Chief marks 30 years on force Mullin recalls days of only 1 patrol car

Police Chief Edward Mullin celebrated his 30th year with the Mountainside Police department on Sept. 1. During the years between Sept. 1, 1948, when Mullin joined the force as a patrolman and now, he has advanced through the ranks to the top position.

Mullin, who was born and raised in the borough, resides at New Providence road with his wife, the former Betty Shelby of Plainfield, and their 21-year-old daughter Diann. Kathy, their other daughter, is 23 and has a teaching position in West Virginia.

Betty Shelby became Mrs. Mullin in 1949. Two years later, she won the title of Mrs. Union County as part of the 1951 Mrs. America contest.

Mullin served as a patrolman for 10 years. In 1958, he was promoted to sergeant, a position whose duties have basically stayed the same. "A desk sergeant still receives calls and dispatches men." Other duties still include maintaining records and reports.

A 1960 promotion made him Lieutenant Mullin. He served as a lieutenant for seven years and was then assigned the rank of captain. When police chief Christian Fritz retired after 32 years of service in 1969, Mullin was appointed chief.

The educational training of Mountainside's chief as a child came from the town's own school system and Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

Part of his police training came from attendance at the Union County Police Chiefs Academy, the FBI Firearms School in Sea Girt and the State Investigation School.

Before joining the police, Mullin earned a Purple Heart, a Bronze Star, four battle stars and a Presidential Unit Citation for his service in World War II. Mullin was assigned to Europe, where his unit fought its way to the Czechoslovakian border. He participated in the Battle of the Bulge, the Rhineland and the Ardennes Forest campaigns.

Chief Mullin then began his career in law enforcement as one of the three patrolmen who made up the Mountainside force. The five-man 1948 police force was headed by a chief and a lieutenant, as compared to the 19 men who serve the borough today. In 1948, one car was enough for the Mountainside force while today the men need five patrol cars and a detective car.

Recalling the old days as more intimate, Mullin said, "When I was a patrolman, I knew practically everybody by name."

This special relationship with the community is not a part of the job for today's Mountainside patrolman. Mullin attributes this to several factors including the size of the population. The number has increased from approximately 2,500 in 1948 to the present figure of 8,500.

"People used to stop and wave," the chief remembered, but many have moved in and out, and that too has changed. Mullin suggested another factor may be that they don't get to know the residents because many policemen live out of town.

When Mullin served as a patrolman, bus service was not used to transport children to school. "We had to stop traffic on Rt. 22 to cross children. With only one school, you were closer to parents and school children."

The Mountainside force no longer has to deal with school traffic but still concentrates on the residential areas during those times that children are being taken to and from school.

One welcome change occurred last December when the police changed headquarters from the old Borough Hall to the present location. "In general, we have more room," Mullin stated. The other big change has been the convenience of more modern facilities. In the new headquarters, there are juvenile detention facilities, a detective bureau, a file room, a darkroom, a motor vehicle computer and a lock-up cell block, among other police equipment. The new equipment has helped make the police faster and more efficient in their duties, the chief said. The old Borough Hall, which was built in 1905 and housed the police department since that date, has been sold.

Mullin, who describes himself simply as "a good cop," considers himself a public servant. He was a part of the 50th Armored Division of the National Guard. Mullin was called to duty during the 1967 Newark riots. He retired as a command sergeant major in 1972.

Council OKs contract with borough's police

By BARBARA WALCOFF

An agreement has been reached between the police committee of the Borough Council and the members of the negotiating team from the police department of Mountainside. Abe Suckno, police commissioner and chairman of the council negotiations committee, announced at Tuesday night's Borough Council meeting that "a contract is being prepared by lawyers and should be ready for review and signature by all parties within a month."

"The contract," Suckno continued, "which will be effective for three years commencing January 1, 1978, will provide a 5 percent salary increase for department members this year." An ordinance, passed unanimously, will enable the borough to pay the policemen their 1978 5 percent increase retroactively shortly after the Oct. 17 regular meeting of the council.

Tom Spina, another council member on the police committee, commented, "The important thing is that everybody is smiling." Rounding out the council representatives in the negotiations is Bruce Geiger, Borough Council president.

The PBA representatives include Patrolman James Debbie, Sgt. Edward Hafeken, Sgt. Jerome Rice, and Detective Stephen Semancik. This team was given the authority by the PBA to negotiate the last two or three terms in the agreement. PBA had already ratified this contract, leaving the final items up to the negotiating team.

The council also approved a resolution and an ordinance that will help get the Mountainside-Springfield Joint Flood Control Project under way. The mayor and clerk, who already have the authorization to execute an agreement between the Township of Mountainside, have been given the OK to execute a contract with Richard Jeske Inc. to perform engineering services for the project.

The council passed an ordinance to authorize an improvement known as the Springfield-Mountainside Joint Sewer Project." The sum of $450,000 will be appropriated to pay the cost.

Geiger, acting as chairman of the council meeting in Mayor Thomas Ricciardi's absence, said, "The council has agreed that the project is good and I imagine that we will go into construction." Geiger also advised the council that Springfield has already gone out on bids and that Jeske has promised completed plans to Moun-

Spina, Vigilanti back newest Rt. 78 plan

Incumbent Republican Councilman Thomas Spina and his GOP running mate, Robert Vigilanti, this week voiced full support for the modified version of the plan to complete Rt. 78 as presented to various county and municipal officials at a special conference in Elizabeth.

Spina, who serves on the borough's Police Committee as a council representative, said: "This plan is certainly something we can live with here in Mountainside, especially when one considers the alternatives we were faced with. The need for relief from the congestion on Rt. 22 has been an accepted fact for nearly two decades."

"Our local police force logs thousands of miles of dangerous driving time on Rt. 22 and is under constant pressure out there because of the long delays in finishing Rt. 78. It is a necessary artery in our overall transportation network."

Bulldogs name drum majorette

Mary-Louise Caivano has been named the senior drum majorette of the Bulldog Marching Band at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School for the 1978-79 school year.

Other student leaders in the band are Valerie Hendrix, junior drum majorette; Vicki Stewart, captain, and Sherry Keenan, co-captain, for the flag unit; Gail Hettenbach, rifle captain; Gail Wilner, swing-shaft captain, and Joe Reo, section leader of percussion.

Director Jeff Anderson said the band got a head start on its 1978-79 field show during rehearsals at a week-long summer band camp on campus.

The marching band members are also soliciting paid ads and donations for their journal. The journal, or program booklet, will be sold at the Tournament of Champions which Dayton will sponsor Sunday, Oct. 22, at Meisel Field.

"All things considered, Rt. 78 in this modified version serves the best interests of Mountainside residents from safety, transportation, ecological and community standpoints."

Vigilanti noted that this version of the plan left valuable residential property in the borough untouched. "I wish there was a way the road (Rt. 78) could have been built without infringing on any communities or disturbing the Watchung Reservation, but that is impractical. It is needed, very badly needed."

"I've seen the carnage and danger on Rt. 22 much closer than most people and, frankly, I'm relieved that we are now another step closer to alleviating it." Vigilanti has served as a volunteer and officer on the local rescue squad for nearly 10 years.

Both men said they were satisfied that the DOT had exhausted and considered ways to finish the super-highway with the least amount of impact on area communities and park land.

On other topics, they said that a campaign manager and treasurer would be announced shortly.

Geiger, Wood in Merit semis

Lorraine V. Geiger and Laura D. Wood of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School have been named semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition. They are eligible to continue in the competition for about 4,100 Merit Scholarships to be awarded next spring.

