal line for a safety.

The defense was led by Peter Dachnowicz, David Rizzo, Enzo Pallitta, Jim Merklinger and Michael Wood. Mountainside's offense, which gained 234 yards rushing, was led by John Fischer's 64, Jeff Ahlholm's 55 and Dave Gagliano's 46. Matt Dooley, Walter Kempner and Jim Merklinger also ran for substantial gains. The Jets squad played exceptionally well and improved their record to three victories and two losses. Next week, the Jets play Berkeley Heights.

Gymnasts at Madison Monday in bid for best-ever season mark

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School gymnastics team dropped two close decisions last week—to Columbia

Booters beaten in OT to finish 4-11-1 season

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School varsity soccer team dropped a 4-2 overtime decision to the New Providence Pioneers to end their 1977 season with a record of four victories 11 losses and one tie. The Bulldogs, under the guidance of coach Jim Skobo, finished sixth in the Suburban Conference. Verona won the sectional title, losing but one game.

Dayton took the lead on early goals by Todd Melamed and Mike French but then faltered. In fact, the second Pioneer goal was scored by a Dayton player, whose crisp head shot baffled goalie Dave Lauhoff. New Providence booters scored twice within a three-minute span in over time. Field general Joe Sangregorio stood out for the Bulldogs.

The Dayton starting lineup was led by leftwing Melamed, who scored 10 goals this year, easily the highest total on the squad. He was brilliant throughout the year and reached his peak against Oratory, when he scored three goals. Mel was backed up by Mitch Feuer, a standout performer whose playing time was limited merely because he backed up Melamed. Mitch, who scored a goal and assisted on two others, has unlimited potential as a lineman.

Sophomore star Tim Harrigan, agile and talented, started as a rightwing. Tim showed excellent soccer skills and a strong willingness to learn. Tim booted two goals in 1977. Backing him up was Tom Ragno, who also showed good skills when called one Pagno scored on goal.

Bill Rose, another gifted sophomore, started at center forward and scored from that spot. Bill is a true hustler. Reserve forward George Janeira provided excellent backup protection. Goerge scored a goal in West Orange.

The halfback line was led by captain Joe Sangregorio. An unselfish player, Joe contributed crisp passes and scored twice on long shots. Joe made the most of every opportunity.

Jay Hanigan added aggressiveness and stamina to the Dayton attack. A speedy performer, Hanigan was very durable.

Mike French, another of Dayton's rugged tri-captains, added scoring punch to the halfback alignment with three goals, tops among the midfielders.

Mike Wittenberg, the third captain, had perhaps the strongest foot on the team. Mike, who continually shouted encouragement to his fellow team-

High and Piscataway. The Dayton girls have compiled an impressive 9-4 record, and have a chance to better that record when they travel to Madison

Monday. The Springfield gymnastics program has really flourished throughout the years. In every year since their rookie season, Coach Nancy Dougherty's performers have improved their season mark. Victory Monday would better the Bulldogs' 1976 mark of 9-5.

Columbia recorded a score of 85.20 to Dayton's 76.50. The bright point for the Bulldog unit was the emergence of Carol Wingard on the vaulting horse. Carol recorded an 8.1 score, her highest ever, by virtually perfecting an extremely difficult handspring vault. Moira Halpin scored a 6.75 to outclass her foes on the balance beam, narrowly nipping Barbara Calamusa, whose performance was scored as a 6.7. Moira scored a 7.75 in floor exercises, good for second place.

Piscataway defeated Dayton, 88.00 to 80.70. Halpin won first place on the balance beam with a 7.3 routine, while Calamusa exhibited fine prowess on the uneven parallel bars, scoring a 7.05 for second place.

Halpin will be competing statewide on the balance beam and in floor exercises and Calamusa will compete in the state sectionals on the beam and the bars Saturday at Butler. Both girls will be working spectacular moves into their already-grueling gymnastic feats.

Center fullback David Lauhoff, who should receive all-conference mention for this steady play, doubled up as a goaltender late in the year, compiling an impressive 3-2 record.

Tony Sangregorio, a bullish performer, thwarted many an opposing drive. Tony, who could boot the ball nearly three-fourths of the field, was almost never beaten by an onrushing lineman.

The most determined squad member was most probably right fullback Mar Meskin, a durable performer who never gave up. The emergence of Meskin was one of the pleasant performances of the year.

Steve Shindler, the Dayton goaltender, was a good one. Steve has super potential and did very well follow the footsteps of Sid Kaufman and go on to become a college star. Last year Steve was the heir apparent to Kaufman.

Others who played on the varsity level during the year included Bruce Davison, Ron Scappetuelo, Frank Schaeffer, Scott Worswick and Bob Schneider.

Captains for 1978, voted by the players Friday, are Lauhoff and Tony Sangregorio. Marc Meskin was a close third.

mates, tallied one goal.

Subbing for these players were four tough competitors. Junior Steve Geltman, who frequently was pressed into starting duty, will be a great asset next year. Chris Shields played his best when given the chance. A determined performer, Shields always gave one hundred percent. Jeff Lubash, a strong-footed senior, also filled in ably, hustling on offense and defense. Mike Jacob, a converted lineman with good passing skills, rounded out this experienced reserve corps.

Bob Shapiro, a halfback-fullback, will return to help next year's outfit. Shap was pressed into the starting role after goalie Steve Shindler was sidelined with an injury.

UC clinic in soccer

Union College will sponsor a soccer clinic for Union County high school students on Saturday, Nov. 19, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Orange Avenue Middle School, Cranford.

The clinic will be conducted by Dr. Leonard K. Lucenko, head coach of Union College's soccer team, director of the All-American Soccer Camp and New Jersey Coach of the Year in 1968, 1969 and 1970.

Princess induction

Indian Princesses of the Summit Area YMCA's Watchung Nation will induct new members on Saturday at 10 a.m., at the Summit Junior High School auditorium. More than 200 father-daughter couples (grades 1-3) and their families from Summit, New Providence, Berkeley Heights, Short Hills, Millburn, Springfield, Gillette and Stirling are expected to participate.

Big "braves" and "princesses," dressed in full regalia, will receive their traditional "eagle feathers." A highlight will be a special performance of American Indian dancing by Louis Mofse of the Thunderbird American Indian Center, New York City.

Indian Princess is a national YMCA father-daughter activity whose programs are developed around the basic American Indian theme with tribes formed on a school or neighborhood basis and meeting in members' homes. Tribes come together for Saturday morning gym and swims, Friday family nights at the Y, special pow-wows and camping weekends. Fathers and daughters interested in joining have been invited to contact Ronald R. Coleman at the YMCA, 273-3330.

To Publicity Chairmen:

Would you like some help in preparing newspaper releases? Write to this newspaper and ask for our "Tips on Submitting News Releases."

Among those serving on the staff for the clinic will be Ray Klinecka, assistant coach of the Cosmos and assistant coach for the U.S. World Cup and U.S. Olympic teams.

All Union County 10th, 11th and 12th grade students may participate in the clinic at no charge. The clinic will deal with technique improvement, fitness training and tactical approaches, and will stress improving individual skills.

Bohrod ouster costly in Dayton 22-6 loss

By KIRK KUBACH
The Jonathan Dayton football team travelled to Millburn last Saturday and was beaten, 22-6. Dayton was extremely upset by the expulsion of co-captain Bob Bohrod, a key performer in backfield. His absence hobbled offensive efforts.

The Bulldog touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Ken Bell picked off a Millburn pass and returned it for the score. Millburn was aided by the strong efforts of runningback and extra-point kicker Chris Buckley. Dayton will be home to Verona Saturday and will visit West Orange on Thanksgiving.

The offensive line—Bill Young and Pete Rosomondo at tackles, Ed Johnson and Skip Liguori at guard, Greg Shomo at center and Don Lusardi, Nick Caricato and Dave Vargas at ends—struggled to assist the backfield

Harriers finish 8th in sectional

The Jonathan Dayton cross-country team finished eighth in its season-ending competition in the state sectional meet. Dayton's top five were Rich Bantell, Jeff Knowles, Kevin King, Jay Bruder and Pete Keramas. Dayton was without the aid of two other top runners. Dayton's dual meet season resulted in 14 victories and one loss.

of Albert Preziosi at quarterback and backs Larry Irene, Dave Flood and Ed McGrady, who replaced Bohrod.

Powering the defense were end John Ferry, who played and outstanding game, and linebacker Ken Bell, who had two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Holding Millburn scoreless in the second half was the line of Skip Liguori, Pete Rosomondo, Bill Young and Joe Dorfman at tackles, Ferry Paul Matysek and Dan Pepe at ends and Anthony Circelli, Jack Hirschberg, Jeff Vargas, Dave Flood and Pat Picciuto in the secondary.

Cagers to play Australian five

The Kean College basketball team will host the Australian Olympic team on Friday Dec. 16, at 8 p.m. in D'Angola Gym.

The Aussies finished eighth in the Montreal Olympics. They are coached by Lindsay Gaze, a former Olympian, and led by Ed Palubinskas, a 6-1 guard, who played for Louisiana State University.

Kean finished with a 20-8 record a year ago. Coach Joe Palermo has seven of his first eight players returning.

The Squires are led by center Jerome Hubbard, forwards Vince McDonald and Steve Depts and guards Eloy Ashworth and Chuck Raub, all juniors.

YOUR BMW DEALER CAN LEASE YOU A CAR YOU WON'T BE BORED WITH BEFORE THE LEASE IS UP.

There is an obsolescence built into most automobiles that has nothing whatsoever to do with how well they're built. It's called boredom. And it has to do with the way they drive.

Most cars simply are not built in such a way that the act of driving becomes an end rather than just an uninspired means of transportation.

The BMW on the other hand, is comfortable and enjoyable to drive. While its passengers are cordoned and comfortable—while it provides all the creature comforts one could safely require of an automobile—the BMW is clearly and unmistakably a car built for and around the driver.

PERFORMANCE PERFECTED ON THE RACE TRACK

While it is, of course, feasible to develop an acceptable automobile in the relative vacuum of the test track and the laboratory, it is virtually impossible to simulate the perfection demanded by motor racing.

And the BMW 530i is a direct reflection of this cache of engineering intelligence.

Its suspension—independent on all four wheels—is quick and clean through the corners, its steering sharp and accurate.

Its four-speed manual transmission (automatic is available) slips precisely into each gear. And its acceleration comes up smoothly, with the turbine-like whine so characteristic of the justifiably renowned 3-liter BMW engine.

Luxurious? Yes. Yet all functions have been assiduously planned to facilitate total precise control at all times, under all conditions. Engineered to include the driver as one of the functioning parts of the car itself—the human part that completes the mechanical circuit.

SERVICE AS EFFICIENT AND RELIABLE AS THE CAR ITSELF

An automobile as thoroughly engineered and meticulously constructed as the BMW 530i deserves competent, reliable servicing.

While it would certainly be inaccurate to claim perfection, it is never the less a fact that no more complete or innovative a technical training program exists in the automotive business than the one BMW mechanics are required to attend on a regular yearly basis.

And this human wisdom combined with the inhuman perfection of costly computerized equipment assures rapid routine servicing, accurate engine tuning and diagnosis of any impending problem.

If the thought of leasing a car you can actually enjoy driving intrigues you, we suggest you phone your BMW dealer. Not only can he arrange a thorough test drive at your convenience, he can make available a variety of convenient leasing plans, as well.

DR. AND MRS. CRISCITIELLO
Miss Friedman
wed Oct. 10 to
Dr. Criscitiello

Marilyn Friedman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Friedman of Union, was married Monday, Oct. 10, to Dr. Ronald P. Criscitiello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Criscitiello of Mountainside.

The ceremony was held in the Crystal Plaza, Livingston, where a reception followed.

Mrs. Criscitiello, who was graduated from Kean College of New Jersey, Union, where she received a bachelor's degree, and Syracuse University, where she received a master's degree, is employed as a counselor for Planned Parenthood and is working on a Ph.D. in higher education administration at the University of Pittsburgh.

Her husband, who was graduated from Syracuse University, where he received a bachelor's degree and was awarded Phi Beta Kappa, holds an M.D. degree from Upstate Medical Center, Syracuse, where he received other honors. Dr. Criscitiello is doing his residency at Montefiore Hospital, affiliated with the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, where he is specializing in internal medicine. The newlyweds, who took a honeymoon trip to St. Maarten in the Caribbean, reside in Pittsburgh.

Gospel women schedule coffee

The Womens' Gospel Fellowship of Mountainside Gospel Chapel will meet for its monthly coffee hour next Thursday, Nov. 17. The chapel is on Spruce Drive, off Central Ave. Coffee will be served at 10 a.m. and the program will start at 10:14. Ruth Goense is chairman for a demonstration on floral arrangements.

