Beth Ahm Offers Alternate Goals On Fair Housing Temple Board Wants Community Relations Council Formed

The executive board of Temple Beth Ahm has endorsed a proposal to establish the Fair Housing Committee program "on a broader base under the name of Community Relations Council."

Suggested aims under the Temple's "alternate proposal," outlined this week in a letter to Rabbi Israel Dresner, temporary chairman of the Fair Housing Committee, would be:

- (1) To foster an atmosphere of brotherhood in our community and to further this cause among men of all colors, religions and ethnic groups by cooperating with our national religious bodies and with the President of the United States in eliminating discriminatory practices from our midst.
- (2) To help impress upon our fellow Springfield citizens the moral and religious obligation to eliminate discrimination in all facets of community living.
- (3) To educate Springfield citizens to accept members of all ethnic and racial groups.

The goals would replace a set of eight aims adopted by the committee last July.

To implement its proposal for an alternate set of three goals the Beth Ahm board stressed the following four points:

- (1) To invite all civic and religious bodies to participate in this effort.
- (2) To solicit the cooperation and support of the Township Committee.
- (3) To provide a coordinated program of education by means of forums, literature, etc.
- (4) To set up a Community Relations Council which will make recommendations which are brought to its attention.

Name Heimbuch, Douglas To Head Koonz Campaign

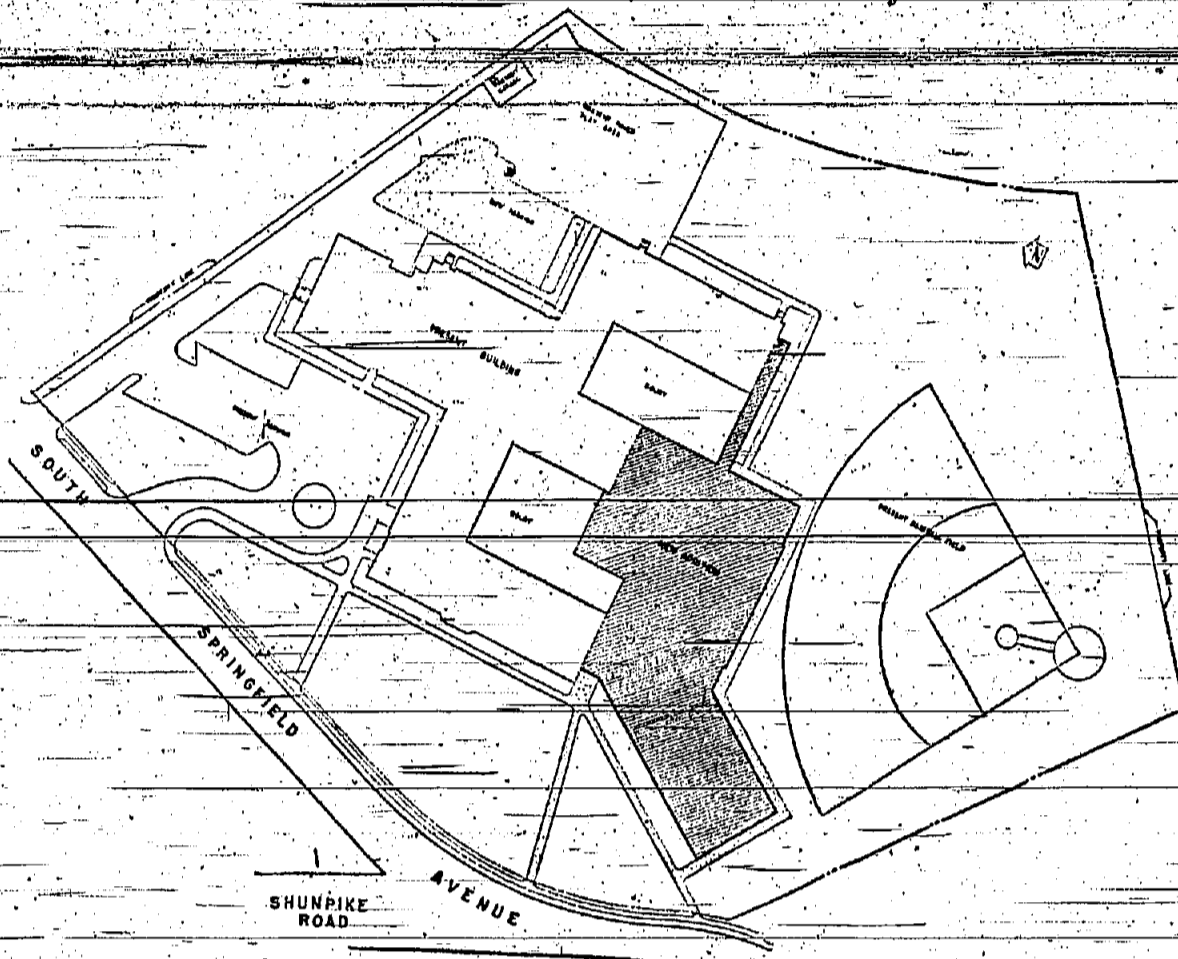

William F. Koonz, candidate for the Springfield Township Committee announced this week that John Heimbuch and Stuart Douglas will serve as campaign managers for the forthcoming November election.

Heimbuch, who resides at 162 Linden ave. with his wife Patricia, has been a resident of Springfield for the past 10 years. He is a graduate of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School and of Rutgers University, New Brunswick. He also is a Navy veteran of World War II.

Douglas resides at 28 Washington ave. with his wife Helen and three children. He has been a resident of Springfield for the past eight years. He is a graduate of Millington High School and of Colby College, Waterville, Me., and is an Air Force veteran of World War II. He currently is a program planner for Reaction Motors Division, Thiokol Chemical Corp., Denville.

Douglas is a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Springfield, Adjutant of the local American Legion Post and in the Civil Defense branch of the Springfield Fire Department.

Heimbuch is a member of the local American Legion Post and in the Civil Defense branch of the Springfield Fire Department.

PLOT PLAN of the Florence Gaudineer School with the proposed addition, up for voter approval Oct. 10, shows where the new construction would mesh with the present structure. The wing jutting to the lower right would contain classrooms. The all-purpose room, library, instrumental music room and home economics compound would be contained in the bulk of the construction to the rear. To the right is the school's present baseball diamond. The design is by Robert Miller, architect with the firm of Frederick & Elsasner of Union. Lower illustration shows classroom wing with the roof of the all-purpose room rising above.

SCHOOL BOARD MAILS TO 4,800 Voters Get Gaudineer Brochures

Brochures describing the $850,000 proposed addition to Florence Gaudineer School have been sent to a mailing list of 4,800 by the Springfield Board of Education and are in the hands of registered voters today.

The proposal is up for voter approval at a referendum to be held Oct. 10 following a public hearing at the Gaudineer School cafeteria, 400 Shunker Road, at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Public hearings will be open to the Citizens' Committee and all interested parties.

The Board has contended that a swelling school population which would boost Gaudineer School enrollment to almost 600 by 1967, according to available predictions, will bring about similar conditions to the expansion it did approved. The 600-pupil facility is already fully utilized.

Approval is expected to make the addition available for occupancy by September, 1964.

Get Assurances: No Repetition Of Water Shortage State Official Told By Company It Is Enlarging Facilities

The Township Committee Tuesday night received assurances from George R. Shanklin, chief engineer and acting director of the State Water Policy Commission, that the community "needn't ever again face a water shortage such as that experienced this past summer."

The state official advised in a letter that he had been assured by officials of the Commonwealth Water Co., which supplies the community, that permanent changes and enlargement are going on at the company and will be completed this year.

Committee member Vincent J. Bonadies said he wasn't satisfied. He said he thought Shanklin was being "taken in" by the water company's local officials.

Mayor Arthur M. Falcin pointed out that the matter is being studied by the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners, and the committee agreed to await that body's findings.

Other actions Tuesday night were the introduction of a resolution by Committee member Carmen S. Capapano, chairman of Finance, and another by Vincent J. Bonadies, chairman of Public Works, to place funds not immediately needed into short-term investments.

As a result of the actions, $50,000 will be used to buy Federal Intermediate Credit Deposits at 3.75 per cent interest, maturing June 1, 1964; $474,754 of money from a bond anticipation note will be loaned to the National Bank of Elizabeth at 2 1/2 per cent, maturing Nov. 30, 1963; and another $100,000 will be loaned to the National Bank of Elizabeth at 2 1/2 per cent, maturing Nov. 14 of this year.

The committee recommended to the Board of Adjustment for reconsideration a recommendation by that board that zoning exception be granted to permit establishment of a Pancake Kitchen at 580 Morris ave. in a general business area. The property owner is Theodore Conklin.

