A smorgasbord of holiday treats

By DEE DANIELS

The holiday season has always brought to me a sense of roots and nostalgia as I prepare to share many happy hours with family and friends dining and wining at home. American ingenuity, native cuisine and regional ingredients dominate our flavorative heritage.

Here are a few classic, old and new hand-down recipes to satisfy the palate.

Mary's Delectible Shrimp Mold

1 cup mayonnaise
1 can of shrimp
1 can tomato soup
2 pkg. unflavored gelatin
½ cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery

Heat gelatin and soup until gelatin dissolves. Mix with remaining ingredients. When ready to serve, mound on a bed of lettuce and garnish.

"Fool Proof"

Quiche Lorraine

Pastry for 9 inch one-crust pie

12 slices bacon, crisply fried and crumbled
1 cup shredded Swiss cheese
½ cup minced onion
4 eggs
2 cups whipping cream or light cream
¾ T. salt
¼ T. sugar
1/8 T. cayenne pepper
Dash of nutmeg

Heat oven to 425 degrees. Prepare pastry. Sprinkle bacon, cheese and onion in pastry-lined pan. With rotary beater, blend remaining ingredients; pour over bacon mixture. Bake 15 min. Reduce temperature to 350 degrees. Bake 30 minutes longer or until knife inserted 1 inch from edge comes out clean. Let stand 10 min. before cutting. (Can be frozen)

You may use food processor for blending ingredients.

Creamed Crab in Sherry (Delicate & Delicious)

1 can crabmeat, fresh or frozen
2 tbsp. Sherry

Parmesan cheese
Bread crumbs
Basic white cream sauce
(3 tbsp. butter
3 tbsp. flour
1¼ c. warm milk)
Shells (12)

In saucepan prepare white cream sauce. Add Sherry. Drain and de-vein crabmeat and add to cream mixture. Cook over medium heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Spoon mixture into shells. Sprinkle parmesan cheese and bread crumbs on top. Dot with butter. Brown under broiler for five minutes until golden brown.

Culinary Capers

Liver Pate

"Always an elegant hors d'oeuvres"

2 hard boiled eggs
1 small onion
2 cartons of livers (chicken app. 1½ lbs.)

2 tabl. Dijon mustard
2 tabl. Sherry or Cognac
1 pkg. (8 oz.) * (3 oz.) cream cheese
Salt and Pepper to taste

Saute livers in butter; combine all ingredients in food processor until thoroughly mixed. Place in saran lined bowl and freeze for 1 hour. Remove and refrigerate (unmold). Serve on a bed of lettuce. Garnish with parsley and onion rings.

Mocha Mousse

2 tbsp. water
1½ tsp. unflavored gelatin
½ cup evaporated milk
2 1-oz. squares unsweetened chocolate
¾ cup sugar
1 tsp. instant coffee
½ tsp. salt, optional
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups heavy cream

Soften gelatin in water. Place milk and chocolate in pan and heat over boiling water until chocolate melts. Then blend in the gelatin, and stir until dissolved.

3. Blend in sugar, instant coffee, and with wire whip stir until smooth.

Add vanilla. Cool.

Beat whipping cream until stiff, fold in chocolate mixture, pour into individual containers if you wish, or mold, freeze until firm. Before serving, allow to soften in refrigerator about ½ hour.

Jean's Mini Cheese Cakes

2 pkgs. 8 oz. Philadelphia cream cheese
2/3 cup sugar
3 eggs
½ tsp. vanilla
Topping:
1 cup sour cream
1 tsp. vanilla
3 tbsp. sugar

Beat cheese until fluffy, gradually beat in 2/3 cup sugar (I used metal blade and did all mixing in Cuisinart). Add eggs one at a time, beat until smooth, add vanilla. Pour into 15 or more cupcake tins paper lined. Bake 25 min. at 350 degrees. Remove from oven. Let cool. Make topping and beat. Pour one spoonful over each cake and return to oven and bake 10 min. let cool. Garnish with ½ maraschino cherry. Can be frozen.

