 competition. Riverside won this event and with it its first championship.
 The first event of the day was the standing broad jump for boys. The winner of this event was Bruce Smith. Bruce is from Sandmeier Playground. Mark Wexler of Regional Playground placed second in this event, while Jimmy Schoch of Riverside was third. Joey Pepe of Caldwell Playground finished fourth.
 Boys' and Girls' Paddle Tennis were the next events. Warren Danzinger and Barbara Kornish, both of Irwin Playground, made them a sweep for their playground as they were crowned champs of the paddle tennis event. Mark Hummel placed second for the boys, while Tom Weber of Riverside was third. Patty Flynn of Denham was second in the girls' competition, and Lisa Olesky of Regional was third.

Tetherball Finals
 Boys' tether ball was a close event. Fred Vollerst of Henshaw met Billy Carroll of Riverside in the finals. Billy Carroll of Riverside was the winner. Billy Fitzgerald of Regional was third, and Larry Breeden of Sandmeier placed fourth.
 In the girls' competition Mary Garner of Sandmeier Playground defeated Phyllis Buzin of Irwin in the finals. Kathy Cull of Riverside finished third, and Marion Jacques of Denham was fourth.
 Boys' foul shooting was the next event to be completed. Howard Spielman of Regional Playground outshot the rest of the competition to win the crown. Willis Rutz of Riverside finished second. Mike Chotiner of Irwin was third, and Bob Wilson of Denham Playground was fourth.
 The Girls' foul shooting event produced the day's first major upset. In this event, Nancy Daunho of Irwin defeated last year's champion, Claire Franklin of Sandmeier Playground. Claire finished second in the competition, while Eileen Francis of Riverside was third.

 The Boys' washers competition produced a tight final match between Donnie Buehrer of Henshaw and Johnny Schoch of Riverside. Buehrer was the winner in a very close game. Kenneth Flockhart of Irwin was third, and Tommy Jacques of Denham was fourth.
 Girls' jacks also had some tight matches. Anne Appa of Henshaw was the winner in a close finish over Missy Sheehan of Irwin Playground. Joyce Martini, representing Riverside Playground, finished third, while fourth place went to Julie Haberberg of Denham Playground.
County Champion
 Girls' hopscotch provided no surprises this year. Janice Hardgrove, who has won the competition for the past four years, won again this year with ease. Janice is also the defending Union County champion for two years running. Janice swept through the competition last Wednesday, thus retaining the right to represent Springfield in the coming county championships. Janice represented Regional Playground, finishing second behind Janice was Sharon Johnson of Irwin Playground. Sharon outdistanced Laurie Davis of Woodside and Nancy Jaeger of Riverside, who finished third and fourth.

 Boys' and Girls' ring tennis were the next events. Dan D'Andrea of Riverside Playground turned back Mark Schaffer of Regional in the final match. Ricky Wnek of Irwin was third in this competition, while Hal Wasserman of Woodside finished fourth.
 In the girls' competition, Par Howarth of Irwin successfully defended the title she won last year. Sue Schaffer of Regional was second. Barbara Heady of Riverside finished third.

Checker Champion
 Don Eckman of Riverside put down several good opponents to win this event for the past few years. Bob Sasse of Henshaw finished second. Bobby Quinn of Irwin was third in this event, while Mike Davis of Sandmeier was fourth.
 Debbie Graveman, also of Riverside, made this event a clean sweep for the Riversides as she captured the girls' checker championship. Joanne Jacques of Denham placed second in the competition. Lucille Hardgrove, representing Caldwell, was third, and Patty Sheehan of Irwin Playground was fourth.
 The chess competition is always interesting, and this year was no exception. The boys' event was won by Scott Gordon of Regional Playground. Scott was defeated in the finals of this event last year. Billy Lyons of Henshaw Playground placed second in the competition, while Richy Falkin of Irwin Playground was third.

 Frances Moore of Riverside Playground won the chess competition for girls. Frances defeated Debbie Ziegler of Irwin in the final match. Third place was won by Janice Hardgrove.

Fourth place went to Eileen Flynn of Denham.
 The horseshoe championship was the final event of the day. In the girls' division, Linda Barrett of Irwin Playground defeated Eileen Francis of Riverside in a very close contest. The boys' championship was won by Skip Bukowski of Riverside Playground. Bruce Gerstein of Irwin placed second in the horseshoe event. It was this victory in the final event of the day that enabled Riverside to gain the team victory. In this final event, Bob Wilson of Denham was in third place. Larry Stewart of Sandmeier was the fourth place finisher.

but we are dealing with a question of priorities. The resources available are limited, and the choice made must serve the greatest need first. Adequate library facilities lie at the heart of any educational program, and heaven knows that our present library, located on the far side of our busiest thoroughfare, overcrowded and becoming more so every day, is far from adequate for a town that has grown as Springfield has.

"To take the position, as the

The library is out of the question because we must give priority to our schools, and then seriously to consider the civic center proposed at this time, is to me, to apply a distorted set of values to some very basic questions. So distorted are the values implicit, that I must wonder if the motivation to push aside the library doesn't depend more on the fact that this very same Township Committee had just given away the single best site for a library when it granted a variance to build a convenient home on Fadam Farm.

"Certainly, at the very least, if public funds are to be given for further study, the library people are just as entitled to them as the civic center people. The leadership of Springfield should be imaginative, not stultified.

"Let them explore all avenues, including, possibly, a combination civic center and library housed in the same building. Let's keep this a town governed for all of the people of the community."

LEADER PROFILE

CHIEF ORMOND W. MESKER

Back in March, 1948, when Ormond W. Mesker joined the Springfield Fire Department's staff of three (a fire chief, and two firemen — he was one of the latter), the department meagerly consisted of a 1941 Mack truck with a 750 gallon pump, a Diamond T. hosewagon and a 1927 Mack Oby service ladder truck (which still retained the old-time hard tires on it).

Mesker, now-Springfield's fire chief, recalls with amusement how each fireman made all of $2,400 a year, had two days a month off ("and if it snowed, we were expected to come in on our day off to shovel — no pay, you understand. It was EXPECTED of us"), and how the three men were constantly fighting brush fires.

"The big trouble at that time," he smiled, "was the constant brush fires because there were more meadows, fields and grass around here. And besides, the Rahway Valley Railroad steam engine, which used to come by a couple of times in the morning and a couple of times in the afternoon, puffing and chugging and letting off sparks, caused quite a number of brush fires. In fact, we would always put on the fire bell whenever we heard it coming in the distance. Now, of course, the Diesel has cured that."

"WE HAD SOME GOOD-SIZED fires back in those days," Chief Mesker reminisced. "There was the Union County Coal and Lumber fire, the Post Office fire down in the center of town . . . it caused quite a bit of damage, and once a paint shop burned down."

Mesker, husky, grim-faced, who gives every appearance of being a rough-and-ready outdoor man, started out in his home town, Cleveland, Ohio in the field of engineering. After he was graduated from Cleveland Heights High School, he took a course in heating and ventilation at the Domestic Science Engineering School "just outside of Chicago."

