Here are March's installments of Darts and Laurels:

LAUREL: To Roselle Park resident Ernest Finizio Jr.

I could simply stop right here because the admiration I have for the retired superintendent of schools of the Roselle Park School District would warrant a laurel in itself.

But since his retirement, Finizio hasn't stopped on behalf of the youth of Union County, and he should be recognized.

Finizio is working with the Union County Chamber of Commerce on a project called Science Alliance, which is a partnership between business — pharmaceutical companies and private individuals in the science fields — and science classes in public schools to give students more of an understanding of the world of science.

Finizio also spends a great deal of his time coaching and coordinating events of one of his favorite sports — wrestling. Recently, Finizio helped coordinate the Union County Wrestling Tournament at the Dunn Sports Center in Elizabeth.

Retirement hasn't stopped the educator from educating.

LAUREL: To the Kenilworth Borough Council.

Have your taxes increased this year because of municipal spending? Not if you live in Kenilworth.

The council recently introduced its 1995 spending plan, a plan that includes a zero increase in taxes. The budget was scheduled for adoption last night.

It's about time more governing bodies thought about their constituencies and gave them some relief from taxes. Why can't all towns, school boards and counties hold the line on spending?

LAUREL: To New York Yankees pitcher Steve Howe.

Howe said this weekend that he is ready to cross the picket line and join the Yankees for the 1995 season. Hopefully, he'll back his words with action.

In 1984, while working at another job, I was confronted with crossing the picket line of striking co-workers.

I didn't believe in strikes back then — nor do I believe in them today — so I crossed the line. I lost several close friendships because of my actions, but I gained something very valuable — courage to confront anything or anybody.

LAUREL: To the Union County Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber sponsors frequent events to bring leaders of municipalities together for the sake of progress. During the last two weeks, the chamber sponsored a half-day seminar whose topic was Special Improvement Districts, and sponsored a dinner in which the organization paid tribute to the county's mayors.

During the dinner, 14 of the county's 21 mayors in attendance focused on taxes and how each was trying to lessen the burden on property owners. Some, like Fanwood Mayor Linda Stender and Plainfield Mayor Mark Fury, boasted minimal and no increases in their budgets, respectively. Plainfield is on the economic rebound, Fury told approximately 200 guests Monday at the Westwood in Garwood, and he wants the rest of the county to revel in the improvements his city has undergone.

According to the way the mayors spoke, development projects are occurring throughout the county, and each of the mayors wants to lure business to restore some of the lost taxables each has suffered. The chamber should be commended for its part in uniting government and business to form the kind of marriage that could strengthen Union County.

It's budget time

Union County Freeholder Chairman Ann Baran, seated, Freeholder Vice Chairman Edwin Force, left, and Freeholder Frank Lehr listen as Union County Manager Ann Baran explains her executive budget for 1995. Baran said last week the budget has been pared down since its introduction, and currently calls for a 2.9 percent increase above last year. A public hearing of the county's budget is tentatively scheduled for either May 4 or May 11.

Martin stepping down as undersheriff

Union County Undersheriff Allen C. Martin will retire on March 31 after a distinguished 37-year career in law enforcement. The Elizabeth resident is known as a community activist who is always ready to lend a helping hand.

Martin's plans for retirement include a continued dedication to community activism, and public relations work for McPherson Agency.

Joseph Brennan, a life-long resident of Elizabeth, has been selected by Union County Sheriff Ralph Froehlich to serve as undersheriff.

Martin is a 1949 alumnus of Thomas Jefferson High School. Upon his graduation he joined the U.S. Navy and served on the submarines USS Razorback and Conger during the Korean War. He attained the rank of 3rd class petty officer and was honorably discharged in 1953.

Martin began his law enforcement career in 1953 when he joined the Elizabeth Police Department. His superiors recognized his community relations skills and assigned him to a walking patrol in the Elizabeth Port area where he could interact with the public and improve relations between the police and the community.

In 1958, Martin left the department to dedicate more time to his family and pursue a career in private enterprise. He worked for International Printing Inc. as a dye maker but maintained a desire to serve the community.

Martin reactivated his law enforcement career in 1962 when he joined the New Jersey Department of Corrections as a corrections officer. In 1965, he was hired by the Union County Jail as a member of their corrections staff. He transferred to the Union County Sheriff's Office in 1968 where he served as a sheriff's officer.

In 1978, the newly elected Froehlich selected Martin to serve as one of his undersheriffs. He was assigned direct responsibility for the Sheriff's Process Unit and Warrant Squad. During Martin's tenure, the demands placed upon the Process Unit grew as society turned to the courts to resolve disputes in unprecedented numbers.

Under his direction the Process Unit expanded in size and function and sought new technologies to meet the staggering case load. He was instrumental in development of the Sheriff's BOSS system, an acronym that stands for Business Office Sheriff's System. This computer technology enabled the Process Unit to meet its increasing workload while maintaining operational cost at an acceptable level.

In 1988, Martin was elected councilman at large for the City of Elizabeth.

Martin has four grown children, Angela, Cindy, Allen Jr., and Kessha. He resides at home with Elaine Davis and their 17-year-old daughter, Quatha.

He is active with the Union Baptist Church, the Kinsman of New Jersey, the Batons Inc. of New Jersey, and is affiliated with the NAACP and the Black Political Caucus. Allen is a life member and past president of Police-men's Benevolent Association Local 108. Presently he is commander of Veteran's of Foreign Wars Bettytown Post 1862 where he is also a life member.

Brennan, a well known and respected figure within the law enforcement community, recently retired as Elizabeth Police director.

A U.S. Marine Corp veteran, Brennan served from 1953 to 1956, and attained the rank of sergeant E-5. He began his law enforcement career in 1958 when he joined the Elizabeth Police Department. He worked his way up through the ranks, receiving promotions from patrolman to sergeant, to lieutenant and to captain. During this time, he furthered his education, receiving an associate of arts degree in police science from Seton Hall University in 1961.

Brennan graduated from the Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy in 1972, and was awarded a bachelor of arts degree in public administration from Kean College in 1976. In 1972, he served as president of the Elizabeth Police Superior Officers Association.

In 1973, Brennan was selected by the governing body of the City of Elizabeth to serve as police director. His 20-year tenure was marked by a progressive attitude and innovative changes to improve the efficiency of the department.

Brennan comes from a long line of law enforcement officers. His father, the late Thomas Brennan Sr. retired as a patrolman with the Elizabeth Police Department after a distinguished 30-year career. His older brother, Thomas Brennan Jr., was an Elizabeth Police captain at the time of his death in 1980. John Brennan, Joe's older brother, served as the Elizabeth police chief, retiring in 1989.

Bollwage applauds DEP's hike denial

Elizabeth Mayor J. Christian Bollwage expressed optimism over the decision by the state Department of Environmental Protection to deny a proposed rate hike by the county's utilities authority.

The Union County Utilities Authority, which just last week expressed optimism over a proposed rate hike gaining the DEP's blessing, was turned down.

Bollwage sees this as an opportunity for a further probe into the authority's records, something which he says will result in a clearer picture of where the fat lies.

"Now we have additional time to scrutinize the records of the UCUA and continue to lobby against rate hikes," stated Bollwage. "After examining the agency's irresponsible fiscal and management practices, I do not feel their rate hike can be justified. Essentially, the UCUA tried to pass on costs to residents because of their inability to cut unnecessary budget items and prudently administrate the agency."

The decision by the state comes at the heels of a public hearing, on March 7, in which Bollwage addressed members of the UCUA expressing his opposition to the requested rate increase. The public hearing was held by the DEP to compile information on the legitimacy of the authority's request.

UCUA officials have claimed a rate hike is necessary so that the authority may pay back debt accumulated during construction of the Resource Recovery Facility in Rahway. The UCUA had proposed increasing tipping fees to $76.12 per ton, compared to $71.50 per ton last year.

In his speech, the Elizabeth mayor noted that the increase would stretch over the next 17 years. Bollwage then pointed to the $6.7 million surplus amassed by the authority and indicated that there clearly was not a need to raise additional revenues, especially at the expense of county residents.

In the speech aimed at defeating the UCUA's request, Bollwage also detailed several of what he perceived to be exorbitant expenses in the agency's budget. It was noted that the agency proposed $360,000 for public relations expenses. Near the conclusion of his speech, Bollwage also remarked on the unwarranted and inflated salaries paid out of the UCUA.

UCUA officials have said there is no surplus, although it has made mention of a pair of $6.7 million in funds that it intends to use during future years to offset rates. Without the Rate Stabilization Funds, officials say, tipping fees would increase at a greater rate during upcoming years.

The UCUA has noted that a full-time public relations position has been eliminated, and work provided by the firm of Coleman & Pellet Inc. of Union has been reduced. Much of the authority's public relations is being handled in-house, UCUA officials have said.

Elizabeth is involved in litigation with the UCUA to recoup more than $300,000 that was skimmed from payments for garbage disposal. The Elizabeth City Council recently passed a resolution concurring with Bollwage's initiative and condemning the agency for their poor management and fiscal practices. In light of these concerns, officials from the DEP are expected to further review documentation to discern if the rate hike is necessary.

After receiving the news of the postponement, Bollwage promises, "I will stay active on this issue to save our taxpayers from any additional unwarranted expenses. I will not stop now."

Courses set for golfers but cards are delayed

The coming of spring marks the opening of the season for thousands of golfing enthusiasts. In Union County, three regulation courses are ready to accommodate them.

Identification cards for the 1995 season are currently available at all county courses. All golfers with 1994 cards should present them at the time of registration.

"The county is working toward the computerization of its registration system," said Freeholder Vice Chairman Edwin Force. Last year's cardholders will receive a 1995 validation sticker, while new patrons will be issued temporary IDs. New cards are expected to be issued in the fall.

Union County's golfing facilities are as follows:

- Ash Brook Golf Course, Raritan Road, Scotch Plains — 18 holes, nine-hole par three pitch and putt course, pro shop and snack bar. The phone number is (908) 756-0414.

- Galloping Hill Golf Course, Kenilworth Boulevard, Kenilworth — 27 holes, nine-hole par three lighted pitch and putt course, pro shop and snack bar. The phone number is (908) 686-1556.

- Oak Ridge Golf Course, Oak Ridge Road, Clark — 18 holes, pro shop and snack bar. The phone number is (908) 574-0139.

As of April 2, all regulation courses will be open seven days a week, 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekdays, and from 6:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekends.

For more information on upcoming tournaments, Junior Golf Camp and other aspects of the county's golf program, contact one of the courses, or the Division of Parks and Recreation at (908) 527-4900.

County's towns move ahead with SID programs

By Chris Gatto
Regional Editor

Anyone interested in learning more about SIDs need only come to Union County.

