Support Declined For Pledge Drive On Open Housing

Advisory Committee Favors Purposes Of Fair Housing Unit

The Springfield Advisory Committee on Human Rights last week declined to take a stand on the pledge drive to subsidize support against racial and ethnic discrimination in housing within the township, which the Springfield Fair Housing Committee will launch on Monday.

While "not necessarily endorsing the techniques" of the pledge drive, the official municipal Human Rights Committee expressed "sympathy with the noble purposes" of the Fair Housing group and extended wishes for its success in promoting "good neighborhood."

The Human Rights Committee, holding its first meeting of the new year, unanimously approved the following statement in response to a request to endorse the pledge drive:

"Believing that the foundation of American democracy rests on the enthusiastic support of the human rights and dignity of all people, we of the Springfield Advisory Committee on Human Rights, while not necessarily endorsing the techniques of the Fair Housing Committee's pledge drive, express sympathy with the noble purposes of the Fair Housing Committee and extended wishes for its success in promoting good neighborhood."

It was noted that the function of the Human Rights group is to "act in an advisory capacity, and while favoring the aims of the Fair Housing Committee, it is not in a position to pass judgment on the methods employed by the Fair Housing Committee to promote its program."

William Burns presided at the meeting of the Human Rights Committee last Wednesday at Town Hall. Members present were Mrs. Edward Canine, Rabbi Bernard L. Levine, Norman Banner, Harold Bishop, Mrs. David Schwartz, Mrs. Francis Coyle, Abraham Levine and Robert Johnson. The Rev. Bruce Evans was unable to attend.

The Human Rights Committee was named last year in response to a request from the State Division against Discrimination. Last week's meeting was the first since the initial organization meeting held last fall.

Fair Housing Unit Seeking Pledges

With the kickoff date of its pledge drive this Sunday, just three days away, Springfield's Fair Housing Committee reported that it has received "enthusiastic support" from all parts of town.

William Kozub, Springfield's mayor, gave the drive his endorsement by personally signing the committee's first "good neighbor" pledge.

Springfield's clergymen threw their weight behind the drive, noting in a statement that "prejudice based on race, religion or national origin is completely contrary to the religious principles we embrace."

The roster of Springfield residents who plan to take part in the drive this Sunday passed the 100 mark.

Support For Principles

According to Mrs. Philip Lewis, coordinator of the campaign, the purpose of the drive is "to generate support for the principles of open housing." To show their support of these principles, said Mrs. Lewis, residents will be asked to sign the following pledge:

"We believe that the foundations of American democracy rest on the enthusiastic support of the human rights and dignity of all people."

"We believe in the principle of open housing."

"Therefore, we express our willingness to accept as our neighbors persons on their own merit, without regard to race, religion or national origin."

In signing this pledge this week, Kozub noted that the drive is the "most important program the committee has undertaken to date."

"I sincerely hope," added Kozub, "that the committee gets all the help and cooperation it so justly deserves. A program like this can be an instrumental force in making Springfield a better community for all people."

The specific goal of the pledge drive, said a committee spokesman, is to obtain at least 500 signatures. At the conclusion of the drive next month, the signatures will be published in a full-page advertisement in the Springfield Leader.

An integral part of the advertisement will be a statement from the clergy, the full text of which reads as follows:

Statement By Clergy

"As preachers and teachers of the moral and religious principles embodied within the Judeo-Christian tradition, we are committed to the furtherance of brotherhood in our community."

"We feel strongly that our actions should be consonant with our beliefs and with our prayers. We would therefore call upon our respective constituencies and all other citizens of Springfield (Continued on Page 5)

Voters To Decide In Feb. 9 Election

Basic satisfaction with the policies and practices of the Springfield Board of Education was indicated by all candidates for election to the board Feb. 9 who took part in the "Candidates Night" program Monday evening at the Florence Gaudineer School.

The views of the candidates were typified by Mrs. Sonya Dorsky, the only incumbent on the ballot. She commented that Springfield schools have an intensive remedial reading program, school psychologists, enrichment trips, school libraries, new mathematics programs, foreign languages in grades seven and eight and in-service teacher training courses.

"We have these programs because the Board of Education approved them," she declared. "Many of our neighboring communities lack many of these because their boards did not."

Other candidates to speak were Carlo Casale, Alvin Jay, Harold Liebeskind and Howard Levin, for the three-year term, and Joseph Affitto and Mrs. Rita Weisman, for the one-year term. Francis H. Shinnock was prevented from participating because of illness. He is also running for a three-year term.

The program was sponsored by the township Parent-Teacher Association and the League of Women Voters. Milton Kappattler, a former member of the Board of Education, was moderator.

"Fortunate In Excellence"

Affitto told the gathering of some 200 men and women, "We are fortunate in the excellence of our school system." He pledged himself to "maintain the high standards, make sure that we get our fair share of federal and state aid and watch our costs but make sure that our children do not get a second-rate education."

He also urged that youngsters be taught good study habits as early as possible. Affitto stressed the importance of physical education "to develop sound bodies to go with sound minds."

Casale, who noted that he is a native of Springfield, declared, "This is my town. I want to serve because I'm proud of it. My oldest child is starting through the Springfield public schools, where I got my education, and my two others will begin soon."

"I want the best for my children, and I will play my part to make sure that you get the best for yours. I will bring only pride to the Springfield Board of Education."

"Essence Of Education"

Jay pointed out "the essence of education is the caliber of the teachers. We want a board that will obtain those who are the most creative, best educated, most mature."

"Also important is full support by the public, particularly parents of our children—not indifference or hostility to the goals of our schools. We must train our children so they can realistically face the challenges and responsibilities that are a part of adulthood."

Levin called on the Springfield voters to "become a board of excellence. We should enrich the curriculum and improve teaching methods, using all techniques and facilities available."

Mothers To Help March Of Dimes In Drive Tonight

More than 150 women will ring doorbells throughout Springfield tonight in the Mothers' March of the March of Dimes. It was announced by Mrs. Arnold Harlan and Mrs. Bernard Schwartz, chairman for the evening. Jay Bloom is the chairman for the township.

Calling for support in the "March of Dimes fight against crippling birth defects and arthritis," Mrs. Harlan and Mrs. Schwartz declared, "The mothers have confidence in the March of Dimes. They know it gave them the Salk and Sabin vaccines which now protect their children against polio."

"They know that March of Dimes research will find the answers to why 250,000 babies are born each year with birth defects, and why millions of Americans, including thousands of children, suffer from birth defects and arthritis."

"Contributions to the marching mothers support not only this important scientific research program, but also a network of medical centers where birth-defect and arthritis patients receive superior medical care. We also need funds to provide continued assistance to polio patients who look to the March of Dimes for help."

Township Vows All-Out Battle Against Possibility Of Rt. 278

A last ditch fight against any possibility that the projected Rt. 278 might be extended from Rt. 1 to Springfield was pledged by the Township Committee Tuesday evening.

Mayor William Kozub noted a letter from Mayor Warren Stedden of Roselle stating that State Highway Commissioners Douglas Palmer was taking traffic surveys in Roselle. The state has claimed it has "no present plans" to extend Rt. 278 beyond Rt. 1.

Many planning maps are in circulation, however, that continue Rt. 278 through Roselle and Kendworth to the interchange of Rts. 78 and 24 in Springfield.

Committeeman Arthur F. Fallick and Philip De Vecchio noted that Springfield is already "chopped into pieces" by Rts. 22, 24 and 78.

Committeeman Jay B. Bloom urged joint action with other communities in any way that might be possible. "We can promise the state officials a heck of a fight all the way," he stressed. "We should back up every single property owner in every possible legal maneuver."