In referring the matter back to the board, the committee specified that stipulations in the application should prohibit outdoor service, that hours of operation be confined to 7 a.m. to midnight, and that outdoor lighting facilities be included in the plans.

The committee concluded a postponed hearing on a variance application by the Houdaille Construction Materials Co. (Houdaille Quarry) and granted permission to the company to relocate buildings on Shunker rd. because of the proposed Interstate Rt. 78 alignment.

An Oct. 8 hearing date was set for a proposal by the Assessment Commission that a $505.82 trunk sewer assessment on the Echo Plaza be absorbed by the township.

The proposal pointed out that the property owner had an existing sewer system at the time the southside sanitary sewer system was created, and that it was agreed to incorporate the property owner's system into the municipal system at no cost.

5 Neighbors File Suit In Opposition To Elks Variance

A complaint protesting a special exemption was granted to the Springfield Order of Elks to maintain a clubhouse on Old Coach rd. has been filed in Trenton by residents of adjoining properties, according to William Gural, one of the plaintiffs.

Don Divino, a Newark attorney, represented Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bendler of Baltusrol rd., Summit and Mrs. Harriet Wisner of Summit, who maintain a second home on Old Coach rd.

The Springfield Township Committee, the Board of Adjustment, the Planning Board and the Elks—all defendants in the case—are expected to be served with the complaint some time this week by Union County Sheriff Ralph Griscuolo. They all have 20 days in which to answer allegations that the three township bodies acted illegally in granting the variance to the Elks.

Township Attorney James Canley said the municipality would defend the suit.

Ask For Reasons Legislation Lags On Flood Control

What's happening in the N.J. Senate on proposed legislation adopted by the Assembly last February to allow any county to undertake flood control or troublesome stream work?

That's what the Springfield Township Committee asked Tuesday night, and it voted unanimously to send a letter of inquiry to State Senator Nelson A. Stampler.

Committee member Vincent J. Bonadies proposed that inquiry be made, and the committee in Union County have a right to know of any valid reasons for the legislation's non-completion of the county's work along with the county government to put pressure on the state government for such legislation, but no one has heard anything since, he said.

The Assembly bill would require a county to undertake public works, including detention basins and related measures, but the Senate has not acted.

Bonadies pointed out that the Raritan River and others that flow through the county have been threatened most of the summer, but that they could be in flood stage at any time from now on. Under existing law, county governments cannot act jointly on flood control even though separately administered park systems.

The complaint plan, charges that the building's present application is inadequate for 105 Elks Club members, and questions whether inclusion of a clubhouse as the necessary use of the building is legal under the present zoning ordinance.

Plaintiffs maintain that the Planning and Zoning Boards acted improperly in recommending the variance and that the Township Committee should not have approved it. They asked that the Elks be restrained from acquiring the property.

Lack Of Manpower May Cost Local Jaycee Unit Its Charter

The Board of Directors of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce is scheduled to revoke the charter of the Springfield Jaycees at its next meeting if it learned this week.

According to Bert Jones, president of the Springfield chapter, the state will revoke the charter because the local group's membership has dwindled to 10. Twenty-two active members are required to maintain a chapter, he said.

Jones stated this week that the local board "is about to call it quits." The assistance the Jaycees have received in the past from Springfield organizations "was just not enough," Jones said. "We appreciated their moral and financial support," he explained, "but the most important thing we needed was new young men to assist us in our civic endeavors. Without new blood, the old blood runs slower, and the organization goes into its death throes."

125 LOCAL VOTERS RULED INELIGIBLE—LIST ON PAGE 18

A notice listing the names of 125 persons declared by the Union County Election Board as being ineligible to vote in the November election appears today on Page 18. The list is of persons whose last known address was Springfield. Those listed are given an opportunity to appear in person at 53-85 Rahway ave., Elizabeth, prior to Sept. 26, to show cause why they should be permitted to vote.

League Reminds New Residents To Register Now

The League of Women Voters of Springfield this week issued an appeal to all residents who have recently come to the township to register for the Nov. 5 election as soon as possible.

All eligible voters who have not yet registered in Springfield can do so by applying to the office of the Township Clerk in the Municipal Building any week day between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on Sept. 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 19, 23, 24, 25 and 26. The hours will be from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

If you are a U.S. citizen, 21 years of age by Nov. 5 and have lived in New Jersey six months and in the county 60 days, you are eligible to vote—but only if you are permanently registered. Naturalized citizens must bring their naturalization papers with them when registering and transferring.

All State assembly seats will be on the ballot, plus a Senate seat, trustees and other local party offices. One township committeeman is to be elected. There are also six public questions.

Two Autos Damaged

Two vehicles were badly damaged in a rear-end collision on Morris ave. in Springfield Sunday night, police reported. No one was injured.

According to police, a car driven by Justice T. Highsmith, 45 of East Orange ran into the rear of one driven by Charles Ruzgieri, 18 of West Orange. When the latter stopped for a red light, both cars were northbound.

Bonadies Urges Public Support Of Bond Referendum

The Township Committee Tuesday night took steps toward the creation of a "review committee for planning and building design," but only after some controversy.

Two committee members, Vincent J. Bonadies, a Democrat, and Carmen S. Calapano, a Republican, abstained from voting on the first hearing of a proposed ordinance which would establish the group. However, they abstained for different reasons.

A public hearing and final vote has been scheduled for Sept. 24. Bonadies said the committee, as provided for in the proposed ordinance, would consist of three planning board members and two citizens.

Bonadies said "I present" interference by a certain professional group which "coerced the change" from the original plan through lobbying tactics.

Driver Skids In Rain Into Parked Vehicle

A station wagon driven by Sandie Gualfieri, 35, of Cedar Grove was damaged in last Friday afternoon's rainfall in Springfield, when it skidded into a parked car on Maple ave., police reported.

The motorist was northbound, police said. His car had to be towed from the scene.

An appeal for favorable consideration for Gov. Hughes' N.J. 5 bond referendum was made this week by Township Committee member Vincent J. Bonadies, candidate for the state assembly and former mayor.

In a prepared statement, Bonadies centered his arguments upon benefits to Springfield residents and anticipated school aid which would be derived from the plan.

"The problems of overcrowded classrooms, double sessions and overcrowded playgrounds will be solved by the time school opens next year if Gov. Hughes' bond issue is approved," he said.

"New Jersey parents, who are paying the highest property taxes in the United States, still see their children too often enrolling in inadequate school facilities. These parents may take direct action to see that conditions are improved in both areas by the time school opens next year.

"Under Gov. Hughes' proposed bond plan, Springfield would receive an increase of $33,135 in state aid to the local school district. This year, as in the past, the great bulk of the money needed to operate the public schools comes from local property owners through the property tax," Bonadies said. "If the state aid to schools has not increased since 1957, Springfield's share of additional school aid will produce about an 8 point decrease in the local tax rate."

"Under Gov. Hughes' bond plan, bond money spent for highways would release $250 million in the yearly state budget. This released money, Bonadies said, "would be used to increase state aid to local school districts by at least 20 per cent. For some school districts it would be considerably more."

"The Gov.'s plan accomplishes all this while avoiding, for at least five years, a new state sales or income tax or both. It is important for parents, as school opens, to consider their school systems and the resulting property taxes currently needed to finance and maintain it at its present high level," Bonadies said. "I believe that most parents will agree that the Governor's bond plan provides the best alternative to increased taxes or the imposition of new ones."

Board President August Caprio said this week that the cost of financing the $400,000 project cannot be determined prior to the referendum because the bond cost will vary in accordance with the market rate. A chart of the township's financial picture, he explained, the board will look into from various investing firms for the bond. It will sell the bond that P. J. Romano, school board auditor, anticipated an interest rate of three and a half per cent for annual.

Enrollment charts, shown in the brochure, illustrate Springfield's school population trend. A chart of 1957 and 1958 enrollment shows an enrollment increase from under 250 youngsters in 1956 to the predicted figure of almost 600 in 1967. Last year's figures topped the 700 mark. The second chart, illustrating the town's total elementary school enrollment picture, shows a student population of over 1,000 in 1956 reaching a prediction of more than 2,500 in 1967. Total enrollment for last year was 2,247 students.

The goal cannot be polished without friction nor man perfected without trial.

Parking Discussed By Chamber Board

Jack Sufesman, president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce, and William Salek, chairman of the Merchants Division, were scheduled to discuss with the members of the Board of Directors yesterday to map plans for a parking lot on the north side of Morris ave.

The proposed parking lot would run behind business property from the present municipal parking lot along the Gibson's Dairy to Main st.

It would probably be completed in two stages, Sufesman said. The first would be the construction of a parking lot from the creek to Main st. When the Chamber of Commerce has agreed upon a plan, Sufesman said, it will enlist the support of the property owners involved in the construction.