That's because the county has the largest concentration of special improvement districts in the state, according to officials who spoke during last week's SID seminar at Elizabethtown Gas in Union.

Representatives from four of the county's five SIDs were on hand for the March 23 conference. No one from Linden was in attendance, as was the case with Summit, which has been stalled due to litigation resulting from the creation of its downtown improvement district.

Joanne Rajoppi, county register and Union County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors advisor, led the conference, which featured several speakers as well as a panel discussion by SID representatives about how their business districts were progressing.

Speakers included Seth Grossman, manager of SIDS New Jersey Division of Housing and Community Development; Marta Person, president of Downtown New Jersey, and Chuck Sales, president of the Union County Chamber of Commerce.

Local representatives included Merle Layton and Union County Freeholder Vice Chairman Ed Force, Cranford; Dave Biagini, Elizabeth; Bob Markey, Rahway, and Township Administrator Lou Giacona, Union.

Giacona said Union Township is in the process of spending about $1.5 million in physical improvement in its central business district. Among those upgrades are enhanced lighting, sidewalks and benches.

Union's SID is operated by a private management group, First Team Management, which was hired after a series of interviews with candidates, said Giacona. The SID's director has access to all department heads, he noted.

While Union's system is operated much like that of the county's other SIDs, Cranford's is an extension of the township government. Most SIDs are separate non-profit organizations, according to Person.

Person, a former Cranford resident, has been involved with the metamorphosis that has taken place in Red Bank. But her involvement doesn't stop there: She also heads Downtown New Jersey, a not-for-profit organization working to foster economically sound, socially stable and physically attractive central business districts.

According to Person, there are now 25 SIDs around the state and about 1,000 across the United States, many of whom will be represented DNJ's annual conference. This year's session is scheduled for June 23.

In 1985, Cranford became the first community in New Jersey to create a SID. Cranford originally focused its efforts on creating a streetscape, and a marketing effort was not launched until six years later.

Aside from its capital improvements, Union Township has been offering promotions including a weekly farmer's market during the summer, an annual Street Fair, sidewalk sales and Christmas tree lighting ceremony.

As part of Union's physical upgrades, Giacona said The Union Center National Bank paid $20,000 for a clock that recently was placed at the point of Union Center where Stuyvesant Avenue, Chestnut Street and Elmwood Avenue meet. This site, which will continue to be the location of Union's historic cannon, will serve as the "Gateway of Union."

Upgrades are expected to be completed in September, according to Giacona.

In Elizabeth, said Person, the SID has been focusing mostly on retail promotions, while Summit has been faced with gridlock due to litigation. Sales noted that Summit's Chamber of Commerce has been "in the thick of" that struggle, and noted that business owners should not hesitate to call their local chambers for assistance.

Union also faced resistance when it attempted to create a SID, with the proposal originally succumbing due to opposition from business owners and landlords, but a new version was approved by its governing body in 1993. The local chamber was instrumental in gaining the support of Union Center merchants and landlords.

Person noted that Red Bank at first had its problems too, having to sift through legal concerns before eventually working toward a consensus. She called "consensus building" the "most important" part of creating a successful SID.

In order to do that, said Person, it may require attaching a "sunset" provision to the ordinance creating a SID. She noted that this was something that Union did, but she warned it may "prove the fatal flaw" if the SID's lifetime is so easily allowed to pass.

An ongoing marketing effort also must be launched, noted Person, who said shopping centers spend between $60,000 and $200,000 annually on marketing and promotion. She noted that shopping centers charge higher rates per rental than downtown landlords, and that a concerted effort to market downtown businesses could fill vacancies.

Downtown New Jersey is in the process of writing a new policy statement to deal with concerns in downtown areas across the state. All of the issues included in a policy statement adopted by DNJ several years ago have been addressed by the state, she noted.

"Downtown New Jersey is your voice to the state," said Person. "We represent your concerns."

Rajoppi named to national officers' board

Union County Register of Deeds and Mortgages Joanne Rajoppi has been elected representative to the National Association of Counties Board of Directors for New Jersey.

Rajoppi, who presently serves on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Association of Counties, was elected during a regular board meeting on March 17 to represent the state in the national organization.

"I am very pleased and honored that my fellow NJAC Board members elected me to represent them on NACO," Rajoppi said. "This is a responsible post, which will allow me to articulate the concerns and needs of New Jersey county government at the federal level. There are a number of areas in which action can be initiated."

Rajoppi is a former president of NJAC and has served as first vice president, second vice president and chairwoman of the Legislative and Conference committees. Her involvement in NJAC began in the late 1970s when she served as Union County freeholder and continued through her tenure as Union County Register of Deeds.

She has been the recipient of six NACO Annual Achievement Awards for innovations in her office, since 1976 the County of Union has been the recipient of more than 190 NACO Awards. She is also the former president of the County Officers Association of New Jersey. She is also the former president of the County Officers Association of New Jersey, an organization representing New Jersey's county clerks, registers of deeds, sheriffs and surrogates. Currently, she serves as division head of registers and represents the state's 21 recording officers in the association.

NJAC represents the interest of the state's 21 freeholder boards and constitutional officers — registers of deeds, clerks, sheriffs and surrogates. It represents the interest of the counties to the State Legislature on issues that have a direct bearing on county activities.

NACO, NJAC's parent organization, represents those concerns to the U.S. Congressional delegation, and lobbies and testifies during Congressional hearings on a variety of issues affecting county government.

Stock dividend is OK'd for Valley shareholders

The Board of Directors of Valley National Bancorp approved a 5 percent stock dividend payable on May 2, and to the shareholders of record on April 14.

"Consistent with our policy of sharing the bank's prosperity with our shareholders, the annual dividend rate of $1 per share will be maintained after the stock dividend," stated Gerald H. Lipkin, chairman and chief executive officer of Valley National Bancorp.

"Our annual dividend rate has increased from 63 cents per share in 1988 to $1 — an increase of 59 percent. In fact, over the last 20 years, we have increased our dividend 19 times. Valley has never reduced its regular cash dividend," Lipkin noted.

Valley National reported net income of $59 million, or $2.06 per share for the year ended Dec. 31. The results represent a 4.6 percent increase from 1993's record performance of $56.4 million, or $2 per share.

The company had a return on average assets of 1.6 percent and a return on average equity of 20 percent for the year ended Dec. 31.

"Our results for 1994 again place the company among the highest performing bank holding companies in America," Lipkin said. Valley National's efficiency ratio was 45.4 percent for 1994, compared to an average of 66.6 percent for 22 other banks headquartered in New Jersey. The efficiency ratio represents Valley's non-interest expense as a percentage of net interest income on a fully tax equivalent basis plus non-interest income less non-recurring items.

On Feb. 27, Valley entered into a definitive merger agreement by which Valley will acquire Lakeland First Financial Group, Inc., the holding company for Lakeland Savings Bank, a $661 million, 16-branch bank headquartered in Succasunna. The merger will expand Valley's branch network in Morris County and extend it into two new counties, Sussex and Warren.

Summer work applications are available

Assemblywoman Maureen Oglin, R-Fleming, has received applications from the Governor's Office Summer Employment Program for paid summer positions for individuals 16 years of age and over.

Due to budgetary constraints, the program this year will be limited to the Department of Environmental Protection, Division of Park and Forestry.

The assemblywoman was informed that the positions available this year include general park maintenance, clerical, lifeguards and visitor service assistants. Entry level positions begin at $5.05, with advanced positions paying up to $8.50 an hour. Employment will begin as early as April 1, and run through October.

'Get on tour' to fight diabetes

The New Jersey Affiliate of the American Diabetes Association challenges every New Jersey cyclist, whether they ride for fun or for fitness, to "Get on the Tour" and support the 1995 Tour de Cure, a day of cycling to beat diabetes.

In May and June, cyclists will gather at one of nine routes to participate in a one-day event to raise $350,000 to support research for a cure. They will join 50,000 other cyclists and volunteers at nearly 100 sites throughout the U.S. this spring.

Sponsored nationally by Weetabix & Grainfield's cereals, Tussin DM Clear cough suppressant/expectorant, St. Dalfour preserves and People Magazine and locally by Becton Dickinson, Leisure Time Spring Water, and Wound Care Center, Tour de Cure features a variety of routes. Serious cyclists can challenge themselves while the casual riders can enjoy a shorter route. Riders can choose from routes of 10 miles, 35 miles or 60 miles.

To register or obtain more information, call (800) TOUR-888. Tour de Cure raises funds through registration fees. In addition, cyclists contribute by raising money from individuals, businesses and organizations that pledge to sponsor the participants.

There is no cure for diabetes — yet. In fact, most people don't even realize how serious diabetes is," said Patricia Barta, president of the New Jersey Affiliate. "More people will die from diabetes this year than AIDS, and for every woman who dies from breast cancer, two women will die from diabetes. Thanks to our generous sponsors, cyclists and their individual contributors, Tour de Cure will help us get the word out about diabetes and help raise needed funds for research to find a cure."

Diabetes affects the body's ability to produce or respond properly to insulin, a hormone which allows blood sugar to enter cells and be used for energy. According to the American Diabetes Association, more than half of the 14 million people affected by diabetes do not know they have this disease. Many will first learn they have diabetes when they are treated for one of its complications — heart disease and stroke, kidney disease, blindness, nerve damage, and foot and leg amputations. More than 650,000 people will be diagnosed with diabetes this year; more than 160,000 will die.

The American Diabetes Association is the nation's leading non-profit health organization supporting diabetes research, advocacy, public education and patient education programs. Founded in 1940, the association has an affiliate in every state and provides services in more than 800 communities nationwide.

To register for Tour de Cure or to obtain more information about diabetes, call the New Jersey Affiliate Office at (800) TOUR-888.

Eligible bachelors go to high bidder

The American Cancer Society will hold its Annual Bid-on-a-Bachelor Auction on April 6 at L'Affaire on Route 22, Mountainside.

"This year's auction promises to be the most exciting ever with Union County's most eligible bachelors and some great date packages," said Union County First Assistant Prosecutor Michael Lapolla, bachelor auction chairman.

Date packages range from a weekend in Lake Tahoe to a helicopter ride to the Intrepid Air and Space Museum to dinners and dancing the night away. Prizes including tickets to "Donahue," the "Regis and Kathy Lee Show," dinners and Spirit of New Jersey cruise tickets.

Tickets may be purchased for $20 in advance and $25 at the door, including a cocktail hour beginning at 6 p.m., and bidding will begin at 7 p.m. All proceeds support ongoing programs in cancer research, education and patient services of the American Cancer Society.