Avoid deadly fires

"The Christmas season is a time of joy, but it can also be a time of tragedy due to deadly fires," says Commissioner Leonard S. Coleman Jr., of the state Department of Community Affairs.

"Unfortunately, thousands of families will mark the holiday season as a time of tragedy because of fires," he says, "but Louis Luibil, chief of the Bureau of Fire Safety in our department, has developed a list of fire safety tips I would like to pass on to the readers of this newspaper."

Make sure live Christmas trees are fresh. They will be deep green in color and have a strong pine scent. If the needles fall off when the tree is thumped on the ground, it has already begun to dry. Be sure to check the tree for water each day. Place the tree in a corner of the room, where it would not fall and block an exit should a fire occur.

Artificial trees should be flame resistant.

Electric lights should not be used on a metal tree.

instructing everyone in the house what to do in case of fire, and once out of the house, stay out. Notify the fire department from a neighbor's home.

Most importantly, consider giving your family the gift of life this holiday season — give a smoke detector. A battery for the smoke detector will also make a great stocking stuffer.

The Trailside Nature and Science Center, a facility of Union County Department of Parks and Recreation, has announced that it has "the perfect stocking stuffers" for the holiday season. A wide assortment of fun-science stuffers such as fossils, minerals, magic rocks, telemicro-pocket microscopes, science kits, pen bracelets, magnifying glasses, dinosaur model kits and duck pencil sharpeners are available, priced from $1 to $5.

Holiday happenings

Never use lighted candles on a tree or near decorations.

Check tree lights for worn insulation, broken plugs and loose bulb sockets. Use only lights with Underwriter's Laboratories (UL) or Factory Mutual Laboratories (FM) labels.

Turn off all indoor tree and decorative lights before leaving the house or going to bed.

All decorations should be non-combustible.

Make sure fireplace fires are carefully tended. Use a screen or a glass door to keep sparks from flying into the room. Keep combustible material three feet away from the fireplace. Never burn gift wrappings or other paper material in a fireplace.

Never use flammable liquids such as gasoline to start or rekindle a fire. Never burn plastic, charcoal or styrofoam because they can produce deadly quantities of carbon monoxide and other toxic gases.

Enjoy the holidays in the Big Apple

The New York theater scene, consisting of about 40 Broadway theaters, more than 300 off-Broadway houses, Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, Radio City Music Hall and concert and dance theaters, is one of The Big Apple's "strongest tourism magnets," according to the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau. Last year, 17,100,000 visitors arrived in the big city and for many of them a matinee or evening in the theater was a highlight of their visit. Here are a few of the shows that have settled in for long runs.

BROADWAY MUSICALS

□ "Big River." A charming, jubilant musical based on Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn." Roger Miller did the music and lyrics and now stars as Pap. Winner of seven Tony Awards.

□ "La Cage Aux Folles." Winner of six 1984 Tony Awards, this blockbuster musical comedy is an evening of theatrical magic concocted by Jerry Herman, music; Harvey Fierstein, book; and Arthur Laurents, direction. Steve Arlen and Walter Charles are brilliant as the unconventional couple whose son plans a very conventional marriage. Often sold out, but last-minute seats and $10 balcony tickets are usually available.

□ "Cats." Another blockbuster musical, "Cats" is a London import by the same composer, Andrew Lloyd Webber, who gave us "Evita." Technically, "Cats" is also sold out months in advance, but don't be discouraged: cancellations and spare seats are often available at the box office. Make the effort... "Cats" is a sly charmer.

□ "A Chorus Line." One of the most exciting musicals ever created, and as of Sept. 29, 1983, the longest-running show in Broadway history. A show to see and savor again and again. Donna McKechnie is back in her Tony Award-winning performance.

