Board facing need to decide on Beechwood

Closing Beechwood School is one of several school system changes the Mountainside Board of Education will consider in the face of declining student enrollment and future demographic shifts.

The school board Tuesday night announced it will hold a series of public meetings on such topics as Beechwood, educational policy changes, consolidation, transportation and maintenance problems in light of a recent survey which puts the Mountainside school population at 514 by 1982. The borough currently has 702 children enrolled in grades kindergarten through eighth grade.

Admitting that solving the population problem would be difficult, board president Scott Schmedel said the board will "get help from anybody it can think of" and will enlist the aid of the county superintendent, the state School Boards Association, demographic reports and the public.

Vice-president Dr. Arthur Williams called on the members of the audience at the meeting to "go out and tell your friends about this. I don't want to make these kinds of decisions and not have the population know what is going on."

A slide presentation on U.S. demographic forecasts through the 1990s explained that there is little hope for an increase in the birth rate because of American changes in lifestyle, an increase in divorces, childless couples and voluntary sterilization of potentially fertile women and men.

The board acknowledged that the effect on Mountainside would be staggering owing to high home prices which child-bearing couples could not afford, a high senior citizen population, and a lack of a sizable "minority group" in the borough which Mayor Thomas Ricciardi, a member of the audience, said tends to produce more children.

Board member Patricia Knodel noted that a projected upswing in the primary grade population in the 1980s, brought on by an increase in the number of child-bearing people, would not significantly ease Mountainside's problem, because "there would be a decrease in the higher grades."

But some board members stated that Beechwood should continue to function as an educational institution, in light of the possibility that it may be needed for use as a school later in the 1980s.

"Some use has got to be made of Beechwood," said member Anthony Mazzucca. "There has to be a sound, sensible use for it."

The possibility of selling the school for business purposes met with some skepticism from board members, who noted that such a switch would rule out the possibility of reopening it. Mayor Ricciardi, referring to the conversion of the Echo Brook School to the borough's Municipal Building, said closing the school would be "a very emotional issue" and would be strongly protested if business use were considered.

"Property owners who live near Beechwood would object," he said. Mazzucca noted that the school is located in a residential area, affording it a limited number of uses if closed for education and heightening the prospect of resident resistance.

Other possibilities included changing Beechwood to a county-wide educational facility, a senior citizen or community activity building, or leaving it vacant for several years.

Consolidation with another community school system, which Knodel noted was being promoted for small state school districts by Governor Brendan Byrne, was discussed as an alternative, but school superintendent Dr. Levin Hanigan said "you have to

Rape happens to 'nice girls' too

Parents hear investigators, see film

Second of two articles

By PATRICIA GARRISON

"Just the fact that you were born female makes you a potential rape victim."

A chilling thought, but one which Union County Sex Crimes Analysis Unit investigators Karen Connelly and Paula Lerman want women to keep in mind, regardless of age, appearance or the styles they wear.

"Many women still believe it can't happen to them," they told a group of parents recently at Roselle Park High School, "but it can."

Surprise, disgust and fear colored the faces of the parents gathered to approve a film on personal safety for possible student classroom viewing, as the investigators explained that no one, not even so-called "nice girls," is immune to sexual abuse. Boys, they said, "aren't left out of this either. A lot of attackers like to sodomize young boys."

Their tales were vivid, rampant with stories of women attacked while running household errands or sleeping in their beds. The victims' ages range from two months to 86 years, dispelling age-old myths that rapists prey on sexually provocative women who "are asking for it."

"An elderly woman sleeping in bed can hardly be called provocative," said Lerman. "Rape is no longer being considered a sex crime," added Connelly. "Rapists tell us they don't rape for sexual gratification. It's a hostile act and his sex organs are his weapons."

But the sexual connotation remains inherent in the crime, and the investigators are willing to admit that "even in today's moral climate, people still don't like to talk about sex."

And it appeared that some of the parents did not. Following the film, which dealt with "personal safety," mentioning the word "rape" only once, some audience members questioned whether rape should be included in subject matter. Would it do more harm than good? Would it frighten students? Give them the wrong ideas?

One mother complained that current information on rape instructs women to endure the act and resist fighting. She would want her daughter to try to fight off the attacker, she told the investigators. But Connelly and Lerman both commented that fighting might not always be the best policy.

"If you try to talk him out of it, you still have time to fight," said Lerman, "but if you fight and miss, you can't then talk him out of it."

Connelly noted that "when you fight you run the risk of being hurt," and explained to parents that "there is no set way" of dealing with a rapist.

In the end, life is more important than abuse of one's sex organs, they said, and women should have the freedom to make a choice on whether to fight, depending on the situation. Combating a rapist was until recently only the first battle a rape victim faced. Ill-treatment by police and hospital workers ranked second to the attack itself in terms of humiliation and emotional pain. Women felt, and according to the investigators, still do feel that their actions brought on the incident.

But law enforcers and hospital workers are now being trained to deal compassionately with the victims and are being told, as they were at a recent sex crimes seminar in Linden, that proper treatment can facilitate the capture of rapists and sexual attackers and spare the victim psychological scars.

But the investigators told their audience that sensitivity should not stop with police and other health workers. "Don't ever judge a rape victim," said Lerman. "If you were in her position, you would want all the sympathy and understanding you could get."

Lerman and Connelly told the parents to view rape as a violent, not a sexual, crime. They compared it to robbery or murder and noted that the difference lies in the article that is abused.

"When you're raped, your body is infringed upon in place of your money or your possessions," they said. "Rape ranks under homicide as the greatest violation to a person."

Although no final decision was made on the film at the meeting, most of the parents said that there exists a need to inform students about the dangers of rape.

But in light of the arguments against student viewing, which one woman said was "simply protecting the parents," against embarrassing questions, it would appear that, in many, rape is still an "unspeakable crime."

Ellis: Progress on Sheffield is just the start

Recent parking restrictions imposed by the Mountainside Borough Council for the community's industrial park section on Rt. 22 are "just the beginning" to clearing up reported traffic congestion in the area, a business representative said.

"The most important thing is the plan for an acceleration lane from Sheffield street on to Rt. 22," said Jack Ellis, vice-president of All-State Legal Supply Co.

The lane proposal was one of several handed down by the special committee formed to tackle the Sheffield street traffic problem after businesses had complained of rush-hour tieups that grew worse with snow accumulation. The committee also called for yield signs at Mountain avenue and Sheffield street. A stop sign now exists on Sheffield and there is no traffic sign on Mountain avenue.

Both proposals require state approval, and Ellis said he has been informed that getting sign approval "might be a problem. But we're sure the changes are going to happen," he said. "We've been assured by the town that they will."

Business administrator Lee Voorhees said the state "normally investigates a traffic situation" request and he said the Department of Transportation will probably want to look into the yield sign proposal. It is believed that the line-painting for the acceleration lane will meet with quicker state approval. But Voorhees said the borough "has heard nothing yet" on either proposal.

Ellis said the extra lane leading to the highway will be needed to avoid the backups experienced this winter. He said that while the lack of a lane "is not a great problem in the summer," snow accumulation in the winter "reduces the entrance to Rt. 22 to one lane."

Warm weather delays in the area last about five minutes, according to Ellis, "but they're longer when it rains." He added that the businesses are now staggering their work hours, but he said the yield signs and the lane "can eliminate all traffic tieups" year-round.

"We'll wait and see what happens," he said. "If things don't happen (with the state) we might have another committee meeting."

Ellis said Willow road residents, some of whom are members of the Sheffield street committee, "have been helpful" in dealing with the traffic problem.

"This is a very cooperative community," he said. "The residents of Willow road want the same things we do. They want us out of here as soon as possible."

Willow road residents had protested a previous business request to open their dead-end street to through traffic. The Borough Council disapproved of the plan and it was dropped.

Tyndall named as tax collector

William Tyndall of Hackettstown has been named borough tax collector by the Mountainside Borough Council, replacing Ruth Gibadlo who resigned last month.

Tyndall may not continue in the position after November. Tax collectors are elected officials and must live in the community they serve.

However, the former Pohatcong Township tax collector said he would consider the job of deputy tax collector should he "remain in the good graces of the Borough Council."

Deputy tax collectors need not live in Mountainside. Tyndall is a former resident of Scotch Plains and worked as an accountant for a feed mill in northern New Jersey. He is a graduate of Lafayette University in Easton, Pa.