He also apprenticed in his father's tool and die firm for four years. "It was one of those family things. You know, three generations . . . my grandfather was a mechanical engineer, my father was a mechanical engineer and if I would've stayed long enough, I would've become a mechanical engineer."

"Actually, what I had planned to do when I got out of high school was to study to become a physical education teacher and coach."

"But when we moved east, I had an accident: A couple of kids and I were fooling around one day — to show off in front of some girls, and we all put a piece of tin on our tongues to see how far back in our mouths the tin would go, without our swallowing it. Well, I swallowed it all right — the piece of tin went right down into my lungs. I was sick for several years after that — and never went back to school. I worked at a shop, and then in the heating business. The Mesker moved to Maplewood in late-1920s."

"WE LIVED in New York before that for a while, then in East Orange before moving to Maplewood. My parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Mesker, still live there."

Mesker then joined Crocker, Wheel Corp., East Orange, where he worked in the tool department. We made 10 lb. trench mortar shells for the British government.

"I wound up as night superintendent there. We worked seven nights a week for 16 months. Then I worked as a shop superintendent in the National Youth Administration shop on West Runyon st., Newark. This was Mrs. Roosevelt's pet project. When it closed, I went across the street to take charge of the H.G. Straus 'People and Dogs'."

Mesker admitted that he had always wanted to be a fireman despite his father's and grandfather's occupations. When he finally took the required test, and joined the Springfield Fire Department in 1943, he worked with the two other men until May 16, 1949, when a new addition was brought in.

"Bob Davis came in as a probationary fireman," he said, "and it wasn't until March, 1952, when we added another fireman, Eddie Erskine. Then Bagline Ronco joined us in November of that year."

"IN THE MEANTIME, we began to get some new equipment. We got a jeep — the volunteers purchased that — and a light unit which we built into a trailer. We used the jeep to pull it."

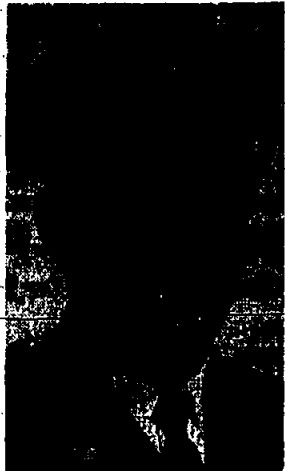

"In 1958, we got a very modern piece of equipment — an 85 foot aerial truck to replace the 1947 ladder truck. Then we got a 1,000 gallon-per-minute pumper."

"In the meantime we sold the jeep and replaced it with a Falcon station wagon."

Tercentenary Events Top Summer Schedule

TRENTON — Sports competitions, meetings, racing and special events, augmented by Tercentenary activities, are on tap for mid-summer visitors to the Garden State during August and early September. It is reported by officials of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Vacationing families and groups traveling to and from the New York World's Fair will be adding to New Jersey's regular influx of summer vacationers, now that the recently-opened Cape May to Lewis, Del. ferry has extended the Garden State Parkway across Delaware Bay, and construction is speeded on the final section of the new Atlantic City Expressway, facilitating travel from the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Turnpikes, in the Philadelphia area, across southern New Jersey to the Atlantic Shore and the Garden State Parkway.

Among Tercentenary activities being held at both shore and inland communities throughout the state this year will be a Mid-Atlantic Tournament by the Babe Ruth League, to be held at Bridgeton, Aug. 18-22. Atlantic City will present a Tercentenary version of its annual On-the-Boardwalk art show, at which visitors can promenade past miles of paintings lining the rails. This year, Aug. 22-23 there will be a special category for paintings with historical content. In the historical spotlight when the Roxbury Township Historical Society stages its Tercentenary Old Home Week Aug. 23-24.

Pointing up the State's 300th Anniversary (1664-1964) in September will be a special Tercentenary program sponsored by the National Railway Historical Society at Newark, Sept. 7; and a double event on the 12th, a Tercentenary art show in the Woodbridge and a salute to the Tercentenary, set for Wall Township at historic Allaire State Park.

Atlantic City will hold national as well as State attention, when it plays host to the Democratic National Convention, Aug. 23-28. The meeting will be televised across the world's largest convention hall auditorium, as will the annual and glamorous Miss America Pageant, Sept. 7-12.

The parade of floats and Miss America's parade is set for 8 p.m. on the boardwalk, Sept. 8. Weekly Steel Pier and Garden Pier shows, local fishing and sports events continue through the summer.

Wildwood also rolls out the welcome carpet for two national groups in late August. During the week of Aug. 27-30, the National American War Veterans of the United States will meet in convention, with an expected 5,000 delegates and families from all over the country. The veterans will be sharing the resort with local vacationers and stamp collectors. The National Association of Preceptor Collectors comes to town Aug. 26 for a five-day convention and annual stamp show.

Setting the pace for spas along the northern section of the state's 320-mile stretch of bathing beaches, boating inlets, and fishing jetties and piers will be Asbury Park, which will stage its own party-ship contest with the Ocean City Surf Fishing Competition, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce in September.

Business and Professional Women's Club; the place — Railroad Plaza, the time 1 to 8 p.m. daily, next Thursday through Aug. 16. Evening moonlight sails and a kiddie rides special on Friday afternoons are summer-long features of the Greater Point Pleasant area.

SEASIDE HEIGHTS, Ocean County's amusement resort center, reports a sky-diving parachute exhibition at the beachfront on Aug. 21. Plans also are being formulated for a Mardi Gras type of celebration during the early part of September.

On Long Beach Island, final judging in the Max Magic Long Beach Island beauty contest will take place Sept. 11. The island's fishing club surf contest is scheduled for Sept. 12-13.

Music, art and fishing will provide variety at Ocean City, where the U. S. Steel Chorus will hold forth at the Municipal Pier, Aug. 23, and the Lu Lu Temple band will present a concert, Sept. 5. The city's annual board art exhibit takes place Aug. 15. The annual fishing derby, which opens Sept. 7, will extend through November, with the Ocean City Surfcasting Tournament set for Sept. 12 at Baseball Park.

Avalon (of the "I found my heart in . . ." song) has scheduled a fishermen's casting contest for November, with the surf-fishing competition sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce in September.

At Wildwood, "Queen Ocean" the 54th will be selected and receive her crown Aug. 16. She will preside during the 49th annual baby parade, Aug. 20. Small fry activities will reach a climax with a kiddie's fishing rodeo, to be held Aug. 29. A shuffleboard tournament also will take place on the 30th. Regattas sponsored by the Greater Wildwood Yacht Club head up early-September activities, with the Commodore's Regatta, Sept. 5-6, and the Old Man's Regatta, Sept. 7.

THE KIWANIS will sponsor a pet parade, Sept. 19 at Cape May City while the town of Cape May Point is promoting a semi-long beachcombers contest with prizes for the most unusual finds, and will climax activities with a children's fishing contest, Sept. 7.

The sport of kings will be drawing additional visitors to central and southern New Jersey with the opening Monday of the Atlantic City Race Course (to Oct. 10) and Freehold Raceway, for harness racing, (to Oct. 17).