Four-year Merit Scholarships will be awarded to about 3,100 finalists—some 1,400 supported by grants from corporations, foundations and professional groups with about 1,700 underwritten by U.S. colleges and universities. These could be worth up to $1,500 each year.

At least 1,000 finalists will be awarded $1,000 one-time scholarships.

Concert series presents organ recital Sunday

The Community Presbyterian Church of Mountainside will open the season's community concert series at 8 p.m. Sunday with an organ recital by James S. Little, organist-choirmaster of the church.

The two featured works will be J.S. Bach's "Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor" and Cesar Franck's "Grande Piece Symphonique," a 19th Century symphony for organ.

The public has been invited to attend this concert at the church, Deer Path and Meeting House lane, Mountainside. A donation of $1 at the door has been requested; those wishing to support this community program aimed at encouraging young musicians may become a patron for $10 a season.

Coming concerts will feature pianist Gary Steigerwalt, the Newark Sangerchor, the Pingry School choral and brass groups, Chamber Music Ensemble, the Jonathan Dayton Chorale and the choir of the Community Presbyterian Church.

Exercise class features music

Local residents will be able to "Shape up to Music" this fall on Wednesday evenings at Beechwood School. The exercise-to-music classes sponsored by the Mountainside Recreation Commission will meet from 8 to 9 p.m. starting Oct. 4.

Kathy Krihak is scheduled to instruct the classes. Krihak, a member of the Cosmos soccer cheerleading squad, has experience in jazz, ballet and tap dance and is a free-lance model. She noted that the classes will focus on proper warm-ups and developing exercise patterns that compliment the music.

The registration fee is $12 for the 10-class session. Participants should wear comfortable clothes that allow free movement but which will keep them warm. Registrations are being accepted at the recreation office weekdays from 9-11 a.m. and 2-4 p.m. For additional information, phone 232-0015.

Dems say poll shows '2-party rule' wanted

There is a definite dissatisfaction among the residents of Mountainside with one-party government, according to the Mountainside Democratic Committee. The committee, which is surveying citizens in the borough, stated that there is a "growing resentment toward the unresponsiveness of elected borough officials." The Democrats said they are "particularly fortunate" that Ray Vaccari is their candidate for tax collector.

Vaccari categorizes himself as "a man who won't sit idly by and let things just happen." A party spokesman said he is a "joiner with genuine enthusiasm for every potential problem he faces, looking at each one as an opportunity to learn more about himself and the people around him."

He recently received a master's degree in business administration at Rutgers University. He also has a master of science degree in applied mathematics and a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering, both from the New Jersey Institute of Technology.

Vaccari said he considers himself a harbinger of a new era in Mountainside politics. Vaccari's main concern for Mountainside is that it is dominated by one political party. According to Vaccari, "The political process is not properly carried out without a fair representation of the residents by elected officials."

The Democrats said they see in Vaccari a "responsive, efficient administrator who will serve the community well through his professional expertise."

GOP changes meeting date

Roy Mumford, president of the Mountainside Republican Club, has announced a change in the date and location of the club's September meeting. The meeting will be next Thursday evening, Sept. 28, at the Elks' Club on Rt. 22.

For the past year GOP regulars have been holding their conclaves on Wednesday nights at the Mountainside Inn but Mumford pointed out that after this month's Thursday night meeting a decision to change the meeting night to the second or fourth Friday monthly will be made.

"It is a problem of scheduling facilities and a problem of picking a night when the great majority of members are available. Mountainside is a very busy and very social town. It isn't easy to accommodate everybody since most people in the club are active in several organizations," Mumford said.

Besides the meeting date selection, Mumford said he would propose that the Republicans hold their annual candidate cocktail party on Nov. 5, two days before the general election. "We've got tickets to be printed, arrangements to be made and candidates to elect, and I want to get this show on the road at Thursday's meeting," Mumford added.

"As always, we're eager to see some new faces along with the old," he said. "Get involved. A community is only as good as its politics."

Land use plan will be shown

The Mountainside Planning Board will conduct a public hearing on a proposed land use master plan next Thursday, Sept. 28, at 8 p.m., in the Municipal Building.

The new master plan was drafted, according to the planning Board, to update the borough's land use laws to help reflect the most responsible approaches to existing and proposed utilization. In accordance with state law, a master plan must be adopted by February 1979.

Since the borough is almost completely developed, the board said, relatively few major changes are included. The public hearing is designed to provide a platform to present the plan and to receive reactions and input from the public.

The plan will go before the Borough Council for final adoption following the public hearing.

Counter-claims in assault case bring fines to 2

Charges and counter-charges of assault and battery, filed by an Edison woman and her ex-boyfriend, last week resulted in fines and court costs totaling $225 for each.

Sharon McLeod, who works in the Xerox building on Sheffield street in Mountainside, claimed that on Jan. 19 she was dragged by James Jones of Elizabeth to his car. Jones, according to Mountainside police reports, beat her about the face with his fists and grabbed her around the neck. McLeod escaped from the car after Jones had driven along Sheffield street.

Jones later filed assault and battery charges against his ex-girlfriend claiming that she had struck him in the head with her pocketbook, grabbed the hood of his coat and pulled it from behind and punched him in the stomach.

Judge Robert Ruggieri found both parties guilty and fined each $200 and $25 court costs.

Linda Whitescarver of Puddingstone drive, Mountainside, had to pay $125 when she was found guilty in the assault and battery of a Mountainside police officer. Charges were filed by Officer William Moylan on Aug. 11 stating that Whitescarver had committed assault and battery by kicking him.

Fines totaling $85 and costs of $40 were given to Craig Nelson of Irvington for operating an unregistered car, having no proof of insurance and being an unlicensed driver. In addition, Nelson will forfeit the opportunity to apply for a license for six months.

Frank Barney of East Orange had his license suspended for 60 days and had to pay $215 including court costs for driving under the influence of alcohol. The summons was issued during the afternoon of July 4.

PARTY PLANNING — Ray Vaccaro and Frances Ehman (standing) Mountainside candidates for tax collector and Borough Council, respectively, attend a planning session for the Sept. 23 champagne party to be held in their honor by the Democratic Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leonard, 1020 Elston drive. Seated left to right are Virginia Heinz party chairperson, Lorraine and Jack Leonard and Sabie Pak party co-chairperson. Ticket chairman is Russ Caron. Tickets are $15 per couple, $8 single. ## Letters to the Editor

NOTE FROM SPAULDING

This is a combined "before" and "after" thank-you note for all that the media, including your paper, and the public have given this year to Spaulding for Children, the free adoption agency for older and handicapped children.

We are grateful and, as we enter our eighth year, we wish to extend an invitation to any interested persons who would care to attend the first meeting of the Volunteer Auxiliary this season. The place is the Cranford Community Center, 114 Mill St., Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Being a Spaulding volunteer is an aesthetic kind of volunteerism; it requires sophisticated dedication. Our volunteers rarely have the pleasure of meeting those they help. All they have is our word that some older or handicapped child out there now has a family. And then they plunge into the next difficult chore to help keep us going.

Some do direct chores for us, like putting out the Spaulding Special Newsletter or bookkeeping or processing the mail appeal returns. Many help us with fund-raising events. They account directly for about 20 percent of our budget. Some are once-a-year helpers, who may bake a cake for an event, some are here week after week, day after day, doing thankless tasks like sorting goods for auctions and garage sales.

Many thanks to these lovely people whom we need so much and whom we can give so little in return. Dear reader, we need them and they need you.

JOHN BOYNE
Executive director

Added services being offered this fall by county adult center

The Union County Regional Adult Learning Center is offering additional services this fall in Kenilworth.