Township Committee member Phillip Del Vecchio was appointed by Mayor Arthur M. Falcin last month to work with the Chamber toward solving the problems faced by street vendors and merchants through the lack of parking facilities. He said he would meet with representatives from the Chamber after they have developed their plan. Asked whether the township on the merchants would foot the bill for the proposed lot, Del Vecchio replied: "That is the $4 dollar question."

The Sixth 'Earl Of Stirling' Once 'Reigned' In Basking Ridge

JOSEPH SEIDEL: Several years ago State Chief Justice Joseph Weintraub recommended that municipalities employ prosecutors to work on cases involving violation of state and local laws.

JOSEPH SEIDEL

Joseph Seidel, Springfield's first and present prosecuting attorney, said that the recommendation was made about four years ago and that Springfield is among several communities in this area — Livingston, East Orange, and Millburn, for example — to act upon it.

As a municipal attorney, Seidel served as prosecutor when the defendant was represented by counsel, and in cases where the defendant was not represented by counsel the judge was left to play a dual role.

The township attorney's post was more burdensome, too, he explained, for the man who held this position was also expected to serve as attorney for the Planning Board, attorney for the Board of Adjustment, and prosecutor.

Justice Weintraub said that by creating four posts in the place of one a municipality would have the benefit of extended legal service and would avoid possible complications involving conflict of interests.

Now Springfield employs four legal experts. Besides Seidel as prosecutor, they are James Cawley, township attorney; David Zurav, Planning Board attorney; and Stanley Gruen, Board of Adjustment attorney.

Seidel said that when he first took office in early 1962 he was retained on a contract basis to prosecute only municipal cases where the defendant pleaded not guilty and was represented by counsel.

Things didn't work out that way, however, for soon Seidel was doing the groundwork for all cases, showing up at municipal court every Monday night, and racking up a good number of evenings and week end hours each week.

So this year he was made a township employee, his yearly salary upped from $600 to $1,000, and given a more realistic assignment of duties. He is now expected to spend much of his week-end evenings, show up each Monday night for court, advise the Police Department on the prosecution of complaints, and confer with the county prosecutor on matters involving additional local interrelation.

A municipal prosecutor acts on behalf of either the state or the municipality, depending upon the charges which have been brought against the defendant. County state statutes and local ordinances or ordinances which are a violation of state and local law. First offenders pay fines and are usually brought to court on local charges where there is a record in Trenton.

AN AN EXAMPLE of the manner in which state and local violations can develop, Seidel told the story of a man who, after enjoying a quantity of liquid refreshment at a Springfield party this summer, was ejected from the premises in which the party was being held for law and order reasons.

AS SEIDEL described his role as a prosecutor in the living room of his home at 50 Irwin st. last week, one got the impression of a serious-minded young man with a strong sense of responsibility.

Why did you want to be a lawyer, he was asked.

"As a matter of fact," he said, "brightening with unexpected mirth, "what I really wanted to be was a comedian."

Constitution Conceived In Secret Atmosphere

"If men were angels, no government would be necessary," James Madison once pointed out.

But Madison and the political leaders of his generation were practical men, and so it happened that on September 17, 1787, he and 39 other state representatives put their signatures to the Constitution of the United States of America.

The ceremony climaxed some four months of work, mostly unauthorized, for the delegates to the Philadelphia convention had been empowered only to revise the Articles of Confederation, reports World Book Encyclopedia. In 1787, Patrick Henry, who opposed a stronger national government, had refused to attend the convention because, as he later put it, "I smell a rat!"

Under these circumstances, and to ensure that each delegate would have the fullest freedom of speech during the debates, the convention ruled that its proceedings would be kept absolutely secret. Seidies were posted at the doors in the meeting hall. The anxious delegates even appointed one of their number to accompany the 11-year-old Benjamin Franklin to his social dinners, to make sure he did not let slip any

For the Birds
By FARRIN S. SWACKHAMER
Instructor, Union Junior College Institute, Cranford, N. J.

They must be silent about the matter, the speaker insisted. The speaker insisted that the birds' yearly cycle, where they went or where they did, he didn't attempt to explain.

Many ancient writers spoke of the comings and goings of the birds. There were almost as many explanations as there were writers. But 25 centuries separated Jeremiah from the time of the eventual acceptance of the migration theory.

Frogs, reptiles, marjorats and dormice were known to hibernates and it was a great temptation to explain the birds' disappearance in the same manner. Aristotle believed that swallows went into holes or deep in mud and spent the winter there. He wrote that they lost their feathers and remained in a torpor during the cold months.

In 1555, Olaf Magnus, Archbishop of Upsala, wrote of fishermen's tales of balls of swallows being brought up from the lakes in their nets. The birds cling together, back-to-back, wing-to-wing and foot-to-foot. Inexperienced fishermen sometimes took them indoors and let them near the fire. Here they separated briefly and flew about. But since spring had not yet arrived, they soon reformed a ball. Wiser men threw the balls back into the water.

Other birds were believed to undergo a sort of transmutation. Robins, plentiful during winter, turned into redstarts in summer.

An English writer published a 30-page essay in 1703 telling how the birds take refuge on the moon during the cold winter. Sixty days were required ment of the debates during a friendly conversation. It wasn't until 1810, when the first Journal of the convention was printed, that the American public learned of the proceedings.

Nevertheless, gossip was rampant and, at one point during that summer, reports circulated of a wide disagreement among the delegates. Apparently by the convention members decided on counterpropaganda for one newspaper reported, "So great is the unanimity, we hear, that prevails in the Convention, that it has been proposed to call the room in which they assemble — 'Unanimity Hall'."

When September 17 arrived, however, and the committee on style presented the finished document to the convention, three delegates refused to sign. To conceal this fact, a note added to the document read, "None in Convention, by the unanimous consent of the States" present.

The Constitution was hotly debated when it was submitted to the states for ratification, and even those who had signed it had their doubts. Ben Franklin probably summed up the feelings of the 39 signers when he said, "I consent, sir, to this Constitution, because I expect no better, and because I am not sure that it is not the best."

It occurred to me while I was in Beach Haven that 20 odd years ago all of Long Beach Island was kind of desolate. The Garden State Parkway opened now, and in this people would live in this county so that with some joy might on Long Beach Island can be reached in less than two hours. The island's natural beauty surpasses Cape Cod and it is a lovely place.

Today we know a great deal about the migration of birds. Many wealthy birds have been tracked on the subject. Banding, radar, transmitter transmitters attached to the larger birds, and tiny flashlights "fled" to the smaller have all played a part in the collection of data.

But after all this study, disapproval of the ancient theories, we find that there is a bird in North America that does hibernate. But that's another story.

SPRINGFIELD REVERENDUM

Next month the people of Springfield will be called upon to participate in the School Referendum. They are expected to approve, or to reject an $850,000 expense for a school expansion. The expense will be covered by a bond issue payable over a period of 20 years.

Governor Hughes, in his bold project of spending $1,275,000,000 in next five or six years hopes to finance his $750,000,000 plus cost bond out of lump-sum revenues. Out of what revenues, or whose revenues, does the Springfield Board plan to

Report From Trenton

by State Senator Nelson F. Stamler (R-N.J.)

Vacations are now over and people are back at work or school with renewed vigor. Mrs. Stamler and I, our children and grandchildren just returned from a two-week vacation at Beach Haven. We had been there last year and enjoyed it tremendously, and this year even more so. The weather was spectacularly good and although the fishing was not what I would have liked it to have been we all enjoyed ourselves in a spirit of real togetherness, even though our house was slightly crowded at times.

With the end of the summer and the start of the new school year the problem of the indiscriminate violations of the traffic laws involving school buses is recalled to my attention. I have a bill in the Legislature which increases the penalty for those who pass school buses discharging or picking up passengers. The number of accidents which occur each year due to the careless and reckless passing of buses should require a re-examination of all of our laws of school buses.

The shocking number of deaths over Labor Day week and in New Jersey is further proof that school buses are a major problem in the only state which has not had a law which makes it a crime to pass a school bus.

What should a provident parent do? First, he should invest in a good car. Second, and just as important, if not more so, he should encourage his child's creative and intellectual talents, making an effort to fulfill his special talents.

According to the National Education Association, the most valuable thing parents can do in preparing children for college is to establish a home atmosphere that encourages learning. Probably the most helpful and wonderful gift any child can receive, says the NEA, is a love of reading.

Congratulate yourself if you started reading aloud to your youngsters while they were still toddlers and kept it up regularly until they were well launched on reading for themselves. Put yourself on the back if you bought them books of their own. Pin a blue ribbon on your chest if you made the library their favorite haunt by taking them there often and by arranging for them to have library cards as soon as possible.