Board to check hypertension

The Mountainside Board of Health will hold a hypertension screening clinic on Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m., at the Borough Hall on Rt. 22. A spokesman stated, "It only takes a minute to have your blood pressure checked so plan on stopping by. Remember, this screening is not only for senior citizens, we encourage everyone to take advantage of this service. Hypertension (high blood pressure) is found in all age groups, so take a few minutes and have your pressure checked."

Pedestrian hit, driver is sought

A 17-year-old Springfield youth is being sought for reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident, after his car allegedly hit a pedestrian and a parked car in the Echo Lanes parking lot Saturday night.

Mountainside police said Thomas Zelinsky of Roselle Park, who suffered back injuries after being hit by the vehicle, told them the driver was operating the car at a high speed and apparently wanted to hit him. Zelinsky told authorities he saw the car coming towards him, but was unable to avoid being hit. He was taken by the Mountainside Rescue Squad to Overlook Hospital where he was treated and released.

A parked car owned by off-duty Det. Sgt. Jerome Rice of the Mountainside Police Department also was hit by the youth's vehicle, police said. The impact of the crash caused Rice's auto to collide with another parked car owned by Janine Daddario of Mountainside. A pedestrian, who was standing between the two cars reportedly was not injured.

VERY FRIENDLY—Mountainside second graders Kelly De Cristoforo, left, and Michael Barsonek read a classmate's letter. Students in Anna Matko's class have spent the past several weeks learning cursive writing and letter preparing.

Booklet letter-perfect

Written by 2nd graders

Some second grade students in Mountainside's Beechwood School have spent the past several weeks learning that they can be very friendly.

So friendly, in fact, that friendly letters they have written to parents, relatives, friends and movie stars cover one of their classroom's walls.

While studying how to write letters, Anna Matko's students have put together a personal letter-writing booklet. Included are letters they have written, tips on letter writing and letters they have received.

Kelly DeCristoforo took the opportunity to write a letter to her parents. "I like writing letters in a booklet," she told them. "I wish I could write more."

Star Wars movie character Darth Vader got a letter from Brian Chartres. "We have made a booklet," he explained. "It helps me to write letters to someone like you."

"Putting together the booklet combines writing, spelling and grammar skills," Mrs. Matko explained. "The students also learned cursive writing and each of the letters was written that way, not printed."

Coordinator position established by board

The Mountainside school system's plans for an enrichment coordinator moved one step further last Tuesday night, as the Board of Education voted to establish the position on a part-time basis.

Schools superintendent Dr. Levin Hanigan noted that the part-time position could expand to full-time should the program prove "valuable" and the needs of the school system increase.

He said he hopes to have an individual named to the spot by next month. Several Mountainside instructors, according to Hanigan, have expressed interest in the job, but he added that "some people from the outside are also interested."

The enrichment coordinator would be paid about $6,000 a year for 20 hours work per week. However, if a present staff member is named to the post, he would combine his new responsibilities with some previous duties and would continue to receive his present salary. The 1978-79 school budget has allotted $12,000 for the position.

The enrichment coordinator fulfills the state's "thorough and efficient" guidelines calling for school programs for "gifted and talented" children. The individual would possibly be involved in some instructing, but would primarily be responsible for formulating and instituting programs to aid gifted students, according to Hanigan.

Hanigan has submitted his enrichment coordinator proposal to Union County education officials who approved of the plan, he said.

The Board of Education has also opted to offer the benefit reimbursement plan for its employees under the N.J. Unemployment Insurance Program. Board secretary John McDonough said the board will operate an interest-bearing account instead of depositing money in a state fund. The account will be used for insurance transactions. He said this plan gives the board more control over insurance funds.

Board attorney Raymond O'Brian was reappointed to the post at a salary of $6,000 per year, and Carmine Liotta was named board labor negotiator at a $50 an hour rate. His services will be used at the board's discretion during employee contract negotiations. The firm of Supplee and Clooney was appointed board auditor at $2,000 a year, and William Tyndall, the borough's new tax collector, was named custodian of school monies.

The sun shines in; Dr. Hart elected

Dr. Marilyn Hart, the Mountainside representative, has been elected vice-president of the Union County Regional High School District Board of Education. She defeated Roland Hecker of Berkeley Heights, 5-3, this month in an election that reversed the outcome of secret balloting on Feb. 28. The earlier voting—done by unsigned paper ballots—was voided as a violation of the state's Open Public Meeting Acts, popularly called the Sunshine Law.

Screening set for applications to Camp Union

Camp Union, a six-week summer day camp program sponsored by the Child Study Institute of Kean College and the Union County Organization to Aid Children with Learning Disabilities, will screen prospective campers May 16 and 17 at 4 p.m. in the Campus School North, Kean College, Union. Interested parents may call Pamela Drotar at 354-7474.

The camp, on the Kean College campus, accepts children, ages 4 through 15, who have been classified by child study teams as neurologically impaired, perceptually impaired, learning disabled, emotionally disturbed or communication disordered.

Time to retune

Readers are advised to turn their clocks ahead one hour Sunday at 2 a.m. with the advent of Daylight Saving Time. Help in remembering which way to turn is provided by the adage: Spring forward; fall back.

According to Dr. Arthur Jonas, who heads the Kean Child Study Institute and is a member of the professional advisory board of Camp Union, "very few, if any, opportunities exist in this area for children with certain handicaps to socialize and enjoy camp recreation. Learning disabled children need structure and we all need to have fun."

Fee for the six-week summer program is $250, plus a membership fee to $10 for the Union County Organization. Some scholarship funds are available.

Ceremony will honor Arbor Day

Arborists from all the major arboricultural organizations in New Jersey will participate in an Arbor Day ceremony tomorrow honoring the late Edward H. Scanlon, authority on specialized trees for street planting.

This author, publisher and plant propagator, concerned with the lack of a coordinated effort by his profession and the news media to effectively educate all the people on the importance of trees to our way of life, organized the Committee for a National Arbor Day in 1936. This committee's goal was to secure passage of legislation to make the last Friday in April National Arbor Day.

The ceremony will take place at 11 a.m. in the Arboretum of Rutgers University in New Brunswick. Three trees will be planted honoring his contribution to professional arboriculture. They are a pyramidal

Dog owners issued alert on heartworms

With the mosquito season fast approaching, the New Jersey Veterinary Medical Association this week urged dog owners to be on the alert for canine heartworm disease.

The disease, transmitted by mosquitoes, is serious and potentially fatal to dogs.

It is caused by long white worms, which reach a length of six to 14 inches and live in the right side of the heart and adjacent blood vessels. An infected dog may have several hundred of them in its system.

Until recently, heartworm disease was considered to be a problem only in warm climates, but in the past few years it has spread to almost all mosquito-infested areas of the United States. An increasing number of cases is being found in New Jersey, according to the veterinary association.

Most dogs can be successfully treated if the disease is detected early. The only way to detect the disease is through a blood test.

Signs of heartworm disease that dog owners are most likely to notice include frequent coughing, sluggishness, rapid tiring and labored breathing.

Although no vaccine is available for the disease, veterinary research has developed two means of preventing infection. One method consists of giving small daily doses of a drug that keeps the infective larvae from developing into adult worms. The other method employs injection of a drug every six months to destroy any worms that may be developing.

How to avoid estimated electric and gas bills.

When we can't read your electric or gas meter, we have to estimate your monthly energy use.

When we must estimate your electric and gas bills, we try our best to be accurate, but unforeseen circumstances such as extreme weather or your vacation, can interfere with our estimate. Of course, eventually all bills are adjusted to reflect only the amount of electricity or gas you've used, but it's easy to avoid estimated bills in the first place.

Here's what you can do. Take a look at your bill in the top right-hand corner there is a box that indicates when your electric and gas meters are scheduled to be read next. You should plan to be home on that day.

If you can't be home, you may leave a key at the local PSE&G commercial office, or make arrangements with a neighbor to let the meter reader into your home. You can also call the commercial office to set a new date for reading when you will be home.

Read the meter yourself. Every commercial office has a supply of customer meter reading cards with simple instructions. Just complete a card a few days in advance of the meter reading date indicated on your last bill, and return it to the commercial office. We'll be happy to send you cards upon request.

Keep all meters uncovered and accessible.

Our meter readers sometimes face obstacles that prevent them from doing their jobs. These include unrestrained dogs, overgrown shrubs and trees, hazardous snow and ice, and flooded basements. If you keep inside and outside meters clear, our readers will get to them.