The Adult Learning Center offers free programs in English as a Second Language, Adult Basic Education and High School Equivalency Preparation. This year, the Center will offer an Adult High School option.

The English as a Second Language classes will meet Tuesdays and Fridays from 10:30 to 2:30 p.m. and Mondays and Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. All students are tested and placed in the appropriate level. Students may move from one level to another as needed. New students are welcome throughout the year.

The Adult Basic Education program concentrates on basic skills for adults who need help with reading and basic math to help them with their daily responsibilities.

The staff, trained to test for learning disabilities and to develop suitable programs of study for students with learning problems, will be under the supervision of Dr. Richard Walter of Kean College.

The High School Equivalency diploma is received after passing a series of five tests. The Adult Learning Center staff will administer pre-tests to interested students and then develop individual learning plans. Before encouraging a student to take the High School Equivalency test, GED, the staff will give a post-test to determine the student's readiness.

The Adult High School is another option being offered this year. The Union County Regional Adult Learning Center will evaluate for credit an adult's high school transcript, on-the-job training, community service, and more. Through credit received, projects completed and assessment tests passed, the adult student could receive a high school diploma. The adult high school is one of the newest concepts in adult education. It's not for everyone, but may be the correct path for some students.

Adult Basic Education and High School Completion programs will be

Six persons are hurt in 2 Rt. 22 accidents

Six persons were injured in two multi-car accidents on Rt. 22 during the past week. Three were taken to Overlook Hospital's emergency room, where they were treated and released; the other three were to see their doctors.

The first incident occurred at 10:40 a.m. on Friday and involved a van, a passenger car and a tractor trailer truck. The van, driven by Jonathan Oey of Somerville, Mass., was struck while completing a U turn from Rt. 22 east. According to police reports, Oey failed to yield the right of way while pulling into the westbound lanes of the highway. Oey pulled in front of a car driven by Cheryl Geyer of Union, which struck Oey's van in the left rear. Willard Ollert of Little Ferry, was driving behind Geyer in a tractor trailer truck which he said he couldn't stop. Ollert's truck struck Geyer's and Oey's vehicles and then jackknifed across the highway.

Oey, who complained of pain in his entire body, and Ollert who had a moderate injury to his upper arm, were transported to Overlook Hospital by the Mountainside Rescue Squad where they were treated and released. Cheryl Geyer and a passenger in her car, Arlyne Geyer, complained of pain but wished to see their own doctor.

At 11:50 Monday night a car driven by Robert Veca of Holmdel struck a car in the fire emergency U turn at Central avenue on Rt. 22 and ended up sideways across the highway where that car was hit by another car.

Richard Chirite, 53, of Lathrup Village, Mich., was attempting to make a U-turn through the fire emergency turn which splits the center divider at Central avenue when Veca's car struck Chirite's from behind. Veca's car went sideways across the road and a car driven by Frank Colalillo of Bound Brook hit Veca's car. Chirite was issued a summons for making an illegal U-turn through the divider.

Veca complained of pain in his lower leg and decided to see his own doctor. Chirite was taken to Overlook by the Mountainside Rescue Squad where he was treated and released.

Dayton's girls off to bad start: netters drop 2

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional girls' tennis team, which finished last season with a winning record, dropped its first two matches of the season under Coach Ed Casinski. Westfield trounced Dayton, 5-0, while Clark won, 4-1.

The only winner during the week was singles player Kathy Gerold, who tipped her opponent from Clark. She was tipped by a strong Westfield girl. At second singles, Senior Barb Martino lost twice despite battling her foes in three sets. Lori Gabay also was defeated in the third singles.

The top doubles team of Tina Segall and Mary Winters dropped two sets to Karen Edwards and Lauren Miller last week in the other doubles match.

The girls will play a rematch in the Dayton season on Sept. 24 and 25 at Clark.

Regional booters fall despite Janeira goal

By MIKE MEIXNER
Despite a blistering fourth-period penalty shot for a goal by George Janeira, the Jonathan Dayton soccer team lost its season opener, 2-1, to Carteret.

The Bulldogs began their conference schedule Tuesday against New Providence and tomorrow plays at Summit.

Coach Vince Ferrante presents a bright outlook, although the squad has been lacking scoring punch. Ferrante envisions a give-and-take relationship with his team.

The team showed brilliant prowess passing against Carteret, but was unable to score. Time and luck are needed to establish an explosive attack which will make Dayton one of the top teams in the area. Ferrante has built a solid defensive alignment. Steve Gelman was a standout at sweeper. He lagged behind the fullbacks and thwarted many a Carteret rally. The outstanding tandem of Dave Laiboff and Scott Worswick allowed just two goals in 70 minutes of playing time but unfortunately received minimal support.

Fullbacks Tony Sangregorio, Don Meixner, Dan Demaratzky, Marc Meskin, and Mike Meixner played strong defensive games. Meskin and Demaratzky also played on the offensive line at intervals during the contest.

The halfback line was led by sophomores Dave Cushman, Keith Hangan, Myron Wasikiv and John Gerold. These four youngsters exhibited crisp passes and made minimal mistakes.

The linemen were unable to score from scrimmage, although Janeira boomed the penalty kick. Doug Isaksen, Todd Melamed, Dave Weisberg and Mitch Feor did steady jobs, however, and juniors Mike King and Paul Jeka also helped mount the attack. The various combinations Coach Ferrante has used soon will pay off. Lineman Tom Ragno could solve the problem. Fullbacks Randy Bain and Ulysses Mumford also help the squad a great deal.

The junior varsity topped Carteret, 1-0, on a brilliant goal by Matt Swanson. Joe Hubber fed him with a remarkable pass. Sophomore goalie Paul Comarato recorded the shutout.

Livingston tops Mountainside in tennis league

Mountainside A and B women's tennis teams, the defending 1977 champions of the Suburban Women's Tennis League (consisting of 12 participating communities), lost the championship for the 1978 season by placing second behind the victorious Livingston A and B teams.

The members of the A team were: Jacques Dubley, Harriet Gerold, Sandy Dunlap, Carol Wood, Judy Crutcher, Ellie Hechtle, Ronnie Geiger, and Sue Whans. The B team members were: Ann Uncheater, Marie Placet, Sharon Ginnell, Janice Van Besscheren, Harlene Tancroft, Carol Funk, Pat Keik, and Ariene Mucke.

The newly formed C team participated in the league competition for the first time this season and placed third of the six communities in the league that field a C team. The members of the Mountainside C team were: Judy Rosen, Regina Picot, Ruth Goebel, Helen Borchert, Elsie McAlister, Elsie Ricciardi, Barbara McLaughlin, and Florence Parent.

Trials for these teams will be held the first week in October. If any Mountainside woman is interested in trying out, she is asked to call the captain of the team for which she would like to try out. The team captains are: A team, Ellie Hechtle, 232-5495; B team, Ann Uncheater, 233-5823; and C team, Judy Rosen, 277-2243.

Signup total doubled for soccer program

When over 120 youths signed up last Saturday for the 1978 Springfield Youth Soccer Program, the league, according to Greg Clarke, program director, has almost doubled since last year. Two leagues have been organized consisting of four teams in the senior league of 6th through 8th graders and five teams in the junior league of 3rd, 4th and 5th graders. Junior games will be held at Gaudineer while seniors will play at Ruby Field.

All p.m., junior league players were given skill tests in the Gaudineer School parking lot. Skills tested at four stations included heading, dribbling and kicking a soccer ball.

Applicants who were in the program last season did not need to pass through these tests. Victor Gutierrez, who was working testing station number 1 commented, "We already know them well."

Applicants for the senior league had the opportunity to sign up later that same afternoon. Clarke said that the scrimmage game at the end of the afternoon showed not only many improved players from last season, but also uncovered some real talent among the newcomers.

