WORRALL COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1995

SECTION B

From The Editor's Notebook. By Tom Canavan

Editor in Chief

What a difference a day makes. No sooner did I report last week that the Assembly passed bill A-1908 than the bill returned to the floor for another vote and was rejected.

That bill, a companion to Senate bill 7 and known as the State Mandate/State Pay bill, was defeated 52-12 June 29 in the Assembly.

The legislation is targeted to ease the financial burden on municipalities in 28 areas. One of those areas, on which I focused last week, was the portion of the bill that gives municipalities the option to publish legal notices in full or by title only. To allow municipalities to publish legal notices by title only is one major way of diminishing the public's right to know.

This portion of the bill is expected to save approximately $4 million per year, certainly a substantial amount of money in the Legislature's efforts to cut back on spending, but its adverse impact on open government will be felt by taxpayers and watchdog citizens for many years.

Couldn't the Republican majority, the party that refused to accept compromise and called for a vote on the original bill, have found another area to cut spending without damaging the public's right to

Shame on Republican Assembly members Maureen Ogden, Monroe Lustbader, Richard Bagger and Alan Augustine for voting against maintaining the public's right to know, and brave to Democratic Assembly members Neil Cohen and Joseph Suliga for thinking of their constituents and on behalf of the public. These are our six Union County representatives in the Assembly and the public should

An article in a recent edition of a North Jersey newspaper ended with officials - no one was mentioned specifically - claiming that a majority of the public is not interested in the legal notices and a majority do not read them. The "officials" probably were the Republicans who felt they had to find a way to justify their actions.

According to a survey-conducted by a firm on behalf of the National Newspaper Association, of 600 respondents, 85.2 percent said they feel local and state governments should be required to publish legal notices in newspapers on a regular basis. Only 3.3 percent said no, while 10.2 percent said they were not sure or did not know.

In the same survey, 21.8 percent said they usually read legal notices, 29.2 percent said they sometimes read legal notices, 28.5 percent said they seldom read legal notices, and 19.5 percent said they never read legal notices.

The survey included random selections from each Congressional District across the United States. The results contradict what the politicians in New Jersey think.

City of Elizabeth attorney Rocco DiPaola, from left, and Mayor J. Christian Bollwage accept a facsimile check from Union County Utilities Authority Chairwoman Blanche Banasiak and UCUA Executive Director Jeffrey Callahan. The funds were presented in accordance with a recent ruling by the state Department of Environmental Protection.

Elizabeth benefits as UCUA

Authority has paid the City of Elizabeth nearly $350,000 in additional host community fees related to the J&J Bulky Waste Recycling facility located on Front Street in Elizabeth.

The payment, which totals $349,646, comes as the result of a May 4 ruling by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection pertaining to the host community agreement between the UCUA and

"The authority has always been committed to fairly compensating Elizabeth for expenses associated with the J&J recycling facility," said

The Union County Utilities UCUA Chairman Blanche Banasiak. "We look forward to working with the city on other issues of mutual concern."

> Elizabeth was to be reimbursed $3 for every ton of material taken to the J&J facility for processing from the time operations commenced to the date of approval of the host agreement. The facility began operations in February. However, the DEP did not approve the host community agreement until last month and in the meantime ordered $2.50 for every top of waste disposed of held in escrow and 50 cents paid to the city. The check represents the funds held in escrow for the past 16 months.

The host community agreement between the UCUA and Elizabeth, which was approved by DEP, will now provide the city with $5 for every ton of materials delivered to the J&J facility up to 60,000 tons, $4 for every ton delivered between 60,001 and 120,000 tons, and $3 for every ton over 120,000 tons. Based on 1994 deliveries, the city will receive about $513,000 in host community fees during the next year. The fees will be paid to the city each month.

Tipping fees at J&J are $78.49 per ton for bulky waste and $90.49 per ton

County's 'criminals' aid in fight against cancer

It's not everyday that you get the opportunity to have your family, friends, co-workers and loved ones locked away. Well, the time has come!

On July 18, 19 and 20 the American Cancer Society, Union County Unit, will hold its annual Jail-A-Thon at the Union County Administration Building in Elizabeth. On those three days, be on the lookout for uniformed volunteer policemen. They will be traveling around Union County picking up "eriminals" who have been turned in by others.