□ "Drood." Joe Papp's latest gift to Broadway, formerly called "The Mystery of Edwin Drood," this enchanting musical — based on the last, and incomplete, novel of Charles Dickens — first played free of charge in Central Park during the summer of 1985. George Rose, Donna Murphy, Patti Cohenour and Howard McGillin head a superb cast. It's a comedy-mystery and because it is left hanging, you, the audience, decide... Who Done It! Winner of the 1986 Tony Award for best musical.

□ "42nd Street." Tap dancing feet... from curtain rise to curtain fall. A joyous, exhilarating musical based on the 1933 film classic. At no time does the story get in the way of the spectacular numbers created by the late Gower Champion.

□ "Flamenco Puro." The real stuff. You'll think you're back in Seville, complete with enthusiastic audience reaction from the Hispanic members of the audience.

□ "A Little Like Magic." A perfect show for kids of all ages. Puppets of all sizes are animated in black light. The effects are spooky and scintillating!

□ "Me and My Girl!" The toast of London is now the toast of Broadway in the theater district's newest and most spectacular house. The Marquis is located in the Marriott Marquis.

□ "Oh, Calcutta!" This naughty musical came over on the Mayflower and has settled down to stay. The writers of its sketches include Jules Feiffer, John Lennon, Dan Greenburg and Sam Shepard.

□ "Oh, Coward!" Noel the Great has returned to The Great White Way. This anthology of The master's songs, sayings and sass is just what the sophisticated theatergoer ordered.

□ "Smile." That time-honored American tradition, the beauty pageant, is the subject of this new musical by Howard Ashman, whose "Little Shop of Horrors" is a long-running hit off-Broadway. Music by Marvin Hamlisch, whose classic, "A Chorus Line," is still going strong.

□ "Sweet Charity." Ann Reinking plays the hooker with the heart of gold in this first-class revival of the Bob Fosse musical by Neil Simon, book; Cy Coleman, music; and Dorothy Fields, lyrics. Choreography by Fosse, naturally. Winner of four Tony Awards.

HIT PLAYS

□ "Arsenic and Old Lace." A quintet of top talent, Jean Stapleton, Polly Holliday, Tony Roberts, William Hickey and Abe Vigoda, star in this superb revival of the comedy-horror classic. Tip: Don't leave before the curtain calls.

□ "The Front Page." The Ben Hecht/Charles MacArthur comedy classic about freewheeling newspaper reporters in Roaring Twenties Chicago is being given a spirited revival at Lincoln Center's Vivian Beaumont Theater. Richard Thomas, John Lithgow, Julie Hagerty and Jeff Weiss head the cast.

□ "The House of Blue Leaves." John Guare's 1971 eccentric comedy is being given a sterling revival. John Mahoney, Christine Baranski, Danny Aiello, Faye Grant and the amazing Swoozie Kurtz are among the fine cast. Winner of four Tonys.

□ "I'm not Rappaport." Hal Linden and Ossie Davis are flawless in Herb Gardner's funny, keenly observed play about two very special survivors who take arms against a sea of troubles — and win! An exhilarating evening. Tony Award winner for best play of 1986.

□ "Social Security." Just when we need it most... drawing room comedy is back. This time with a nice urban bite and a hearty laugh every five seconds. Cliff Gorman is superb as the harassed art dealer, Olympia Dukakis is memorable as his late-blooming mother-in-law, and Joanna Gleason, always a delight, turns in another gem of a performance as the prudish sister-in-law. This irresistible nonsense is directed by that old master Mike Nichols.

□ "You Never Can Tell." What a surprise. A comedy George Bernard Shaw never really cared for turns out to be a sparkling delight. Victor Garber, Philip Bosco, Lise Hillboldt and Stephen McHattie are superlative in a cast that includes Uta Hagen and Amanda Plummer.

HITS OFF-BROADWAY

□ "Angry Housewives." A lively, fast-moving, fun-for-everyone musical about a quartet of bored housewives who form a punk-rock band — much to the dismay of the men in their lives. Presented in the new attractive and most comfortable Minetta Lane Theatre in Greenwich Village.

