Planning unit to rule on two new buildings

Two new office buildings may be erected within the year on the Drevette's Nursery property on Rt. 22, at a cost of more than $1 million if the Mountainside Planning Board approves a Trans Net Corporation application due to be presented at the regular May meeting of the board.

The two-story office buildings, according to Robert C. Doherty, attorney for the Union Township-based firm, will contain 43,948 square feet each. The plans for the site, Doherty added, will try to capture "the campus look."

Tentative site plans show 318 parking spaces as well as three buildings and a one way ingress into the property. The small two-story, one-family home in the eastern corner of the double-lot property will remain standing and probably will be used for computer training and storage, Doherty said. The company plans to build an open-air courtyard with a fountain between the two office buildings. Exit will be at the eastern end of the property.

The application by Trans Net was tabled at the April meeting of the Planning Board which was used for an exchange of ideas and information about the plans. Doherty said that the board seemed unwilling to grant a variance allowing less than the required 20-foot buffer zone between the office building lot and abutting residential zones. To the west are Locust avenue residential homes; to the south, a section of Echo Lake Park which is zoned for residential housing. Doherty said that the Planning Board indicated the buffer zone, complete with a barrier of trees, would almost definitely be required along the Locust avenue side.

Another problem confronting the prospective builders is the initial indications from the N.J. Department of Transportation that the proposed two-entrance driveway into the property will not be accepted. Trans Net has proposed an entrance at the west end of the property and a second entrance further east so that anyone who has missed the first driveway may take the second, Doherty said. The entrances off

Consolidation pros and cons to be examined

"The Pros and Cons of School District Consolidation" will be the topic of an informational presentation set for Monday at 8 p.m. in the Deerfield School cafeteria. The meeting is jointly sponsored by the Mountainside Parent Teacher Association and the Mountainside Teachers Association. Anyone interested may attend.

Ruth H. Mancuso will be the speaker for the evening. A member of the New Jersey Board of Education and a resident of Glassboro, Mancuso headed the committee which compiled a report for the state board of education entitled, "Report of State Committee to Study the Next Steps of Regionalization and Consolidation in the School Districts of New Jersey."

"The combination of declining enrollment in Mountainside with increasing talk at the state level of consolidating smaller school districts makes this a topic of concern to us. Both the PTA and the MTA feel that it's important for the public to become better informed about both the advantages and the drawbacks of regionalization and consolidation," a teacher commented.

Summer posts still to be filled

The Mountainside Recreation Commission is accepting applications for several summer job openings—arts and crafts supervisor at the summer playground and tennis court attendants.

Applicants for the arts and crafts position must be at least 18. The work involves the planning, preparation and supervision of arts and crafts projects for the 8-week playground program.

Tennis players offered sign-up

Registration is now being taken for tennis players wishing to join the Mountainside tennis ladder. The tennis ladders will be maintained for the 1979 season: singles; men, women, youth; doubles: men, women, mixed. The ladders are open to all Mountainside residents.

The tennis ladder season will extend from May 26 through July 29. Deadline for registration is May 20. To register or for further information, those interested may call Helen Hewitt, chairperson, at 232-4745. Registration also will be taken at the PTA fair.

Regional board changes meeting

The Union County Regional High School District Board of Education will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the instructional media center of the Arthur Johnson Regional High School in Clark. The meeting is open to the public.

Police checking series of home, factory thefts

Mountainside police are investigating a series of eight burglaries within the borough during this month and although no time pattern has emerged, authorities believe that three independent groups may be responsible.

"The type of entry is different. I think we're looking for three different operations," Detective Sergeant Jerry Rice said. Two commercial buildings have been broken into and six homes have been burglarized, including three within the past week, police reports said.

Rice said that the two factory break-ins—Verone Corp. on Globe avenue on April 13 and Klingelhoff Corp. on Mill lane during the night of April 16—are probably related to each other but not connected with the residential burglaries.

Rice separated the residential break-ins into two groups because, he said, the type of entry differed and the method used inside the home varied. One group, which the detective classified as "neat" because entry was gained by prying open windows or doors with a small tool, was basically located near Rt. 22. The burglars, once inside the home, picked through drawers, taking some items of value while leaving others, Rice revealed.

The other group, Rice said, probably was committed by a different person or group of people. In these burglaries, the doors were kicked in, and Rice said that footprints could be seen on the doors. The detective said that this group would take a pillow case from the home and dump the contents of drawers into it.