Applications for the Senior League are still being accepted and interested persons should either contact Greg Clarke at 378-4520 or be at Ruby Field at 1 p.m. this Saturday.

Brothers move in tennis action over weekend

Springfield's first junior tennis tournament moved into the quarterfinal round last weekend. Two pairs of brothers have so far survived.

Michael Berliner got past Yael Rubenenko, 6-0, 6-2, in the 12-14 age group, while Alan Berliner prevailed over Lori Gabay, 6-2, 6-3, in the 15-17 group.

In other 12-14 matches, Danny Schlager advanced over Lenny Glassman, 6-1, 6-0, while his brother, Gary Schlager, had to come from behind in a tough match with Alison Keehn to finally win in a tie-breaker, 6-2, 7-6. Alison showed some fine form, particularly on her service returns.

In other matches, Mike Pine squeaked by Ken Schulman in a first set tie-breaker before gaining his steadiness to win, 7-6, 6-1. Roy Zitomer needed an all-court strategy to prevail over smooth-stroking Steve Bloch, 6-1, 6-4. Barbara Martino, coming off a morning match in another town, worried Mike Clarke with her steady angled shots before Mike won, 6-3, 6-3.

The quarter-final and semi-final matches in both tournaments will be played at the new high school courts Saturday and Sunday between noon and 3 p.m.

SEASON OPENING — A new head coach, Angelo Senese, center, and new co-captains, Ken Bell, left, of Springfield; and Larry Irene of Mountainside, are leading the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School football team, which will open its 1978-79 season with a home game at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Meisel Field against Arthur Johnson Regional High of Clark.

Soccer Scene

By BILL WILD
Last Sunday may have been a nice day for soccer, but it wasn't the best day in the record book for the two home teams at Farber's Grove. The Union Lancers dropped their match to Blackpool SC, 3-1, over in good old Brooklyn, New York.

Meanwhile back at Farber's Grove the Union County SC had their hands full with the Chelsea Strikers, and the referee, Chelsea scored their first goal at the six minute mark and dominated play until the last 15 minutes of the first half. The Union booters came back to even things up just six minutes from the end of the half.

Union County was still in control of the game as the second half began, but things evened out midway through the period. Chelsea scored again with only 15 minutes remaining, but Union County did not give up. The Union squad was pressing Chelsea back toward its own goal when Chelsea picked up a loose ball. I was sitting on the far side of the field just a few yards toward the Union County goal, and I thought that if Chelsea passed the ball forward at that moment, the official would have to call offsides. The ball was passed, and I waited for a whistle, but it never came. I jumped up and frantically waved my arms and yelled "offsides" so the people in the picnic grove could hear me — but still no whistle. Chelsea made it 3-1 on that play.

First meet of season leaves Dayton even

By KIRK KUBACH
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School cross-country team opened its season with a triumph but at the same time suffered a defeat in the first tri-meet of the year. Although the harriers could not overcome Madison, racing on its own turf, the Bulldogs were able to salvage a victory by downing Millburn. The squad will try to improve its .500 ledger when they play host to Arthur L. Johnson of Clark today. Dayton took on Verona and New Providence earlier this week in Suburban Conference action.

In the opener, Madison's Dodgers captured the top three places, outpacing Dayton's top threesome who were close behind in fourth, fifth, and sixth. First for Jonathan Dayton was sophomore distance runner Kevin King, followed by Jeff Knowles and Jay Bruder.

Next in for Dayton was Steve Wright, who ran a sensational race as he pursued from behind displacing many runners. He eventually wound up fourth man in for the team and 10th overall. Rich Bantel also had a fine race, finishing in the 13th position and completing Dayton's top five.

Senior runners Kirk Kubach and Pete Keramas were the next Dayton runners in and ended up 15th and 19th. Other key efforts were contributed by senior Dave Barnes, freshman Jim Melkowitz and sophomore Jim Roche.

Minor changes made in fishing regulations

The state Fish and Game Council adopted 1979 New Jersey fishing regulations following the public hearing held in Trenton Sept. 12.

The state Division of Fish, Game and Shellfisheries said this week that the council approved the proposed fish code with only minor changes.

The code is the basis for New Jersey's sport fishing regulations for 1979-80.

The 1979 regulations are essentially the same as those for the current 1978 season except for changes which include the following:

1. The trout season to reopen on April 7.
2. Withdrawal of the exception on the Ramapo River, Bergen County, which permitted fishing for suckers during the pre-season closure for trout-stocked waters. Utilization of the stretch by sucker anglers has been minimal. The manner of fishing, snagging, could result in mortality of other fish including trout. The proposal is favored by the local anglers and conservation officer.
3. Addition of the Ramapo River, Bergen County, to the list of trout-stocked waters with in-season closure dates, because it is in the major stream category and the proposal has local support.
4. Reinstatement of Franklin Pond Creek, Sussex County, on the trout stocking list, since access and parking in the area are improved.
5. Reduction in the number of trout stockings, but not in the numbers of trout to be stocked, for Frenchtown Brook and Wickecheokee Creek, Hunterdon County, because of perennial low water conditions during the latter part of the stocking period.
6. Establishment of a natural trout fishing area on the lower 3.3-mile portion of Van Campens Brook, Warren County. This would provide greater diversity of angling opportunity. The Mulhockaway Creek natural trout fishing area has shown that such an area serves the interest of a significant portion of the angling population.
7. Allow the use of single-barbless-hook lures, as well as single-barbless-hook flies, on natural trout fishing areas. This would expand the opportunity for satisfying angling without increasing hook-and-release mortality of the fish. The Mulhockaway Creek area demonstrated that anglers do not adequately harvest the available trout with a flies-only regulation.
8. Provision of a daily bag limit of one trout not less than ten inches in length on the Van Campens Brook natural trout fishing area. This would provide for control of the numbers of trout harvested and provide protection to the trout until they attain maturity.

School offering cheap tickets

Discount tickets are being sold on the Jonathan Dayton campus for "home" athletic events of the Union County Regional High School District during the 1978-79 school year.

Cost is $15 for an adult and $10 per student and covers admission for "home" football games, wrestling matches and basketball games at Dayton and the other three regional district campuses: David Brearley in Kenilworth, Gov. Livingston in Berkeley Heights and Arthur Johnson in Clark.

Although the transferable ticket admits only one person to each event, there is no limit on the number of people who may use the same ticket during the year, officials said. Tickets are available from the office of Athletic Director Charles Berchen at Dayton.

3 Dems favor quick aid for abuse victims

A place where victims of violent crimes can go for immediate help has been proposed by the three Democratic candidates for Union County Board of Freeholders.

Gene Carmody, speaking at a brunch held by the Union County Women's Political Caucus, said that "what we need is an agency that can provide help for the individual between the actual time the offense is committed and the time when he or she enters the mainstream of society."

Joining Carmody at the caucus were his running mates, incumbent Freeholder Tony Amalfe and Union County Planning Board Chairman Matt Mirlocco.

"For too long we have been protecting the accused and the convicted in violent crimes," said Carmody, the mayor of Roselle Park.

He said victims could receive immediate aid through an agency known as the Victim's Witness Unit, which would be equipped to give help not only to rape cases and battered women but to anyone, male or female, who is the subject of a violent crime.

Amalfe said such a unit exists on the state level "but a crime victim from this area may not qualify for aid and quite possibly he or she may not take the time to seek out this help. If we had a unit right here, I think the crime victim would benefit by it immeasurably."

"What we are talking about here," Mirlocco said, "is a clearing-house situated locally and designed to give aid to a person immediately after the act has been committed."

