4 candidates for school board support budget at PTA forum

Approximately 40 people listened to three of the four candidates for two seats on the Mountainside Board of Education Monday night at the PTA sponsored candidates' night. Despite some objections about individual line items, all four candidates gave support to the 1979-80 budget.

Scott Schmedel Carl Marinelli and Bart Barre responded to audience questions about public relations, communication, staff and budget matters but Margaret Walker, appointed moderator from the League of Women Voters, would not read a prepared statement from the other candidate, Peggy Reilly.

"It is the policy of the League of Women Voters not to read statements of candidates who are not present to respond to questions," Walker said.

It was not done against her. It was done in support of her, "Peggy Wilson, PTA president, said. "It was done to protect her-she was not here to defend her statement and to answer questions.' The candidates said that they would seek improvement in the school system but methods about how that could best

Marinelli effect consistent planning for quality education, communication and program planning as well as budget development.

Barre said, "If we can get more people involved, and we can get the board to work together more, then we can have an improvement in our school system." He also said that a change to an "openminded philosophy" by the board is needed.

Schmedel said that the board has already taken steps towards improving the school system. "As we try to maintain quality education, we have uncontrollable forces working against us. The board has invested money to get expertise on some subjects.". He cited the policy manual being drawn up now which "will force us to face up to some issues."

Budget decreases for the 1979-80 academic year and the Board of Education's decision to retain one fulltime and one part-time librarian were analyzed by the candidates and all but one, Reilly, said that they would prefer at least two full time staff members. In the statement prepared by Reilly, but not read aloud, she said, "Next year there will be 10 classes at Beechwood School, with an approximate enrollment of 165 children.

It was my judgment that with a parttime librarian at Beechwood, each of the classes would receive a scheduled library period and there would still be time to provide for enrichment."

Schmedel, the other incumbent, said, 'My vote was for 2.2 librarians. I thought that 1.5 was going too far. The money saved in that case would not be significant but because I am a board member, once the board has made a decision, I must support that decision. We can provide good library service with 1.5 librarians.' Marinelli said, I could not have in good conscience voted for 1.5 librarians: 2.2 would have been acceptable. I would try to restore money to the budget to reinstate librarians to Barre cited the library as "an area where we can help all children" and said that he would have opted for at least two full-time positions.

Marinelli, who has experience in management, finance and planning, said that he has been recognized as a leader and problem solver. "I don't agree with everything in the budget, but I think it's reasonable. I believe it's time for a change.'

Schmedel said that the first three years on the board are necessary for preparation for a second term. Everybody who gets elected, should run one more time to find out what the voters think of him. I am running because I feel that my first term was preparation for years to come." There are a great many things new board members don't realize. We have some difficult choices to make in the next two

"It's not your intentions, it's what you accomplish," Barre said. "We need people with managerial, communicating and negotiation experience. But you don't need three years' experience to know what you're doing."

In closing, Walker said, "You talk about local control. We don't have control if less than 20 percent come out to vote." Last year, 630 of 4,984 registered voters turned out at the

No precedent known

for school impasse BY BARBARA WALCOFF

James J. Clancy, county superintendent of schools, has told the Mountainside Board of Education to consider restoring $40,000 of a $66,000 reduction in the proposed local tax levy for 1979-80 or face the possibility that he will order a budget increase before the election April 3. Clancy, who represents the state education commissioner in the county, must approve all budgets adopted by local school boards for compliance with state "thorough and efficient education" law. He had approved an earlier budget proposal from the Mountainside board containing the

"We're encouraging them (Mountainside board members) to reevaluate the decision to reduce the budget." Dr. Elena Scambio, assistant to the county superintendent, said. "Ultimately the county superintendent must approve the budget, and at this point, approval has not been given.

Scambio said this is the first time a local school board budget has been denied approval for being too low.

In a letter to John McDonough, local board secretary, dated March 15, Clancy requested that the board reevaluate the following cuts: $6,700, reducing the speech teacher's job from full-time to part-time; $23,000, reducing librarian jobs from 2.7 to 1.5; $7,300 reducing the school psychologist's services from full-time to part-time, and a $3,000 reduction-from $6,600 to $3,600-in the appropriation for psychiatric services.

Clancy raised no objection to the other $26,000 which the board cut March 13. This would eliminate the assistant principal's job at Deerfield School.

Clancy's letter stated, "We would ask the board to reevaluate their decision in light of NJAC 6:28 and NJSA18A:46, as it relates to the handicapped children, and also to reevaluate their position as it relates to the reduction of librarians in NJAC 6:8-3.5 (A)4, as it relates the educational programs and media specialists."

