MAPPING IT OUT—Melvin E. Lemmerhirt, vice-chairman of the Planning Board, shows Mountainside's official map and the existing zoning map. The Master Plan, which will include new maps for the borough, will be explained by the Planning Board at a public hearing tonight at 8 p.m. in the municipal building.

Proposed Master Plan goes to public tonight

By BARBARA WALCOF

The borough's proposed Master Plan will get its first public airing at tonight's meeting of the Mountainside Planning Board, which will then consider public reaction to the scheme before sending it to the Borough Council for final action. The hearing will be held in Borough Hall at 8 p.m.

Donald Jeka, Planning Board chairman, called the proposal "an organizational job." Besides two zoning changes, he said, "all others are minor adjustments and some changes were reflections of what was necessary to update." He said that this situation exists because "there is so little land left for development."

The borough is divided into six zones—two residential, one business, one restricted commercial, one limited industrial and one office building. Proposed is the creation of a new residential zone. Other changes include the redrawing of some zone boundaries.

The Master Plan proposal calls for the rezoning of some land from R-2 (residential) to OB (office buildings). Other changes include shifting some land from OB to R-2; shifting land from R-2 to a new R-3 zone; R-C (commercial) to R-3, and R-1 to R-2.

All the proposed changes will not cost the residents of Mountainside any money, Jeka said. The chairman explained that these are paper changes.

The proposed change from R-2 to OB involves land on both sides of Rt. 22 for 1,000 feet west of New Providence road. The property on the south side has been developed by businesses, including a Steak and Brew, an Exxon station and others. The northern side has not been developed.

Robert Koser, borough engineer, confirmed that this proposed change is a matter of updating the original zoning. "We're changing it to fit. They (businesses) are already there."

A new service drive along the north side of the proposed OB zone also is included. This would prevent the six lots from having direct access to Rt. 22. The cost of this road, reported Jeka, would be handled by the owners and would be included as a part of their site plans.

would not be in conflict with the Planning Board's objective to "prevent the development of an unsightly and unsafe 'strip commercial' along Rt. 22." This would be accomplished by maintaining and expanding a buffer of grass along much of the highway.

The other major zoning change, Jeka said, would be the addition of a new R-3 zone. This would affect only lots now

TAKE A GANDER—The Lions Club Eyemobile will be at the Mountainside Shopping Center from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. this Saturday to offer free eye examinations. The screening program is under the sponsorship of the Mountainside Lions Club. Dr. Robert Zicht will direct the tests, with the exams being conducted by an ophthalmologist from the N.J. Eye Institute. George Benninger, president of the Mountainside Lions, a newly formed club, said that it is hoped the eyemobile's visit will become an annual event. The vehicle will be parked in the parking lot of the Central Jersey Bank and Trust Co.

Mumford takes over for Gibadlo as GOP tax collector candidate

Edward Gibadlo has been replaced by Roy Mumford as the Mountainside Republican candidate for tax collector. The move was announced officially earlier this week.

Gibadlo, who won the Republican nod to run in the June primary, cited "increasing professional obligations" as the deciding factor for the withdrawal.

"I want to thank the residents of Mountainside who supported me and encouraged me to run," Gibadlo stated.

"It simply became a matter of priorities. Mounting obligations in my professional life forced me to take a hard look at seeking elective office and I think too much of Mountainside and its residents to commit myself to a job I no longer feel I could properly execute. The borough tax collector's position requires far more time to perform properly than I now have at my disposal."

In order to officially withdraw,

Gibadlo wrote a letter to the Mountainside municipal clerk stating his intention to withdraw. The municipal clerk in turn notified Walter Halpin, county clerk, and Halpin, then sent a statement of selection form to the Mountainside GOP chairman—Gibadlo.

The Republican committee voted unanimously for Leroy J. Mumford as the replacement on the November ballot. Mumford will appear on the ballot, as the 37-day deadline of Oct. 1 for such changes was met by the GOP chairman.

Mumford, a 15-year resident of the borough, is the president of the Mountainside Republican Club. He will join Tom Spina and Bob Vigilanti, the candidates for Borough Council, in filling out the Republican ticket in Mountainside.

Dems, at party, ask efficiency in government

Frances Ehman and Ray Vaccari, Democratic candidates for Borough Council and Tax Collector, addressed a crowd reported at 150 at a champagne party given in their honor by the Democratic Club of Mountainside. Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leonard of Elston drive.

Both Ehman and Vaccari spoke to the assembled guests stressing their dedication to a "responsive, efficient and economical government for Mountainside." Results of the citizens' survey being conducted by the Democrats in the borough have shown an overwhelming desire for two-party government, they said.

According to Ehman and Vaccari, Mountainside residents have found a "callous disregard" of their complaints by elected officials.

"Once elected we pledge to remain in close contact with all the people of Mountainside. We will be responsive to the needs and problems of all our citizens. We want to be known as the people who listen," Ehman and Vaccari stated.

Mountainside GOP will meet tonight

The Mountainside Republican Club will hold its first fall meeting at 8 tonight in the Elks Club on Rt. 22. It is a new location and a different meeting date. Previously the club had met on Wednesday nights at the Mountainside Inn.

The local GOP club will have an opportunity to congratulate its president, Roy Mumford, on his appointment earlier this week to fill the vacancy for borough tax collector on the Republican ticket. The original candidate, Ed Gibadlo, withdrew from the race.

Land plan exam by all is urged by Republicans

The Republican candidates for the two Borough Council seats at stake in the November general election this week issued a statement urging all Mountainside residents to familiarize themselves with the proposed land use master plan which will be presented formally to the town at a public hearing tonight at 8 in the Municipal Building. Councilman Thomas Spina pointed out, "Inasmuch as Mountainside is nearly fully developed, we can expect relatively few changes of significance. It isn't a situation where we're going to discover major surprises."

"Nonetheless, I can only urge everyone who is able to take the time to review the proposal. Persons unable to attend the public hearing Thursday night may inspect a copy of the plan at the Municipal Building during normal business hours. The plan has been there for resident perusal for the last few weeks."

His running mate for the other Council seat, Robert Vigilanti, noted that adoption of a master plan by the borough is necessary to help reflect various responsible approaches for use of available land.

"Sound, efficient planning over the

CAMPAIGN PROFILE

For Senate: Bradley

During the decade that Bill Bradley starred for the New York Knicks, he was a leading advocate of the "open man" concept: getting the basketball to the player in the best position to score.

Now, as Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, he views himself as the "open man": the one most likely to make points in Washington for New Jersey's economy and against the federal dollar drain from the state.

"You don't have to be an economist or mind reader to figure out that people have had it with higher and higher taxes," says Bradley, whose conservative Republican opponent, Jeffrey Bell, is running on a tax-reduction platform.

Bradley has his own federal tax-cut proposal: a $25 billion plan, about $8.8 billion more than the House-approved version which he called "too little, too late" and more beneficial to the rich than to "the middle-class people who need it most."

But whatever tax-cut compromise emerges from Congress this fall, Bradley says, the federal government will still be spending billions of dollars next year when either he or Bell takes the seat won in November.

Just for consumer goods, ranging from toilet paper to automobiles, federal spending amounts to more than $67 billion a year, Bradley points out. His recurrent theme is that he is the man who could direct more federal spending to New Jersey.

"It's hard to believe, but New Jersey gets back only 67 cents for every tax dollar it sends to Washington," he tells his audiences. "By comparison, Georgia gets $1.10, California gets $1.13, South Carolina gets $1.20 and New Mexico gets a whopping $1.91."