The unit also could provide the victim with information about what services are available within the county that could be of help," the candidate said.

RINALDO LEADS TELETHON—Telephone calls from all parts of the country are answered by Rep. Matthew J. Rinaldo, R-N.J., as a lead-off panelist in a national telethon organized to let Americans speak out against government regulation. The three-day telethon was broadcast from Washington as part of a program of the U.S. Forum on Regulation, of which Rinaldo is a founder member.

Dr. Wolf announces fall justice program

The Criminal Justice program at Union College is offering courses to members of the Union County sheriff's office and other law enforcement personnel. This fall at the college's Elizabeth campus on Bayway and South Broad street, it was announced by Dr. John Wolf, chairman of the department.

In order to tailor the program for sheriff's office personnel, corrections administration will be substituted in the curriculum for police administration, Wolf said. The other course offered this fall is social psychology. Community-based treatment of the offender and minorities in American Life will be offered in the spring.

McCormack -- welfare reform an urgent need

Richard McCormack, Democratic candidate for Congress, has called for a complete overhaul of the welfare system. "Welfare reform is like the weather," McCormack noted. "Everyone talks about it — especially politicians — but no one ever truly does anything about it."

McCormack, Kenilworth councilman and police commissioner, said he wants to go to Washington "to raise such a fuss, on the floor of the House of Representatives, about welfare abuse and other evils that are eating away at the spirit and morale of this nation that, at long last, Congress will simply have to take constructive action on them."

"American taxpayers have never resented helping the helpless," she added, "but they rightly resent paying for those who could be carrying their own weight in society."

McCormack observed that the country has developed a class of chronic unemployables, "some of whom are second-generation welfare recipients." He said that many young people have told him they can't afford to take a job at modest pay. "This is preposterous," McCormack insisted. "Welfare in its proper implementation is noble and humane. When it is structured in such a way that it becomes an incentive not to work, it is self-destructive to the recipients and to society."

Diabetes topic of discussion on Wednesday

Diabetes, a disease which affects 365,000 persons in New Jersey, will be the topic of a free Community Education Program at Alexian Brothers Hospital, Elizabeth, on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Coordinated by the Department of Continuing Education and the Elizabeth Tri-Hospital Education Committee, the program will lead off a fall series on health information topics as part of the hospital's effort to promote preventive medicine.

A cure has not been found for this disorder in which the body does not make proper use of sugar, but it can be controlled. Diabetes and its complications is the third leading cause of death and the leading cause of new cases of blindness. This genetic disease has an impact on virtually all systems of the body and is estimated to cost the American economy at least five billion dollars annually.

The free program, to be held in Grassmann Hall, will feature a film, question-and-answer period, plus a panel discussion with Dr. Jose Garcia of the medical staff, Mary Smith, staff dietitian, and a representative from the American Diabetes Association.

Future community programs will cover renal dialysis, breast cancer, dental health and depression.

Sites in the Poconos available for homes

Any time from now through the end of October is a good time to head for the northeastern Pennsylvania hills, according to Lou and John Larsen, developers of Big Bass Lake at Gouldsboro.

The Larsens point out that brilliantly colored autumn foliage is a phenomenon that takes place in only three principal regions of the world — the eastern United States and Canada, certain parts of the British Isles and western Europe, and in parts of China and Japan.

Now is also time to look in on Big Bass Lake, 1239-acre leisure home community near the highest point in the Poconos. Miles of scenic roads winding among the trees make it easy to look over the permanent homes that have already been built and to inspect the choice homesites now available in one-acre parcels in a recently-opened new section adjacent to Larsen Lake.

Weekend rentals of homes at Big Bass Lake will be available during the hunting season this fall and the skiing season this winter through the rental management office at the Big Bass Welcome Center.

To get to Big Bass Lake follow Interstate 80 to Interstate 380 Exit 6. From there it is only two miles on Route 507.

TOMS RIVER TUDOR—Shown here is a rendering of the Coventry English Tudor being built in the 14-home Oak Park subdivision on Church road in Toms River. The Coventry includes four bedrooms, 2½ baths, artist's studio with skylight and cathedral ceiling, extensive closet space, custom pantry, full basement and dropped ceilings and special lighting in the bathrooms.

Interest reported high at Oak Park homes

Oak Park, a small community of custom homes in Toms River, reports tremendous buyer interest according to Sarkis Krikorian, the builder.

"I'm pleased and overwhelmed at the number of people we've had come through since our opening. The sales that we've had to this point are very gratifying, but even more satisfying are the wonderful comments people have been making about this project," he said.

Located on Church road off Rt. 549, Oak Park features homes of colonial, tudor and ranch designs. The custom homes have completely flexible design plans that are, in many cases, available at no extra cost, according to the builder. The homes, which are on oversized lots, boast enormous living areas along with full basements and expansion attics. Each has a minimum of 4 bedrooms, 2½ baths and special touches such as air conditioning, hardwood floors, insulated windows, 2 car garage and a wet bar. Custom pantries individualized to each home with its unique layout are featured. "Every amenity that I would want for myself," Krikorian noted, "I tried to incorporate into each design."

The community, which has city water and sewers and underground utilities, has home prices which begin at $79,900.

"I'm sure people have seen the value we have to offer and when you satisfy the sophisticated buying market of today," Krikorian concluded, "you've done something."

Williamsburg Square attracts many buyers

On a hot and humid weekend at the end of August, over 150 home-seeking families visited Williamsburg Square, the townhome community in Hillsborough. By the end of the week-end 11 homes had been purchased and deposits taken for eight others. The 11 homes that were purchased brought to 93 the total number of homes sold at Williamsburg Square since the community opened 12 weeks ago.

According to Kenneth Pizzo, a principal in Mendham House, Inc., developers of Williamsburg Square, sales have been even greater than anticipated.

Asked by a recent visitor to account for the unusually high sales, Pizzo replied, "I guess it's a combination of things. Most important, of course, is the produce we're offering. Our homes are not only architecturally beautiful but we're including a lot of luxury extras in the price. And our prices and terms are at a level that many people can afford."

Among the four models now being offered are a 3-bedroom townhome with 2½ baths, two 2-bedroom townhomes with 1½ baths and one bedroom townhome with one bath. Each of the models offers luxury features that are usually associated with higher priced homes. All the rooms are spacious and there is generous closet space throughout.

Included in the prices which range from $48,000 to $68,000, are central air conditioning, wood-burning fireplaces, premium wall-to-wall carpeting, all major appliances, slate-floored foyers, double-hung windows, paneled doors, top-grade hardware, wood railings. All the homes have full basements. Available at an extra cost are such items as a finished basement, a burglar alarm system, an intercom and a central vacuum-cleaner system.

The community itself is usually beautiful with the exterior of the homes reminiscent of a Colonial village. All streets are paved and curbs are made of Belgian block. All wiring is underground.

Pizzo continued, "I think the current economic picture has some bearing on our sales. With inflation still running at or near double digits, a 'house account' makes more sense than a bank account for many families." Although Pizzo believes that every family should have some reserve funds in a bank account to handle unexpected contingencies, he points out that, beyond a certain point, an investment of the family's savings in a home has decided advantages.

"Money invested in a bank account at 5 to 7½ percent interest," said Pizzo, "is actually losing value in purchasing power. And, while no one can guarantee that the value of a particular home will rise in the future, historically the selling prices of homes have risen dramatically over the years."

Williamsburg Square may be reached by taking your choice of Rt. 22, 206 or 287 to the Somerville Traffic Circle. Go south on Rt. 206 for approximately 5½ miles to New Amwell road. Turn right and go about one-half mile to the Williamsburg Square entrance.

