REGIONALOGUE 1978

Jonathan Dayton Regional High School
Springfield, New Jersey 07081

"Lives of great men remind
us
We can live our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind
us
Footprints on the sands of time."

— Longfellow

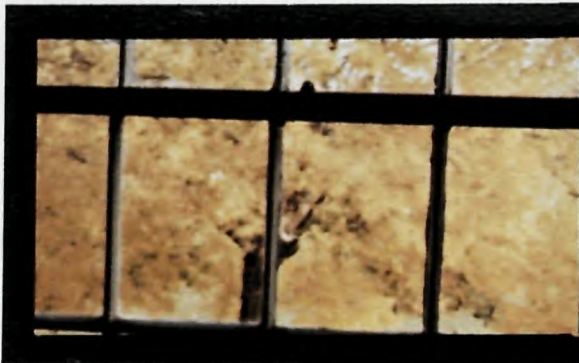

It is in this light that we, the Class of 1978, remember Mr. Fiordaliso, whose devotion shined throughout everything he did. From the beginning of our high school years he was our principal, our representative, our friend. He rejoiced with us when our accomplishments were great, understood when we failed, and gave us the strength to continue when all hope seemed lost. It is because of his genuine interest in the students, his warm and gentle way of working for us and with us, that we wish to dedicate our Regionologue to Mr. Anthony Fiordaliso.

I am my own person,
learning from the past,
living for today and
reaching for the future.

I take with me a knowledge two-fold:
the friends and beliefs I have acquired
along the way
and a sense of my own importance.
There are many things ahead of me
... "and I can't help but wonder where I'm bound."

On many occasions have I spent
precious hours with special people;
living, learning and laughing —

and now I must go on my way,
left only with the memories of happy times and the hope that my friends will always be there, no matter how far separated we may become.

LIPOLA & RAYMOND
ST. L. NEWIS
F. BROWN
WEST 79

In future years to come, as I look back upon my memories of this special Halloween, I will recall, in a pleasant light, times spent laughing.

If we could only cherish the times as they are and remember, with a smile, the things of the past, then perhaps we could confidently approach all that the future holds for us, without reservation.

Many thoughts cloud my mind
as I search for
the realization of my dreams.

From here I go on,
from here I shall see,
just exactly what life has
to offer.

Friends

As you prepare to depart from Jonathan Dayton and go your separate ways, I am certain it is with mixed emotions — from a feeling of excitement and eagerness to confront the future to one of reluctance at leaving that which is safe and familiar to you.

These years have been enjoyable ones, but they have also been ones filled with learning and preparation for what is to come. I hope that you have gained much that will benefit you the rest of your lives.

Wherever you go, whatever you do, I feel confident that you are ready to meet the future.

My best wishes go with you.

Our Math teachers have spoken to us in . . . lines and shapes . . . numbers and equations . . . theorems and proofs . . . but that's not all. They have shown us the art of inquisition, the way of questioning a problem in order to find a correct answer — and this is the basic method for learning.

From Great Expectations to Crime and Punishment our English teachers have guided us carefully. They have given us insight into the complexities of literature where we could find none. Our knowledge of the works of well-known writers, the classics that speak to mankind, is great — yet we haven't learned it all. If it weren't for our teachers, though, we wouldn't have come as far and that's what makes them so special. Our English teachers; "They know not where their influence stops."

We have learned the "facts" as well as the realities. Our teachers have tried to show us an unbiased account of the psychological and sociological factors which influence humanity, from the signing of the Declaration of Independence to the present day. Were it not for our historical knowledge, we might not have any perspective as to where our paths may lead.

Darwin said that we are all part of an evolutionary process; yet we continue to reach for explanations. We have learned that our knowledge is never complete, and it is our nature to ponder the scientific areas of life. Our teachers have tried to give us the answers, but they have also said that we must find them ourselves . . . this is what makes Science so intriguing.

Through their teachings, our language teachers have told us that "language is the key to the world." Once we master the art of speaking, our communication with the rest of the world is unlimited.

To become a well-rounded individual, one must experience learning on very different levels. The Arts provide us with a new dimension in learning. The key is to be aware of our existence and to have the ability to express our feelings. Whether we use a musical or artistic medium, we can sound our furies and paint our visions naturally — and we can speak in a different voice . . . the voice of culture.

Cross Country 1977

The 1977 Cross-Country Team proudly completed a successful season. Dayton finished the season with a record of thirteen wins and one loss in the Surburban Conference, while compiling an overall record of fourteen wins and one loss. The team was honored by placing second in their conference.

Senior co-captains Gregg Rusbarsky and Brad Weiner were awarded respectively first team and second team All-Conference Honors. Senior Russell Lausten was given third team All-Conference honors. Sophomores Jeff Knowles and Rich Bantel were selected for second team All-Conference honors. Dayton achieved the best dual record of all the teams in the Surburban Conference.