Franks vows not to run if elected to sixth term news clips

Rep. Bob Franks, R-7, has announced that he will voluntarily impose a six-term limit on his service in the House of Representatives.

Franks made his announcement days before the House is expected to vote on a Constitutional amendment to limit terms of members of Congress to 12 years. The outcome of that vote remains in doubt.

In addition, Franks said that if the state enacts term limits on members of the Congressional delegation, he would abide by that limit, even if state-imposed term limits are found to be unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court. "While I am a strong supporter of a Constitutional amendment that limits terms of members of Congress, I want my constituents to know that even without a constitutional requirement to do so, I intend to limit my service in the House of Representatives to no more than 12 years," said Franks, who is serving his second term in Congress.

Said Franks: "To the public, term limits represent real proof that we have the courage to fundamentally change the foundation of Congress. It shows that we believe so strongly in giving the American people a Congress deserving of their full faith and confidence that we are willing, in effect, to order our own resignations."

"In the coming months, we in Congress will be asking our constituents to stand behind us as we make the tough choices necessary to transform the federal government and balance the budget so we can provide a brighter future for America's children," said Franks. "By announcing my intention to limit my terms in Congress — provided I have the privilege to continue to represent the Seventh District for four more terms — I want my constituents to know that I stand firm in my resolve to change Congress and make it more responsive to the American people."

NOW schedules a rally to put end to violence

The Union County chapter of the National Organization for Women will sponsor a bus trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the March to End Violence Against Women on April 9.

The bus will leave at 5:30 a.m. on April 9 from the Bradlees shopping center in Clark. It will return the same night. Riders should be at the Bradlees by 5 a.m.

The march should be a historic one, with several busloads of New Jersey activists already signed up, and more than a million activists nationwide rallying against violence aimed at women. The march also will mark the first national display of the Clothesline Project, which is composed of T-shirts decorated by women who have survived domestic violence, rape and other abuse, as well as shirts memorializing those who have been killed.

Seats are $30 per person. Checks should be made payable to NOW-NJ and sent to 727 Warren St., Westfield 07090. Participants need not be NOW members to ride on the bus. For more information, call Susan Warren at (908) 654-7566.

Chamber to munch during lease talk

Employee leasing, as a cost-effective alternative to conventional employment, will be the main topic of the Union County Chamber of Commerce breakfast on Wednesday at the Ramada Hotel in Clark.

Any business — small, medium or large — which has considered leasing as a way to solve temporary or permanent help needs but were unsure how this method works will benefit from this forum.

Presented by Stephen L. Farkas, chairman of the Board of ASI, a Greenbrook-based employee leasing company, the program will discuss legal requirements as well as reduced administrative paperwork and benefit cost responsibilities when utilizing this unique win-win situation for both employers and employees.

Farkas is founder and president of the New Jersey Employee Leasing Association, and is considered an expert in the Employee Leasing field.

Registration is at 7:45 a.m. The meeting will be held from 8 to 9 a.m. A $15 fee includes meeting and full buffet breakfast.

For reservations, contact the Union County Chamber of Commerce, 135 Jefferson Ave., Elizabeth 07207, or call (908) 352-0900.

Coping with cancer is topic

The Union County Unit of the American Cancer Society and Kean College of New Jersey Department of Nursing are co-sponsoring an "I Can Cope" support group.

The educationally oriented, support group series will provide individuals with ample opportunity for questions, discussion and sharing relating specifically to cancer.

The group is open to any individual, family member, or friend coping with a cancer diagnosis. It will be held at the Union County Unit office of the American Cancer Society in Elizabeth. The group will meet each Wednesday from 10:30 a.m. through April 19.

There is no charge for the group, however, registration is required. For more information and registration call the American Cancer Society at (908) 354-7373.

Save your newspaper for recycling.

Preventing drug abuse

"A Survey of Psychoanalytic Theory — Its Role in Addiction Education and Prevention" will be the topic of Friday's seminar by the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence of Union County, Inc. at its office at 300 North Avenue East in Westfield from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Taught by Daniel S. Keller, research assistant professor of Psychology, New York University School of Medicine in New York City, the course is $45 in advance, $50 at the door. To register, call NCADD of Union County at (908) 233-8810.

Clothing sale

SHARING, a volunteer, non-profit organization for handicapped is having a Half-off Thrift Clothing and Rummage Sale Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, 1441 Springfield Ave., New Providence.

Craft fair

The Annual Spring Craft Fair, sponsored by the Union County Vocational-Technical Schools Awards Committee, will be held at Baxel Hall on the Raritan Road campus Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Proceeds will be distributed to UCVTS students.

For more information call (908) 889-2931.

Easter egg hunt

Another "first," an Easter Egg Hunt for children at Turtle Back Zoo in West Orange on April 8 will offer them the opportunity to hunt for the eggs hidden all over the zoo grounds.

The event is sponsored by the zoo's docents, who will award prizes for the hunt. A pinata will be featured — a real challenge for the youngsters — and bunny-face painting will be offered.

Scheduled from noon to 3 p.m., the activities will be held at the Zoo at 560 Northfield Ave., West Orange. There is no additional fee to participate in the events.

For more information call (201) 731-5801.

Historic tour

The Osborn Cannonball House Museum, located at 1840 Front St. in Scotch Plains, will be open Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m. The Art of Ukrainian Egg Decorating will be demonstrated by Karen Kenderdine.

Docents will provide guided tours of the museum.

Visitors are welcome. Admission is free.

The Women for Women of Union County, Inc. will present on April 6 "Medical Science Underlying Beautiful Skin" by Dr. Thelma G. Warshaw.

The talk will feature: anatomy and physiology of skin; physiology of aging, an area of rapidly expanding knowledge, views about care of mature skin, and approaches — medical and cosmetic — for optimal appearance of skin, and hair and nails.

It will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Presbyterial Parish Hall, Lower Room, 140 Mountain Ave., Westfield.

Hunt slated

Ashbrook Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Scotch Plains, will hold its Fourth Annual Easter egg hunt at the nursing home on April 8 at 1:30 p.m. Children ages 3 to 10 are invited.

As the Easter Bunny passes out balloons and poses for pictures, children will be divided into groups ages 3 to 5, 6 to 7 and 8 to 10, to hunt for candy-filled eggs. An Easter basket will be awarded to the child in each group who finds the specially marked egg. Children should bring their own baskets or bags to collect candy. Those who do not have baskets will be provided with bags.

Contest entry is free, however, participants must register the day of the hunt beginning at 1 p.m. For more information call (908) 889-5500.

Literacy workshop

Literacy Volunteers of America's Union County affiliate will be holding a tutor-training workshop for new volunteers to teach basic reading.

The six-session workshop will be held on Thursday evenings through April 13 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Sessions will be held at the Westfield Y, 220 Clark St.

Volunteers age 18 and over are needed to tutor basic reading to non-reading adults in Union County. Techniques for teaching adults how to read and write will be offered. No prior teaching experience is necessary.

For more information or to register, call (908) 925-7755, or write to: Literacy Volunteers of Union County, 926 North Wood Ave., Linden 07036.

Eat your heart out

Clinical psychologist and modern psychoanalyst Victoria Jeffers will offer "Eat Your Heart Out: Treatment of Eating Disorders," a case presentation and discussion April 21 at 8 p.m., at the Psychoanalytic Center of Northern New Jersey, Lower Level 2, 796 Northfield Ave., West Orange.

Admission is free. For more information call (201) 736-7600.

Sundaes of fun

Youths between 7 and 12 years of age, are invited to an afternoon of fun on April 18 or 20 from 1 to 2:30 p.m. at the 4-H office, 300 North Ave. East, in Westfield.

Youths will learn how to make homemade ice cream, toppings and sundaes. The workshop will be conducted by Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Union County's 4-H Youth Development Program. Fee is $5.

Registration deadline is April 10. To register, make checks payable to "New Jersey Cooperative Extension" and mail them to Attention Karen Cole, Rutgers Cooperative Extension, 300 North Ave. East, Westfield 07090. When registering, indicate the child's name, address, phone number and age.

For more information, call Karen Cole at (908) 654-9854.

Catholic date

Region III of the North American Conference of separated and divorced catholics will hold its annual regional conference April 22 at Union Catholic High School in Scotch Plains.

The conference offers 15 workshops along with keynote presentations by Barbara and Glenn Smyly, experienced seminar leaders in the area of personal growth and self-development. The conference theme is "Crossroads — Choosing a New Life." Cost is $30.

For more information, call Anne at (201) 587-8240, Mary Ellen at (908) 232-5987 or Rich, (201) 478-5883.

Awards of valor

The Two Hundred Club of Union County, with more than 400 members, will hold its annual Valor Awards Luncheon on May 12 at L'Affaire Restaurant on Route 22, Mountainside.

The luncheon, which is expected to include about 350 attendees, salutes police and firefighters from throughout the county that have been selected for heroism. Vina Drennan, widow of New York Fire Capt. John Drennan, who was killed during a fire, will be guest speaker. She recently appeared on the nationally televised "Dateline."

The Two Hundred Club also will award scholarships to selected high school seniors who are the children of police and firefighters in Union County.

The luncheon, an annual event, is celebrating its 26th year. Tickets are available at the Two Hundred Headquarters, 222 Park Ave, Scotch Plains, and may be obtained by calling (908) 322-2422. Tickets are $40 per person.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR BETTER HEALTH

TENDONITIS PROBLEMS

If you have a muscular pain in any part of your body, it may be caused by a condition known as tendonitis (inflammation of a tendon). The joints in your body, in addition to bone and muscle, include tendons. These are fibrous cords that attach the muscle to the bone. When a tendon becomes inflamed, it can cause pain as sharp as that associated with bursitis. The cause may be excessive stress caused by muscles out of balance. Every joint has muscles that must work in unison for normal joint movement. As some of the muscles contract or tighten, others relax, and this should happen at the right time and with the right amount of pressure. If the muscles are out of balance, this can result in excessive stress on the tendons, causing irritation and inflammation. Treatment to restore muscle balance and to check for any misalignments in the spine and nervous system may eliminate the source of the problem and the pain.

Band director takes pride in his concert musicians

By Bea Smith
Lifestyle Editor

When the Union Municipal Band offers "Music From the Stage, Screen and Opera House" on Monday at 7:45 p.m. in the Burnet Middle School auditorium in Union, its busy music director, John H. Bunnell, will be filled with pride and joy. And at the same time, he will be planning a theme for the next concert.

"During the winter," Bunnell explained during a visit to this office last week, "we give a concert every six weeks, then from May to July, we have a concert every two weeks. And I try to come up with a theme for every concert."

Bunnell said he takes pride in his musicians — and there are about 80 members. "Actually," he said, "we have more than 80 on the roster, but at any one concert, we have from 50 to 65 people. When I prepare my programs, I try to make it interesting and entertaining for both the audiences and the musicians so that everyone is happy."