The program, "Singing through Our Sorrows" will be presented by Eleanor Isaacson. In addition to her singing talents, Mrs. Isaacson is a homemaker and a full-time college student. Born in Germany, she came to this country at age 12 to search for her parents. Nursery care is provided, and the program is open to the public.

ORT schedules annual bazaar on Nov. 20 at Y

Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) will hold its annual bazaar on Sunday, Nov. 20, at the YMHA, Green Lane, Union, from 9:30 to 8:30 p.m. There will be no admission charge.

Two floors of the Y will "be filled with all new merchandise, rescued to bargain prices." Items for sale will include toys and games, clothing, small appliances, jewelry, cosmetics, linens, curtains and other gift items in time for the holiday season. A snack bar will be open all day.

The bazaar is the major fund-raising project of the year for the 4,500 members of the North Central Jersey Region. All proceeds will benefit ORT's Earning Power Improvement Courses program which provides vocational education to nearly 60,000 students each year throughout the world.

WHAT IS ALCOHOL? WHO USES IT?

Alcohol, the major active ingredient in wine, beer, and distilled liquor, is a natural substance formed by the reaction of fermenting sugar with yeast spores. There are many alcohols, but the kind in alcoholic beverages is ethyl alcohol — a colorless, inflammable liquid with an intoxicating effect.

Ethyl-alcohol is a drug which can produce feelings of well-being, sedation, intoxication or unconsciousness — depending on the amount and the manner in which it is drunk. Technically, it can also be classified as a food, since it contains calories; however, it has no nutritional value.

Various alcoholic beverages are produced by using different sources of sugar for fermentation. For instance, beer is made from germinated or malted barley, wine from grapes or berries, whiskey from malted grains and rum from molasses. Hard liquors — such as whiskey, gin, and vodka — are produced by distillation, which further concentrates the alcohol resulting from fermentation.

Alcohol Content of Typical Alcoholic Beverages:

Beer, 4 percent; Dinner wine, 10-12 percent; Fortified wine, 17-20 percent; Distilled liquor, 40-50 percent.

Each fluid ounce of 100 percent alcohol contains about 200 calories, although the alcoholic beverages and drinks derived from them vary widely. About the same alcoholic content, one-half ounce of pure alcohol, is found in:

- a 12-ounce can of beer
- a 5-ounce glass of dinner wine
- a cocktail containing 1½ ounces of 86-proof liquor

As far back as historical records go, beverages containing alcohol have been made and used by people. Such beverages are part of the cultures of people throughout the world.

Two-thirds of the adult population in the United States drinks at least occasionally, while one-third does not drink at all.

If you would like to receive information and materials on different aspects of alcohol use, write to the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism, P.O. Box 2345, Rockville, Maryland 20852.

JV record falls to 1-4 following defeat by 28-6

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School varsity football team saw its record dip to 1-4 last week, dropping a 28-6 tilt to always-tough New Providence. The young Bulldogs showed a good deal of offense with the running of Bob Irene and Ed McGrady and the accurate passes of Ken Klebous to Dave Vargas, but the defense was unable to halt the Pioneers. Dayton's lone score came on a rollout by Klebous, and the offense put together some good drives.

Doing an outstanding job for the defense were linebacker Ed Johnson, who should see some varsity action, Anthony Circelli and Chris Dillemath. The squad was hampered by injuries to fullback Joe Dorfman, defensive back Rick Souders and wingback Joe Policastro.

In freshman football action, the Dayton yearlings lost to New Providence, 36-0. Although small in numbers, the boys continue to make progress and show improvement. The New Providence game marked the unveiling of Fran Clemson at quarterback, and both Coach Roland Marionni and Coach Rick Iacono said they were pleased with his play. Bill Meyer again sparkled both ways, and Mike Caricato and Paul D'Andrea continued to show well for the Bulldog pups.

Alholm gets 2 as lightweights win 3rd, 37-6

The Mountainside Jets lightweight football team played an outstanding game in defeating the Berkeley Heights Gulls, 37-6. The Jets scored quickly in the first quarter when David Gagliano tallied from seven yards out. John Fischer plunged for the extra point. Moments later Jeff Alholm intercepted a lateral and ran 30 yards for another touchdown.

Behind the strong blocking of Darren Iacono, Alfred Heckel, Greg Goldenberg, Kyle Wissel, Russell Picut, Bob Micke and Steve Burton, the Jets' Matt Dooley and Walter Kempner scored on long runs.

In the second half, Alholm went through center for 28 yards and a touchdown. Berkeley Heights finally scored on a 50-yard run by a halfback. The final score came when the defense stopped Berkeley Heights behind the goal line for a safety.

The defense was led by Peter Dachnowicz, David Rizzo, Enzo Pallitta, Jim Merklinger and Michael Wood. Mountainside's offense, which gained 234 yards rushing, was led by John Fischer's 64, Jeff Alholm's 55 and Dave Gagliano's 46. Matt Dooley, Walter Kempner and Jim Merklinger also ran for substantial gains. The Jets squad played exceptionally well and improved their record to three victories and two losses. Next week, the Jets play Berkeley Heights.

Gymnasts at Madison Monday in bid for best-ever season mark

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School gymnastics team dropped two close decisions last week to Columbia

High and Piscataway. The Dayton girls have compiled an impressive 9-4 record, and have a chance to better that record when they travel to Madison

Monday. The Springfield gymnastics program has really flourished throughout the years. In every year since their rookie season, Coach Nancy Dougherty's performers have improved their season mark. Victory Monday would better the Bulldogs' 1976 mark of 9-5.

Columbia recorded a score of 85.20 to Dayton's 78.50. The bright point for the Bulldog unit was the emergence of Carol Wingard on the vaulting horse. Carol recorded an 8.1 score, her highest ever, by virtually perfecting an extremely difficult handspring vault. Moira Halpin scored a 6.75 to outclass her foes on the balance beam, narrowly nipping Barbara Calamusa, whose performance was scored as a 6.7. Moira scored a 7.75 in floor exercises, good for second place.

Piscataway defeated Dayton, 88.00 to 80.70. Halpin won first place on the balance beam with a 7.3 routine, while Calamusa exhibited fine prowess on the uneven parallel bars, scoring a 7.05 for second place.

Halpin will be competing statewide on the balance beam and in floor exercises and Calamusa will compete in the state sectionals on the beam and the bars Saturday at Butler. Both girls will be working spectacular moves into their already-grueling gymnastic feats.

Center fullback David Lauhoff, who should receive all-conference mention for this steady play, doubled up as a goaltender late in the year, compiling an impressive 3-2 record.

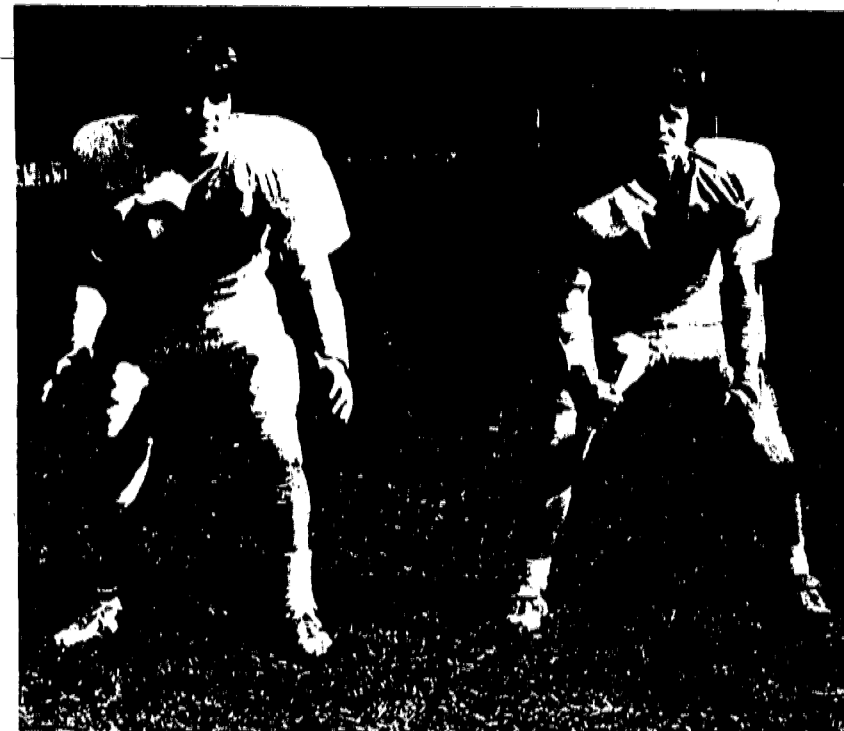

Tony Sangregorio, a bullish performer, thwarted many an opposing drive. Tony, who could boot the ball nearly three-fourths of the field, was almost never beaten by an onrushing lineman.

The most determined squad member was most probably right fullback Mar Meskin, a durable performer who never gave up. The emergence of Meskin was one of the pleasant performances of the year.

Steve Shindler, the Dayton goaltender, was a good one. Steve has super potential and could very well follow the footsteps of Sid Kaufman and go on to become a college star. Last year Steve was the heir apparent to Kaufman.

Others who played on the varsity level during the year included Bruce Davison, Ron Scappetuelo, Frank Schaeffer, Scott Worswick and Bob Schneider.

Captains for 1978, voted by the players Friday, are Lauhoff and Tony Sangregorio. Marc Meskin was a close third.

SHE FLIES THROUGH THE AIR—Mary Jane Gagliano, a member of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School gymnast team, launches herself from the springboard to mount the vaulting horse. The Bulldog gymnasts recently starred in three events in the annual Union County Gymnastics championships and took second place in the overall competition. (Photo-Graphics)

Booters beaten in OT to finish 4-11-1 season

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School varsity soccer team dropped a 4-2 overtime decision to the New Providence Pioneers to end their 1977 season with a record of four victories 11 losses and one tie. The Bulldogs, under the guidance of coach Jim Skobo, finished sixth in the Suburban Conference. Verona won the sectional title, losing but one game.

Dayton took the lead on early goals by Todd Melamed and Mike French but then faltered. In fact, the second Pioneer goal was scored by a Dayton player, whose crisp head shot baffled goalie Dave Lauff. New Providence booters scored twice within a three-minute span in over time. Field general Joe Sangregorio stood out for the Bulldogs.

The Dayton starting lineup was led by leftwing Melamed, who scored 10 goals this year, easily the highest total on the squad. He was brilliant throughout the year and reached his peak against Oratory, when he scored three goals. Mel was backed up by Mitch Feuer, a standout performer whose playing time was limited merely because he backed up Melamed. Mitch, who scored a goal and assisted on two others, has unlimited potential as a lineman.

Sophomore star Tim Harrigan, agile and talented, started as a rightwing. Tim showed excellent soccer skills and a strong willingness to learn. Tim booted two goals in 1977. Backing him up was Tom Ragno, who also showed good skills when called on. Pagnone scored on goal.

Bill Rose, another gifted sophomore, started at center forward and scored from that spot. Bill is a true hustler. Reserve forward George Janeira provided excellent backup protection. George scored a goal in West Orange.

The halfback line was led by captain Joe Sangregorio. An unselfish player, Joe contributed crisp passes and scored twice on long shots. Joe made the most of every opportunity.

Jay Hannigan added aggressiveness and stamina to the Dayton attack. A speedy performer, Hanigan was very durable.

Mike French, another of Dayton's rugged tri-captains, added scoring punch to the halfback alignment with three goals, tops among the midfielders.

Mike Wittenberg, the third captain, had perhaps the strongest foot on the team. Mike, who continually shouted encouragement to his fellow teammates, tallied one goal.

Subbing for these players were four tough competitors. Junior Steve Geltman, who frequently was pressed into starting duty, will be a great asset next year. Chris Shields played his best when given the chance. A determined performer, Shields always gave one hundred percent. Jeff Lubash, a strong-footed senior, also filled in ably, hustling on offense and defense. Mike Jacob, a converted lineman with good passing skills, rounded out this experienced reserve corps.

Bob Shapiro, a halfback-fullback, will return to help next year's outfit. Shap was pressed into the starting role after goalie Steve Shindler was sidelined with an injury.

UC clinic in soccer

Union College will sponsor a soccer clinic for Union County high school students on Saturday, Nov. 19, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Orange Avenue Middle School, Cranford.

The clinic will be conducted by Dr. Leonard K. Lucenko, head coach of Union College's soccer team, director of the All-American Soccer Camp and New Jersey Coach of the Year in 1968, 1969 and 1970.

Among those serving on the staff for the clinic will be Ray Klinecka, assistant coach of the Cosmos and assistant coach for the U.S. World Cup and U.S. Olympic teams.