Nineteen members of this year's squad have received varsity letters, nine of them who are underclassmen. Other members who have not received awards have gained valuable experience and knowledge of running. According to Coach Taglienti, "This year's season was, for the main part, successful and enjoyable due to the great group of athletes that competed." As their record shows, Dayton did exceptionally well in cross-country competition and experienced a truly enjoyable season.

Our 1977 girls' Varsity Gymnastics team ended their fourth season with ten wins and four losses, the finest record ever achieved by the gymnasts.

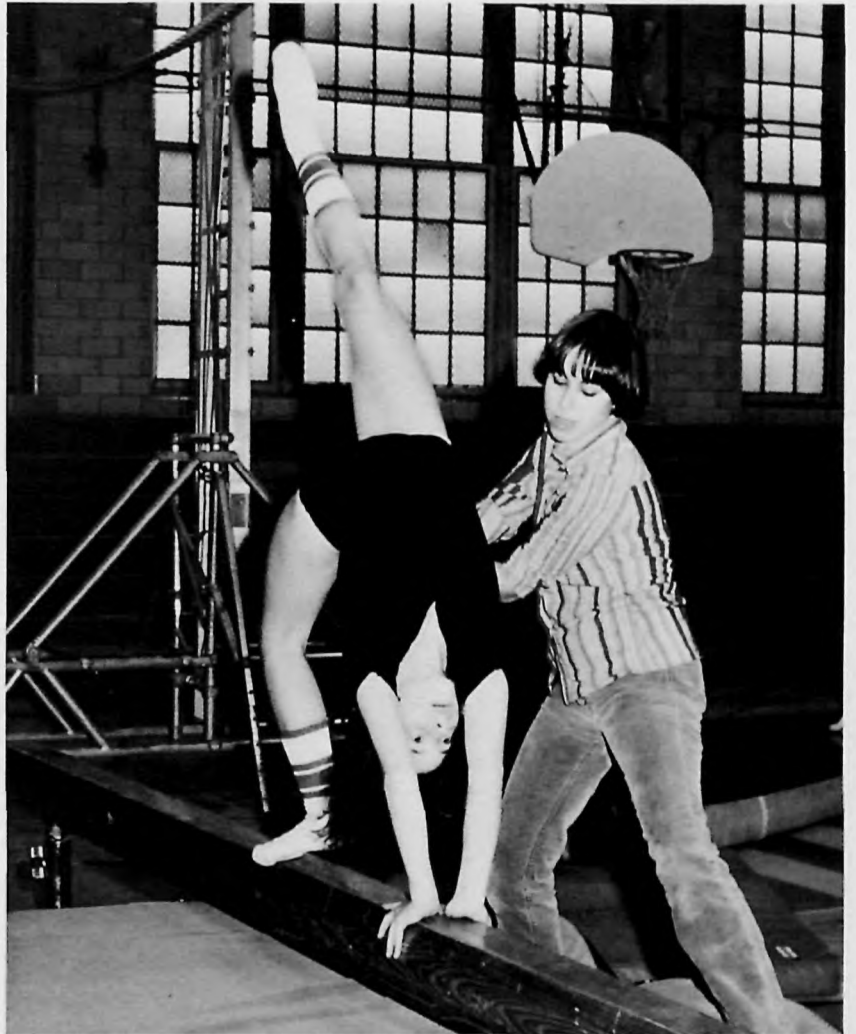

Seniors Barbara Calamusa and Moira Halpin provided the necessary experience and depth for this years' winning season. Dayton's team was well-rounded and displayed a good balance of team spirit and progress. Barbara and Moira represented Dayton at this years' sectional meet. Moira competed in the balance beam and floor exercise events, while Barbara displayed her talents on the uneven parallel bars and balance beam. In the first union County Championship meet, hosted by Dayton, Moira Halpin received a second place medal in the balance beam competition.

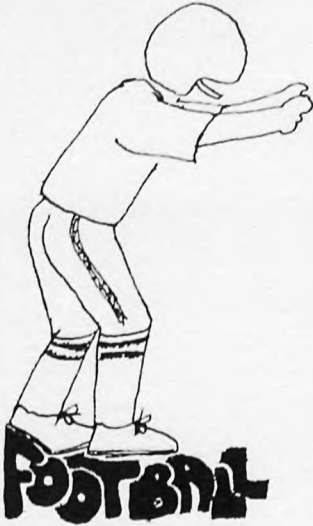

David Brearly and Madison gave Dayton two of their closest matches. Dayton won the meet against David Brearly by three tenths of a point and beat Madison with another very close score. According to Coach Dougherty, "The team has progressed significantly each and every year. Team records and individual performances have increased and been perfected over the years and this season was no exception."

Football

Although the 1977 Dayton football season was not as successful as the players hoped it would be, they do deserve recognition for their devoted efforts. The team record does not justly display the kind of year that was presented by the 1977 Varsity football team.

Captains Donald Lusardi and Robert Bohrod provided the necessary leadership and boosted team morale. Key moments for Dayton were the first halves with New Providence and Verona. Against New Providence one of the state's finest teams, Dayton held a 6-3 half-time lead. There were many disappointments throughout the season; however, as Coach Oliver suggested, "When you have a year like we've had, there are bound to be many letdowns and flaws, but this year's Seniors never let down. They presented tremendous attitudes. They never just went through the motions."