□ "Beehive." The Village Gate is packing them in with this riotous musical revue that spoofs the pop stars of the 1950s and 1960s.

□ "Chicago City Limits." Witty and wonderful are the words for this improvisational theater/musical revue.

□ "The Common Pursuit." Simon Gray's dazzling new comedy/drama about six Cambridge students and their progress from the groves of academe to the jungles of business and social life in London. A literate, moving, and stunningly acted production by the author of "Burley" and "Quartermaine's Terms."

□ "Groucho: A Life in Revue." The incomparable Marx Brothers humor, plus the pathos in their private lives, captured in a delightful musical by Arthur Marx, Groucho's son, and Robert Fisher.

□ "Forbidden Broadway." One of the funniest and most devastating revues ever written. All the sacred names of Broadway, Barbara, Bernadette, Chita, Kevin, Patti and Andrew Lloyd, to name a few, are given "the treatment."

□ "Lady Day at Emerson's Bar & Grill." Lonette McKee is superb in this haunting evocation of the last days and high art of America's greatest jazz singer, Billie Holiday.

□ "Little Shop of Horrors." A one-of-a-kind musical. A Lower East Side florist's assistant nurtures a man-eating plant. The results are hilarious, the special effects spectacular.

□ "Mama, I Want to Sing." A rousing gospel musical about a young church choir girl who would like to become a pop star. At the Heckscher Theatre, Fifth Avenue at 104th Street.

□ "Nunsense." Five nuns from the mythical "Little Sisters of Hoboken" stage a "fundraising talent show" to support their order. Their efforts are side splitting!

□ "Olympus on My Mind." Charm personified. Plus: literate lyrics, an intelligent script, and a delightful cast. Zeus would be pleased.

□ "Penn & Teller." Impossible to describe but completely irresistible! Two manic guys in a fast-paced evening of laughs, levitation, magic and mystery.

□ "Vampire Lesbians of Sodom." Charles Busch & Co. star in the hilarious camp classic of 1986. Perfect for those who want a true Bohemian evening in Greenwich Village.

OFF-OFF-BROADWAY

The world of off-off Broadway is the largest part of New York City's theater scene, consisting of hundreds of theaters all over town: in lofts, basements, storefronts, bars, churches, converted public and private buildings... wherever actors can find space.

The difference between Off-Broadway and off-off-Broadway is that Off-Broadway offers open runs — the show keeps going as long as an audience keeps coming — whereas off-off-Broadway stages showcases that run for only a limited number of performances. If they want a longer run, then they have to "go on contract," pay the actors a certain scale, and move to either an off-Broadway or a Broadway theater.

Broadway shows and a selection of off-Broadway productions are listed in the Visitors Bureau's quarterly calendar. Study the descriptions, pick something that appeals to you, remember that you're having an adventure, and enjoy the experience.

Some of the most dependable Off and off-off-Broadway productions are staged by theater companies. You can count on top quality productions and performances with such groups as American Place Theater, Circle Repertory, Equity Library Theater, Ensemble Studio Theater, Hudson Guild, Jean Cocteau Repertory, La Mama, Manhattan Punch Line, Manhattan Theater Club, The Mirror Repertory Co., Negro Ensemble Co., Pan Asian Repertory, Performing Garage, Perry Street Theater Co., Playwrights Horizon, The Public Theater, Quai Theater (free at lunch time), Roundabout Theater Co., Repertorio Espanol, Puerto Rico Traveling Theatre, Second Stage and the theaters of Theatre Row. For details of current performances, call (212) 302-4412.

Theatergoers on a budget should try the half-price tickets booths (TKTS), uptown at 47th and Broadway (open at noon for matinee tickets, 3:00 for evening sales) and downtown at No. 2 World Trade Center, 11 a.m. to 5:30, Monday to Saturday. A tip: matinee half-price tickets for certain Broadway and off-Broadway shows can be picked up at the World Trade Center TKTS booth the day before the matinee. All other ticket sales are for day-of-performance only. For discounted tickets to music and dance offerings, check the Music and Dance booth in Bryant Park.