"The band is open to any serious musicians in the area. I wish more high school students who are really interested in pursuing music as a career or a vocation to take advantage of this opportunity to enlarge their repertoire."

"Any kid," he declared, "who is really serious about it should take advantage of this opportunity and get involved in community concerts. I have people coming from nearby and faraway places — in fact, as far as Warren Township."

Since Bunnell became music director of the Union Municipal Band in 1990, he said, "I believe the band has probably tripled in membership, and the caliber has really risen to quite a high level. So, we do so much more ambitious music. It's challenging, and the band likes to play good music."

The schedule, Bunnell indicated, "has been expanded. We rehearse all year long except for August. Everybody takes a vacation in August. Everything we do, we do on Monday evenings, especially rehearsals, from 7:30 to 9:30."

The program on Monday, which will be given free of charge, with Barry Furrer as assistant director and Thomas Maliszewski as guest conductor, will include the Liberty Bell March by John Philip Sousa; the "Hansel and Gretel" Overture by Engelbert Humperdinck, arranged by Lucien Cailliet; and "The Shadow of Your Smile," by Paul Webster and John Mandel, arranged by Ken Whitcomb.

Also on the program will be "Flutes, Flutes, Flutes," by Edward Madden, featuring the Flute Section; "Til Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks," by Richard Strauss, arranged by Lucien Cailliet, with horn soloist, James Juliano; "42nd Street Overture," by Harry Warren and arranged by Marty Gold; "The Fairest of the Fair, a march, by Sousa; music from the James Bond films, called James Bond Suite by Monty Norman, Paul McCartney, Eill Conti, John Barry and arranged by Frank Erickson; "Trumpet in the Night" by Harry Simeone, with trumpet soloist Bunnell and conductor Maliszewski; "Flamenco," by Paul Yoder; "On Stage With Cole Porter," and the "King Cotton" March by Sousa.

Among the active band members are Union residents Joe Azzarello — trumpet, Al DeFuria-Yanni — trumpet, Paul Falgares — sax/alto, Henry Fischer — sax, Sonny Glassner — trumpet, Dan Hodge — sax/alto, Henry Kavett — trombone, Marlene McRobbie — flute, Patty Scott — clarinet, and Ira J. Smulyan — baritone/treble clef; Mountainside residents Richard Franklin — trumpet, Judy Kiss — trombone, and Mike Matullo — trumpet; Springfield resident Ellen Leavitt — flute; Summit resident Leonard Galiley — French horn; Kenilworth resident Tom Phillips — tuba; Roselle resident Maria Owchariw — clarinet; Linden resident Innes Borstel — flute-oboe; and Rahway resident Wally Tarnowski — sax/baritone.

Bunnell explained that the Union Municipal Band "was probably organized in the 1940s and has had quite a few conductors. Among them were Richard Page, who directed in the 1950s, Ben Plotkin in the 1960s and Herb Steir in the 1970s. I came to the band because Herb Steir had become very ill. He was a friend and asked me if I would substitute for him. After a prolonged illness, he passed away, and I was appointed band leader."

"I had retired as supervisor of music in the Madison Borough school system, where I had served for 32 years. I also am the choir conductor at the Springfield Presbyterian Church, and this is my 33rd year there."

But getting this job here in Union — I must tell you, I feel like I've been so fortunate. I get up every day and I like to go to work. And I'm getting paid for what I love to do. I love music and I love people."

Born in New Providence, Bunnell's family moved to Summit when he was a young boy. "I graduated from Summit High School," he said, and "during the time I was a student there, I knew I wanted to be a music teacher. I had a music teacher, Fred Mueller, who really inspired me. In high school, I played the trumpet, the cello, whatever the orchestra needed, I played. I would take a cello and an instruction book home, learn it, and Mr. Mueller would give me a couple of lessons, and I played it in the orchestra."

Bunnell grinned. "As you can see, I was hooked on music at a very early age." He went into service, the Merchant Marine and the Army, and after three years, he attended New York University. "I got my bachelor's degree in music, got my master's from Rutgers and did doctoral work at Indiana University."

His first teaching positions were in Felton and Milford, Del. "Then I moved to Burlington, here in New Jersey, and I taught there until 1959. Then I came up to Madison Borough and taught there until I retired in 1990." He resides in Florham Park with his wife, Virginia. And they proudly acknowledge that they have three very talented children: Jane Bunnell, an opera singer at the Metropolitan Opera; David, who works in television as a general sales manager in Columbus, Ohio, and newly-married Margaret Slawinski, who is head nurse in the emergency room at Meadowlands Hospital, Secaucus.

"We have all the concerts planned for this year," Bunnell said. "This fall, we will either do 'Music Man' or 'Oklahoma!' We always do one big production in the fall. And for that, we sell tickets. In Madison, I directed about 70 musical shows. I also directed the 'Pirates of Penzance,' which will be staged at Madison Junior High School from Friday to Saturday."

The music director said that he is appealing to "high school kids who are interested in serious music. There is no substitute for playing, and the more you play, the better you'll be. You really have to be superb even before you get to college. So, it's important for the youngsters to take advantage of what we're offering. And those who are interested in joining the band can call me at 201-377-8058."

"No one is enjoying 'retirement' as much as I am," Bunnell chuckled. "And I'm going to do this until I drop," he shrugged. "I love it!"

Two shows set

Musician-composer from Atlanta Emmy nominee Doug Stone, will bring his current concert tour to Rahway's Union County Arts Center April 28 for two shows, 7 and 10 p.m. Opening for Stone at both shows will be the seven-piece Tim Gillis Band, a local New Jersey group with Texas roots.

Tickets can be ordered by calling the Arts Center box office at 499-8226.

A folk arts festival set

"Do you practice a traditional folk art or craft that is part of your cultural heritage? Do you sing Puerto Rican Jibaro songs or African American a capella gospel music? Embroider Hmong Pajntaub? Cut Polish wycinanki? Create Korean calligraphic gung che? Are the arts part of your cultural heritage," asked the Union County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, Division of Parks and Recreation. It is looking for individuals and groups to participate in a Folk Arts Festival slated for October at Union County College, Cranford.

"It is exciting to know that we in Union County will have the opportunity to experience the wonderful artistry of our diverse ethnic communities," said Linda Lee-Kelly, freholder and liaison to the Cultural and Heritage Programs Advisory Board.

The festival, which will be a showcase for both visual and performing folk and traditional arts, will be sponsored by the Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs and Union County College. It will take place during National Arts and Humanities Month.

Participants do not have to live in Union County, but must be from New Jersey, it was reported. Any artist or group interested in learning more about the event can contact Hortense Green, project coordinator at the Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, 633 Pearl St., Elizabeth 07202; 558-2550.

The Folk Arts Festival is supported in part by a grant from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

A Lenten drama set at church in Union

The Covenant Players, an international repertory theater, will present a message in dramatic form at the Noonday Lenten Service March 31 in the First Congregational Church of Union, Burnet and Doris avenues.

"The talented and dedicated young men and women are among more than 100 touring units who have performed sermons through drama more than 1 million times in 84 countries around the world, in 21 languages," announced the Rev. Nancy Forsberg, pastor of the church.

Founded in 1963 by Charles M. Tanner, playwright and director, Covenant Players "utilizes a unique kind of drama." Tanner, who has written more than 2,000 short plays basing ancient truths with a modern touch, communicates a wide variety of themes, issues and subject matter. "People are given an opportunity to see themselves, to examine their faith in today's world. Using everything from light comedy to heavy drama, plus science fiction, Biblical characterizations and more, the Players present the messages of the Gospel," it was reported.

Each Friday during Lent at noon there will be a half-hour worship service at First Congregational Church led by the pastor, Rev. Nancy, and assisted by Ed Wesley, organist, and Bill Garrison, soloist. This is followed by a fellowship luncheon in Founders Hall, served by the deaconesses of the congregation.

The service is open to the community and has been designed to fit within a one hour time slot so that business people can participate during their lunch hour, said the pastor.

Further information can be obtained by calling the church office at 688-4333.

Bundonis solo exhibit to be displayed at Kean

"Moths to a Flame," the first solo exhibition by Reid Bundonis, senior fine arts student, will be exhibited at the James Howe Student Gallery, Kean College of New Jersey, Union, Monday to April 8. A reception will be Monday from 5 to 7 p.m.

Key features of the exhibition will include viewer interaction and active participation, multi-sense stimulation and contributions from a local law enforcement agency and school district. With objects donated from the Elizabeth Police Department and the Piscataway Township school district, "Moths to a Flame" will highlight the Elizabeth Police Department and Piscataway Township school district's contribution to the community as well as to the arts. Members of the Elizabeth Police Department are scheduled to be on hand.

Sculpture, photos planned for gallery

"Journeys and Digressions," an exhibition of sculpture and photography by Alice Saltman, will be the next show at the Les Malamut Gallery in the Union Public Library in Friberger Park on Morris Avenue, April 9 to May 18. An opening reception will be held April 9, from 2 to 4 p.m. The public is invited, it was announced.

Saltman's professional career has centered around the arts and for the past 17 years she has been concentrating on sculpture. She has won many awards for her work and has traveled world wide, capturing "in depth views of many countries." Recently Saltman returned from an extended trip to Costa Rica. In 1992 she presented a seminar to the Friends of the Library with slides and information on her trip to Polynesia and the Moriari people.

Saltman was a teacher in the public school system and a director of the Y Summer Arts and Crafts programs. She also practiced as an art therapist at mental health centers.

Saltman graduated from New York University's School of Education where she earned a master's degree in art and psychology. She also attended Columbia University and the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art. She did post graduate work at the Center for Mental Health. Her sculpture studies were with Herb Kallem and Leo Schulemowitz.

Now retired, she said, "I work primarily in sculpture. For me art is a truly most essential and most exciting part and way of life."

Saltman has won first prize for her sculpture in the Essex County Senior Art shows in 1991 and 1992, second place in 1990 and first place in 1993 for photography. She exhibits regularly at the Jewish Community Center in West Orange. Her work is in private permanent collections in California, Florida, Massachusetts and Oklahoma as well as New Jersey.

The Les Malamut Gallery is open during library hours. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A piece of sculpture is shown by Alice Saltman, who will have an exhibition of sculpture and photography, called 'Journeys and Digressions,' at the Les Malamut Art Gallery in the Union Public Library, Friberger Park on Morris Avenue, Union. The display will be held from April 9 to May 18.

Students rehearse musical, 'The Sound of Music,' to be presented as the spring production of Union Regional High School, Scotch Plains, March 31, April 1, April 7 and 8. Janine Dawson of Kenilworth portrays Elsa and Brian Korner of Roselle plays Captain Von Trapp.