Morris Ave.

The committee heard a report by Walter Kozub, township engineer, on seven danger spots along Morris Ave. where the state has suspended widening and repaving operations for the winter.

Kozub was authorized to block off the curb and add steps down to the bus stop and crosswalk in front of the cabinet-building at Mountain Ave. to reduce temporarily the worst of the dangers.

Other danger spots he listed may not be subject to mitigation until the spring. The committee authorized a letter to the state authorities—putting the township on record as calling for action.

They include: sloping sidewalk in front of the Springfield Tavern, near Center St.; collar doors set into the sidewalk and curbs in residential areas; water boxes and sewer cleanouts above or below the pavement level; no barrier between parking lot and sidewalk at the Green shopping center; and the need for a sidewalk along (Continued on page 2)

Home Burglarized; Mink, Jewelry Taken

Mrs. and Mrs. Anthony D. Cicuzella of 104 Fieldstone Dr. reported to Springfield police Sunday their home had been entered, and that two bedrooms and a guest room were ransacked.

They listed as missing a $1,000 mink stole, assorted jewelry and men's clothing. A rear door was forced open between Thursday and Sunday, police said.

YES Replies Asked On Jobs For Youth

An emergency appeal to local residents for $500 to "finance the immediate needs of the Springfield Youth Employment Service" was issued this week by Mrs. William Lorimer, chairman; Paul Roman, co-chairman, and John J. Sheehan, fund-raising chairman.

"The organization has been in operation for several weeks," they declared. "To date we have had 200 applications for jobs, part time and fulltime. To date, we have processed 25 youths with employment."

"The outpouring of volunteer help by the citizens of Springfield has been most gratifying, and the progress of this organization has been extremely satisfying."

"We are now seeking immediate financial assistance to cover the every day expenses of this service. The committee has estimated our immediate needs to be around $500."

"We are not seeking large individual contributions; instead we are endeavoring to reach 500 Springfield residents who are willing to help the youth of their town by sending a dollar each."

The statement added that contributions should be sent to YES at the Municipal Building, Springfield.

CIVIC PROJECT — Nicholas Montano, president of the Springfield Chapter of Unicef National, presents a check to Mrs. Robert G. Laurencelle, chairman of the Springfield Red Cross Chapter, as the first installment of his group's recently approved $100 annual contribution to the Red Cross. Looking on are Mrs. Carl Ledig, Red Cross treasurer, and William Doland, chairman of the Unicef committee on civic affairs.

Students Exceed National Norms; Weak In 'Spelling'

Springfield boys and girls were scored a year or more above the national average in the Annual California Standard Achievement Testing Program, it was disclosed this week by Richard Warner, public relations chairman for the Board of Education.

In the 1964 tests, he added, Springfield fourth graders had a median score of grade 5.1; fifth graders, grade 6.4; sixth graders, grade 7.2; seventh graders, grade 8.3, and eighth graders, grade 9.4.

John O. Berwick, superintendent of schools in his report to the Board of Education earlier this month, declared, "This is commendable in respect to national levels, but it is also expected, when one considers the capacity level of our student population."

Four basic skills of Springfield youngsters, however, tested below the national average, Berwick reported. Arithmetic fundamentals were 0.4 below the norm in grades four and five and 0.6 below the national average in the sixth grade. Sixth grade spellers were 0.5 below the median figure for the nation.

Berwick went on to say, "The only major difference between present test results and last year's is the sixth-grade spelling score. Arithmetic fundamentals scores, since 1960, have remained below expectations."

Warner also reported on plans to launch "phase" of the modern mathematics program. A guest consultant addressed local teachers last week and experts within the Springfield system will continue the lecture series.

He noted that the February issue of the "Springfield Board News" will be distributed shortly, featuring information on the fine arts program, the Gaudineer School cafeteria and renovation of the Caldwell School, as well as articles on Berwick and Dr. Thelma Sandmeier.

Evergreen Case Will Be Reheard By Zoning Board

The Board of Adjustment will begin new hearings in the near future on granting a variance for an outdoor singing shell at Evergreen Lodge, Robert C. Miller, Board chairman, disclosed this week.

At a meeting last week the board had stated it would base its decision on a study of the hearings conducted in 1963.

Approval by the board and the Township Committee, granted at that time, was required for further consideration last June by Judge Milton A. Feller of the Superior Court. He said the variance had been granted without mention of the "special reasons" required for a variance to extend a non-conforming use.

At last week's meeting, Irwin Weinberg, attorney for the neighbors who had upset the 1963 variance, argued that there could be no new hearings and that the board must now decide on the basis of the old records.

Miller reported this week, however, that Judge Feller had just advised the board to hold new hearings. Miller is the only member now serving on the five-man board who took part in the original hearings. A new round of evidence will permit the voters to hear the variances, pro and con, for themselves.

Miller also announced that the board will hold a special meeting on Tuesday evening. A decision is expected at that time on the application of Villa Realty Co. for a special exception permit to build a nursing home along Morris Ave. at the Railway River.

Snow Removal Drivers Are Told To 'Straighten Up and Plow Right'

Walter Kozub, township engineer, has acknowledged that a municipal snowplow cleared a path into Evergreen Lodge in the early morning hours on Monday, Jan. 11. He stressed that the action was against official policy, that the driver had been reprimanded and that plows henceforth will clear only public streets.

Kozub explained that the driver had entered the lodge as virtually the only place in town where he could get a sandwich and coffee at 1:30 a.m., and that he had plowed his way in and out of the grounds.

The engineer, who supervises all snow-clearing operations on township streets, said there had been previous isolated occasions when drivers had done favors of this sort for property owners. Kozub emphasized, however, that all drivers last week were officially ordered to keep their plows on the road, and not to help their friends with municipal equipment.

The Leader's inquiry into the incident was prompted by a letter from Mrs. Myron Ogonowsky of 30 Christy Lane.

Township Vows All-Out Battle Against Possibility Of Rt. 278

A last ditch fight against any possibility that the projected Rt. 278 might be extended from Rt. 1 to Springfield was pledged by the Township Committee Tuesday evening.

Committee member Jay B. Bloom urged joint action with other communities in any way that might be possible. "We can promise the state officials a heck of a fight—all the way," he stressed. "We should back up every single property-owner in every possible legal maneuver."

Morris Ave.

The Committee heard a report by Walter Kozub, township engineer, on seven danger spots along Morris Ave. where the state has suspended widening and repaving operations for the winter.

Kozub was authorized to block off the curb and add steps-down to the bus stop and crosswalk in front of the Quinzel building at Mountain Ave., to reduce temporarily the worst of the dangers.

Other danger spots he listed may not be subject to mitigation until the spring. The Committee authorized a letter to the state authorities putting the township on record as calling for action.

They include: sloping sidewalk in front of the Springfield Tavern, near Center St.; cellar doors set into the sidewalk; ditches between the sidewalk and curb in residential areas; water boxes and sewer cleanouts above or below the pavement level; no barrier between parking lot and sidewalk at the Gen. Greene shopping center, and the need for a sidewalk along Morris Ave.

Students Exceed National Norms; Weak In 'Spelling'

Springfield boys and girls were scored a year or more above the national average in the annual California Standardized Achievement Testing Program, it was disclosed this week by Richard Werner, public relations chairman for the Board of Education.

In the 1964 tests, he added, Springfield fourth graders had a median score of grade 5.1; fifth graders, grade 6.4; sixth graders, grade 7.2; seventh graders, grade 8.5, and eighth graders, grade 9.4.