Models and information center are open weekdays from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., weekends from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. For customers' convenience, there are evening hours until 8 on Mondays and Thursdays.

New bi-levels being offered at Eagle Rock

The introduction of a new section of Eagle Rock Homes in Lakewood early this fall will offer buyers the opportunity to view a new bi-level, with four bedrooms and 2½ baths as well as ranch, Cape Cod and Colonial models in new exterior designs.

Homes will sell at the introductory price of $47,900 and up, sales manager Charley Mann said.

Eagle Rock Homes is a 74-house community which is being developed by Vahak Hovnanian of Hovbui Inc. on property which borders in the Woodlake Country Club and the 22-acre Ocean County Park. It is just off Exit 1 of the Garden State Parkway on New Hampshire Avenue off Rt. 88.

"It is a location that geographically is hard to match," states Hovnanian. There are stands of trees, lakes and play areas on the site and a rolling golf course on the other.

Thirty homes have been sold and a majority are occupied, giving Eagle Rock Homes a well-established look. Youngsters enjoy the area's excellent school system with bus service from Eagle Rock to both grade and high school. The area also has pre-kindergarten, private and prep schools.

Hovnanian, whose expertise in the building field is well known in New Jersey, attributes the success of Eagle Rock Homes to its excellent location and nearby facilities. There's express bus service every 15 minutes during high commuter hours to New York City which is within an hour of Lakewood major shopping centers such as Seaview Mall, Lakewood Shopping Plaza, Ocean County Mall, Manalapan Mall and Eastonown Mall are 15 to 20 minutes away.

Most important points out Hovnanian, the Eagle Rock Homes offer tremendous value. The same houses only 11 to 15 minutes further north are selling at almost twice the price.

Hovnanian terms the new bi-level model which will be introduced early fall as the "people's dream house." He notes that he took all ideas suggested by people who looked at his earlier models and incorporated them into his new homes. All the models, he adds, are serviced with custom booths.

He expects homes purchased at Eagle Rock this fall to increase in value within several years by as much as $10,000. This is already true of the 30 homes sold in the tract's initial segment.

Homes are being built on heavily wooded lots, one-third acre and larger in area, which have city sewers and water.

Hovnanian has designed homes for all ages and lifestyles. He offers such features as above-average insulation to save energy and keep costs at a minimum, maintenance-free painted heat, no-water baseboard system, wall-to-wall carpeting, aluminum windows, color-coordinated trimmers and built-in spacious bedrooms, generous master suite, a smoke detector and underground utilities.

Eagle Rock is easy to reach via Garden State Parkway south to Exit 81 and then Rt. 84 south to Rt. 88 east on Rt. 88 and then right at New Hampshire Avenue to Eagle Rock.

CONDOMINIUM HOMES at Heritage Hills, Somers, N.Y. are designed to complement and blend with the natural, rural setting provided by the hillsides of New York's northeastern Westchester County.

Heritage Hills seeks to meet rising demand

Heritage Hills of Westchester in Somers, N.Y., a condominium for active adults under development in North-eastern Westchester County, reports that un-anticipated sales volume and retained new home buyer interest have forced markedly accelerated production schedules in the community since the outset of 1978.

In efforts to keep pace with the demand and to maintain an inventory of available homes, the developers of the 1,000-acre site, the Heritage Development Group, have launched the production of over 140 new homes over the past nine months. Last month, 54 homesites in a new residential section, Condo 7, were made available to priority depositors for pre-construction selection. Over 50 percent were sold within two weeks of the opening.

"Sprawling sales" which we have been experiencing throughout the current year actually forced our decision to step up production schedules simultaneously in four new residential sections and to open a fifth, Condo 8, for selection several months earlier than originally planned," said Henry J. Pappalardo, developer of Heritage Hills and several other award winning communities located in Connecticut.

Development plans for the eighth residential section have already received preliminary approvals from the local planning board. The site when opened late this year will add another 56 new selections to the ever dwindling inventory of homes at Heritage Hills.

Building and landscaping operations begun late last winter have since been completed in Condo 4 and all 106 homes on the site are now totally occupied. Opened in May of this year, all 84 homes in the Condo 6 area were reported sold by the end of August. The latter section should be completed and ready for occupancy by early winter this year with first closings scheduled for the end of November.

Also planned for completion in Condo 7 by next spring is the first of several satellite recreational facilities to be constructed for homeowners' use.

Facilities will include a pool, cabanas, tennis court, and neighborhood picnic area. A large recreation complex providing residents with a fully equipped health club, heated swimming pool, tennis and paddle tennis courts has been operating in the community for the past three years. A private golf course—the first of 27 holes planned for Heritage Hills—has been in play since 1974.

One, two and three bedroom homes, some with attached 2-car garages, currently range in price from $55,000 to $105,000. Development plans over the next eight or nine years call for the growth of Heritage Hills from a present total of over 400 homes to 3,100 residences on completion in the rural, wooded Westchester County setting.

For further information, call the Heritage Hills Visitors Center at 914-276-2000, open daily, including weekends and holidays, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Mystic Shores offer new adult community

The expertise of a building "pro" is evident in the quality construction at Mystic Shores, according to Ruth Whitfield, sales manager.

This adult community in Tuckerton is one of many single family developments planned, created, and built under the direction of Sanford Miller, president of Mystic Development Corp. for three decades in New Jersey.

Primarily constructing homes in South Jersey, he has built 1500 homes in North Cape May, 300 in Cherry Hill and 200 in Somers Point. Since 1959 Miller has been creating Mystic Islands, which now has 4000 homes with 2000 more on the drawing boards. Part of this water front and woodland community is the separate and unique adult community, Mystic Shores. It offers seven model homes and a completed recreation complex with a 12,000 square foot auditorium, game rooms, library, shuffleboard, Olympic swimming pool and patio, picnic areas and hiking trails.

Mystic Shores will have more than 1000 homes on individual home sites. Nearby is super market, bank, pharmacy and convenience stores, and it is a mile to Rt. 9 which connects with major highways north, south and west.

Home ownership at Mystic Shores includes a one-year regular membership at Atlantis Country Club, less than a mile away with its 18 hole golf course and restaurant.

All the homes at Mystic Shores are built for year-round living with full insulation, city water and sewers. Homes have ceramic bathrooms, aluminum siding, and garages.

Mystic Shores is north of Atlantic City.

Seven model homes are open at Mystic Shores seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Prices start at $27,000. To visit Mystic Shores take Garden State Parkway north to Exit 50 (New Gretna) or Exit 58 (Tuckerton) south and follow the signs on Route 9 to the adult community.

Not for everybody. But so special, it's quite possibly perfect for you.

Somewhere out there, we believe there are a limited number of people who insist on quality in everything they own. And who want something very special in their next home.

You're the ones for whom we're building The Commons at Mendham.

Visualize, if you will, one of the most historic and picturesque locations in all of New Jersey. On this beautiful site we've clustered superbly-crafted townhomes leaving untouched areas of natural terrain. Though we've added pathways along the rippling stream that meanders through the trees, the character of the land remains much as we found it.

Each home is built with the kind of detailing and pride of craftsmanship that is reminiscent of an earlier century. You may choose from six distinctive models, each one with a well-planned layout and spaciousness that tell you louder than words, what excellent values they are.

Within the community you'll have a wealth of recreation opportunities: A magnificent clubhouse with a huge indoor pool, tennis courts, plus an outdoor pool and an outdoor kiddie pool.

You'll have more time to spend on recreation here because a trained staff maintains the exterior of your home, the grounds and the common areas. So you have all the advantages of care-free living coupled with the tax benefits and equity buildup of home ownership.