Once arrested, "jailbirds" will be taken to a mock cell where they will come before the judge. Bail will be set, "mugshots" will be taken and then "arrestees" will be thrown into the slammer with bread, water and their See SOCIETY, Page B3

Motor tour Dimes way of preventing birth defects

The March of Dimes RideAmerica motorcycle tour for healthier babies returns to New Jersey on Aug. 27.

The third annual RideAmerica is an American Motorcycle Associationsanctioned event and a benefit motorcycle tour to raise money for the March of Dimes Campaign for Healthier Babies, a nationwide effort to reduce infant mortality and prevent birth defects.

More than 450 motorcycles and 600 people participated in RideAmerica in 1994, including more than 110 New Jersey motorcyclists.

A gathering storm of motorcyclists will thunder through the Garden State on Aug. 27 for the third annual March of Dimes RideAmerica motorcycle tour for healthier babies. RideAmerica is open to all motorcycle clubs, associations, brands and individuals.

Motorcyclists will leave from local staging areas in New Jersey and arrive in White Plains, N.Y., to join hundreds of motorcyclists from Connecticut and New York on a 50-mile scenic motorcycle tour to Croton Point Park in Westchester County for an afternoon of friendship, food, entertainment, a ride-in bike show, prizes and giveaways. The 1994 RideAmerica grand prize winner was Frank Zabriskie of Boonton Township in Morris has become a favorite American pastime: RideAmerica participants come from all walks of life and involve motorcycle enthusiasts, AMA clubs and individuals riding all brands of motorcycles. RideAmerica is an AMA-sanctioned points event. Among the New Jersey motorcycle clubs and organizations supporting RideAmerica are the AMA, Blue Knights, United A.B.A.T.E. of New Jersey, Spokes-Women M/C, and Wild PIGS M/C North Jersey Chapter.

In recent years, motorcycle touring

RideAmerica is a flat sponsorship event costing each motorcycle $30, but participants are asked to obtain sponsors to support the RideAmerica motorcycle tour for healthier babies. As motorcyclists raise more money, they become eligible for premiums such as a T-shirt, cap and sweatshirt. For every $125 a RideAmerica participant raises, he or she receives one chance to win round-trip airfare for two, to anywhere in the continental United States, compliments of American Airlines.

Money raised through RideAmeri ca helps the March of Dimes continue its work in research, education, advocacy and community programs. In addition, the March of Dimes North Jersey Chapter funds close to $100,000 in grants to local community programs. During the next 25 years, the March of Dimes" envisions an America where:

•, there is universal access to maternity and infant care;

• a pre-pregnancy visit is a routine part of prenatal care;

• intervensions exist to prevent low birthweight and prematurity;

• the American public is educated to make knowledgeable decisions about gene therapy; • there is a 75 percent reduction in smoking and consuming alcohol during pregnancy; and

• neural tube defects have virtually been climinated through daily consumption of 0.4 milligrams of folic

RideAmerica and New Jersey motorcyclists can help make that 25-year vision a reality. For more information or to register for the third annual March of Dimes RideAmerica motorcycle tour for healthier babies, call the March of Dimes RideAmerica hotline at (800) 244-9255 or call (201) 882-0700.

CAGE, TWEAK and MAST. ASAM and DSM-IV. These are not buzz words but bona fide tools designed to help substance abuse treatment professionals identify both a need for treatment and the level of treatment needed for their clients.

These and other clinical approaches to assessing and treating the substance abuser will be covered in a two-part seminar Practical Clinical Approachcs to Diagnosing and Treating Chemical Dependency to be given on Monday and Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Summer Institute for Alcohol and Drug Studies held at Union County College the week of July 10-14.

Presented by the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence of Union County, Inc., the course will be taught by Thomas J. Morgan of the Graduate School of Applied and Professional Psychology at Rutgers University, and will enable health care professionals to better offer appropriate treatment for their clients whose care is all too often dictated by the insurance industry's managed care

As a result of the bill, legal notices still will be published in newspapers. The difference is that they will be published by title only, leaving Joe Citizen to wonder about the details and, ultimately, what his elected officials in the municipal building are doing.

Also as a result of the bill, municipal budgets will be made available at local libraries for the public to see. No longer will the public be able to pick up the local newspaper to learn how their local leaders are spending their mone

Who will print the budget for library distribution and what will that cost be? How many attorneys will be hired to draft the "title only" summaries of legal notices? Town clerks couldn't do it. They probably would want to be as far away from the situation as they possibly can. What will the cost be then? It seems like our state leaders are trying to pull the proverbial wool over the taxpayers' eyes. We can conclude that money might be saved on the one hand by publishing legal notices by title only, but on the other hand, municipalities will be paying for lawyers to write the titles.

