A survey of the heating system in the Mountainside municipal building and adjacent Board of Education offices has disclosed that the system is operating on "borrowed time, " according to Lee Voorhees, borough administrator.

The survey said the present boiler wastes money because of its age and inefficiency. The 50-year old oil-fired apparatus heats both buildings.

Barrett Associates Inc., a consulting engineer firm in Glen Rock, performed the survey at a cost of $4,075.

The firm recommended switching to a gas-fired modular heating system, which entails using what amounts to a

energy council to avoid crises

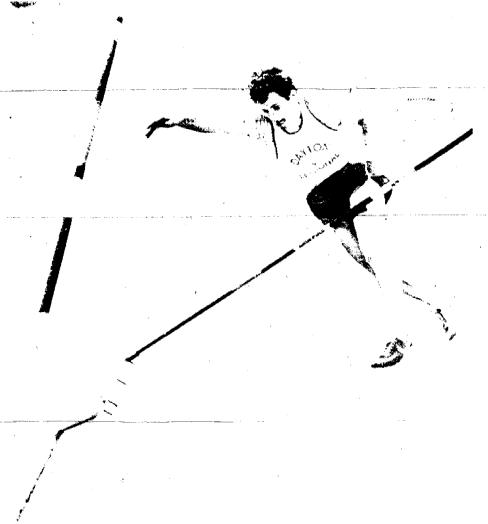

Assemblyman Bob Franks (R-22), said this week his bill, A-1362, which passed the Assembly by a 70-0 vote, is an example of legislative planning to avoid crises."

The bill still to be voted upon by the Senate, provides for the creation of an Energy Advisory Council to continually update emergency energy allocation plans and to advise the state Department of Energy and Commissioner Joel Jacobson of the impact of energy shortfalls on all facets of state's economy. "The council will also encourage voluntary planning by all segments of our society to help assure we can cope in the event of a future emergency situation," Franks said.

Members of the private sector, including business, industry, commercial and education groups, would be represented on the council.

"Regrettably, because our country is not energy independent, we could once again be the victim of future OPEC embargoes, internal unrest in supplying countries or other international strife. he said. "The purpose of my bill is to assist the commissioner with prioritized planning so that future 'emergencies' do not become future crises for the lack of planning and inputs from all segments of our society.

Periodically it is necessary for us to clear our water mains of a non-harmful sediment which has accumulated since our last "Housecleaning" program. The cleaning is accomplished by opening fire hydrants in an orderly progression from the original source of water. The main cleaning program is scheduled to begin April 28,

You may experience a temporary discoloration and loss of pressure in your water supply; it will be only for a short period of time. If you have any problem, call our office. Our number is 376-8800.

Thank you for your understanding during this period.

presented to Jack N. Landau and Raymond McElroy of Kenilworth, Madeline E. Lancaster of Springfield, Evelyn Frank of Union, John Murphy of Roselle Park, Victor N. Kruse of Westfield, Josephine Parris of Rahway and Marguerite Andrews and Margaret Clark of New Providence when the Senior Citizens Council of Union County holds its installation and convention next Thursday, 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., at L'Affaire, Mountainside,

In keeping with the convention theme, "As We Grow Older," resolutions will be presented based on recommendations made at a recent workshop sponsored by the council, which examined the medical and legal aspects

Evelyn Frank, council president, commented, "There is a difference between the symptoms of senility brought about by certain illnesses, poor nutrition or side effects of medication and actual senile dementia. When the illness is treated, the medication changed or stopped, nutrition improved and activities presented, the symptoms disappear. It's important that the adult children of aging parents be aware of the difference. These responsible in--dividuals should know of the legal instruments available to protect the rights and possession of the ailing elderly who may not be able to cope with problems which may arise

Frank will give the president's report on council activities and projects of the past year and proposed projects for the

At the installation, the afternoon program will feature James J. Pennestri, director of the State of New Jersey Division on Aging.

It was not until 1879 that Kean's forerunner became a daily school, when one single room was found for it. Eventually it took over the entire high school and then, after the turn of the century, moved into its own building and became a state teachers college.