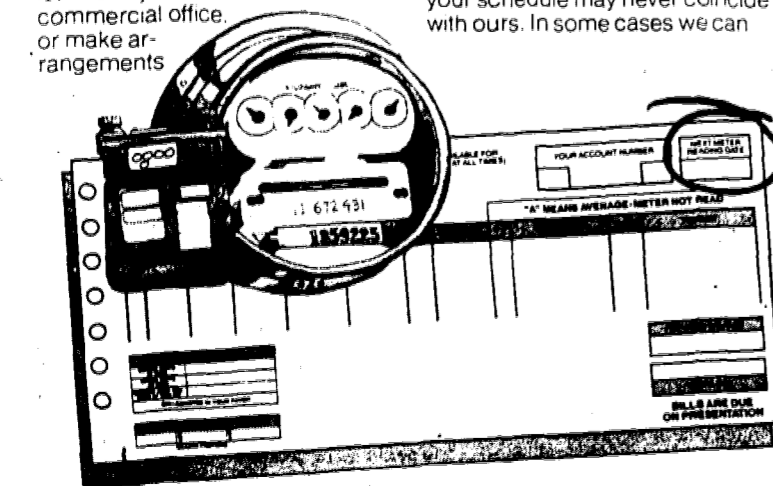

If reading your meter is a permanent problem... We realize that your schedule may never coincide with ours. In some cases we can attach special equipment to inside meters that enables a reader to collect information without entering your home. A small fee is charged for this service. Call your local commercial office to discuss this adjustment.

All meter readers are identified. All PSE&G employees carry an ID badge with a photograph. If you don't see it, ask for it. Don't let anyone into your home without proper identification.

We're trying our best to make sure your bills are accurate. If you follow these simple tips, you'll make it easier for us to do a good job for you.

Employees get counseling aid from Overlook

Whether the problem is physical or emotional illness, financial, drug or alcohol-related marital stress, laws or troubled teenagers, Overlook Hospital's employee assistance program is designed to help not only Overlook Hospital employees, but those of several other area firms, in all covering some 7,500 employees.

New manager of the employee assistance program is Paul Bills, who comes to the hospital from posts in California as coordinator of the Alcoholism Clinic of the Kaiser Permanente Plan and therapeutic counselor with the County of Los Angeles Alcohol Clinic.

She is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles with her master's degree from California State University. Miss Bills is licensed as a marriage, family and child counselor in California.

"Most people need to see a counselor only a few times to get support and fresh approaches to their problems," Miss Bills commented. Sometimes, the need for more extensive therapy is recognized.

About half the employees utilizing the program come in on their own, according to Miss Bills, with one quarter of the problems related to alcohol.

"Trying to work an eight-hour day and cope privately with serious problems such as financial pressures, legal difficulties, family problems or alcoholism leads to deterioration of performance in professional life," Miss Bills explained.

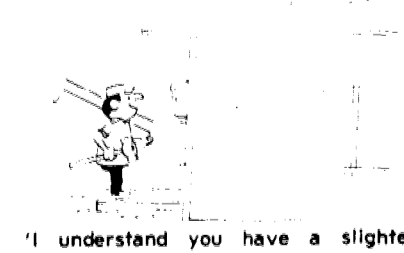

"The Employee Assistance Program offers a constructive, confidential, rehabilitative answer and is proving the vehicle through which problems can be overcome," she pointed out. "This program of qualified counseling and treatment is available to area industries interested in joining the consortium."

'Back on line' gives students data instantly

Information counselors and students are "back on line" at the Union County Regional High School.

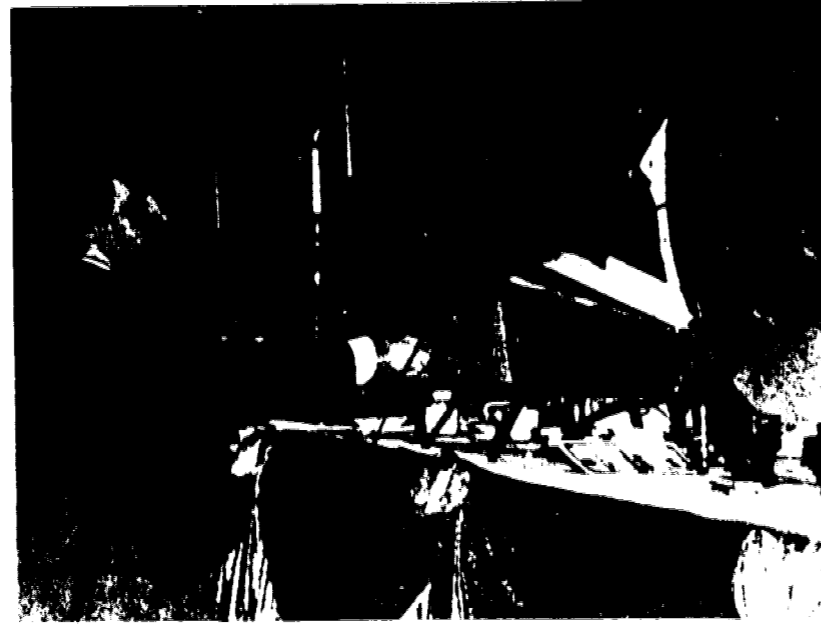

A "back on line" Charlotte Street Junior High School guidance director and Mount Nestler at Dayton Regional High School.

"Back on line" refers to the use of the computer program, "Back on Line," which provides information to students on various occupational fields. The program is available through a computer terminal located in the school's guidance office.

Students and counselors use computer terminals to request vocational information and to obtain career counseling. By typing the student's name, the system searches the computer files for information on the student's background. The use of the system allows students to analyze their personal backgrounds and to effect a change of opinion, available to the students.

The information of the guidance information service is not to make decisions for a student, or to place a student in a field. Rather, the system is an additional resource to suggest the further career or college possibilities based on a student's needs and interests.

With the computer as the data disseminating medium, students can readily obtain data with the student and guidance staff, with the personal and academic records of the student.

Letters to the Editor

DAYTON GRADUATION

To most people graduation is an important and meaningful event. The kind of occasion that both students and parents look forward to and recall for the rest of their lives with fond memories.

For many of us we will remember graduation 1978 at Jonathan Dayton High School, but not with pleasant memories. Some of us will not even be able to attend.

With the school calendar in mind and graduation scheduled for June 21, many parents and students planned ahead and accepted jobs and commitments based on that printed schedule.

Two weeks ago, however, it was announced that due to the fact that three school days had been missed because of snow, graduation would be changed from June 21 until June 26. This last minute decision was made without any consideration to any of the parents or students and their prior commitments. How could school officials dare to make such a drastic move and cause many hard feelings among those both parents and students who cannot be there?

When questioned about this change, we were casually told, "Someone always gets hurt by a move." However, we feel no change was necessary and no one had to be "hurt." Some seniors will attend or not attend the required days regardless of when graduation is scheduled.

We feel this act was totally unfair and unjust. Everyone should be made to realize people's lives and schedules are important and cannot be changed at the last moment on the whim of school officials.

We hope all in favor of changing the date back to June 21 will voice their opinions, so that this can be brought to the attention of school authorities.

$30 fine levied after five years

An Elizabeth man who had a Mountainside speeding violation outstanding for five years, was found guilty Wednesday night by Municipal Court Judge Robert Ruggiero.

Harry Fischback Jr., charged with driving 53 miles in a 40 mile zone on Summit road in March 1973, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and an additional $20 for contempt and court costs.

Court clerk Melinda Hagey said Mountainside has numerous outstanding violations that are several years old. She said individuals sometimes avoid court appearances by moving to another state and lying to out-of-state motor vehicle divisions. But she said their licenses are automatically revoked for eluding a court appearance and they eventually contact the borough to clear their record.

In other business, Wesley Fowler of Piscataway was charged with careless driving March 2. He was fined $20 and $10 in court costs.

A different kind of used car from a different kind of dealer.

The used cars listed here aren't ordinary used cars. Because they don't come from an ordinary dealership. At Pace, a customer is respected as the owner of a fine automobile, not dismissed as a troublesome accessory to it.

Because of our service, we're selling more and more new Buicks. And taking in more and more fine used cars as trade-ins. The cars listed here are the best of them.

Before we put a used car up for sale, we inspect it inside and out. We fix what needs fixing—and if we can't we simply don't sell the car to you.

Then, we protect every used car we sell with Pace Buick's own double warranty: 3 months or 3,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the entire car plus 6 months/6,000 miles (whichever comes first) limited to the engine and drive train.

Best of all, when you buy a used car from Pace, you receive the same attentive service that's winning us more and more new-car customers.

So, if you're tired of looking at the same old kind of used cars, come to Pace. You'll find the kind of used car you can trust—because you can also trust the dealership they come from.