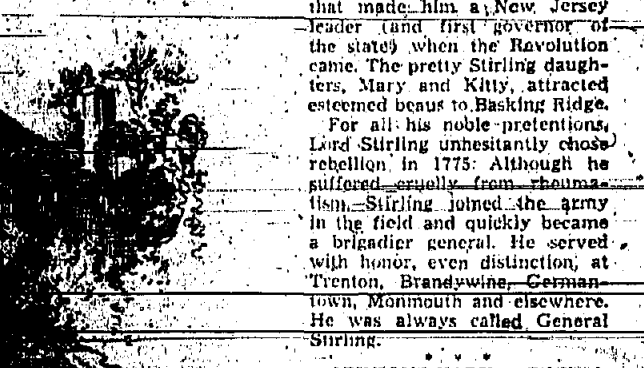

But in case you don't deserve praise for past performance, start making up for lost time. Remember that consciously or unconsciously your children are probably modeling themselves after you. If they see you reading something besides comic strips or the Sports page, if they hear you talking with interest about books, politics, history, art, science, or music, your home undoubtedly already has a built-in climate for learning. Chances are you won't have to do much else except provide a quiet, well-lighted place where your child can concentrate on his studies.

Cancer Society Will Hear Ubell

"Milestone in Cancer Research" will be the topic of a talk by Earl Ubell of Hackensack, science editor of the New York Herald Tribune, when he addresses the annual meeting of the Union County Chapter, American Cancer Society, at the Balfour Golf Club, Springfield, on Sept. 26 at 8 p. m.

Registration and coffee hour will begin at 7:30 p. m. The meeting will also include election of board members, officers and a brief review of the year's activities.

SURVIVED BRITISH

One of the most beautiful of the Springfield Public Library is all that remains of a house constructed in Springfield about 1840, according to Dan Baker, curator of the Historical Society. The house was one of those not fully destroyed by the British in their retreat during the Revolutionary War. Palmer has recently restored the old brick house.

How To Help Your Child Get Into College

It Starts When He Is Only A Toddler

Whether or not your child goes to college may depend less on how much money you have than on how much intelligence, learning and talent he has. An applicant with only money may have a hard time finding a college to accept him; an applicant with talent and brains may get a scholarship.

What should a provident parent do? First, he should invest in a good car. Second, and just as important, if not more so, he should encourage his child's creative and intellectual talents, making an effort to fulfill his special talents.

ASK AMY . . . by Amy Adams

Dear Amy: After an unsuccessful marriage of the age of 18, I have now two and half years old. I'm now and am working 41 hours a week trying to support the child and myself. I left my husband when the baby was only five months old, and in to my divorce we made an agreement for him to pay only a small amount of alimony in exchange for seeing the child regularly.

Dear Amy: How can I get him to become more interested in his son? He's been out of style. I have been going out of style. I have been out of style. I have been out of style.

Dear Amy: If your husband has lost interest in the child, there is nothing you can do about it. The courts cannot compel him to make regular visits but they can compel him to pay the alimony if he fails to arrears.

Dear Amy: You have to make the best of the situation by giving him the love and discipline of a mother and a father.

Dear Amy: Please print my letter. I have plenty of other women have my problem.

Dear Amy: I have been married five weeks and I find out his car is mortgaged.

Dear Amy: Several months ago, and he told me our wedding date would have to wait until next year.

Dear Amy: He borrowed $300 for the wedding. All I have received from him is one month's rent for the apartment which was mine to start with.

Dear Amy: I would really like to know what his plans are.

Dear Amy: He is not coming to terms with this feeling of resentment.

Dear Amy: It is important for parents to come to terms with this feeling of resentment.

Dear Amy: If parents don't come to terms with this feeling of resentment, the child will be affected.

Dear Amy: Naturally, this sudden reversal is hard for parents to take, and they resent it.

Dear Amy: It's natural that the child will respond with admiration for the teacher.

TOP PLACE FOR TEACHER.
 Starting school is a milestone for not only children but for parents, too. Up to now, the child thought his parents were perfect; now his teacher has a place and parents are corrected terms what teacher says and does.

Naturally, this sudden reversal is hard for parents to take, and they resent it. They really are glad he likes school, but it wears them down when he is so devoted to teacher that he talks of nothing else.

It is important for parents to come to terms with this feeling of resentment. Just because the child likes and admires the teacher doesn't mean he loves his parents less. His world has been his parents, with friends and relatives seen occasionally. Now, he spends hours each day with another adult who is nice to him and interested in him. It's natural that the child will respond with admiration for the teacher.

If parents don't come to terms with their natural feeling of resentment, they are inclined to take away the youngster's admiration for the teacher. If parents talk about how much they love school or how stupid their teachers were, the child will be influenced.

By taking this admiration for teacher in their stride, parents can help the child form future positive attitudes toward school, as well as making the immediate present enjoyable.

Charge Withdrawn Against Bergquist

The complaint against a young Union man for allegedly driving his sports car over the legs of a Madison girl was withdrawn in Springfield Municipal Court Monday night at the request of the complainant.

The girl, Marianne Lewis, 20, told Magistrate Thomas A. Argyria she wanted to withdraw her complaint against Victor P. Bergquist Jr., 21, of San Francisco, Union, and the magistrate agreed.

The alleged incident took place July 24 at the Garden of Eatin' on Rt. 22 in Springfield.

'Swaim House' -- Built In 1774 -- To Welcome New Occupants

Some 72 years ago, William Swaim, a young man from Curwillo, England, constructed a house for his family on what was at that time Morris Ave.

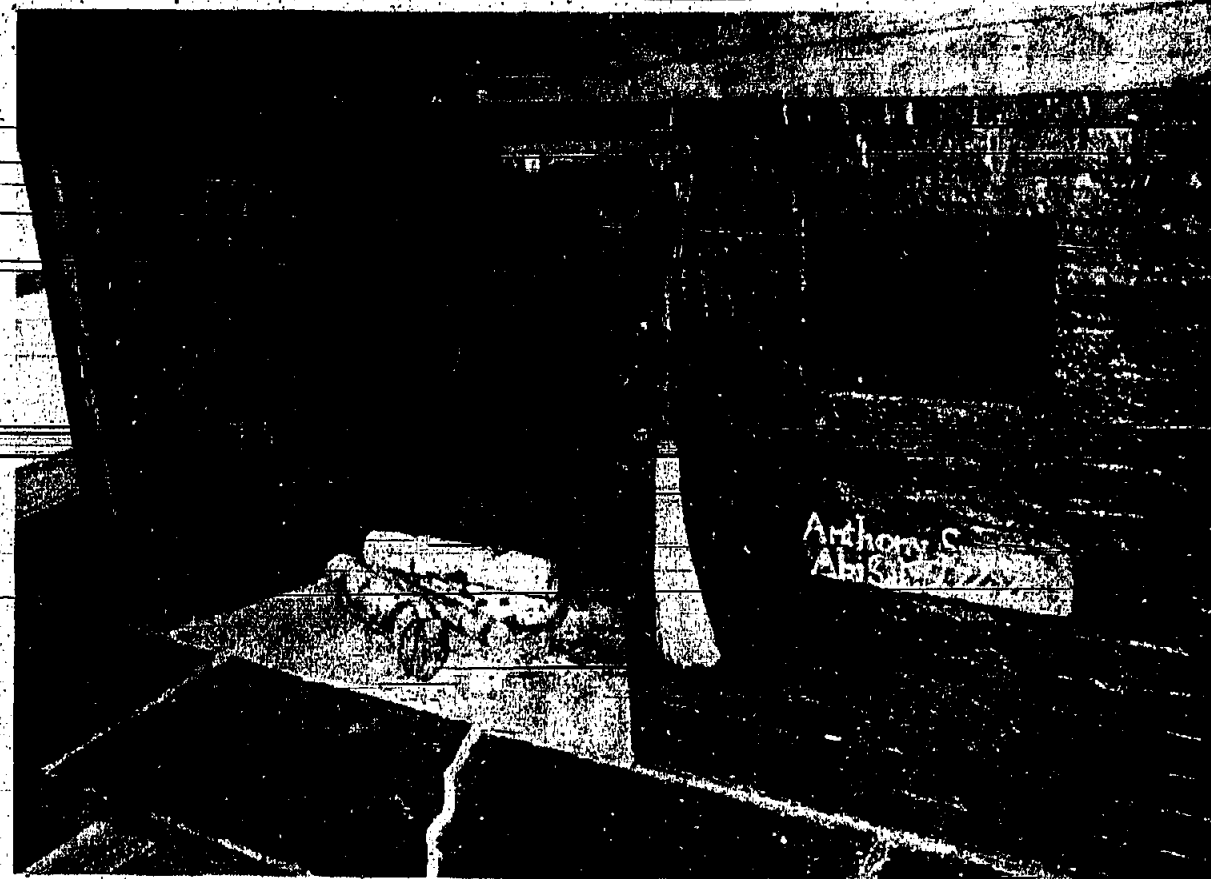

Although the house hasn't been moved, the name of the street was changed in Morris Ave. and the house is one of the oldest in the city.