"We understand that the decision relative to the reduction of the speech therapist, psychologist and psychiatrist and the increase of LDTC (learningdisabilities teacher consultant) was done on the basis of a report done by Dr. Rita Fass. Since this office has not been supplied with a copy of this report, it is rather difficult for us to understand the reasons for the Board's action, particularly since our records dated Dec., 1, 1978, indicate that 34 evaluations were still due in the district at that time." Clancy stated.

unanimously introduced an ordinance Tuesday night increasing the bond issue for the Nomahegan brook project by $400,000, up from the original figure of approximately $300,000 to somewhere in the neighborhood of

The project, expected to be started sometime this year, will help to alleviate flooding in the borough, especially across New Providence road near the Children's Specialized Hospital, Bruce Geiger, council president, said. Geiger said the work should take approximately 18 months to complete, and costs for the project will be shared by the borough and the county.

The bridge across New Providence road will be replaced by the county while the cost for channeling will be maintanied by Mountainside, Geiger said. Work on the channeling and on the bridge will be done simultaneously, he

The additional funds are needed, the council president explained, because the state Water Policy Commission requires that crews extend the project a little further than orginally planned. In addition, Geiger said, the basic design had to be equipped to handle a larger scale storm than the channels were designed for.

Besides increasing money for the project, the Council authorized the retaining of services of a professional appraiser and obtaining an appraisal for the Nomahegan Brook Project.

In other business, Council approved two appointments within the borough. Helen Voeste, who has been serving as an assistant to the borough administrator, was given the responsibilities of deputy treasurer and deputy tax collector. The deputy treasurer, Victoria Keller; was appointed borough treasurer. Both appointments will expire on Dec. 31.

Council also approved an ordinance establishing salaries for police personnel other than the chief. This, Abe

BART A. BARRE

"The Board of Education requires members with sound business judgment to make the increasingly difficult and complex decisions which affect not only the children, but the future of the community of Mountainside," Bart A. Barre, candidate for the Mountainside board of education, stated this week.

"The State of New Jersey continues to tell us locally how to operate our school and our community. I will devote my effort with that of other board members to resist this intrusion by the State," this seven-year Mountainside resident added.

"I believe my experience in the fiscal and managerial duties of running a successful business, coupled with a thorough knowledge of the Mountainside school system and its personnel, developed from involvement in many school activities and regular attendance at Board of Education meetings for the past seven years. would allow me to immediately function as an effective Board member," Barre added.

It is my opinion from observing Board of Education meetings and from talking with numerous other citizens that adequate information about the function of the school system and how the monies are spent is of importance and interest not only to the parents, but also to the many residents without children in the Mountainside school system.

"The conclusion one must make is that the present Board of Education has not successfully communicated with the public on a continuing basis to provide such information.

"As board member I would attempt to improve communication between the board and all residents of Mountainside, and would listen with an open mind to all comments and proposals

PEGGY REILLY

Peggy Reilly, seeking her second three-year term on the Mountainside Board of Education, said that she feels that it is the duty of every citizen to contribute where his or her talents and qualifications can positively affect the institutions of our society and, in this instance for Mrs. Reilly, it is with the Mountainside School system.

Many of the reasons she is seeking reelection are the same motives which caused her to run for the local Board three years ago. She said that they include her fundamental interest-our children. The children, Reilly said, are the basic reason why boards of education are in business "In this period of declining school population, there is a need to intelligently assess and select those alternatives which will least impact on the educational growth and development of our children. I feel that my background in the field and my experience on the Board would be a continued asset to Mountainside at this time," this mother of four said.

Peg Reilly has been a teacher for 91/2 vears, spending five of those years in New York before taking a position in the garden state. She is now a teacher with St. Joseph's School in Maplewood. She did her undergraduate work at Trinity College, Washington, D.C., and received her master's degree in education from Fordham University; Mrs. Reilly also did additional course work at Newark State College (now called Kean College).

A 19-year resident of the borough. Mrs. Reilly and her husband Edward have four boys-Jim, Ed, Joseph and Thomas.

In concluding, she added, "I would like to be reelected because I feel that my qualifications could best serve the community. The confusion that created in Trenton over state funds state regulations, what is considered our power to get this budget approved by the voters on April 3," Peggy Wilson, PTA president, said. discussed in the Final Environmental Impact Statement (FEIS) and would appear to impose significant burdens on local traffic arteries if I-78 were to be built," according to Robert C. Barrett, an attorney with a firm hired by the town of Springfield.