Officials will say the bill will save $4 million for the taxpayers, but they will not say that the annual costs to publish legal notices, in most cases, is less than 1 percent of a municipality's budget. That's inconsequential, compared to how much this will affect the taxpayers' right to know.

The issues surrounding managed care will be the focus of another Summer Institute course Managed Care: Moving Along the Contimium of Care in Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services to be held Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Taught by Patricia Clark-Stucky and Robin Cooper-Fleming, both of Green Spring of New Jersey in Parsippany, the course will highlight the realities of treatment within a managed care philosophy from both the patient and provider perspective and outline how providers can work effectively within this framework. #### Center training volunteers on how to deal with rape

The Union County Rape Crisis Center, located at 300 North Ave. East, Westfield, will hold its annual fall training for volunteers beginning Sept. 26. Individuals will receive 40 hours of training dealing with the areas of sexual assault, trauma reactions of survivors and family members, legal and medical aspects and related areas. Volunteers may also work on the Speakers Bureau or distribute information to the community.

The Rape Crisis Center is a program under the Division of Planning, Department of Human Services and was established in June 1984 to provide services to meet the needs of survivors of sexual assault in the county, according to Union County Freeholder Chairwoman Linda Di Giovanni.

Crisis intervention workers on the hotline also may provide emotional support or accompany a client to the hospital or through the court process; noted Union County Manager Ann Baran.

'The volunteers for the county's Rape Crisis Center do more than answer a phone," Baran said. "The emotional support they give to the victims of sexual assault has a value which is beyond measuring. I hope that we are fortunate in getting more volunteers of the caliber of the ones who are volunteering now."

The center provides services which include individual and group counseling, a 24-hour hotline, a speakers bureau, in-service training to hospital personnel, law enforcement and mental health professionals, consultation to professionals working with surviviors and information and referral. All services are free and confidential.

Individuals interested in becoming volunteers may contact the Rape Crisis Center from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. for an interview by calling (908) 233-7273. The next training dates are as follows: Sept. 26 and 28, Oct. 5, 10, 12, 17, 19, 24, 26 and 31, and Nov. 2, 9, 14 and 16.

Training sessions begin at 6:30 p.m. and end at 10 p.m.

Country music played at park

The Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders has announced the Tim Gillis Band will be performing at Country Western Night in Echo Lake Park, located in Mountainside, on Wednesday. The concert is presented by the Division of Parks and Recreation as part of its annual Summer Arts Festival concert series, and will begin at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free.

The Tim Gillis Band is New Jersey's most popular country music dance band. "This seven piece group features pedal steel, fiddle, guitar, bass, drums, keyboard as well as two extraordinarily talented female vocalists," Freeholder Chairwoman Linda DiGiovanni said. "This talented band consistently provides the best in country music.

"The Tim Gillis Band always attracts large numbers of people who love to dance to and enjoy country music," said County Manager Ann M. Baran

The band has entertained throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and the Caribbean. TGB was the first country music act to perform on the QE2 luxury cruise ship. It has also opened concert for such stars as the Charlie Daniels Band, Vince Gil, the Statler Brothers, Mickey Gilley and many others.

A dance floor, refreshment stand and county information booth are available at the concert site, but patrons must bring their own chairs or blankets to sit on. Echo Lake is located off Route 22 East.

In the event of rain, the concert will be at Cranford High School, West End Place, Cranford. Rain site information is available after 3 p.m. by calling the Parks Division Hotline. (908) 352-8410.

Lecture presented

John Copeland, professor emeritus of philosophy at Drew University, will address the topic "Getting Shows for Your Photography in Galleries and Other Spaces," on July 22 from 3-5 p.m. at the Watchung Arts Center, 18 Stirling Road, Watchung. The lecture is jointly sponsored by the New Jersey Photography Forum and the center's visual arts committee. Reservations are recommended due to limited space and can be made by calling the center at (908) 753-0190 or by mailing a check made out to the Watchung Arts Center. The fee is $10 per person, $8 for Watchung Arts Center members.