Soccer

Dayton Soccer once again candidates for All-conference honors; Joe Sangregario, Michael French and Todd Malamud were chosen. Sangregario, the field captain for Dayton's Varsity Soccer team, was chosen for second team honors. Michael French, a co-captain was selected for third team honors. Todd Malamud, a nominee for third team honors, and Michael Wittenberg, co-captain, provided necessary defensive skills for the team. Steven Shindler was the goal keeper for all of the game until he was injured at the end of the season. Dave Lauhoff played fullback and filled in as goalie; he was outstanding in both positions. Billy rose and Tim Hannigan were replacements for starters; playing with strength and fortitude.

The most rewarding games were those with West Orange and Summit, when Dayton won with scores of 5-0 and 7-1 respectively. The last game, though it was lost by Dayton, was probably the finest game played. The team members, along with Coach Skobo, should honestly be commended for their achievements during their rewarding season.

Cathy finished the season with a personal record of 9 wins and 4 losses. Playing second singles was Senior Sandy Crane who finished the season with the team's best individual record of 11 wins and 2 losses. Sandy lost only one match in the Suburban Conference play during the entire season. Barbara Martino played third singles this year and completed a record of 8 wins and 4 losses. First doubles were covered by Senior Sue Wallach and Junior Lori Gabay. They provided the team with strong support in the first doubles spot. Seniors Randi Kessler and Jill Craner combined their talents to contribute adequately to the team's success. They both made the Second All-Conference team because of their excellent records.

In the State Tournament with Hanover Park, singles players Cathy Gerndt, Sandy Crane and Barb Martino all won their respective matches. The first doubles team of Jill Craner and Lori Gabay were also successful. With these victories, Dayton won its team opener by a score of 4-1. In their second tournament match with West Essex, Dayton lost by a score of 5-0. Their achievements in the State Tournament, as well as their acquired merits throughout the season, jointly contributed to their success.

Many of the players received individual recognition for their performances during their season. Kevin Doty averaged 23 points and 15 rebounds per game and set a new total-point-scoring record of 1216 points. Kevin Walker, our 6'6" center scored 17 points and 14 rebounds per game. Both Doty and Walker were chosen for the all-star team. Senior Willie Willburn gave the team an advantage with his ball-handling techniques and contributed an average of 8 points each game. Skip Liguori and David Ironson rounded out the starting five this season scoring an average of 4 points, 8 assists and 3 points, respectively, each game. Senior back-ups Kenny Fingerhut and Frank Zahn, each averaging 4 points per game, supporting the team throughout the season.

Dayton's most gratifying game was played against West Orange when we assumed the conference lead. Dayton combined shooting, defensive tactics and control to defeat West Orange. Dayton also placed first during our own invitational tournament.

This year the Girls' Varsity Basketball team finished their season with a record of 13 wins, 8 losses. The players maintained a strong defense during each of their games, which suggested their cooperative efforts.

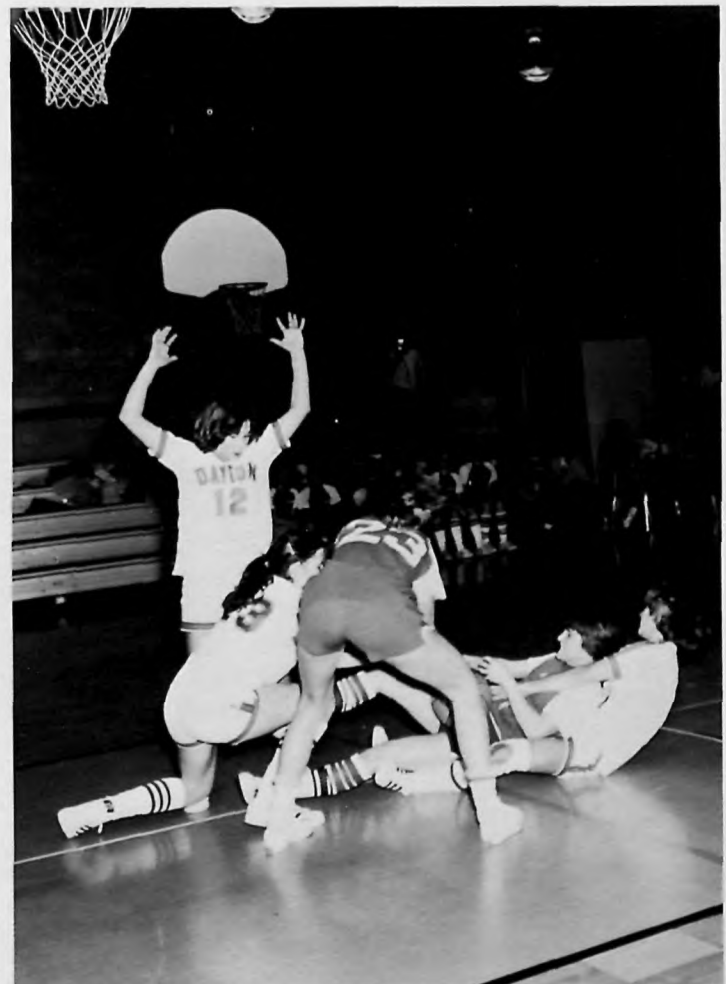

Their second game against Verona proved to be the turning point in their conference standing Dayton managed to organize a course of action which enable them to break the tie, winning second place in the Suburban conference.