All Union County 10th, 11th and 12th grade students may participate in the clinic at no charge. The clinic will deal with technique improvement, fitness training and tactical approaches, and will stress improving individual skills.

Princess induction

Indian Princesses of the Summit Area YMCA's Watching Nation will induct new members on Saturday at 10 a.m., at the Summit Junior High School auditorium. More than 200 father-daughter couples (grades 1-3) and their families from Summit, New Providence, Berkeley Heights, Short Hills, Millburn, Springfield, Gillette and Stirling are expected to participate.

Big "braves" and "princesses," dressed in full regalia, will receive their traditional "eagle feathers." A highlight will be a special performance to of American Indian dancing by Louis Mofsie of the Thunderbird American Indian Center, New York City.

Indian Princess is a national YMCA father-daughter activity whose programs are developed around the basic American Indian theme with tribes formed on a school or neighborhood basis and meeting in members' homes. Tribes come together for Saturday morning gym and swims, Friday family nights at the Y, special pow-wows and camping weekends. Fathers and daughters interested in joining have been invited to contact Ronald R. Coleman at the YMCA, 273-3330.

Harriers finish 8th in sectional

The Jonathan Dayton cross-country team finished eighth in its season-ending competition in the state sectional meet. Dayton's top five were Rich Bantell, Jeff Knowles, Kevin King, Jay Bruder and Pete Keramas.

Dayton was without the aid of two other top runners. Dayton's dual meet season resulted in 14 victories and one loss.

FIELD PRACTICE—Jack Hirschberg and Bob McCrosson, Jonathan Dayton Regional High School varsity football players, prep for future gridiron games at practice at Meisel Field.

Bohrod ouster costly in Dayton 22-6 loss

By KIRK KUBACH
The Jonathan Dayton football team travelled to Millburn last Saturday and was beaten, 22-6. Dayton was extremely upset by the expulsion of co-captain Bob Bohrod, a key performer in backfield. His absence hobbled offensive efforts.

The Bulldog touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Ken Bell picked off a Millburn pass and returned it for the score. Millburn was aided by the strong efforts of runningback and extra-point kicker Chris Buckley. Dayton will be home to Verona Saturday and will visit West Orange on Thanksgiving.

The offensive line—Bill Young and Pete Rosomondo at tackles, Ed Johnson and Skip Liguori at guard, Greg Shomo at center and Don Lusardi, Nick Caricato and Dave Vargas at ends—struggled to assist the backfield

of Albert Preziosi at quarterback and backs Larry Irene, Dave Flood and Ed McGrady, who replaced Bohrod.

Powering the defense were end John Ferry, who played and outstanding game, and linebacker Ken Bell, who had two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Holding Millburn scoreless in the second half was the line of Skip Liguori, Pete Rosomondo, Bill Young and Joe Dorfman at tackles, Ferry Paul Matysek and Dan Pepe at ends and Anthony Circelli, Jack Hirschberg, Jeff Vargas, Dave Flood and Pat Picciuto in the secondary.

The Kean College basketball team will host the Australian Olympic team on Friday Dec. 16, at 8 p.m. in D'Angola Gym.

The Aussies finished eighth in the Montreal Olympics. They are coached by Lindsay Gaze, a former Olympian, and led by Ed Palubinskas, a 6-1 guard, who played for Louisiana State University.

Kean finished with a 20-8 record a year ago. Coach Joe Palermo has seven of his first eight players returning.

The Squires are led by center Jerome Hubbard, forwards Vince McDonald and Steve Depts and guards Eloy Ashworth and Chuck Raub, all juniors.

YOUR BMW DEALER CAN LEASE YOU A CAR YOU WON'T BE BORED WITH BEFORE THE LEASE IS UP

There is an obsolescence built into most automobiles that has nothing whatsoever to do with how well they're built. It's called boredom. And it has to do with the way they drive.

Most cars simply are not built in such a way that the act of driving becomes an end rather than just an uninspired means of transportation.

The BMW on the other hand, is comfortable—while it provides all the creature comforts one could safely require of an automobile—the BMW is clearly and unmistakably a car built for and around the driver.

PERFORMANCE PERFECTED ON THE RACE TRACK

While it is, of course, feasible to develop an acceptable automobile in the relative vacuum of the test track and the laboratory, it is virtually impossible to simulate the perfection demanded by motor racing.

And the BMW 530i is a direct reflection of this cache of engineering intelligence.

Its suspension—dependent on all four wheels—is quick and clean through the corners, its steering sharp and accurate.

Its four-speed manual transmission (automatic is available) slips precisely into each gear. And its acceleration comes up smoothly, with the turbine-like whine so characteristic of the justifiably renowned 3 liter BMW engine.

Luxurious? Yes. Yet all functions have been assiduously planned to facilitate total precise control at all times, under all conditions. Engineered to include the driver as one of the functioning parts of the car.

While it would certainly be inaccurate to claim perfection, it is nevertheless a fact that no more complete or innovative a technical training program exists in the automotive business than the one BMW mechanics are required to attend on a regular yearly basis.

And this human wisdom combined with the inhuman perfection of costly computerized equipment assures rapid routine servicing, accurate engine tuning and diagnosis of any impending problem.

If the thought of leasing a car you can actually enjoy driving intrigues you, we suggest you phone your BMW dealer. Not only can he arrange a thorough test drive at your convenience, he can make available a variety of convenient leasing plans as well.

DR. AND MRS. CRISCITIELLO Miss Friedman wed Oct. 10 to Dr. Criscitiello

Marilyn Friedman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Friedman of Union, was married Monday, Oct. 10, to Dr. Ronald P. Criscitiello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Criscitiello of Mountainside.

The ceremony was held in the Crystal Plaza, Livingston, where a reception followed.

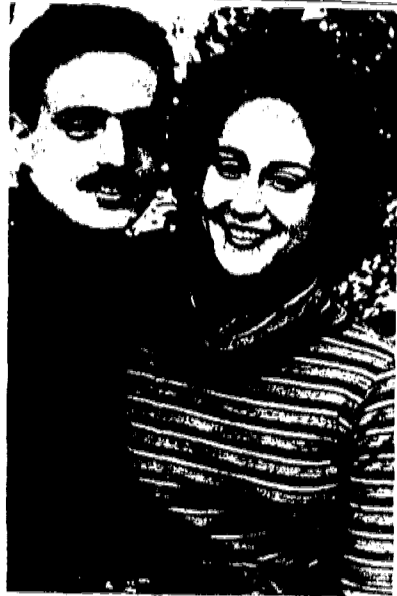

Mrs. Criscitiello, who was graduated from Kean College of New Jersey, Union, where she received a bachelor's degree, and Syracuse University, where she received a master's degree, is employed as a counselor for Planned Parenthood and is working on a Ph.D. in higher education administration at the University of Pittsburgh.

Her husband, who was graduated from Syracuse University, where he received a bachelor's degree and was awarded Phi Beta Kappa, holds an M.D. degree from Upstate Medical Center, Syracuse, where he received other honors. Dr. Criscitiello is doing his residency at Montefiore Hospital, affiliated with the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, where he is specializing in internal medicine. The newlyweds, who took a honeymoon trip to St. Maarten in the Caribbean, reside in Pittsburgh.

Gospel women schedule coffee

The Womens' Gospel Fellowship of Mountainside Gospel Chapel will meet for its monthly coffee hour next Thursday, Nov. 17. The chapel is on Spruce Drive, off Central Ave. Coffee will be served at 10 a.m. and the program will start at 10:14. Ruth Goense is chairman for a demonstration on floral arrangements.

The program, "Singing through Our Sorrows" will be presented by Eleanor Isaacson. In addition to her singing talents, Mrs. Isaacson is a homemaker and a full-time college student. Born in Germany, she came to this country at age 12 to search for her parents. Nursery care is provided, and the program is open to the public.

B'nai B'rith Women of Springfield will meet on Wednesday at 11:30 p.m. at Temple Sha'arey Shalom.

A hot luncheon will be catered by Stop & Shop, at a price of $2.50 per person. There will be games and songs.

Mrs. Abe Levine is president of the Springfield Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women. Mrs. Lee Wolf is vice-president in charge of program.

Vocal unit will entertain Woman's Club meeting

The Melody's Paintbrush Quartet will entertain the Mountainside Woman's Club meeting on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Mountainside Inn.

All men of the Melody's Paintbrush Quartet—Ken Henderson, tenor; Bill Wellman, lead; Frank Clapper, baritone, and Jim Fleming, bass—belong to their parent chapter, the Westfield Colonial Chorus.

The Woman's Club has one evening meeting a year with husbands as guests and the Evening Department as hostesses. It is an informal meeting with a social hour before the dinner. Any members who have not yet made their reservations may call Mrs. Melvin E. Lemmerhirt, Mrs. M. Edward Dudick or Mrs. W. Jouett Blackburn.

Sisterhood meeting to hear book report

Karen Levine and Nettie Levinson will lead a book report and discussion period for the Sisterhood of Congregation Israel at 8 p.m. on Wednesday at 42 Shunpike Rd., Springfield.

Refreshments will be served. Lee Hareluk is Sisterhood president.

Group will hold service project

A Church World Service Workshop will be held next Wednesday evening at the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Evening Group of the Springfield Presbyterian Church. Bandages will be rolled for mission hospitals, and game prizes for Runnells Hospital will be packaged for delivery. Mrs. Maximilian Schneider, world service chairman, is in charge of these projects.

A Bible study session will be held at 7:30 p.m. led by Dr. Bruce Evans, pastor of the local church. The regular meeting will begin at 8:15 under the leadership of Mrs. Raymond Pierson, chairman of the Evening Group. Refreshments will be served.

Program topic: abused women

The Greater Westfield Section of the National Council of Jewish Women will hold its annual paid-up membership dinner at Temple Emanu-El in Westfield at 7 p.m. Monday. The program for this meeting is "The Abused Woman."

Cessie Alfonso, who will lead the discussion, is the chairperson of the battered woman education subcommittee of Women Helping Women of Middlesex County. She has a master's degree in social work and a license in nursing and has been doing counseling for several years.

WHAT IS ALCOHOL? WHO USES IT?

Alcohol, the major active ingredient in wine, beer, and distilled liquor, is a natural substance formed by the reaction of fermenting sugar with yeast spores. There are many alcohols, but the kind in alcoholic beverages is ethyl alcohol—a colorless, inflammable liquid with an intoxicating effect.

Ethyl alcohol is a drug which can produce feelings of well-being, sedation, intoxication or unconsciousness—depending on the amount and the manner in which it is drunk. Technically, it can also be classified as a food, since it contains calories, however, it has no nutritional value.

Various alcoholic beverages are produced by using different sources of sugar for fermentation. For instance, beer is made from germinated or malted barley, wine from grapes or berries, whiskey from malted grains and rum from molasses. Hard liquors—such as whiskey, gin, and vodka—are produced by distillation, which further concentrates the alcohol resulting from fermentation.

Alcohol Content of Typical Alcoholic Beverages:

Beer, 4 percent; Dinner wine, 10-12 percent; Fortified wine, 17-20 percent; Distilled liquor, 40-50 percent.

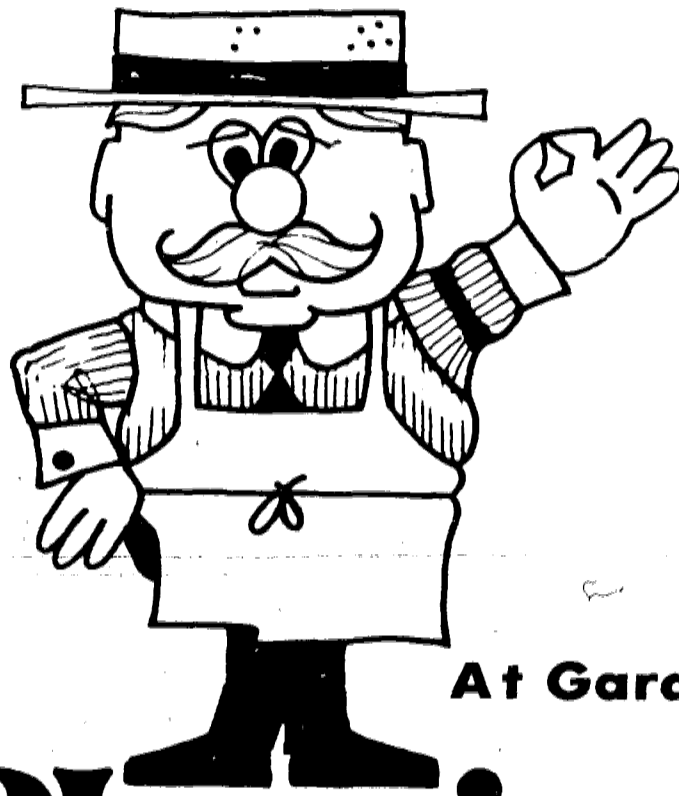

Each fluid ounce of 100 percent alcohol contains about 200 calories, although the alcoholic beverages and drinks derived from them vary widely. About the same alcoholic content, one-half ounce of pure alcohol, is found in:

- a 12-ounce can of beer
- a 5-ounce glass of dinner wine
- a cocktail containing 1½ ounces of 86-proof liquor

As far back as historical records go, beverages containing alcohol have been made and used by people. Such beverages are part of the cultures of people throughout the world.