Since 1973, Copeland has been the director and curator of the Drew University Photography Gallery, the third oldest photography gallery in the nation. He has an extensive background in photography as a student, teacher, historian and lecturer. His presentation will cover: preparation of your portfolio, what comprises exhibition-quality work, getting to know the galleries, alternate spaces for exhibition, tips for the interview, contracts and publicity. He will conclude his presentation with a question and answer period.

This is the second in a series of lectures on the Visual Arts at the Watchung Arts Center this year. The New Jersey Photography Forum is having this lecture in conjunction with a group photography exhibit by forum participants during the month of July at the center.

NJCVA hosts exhibit

Martin Lasker's two-dimensional and three-dimensional forms, in which shaped and arranged panels are used as the surface for acrylic paintings, are currently on exhibition in the Members Gallery of the New Jersey Center for Visual Arts, 68 Elm St., Summit.

Lasker, who lives in Edison, is a designer of architectural lighting products. When he found himself having difficulty finding suitable pieces of art for the unusual dimensions of his home in the Berkshires, it occurred to him that he should try to create the pieces himself. Lasker said out of that process he has created artworks involving "a number of separate, sculpturally contoured painting surfaces connected in an overall spatial design." The work on display at the art center covers almost the full period of his exploration of this form. Each piece is a study of some idea or application, and they range in style from figura-

The exhibition is on display until July 21. The Members Gallery is open, free to the public, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday-Friday; 7-10 p.m., Monday-Thursday; 9 a.m.-4 p.m., Saturday; and noon to 4 p.m., Sunday.

County seniors sought for juried art contest

The Union County Department of Human Services, Division on Aging, and the Division of Parks and Recreation, Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, invite all senior citizen artists to enter the 1995 Union County Senior Citizen Juried Art Contest and Exhibition.

Full information is on the application forms available from the Union County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, 633 Pearl St., Elizabeth 07202, (908) 558-2550; relay service users should call (800) 852-7899. As space may be limited, artists wishing to participate should return their application forms as quickly as possible.

Artists must be at least 60 years old and may submit one entry, which has been completed within the last three years. All work must be the original creation of the artist. Framed work may be no wider than 36-inches and no narrower than 12-inches and must be ready to hang, properly wired and framed. Sculptures may not exceed 14-inches in height, width or depth.

Freeholder Linda-Lee Kelly, liaison to the cultural and heritage programs advisory board, said that both professional and nonprofessional artists may enter the contest. She said, "The whole community is enriched by the contributions of our senior artists. I hope many county residents will see and enjoy the quality of work displayed at the senior art

The following are categories of eligible work: oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastel, print, drawing, photography, mixed media and sculpture.

There will be prizes for professional and non-professional entries. People claiming non-professional status must not have sold the types of art entered in the contest/exhibitio through commercial channels; exhibited in a professional gallery; or ever had membership in a professional artist guild.

People claiming professional status are those who have sold the type of art entered in the contest/exhibition commercially; exhibited professionally; or held membership in a professional artist guild or association.

In response to requests from local art show coordinators, an additional category has been added for paintings which depict a New Jersey scene or theme. Each county may submit one painting in this category, which will not be judged.

The winner in each category will represent Union County at the 29th annual New Jersey Senior Citizen Art Competition in September at Monmouth County Library Headquarters, Manalapan. Selected works from the county show will hang in the Freeholders Meeting Room during August.

Art sale benefits charities

A spring evening was the countryside setting for the showing of artist Clair Martin's decoupage collection in residence at F. Gerald New, located on Mount Kemble Avenue in Morristown. Whimsical, colorful and many one-of-a-kind plates and accessories were displayed for the more than 100 guests who attended this premier showing. The Jaeckle family welcomed the clientele who dropped by to browse and visit with friends.

Twenty percent of all purchases made that evening were donated by the family in honor of two of their favorite charities: ChemoCare of Westfield and Happiness Unlimited of Union. Bringing hope and joy to cancer patients and their loved ones is the common mission of both these organizations. Clinical research has shown the emotional aspects of the cancer experience are just as profound as the disease itself. ChemoCare and Happiness Unlimited provide a meaningful service to address this emotional dimension during the cancer experience.

ChemoCare offers one-to-one emotional support to people undergoing chemotherapy and radiation treatment. The ChemoCare volunteer has undergone the treatment themselves and understands the fears and concerns patients encounter. As a result, more patients stay with their treatment and win their fight against cancer. ChemoCare serves patients locally as well as nationwide with its (800) 55-CHEMO number.