"It's no wonder that the Sunbelt states are flourishing. Our tax dollars are going to pay for their growth and development," says Bradley, adding that New Jersey is near the bottom in the tax-return ratio.

Bradley sees his sports-celebrity background as an asset he could exploit in promoting New Jersey's case "for a better break." No freshman senator would go to Washington with greater name recognition from coast to coast, Bradley supporters point out. Campaign literature stresses his ability to telephone someone like the powerful chairman of the Senate Finance

BILL BRADLEY

Committee, Russell Long of Louisiana, and arrange a meeting.

Bradley says he would aim for assignments to Senate committees whose recommendations have major economic impact on New Jersey. He hopes to serve on any two of four economically significant committees on which the state is not represented. —Finance. ("For obvious reasons," Bradley says.)

—Environment and Public Works (handling bills for regional and community sewer systems, road maintenance, etc.)

—Armed Services (dealing with billions of dollars for military procurement and construction)

—Energy and Natural Resources. ("You can't overstate the importance of competitively priced energy to the New Jersey economy...." Bradley says.)

"I strongly disagree with Mr. Bell" on a national energy policy, Bradley points out. Bell backs deregulation of oil and natural-gas prices as a profit motive to increase domestic production until alternate energy sources, such as atomic fusion, are developed. Bradley calls deregulation an "outrageous" proposal from a candidate in New Jersey.

"If there's one step that will raise the cost of living and doing business in New Jersey, that's it," says Bradley.

Bradley claims national commitment to speedy development of alternate sources could meet energy needs and free the U.S. from dependence on Arab oil "without mortgaging the economic security of our state to a few big oil and gas companies."

Bradley believes the Carter ad-

Group will visit Lourdes parish

Our Lady of Lourdes Parish of Mountainside will host "Our Lady of Fatima-First Saturday Club" on Saturday, Oct. 7 at a noon Mass.

This group of approximately 150 handicapped Catholics has attended over 245 consecutive first Saturday Masses. They have visited parishes not only in the United States but also the Our Lady of Lourdes shrines in France and Russia.

Our Lady of Lourdes parishioners who are sick or handicapped are also invited to participate in this special Mass where a communal anointing of the sick for healing will be offered.

After Mass, luncheon will be served in the church auditorium by the Altar Rosary Society.

GET GROWING—The two alternating rows of Douglas firs which were planted behind the Mountainside Municipal Building are going to need some growing time to screen out the lights from the municipal building area. A request from the residents who live behind the building has been honored by the county manager's office which ordered the Parks Department to plant the trees for that purpose. Members of the county crew doing the planting are, from left, Ted Edzek, Bill Bujnowski Jr. and George Urbanski. (PhotoGraphics)

Bell employee receives patent

Yau-Chau Ching of Mountainside, a member of Bell Laboratories' Digital Terminal Engineering Department at Holmdel, has received a U.S. patent for his "digital speech interpolation trunk priority rotator."

The patent describes an electronic arrangement designed to reduce noise and overload by automatically adapting to these factors in a digital speech interpolation system (DSI). Digital systems transmit speech and information in the form of pulses rather than waves.

DSI systems use periods of inactivity in human speech to reduce the number of communications channels required to transmit multiple number of voice messages.

Soccer clinics for youngsters

The Mountainside Recreation Commission is sponsoring an informal soccer clinic for second and third graders to provide basic instruction in the skills of soccer and an opportunity to play.

The clinic will meet Saturday mornings at Beechwood School from Oct. 14 to Nov. 18. Registration ($1 per person) is on a first-come basis. The program will be restricted to a maximum of 28 participants.

Registration will be accepted at the Recreation Office weekdays from 9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. The Recreation Commission reserves the right to cancel the program if there is insufficient registration. Additional information can be obtained by calling 232-0015.

Appeal letters going in mails

Letters seeking donations to the Mountainside United Way will be going in the mails this week, a spokesman said.

"Letters will be mailed to local residents within the coming week, and it is hoped their generosity will help us meet our goal of $25,400," said George Benninger, chairman of the local drive.

Reports have been coming from the various organizations that the United Way sponsors, giving the trustees information regarding how many calls are made by them in Mountainside. This will help the trustees determine the formula in allocating funds from the drive.

The monthly meeting was held at the home of Lou and Marge Maas Sept. 20.

Woman's Club will hold first meeting Wednesday

The Springfield Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of the season next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Sarah Bailey Civic Center. The speaker will be Ruth Anderson, who has worked in local theatricals and musicals, some of which she wrote, according to Mrs.
Robert Roessner, program chairman.
Mrs. Anderson will do a dramatic monologue, "Unveiling the Cult," which deals with witchcraft and ESP.

Mrs. James Diamond, hospitality chairman, will be assisted by Mrs.
Stanley Cornfield, Mrs. Frank Gilbert,
Mrs. Edward Harback, Mrs. Henry
Jachim and Mrs. Edward Ries. Table decorations will be done by Elise Ditzel.

A meeting of the executive board was held last night at the home of Muriel Sims with Mrs. Arthur Moore presiding. Mrs. Diamond was co-hostess. Plans were discussed for department meetings for October.

According to the social services chairman, Mildred Goellner, the department will meet at her home, 114
Wentz ave., on Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 1 p.m. The group will make slippers for patients at Greystone Hospital. Mrs.
Walter Lessack will be co-hostess.

MOLLY SCHWARTZ

Schwartz troth is announced

Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Schwartz of Springfield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Molly, to John Beloin, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Edmund Beloin of Camden, Maine.

Miss Schwartz is a graduate of the Solebury School in New Hope, Pa., and of Sonoma State College in California, where she majored in psychology. She is also a certified masseuse.

Her fiancé attended Dartmouth
College where he studied biology, primarily lepidoptery. He is a landscape architect.

Dinner is set by secretaries

The Summit Chapter of the National Secretaries Association will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday at the William Pitt, Chatham. The social hour will begin at 5:30 p.m. and dinner will be served at 6.

The speaker will be John W.
McEnroe, president of sales at Lanier
Business Products. He will demonstrate Lanier's input and output equipment for word processing.

Secretaries interested in attending a meeting or in joining the organization may contact Frances Signorile at 931-2023.

Seats available for art excursion

Mrs. Jeanne Blackburn, activities
chairman of the Mountaintide
Woman's Club, says there are still a few tickets available for the trip on Oct.
4 to the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

The bus will leave from the rear parking lot of the Echo Queen Diner on Rt. 22 at 8 a.m. and return at about 5:30 p.m. The cost is $7, which includes admission and bus fare. Anyone interested in going may call Mrs. Blackburn at 232-7583 for a reservation.

Edison College lists speaker for graduation

Dr. Martha E. Church, president of Hood College, Frederick, Md., will deliver the keynote address at Thomas A. Edison College's sixth annual commencement ceremonies on Sunday, Oct. 15.

Scheduled to begin at 3:30 p.m., the graduation exercises will be held at the War Memorial Building, a block from the college's future headquarters in the Kelsey Building.

Dr. Church is the first woman to be named president of Hood College, a private liberal arts college for women established in 1893.

Thomas A. Edison College, New Jersey's State College for external degrees, has no faculty or classrooms and most of its students will be meeting each other for the first time at the commencement ceremonies.

Degree requirements at Edison College may be satisfied through college-proficiency examinations, individual assessments of college-level knowledge, or the transfer of college credits earned at other accredited institutions.

In 1977, the college was awarded full accreditation by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, the only completely non-instructional college in the nation to have earned accreditation by a regional accrediting association.

Since the college's founding in 1972 more than 8,500 students, consisting primarily of mid-career adults, have enrolled in the various two- and four-year degree programs. During the 1977-78 academic year, 2,700 new students enrolled in the college, an increase of 50 percent over the previous year. At the present time, 4,300 are working toward a degree.