The Mountainside detective put the following cases into the "neat" break-in category: A Central avenue home on Sunday between 9 a.m. and 8:08 p.m., where $1,000 in jewelry was reported missing; a Central avenue residence, 25 house numbers away from the first case, on Saturday between 12:45 p.m. and 9:19 p.m., where nothing was reported missing; a Ridge drive home between 2:30 p.m. Friday and 6:20 p.m. Sunday where residents reported $80 in cash missing as well as $1,000 in jewelry and a $1,000 camera.

The other burglaries, which are believed to have been committed by a different group, are as follows: Old Grove road between April 13 at 5 p.m. and April 15 at 9 p.m. where $60 in cash and tie tacs and cufflinks were missing, a Mill lane residence on April 12 between 8:15 a.m. and 4:15 p.m., where jewelry was reported missing, and a Tanager Way home, vacant between April 7 and 14 in which all rooms were ransacked. The Tanager Way home owner had not told police what was missing.

Rice said that Westfield Police Department has picked up a group of juveniles which may be responsible for some of the jobs in Mountainside, but that has not yet been determined.

Police who have not yet found a time pattern in the series, have not assigned extra men to any one shift.

As in the past, police are seeking the assistance of local residents who, if they see anything or anyone suspicious, should notify the local authorities so that a patrol car can be dispatched to the area.

Firemen plan drive Saturday

The Mountainside Volunteer Fire Department will conduct its annual fund drive Saturday from 10 a.m. until the 25 canvassers expected to take part can cover every home in the borough, Ron Huter, assistant chief, said.

A volunteer fireman, who averages 20 hours compulsory duty-time per month will visit each home asking residents to donate any amount they desire, Huter added. The money will go to buy uniforms, coveralls, jackets and social extras, the assistant chief said.

Anyone who cannot be reached by the local firemen on Saturday may call the fire house at 233-1047 or Les Hominy at 233-3822 to arrange to have a donation picked up.

Space center to give shows

The Goddard Space Center in Maryland will give three free shows during the Mountainside PTA Fair on May 12.

Larry Billbraugh, a representative of the center, will present the shows in the Deerfield School gym at 11:30 a.m., 1:30 and 3:30 p.m., according to Roberta Krumholtz, fair chairman.

She said the shows will deal with such topics as rockets and telemetry, solar energy, Mars, satellites and space in general. Short movies, models and demonstrations will accompany Billbraugh's talks.

Blood sought by Red Cross

A community blood drive will be held by the Westfield-Mountainside Chapter of the Red Cross from 1:30 to 6:30 p.m., on Tuesday, May 15, at the Presbyterian Church, 140 Mountain ave., Westfield.

The Red Cross Blood Bank covers all residents of Westfield and Mountainside for their blood needs. Also, credit for blood replacement may be transferred at the donor's request to any hospital in the United States, Canada or Puerto Rico. Persons between the ages of 17 and 65, weighing at least 110 pounds may be donors. Seventeen-year-olds need written parental consent.

An appointment may be made to give blood by calling the Red Cross at 232-7090, or donors may walk in on May 15.

NEUROTIC OR NORMAL?

Neurosis takes many forms (anxiety, depersonalization, depression, hypochondria, hysteria, neurasthenia, obsessive compulsion, and phobia), and much of its vocabulary contains words used pejoratively.

The college roommate who keeps her sweaters in neat piles, her dresser drawers closed, and her books in a neat row on the desk instead of in tumbling stacks on the floor is not necessarily obsessive compulsive. Nor is the housewife who runs back from the car to make sure she turned off the iron a victim of anxiety neurosis, on the basis of that act alone.

Since everyone suffers to some extent from inadequacies either real or imagined—poor self-image or identity problems, to borrow from current phraseology—or from the strain of coping with everyday problems and from anxiety, unhappiness, and loss, neurosis might be equated with a lower tolerance level for those problems. The word "normal" is not interpreted in the same way in every social group or culture, but self-control and responsibility, both personal and social, might form a general equation for it. The so-called normal person is not always problem or guilt-free, always happy, or always successful. Instead, he or she is willing to accept responsibility for failures rather than rationalizing or drawing into his or her shell and usually tries to learn from mistakes and disappointment. Realistic perspective and positive self-concept evoke satisfactory interactions with others.

From this loose definition, the normal personality emerges as a broad framework within which many types of individual behavior patterns can flourish, each in its own social and cultural setting.