Happiness Unlimited helps patients alleviate some of the stress and emotional pain of cancer by providing a joyful experience which patients can share with family. Believed to be the nation's first wish fulfillment program for adults, Happiness Unlimited serves the patients of Union, Morristown Memorial, Overlook and Saint Barnabas hospitals by granting a variety of wishes to those who could not otherwise obtain them.

ChemoCare founder Diane Byrnes and Happiness Unlimited co-founders Leigh Porges and Ann DeLaney share a mutual concern that positive emotional input during the cancer experience is as vital to a patient's recovery as is the , medical input. They are committed to providing that positive emotional environment with compassion and concern.

For more information on these organizations, call ChemoCare at (908) 233-1103 in Westfield. Happiness Unlimited can be contacted at Union Hospital Foundation at (908) 687-1900, ext. 2020.

ARIES - March 21/April 20 You may have to sit back and watch a loved one make a mistake. Even if you get the chance to intervene. (s)he probably won't listen to reason. But don't worry. Learning from experience can be the best lesson of all. Even if you're tempted, refrain from saying, "I told you so."

TAURUS - April 21/May 21 Don't let jealous feelings get in the way of an important friendship. Just be patient, and your time will come. You may be forced to make a tough decision towards the end of the week. Stay strong. Don't let others nfluence you. You'll know what the right choice is.

GEMINI – May 22/June 21 Being in the right place at the right time has its advantages. You'll find out why later in the week. An unusual dream will stay with you through the week. Try to figure out its hidden meaning — you could learn some-thing about yourself. Get in touch with old friends.

CANCER – June 22/July 22 A week with unlimited potential. An opportunity to benefit your future may come your way, but it may not be so obvious at first. Use your keen sense of perception to read between the lines. A friend who has been going through a tough time wil finally have some good news.

LEO – July 23/August 23

Work may take up most of your time this week and you may feel as if you have no control. Take heart, your load will lighten as the week progresses. When it finally is time to come home, try not to take frustrations out on loved ones. Use exercise as a way to relieve stress.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22 It's not a bad thing to admit you're wrong. In fact, it could even make you look good. Although pride is an admirable trait, sometimes it can be detrimental. The workplace is not the appropriate environment for your sareastic humor — especially this week. Curb spending when possible.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

The insensitivity of a loved one should not be taken to heart. Shrug it off as those in bad moods may not have your feelings in mind. Try to be more independent and stand up for what you believe in. For single Librans, this week could mark the start of a new romance. Be on the lookout for mysterious Scorpios:

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22 Be realistic when setting deadlines on important projects. Be sure to give yourself enough time. And remember to plan for unforeseen delays as well. Don't be afraid to seek the advice of someone more experienced. A lost object will show up in an unusual

SAGITTARIUS - Nov. 23/Dec 21 Don't count on luck to gef you through a tough period. It will take work and ingenuity this time. Do not leave anything to fate this week. An ironic situation will put you in a reflective state of mind later in the week. You may be inspired to do something unusually daring.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20 Before you blame others for your frustrations, you should take a closer look at your current situation. You may find that you are the one who is holding you back. If you want to get ahead, it will take action on your part. If you really, really want something, you'll have to try harder.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18 A conflict between work responsibilities and home responsibilities will put you in a tough spot. If you think creatively, however, you are likely to find a suitable compromise. This is not the week to make large investments. You should keep a lid on spending overall.

PISCES - Feb 19/March 20 A loved one, friend or work associate will come to you for advice and consolation. Kindness on this day will be remembered. If you're in a relationship with a Virgo, things could be rocky this week. Keep a positive attitude for this is just a temporary situ-

A year of learning and growth. If you are a student, you will finally figure out the career path you want to take. If you already are established, an interesting opportunity will come your way. Whichever it is, you will he happier and have a clearer direction of what you want to do. Single Cancers may be longing for love but will only find it when they stop trying so hard. # Dining Review July 6,1995.