Pointing up why New Jersey is called the Garden State are the many country fairs held during the summer, winding up with the New Jersey State Fair at Trenton. On the present calendar are the Middlesex County Fair, at East Brunswick, Aug. 11-18; Atlantic County's 4-H Fair at Egg Harbor Aug. 13-18; Sussex County 4-H Fair at Freeland, Aug. 13-15; Morris County Fair, Aug. 14-15 and 22-23 at Parsippany; the Essex County 4-H Fair, Caldwell Township, Aug. 14-18; and the Somerset County 4-H Fair at Somerville, Aug. 19-23.

After Mankind? Who Comes Next?

This world cannot exist half radioactive and half triumphant.

That this simple truth has become obvious to the leaders of the major powers is made evident by the continued existence of civilization today, the 19th anniversary of the first "practical" use of atomic energy.

The presence of the mushroom-shaped cloud over the ruins of Hiroshima may well have saved American lives by hastening the Japanese surrender in 1945, but it also lent credence to the belief that man's growing ability to slaughter his fellow man had finally reached the moral point of diminishing returns.

Recognition that there are no victors in an atomic war was dramatically illustrated a year ago, when the U. S. and Russia signed the nuclear test ban treaty. Hopefully, the dispute as to which country has the best German rocket experts will remain unsettled.

Since then, the U. S. has presented plans at the Geneva conference table for a verified freeze on nuclear delivery vehicles, a verified cut-off in the production of fissionable materials for military use and a verified ban on all nuclear weapons tests. The Soviet Union has relied on its own version of the truth and has presented its own series of counter-proposals. One unstated agreement, however, prevails: negotiation, however tedious, is a great deal less expensive to humanity than are megaton explosions.

One other fact should be equally clear to all Americans. Negotiation in the face of a common peril does not imply appeasement of an oppressor nation. Simply put, there can be no hope at all for any sort of freedom behind the Iron Curtain unless the world, free and communist, continues to exist.

Reasoning from this one unadorned truth, the Union County Hiroshima Day memorial meeting, being held tonight in Elizabethtown, reserves the support of all residents of the area. After all, it takes only a single finger to press the panic button, but it will require millions of hands, joined together, somehow, some day, to bring about a future in which there will be no buttons left which might destroy civilization.

Senator Williams Reports

By Sen. Harrison A. Williams

Let's Get Rolling
 "Urban mass transportation is one of the most urgent problems facing the nation and the Congress," that was President Kennedy's estimate.

Now we have taken a major and first-of-its-kind step to meet this challenge. On July 9, a historic side-transportation program became law—and new hope was born for our traffic-congested cities and our ailing commuter systems.

This measure, which I had the privilege of sponsoring in the Senate, provides $75 million over a three-year period in grants to assist communities in developing and improving bus, rail-and-subway systems.

What is the main objective? In one word—relief. Relief from the traffic snafus and chronic tie-ups which paralyze our nation and which can make going to work every morning wearying and aggravating.

One noted research outfit has estimated that by 1980, 78 percent of the expected 200 million population will be living on two percent of the nation's area. The problems this could create are almost too staggering to envision. Already there are 76 million cars jamming the roads of our congested society.

The time to prepare for that occasion is now. In plain language, this Act is designed to make our transition to the future more safe and less expensive. At present, rush-hour traffic jams are costing the country an estimated $6-8 billion yearly in lost time and wages, higher accident rates, diminished business and, perhaps more than anything else, in general aggravation. We are not getting the most out of our industrial growth when waste is its companion.

Highways can no longer do the job alone, but with a scarcity of inexpensive alternatives, people have resorted to automobiles in even greater numbers.

This can be awfully costly when you realize that one mile of city roadway can cost as much as $1 million.

But some cities have already blazed a mass transit trail with projects underwritten with funds from an experimental program passed in 1961.

In Washington, D.C., the 18-wheeler "minibus" is a smash hit shuttling downtown shoppers to and fro at five cents a ride. Modernization of the New York City subways has increased passenger totals by more than 20 million annually. San Francisco and Boston are planning their own regional overhauls in transit services.

Now is New Jersey taking a back seat. New Brunswick is testing a "park and ride" station, supported with an experimental grant, and the results have been so good that Pennsylvania Railroad is adding more trains to the mechanics of the transit program will not hesitate to call on my office for the publications.

In general, the Act provides Federal grants for the purchase or improvement of mass transportation facilities and equipment by local public agencies. (The agency need not operate the transit system itself, however.) To qualify for assistance, the agency must prepare a wide-transportation plan as part of a comprehensive blueprint for the development of the community.

Although neither official regulation nor application blanks have yet been prepared by the Housing and Home Finance Agency, the body which is administering the program—it is not too soon for communities to begin preparing to take advantage of the Act. The summary of the Act prepared by the HHPA should be a help.

LEGISLATION
 A section-by-section analysis of the Act will soon be available and I hope that anybody interested in the mechanics of the transit program will not hesitate to call on my office for the publications.

MEDICARE FOES IGNORE THE FACTS
 The Senate Subcommittee on Aging, of which I'm a member, has been taking a long, close look at health insurance programs for several months now, and what we've found leads us back to one inescapable conclusion: we need a Medicare program.

Our study, which has been focused on health insurance for the elderly, confirms over and over again that the most responsible procedure is to provide hospital insurance for the elderly.

Most persons of advanced years are forced to live on reduced incomes, and as a consequence, cannot afford adequate health and hospital insurance. By the end of 1963, for example, when the median income for elderly couples was $2,875, only about one-half of our 10 million elderly persons carried any kind of commercial health insurance policy. Many of these policies, of course, are hardly adequate in the face of rising hospital costs.

Although there are certain "blue ribbon" health insurance policies available to older couples, they still offer only partial coverage and cost between $500 and $800 a year.

And unfortunately, most older persons without health insurance are those who need it most—the very old, those plagued with poor health, the unemployed, and those with the lowest incomes.

Springfield Racquetmen Undefeated In 8 Matches

The Mountside Deerfield Springfield team, featuring Gov. Livingston Reagin, a match last week and Springfield High School students, will field an away with an 8-1 attempt to halt the six-game triumph. Gary Kutz, returning to winning streak of the unit action following a week of undefeated Springfield Recreation sense, was in top form and zeroed Steve Cole, Bob Garland, Friday and Tuesday at 5 p. m. at the Irwin Playground.

The Springfielders beat Kenworth last week 8-1 as Bob Morones zipped Bruce Ayers by 6-0 scores and Steve Seigel did the same to Mike Clancy. Billy Apper added the third singles victory by beating Larry Dygless 6-0 and 6-1. Nils Swenson lost to Ted Devore 6-1, 6-7 in the only match lost by the locals.

In the doubles Morones and Reagin shut out the Kenworths in September, 1952. Chief duo of Paul Selinsky and Bob Kizelovich in an 8-0 set. Apper, with the Springfield Fire Department forfeited their participation since 1938, passed doubles match to Ayers and Clancy.

Richie Falkin routed Bill Rice 8-0 in singles and Warren Danziger and Steve Vablosky scored 8-1 victories over Richie Wagner and Walter Banks.

we had in my experience here was at the Safeway Supermarket, which was rated a $30,000 job. This store was on the Morris Turnpike and Morris ave. The fire was reported in at 7:42 p. m. and just arrived in Maplewood to spend some time with my family that night. I got the message on my radio and came right back.

