5-Part Report To Local School Board

By ARNOLD GOLD

The five music teachers who met with the local school board last night to present their 5-part report on the state of music instruction in the district. The report was prepared by the Music Instruction Committee, which was formed last year to study the needs of the district's music program.

The report covers five areas: the current state of music instruction, the needs of the district, the goals of the program, the resources available, and the recommendations for improvement. The committee found that music instruction is currently limited to a few select schools and that there is a need for more comprehensive music programs throughout the district.

The committee recommended that the district should establish a music department, hire more music teachers, and provide more resources for music instruction. They also recommended that the district should establish a music council to oversee the program and coordinate efforts with other district departments.

Highway Hazards

The Springfield Township Board last night voted to authorize the purchase of buses to replace those that are unsafe for highway travel. The board voted to purchase 10 buses at a cost of $100,000.

The buses are needed to replace those that are unsafe for highway travel. The current buses are old and do not meet the safety standards required for highway travel. The new buses will be safer and more comfortable for passengers.

The board also voted to reject a proposal to close schools. The proposal was based on the rumors of a high illness rate, but the board stated that there is no thought of closing schools.

Viet Means Work Springfield GI Finds Out

TUY HOA, VIETNAM — When you belong to the only Army engineer unit in a Viet Cong infested area — you work, work, work.

Specialist Four Gary K. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Anderson, 46 Lyons pl., Springfield, N. J., can attest to that.

GARY K. ANDERSON

Anderson, who returned home early on Monday, after two years of Army service, was airlifted here from Camp Ranh Bay with the 38th Engineer Battalion's Company B.

The company was assigned nearly every mission a combat engineer can handle: improvement of airfields, road construction, clearing mines, civil assistance, destruction of unexploded artillery rounds, maintenance of engineer equipment for infantry units and construction.

Work went on 24 hours a day with platoons working three shifts.

Anderson was a combat construction specialist in the company. He entered the Army in March, 1964, and was previously stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky. He was in Viet Nam since early this year.

The 23-year-old soldier was graduated from Dayton Regional High School in 1961. Before entering the Army he was employed at Highway Flashes in Clark.

Mrs. Jaeger has a sixth grade club, a seventh and eighth grade choir and, when nature is good to me, a boys' choir of changed voices.

THE INSTRUCTION becomes more sophisticated each year, she noted, until eighth graders study two or three operas, jazz, works of specific composers and, in general, prepares for high school studies in music.

She added that the youngsters are now preparing for an annual highlight, a trip to the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. Students going on the trip are chosen by lot. Mrs. Jaeger said, because the number of available seats is severely limited.

This year, the children will hear the "Girl of the Golden West" on April 11.

Although the two men share all instrumental instruction, Ecker spoke last week primarily on work in the elementary schools, and Sielski on Gaudineer School activities.

Ecker said that instrumental training starts with the flute-phonophone for third graders. He added that this year each child will have a chance to try "real instruments," trumpet, flute, violin and oboe.

WHEN CHILDREN REACH grade four, he said, instrumental instruction is open to all, regardless of ability, and performing groups are organized to provide an outlet for those who are ready.

"We encourage the better students to seek work to be reported," he also encouraged those who are ready to seek private instruction.

Ecker stated that there now are 206 children, in all schools, in the instrumental programs, including 96 beginners. The school system provides some instruments, especially those which children would not be likely to study by themselves.

The youngsters who want to learn such instruments as the clarinet or trumpet have to buy or rent them privately.

ECKER PRESENTED a breakdown of his budding musicians, by instruments, as follows: 20 string instruments; 24 flutes; 53 clarinets; 21 saxophones; three French horns; 27 trumpets; 10 trombones; two baritone horns; five tubas and 32 percussion instruments.

"As you can see," he added, "we have a predominance of the smaller instruments. It takes a lot of dedication to carry a tuba back and forth between the home and school."

He also noted that there are 73 fourth graders in the program, 83 fifth graders, 22 sixth graders, 13 seventh graders and 18 eighth graders. Ecker said that they constitute just under 10 percent of the students in these grades, about half the turnout of that in some neighboring communities.