Concert to aid scholar fund

The friends of the late Dorothy I. Schneider, a long time teacher in Newark's South Side High School (now Shabazz), will hold a concert in her memory at Symphony Hall at 4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 10.

Conducting the orchestral program will be Frederick D. Martin, a former student of Miss Schneider and now vice principal of Vailsburg High School. Included in the program of classical and religious selections will be Handel's "Messiah." Proceeds from the concert will be used to establish a musical scholarship.

Tickets, at $3 each, may be purchased by contacting Dorothy I. Schneider Memorial Concert, c/o Humphrey Smith, treasurer, 69 Ruby st., Springfield.

Donations also are being sought from the public to help defray the costs of the concert. Further information may be obtained by contacting Smith or David Garry of 188 Keer ave., Newark.

Fall excursion train on Oct. 8

The Tri-State Railway Historical Society Inc. will operate a special fall foliage excursion train on Sunday, Oct. 8, from New York City and New Jersey to the Pennsylvania Dutch country in Strasburg, Pa.

The special train will leave New York's Penn Station at 8 a.m. and will make stops at Newark (Penn Station) at 8:15, Metro Park (Iselin, Garden State Parkway exit 131-A) at 8:30, and Trenton at 9:15 a.m. The return to New York will be at 9 p.m.

Tickets must be purchased in advance from the trip committee of the Tri-State Railway Historical Society Inc., Box 255, Dover 07801. Fare is $34 for an adult and $32 for a child under 12.

RAYMOND J. DONAHUE

Donahue voted head of state cancer group

Raymond J. Donahue of Linden, a former personnel executive with Merck & Co. and a veteran volunteer with the American Cancer Society, has been elected the 25th president of the Society's New Jersey Division. Installation of new officers will take place tonight at the annual meeting of the Division's board of trustees at Forsgate Country Club in Jamesburg.

Dr. John F.W. King of Ho-Ho-Kus, associate medical director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society's Employees' Health Center, was re-elected chairman of the executive committee.

Donahue, who succeeds Norma J. Hayman of Ridgewood, served as co-chairman of the 1978 Cancer Crusade in New Jersey. The statewide fund-raising drive received contributions of more than $3 million — the highest annual amount in the New Jersey Division's 33-year history.

Others elected to serve the 1978-79 fiscal year are: Irving F. Sturm of Roselle, Joseph F. Buckley of Somerville and Dorothy K. Drwal of Edison, vice presidents; Dr. John F. Bateman, of Piscataway, Secretary; John G. Hogan, of Dover, assistant secretary; Charles J. Petrics, of Toms River, treasurer; Mark Gross of West Orange, assistant treasurer; John G. Gillilan III, of Morristown, counsel, and Lee B. Roth, of Flemington, and Gary M. Schwartz, of East Brunswick, associate counsels.

Donahue was community Crusade chairman for Linden in 1958. He served on the board of managers and the executive committee of the Union County Unit and was its president from 1968 to 1970.

Donahue has served as vice president and treasurer of the Division after serving as the Union Unit's delegate to the Division board of trustees. He received the Division's Distinguished Service Award last year.

Long active in community activities, Donahue was a member of the Linden Board of Education from 1956 to 1966 and its president for two terms. He also served as treasurer of the Linden Children's Camp Fund.

Business show aims at women

The newly-formed New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners will hold a day-long exposition on business ownership for women Thursday, Oct. 26, at Giants Stadium, East Rutherford.

The exposition will include 20 workshops on topics of interest to women considering starting a business as well as those who already own a business.

Registration or information about the exposition is available from Adele Kaplan, Women's Division, Rutgers SBDC, 53 Washington st., Newark, 07102.

Foster parents needed in twin-county area

The New Jersey Division of Youth and Family Services, a component of the Department of Human Services, is currently seeking new foster parents in the Essex and Union County areas.

The division's Adoption and Foster Home Resource Center, located at 1180 Raymond Blvd., Newark, serves the Essex-Union area in the recruitment and evaluation of foster homes. Though they have a special need for foster parents who can provide homes for teenagers, groups of brothers and sisters or handicapped children, they also consider families for single children of all ages.

According to Rose Zeltser, director of the center, children need foster homes when their own family life is disrupted. "Problems such as child abuse, marital or health problems of the parents or emergency situations such as fire are some of the more common reasons why a child cannot remain with his family. In foster care, the child can continue to grow and develop through the experience of family life.

"Foster children have special needs because they have been separated from their parents, their home, friends and familiar surroundings. Often a child's feelings about being apart from his family can lead to behavior problems in the foster home or in school. To help them overcome these problems, they need foster parents who can offer love and care until more permanent plans are made for him. Like all children, the foster child needs guidance, care and love," Zeltser added.

Square Dance to be a benefit

The National Huntington's Disease Association (NHDA) New Jersey Chapter will hold a benefit Square Dance on Oct. 6, at Evergreen Lodge, Evergreen avenue., Springfield, at 8 p.m.

Caller for the evening will be Bob Tarrant. Admission is $3 and $2 for students, door prizes will be given and refreshments will be available. More information about the dance is available from Rosemary Meek, 232-8007, or the NHDA, P. O. Box 632, Westfield, N.J. 07090.

A spokesman said, "Huntington's Disease is a fatal, hereditary illness manifesting anytime between ages of six and 65, changing a healthy person into a "vegetable" with mental illness. Death occurs within 5-15 years. Each child in the afflicted family has a 50-50 chance of inheriting this "genetic time bomb."

Blood center holding exhibit

October at the North Jersey Blood Center in East Orange will feature the photographic work of Judy and Nicholas Poschl. This husband and wife team from Chatham will present color and black and white photographs, from still life studies to abstract color designs and images from their European and North African travels.

The show will be open to the public free of charge daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Center is located just off exit 145 of the Garden State Parkway at 45 South Grove Street. Free on-site parking is available.

We're keeping a promise made 75 years ago.

1903-1978 Public Service Electric and Gas Company

Just about the time Orville and Wilbur Wright were making their first historic flight at Kittyhawk, North Carolina, a new company in New Jersey was also getting off the ground...founded by a man of vision and courage. A man with a promise. Thomas N. McCarter. The year was 1903. The company, PSE & G, known then as Public Service, Inc., made a promise...to deliver to the people of New Jersey adequate energy as efficiently and economically as possible.

We've been doing every thing possible to keep that promise...building electric generating stations and gas plants...installing thousands of miles of distribution wires and gas mains...meeting the energy demands of our customers.

PSE&G now third largest. Seventy-five years later, PSE&G is the third largest electric and gas utility in the nation. We have sufficient energy for your needs today, but our present capacity will not be nearly enough to meet future demands. We must continue to expand to make sure you'll have enough energy in the future.

Electricity and gas energy for the future.

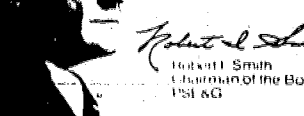

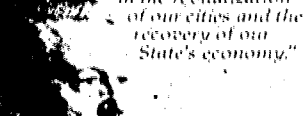

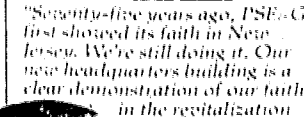

PSE & G is depending more and more on nuclear power to provide electricity. By 1985, over half of your electric energy will be produced by nuclear power. By 1990, it will produce 75%.

To help assure gas supplies, we have been successful in drilling for natural gas in the Southwest and are searching for more gas off the Atlantic Coast. We also have two synthetic natural gas plants to help us through winter cold spells. And in the future, we hope to import liquefied natural gas.