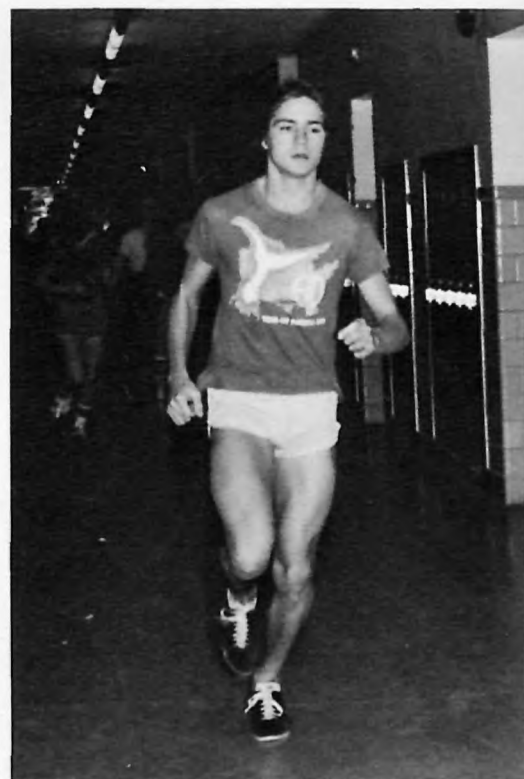

The team was the epitome of power, using strategic measures to gain the lead. Mary King, captain, and Ellen Stieve, co-captain, held the team tightly together during the season. Cricket Franklin, high-scorer of the team, helped to direct Dayton toward victory.

The Indoor Track team completed a dual meet record of 4-0, showing themselves as strong competitors during their "championship season." Among the team's many highlighters were a county individual champion, group relay winners and a group who finished the state relay in third place.

The outstanding competitors for Dayton were Senior Brad Weiner, who finished first in the Union County meet with a time of four minutes, 36 seconds in the mile; Senior Mitchell Krasnoff and Freshman Paul Commarato, who combined their efforts to finish first in the high jump relay with a height of 11'8"; Pete Keramas, Jeff Knowles and Seniors Gregg Rusbarsky and Brad Weiner formed a two-mile relay team in the State Relay meet to win a bronze medal.

Not only did the individuals score in the competition, but they also showed fine sportsmanship and leadership. Captains were Brad Weiner and Gregg Rusbarsky for the distance runners, Harvey Kaish and Rick Spina for the sprinters, Jay Fine for the hurdlers, and Don Lusardi for the shotputters.

The Cheerleaders have always been known as a spirited group of people, willing to give of themselves to help stimulate Dayton's athletic events. This year was no exception. The participants in the 1977-78 Varsity Cheerleading squads encouraged the teams at the games and supported them throughout the year. They worked to create effective and enjoyable performances, during the game, as well as for game intermissions, and they helped the players to become proud of their achievements.

The Varsity Golf team represented Dayton with a fine presentation of skill and accuracy. Not only were their matches fairly successful, but they exhibited many outstanding players. Skip Liguori, captain of the team and three-time letter-winner, was extremely skillful in the sport. David Getchlik and Toby Lesofski, both second-time letter-winners, helped the team achieve its wins throughout the seasons. The matches were most competitive, yet all of the players led Dayton to the Suburban Conference with desire and fortitude. The combined talents of all persons determined the team's versatility, with its five returning lettermen, the 1978 Varsity Golf team experienced a very rewarding season.

It has been a challenging season for Dayton's first softball team. The players showed interest and determination despite their lack of experience and proved their merits in several competitive games. They met Johnson Regional, defeating them with a score of seven to three, and proceeded to challenge David Brearly, winning by nine points. All players exhibited their newly-acquired techniques during all of the games. Led by co-captains Rosanne Gagliano and Ellen Stieve, the team competed with a persistent attitude, which helped them to maintain their morale and stamina. Although the competition in the Suburban Conference was considerably strong, the players' cooperative efforts proved them a good match.

The 1978 Varsity baseball season is expected to compile a better than .500 % record this year. The baseball team is comprised of an all junior infield, all senior outfield and mixed pitching. This years team is relying heavily on their strong defensive outfield. Seniors; Kevin Lalor, John Lamotta, and Bob Bohrod all provide the necessary defensive skills, while also displaying ample power at the plate. Junior pitcher, Dave Vargas is expected to compile the best individual record of this year's squad. Coach Ed Jasinski is quoted as saying "if our pitching and hitting improve, a .500 % record should be easily within our grasp." When asked about next years team, Coach Jasinski believes strongly in this years juniors with strong help coming up from the junior-varsity team.