Physical symptoms which accompany this disorder generally are associated with the autonomic nervous system: palpitations, rapid or shallow breathing, dizziness, tremor, or tachycardia. There may also be such indications of "anxiety" as insomnia, restlessness, or unwarranted fatigue.

Driver treated at hospital after Rt. 22 crash

Ronald J. Weiss of Springfield was treated at Overlook Hospital for a head wound following an early morning accident on Rt. 22.

Weiss told police he was driving in the right lane of Rt. 22 west when at 7:45 a.m. on April 18 an unknown vehicle pulled out of Central avenue and cut him off. This forced Weiss into the concrete barrier, police reported, and the other car did not stop. Weiss was transported to Overlook by the Mountainside Rescue Squad, where he was treated and released.

A passenger in one of two cars involved in a 6:30 p.m. on April 19 Rt. 22 accident, Patricia H. Hess, complained of pain in her head but told police she would see her own physician.

Patricia Hess was a passenger in a car driven by Ronald J. Hess of Summit. Police reported that Hess was stopped at Mountain avenue, waiting to enter the highway when his car was struck in the rear by a car driven by Joseph D. Kremer of Roselle. Kremer told police that when Hess started to move, he looked to the left to check out traffic. When he looked again, Hess was stopped. Kremer was unable to stop his car in time to avoid the collision, police said.

DiFrancesco sees 'errors' in penal code

Assemblyman Donald T. DiFrancesco (R-22nd District) has introduced legislation to correct "an alarming error" in the state's recently enacted penal code.

DiFrancesco, an early critic of what he calls the "hasty" passage of the revised criminal code, has sponsored an amendment to define penalties for sexual assault on children, a crime that was omitted from the new code.

"For purely political reasons, the majority party rushed this complex document through the legislature before its effects on the criminal justice system could be thoroughly reviewed," said DiFrancesco.

"As a result, there are so many deficiencies that even the bill's sponsors have had to introduce a package of amendments to correct its faults, and we are still discovering errors in New Jersey's most important criminal justice document."

DiFrancesco cited the "inadvertent repeal" of the state's blue laws as an example of problems created by the new statute.

"The Democrats knew this was an incomplete and defective bill even as they pushed to get it onto the governor's desk in time for an elaborate bill-signing ceremony," DiFrancesco said. "They said they could correct the errors later, an attitude that is both irresponsible and dangerous."

The 22nd District Republican pointed out that the new penal code neglected to define penalties for sexual activity between an adult and children between the ages of 12 and 16, a group traditionally protected by statutory rape clauses.

Under the new criminal code, consensual intercourse with a person between the age of 13 and 16 is criminally punishable only if the other person is a close relative, guardian or teacher. DiFrancesco's bill would classify consensual intercourse with 13- to 16-year olds under broader circumstances and make it a crime of the second degree.

DiFrancesco added: "If we had not discovered this problem, our children would have lost an important protection under the law."

Motorcyclist is fined $135 on 6 charges

A Bloomfield man was fined $135 in Mountainside municipal court for six summonses he received while operating a motorcycle in the borough.

Judge Robert Ruggiero fined John G. Murray Jr. $72.50 for tickets and $62.50 in court costs last week after Murray entered a guilty plea on all charges. Murray was fined $40 for operating a motorcycle without a license driver while on a permit, $20 for operating the vehicle on which the turn signals were not working, $20 for being without an audible warning device, $20 for driving without goggles or an approved face shield, $20 for operating the vehicle without a protective helmet and $15 for being without proof of insurance.

Stamatis Gerefos of Springfield, who also entered a guilty plea on all charges, was fined $80 for four summonses he received. Gerefos was fined $10 and paid $10 court costs for each of the following tickets: driving without front license plate displayed, being without a name and address on a commercial vehicle having stop lights that were not working, and having turn signals that were not operating.

In other cases, Stephen J. Giegus of Greenbrook paid a $50 fine as well as $25 in court costs for interfering with Union County police officer Carl Bracaglia while in the performance of his duties, and Walter Ramas of North Plainfield was fined $10 and paid $10 court costs for passing on the marked shoulder of the highway.

FRIDAY DEADLINE
All items other than spot news should be in our office by noon on Friday.

Think of Volkswagen as part of the family.

Volkswagens are true family cars. The John Murray Seniors had their VW for eight years. Then they gave it to John Murray Junior when they bought their new one. The John Murray Seniors are happy with their new VW, and you can see that Junior is certainly happy with his "new" VW.

When a car can drive through two generations, that's quite a car. That's a Volkswagen.