The report was prepared by Alan Davis Associates, Inc., a transportation consultant in Connecticut. It was commissioned by the attorneys working for Springfield to fight the construction of the road.

The report stated, "Little of the traffic using I-78 has destinations on U.S. 22 to the east of the present terminus. In order for a significant diversion of U.S. 22 traffic to I-78 to occur, major highway linkages would be required between the two roadways to carry the flows. These would join U.S. 22 to the I-78 interchanges.

'No such links, which would prove satisfactory for such heavy diversions, are presently in existence or proposed. Obvious linkages for diverted traffic from south of U.S. 22 to points east on I-78 would be vis State Rt. 531 in North Plainfield and New Providence road-Diamond Hill road in the study area."

"What we're buying if we pay for this road is not a solution to our traffic road is not a solution to our trame problems but a diversion of them onto our local streats," said June Leatherbee of the Parkland Preservation Fund, a private group opposed to the highway. Whire paying a pricetag of over $15 million per mile, and our precious watching Reservation for a road which well not execute the stream of the stre road which will not even be adequate.

Police call for help in hunt for gunman

A composite sketch has been released by police of a lone holdup man wanted for three armed robberies within the borough. Police asked anyone with any information to contact Detective Sergeant Jerry Rice of the Mountainside Police Department at 232-8100.

The man is described as white, 25-30 years old, 6'1" to 6'2", 170-180 pounds with black or dark brown hair, a dark complexion and a slender build. Police said he may possibly be Italian. He had a mustache on the first job, police said and has a neat appearance.

The suspect is wanted for the holdup and robbery of the Steak and Ale on Jan. 24. He was wearing a ski type jacket and was armed with a .45 caliber hand gun.

On March 4, the Mountainside Inn was robbed by an intruder whom police believe is the same man. He was armed with a .38 caliber hand gun and was wearing a brown jacket.

The third establishment that police robbed by this man was the Perkins Pancake House on March 6. This time he was wearing a brown blazer and sneakers. He was using a small hand gun.

Free parkway, says Fulcomer

Republican assembly candidate James J. Fulcomer of Rahway has announced his "strong and uncompromising" opposition to the establishment of tolls in the free section of the New Jersey Garden State Parkway, which runs through Union County.

Since its inception, the Union County portion of the Garden State Parkway has been a free road, open to all American citizens free of charge, since all American taxpayers through their federal income taxes financed this freeway. The parkway was established without tolls in Union County for both intercounty and local use," stated the assembly hopeful.

"To change it to a toll road would demolish the local character of the road and break faith with the original contract that established it as a toll free highway," added assembly candidate

Think of Volkswagen as part of the family.

Volkswagens are true family cars.

The John Murray Seniors had their VW for eight years. Then they gave it to John Murray Junior when they bought their new one. The John Murray Seniors are happy with their new VW, and you can see that Junior is certainly happy with his "new" VW. When a car can drive through two generations, that's quite a car. That's a Volkswagen.

They're two reasons Volkswagens can last so long. The first is the way we build them. We put in the finest quality features like fuel injection. Our system gets you great mileage on regular gasoline. It's also why we build the most economical car engine in America for our Diesel Rabbit—delivering 40 EPA est, mpg, 50 mpg est, highway†. And we have the finest, firmest handling package. It makes driving a real joy instead of a real job. Add to that special features like negative steering roll radius, balanced designed braking, fully independent suspension, and a passive restraint seatbelt system* that the Compare this estimate to the "estimated mpg" of other cars. Your mileage may on speed, weather, and trip length Highway mileage will probably be less.

U.S. Department of Transportation says every car will have to have by 1984, and you've got yourself a real value.

There's another reason Volkswagens can last so long. And that's the kind of uniquely professional, highly sophisticated maintenance a Jersey Pro performs on every VW that passes through his service department. He keeps a VW running great so you can keep it running for a long, long time.

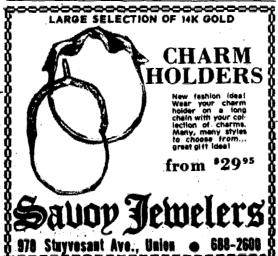

However, if for some reason you don't decide to keep your old VW in the family, we'll be more than happy to accept it as a trade-in. That's because it's worth a lot to us, and you'll benefit from VW's traditionally high resale value. After all, we would like to think of

Last-second Kansas rally takes State League crown

Kansas cause

Kansas snatched victory from the hands of Florida and gained this year's State League crown. Utah and Texas also reached semi-final ranks.