The Spring Varsity Track team did not fall short of the unfailing vitality in which Dayton Track has been known. Kevin Doty, persisted in his competitions in the hurdles, long jump and high jump. Jay Fine, Dayton's devoted hurdler, maintained his stability in every game. Brad Weiner, Gregg Rusbarsky and Russell Lausten, distance runners, combined their efforts throughout the season, and helped to, along with Willie Wilburn and Israel Josephs, satisfy the team's urge to win. Rick Spina exhibited an amazing fight for the team's achievements. The team placed fourth in the Union County Relay Championship. Their spirit and ability, as individuals and as a whole, determined the season's success.

The 1978 Varsity Volleyball team was faced with very threatening forces, but the teammates coalesced their efforts and overcame their opposition in several outstanding games. During one game, Dayton was losing by seven points, yet they managed to pull themselves up to a 16-14 lead. Moira Halpin, a respectable server for the team, began the volleys with defiant strength. Although her serving was outstanding, her general techniques were as commendable. The team, captained by Caroline Weeks, used a phenomenal amount of new strategies, offensive skills and defensive tactics to emphasize their challenges. Their games against Millburn and Nutley epitomized their active success in volleyball competition.

Head Coach Melinda Wilson.

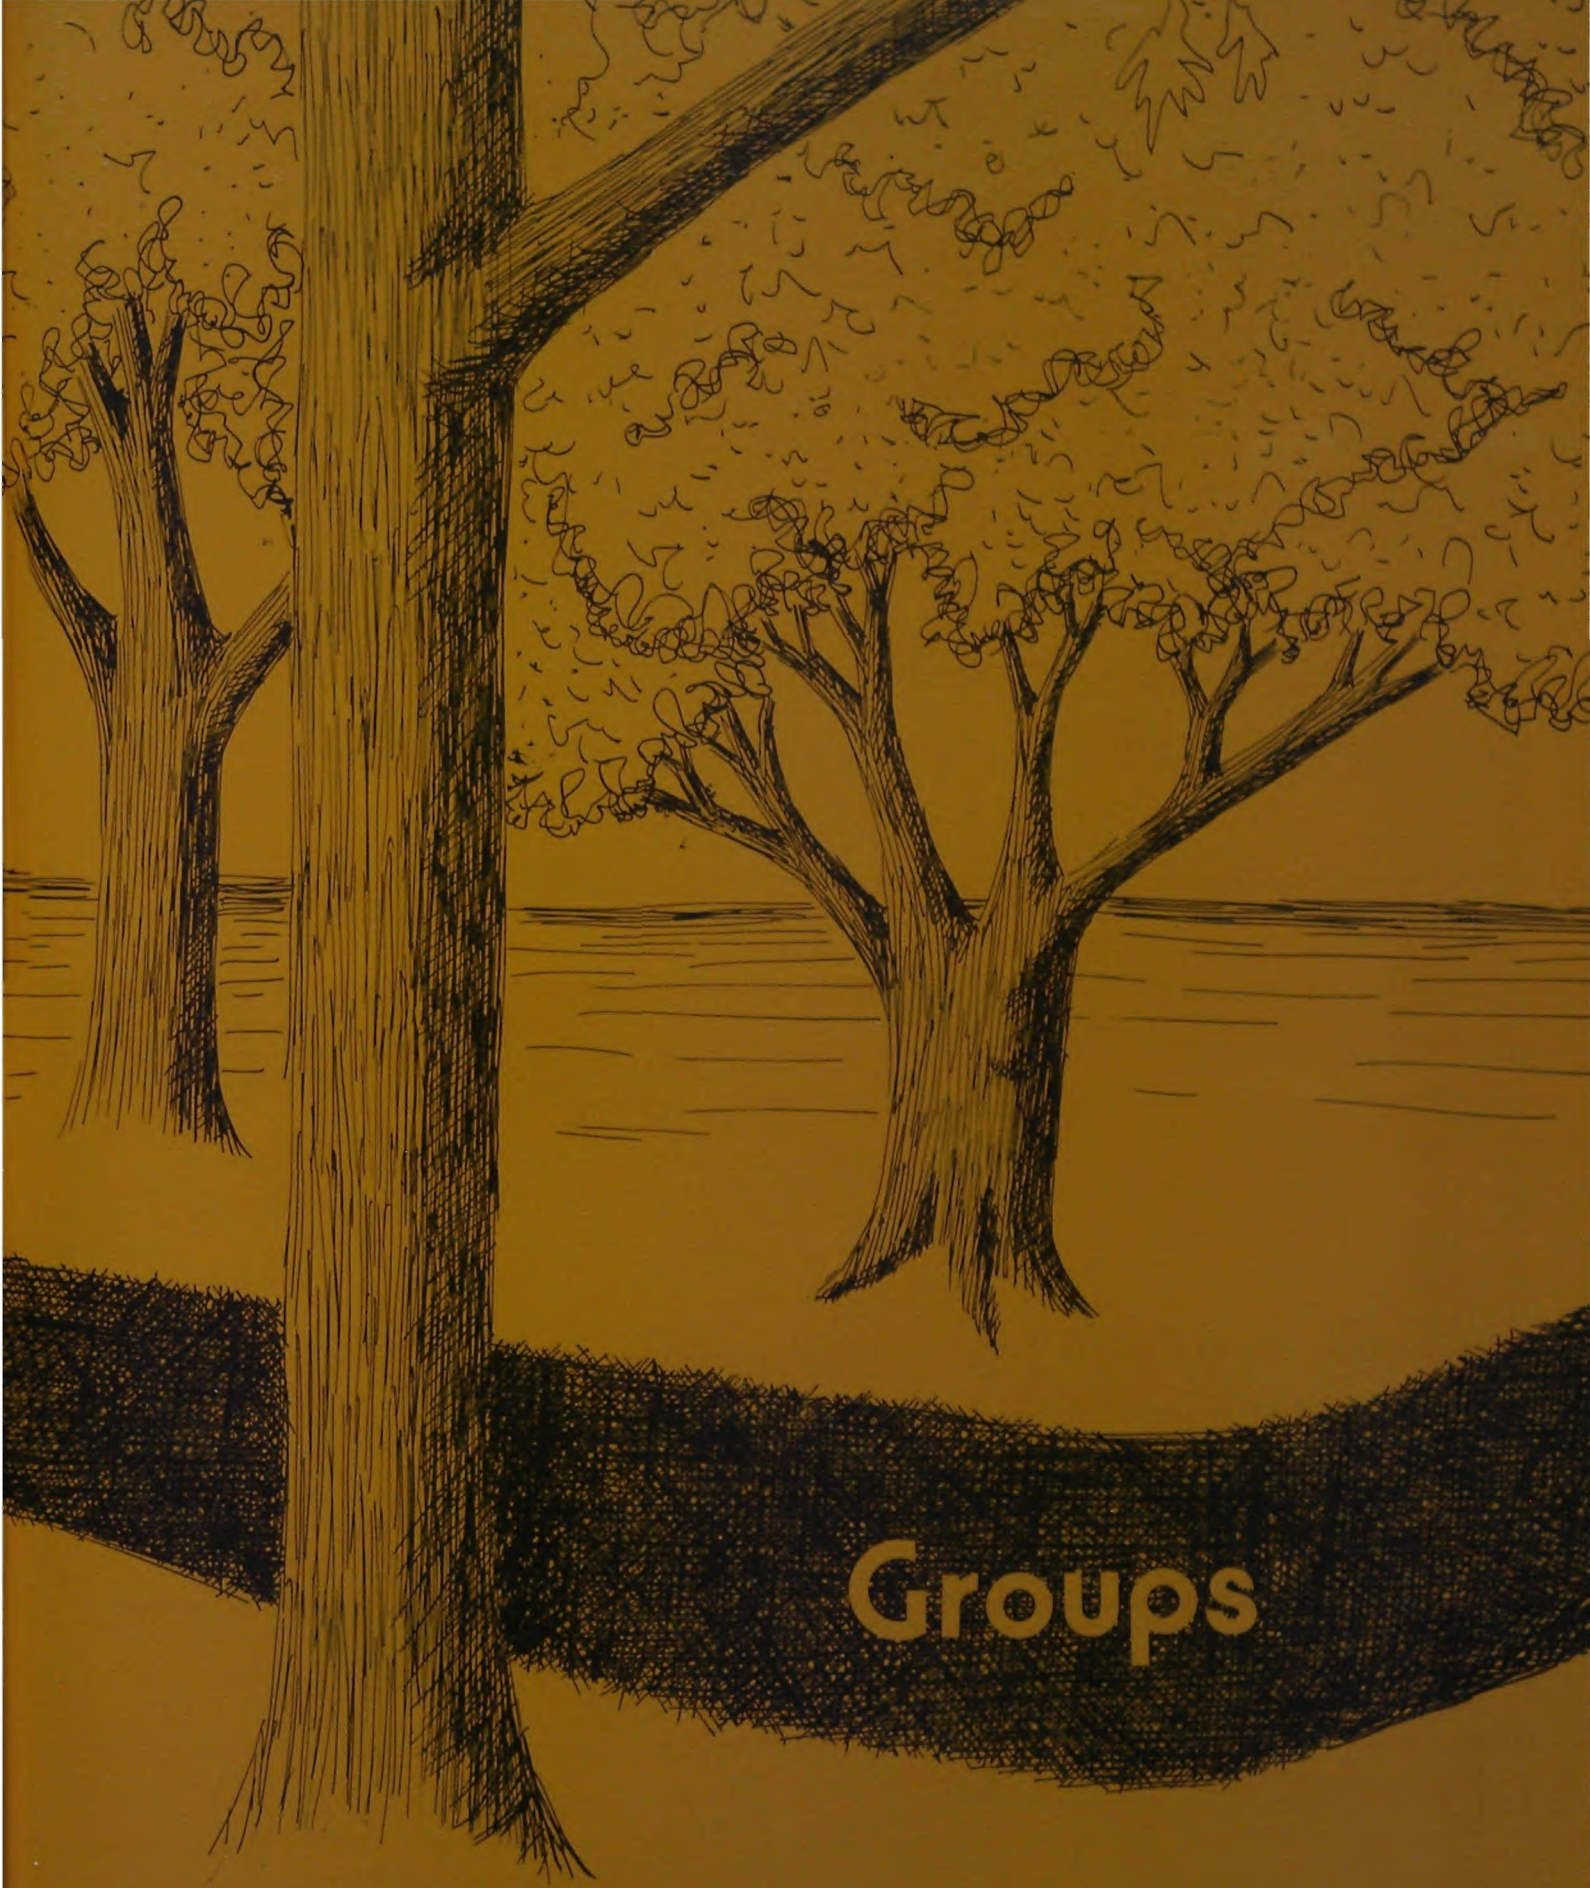