As the college grew, its name changed to reflect the new developments. It was the Normal and Training Schools, the Newark Normal and Training School, the New Jersey State Teachers College at Newark, the New Jersey State Teachers College in Union (for several months) and then Newark State

When enrollment forced another expansion, the college followed the 1950s exodus to the suburbs, opening its Union campus doors to 3,000 students in 1958. In a few months it dropped "teachers" from its title.

The change was in name only until July 1, 1967, when, under the State Higher Education Act of 1966, the state colleges were given the go-ahead to become multi-purpose institutions.

It was named Kean College of New Jersey in 1973. The 128-acre site which the college's 32 buildings occupy was formerly the Kean Green Lane Farm. In addition to stables, the land is the setting for the Kean family library, a Norman-style chateau visible from Morris Avenue. The Kean family, which has pre-Revolutionary roots, still occupies Liberty Hall across Morris Flo Okin Cancer Relief will hold its Flo Okin Oncological Center, and Lester Bornstein, executive administrator of Newark Beth Israel Medical Center, will be guest speakers. Mrs. Bette Tarchis, social service administrator, will report on the "core of Flo Okin, social service." Mrs. Bonnie Margolies is president of the group.

Flo Okin Cancer Relief was founded 48 years ago as a volunteer non-profit organization doing non-sectarian work. It is dedicated to the care and assistance of cancer patients. The organization makes it possible for patients to receive pre-operative and postoperative care, X-ray and cobalt treatments, homemaker service, the cost of blood transfusions, hospital equipment, visiting nurse and chemotherapy.

The group also was instrumental in the establishment of the Flo Okin Oncological Center at the Newark Beth Israel Medical Center in 1967, and has provided special diagnostic and therapeutic equipment for the clinic. It also helped establish the Flo Okin Special Treatment Unit at the Newark medical center, with a staff of doctors and nurses specially trained to use the latest medication of cancer patients who qualify for intensive drug therapy.

Car operation costs 21.2 cents per mile

The cost of owning and operating an average, intermediate-sized 1980 car is $3,176 a year, or 21.2 cents per mile, the New Jersey Automobile ('lub (AAA) reported today.

The AAA report, detailed in the motoring federation's new "Your Driving Costs" pamphlet, divided auto expenses into variable and fixed costs, explained Matthew J. Derham, club oil, 5.86 cents per mile; maintenance, -1.12 cents; and tires, 0.64 cents.

Fixed costs include insurance, $490 per year; license, registration and taxes, "$82; depreciation, $1,038; and finance charges, $423.

Cost figures for the report were based on a 1980 Chevrolet Malibu Classic fourdoor sedan with a six-cylinder, 229. cubic-inch engine, standard accessories, automatic transmission, power steering, power disc brakes and radio, driven up to 15,000 miles per year and financed over a four year period, Derham explained. Insurance was calculated on a pleasure-use category with the vehicle driven less than 10 miles one way to work and with no -vouthful driver

AAA periodically changes the specifications of various factors to bring them up to date. This year, for example, the car engine was changed from eight cylinders to six in order to more nearly reflect a national average: In addition, the finance period was extended from three years to four.

The driving cost figures, Derham said, are based on national averages. There are, however, variations depending on the size of the automobile and where it is operated.

AAA's driving cost pamphlet also includes some average figures for people going on vacation by automobile. Two persons should plan on spending $40 a day for meals (not including alcoholic beverages and tips), $40 a day for lodging and $7 for gasoline and oil for every 100 miles of travel.

Copies of AAA's "Your Driving Costs" are available by sending a selfaddressed, stamped businesssized envelope to the New Jersey Automobile Club, Public Relations Department, 1 Hanover Road, Florham Park, 07932. Single copies are free.

Then and now, VA loans have always played a major part in the American real estate and today, more than ever, VA is one of the most workable mortgage options for homebuyers or home sellers and their brokers.

Why? Because of VA's relatively low interest rates, low or no down payments, readily available funding, and the tremendous numbers of qualified potential homebuyers which make this VA market one not to be taken lightly.