Recreation League were members of the Kansas team.

It took a last-second Kansas rally, led by Mike Blabolil, to overcome Florida for the championship, 40-38 last Wednesday. The sixth and seventhgrade adversaries swapped quarters in the first half, (12-6 Florida and 14-8 Kansas), and came together at 20 points by the midway point. In the third period, a solid Kansas defense precipitated a 29-2 lead. Florida pushed its way into the lead with plays from Barry Shipitofsky, John Lusardi and others. Kansas' turned the tide as Blabolil scored all 11 Kansas points in the final stanza. Down 38-37 with seconds left. Blabolil drove the Florida middle and came up with a foul shot. He notched one free throw, and the score was tied at 38. Florida couldn't keep the ball, and Blabolil got another chance. Kansas again dribbled straight up the center for a layup and hit the bucket with six seconds left.

Blabolil contributed 26 points, 15 rebounds, and five steals to the Kansas effort. After the contest, he picked up the championship trophy as well as the State League's Most Valuable Player award. Joe Blanda played aggressively creating numerous scoring opportunities and tossing in five tallies. Chris Clemson hit a pair of crucial buckets to finish with four scores on the day. Jeff Pollack was the key to Kansas defensive success and scored three points. A bucket was added by David Edelcreek to round out the scoring. Gary Binenstock, Mike Pisano and Sam Levitt were all crucial members of the Shipitofsky and Dan Klinger headed the Florida attack with 14 and 13 points respectively. Shipitofsky had one of his best games, controlling the ball and giving off four assists. Klinger led Florida's rebounders with 14 on the night. Lusardi's seven points was a key of Florida activity. Todd Wasserman played well and tallied four points for the runners-up, David Littenberg, Andy Asdin, Paul Teja, Eric Cast, Craig Yoss and Steve Barrison all participated in a Florida effort

It took another just as exciting finish for Kansas to defeat Utah in the semi-finals, 42-41. The victors maintained leads of 11-10, 23-16 and 36-23. In the second half, although Kansas took a 13 point lead, the champs were plagued with foul trouble. At 3:20 in the final period, Blabolil left the game with five miscues followed by Pollack.

The Utah rally began. With a 1:40 remaining, a John Wioland basket made the score 37-41. At 1:23, Chris Clemson hit a Kansas free throw that proved to be the winning margin. Wioland hit twice more to bring the tally up to 41-42. A Kansas turnover gave Utah a 17-second last chance try. Robert Fusco moved the ball quickly and, before he could move to the basket, was fouled for a one-on-one situation. No time remained on the clock. The free throw tricked off to the side and Utah came up short. Blabolil pulled in 13 rebounds and netted 20 points, many on fast breaks from steals. Pollack had nine rebounds of his own to add to a seven-point showing. Edelcreek and Blanda were clutch players for Kansas, hitting six and four points respectively. Clemson ended up with three scores on the night and the cause. Wioland did his damage for Utah mainly in the fourth period. He led his teammates in that quarter and the game with 14 points. Carlos Hernandez was a big Utah force with 13 points and 15 rebounds, Anthony D'Alessio did a job off the boards (18 rebounds) and scored seven points. Fusco completed the contest with three steals and four points. Ron Bromberg played super aggressive ball, notching three tallies in the process, Eric Yoss, Jeff Fernberg, Mike Knox, Roland Mueller and Jim Preper headed up the Utah

Florida found its way into the championship with a powerful, 42-33, win over Texas. Texas stayed fairly close during the first three quarters (7-3, 17-14 and 26-22) and remained close part way into the fourth quarter. But the fouling out of Texas team leaders Rich Francis and Tom Kisch proved fatal to their cause. The 14 points of Klinger in the fourth quarter was too much to handle for Texas, who fought as the State League tourney underdog. Klinger's 27 scores and 16 rebounds led all players in the game.

Girls finish with record by Franklin

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School girls' varsity basketball team has completed a difficult, injury-ridden season with a record of 8-12. The brightest spot for Coach Ruth Townsend was provided by senior Cricket Franklin, who became the first player in Dayton female basketball to top the 1,000-point mark.

Franklin passed the milestone with 32 points against Madison, which was her personal high for a single game. She joined Joe Pepe and Kevin Doty as Dayton's only four-digit scorers.

The season started unhappily as the girls lost their first four games. They were never able to reach the .500 mark. The Dayton quintet, however, ran up a respectable 6-6 mark in Suburban Conference play, finishing the season in a tie for fourth place in the eight-team league.