Charges And Countercharges -- Man Found Guilty, Waitress Not

Countersuits were filed in Springfield Municipal Court Monday night against a Springfield waitress and a man, both being fined $15 and the woman being found not guilty in Springfield Municipal Court Monday night.

Magistrate Thomas A. Argyria found Ronald Dittman guilty and fined him. Found not guilty was Jean James of Chapman St., Irvington, who is a waitress at the Springfield Diner.

In another case a bad check charge was withdrawn at the request of the complainant, Gem Electronics on Rt. 22. The defendant agreed to make restitution in the amount of $14.61. Gerald O. Meyer, of 170 Lin-

TWO-CENTURY-OLD SWAIM HOUSE will welcome new residents to this charming hearth; Mrs. Elsie Banner, her son, daughter, and daughter-in-law. Uprooted from their Morris Ave. home by the construction of Route 78, the family is moving into the historic Swaim House at 231 S. Springfield Ave. Built in 1774, the old house is one of the few survivors of the Battle of Springfield still standing.

SOLD BY GEORGINA McMULLEN -- Home at 231 South Springfield Avenue sold to Mrs. Eugene Banner and family of 342 Morris Avenue, Springfield. This sale was negotiated by Verna E. Anderson an associate of the Georgina McMullen Corporation, 41 Mountain Avenue, Springfield, DR 6-0200.

collected with her planned move, for the well-known Swaim family.

Norman, his wife Virginia and Mrs. Banner, daughter, and Dorothy Sealles, became occupants of one of the oldest houses in Springfield, the Swaim House at 231 S. Springfield Ave.

Some historians report that the Swaim House, built in 1774, was one of those left standing when the British evacuated the area after the Battle of Springfield, because it was used as a hospital for the wounded.

Don Palmer, curator of the Springfield Historical Society, says that only the houses in the "Main St." area were fired as troops left town. The Swaim house, situated on a farm somewhat removed from this area, was spared.

Mrs. Banner said she is enchanted with the house, which has the name, Anthony Swaim, and the date 1774 carved into the dining room fireplace.

A certificate of authenticity went along with the building certifying its age and history. "There is still a huge black kettle in the dining room fireplace," Mrs. Banner said.

"This was part of the original equipment in the house. Although the floor of the dining room has been replaced, she said, the other floors are highly polished. The floor boards, she said, are about a foot in width.

"There are three fireplaces in the house," she explained, "counting the one in the dining room. There is also another in the living room and the third in the music room. The fireplace in the music room is made of black marble."

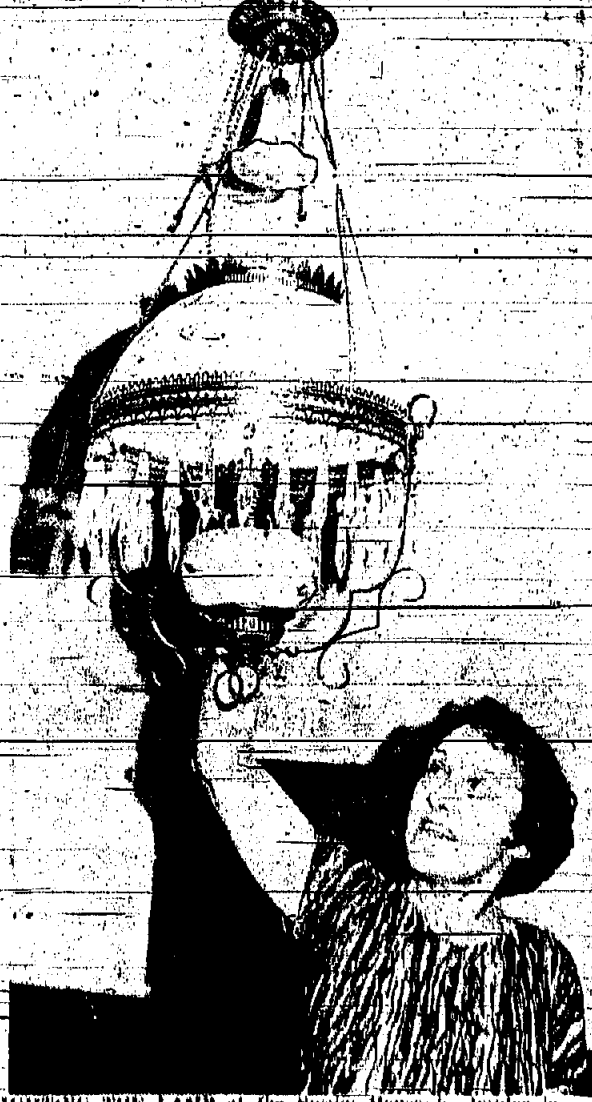

She said she noted that in addition to the house was constructed in 1774.

Mrs. Banner said that the house was in "excellent repair" and that the family would have to undertake only minor decorations in one room.

"It's so charming," she said, "with the pull lamps still on the ceiling. Now they're electric but it's easy to imagine the days when they had to be raised and lowered for filling with oil.

"We are not related, as we first thought, to the original family who lived in the house. We are, however, related to the Swaims -- spelled with an 'N' -- who were among the early settlers of Elizabeth and Newark.

Presently in the process of moving, Mrs. Banner expects that the family will be living in a show place before long.

MR. BANNER, THE LAMP at the Swaim House is similar in today's electrical age. Mrs. Dorothy Sealles, daughter of the new owner, demonstrates how the lights used to pull down for fueling. (Photos by Bob Hester)

Drama, Fashion Shows Highlight 'ORT' Meeting

Many Ways To Prepare And Dress Cabbage Slaw

By MARIAN KEMP
 Home Economist
 Acme Markets

CABBAGE SLAW can be made in many ways — with sour cream, mayonnaise or a cooked dressing. It may become a fruit slaw by adding diced apple or pineapple, or vegetables as in the recipe for Vegetable Slaw.

Avoid last minute fuss by shredding the cabbage ahead of time. Shred it extra fine for flavor. To insure crispness, toss with a few ice cubes and place in the refrigerator for an hour. When ready to serve, remove ice and combine with remaining ingredients.

CABBAGE AND ROMAINE LETTUCE SLAW
 3 cups finely shredded cabbage
 1 cup finely shredded Romaine
 1 cup diced celery
 3 tablespoons finely chopped onion
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 3/4 teaspoon black pepper
 1/2 cup sour cream
 1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
 Shredded green pepper
 Combine cabbage, Romaine, celery and onion in a salad bowl. Mix salt, black pepper, sour cream, vinegar and lemon juice. Pour over vegetables. Toss lightly but thoroughly. Garnish with shredded green peppers. Serves 8.

VEGETABLE SLAW
 4 cups shredded cabbage
 1/2 cup shredded onion
 1/2 cup diced celery
 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
 1/2 cup grated carrot
 1/4 cup sliced radishes
 1 cup mayonnaise
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon paprika
 1 teaspoon sugar
 2 tablespoons vinegar
 1 teaspoon lemon juice
 2 tablespoons milk
 Combine all vegetables in salad bowl. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over salad. Toss lightly but thoroughly. Serves 8.

HOT SLAW
 1 egg
 1/2 cup flour
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup mustard
 2 teaspoons sugar
 Dash cayenne
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1/2 cup milk
 1/4 cup vinegar
 Medium cabbage head
 Beat egg in a bowl, then mix in flour, salt, mustard, sugar and cayenne smoothly. Melt butter or margarine in the top of a

THE Wikler SHOE BY BUSTER BROWN

The makers of Buster Brown dare to say:

"Bare feet are healthy feet!"

But this new kind of shoe for children 3 and under is so revolutionary, it feels like "walking barefooted with shoes on".

The trouble with feet in shoes, says Simon J. Wikler, a Florida podiatrist and creator of this remarkable shoe. According to Dr. Wikler, 8% have foot trouble by age one, 41% by age five, and 50% by age 20. Yet he has never heard of a native with fallen arches in a county where most people go barefoot. But going barefoot isn't always practical, so he developed and patented a new kind of shoe that lets children "go barefoot with shoes on".

The fan-shaped toe design of the Wikler Shoe™ by Buster Brown let toes spread naturally, foot muscles flex and develop fully. Its soft leather uppers have no irritating inside seams or metal shanks to interfere with the flexibility of the sole. It lets a baby's foot grow and exercise normally.

We are privileged to carry this remarkable new shoe. Won't you stop-by soon?