John O. Berwick, superintendent of schools in his report to the Board of Education earlier this month, declared, "This is commendable in respect to national levels, but it is also expected, when one considers the capacity level of our student population."

Four basic skills of Springfield youngsters, however, tested below the national average, Berwick reported. Arithmetic fundamentals were 0.4 below the norm in grades four and five and 0.8 below the national average in the sixth grade. Sixth grade spelling was 0.5 below the median figure for the nation.

Berwick went on to say, "The only major difference between present test results and last year's in the sixth grade spelling scores, since 1960, have remained below expectancy."

Werner also pointed out plans to launch "phase two of the modern mathematics program." A "pilot program" addressed to teachers last week, and teachers within the Springfield system will continue the lecture series.

He noted that the February issue of the "Springfield Board News" will be distributed shortly, featuring information of the fine arts program, the Gaudineer School cafeteria and renovation of the Caldwell School, as well as articles on Berwick and Dr. Thelma Sandmeier.

Home Burglarized; Mink, Jewelry Taken

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony D. Cucarella of 104 Fieldstone Dr. reported to Springfield police Sunday their home had been entered and that two bedrooms and a guest room were ransacked.

They listed as missing $1,000 in cash, a mink, assorted jewelry and men's clothing. The rear door was forced open between Thursday and Sunday, police said.

Evergreen Case Will Be Reheard By Zoning Board

The Board of Adjustment will begin new hearings in the near future on granting a variance for an outdoor singing shell at Evergreen Lodge, Robert C. Miller, Board chairman, disclosed this week.

At a meeting last week, the board had stated it would base its decision on a study of the hearings conducted in 1963. Approval by the board and the Township Committee, granted at that time, was returned for further consideration last June by Judge Milton A. Feiler of the Superior Court. He said the variance had been granted without mention of the "special reasons" required for a variance to extend a non-conforming use.

At last week's meeting, Irwin Weinberg, attorney for the neighbors who had upset the 1963 variance, argued that there could be no new hearings and that the board must now decide on the basis of the old records.

Miller reported this week, however, that Judge Feiler had just notified the board to hold new hearings. Miller is the only member now serving on the five-man board who took part in the original hearings. A new round of evidence will permit the others to hear the evidence, pro and con, for themselves.

Miller also announced that the board will hold a special meeting on Tuesday evening. A decision is expected at that time on the application of Vista Realty Co. for a special exception permit to build a nursing home along Morris Ave., at the Railway River.

YES Replies Asked On Jobs For Youth

An emergency appeal to local residents for $500 to "finance the immediate needs of the Springfield Youth Employment Service" was issued this week by Mrs. William Lorimer, chairman; Paul Roman, co-chairman; and John J. Sheehan, fund-raising chairman.

"The organization has been in operation for several weeks," they declared. "To date we have had 200 applications for jobs, part time and fulltime. To date, we have processed 23 youths with employment."

"The outpouring of volunteer help by the citizens of Springfield has been most gratifying, and the progress of this organization has been extremely satisfying."

"We are now seeking immediate financial assistance to cover the every day expenses of this service. The committee has estimated our immediate needs to be around $500."

"We are not seeking large individual contributions; instead we are endeavoring to reach 500 Springfield residents who are willing to help the youth of their town by sending a dollar each."

The statement added that contributions should be sent to YES at the Municipal Building, Springfield.

CIVIC PROJECT — Nicholas Montano, president of the Springfield Chapter of United National, presents a check to Mrs. Robert G. Laurencelle, chairman of the Springfield Red Cross Chapter, as the first installment of his group's recently approved $100 annual contribution to the Red Cross. Looking on are Mrs. Carl Ledia, Red Cross treasurer, and William Doland, chairman of the Unico committee on civic affairs.

Snow Removal Drivers Are Told To 'Straighten Up and Plow Right'

Walter Kozub, township engineer, has acknowledged that a municipal snowplow crew, on township streets, said there had been previous isolated occasions when drivers had done favors for the township, for property owners. Kozub emphasized, however, that all drivers last week were officially ordered to keep their plows on the road—and not to help their friends with municipal equipment.

The leader's inquiry into the incident was prompted by a letter from Mrs. Myron Ogonowsky of 30 Christy Lane.

Scholar Incentive Plan Recommended

Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, president of Union Junior College, Cranford, is a member of the New Jersey Council on Higher Education, which recommended a scholar incentive plan endorsed last week by Gov. Richard J. Hughes in his annual message to the Legislature.

Gov. Hughes said he plans to submit a bill that would enable not only a greater number of worthy New Jersey students to select private colleges but at the same time "make a corresponding reduction in pressure on the demand for places in state-supported institutions."

Kurt Petchow, assistant youth director of the Westfield YMCA, has announced that both Camp Speers and Camp Wawayanda will hold camp displays and film lectures at the Westfield YMCA, 138 Ferris pl., Westfield on Saturday at 10 a.m. Petchow recommended that all now and interested campers and their parents attend this program and meet Jim Wilks, associate director of Camp Wawayanda, and Al Chrono, associate director of Camp Speers. Both camps are resident camps serving the Westfield area, including Springfield and Mountainside.

Camp Speers operates separate camps for boys and girls from 9 to 16 years of age. Located in the Poconos, seven miles west of Dingmans Ferry, Pa., it covers over 1,000 acres.

Camp Wawayanda is located in the Catskills at Liberty, N.Y. This also operates separate camps for boys and girls, with a program developed by experienced men and women. Wawayanda for boys is enjoying its 64th year of operation.

LUTHERANS GIVE AVERAGE OF $214 TO CHURCH FUNDS

Offerings for all purposes in 1964 reached a total of $214 per communicant at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Springfield, the stewardship chairman, Gordon Becker, reported at the annual meeting of the parish last week.

A communicant in the Lutheran Church is any confirmed member, those from the age of 13 and up.

Offerings for local purposes totaled $28,700, and for missions and benevolences, $3,331. Also at the annual meeting, a 1965 congregational budget of $31,475 was adopted.

Volunteers Only Moments Away From The Next Crisis

BY BEA SMITH

The mechanic is lying beneath an injured car, working on its entrails. His greasy-stained pants cuffs and scuffed shoes trail out from under the vehicle, moving occasionally to indicate the sections on which he is working. Suddenly, a radio buzzer shrills—mingling oddly with the pounding and natural garage noises. In an instant, the mechanic jumps from under the car, reaching toward the buzz of the radio device—all in one movement.

He leaps through the squawk and cackle of the static to an urgent voice that barks out an address, as he flings on a fireman's coat and hat and races to his car.

Within minutes, he is on the scene of a raging fire, mingling with Springfield firemen and volunteer firemen, handling trucks, hoses and equipment. The combined efforts of paid and volunteer firemen give the fire very little chance.

"Thanks to our new radio device, Plectron, we rarely have any difficulty getting to our fire-fighting," explained Bob Briggs, proprietor and manager-mechanic of Springfield Garage and Esso Station on Morris Ave. and Keeley St. (Briggs also serves as volunteer deputy fire chief in Springfield).