Sielski commented that instruction at the Gaudineer School "treats music as an academic discipline, with specific content to be learned. Every child has an opportunity to develop his skills. We then go beyond mechanical skills to a knowledge of music which they can use in high school and later."

He stated that the Gaudineer band now includes some 40 youngsters, mostly sixth graders. He outlined plans for a separate band for seventh and eighth graders.

Sielski said that they work separately with stringed instruments, to develop an orchestral ensemble.

THE TWO INSTRUMENTAL instructors divide the teaching tasks between brass and woodwind instruments, with each taking approximately 100 students in his specialty. They noted that this is about as many students as one teacher can handle.

In response to a question from the board, they agreed emphatically that addition of another teacher to the staff, to concentrate on string instruments, would greatly improve the program.

Board members also discussed with them, at some length, the possibility and costs of having the school system buy more instruments for use by the children.

They estimated that all normal instruments, but not the basic ones which the children still have to provide, could be covered by an expenditure of about $10,000.

John O. Berwick, superintendent of schools, commented that the system has already started to enlarge its stock of instruments and is working to encourage an interest in instrumental music. He noted that until this year there was only one instrumental music teacher.

LEADER PROFILE

ADAM LA SOTA

Adam La Sota, a long-time citizen of Springfield, may be categorized as one of those rare, dedicated men toward whom a township may point with pride.

La Sota is golf coach at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School and he also holds the rather complicated title of coordinator of diversified occupations for all District Regional High Schools.

But La Sota is more than just a high school golf coach — he is a champion coach and has poured a lifetime of experience and devotion of the sport into his work within the past eight years at Regional — all of which has quite obviously proved to be a true incentive to the boys on his team.

They are the current state champions, the Watchung Conference champions and the Central Jersey champions.

Perhaps more important is the work La Sota is doing as "coordinator of diversified occupations" — although he talks of both with equal zeal and enthusiasm.

HE HAS PREVENTED many a student from dropping out of high school — particularly students who were not able to keep up with the average high school curriculum, and who were anxious to "get it over with and get some kind of a job," minus a high school diploma.

La Sota, who has been teaching in the Springfield high school for 18 years, explains that "at the beginning, I was an instructor in agriculture. But six years ago, we began to make a slow change — to diversified occupations.

"We originally started with teaching special classes, primarily for slow learners. I worked in a classroom with them for two periods in the morning (one hour and 40 minutes). The students were dismissed from school at 12:15 so that they could be on a job by 1 p.m.

"I would get the jobs for them — in such places as machine shops, tool and die and wood shops, as cabinet-making apprentices, in super-markets and hospitals.

"A GOOD NUMBER" was capable only of repetitive jobs; and on the whole, a good many have proven that they can be successful employees. For example, we've had one girl who has been with a firm for six years; now she has people working under her supervision.

"It just goes to prove a point," La Sota says. "We can educate these youngsters for much less money than sums spent in anti-poverty programs in this area."

The "original idea may have come from Dr. Warren M. Davis, regional superintendent, but I'm not too sure about that. Back in 1960, Dr. Donald Merachnik was the originator here — as supervisor of Special Services in the Union County District.

"I picked up the course of studies. I wrote up little prospectuses — and have been adding and subtracting each year to make it more feasible," says La Sota.

"MY JOB actually," La Sota explains, "is to prepare these people for a full life — to know about unions, attitudes on jobs, interviews, income tax, saving money — anything to promote a successful adulthood and parenthood."

La Sota indicates that there are special classes and special teachers "who handle the youngsters. They are all seniors — or unclassified. Two or three educables are not classified at all.

"Their ages range from 17 to 19 for the most part . . . once in a while we get a 16-year-old, and we have had some at age 21. The latter is due to students who are foreign born, who have a language barrier where they still haven't mastered the English language.

"The students have been given their diplomas upon graduation; some also have been listed on the special service honor roll."

During the summer months, La Sota says, he visits the students' parents. "I make my acquaintance then — and acquaint the parents with our program." And during the school year, he visits the students' homes . . . "some, at least four times a week. I get to know the parents as well. Sometimes the parents call me."