"We pull in a second alarm right away. We called Millburn, and they sent over ladders and a pump. Then we called in Union County Mutual Aid in Summit, and got a light unit from the Cranford fire house.

"By 3:30 a. m.," the chief said, "the last scrap of fire was done. It was really a strange situation," he indicated. "Two weeks before the fire, I recommended to the Safety Committee to install fire detector equipment. But they said they were pretty safe and well insured.

"Well, anyway, on the day of the fire, our deputy chief had come in, and he said to the manager, 'Gee, it's awfully hot.' The manager answered, 'Yeah, we've been having trouble with our air conditioning all day today. It just doesn't seem to be working right.' And even while they were talking, smoke was already coming out of the vents. The fire started coming down the ventilation ducts.

"IT WAS BURNING in severely by the time we got there that the whole roof fell in. It was the worse fire we ever had," he said, shaking his head.

The chief explained that the department has just initiated a new speech system of alarm.

"We've had telephone bells in every one of the homes of our 14 firemen, including my own, which is right across the street here. The bells tap out box location.

"But now, with our new system, we'll be saving the municipality money. We have the Plecton Radio Alerting System," Chief Mesker noted as he pulled up a small electrical gadget that seemed to have enough buttons, wires and gears to confuse a lawyer.

"Each man," he continued, "gets a set in his home. The set is perfectly quiet until alerted from a signal here. After the tone goes on the man on duty speaks into a mike, which gives the exact location of the fire. We can call out paid and volunteer systems here," he said proudly.

Chief Mesker has two sons, Ormond and Clinton B. Mesker. My oldest boy, Ormond, who

W. Schuster, 65, Was Town Official

Wilbur D. Schuster of 715 Boston Blvd., Sea Girt, who died Tuesday at the age of 65, was a member of the Springfield Board of Adjustment during the 1930s. Born in Newark, Mr. Schuster lived here from 1926 until last year. He was active in the Springfield Republican Club for many years, serving as vice-president in 1929.

A graduate of the New York University School of Commerce, Mr. Schuster was employed by Public Service Electric and Gas Co., Newark, for 42 years, the last eight as statistical assistant to the treasurer. He was a member of Clinton Hill Masonic Lodge.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Virginia M. Schuster. The Rev. Donald Webber will conduct services tonight at 8 p. m. at the Smith and Smith Suburban Funeral Home, Springfield. Burial will take place tomorrow in Evergreen Cemetery, Hillside.

Church To Begin Vacation School

Final plans have been completed at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 639 Mountain ave., Springfield for its seventh annual summer vacation Bible school. The school, which is open to all children in the community from the age of three through the sixth grade, will begin its sessions on Monday at 9 a. m. and will continue daily sessions through Aug. 21. Each day's session runs from 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m.

A closing program and "Partnership with the Community" day evening, Aug. 21, at 7:30. A staff of more than 20 teachers, assistants and other helpers has been enlisted. Those for the 1964 session will be: "God, My Country and I," Registrations for the school are being received. Interested parents are asked to call the church office at DR 9-3525 or CR 7-8958.

Changes now recommended for the project, according to Bonadies, would reduce the number of apartment units from 24 to 20, including one for the superintendent, would require private front and rear entrances for each apartment, and would change the setback from 47 feet to 30 feet bringing the building closer to the sidewalk. He added the neighborhood is zoned for a 50-foot setback.

Bonadies added, "The most disturbing aspect of the whole thing is that I have not been able to sit down in conference with the Township Committee members to discuss my problems, despite my many requests to meet. I am on the committee and the township attorney."

Members of the present all-Republican administration have on several occasions told the leader they were well aware of the political implications of a denial for Bonadies, former mayor and for some years the chairman of the township committee. They expressed, however, that approval of the application as originally presented would have been inconsistent with the township's decisions dealing with zoning.

works for Astro Division for Hightstown is an electronics technician. He has a little girl, Delia, the chief said, reaching for a picture on his desk of a lovely blonde, dimpled child.

"And Clinton is a school teacher. He's also studying in Dallas, Texas. For his master's degree in school law. He's married to a teacher out there. By the way I'm expecting another grandchild," the chief said, "and if his child isn't smart it sure is not going to be his parents' fault."

"And not this woman's either," he concluded with a broad grin.

Warinanco Park Concert Program Set For Tonight

The third in a series of "Concerts Under the Stars," a brass band concert, will be presented at 8 p.m. today, at the mall area in Warinanco Park, Elizabeth and Roselle. The mall area is located between the lake and the Henry S. Chaffield Memorial Garden.

The program, sponsored by the Musicians Association of Elizabeth, Local No. 151, A. F. M., and the Union County Park Commission, will be conducted by Ruddy Kreutzer. The program will include: The Star Spangled Banner; The Blue-Boyed March; American Folk Rhapsody; New Jersey March; George M. Cohen Patriotic Fantasy; Seventy-Six Trombones; Selections from Camelot; American Patrol; National Emblem March; Excerpts from the New World Symphony; Waves of the Danube; This is My Country; Selections from Carnival; Stars and Stripes Plover.

The two "Concerts Under the Stars" held last week attracted over 2,000 people.

Spectators are requested to bring lawn chairs and to enjoy the program from the lawn area. The rain date for this program is tomorrow.

$1,600 In Theresa 'Heart' Fund As Hospitalization Runs Out

Hospital insurance coverage for 19-year-old accident victim Theresa Gargalowitz ran out yesterday, but friends and generous people of Union, Springfield and many other communities in Union County are building a war chest to stave off the proverbial wolf at the door.

John Kenny, a neighbor of the Gargalowitz family and one of three men who have undertaken the task of managing the Theresa Gargalowitz Fund, which has now reached $1,600, said last week the family had received from the hospital the first bill in the amount of $4,600, covering a period through June 1, but that sum is covered by insurance. He pointed out that the figure represents about $85 per day for the girl's care.

Hospitalization has continued to cover her through Aug. 5, which is three months since her April 6 accident on Morris ave. in Springfield.

Meanwhile, he said, efforts to have her transferred to the John

E. Runnels Hospital for the critically ill in Berkeley Heights, have failed, "but we have more iron in the fire along these lines." He said the application was rejected because of the girl's trauma.

"Perhaps we should call it a 'heart-to-heart' campaign," Kenny said, adding, "If each family would just send $1 to Box 4, Union, N. J., it certainly would help." The sender doesn't even have to use the fund's name in addressing the envelope.

Overlook Hospital, Summit, continues to list the victim's condition as critical with little sign of improvement, although she did shed a few tears last week in the presence of her parents.

The patient's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gargalowitz of 2530 Hawthorne ave. in Union, which is also her home address, which is also her home address, this week asked this newspaper to express their deepest appreciation to all who have sent cards of prayers and good wishes, and to all who have contributed to the fund. They stated: "We also wish to thank Mr. Portnoy and Mr. Kenny for all their time and effort on Theresa's behalf, and we pray for the day when Theresa will be able to thank you herself."

Phillip Portnoy, a member of the Union Board of Education, and Union Mayor F. Edward Bierliempef along with Kenny are managing the drive.