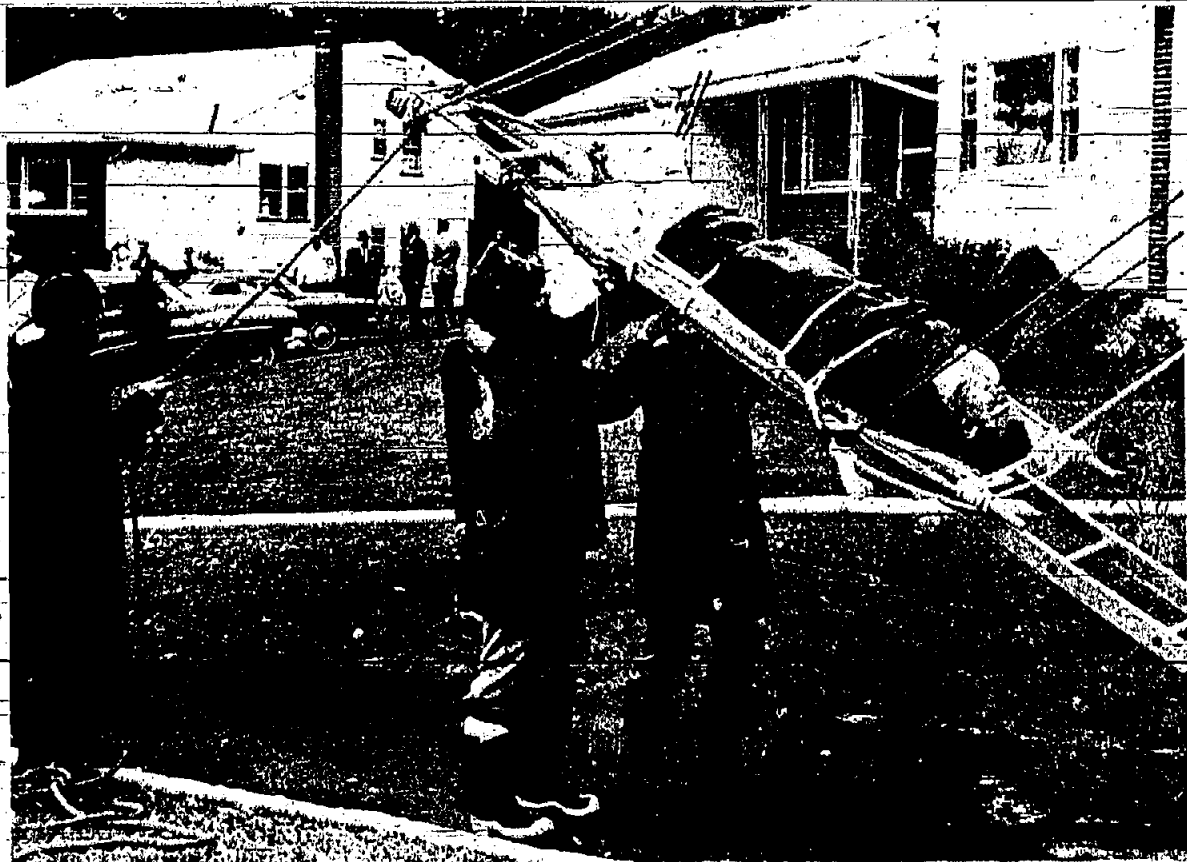

"FIRE CHIEF Ormond Mesker has about 14 paid men, and we have about 40 volunteers," Briggs explained during a chat in his cubbyhole office at the garage the other afternoon.

"We all use the same equipment. In a fire, we're all one union. It doesn't make any difference whether you're a paid man or a volunteer. We all take orders from the boss—Chief Mesker."

Briggs, who has been a volunteer fireman for 28 years, explained that one volunteer recently retired with 43 years of service. "There are other fellows with us who have 35 years to their credit."

"We have a variety of types as volunteers. They come from all walks of life. There are a couple of mailmen, a couple of masons; some work for insurance companies, one is a railroad man, others are mechanics like me."

"We have meetings once a month, drills twice a month. And they're regular drills," he said. "We work with all the equipment and in full working gear, too. Boots, coats, helmets—all of which the town supplies."

Members of Springfield Volunteer Fire Department join Springfield Fire Department in recent Civil Defense practice drill. Speed and accuracy are emphasized in assignment of rescuing helpless victim from "flaming" building.

Postal Machines Planned To Read ZIP Code Figures

Springfield Postmaster A. V. Del Vecchio said this week he had received word from Postmaster General John A. Gronski in Washington that a big breakthrough had been made on electronic machines to "read" ZIP coded addresses on mail.

"The Postmaster General said he expects to begin installing these sophisticated new machines in major post offices starting in about a year," the local postmaster explained.

Del Vecchio said each machine will be able to sort, as well as read, at the rate of 35,000 letters an hour.

The post offices to get the address readers have not been announced, but the Springfield postmaster said they will have significant effects on the mail in and out of each community, whether or not it gets the new machines.

This is because they will speed incoming mail to smaller offices from major cities and step up the dispatch of mail deposited in smaller communities but which must be processed enroute at the major mailing points.

The postmaster emphasized, however, that introduction of the "seeing eye" device next year does not mean ZIP Code is not already useful. "ZIP Code" he explained, "is important in mail handling under the system of mail processing already in use, which will continue to be in use as the basic system at most points."

"These machines will be just another step — in conjunction with the mechanical mail sorting machines we have developed — to help keep pace with the growing volume of mail. Neither will the machines endanger jobs — they will only help us meet mail expansion with minimum manpower expansion."

"And the radios—the Plectrons, which have replaced the bell system in our homes, are a cheaper, but more efficient operation. I have two. One at home and one here at the garage."

"When the radio signal goes off—(it is activated from the firehouse), we get the call as to where and what the alarm is. Most men go directly to the fire; others go to the firehouse and roll out with the trucks. It's all according to where you are when you are summoned."

to eliminate all areas of bias and prejudice in our community wherever they exist—housing, employment or public accommodation.

"Prejudice toward any person based on race, religion or national origin is completely contrary to the religious principles we embrace."

"We offer our prayers, our hopes and our support for the realization of right relationships within our beloved community."

Door-To-Door

According to a committee spokesman, the actual drive will be launched at 1 p.m. this Sunday, with a door-to-door canvass of the town. Thus far, says Mrs. Howard Kaplan, head of the canvassing operation, over 100 residents have volunteered to participate in the campaign.

For purposes of the drive, the town has been divided into voting districts. Captains for the various districts include Mrs. Jerry Kraemer, Mrs. Howard Kiesel, Mrs. Lawrence Armour, Mrs. Morton Goldberg, Joe Marshall, Jim Marshall, Joe Ios, Mrs. Silvia Zisman and Stanley Miller.

Anyone who would like to work on the drive this Sunday is urged to contact Mrs. Kaplan, at DR 9-4237, or any of the captains listed above.

THE PLAQUE will be presented, as it is every year, to the group that best exemplifies the "ideals of community action and citizenship."

A musical program also will be offered for the volunteers, sponsored by the 121-year-old B'nai B'rith organization, and the firefighters will be honored at a reception following the presentation of the plaque.

The work, Briggs said, "may be difficult at times and even dangerous, but we have fun too. We have our annual drive for funds on Washington's birthday, and there's a nice annual dance. We use the money to buy equipment and trucks for the town over the years. The last truck we donated was a rescue truck in 1959."

"Last year, we donated hose jumpers. They are attached to the hose running across a road in the event of a fire. And cars can run over the jumpers without breaking up the hose."

Everyone enjoys all our social activities," he reiterated. "We have picnics on Memorial Day, a church service and a parade. We have a dinner in December."

"We also sponsor a couple of baseball teams in youth leagues."

BRIGGS, WHO WAS born in New York, came here with his family "about 44 years ago. My father's family lived here since the Revolution," he said.

"I married a girl from East Orange," he said, "and we have three children—all grown up now. There's Bruce, 24, George, 20 and Lois, 19."

Briggs agreed that fires sometimes do take place at inconvenient times, but he said he doesn't mind it in the least as long as he can do some good for someone.

He wouldn't deny that fire alarms have interfered with his work at the garage.