LA SOTA COMMENTS that he doesn't mind taking time out of his hours off to visit with the parents. "I feel," he says, "I'm there to serve them — to help their youngsters. I'm only too happy to be able to talk to them. All the parents have my telephone number at home — and they are welcome to call me at any time."

The most important thing, La Sota indicates, "is to see that these kids really get along. We're set up to train them for a livelihood — we want them to have a form of apprenticeship."

Giving credit where credit is due, La Sota declares that the "people who hire the kids should be given a good pat on the back. Some of the youngsters have to become tolerable . . . it takes about six

—SNOW PLOWING

In the March 10 edition of the Springfield Leader, Irwin Bross was quoted as recently protesting to municipal officials that "municipal snow plows had cleared driveways at the Evergreen Lodge."

As an aftermath of Mr. Bross' charge, I requested an investigation into this matter. Subsequently I received a report stating to my satisfaction that no township vehicles had been involved in the plowing.

Further investigation revealed that the work had been done by H. Scott Excavating, whose trucks bear a definite resemblance to municipal trucks, having the same shade of green and yellow identification—doors.

I feel, in view of the public charge made by Mr. Bross, that in fairness to public works employees, public exoneration is in order.

Delegate Lists Convention Goals, Procedures

The following article is the first of a series by James M. Cawley, Springfield township attorney, who is a delegate to the constitutional convention called to reapportion the state legislature in accordance with recent rulings of the U. S. and New Jersey Supreme Courts.

On Monday morning, a constitutional convention will convene at Rutgers University in New Brunswick. It will continue without interruption until June 15 to consider proposals to revise and amend the provisions of the present state constitution relating to the representation of the people in a Legislature, to comply with the requirements of the United States Constitution and the New Jersey Supreme Court. It will then submit its proposal to the people at the general Election of November, 1966.

The constitutional convention will consist of 128 delegates entitled to cast a total of 112 votes, allotted to the several counties according to population. Each delegate serves without pay.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes will open the convention and preside at its first session until permanent officers are selected. As long as he presides, he may cast the deciding vote in the event of a tie.

The convention will be the judge of the qualification of its members, their election, or appointment. It will choose a president and secretary and all other appropriate officers, prescribe their functions, powers and duties, and make rules and regulations for the conduct of its business.

Before entering upon his office, each delegate must take an oath or affirmation that he will support the Constitution of the United States and faithfully discharge his duties as delegate.

WHEN THE CONVENTION

by the concurrence of delegates casting 57 or more votes in favor thereof shall have agreed upon a formula, plan or proposal, and the manner of its submission, an original and two true copies thereof shall be prepared, signed by the president and secretary of the convention and delivered to the governor, who shall cause the original copy to be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

The convention shall thereupon proceed to arrange for the submission of the agreed-upon formula, plan or proposal for the revision of, or amendments to, the present constitution to the people. The convention shall frame the question to be placed upon the ballot at the November election.

If a majority of all votes cast for and against the adoption of the proposed revision or amendment at the general election shall be in favor of its adoption, then such revision or amendment shall become a part of the constitution.

SOME OF THE vital questions we have to answer are:

Should there be a bicameral or unicameral legislature?

How large shall the house or houses be?

What shall be the terms of office, and shall the terms be staggered?

Should elections be by districts, and if so, shall the districts be related to existing county lines? Should a member be elected from a single district or should there be multi-member districts?

What provisions can be adopted to deal with the threat of gerrymandering if the districts are to be fixed from time to time?

Should the task of periodic reapportionment rest with the legislature or rest with some other agency, either initially or in the event the Legislature does not act?

Should there be a right in the people to initiate changes affecting the legislature so that the principal's inherent power to change need not depend upon the agent's willingness to submit a proposal?

In order to keep our Springfield residents informed of the day by day convention proceedings, I plan to write a bi-weekly article for this paper.

On behalf of my fellow Union

EDITORIAL COMMENT

On The Efficient Uses Of Publicity

As the snows of winter slowly melt away, immodestly baring the quagmires of spring, many organizations give thought to harvesting the first crop of the new season, personified by a state of officers for the coming year.

We urge that nominating committees give particular attention to that most important of all officers, the publicity chairman. After all, anyone can be president, especially of a ladies' organization. All it takes is a new hat, and years of hard work. Publicity chairmen, are rare and shy, like unicorns or whooping cranes, and they should be cherished.