They're two reasons Volkswagens can last so long. The first is the way we build them. We put in the finest quality features like fuel injection. Our system gets you great mileage on regular gasoline. It's also why we build the most economical car engine in America for our Diesel Rabbit—delivering 40 EPA est. mpg, 50 mpg est. highway*. And we have the finest, firmest handling package. It makes driving a real joy instead of a real job.

Add to that special features like negative steering roll radius, balanced designed braking, fully independent suspension, and a passive restraint seatbelt system* that the U.S. Department of Transportation says every car will have to have by 1984, and you've got yourself a real value.

There's another reason Volkswagens can last so long. And that's the kind of uniquely professional, highly sophisticated maintenance a Jersey Pro performs on every VW that passes through his service department. He keeps a VW running great so you can keep it running for a long, long time.

However, if for some reason you don't decide to keep your old VW in the family, we'll be more than happy to accept it as a trade-in. That's because it's worth a lot to us, and you'll benefit from VW's traditionally high resale value. After all, we would like to think of ourselves as part of the family, too.

Best-ever response seen for Superwalk

The Union County March of Dimes Superwalk '79 may be the area's most successful walk to date, according to the chapter's executive director, Jeffrey M. Brindle. Superwalk '79 will be held Sunday, April 29, beginning at Kean College, Union.

"We've been able to do more school assemblies this year than ever before, and this has resulted in a phenomenal number of students registering for Superwalk," he said.

"We anticipate about 1,200 walkers showing up and this should enable us to meet our goal of $50,000, the highest amount ever raised in a Union County March of Dimes Walkathon."

Anita Blunno, assistant director of the chapter, notes that "we have been fortunate in obtaining cooperation from all towns we will be walking through."

The Superwalk will begin at 9 a.m. in the Vaughn-Eames parking lot (North avenue) of Kean College, Union. The walk will go through Roselle Park, Roselle and Linden before returning to Kean, a total of 35 kilometers.

The walkers will receive lunch and refreshments along the way, and will be entertained by a local band before and after the walk.

All funds raised by the March of Dimes across the country is used for research and prevention of birth defects. In Union County, the purchasing of fetal monitors for the intensive care nurseries of local hospitals has been one area where a great amount of money has been spent.

"Purchasing hospital equipment is only part of the role of the March of Dimes in our community," states Dr. Edward Goodkin, chapter chairman. "The only way we're able to help is if people know we exist. Superwalk, for example, not only enables us to raise money for our cause, but it also reminds everyone that the March of Dimes is actively fighting against birth defects.

"Superwalk has always been the biggest event for the March of Dimes. In our own chapter, we've reached our goal every year."

Grand prize for the walk is a weekend trip for two to Disneyworld. Second prize is a 10-Peugeot bike donated by Aaron's Bicycles of Elizabeth. Third prize is two days for two at the Playboy Resort and Country Club at Great Gorge.

Information on Superwalk is available by calling 351-0320, or by visiting the March of Dimes office, 520 Westfield ave., Elizabeth.

Union College presents Richner in piano recital

Concert pianist Thomas Richner will present a piano recital in the Campus Center at Union College, Cranford, Friday, May 4 at 8 p.m.

A master interpreter of Mozart, Richner's artistry as a pianist was established early by winning the Naumberg Award, the MacDowell Award and the award of the N. Y. State Federation of Music Clubs.

At 12 he became a church organist. His undergraduate years were spent at the University of West Virginia; he was later awarded master's and doctoral degrees from Columbia University. Colby College at Waterville, Maine, conferred on honorary Doctor of Music degree. An international following has resulted from concert tours in the Netherlands, Austria, Philippines, Scandinavia and other countries.

Dr. Richner has presented 12 recitals in New York's Town Hall. His book on Mozart, "Orientation for Interpreting Mozart's Piano Sonatas," is highly recognized in his field.

He has been acclaimed in numerous concerts throughout the United States, particularly at Union College. "N. J. Music & Arts" critic Gustav Ferri said of one performance, "The tonal quality of his playing was a delightful experience. The Mozart Variations on a Minuet of Dupont, a very difficult work, was performed with an aristocratic approach. He literally orchestrated this piece with his fingers..."

The concert is sponsored for the 12th year by the Friends of the College of Union College.

Tickets (2.50) may be obtained from Mrs. Bedford H. Lydon, president of The Friends, at 319 North Union ave. Cranford, or at the door.