Theresa, who was a student at the Madison campus of Fairleigh-Dickinson University, was seriously injured on the way home from school, when her small car skidded on long-used trolley tracks in Morris and spun into an oncoming bus.

AWAITS UNION CHARGES

Teenager Gets 51 Days In Jail

A Union teenager was sentenced in Springfield Municipal Court Monday night to 51 days in Union County Jail for leaving the scene of an accident July 18.

Springfield Magistrate Max Sherman sentenced Harry Alger, 18, of 274 Mendham ave., Union, to 30 days in the county jail and fined him $105 on charges that he fled on foot after the car he was driving struck a parked car on Milltown rd. in Springfield. Alger was sentenced to an additional 21 days in the county institution after he was unable to raise the $105 fine.

Upon his release, he faces charges by Union police of illegal possession of a motor vehicle, reckless driving and driving while on the revoked list.

Union police said they chased the car containing Alger and a passenger, Harry Lippe, Jr., 20, or 2174 Springfield ave., Union, along Milltown rd. until they lost it. The vehicle which is owned by Michael Brenson of New Brunswick, was severely damaged after hitting the 1964-model car owned by John C. Rux, 162 Milltown rd., Springfield, on Milltown rd.

UJC Project Helps Ease Shortage Of Astronomers, Observatories

There is not only a great shortage of observatories and major telescopes in the United States, but an increasingly more drastic shortage of trained astronomers, Dr. Kenneth W. Iversen, dean, said this week in explaining why Union Junior College in Cranford is establishing the Sperry Observatory on its campus.

"We will not be geared to do a great amount of significant basic research, but we will be able to gather some important data in cooperation with nationwide and world-wide projects. Our major goal will be to attract promising young people on their way toward careers in astronomy, physics and engineering," Dr. Iversen said.

According to the UJC dean, there is as great a need for moderate sized telescopes like those planned for the Sperry Observatory as there is for giant research instruments.

"There must be instruments available where young men and women can bring their astronomical studies, where children can be attracted to the exciting field of astronomy, and where adults can be made aware of the implications of the Space Age," Dr. Iversen said.

ZELLER - NADLER & CO.

Accountants
are pleased to announce the relocation of their offices to their new suburban building at 1560 Springfield Avenue,
Maplewood, N. J. 07040

Accounting Firm Now In Maplewood

The accounting firm of Zeller-Nadler and Co., headquartered in Newark for more than a quarter of a century, has transferred its operational center to Maplewood, opening its own suburban building at 1560 Springfield avenue there.

According to Melvin H. Zeller, CPA, a resident of Springfield and a partner in the firm, the move to the hi-level building with its 3,000 square feet of space was dictated by the steadily expanding scope of the firm's practice. Jerome J. Zeller founded the firm in Newark and was joined in 1943 by Sydney Nadler. Herbert Weiss of Union is also a partner.

7 Area Students Receive Honors

Dinne Binckman of 237 First ave., and Ellen Wasser of 1524 Lenape rd., Linden, have been named to the dean's list at Douglass College for the 1963-1964 academic year.

Students from other communities in Union County who were listed with honors were Elena and Norine T. Caruso of 204 Robin Hood rd., Mountaintop; Steven Bauer of 607 Sheridan ave., and Patricia E. Mancini of 113 Myrtle st., Roselle; and Harriet Sukoneck of 1553 Day ter., Union.

Students who have achieved an average of 1.6 or better in the junior year, and juniors and sophomores who made an average of 1.8 or better in the sophomore and freshman years are recognized in the dean's list. A perfect average at Douglass is 1.0.

'New Look' Nears For Caldwell Students

BY BEA SMITH

There are going to be some big changes and surprises in store for the faculty and pupils of the James Caldwell School in Springfield when they return in the fall.

"About $80,000 worth, I imagine," said William Wagner, superintendent of building and grounds for Springfield's public schools, during a recent chat.

"We're adding two new kindergartens," he explained, "that will be comparable to the ones in the newer schools. The Board of Education wanted to update the building to the standards of other buildings. It was way substandard."

"The lighting was also very poor. They had a fire here in 1938—the building was built in 1901—and the building has been fairly well renovated since then, although they still had exposed steam pipes."

"THE FIRST AND SECOND floors of the old part of the school are being completely renovated," Wagner indicated. "There'll be a complete renovation in the heating and lighting systems; new ceilings and walls are being put in—and there will be a new 'teachers' recreation room."

"They are installing a new heating system in the auditorium, new floors—and all the rooms will have renovated cloak rooms."

Joseph Bender, who is chairman of building and grounds, supervising in conjunction with the architectural work.

"The contract," Wagner explained, "called for work to begin two weeks before school was out. And that's when it started. The contractor, Newark Construction Co., Newark, promises that the work will be completed by Sept. 1."

"You just have to look at all that material, paint, and so on, and listen, through the fog of sawdust, the hammering, sawing, adjusting, clanging."

"I KNOW THAT the teachers and children will greatly benefit by the renovation of the lighting system. It's very important to maintain facilities that will not hamper, but be beneficial to youngsters."

Wagner, who lives in Springfield, is superintendent of all five Springfield schools: Walton, Sandmeier, Chisholm, Gaudinier and Caldwell. "We have about 2,100 children in the whole system," he stated.

Wagner said that he was graduated from the Caldwell School in 1924. "Back in those days," he grinned, "there were 22 coils of two-inch pipes around the rooms as part of the heating system. When I went to school, I certainly didn't hear any complaints about any of us burning ourselves on the pipes in those days. So, today we have modern heating systems, and people do more complaining than ever. 'Human nature, I guess,' he shrugged.

The superintendent of buildings for Springfield schools recalled that shortly after he was graduated from high school, he "tried to get into the high school as a custodian. I didn't have too much difficulty. The system grew, and I grew with it. I've been handling all the maintenance work now for the past 27½ years."

Wagner intoned over the idea that he was pretty well able to handle the maintenance work, but when it came to $80,000 worth of renovation, he cleared his throat and grimaced. It was obviously overwhelming and quite beyond his own personal power.

FACE-LIFTING JOB — Workmen Curtis Mills (left) and Nick Lihario are busy helping to renovate the James Caldwell School annex in Springfield. The $80,000 construction project should have all its modern facilities ready by the time the youngsters return in September.

GOP Ladies Will Feature 'Pink Elephants' At Party

The annual Republican "Pink Elephant" card party, sponsored by the Springfield-Republican Club, will take place on Monday evening, Sept. 28, at the American Legion Hall. In store for those attending are table prizes, refreshments and perhaps a close look at the current local and county Republican candidates.

An organizational meeting to draw up plans for the card party was held recently at the home of Mrs. John Heimbach, 162 Linden ave. Mrs. Heimbach is chairman of the event and Mrs. William Kozak is co-chairman.

The following women are serving on the committee: the Meses, Henry Bullman, Amy Bandemer, Arthur Dauser, Robert Planer, James Barrett, Drew Morrison, Philip Del Vecchio, William Korjimer, Arthur Falkin, Fred Benaker, Robert Hardgrove, James Cawley, Joseph Seidel, Joe Kefauver, Allen Keyworth, Seymour Cohen.