Franklin led the Bulldogs throughout the year in shooting, passing, rebounding and tenacious defense. She averaged 14 points a game, just above her career norm of 13. In addition to her strong defensive play, Cricket averaged eight rebounds a game.

Another senior, Ellen Stieve, was also strong off the backboards, besides scoring consistently in double figures. Sharpshooter Michelle Gan had a frustrating season at guard and was repeatedly beset by injuries. She still managed to score almost 11 points a game, however, and improved sharply from her junior year with 53 assists.

Center Mary King is another senior who has completed her Dayton career. Although not an outstanding scorer, King was the keystone in an effective defense and also rebounded with

The fifth senior letterwinner was Mary Jane Gagliano, who was a vastly improved player this season after spending most of her junior year with the junior varsity. She was a steady performer all this year, with eight points and four assists per game.

Junior Kathy Gerndt also had a fine season although hampered by injuries. A starter since her freshman year, Gerndt will lead the Bulldogs next year as point guard. Sophomore Kathy Clark, a fine rebounder with a good outside touch, will be counted on for scoring next year.

The junior varsity team, coached by Sue Senese, wound up with a successful record. Team leaders were the Burtt sisters, Kathy and Joanne.

Shipitofsky had seven points. Lusardi was strong on defense and scored four points. Carig Yoss tapped in three and Todd Wasserman put a free throw into round out the game. David Littenberg, Andy Sadin and Eric Gast completed Florida's play.

Glenn Schneider and Kisch led the Texans with 11 and 10 points respectively, Kisch had nine rebounds to match Schneider's defense

If you're a teenager involved in a divorced-parents situation, take care to communicate with your folks.

According to a recent article in CO-ED Magazine, published by Scholastic Magazines, parents and children can combine to make the divorce situation more manageable.

Parents, for example, shouldn't allow themselves to be ruled by excessive guilt once the divorce is settled. Oftentimes, children may bring home poor report cards and mothers tend to

Lung group, hospital plan asthma program

The second in a series of programs to assist the asthmatic child and his family is being organized by the Central New Jersey Lung Association and Children's Specialized Hospital, Mountainside.

L. Thomas Snead of Linden, vice president and program chairman of the Lung Association, and Eugene E. Rodgers of Mountainside, association secretary, said that the program goal is better management of the asthmatic child in the home, school and community setting.

There will be eight weekly sessions, beginning April 26 and concluding June 1. All sessions will be conducted in the hospital from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Dr. Margaret Symonds, medical director of the hospital, said that the program is designed for children, ages 7 to 15, their parents and other interested family members.

Applications may be obtained bycontacting the Lung Association, 1457 Raritan rd., Clark, 272-8676. The children must be referred to the program by the family physician. sessions on basic anatomy and physiology of the respiratory system, diaphragmatic breathing (belly breathing), relaxation techniques, conditioning and breathing exercises, medications, the emotional aspects of asthma, chest physical therapy, bronchial drainage, diet and nutrition.

Exercises for the youngsters will be held in the hospital's new heated swimming pool and physical therapy

A staff of pediatric physicians, social workers, physical therapists and hydrotherapists will conduct the sessions.

Rodgers and Snead said that about seven per cent of children age 15 and younger suffer from asthma and the condition is one of the leading causes of school absenteeism.

"Early treatment is most important," noted Dr. Symonds, "because asthma continue into adulthood and become a contributing factor in lung disease such as emphysems and chronic bronchitis."

DiFrancesco urges Byrne act on energy bill

Assemblyman Donald T. DiFrancesco (R-22) this week urged Governor Byrne to sign a bill which the 22nd District lawmaker said "addresses two crucial problems—the growing energy crisis and increasing costs of government."

DiFrancesco's Life Cycle Cost Analysis Act unanimously passed both houses of the Legislature and has been awaiting the governor's signature since last summer. In a letter to the governor, DiFrancesco urged "prompt attention" to the matter.

"It should be clear by now that our energy problems are not going to go away by themselves," DiFrancesco said. "The increasingly volatile Middle East situation reminds us that energy supplies are finite, and we can delay no longer in making long-term energy saving plans."

DiFrancesco's bill would require the government, in planning construction or renovation of any state-owned or operated facility, to analyze the cost of energy necessary to operate and maintain the facility for its economic life.

"By ensuring that the most efficient energy systems are installed, we will be more adequately prepared for future energy needs," said DiFrancesco. "At the same time, we will be reducing operating costs and, therefore, the expenditure of tax dollars."