Muriel R. Smith, executive director, will present awards to eight aides:

For 10,000 hours of home-care service to community members in Central Union County—Ruth Dahlberg, Linden; Elsie Deary, Roselle; Lizzie Gordon and Margaret Ramsey of Rahway.

A-D-V-E-R-T-I-S-E-M-E-N-T Housewife sells 'glass plate' for $140; worth $1,700

NILES, Ill.—The story of a small fortune, lost because a housewife had no idea her glass plate was a collector's item, recently came to light.

In a letter to J. R. MacArthur, chairman of The Bradford Exchange, world's largest trading center in collector's plates, a Madison, Wis., woman wrote: "I had a Lalique 1965 plate . . . which I sold to a friend for $40. I had not heard of you at that time."

The plate she sold is actually valued at more than $1,700. Although MacArthur points out that this price is exceptionally high, he said, "I'm afraid others may be losing hundreds or thousands of dollars by not knowing what their plates are worth."

To aid in identifying valuable plates, the Exchange issues a report that includes current prices on more than 900 plates, guidelines on what to look for and when to buy, and the plate evaluation checklist used by the Exchange.

To obtain a copy without cost or obligation, send your name, address, and zip code by Saturday of next week to: The Bradford Exchange, Dept. 58517, 9301 Milwaukee Avenue, Niles, Illinois 60648. (Not available to Canadian residents.)

Dancers on stage

Carolyn Brown, who dances in the movie "Hair," will perform at the Montclair Art Museum Saturday afternoon, May 5.

She is one of a group of performing artists—dancers, musicians and a member of the Whole Theatre Company—who will participate in the museum's annual family day and student outdoor art exhibition.

The dancing will range from ballet demonstrations by Brown and members of her family to folk dancing led by Rose Grieco and Oscar Appel and a Maypole dance for children led by Grieco.

Brown is a member of the American Ballet Theatre, which was used for some of the dance sequences in "Hair." Her sister Patricia danced for two years with the Joffrey II Company and both have danced with the New Jersey Ballet Company.

Jerrie Brown, their mother, who began her dance career in New York City with George Balanchine, has been teaching in her studio in Montclair and at Montclair public schools and the Adult School. The three dancers will demonstrate various forms of ballet and modern dancing.

Dayton edged twice, defeats Pingry, 8-2

By MIKE MEIXNER

Dayton's baseball team suffered a pair of one-run defeats in Suburban Conference play before wallowing Pingry, 8-2, last week. The Bulldogs are 2-2 under coach Bob Lowe, who says, "I honestly feel we can win the conference title. We have the most talent and the guys have shown great desire. We are going to reverse those close ones soon. It's a long season and we're not finished yet." Dayton faces New Providence today.

Dayton began the week by losing to Caldwell, 3-2. The visiting Bulldogs took a 4-0 lead in the third on a walk to Mark D'Agostini, who stole second, was balked to third and scored on catcher Jim Wnek's RBI single. Trailing, 2-1, the Bulldogs gained a tie on successive hits by pitcher Dave Vargas (1-1), Adam Williams and Joe Policastro. An unearned eighth-inning run won for Caldwell.

Powerhouse Summit exploded for six runs in the second inning and hung on to edge Dayton hurler Joe Policastro, 6-5. Only two of the runs surrendered by Policastro were earned. Dayton fought back with four runs in the third inning. Williams, D'Agostini and Policastro singled. Following run-producing errors, Al Preziosi' fine suicide squeeze brought in the final run of the inning. Dayton made it 6-5 in the sixth and on Policastro's squeeze.

Against Pingry, Randy Bain hurled four innings in relief of Vargas to gain his first varsity victory. Dayton scored two runs in each of the first three innings. Barrett House, in Summit, is a group home for girls in a live-in treatment program. Referrals to the home are made by the Division of Youth and Family Services.

The Union County Legal Service Corporation's main office is at 60 Prince st., Elizabeth with a branch office at 344 East Front st., Plainfield. The agency provides free legal services to eligible clients in non-criminal matters. Its programs provide information to the Union County community concerning legal rights. The seven staff attorneys carry a case load of approximately 200 matters at all times.

The Elizabeth office serves Clark, Cranford, Elizabeth, Hillside, Kenilworth, Linden, Rahway, Roselle, Roselle Park, Springfield, Summit, Union and Winfield. Richard Bennett is executive director of the agency.

Located on the third floor of the Empress Hotel in Elizabeth, the Union County Social Setting Detoxification Center provides short-term care and counseling while the individual goes through withdrawal from alcohol. The center assists efforts to stop alcohol intake by providing an alcohol-free environment while going through the withdrawal process.