By Mark Devaney Staff Writer

Chinese restaurants have long, been successful in America. The reasons are obvious, unique, great tasting dishes, excellent service and reasonable prices. It would be hard to improve on this arrangement, but Ocean Buffet at 1181 Morris Avenue, Union, has done just that. As the title implies, you can eat Chinese food buffet style, which is just what typical American diners want - fabulous food whenever they can get it and as much as they can get. Indeed, holding an empty plate while perusing Ocean Buffet's treats requires a strategy, there are almost too many tantalizing choices. Also, you must be careful not to fill up too much, because, like at a picnic, if you load up too fast, you won't be able to move too

All the traditional favorites are a spoonful away: wonton soup, fried dumplings, Singapore mei fun, pepper steak with onion, tofu with oyster sauce, chicken with broccoli, Chinese-styled meatballs, seafood with bean curd, sweet and sour chicken, lo mein, ho shi chicken, chicken egg foo young, Szechuan chicken and beef, Hunan chicken and beef and sushi.

My favorites were General Tso's chicken and stuffed flounder, both of which seemed to keep appearing on each of my three plates. But getting to three plates is more a matter of planning than appetite, although you should go to Ocean Buffet hungry because you won't leave that

Here are some of the other items you'll find on the buffet: eight varictics of salads, eight types of soups, scallion pancakes, fried scallops, lemon cake, fried chicken, glazed carrots, string beans in garlic sauce, mussels and the hugely popular steamed peal and eat shrimp, which, for some, could be worth the price of admission alone.

As for that price of admission, $7.95 for dinner and $4.95 for lunch makes the Ocean Buffet a bargain that might bust your belly but won't bust your wallet.

And to top it off, you can fill up with fortune cookies, carrot cake or ice cream' - you operate the machine yourself!

Additionally, if you prefer ala carte, Ocean Buffet has an enticing menu, particularly its list of chef's suggestions: prime rib of beef angus, poached or boiled salmon, sirloin steak with mushroom caps and onion rings, chicken marsala, twin lobster tails, and shrimp scampi with rice. Each item is served with a baked potato, vegetable, salad and soup of the day, and the prices are all lower than $10.95, except the lobster which is still affordable at $16.95.

Ocean Buffet also features an extensive lunch menu and full takeout services.

Finally, tucked in the heart of the restaurant is a full bar where you can sample anything from a pina colada to Tsing-tao. Chinese beer. All in all you cannot go wrong if you make a trip to Ocean Buffet, a place where top quality Chinese fare awaits you and your appetite.

Ocean Buffet is open daily Sunday through Thursday from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Friday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Baby-sitters given tips on how to prevent burn injuries

"Last year, 2 million people in the United States suffered burn injuries. Seventy thousand of those were hospitalized and 6,000 died."

The statistics are staggering, but at a recent seminar sponsored by The Burn Center at Saint Barnabas, 58 women and children — all interested in baby-sitting learned that 50 percent of all burn injuries are preventable. "It is critically important to teach people, especially individuals who are entrusted with the care of our children, about burn safety and prevention," said Kathe Conlon, R.N., burn educator for The Burn Center at Saint Barnabas. The three-hour baby-sitter safety seminar, which was sponsored by the Aluminum Cans for Burned Children program and the Saint Barnabas Burn Foundation, was at Saint Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston. Topics for the day included the basics of burn prevention, first aid and personal safety.

In addition to Conlon, speakers for the program included Karen Jones, R.N., clinical director of the Department of Emergency Medicine at Saint Barnabas, Maplewood Police Officer Paul Conlon and Livingston Police Sgt. Jeff

"Our message to everyone who attended was simple: the more information you have, the safer the environment you can offer to children who are in your care," Conlon said. During the seminar, baby-sitters received the following burn safety tips:. • Never drink a hot beverage while holding a child. Coffee, tea and soup can be hot enough to cause a scald burn. In fact, scalds are the most common way children under the age of four are burned.

◆ Set the thermostat on your hot water heater at a maximum of 120 degrees. Bath water at 125 degrees or more can cause a serious burn. At 125 degrees, it takes only five seconds to get a burn; at 130 degrees it takes only one

• The kitchen is the most dangerous room in the home. When cooking, use the back burners on the stove and turn all pot handles inward. Do not allow young children to play in the kitchen or near the stove.

• Plan and practice a fire escape route. This is especially important for baby-sitters who are in an unfamiliar home; because in the event of a fire, you will only have one and a half minutes to get out of the house.