Two-thirds of the adult population in the United States drinks at least occasionally, while one-third does not drink at all.

If you would like to receive information and materials on different aspects of alcohol use, write to the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism, P.O. Box 2345, Rockville, Maryland 20852.

Class set in dancing

The Summit YWCA is offering a new course in beginning creative dance for adults. The class is designed to allow participants freedom of expression and interpretation of music through body movements. Basic techniques of ballet, jazz, abstract and disco dance routines will be included. Participants will also use aspects of slimnastics and gymnastics.

The instructor, Judi Hedge, has studied dance under Skip Randall in Caldwell and Toby Towson in New York City. Hedge is a past gymnastics competitor and assistant coach of the Montclair YMCA Starlettes. She teaches dance in Edison and Caldwell and instructs gymnastics at the Summit YWCA.

The course will begin Wednesday, Nov. 23, and continue every Wednesday for nine weeks until Jan. 25 from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Women and men, age 15 and up, have been invited to attend. Further information concerning memberships and fees is available at the Summit YWCA at 273-4242.

Teen Talk

THIS WEEK'S LETTER: Help. I am a 15 year old girl and I'm in love with a 24 year old man. He's married and has two children he loves very much. But he loves me, too. However, he says he can't and won't do anything about it. Should I go on like this? What should I do? Please help. I'm confused.

OUR REPLY: Accept the fact that it's possible to love more than one person. He's too old and involved for you. Make certain you're clear on that. There's no reason to belabor the point. The truth is there's much to do and many people to meet. Get about the business of living in the present, not the past or the future. You're confused because you're not willing to accept responsibility for the situation. Take charge. Communicate with your own mind and let him know you're on your way to relationships that are less complicated.

Annual dinner this Saturday

The Sisterhood of Temple Sha'arey Shalom, Springfield, will hold its annual progressive dinner on Saturday. Each group of eight persons will have hors d'oeuvres and dinner at two different congregants' homes. All groups will then join for dessert at the temple. Larry Ozone's Traveling Disco will entertain the guests at the temple with rock, jazz, soul and pop tunes. Tama Bruder is the Sisterhood's vice-president in charge of ways and means. Goldye Grossman is the chairperson of the evening.

Hadassah sets Israeli benefit

In honor of the 10th anniversary of the reunification of the city of Jerusalem, the Westfield Chapter of Hadassah has begun a "big gifts" project to provide a major piece of equipment for the Hadassah Hospital at Ein Karem, Israel. The chairmen of the fund-raising event, Mrs. Edward Dropkin of Westfield and Mrs. Mitchell Bradie of Mountainside, have planned a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Shevick, 37 Fairview road, Clark, on Saturday evening, Nov. 19 at 8:30.

Anyone wishing to attend the party and to contribute toward this gift may contact the chairmen or Mrs. Stanley Daiteh of Westfield, the Chapter president.

County is host to student view of government

Union County government will play host to more than 50 area high school seniors when the students participate in the second annual Youth in Government Day today at the County Courthouse in Elizabeth.

The students will be welcomed by George J. Albanese, county manager, who will explain the county's new form of government. Other speakers include John D. Molozzi, chairman of the Board of Freeholders, Thomas W. Haedrich, director of the office of public information, and Matilda Wise, clerk of the board.

County public information officers will conduct a tour of the various departments. Included are stops at data processing, where methods of jury selection will be demonstrated; the clerk's office, where voter registration will be discussed, and the department of human resources, with emphasis on youth-oriented services.

Students and department heads will lunch at the Town and Campus in Union.

For the remainder of the afternoon, the students will share in the everyday decision-making and duties of the department heads.

Several of these students will have the opportunity to utilize their newly-gained experience when they take part in a regular meeting of the Board of Freeholders.

HOME HOBBY

The realtor had spent his entire day showing one couple numerous potential properties. "And this," she said in the seven-h house they'd toured, "is the hobby room. Do you folks have any hobbies?" "Yes we do," was the reply. "We really enjoy looking at homes for sale."

statement, Benford said. "Three years from now I want the electorate to be especially pleased with my term of office. That's my goal."

In accepting her reelection, Gibadlo thanked all the voters for coming out to the polls. In her statement, she said, "To me, being reelected is more than just a victory at the polls. I feel that the people of Mountainside know that I personally will continue to do my best to serve them and the borough."

Election guarantees tenure in office in two more years. In his congratulations to the elected candidates, Mayor Thomas Ricciardi said he was proud of the team that would serve the borough. He said he was looking forward to working with Benford and was "sure he would bring the same spirit of independence to the board that Bruce Geiger has."

Ricciardi added he was "not sure we were fortunate because we did not have a Democratic opposition. We probably would have been better off if we had. But let's not lose our drive. We can set an example for all of Union County."

Republican borough campaign manager Shirley Horner summed up the victory by saying, "The best barometer of a successful campaign is the voting machine. Campaign treasurer Bill Biunno and I want to thank the voters of Mountainside for their victorious support."

events be attached to Gallo's record. If it is determined that Gallo's certificate be lifted in New Jersey for one year, it would not affect his present position, but would be attached to his permanent record and could be an influence in his future teaching applications.

At that September meeting, board member Pat Knodel said that in the future, if a similar circumstance occurs, the administration should not honor the resignation. Knodel said the teacher should have been told he must honor the contract or work until a replacement is found. Board member Dr. Arthur Williams said, at that time, "severe action" should be taken to stop this from happening in the future.

The board also directed Hanigan to institute a school policy on how to deal with the situation if it arises in the future. At that time, Hanigan questioned the wisdom of such a policy. Recently questioned, the superintendent said the problem with instituting such a directive is that a policy has to be enforced without exception and each case should be handled on its individual merits.

held in Sea Grit. He also trains new recruits entering police positions in the county.

Kennedy emphasized the firing practice is just one portion of the weapons instruction borough police undergo. The officers all receive classroom training in when to use their guns and the legalities involved when firing their sidearms.

But the instructor said the most important part of the program is the firing sessions. Kennedy said the qualifying sessions give the men confidence with their weapons and makes them conscious of being careful with the guns. It also helps check the equipment for proper function, Kennedy said. "We would rather have it misfire on the range than on the street," he added.

The arrogant demand of Cuba's Minister of Foreign Trade, Marcelo Font, that the U.S. must pay Cuba billions of dollars in reparations for the Bay of Pigs invasion has seriously damaged any prospects for resuming trade and diplomatic relations with Cuba. At the recent Washington meeting, which was sponsored by the East-West Trade Council, Font made it clear that the United States could not expect any concessions in return for lifting the trade embargo with Cuba.

As part of the one-way deal, Font asked the United States to restore most favored nation privileges to Cuba, including special tariff treatment. This would enable Cuba to export its huge sugar surplus to the United States, in order to obtain hard currency to pay off its arms debts to the Soviet Union.

The next step, of course, would involve low-interest loans to stimulate trade with the United States. Communist bloc nations have accumulated a debt of more than $40 billion since 1973 with Western nations, and there are serious doubts in the world banking community that these nations will be able to meet these obligations by 1980. About $3 billion of these low-interest trade credits have been made by the

Fines of $200 levied on three

Three drivers were fined $200 each by Mountainside Municipal Judge Jacob Bauer last week for driving while their licenses were suspended. Grady Green of Irvington, Alphonso Smith of Union and James Miley of Newark were also each charged $15 for court costs. Bauer fined two other drivers $15 for disregard of traffic signals. Frank Chepigi of Union and Deborah Sims of Newark also were charged $15 in costs and Sims an additional $5 for contempt of court. Eddie Martin of Plainfield was fined a total of $20 for being an unlicensed driver and Lenot Pilgrim of East Orange paid $25 for passing on a marked shoulder.

Aqua Sprites swim 'Disney'

The Westfield Aqua Sprites will open their 1977-78 season with a production of "The Magic of Disney" on Nov. 18, 19 and 20 at the Westfield YWCA pool.

Three Mountainside girls, Lisa Barre and Beth and Susan McLaughlin, are members of the 1977 New Jersey State Synchronized Swimming Champions Aqua Sprite team.

Performances will be held at 8:30 p.m. on Nov. 18, at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 19 and at 5 p.m. on Nov. 20. Tickets may be purchased at the Westfield Y or from members of the team. The price is $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students.

United States. We should not extend any further credit until the loans are repaid, and certainly not to Cuba.

Letting Cuba dump its sugar surplus on the U.S. market would be a mortal blow to American producers. They already are hard-pressed to sell their supplies. Why give Cuba the means of ruining American sugar producers?

Even more troubling about these initiatives towards resuming Cuban-U.S. relations is the fate of the 20,000 survivors of the Bay of Pigs invasion. Amnesty International estimates that most of these prisoners are still in jail in Cuba. Their human rights cannot be ignored for the sake of detente with Castro.

Another special concern is the Castro government's possible link to the assassination of President John Kennedy. Until the new inquiry into the Kennedy assassination clears up these suspicions, it would be imprudent for the United States to resume ties to Cuba that may later be broken if the evidence supports the theory that Lee Harvey Oswald was hired by Castro to kill the President.

Still another major obstacle to normalizing relations is the Castro regime support of the Puerto Rican independence movement to the United States. Through its representatives at the United Nations, Cuba has attempted to brand the United States as a colonial oppressor in Puerto Rico.

There are strong suspicions that Castro has trained, supplied and financed the Puerto Rican terrorists who have claimed responsibility for more than 40 bombings to U.S. cities, including New York and Newark. Unfortunately, the Senate committee that investigated the CIA operations against Cuba failed to disclose anything about Castro's activities here.

Fidel Castro's recent junkets to Jamaica and his close relations to the Panama director, General Torrijos, appear to be part of a strategy in forging a Communist alliance around the perimeter of the Caribbean.

The biggest weapon at our disposal is to keep Castro economically and politically isolated. Until Cuba ceases its interference in our internal affairs, releases 20,000 political prisoners, restores human rights in Cuba and ceases its military adventurism in Africa and Latin America, recognition of Cuba would be harmful to American interests and to peace in the Caribbean.

5 hurt in 4 crashes reported on Rt. 22

Five drivers, the victims of four separate accidents, were transported to Overlook Hospital by the Mountainside Rescue Squad following incidents on Rt. 22.

A North Plainfield woman remains in satisfactory condition in the hospital with back injuries received Monday afternoon.

Police said Patricia Dean was waiting in a driveway leading to the highway when a car driven by Ella Hill of Scotch Plains hit a large puddle of water, struck a telephone pole and then hit the Dean car.

Hill was taken to Overlook and treated for facial bleeding, then released.

In another rain-related accident early Tuesday morning, Mildred Zahrodnik of Rahway was taken to Overlook for an examination after her car overturned on Rt. 22 at Central avenue.

Reports said the driver lost control of the car because of the heavy rains, struck the curb and turned over. She was released from the emergency room.

In yet another weather-prodded incident, a Rutherford man reportedly lost control of his car Monday morning on Rt. 22 westbound. Manuel Delgado told police he skid on the highway, spun around and the rear of his car struck a utility pole.

He was taken to Overlook for head injuries, treated and released.

An Ocean City man received a summons for disregard of a traffic signal Saturday afternoon after he struck a car driven by Nancy Kitchen of Rahway at the intersection of Rt. 22 and New Providence road.

Kitchen told police when she entered the intersection under a green light, Moisei Khais, who was travelling east on the highway, hit her car.

Four witnesses substantiated Kitchen's story, according to police reports.

U.S. Senate

It was one of those rare and special moments for the United States Senate. After a plane ride with President Carter, Senator Hubert Humphrey returned to the city that he captured long ago with his enthusiasm, ideals and good grace.

On the Senate floor, colleague after colleague rose to praise the man who has done so much for our country. To me, Hubert Humphrey has always been more than a very special leader—he has been my friend.

Yet, I must confess, I'm not that good at memorializing. I was pleased, of course, that the Senate voted to name a new Health, Education and Welfare building after the man who has done so much to promote all three.