LEADER PROFILE

He and another Springfielder, David Gordon, recently put off a comedy act at the Springfield Country Club in Bloomfield Park, where both are members. It was a parody on the club and was reported very successful.
"If you wanted to become a comedian," he said, "you'd be best off in Springfield."
"Was published in the local press to criticize," he answered, "to change a stable and conventional profession." He added that his father, who had died when he was four years old, had been a lawyer, making the legal profession somewhat of an emotional magnet for him.
He and his wife, the former Lorena Stuart of Manchester, Mass., lived in Springfield for four years.
"Her name is Loretta," he explained. "That's a very pretty name," he was told.
"She's pretty, too," he said.
The couple has two sons, Scott, 8, and Mitchell, 6, both students at Edward Webb School.
Are they glad school has started?
"No, glad," two strong young voices from the bedroom.
On the ground floor, the answer might have been yes.
No, no more singles.
A NATIVE OF Elizabeth, Selzer distinguished himself at Thomas Jefferson High School as a varsity football guard for four years. His athletic prowess, plus a high scholastic average, won him a full scholarship at Rutgers University - one of 10 awarded by an alumni group each year. He did not play college ball, though, as this was not a provision of the scholarship. Instead he devoted himself to winning a BA degree in political science and to wooing Loretta, whom he married during his sophomore year. Loretta also has a degree in political science here from New Jersey College for Women, known now as Douglass.
After graduation he attended Rutgers Law School evening working days in a restaurant. He has owned at that time in Newark. He was in law office in 1949, after interrupting his study for two years of service with the United States Air Force.
As an undergraduate at that work he had taken an advanced R.O.T.C. course and was awarded a commission as battalion adjutant. Recalled to active duty in 1952, he and his wife lived in a trailer in New York, Maryland and Washington, D. C., where he attended Air Intelligence Officers' School. He was later assigned to the State of Tennessee, where he used ground radio in chief of military signals developed. He was separated with the rank of first lieutenant, later as a reserve officer he was promoted to captain.
After his return to civilian life he began the hectic routine of completing law school, serving the required apprenticeship as a law clerk and working once again in his father-in-law's restaurant. The lawyer, he declared, is a "very busy man" and a contact for Governor Gov. Dixie Lee.
He passed the bar exam on the first try after cramming with a concentrated frenzy for weeks, and was sworn in as a lawyer two months after graduation.
He immediately dropped in, without introduction, on Hamoch, Weltsman, Myers, Stern and Bessoff of Newark, a law firm, and was hired as an associate. Last July he was made a partner.
Asked if his legal ambitions were not served in his chosen profession, he agreed that "every lawyer is something of a ham" with one reservation.
"A lawyer is a dignified ham."

Holy Cross Nursery School Opens 4th Year Of Operation

A group of 100 school youngsters from three to five years of age began their year of study at Holy Cross Nursery School, which is in Springfield. The daily schedule includes Bible stories, prayers, free play, oral expression, songs, nursery rhymes, games, finger plays, dramatics, and story telling. Handicrafts include crocheting, cutting and pasting, drawing, painting and group projects. A playground equipped with sandboxes, and toys, ladder, etc. is provided by Mrs. Edwin Thompson, 541 1/2 St. John's Church, 672 Springfield Ave., Summitt. The school begins its fourth year of operation with an enrollment of 20 children and room for a few more. It is approved by the Township of Springfield and the State Department of Education. Head teacher since the inception of the school has been Mrs. Joseph Hoerig of Chatham, who holds an A. B. degree in psychology from Uperia College.

FOUNDATION REMAINS
The parsonage of the Presbyterian Church stands on the foundation of the original parsonage built in the 1740's. Don Palmer, curator of the Springfield Historical Society says the story concerning the original building was that retreating revolutionaries who soldiers attempted to fire the building by placing a lighted torch at its side. But the fire was snuffed out. The building stood until it was retired by age.

HEALTH HINTS

From N. J. Medical Society

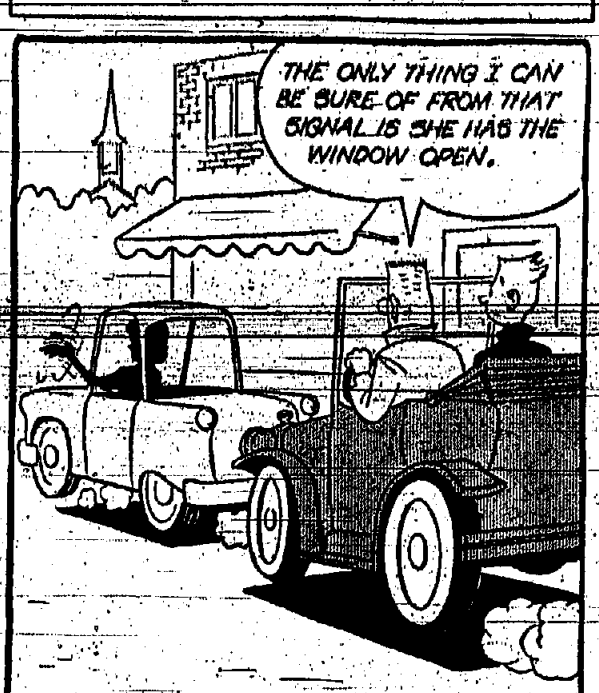

On Aging Gracefully: All of us constitute the aging population. We begin aging from the moment of birth; and the aging of today will be the aged of tomorrow. We give much thought to what can be done for the aged, but it is equally important that we who are aging consider what we can do for ourselves.

What we who are aging should realize is that, although others can provide physical necessities for us, only we can cultivate and attain that buoyancy of mind and desire for life which alone can impact the severity and stability of our old age.

Like twilight at its best, old age can be a time of golden experiences, the best and the last. We can make it so by building into our lives the things we will delight to recall. We can prepare for old age by regarding it not as the end of a road, but as the beginning of a splendid journey that will bring us safely home.

HALF-PAST TEEN

For And About Teenagers

Has Boy Changed Much In Year And A Half

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "In the past, I have been a year and a half since I have gone with Bill. We didn't stay together because we didn't care for each other. We like each other a lot, but because I wasn't allowed to go with him in his car, I am 17 now and he has been going with another girl. I have heard directly and indirectly that he still likes me and wants to take me out. He means very much to me and is among my dearest and most frequent thoughts."

OUR REPLY: We change from day to day, all of us. We grow older—and should get smarter, although this doesn't always hold true. The teenager should change more in a year and a half than an adult, naturally.

Pat Carroll To Star In Paper Mill Play

Pat Carroll, TV and stage comedienne and singer who currently is regular on the "David" show, will return to the Paper Mill Playhouse in the play "The Unforgettable Molly Brown."

Miss Carroll last appeared at the Millburn theatre in the spring of 1961 when she starred in "Once Upon A Mattress." She has been starring in theatre around the country this summer in "Gypsy."

SEATS in supersonic planes should be built to accommodate comfortably and safely a 225-pound man rather than the 170-pound accommodations which planners had in mind when designing today's commercial transports, says the Civil Aeronautics Administration. The report, research wing of the Federal Aviation Agency, says that the inertia of the seat on impact is greatly accelerated. The result is a heavier man "falls nowhere near the same protection. This, the report stresses, is especially wrong in view of the propensity of the U.S. population to grow taller and heavier with each passing year.

EARTH SLIPES threaten the Washington, D.C. area, warn officials of the Geological Survey, Department of the Interior. Studies indicate that certain land forms and rock types will become unstable and begin to "flow" if disturbed by building and highway construction.

AN EXPERIMENT which may take 2,000 years to complete has been started by South African authorities on primitive set Alexander Wilcox. He has had a rhinoceros chived out of stone and placed in his garden in weather. The experiment may provide a clue to the time it took primitive man to excavate and become civilized.

ANCIENT 100,000-year-old bones more than 10,000 years ago, will be shipped shortly from Chicago to Hannover, N.H. to be studied by a chemical analysis. The bones, which are said to be from the hominid ancestor of the big steinbock, are being analyzed to determine if they are the same as those of the modern collection of the new bones of the U. S. Army Cold Regions Research and Engineering Laboratory in Portland, Me., and are an extremely sensitive material.

OIL, according to big thinkers at the Sixth World Petroleum Congress held in Frankfurt, Germany, may eventually replace the desert that take up 15 per cent of the earth's surface. In Libya, dunes were planted with acacia seedlings, then sprayed with oil. A year later the plants had grown into hoary six-footers, trees capable of breaking the wind and taking over the stabilization job themselves.