• Install smoke detectors. Remember, the smell of smoke will not wake you. • The first few minutes after a burn injury are crucial to the eventual healing of the wound and the recovery of the victim. For all burns, stop the burning process. Stop, drop and roll to extinguish the flames. Flush with cool water. Never use ice, butter, petroleum jelly, Vitamin E or any other medical ointment on a burn. Instead, call The Burn Center at Saint Barnabas at (201) 533-5920 or your physician for follow-up care. For more information about burn safety and prevention, contact The Burn Center at Saint Barnabas at (201) 533-8071.

'Flat tax' would hit the middle class hardest

The elimination of real estate taxes and mortgage interest deductions as outlined in the "flat tax" proposals on Capitol Hill would cause existing home prices in New Jersey to fall nearly 20 percent overnight, according to a survey commissioned by the New Jersey Association of Realtors. The DRI/McGraw-Hill survey also found existing home sales falling 17 percent in 1996 and 12 percent in 1997. In relation to New Jersey households, the survey found it very likely the middle class would be hardest hit, facing higher taxes as they would see the value of their homes decline, leaving maps with no equity and no investment vehicle for the future.

"Besides its impact on real estate and household wealth, a flat tax would affect the relative burden on households across the state differentially. Exactly who the winners and losers would be is a complex issue," said Robert L. Kinniebrew, NJAR president-elect and broker owner of Century 21 Candid Realty in Willingboro. "Typically, middle-class New Jerseyans rely heavily on their deductions, namely mortgage interest, and do not have the interest and dividend income exempt under the flat tax proposals. Therefore, it would appear, the middle class would be the hardest hit."

The survey cited New Jersey as having the second highest household income in the nation and among the highest average home mortgages. In addition, New Jersey residents enjoy deductions higher than the national average -- 16.4 percent of adjusted gross income compared with a U.S. average of 13.8 percent. As a result, the impact of a flat tax on New Jersey's real estate sector and resident's household wealth will be negative.

Fair housing discussed

Judy Lewis, a broker associate in Somerset County Board of Realtors Burgdorff, Realtor's Warren office, and Burgdorff, Realtors. addressed fair housing issues as a panel member at the New Jersey Association of Realtors' Equal Opportunity Committee meeting.

Co-sponsored by NJAR and the Camden County Association of Realtors, the semi-annual event was in Mount Laurel, Lewis and the panel fielded questions on such fair housing issues as Realtor rights, the American Disabilities Act and various forms of discrimination.

Lewis has been a NJAR Equal Opportunity Committee member and the Somerset County Board of Realtors Equal Opportunity Committee chair for three years. More than 100 Realtors from throughout the state attended the meeting and U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Chief Administrative Law Judge Alan Heiftz was guest speaker.

"The Equal Opportunity Committee's role is to create programs and disseminate information to Realtors and the public on fair housing issues," said Lewis. Lewis works within the guidelines of the Voluntary Affirmative Marketing Agreement, a code by which Realtors voluntarily agree to acquaint the community with the availability of equal housing opportunity. She has led programs at the

"Eliminating the deductibility of mortgage interest would not only raise our residents' taxes but would sharply increase the net mortgage payments for current homeowners, making it impossible for some to afford their homes," said Kinniebrew. "Simplifying the tax code to a post-card type return is an attractive concept, however the aftermath of such simplicity to taxpayers and the economy is far too harmful."

Rep. Richard Armey, a chief proponent and author of the flat tax proposal the study is based on - "The Freedom and Fairness Restoration Act," is calling on shifting the United States from the current system of income taxation to the equivalent of a value-added tax. The proposed tax is popularly referred to as a "flat tax" because the net income streams defined as the tax base for any business or individual would be subject to a single tax rate regardless of the magnitude of that income.

The introduction of a flat tax system, presumably in 1996, would significantly alter economic activity in New Jersey and the United States. Near term the survey found, the balance of tax burdens would shift slightly from businesses to households. The residential real estate sector would experience an immediate and permanent drop in pre-tax home values.

"The flat tax would remove all government incentives for owner-occupied single family houses. Interest and property taxes would not be deductible, thus the after-tax cost of housing would rise," said Kinhiebriew. "Another item for

Driving in middle of the day is not always safe

4 p.m.? Your biological clock is programmed to make you feel sleepy in the middle of the afternoon making this a dangerous time to drive.