You really must see The Commons to appreciate it. So drive over at your convenience. See how well located we are. Secluded, yet close to shopping, schools and houses of worship. With easy commuting by car, bus or train. Chances are, you'll find The Commons is perfect for you.

Mann on staff at Eagle Rock

Charles Mann of Toms River, a veteran in sales for many of the major home building projects on the Jersey shore, has joined Hovbill Inc. of Howell Township and will serve as director of sales for the company's Eagle Rock Homes community now under way in Lakewood.

Eagle Rock Homes is a 74-house community on New Hampshire road just off Rt. 88 and the Garden State Parkway and borders on Woodlake Country Club and Ocean County Park. Homes are offered from $47,590.

Mann, a native of Jersey City who moved to the Jersey shore as a young man, has been active in sales for some 16 years. He was associated with such major home building firms as Boise Cascade, Kaufman and Broad, Development Corp. of America, Kevork Hovnanian, and several others and over the years sold more than 1,000 homes with these groups. Before going into sales, Mann spent about eight years in the remodeling field with his own company, Sea Coast Construction.

CHARLES MANN

TRANQUIL STREET SCENE — Barnegat Woods, small community of attached homes priced from $24,490 offers private parking and sodded and landscaped lawns. Barnegat Woods is located between Garden State Parkway Exit 67 and Rt. 9.

Development at Barnegat

A "hard-to-find" Barnegat with 2-bedroom location has not stopped ranch homes priced at the flow of home-buyers to $24,490 and 3-bedroom Barnegat Woods in townhouse homes priced at $25,990. Barnegat Woods is not a condominium, so there are no monthly fees. Yet the attached design of the homes offers all the advantages of condominium-style construction. The rooms are large and there is private parking and sodded yards with landscaping to set off individualized front doors.

The second section is now being built in a hilly tract between Garden State Parkway Exit 67 and Route 9. Prices will remain the same through the end of September, but rising lumber and other materials costs threaten a price rise in October.

Financing has been arranged with 5 or 10 percent down payment mortgages available to qualified buyers. Sales director JoAnn LaTerra points out that with a down payment of $1300, monthly payments on the 30 year mortgage and local taxes come to about $245.

The sales office and models are open seven days a week in this community reached from Parkway Exit 67 via Gunning River road.

T Fal has new lease

T Fal Manufacturing, a division of Seb of France, Inc., has leased a 51,000-square-foot building for use as a warehouse at 7 Patton Drive, West Caldwell, announced Harvey Schultz, executive vice president of M. Alfieri and Co., Inc. of Union, owner-developer.

Preiss and Preiss, Fairfield brokers, negotiated lease of the one-story building.

The West Caldwell facility is an expansion for T-Fal Manufacturing which will continue its current operation at 23 Kulik rd. in Fairfield. Alan Daniels, plant manager, will be in charge of the new facility.

Glendenning opens models at Stonehedge

Donald Glendenning, president of the Keryn Corporation predicts his new project at Toms River will be just as successful as his Lakewood development of 80 single-family homes called Glen Pines.

"We're recreating the same excellence in the new community, Stonehedge, at Toms River," Glendenning says. While the model area was still being prepared, it generated more than 20 sales before the official opening, according to Glendenning. "And no wonder," he adds. "The section in which these fine homes are being built is one of the more gorgeous locations in the Toms River environs. Church Road in North Dover, where the development lies, offers close proximity to schools which are rated academically among the top in the state, transportation, recreation, shopping, cultural activities.

"The homes themselves are built in the old-world tradition by skilled craftsmen using the finest material available. Real cedar shakes, clapboard, wood windows, hardwood floors, wood kitchen cabinets, full basements, full thick insulation, paved driveways and city water and sewers."

Six models, which range from ranches to split-levels to two-story homes, are available at Stonehedge with prices starting at $63,900. Models may be seen by taking the Garden State Parkway to Exit 88, driving on Rt. 70 West (toward Lakehurst).

Increase in women at NJIT

New Jersey Institute of Technology's student population shows a decided increase in women as the 1978-79 academic year begins. According to the preliminary figures of Joseph F. Thompson, NJIT registrar, registration by women is up 20 percent over the fall of 1977. The increases among women occur largely in the day and evening undergraduate populations, he reports.

Thompson's statistics disclose that 422 women are registered at New Jersey's leading technological institution; a year ago 352 were registered. The increase reflects increased institutional effort to attract more women to technological careers. About 50 women are represented in the freshman class.

This year NJIT has a freshman class of 687 students, an increase over the 628 of 1977. Enrollment for all divisions is 5,732. Among the new Institute class approximately 500 freshmen have indicated preference for engineering, science and computers science educational paths.

Another 70 freshmen plan to enter the Institute's school of architecture and smaller numbers will major in related technical programs. Included in the total are 80 Educational Opportunity Program students. A nearly similar group of EOP students have been admitted each year for nearly a decade.

Significant increases have been noted in the number of transfer students admitted to the Institute; among black and hispanic students and among the number of undergraduates enrolled in the Institute's Air Force ROTC program. Early estimates place the AFROTC enrollments, which represents classwork outside of the normal requirements, at about 150 students, about double of recent years.

General enrollment figures at New Jersey Institute of Technology include 3,147 day undergraduates, 1,090 evening undergraduates, 550 Division of Technology and 945 graduate students. A substantial number of students in the Institute's Division of Technology are enrolled in a special "bridge" program, which will eventually enable those students to acquire a bachelor's degree.

Historians research old Newark business

The New Jersey Historical Society is asking 750 businesses and industries for help in a massive search for records and other documents that will shed more light on Newark's business history before 1920.

The Historical Society's project will continue for two years under a grant from the National Historical Publications and Records Commission. The survey will cover labor organizations as well as business and industry, and the results will be published as a guide to research materials on Newark's business history.

Carolyn G. Ryan, field archivist for the society, emphasized that even seemingly insignificant records can be valuable for historical purposes.

"It's important that those who are receiving our request for records and other documents realize that even records that seem of minor importance form an historical pattern that we are looking for," she said.

Mrs. Ryan said the Historical Society is receiving the cooperation of the Newark Public Library, the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce and the Essex-West Hudson Labor Council.

The Historical Society will advise businesses which wish to maintain their own records on how best to administer and preserve them. For those records which businesses and labor organizations wish to donate, the society plans preservation in a network of institutions accessible for research.

Mrs. Ryan said the society is trying to contact spokesmen for all businesses and industries that operated in Newark before 1920.

Pick Of The LP's... NATALIE LIVE: by Natalie Cole (CAPITOL SKBL-11709).

All the power, emotion and sophistication that has made Natalie Cole one of America's very best on-stage performers has been captured on this double-pocket LP album.

"Natalie Live" was recorded partially during her summer 1977 stand at the Universal Amphitheatre near Hollywood and partially at New Jersey's Cherry Hill's Latin Casino last March.

Songs included are "Our Love" (her second RIAA-certified Gold single, taken from her "Unpredictable" LP, and the song that won a fourth Grammy nomination for her), "This Will Be" (the double Grammy-winning single from her debut LP July 1975's "Inseparable") and "Sophisticated Lady" (which won a third Grammy award for Ms. Cole, taken from her second LP, May 1976's "Natalie").

Also included are "Mr. Melody" and the title track from "Inseparable," and an extremely well-conceived eight-minute version of "Lucy In The Sky With Diamonds." Additional numbers include: "Cry Baby," "Something's Got A Hold On Me," "Que Sera, Sera," "Lovers," "I'm Catching Hell" (Living Here Alone), "Inseparable," "Can We Get Together Again," "I Can't Say No" and "Party Lights." Listen and enjoy!!!