"The buzzer would go off, maybe during our busiest time here, and I'd go out and spend two or three hours at a fire."

"It really can mess up the whole day's work. But as I said—I don't mind."

"Everybody has a hobby—and firefighting is mine. It's got to get in your blood."

"And it does!"

The Summit YMCA will be host to members and friends at an informal open house and coffee this Saturday morning to climax its celebration of National YMCA Week. This will be an opportunity for all to see the building renovations which have been completed and also to see the Y at work with 300 boys in its normal Saturday morning program.

Prospective members of the YMCA are invited to stop in for coffee on Saturday morning, and during the following week to observe swimming and lifesaving classes, Scuba diving, fencing, archery, synchronized swimming, girl's gym and the boys' club programs and skill classes. Interested people may call the Y, CR 3-3330, for schedules.

matter for each post is sent to the state convention, and then to the national convention. This year—the national convention will be held in Oregon. A proposed law is offered picked up from the national convention and goes on to Washington to be voted on.

"Recently, a new bill was passed to benefit children of deceased veterans — to help these children go to college."

"We also are trying to expand the Beverly Cemetery in South Jersey for veterans. That will probably be the next bill on the agenda," Weber said. "In fact, we try to do everything we can to help benefit veterans, widows of veterans and their children."

The legion makes three or four visits a year to Lyons and East Orange Veterans Hospitals, Weber said, "and our new policy is to bring soda, candy, cream to play bingo with the fellows and give them a good night of entertainment."

"This sort of thing is generally handled by our auxiliary as well. The members bring three-piece bands for entertainment and dancing. They also provide the food and refreshments."

"This year, he indicated, it will be the post auxiliary which will sponsor the American League Baseball Team in Springfield."

"Another outstanding feature of the legion is the Sons of Veterans, an American League organization. They meet once a month, and taught craftsmanship, chess, order drill, manual of arms."

ON MEMORIAL DAY

Weber said, "we decorate veterans' graves with flowers at the Presbyterian and Methodist cemeteries or a veteran who has died in the past year. Our color guard is represented in Memorial Day services, Fourth of July services — or any special occasion needed by the township or any organization."

Pileated Woodpecker Pecks Away At Suburbia

As housing developments in former woodlots fan out across the nation to meet the population explosion, the belief is growing that man is invading the sacred territory of the pileated woodpecker. What's worse, Woody is striking back!

Reports received across the country by the National Pest Control Association tend to confirm that "Dryocopus pileatus" and his kin, the yellow-shafted flicker, the red-bellied woodpecker and others, are causing increasing damage to dwellings of hurried homeowners.

In Connecticut recently, damage to 40 homes ran as high as $500. Redwood siding appears to be a particular target. And annually across the nation, woodpeckers are raking shells out of three million utility poles.

Insects in the wood, such as carpenter ants or wood borers, may be the prime attraction for the woodpecker, suggest Dr. Philip J. Spear, Technical Director of the Association. Other than insect elimination, no truly effective control of the annoying woodpecker has yet been devised.

The woodpecker, facing virtual extinction at the turn of the century, has a vast following of bird-lovers and is protected by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. This limits control to some extent. Grease repellents that may be suitable to repel the birds from utility poles may not be suitable for the homeowner because of staining.

Some repellent pastes have been applied to strips of plastic or fabric tape. Homeowners have used paper-netting or chicken wire as temporary means of discouraging woodpeckers. Heavy aluminum foil may serve as a deterrent. Telephone companies have tried virtually every means of turning back their feathered friend. Poles have been painted vivid colors. Poles have been draped with red flannel. A variety of obnoxious smelling chemicals have been applied to poles. Even imitation snakes and scarabrows have been dangled from crosspieces.

Some poles in Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona have been wrapped with a three-eighth inch mesh of hardware cloth, but this method is costly. In the famed Atchafalaya Swamp in Louisiana, engineers finally countered with quarter inch galvanized steel jackets over the poles.

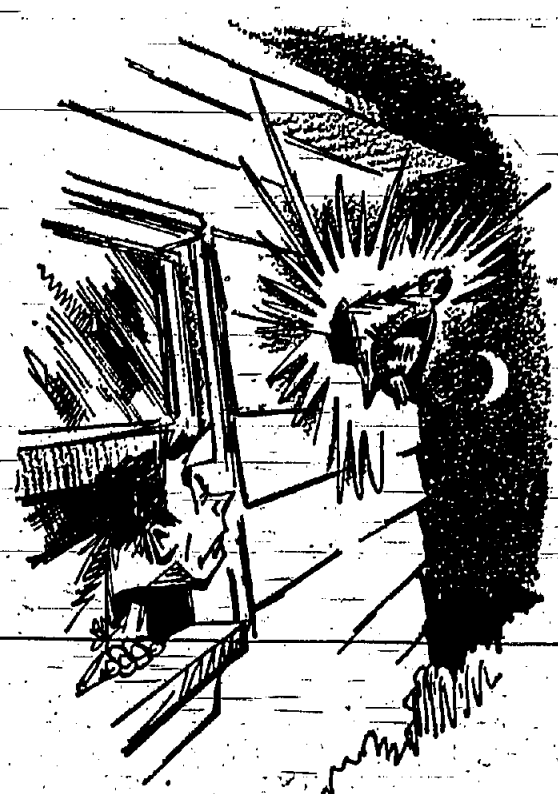

While homeowners will not appreciate it, some woodpeckers are looked upon with fondness: in the spruce forests of the central Rocky Mountain states where they have been credited with saving forests attacked by spruce beetles.

Drumming by the woodpecker, who has been described as having a "bill that combines the qualities of a wood chisel and an electric drill," has been heard as far as two miles away, ornithologists report. Both sexes participate in this activity, usually on a solid dead limb. Birds find a spot with a deep hollow sound and hammer away for sheer joy. They have been known to return year after year to the same spot.

But until more effective control measures are devised, homeowners under attack may be forced to don their ear muffs and drape their premises with a variety of contraptions in an effort to prevent costly damage.

PECKING AWAY—Woodpeckers seldom do as much damage to homes as the sketch above indicates, but it's by no means impossible. Some species of woodpeckers grow as large as crows and their sharp and powerful drilling apparatus is perfectly capable of large-scale destruction. Woodpeckers are a growing nuisance to homeowners, reports the National Pest Control Association.

Put Lights On For TV Is Advice Of Expert

Turn the lights low, if you wish, for television viewing, but don't turn them out. Protect your family's vision. Provide general illumination in the television area.

Soft light throughout the room balances the brightness of the TV screen and prevents visual shock, according to Miss Gene Thames, extension specialist in home furnishing at the College of Agriculture, Rutgers University.

"Do not look at TV in a darkened room," cautions the New Jersey specialist. The strong contrast between the bright screen and dark surroundings is tiring to the eyes. It's all right to turn the lights to medium or low levels, but have some lighting over the entire area.

Distance also tends to encourage children to sit eight to 12 feet away for viewing large, present-day screens. The bigger and brighter the screen, the farther away viewers should sit. This helps to create picture depth and prevent eye strain.

What about placement of lamps in the room? Miss Thames recommends placing them either behind or at the side of viewers. See that lamps do not form reflections on the screen. If they do, replace lamp

Bookmaking Charge Nets Man $1,000 Fine

Edward Sissick, 48, of Jersey City, last week was given a one to two-year suspended sentence in state prison and fined $1,000 on a charge of bookmaking on June 19, 1963, in Linden.

Sissick was also placed on probation for three years and ordered to pay the fine through the probation department.

He had been arrested at Rt. 1 and Siles st. by Linden police,

Wall lighting also creates a pleasant environment for watching television. Cornice or valance lighting or wall bracket lamps are types that may be used for the general lighting needed for television areas.