Our continuing pledge. What PSE & G's founder, Thomas N. McCarter, said on the occasion of our 25th anniversary in 1928 is as true today as it was then.

"Public Service, on this anniversary of its organization, pledges itself to continued effort in its task of providing those modern essentials—electricity, gas, and transportation—to the end that the progress and prosperity of the State shall be promoted, and the welfare, comfort and convenience of its people improved. Confidence in the State's future development, growth and progress led in the first place to the organization of Public Service, and is still a guiding principle of those who have its affairs in their charge."

Miscues prove costly to Dayton; Crusaders roll to 35-13 win

BY MIKE MEIXNER
The Dayton Bulldog football team, hurt by costly turnovers, lost to a sound Clark football team on Saturday 35-13. The Crusaders John Vicenti ran the opening kickoff back for a 77-yard touchdown and also scored twice on fumble recoveries inside the 10 yard line to spoil the coaching debut of new mentor Angelo Senese.

Vicenti's run seemed to lessen the Bulldog spirit considerably. The Crusaders meanwhile were bubbling with confidence and had a comfortable 14-0 lead before they could manage a first down against the stubborn Bulldog defense. The last 10 minutes of the first half were the roughest for the Bulldogs.

They fumbled twice to set up two Crusader scores and allowed a third touchdown. The score at intermission was a discouraging 28-0.

The Bulldogs, in coach Senese's words, "came out in the second half and showed character, pride, and intense determination in putting together a brilliant comeback." The offense rolled up the yardage in the second half to set up a score on a four yard run by captain Larry Irene. Then Jeff Vargas electrified the crowd with a 90-yard punt return touchdown. Dan Pepe kicked the extra point to make the score Clark 28, Springfield 13.

Bulldog quarterback Al Preziosi then passed brilliantly and came close to another scoring drive. However, a tough Clark defensive unit turned it around and put the game out of reach when Mark Franciotti scored on a 10-yard run. Neil Esposito then booted his fifth consecutive extra point to establish the final margin of 22 points.

Preziosi played the best game of his career, connecting on seven of the 12 passes he threw. He gained 113 yards in the air. The Dayton ground game picked the holes for 123 more yards, making the total offensive output of 241 yards. The Irene brothers were the game's top runners. Larry scored the touchdown and gained 30 yards on nine carries. Robert, his younger brother, led the team with 61 yards gained on 10 carries giving him a 6.1 yards per carry average.

Fullback Edward McGrady gained 25 yards on five carries and delivered many blocks to open holes. The offensive line was keyed by center Greg Shomo's performance. Nick Caricato made several receptions in crucial situations, and played a strong game.

The defense was anchored by back Tony Circelli. Coach Senese noted that his play was outstanding. Defensive end Chris Dilleuth was another impressive defensive figure. He has improved rapidly during the past few weeks of training. Pat Picciolo at his cornerback position nullified the Crusader air attack considerably. Rich Cedarquist and Ken Bell made many key tackles.

Other players who played well offensively for Dayton included Jim Reilly, Dan Pepe, and Paul Matysek. Defensive standouts included Ed Johnson, Al Arnold, Jim Wnek, Mitch Frank and Rich Sounders.

The Bulldogs will face Hillside Saturday with hopes of evening their record. Coach Senese wants to see continued success on the part of the offense, with fewer mistakes. The defense, he hopes, will turn in another aggressive performance.

Harriers gain on standings via victories

BY KIRK KUBACH
Trampling over Suburban Conference rivals New Providence and Verona along with defeating Arthur L. Johnson of Clark improved the Dayton harriers record to 4-1.

Over the successful week the Bulldogs running on their home course shut out Verona, allowed only one Pioneer from New Providence in the top five and crushed Clark which had earlier shut out Scotch Plains.

After a home meet against West Orange earlier this week, the team will be away for a while challenging the likes of Summit and Caldwell.

In the tri-meet trouncing, Jay Bruder captured first with Rich Bantel taking second, Jeff Knowles third and Kevin King close by in fourth. The pack, made up of three juniors and one sophomore, has been leading the squad throughout the season. After New Providence top runner sophomore Steve Wright grabbed sixth followed by Kirk Kubach and Pete Keramas, in seventh and eighth positions. Others athletes doing a fine job for the harriers were senior Dave Barnes, sophomore Jim Roche and freshman Jim Melkowitz.

Against sister-school Clark, the opposition was off the line quickly and out ahead of Regional. The Dayton square gained distance and surpassed Clark midway through the race. Kevin King took over the lead, finishing in first. Other key performances were contributed by Jeff Knowles stealing third, Rich Bantel in fifth, Jay Bruder with seventh and Steve Wright eighth rounded out the top five for Dayton. Other competitors for Dayton were Kirk Kubach, Dave Barnes, Peter Keramas, Jim Roche, Jim Melkowitz and Jon Fingerhut.

Hard luck soccer unit drops 2 in conference

BY MIKE MEIXNER
The Dayton soccer team continued its hard luck course by dropping the first two conference games by identical 2-1 scores.

The only other game the Bulldogs played, a non-conference match in Carteret, was lost, 2-1.

Coach Vincenzo Ferrante has been unable to lead his squad to victory, but Dayton has played even with Suburban Conference powers New Providence and Summit. These two towers of strength each had to struggle to overtake the stubborn Bulldogs.

Ferrante sees a need for improvement: "My players are too slow and lazy. I want to see more hustle, more running on the field."

New Providence strolled into the Dayton field expecting a runaway victory, but left feeling the fatigue of a hard fought battle. The Pioneers struck first when Ron Hawkins drilled a bullet past sensational goalie Dave Lauhoff. It had to be placed perfectly to escape the outstretched arms of Lauhoff, who recorded a remarkable total of 22 saves in the game. The game was tied by the Bulldogs in the third period, when left wing Todd Melamed boomed a goal into the lower left corner of the net. It was Melamed's first tally of the season, an unassisted gem.

The game looked as if it would finish in a tie, but an illegal use of hands infraction was called on a Dayton defender. The ensuing shot proved to be the game winner.

Despite the loss, many of the Bulldog players stood out. The top halfbacks were sophomore Keith Hanigan and junior Mike King.

Boating group has free course

A course in small power boat handling, sailing and basic seamanship will be offered this fall at the Union Township Adult School. The 10-week course begins on Wednesday, Oct. 18 and will be held from 8 to 10 p.m. at Union High School. Registration may be made in advance or at the first class.

The course covers boat handling and operation, basic safety, navigational aids and markings, use of nautical charts, compasses and radiotelephone as well as marlinpike seamanship.

The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, Division IV, Flotilla 42 will provide instructors for the course. Certificates will be awarded to those successfully completing the course and examination.

Men's Club league

The Men's Club of Temple Beth Ahm, Springfield, will start its annual bowling league at Echo Lanes, Rt. 22, Mountaintide, Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

It is not necessary to be a member of Temple Beth Ahm to participate.

These two underclassmen are, in Ferrante's opinion, prime examples of hustling ballplayers. Don Meixner and Dave Cushman, both talented sophomores, displayed excellent ball control. Defenders Marc Meskin and Steve Geltman thwarted many an opposing drive. On the offensive side of the card, John Gerndt and Doug Isaksen were the stimulating forces.

The Summit team was the first in which the Bulldogs had a lead. It came on a goal by Mike Meixner. The path of the ball into the goal was assisted by Summit defender Arthur Krugno.

Summit tallied on a penalty kick which resulted from another hands violation to tie the score early in the second quarter. The winning goal was recorded by Chuck Colton, also in period two.