Union College offers remedial aid to students

The poor reading, writing and math skills of many of today's college students have prompted Union College to establish a program of support services that meet the special needs of poorly prepared students without lowering the academic standards of the institution as a whole.

As do other New Jersey community colleges, Union College maintains an open admissions policy. Dr. Leonard Kreisman, vice president for academic affairs, stated:

"However, we do not view this as a license to confer degrees on students who have not earned them, nor do we want to accept students only to fail them a semester later," he said.

Union College's answer to the problems of students who graduate from high school with minimum proficiency in basic skills is a series of developmental programs backed up by tutoring centers in writing, mathematics, accounting and language skills.

Some 10 years ago, long before the current controversy, Union College began administering placement tests to entering students with low SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) scores.

ARC accepting registration for summer camp

The Union County Unit of the New Jersey Association for Retarded Citizens has announced the opening of registration for Camp Star, an eight-week summer day camp, to be held in Echo Lake Park, Mountainside, from July 3 to Aug. 25. Camp Star is open to all retired persons, aged 3 and older, who are ambulatory.

Children are grouped with others of their age and ability, with each group headed by a classroom teacher or a college student majoring in special education or a related field. Additional staff members in each group are junior counselors (college students or high school seniors) and volunteers aged 14 and older, so that a ratio of one counselor for every four children is maintained.

The camp day extends from 9:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. Campers are picked up and returned home by school buses, which make several stops in each community in Union County.

Daily activities include swimming at the pool of the nearby Quality Inn (supervised by a certified water safety instructor and senior lifeguard), arts and crafts, physical education, music, hiking and games. Campers are encouraged and given opportunities to develop coordination, social and communication skills, self-care habits and, of course, to have a good time," a spokesman added.

Persons wishing further information may contact the Union County Unit, NJARC, 60 South Ave., Fanwood 07023, or call the unit at 322-2240.

Agency begins full operation

The Community Mental Health Law Project has resumed full operation at a new location, 60 Prince St., Elizabeth. On March 18, a four-alarm blaze badly damaged its E. Jersey street offices and for three weeks, it continued limited operations from the offices of Union County Legal Services.

The project is a private, non-profit organization serving the mentally disabled of the county. Although it is not formally affiliated with mental health treatment centers, it does maintain working relationships with them.

Brochure of courses mailed to residences

"Summer of '78," a 20-page brochure announcing all offerings, including both credit and non-credit courses, to be available this summer at Union College, Cranford, and Union County Technical Institute Vocational Center, Scotch Plains, has been mailed to all residences in Union County, according to Richard Lucas, director of the Union County Coordinating Agency for Higher Education.

The publication contains schedules of day and evening classes as well as complete course descriptions, dates, tuition and fees. Application forms for registering by mail at either institution are included in the brochure.

This is a cooperative effort of the two institutions which constitute the Union County Community College System and the Coordinating Agency, Lucas said.

Prof. John Wheeler, director of Union College's two six-week summer sessions, said courses in liberal arts, physical and natural sciences, business administration and criminal justice will be offered in both sessions at the college. Summer session One begins on Tuesday, May 30, and summer session Two begins on Monday, July 10.

Both technical and vocational courses, as well as workshops and community service courses, will be conducted at UCTI-VC during its summer session which begins on Thursday, June 1, according to Richard Kay, dean of instructional support services at UCTI.

Senior citizens who live in Union County are eligible for free tuition in all courses at both institutions on a space-available basis.

Additional copies of the summer brochure are available on request at either Union College or Union County Technical Institute.

You know what to look for in a car. Now we'll show you what to look for in a dealer.

BRAIN.
Pick the dealer who is smart enough to choose Volkswagen as the best car for New Jersey. He's the man who knows the difference between the cheapest price and the best value.

WATCH THE EYES.
They should be unblinking, sharp and open. Volkswagen dealers are the kind of guys who can look you right in the eye because they believe in the cars they sell. They've got the sharp eyes that spotted Volkswagen Rabbits, Dashers, and Sciroccos as the best cars for New Jersey. And they keep their eyes wide open so they won't miss any details that will make their service better.

CHECK THE EARS.
Make sure the man you buy a car from listens real well. Volkswagen dealers do. We think it's important so we can give you just what you need in a car. And it's important after you get your car too! Because someone should be there to listen when you need or want something done.

THE MOUTH SHOULD BE MORE THAN JUST A GARAGE FOR THE SMILE.
A smile does not a great dealer make. A mouth should talk out of only one side. It should be filled with reassurance and helpful answers. That's the kind of mouth you get when you talk to a Jersey Pro.

Every Volkswagen dealer really cares. He's got the most sophisticated, most experienced, and loyal service department in his area. He wouldn't do all that if he didn't care, would he? And he certainly wouldn't sell a car that gives you so many features as standard equipment if he didn't care about you.

You'll get features like front wheel drive, negative steering roll radius, fuel injection, and a dual diagonal braking system, to name just a few.

There are a lot of features... and a lot of caring.

We're the Jersey Pros. We're in a league all our own.

N. Providence jolted by Vargas, Bulldogs

BY MIKE MEIXNER
Junior righthander Dave Vargas pitched a six hit shutout over the New Providence Pioneers as the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School baseball team beat potential all-state pitcher Doug Bullo, 3-0. It was the first conference setback for the Pioneers. The Bulldogs won their third game in seven outings.

is under 1.0. Dave struck out six Pioneers en route to the victory.
The Bulldog attack was led by Dave Lauthoff, who tripled and later scored. John Powell continued his hitting streak with a pinch single in the seventh. The third and last Dayton hit was a single by recently reactivated catcher Jim Wnek. All the runs were unearned, resulting from Pioneer mishaps.

Ed Johnson's six game hitting streak was stopped by Rillo Johnson who sparked as shortstop, entered the game with a .556 batting average.

Second baseman Mark DeGastini played a fine defensive game as did third baseman Adam Williams. The starting outfield of Bob Bohrod, Kevin Lalor and John LaMotta provided standout defensive work. Bill Young, the only Bulldog with a home run, was the designated hitter.

Dayton is host to Millburn today with Dave Ironson pitching.

Ellen wins 3rd as softball team routs Pioneers

BY MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton softball team demolished the New Providence Pioneers, 11-1, as Ellen Steve pitched her third victory of the season. Coach Hope Valenti, whose squad meets Millburn today, said she is pleased with the Bulldogs' defensive efforts and noted that the substitute softballers did a creditable job in relieving the regulars.

Kathy Gerndt tripled and Mary Jane Gagliano doubled to lead the victors. Strong defensive games were turned in by second baseman Lori Gavay and first baseman Debbie Scelfo.

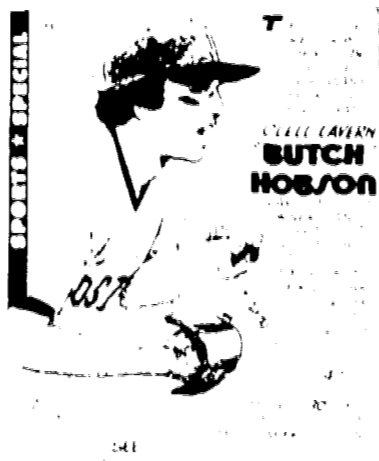

Sue Belanets, Delores Scoppettello, Lynn Blum, Lynn Zech, Erin Harrigan and Rosanne Gagliano were instrumental in the victory, playing very well in backup roles.

USY five ends year unbeaten

The basketball team of the Springfield chapter of United Synagogue Youth, coached by Bart Fraenkel, has completed its second straight undefeated season. The team won its 17th game at Scotch Plains High School April 18, beating Fairlawn, 62-52, for the USY state championship.

Among the USY teams defeated by Springfield were Scotch Plains (109-49), Cranford (59-28), Linden (67-37) and Clark (82-32).

Springfield's high scorers were Marc Kesselhaut, Dean Gerber, James Siegal and David Barnes. Other members of the team were Harvey Kaish, Neil Meisel, Mitch Feuer, Ken Feld, Steven Kessler, Lonnie Dworkin, Marc Meskin and Danny Greenwald.

Elks (3-0) top Lions, PBA in one-run games

The Elks Club won its third straight game in the Springfield Youth Major League, edging PBA, 12-11. Winning pitcher Brett Walsh went the first three innings, allowing two runs and three hits while striking out six. Mike Nicholson followed, and when he lost his control in the fifth, Walter Clarke pitched out of the jam and finished up for Elks' Club. Scott Newman had three hits, Scott Schneiderman and Neil Kosechka two hits each and Brett Walsh, Scott Karen and Mitch Levine had one each. Mike Friedman played a good defensive game at third base as did Levine, who was catching for the first time.