A special warning for nominating chairmen is in order. Don't trust publicity to a lawyer or a school teacher. Lawyers have been trained for years in the mysteries of ambiguity, and their press releases, all too often, read as though they are designed for review by an appellate court.

Teachers usually write beautiful press releases, but they tend to omit minor details, like the place or date or a meeting, so that the editor is encouraged to do a little independent research. Although some exceptions do come to mind, English teachers write more beautifully than anybody. We can't understand them at all.

This community has two publicity chairmen who typify the virtues of their humble but vital trade — a housewife and an accountant. Hazel Hardgrove has handled news releases for some time for a long list of organizations. Joe Dubiel is a newcomer to the public relations avocation.

Their news items, besides needing little editing and almost no rewriting, have several basic virtues. They put first things first. Too many press releases begin with the offerings of the hospitality committee, followed by a biography of the decorations chairman. They conclude with a brief notice of the fact that a representative of the Planned Parenthood Foundation will present a talk on problems of men and women over 85.

Our two star correspondents, and some others in town, also share other characteristics. They submit their articles before our deadline, when there is more time, and space. They take the trouble to check on spelling of names, and they proof-read their material. In addition, when things go wrong, they can envision some other reason besides deliberate persecution by the newspaper staff.

Summing up, the task of the publicity chairman is of major importance in almost any organization. This is the person who interprets the work and aims of the group to the rest of the community. We just wish that it would not go so often to someone who failed on the disposal of coffee-grounds committee.

LEADER PROFILE

"Many have had four or five jobs within the year. On the average," La Sota says, "most of the youngsters have two jobs before adjusting."

"IT SEEMS," La Sota muses, "that as soon as the kids start making money, they start thinking about buying automobiles."

"I place these youngsters the same way I do with the D. O. youngsters. These kids only have one period a day with me for 15 minutes."

La Sota, who was born in Paterson, received a B. S. degree in 1941 from Rutgers College of Agriculture in New Brunswick.

HE SAYS he became interested in golf when he was still going to grade school in Paterson. "When I was an eighth grade pupil, I found out that I could earn some money by caddyng."

"Once a week I used to sneak out to play at the Passaic Country Golf Club in Wayne Township."

In college, La Sota "never played golf." He had to run our family farm in my junior year.

"Then I left there to go into industry. I managed a million dollar poultry farm—which was later converted into a candy factory. Then I went out as a salesman for livestock feeds... then back into teaching.

"SPRINGFIELD happened to be open at the time, and this is where I landed." La Sota also conducted an agricultural team made up of agricultural students.

La Sota moved to Springfield 17 years ago ("a year after I started at Dayton) with his wife, the former Vera Hafemann of Hillsdale.

"She did a lot of scout work when our son, Larry (now 17 and a junior at Dayton Regional) was a Cub Scout."

"We're going to hope to repeat our successes of last year. Six or seven of the boys of last year are still with us."

La Sota's other activities include membership in the Rotary Club of Springfield.

He adds, "I still like to put in more time with organizations pertaining to my job rather than to any social aspect."

DRIVING HAZARDS INCREASED

3 Out Of 4 Cars Mechanically Deficient

DETROIT — Three out of four cars on the road have at least one mechanical deficiency that increases driving hazards. The condition was disclosed by a statistical analysis of more than a thousand cars that have passed through one of the nation's new automobile diagnostic centers.

Especially timely because of the interest that Congress and State Legislatures are taking in the safety of automobiles, the report shows that hazards arising from mechanical deficiencies could be reduced sharply if motorists kept cars in better condition.

The report comes from Shell Oil Company's Motorists, a suburb of Detroit in the facility, opened in June, 1965, automobiles undergo 130 tests and checks by trained diagnosticians using electronic instruments. The tests include dynamic simulation of actual road conditions, such as turning, accelerating, climbing hills and braking, at speeds up to 70 miles per hour.

The number one deficiency spotted in the tests was improper headlight aim, which occurred in 76 per cent of the cars. Traffic safety experts consider this important because it causes two serious hazards: inadequate illumination of the road for the driver and blinding of oncoming drivers.