But, at the same time, I know that Hubert would prefer an even kinder tribute. In all the things he has done, nothing has been as important as his battle to promote economic health for the nation and a better quality of life for the average man and woman.

Senator Humphrey has lent his name and his fighting spirit to a piece of legislation that could very well be the best monument of all.

A measure known as the Humphrey-Hawkins bill would promote balanced economic growth in our nation and help move us to a level of full employment. In New Jersey, we are still plagued by tragically high rates of unemployment. Some economists estimate that we will have to create nearly a half million new jobs in our state alone by 1980 if our economy is to operate at a full employment level.

And that will take a lot of work. But nothing could be more important. I know of nothing that so destroys the spirit of a good man, woman or family as the spectre of being without a job.

President Carter will soon announce a new version of the Humphrey-Hawkins full employment bill. I think that every American who has admired the work of the great Senator from Minnesota will realize how appropriate—and how necessary—this legislation will be.

Lung group begins 1977 seal campaign

Breathing is easy, unless you suffer from lung disease. That's the theme of the 1977 Christmas Seal Campaign, which opened yesterday in Union County.

The annual appeal—the nation's oldest health crusade now in its 71st year—solicits funds to combat and control emphysema, asthma, chronic bronchitis, tuberculosis and other breathing disorders. It's being conducted by the Central New Jersey Lung Association (formerly the TB-Respiratory Disease organization) which also serves Hudson and Monmouth counties.

Dorothea K. Holmes, association president, said that more than a million and a half sheets of seals are being delivered by postmen in the tricounty region.

"The seals," Holmes continued, "have been designed by school children across America to remind everyone that lung disease strikes all ages and each state has its own colorful seal."

"This is our only general appeal for assistance," she continued, "and we ask all families and businesses to be generous in their support of the campaign. It is only through public donations that we can continue to offer our community and patient services, medical education and training programs and public health education efforts."

Ben Vereen, a star of the television film series, "Roots," is national campaign chairman. L. T. Snead of Linden, vice-president of the association, is serving as chairman of the Union County effort.

Among the programs made possible by the Christmas Seal campaign are:

—A hospital respiratory care consultation team service, through which medical institutions have the opportunity to solve many problems in respiratory care via one comprehensive program.

—An annual pediatric respiratory care seminar for registered nurses from hospitals in the tricounty area.

—Physical conditioning classes for patients with emphysema, asthma and chronic bronchitis.

—Self-help classes for parents whose children have asthma.

—Continuing education courses in lung diseases care for nurses and respiratory therapists.

—Cooperative action with citizen groups to insure that clean air regulations are enforced.

—Distribution of a "Kick the Habit" handbook to individuals who are trying to stop smoking.

—Anti-smoking education programs aimed at children in the early primary grades.

"Nobody thinks about that next breath," Snead said, "unless they suffer from lung disease, but the Lung Association cares about every breath you take. So when your campaign letter arrives, answer it as soon and as generously as you can. You'll be helping everyone to breathe easier."

Seals and further information are available from the Central New Jersey Lung Association, 1457 Raritan rd., Clark.

CAMPAIGNERS—Getting an early start on the 1977 Christmas Seal Campaign are members of the Central New Jersey Lung Association, sponsors of the local drive to raise funds to combat and control lung disease. They are, from the left, Tom Snead of Linden; C. Edward Keller, director of health and physical education, Union Township Schools; Annette Rioridan of Westfield and George M. Kotuby of Rahway. Seals are now being delivered to area homes and businesses by the postal service.

College calls new enrollment record number

A record full-time enrollment of 2,449 students at Union College this fall was reported by Dr. Edward Udut, director of institutional research and planning. While the overall enrollment of 5,118 represents a five percent decrease over the 5,344 students enrolled in the fall of 1976, the number of full-time students is up seven percent over a year ago, he stated.

Women continue to outnumber men, Udut added, a trend that has been evident only in recent years, reflecting the increased numbers of women who are attending college as part-time students. There are 1,311 men and 1,138 women enrolled as full-time students and 1,081 men and 1,588 women enrolled as part-time students.

However, more men are enrolled as matriculating students than women. That is, he said, they have determined a specific curriculum. There are 1,431 matriculated men students and 1,413 matriculated women students.

And what they are matriculating in primarily, the research director commented, is business. For the second year, enrollments in the business curriculum exceed those in all other curricula. There are 719 students majoring in business, 475 men and 244 women. Liberal arts, according to Dr. Udut, which traditionally has the highest enrollments, has a total enrollment of 5,526 men and 315 women.

The third most popular curriculum, in terms of enrollment, is criminal justice with 290 students majoring in this discipline. 239 men and 51 women.

Despite the lack of jobs in the field, students continue to major in education, Udut noted, with 51 men and 115 women enrolled in this curriculum. Union College is a two-year institution serving the community college needs of Union County in cooperation with Union County Technical Institute under contract to the Union County Coordinating Agency for Higher Education.

Hobbyists plan exhibit at Kean

In observance of national Model Railroad Month, all facets of model railroading will be on display Saturday and Sunday at Kean College, Union. Visitors may try their hands at building model freight cars from kits. Expert model railroaders will be on hand to demonstrate many phases of the hobby and to answer questions.

This seventh annual model RR hobby show, is an activity of the Model Railroad Center of the Union County Park System. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days. Admission is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12.

Men's fashion show to aid cancer society

C stands for Carat, or weight. A carat is 100 points. Fractions of a carat are expressed in points. A quarter-carat diamond would be 25 points.
C also means Color. A fine diamond should be white, without shaded streaks.
C counts for Clarity, a quality of purity. The best stones are clear right through, free of visible spots.
C describes Cut, or shape. A diamond can be round, square, pear shaped or what have you. The sum total of all four C's is what determines the quality and value of the diamond you buy.

It's a return to his roots Writer to appear in play

When "Friends and Strangers," a new play by black playwright Terry Benjamin, comes to Union College, Cranford, on Saturday, it will be more than a theatrical event.

For Benjamin, it will be almost a return to his roots. It was as a student at Union College that the young playwright first tested his talents as a writer and it was at Union College that he had his first acting and first directing experiences.

He has not only written "Friends and Strangers," he has directed it as well and plays one of the four leading roles.

Benjamin attended Union College under an EOF (Educational Opportunity Fund) grant and, following his graduation from Rider College, returned to Union as a counselor in the EOF program. And it is for the benefit of the EOF program that "Friends and Strangers" is being presented.

Benjamin, who aspires to be a novelist, credits Union College with his development as a writer. He came to the college planning to major in visual arts. Prof. Donald Julian, chairman of the fine arts department and a dramatist himself, turned Benjamin on to the written word, he says.

"Friends and Strangers," a drama set in 1984 about a black community that is rampant with crime and violence, may not be Broadway bound, its author noted. But he is certain that no Broadway theater will ever give him the same thrill he anticipates will be his on opening night at Union College.

The play is open to the public. Tickets at $3 may be purchased at the door.

Concert planned

Jazz as a stylistic force in 20th Century music will be explored in a concert by the Velvet Brass on Tuesday at noon at Union College, Cranford.

Lawrence Ferrara of Union, instructor in the department of music and music education at New York University, will compare classical pieces by Gershwin and Bartok with current jazz and rock tunes, as the Velvet Brass performs.

The group has performed in concerts throughout the metropolitan-area and is frequently featured in the Newark Museum's afternoon concert series.

Ferrara is a concert pianist who has performed throughout the United States. He is a graduate of Montclair State College and received his master's degree in piano magna cum laude from the Manhattan School of Music. He is currently completing his dissertation for a doctorate in music at NYU.

Kalinkas to be at Y

A program of singing, dancing, story telling, comedy and musical instrument solos will be performed by the Kalinka Quartet at the Easter Union County YM-YWHA on Saturday, Dec. 3, at 8:30 p.m. The second performance in this season's Jewish Festival of Arts, this show will be followed by dancing to the live music of the quartet.

The group of Russian born performers includes a folk balladeer, a dancer who also plays violin, piano, guitar, clarinet, trumpet and balalaika, a musician who is also a dancer, and a pianist.

Admission is $3 and tickets may be purchased at the door. Seating will be cabaret-style and parties of eight or more may reserve tables. Senior citizens may purchase tickets for $2.50.

CUSTOM HOMES—This 100-foot long French provincial ranch is built by Malsan Builders at the Tins Court neighborhood in Tom's River off Bay avenue. The homes, built on larger than acre lots, are priced from $90,000.

Most Cape Roc units sold since Labor Day

Two-thirds of the 75 units of Cape Roc condominiums in Cape May have been sold since Labor Day when the sales program began, according to Sanford Miller, president of S. Miller Associates of Tuckerton. The average unit at Cape Roc is about 14 feet by 38 feet and each is completely furnished and equipped. Each unit features wall-to-wall shag carpeting, tile bath, a 12 cubic-foot refrigerator-freezer and a 30-inch electric range with hood plus bedspreads, drapes and a combination music and intercom system. All of this is included in a starting price of $24,490. The units have individually-controlled heat and air conditioning as well as a 19-inch color television set as an added incentive.

Common elements at Cape Roc include a heated swimming pool, two saunas, two sundeck-recreation areas, laundry room, elevator, a coffee shop and a separate apartment for the resident manager.

Cape Roc is located one block away from the ocean in Cape May.

Those interested in the condominium may reach Cape Roc by driving south on the Garden State Parkway to Cape May and following "To the Beach" signs. The condominiums are located near the Christian Admiral hotel.

Crestwood opens a full medical unit

A $500,000 medical center—five times larger than existing facilities and designed to meet the expanding needs of all citizens in a 50-square-mile area of the Pinelands as well as those of Crestwood Village residents has just opened in Whiting.

The new facility is designed and staffed especially for the health needs of patients of retirement age, and is the largest of any in retirement communities in the Northeast, according to Mike A. Kokes, founder and president of Crestwood Village—with 9,000 residents the largest retirement complex in the East.

Kokes noted that medical facilities in Crestwood Village have grown four times faster than the Village population during the seven years since such facilities were established.

The new center is adjacent to the facilities which have served the Village during the past four years, and provides 12 spacious offices in which a staff of more than 20 will provide service in many general areas of medical specialty, including a full X-Ray department. The Medical Center will be open six days per week.

"This facility, however, is far more than an attempt to keep ahead of the growing needs of the Crestwood Village population," Kokes said. "It is an investment by the builders of the Village in the increased health and convenience of Village residents. It is also an investment to maintain the self-sufficiency of the Village—to make as little demand as possible on the services of the surrounding community. At the same time, it will provide a concentration of medical facilities that will bring a whole new grade of service to the surrounding community of Manchester Township and its environs," Kokes said.

"A mere seven years ago," he said, "a single mobile home unit stood across the street from this spot. It housed Dr. Harland Essertier, then the sole medical staff of Crestwood Village and still a key member of a staff which will shortly number more than 20."

"The new medical center, like its predecessors, will be a self-sustaining operation," Kokes said. "Its construction and maintenance will not impose any additional cost on residents."

conducted a survey of their own medical needs, and a group of professional consultants analyzed the facilities and staff requirements for meeting those needs. Working through the Manchester Township Coordinating Committee, a body of volunteer citizens who work with the municipal government, the needs of the surrounding community were also surveyed.

When fully staffed, the 9,361-square-foot medical center will provide: internal medicine, surgery (group practice), urology (group practice), ophthalmology, dentistry, podiatry, radiology and physical Therapy.

Staff for the new facility will include members of physicians from nearby communities.

Agency relocates

The Barrymor professional building, situated directly opposite Paul Kimball Hospital, Rt. 9, Lakewood, is the new location of the Ocean County Employment and Training Administration, it was announced recently. According to Lin Righter, public information officer for the Training Administration, the Barrymor building was selected because of its central accessibility from Route 70 and surrounding areas, excellent space facilities and appealing style. "Each area leased," stated Murray Wesnak, president of Barrymor Enterprises, "has its own water heater, temperature control thermostat, rest room, built-in-air-conditioning unit and heavy insulation." Space ranging from 600 to 3,600 square feet is offered for lease to each tenant. Heat is supplied to the upper level at no cost to the tenant, and special improvements will be installed at builders cost. Also provided are lighting and maintenance of common areas, exterior building and grounds maintenance.

Are you tired of carrying a house that's now too big?

If your kids are grown and you're tired of paying the rising costs on a big, half-empty home, we have a very pleasant alternative for you.

You can live in a home that's just right for your needs now. At Rossmoor: Or at Clearbrook: Two of the most prestigious adult communities. With some of the best home values around.

Both offer the most pleasurable recreation facilities you're ever likely to find. Each one has a magnificent clubhouse with fully-equipped hobby rooms. Each has an olympic-size swimming pool, tennis and shuffleboard. Each has a private golf course: 18 holes at Rossmoor; nine holes at Clearbrook.