For the losers, Peter Sommer, Randy Waddle and Craig Kobrin shared the pitching duties. Rich Policastro had a hit, triple and was robbed of a second out on a great play by Clarke. The other PBA hits were by Joel Greenberg, Kobrin, Jay Stegal and Rob Daniel.

In a seesaw contest Monday night, the Elks won their second game of the season, topping Lions' Club, 6-5. John Ard hit a two-run homer in the first for the Lions. In the Elks' third, Walsh got a bun; single followed by Newman's single off Ard's leg and Schneiderman's misplayed grounder to tie up the game. The Elks went ahead in the fourth on Bill Markstein's triple and a wild pitch. The Lions came back with three in the fifth on walks to Garguilo and Apicella, an Elks' error and Ross Melamed's double. In the home fifth, Elks got one run back when Clarke walked, stole second and third, and scored on Schneiderman's single. In the bottom of the sixth, walks to Mike Boland and Sam Levitt were followed by a game-winning single by Karen.

Losing pitcher Ard had 15 strikeouts and gave up five hits in going the distance.
For the Elks Club, Levitt got the win in relief of Newman, who pitched the first four frames. They combined for 14 strikeouts while allowing the losers three hits.

Dayton trackmen beat Verona; take 4th in Morris Hills relays

The Jonathan Dayton Regional varsity track team defeated Verona, 85 1/2-41 1/2, in its first Suburban Conference competition and placed fourth in the Morris Hills relays with 22 points, only three behind Montclair, which won. After facing New Providence earlier this week at home the squad will be at Millburn today. The Bulldogs will also send five to this weekend's Penn Relays. Dayton's Rick Spina, Harvey Kaish, Ken Fingerhut, Pete Keramas and Jeff Vargas will team in the 440 yard relay Friday morning and the mile-relay Saturday morning. The girls' track team will compete in the Summit relays Saturday.

Against Verona, the coaches landed the overall effort of the group. They are impressed with the improvement of many of the athletes, who are progressing quicker than expected. In the 220 yard-run, Harvey Kaish was first with Rick Spina second and John Alexy third. The quarter-mile was won by Pete Keramas. Russ Lausten took the half-mile, the first time he competed in the event this year. The mile was won by Gregg Rusbarsky and Brad Weiner captured the two-mile with Jeff Bruder third. Harvey Kaish and Jeff Vargas took the 100-yard dash with an outstanding effort in the race by freshman Ed Francis.

In the intermediate hurdles Dayton's Alexy was first with Kevin Doty second. Doty was also second in the high hurdles with Alexy third. Doty won the high jump with freshman Paul Commarato third. Commarato finished second in the shot put with Doty third.

Many of Dayton's younger stars, who are working hard to help the team, have turned in fine performances—Bill Myer, Ed Francis, Robert Dooley, Steven Wright, Robert Irene, Doug Foreman, Jon Fingerhut, Rich Bantel, Paul D'Andrea, Jon Meisel, Pablo Medeiros, Ivan Barron, Andy Cuckier and Danny Damaratzky.

Soccer Scene

by BILL WILD
Fame struck Farcher's Grove last Sunday. Our family decided to stay in Union and go to Farcher's Grove to watch Union County SC play against the Brooklyn Juniors. We took two radios along to listen to the Cosmos game from the Meadowlands. At least, that is what we planned.

The local game was to begin at 2:30 so we left at 2:10. It was the first game I saw at the Grove since last fall and by the time I said hello to everyone on the field and greeted some of the Farcher's Grove regulars it was 2:34 as I sat down to watch the game. We turned on the radios to find the station broadcasting the Cosmos game but no one could get it. I heard baseball games, basketball games and some good polka music, but no soccer game was on the air.

Our plans for doing two things at once went out the window. I looked around the field and saw many fans frantically turning the dials of their radios to get the game but nothing could be heard. I knew it was on AM, but Jim Karvellas was not to be heard. People were calling to each other, "did you get the game yet?" "What is the score?" It was sickening. All I got on the radio at 11:30 on the dial was a basketball game. Not once did they break in and let the soccer fans know it was still a scoreless tie in the Meadowlands. What was going on at the Meadowlands? Nerves were getting on edge. Fans were visiting the bar much earlier than usual. I started smoking again, and the linesman was looking at the radio instead of watching play on the field.

Finally the Knick game was over with, and we were going to hear soccer. Jim, Jim, where are you? Tell us the score. But no, not yet. The basketball announcers had to say good bye to each other and let everyone know how much they liked working the games. By this time I was ready to throw my radio on the pile of other radios building up behind the fence on the weeds when I heard the soccer game come on. Now we found out that, just like the game at Farcher's, the game in the Meadowlands was in the second half and still scoreless. The local game ended that way but just as the Cosmos game came on the air, Dennis Tuetart and Franz Beckenbauer scored to put the Cosmos ahead by two. Later on Giorgio Chinaglia added one more and one goal by Dallas made it a 3-1 victory for the Cosmos. We heard all the action in the first 15 minutes of the broadcast so we didn't miss anything after all.

The Cosmos play Tampa this Sunday down in Tampa. The game was to be a taped showing at 8:00 but it now will be carried live at 2:30 on national TV. I hope we don't have to wait for a basketball playoff game to be over with first, because I'll never live through that again.

Our midget team played and won its last indoor game in the Elizabeth armory. They ended the season with a 12-0 record with 75 goals for and only one against, which was scored in the last game. Elizabeth's Mayor Tom Dunn was on hand to give the Union Lancer midgets their first place trophies. The team consisted of: Andy Woods, Harrison; Chris Maas, Orange; Stefan Schmidt, South Plainfield; John Kemptner, Iselin; goalie Karl Rezman, defenders Otto Wild, Glen Van Deventer, John Dziadzio, forwards Ken Garcia and Karl Schellscheidt all of Union. Karl Schellscheidt received a trophy for the high scorer with 32 goals. John Kemptner had 24.

Last Saturday, the midgets added another win to their regular league record. They are now 11-0 for the season with just three games to play. One of the remaining games will be against the Bergen Kickers, away. The Union Lancers just played the Bergen Kickers in an exhibition game in the Meadowlands as a preliminary game to the Cosmos Tulsa match. Union battled back from a 0-2 score to a 3-3 tie with just a few minutes left.

National State Bank divides two 2-0 contests

In the first week of action in the Springfield Youth Minor League, Mitchell Senner threw four innings of no-hit ball as his team, the Fraternal Order of Police, defeated National State Bank 2-0.

Elkay Products defeated the Volunteer Fire Department, 9-2, in the opening game of the Minor League season. Hal Levine pitched the first inning for Elkay and received the victory. He walked one and allowed one run on three hits. Jon Woland pitched two innings for Elkay. He walked four and struck out five while allowing one run on two hits. Mike Pisano allowed no runs in the last three innings for the victors. He struck out seven and walked just two.

In the top of the first inning, Volunteer Fire Department's Glen Monticello singled and Jonathan Fabricant doubled. With second and third occupied, Mike Odze got a hit. Glen Monticello scored, but when Fabricant tried to score, a relay throw from second baseman David Krell to catcher Jon Woland caught Fabricant at home for the out.

Elkay came back with three runs in the bottom of the first. Woland led off with a homer to center. Levine followed with a home run to right center. Pisano doubled, John Zucker singled and Mike Blaboli singled for the third tally. In the bottom of the second inning, Elkay's Jeff Pinkava and Jim Pieper walked. Woland followed with a single to load the bases. Then Levine cleared the bases with a grand slam home run. Pisano and Zucker followed with singles. And, with alert base running, Krell stretched a single into a double to drive in two more runs.

Volunteer Fire Department scored one more run in the third inning when Fabricant singled, Odze and Chris Panno walked, and Joey Cieri singled.

NENNER FANNED FOUR in his victory for the Fraternal Order. Dave Salsido, Ed Cardinal and Lance Krytzer also pitched an inning apiece for the victors. The three hits for Fraternal Order were by Jim Yee with a triple, Chris Schramm with a double and Gillon Rubencard, a single. Wayne Moore and Nenner scored the Fraternal Order's two runs. On defense for the winners, Ed Cardinal made an outstanding running catch of a hard hit line drive.

For National State Bank, Anthony D'Alessio, Brian Bromberg and Donald Dilanno all pitched superbly.

Wasserman to third. Edward Kisch then singled, scoring Wasserman. Jon Purcell drew a walk to load the bases. Jeff Pollack singled, scoring Glader and Edward Kisch.