The 130 tests conducted by the Motorists are grouped in 14 categories. Seven of the categories include 42 items which Shell classified as safety items. That is, they are directly related to the safe handling and operation of the vehicle or the safety of the driver. These items are windshield wipers, lights, brake system, wheel alignment, tires and wheel suspension and steering and exhaust system.

The statistical report covered 1110 vehicles. They were found to be deficient in a total of 19,205 items. Of this total, the 42 safety items accounted for 8,318 deficiencies, or 43 per cent of the total number of deficiencies.

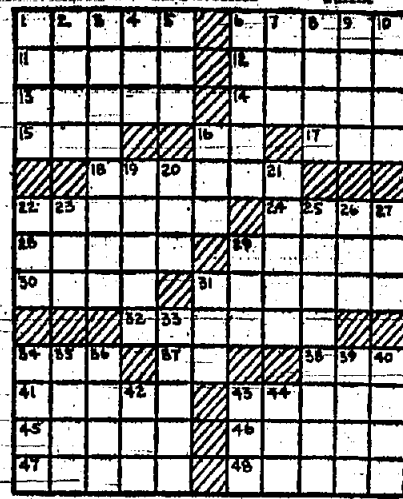

The report said it appears that drivers are quite careful about good maintenance of items which are easily seen and felt such as windshield wipers and brakes, but are unaware of the deficiencies they do not readily see or feel. It recommended regular, thorough examinations of cars as a means of significantly reducing driving hazards.

Bulletin Issued By Civil Service

Mrs. Thelma Parkinson Sharp, president of the New Jersey Department of Civil Service, announced the issuance of the March Open Competitive Examination Bulletin.

The bulletin contains over 475 job titles and is divided into four booklets: State, Northern, Central and Southern. The State booklet contains all the current job openings in state government; and the Northern, Central, and Southern booklets include the job openings in county and municipal government in their respective sections of the state.

Contrary to popular opinion, only 12,000 of the state's 34,000 employees are listed in the Trenton area. Except for smaller but significant clusters of state employees in the Newark-Metropolitan area, the remaining state employees are spread throughout New Jersey.

Those interested in receiving the March Examination Bulletin and Applications should write or visit the main office, Department of Civil Service, State House, Trenton, or any of the three branch offices located at 80 Mulberry st., Newark; 318 E. State at Trenton, and City Hall, Camden.

Local New Jersey State Employment Offices post the Examination Bulletin and have applications available. Closing date for receipt of applications is March 31, 1966. It is important to file early because in the event of a tie the earliest applicant goes ahead of the later ones.

Higher Education Listed As Subject

"The critical state of higher education in New Jersey" will be the subject of discussion at a unit meeting of the League of Women Voters of Springfield, to be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Moore, 89 Rector ave., Tuesday evening at 8:30.

The education committee, under the direction of its chairman, Mrs. Laurence Goodinan and Mrs. Joseph Horowitz, has devoted several months of study to the Newsom Report, the Gohsen Report and other plans that have been put forth to "remedy the inadequacies of New Jersey with respect to post-secondary education," they reported.

This meeting is open to the public. Anyone interested in attending may call Mrs. Charles Gerst at 376-5730. Mrs. Henry Hueckel is League President.

Clergymen, Medics Speak At Seminar

The importance of pre-marital counseling—as "first aid for a happy marriage" and one of the best preventions for divorce was stressed at a double session seminar held at Overlook Hospital last Thursday.

Sponsored by the Overlook Hospital Chaplaincy Association and the medical education department, the seminar began with an afternoon-panel session for the clergy.

The value of marriage counseling was presented by three marriage counselors: Dr. Mary Lois James of the Counseling and Psychotherapy Center in Fairlawn, moderator; the Rev. James Ray, minister, the Church in Radburn, Fairlawn, and Dr. Jeshala Schnitzer, rabbi, Temple Shomrei Emunah, Montclair.

Their topic focused on "The Clergyman's Role in Pre-Marital Counseling." All are members of the American Association of Marriage Counselors.