"Two-fers," those pasteboard coupons that can be exchanged at box offices for discounted tickets, are available at the Visitors Bureau's 2 Columbus Circle and Times Square office. Although not half-price like the TKTS offerings, two-fers can be used to purchase advance tickets as well as day-of-performance seats, and locations are often better.

Rebecca's forecast

For week of Dec. 25 to Jan. 1

ARIES (3/21-4/20) Those at a distance continue to be of importance to many. Dealings with in-laws or neighbors can be testy and crucial support is received by many. Later in the week, for the first time in many months, you feel optimistic and really can see that this marks the end and beginning all at once.

TAURUS (4/21-5/21) Emotional ties simmer down just in time for the holiday. Congratulations may be prompted by news that you receive. You enjoy the warmth of the season amidst loved ones. Later, you feel introspective, philosophical... the emotional upsets of '86 actually will lay the foundation for a more secure '87.

GEMINI (5/22-6/21) Social, recreational and pleasurable pursuits are high on your list of priorities early this week. Children are highlighted and a more satisfying romantic picture is indicated. Later, put your finances in order and consider carefully what you really want in family and career matters.

CANCER (6/22-7/23) Be careful not to jump to a wrong conclusion early in the week. Sensitivity remains high and take advantage of social invitations now... some pleasant surprises await. Later in the period, make concessions to ease a situation and be aware you are on the verge of tremendous personal changes.

LEO (7/24-8/23) Your moods fluctuate easily during this sentimental, nostalgic period. In some sense you are still recovering your balance after a very intense last six months. Later in this period, you realize just how many changes are in store, update personal goals and perhaps redefine values and beliefs.

VIRGO (8/24-9/23) The pace continues to be hectic for most, last minute details and arrangements are highlighted and your personal financial status assume importance. Later in the week, it's time to unwind and relax. Intimate bonds are strengthened and exsisting relationships enjoy transition and transformation.

LIBRA (9/24-10/23) The early portion of this week may find you suffering from a touch of melancholy. Unusual or unexpected happenings may unsettle your routine to say nothing of your emotions. Later, the turning point in this rather intense year is reached, a sigh of relief and financial bonus complete the week.

SCORPIO (10/24-11/22) Intimate gatherings highlight the early portion of this holiday period. Although you may feel a bit reclusive join in the festivities and dispel a somber mood. Later, it is important to gear up for the year ahead. The emphasis will be felt in career, health and personal interests in '87.

SAGITTARIUS (11/23-12/21) The coming week heralds favorable financial news, new avenues of income are highlighted and property and real estate may play an important role. Later, the time is ripe to straighten out domestic or family differences that may have plagued you off and on for most of this year.

CAPRICORN (12/22-1/20) Private concerns interfere with your enjoyment during the early portion of this period. You are better able to understand problems now and this will help to resolve these in months ahead. Later, a more willing spirit emerges, your inner strength is bolstered and determination renewed.

AQUARIUS (1/21-2/19) You may experience some intense moments early in the week, key alliances are strengthened and private time with loved ones highlights this period. Later, you feel reclusive. Quiet time helps you balance out the hustle and bustle of recent weeks and you end this year on a peaceful note.

PISCES (2/20-3/20) Holiday gatherings usher in the week for many. Accept social invitations and surprising encounters with the past could catch you off guard. Later, expect to be on the go, local and distant travel is highlighted. Relatives share news and new people, places or situations enter your life now.

Santa on horseback

When Santa Claus first appeared in the United States, he drove an ordinary wagon pulled by horses, not reindeer. But according to International Wildlife magazine, the romantic sleigh and reindeer soon became an enduring fixture of the Santa Claus story. International Wildlife is a bimonthly publication of the National Wildlife Federation.