Musical scheduled by Union Catholic

The Rodgers and Hammerstein musical production, "The Sound of Music," classic tale conveying the true story of Maria Rainer and the Von Trapp family will be the spring presentation on stage at Union Catholic Regional High School, Scotch Plains.

Featured in lead roles are Alison

Stowasky of Clark as Maria, Brian Korner of Roselle as Captain Von Trapp, Roshanna Harmon as Mother Abbess, Janine Dawson of Kenilworth as Elsa, Guy Werner as Max, Blair Brown as Liesl, and Ed Limia of Union as Rolf. The Von Trapp children are played by Brendan Applegate of Elizabeth, Kerry Schmidt, Margaret Gryskiweicz of Linden, Bruce Williams, Emily Eger of Union and Tara Sinclair of Elizabeth.

Musical performances are scheduled for two weekends, March 31, April 1 and April 7 and 8, at 8 p.m. Tickets are $7 for adults and $5 for students and senior citizens.

For more information one can call 889-1600.

Meeting slated

Union County Arts Center Inc., Rahway, has scheduled its annual membership meeting April 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the restored theater's auditorium.

The admission-free event, which, in addition to a business meeting will include "surprise" entertainment and the awarding of a "mystery prize," is open to the public.

To place a classified ad call 763-9411 by noon Tuesday.

Art exhibit set in April

The works of Barbara Zietchick of Westfield will be displayed in the Meeting Room, Springfield Public Library, 66 Mountain Ave., during the month of April.

Zietchick, who works in an expressionistic style, uses bright colors, and interrelated shapes, to create portraits, abstractions, and still lifes.

Zietchick has won awards at N.Y. State Teachers' Association, Pace University, Tomasulo Gallery, Union County College, New Jersey Center for Visual Arts, Members' Show 1993 and the Palmer Gallery, for "Lay of the Land 1994."

Alexus Steakhouse & Tavern

A large, happy eating place with a mix of people.

Alexus Steakhouse & Tavern, above, is located at 1246 Route 22 West Mountainside.

Alexus Steakhouse & Tavern invites you to enjoy "Outrageous Steaks, Great Burgers, Overstuffed Sandwiches and Cold Beer," but there's a lot more at this unpretentious, friendly but high-quality family restaurant in the big white building with the burgundy and beige sign and awnings.

The atmosphere is light, cheery and upbeat — families, groups and couples enjoying everything from a light meal or snack to a full dinner, all made with the freshest ingredients.

Every meal, lunch or dinner, starts with a complimentary bowl of pickles and cherry peppers and another of fresh-cut health salad. After ordering any of a wide variety of tasty appetizers and soups, many customers then go on to have one of the specialties of the house — the enormous 24 ounces Delmonico Steak or the 24 ounces N.Y. Sirloin Steak — cooked to juicy perfection with Alexus' special seasonings and accompanied by generous helpings of homemade french-fried potatoes for just $10.95 each. MSG is never used. Doggy bags are often necessary because of the size of the servings.

Other choices are the baked or blackened swordfish, lobster or Chicken Alexus. In addition, blackboard specials are available every day, and are priced reasonably.

The sandwiches are overstuffed, and are truly meals in themselves. The juicy hamburgers, made to order in true Alexus fashion with various trimmings, are a full 8 ounces of fresh ground beef.

As for the soups, the hearty Onion Soup is a crock filled with fresh onions cooked to perfection, then topped with slices of mozzarella cheese, and sprinkled with chopped bits of swiss cheese. The New England Clam Chowder is a meaty mix chock full of clams and fresh-cut chunks of potato.

Appetizers include house specialties like the Alexis Onion Flower, a colossal onion carved into a blossom shape and then deep fried to a golden brown to produce a sweet, delicate and truly delicious treat. The Hot Buffalo Wings are tangy, with just the right amount of bite for the starter to a meal.

Desserts, for anyone who still has room, includes Reese's Peanut Butter Pie, a delicious production, and the enormous Hot Fudge Sundae. Perhaps the most popular dish is the Strawberry Shortcake, a mountain of fresh red fruit on an anglefood cake base covered with whipped cream, and there is also a selection of daily dessert specials.

Beverages include a full assortment of hot and cold drinks. There is also a wide choice of domestic and imported beer, wine and spirits. For people who just want to have a drink and a snack, the bar in the lounge area has its own ambiance.

Aside from the tasty food and low prices, Alexis Steakhouse & Tavern has quickly earned part of its outstanding reputation because of its special feeling — a large, happy eating place with a mix of people. Informality is emphasized. A young, enthusiastic and well-trained wait staff contributes to the upbeat mood of the place.

All in all, Alexis Steakhouse & Tavern offers memorable meals and a uniquely pleasant dining experience at affordable prices.

Alexus Steakhouse & Tavern, 1246 Route 22 West, Mountainside, may be reached by calling (908) 233-5300. Hours are Monday through Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 11 p.m.; Friday and Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 12 p.m., and Sunday from 3 to 10 p.m.

The tavern houses a full bar. All major credit cards are accepted. It is accessible to handicapped. A private banquet and party room is available. Reservations are accepted for groups and large parties.

50 students set in show

"42nd Street," first filmed as the 1933 low fidelity Warner Brothers blockbuster in black and white, later became a hit musical on Broadway. Now "42nd Street," the classic tale of star-making glories and grueling backstage rigors on Shubert Alley, will be staged at Rahway's Union County Arts Center.

The show is booked for a two day run, April 7 and April 8. Its cast includes 50 Rahway High School theater students for whom the local arts center has been a part-time classroom throughout the current school year.

Under the tutelage of Rahway High teacher Marsha Watson, also a voluntary Arts Center vice president and director of local stage productions, the youngsters have volunteered as ushers, stage hands, refreshment vendors and sidewalk snow shovelers for the professional shows that play there throughout most of the year. "42nd Street" will mark the culmination of a "unique partnership involving students, the school system, the community and the restored theater."

Watson's recent triumph was the inaugural New Jersey production of "The Will Rogers Follies" on this stage, featuring an Equity actor in the title role.

Other adult members of the production team include Ron Dolce, Rick Watson, Joann Campanelli, and Allison Dooley.

Evening performances will start at 8 o'clock on both days, and will be supplemented by a 2 p.m. Saturday matinee on April 8. Tickets to the nonprofit production are $8 and are available at the Arts Center box office, 1601 Irving St. Patrons can reserve tickets for later pickup up calling 499-8226.

'La Boheme' set April 8 on stage

NatWest Bank has become a major contributor to the Westfield Symphony, sponsoring the cast of vocalists for the annual opera in concert, it was announced.

This year's opera is Puccini's "La Boheme," starring April Evans and Michael Phillip Davis, and the concert is scheduled for April 8 at the Presbyterian Church, 140 Mountain Ave., Westfield. The concert will begin at 8 p.m., and the symphony's music director Brad Keimach will offer pre-concert remarks at 7 p.m.

Tickets for the Westfield Symphony's April 8 concert presentation of "La Boheme" are available from the symphony office and can be purchased by calling 232-9400.

Comedy Fest slated for Rahway Center

The Union County Arts Center, Rahway, will hold an April Fools' Comedy Fest April 1 at 7:30 p.m. Some of the featured players will be Laurel and Hardy, the Three Stooges, Little Rascals, Charlie Chaplin and Buster Keaton, who will mark the 100th anniversary of his birth this year.

The audience will be treated to a collection of sound and silent comedies they originally presented at the Rahway Theater years ago! The silent shorts will feature live accompaniment on the Art Center's fully restored, Wurlitzer organ by Lee Erwin and the sound shorts will be presented in their "rare, original 35mm. format."

Erwin, who was born in Alabama, has been organist, composer and arranger for the Arthur Godfrey TV shows, and played for most of the early soap operas originating in New York. In recent years, he has composed music scores for more than 70 classic silent films, performed in theater organ concerts, and appeared on national TV and in films on the theater organ and theater preservation. Past film festivals in the 1,300 seat palace have included Laurel and Hardy, the Star Wars Trilogy, and the James Bond Fest '95. The theater also has become recognized for its showings of silent film classics accompanied by keyboard artists at the console of the theater's restored antique Wurlitzer organ.

Tickets to the April Fools' Comedy Fest are $8 and are available at the Arts Center box office, 1601 Irving St. They also can be ordered by calling 499-8226.

The Arts Center is situated at the junction of Central Avenue and Main and Irving streets in Rahway's business district.

Dancers from the Fred Astaire Dance Studio of Springfield will perform in a benefit ballroom show for the American Cancer Society at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, April 8 from 4 to 6 p.m. From left are Tom Blessing, Roger D'Amato, Kelly Vuyovich, Denise Michaels and Joan Wright.

Dancers to perform in ballroom benefit

The Fred Astaire Dance Studio of Springfield will transform the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School auditorium in Springfield into a "giant airliner," April 8 from 4 to 6 p.m. when the staff and students of the studio will present a ballroom show. The event will be a benefit for the American Cancer Society.

Featured in the 23-act show, with its airline theme, will be Latin dances and funky New York hip-hop. Prizes will be distributed including a trip to anywhere in the United States with the compliments of Northwest Airlines. The benefit performance is the third to be sponsored by the Astaire Studio, owned and operated by Denise Michaels and Kelly Vuyovich.

Following the show, the audience will be invited back to the studio for three hours of dancing and hors d'oeuvres. Tickets for the show alone are $15 each. An additional $10 will cover the dance.

Further information can be obtained by calling (201) 467-8522.

Two six session art programs to begin April 10 in Westfield

Two six session art programs will be offered this spring beginning on April 10 for adults, teens and children at the New Jersey Workshop for the Arts, 152 East Broad St., Westfield.

For more information on these courses and other projects of the New Jersey Workshop, one can call 789-9696.

Andrea Caskey to sing, dance

Andrea Caskey of Union will perform as singer-dancer in Allegro Productions' revue, "Flip Flop," to be staged March 31 and April 1 at 8 p.m. at the Blooming Grove Theater, 544 Bloomfield Ave., Montclair.

An additional performance of the musical celebration of the best of the Broadway flops, will be given on April 2 at 3 p.m. as a benefit for the Gina Safonte Memorial Scholarship Fund.

A futuristic tale staged

"Deep Space Noir," a futuristic detective story, is being staged every Saturday and selected Fridays at 8 p.m. at the Murder To Go Theater, downstairs at Il Giardino Restaurant, 41 Ridgedale Ave., Cedar Knolls.