"Sex and a Happy Marriage" was the subject at the evening session, presented for doctors on the Overlook Medical Staff by Dr. Rebecca Lakwood, author and executive director of the Marriage Counseling Service of Greater New York, member of the Kings County Medical Society and also a member of the American Association of Marriage Counselors.

The Adelphi Chamber Orchestra of Teaneck will present a concert at the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School on Sunday afternoon, April 3. The concert is sponsored by the Springfield Department of Recreation with Edward Ruby, a director.

The Adelphi Chamber Orchestra, in existence for 13 years, is an organization of about 25 string instrumentalists. It is one of the few chamber orchestras in the State. Its members have given many concerts in the northern New Jersey area.

Irving Starr, of Hemlock ter, Springfield, violinist with the group, is assisting in the preparation for the concert.

Guest conductor for this concert will be Jacques Rubinstein, a resident of Tenafly. He is a violinist in the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra and has had considerable training and experience as a conductor.

The public is invited to attend the concert. Free of admission charge, a spokesman said.

The program will include works by Purcell, Couperin, Telemann, Corelli, Barok and Dvorak.

How to make perfect Baked Alaska

- 1 9" round layer cake
- 4 large egg whites (at room temperature)
- 1 quart strawberry ice cream
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 electric range

PACK ICE CREAM in a round 8" bowl, and place in freezer. Cool layer cake in refrigerator. Beat egg whites until soft peak form. Beat in sugar gradually. Continue beating until you have a stiff, glossy meringue. Place layer cake on a board on a baking sheet. Loosen ice cream from bowl with spatula. Invert bowl over cake so that ice cream sits centered on the cake. Cover cake and ice cream completely with meringue, sealing meringue to the board. Place in preheated 500° oven for 8 to 5 minutes—until meringue is a delicate brown. Serves 10. The meringue seal and the steady, even heat that you get in an electric oven assure that the ice cream won't melt. The fact is you can regulate electricity a lot more accurately than you can regulate flame. You get a precise, constant cooking temperature. Nothing's left to guesswork.

Semi-Final Games Of Tourney Set By State Basketball League

Four teams advanced from the quarter-final round of the State League play-offs last Saturday afternoon at the Florence Gaudineer School. This Saturday, Utah will meet Iowa and Kansas will be pitted against Texas in the semi-final round of the League championship play-offs. First game this Saturday will start at 1:15 p.m. at the Gaudineer gymnasium.

Last Thursday evening, the State League held a qualifying round with Oklahoma, California, Idaho and Wyoming playing for the right to enter the play-off competition. In these two games Oklahoma topped California and Idaho took the measure of Wyoming.

Seven players entered the scoring column for Oklahoma as it defeated California by the score of 30-7. Oklahoma played its finest game of the season in defeating the California team. George Malzeri was top point getter with 6 markers. Leon Margules topped California with six points.

The Idaho-Wyoming affair was a free-scoring battle with Idaho getting the nod by the score of 38 to 29. Bob Zueckerberg and Mark Tannenbaum paced the scorers for Idaho with nine points each. Stan Mazieka hit eight for the winners. Bob Goodman topped the scoring column for Wyoming with 11 points. Larry Steenbach tallied seven points, while Tommy Falcone scored six points.

The quarter-final round opened last Saturday afternoon, with Utah crushing Oklahoma by the score of 41 to 14. Utah received a fine effort from all its players during this game. Nine boys in all tallied in this game and the scoring was spread evenly through the team. Dennis Haller and Mike Gardner were tops with seven each, while Steve Zwillman scored six and Jim Schoch tallied five points for the winners. The Oldies were led by George Malzeri with six points.

The Bombers and the Hurricanes continue their head-to-head struggle for the Thursday Afternoon Boy's Bowling League championship. The Bombers hold a slim one-game lead over the Hurricanes, with five weeks and 10 games of bowling left in league play.

The Bombers will meet the Hurricanes in a head-on clash this afternoon. The boys meet each week at the Springfield Bowl in league competition. The league is sponsored by the Recreation Department.

The Bombers split a pair of games with the high-scoring Raiders last week. The Bombers came very close to dropping both games, but rallied to score a four-pin triumph in the second game. Eric and Evan Wasserman paced the Bombers. Eric rolled a 274 series, while Evan tallied 240 for the two games.