Dayton's Varsity Tennis team had an exciting Spring season, and deserve recognition for shutting-out Union Catholic and defeating Governor Livingston with a score of four to one. Neil Meisel, playing first singles and Art Salmon, playing second singles added to the team's success. Mickey Gottlieb and Chris Johns, both competitors in the third singles category rounded out the team with their supportive playing. The team lost a close match against West Orange which sparked their pursuit of victory, and the players maintained their honest attempt at winning all of their remaining matches. Each player showed an even amount of individual strength and collective energy, which enhanced their ability to complete their season, satisfied with their competitive forte.

I Remember Mama

"I Remember Mama" shows how Mama, with the help of her husband and Uncle Chris, brings up the children in their modest San Francisco home during the early years of the nineteenth century. Mama, a sweet and capable woman, watches her children's growth into maturity, managing to educate them along the way. With all of her struggles, she finds solace in the beginning of her daughter Karin's writing career. Mama's sisters, Jenny, Sigrid, and Trina, and her Uncle Chris furnish a rich background for a great deal of comedy and a bit of incidental tragedy, while the doings of the children manage to keep everyone in pleasant turmoil. In its entirety, the play is a well-balanced production, combining a humorous view of the family and a light-hearted acceptance of life.

KINDERHOOK CREEK

Dayton's hallowed halls were filled with the sound of good music this year. Kinderhook Creek, a New Jersey Country and Bluegrass band, performed for all to see and hear. Musicians Joe Breitenbach, Stan Taylor and Yuri Turchyn provided well-arranged music for lead vocalists Terry Kopychuck, Andy Fidiw and Craig Barry. The band was admired for its uniformity and the quality of its music.