The play of Randy Bain, Dan Domaratzky and Ulysses Mumford anchored the defense. Offensive stars included Paul Jeka, Mitchell Feuer, Georgio Janeira and Myron Waskiw.

The Bulldogs continue their lengthy schedule today when they travel to face the Verona Hillbillies, ranked 13th in the state.

Dayton game on cable TV

Suburban Cablevision will cablecast the Dayton Regional-Hillside football game, as part of its TV-3 football doubleheader Saturday, at 7 p.m. (Immediately following "Scoreboard" and the Rutherford-Harrison football game) via its Local Origination Channel 3. The game at Hillside will be repeated in cablecasts Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and Monday at 7 p.m., immediately following "Scoreboard" only on Suburban's TV-3.

The Hillside Comets are coached by Bob Larsen; Angelo Senese leads the Jonathan Dayton Bulldogs.

TV-3 operates in Summit, Union and some other nearby communities. It is not yet operable in Springfield or Mountaintide.

Gymnast team better despite opening defeat

BY KIRK KUBACH
Despite the loss by four points to Gov. Livingston last Friday, the Dayton gymnastic team shows improvement. With a strong group of seniors, the squad may find the same success they had in last year's winning season. Tomorrow the team will be away challenging Westfield in a dual meet competition.

Leading the gymnasts in the opening meet were seniors Jill Lipton and Carol Wingard. Placing first in vaulting was Wingard with the high score of 8.35 and Shari Reich came in second with a 7.45 vault.

On the uneven bars Lipton took first with Wingard right behind in second. On the parallel bars, Lipton scored a second ahead of Wingard third.

Both girls did well on the balance beam where Lipton came in first, ahead of Wingard who finished second. Other competitors for the Bulldogs were Ellen Kaplan in the floor exercise and Mary Jane Gagliano with third in the vault.

Minutemen B team drops opener, 19-14

The Springfield Minutemen Football B Team opened the 1978 season by dropping a 19-14 decision to a tough Summit squad. Summit scored once in each of the first three periods to take a 19-0 lead early in the third quarter.

With the game seemingly out of reach, the Springfield defense stiffened and effectively stopped the Summit attack for most of the third and the entire fourth periods.

The Minutemen offense, which moved the ball well in the first half, finally scored with Reid Jones capping a 65-yard drive with a short burst into the end zone.

On the following series after pushing Summit back toward their own goal line, Brett Walsh blitzed and caught a Summit halfback for a safety making the score 19-8.

On the following possession, Jones again capped a long drive with a touchdown on a pitch from quarterback Walsh and some great moves by Jones. Time ran out on the Minutemen and the game ended 19-14.

The Springfield offense generated 170 yards rushing and added 60 yards on four pass completions. Jones led the rushers with 77 yards, Brett Walsh who took over at quarterback for the injured Rich Policastro had 54 yards and Anthony Romano got 18 yards in addition to setting up good gains with his blocking. All three starred on defense as well.

Starting offensive ends John Baber and Torly Apicella, tackles Donny Larzleer and Paul Stevie, guards Mike McNary and Andy Gast and center Vince Castalani did an excellent job blocking.

Mike Bonocore, anchoring the defensive line, played a strong game at middle guard. Also seeing action were the remainder of the squad, Jared Fleischer, Frank Romano, Jon Begleiter, Danny Spotts, Anthony Boffa, John Woland, Mike Friedman, Eddie Hayes and Eric Zarra.

The Minutemen are looking forward to their home opener Sunday against Mountaintide at the High School field at noon.

Junior net finals slated for Sunday

Springfield's first Junior Tennis Tournaments moved into the closing rounds last weekend at the new high school tennis courts.

In the 12-14 singles quarter-finals, Ken Palazzi beat Jon Lesnick, 6-2, 6-0; Dan Schlager ousted Jon Stein, 6-3, 6-3; Rob Steir beat Gary Schlager, 6-1, 6-1, and Mike Berliner defeated Yoram Rubenenko, 6-3, 6-1. Schlager will meet Steir and Ken Palazzi plays Mike Berliner in the semifinal matches Saturday at the high school at noon and 1:30 p.m. The championship match is scheduled Sunday at 11 a.m.

In the 15-17 singles semifinals, Alan Berliner eliminated Mike Pine, 6-2, 6-2, and—in one of the best matches of the tournament—hard-serving Mike Clarke ousted Roy Zitomer, 6-3, 6-1. Roy will meet Berliner for the championship Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

In the 12-14 doubles category, Dan Schlager and Jon Stein beat Rob Steir and Rob Frischman, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3 and Mike Berliner and Ken Palazzi beat Yoram Rubenenko and Bill Koppel, 6-1, 6-1. The winning teams will meet Sunday at 2 p.m. for the doubles championship, according to the tournament director, John Schlager. The championship matches Sunday at the high school are open to the public. Trophies will be awarded after each match.

Social security can prove to be a helpful bit of financial protection for the young family. If you're entering the nation's work force, make sure you're covered by the country's social security program before accepting any confusing pay plan from your employer.

Ultimately, social security benefits may be payable not only to a worker but also to certain other family members. Dependents and survivors eligible for benefits include:

- Unmarried children under 18 or 18-22 if they are fulltime students.
- Unmarried sons and daughters 18 or over who were disabled before they reached 22 and who continue to be disabled.
- A wife under 65 or a widow if she is caring for a child under 18 or disabled and the child is entitled to payments.
- An widowed father if he is caring for a child under 18 or disabled and the child is entitled to payments.
- A worker's grand-children if the natural parents are disabled or dead and if the grand-children are living with and are supported by the grandparent.

Children are considered dependent on both their mother and their father, and they may become eligible for benefits when either parent becomes entitled to retirement or disability benefits or dies after working long enough to be insured.

DiFrancesco on Legislative Bank Panel

Assemblyman Donald T. DiFrancesco, (R-Dist. 22), has been appointed to the Assembly Banking and Insurance Committee.

The Banking and Insurance Committee reviews all legislation covering banks and other financial institutions, mortgage lenders, interest rates, and casualty and health insurance.

In recent months, the committee has studied various proposals concerning the no-fault auto insurance problem, and has considered proposals to allow savings and loans to offer checking accounts. Committee members soon will begin work on legislation that would set minimum standards for health insurance.

"The work of this committee in such sensitive economic areas as setting the ceiling on interest rates will be increasingly important in these times of inflation and dollar problems," said DiFrancesco, a past member of the No-Fault Auto Insurance Study Commission. "I look forward to serving on this committee."

DiFrancesco also is a member of the Assembly Institutions, Health and Welfare Committee, and the Joint Committee on Public Schools. He serves as vice-chairman of the Committee on Ethical Standards.

'Outstanding' honor for former resident

Leila J. Rupp of Columbus, Ohio, a former resident of Mountainside, has been selected for inclusion in the 1978 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America."

The program is designed to honor and encourage young women between 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in their homes, professions and community for dedication, service and leadership.

Mountainside man gets Lycoming BA

WILLIAMSPORT, PA.—Keith Steven Platoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Platoff, of Summit Road, Mountainside, N.J., was one of 49 students awarded bachelor of arts degrees from Lycoming College on Sept. 1 after completing degree requirements in the May or summer terms, it was announced by Robert J. Glunk, registrar and assistant to the dean.

CANDIDATES GATHERING—Mat Mirlocca, Democrat candidate for Union County Freeholder, is flanked by Frances Ehman, candidate for Mountainside Borough Council, and Ray Vaccari, candidate for borough tax collector. The occasion was a recent champagne party held by local Democrats.