Joel Millman topped all bowlers in this match and rolled the second highest series of the year as he tallied a 340 total for the two games. Dave Epstein at 201 for two games also rolled well for the Raiders. Fred Gold of the Raiders also rolled well as he tallied 261 pins for the two games.

Iowa, In Squeaker
Iowa nipped Ohio by a 22 to 21 count in the second quarter-final game. Two final period buckets by Ray Danziger of Iowa turned the tide toward the Iowa squad. Danziger, with 12 big points, paced all scorers in this close game. This was an extremely close contest throughout.

The teams went into the final period deadlocked at 18-all. Barry Pomp and Todd Herman paced an Ohio attack which nearly upset favored Iowa. Pomp hit for 10 points, while Herman tallied nine points for the Ohio team.

Kansas Wins
High-scoring Kansas stayed on the beam last week and tripped Florida by a 28 to 18 final count. Gregg Spector of Kansas put on a terrific scoring display as he accounted for 17 of the 28 Kansas points. Spector scored in every period and kept Kansas in front throughout the contest. Jamie Gacos with five points also played well for the winners.

Kenny Baroff and Ira Shulman, Florida's fine one-two punch, paced the Florida team with six points each. Peter Mav, with five points, played a good game for the Florida squad.

Texas Rolls
The final quarter-final game saw the league champion, Texas, score an easy 34-16 victory over a fighting Idaho squad. Texas scored equally in all four periods as it made their way into the semi-final round.

Bobby Mysel, Texas floor general, once again paced his team. Bobby tallied 12 points in the game to pace all scorers. Bobby was particularly effective with his south-paw jump shots from in and about the key-hole. Gary Tiss produced five points for the winning Texas. Gary, up from Small-Fry play, has been impressive in a few outings.

Mark Tannenbaum and Stan Mazieka led the hard-fighting Idaho squad, which played hard to get into the play-off competition. Each boy tallied seven points.

Stu rolled a 259 series, while Karl rolled a 237 series for the Hurricanes. Roy Greenberg with a 273 two-game total was the top bowler for the Atoms.

The Pirates topped the Rockets in two games last week. Steve Berson paced a torrid Pirate attack as he rolled a 273 two-game total. Marc Hollander and Russ Bankert rolled well for the Rockets. Marc tallied 239, and Russ, 215, for the two games.

The final match of the day resulted in a split between the Bullets and the Jets. Dave Stromeier with a 257 series paced the Bullets, while Mickey Harmon was high for the Jets with a series total of 242.

Dave Epstein raised his league-leading average to a 150 mark last week. Dave seems set to capture his third consecutive individual average crown. Jim Sarokin at 130 is in the second spot, while Joel Millman is third with a 129 season average.

A tie for fourth is maintained between Robert Sindler and Marc Hollander. Both boys are rolling at a 127 pace for the season. The other boys among the top 10 league bowlers are: Stuart Leibskind, 126; Evan Wasserman, 125; Eric Wasserman, 123; Gary Fox, 119; and Fred Gold, 118.

Tigers Take 7th To Gain 1st Place In Boys' Bowling

The jampaging Tigers reared into first place in the Friday Afternoon Boy's Bowling League. The Tigers took first place away from the Rangers last week as they rolled to their seventh consecutive game victory.

While the Tigers were jumping into first place, a three-team race developed as the Black Hawks defeated the Rangers twice. The Tigers now hold first place with a slim one-game lead over the Black Hawks and the Rangers.

The boys meet in competition each week in a league sponsored by the Recreation Department. The place of competition is the Springfield Bowl.

The Tigers topped the Eagles twice to move into first place. Gregg Spector and Perry Koplik led the Tiger charge. Gregg rolled 287 for two games, while Perry had a series effort of 234. Mike Denner led the Eagles with a 221 total.

The Black Hawks knocked the Rangers from their season-long first place position as they topped the Rangers in two games. Gary Nolford and Jeff Slater led a terrific pair of games rolled by the Hawk team. Gary scored a series total of 284, while Jeff scored a 262 total for the match. Mitch Wolff at 270—for games topped the Ranger bowlers.