DiFrancesco's plan has been endorsed in the N.J. Department of Energy Master Plan and by the N.J. Conservation Foundation, which called the legislation "a visionary and innovative approach to energy."

A companion bill sponsored by DiFrancesco and signed into law last November gives legal standing to solar easements, thus ensuring the exposure of solar collectors to the sun's rays. Together, both bills were hailed by environmental groups as "two of the best environmental bills to pass our state legislature."

School budget

Mountainside Board of Education, said, "We might try to have a private meeting but that's kind of doubtful as two members will be away. Every member of the board voted the way he or she felt, and I don't expect any member to change his or her vote. There were no hasty or last-minute decisions. This budget was thoroughly considered by the board."

Scambio said that, if the local board decides not to reevaluate the budget, the county superintendent will choose between two options:

—He could direct the board to place more money into its budget if he determines that the cut budget is not sufficient to meet the mandates of a "thorough and efficient education."

He could review all data and decide that the cut budget is sufficient after all.

Clancy, who is attending a convention in North Carolina, was unavailable for comment but will be back on Monday. Should money be restored to the Should money be restored to the budget, this could not be reflected at the polls when the tax levy goes before the voters for approval on April 3, McDonough said.

"The absentee ballots have already been printed," he said. "For all practical purposes, it's all already processed." Saturday will be the legal deadline for changes, he said.

IF APPROVED, the new tax rate supporting the Board of Education budget would drop from the originally proposed 1.5—point increase to a 2.4 decrease for the 1979-80 academic year, McDonough, said.

The tax levy, which would fall from this year's $1,692,778 to $1,656,684, declines at a rate of 2.4 cents per $100 valuation or $12 on a $50,000 home., Before the board cut the $66,000, the proposed levy was $1,722,684. The tax levy is the amount that residents will vote on during the April 3 board of education election.

The board also voted to lower the budget total from $2,151,819 for the current year to $2,089,654 for next year. Clancy had approved an earlier budget proposal totaling $2,155,665.

UC programs are attended by 239 residents

Union College, Cranford, Elizabeth and Plainfield, served 239 Mountainside residents in credit and non-credit programs in 1977-78, according to an annual report issued this week by Dr. Saul Orkin, president.

The head count for 1977-78 totaled 12,639 with Elizabeth providing the largest number of 1,754. In addition to those formally enrolling in some type of instruction, an estimated 16,000 persons took advantage of cultural, athletic, and educational programs conducted by the College, including art exhibits, dramatic productions, lectures, and similar events.

More women than men were enrolled in 1977-78, Orkin said. Part-time enrollment increased 13 percent over the previous year and remained higher than full-time enrollment.

Orkin said liberal arts, business and criminal justice had the highest enrollment of full-time, day students, but with the addition of part-time evening students the business curriculum had the largest enrollment followed by liberal arts and criminal justice.

Union County once again contributed the vast majority of students. The largest contingent was from Elizabeth followed by Cranford, Westfield, Plainfield, Union and Linden.

Some 6,829 persons enrolled in noncredit continuing education courses and other courses and other community services offerings, Orkin said.

NEW MANAGER—Ronald P. Sinciair, director of administration since 1975 for the Painut Division of TRW Inc., Mountainside, has been appointed vice president and general manager.

Swim program is established for MS victims

A new aquatic program for multiple sclerosis patients is being held at 9:30 a.m. each Friday in the swimming pool of the Union Boys Club.

It was started through the efforts of Harry Fischbein, trustee of the Upper New Jersey Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, and implemented by Kevin McCormick, director of the Boys Club.

They noted that medical authorities consider swimming activities particularly well-suited for most persons with MS. Besides providing physical exercise, swimming encourages social inter-action, they said.

The Upper New Jersey Chapter sponsors patient service programs for MS patients in Union, Essex and Hudson counties and supports research administered by the National Society to find the cause, treatment and cure for multiple sclerosis.

Additional information is available from the MS office, 783-6441.

temporary certification to teach in New Jersey public schools in September.

Upon completion of the practicum, students receive credit toward their master's degrees while teaching at the junior high and secondary school levels. Additional course work for both the MAT degree and permanent certification can be completed on a parttime basis in evening courses during the first year of teaching and the following summer. Previous course work in education is not required for admission.

Ninety percent of the students who completed last year's practicum were placed in paid teaching positions, including all those in mathematics and science. Prof. Norma Levine, program director, said "there are areas in which there is significant need for teachers. These include mathematics, English, science and foreign languages and liveral arts."