VOCAL MUSIC

By relating to others, we may become attuned to the importance of ourselves as individuals.

The Vocal Music groups: Concert Choir, Chorale, Vocal Workshop . . . each, in its own way, has expressed an interest in music as, both an emotional outlet and a performing art.

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away."

— Henry David Thoreau

"My Fair Lady" is the story of a lonely flower girl who, through the grudging persistence of an upper-class gentleman, Henry Higgins, is transformed into a lady of elegance. Rick Spina played Henry Higgins with both vitality and professionalism. Kris Peterson portrayed Eliza Doolittle, the young flower girl, with a beautiful sense of realism. The character of Higgins' friend, Colonel Pickering, was mastered splendidly by John Halecky. Mitchell Slater played Alfred P. Doolittle, Eliza's lonely father, with great energy and vitality. Other lead roles were splendidly portrayed by Doug Schon, Sandy Crane, and Marie Di Giorgio. There must be a special mention to the magnificent chorus work in the show. All in all between the talent and great work done by all the crews and orchestra, "My Fair Lady" will be remembered as one of the finest musical productions in the history at Jonathan Dayton.

Deadlines met and deadlines missed —
How'd we ever accomplish this?
The finished book is here, it's yours,
To add to your other memoirs.
Congratulations! Mrs. Smith —
thank for all of your time, patience and help!