IN CONGRESS

Matthew Rinaldo

12th District

Reversing a trend that has been under way for decades, Congress has begun moving toward a balanced federal budget.

The first concurrent resolution on the budget, adopted earlier this year, projected a record high deficit of $60 billion. But largely as a result of spending cuts made by Congress during the year, adjusted figures in the second budget resolution submitted last month whittle the projected deficit to less than $40 billion.

Continued movement in this direction, coupled with action to reduce the balance of payments deficit, will speed a return to economic stability. It is the best possible tonic to cure inflation.

The revised budget figures would allow a $19.4 billion tax cut beginning next January instead of the $16.3 billion approved in the House. The extent to which additional tax cuts can safely be applied is under consideration in the Senate.

Scaling down our nation's budget deficit and providing tax cuts are not incompatible goals. They can be achieved — with beneficial results for the nation's economy.

I voted for the House-approved $16.3 billion tax cut package, including a reduction of capital gains tax rates. In light of the revised budget estimates, I would welcome a fiscally realistic extension of the tax cut program linked to a reduction in the budget deficit.

This would be in line with my vote earlier this year to reduce the 1979 projected deficit by $10 billion.

Although Mountainside has not yet participated in the FAUS Program (Federal Aid to Urban Systems), several streets are eligible. This program provides 70 percent of the funding for traffic safety improvements with the remainder provided by the state. The streets eligible are Summit road, Mountain avenue, part of New Providence road, Deer Path, Tanager way, Ackerman drive, Coles avenue, Summit lane and Springfield avenue.

THE MASTER PLAN ALSO includes proposals for roads to connect isolated streets — should the areas be further developed. One proposed road, Koser explained, would allow industrial traffic to go directly from Glen road to Springfield avenue and would prevent that traffic from entering or disturbing a residential area.

"They (connector roads) may never be required," Jeka said. "We put down thoughts but they may never necessarily be put into effect."

The goals spelled out by the Planning Board in the Master Plan are meant as a guide for the future development. The planners want to maintain the established single-family, residential character of Mountainside; encourage certain nonresidential uses such as business, industry and offices in appropriate sections of the borough; classify all streets according to function and establish realistic standards for new streets or the widening of existing streets without destroying abutting property values; provide for future community facilities and services located to serve all sections of the borough at a minimum cost; prevent the development of an unsightly and unsafe commercial strip along Rt. 22 by maintaining a buffer park along much of the highway; use all borough school facilities as neighborhood park centers, and establish a sound program for water supply and storm and sanitary sewers.

Jeka said, "We will seriously consider all responsible suggestions." After reviewing and weighing public opinion, the planners will "make a decision and submit it to the council," Jeka said.

State law requires adoption of a master plan by February 1979. It must be updated again in 1985, according to the new Land Use Act, which mandates plan reviews every six years.

On adoption of a master plan, a new zoning ordinance will be needed to implement it. The ordinance would spell out regulations for each zone.

English will appear in Bucknell show

LEWISBURG, Pa.—Gwyn A. English of Mountainside, N.J., will appear as a member of the cast of the Bucknell University theatre's first production of the season, "Madwoman of Chaillot."

The initial performances of the Jean Giouroux play will be presented as part of Bucknell's 1978 Parents Weekend on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 13-14. There also will be performances on Oct. 20 and 21.

English, a sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard English, Hillside avenue, Mountainside.

zoned as R-2 and 18 single-family homes located in a commercial zone.

The new zone will require a lot size of at least 10,000 square feet and a minimum lot width of 75 feet. The proposed plan would allow lots along Woodland avenue to conform to regulations, would make more diversified housing available in the borough, and make the lots compatible with the abutting areas.

Mountainside had the highest median value of owner-occupied housing units in Union County in 1960 and only Summit had a higher median value in 1970, the Master Plan noted. The borough has fewer than 1 percent of all housing units classified as substandard, which is the lowest ratio in Union County.

The Union County Planning Board has adopted a road plan which suggests that several streets in the borough now listed as county roads should be taken over by Mountainside. These include Deer Path, Ackerman avenue and Tanager way. In return, they suggested that Tracy drive be added to the county road system.

Jeka said that the changes are merely suggestions for the borough to consider.

The Planning Board believes that the implementation of the county proposal for road changes is not in the best interests of the citizens of Mountainside, and it is not a part of the revised Master Plan.

Although Mountainside has not yet participated in the FAUS Program (Federal Aid to Urban Systems), several streets are eligible. ## Metz has new post

Douglas E. Metz of Moorestown has joined the income property staff of the Cherry Hill Division of Midlantic Mortgage Corp. He will be involved with all aspects of mortgage origination, according to Charles Kauffman, vice-president of the mortgage banking institution, who announced the appointment.

For the past four years Metz was a senior writer for the Mortgage Bankers Association of America.

He was selected to edit the book, "Financing Income Producing Properties," published by McGraw Hill in 1977, and he wrote "Fundamentals of Real Estate Finance," published earlier this year by Reston Publishing Co.

A graduate of the University of Maryland with a bachelor of arts degree in 1973, he received additional professional training the following year at Northwestern University, where he was graduated from the School of Mortgage Banking.

Midlantic Mortgage Corp. is one of the leading mortgage banking firms. Headquartered in Newark, it has divisions in Cherry Hill and Washington, D.C.

According to one leading psychological journal, "Women who are cooperative and good sports are more likely to have big families."

mortgage banking. He cited the recent introduction of Kennedy's "Anyhome Card" as a prime example.

"The AnyHome Card is a qualification card for prospective homebuyers in which buyers are pre-screened and assured that the house they will select is comfortably within their means," he said.

Rosenthal continued, "There is no additional cost to the mortgage applicant for the AnyHome Card and the procedure for the program requires only a few minutes of the homebuyer's time." Applications are available through selected Real Estate Brokers or directly through Kennedy Mortgage.

Kennedy Mortgage, in addition to Northfield and Cherry Hill, also operates offices in Fairfield and Woodbridge, N.J.; Wilmington, Del.; Newport News, Va.; Falls Church, Va.; and Durham, N.C.

Thomas Martin, president said, "Kennedy has taken a leadership role in the development of new and innovative mortgage banking techniques in our three year history, and will provide continuing expansion of services in the future. We believe the Southern New Jersey region is experiencing a growth trend which will have a most positive effect on the area and Kennedy intends to be part of that growth."

Kennedy Mortgage has established itself to become one of New Jersey's largest mortgage banking organizations, Martin said. "In fiscal 1977-78 (March 31) Kennedy added $100 million in servicing, to push its portfolio over $200 million.

In addition, our organization has exceeded a landmark $125 million in mortgage origination in just 12 months. These outstanding examples of success reflect the continued confidence our clientele have in our ability to deliver commitments, and we expect to continue this service, and expand it, through development of the South Jersey market."

Rosenthal said that Kennedy's growth was related to the company's innovative approach to

Schwartz Co. reports success with division

Elmer Schwartz, president of Archie Schwartz Company, East Orange realtors, reported that the first six months of this year have been extremely successful for the company's newly-formed investment division.

Under the direction of senior vice-president Anthony Tamburro and vice-president Howard Friedman, the investment division staff consists of sales associates, Kevin Boyles, Thomas Glerum, Shiv Gupta, Leon Goldfarb, Richard Moss and Scott Yellin. Assistant vice-president Beverly Alfano is the coordinator of the staff's operations. A member of the Archie Schwartz Company since 1967, Tamburro has served in an executive and supervisory capacity as well as being actively engaged in the operation of office buildings, motor lodges and apartment complexes.