Students may complete practicum in a variety of areas, inclusing English, the physical and biological sciences, mathematics, social studies, foreign languages, teaching English as a second language and bilingualbicultural education in Spanish.

Kean offering 'culture' trips in course plan

Trips to New York City to a theater and an art exhibit will be featured in April Continuing Education courses at Kean College in Union.

"Han Art and Empire: The Flowering of China" will explore a time little-known in the Western World, when China fostered and empire as great as the Roman's and arts comparable to the Greeks. The slidelecture series will meet four Tuesdays, starting April 17, at 7:40 p.m. A trip will be arranged to the China Institute in New York City to view a special exhibit of Han art. The instructor is Dr. Jane Leonard of the Kean history department, who has traveled, studied, and taught in the Far East.

"Sunday Theater" includes trips to three matinee performances -a drama, a comedy and a musical-along with walking tours, meetings with performers and after- theater discussions. There will be an orientation meeting at Kean on Monday, April 16, at 7 p.m. The matinees are scheduled for April 22, May 6 and May 20. The coordinator is Debra Gonsher of the Kean theater department.

The registration deadline for each course is one week before the first class meeting. Fees for each are $15 plus the cost of transportation and tickets. Further information may be obtained by calling 527-2163.

Focus on health care at Seton Hall's fair

a two-day program offering more than 30 free health screening measures. exhibits, films and seminars focusing primarily on the health concerns of young adults, will be presented at the university March 28 and 29.

The fair, which is co-sponsored every two years by the university's Center for Social Work and College of Nursing in conjunction with WNBC-TV, will be open to members of the community as well as university students and personnel and is scheduled to run from 11 a.m. to 8 .m. each day in the student center and nursing building.

The main purpose of the Health Fair, which will present a positive view of health care, is to provide information related to the maintenance of good health and prevention of disease. At the university's previous fairs, more than 2,000 people attended and more than 5.300 screenings of various types were administered. In addition to making people aware of the state of their health and good health practices and offering an opportunity for free checks and screenings, the Health Fair also will provide information on social and health-related issues affecting people, facilities and agencies that are available and the variety of career opportunities in health and social service fields.

The fair is directed by planning a group of students and two faculty advisors and involves all sectors of the university-including both faculty and students-as well as more than 15 agencies and organizations in the health field. Exhibits and test procedures will be staffed by students as well as licensed professionals. Faculty advisors for the fair are Prof. Ruth Hutchison of Fairfield, a registered nurse who also holds a master's degree in public health and is assistant professor in the College of Nursing and Dr. Ema Quartaro of West Orange, assistant professor of social work and director of the Center for Social Work

Participating professional groups and organizatons include the LaLeche League, American Cancer Society, N.J. State Commission for the Blind, North Jersey Blood Center, National Council on Alcoholism, College of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, Essex County Heart Association, Unified Vailsburg Services, American Red Cross, Lions Eyemobile Foundation and the National Foundation March of Dimes. Among test and screening procedures

Seton Hall University's Health Fair. that will be available are those for blood pressure, blood typing, hemoglobin determination, oral-dental inspection, pulmonary function, uterine cancer, hearing, speech and vision defects and diabetes. Diabetes testing requires a special high-carbohydrate meal that must be taken two hours in advance consisting, for example, of hamburger, French-fried potatoes, salad with French dressing, orange sherbet, milk, coffee or tea.

There will be no charge for tests, with materials and lab work furnished by participating agencies and organizations and the University

Kean College offers concert

The Kean College Chamber Orchestra, a professional organization under the auspices of the Kean College music department, will offer a free concert on April 1 at 2:30 in Kean's Wilkins Theatre. The concert is open to the public.

Thursday, March 22, 1979

The Kean College Chamber Orchestra includes professional musicians from several leading symphonies in New York and New Jersey and students from Kean's music program.

The orchestra will play works by Beethoven, Ravel, Faure and Milhaud. Ray Fowler of Highland Park will conduct.

Robert Donat and Margaret Leighton, will be shown on Wednesday in Hutchinson Hall, Kean College at 3 and 8 p.m.

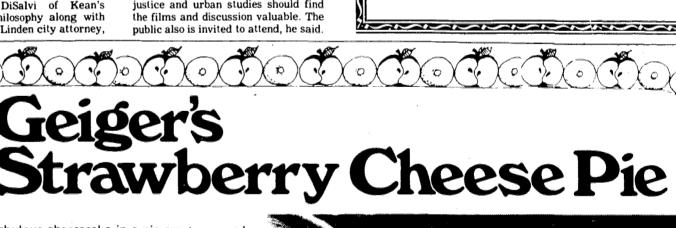

The film about a middle class family affected by the actions of their 12-year-old son, is the second in a series of three films concerned with adolescents and their conflicts with society and themselves. Dr. Charles Fethe, Dr. Ronnie Kind and Dr. Dan DiSalvi of Kean's department of philosophy along with Jerome Krueger, Linden city attorney, will lead a discussion of the film after the 8 o'clock showing.