The committee will meet again on Sept. 2. Further information concerning the card party may be obtained by speaking to any member of the committee or calling either Mrs.

Liebling Selected For New Position

Raymond Liebling of Springfield has been named technical service manager for the special department of Nopco Chemical Company, Newark. In his new post, he will be responsible for technical assistance and laboratory development on a broad range of chemicals for the processing industries.

In his 22-year career at Nopco, Liebling has filled many key posts in the research and development laboratories. For the past five years he was group leader for surfactant development in the American Society for Testing Materials, he serves on the committee for soaps and detergents. He also serves on the federal specifications committee of the Soap and Detergent Association and is a member of the American Chemical Society.

An alumnus of the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn (chemistry), Liebling received a master's degree in chemistry from the Institute in 1945. Liebling is president of the Non-ferrous Employees Federal Credit Union and treasurer of the Woodside Association, Springfield. He and his family live at 23 Cottage lane.

Program To End Poolside Series

"Is Springfield's Committee Form of Government Obsolete?" will be the topic for the final program in this summer's series of poolside discussion series Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the municipal swimming pool.

The speaker will be Mrs. Sydney Miller, for many years a leader of the Springfield League of Women Voters, which has sponsored the series. She will discuss the current form of government in Springfield and compare its advantages and disadvantages with those of other forms permitted under state law.

Mrs. Miller has served the League of Women Voters as vice-president and chairman of the committees on local school study, membership and voter service. She now heads the league study on zoning.

Congresswoman Agrees To Debate With Democrat

Rep. Florence P. Dwyer (R-10 Dist.) Union County not only will be glad to debate her opponent in the Sixth District congressional contest, but several weeks ago she requested responsible League of Women Voters officials to arrange such debates. Richard C. McDonough of Plainfield, the Congressman's campaign manager, said today...

Commentary on a recent National Editorial Association Round the World Newspaper Study Mission

by TRUDINA HOWARD

Number 18
MORE SINGAPORE
 In 1819 a Britisher by the name of Sir Thomas Stamford Raffles concluded an agreement with two owners of land in the south of Malaya for a trading post for the East India Company — and really started something. It was the beginning of modern Singapore.

Today Singapore is 224 square miles big, is one of the world's five greatest seaports, and is the most vital state in the new country in Malaya. It is an island, a city and a state, all wrapped up in one, and has 700,000 people with a new baby born every seven minutes to add on to that.

As part of the new "Federation of Malaya," it is one of 14 states which include Sarawak, Sabah, (North Borneo) and 11 states on the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula. It is the largest city of the country although Kuala Lumpur is the capital. Lee Kuan Yew is the prime minister. Tengku Abdul Rahman is the prime minister of the Federation.

THE MAIN PART of the city of Singapore is situated on the southern shores of the island of Singapore which constitutes the state of Singapore. People who live there tell you the entire island is the city of Singapore, yet the encyclopedia says "most of its surface is covered by wild forests, farms and rubber plantations."

However, the part that we saw and learned about, was very "city," and like every other big city of the world, it had problems: What to do about housing, schooling and traffic.

Well, Singapore at least has quite an answer to the housing question. While a baby may be born every seven minutes, one housing unit is built every 45 minutes to try and keep up. This is the equivalent of one 10-story block of 120 units every four days, and is one of the fastest rates in the world. At the time of our National Editorial Study Mission visit in late February, there were 50,000 apartments in 12 main "estates."

Each estate has a name like "Queensway" or such, and each one has a number of "neighborhoods." Neighborhood "IV" in Queensway, for instance, one of the largest, has 6,318 dwellings, 41 shops, one market center, one religious building, two schools and playing fields, one petrol station and one industrial area. There are five neighborhoods in Queensway with a total population of 110,000.

This burgeoning household mushroom began in 1950 under the direction of the Housing Development Board. The land is owned by the government or by private owners who have 99, 60 or 25 year leases, after which the property reverts back to the government. Aimed at middle and middle-low income groups, the renting price of a three-room apartment, consisting of a living room, two bedrooms and kitchen and bathroom conveniences, is $50, Malaysian currency, $20 U. S. Water, lights and gas are supplied, but charged extra. The buying price is $6,000 Malaysian dollars, or $2,000 U.S. dollars, the same as the price of a small "foreign" car. In buying an apartment, a person pays the same amount as in renting, except for the addition of taxes, but at the end of about 30 years, he at least owns a home.

The apartments are modern in architecture and have outside balconies instead of halls. (The weather is always warm.) The average height is 10 stories but usually there are no elevators!

WE VISITED one three-room unit occupied by a friendly, good-looking, Chinese couple and their two children — and saw the interior set-up. That is why I said kitchen and bathroom "conveniences" and not "rooms." There were the two bedrooms and the living room, but you couldn't really call the other rooms. The kitchen was a space about the size of a large closet and contained a sink on legs. Still another area, but rather like a back porch since there was no glass on the window section, had a small shower, also on legs. Close by this was the doorway to the bathroom, only there was no door. There was no window or opening either in this bathroom space. It was like a small closet, and its appointments consisted of a hose with a shower-head at the end of it, and a water hole in the floor that flushed!

It all sounds grim, but it is sheer luxury to most of the masses in the far East.

THERE IS COMPLETE integration in the apartment even though the main population of Malaya is Chinese and the state religion is Moslem, and every race known to man is represented there. Or seems to be. Experts expect the buildings to last 60 years or more, but sometimes they are pulled down purposely to build bigger ones. There is a saying in Singapore to the effect that, "Better Man pull down (building) than fall down."

Polish Cultural Clubs Join In Fete
 The American Council of Polish Cultural Clubs, with member clubs in twenty-three urban centers of the United States, including the Polish Arts Club of Newark, will celebrate the 800th anniversary of the founding of one of Europe's oldest universities, the Jagiellonian University of Cracow, Poland, Aug. 16-23, at the Biltmore Hotel, New York City.

Prof. Janek Krzyzanowski of the Government Department of New York University, will give the keynote address. "The Jagiellonian University of Cracow: Foundation of Polish Culture." Other speakers are also scheduled. Besides art exhibitions, tours and panel discussions, a concert in early Polish church music will be held Aug. 20 at St. Mary the Virgin Church, N. Y. C. An Inaugural Banquet and party will be held at the Biltmore Biltmore Friday.

Overheard
 Mrs. H's little ten-year old grandson who was visiting her, announced he was going up to the 5 and 10 to buy some crayons. She said, "If you'd buy me a clear plastic comb while you're there. And showing him the old one, five-dollar bill. When he returned he had an exact duplicate of the comb and handing back the dollar he said, "It was only 10 cents so I paid for it out of my own money!"

THIS IS A PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION YEAR, ISN'T IT, FATHER?
YEP!

GOLLY, I WISH I WAS OLD ENOUGH TO VOTE. OF COURSE, IT MUST BE DIFFICULT TO DECIDE WHICH CANDIDATE TO VOTE FOR.

ONE MIGHT HAVE A PERFECTLY SPLENDID RECORD.

BUT THE OTHER ONE MIGHT BE TERRIBLY HANDSOME!