Bailey Appointed Campaign Chief For Sen. Stamler

State Senator Nelson F. Stamler announced this week the appointment of former Union County Republican Chairman Charles P. Bailey of Westfield as his campaign manager. Bailey, presently Union County treasurer, a former freholder and former Westfield mayor, served as county GOP leader from 1958 until April of this year. Senator Stamler was elected to the Legislature's Upper Chamber in a special election last year and this year seeks his first full four-year term. Previously, he served two terms as the only Union County Republican Assemblyman, first elected in 1959. "Charlie Bailey last year played a key role in the Republican election victories, and his experience and knowledge is a significant addition to this year's campaign. I am delighted he accepted the task as my campaign manager," Stamler commented.

DINNER ON TUESDAY

Sen. Javits Speaker At Fete For Stamler

Program arrangements for a dinner on Tuesday honoring State Senator Nelson F. Stamler (R-Union), a candidate for reelection, were announced this week by Charles S. Tracy of Hillside, dinner chairman. United States Senator Jacob Javits of New York will be guest speaker at the affair, which will be held at the Elizabeth Hotel, Elizabeth.

SEN. NELSON F. STAMLER

Tracy said that Senator Javits will be introduced by New Jersey Republican State Chairman Webster B. Todd and that Frank Scott of Elizabeth, chairman of the Union County Republican Finance Committee, will serve as toastmaster. A welcoming address will be delivered by Tracy, who also will introduce the other Republican candidates. Expected to be present are Assembly candidates Frank X. McDermott, Nicholas St. J. LaCorte, Loretta Collins, Peter J. McDonough, Henry P. Wester, Union County register candidate Joseph F. Parkin, surrogate candidate Miss Mary C. Kanane of Union, and freholder candidates Harry Osborne, Edward Tiller and Walter Ulrich.

Invocation will be offered by the Rev. Monastor William C. Hainbuch, pastor of St. Genevieve's R.C. Church, in Elizabeth, and the benediction by Rabbi Geshon Chertoff, of Temple B'nai Israel, Elizabeth. Music will be furnished by Charles Young and his orchestra of Elizabeth. Following the address by Senator Javits, Stamler will speak. Stamler is seeking reelection to his first full four-year term.

Ceramic Show

Betty Schille of Union and Ruth Keller of Kenilworth are two of the 20 ceramic artists who will participate in the second annual Scotch Plains Ceramic Show this week at All Saints Episcopal Church, Scotch Plains. The Union County Society for Crippled Children and Adults will benefit from the proceeds.

Flower Show Set This Week End By Trailside Club

The annual flower show of the Trailside Garden Club of Union County will be held Tuesday and Wednesday from 1 to 5 p.m. at Trailside Nature and Science Center, Watchung. The show, entitled "Trailside's Tribute to Tercentenary," will consist of 10 classes in artistic arrangements for adults, five for juniors, and the following horticultural classes: Zinnias, marigolds, asters, dianthus, geraniums, petunias, and other perennial flowers, dahlias, gladiolus and any other bulbous or tuberous flowers, roses, birch, vine or shrubs, house plants, vegetables and fruit displays. All classes are open to amateurs who are county residents. Among the businesses at the event will be Mrs. Louis Cohen of 73 Kew dr., Springfield.

Miss Wade Cited By Keuka College

KEUKA PARK, N. Y. — Barbara H. Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wade, 442 Bailey ave., Union, N. J., has been named to dean's list at Keuka College for high academic achievement during the 1962-63 college year.

Names of dean's list students were presented last Wednesday by Dean Margaret I. Conway at a formal academic convocation, the first all-college event of the new year at Keuka. Miss Wade was graduated from Keuka College in June with a bachelor of arts degree with a major in psychology.

50-Piece Symphony In Concert Tuesday

A 50-piece symphonic orchestra will play a two-hour "Concert Under the Stars" at the Mall area in Watchung Park next Tuesday at 8 p.m. The Mall area is located between the Henry B. Chittfield Memorial Garden and the Watchung Lake. The orchestra will play selections of both popular and concert music under the direction of George Schwartz of Newark. Spectators are requested to bring lawn chairs and to enjoy the program from the lawn areas. The date for this program is Tuesday, Sept. 24. This program will be the fourth and final "Concert Under the Stars" to be presented in the Park System this season. The other programs held at the Mall area proved popular and attracted some 2,000 spectators. "Concert Under the Stars" is sponsored by the Union County Park Commission and the Music Association of Elizabeth, Local 157, AFM, and is made possible through a grant from the Music Performance Trust Funds of the Broadcasting Industry.

Beltz Appointed By Young GOP

Peter P. Johnson, chairman of the Union County Young Republicans, has announced the appointment of Frank H. Beltz of Scotch Plains 1963 campaign chairman of the county-wide organization of young republican groups. Beltz will be responsible for planning and coordinating activities by Young Republicans throughout Union County on behalf of state, county and local GOP candidates, and will also serve on the newly-formed seven member advisory committee established by Jay A. Stamler, chairman of the Union County Republican Committee. The objectives of the YR campaign Committee, which will be comprised of Young GOP leaders from each town in Union County, are to assure that the individual efforts of all Young Republicans will be used to the best advantage in supplementing rather than duplicating activities of the senior organization, Johnson said.

New Hospital Aide

Mrs. James Law of Elizabeth has been appointed to the newly-created post of director of public relations and volunteers at the Elizabeth General Hospital and Dispensary. Gertrude E. Ellington, director, announced this week. Mrs. Law has been director of volunteers at the hospital since 1958, and is a past president of the New Jersey Association of Volunteers in Hospitals. She is a member of the board of trustees of the Elizabeth Adult School, and vice president of the Citizens League of Elizabeth.

Ask County Voter What He Thinks, McDonough Says

"The best way to find out what the people think is to ask them," according to freholder Peter J. McDonough, a Republican candidate for the State Assembly. In line with this thinking, McDonough will make 20 personal appearances in various parts of Union County within the next two weeks to get answers to some key questions. Today he was at the Y in Scotch Plains.

Eastern To Expand Florida Jet Flights

Jet schedules between New York-New Jersey and the principal Florida resorts are being greatly expanded by Eastern Air Lines for the coming winter, according to James E. Reinke, the company's Director of Community Relations in this area. This is being done in anticipation of the greatest Florida winter travel season in the airline's 30-year history, he said, and will provide a record airlift capacity between the metropolitan area and the winter vacationland.

The number of daily non-stop jet flights from New York to Orlando and Tampa will be increased 23 per cent, providing more than 3,000 seats a day on these flights, Reinke said. This is being accomplished through the addition of five more non-stop and one-stop jet flights to last year's schedules, bringing the total up to 27 this winter as compared with only 24 a year ago, with additional jet aircraft available to provide second sections when needed over weekends and during peak holiday periods, starting Dec. 15.

To provide this increased capacity, and to insure even better service this winter, Eastern is supplementing its present fleet of 30 Douglas DC-8 and Boeing 720 jets with three more large capacity, long-range jet aircraft under lease, Reinke said. Two of these will be capable of providing five daily round-trips, adding about 750 daily seats in each direction, and the third aircraft will be used to provide jet flights to Miami.

Eastern is scheduled to start taking delivery of a fleet of 30 new jet Boeing 727s early this fall. The first five of these latest type U.S. jet will be available in January to provide still more capacity on the routes linking New England and the Middle Atlantic states with Florida vacationland during the traditionally heaviest part of the winter-vacation season.

From Newark, Eastern's Florida-bound jets will depart 11:20 a.m. for Miami (non-stop); 4:20 p.m. for Jacksonville (non-stop); West Palm Beach and Fort Lauderdale or Miami (non-stop). These four flights will provide a total of 474 non-stop jet seats daily from Newark to Florida.

Additionally, New Jerseyites wishing to avail themselves of Eastern's jet flights operating via Idlewild Airport in New York City during these hours of the day and night when most non-stop helicopter services are not available, will be able to give the best air service Eastern ever offered.

SCHOOL'S IN... KIDS ARE OUT... DRIVE SAFELY!

ALERT motorists everywhere, drive a bit more carefully at all times, watch the roads and curbs a bit more closely, in order to protect the precious lives of children, going to and from school!

Here are some of the ways that you can help make our streets safe for school children and grown-ups, too:

1. Be sure that your car is mechanically safe. Check brakes, steering, lights, wheel balance and alignment, tires at frequent intervals.
2. Watch out for School Zone signs and adhere strictly to the speed restrictions in these areas.
3. Watch out for and obey school safety patrolmen.
4. Never pass a school bus loading or discharging passengers.
5. Watch for children darting out into the street. In fact, watch out for children EVERYWHERE and ALL the time.
6. Remember children are unpredictable. Their safety is YOUR responsibility. When in doubt STOP!

Sports Activity Tops Fall Recreation Bill

Approximately 120 boys jammed their way onto the Melrose field Saturday morning to register for the "Youth Football Clinic." The clinic, which will actually begin this Saturday, is the kick-off for the fall and winter sports program conducted by the Springfield Recreation Department.