The modern Santa Claus sprang from the imagination of writer Washington Irving, who also gave us the headless horseman of Sleepy Hollow and Rip Van Winkle. Working from earlier legends, Irving invented the character in his 1809 book, "Knickerbocker's History," and his Santa rode in a horse-drawn wagon.

Irving's Santa was forever changed in 1822, however, when Columbia University President W. Clement Moore wrote "A Visit From St. Nicholas." The verse that begins, "Twas the night before Christmas..." put Santa firmly in the driver's seat of a sleigh behind eight reindeer: Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, Donder, and Blitzen.

For years, Moore tried to conceal his authorship of the enormously popular poem, which he had intended only to be recited to his children at Christmas. But eventually the truth got out, and Moore's immortality now rests with that piece of verse.

Rudolph is another story. In 1939 a New York advertising executive named Robert May was assigned to write an animal verse for a large mail-order house. May, who had spent a rather unhappy youth because he was short, patterned "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer" after the genre of the ugly duckling who is rejected by his peers but makes good in the end.

Over the years, Rudolph has done even better for some of his promoters than he did for Santa that foggy Christmas Eve. Songwriter Johnny Marks' catchy Christmas tune about Rudolph, originally recorded by former cowboy star, Gene Autry, is one of the best-selling ditties of all time. Books about Rudolph, TV shows, and assorted novelties have made him a Christmas hero. In the process, Rudolph has made millions of dollars for holiday entrepreneurs.

All of this is a far cry from real reindeer, which forage their frigid way across the Arctic barrens at the top of the world. Reindeer and caribou belong to the same species, although reindeer are smaller than caribou and lighter in color. In Europe, the reindeer has been more or less domesticated since the 11th or 12th century, principally by nomadic Siberian tribes, Laplanders, and their descendants.

But domestication did not mean life in a pen for reindeer. On the contrary, their wandering ways were complemented by the footloose lifestyle of their keepers, who followed the herds across the tundra above the Arctic Circle.

Legend of the Christmas tree

Until the middle of the 19th Century, any family that wanted a Christmas tree either cut the tree themselves or ordered one from a farmer. The custom was practiced mostly by German-Americans, although Americans of other stock were beginning to hear about the tradition.

All that changed in 1851, when a New Yorker named Mark Carr started that city's first Christmas tree business, according to National Wildlife magazine. National Wildlife is a bimonthly publication of the National Wildlife Federation.

Carr lived in the Catskills 80 miles north of New York City, where he knew many German families lived. In mid-December of 1851, Carr filled two ox-sleds with young firs and spruces, loaded them on a steamboat, and sold them for a handsome profit at New York's Washington Market.

By 1880 a veritable forest of 200,000 trees was moving to Washington Market from all over the Northeast. They came on boats, by trains, and in big horse-drawn farm wagons. Although cedar trees were popular in the 1860s, by 1880 the fashion had switched to evergreens that dried more slowly, creating less of a fire hazard when decorated with lighted candles. Many early photographs show hemlocks, but they too had disadvantages, since their branches are too lacy and frail to support many ornaments.

Up in Maine, balsam firs had always been considered a nuisance, because they grew like weeds. But in 1892 a steam yacht returning to Boston from Newfoundland stopped at a small town on Maine's Penobscot Bay. The yacht's owner loaded 500 young balsam trees and sold them in Boston's Christmas market at Fanueil Hall. Within a few years, balsam became New England's favorite tree, and the Christmas trade sparked an economic boom for Maine.

In the Midwest, Christmas trees for cities like Chicago came largely by boat from the forests of Michigan. As early as 1887, two brothers named Schuenemann sailed from Michigan in their fishing schooner with a load of trees lashed to the deck. They tied up beside Chicago's Clark Street bridge and began selling their trees. Although both brothers were later lost in Lake Michigan storms, the younger brother's widow took over the business in 1913, and the Schuenemann Christmas tree ships became part of Chicago history.