Ask Amy BY AMY ADAMS

Dear Amy:
 I am a girl of 19 and my future husband is 22. We have planned a wedding in the late summer — or early fall but my problem is about the reception. My fiancé and I are of different faiths and I plan on marrying him in his church and having a reception — with dancing — and drinking in keeping with the custom of his religion. My relatives are very much against all these things. They would feel very uncomfortable witnessing the festivities but they do expect to be invited to the wedding. I have always loved to drink and so I have my mind set that that's the way the wedding should be.

Dear Wife:
 No wedding is complete without music, dancing, toasting and a few inherited relatives (commonly called relatives). You can't please them all — so why try? Please yourself! It's your day. Good luck!

Dear Amy:
 I am a 16 year old girl and once went out with some friends, both boys and girls of my age. The youngest girl, 13, took one of the other girls aside and whispered something to her. When they came back, they were laughing and started to whisper it to the other girls claiming, out loud, that they couldn't tell the boys, but they offered to tell me. I refused to let them tell me saying if it couldn't be said to everyone could lose I didn't wish to hear it. Was I right in refusing or should I have let them tell me and keep the others in the dark?

Nancy
 "Whispering" in mixed company is childish, silly and in poor taste practiced by young ladies who are immature. You were absolutely right in refusing.

Dear Amy:
 After reading the letter in your column from the woman signed "Worried," I just couldn't resist telling her how I handled my husband when I found out what was going on behind my back. I, too, was taken for a work-

Tips for TODAY'S HOMEMAKER

From MARY ARMSTRONG, County Home Agent

GOOD QUALITY LOCAL PEACHES PROMISED
 At long last the New Jersey fresh peach season has arrived. It is even more welcome than usual because of the freeze in the South. The freeze of much Southern fruit resulted in higher than usual June and July prices for Southern peaches. Arrival of local peaches in the market should bring prices to near normal levels. So for the next five or six weeks, more families can enjoy "peaches and cream" or peaches in a variety of other delicious forms. The peach crop in New Jersey and other nearby states is a good-sized one, not only larger than last year, but also above average. Although there is a few days late this season due to dry weather which slowed maturity, fruit quality is reported excellent. Fruit size is better than average and color is bright.

Among the early New Jersey varieties, Collins was especially good. Others in season are Sunrise, Jerseyland and Redhaven. Newday, Trigrion, Summerqueen and Sunhigh should be available now or soon.

But, generally, the familiar Elberta, long popular for canning, and most of the varieties very good for both canning and freezing, as the White Hail, ripen from mid-August to early September. All peaches mentioned are of fine dessert quality and all are listed as freestone. However, Sunrise, Jerseyland, Redhaven, Newday and Sunhigh must be fully ripe to be entirely free.

Shoppers will find nectarines on the market at the same time as fresh peaches. Production of nectarines will set a record this year in California. New Jersey has been increasing production of nectarines.

Nectarines, sometimes known as "fuzzless" peaches, are a mutation of the peach and thus, a close relative. Some consumers like them for their distinctive flavor and others for their fuzzless property. Of course, most peaches for the fresh market go through a defuzzing operation at the time of packing.

In addition to the double advantage of fresh peaches in the fruit bowl — appearance and flavor — peaches lend themselves to a variety of other uses in tempting meal-time offerings. Perfect peach pie and Low Calorie Peach Fluff are two different dessert types but the enjoyment of peaches in appetizers and salads or as pickles should not be overlooked.

Perfect Peach Pie
 4 cups thinly sliced ripe peaches
 2/3-cup sugar
 1/8 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons flour
 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
 Few drops lemon juice
 Pastry for 2-crust, 9-inch pie
 Fill lower crust into 9-inch pie pan. Blend sugar with salt and flour. Mix lightly with sliced peaches. Fill crust and dot with butter. Fit top crust, trim and crimp edges. Cut slits in top crust to allow for escape of steam. Bake in 425 degree F. oven for 40 minutes or until browned.

"How to Choose and Use New Jersey Peaches" will be sent without charge on request to the Home Economics Extension Service, 1106 Elizabeth ave., Elizabeth, or phone EL 3-5000.

PBA-Conte-Muller Tie Seen In Recreation Softball

Temple Bowlers Win 12 Straight

The Greenfield-Sanders team has won 12 straight games in the Temple Bowl League of the Temple-Beth-Ann mixed bowling league at the Hi-Way Bowl in Union. The winning streak has lifted the team to second place in the standings.

The Seymour Wortzel bowlers won three games and hold undisputed possession of first place in the Bowl League. The Wortzel five now hold a record of 24 games-won-and-six-games-lost.

In the Adam-Levine-Zelner team holds a one-game edge over Rosenthal with a 25-5 record. Irma Rosenthal bowled 180 to take second high game. She was followed by Shirley Straus with a 159 for third high game of the year.

Dan Rosenthal rolled 206 and Lloyd Roslin-201.

Kenilworth Blanks Roselle, 1-0, In Legion Baseball Marathon

Catcher Bob Carlin's sharp single in the 14th inning drove in Ritchie Bittle from third base to give Kenilworth a 1-0 victory over Roselle in the Union County American Legion League. The game was a four-hour, 40-minute marathon at Simpson Field in Roselle.

The victory for Kenilworth clinched a tie in the third round standings of the league with a 5-1 record. The team has lost only to Westfield.

Union, Westfield and Cranford, each with one game in the losing column, still could tie the Kenilworth squad this week in the event of a tie, a playoff game will be scheduled. The winner of the third round will face Westfield, winner of the first round play, for the Union County championship. In the game played Sunday.

Roselle's Sal Blagi deserved a better fate as he hurled the complete game, and struck out 22 batters with a blazing curve ball. Carlin, was a strike-out victim five consecutive times before connecting with the game-winning single.

Bob Rahmensfuher, Mike Carolan and Frank Monticello contributed a base hit each.

Drivers Not Injured, But Car Towed Away

Two Springfield men escaped injury last Thursday when their cars were involved in a collision at Essex and Becker roads. Rudolph Downs, 29, of 11 Essex rd., Springfield, told police he was traveling west in Essex rd. and had begun to turn left into Becker rd. when his car was struck by a station wagon traveling north in Becker rd.

Police said the driver of the station wagon was Moo Schlanger, 37, of 200 Lelak ave., Springfield. The Downs vehicle sustained damage to its left side. Schlanger's auto, which was owned by Concrete Block Co., 499 Chancellor ave., Irvington, sustained front end damage and was towed from the scene.

Monticello clubbed a triple but was thrown out when he overran third base. Ritchie Bittle, Jack Kulaga and pitcher Billy Kretzer chipped in with two hits each.

Kretzer, Kenilworth's tall hurler, chalked up 13 strikeouts and was superb in the clutch. Good fielding by Rahmensfuher, Carolan and Bittle, aided by Jack Kulaga and Butch Lyon's leaping catch were game-savers. Joe Jupa and Richie Basta also turned in commendable fielding jobs.

Roselle lagged Kretzer for seven hits, with Rickett and Hagan contributing two each. Markowitz, Dowd and Rickett had one hit each.

The Kenilworth team is in its first year as a member of the county American Legion League. It is coached by Joe Mills, assistant baseball coach at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School. He is assisted by Frank Casera and Sal Pacific.