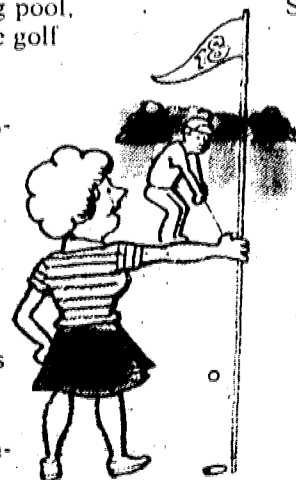

Because each is a condominium community, you have greater peace of mind and more leisure time to enjoy yourself. A trained staff maintains the grounds and your home's exterior; a gateman and a security patrol protect your privacy 24 hours a day. And both communities offer all the tax benefits and the equity buildup of home ownership. Without the headaches and the horrendous cost.

If you choose Rossmoor—you'll be living in a picturesque community that resembles an exclusive New England village. You may choose from a variety of floor plans, some with two bedrooms, others with two bedrooms and den, most with two baths. All feature the latest G.E. appliances and central-air conditioning. Some have oversized garages. Prices range from $29,500 to $64,900.

If you choose Clearbrook—you'll be living in a community of single-level homes, many with aluminum siding and fieldstone or brick facades. Some have one bedroom, others have two bedrooms or two bedrooms and study. Most have two baths. All feature central air conditioning, wall-to-wall carpeting and extra-large garages. Prices range from $35,990 to $59,990.

The nicest part is that you can see both communities in one visit. They're both at Exit 8A of the New Jersey Turnpike, just 45 miles from Manhattan. So come on over. Any day between 9 and 6. And see how easy it is to get that big house off your back.

Local communities attract new families

An influx of professional persons and company executives, many of them couples with young children, is perpetuating the recognized high-level character of Maplewood and South Orange, says Robert M. Theise, president of Sloan Realty in South Orange.

"Our proximity to New York and Newark, coupled with fine old homes available on suburbia-like, tree-lined streets, has brought what we could call new generation emigration of attorneys, educators, insurance and Wall Street executives to Maplewood and South Orange during the past couple of years," Theise says.

"Most of them are younger people with small children. It's a pleasure to us at Sloan to see them playing in the yards and going to school."

The recent NBC Urban Journal crew decision to feature picturesque, historic Maplewood is expected to add even further to the influx of upper-middle-class families, Theise predicts.

"We're getting more and more calls from people interested in settling here," Theise says. "Fortunately, there are still homes available from $45,000 up—homes that represent terrific value for money."

Many of the homes are on the market, Theise points out, because the owners' children have grown and they no longer require so many rooms. "It becomes more and more difficult for the woman of the house to clean, or the man to do all the chores. They prefer a smaller home in an adult community, where they have the space they need and the chores are done for them," he said.

"For a time, at least, we have homes available in almost every price range," he says. "Mostly, they're the homes of couples who settled here in two earlier migrations, the first during the late 1920's and the second after World War II. Anyone who tried to buy a home in Maplewood or South Orange in the 1950's will remember how difficult it was to find one. Well, those early settlers have grown children now and they're moving on."

Both South Orange and Maplewood are ideally located, with rapid mass transit to Newark and New York, and close to the major highways leading to the Jersey Shore. Shopping and good schools are nearby.

"People have come to realize that these homes, built during a period when land, materials and labor were far less expensive than today, represent a greater value for money than new homes," Theise says.

Moving firm at new site

Jay Meyers, president of New Jersey International Movers, Inc., announced the signing of a lease for 20,000 square feet in the Northeast Corridor Industrial Park, Jackson Township. The new address for the moving company is 12 Progress Place. The old location was Sweetmans Lane, Freehold.

According to Meyers, NCIP was chosen over other area parks because of its location on Interstate 195, which will soon connect with Route 9 to the east and the artery's convenience to the N.J. Turnpike to the west.

"The growing Ocean-Monmouth County area affords a good base with executive and management personnel moves as well as increased commercial business over recent years," Meyers said.

Kaya Brown, general manager, said they expect to employ 30 people. Plans include expansion into the company's own facility within Northeast Corridor Industrial Park within a few years.

Browne added, "the esthetics of NCIP, with its campus like setting, lends a change of image of moving companies in from the outmoded concept that all movers are located in older less attractive warehouses."

"We feel," he continued, "that it will be comforting to customers to know their goods are safe in a well constructed, heated, sprinkled building with the added incentive of ow insurance rates."

New Jersey International Movers, Inc., specializes in export packing, storage of household goods, business records.

1,000 in group to be sworn as U.S. citizens

Chief U.S. District Court Judge Lawrence A. Whipple will swear in nearly 1,000 new American citizens from 51 foreign countries at a special mass naturalization ceremony at 2 p.m. next Wednesday at Symphony Hall in Newark.

The unique ceremony sponsored by the New Jersey Bar Association will help eliminate a citizen application backlog. Deputy U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service Commissioner Mario T. Noto will address the new citizens. Noto, a graduate of Fordham Law School and a member of the New York and District of Columbia Bars, has a background of 26 years of public service with the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Office.

Normally, about 80 to 100 new citizens are sworn in several times each month by the federal courts. Lately, however, the U.S. Naturalization Service has been processing more applicants than the courts can hold in a single hearing. The mass naturalization ceremony will speed up this process.

Naturalization amounts to a final hearing for prospective citizens whose citizenship applications have been fully processed.

Contributions to CARE linked to holiday cards

"This coming holiday season you can help the poorest of the poor families around the world by sending special greetings to relatives, friends and business associates through CARE's seasonal gift card plan," Frank L. Goffio, executive director of the international aid and development agency, said this week.

"Attractive CARE announcement holiday greeting cards inform each person on your list that you have given to CARE in his or her honor to help others suffering from hunger, poverty, disease, Goffio explained. "In more than 30 developing countries in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East, your gift to CARE helps destitute families not just to survive but also to work their way out of poverty.

"The aid you help provide includes food for hungry children and materials, equipment and training for villagers to build schools, water systems, health and nutrition centers—plus vital agricultural projects to grow more food. And via CARE-MEDICO, you help send physicians and nurses to teach modern medical methods that will save many thousands of lives year after year."

Send the names and addresses on your gift list, with a contribution for each card, to CARE, Dept. HOL, Box 570, New York, N.Y. 10016, or to any regional CARE office. CARE will send the cards to you or, if you want them mailed directly to the person being honored, indicate how the cards should be signed. Allow time for mailing.

Goffio cited some examples of how much good contributions can do. $5 serves up to 30 children a daily bowl of porridge for a month. $15 builds space for two more children in a rural school. $25 provides a group of farmers training to grow more food, or gives thousands of children nutritious food.

Crafts show is scheduled

The 12th annual crafts exhibit and sale sponsored by the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship will be held Nov. 27 through Dec. 3 at 812 Normandy Heights rd., Morristown.

The exhibit, featuring the works of more than 100 persons, will include craftmaking demonstrations. A wine and cheese opening reception will be on Nov. 30 from 7 to 10 p.m. Further information may be obtained by calling 335-9212.

Museum has new exhibits

The Montclair Art Museum has been reading a series of new exhibitions for showing in most of its galleries beginning this month. "Romantic Visions: 19th Century Landscape Painting" opened last Sunday. Opening this coming Sunday is the museum's annual exhibition, "The Christmas Story in Art."

The following week two exhibitions will open. One called "Every Object Rightly Seen" is a selection of still-life paintings; the other, "Signs and Symbols," is a display of many forms of visual communication—Roman, Arabic and Oriental writing systems, pictographs, ideographs, directional signs, sign language and other symbols.

RECREATION LAND
Since 1971, 706 parks with 85,544 acres of federal land worth $285 million have been given for recreational use to every state, the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands, according to the U.S. General Services Administration.

Cornwallis message deciphered

1780 code is broken by Kean student

An article by Peter P. Fagone of West Orange, a graduate student at Kean College in Union, in the October issue of "Cryptologia Magazine" describes how he deciphered a message sent by General Cornwallis Oct. 7, 1780.

Two years ago, Fagone took a course at Kean College in cryptanalysis under Dr. Cipher Deavours. A member of the New York Cipher Society, Fagone began working on a microfilmed copy of messages sent by the British Army which were intercepted by American forces during the Revolutionary War.

"The message sent by General Cornwallis was relatively easy to solve and I was surprised that it had never been done before," said Fagone. "It was sent from Charlottetown, N.C., and is addressed to a major whose name has faded beyond recognition. It describes the reasons why Cornwallis was going to move the 63rd Regiment into North Carolina and what the major should do about acquiring horses and the disposition of his sick and wounded men. It also states that Cornwallis was surprised at the number of potential recruits he could get from among the Loyalists."

Fagone, who is majoring in Behavioral Science at Kean College, plans to visit the Library of the British Museum in London and the Bodleian Library at Oxford, England, to hunt up medieval ciphers, so far undeciphered. If he gets sufficient material to warrant it, he, Dr. Deavours and the chairman of the math department at Kean, Dr. Stanley Lipson, plan to rewrite modern computer programs to aid them in the solution of medieval and later cryptographic messages.

Unemployment falls by 1,897, says state body

There were 169,568 persons in active claims status under New Jersey's various unemployment programs during the week ending Oct. 22, a drop of 1,897 from the comparable week in September, according to Commissioner John J. Horn of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry. Persons in active claims status are either currently collecting benefits or have filed for benefits and are awaiting final administrative review.

The total claims load has dropped by 62,846 or 27 percent over the past year and by 179,021 since July 1975 when it was at a recession high of 348,589.

Decreases in the Extended Benefits Program and in the Special Unemployment Assistance Program between mid-September and mid-October more than offset increases in the remaining New Jersey unemployment insurance programs.

There were 104,517 claimants in October in the three regular unemployment insurance programs (State Unemployment Insurance Program, Federal Employees' Program, and Unemployment Insurance for Veterans). Although this was an increase of 1,774 from September, it was a decrease of 21,337 from October 1976. The increase between September and October was partly attributable to layoffs in the apparel, miscellaneous manufacturing and textile industries.

In the two extended unemployment programs, the overall change showed a decrease of 725 since September. The extended benefits program claims load declined by 998 to a total of 31,218, while the Federal Supplemental Benefits Program claims load increased by 273 to a total of 22,628. Over the past year, the number of claims filed under the Federal Supplemental Benefits Program has declined to less than half of its 1976 level primarily because of federal legislation which shortened the period for which claimants may collect benefits.

In the Special Unemployment Assistance Program the number of persons claiming benefits fell by 2,946 to 11,205 in October. This decrease was primarily due to the return to work of those school employees who were without a contract or a reasonable assurance of employment for the current school term and thus were eligible for unemployment benefits.

Demonstration of printmaking

Krishna Reddy, artist and printmaker, will give a lecture and demonstration at Kean College on a new process of printmaking Friday, Nov. 18, at 10 a.m. in Room 209 of Vaughn Eames Hall on the Union campus.

The first program of an Arts Dialogue, the three to four-hour lecture will be entitled "Simultaneous Color Processes and Pointalist Structurizations."

Director of graphics and printmaking at New York University, Reddy was born and raised in India. He studied in London, Paris and Milan and was associate director of the International Center for Graphics in Paris. Associated American Artists of New York gave him a one-man exhibition in 1974, and he has exhibited in India, Europe and the United States.

NJARC to hold 2-day conclave

The second annual convention of the New Jersey Association for Retarded Citizens will be held in Atlantic City on Nov. 18 and 19, according to the NJARC president, Walter L. Myers Jr.

The convention theme, "Together We Can Do More," will be reflected in presentations dealing with all aspects of services and issues (from prevention to life-time care) related to mentally retarded citizens.

Association officials said that 1,000 professionals, parents and volunteers concerned with the well-being, development and rights of the retarded will attend.

Registration and program information is available from the NJARC State Office, 99 Bayard St., New Brunswick 08901, or from any of the association's 20 local units serving every county of the state.

Program to help women to resume work, school

A one-day conference for the woman who is ready to return to the world of work or school is being sponsored by EVE, the women's center at Kean College on Saturday, Dec. 3, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Downs Hall on the Union campus.

A panel will focus on the questions and problems women face when going back to work or school.

Workshops will include such topics as "Your Job Campaign," "Going Back, but Scared," "Assertive Techniques," "How to Write a Resume," "Starting Your Own Business," and "Exploring Your Interests and Abilities."