For Bunnell Brothers, Bobby Edwards pitched a fine game. He struck out the first six batters he faced, and then struck out the side in his final inning of pitching. Contributing to the Bunnell Brothers' attack were Brian Cole, Stacey Weiskott, David Cole and Edwards, each with one base hit. Brian Cole and Patrick Cardinale each scored for Bunnell Brothers.

NATIONAL STATE BANK defeated the Firemen's Mutual Benevolent Association, 2-0, behind the shutout pitching of David Edelcreek, Brian Bromberg and Donald Dilanno. A scoreless tie was broken in the last of the fifth inning after walks to Mark Miller, Scott Prager and Edelcreek loaded the bases. A single by Dilanno brought in the first run. Anthony D'Alessio was then hit by a pitch, scoring the second run. Fine fielding plays by Edelcreek, Bromberg, David Schneider and D'Alessio preserved the shutout.

This is the last in a series of five days throughout the year devoted to health career recruitment in a program sponsored by the Overlook Auxiliary.

Staff professionals on Overlook's health team will present their specialties through workshop sessions and tours of their departments, followed by question and answer periods.

A film entitled "The Way Back" will demonstrate how the different therapies work together for patient rehabilitation.

THE DAYTON KEY CLUB beat Bunnell Brothers, 7-2, behind the pitching of Edward and Tom Kisch. Edward started the game, going three innings, and striking out seven. Tom took over in the fourth and struck out six. Each Kisch walked two and allowed just one run on two hits.

Key Club had a big inning in the bottom of the third. Mara Lerner and Terry Walker led off with walks. Tod Wasserman followed with a double to drive in two runs, and then scored on an overthrow in the infield. In the bottom of the fifth, Key Club added four insurance runs. Steven Barison led off with a walk. Wasserman then hit another double, driving in Barison. Tod Glader got on with a single, moving

Youth pleads guilty for Acme false alarm

A 20-year-old Mountainside man pleaded guilty Monday of summoning the Springfield Fire Department to a sham emergency March 18 at Echo Plaza Shopping Center.

John Uknus, a truck driver, remains free without bail awaiting sentencing in about a month. Springfield Municipal Court Judge Malcolm Bohrod asked the county probation department to prepare a pre-sentencing report on Uknus before the penalty is set.

Uknus is the first person prosecuted in Springfield for at least a decade on a charge of making a false fire report. He could be fined up to $250 and jailed up to 90 days.

Firemen said Uknus pretended to be the Acme Market manager, reporting a fire when they were called on the futile run. Fire department investigators said every alarm call is routinely tape-recorded, and they were later able to find witnesses who identified the voice on the tape as that of Uknus.

Police said Uknus voluntarily surrendered after firemen had collected the evidence against him. He appeared without an attorney Monday to admit in court that he had made the false-alarm call from a pay telephone. In other cases Monday, Judge Bohrod ordered fines, including court costs, to be paid by:

Gregory K. Bellas of Clifton, $215 for drunken driving, his driver's license also was revoked for 60 days.

Gerald J. Robinson of Union, $215 for driving while his license was revoked, and it was revoked for an additional six months because he lacked insurance.

Susan Zovak of S. Plainfield, James J. Babarich of Clark and Ralph Masti of Middlesex, $30 apiece for careless driving in separate incidents.

Perry Whitmore of Vauxhall, $40 for speeding 46 miles per hour in a 35-mile zone and failing to have his insurance card with him, he also was fined $25 for contempt of court in setting the tickets late.

Daniel Marianino of Milltown road paid $10 because his dog didn't have a 1978 license on time. Marianino paid another $10 for appearing in court a week late. Penalties were suspended for two other dog-license offenders, Barbara Pollack of Redwood road and John Brown of Diven street.

Energy tips available from real estate firm

A guidebook, "How to conserve energy and dollars in retirement," is now available from the Scott Co. Realtors of Elizabeth and Clark. "All of us have been awakened to our dependence on energy resources as a result of recent fuel crises and the severity of this winter and last, but this vulnerability is even more acute for folks facing retirement," said Robert E. Scott Jr., president of the Scott organization. "They are suddenly confronted with terribly important decisions about finances, health maintenance, where to live and how to budget and often are bewildered by seemingly uncontrollable expenses." "This data book is designed to remove some of the uncertainty surrounding energy conservation and help guide retirees in reaching sound housing decisions," Scott asserted. Insulation and construction of the basic elements of the house are obvious considerations included in the text as well as the implications of weighing the cost effectiveness of energy conservation improvements. Proper use of mechanical equipment is also reviewed. For example, the booklet points out that water heaters gulp more energy than air conditioners, refrigerators, color television sets and freezers combined. By lowering hot water temperature settings from 150 degrees to 120 an approximate fuel bill saving of nine percent can be effected.

The whole strategy of retirement housing is addressed from the perspective of energy saving. Location choices by retirees are critically important, for example, because automobiles burn 14 percent of all energy consumed in the United States each year, more than home heating and air conditioning combined. The Federal Energy Administration says that if each car owner could eliminate one short ride per week, the nation's gasoline bill and need for imported oil, could be cut by seven percent. Offices are at 400 Westfield ave., Elizabeth, and 1152 Raritan rd., Clark. They are open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday to Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

ANNIVERSARY MODEL—The Memory Lane is the feature attraction of the fifth anniversary celebration by Pine Ridge at Crestwood. Pictured is the family room, with optional woodburning fireplace. The model's name derives from the nostalgic decor created especially by Armstrong for the display sample on view at the adult community near Whiting, Ocean County.

Pine Ridge previews 'Anniversary Model'

Celebrating its fifth birthday, Pine Ridge at Crestwood is previewing the first of five new "Anniversary Models," a two-bedroom, two-bath ranch home to be introductory-priced at $25,490. Entitled "Memory Lane," the display sample is a showpiece of nostalgic interior decor by Armstrong's noted interior designer, Linda Newman, with scores of antiques, curios and other reminders of the "good old days."

The "Memory Lane" provides a master bedroom suite with dressing room-private bath and stall shower and double wardrobes. The fully-equipped GE kitchen is huge, in the old-fashioned "country-kitchen" tradition. It includes a GE electric range, double-door GE refrigerator, an old-fashioned full pantry closet with extra door-hung storage shelves, and a ventilated-lighted range hood. The spacious L-shaped dining room and living room sprawls a full 23 feet.

There is a separate utility laundry room with a newly-designed energy-efficient heating system. A full second bath is off the center hall, convenient to the second bedroom (also with double wardrobes) and the large family room, spacious for informal entertaining. A real wood-burning fireplace, with rough-hewn timber mantel, can be provided in the family room, optional at moderate extra cost. There is a snack bar between the kitchen and family room.

A planned retirement community of more than 600 manufactured homes, Pine Ridge is located in Manchester Township, Ocean County, on Rt. 530, eight miles west of Toms River Exit 80 of the Garden State Parkway. The community has just completed expansion of its second clubhouse. In Crestwood Center, adjacent to the shopping mall, a $500,000 medical facility was dedicated last month, with more than 20 doctors, dentists and other health specialists in practice. There are three houses of worship with large congregations and more planned.

The Pine Ridge Exhibit Center offers seven other full-size ranch-style manufactured models, priced from $14,990. After purchase, residents pay $120.33 or $137.33 monthly (depending upon size of model), which includes heating fuel, fare-free courtesy bus transportation within Crestwood Communities and to nearby towns and shopping centers, city water and sewer, site lease, clubhouse use and maintenance, street cleaning, snow clearing, trash collection, and master TV antenna which relays into every home in New York and Philadelphia channels, plus Crestwood's own television production studio, operated by residents.

Timber Glen opening 2nd and final section

One of the more successful residential communities in North Brunswick is now announcing the opening of its second and final section. The Timber Glen development has enjoyed brisk traffic since it opened with its original 64 homes.

We have been absolutely delighted at the amount of sales checked at in such a short amount of time," said Saul Flame, founder and developer. "Noance construction now in the field," he commented, "should have made this community a success well before this." Part of the answer is tight control and individual supervision.

Flame, who has built hundreds of homes in the Sayreville-Madison area, including Timber Glen, Madison, pointed out that he is personally on the job site overseeing all phases of operation. "So if in the event a problem arises, it can be rectified immediately. The result is less waste, direct communication and, in the end, a better home for less money," he said.

Although the final section will feature the same models as were in the initial section, the area, according to Flame, will be even prettier, as it offers room to treat the soil in a more flexible fashion, he said.