Consider that VA loans are readily available up to $125,000 with little or no money down. Qualifying a home (new construction or resale) for VA approval has been greatly simplified as has the qualifying procedure for individual buyers. VA eligibility also can be used several times (providing that in each case the prior VA mortgage is paid). And VA paperwork has been substantially reduced with VA approved lenders able to process the entire transaction themselves. Quick and easy VA

Kennedy Mortgage has long realized the many plusses of VA financing and can show you how to make VA work for you. As one of the area's leading VA mortgage bankers, Kennedy has dosed over $38 million in VA loans in the past year alone. So put one (VA) plus one (Kennedy) plus one (broker) together and come up with one unbeatable combination whether you're buying or selling a home.

Have your broker contact a local Kennedy representative today. Talk VA (FHA or Conventional, too) with the company that's playing a major part in the real estate marketplace with programs that make an impact in the mortgage marketplace . . . Kennedy Mortgage Co.

There's this couple that lived on our street for almost 20 years—Jack and Mavis. He's an insurance analyst. She worked for a number of years to help put four kids through college. That takes a lot of tuition fees. I know.

Now they're just about out of the woods—all their kids are grown and living on their own. And Mavis says to Jack that it's about time to do a little living for

They saw this ad for Rossmoor and Clearbrook, drove down, and fell in love with adult-community living. So, they sold their four-bedroom home and bought a two-bedroom condominium there. (The extra bedroom is for when the children come to visit.)

Jack does a lot of his work at home, commutes to New York a couple of days a week. He gets in his golf right in the community—Mavis plays too. But, better than that, you should see what Jack's doing with his woodworking hobby.

He was always good at making things with wood but there never was time of space for important projects in the old house. There was always something to fix or the lawn to mow or the Little League team to coach. Now you ought to see the beautiful antique reproductions he's making with all the equipment in the woodworking hobby room.

Honestly, I don't know another couple who are getting a bigger bang out of the things they're doing and the way they're living than Jack and Mavis.

Who knows better than 1? I'm Mavis.

This is a fictional testimonial based on a composite of actual Rossmoor/Clearbrook residents.

We just bought our second

What makes more sense, and offers more down-to-earth value than a condominium apartment home in Hovnanian's Florida?

Two condominium homes in Hov nanian's Florida. What else?

Folks like the Truppas here were. quick to understand the logic of Pine Ridge. They bought their first home at Pine Ridge on December 16, 1978. Now they've just bought a second home at Pine Ridge South, Hovnanian's brand new adult community in Florida's balmy Palm Beaches.

And Mim and Agnes Truppa are not alone.

More and more New Jerseyans have been getting the message every day. In fact, so many of your fellow New Jerseyans think Pine Ridge South is today's smartest move, that literally scores have bought two Pine Ridge homes. Others have bought three. One fellow even bought four! And this kind of enthusiasm accounts for the 106 sales we had at Pine Ridge South on Sunday, March 16. The day of our Grand Opening.

Before its record-breaking sell-out. Pine Ridge was the success story in Southern Florida. And if you didn't buy then, you've got one - repeat one - more chance. At Pine Ridge South. Because you'll never see any thing like it again.

But you can see it for yourself right now. Because Hovnanian's got an actual Pine Ridge South model home right here in New Jersey. So you can see what all the excitement's about. You can see the kind of quality that goes into every home. The included features. Like central air-conditioning. Equipped kitchens. Plush carbeting. Screened terraces. And all the extras you expect in a home by Hovnanian.

Pine Ridge South has a private swim club, sundecks, shuffleboard courts, picnic groves and acres of lakes and landscaping. Plus all the nearby pleasures of the Palm Beaches, one of the world's leisure capitals.

But the most beautiful thing of all Village I about Pine Ridge South is the price. Just $33,450 to $42,750. And Hovnanian guarantees — in writing — that your maintenance costs will stay at just $39 a month for at least the next five years. If you're smiling at this last sentence, you're not alone. The maintenance guarantee was the clincher for a lot of other people, too.

See Pine Ridge South for yourself. Before another week goes by. And decide for yourself. We think you'll see the wisdom of our way. The model exhibit at 40 Route 35 in Middletown is open Monday thru Friday 10-5:30, Saturday and Sunday 10 6. To reach it, take the Garden State Parkway south to exit 117. Then take Route 35 south for 12 miles to the beautiful gold office building before Route 35 crosses the bridge into Red Banks The model is on the second floor. The sales office phone is (201)-842-9402.