Tamburro stated "While the tri-state area will continue to be the base of our operations, we have become involved in all areas of the country. Our studies of the various consumer price indexes, trends of the economy, and income tax regulations have indicated that real estate is by far the safest and most economically stable investment."

Trade your half-empty house for a full carefree life

That big home of yours was just right for you when the kids were small and growing up. But now they're on their own. And you're left with a half-empty house. With too many rooms to clean, too much house to maintain. And skyrocketing costs.

Suggestion: Trade your half-empty house for a full, care-free life. At Rossmoor or Clearbrook. Where the homes are spacious enough for your needs now. And the exterior maintenance is done for you by a trained staff. So you have more time to enjoy all the marvelous recreation opportunities available in each community: A magnificent clubhouse with fully-equipped hobby rooms, a huge swimming pool, tennis and golf Eighteen holes at Rossmoor, nine at Clearbrook.

And, chances are, you can find just the home you want here. We have 20 different models in a great variety of exterior styling and interior layouts. In a very wide range of prices to fit almost every budget: from $41,000 to $74,900.

So take a pleasant drive to Exit 8A of the New Jersey Turnpike. Just 45 miles from Manhattan. Our models are open every day, 9 to 6. But the full life goes on 24 hours a day.

If you're 48 or over, we love you twice as much

Computer will help in financing of homes

Barrymor Enterprises, one of northern Ocean County's largest home builders, has just installed a special computer designed to show homebuyers how they can afford a larger and more expensive home in Hearthstone, the firm's newest residential community located off Parkway exit 91.

As one might suspect from a community served by a special computer system, the financing at Hearthstone is something special. The community offers FLIP graduated payment mortgages provided by Citizens State Bank of New Jersey and homebuyers have as much as 26 percent purchasing power.

FLIP mortgage financing involves the placement of the buyer's down payment in an interest-bearing Citizens State Bank account as pledged collateral. The interest earned, combined with portions of the principal, reduces the borrower's monthly payments until the savings account is depleted in the fifth year. The payments then level off for the balance of the mortgage term.

Murray Weshnak, president of Barrymor, explains that among Hearthstone's country-feeling features are environmentally-undisturbed green areas, nature paths, a children's playground, a basketball court and a ballfield. The entire community is set within tall, thick trees, and the homesites are being landscaped in harmony with the surrounding foliage. This provides a rural feeling even though highways and services are close.

Also, at no extra cost, the Hearthstone ranch, colonial, bi-level and split-level models come complete with full-thick wall insulation, six-inch ceiling insulation, all-wood double-hung windows, wall-to-wall carpeting, 150-amp electrical service, solid hardwood kitchen cabinets and attached garage and cedar shake fronts among other features. Options include central air-conditioning, fireplace, basement and a special energy-conservation package.

"Our primary purpose is to build at a reasonable price homes reflecting the style and quality that families seek," Weshnak said.

Young families find Barrymor homes to their liking because of the homes' add-on capabilities. The need for expanded living space was provided for in the plans of each Hearthstone model. And, if the buyer wants a special adaptation to the plans before they move in, interior customizing work, provided there is no structural interference, is performed at no additional cost, in most cases.

To reach the Hearthstone Open House and to see the models, take the Garden State Parkway to exit 91 (Lakewood) proceed 3/4 mile, and then bear right onto rt. 526 West (County Line road). Continue to the model area which will be on your right. An alternate route is rt. 9 south to rt. 526, turn left, and the models will be ahead on your left.

New men with Berg

Edward J. Gorczyca and Miroslaw K. Lisowski have joined the sales force of the Berg Agency's Clark office. The announcement was made by Larry Tynday, manager of the office located at 1101 Raritan rd.

Gorczyca holds degrees from Newark College of Engineering and Brooklyn Polytech. He has been associated with National Tool & Mfg. Co. in Kenilworth and more recently Westinghouse Elec. Corp. as supervisor of manufacturing.

Recently retired, he is a member of American Society of Metals, American Electroplaters Society, and Westinghouse Foremen Assoc. He resides in Linden with his wife, Margaret.

Lisowski graduated Teachers College of Kalish in Poland. He was recently self-employed in the home improvement business. Prior to his entry in the real estate business, he attended the Berg School for Real Estate at the Berg Building in Iselin. He resides in Linden with his wife and two sons.

The Berg Agency, New Jersey's largest residential realtor with 21 offices, is a member of Berg Enterprises, Inc. a national real estate and mortgage banking company.

EAST GATE REALTY

Second office in Toms River

Charles Juracsik, president of East Gate Realty, has announced the opening of his company's second office in Toms River. The new office is located at 1735 Hooper ave. on the corner of South Shore drive in the Silver Bay section of Toms River.

Juracsik has appointed Doug Olson manager of the new office, which will include a staff of five real estate sales people. The Silver Bay office is expected to serve the needs of homebuyers in the northern part of Ocean County.

Juracsik stated, "The need for this office was brought about by people seeking homes on or near the waterfront areas of the county. We chose Hooper ave. as our office's location because it is the major north-south main artery between Toms River and Brick Town and is convenient to the many bay communities along this area."

East Gate Realty has their main office on Rt. 37, Toms River. The agency provides a full service in residential, commercial, and industrial realty areas.

Home seekers can also take advantage of East Gate Realty's unique building service, where a custom home can be planned and constructed for the buyer in any part of Ocean County.

Full real estate services will be available at both offices.

Fox Hill Run offers additional 13 plots

Thirteen is the magic number this month at luxurious Fox Hill Run, where just 13 plots are available in this section of the community off Lake Farrington in North Brunswick Township.

Sales in the community, where plots are a half-acre or more and homes start at $115,000, have been brisk all spring, developer Leonard R. Sendelsky Jr., past president of the New Jersey Builders Association, pointed out.

"Six homes are under construction at the present time and others will start as soon as architects' plans are approved," Sendelsky stated, adding, "More and more people are coming to realize that building a home to fit the family's needs is not all that more expensive than having to tailor the family's needs to a home already built."

For those with offices in Manhattan or northern New Jersey, Fox Hill Run is just 10 minutes from the mainline New Brunswick railroad station. Off Rt. 130, it is five miles from the New Jersey Turnpike or Rt. 1—about an hour by car and less by train to New York.

For children in the family, the community is surrounded by public schools and by private schools which attract students from many parts of the world. Nearby are Princeton University, Rutgers University and three community colleges. "This could be the last development for the luxury market in commuting distance from New York," Sendelsky remarked, "for land is no longer available."

All the homes bear the stamp of Sendelsky-supervised workmanship and are protected by HOW (Home Owners Warranty) for 10 years. Sendelsky has developed such communities as Humble Hill in Westfield, Fox Hill Run in Edison and many apartment complexes, office facilities and shopping centers. Fox Hill Run may be reached by the New Jersey Turnpike or U.S. Rt. 1 to North Brunswick, then south for five miles on Rt. 130 to Old George Road.

Stauffer signs pact

Bernard Zimmer, senior vice-president of the Blau and Berg Co., has announced the leasing of space in a new four-story office building located 505 Thornall st., Edison, to Stauffer Chemical Co. Stauffer will use the space for a sales office.

The facility is being leased by Sutton Middlesex Associates, Sutton Construction, part of the same company, will have the building in the immediate future.

James Dempsey, corporate counsel for Stauffer Chemical, represented the leasee at the transaction. Stauffer reported the move was necessary because of the company's need for more space in a

Allen film is shown

'Interiors,' Woody Allen's first dramatic movie, opened yesterday at the Bellevue Theater, Upper Montclair.