Writer-director David Landau has written a story about Rick Archer, detective and descendant of the hard-boiled detective and star of the "Cafe Noir" trilogy. It is set in a thoroughly new environment — a lonely space outpost about 150 years in the future. David Flynn plays Rick Archer, and the others in the cast include Tricia Burr, Shelli Matiss, Michelle Begley, Joe Prusak, Kevin Shinnick and Bob MacKay. The original music and lyrics are by composer and long-time collaborator Nikki Stern.

The $42 ticket price includes a four-course meal and the professional show, taxes and gratuities for waitstaff. Additional information can be obtained by calling the box office at (201) 391-0562.

5th concert to mark 75th anniversary of Symphony

The fifth concert of the Plainfield Symphony's 75th anniversary season will take place April 1 at 8 p.m. at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, 716 Watchung Ave., Plainfield.

The program's musical director is Sabin Pautza. The orchestra's concertmaster, David Niwa will be a soloist playing Beethoven's Violin Concerto in D, followed by Wagner's Siegfried Idyll and Stravinsky's Pulcinella Suite.

Niwa has had four years as concertmaster with the orchestra.

Tickets are available at the door at $17, $12 and $8.

Following the concert, there will be an open house for guests and friends of the symphony. The cost will be $10. One can call the symphony office for further details at 561-5140.

Theater group to hold job fair with 18 companies taking part

The New Jersey Theater Group, the association of New Jersey's professional theater, will hold its ninth annual job fair, April 1 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the State Theater, 19 Livingston Ave., New Brunswick.

Eighteen of the state's professional theater companies are expected to participate in interviewing candidates for dozens of administrative, technical and production jobs, it was announced. Theaters will be seeking qualified applicants to fill internships, entry-level jobs and staff positions for full- and part-time, seasonal and year-round schedules.

Acting jobs are not available through NJTG's annual job fair, it was reported. Upon arrival at the job fair applicants will receive a current listing of the available positions which the theaters will be interviewing for throughout the day. Individuals can stay as long as they like and sign up for as many interview slots as they wish.

Participating theaters based in northern New Jersey include Stageworks/Summit, Summit, American Stage Co., Teaneck; John Harms Center for the Arts, Englewood; New Jersey Shakespeare Festival and Playwrights Theater of New Jersey, Madison; Palistage, Tenafly; Paper Mill Playhouse, Milburn; Summerfun Theater, Montclair, and Theater Fest, Upper Montclair. Resident theaters in central New Jersey include Crossroads Theater Co., and George Street Playhouse, New Brunswick; Forum Theater Group, Metuchen; and Mc Carter Theater, Princeton. Theaters from the southern region include the East Lynne Co., Cape May and Foundation Theater in Pemberton, and Delaware Theater Co., Wilmington, Del.

Also interviewing at this year's job fair will be three of New Jersey's touring theater for young audiences, Arts Powers, Pushcart Players and Shoestring Players, based in Ridgewood, Verona and New Brunswick, respectively. Other theaters are expected to join the list of prospective employers participating in the marathon process, it also was announced.

"Theater professionals who are unable to attend the job fair or want to multiply their exposure to potential employers will be interested in the New Jersey Theater Group's Annual Job Bank." This service keeps resumes in circulation to dozens of performing arts organizations for one year. NJTG's job bank also provides quarterly job listings to its registrants.

Early registration is suggested in order to receive important information, directions to the State Theater and lower registration fees. Before March 28, registration for either the ninth annual job fair or 1995-96 job bank is $15 for each; after that date the fee is $20 for each at the door.

For more information and a registration form, one can call the New Jersey Theater Group at (201) 593-0189 or write to NJTG at P O Box 21-J, Florham Park, N.J. 07932.

Tribute set in Rahway

The late Benny Goodman the swing sound, originated lives on in tributes performed by a 15-piece orchestra with conductor Everett Longstreth filling the vacancy left by the legendary "King of Swing." Longstreth and his orchestra will bring their Benny Goodman Tribute to the stage of Rahway's Union County Arts Center, April 2 for a one-afternoon stand beginning at 3 p.m.

Faithful recreations of "Stompin' at the Savoy," "Sing, Sing, Sing," "Let's Dance," and other Goodman music of the 1930s and 1940s will be featured.

Tickets are $12.50 and $15 and are available at the Arts Center box office. The vintage, 1300-seat live entertainment venue situated at the junction of Irving and Main streets and Central Avenue in the heart of Rahway's restoration district. The number to call for ticket orders is 499-8226.

'Outdoor Sculpture' program scheduled

This 1995 will mark the second year of New Jersey's participation in the national program Save Outdoor Sculpture! It was reported that more than 100 active volunteers are documenting New Jersey's nearly 600 public monuments.

"We are very pleased that the Union County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, Division of Parks and Recreation, is assisting the Montclair Art Museum, Preservation New Jersey, the New Jersey Historic Preservation Office/DEP, and the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State in this important project," said Freeholder Linda-Lee Kelly, liaison to the Cultural and Heritage Programs Advisory Board.

"There are more works in Union County in need of documentation," she noted. "Volunteers are encouraged to join in this opportunity to foster knowledge about the New Jersey communities in which they live and work."

A volunteer training workshop will take place April 22 at the Montclair Art Museum, 3 South Mountain Ave., from 9 a.m. to noon.

NJSOS! also is planning workshops and symposia on outdoor sculpture. A one-day conservation workshop, held in conjunction with the National Park Service, will take place in Paterson June 23 and will provide information and assistance "for those about to embark on their own sculpture conservation projects."

Additional information can be obtained by calling Meredith Arms Bzdek, NJSOS! project manager, at 439-3409 or by contacting the Union County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, 633 Pearl St., Elizabeth, N.J. 07202, 558-2550.

How to replace your air conditioner as quietly as possible.

You're going to be hearing a lot about the American Standard Allegiance™ 14 air conditioner. You just won't be hearing a lot from it. The remarkably quiet operation is just one indication of how well the Allegiance™ 14 is built. It's extremely efficient - up to 15 SEER. We build our Duration™ compressor for unequalled durability. There's a 10 year limited warranty on the coil and compressor. And every unit is tested and retested to ensure reliability. It's an air conditioner that's creating quite a buzz. Among customers, that is.

April 2-8

ARIES - March 21/April 20
If you use available information wisely, you may be able to further a financial scheme. Weekend plans may have to be rearranged as others involved are not as flexible as you had anticipated. There could be some adversity at work. Don't try to cover up mistakes.

TAURUS - April 21/May 21
It's a good time for local travel. Don't be afraid to expand your horizons this week, especially on Wednesday. You could even discover a new side of yourself. The topic of money should be avoided in conversations with loved ones, especially if it already is a touchy subject.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21
You'll be challenged with an exciting project this week. Don't be afraid to call upon the expertise and guidance of others to see you through any rough spots. A conflict with an in-law may be unavoidable. You'll end up looking like the winner if you use your usual cool, logical approach.

CANCER - June 22/July 22
Throw caution to the wind this week, and let yourself have a good time. Leave work early, or just skip it all together. Remember, you only live once; this is not a dress rehearsal. If you don't allow yourself to have fun now, when will you? Go out and enjoy what spring has to offer.

LEO - July 23/August 23
Get an early start on travel, especially if you're going far. Leave yourself time enough to compensate for unexpected mishaps. A family quarrel could turn into a major battle if you don't control your temper. Letting pride get in the way will only work against you. Try to compromise.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22
Don't settle when making an important purchase. If price is a concern, then shop around. Patience will lead you to a good deal. A project that has been on hold can now be tackled at full force. Don't be afraid to put new ideas to the test. A love relationship is cause for concern.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23
Slow down the pace of your day-to-day activity, or it will end up slowing you down. Try to relax, and don't skimp on sleep. If a long-term project is the cause of frustration, let it sit for a while. Fresher ideas will come with time. An old friendship will take on new meaning and will suddenly become more important to you.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22
A change of scenery will bring back the enthusiasm you may have recently lost. With that, the chance of a new romantic relationship is likely. If finances have been an issue, now's a good time to straighten things out. Long-awaited news will finally arrive with an unexpected result.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21
Don't let day-to-day frustrations get the better of you. Try to relax, and tend to daily matters when you're more relaxed. Go for quality, rather than quantity, when shopping this week. Although honesty is usually the best policy, you may find a little white lie a better answer.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20
Quiet pleasures, rather than lively activities, will be better for your health and your wallet this week. This is especially true if you have been putting in a lot of hours at work. Learn from the mistakes of others when it comes to handling romantic relationships.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18
Your imagination and creativity will give a pet project extra flair. Don't let others discourage you from doing the unusual. Let your imagination be your guide. A younger person in your family will play a role in the week's events. You may be called upon to lend a sympathetic ear.

PISCES - Feb 19/March 20
A good mood helps you get through the week with ease. Complicated tasks will seem simple, and problematic situations will seem easily manageable. Think of a new way to handle an ongoing problem. Looking for love? If so, this could be a very special week for you.

YOUR BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
The next 12 months:
This could be a very — maybe the most — crucial year in your life. Make the right decisions and all you've ever wanted could be yours. Just remember, you must act on opportunity when it presents itself, because most opportunities go as quickly as they come. If you procrastinate, all could be lost. This will hold especially true during the first few months of this year. The most important thing for you to have a handle on is your emotions. Don't let your complicated Arian nature drive success away. Keep your emotions and temper at bay, especially when big decisions have to be made.

Trio, from left, Jeremy Haft, Mindy Miller and Scott Joseph, enact 'Big Dog...Little Dog,' one of the stories in 'Story Salad VIII,' which will be presented at the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn, May 6 and 7. More information can be obtained by calling the box office at (201) 376-4343.

Music School listed for summer classes

The Union Music School has announced mail registration for its 41st annual summer session. Courses can be taken in music performance, dance, theater and art. Grades pre-kindergarten through 12 can attend and students from all communities are invited, it was announced.

Classes run from June 26 through July 28 from 9 a.m. through 12:15 p.m. daily at Kawamech Middle School in Union Township. Two additional music enrichment courses also are available at 7:40 to 8:55 a.m. and 12:20 to 1:30 p.m. daily.

This year's musical production will be a Broadway musical "A Chorus Line," for grades 9 to 12 and Walt Disney's "Sleeping Beauty" for grades 3 to 8. The musical productions, art exhibits and all dance, music and drama performances for students in grades 3 to 12 will be held at Union High School. Seating in some courses is limited, it was reported.

For more information or a brochure one can write or call: Union Music School, P O Box 3566, Union, N.J. 07083, (908)851-6476.

'Women in the Arts' set with Anne Ross' slides

"Women in the Arts" is the title for a colloquium sponsored by the Smith College Club of Watchung April 1 at 10 a.m. at the Morris Museum, 6 Normandy Heights Road, Morristown. Jane Leatherbee of Summit is president.