The New Jersey Automobile Club Foundation for Safety encourages you to take the "sleep" quiz to determine if you have any misconceptions about

Answer true or false to these seven sleep statements:

1. Coffee overcomes the effects of drowsiness while driving.

2. I can tell when I'm going to go to sleep.

3. I'm a safe driver so it doesn't matter if I'm sleepy.

4. I can't take naps. 5. I get plenty of sleep.

6. Being sleepy makes you misperceive things.

7. Young people need less sleep. 1. False, Coffee does not overcome effects of drowsiness while driving. Stimulants are no substitute for sleep. Drinks containing casseine, such ascoffee or cola can help you feel more alert, but the effects last only for a short time. If you drink coffee and are to seriously slee-deprived, you're still likely to have "micro-sleeps" — brief naps that last around four or five seconds. If you're driving at 55 miles per hour, that means you'll travel more than 100 yards.

2. False. Nearly four-fifths of people said they could predict when they're about to fall asleep. Wrong! The truth is, sleep is not voluntary. If you're drowsy, you can fall asleep and never even know it. You also can't tell how long you've been asleep. When you're driving, being asleep for even a few seconds can kill you or someone else.

-3. False: The only safe driver is an alert driver. Even the safest drivers become confused and use poor judgement when they're sleepy. To be a safe driver, you must have your eyes open and that means staying off the road when you're sleepy. 4. False. Many people insist they can't nap. Yet even people who say they aren't tired will quickly fall

Did you know that from fatigue-related collisions of the twen 1 and haven't been getting enough sleep. If you think you can't nap, stop the car and recline for 15 minutes anyway. You may be surprised at how easily you fall asleep once you give yourself the chance. Also remember to plan your route so you can take advantage of a well-lit rest or truck stop on heavily traveled roads. If you do stop, always lock your doors and roll up the > windows. 5. False. The average person needs seven or eight hours of sleep a night. if you go to bed late and wake up carly to an alarm clock, you probably are building up a sleep debt during the week. Re-arrange your schedule so you get enough sleep during the week.

> 6. True. Being sleepy makes you misperceive things. Have you ever driven at night and seen something in the road that you thought was an animal but turned out to be a paper bag or leaves? A drowsy driver doesn't process information as fast or as accurately as an alert driver and is unable to react quickly enough to avoid a

7. False. In fact, teenager and young adults need more sleep than people in their 30s. Teenagers and young adults who get up early tend to feel alert in the evening. The problem is, the temporary alertness wears off later, and they can end up driving home drowsy.

To be a safe driver, become aware of your own biological clock. What times of day do you feel most alert? What times do you feel most drowsy? Once you're aware of your personal cycle, take extra care when you're likely to feel sleepy.

Volker Harhaus, GM Powertrain Group's chief engineer for truck engine controls, set a clear goal for the 1996 model year. "We agree to concentrate our improvement in four areas - performance, pleasability, enhanced maintenance and emissions compliance. That's what our customers told us they wanted. The challenge was to deliver in all areas—not in one or two at the expense of others. Pictured is the Vortec 5000 V8 engine.

GM gets own to business with '96 Vortec engines

Want to have your cake and eat it. 1007 GM truck buyers will get just that, thanks to significant upgrades to the 1996 family of Venter engines.

Customers told GM they wanted more from their trucks-more power. more car-like feel, more miles without service and better feel economy. That provided Powertrain engineers with a pretty sizable list of things to work on for 1996. But where to begin? Instead of wasting time discussing what they could and couldn't do, engineers decided, "Let's do it all!"

Volker Harhaus, GM Powertrain Group's chief engineer for truck engine controls, set a clear goal for the 1996 model year. "We agree to concentrate our improvement in four areas — performance, pleasability, enhanced maintenance and emissions compliance. That's what our customers told us they wanted. The challenge was to deliver in all areas—not in one or two at the expense of others.

And what a big challenge it was. Powertrain engineers adhered to a "no traie-offs" philosophy. That meant meeting all the targets, not, for example, making gains in power if fuel economy suffered. Engineers employed a number of new technologies, utilized new materials and designs, and achieved the goal, GMTs 5.6L1 5.7L and 7.4L engines each boast higher horsepower and torque numbers for 1996, while at the same providing a quieter, smoother nide: complying with new stricter emissions requirements; and going longer and farther without servicing needs - and all on less fuel.

"To make these improvements, we employed many of the same technolozies used in our popular 4.3L V6 Vortee engine," said Harhaus, "Our V8 truck buyers will now be able to experience the same types of gains in power, fuel economy and ride."