The picture, which was written and directed by Allen (he does not appear in the film), stars Diane Keaton, Geraldine Page, E. G. Marshall, Maureen Stapleton, Kristin Griffith, Marybeth Hurt, Richard Jordan and Sam Waterston. (This is the fifth Allen movie starring Miss Keaton.)

Miss Keaton, who won the Oscar for Best Actress of 1977 for Allen's 'Annie Hall,' also starred in his 'Play It Again, Sam,' 'Sleeper' and 'Love and Death.' Allen won two Oscars for 'Annie Hall'—best director and writer—and the picture also won an Oscar.

In 'Interiors,' Miss Keaton portrays the eldest of three sisters (the others are Miss Griffith and Miss Hurt) and their emotionally upset mother, an interior decorator (played by Miss Page), whose lives, relationships, rivalries, repressed feelings and conflicts are thoroughly examined by Allen.

Marshall plays Miss Page's estranged husband, who is about to marry Miss Stapleton, a lady with no hang-ups. The movie was photographed in color.

formance will be held Oct. 8 at 7:30 p.m. Additional information may be obtained by calling evenings 276-7611.

OUR LUNCHEON SPECIALS

INCLUDE EVERYTHING FROM SOUP TO BEAN SPROUTS. FROM ONLY $2.50.

Join us for lunch. We have some great specials. Like Teriyaki Chicken, Scallops, and Rib-eye Steak. We even have a Vegetable luncheon. And they all include a delectable bowl of our Japanese onion soup, a heaping serving of fresh vegetables, tender bean sprouts, white rice, our secret Oriental sauces and a piping hot cup of Benihana green tea.

But when you lunch at Benihana, we give you more than just a great lunch. We give you a great show. From your seat around our famed hibachi table you can watch your chef in action—slicing, dicing, sizzling and seasoning your lunch to perfection. So come on out. Our luncheon specials start at $2.50. Including the show.

McKean named as ad manager

Richard D. McKean has been appointed advertising manager of suburban Publishing Corp. of Union, which publishes this paper and eight other weekly newspapers in Union and Essex Counties. McKean was formerly with the Home News Publishing Company of New Brunswick.

A resident of Middletown, McKean is a member of the Christian Brothers Academy Fathers Club and on the board of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick of the Jersey Shore.

McKean has been a guest lecturer at Monmouth College journalism classes and established a journalism Explorer Post Boy Scouts of America at the Daily Register in Shrewsbury. He was awarded the N.P.A.'s first place award for "Best Advertising Campaign, 1977."

Health fair Oct. 4

Caldwell College will sponsor a day-long Health Fair on Oct. 4 in the Campus Center. Nora McGraw, R.N., director of the College Health Center, and Sister Bernadette Agnes, O.P.S., science department chairman, announced that the fair, which is open to the public, will feature representative exhibits from major health organizations throughout the state.

'Carmen' topic of operalogue

Maestro Alfredo Silipigni, conductor and artistic director of the N.J. State Opera, will present a public operalogue of Bizet's "Carmen" tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Grand Centurions, 440 Madison Hill road, Clark.

Admission to the lecture and reception is free. The operalogue is sponsored by the Friends of the N.J. State Opera and the Grand Centurions. "Carmen" will be performed by state opera at Symphony Hall in Newark at 8 p.m. Nov. 4. Victoria de los Angeles will appear in the title role.

Speech and hearing screenings offered

Speech and hearing clinics at the Kean College Institute of Child Study are offering hearing examinations, valuation or prescription of hearing aids, and professional diagnosis and treatment of speech disorders to all area residents. The institute includes a tongue-thrust clinic with the services of an orthodontist.

The clinics are open to all ages from infancy to old age. There is a minimal fee which is waived when needed so indicates.

International students get cultural welcome

An international students day will be celebrated tomorrow in Downs Hall, at Kean College, Union. An opening reception will introduce the new students from many countries now enrolled at the college to school administrators and faculty.

The day-long program is designed to help students from other countries adjust to their new culture. Among other presentations, the students will see a film from the National Association for Foreign Students Affairs that presents a broad view of U.S. society and illustrates some of the problems the students may face. After a discussion dealing with immigration, jobs and financial aid, a luncheon will be held in their honor. Each student will receive a gift box of American products.

Companies from surrounding communities who have supported the program include: The Bristol-Myers Co., Procter and Gamble, MacMillan Bloedel Containers, McDonald's, J.B. Williams and the New Jersey Division of Travel and Tourism.

Newark archdiocese 125th year featured

The 125th Anniversary of the Catholic Archdiocese of Newark will be marked with a special exhibition at the Newark Museum, opening Thursday, Oct. 5. The exhibit will feature ecclesiastical objects, including vestments, jeweled chalices and portraits of the bishops who have headed the Archdiocese.

The exhibit has been organized by Msgr. William Noe Field, University Librarian of Seton Hall University and a trustee of the Museum. He has arranged for the objects, including many rare items, to be on view in order to depict history of the Catholic community in the State.

One of the most important objects in the show is a large portrait of Bishop James Roosevelt Bayley, who was named by Pope Pius IX as first Bishop of the State on Sept. 13, 1853, at a time when New Jersey had only 30 priests for a population of 40,000 Catholics. The portrait was painted by the distinguished portrait artist George P. A. Healy, who is also represented in the Newark Museum collection.

The Papal Bulls, declarations which established the Diocese of Newark and named the first Bishop, will also be on view.

Who Do You Turn To?

The papers are bombarded with floor covering ads. There is more to selecting carpet, vinyl, and tile than looking at the largest ad in the newspaper. In fact, in most cases the ads either say nothing or are so ambiguous they are an abuse of your reading time.

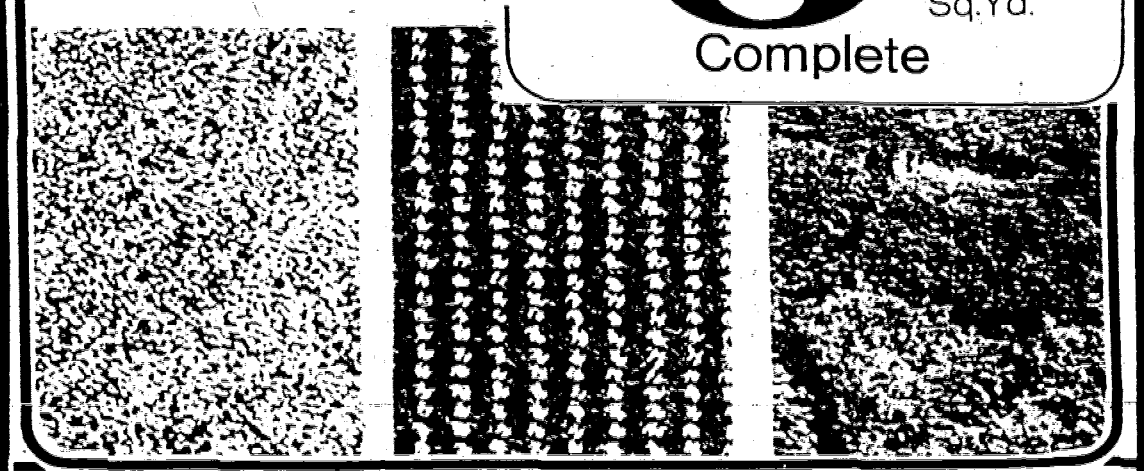

Your criteria for selecting a store to buy your floor covering should be style, price, and service. Turn to LFO. We'll show you the widest selection and assist you in making the right choice. You'll get eager to please service from the moment you walk in the door until the last yard of carpet is installed to your satisfaction, all at down to earth prices.