For the Birds

By Farris Swackhammer

Kirtland's warblers occupy one of the most restricted ranges of any mainland species of bird. They breed in an area about 60 by 80 miles in the central Michigan Jack Pine plains. Ecologically their habitat is even more restricted. Kirtland's warblers nest only in dense stands of small pines, 3 to 18 feet tall. A census taken in June 1951 put the count of this species just under a thousand. Twenty years later the number had dropped to about 400. It is, by any criteria, a rare bird.

Alarmed by this precipitous decline, both public officials and private organizations began to study the problem. They considered a number of long range projects but most of all wanted to find some factor that could be controlled immediately. That factor turned out to be cowbirds.

Cowbirds build no nests of their own but deposit their eggs in those of another species. They generally remove as many of the owner's eggs as they lay of their own. The foreign egg is frequently larger than the host's and gets more warming during incubation. Finally, the cowbird eggs hatch one to three days earlier than those of the host and the nestlings grow to maturity more rapidly, trampling their smaller nestmates to death.

During the 1940s and 1950s about 55 percent of Kirtland's warblers' nests were parasitized by cowbirds. This reduced production of young warblers by more than a third. In one 1966 sample, 83 percent of the warbler nests received cowbird eggs.

Trapping cowbirds was one approach to the problem. During six years, 17,529 cowbirds were captured and removed from the area. The decline of the Kirtland's warbler population leveled and began to recover very slightly.

Cowbirds were once found only on the central plains of our country but as land was cleared for agriculture and domestic cattle were introduced, they spread westward and eastward to the coasts.

Brown-headed cowbirds are probably descended from South American ancestors and entered North America through Mexico. Other species of cowbirds, still living on the southern continent, build nests; all North American blackbirds build nests. The only blackbird that uses nests of other species is our local cowbird. In spite of the urbanization of New Jersey, cowbirds are seen nearby every month of the year. They visit our feeders in large numbers and a count of 35,000 was made in the Raritan River roost in December 1946. Their egg-laying activities depend on the schedules of their hosts. Cowbird egg dates in this area vary from the end of April to early July.

Seminar for women seeking new careers

Women Talking About Business and Technical Careers, the second in a series of career planning seminars sponsored by the Women's Center for Career Planning (WCCP), will take place Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Health Building of Union County Technical Institute, 1776 Raritan rd., Scotch Plains.

A spokesperson said: "The seminar is designed to offer women entering or re-entering the labor force an opportunity to discuss career choices with professional and para-professional women in fields such as research technologist for a major chemical company, accountant in her own practice, small business owner, financial manager for an international pharmaceutical firm.

"Contemporary women functioning in non-traditional careers as well as in the roles of wife and mother will share their experiences and answer questions such as 'What are the barriers to a woman in these careers?' 'From what and from whom did your encouragement stem?' 'How do you handle a two-career family?' 'How do you manage the responsibilities of a family and a career?'

"The seminar hopes to give career information as well as discuss modes of operation that have opened the vista of success for working women, and in doing so, help other women develop their own career plans of action."

Tuition for the seminar is $3.50. Coffee and tea will be provided. Further information is available by contacting the Center for Career Planning at UCTI, 899-2000, ext. 294 or 317.

Sales chief leads 'boom' at Fawn Lakes

At age 42, William McCleery doesn't yet qualify to live at Fawn Lakes, the year-round recreation-residential community on Rt. 72 in Manahawkin, where at least one household member has to have reached the age of 45. But as the Fawn Lakes sales manager, McCleery's 18 years of experience with adult communities have made him a recognized expert in the needs and interests of his buyers. "I've certainly become a specialist," stated McCleery, whose experience has been credited as instrumental in the sales "boom" of the Fawn Lakes homes priced from $29,990. "And, as a matter of fact, I chose to head up sales here at Fawn Lakes directly because of what I appreciate as important to adult homebuyers. Namely, price, location and lifestyle."

willing, as they are today, to make many comparisons before buying. "The resultant sophistication is definitely a plus for Fawn Lakes," he continued. "People who shop around realize that we have exactly what they want—quality homes that are well-insulated, spacious, requiring almost no maintenance and located where they can get the most out of life."

McCleery explained that, along with the general homebuying market, adults are very concerned with value.