The Kenilworth squad, which plays its home games in Nonhegan Park, includes the following players not listed in the Roselle game: Jeff Anderson, Carl Yaras, Bob Isler, Ed Koscky, Keith Nalgi and Ted Levitt.

Make-Up Contest May Put League In 3-Way Playoff

The Springfield Adult Softball League ended its regular season last week in a two-way and possible three-way tie. The teams representing Conte's Delicatessen and Muller Chevrolet each completed their season with a record of six victories and two losses.

The Springfield PBA closed last week with a 5-2 record. The PBA has a game to make up with A. R. Mecker Co. This game was to be played on Wednesday of this week. If the PBA was victorious in this game, a three-way tie will develop and a play-off for first place will begin immediately. The PBA will meet Muller Chevrolet Thursday evening with the winner meeting Conte's Delicatessen Friday evening for the regular season championship.

The Springfield PBA should drop a decision to Mecker then Muller will meet Conte's on Friday for the crown.

The following week will see a double elimination playoff event. The winner of the playoff will be crowned champion. All games will be played at Washington Ave. Field.

In games last week all the front running teams chalked up victories. The PBA defeated Muller by the score of 10 to 5. Conte's checked Holly Hill, by the score of 18 to 6. Muller turned back Consolidated Fence by the score of 5 to 0 and Brunner Excavating defeated Patcher Bros. by the score of 14 to 3.

The PBA won an all important game from Katz last week. Mike Hagan hit another home run in the victory. Sam Calabrese pitched the victory while Jack Horn and Johnny Johnson played well in the field.

Conte's Delicatessen crushed Holly Hill Homes. Although the score was large this was a close game until the sixth inning. In the sixth frame Conte's scored 13 runs to break the game wide open. Hitting home runs in this inning were Joe Pepe and Scott Donington. Other heavy hitters for Conte's included: Dick Bestmark, Dennis Francis, Ted Getzberg, and John Siman. Joe Blanga connected for three hits for the victory. Sam Calabrese drove home four of the Holly Hill runs. Scott Donington pitched the victory for Conte's, while Dom Castonova took the defeat for Holly Hill.

In the game between Muller Chevrolet and Consolidated Fence Co. Jack Jenkins of Muller turned in his second shut out of the season. Gabe DePalo, lusty hitting outfielder of Muller, and Felix LaFond hit homers for Muller to provide the margin of victory.

A fine defensive effort was turned in by the Muller/Leystone combination of Norby Wroblewski and Teddy Sorfente. Tony Nardone, behind the bat for Muller, turned in a fine game and contributed a few timely hits to the Muller cause. Joe Mendes of Consolidated provided what offensive effort could be mustered by his club.

In the final contest of the week Brunner Excavating made solid its fourth place finish by defeating Patcher Bros. by the count of 13 to 7. In this game Bill Ehrhardt of Brunner hit another homerun and added a triple to lead his team to victory. Mark Lies hit well in the Brunner cause and Jim Lies completed the homerun. John Ehrhardt was the winning pitcher.

Minutemen Split 2 Games With Verona In Rec Race

The Springfield Minutemen played two games in the Suburban Recreation Baseball League last week. The Springfield team, who had been leading the league, managed to better than to split two decisions last week. As a result of the one defeat suffered by the Minutemen last week, they have now fallen into a tie for the league lead with Livingston.

Springfield defeated Summit in the first contest last week by the score of 6 to 3. Springfield then dropped a 5 to 0 decision to Verona later in the week. Springfield now has a record of eight wins against two defeats.

Springfield won the Summit game in the first inning as they pushed four runs over the plate before the Summit forces were able to register three outs. Steve Hartz and Bob Garlin drew bases on balls around a base hit by Gary Kurtz. Rich Johnson walked to force home one run. After a pop fly out Brian Finerty singled to drive home two more Springfield runs. Ken Braverman drove home the final run of the inning as he bunted to score Johnson from third base. Springfield scored two more runs in the second on hits by Hartz and Kurtz. Kurtz was the hitting star of the day as he batted out three safe hits in leading Springfield to victory. Garlin pitched a complete game for Springfield in scoring the victory.

Against Verona last Thursday Springfield needed a decision to retain sole possession of first place in the Suburban Recreation League. This defeat was the

New Attendance, Betting Records Set At Monmouth

As Monmouth Park goes into its final six days of racing for 1964, it appears that the track has a chance to set new records in both attendance and betting.

The track, with a little luck, may have its first year with a total handle of $100,000,000.

The first 50 days of the meet brought 909,569 fans as compared to 800,404 for the same period last season, an increase of 10,165 or 1.1 per cent. In betting the handle is $94,280,003 or $2,289,927 more than the $91,990,076 of 1963. The increase is 2.7 per cent.

Monmouth handled $15,495,006 during the last six days a year ago and only $15,709,337 is needed during the same span this season to reach the coveted goal of $100,000,000. The betting total last year for 50 days was $97,771,052 an all-time high and it seems reasonably certain this record will be erased.

Last year's attendance of 1,050,098 also was an all-time high for the track and this mark too, should fall. During the last six days of a year ago the attendance was 157,265 and an increase of only 2,930 is needed to establish a new high.

As a result of Saturday's Sorority Stakes, New Jersey took on new stature in the racing world. When the Jersey-bred Rhodley finished second behind Bold Experience, she lifted her owner, Mrs. Milton Erlanger, into third place among the owners at the meetings and the $200,000 place award handed the young filly into fourth position among the horses in earnings.

N. J. Parkway Opens Its New Interchange

The Garden State Parkway has opened its newest interchange at the eastern end of the new Atlantic City Expressway. Parkway Chairman John B. Townsend of the New Jersey Highway Authority said Parkway Interchange 3B will link the Parkway with the Expressway to serve as a temporary terminus in the east pending completion of New Jersey's newest toll road next year. The Expressway will stretch a distance of 43 miles from the Philadelphia-Camden area across the southern portion of New Jersey into Atlantic City.

Old-Fable Of 'Aladin' At Playhouse Aug. 22
"Aladin, the fable about the lad who parlayed a dusty, old lamp into a bright future, will be the Saturday morning children's show feature at the Paper Mill Playhouse Aug. 22 at 11 a.m.

"Scheherazade's Apprentice" originally scheduled for that date, has been withdrawn.

Nursing Home Hearings Start

Although Green took no part in any of the hearings on the case, Weinberg charged that he did prepare the resolution recommended by the Board of Ad-

Women Injured In Rt. 22 Crash

Two Massachusetts women were injured Saturday when their car was sideswiped in Route 22, Springfield, forcing it off the road. According to Springfield police, Mattie St. Mitchell, 48, the driver, and Libetta Brunner, 35, a passenger in the car, both of Dorchester, Mass., were taken to Overlook Hospital, Summit, by the Springfield First Aid Squad after their auto was hit by a truck driven by Robert K. Wallace, 19, of Elizabeth. The truck was owned by Hertz, Corp., Newark. Regarding other aspects of the case, Weinberg argued against the propriety of a residential use as a special exception use in a residential zone. He declared, "The current application seeks to fast a mammoth commercial use in a prime residential area."