The vital nature of love as a power that can reshape human beings will be brought out in Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Love," and the Golden Text from I John (4:7, 8) declares the theme: "Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God...
He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."
Conciliatory passages from
"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy describe how men learn to love God: "Simply asking that we may love God will never make us love Him; but the longing to be better and holier, expressed in daily worshipfulness, and in striving to assimilate more of the divine character, will mould and fashion anew, until we awake in His likeness" (p. 4).

Theme On American Heritage To Mark Scout Week Feb. 7-13

"Strengthen America's Heritage" will again this year be the theme of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7-13, Dr. Kenneth N. Albrecht, president of Union Council, Boy Scouts of America, announced this week.

The theme was used last year in cooperation with Freedom's Foundation at Valley Forge-Pa.

It will be used again because of the vital need for America's youth to be made aware of the country's heritage, he said.

"Man is a creature who buys football tickets three months in advance, but waits until the day of her birthday to buy his wife a gift."

Ice Skating Center Introduces Curling

A demonstration in the early 19th century. It is especially popular in Canada and some of the northern States, and is gaining more of a following each year, according to the spokesman.

Curling is played by two four-member teams called "rips" on a sheet of ice 14 feet wide and 140 feet long. A target of concentric 12-foot, 8-foot, and 4-foot rings, called "the house," is marked on the ice near each end. Players wear rubbers, not skates. The 42-pound granite stones, delivered with a clockwise or counterclockwise turn, giving a curve or "curl" in the course of the stones, hence the name "curling."

There were curling clubs in New Jersey around 1900, but the weather became too warm to maintain natural ice for a reasonable length of time. Now, however, with the artificial ice, weather is no longer an obstacle, a commission spokesman said.

Curling is believed to have originated in Scotland around 1500 and was brought to Canada and this country in the

APPLES REMAIN AS GOOD EATING, RAW AND COOKED

With modern methods of refrigerated storage, apples never go out of season. Now New Jersey Stayman-Winesap apples are on sale at many stores and orchard stands. This is New Jersey's second most important apple variety. This year, it accounted for over one-fifth of the total crop of the Garden State. Stayman supplies are expected to last through February, says Dr. Mary E. Armstrong, senior county home economist.

Stayman-Winesap have been grown for almost 100 years. They are easily recognized by their typical "apple shape" and mixed red color, which is usually indistinctly striped with subdued carmine. The flesh is crisp, very juicy and aromatic.

The Stayman-Winesap is an all-purpose variety, excellent for cooking and superb for out-of-hand eating. It is rated high by apple connoisseurs who appreciate a crisp, juicy apple with full old-fashioned apple flavor. They fit into every part of the three meals a day and are the perfect snack that children need for extra energy and adults need for a delightful pause.

Apple fritters are an appetizing dish for any occasion, she says. They are perfect for a Sunday guest luncheon, for any night's supper, for a special party dish when friends meet to play bridge, or sew for the church, or give a shower for the bride.

Here's a new recipe for this old favorite:

Apple Fritters With Lemon Sauce
1 Stayman-Winesap apple
1/4 cup white cooking wine
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
3 eggs
1 1/4 cups sifted enriched flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup milk

Core and pare apples; cut in eighths; combine wine, sugar, and nutmeg; pour over apples. Cover; chill one hour. Beat eggs until light; beat in flour, salt, and milk to make smooth, thin batter. Drain apples; dip in batter; cook in shallow fat two inches deep, heated to 375 degrees F. until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve with lemon sauce. Makes six servings.

Lemon Sauce
1/4 cup granulated sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups boiling water
1/4 cup butter or margarine
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind dash nutmeg, mace and cloves

Combine first three ingredients in saucepan. Add boiling water slowly, stirring constantly to avoid lumps. Simmer while stirring, about five minutes or until clear and thickened. Remove; stir in rest of ingredients. Makes two cups.

CHECK VALVES

Automobile crankcase ventilating devices, or "smog valves" are now standard equipment on all new cars, and unless carefully serviced can cause serious engine damage. AAA cautions: A check-up at least every 4,000 miles is recommended.

The Marines Land - - In Recruiting Trailer

Young men and women seeking information about joining the United States Marine Corps won't have to travel very far any more to have their questions answered. The Corps has opened a branch recruiting office at the Five Points in Union.

Mayor F. Edward Bishempp of Union officiated at ribbon-cutting ceremonies last Thursday when the office, located on the corner of Chestnut st. and Salem rd., was opened. Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hampp, owners of the Galloping Hill Inn at 325 Chestnut st., who granted the Corps permission to locate the station on their property, and Ben H. Gross of the brokerage firm of Gross and Co. of 1460 Morris ave., Union, assisted at the ceremonies.

The office, operated by Staff Sergeant Richard Ahlers, is now located in a trailer situated on the Hampp property. Future plans call for a more permanent type structure to be constructed on the site when the weather warms up.

The area assigned to Sgt. Ahlers covers Union, Roselle Park, Kenilworth, Springfield and Summit. Assisting the sergeant, and in charge of interesting the fair set in the advantages of the Corps, is Staff Sergeant Doris Sherwin. "We're open and ready for business," Sergeant Ahlers stated. "We'd like to talk with young men between the ages of 17 and 26 and young women between the ages of 18 and 22 who are thinking seriously about joining the Marines."

The new facility is open from nine to five on weekdays and from nine to one on Saturdays. Evening hours can be arranged by phoning Sergeant Ahlers at 687-8424.

Secretaries Plan Dinner Meeting

The Union County Chapter of the National Secretaries Association will hold a meeting to learn more on the subject of social security Feb. 3 at the Elizabeth Carter Hotel in Elizabeth, it was announced.

The national organization with 550 chapters has adopted as its program for February a study of the subject entitled "Today's Contribution - Tomorrow's Security."

Doris R. Lassman, assistant district manager of the Social Security district office in Elizabeth, is assisting the chapter in arranging for the dinner meeting. NSA members will learn of the rights and benefits under social security in the areas of retirement, survivors and disability.

Chiropodists To Hear Talk At White Labs

"Rehabilitation of the Foot Without Surgery" will be discussed by Dr. Lawrence Naman of Brooklyn at the February meeting of the Eastern Division of the New Jersey Chiropodist Society on Tuesday evening at the White Laboratories in Gallop Hill rd., Kenilworth.

Dr. Donald A. Fisher of Roselle, scientific chairman, will preside. William P. McCahill, executive secretary of the President's Committee on the Handicapped, recently reported that chiropody care results in a definite reduction in the number of amputees among diabetics and victims of foot ailments.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
The Rutgers Graduate School of Library Service celebrated its 10th anniversary in 1964.

Winter Trackmen Take A Long, Long Trail

Indoor track, the unsung and often forgotten winter sport in Springfield, will start its third season of competition for Jonathan Dayton Regional High School at the New Jersey Federation development meet at 10:00 a. m., Saturday at the Rutgers-University outdoor board track in New Brunswick.

Almost 30 schools will participate in the novice and open classes in these events: one mile run, 1,000-yard run, 440-yard dash, one mile relay and eight lap relay.

Next Friday, Feb. 5, at 6 p. m., Coach Robert C. Lummer's musclemen will attempt to retain the indoor shotput record set by Dayton's Charlie Roll last year with a heave of 58-3. Big Ernie Erskine and Mike Adickman will compete in this event which will be held at Rutgers also.