Timber Glen is located on Cozzens Lane. There are five models on fully landscaped wooded lots. It is accessible to a network of major highways, including the N.J. Turnpike. The models include a split-level, the Washington, three two-story colonials, the Hamilton, the Glen Dale and the Ashbrook, and a ranch, the Concord. Prices start at $78,000.

Construction features at Timber Glen include three and four bedrooms, family rooms, full basements, color coordinated built-in venetian range, hood and sink, built-in dish washer, ceramic tile walls and floors in all main family baths and two-car garages. Exterior features include brick veneer fronts and wood double hung windows throughout.

Underground electric and telephone wiring, concrete sidewalks and service walks, Belgian block curb paved streets, and city water and city sewers are among the many community facilities provided.

THE GLENDALE—This two-story colonial is one of five different model homes being featured at Timber Glen in North Brunswick. Located on Cozzens Lane off Rt. 1, these homes start at $78,000 and include fully landscaped wooded lots.

LUXURIOUS RESIDENCE—The Eldorado model, with its rustic wood exterior, is an oversized three-bedroom, two-bath home containing a 12 X 30 garage, a 13 X 19 family room, fireplace and wall-to-wall carpeting. For further information write All State Homes, 11300 N. Central Ave., Fla. 33612, or phone 813-935-2111.

New All State center opened

All State Homes, Florida's largest low cost on-your-lot home builder, has opened its third and most elaborate and complete permanent home living center and a 13,600 square foot headquarters complex in Tampa. This brings to 16 the number of completed model homes staffed by All State personnel from two locations in Tampa and a third in Orlando.

"We plan to open two more permanent model centers—one in Polk County and another in Ocala—before the end of the year," said Pete Rutskin, president of the firm which constructs more than 400 homes a year. He projects that 1978 will be the best year ever in All State Homes' history with the company completing more than 600 homes. More than 200 homes now are under construction.

All State Homes' philosophy over the past 23 years has been to provide economical housing that more people can afford. One reason why the company has built homes for over 10,000 customers is that "we can save you up to 35 percent," said Rutskin, "because of All State Homes' massive buying power for labor, materials, and appliances. Unlike other builders, we do not tie up our money in land. In addition, we arrange for the lowest cost financing available, which of course results in lower monthly payments for our home owners. The service is as prompt as it is economical. "From the time our customers sign a contract with us, it takes about six weeks to get financing arranged and approximately 90 days to build. During this time we at All State Homes do our best to make the homeowner's dream come true."

Since the founding of All State Homes by Archie Rutskin in 1955, service has been the key to the success of the corporation, thus generating recommendations from satisfied customers. Many visit the new Tampa Welcome Center where they are greeted and presented with information on the new homes that range from conception to completion. In the new audio-visual projection room they can see an All State Home grow from the pouring of the foundation to occupancy. They learn why the name "All State Homes" has become known for variety and quality in the home building business in 36 counties of Florida, a building area stretching from Gainesville on the north to Fort Myers on the south and from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean, and larger than Connecticut and Rhode Island combined. Grouped around a landscaped central court are the four brand new model homes ranging in price from $12,550 to $26,900. Included in this is the luxurious Eldorado model, which was specifically designed to service a new market for All State.

Indian Forest offers quiet life in city area

Henry Rosenzweig, builder at Indian Forest in East Brunswick has announced the opening of the third section of this 175 home site. There is more than 30 acres of open space at Indian Forest providing nature trails, recreation areas and, at the same time, affording a privacy lost in an area of crowded towns and cities. The arrangement of each carefully designed home, on a minimum one-third acre lots, compliments nature. The picturesque woodland setting and resultant privacy are enhanced by a 1400 acre county park near the site.

A harmony with nature has been achieved under the direction of the Indian Forest staff, who will not remove a tree that has not been personally inspected and carefully determined as impossible to save.

A choice of ten model homes, each with three alternate exterior elevations are available. The homes feature large living rooms, up to 5 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, full basements, two car garages, full thick insulation, color coordinated appliances (including dishwasher) and wood kitchen cabinets, and double-hung windows. Prices range from $70,000 to more than $100,000.

Shopping centers are located nearby as well as houses of worship, excellent public and parochial schools, library, theatres, restaurants, several colleges, a state university, swim clubs. Indian Forest can be reached from the N.J. Turnpike Exit 9 to Rt. 18 East. Turn right to Cranbury South River Road (Rt. 535) and proceed to Fern road. Turn left to Old Stage road and left again to the Indian Forest models.

The Eldorado model, with its rustic wood exterior, is an oversized three-bedroom, two-bath home containing more than 2173 square feet, including a 12x30 garage, a 13x19 family room, fireplace and wall-to-wall carpeting. This new model has been built for only one month and already more than 20 have been sold.

Also featured at the Home Living Center is All State Homes' newly designed line of homes: the Nassau—three bedroom, two bath, with a completely bricked front elevation; the Casa Grande—three bedroom, one bath, with a Spanish motif front elevation, and the L-Shaped Bahama, three bedroom, two bath.

For all northern home buyers a special financing program has been arranged by All State Homes in 1978. In most cases your Florida homesite can be used as a downpayment for building your new dream home since prices will be going up within the next three months. For further information write All State Homes, 11300 N. Central Ave., Tampa, Fla., 33612 or phone 813-935-2111.

Heritage site soon to have new models

Four luxury homes have been sold at Heritage Estates in Hillsdale, including all three models, and new colonial two-story and atrium bi-levels, which will serve as model houses, are under construction and are expected to be ready for early showing.

The homes offer some 3,000 square feet of space and have such features as fireplaces, gas fired heat, ducts and wiring for future air-conditioning, insulated glass windows or regular glass along with storm windows and screens, 200 amp electrical service and special wood flooring in family rooms.

Paul Waldinger and Winnie Marshall of Nansen of Paramus, developer of the 12-house community on Van Emburgh avenue and Werimur road, can show prospective buyers the two-story model under construction while the bi-level is expected to be ready for viewing shortly. The two-story will sell for $137,500, while the 64-foot atrium bi-level will be priced at $132,500.

Nansen also plans to start construction shortly on a contemporary ranch on an acre site priced at $137,500. This house will have a bridge over a brook to a portion of the property that is suitable for a swimming pool or tennis court.

Other homes at Heritage Estates are available from $115,000. These homes will be on a five-segment parcel in the Beverly road section of the tract. But the sales team warns that prices in this segment will be increasing in May.

Seiden congratulated Robert Ploshnick and Alan Gebroe, Gebroe-Hammer sales representatives, for arranging the complicated transaction with Garden State National Bank, trustee for the estate.

"The sale involved the purchase of a second mortgage prior to the actual acquisition of the real estate, plus additional cash and financing structured to give optimum tax benefits to all the parties," Seiden said. Gebroe-Hammer has headquarters in the Gebroe-Hammer Building at Roosevelt Plaza, Livingston.

During the first weekend, the sales office was open for a preview showing, 12 of the 43 homes in this new neighborhood were sold.

When word of the development reached prospective homebuyers, the firm last year quickly sold out nearby Marc Heights.

At Marc Heights East, there are five ranch, bi-level and two-story Colonial models, all with family rooms and attached garages. The community is situated near schools and is within walking distance of shopping and commuter buses to Manhattan. Until the official opening of Marc Heights East, non-binding reservations are being accepted. Confirmation of all contracts will be made in the very near future.

Along with spaciousness and the builder's "old-fashioned" attention to all details of the high quality of construction in these homes, the community is additionally attractive because of its location midway between urban New Jersey and New York work centers and the beaches and bays of the seashore, Siegel said. Also nearby are the Garden State Arts Center and the Metropark train commuting point for express trips north to Newark and New York City and south to Trenton, Philadelphia and Washington, D.C.

The Howard Siegel Companies is a member of the New Jersey Home Owners Warranty (HOW) Council. Therefore, buyers receive 10 years of HOW insured warranty protection.

The Marc Heights East sales office is open daily except Thursdays.

To visit the community, take the Garden State Parkway to Exit 117 (Hazlet). Then take Rt. 36 approximately 1 1/2 miles to Poole Avenue. Turn left via the jughandle to reach the models.

VICEROY HOMES, long the leader in custom built homes throughout Canada, now brings its expertise and award-winning models to New Jersey. Shown at Viceroy Homes court in Mahwah are four distinctive models built with "energy-saving" features. All models are constructed of kiln-dried lumber and include California redwood sliding doors and windows with triple seal glass. This unique building concept allows for a full six inches of insulation. One of the more successful models, The Oxford, includes 1,242 square feet of living area, three bedrooms, bath, living room, dining room, kitchen and utility room. The second floor boasts a balcony overlooking the living room and a roof skylight over the study and living room. To visit the court, take the Parkway, Turnpike or Rt. 206 north to Rt. 17, Take Rt. 17 north to Mahwah and watch for the Viceroy Homes sign. Models are open daily and Sunday from 9 to 5 or call 529-2840.