Workshop leaders are Dr. Marcella Haslam, director of counseling and psychological services at Kean College; Barbara Maher, EVE counselor; Mary Ann Bornmann, EVE counselor; Estelle Weiner, EVE counselor; Michael Moylan, management assistance officer, Small Business Administration; Dr. Eleanor Levitt, adjunct instructor in psychology at Kean College; Diana Trowbridge, coordinator of continuing education at Kean College and Mae Hecht, director of EVE.

In addition to the panel discussion, participants will be able to attend one workshop in the morning, and one in the afternoon. The $10 registration fee

Opening concert set by symphonic group

The opening concert of the season by the Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Edward Napiwocki of Union, will be held on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 3 p.m. at the North Junior High School, 60 Huck rd., Bloomfield.

Tania Fleischer, pianist from South Orange, will be the guest soloist.

includes a box lunch. Registration deadline is Nov. 22. The EVE office (527-2210) will provide further information.

DEP asks lists of '78 projects

The Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) is requesting county and municipal governments to submit detailed lists of intended Green Acres projects for 1978 to be considered in preparing a priority list for more effective distribution of Green Acres funds.

Deputy Commissioner Betty Wilson said DEP will review responses from local governments and use them as guides in developing a "Program of Action" for meeting the open space and recreation needs of the state. "This is the first attempt to solicit advance notice as to the local needs involving acquisition or development of open space lands," she said.

Green Acres rules adopted in July of this year outlined the local response method for charting interest in Green Acres matching grant programs. Wilson said the 1978 Program of Action will be in operation by April and responses from local governments must be submitted by March 31.

Wilson noted that DEP will continue to process grant applications already on hand but future applications will be reviewed according to the priority list.

Paying for health

Health professionals and members of the public have been invited to the silver convention of the

New Jersey League for Nursing, to hear a two-day program entitled, "Change to Health—Do You Really Want It?"

The program which will include small group discussions and opportunities for questions will be held at the Jetport-Holiday Inn, Elizabeth, Nov. 17 and 18 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Consumers have been invited especially Thursday, Nov. 17, 1977 from 8:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. During these hours, there will be no charge to the consumer.

"Our citizens, generally, resist healthy habits and do not think about the 'health' care system until they are sick," stated Ruth Belanus, president. She added, "Citizens are then angered by the cost of what service they do receive."

Program chairman Mary Jane Wharton defined this as a public awareness program to bring to the foreground that "only through personal involvement towards health orientation in our educational, social, judicial, religious and health-care systems can we ever reduce the great cost of sickness care."

Show set at Morris

The Morris Stage, 100 South St., Morristown will play host to a Morris area cancer benefit in conjunction with the Morristown Cancer Detection Program and the Board of Health Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Jazz, poetry, modern dance, a fashion show and a Broadway act will be featured.

Banjo picker Earl Scruggs and his Revue, consisting of sons, Gary, Randy and Steve, will bring their country and rock music to the Morris Stage Friday, Nov. 18, at 8 p.m.

The "Fantasticks" will follow Saturday Nov. 19, at 8 p.m., with a 2 p.m. matinee on Sunday, Nov. 20. Additional information may be obtained by calling 540-9271.

BROADWAY BACKERS — Victor Lurie, center, producer of the Broadway play, "Dracula," stands with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Augenstein, owners of Cafe Mozart, 1998 Morris Ave., Union. The Augensteins are financial backers of the production.

Meadowbrook books 'Showboat' musical

"Showboat," the Oscar Hammerstein-Jerome Kern stage musical, will open Wednesday evening at the Meadowbrook Dinner Theater, Cedar Grove. It will run through Dec. 17.

Meadowbrook producer Peter Mirabella has announced that there is a cast of 26 and a complete orchestra at the Meadowbrook. He has had a three-story high showboat with paddle wheels created for the show.

"Showboat," which was adapted from Edna

Ferber's novel, opened in 1927, and played 575 performances. It features such songs as "Ol' Man River," "Make Believe," "Can't Help Lovin' That Man," "Why Do I Love You?" and "Bill," in addition to the title song. The Meadowbrook Dinner Theater will present "An Evening With Al Jolson," with Clive Baldwin, Dec. 20, 21, and 22.

'Orca' seen at Elmora

"Orca," Dino De Laurentiis' presentation of the epic sea adventure, is being shown at the Elmora Theater, Elizabeth, on a double bill with "Diamonds." The Orcinus Orca, the killer whale, has an enormous mouth with 48 teeth capable of smashing the keel of a whaling boat.

"OH, GOD!" Teri Garr and John Denver offer support to comedy about a happy suburban family whose peaceful existence is threatened when God Himself (George Burns) starts puffing ideas in the husband's head. Picture is being held over for another week at New Plaza, Linden, and Maplewood Theater, Maplewood.

New film in Union

"Black and White in Color," which opened yesterday at the Lost Picture Show, Union, takes place during the war period, 1914-1918. It pictures a tiny society of white French going to war with a tiny white Germany society, both living in West Africa. (Totally isolated, it is much later that they learn of a World War in Europe.)

"The movie portrays what can cause a war," says producer Arthur Cohen. "Cowardice, fear, greed, unscrupulousness, ignorance. Everything here takes place as if we were looking at the First World War through a disfigured glass... we see the chaos of mobilization of the troops, the war profiteers, the women who lead the SCENE FROM "The Spy Who Loved Me" shows Roger Moore as James Bond and Barbara Bach as a Russian agent. Picture can be seen at Old Rahway Theater, Rahway, Five Points Cinema, Union, and Sanford Theater, Irvington.

Soldiers astray... the patriots, and the strategists, the horror of the trenches, the relief of the truce, the surprise of peace treaties as well as the bitterness of disappointments."

Kean reading clinic: 4 years of growth

Dr. Lillian Putman arrived at Kean College 14 years ago to develop a reading clinic. She found a one-room treatment consisting of three bookshelves and a sign on the door that said "RADIATION keep out."

Today, the Harvard graduate directs a reading clinic consisting of more than 6,000 volumes, video aides, audio-tape recorders, language masters and the Craig Reader.

Dr. Putman, who initiated and developed the annual Kean College Reading Conference, for which she received the college's distinguished service award, has also chaired the committee for upgrading the master's program degree requirements in New Jersey and has been guest speaker at the International Reading Conference for 10 years.

The Reading Clinic that Dr. Putman directs is designed to diagnose and remediate reading difficulties in children. The diagnostic testing and the remedial instruction are administered by certified teachers who are enrolled in the master's degree program in reading specialization at Kean College.

According to Dr. Putman, "Students have made statistical gains as well as positive changes in attitude and interest. Marked successes have been seen in children's performances in the elementary and secondary schools they were attending." She added that another indication of the program's success improvement in students in their schools and have enrolled themselves in the master's degree program at Kean.

During her career as an academic and professional reading specialist, Dr. Putman maintains that her greatest pleasure and satisfaction comes when "I see former students who have graduated from the master's program at Kean doing such a good job out in the field."

PHILIP W. ANDERSON, consulting director in the Physical Research Division at Bell Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, and a professor at Princeton University, has been named one of the three joint recipients of the 1977 Nobel Prize in Physics. The Academy cited Anderson for his role in developing an improved understanding of localized magnetic moments, atomic-sized magnets that remain fixed at a particular site in a metal. He also was cited for his explanation of how electrons can be localized in disordered materials such as glass.

A celebration of ceramic art Rutgers honors 75 years of research

A series of commemorative events at Rutgers University in New Brunswick Saturday will mark the 75th anniversary of the first member of the state university family to acquire a monetary "New Jersey connection."

The department of ceramics will celebrate its diamond jubilee with a 9 a.m. open-house for alumni, industry representatives and the public along with other events noting its modest beginnings in 1902.

In that year the state legislature established a course in "practical and scientific instruction in the art of clay working and ceramics" and appropriated the sum of $12,000 for organization, equipment and maintenance and a yearly $2,500 for salaries, supplies and other expenses.

The idea for the course was the brainchild of William S. Meyers, an assistant professor of chemistry, who conceived of a course resembling what was then being offered by Ohio State University.

In what can be described as a modern-day public relations campaign—using circular letters, pamphlets and personal influence of friends in the ceramics industry—Meyers, with the approval of the college's board of trustees, convinced the Legislature to pass a ceramics education act.

Aside from a partial payment under a scholarship act in 1891, the act represented the first actual expenditure of funds by the state in behalf of the college which was to become the State University of New Jersey.

In 1907, the Legislature appropriated an additional yearly $2,500, and the young department was on its way.

By contrast, the state today provides about $300,000 to the department budget. In addition the ceramics unit attracts and spends a yearly average of $228,185 in private and governmental research funds.

STILL GROWING—Dr. Malcolm G. McLaren, left, chairman of the department of ceramics at the Rutgers College of Engineering, oversees the operation of an X-ray fluorescence spectrometer with graduate student Charles Sikorski of West Paterson. The newly-acquired machine, which performs qualitative and quantitative elemental analyses, will be among the numerous facilities on display at the department's 75th anniversary open house Saturday.

Another attraction he said, is the international reputation the department has developed over the past several years with its continuing involvement in controlling the release of toxic heavy metals from ceramic foodware. Last June the department was designated as the secretariat of an International Standards Organization (ISO) subcommittee dealing with the limits of cadmium and lead release.

Brochure aids pet protection

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service has issued a new brochure: "Protects Your Dog and Cat." In addition to five suggestions on how to do if a dog or cat is stolen or the booklet describes regulations on shipping pets and outlines responsibilities of transportation companies in maintaining humane care of dogs and cats in transit.

Also covered in the booklet are regulations of the act designed to encourage "petmapping" and to make practice unprofitable. Other provisions describe how the act provides for USDA inspection of the facilities of dog and cat breeders and its application in cases involving the motion of dog fights. Those convicted of engaging in or promoting dog fights are subject to large fines and six prison sentences.

Free copies of the brochure are available from Information Division, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, 26 Federal Plaza, Room 1653, New York, N.Y. 10007.

Events to mark diamond jubilee

The department of ceramics at the Rutgers College of Engineering, New Brunswick, will mark its 75th anniversary in a daylong series of events Saturday.

The celebration will include public tours of department facilities at Busch Campus from 9:30 a.m. to noon, lunch in the engineering building lobby at 1 p.m., a 6 p.m. cocktail reception and a 7:30 p.m. dinner-dance at Neilson Dining Hall on the Douglass College campus.

The diamond jubilee is open to Rutgers alumni, ceramics industry representatives and the public.

Time is being allotted in the program so that visitors can attend the Rutgers-Iulane football game if they wish, said department chairman Malcolm G. McLaren.

The department tours are free. Tickets for lunch, the football game, reception and dinner-dance may be obtained by calling Rose Miller, at 932-2220.

Stamps to be shown

The Jersey Stamp Dealers Association Inc. will hold its first two-day Bourse at the Ramada Inn, West Passaic st. (at Garden State Parkway Exit 160) in Rochelle Park on Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is free.

Program gets OK

The master of arts in liberal studies program at Kean College in Union has been awarded full membership in the Association of Graduate Liberal Studies Program.

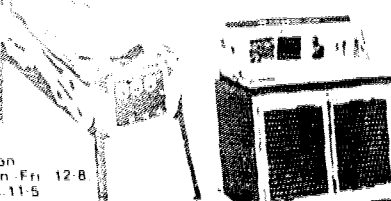

The M.A. program, in its third semester of operation as a pilot project is being conducted with a $50,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Dr. Eileen Kennedy, graduate director of the program, said it "has been attracting enthusiastic students wishing to extend their intellectual vistas, and our full membership in the A.B.L.S.D. gives the program a fine stamp of approval."

Second tour of churches will be held in Newark

The Newark Preservation and Landmarks Committee will sponsor its second annual Newark holiday church tour, featuring an organ recital, choir presentation and Italian pastries. The tour will be held on Saturday, Dec. 31, beginning at 12:30 p.m. It was announced by Don Dust, chairman of the group.

Five of the city's churches, featuring contrasting architectural styles, including 18th, 19th and 20th century houses of worship in Newark, the nation's third oldest major city, will be on display. The churches are: Old First Presbyterian Church, built in 1787-91 of local brownstone in the Georgian-Colonial style, is often referred to as "The Church that founded Newark"; Bethany Baptist Church, combines black African heritage and Christian tradition; St. Lucy's Roman Catholic Church, built in 1925 of cream-colored brick and limestone, is Italian Classical Renaissance in style—Italian pastries and coffee will be served at this stop; First Baptist Steddie Memorial Church was constructed in 1888-90 and is of pink granite in the Byzantine-Richardsonian Romanesque style; Sacred Heart Cathedral, started in the late 1890s and completed in 1954—is of granite in the French Gothic style. The Cathedral, New Jersey's most massive church structure, is the seat of the Archdiocese of Newark, fifth largest in the United States. This stop will feature an organ recital and wine.