Nearly every member of the 24-man squad will compete in the state meet in the Jersey City Armory at 9:30 a. m. on Saturday, Feb. 6. Dan Ginter will enter the 60-yard dash; Dave Ronco and Sam Joseph will run the 90-yard high hurdles; Mike Tabakin, the '440; Gary Wood and Don Knott, the 1,000; Pete Costancia, Don Fry, Frank Phillips, the one-mile run; George Severt, Tom Tonkin and Henry Butman, the high jump; Jon Schlepmer, Robert Middleton, Gary Wood and Frank Phillips, the two-mile relay; Dan Ginter, Dave Ronco, Mike Tabakin and Tom Tonkin, the eight-lap relay.

THE NORTHERN New Jersey Championships at Jersey City on Feb. 13 and the Union County Relay and Pingey Invitational times and places to be announced later will complete Dayton's 1965 indoor track schedule.

Coach Lummer, who is starting his eighth year as head track coach, and Martin A. Taglienti, assistant coach, have to use all their ingenuity, imagination and know-how to train their indoor track athletes, since Dayton has no indoor track and no gym facilities available as the girls' sports and varsity, JV and freshman basketball and wrestling squads have priority on floor space. However, Coach Lummer said, since "these 24 candidates have the desire and intestinal fortitude to participate, despite the seemingly overwhelming obstacles, we've arranged a schedule and a program of practice that would tax the endurance of anyone but a die-hard trackman."

PRATICE IS HELD in the boys' gym every Thursday morning from 7:45 to 8:30 for the high jumpers and shot putters. School corridors are utilized by the high hurdles after school, while the shot putters work with weights in the hallways.

Runners have two options for their practice. If the weather is nice (no rain or snow), they get their workout by circling the school grounds or the "cross-country course" a number of times. If the weather is not nice they can run in the hallways and up and down stairways — the exercise made famous by the Green Bay Packers' star, Paul Hornung. All track coaches believe that running is the most complete form of exercise and Lummer is no exception. He believes—in the old cinder a will, there is a way to carry out an indoor track program. Necessity is the mother of invention. "This philosophy must have been effective last year because it did produce the 1964 New Jersey indoor shot put champion in the form of Charlie Roll.

Candidates

the Regional Board of Education, the Township Committee, the municipal library. In demanding the best, "I will ask a great deal of myself, the board, the teachers and the students." Liebeskind stressed that "dedication is of great importance in choosing a candidate." He reviewed his own qualifications as a PTA vice-president and a leader in the passage of the referendum for the new wing at the Gaudineer School as an indication of what I shall continue to do."

Later in the evening, Liebeskind criticized the board for having "tried to get a whole hand, instead of just a finger," in including such other items as a new board building and a Chisholm School addition in the dictation of what I shall continue to do. When the board asked for only one item, the Gaudineer addition, he pointed out, the voters agreed.

Study New Trends

Mrs. Weisman suggested that the Board of Education "constantly evaluate the latest developments in education" and that it "keep clear the lines of communication" between the board and the teachers and other staff members.

She stressed the need for improved communication and coordination between the school board and other units of municipal government, "for the continued growth of a healthy township."

In response to a question from the floor, all candidates praised the foreign language program at Gaudineer. They agreed, in principle, with the thought of teaching languages to younger children but called for further study.

Mrs. Dorsky, particularly, suggested that German might be added to the French and Spanish now offered at Gaudineer. Levin also questioned the "exclusive instruction in Romance languages. Some day we might be teaching Russian to children who will have to deal with the world situation."

Better Coordination

The candidates also agreed on the need for increased coordination between the local board and the Regional Board, which operates Jonathan Dayton and other high schools.

"Rather than have us adapt to what they do," Levin said, "we should set the trend."

Mrs. Dorsky noted that the communication does take place on several levels, but that it is difficult to communicate between board gealing with different types of education. She stressed the need for increased cooperation among the school superintendents and other professionals on the various staffs.

Answering another question, Affitto set the tone when he said that completion of the Gaudineer addition "should result in excellent facilities" for the local schools.

Mrs. Weisman expressed the hope that "we have learned a lesson from the three cities that took for naught of the Gaudineer improvements. Perhaps next time we can plan further ahead."

Mrs. Robert Hardgrove, president of the Gaudineer PTA, opened the meeting. She introduced Mrs. Stephen Bono, president of the Springfield League of Women Voters. Mrs. Henry Hemeke, vice-president and voters' service chairman of the league, and Mrs. Seymour Margulies, president of the Springfield Council of PTAs.

Mrs. Bono led in the pledge of allegiance and national anthem, with Mrs. Adam La Sota at the piano. Mrs. Morris G. Learner was timekeeper for the discussion period.

OUR DEADLINE is noon Friday for organization, social, church news.

Hagerty Is Injured In Crash Of Airliner

LANCASTER, Pa. — Walter Hagerty, 38, of 221 Baltusrol ave., Springfield, suffered compound fractures of the left leg when the airliner on which he was a passenger made a crash landing here last Thursday night.

The Allegheny Airlines plane, carrying 25 passengers and a crew of three, landed without fatalities and with only three injuries. Passengers lauded the skill of the pilot, Capt. William Morris of Somerville, N. J.

The plane, from Pittsburgh and Lancaster to Reading and Newark, had just taken off at Lancaster when one of its two engines failed. Morris then brought it back for an emergency landing on the snow-covered field.

Hagerty was operated on Thursday night at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lancaster. He was expected to remain in the hospital for at least two weeks.

WATER for BETTER LIVING

What about water supply? The question is asked thousands of times each year by industries seeking favorable locations for new plants. Usually it's the No. 1 question. If the answer is favorable it could mean new jobs, payrolls, and tax revenue to the community. If unfavorable, industries usually turn elsewhere and great opportunities are lost. Your water system is your community's best friend in the competition for new industry and new opportunities for better living for everybody.

Bulldogs Play Host To League Leaders Tomorrow

Snap Five-Game Losing Streak By Defeating Roselle Tuesday

By DONALD LEWIS
Although Cranford High School squandered the Watchung Conference championship last Friday night by defeating second-place Scotch Plains, the season is far from over at Dayton Regional. The Bulldogs played two excellent close games this week and two more are in store for the coming week. The Bulldogs snapped their five game losing streak by defeating Roselle on Tuesday, 63-52.

Last Friday night Dayton dropped a close one in the closing seconds to Union High. With the score tied 62 all, Dave Kohan sank a foul shot for Union with 20 seconds remaining to win the game. Returning to action for the Bulldogs, however, was Mike Kretzer. Kretzer's absence the previous week due to a sore and injured ankle had hampered the Bulldogs.

Two new players emerged in the limelight for Dayton in Tuesday's home game with Roselle. Dave Drockin, hitting with fine accuracy from the outside, scored in double figures for the second game in a row. Steve Hirschorn, a 5-4 sophomore, played most of the game for Dayton, after seeing some action in the previous game. Dayton has been plagued this year by the playmaker spot but now seems to have found a basketball player in Hirschorn.

Coches Ray Yanchus of Dayton and Steve Hirschorn of Dayton were a bit in the closing minutes of the game. He has a disadvantage in being so small, and he doesn't weigh much, but knowing he will be playing next year, we'll use him more and more.

Cornell Ties For 1st In Ivy League Play

Cornell tripped previously undefeated Princeton last week in Ivy League competition to move into a first place tie with the Princeton team. This was the opening game in last Saturday's action at Regional High School. The league is operated by the Springfield Recreation Department.

The Cornell-Princeton game was a thriller from the outset as the lead changed hands 13 times. The game was tied at 28-all with but 55 seconds left to play.

Cornell then put the game out of reach as Steve Retchner hit one of two foul shots and Gary Ginsberg hit two tip-in baskets. The final count was 31-26.