Schwartz Co. analyzes first

"Because we are living in a world where there are a variety of investment vehicles, it is critical that the investor be aware of the current posture of his venture and just as importantly what the future holds," according to

Anthony Tamburro, senior vice president at the Archie Schwartz Company Tamburro and Vice president Howard Friedman head the Investment Division at Archie Schwartz, New Jersey's largest industrial, office space and investment realtors, with a staff of about one hundred persons in its East Orange office.

Since to be eligible to purchase a home either the husband or wife must have attained only age 52, many residents continue to work while already living in Leisure Village West.

"While no one is clairvoyant, by using historical data as well as educated estimates, it is possible to project accurately the return on investment real estate over the next several years. Our studies of the various consumer price indexes, trends of the economy, and income tax regulations have indicated that real estate is by far the safest and most economically stable investment."

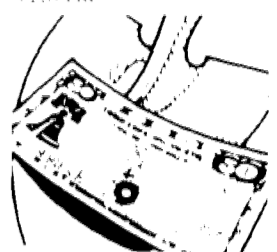

With younger persons buying homes, the market becomes so much larger than our original potential in Lakewood," Mrs. Glehan points out. "But most of all, I believe, it's easier to sell today because our company has become so well known for quality construction at a value-for-money price that the purchaser has confidence in our homes even before I show them. This is a big plus for any sales counselor."

"Not to downplay stocks, bonds, commercial paper and the like," he continued, "but as a hedge against inflation, current tax shelter and future appreciation, nothing compares to real estate."

In this vein, the investment division, consisting of Tamburro, Friedman and associates Kevin Boyles, Shiv Gupta, Tom Gjerum, Leon Goldfarb, Joe James, Arthur Kaufman, Richard Moss and Scott Yellin analyze each piece of property they market.

Not only are the current figures studied, but a five-year projection of income and expenses is prepared. By studying these projections, an investor can intelligently determine if a property fits his criteria.

Gebrooe is in Florida

LGH Management Co., a joint venture of Lyons Management Co. of Florida and Gebroe-Hammer Associates of Livingston, has taken over the management of two luxury apartment complexes in Deerfield Beach and Coral Springs, Fla. It was announced by Melvin Gebroe, a partner in Gebroe-Hammer.

The Deerfield Beach property is Lime Tree Village, a 184-unit garden apartment complex with two swimming pools and two tennis courts on SE 13th Street off Federal Highway, and Palm Terrace, comprising 35 townhomes and a clubhouse on Royal Palm Boulevard in Coral Springs.

LGH undertook this assignment at the request of First National State Bank of New Jersey. Gebroe stated:

Gebroe-Hammer Associates is New Jersey's largest investment real estate firm in terms of dollar volume.

Janet Glehan leader in adult home sales

Janet Glehan of Toms River doesn't know how many homes she has sold in the adult communities developed by Leisure Technology, Northeast, Inc. She stopped counting several years ago, when she received an award for her 1,000th sale.

What is known, however, is that —Mrs. Glehan sold the very first home when the company's founder pioneered the development of planned residential-recreational adult communities in New Jersey with the opening of the original Leisure Village in Lakewood in the spring of 1963.

—Her latest sale took place at Leisure Village West, located off Rt. 70 in Manchester Township.

—She has been responsible for the sales of more than one-fifth of the 6,600 adult homes in the Garden State built by this subsidiary of Leisure Technology Corp.

"I don't think about sales in terms of numbers," she said. "I think in terms of friends I've made. In a community like this, one doesn't simply sell a home...you introduce homebuyers to a new way of life and help them get settled."

"We're not just sales counselors in a community such as this," Mrs. Glehan added. "We're part of the community, we often take part in the social activities. I enjoy watching happy people, such as we have here at Leisure Village West."

There's a great deal to enjoy at Leisure Village West, where homes are priced from $28,990 to $54,990. The community has its own golf course, swimming pool, private lake for boating and fishing, plush clubhouse for a myriad of social activities and hobby clubs and a greenhouse for the plant lovers.

Leisure Village West, six miles from Exit 88 of the Garden State Parkway, also has its own bus which makes the short trip to nearby shopping centers on a regular schedule. Residents also have easy access to cultural events in New York City and Philadelphia. The community enjoys not only placid surroundings, but the comfort of 24-hour security.

Although competition is much keener than when the first Leisure Village was created in Lakewood 15 years ago, Mrs. Glehan finds that selling homes in an adult community is easier today.

Are you going to miss your one last golden opportunity?

On the entire Jersey Coast, this may be one of the last new oceanfront condominiums you'll ever have a chance to own.

And right now, it's the only one within ninety minutes of North Jersey and Manhattan.

What makes this a last of its kind is a tough State environmental law that effectively bars new buildings from the beach. What makes it a golden opportunity is this:

Monmouth Beach is an unspoiled, turn-of-the-century seaside resort where many homes sell for six-figure prices, if you can find one. Yet we have plush oceanfront homes available from the $50's. (Admittedly, most of our homes will sell at $60-90,000.)

And we give you a lot more than the ocean at your feet. Like indoor and outdoor pools, a tennis court and putting green, a health spa, owners' lounge—even a boardwalk. Not to mention a spectacular view.

Is it all as good as it sounds? Consider this.

Two weeks ago, we opened our new models. Nearly 2,000 people came to look. Today we have less than 80 homes available.

Do you think you'll ever again see new luxury oceanfront homes like these, this close to Manhattan, at prices so low? We don't. So we suggest you come see them today. Because we think people are going to buy them like there's no tomorrow.

The Towers at Monmouth Beach. Now previewing. From the $50's to the $170's.

Visit us 11 to 7 daily. Directions: Take Garden State Parkway south to Exit 109. Left off exit to Newman Springs Rd. (This is route 520. Stay on it. It's easier to follow than it sounds). Follow Newman Springs Rd. to end. Left on Broad Street for one block across Railroad tracks. To Pinckney Rd. Right on Pinckney and follow to end. Right onto Branch Ave. for four blocks. Left turn on Rumson Rd. for three miles across Rumson-Sea Bright Bridge. Right on Ocean Ave. for 2 miles. We're on the left. For more information, phone (201) 229-7801.

Pageant seeks entrants for 9th Miss Teen fete

Entries from girls between the ages of 13 and 19 are now being accepted for the ninth annual Miss U.S. Teen national finals to be staged Thursday through Sunday, August 3 to 6 at the Sheraton Chateau Charles in Lake Charles, La. This will mark the seventh consecutive year the national finals have been staged at the Lake Charles hotel.

Entry information is available by writing to Pageants, P.O. Box 1014 Lake Charles, La. 70602. No talent or swimsuit competition is involved, although there are separate contests set up in those two categories which, however, have no bearing on the national finals results, and entrants are not required to take part. In states where statewide pageants are conducted, the winners and runners up are eligible, but in areas where no sanctioned Miss U.S. Teen preliminaries have been held, girls may enter on an "at large" basis. Judging is on the basis of scholastic achievement, service to church and community, personality, poise, grooming, beauty and similar factors.

Group discount for jazz benefit

Group discount ticket sales are being offered for the Saint Barnabas Gala Benefit '78 featuring Ella Fitzgerald and the Tommy Flanagan Trio. The performance is scheduled at Symphony Hall, Newark, on May 20, at 8 p.m. According to Dr. Robby Meijer, chairman, the group discount policy is being put into effect as a result of numerous inquiries from student, senior citizen and business groups interested in attending the event. "We are delighted to be able to meet the budgets of special interest groups who wish to participate in the medical center benefit while enjoying an evening of jazz with one of the great American jazz artists," he said. A discount of 25 percent on group sales of 25 seats or more is available through the medical center. Reserved seat prices are $8, $10, $15 and $25. Further information may be obtained by calling 333-5045.

Noise control confab slated for Princeton

In order to help raise public awareness of noise pollution and explore ways to deal with this problem, the Association of New Jersey Environmental Commissions, (ANJEC) under a contract from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency will sponsor a noise control conference in Princeton on May 18. ANJEC, a private, nonprofit organization, was formed in 1969 to coordinate the activities of the state's six environmental commissions. The speakers will be Dr. Joseph Danto, director of audiology for City College of New York, on "Detrimental Effects of Noise"; Robert Corman, assistant deputy public advocate, Division of Public Interest Advocacy.
