Primary fights Tuesday but not for borough posts

With four candidates running opposed in the council primaries, the presidential and county primaries will be the focus when Mountainside voters go to the polls Tuesday.

Democrats seeking a seat on the council are last year's unsuccessful mayoral candidate Stu Lutz and Frances Ehman, a council candidate in the last two elections.

On the Republican side, incumbent Timothy Benford and newcomer Louis Maas are seeking election. Three-term council veteran Bruce Geiger has decided not to run again.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., with the first second and sixth districts voting in the Municipal Building auditorium, Route 22; third, fourth and fifth districts at the Beechwood School, Woodacres Drive, and the seventh through tenth districts at the Deerfield School, Central Avenue.

Four heterogeneous classes set for Beechwood 4th grade

By SAM FINNELL The Mountainside Board of Education Tuesday night voted to divide the fourth grade at Beechwood School for next year into tour "heterogeneous classes" with a resource room to ac-next week when a final environmental impact statement is sent to the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA).

The statement currently is being printed at a New York consulting firm, Madigan and Prager, and is expected to be in the hands of the Albany office of the FHWA June 6, according to Paul Cohen, principal planner at the state Department of Transportation (DOT).

The report must be approved by the Albany and Washington offices of the FHWA and public hearings must be held before construction can begin on the link which will join completed links of the highway in Springfield and Berkley Heights.

The report outlines the effects the highway will have on local water. terrain, transportation, employment and construction. Two-and-a-half miles of the higheway will be built through the 1,800-acre Watchung Reservation.

An environmental impact statement is required for federal highway projects under the National Environmental Protection Act of 1970.

The state DOT recently gave written agreement to conditions requested by the Union County Freeholders to protect the environment in the Watchung Reservation, Cohen said.

Three points of the agreement include moving the Watchung Reservation stables before construction is started, the desiltation of Surprise Lake if necessary and approval of cut and cover sections for highway crossovers, according to County Freeholder Thomas Dillon.

The state had orally agreed to the conditions years ago, but recently the freeholders started pressing for a writ-

The chorale is very selective group stressing musical excellence, according to a spokesman. Among the pieces the group performs are "Salve Regina" by: Scarlatti, sung in Latin; "Der Abend" by Brahms, sung in German, and "Six Chansons" by Hindimuth, performed in French.

The chorale financed the trip with an aster basket sale, a car wash, and along with the other two choirs sold primpkins door to door in the fall, fruitcales during the Christmas holidays and flowers this spring.

The chorale most recently performed the Mountainside seniorcitizens, and often performs at the high school, area malls and country clubs, Reeping especially busy during holiday seasons.

shrubs, Dillon said. A barrier of trees and shrubs on both sides of the highway will reduce the noise from the highway. In some cases, the trees and shrubs will block sight of Route 79 from the reservation, Dillon added.

Route 78 will separate the Watchung stables from the rest of the reservation, but under the agreement the state (DOT) will remove and rebuild the stables before construction is begun, Dillon said.

Surprise Lake is downhill from the construction site and could be filled with soot and mud when surface soil is removed during construction. If that siltation occurs, the state DOT has agreed to desilt the lake.

The state also agreed to the freeholders' request to purchase the historic Sayre House, built in 1724, and give it to the county.

The details on other points in the agreement have not been worked out yet, but the state DOT agreed to installearth mounds along the highway to act as noise barriers and to protect Seeley's Pond from siltation, according to Richard Crum, state project manager for Route 78. The state will reconstruct bridle paths with clean fill and provide walking and bridle paths along and across the highway to Hidden Valley Park, Crum said.

The state will transfer property purchased by the state for highway construction to the county after Route 78 is completed. It will compensate landowners for property taken for highway construction with its fair market value. Under a 20-year-old agreement with the Union County Parks Commission, the state DOT received permission to build the highway link through the reservation to connect Newark with Registrations are being accepted for the summer music program offered by the Mountainside Board of Education. The board voted in April to keep fourth-graders at Beechwood in order to, among other reasons, balance the enrollments there and at the Deerfield School, which now houses grades five through eight.

Jim Johnson, Beechwood principal, said the four-class arrangement provides "the best service for the most youngsters." Board member Bart Barre said, "I am totally convinced it's best for the children.'

Linda Schneider, sworn in to her first term on the board last week, said the move follows the current trend of "mainstreaming" special students rather than singling them out in special classes

In a related move, the board approved the hiring of Jean Kimak as a fourthgrade teacher for next year. At the April meeting, the board decided to hire the additional teacher to accommodate the move, but deferred hiring until it decided on the responsibilies.

First Jews in state came from Spain

EDITORS NOTE-International Heritage Day on June 22 at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School will feature ethnic food, dancing and arts and crafts from some of the cultures which helped settle North America. The event is part of the Battle of Springfield weekend which includes a parade through Union. Springfield and Millburn June 21 and a 200th anniversary re-enactment of the Battle of Springfield on Meisel Field, Springfield, June 22.

This is the fifth in a series about the history and culture of some of the ethnic groups which will be represented at the the International Heritage Day Festival.

Lee Harelik, Charlotte Karp and Bernard and Natalie Kleinert chair the Jewish delegation at the Internation Heritage Day Festival. They have traced the impact of Jewish immigration on New Jersey history and report the following:

Although Jews have lived in New Jersey from about the early 18th century, a substantial Jewish community did not begin to develop in the state until the middle of the 19th century. In 1900, only 25,000 Jews lived in New Jersey and only 21 cities and towns contained an organized Jewish presence in the form of a synagogue, a charitable society or a lodge.