Joe Schwartz played an outstanding game for Cornell as he kept his team close throughout the contest. Schwartz was a game high scorer as he tallied 18 points. The league's high scorer, Ralph Lozano, paced the Princeton team as he counted for 15 points.

will play host to league-leading Cranford at 8 p.m. Cranford has two especially strong players in Wayne Ruckel, a speedy night scorer, and big 6'5" John Dreyer. Coach Yanchus, however, said, "Everybody seems to have conceded everything to Cranford, but we don't. We're trying to convince our boys that we can win, and if we're successful in building up morale by Friday, we can win. We go into every game hoping for a victory."

This coming Tuesday, the Bulldogs travel to Hillside, Hillside is 0-13 this season, having been beaten by Dayton earlier in the season, but Mr. Yanchus feels anything can be expected. "We seem to have a tough time when we're at Hillside," he said, "I don't know why. We haven't won at Hillside in the last five years, but we're hoping to carry over the spirit of the first game this season to a victory."

In Tuesday's Roselle match, Mike Kretzer scored 21, Keith Neigel, 22, and Dave Drockin, 16, to account for most of Dayton's scoring. Drockin scored the first basket of the game and Dayton pulled to a 16-12 lead in the first quarter. In the second quarter, however, Roselle erased that margin with hard scoring by Les Randolph and Bruce Dowd. Dayton continued to dominate under the backboard, however. In the final seconds of the half, Dowd sank two foul shots to end the half with the score tied 26-26.

The third period was a scoring battle, as Neigel sank three baskets and five foul shots for the Bulldogs and Roselle continued to score from the outside. It was in the fourth and final quarter, however, that the Bulldogs finally pulled away to a mouth pulled away to an early lead in the contest but later fell to Columbia's last period rally.

Teddy O'Connell, team captain, paced the Columbia team as he scored 18 points. Six of Ted's points came late in the contest as Columbia was driving to victory. Ray Haines counted for seven points, with five in the final few minutes. Mike Pomp also played a top game for Columbia.

Dartmouth was paced by its captain, Dave Margulies, who scored 11 points and rebounded well. Fred Gott played a fine floor game and scored nine points for the Dartmouth team.

The final match of the day saw Yale play its finest game of the year to defeat a top Harvard squad by the score of 24-16. Yale played a scrappy defensive game and led the Harvard team after every period of play.

The Yale scores were once again paced by their big three of Gary Haydu, Tommy Carroll and Frank Bucci. Haydu hit nine points, while Carroll and Bucci hit for six and seven. All of Carroll's points were scored from the foul line.

triumph. With the score 47-43, Dayton rang up 10 straight points on shots by Neigel, Kretzer, and Drockin. Bruce Dowd retaliated for Roselle with two lay-ups and two fouls, but the Bulldogs had put the game out of reach. The final buzzer gave Dayton its fourth victory of the season by a score of 63-52.

Edged by starting center Mike Kretzer, returning to action last Friday night in the game at Union High. Kretzer, with his ankle taped for torn ligaments suffered in the Linden match earlier this season, scored 17 points for the Bulldogs, while Keith Neigel scored 21. Despite a spirited effort by the Bulldogs, Union left the court with a one point victory, 62-62.

During the first half, Dayton held a slim margin with a strong and varied attack. Dave Drockin was very effective for the Bulldogs on set shots from the outside and the left corner. Neigel, playing the post position, put in seven baskets for the Bulldogs.

Sophomore Steve Hirschorn made his first varsity appearance for Dayton. Hirschorn, tallest man on the court, showed excellent poise and ball-handling ability, and gave promise of developing into a fine playmaker for the Bulldogs.

Union's scoring in the first half came largely on shots from the outside by Elliot Maddox and Gary Gordon. The Farmers seemed unable to penetrate Dayton's tight defense except on the fast break, and suffered under the backboards.

Union came alive in the third period as Gordon and Jeff Krohn began to hit with increasing accuracy. Defensively, the Farmers allowed Neigel to score only once for the Bulldogs. The buzzer at the quarter gave Union a 31-43 lead.

In the fourth quarter, Dayton overcame this six-point deficit with a flurry of scoring by Kretzer, Drockin and Bob Ries. Kretzer scored four baskets in as many minutes before fouling out with three minutes remaining.

Falcone Sparks Rockets To Lead In Boys' Bowling

The Rockets won two games in the Boys' Recreation Bowling League last week at Springfield Bowl to move into a two-game lead for first place. The good bowling of the Rockets team provided two victories over the Pirates in last Friday afternoon's action.

Ricky Falcone was the top bowler for the Rockets in their two victories as he posted a 248 series. The other Rocket bowlers, Rick Rawitz, Rick Williams, Sal Mucario and Mike Rubinfeld, were all close behind in the scoring. Alan Schlanger with a 240 series paced the Pirates.

The Raiders continued their winning streak by defeating the Bombers in two games. The Raiders have now moved into a tie for second place. David Epstein and Teddy Rosenkrantz were the leading bowlers for the winning Raiders. Evan Wasserman with a 251 series paced the Bombers.

The Bulls divided two games with the Jets to retain a position of second place. Mark Hollander, who has bowled very well of late, paced the Bulls for the afternoon with a 277 series. It was Mark's 156 game which provided victory for the Bulls in the second game.

Danny Weiss was the top bowler for the Jets as he posted a 236 series.

The final match of the day saw the Hurricanes divide two games with the Aloms. The Aloms were victorious in the opening game as they were led by Michael Denner and Jay Silverman. The Hurricanes took the second game behind the top bowling of Howie Felschman and Howie Levine.

Mysteries Of 'Points' In Mortgages Explained By Official Of R. E. Scott Co.

The mysteries of mortgage "points," a term unfamiliar to the layman unless he has been engaged in a real estate transaction, was recently explained by Robert J. Glacken, Jr., executive sales manager of the R. E. Scott Co., Elizabeth Realtors. Mortgage interest rates have climbed steadily during the past 10 years from 5 to 8 1/2 to 6 percent, while V.A. and F.H.A. interest rates by law have remained lower than conventional rates, he said.

ROBERT J. GLACKEN, JR.

In order to understand this situation, Glacken said, it is necessary to go back to the period of World War II. "Financial institutions then were unable to invest in mortgages because there were few real estate sales and, therefore, little demand for mortgage money. Instead they invested largely in U.S. Government Bonds. When the war ended, these institutions, banks, life insurance companies, savings & loan and mortgage companies, were left with a surplus of 20 to 25 years.

$2,000 Donation By Clark Woman To Cancer Fund

A $2,000 contribution to the 1965 Cancer Crusade, has been made by Mrs. Arnold J. Morway of Clark. Mrs. Morway, a volunteer for the American Cancer Society for more than 10 years and a member of its board of managers, raised the money through periodic rummage sales conducted in Rahway.

The Cancer Society plans to use the funds to purchase new equipment for use in an expanded public education program, according to Patricia Glanick, education committee chairman.

Glanick said, "The availability of this additional equipment will allow the society to schedule many more programs and reach several thousand more people with important facts about cancer."

The new educational materials will be used in conjunction with the recently established Lay Speakers Bureau. In this program, lay speakers will talk about the work being done by the American Cancer Society, show a film on cancer and its effects, and introduce an attending physician-speaker to explain the materials presented.

In addition to the Lay Speakers Bureau for public education concerning cancer symptoms, the society recently conducted a cancer institute for teachers in Atlantic City. Since then, teachers have been taking an active role in scheduling cancer education programs in the schools.

Glanick also stated that the Union County Charter has taken every opportunity to inform teachers of the availability of educational films and materials.