Off-Style Bowling

JOE JOSEPHS — Accused of Kissing the Ball.

By JOE JOSEPHS Brunswick Advisory Staff When I am set to begin the approach, I am not holding the ball waist high, or to one side. I hold it dead center, face high. This maneuver is an announced factor in keeping the ball on a straight path when winding up or let-go. I hold the ball that way because keeping the ball face high is a factor in keeping my speed and timing. I use a four-step delivery, but precede it with a left hand step with my left foot. I have no pushover. I feel the ball drop down from the level and go into the backswing. The ball swings back and forth by its own weight, which gives me a momentum swing with a minimum of effort which is in the back of enough bowling. My arm is in front of my body, and I am ahead of the ball, catching everything.

At Galloping Hill Best Ball Tourney

The qualifying round of the 27th annual Union County Embroidery Links Best Ball Tournament, sponsored by the Union County Park Commission, will be played at the Galloping Hill Golf Course, Kenilworth, N.J., beginning Sunday.

N.J. Party Permit Allows Hunters A 'Bonus Deer'

New Jersey deer hunters who wish to bag a bonus deer under a party permit should order parties of four now, according to the Division of Fish and Game. Applications for party permits will be available shortly from hunting license dealers. Applications postmarked prior to Oct. 1 will not be accepted. A party permit entitles the party to shoot one deer of either sex in a specific area of the State during the firearm deer season, December 9-14. Each hunter may still bag one antlered buck anywhere in the State under his regular hunting license during the six-day season.

Jewelers Down Jaycees, 8-4, For Second Consecutive Title

Blasting out five runs in the first two innings, the Wesley Jewellers squad downed the Mul-tiple Jaycees 8-4, Friday to win the Springfield Adult Softball League post-season playoffs for the second consecutive year. Wesley, which moved through the preliminary rounds of the double elimination playoffs unharmed, did not falter in battling a tough Jaycees squad, which had taken its last six games.

Relics From Football Hall Of Fame Currently On Display In Short Hills

The largest collection of football relics, including helmets, jerseys, and patches, is now on display at the Hall of Fame in Short Hills, N.J. The collection, on loan from the National Football Foundation, will be on display seven days a week until the end of October. Among the items being displayed are the jersey worn by Pudge Hefflinger, of Yale, in 1902, and the helmet worn by Jim Thorpe in 1909.

3 Speeders Forfeit Licenses 30 Days

Three young motorists forfeited their licenses for 30-day periods in Springfield Municipal Court Monday night for speeding and were fined by Magistrate Thomas A. Argviss. Two of them, Arthur L. Carlwright, 23, of North Plainfield and Edward Breyer, 26, of Berkeley Heights, each paid $25 for speeding at 65 miles per hour in a 50-mph zone. The third, Raymond T. Holtz, 19, of Elizabeth paid a $20 fine for speeding at 63 miles per hour in a 50-mph zone. Henry L. Terry, 30, of 62 McKee St., Springfield, was fined $50 for driving while on a revoked license and given a 60-day suspended jail sentence. A parolee in an unpowered motor vehicle was fined $25.

Dayton's Booters Face Livingston In Season Opener

After completing a week of strenuous training, including the leg muscles learning how not to handle the ball but to boot it, and building up their endurance, the Dayton Regional High School soccer team has more of the same to look forward to. The soccer squad, which is scheduled to begin its season next Friday at Elizabeth against Jefferson High, has not yet had an exhibition contest because coach John Palfi is intent that this year's squad will have a good basic knowledge of the game.

Drilling the 40 boys who tried out for this year's team, Palfi is concentrating on the fundamentals of soccer. "We have not yet had an exhibition scrimmage," the coach explains. "There are exercises in the form of patterns and then there are calisthenics. Teaching the game from the grass roots seems to be the key. We are attempting to apply the knowledge which was picked up during the skill sessions and non-contact field work, called a scrimmage game for Saturday. The coach, holding no horses back, let the leather fly in the intra-squad game. The pressure was on and the boys had to hit; they had to run through an opposing line, some of them for the first time.

Working on fundamentals for the major portion of the week, the squad learned the basics of blocking, tackling, and some basic offensive patterns. Palfi is attempting to apply the knowledge which was picked up during the skill sessions and non-contact field work, called a scrimmage game for Saturday. The coach, holding no horses back, let the leather fly in the intra-squad game. The pressure was on and the boys had to hit; they had to run through an opposing line, some of them for the first time.

There are approximately 10 freshmen out for the team. The scoring punch should be wrapped around the play of Bert Thiele. "I also have high hopes for Richard Mayer, Keith Nelson, Stu Fallick, George Williams, Steve Rosenfield and Val Spina," the coach said. The Dayton team will play 15 games this year. The first home game, against Kellen Tech, will follow contests against Jefferson and A. L. Johnson on Sept. 20th and 24th respectively. After the Sept. 27 game against Edison, the booters will face Scotch Plains, away; Linden, home; Irving, away; Governor Livingston, away; Union, away; Irvington, away; Watchung Hills, away; Westfield, home; Cranford, home; Scotch Plains, home; Westfield, away and Hillside, away.

Horseshoe Tourney Slated For Sept. 22

The 27th annual Union County Horseshoe Tourney, sponsored by the Union County Park Commission, will be played at the Watchung Park Horseshoe Course, Elizabethtown, N.J., on Wednesday, Sept. 22, beginning at noon. The tournament is open to all high school boys or work in Union County. All contestants may qualify by playing an hour on the course. The tourney will be divided into three classes: 13 and under, 14-17, and 18 and over. The tourney will close at noon Wednesday.

County Conducts Riding Program

A program for organizing adult horseback riding groups will again be conducted by the Union County Park Commission this fall at the Watchung Stable, Gladstone Ave., Summit. Thomas N. Tully, director of the Watchung Troops, recently stated that the demand for organized adult riding programs has increased greatly over the past few years. Applicants may be novice, intermediate, or advanced riders, and the groups will be supervised by a competent staff of instructors. A string of fifty gentle mounts are maintained at the Watchung Stable. In addition to participating in the groups, riders will ride through the Watchung Reservation. The schedule of adult riding is as follows: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 9:30 a.m.; Wednesday at 10:30 a.m.; and Sunday at 2 p.m. The fees are $3.00 per ride. Applications are now available at the Watchung Stable.

Revoked-List Driver Fined $205; Case Involved Policeman's Death

Peter J. Motzenbecker, 31-year-old son of a Newark policeman, was fined $205 in Union County today for driving on the revoked list last year during a 130-mile-per-hour chase in which a Springfield policeman was killed.

Motzenbecker, who pleaded guilty, also was placed on probation for 90 days after Judge Chester A. Woldenbinner suspended a 90-day jail sentence.

Motzenbecker made the plea during the appeal of a $200 fine imposed in Springfield Municipal Court in June. Asst. County Prosecutor Leslie P. Clark said the defendant admitted leading Patrolman Joseph Rosemer on a high-speed chase on Meigs ave. in Springfield March 13, 1962. The patrolman died at the scene when his car was crushed during the chase, which hit speeds of 130 mph, Clark said.

Motor vehicle records show Motzenbecker now has a record of 24 motor vehicle violations and has paid fines totaling approximately $2,000.

LWV OF COUNTY SETS CANDIDATE EVENT OCT. 29

August Rainfall Hit 1.94 Inches; UIC Meteorologist Dutloq Says

Rainfall totaled only 1.94 inches during August in the county, with the exception of a trace on Aug. 29, the meteorologist said.

August rainfall of 1.94 inches compares with 4.16 inches in 1961, 4.27 inches in 1962, and 2.46 inches in 1960.

Thunderstorms were recorded on Aug. 1, 11 and 20, and light showers on Aug. 21 and 22. There were seven clear days, 16 partly cloudy days and eight cloudy days. The prevailing wind was southwesterly.

The most rain in August fell on Aug. 21, 1962, when 1.1 inches fell. The average maximum temperature was 82.6 degrees and the average minimum was 61.6 degrees.

By ART HANSEN
GOOD LISTENING - Ten-episode radio series and the Man Quinlin Prison Choir raise their voices in an album of 12 religious selections as recorded at San Quentin Prison.
"Yo Aho" said The Master, "Whiter Than Snow," "Must Jesus Bear The Cross Alone," "Come Thou Fount," "O Worship The King" (CAPITOL-14883)

Bryner is now co-owner of a hit in Kyoto called "Cool Yul's"
Charlton Heston refused a razor sponsor's offer to shed his "The Greatest Story Ever Told" whiskers on TV and all those whiskers went down the drain when he shaved himself.

"Here's Love" looks like a smash Broadway musical. 20th Century Fox has first film cast on the production...
Englund's Albert Finney, who'll star on Broadway this season at the religious reformer in David Greig's "Father," is another hot musical star.