The third film, "The Member of the Wedding," will be shown on Wednesday, April 25 at 3 p.m. in Hutchinson

Professor Sidney Krueger of Kean's English department, chairman of the series, said that students enrolled in courses such as psychology, elementary and secondary education, library science, sociology, criminal justice and urban studies should find the films and discussion valuable. The "King of the Gypsies," starring Susan Sarandon. Sterling Hayden, Judd Hirsch and Shelley Winters, opened yesterday at the Elmora Theater, Elizabeth, on a double bill "Barbarella," starring Jane Fonda, and

Eric Roberts as the rebel. "Gypsies" tells a story about a young man, who struggles to break away from the tribal ways and live his own life. Photographed in color, the picture was directed by Frank Pierson.

The jobless rate for New Jersey residents fell to 6.4 percent in the fourth guarter of 1978, from 7.9 percent in the last quarter of 1977, as the number employed rose by 185,000 to 3.3 million. it was reported by Herbert Bienstock. regional commissioner of labor statistics who directs the Bureau of Labor Statistics' Middle Atlantic Region. Bienstock noted that strong increases in the proportion of the population with jobs and declines in unemployment were largely centered among whites.

Bienstock said that the white jobless rate fell 1.6 percentage points over the year, from 7.1 percent in the fourth quarter of 1977 to 5.5 percent in the fourth quarter of 1978, compared to 14.3 percent a year ago.

The jobless rate for New Jersey adults was 5.6 percent in the fourth quarter of 1978, down from 6.8 percent in the prior year. For men the jobless rate was 4.3 percent and for women 7.3 percent in the fourth quarter of 1978, both down over the year. For youth, aged 16-19, the jobless rate dropped 412 percentage points from 19.5 percent in the fourth quarter of 1977 to 15.0 percent in the fourth quarter of 1978.

Bienstock noted that despite the drop in the overall statewide jobless rate over the last year, the 6.4 percent unemployment rate for the fourth quarter of 1978 remains above the comparable national average of 5.5 percent. Bienstock pointed out, however, that the 0.9 percentage point gap for the last quarter of this year compared favorably with a 1.7 percentage point gap in the fourth quarter of 1977 when the state's jobless rate was 7.9 percent and the national,

6.2 percent. With the exception of

Dolls and toys to be on display

Hundreds of dolls and toys will be assembled at the L'Affaire, Route 22, Mountainside, at a luncheon and exhibit which is open to the public to be given by members of the Keepsake Doll Club of N.J., on March 31 from 10:30 a.m. to 4

Many rare and choice dolls and toys both German and French made, will get appraisal from collectors from New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, and Pennsylvania. Competition of the playthings of yesteryear will offer ribbons for the first, second and third of each class.

There will be German Bisque dolls made by Simon & Halbig, K&R, and Heubach. From the French, there will be Jumeau, SFBJ, RD, and Steiner along with various teddy bears made before 1940, early toys, made of cast iron, early tin and wind-up toys. Also, marottes, sometimes called poupards or twirlers and peddler dolls. Doll carriages up to 10 inches in length will be on display.

The program will be given by Mrs. Grayce Piemontesi, of Stanhope, on "antique toys." There will be sales tables, prizes, and souvenirs for those who plan to attend the luncheon.

Anniversary of Carmel Guild

Msgr. Francis R. LoBianco, executive director of Catholic Community Services, has announced final plans for the 15th anniversary of the Mount Carmel Guild, which will start with a special liturgy mass at St. Patrick's Pro-Cathedral, Newark on Sunday, April 1, at 12:30 p.m. Archbishop Peter L. Gerety will be the principal celebrant. Other dates announced include the annual volunteers' luncheon to be held at the Manor in West Orange on Wednesday, May 2, and the archbishop's gala, which will be held at the Mansion on the Hill at Caldwell College on Sunday, June 3, featuring Peter Duchin and his orchestra.

A spokesman said the theme of the 15th anniversary is "The Way We Were." symbolizing the growth of the Mount Carmel Guild from the early soup kitchen days to a professional social service and health organization serving fields of mental health, communication disorders, visually handicapped, special education, rehabilitation and migration.