Art work on display

The fall session of art classes at the Montclair Art Museum, which begins next week, is being introduced through two exhibitions. One presents a selection of paintings, drawings and prints by the artists who teach the museum classes.

The other is an outdoor show on the museum grounds Sunday afternoon of the work in children's and adult classes.

Adolf Konrad, a new member of the art school staff, is represented in the instructors' exhibition by two paintings and a drawing. His work also is represented in the museum's permanent collection. Konrad will teach two classes at the museum, a figure class with a model and a painting class.

Florence Noa, a printmaker who joins the teaching staff this year, will have two etching reliefs in the instructors' exhibition. She will teach a new course in photo-silk-screen printing.

More family physicians called key to cutting medical cost rise

Slowing the rising cost of health care and extending that care to more and more people will result if greater numbers of family physicians are trained, according to reports received by the American Medical Association and endorsed by the New Jersey Academy of Family Physicians.

Dr. John J. Pastore, president of the 700-member family doctors' society in New Jersey, points out that health planners recognize that family physicians trained to the delivery of primary care for more specialized physicians who are likely to provide more expensive medical services, and secondly, through lower training costs for a given supply of physician manpower, or conversely, a larger supply for the same level of costs.

The AMA commission formed to deal with rising health costs declares that "there should be an increase in the proportion of family practice physicians. Such an increase could be expected to contribute to the moderation of rising health care costs."

The simplest way to encourage the training of more family physicians, the Academy of family physicians says, is through increased federal and state support for establishment of departments of Family Medicine at medical schools, and similar support for hospital residency or graduate training programs in Family Medicine.

Family doctors are also helping relieve the mal-distribution problem in modern medicine, according to Dr. Pastore. More than 50 per cent of family practice graduates are located in rural areas, while many other so-called primary care specialists are being lost to the sub-specialties.

The growth of interest in Family Medicine has been astounding, Dr. Pastore declares. From essentially a

The 16 15-minute programs provide visual experiences that will aid in the social development of six and seven-year-olds. The world of work, money and its uses, maps, globes and government, and the child, his family, home and country are all subjects of the series.

More family physicians called key to cutting medical cost rise

Slowing the rising cost of health care and extending that care to more and more people will result if greater numbers of family physicians are trained, according to reports received by the American Medical Association and endorsed by the New Jersey Academy of Family Physicians.

Dr. John J. Pastore, president of the 700-member family doctors' society in New Jersey, points out that health planners recognize that family physicians trained to the delivery of primary care for more specialized physicians who are likely to provide more expensive medical services, and secondly, through lower training costs for a given supply of physician manpower, or conversely, a larger supply for the same level of costs.

The AMA commission formed to deal with rising health costs declares that "there should be an increase in the proportion of family practice physicians. Such an increase could be expected to contribute to the moderation of rising health care costs."

The simplest way to encourage the training of more family physicians, the Academy of family physicians says, is through increased federal and state support for establishment of departments of Family Medicine at medical schools, and similar support for hospital residency or graduate training programs in Family Medicine.

Family doctors are also helping relieve the mal-distribution problem in modern medicine, according to Dr. Pastore. More than 50 per cent of family practice graduates are located in rural areas, while many other so-called primary care specialists are being lost to the sub-specialties.

The growth of interest in Family Medicine has been astounding, Dr. Pastore declares. From essentially a zero base in 1969, residency training programs have grown to more than 325 by mid-1977.

"Seventy-five to 80 per cent of each graduating class have located in communities of 100,000 or less and over 50 per cent have established practices in communities of 30,000 or less," according to Dr. Pastore.

"These statistics provide preliminary evidence that the physicians educated in modern family practice residency programs will locate in substantial numbers in relatively small communities where their services appear to be particularly needed at this time," he concludes.

TV series focuses on 1st, 2nd-graders

The 16 15-minute programs provide visual experiences that will aid in the social development of six and seven-year-olds. The world of work, money and its uses, maps, globes and government, and the child, his family, home and country are all subjects of the series.

'Healthline' identifies Blue Shield doctors

A new toll-free telephone number has been installed by Blue Shield of New Jersey to help its members get up-to-date information on physicians who provide paid-in-full service benefits to eligible subscribers.

A member can call the "healthline" number, 800-242-0220, to find out if a doctor participates in Blue Shield.

"A participating physician will accept the Blue Shield payment as payment in full for covered services, if the subscriber's income makes him or her eligible...under one of our fixed-fee programs," explained Jean Geiger, vice president, communications for Blue Shield. "And if the subscriber is covered under our Usual, Customary or Reasonable (UCR) fee program, he is eligible for paid-in-full service benefits from a participating physician no matter what his income."

Eligible income levels vary with the type of coverage. Under the new Series 14-20 contract, a family can have a husband-wife income as high as $20,000 a year and still be eligible for paid-in-full service benefits.

"The participating physician is the key to paid-in-full service benefits," said Geiger. "That's why we want to help our members find out if their doctors participate. Almost 80 percent of the doctors in the state do cooperate in this voluntary cost-containment effort."

Members who use the "healthline" will get the latest information on participating physicians.

"The new toll-free number is only for information on participating physicians," Geiger said. "A member who wants information on enrollment or billing should call the nearest Blue Cross center. Medical-surgical claims information can be obtained from the nearest Blue Shield service center."

Old Egypt, King Tut featured in programs

Kean College in Union is planning special programs on Egypt to herald the Treasures of Tutankhamen, exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City this December.

Dr. Mary Lewis, of the Kean History department, will present "Treasures of Tutankhamen," a color slide lecture series, on four Mondays from 7:40 to 9:10 p.m. starting Oct. 9.

Lewis will describe the culture of ancient Egypt; the archaeological detective work leading to discovery of the King Tut tomb, and the thousands of artifacts, including jewelry and household articles, which were found there. The fee for the series is $15, and registration deadline is Oct. 9. Additional information is available at 527-2163.

The National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C., will loan the film, "Of Time, Tombs, and Treasures," to Kean for a February showing sponsored by the Wilkins Lecture Series. The film reveals why the treasures of Tutankhamen exhibit has drawn unprecedented crowds throughout the country and is expected to be the most popular show ever displayed at the Metropolitan Museum.

Six-story wing for Beth Israel to open Sunday

More than 1,000 invited guests will join Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr., Newark Mayor Kenneth Gibson and Port Authority Chairman Alan Sagner in the formal dedication of new patient care facilities at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center (NBIMC) Sunday. Dedication '78 will mark the end of a 10-year multi-million dollar building program and will officially unveil a new six-story wing and additional patient care floors, according to Harold E. Grotta, president of the Medical Center.

Grotta also announced that the entire fourth floor of the Pavilion complex would be named "The Sagner Department of Medicine and Patient Care Units." It was during Sagner's seven years as president of NBIMC that an affiliation agreement with the New Jersey Medical School was effected and a long-range master plan for programs and services related to community needs was launched. At that time the board of trustees decided to remain in Newark and to embark on the plan which would enable NBIMC to modernize its reusable facilities, replace all of its outmoded facilities, provide advanced technology and add much needed parking space—all on the 25 percent of the land still available for development.

Participating also in the ceremonies will be Dr. Eugene Parsonnet, well-known surgeon and son of one of the founders of Beth Israel. Dr. Parsonnet performed the first operation in the Lyons avenue building when it was opened in 1928 and the first procedure in the new space-age surgical suite when it opened in 1974.

DR. DOROTHY S. STRICKLAND, professor at Kean College in Union and president of the International Reading Association, served as panel moderator at the International Literacy Day Conference in Washington, D.C., Sept. 8.