The meeting place for the tour will be the Newark Museum, 43-49 Washington St. at 12:15 p.m. The bus, provided by the Newark Preservation and Landmarks Committee, will leave promptly at 12:30 p.m. from the museum and will return at approximately 5:30 p.m. Architectural and historical interpretation of the churches will also be provided by the committee.

The price for the Newark holiday church tour is $12.50 for NPLC members and $15 for nonmembers. Interested individuals and groups can make reservations by calling the Newark Preservation and Landmarks Committee, 35 James St., 622-4910. Checks are payable to the Landmarks Committee.

The meeting place for the tour will be the Newark Museum, 43-49 Washington St. at 12:15 p.m. The bus, provided by the Newark Preservation and Landmarks Committee, will leave promptly at 12:30 p.m. from the museum and will return at approximately 5:30 p.m. Architectural and historical interpretation of the churches will also be provided by the committee.

How much I'll give you just five seconds to take it back? "What if I don't take it back that quick?" said his companion. "Well, how much time do you need?"

Smokers get one day for kicking the habit

"The Great American Smokeout—a Day to Quit Smoking" will be conducted by the American Cancer Society's New Jersey Division on next Thursday, Nov. 17, in conjunction with ACS divisions all across the country.

Leading the campaign to quit for a day is Sammy Davis Jr., a two-pack-a-day man for whom the cigarette has become a virtual trademark of his performances. As of this writing, Sammy's challenge to Dean Martin to join him in the "smokeout" has not been accepted.

The smokeout in New Jersey is being headed by S. John Quattrone of Trenton, who also was a heavy smoker until he suffered a heart attack. "That convinced me," said Quattrone "that smoking wasn't worth dying for."

Those pledging to join the smokeout will receive IQ buttons signifying their intention of kicking the habit. The younger at heart may also apply for "Kiss Me—I Don't Smoke" buttons at their local American Cancer Society county offices. Wallet-sized pledge cards will be available for those who want to carry a reminder of their intention to quit for good.

For those who don't feel capable of going it alone, stop-smoking clinics are being provided by the American Cancer Society. Literature about the relationship between cigarette smoking and lung cancer, as well as tips on how to quit, may be obtained from local ACS offices.

Grand master will visit lodge

Grand Master Harold E. Casper of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will visit Mt. Sinai Lodge 272 at the Masonic Temple, 1444 N. Broad St., Hillside, on Monday at 8 p.m.

Casper will be welcomed to the lodge by the noble grand, Sam Herring of Irvington, and the district deputy grand master, Norman Shab of Union.

The Aldens, a husband will demonstrate precession, clairvoyance and thought projections. Refreshments for the program will be served by the good and welfare committee under the direction of the chairman, Max Horwitz of Springfield.

Chorus plans open house

The Hickory Tree Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc. will have an open house Monday at 8 p.m. in St. Patrick's Church, Chatham street and Washington, avenue, Chatham.

Departing from its regular Monday rehearsal schedule, the chorus and chapter quartets will present a program of musical entertainment in fourpart harmony. Hickory Tree Chapter, a 70-vocie women's chorus, placed second in regional competition last April and is now preparing to compete again next spring.

INCENTIVES—These buttons will be available to those smokers who participate in the American Cancer Society's local "Great American Smokeout" on Nov. 17. The day to quit smoking is a nationwide event intended to get smokers to kick the habit eventually. They will receive the buttons in exchange for a pledge to stop smoking.

Lecture slated on art in Israel

Dr. Abraham A. Davidson, professor of art history at Temple University's Tyler School of Art, will lecture on aspects of art in Israel at Kean College on Nov. 10 at 9:30 a.m. in Room J-100 on the Union Campus. The lecture is free and open to the public.

His 1975 book, The Story of American Painting was published by Abrams and circulated by the Literary Guild. His articles and reviews have appeared in the Art Bulletin, Art Journal, Art in America, Art News and American Quarterly.

Dr. Davidson received his A.B. cum laude from Harvard University in Architectural Sciences, and his Ph.D. in Art History from Columbia University in 1965.

PS earnings rise

Public Service Electric and Gas Co. has announced that earnings for the first nine months ended Sept. 30 were $133.1 million equal to $2.25 a share, compared with $113.5 million, or $1.95 a share, for the year-ago period. Revenues for the nine months rose to $1.50 billion from $1.37 billion in the like 1976 period.

Holland Tunnel 50 years old this Saturday

The Holland Tunnel this Saturday will complete 50 years of service to the citizens of the Metropolitan Area. The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, which operates the tunnel, will observe the 50th birthday by unveiling a plaque below the bust of Clifford Holland at the New York entrance to the Hudson River crossing. Holland was the first chief engineer for the 1 1/2-mile long facility.

The Holland Tunnel, the first Hudson River vehicle tunnel and the first to require forced ventilation, was opened to traffic at 12:01 a.m. on Sunday, Nov. 13, 1927. It connects Canal street in Manhattan with 12th and 14th streets in Jersey City, and annually carries some 21 million vehicles between the two states.

At the time of its opening, the Holland Tunnel was the longest underwater tunnel in the world: its north tube is 8,558 feet long, portal to portal; the south tube, 8,371 feet long.

Actual construction of the tunnel began in 1920. Holland, the engineer who surmounted many hitherto unsolved engineering problems to meet the challenge of vehicular tunnel construction, did not live to see the completion of the tunnel. He died in 1924 at the age of 41, a victim of overwork and exhaustion in his zeal to accomplish this pioneering engineering feat.

In the development of a method to handle large volumes of vehicular traffic in a tunnel of such great length, the solution of the ventilation problem was of fundamental importance. Four ventilation buildings, two on each side of the Hudson River, house immense fans which can provide a change of air every 90 seconds.

The principles employed in the design and construction of the Holland Tunnel still form the basis for construction of underwater vehicular tunnels, not only between New York and New Jersey, but throughout the world.

Delbarton society slates Bach recital

The St. Mary's Abbey-Delbarton Concert Series will present a recital by the Delbarton Chamber Music Society on Sunday, Nov. 20.

The group will present works of Schubert and Phillip Emanuel Bach. The program will take place at 3 p.m. in Old Main on the Delbarton Campus.

Unemployment down in region

Unemployment in September in Union, Essex, Morris and Somerset counties dropped to 8.2 percent from the 10.1 percent recorded in September 1976, according to the State Department of Labor and industry.

The seasonally adjusted unemployment figures for the various labor market areas ranged from a high of 12 percent in Hudson County to a low of 6.5 percent in Mercer.

On Oct. 24, the department announced that the statewide unemployment figure was 8.5 percent, down one-tenth of a percent from the August.

N.J. credit unit hears Rinaldo

Congressman Matthew Rinaldo of Union (R-12) will speak before The New Jersey Association of Credit Executives tomorrow night at the Manor in West Orange.

Past presidents of the 70-year-old organization will be honored. The Association serves its 400 members by promoting efficient and effective credit management through credit education, support of legislation, and improving the interchange of credit information.

Colleges offer joint course in therapy studies

Kean College in Union and the College of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey in the School of Allied Health Professions are offering a joint program in physical therapy.

Kean College is the only college in the state to offer a baccalaureate program in physical therapy.

The program, directed by Professor Katherine Le Guin of Montclair, makes use of resources of Kean College, the College of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey and health care agencies and institutions.

Students in the program graduate with a bachelor of science degree in physical therapy from Kean and a certificate from the College of Medicine and Dentistry. They are qualified for clinical positions in hospitals, nursing homes and community health agencies. With further study, they may assume administrative and educational positions.

An integrated approach is used in the treatment of the muscular, skeletal and nervous systems. Exercise, heat, electricity, water, ultrasound and other means are used in therapy.

WHEN IT COMES TO COMPLETENESS, WE WROTE THE BOOK

In reality, we have a special way of making diamonds grow. And it's possible we're the only jeweler who has the secret. It's called the Littman lifetime trade-in allowance guarantee, and it works like this. If you buy a half-carat diamond at Littman, whenever you're ready, we'll apply every penny you paid toward the purchase of a larger diamond. When that becomes too small, we'll again apply every penny to an even larger diamond. And we'll keep doing it as often as you like until your diamond has "grown" as large as you like.

At Littman, not only can your diamond grow, but every time you purchase a Littman diamond of any size, you'll receive our written certified appraisal so you'll know exactly what you're buying. With guild gemologists on our staff, we're one of the few jewelers who can appraise each and every diamond ourselves. We can also guarantee that every diamond we offer has been personally inspected by a member of the Littman family before being included in our collection.

If you'd like to own a diamond that grows, come to Littman. We've been making them grow for over 92 years.

Introducing the diamond that grows

Superb Hoffritz Knives
from Solingen, Germany

Hoffritz, America's premier cutlery merchant for more than 44 years is proud to offer these fine knives in four distinctive sets. The stainless blades have a high carbon content. Result: sharper knives with a keener, longer-lasting cutting edge. The rosewood handles are secured to full tangs with three rivets. Full tang means the blade continues the length of the handle for strength, solidity and balance. Now at a 33 1/3% savings, you can choose the set that suits your needs and buy several as Christmas gifts.

dial 'n pay is here.

Pay bills or transfer between accounts by phone—
any phone, any where

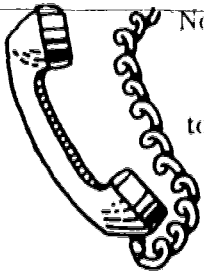

Pay your bills by phone

It's fast, it's convenient, and it's easy. Dial 'N Pay is a new Howard service that lets you pay your regular bills with a simple phone call. Bills such as department stores, utilities, credit cards, your mortgage or personal loan, even payments to other bank accounts. No checks to write. No stamps to buy and lick. No envelopes to scrounge. Just call Dial 'N Pay, tell us who you want to pay and how much. We take it from there.

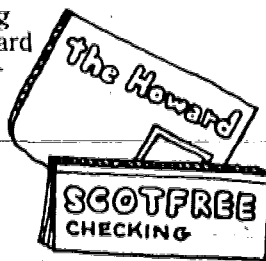

Transfer money between your accounts by phone

No frenzied dash to the bank to transfer money from your savings account into your checking account, or to pay your savings account from your checking account. Just call Dial 'N Pay and tell us. It's done the same day.

Here's what you need to use Dial 'N Pay

A Scotfree checking account and a Howard Regular 5 1/4% pass-book savings account. If you already have these Howard accounts, you may designate them as your Dial 'N Pay accounts. Prefer a separate Dial 'N Pay savings account? It's easy to open one.

We'll also ask you to sign an authorization form listing who you will want to pay through Dial 'N Pay. For your protection, these will be the only accounts you can pay through Dial 'N Pay. The list may be added to at any time. You may even pre-authorize regular, set-amount payments and we'll do it automatically.

It costs less than a postage stamp!

For each Dial 'N Pay transaction you make — to pay a bill or transfer money — there's a 10¢ service charge. Less than the cost of a postage stamp — to say nothing of the time and aggravation you save!

No minimum balance

For your Scotfree checking or for your Dial 'N Pay savings account. And there's no minimum or maximum amount which you may pay or transfer, either!

It's completely safe and in your control

Only you know who you owe, how much, and when it's due. Nobody gets paid unless you call and tell us. And, since your account number and personal number are as unique to your account as your signature, only you can tell us who to pay.

Any phone, any where, most any time

Call from home. From work. From a phone booth on the highway. And if you're calling from anywhere in New Jersey, the call is toll-free! Hours are 8 am to 8 pm, Mon-Fri., and 9 am to 2 pm Saturdays. You can even tell us to send a payment or make a transfer as many as 30 days after you call.

How to get the convenience of Dial 'N Pay

Stop by any Howard office, or send us the coupon, or call 201-456-5900 and we'll send you full details and a sign-up kit. No obligation, of course!

If your expenses go up when the temperature goes down...

will your checking account keep P.A.C.E.?

You can use your checking account to meet expenses—if it's a SUMMIT P.A.C.E. Account! P.A.C.E., you see, means Permanently Available Credit Extension—and that's exactly what you get if you qualify. With a P.A.C.E. standby cash reserve, you'll have money when you need it!

Every P.A.C.E. Account comes with a cash reserve ranging from $400 to $5500. With P.A.C.E. Checking, you're free to overdraw your account (up to your pre-approved credit limit) whenever you need extra cash; the money will then be transferred to your account in multiples of $100. It's as easy as writing your own loan!

Repayment is easy, too. You can choose to repay in the manner that suits you best—either in full, or on an automatically determined monthly schedule. And finance charges correspond to an annual rate of 12%. So, why not open a P.A.C.E. Account today? Remember: with P.A.C.E. Checking, you'll have money when you need it!