Among those participating will be Anne Ross of Summit, who will give a slide lecture, "Polaroid to Digital: A Photographer's Journey." Charlotte Nicholas, A Summit resident and Seon Hall professor, will offer her "Thoughts on Women and art History Today."

The Smith women will illustrate various ways women have used both liberal and fine arts education and individual vision to create a life in the arts.

The program is free, and the public is welcome, it was announced. Reservations can be made by calling Barbara Morrison at (201) 326-7226.

Family Theater offerings gain Rahway showplace

The American Family Theater presentations at the Union County Arts Center, Rahway, "have helped gain that showplace a solid reputation as a local mecca for quality children's entertainment," it was reported. With Beauty And The Beast, "The Wizard of Oz" and "Aladdin" presented earlier this season, AFT's next feature, "Pippi Longstocking," will be staged April 30 for a 3 p.m. matinee. Tickets are $8 for adults and $6 for children.

The creation of children's author Astrid Lindgren, "Pippi" has been described as a female "Dennis the Menace." She "blooms to precocious life in this fun-filled, musical adventure, colorfully staged and deftly performed by AFT's talented touring company."

"Broadway for Children" is the way the AFT president Adrienne Crane characterizes this and other shows in the company's repertoire. "The kids will be delighted and parents won't be bored."

In its 23 years of operation, AFT has garnered a White House Citation and the Freedom Foundation's Medal of Honor among other acknowledgments of its contributions.

The Union County Arts Center is situated at the junction of Central Avenue and Irving and Main streets in Rahway's historic restoration district. Tickets can be advance-ordered by calling the 1601 Irving St. box office at 499-8226.

'Images' benefit is scheduled for Visual Arts Center April 8

"Images," an annual black-tie benefit for the New Jersey Center for Visual Arts, 68 Elm St., Summit, will be held April 8 at the headquarters of Matsushita Electric Corporation of America and Panasonic Industrial Co., Secaucus.

The evening will feature an 'Encore Celebration' of elegant sights and sounds of Japan, a moveable feast of exotic flavors, dancing to the music of the Anthony St. James Orchestra, an art exhibition and sale, an auction of treasure basket from around the world, prizes and electronic surprises," it was announced.

For further information one can call the New Jersey Center for Visual Arts at (908)273-9121.

American Federal enjoys growth, relocates to larger office

On the heels of the strongest fourth quarter in its nine-year history, American Federal Mortgage has relocated from Union into a larger office in Bound Brook.

While many lenders struggled in 1994, American Federal's growth was strong enough to necessitate expansion. "Moving to a more spacious headquarters in the heart of New Jersey fits our strategy for success," said American Federal President Mark Young. "Instead of having offices all over the state, we maintain only one office for underwriting and processing, which keeps our overhead low. That, in turn, keeps our rates and fees low — more often than not, among the very lowest in the state."

Within its retail division, American Federal is known for delivering its products and services directly to the home buyer via its statewide network of field representatives. Representatives consult with home buyers at their homes or offices during day, evening or weekend hours to explain the many mortgage options available and lead home buyers through the application process. "Our representatives combine decades of lending experience with extensive product knowledge to help the borrower choose exactly the right loan plan," says Young.

For more experienced home buyers who prefer to work on their own, American Federal offers phone consultation by mail. The company has prepared their own clear, easy-to-follow directions, materials and mortgage application that callers may receive quickly.

According to Vice President Robert Bakerian of American Federal is a great place for the buyer who has heard or read about mortgage choices available but who may have trouble in deciding which mortgage is most suitable or in finding certain programs at other lenders.

"As more and more options become available, it becomes more and more necessary for people to know what they're buying. Educated buyers will appreciate finding not only the variety of products available from us," Bakerian said, "but also the professional guidance and resources to sort through the choices and find the best option for their own situation."

For example, instead of promoting one kind of adjustable rate loan, American Federal offers the buyer the choice of linking the rate adjustment to the U.S. Treasury Bill or to the Cost of Funds Index. American Federal's representatives explain what the two adjustment factors are, and, more importantly, what they mean to the buyer in light of his or her specific financial profile and goal.

Said Young: "Typically, the educated home buyer looking for the lowest rate and fees will find his way to American Federal. By limiting our overhead and following a high volume approach to the mortgage business, we had our strongest showing ever during a quarter that was disastrous for a good many companies in our industry. Our approach to mortgage lending works — for the consumer and for us. We are committed to continuing to offer the widest variety of products at extremely competitive rates and fees."

Right now American Federal is especially enthusiastic about its special programs for the first-time home buyer. The company is for example one of only a few lenders in the state to have qualified to offer New Jersey bond-financed mortgages. "Thanks to this program, in just the past two months American Federal has put dozens of first-time home buyers into the homes they wanted, homes they would ordinarily not be qualified to buy," says Bakerian. "While we write all kinds of loans, we have always had a keen interest in helping the first-time buyer."

Specifics of the state's first-time home buyer program include a down payment of only 3 percent, 3 points, a low 30-year fixed rate of 7.75 percent, and an APR of 8.09 percent. For buyers who are moving into target communities, there are special incentives, including higher mortgage limits and even money for remodeling and repairs. Although state funding is limited and going quickly, New Jersey anticipates other offering in early spring.

For more information on the state program and other possibilities for first-time buyers, Bakerian welcomes calls at (800) 767-2961.

Young anticipates a strong 1995, with mortgage rates stabilizing, and buyers already beginning the traditional spring rush. American Federal Mortgage Corp. is a New Jersey Department of Banking licensed mortgage banker and broker and an equal housing lender. The company offers a complete portfolio of both traditional and innovative mortgage loan products.

Selling your own home has negatives, plusses

With a stable housing market in the news for spring, do-it-yourself home selling is taking on appeal. But, before planting a "For Sale" sign on the front lawn, it pays to weigh the benefits and pitfalls of the for-sale-by-owner route.

"I can understand why some people would think it pays to sell their own home," said Century 21 of the Northeast, Inc.'s Vice President of Marketing Carolyn Weber. "Price appreciation has slowed in most states in the Northeast and mortgage interest rates have edged up. Saving the commission a seller pays to a real estate broker sounds like a good idea, but selling your own home is difficult, especially in today's market."

Time pressures, tighter financing and thin housing markets make for-sale-by-owners tougher to market. In rural neighborhoods and extremely affluent areas it is also typically more difficult for an owner to sell their own home.

Chief hurdles for "FSBOs," the industry slang for for-sale-by-owner, according to Weber, are making the time available to show the property, establishing an accurate asking price, screening interested buyers' financial qualifications and coping with the psychology of today's sophisticated buyer. "Most buyers assume a FSBO has a built-in margin for negotiation. They begin by deducting the assumed brokers' fee from the asking price," said Weber, "so they usually offer something well below a seller's expectations."

"Another problem is the buyer who is forever looking but does not financially qualify. An experienced real estate agent will identify the price range this buyer should be in. A homeowner on the other hand, may not, and will see a lot of bargain hunters this season who will try to negotiate a price below market value," she added.

Weber offered some advice for those who decide to market their own home. First, set an accurate sales price and prepare a detailed fact sheet on the property.

"Your fact sheet is your primary sales tool. Be honest, but present the property in its most favorable light. It should include the price, taxes, maintenance costs and any information such as an assumable mortgage or seller financing — that could affect the sales prices. It pays to also list prices of comparable properties for sale in your neighborhood as well as homes that have sold within the past six months," said Weber.

Next, be prepared to evaluate each potential buyer's financial qualifications. This is often a broker's first step, and is essential for FSBOs. To decide whether or not a buyer is able to afford a home, information about the buyer's employment, income, debts and assets, and the amount of money available for a down payment is required. Consult a lender or mortgage broker to learn how to accurately assess this information.

"Real estate agents are familiar with the latest interest rates, can refer a buyer to lenders with attractive financing or help them choose a mortgage that will enable them to purchase a home. A homeowner can't possibly have that information at their fingertips and will inevitably lose some prospects. But you must be sure to protect yourself from buyers who are reaching too high — don't be shy about asking for financial information," Weber warns.

Above all Weber cautions, "If you are inexperienced or hesitant about negotiating, selling your home is not the time to practice. Homeowners must be patient when marketing a property, and that is often the hardest part of the job. Many homes start out as FSBOs and wind up being sold by a real estate agent."

As a convenience to the buyer, monthly payments are included in our ads
For purchase prices up to $253,937, monthly mortgage payments (principal+interest) quoted in our ads are to qualified buyers, based upon a 20% downpayment and a conventional 30-year fixed rate loan at 8.5% with 3 points. A.P.R. 8.533%. As an example, a $100,000 loan with 20% down payment of $20,000. For purchase prices from $253,938 to $500,000, the monthly payments are to qualified buyers based upon a 20% downpayment and calculated at 8.75% with 3 points on a "Jumbo" 30-year fixed rate mortgage with an A.P.R. of 9.066%. An example of a $500,000 loan would mean 360 monthly payments of $3,933.50. Figures herein are approximate and do not include property taxes, hazard insurance, or homeowners association dues for a condominium purchase. Interest rates quoted are as of March 1, 1995, and subject to change. Not responsible for typographical errors; while information is believed accurate, we request that the payment be validated with a mortgage provider prior to purchase.

Dodge to introduce the bold and stunning 1995 Stratus

In the last three years, Dodge has developed a clear, recognizable performance image in America. Today, every Dodge car, truck and minivan enjoys a defined personality built on performance, striking design, and most of all, outstanding value.

Not only has this new image resulted in record sales and increased brand loyalty but, additionally, Dodge is now a real "conquest" brand attracting buyers from other domestic and import brands many would have thought impossible just a few years ago.

Viper was introduced in 1992, Intrepid in 1993, the Ram pickup in 1994, Neon sedan and coupe in 1994½, the Avenger and Stratus in 1995, and the new Caravan is coming this spring.

Stratus will compete in the compact and lower-midsize market, completing the sedan lineup between the Neon and Intrepid. It was developed to appeal primarily to 30+ year-old boomers with dual household incomes of $40,000 to $60,000.

Stratus distinguishes itself from its competition as an aggressively-styled sedan that offers class-leading room and many standard comfort and safety features, all in a package that provides outstanding value.

Available in two models, Stratus offers a choice of three powertrains: a 2.0-liter, 16-valve SOHC four-cylinder engine mated to a five-speed manual transaxle; a 2.4-liter, 16-valve DOHC four-cylinder engine mated to a fully-adaptive four-speed electronic transaxle.

Stratus is available starting at $14,500, including destination. Standard features include air conditioning, AM/FM cassette radio, electronic speed control, tilt column, rear defroster and convenience features such as full-folding rear seats, the largest trunk, 15.7 cubic feet in its class with lockable pass-through, numerous storage compartments in both front and rear seats as well as cup-and-juice-holders.