Love,

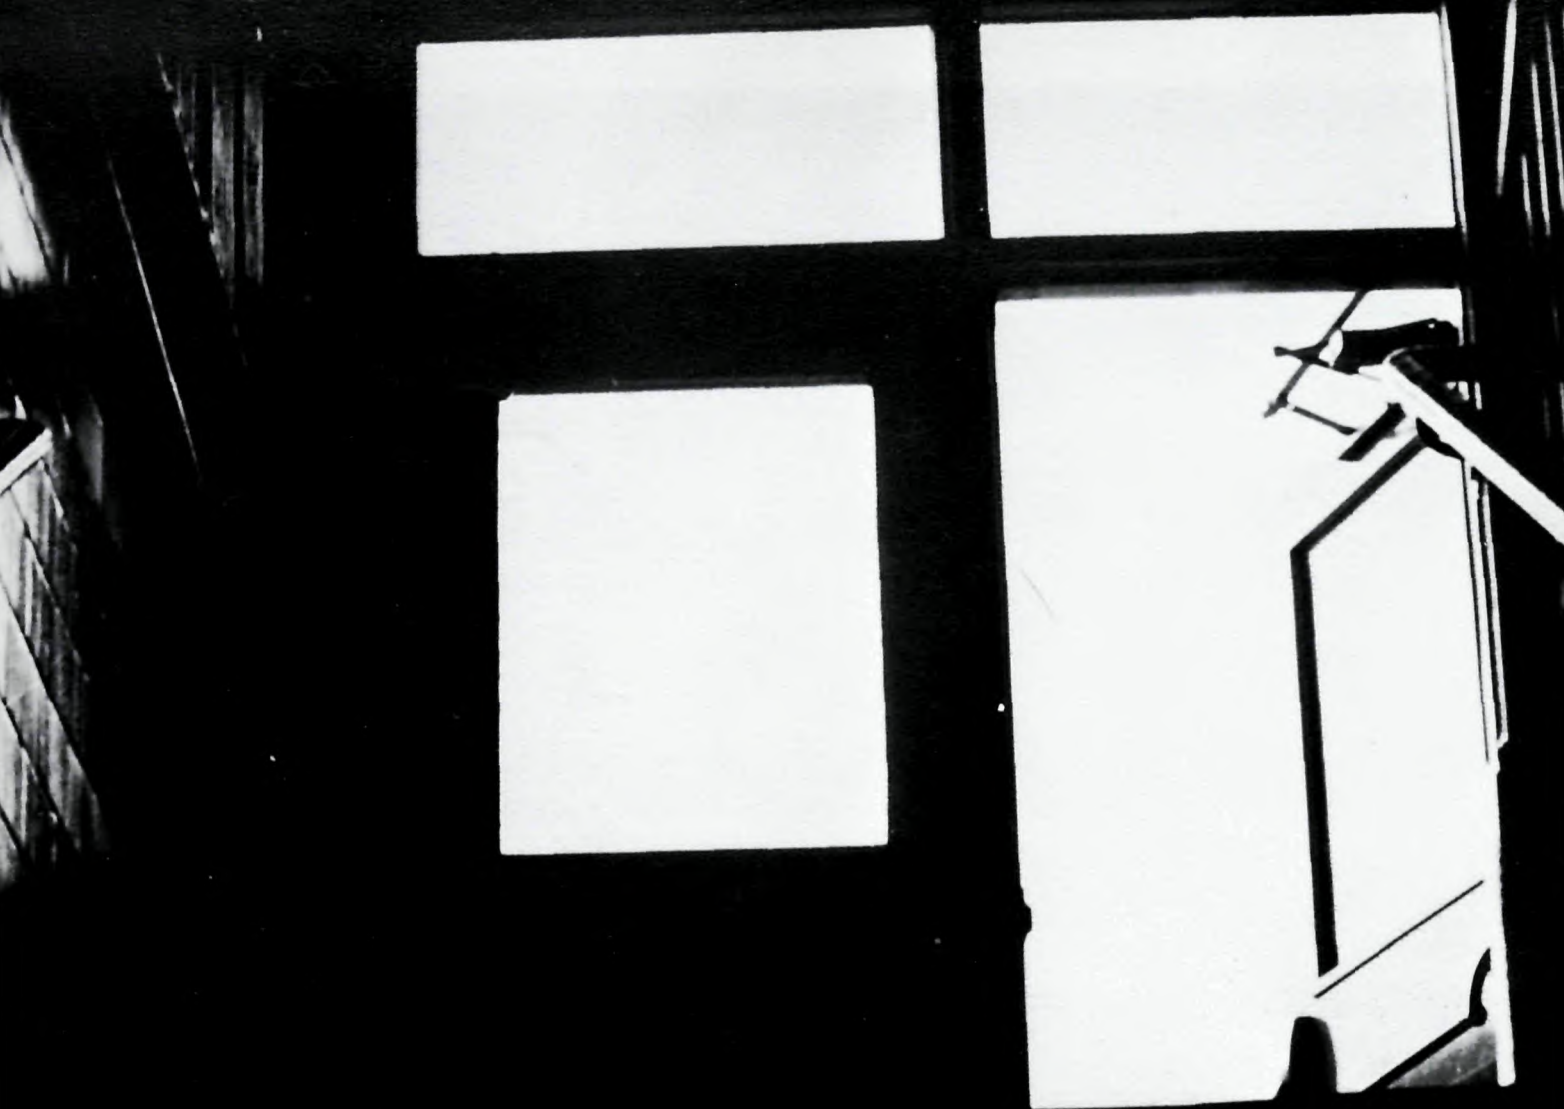

Cindy, Moira, Mitchell, Amy and Harriet

P.S. thank you, Lenny

I stood on the sand,
watching waves fold into the sky
listening only to the sounds of the seagulls, whose cries beckoned me to free myself of the pillars which bound me
to the land.

Once in a vision
I came on some woods
And stood at a fork in the road —
My choices were clear,
Yet I froze with the fear
Of not knowing which way to go.
One road was simple,
Acceptance of life,
The other road offered sweet peace;
When I made my decision,
My vision became my release.