"As the dollar becomes tighter," he said, "people become more careful and want their money's worth. Salesmanship, per se, is relatively unimportant when people are as located where they can get the most out of life." At no extra cost, all Fawn Lakes homes come complete with such quality features as wood, vinyl double-hung thermopane Anderson windows, all-aluminum maintenance-free finished exteriors and insulated crawl space. In addition, such no-cost extras as self-cleaning oven, range, dishwasher, air-conditioning, self-defrosting refrigerator-freezer, ceramic tile bath floor, smoke detector unit and wall-to-wall carpeting.

Located just eight miles from the sands, surf and bays of Long Beach Island, Fawn Lakes also is 28 miles from Atlantic City. The immediately surrounding Ocean County area includes some of the best fishing, beaches and nature areas in the entire metropolitan region.

"No matter which single, duplex or quad model home the buyer chooses," stated McCleery, who also designed the newest Fawn

Lakes models. "They all share in the enjoyment of the community's private facilities, their friendships with new neighbors and the many recreational highlights of the area, as well as freedom from chores that other people expect from home ownership."

Watched over by their private security force, Fawn Lakes residents have their own community center, a private lake and a heated outdoor swimming pool.

The homeowners association oversees the handling of exterior home maintenance, landscaping, snow removal on driveways and walkways and a mini-bus service.

The Fawn Lakes sales office, where a toll-free number (800) 582-7033 has been installed, is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

To reach the community, take the Garden State Parkway south to Exit 63. Then take the first U-turn and proceed west following the hospital signs. The entrance on Rt. 72 is one mile past the Wawa supermarket.

'Sister' communities offer resort lifestyle

Life in either Rossmoor or Clearbrook, prestigious "sister" adult condominium communities off Exit 8A of the New Jersey Turnpike in Monroe Township, is an exciting adventure for active, adult homeowners.

"We're total communities for carefree living," says John G. Andriessen, vice president and director of sales and marketing for both Rossmoor and Clearbrook. "We're living longer, retiring earlier and becoming more attuned to lifestyles of recreation and leisure-oriented pursuits, and adult condominium communities such as ours have gained great favor and acceptance. It's a resort-style of living, yet more than 80 percent of our homeowners continue to commute to work."

When they return, they come back not only to their homes, but to a clubhouse, swimming pool, tennis court, private golf course and others recreational facilities. The location is excellent, in one of the more scenic wooded areas of the Garden State just off of the Turnpike, convenient to shopping, entertainment, commuting and business. As Andriessen explains it, the entry age of 48 ensures that residents of Rossmoor and Clearbrook are well below the traditional retirement levels and more attuned to an active lifestyle than merely painting the outside of a house. He also notes the growth of a younger 48 to 55 age group of new home buyers at both Rossmoor and Clearbrook.

Firm has birthday

Kennedy Mortgage Co., Cherry Hill, has celebrated its fourth anniversary with the announcement that the firm has surpassed the $320 million mark in mortgage servicing with over $150 million in mortgage origination in 12 months.

Thomas C. Martin, president of the firm said the company has grown to encompass six regional offices servicing five states and has become one of New Jersey's largest mortgage banking organizations. "Kennedy's aggressive and innovative approach to mortgage banking has become an industry standard and is responsible for rapid growth in the mortgage banking marketplace," he said. Martin added that the company's personnel were a combination of youth tempered by the substantial experience of Kennedy's management.

"The wave of the future in mortgage banking is to make available the newest programs to our clientele.

Your first glimpse of this extraordinary adult condominium—the most successful in the northeast—tells you it's different from any other. Perhaps it's the private country setting. The rolling hills, ponds and woodlands. Perhaps it's the architecture. The way the homes harmonize with the land. The private golf course and health club plus tennis, platform tennis, swimming and jogging... all within walking distance from the homes. Perhaps it's the convenience of the location for commuting to business, shopping, dining and the theater (only 50 miles from Manhattan). A closer look reveals a quality consistent with the Heritage tradition of excellence. Beautiful homes designed for maximum privacy, spaciousness and efficiency with energy-saving features. Homes designed for the comfort and convenience of today's active adult. At least one adult must be forty or older and children eighteen and older. Ocean lovers have full view at condo site

Lovers of oceanfront living can combine spaciousness, low cost, summer swim club atmosphere and a comfortable year-around home in the 2-bedroom condominium apartment homes of Runaway Beach, beachfront condominium in Sea Bright, Monmouth County. Central air conditioning and heating costs are included in the low monthly maintenance fees for the condo of $65 per month for one-bedroom homes and $82 per month for 2-bedroom homes. The same monthly maintenance fee covers many amenities including beachfront swimming pool and decks, sauna and exercise room, outdoor barbeque area, central laundry and storage facilities, parking and the attractive landscaping of the entire community. Prices start at $42,000 for a 1-bedroom apartment home and the 2-bedroom apartment is available from $47,000. Financing is available. The $4,700 (10 percent) down payment starts ownership of a year-around oceanfront home for less than the cost of many oceanfront summer rentals.