Standard safety features include dual airbags, side-impact protection, height adjustable shoulder seat belts. Anti-lock brakes, standard on ES, and integrated child safety seat are available.

In keeping with the Dodge brand image of affordable performance, the all-new 1995 Dodge Stratus start at $14,500 including destination. The Stratus lineup includes a broad selection of packages available in two trim levels and a choice of three powertrains: a 2.0-liter, 16-valve SOHC four-cylinder engine mated to a five-speed manual transaxle; a 2.4-liter, 16-valve DOHC four-cylinder engine mated to a fully-adaptive, four-speed electronic transaxle; and a 2.5-liter, 24-valve V-6 SOHC engine also mated to a fully-adaptive four-speed electronic transaxle.

The Stratus is a sporty sedan that offers aggressive styling, class-leading interior room and many standard comfort and safety features in a package that provides outstanding value to customers shopping in the compact and lower-midsize segments.

Standard equipment on the $14,500 model includes a 2.0 liter, 16-valve SOHC four-cylinder engine, five-speed manual transmission and fully independent modified double-wishbone suspension, driver and passenger air bags, air conditioning, AM/FM radio with cassette, tilt steering column, electronic speed control, electric rear window defroster, full-folding rear seat, remote trunk release, floor mats and tinted glass.

Available safety and security equipment includes anti-lock brakes, integrated child safety seat, personal security group, and vehicle theft alarm.

The Stratus also offers a 2.4-liter, 16-valve four-cylinder DOHC engine mated to a fully-adaptive, four-speed electronic transaxle, and will start at $15,666, including destination. Standard equipment on this model also includes fully independent modified double-wishbone suspension, driver and passenger air bags, air conditioning, AM/FM radio with cassette, tilt steering column, electronic speed control, electric rear window defroster, full-folding rear seat, a manual driver's seat height adjuster, remote trunk release, floor mats and tinted glass.

Stratus ES model comes equipped with a 2.0-liter, 16-valve SOHC four-cylinder engine with five-speed manual transmission for $16,100, including destination, or a 2.5-liter, 24-valve SOHC V-6 engine mated to a four-speed automatic transmission for $17,800, including destination. Standard equipment on the Stratus ES models include anti-lock brakes, variable assist speed-sensitive power steering, integrated fog lights, and 15-inch cast aluminum wheels with Michelin touring tires, sport-tuned suspension, power windows, locks and remote-heated mirrors, illuminated visor vanity mirrors, front reading lamps, grab handles and premium cloth seats with manual driver's seat height adjuster and adjustable driver lumbar.

Stratus distinguishes itself from its competition as an aggressively-styled sedan that offers class-leading room and many standard comfort and safety features, all in a package that provides outstanding value.

Automobile operating cost rose 1.8 cents in 1995

The average cost of owning and operating a new vehicle rose 1.8 cents to 41.2 mile this year, according to the AAA New Jersey Automobile Club.

The 1995 edition of AAA's "Your Driving Costs" pamphlet reports increases in vehicle depreciation costs and higher finance charges on new car loans accounted for much of the rise. Fuel, oil and maintenance rose only slightly, helping limit the increase.

Motorists can expect to pay $6,185 in 1995 to own and operate a vehicle, an increase of $269, or 4.5 percent from 1994.

AAA's cost estimates are based on computations made by Runzheimer International of Rochester, Wisconsin, a management consulting firm specializing in transportation, travel and living costs.

AAA's "Your Driving Costs" show average expenses vary from a year ago as follows:

- Depreciation increased $133 from $2,940 to $3,073.
- Finance charges on vehicle loans rose $38 to $686.
- Fuel and oil prices were up .2 cent to 5.8 cents per mile, a $30 per year increase.
- Total insurance costs increased $14 from $769 to $783.
- Taxes, license fees and registration costs were up $9, from $194 to $203.
- Tire expenses increased .2 cent

Always keep the car shined

Keeping your car looking nice does more than make you feel good it helps your wallet as well. A well maintained vehicle may be worth twice as much as a neglected one at trade-in time.

Dealers like a car that requires minimum repairs before being put on the market. One of the first places an appraiser will look, for example, is under the floor mats to check the condition of the carpeting. Take care of the interior fabrics. And, to prevent rust, repair minor dings and scratches as soon as possible.

At an average price of more than $18,000, today's cars represent a major expenditure for most families, an investment which deserves better care than most vehicles ever receive.

Make a special effort to protect that investment. It will pay off not only at trade-in time but during the years you're enjoying your vehicle.

Motorists can expect to pay $6,185 in 1995 to own and operate a vehicle, an increase of $269, or 4.5 percent from 1994.

per mile to 1.2 cents, an annual increase of $30.

AAA's cost figures are based on a composite national average of three domestically built 1995 cars — a sub-compact Ford Escort LX, a mid-size Ford Taurus GL and a full-size Chevrolet Caprice.

These similarly equipped vehicles included air conditioning, an automatic transmission, power steering, AM/FM stereo, driver side air bag, anti-lock brakes, cruise control, tilt steering wheel, tinted glass and a rear-window defogger. The cost estimates are based on a four-year/60,000-mile ownership period.

"Your Driving Costs" also includes ownership and operating information based on a Ford Ranger XL pickup truck and Dodge Caravan. These vehicles were not used in calculating the national average but were included in the publication to help buyers estimate ownership and operating costs for these type vehicles.

"Your Driving Costs" is available from the AAA New Jersey Automobile Club. To obtain a free copy, visit the Club's office at 1 Hanover Road in Florham Park; 711 Route 10 East in Randolph; 191 Mountain Avenue in Springfield; or 155 Pompton Avenue in Verona. Or send a self-addressed, stamped, business-size envelope to: Your Driving Costs, AAA Safety Department, 1 Hanover Road, Florham Park, NJ 07932.

How to tell when to get rid of the lemon

How do you know when it's time to get rid of your used car? Many people pour hundreds, even thousands, of dollars into their car before realizing they've spent too much to keep it running. The National Kidney Foundation of New York/New Jersey, which spearheads a unique Car Contribution Campaign, offers these guidelines which may help to determine if your used car isn't worth the time, effort or expenses:

- It's time to start thinking about getting rid of your car if:
 - Repair bills each month are greater than paying for a new car.
 - The car has spent more time in the shop than on the road in past months.

- The dealer trade-in amount is extremely low.
- The car has more than 100,000 miles, which greatly lowers the resale value.
- The car has not been driven in more than six months or does not presently run.
- You are having trouble finding a buyer for your car.

If you would like to free yourself from the hassles of keeping up an unwanted used car, the National Kidney Foundation of New York/New Jersey will take that car off your hands for free. By donating your car to the Foundation, you may qualify for a tax deduction for the fair market value of the car, and at the same time, cut the high costs of maintaining an unwanted car.

Through car donations, participants also help save lives by driving down the incidence of kidney, hypertensive and urological diseases. The National Kidney Foundation of NY/NJ will arrange to conveniently transport your car, 1980 or newer, for no charge and send you a letter acknowledging your charitable donation.

For more information on how you may donate a used car, call the National Kidney Foundation of NJ/ NJ at 1-800-63-DONATE.

Land Rover models available in the U.S.

(NAPS)—The launch of a completely new flagship model, the Range Rover 4.0 SE is just a continuation of the ambitious new product strategy and sweeping growth of Land Rover sales in North America. Taking the place of the discontinued Range Rover County LWB model, the all-new Range Rover 4.0 SE is the first clean-sheet redesign of the legendary Range Rover in the vehicle's twenty-five year history.

The launch of the new vehicle follows on the successful introduction last spring of the Land Rover Discovery family 4x4 which has led the company to more than double its sales in 1994.

The new Range Rover 4.0 SE and Discovery are joined by the 1995 Range Rover County Classic, marking the return of the original 100-inch wheelbase model and the note entry and air suspension.

Discovery—Debuted in April 1994 with the most advanced safety package available in a compact sports utility vehicle. In addition to standard four-channel, four-wheel all-terrain anti-lock brakes (ABS), Discovery has driver- and passenger-side airbags and side door impact beams as standard equipment. A triple prestigious award winner, Discovery has won Popular Science, Automobile Magazine and Four Wheeler Magazine awards.

Range Rover County Classic—First introduced in 1970, the Range Rover has earned a loyal legion of devotees around the world. Marking the return of the 100-inch wheelbase, the County Classic has a 182-horsepower, 3.9 liter V-8 continuation of the time-honored Range Rover Design. The open-air Land Rover Defender 90, Four Wheeler magazine's "1994 Four Wheeler of the Year" also returns for 1995 trim revisions and new top options. Here's how the four models stack up:

The 1995 Range Rover 4.0 SE

Range Rover 4.0 SE—Taking over as the flagship of the Land Rover line, the Range Rover 4.0 SE is the result of a $500 million investment program to develop the world's most advanced dual purpose vehicle. It builds on the concept of the original Range Rover to not only surpass that vehicle's renowned off-road capability, but to also provide superior on-road ride and handling characteristics. Standard features include dual air bags, climate control, keyless re-engine with the latest electronic engine management systems.

Defender 90—Continues as the only open-air V-8 powered sport utility available in the U.S. Defender 90 is now available with an optional dealer-installed glass reinforced plastic GRP hardtop for added security and comfort. An all-new R380 five-speed manual transmission was added mid-year.

Beware of corroded battery connections

Among the most common reasons for a car not to start is... no, not a dead battery — but corroded battery connections. But the symptoms are just like a dead battery — the groan or a click-click that tells you you're in trouble.

It's a good idea, occasionally, to have the battery terminals removed and cleaned as a preventive measure.

Cold weather is tough on batteries. A battery that puts out its full power at 80 degrees F is down to less than half power when the thermometer dips to zero! And that, unfortunately, is when the engine needs the most starting power.

If your car needs a jump start, be sure to attach the booster cables correctly. Here's how: Connect corresponding terminals of the two batteries, positive (+) to positive and ground (-) to ground, or negative. That final ground connection on the disabled vehicle, however, should be onto the engine block or frame. This way sparks are kept at a safe distance from the explosive hydrogen gas that emits from the battery.

Learn about mental illness

Mental illness is no one's fault, least of all those afflicted with it. It is a serious medical illness that affects one in four families — afflicting 35 million Americans from all walks of life. Recognizing the warning signs and seeking treatment are the first steps to reducing fears, stress and confusion among family members effected by a loved one's mental illness — and to healing. For an informative booklet, write the American Mental Health Fund, P.O. Box 17700, Washington, D.C. 20041, or call toll-free 1-800-433-5959.