Seventy-eight years later, the state contained more than 400,000 Jewish residents. That was about 5 percent of the state population. Jews comprised a greater percentage of the population only in New York state.

The first Jewish settlers in the colony were descendents of Spanish and Portuguese Jews. Although their numbers were small, many of them played important roles in the American Revolution.

In the 1840's. German-speaking Jews from Central Europe in the 1840's immigrated to the New World. Many of them were merchants and artisans who prospered in the rapidly urbanizing and industrializing nation.

 In the late 1800's, groups of Eastern European Jews exited en mass from their native countries. Many were penniless and settled in the northern New Jersey area.

In recent years, the Jewish population and cultural centers have shifted almost entirely out of the urban areas throughout the state.

A handful of Jewish families lived in-Springfield during World War II, but the real growth of the Jewish community did not start until the late 50's when about 75 families, most of them wth young children, decided to form a Jewish Community Group.

Sunday School was organized for children, but the group did not organize as a religious organization until 1955 when Rabbi Reuben Levine was engaged. At that time, the group took the name Temple Beth Ahm - the Hebrew equivalent of Community Center. It was a part of the Conservative branch of the Jewish religious practice.

Call is issued by cancer unit for volunteers

Volunteers, the mainstay of the American Cancer Society's Union County Unit, are responsible for much of the success in instituting programs of early detection and education to the thousands of people who are not aware nor alert to the possibility of cancer, according to Lois Gannon, president of the unit.

To do this, volunteers are asked to serve as speakers for public education programs on cancer-related topics to students, business people, and other groups; drivers for transporting patients to hospitals and doctors' offices for needed treatments; and as office clerks. In addition medical professionals are needed to speak about early detection of cancer.

Last year more than 50,000 youths and adults were reached and more than 1,200 cancer patients were served through the combined efforts of volunteers from the ACS Union County Unit. This year a higher figure is anticipated. "Any offer of help is welcomed. The Union County Unit always, needs volunteers to assist in the American Cancer Society's efforts,' Gannon said.

Those interested in becoming members were asked to contact the Union County Unit at 354-7373.

Marching band plans blow-out

Members of the Jonathan Dayton Marching Band will be honored at a covered dish supper tonight at the high school. The Band Parents Organization is host at the dinner to thank the students for the hours of work which led to the band's winning the Tournament of Bands Chapter V Championship, Class I.

Following the dinner, the band will present its annual December concert.

Cleanup time: glass, papers

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Key Club will hold its twice-a-month Glass-In on Saturday. All residents of the area were urged to bring glass (sorted by color, with the metal rings removed from around the mouth of the bottles) and newspapers (tied in bundles), for recycling.

The Glass-In will be held in the high school parking lot from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. The construction of the co tomorrow at Red Cross headquarters, 203 West Jersey St., Elizabeth, from 12:30 p.m. until 5 p.m.

The special blood drive is an attempt to bring up the level of local donations, which have been dropping during the past two years because of resident "apathy." according to the Red Cross.

No appointment is needed for 'omorrow's' blood drive and locations of other area blood banks outside of Union County are available from the Red Cröss at 353-2500.

Blood donations are needed especially before the coming holiday season and most holiday weekends, when there are more emergency accidents and bloodmobile hours are cu¹, Overton said.

The amount of blood being given by Union County residents is becoming lower and lower, accoring to Peter W.

DEERFIELD PROGRAM-Patty Kelly, on the alto sax, and Judy Geiger, on clarinet, will be among Deerfield School students participating in a traditional holiday musical program to be presented next Thursday at 1:30 and 8 p.m. in the school. Participating will be the fourth-and fifth-grade choir, the sixth-grade choir, the mixed chorus, and the seventh and eighth-grade chorus, and the Deerfield Advanced Band. the state of the second s

Union County residents can donate a Overton, manager of the Union County gift of life and health for the holiday chapter of the Red Cross. Two years season during a special blood drive ago, the Red Cross-used to receive about 40 pints of blood per drive day; now it receives between six and 10 pints per day, he said.

> "Alienation from one's neighbor is spreading," he said.

"Severe public apathy continues to deteriorate the position of the Red Cross in collecting voluntary blood" because of a "lack of concern" for others," agreed Vera Maier, chairman of the local Red Cross blood program.

The Red Cross now must import about 35 percent of the blood used for medical purposes frm Europe. About 5,500 pints of the 8,000 pints used annually in Union County donated by residents, Overton said. As a result, the Red Cross, now requires that patients who receive blood must replace it, Overton said. That can be done by finding friend or relative to donate the blood, he said. Until now, the Red Cross has provided blood to anyone who needed it without that requirement. Maier said. She noted, however, that the Red Cross will continue to cover all. individuals participating in the program, senior citizens and those unable to give blood, but in need of it. Another-problem is receiving donations from unhealthy specimens. Overton cited an example of a New Years Day in Lowell, Mass., when a number of people lined up to give blood, but most of it was unacceptable.

Group seeking more vests aid

The Honorary Mountainside PBA 126 inaugurated a "Bulletproof Vest Fund Drive" in October for the purpose of raising monies to equip each member of its police force with a bulletproof vest. A spokesman said, "the fund drive has been successful but is still short of its goal, and it is hoped that those who were of a mind to contribute and who have not yet done so will do so in December." Businesses and individuals were requested to send their donations to the Honorary Mountainside PBA, Local 126, Vest Fund, 895 Mountain Ave., Mountainside; 07092.