The 2-bedroom apartment offers a versatile arrangement of large rooms with cross ventilation; since the apartments at Runaway Beach all go from front to back of the 2-story Colonial brick buildings. The living room has more than 230 square feet, is large as in many individual Colonial homes, and has a wide picture window across the front.

The deep eat-in kitchen with wood cabinets has space for dining table and chairs, for casual or formal arrangement in front of double windows that offer views toward the ocean waters.

Both master bedroom and second bedroom are large, with oversized closets. Between them is a hallway (sided with linen and storage closets) off which is the ceramic tiled main bath. Each apartment has a completely private front entry.

There are a total of 60 homes in Runaway Beach. More than half have been sold, according to sales director Rosemary Sarro. The sales office and model home are at 1201 Ocean ave. (Rt. 36). Sea Bright, accessible from either exit 117 or exit 105 of the Garden State Parkway, and follow Rt. 36 toward the ocean. Offices are open seven days a week.

Barclay Woods lures buyers with sea's aid

Sailors are no longer the only people drawn to the sea. Americans east, west and south are being pulled increasingly to the nation's coastal areas, reports William Steinfield, vice-president of Countrywide Development Corp. (CDC), which is sharing in the phenomenon at its Barclay Woods country home community in Brielle. Just a week after the community opened in this Monmouth County seacoast municipality, more than $3 million in sales were recorded, and the second section of Barclay Woods was underway more than two months ahead of schedule. "Annually, more and more of the overall national population is concentrated in the states that border on the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico," Steinfield stated. "There seems to be nothing more attractive to the homebuyer than a residence that's right near or has easy access to the sea."

Steinfield pointed out that, today, that basic attraction has also to be complemented by proximity to direct highway or mass transit facilities, in light of energy concerns. And buyers' emotions these days also are tempered by the realities of finding affordable financing. "It's gratifying to hear and see that buyers are excited about the appearance and designs of the Barclay Woods homes, as well as its location in terms of the pleasures of the surrounding waters," Steinfield stated. "But, in the end, the homebuying decisions here have been made by people who appreciate both the location in terms of practical considerations and the ample mortgage financing provided through a subsidiary of Carteret Savings & Loan Association."

Qualified buyers are being offered 9 1/2 percent mortgages on the four Barclay Woods home models priced from $73,900. And the community is situated off Old Bridge Road just south of the intersection of Rt. 34, 35 and 70.

Two seemingly divergent groups, young marrieds and adults, have so far comprised the greatest shares of purchasers at Barclay Woods, Steinfield reported. "We had anticipated the adult market's response, and had therefore designed the homes as extra-spacious since they might be used to such roominess in their former residences, and we built into the community private recreational facilities that would complement the overall area recreational opportunities," stated Bill Steinfield. "But perhaps, we had underestimated the other values of the community's location and condominium structure."

Although adjacent to both an undisturbed natural area known as Owl Woods, which is home to great horned owl rarely seen at the shore and numerous other bird, plant and animal species, and Manasquan River Golf Club, Barclay Woods is but five minutes from the train station for rail service to Newark and New York City.

For other social and sports activities, the community has its own private facilities. In the plush clubhouse are meeting, game and entertainment rooms, a fireplace in "The Great Room" and twin saunas. Outside are illuminated tennis courts and a heated swimming pool.

in the form of dividends or interest. Just as you must have faith in the bank or institution where you have a savings account, it's important that our investors have confidence in PSE&G's ability to provide a competitive rate of return, or they'll put their money somewhere else. The same holds true when PSE&G borrows money. Our creditors must feel confident that we have the ability to pay back the loan. It's easy to take your energy supply for granted; when you flip a switch or turn a dial your electricity or gas is usually there when you need it. But in order to continue to provide you with dependable service, we have to spend a lot of money maintaining our existing equipment and building to meet future demands. Without investors, we simply couldn't provide you with the kind of service you've come to expect. If you're a stockholder yourself, you know that to be a good investment, a company should be stable, well managed, have growth potential and satisfactory earnings. At PSE&G, we try hard to meet those requirements.