By 1920 Christmas tree cultivation had become a profitable business in many parts of the country. Farmers were pleased to find a crop suitable for growing on rocky upland pastures and other unproductive pieces of land. In the 1930s Franklin D. Roosevelt was the country's best-known Christmas tree farmer. Roosevelt helped popularize the concept by growing Christmas trees on his estate at Hyde Park, N.Y.

This year, 32 million Christmas trees will be sold in the United States—big business by any standard. The most popular tree is the scotch pine, a European import popularized in the 1930s by a Pennsylvania car salesman and entrepreneur named Fred Musser. But no matter how many trees are cut and sold, the fundamentals of the business haven't changed much since Mark Carr's time. The challenge, still, is how to ship fir trees to eager families in time for the Christmas holidays.

Dressy birds

The old adage "Clothes make the man" apparently applies to birds' plumage as well, reports National Wildlife magazine. Research on chickadees and several species of sparrows has shown that the width of colored bands on the birds' heads and chests determine their social rank within the flock.

WARNING!

Think carefully before you place an ad in the The Little Yellow Book.

You're going to be working a lot harder than you do now. You'll probably have to hire more people. You may even have to move to new quarters.

Because your ad in The Little Yellow Book is going to bring you more customers than you thought possible.

1. Your ad gets more attention. Our smaller (5 x 8 inches) size makes your ad stand out, gets your message across faster.

2. It's FREE. The Little Yellow Book is hand delivered free to all phone subscribers in your area.

3. No more "customer confusion." Your ad is targeted to people in your area. They don't have to search through page after page of ads to find you.

4. It's packed with useful information. Everything from First Aid to Zip Codes. Police, Fire, State and local agencies, white page listings — even a big, fold-out street map to help them find you faster.

5. It costs a lot less. Your ad in The Little Yellow Book reaches new (and old) customers for about 73% less than the same ad in the big, fat phone book.

Of course, if you don't want to deal with success and all its problems, just keep on advertising in the big, fat phone book.

But if you do, call us collect and get all the details.

But don't forget — we warned you!

A collection of 'wild things'

By MILT HAMMER

Pick Of The LPs, "Something Wild," the Original Motion Picture Soundtrack (MCA Records).

Here's a soundtrack album that truly lives up to the name of the movie. "Something Wild" is an '80s hip screwball comedy directed by Jonathan Demme of "Stop Making Sense," "Swing Shift," and starring Melanie Griffith "Body Double," and Jeff Daniels, "Terms of Endearment" and "Purple Rose of Cairo." Complimenting it is an exotic buffet of infectious dance rock, performed by the creme de la creme of the genre's practitioners.

The strength of this soundtrack is in the wide variety of talent and sounds. The lead-off single, "Ever Fallen In Love," is probably the most accessible dance-rock song yet created by the English Beat spinoff, Fine Young Cannibals. Roland Gift's hearty yet silky vocals are supplanted by an irresistible beat and the hookiest melody they've come up with.

Oingo Boingo, who've already had a soundtrack hit with "Weird Science," offer an even more accessible ditty, "Not My Slave," which has a strong, straight-ahead beat, deft pop hooks, and powerful guitar kick. "With Or Without You" is by ace axeman Steve Jones, and it boasts sharp guitar-firepowder and melodic keyboard counterpoints.

Despite all that, the strength of this album really lies in its dance music. Britain's New Order is bound to duplicate their success on the "Pretty In Pink" soundtrack with the Anglo synth-techno beat of "Temptation." UB40's "Zero Zero Seven Charlie" is a zesty, danceable instrumental. Then there's Talking Head David Byrne, already hot with his own soundtracks, teaming with

Celia Cruz for festive mariachi pop rock in "Loco De Amor." Another Talking Head, keyboardist Jerry Harrison, contributes a moody synth rocker, "Man With A Gun."

Africa's Sonny Okossun's "Highlife" is a perfect blend of African polyrhythms and light pop melody. Reggae legend Jimmy Cliff adds to the party with the emotional "You Don't Have To Cry."