The Bruins split a pair of games with the Royals last week. Ira Shulman at 240 and Billy Schwab at 237 paced the Bruins in the match. Steve Grau with a 252 total for the two games was the top bowler for the Royals.

The final match of the day saw the Chiefs earn a split with the Chargers. Rich Freundlich and Keith Singer paced the Chiefs. Rich rolled 258 for two games, while Keith tallied 241 for the series. Kenny Pearlmutter rolled a series effort of 248 to pace the Chargers.

Mitch Wolff continues to pace the league with a 143 season average. If Mitch can keep his average at this level until the conclusion of the season, he will establish a new high average mark. Jay Silverman holds second place with a season average of 135.

Final Round Slated In Small-Fry Action

The Rockets will meet the Comets for the play-off championship of the Sandmeier Small-Fry League.

The championship game is set for 2:30 this Saturday afternoon at the Thelma Sandmeier School. The championship contest will be preceded by a consolation game between the Tigers and the Chargers.

Semi-final action last week saw the Rockets nip the Tigers and the Comets oust the Chargers for the right to meet in the championship tilt. They won the regular season crown and will be seeking a grand slam.

The opening game last Saturday pitted the Rockets against the Tigers. This was a slam-bang affair with the Rockets on top at the end by the score of 17 to 1. The Tigers took an early 4 to 3 first period lead in this game with Mark Tasher showing the way with some fancy long-range bombing.

Jim Weinberg and Bob Wallick kept the score close for the Rockets. The Tigers maintained their lead at halftime on timely buckets by Tasher and Barry Gerst. Wallick kept his terrific scoring pace to hold the Rockets close.

The second half was all Rockets with Bobby Wallick and Mike Klarfeld showing the way. Klarfeld was all over the court, and Wallick was tremendous.

Mark Tasher did his best to keep the Tigers in the game, but his 10-point game effort fell short. Tasher, however, paced all scorers in this game. Bobby Wallick scored in each period and led the Rockets to this important victory with nine points. Mike Klarfeld, with a hot second half, tallied five points.

The second contest saw the Comets open fast and hold on before a final period. Charger Gary Shulman of the Chargers opened the scoring with a driving lay-up. The Comets took over with Tom Lowy, Matt Tolser and Mike Mauder leading the way.

The Comets roared away to a 13 to 5 lead at half time. The Comets increased their lead to 17 to 5 at the close of the third period on buckets by Marder and Larry Silverstein.

The Chargers then caught fire and roared down the stretch. Doug Weg and Gary Shulman led the charge that fell just three points short of a tie. With Doug netting five points and Gary four in the final period, while the team held the high-scoring Comets scoreless, the fans witnessed an exciting finish. Doug Weg with seven points paced all scorers in this game. Mike Marder with five markers led in the scoring column for the winning Comets.

Bullets Will Meet Pistons For Title In League Finale

Last Saturday's semi-final action in the Caldwell Small-Fry League play-offs saw the Bullets rout the Billikens, by the score of 22 to 14, and the Pistons nip the Nationals in an overtime battle by a 13 to 12 count.

The Pistons will meet the Bullets for the championship this Saturday afternoon in a game scheduled to start at 1:20 p.m. at the James Caldwell School. A consolation game featuring the Billikens and the Nats is set for 2.

The Bullets presented a well-balanced scoring attack and as a result rolled to a victory over the Billikens last week. Four Bullets players scored in every period to overcome a good game effort by Neil Anderson of the Bills.

Anderson paced all scorers in the game as he tallied 12 points. Anderson's hot hand in the second period kept the Billikens close.

Howie Tannenbaum, Mickey Byrd, Steve Harris and Robert Hydrock all scored well for the Bullets, with Tannenbaum's eight points leading the way. Mickey Byrd hit six points, while the other boys tallied four points each. Hydrock played a top floor game for the winners.

In addition to Anderson's fine performance, the Bills received a top effort from Kenny Mercer. The second semi-final contest saw the Pistons score an overtime to defeat the Nationals by the score of 13 to 12. The Pistons received a good effort from Joe Pepe and Johnny Belliveau to offset a tremendous performance by Mike Levine of the Nats.

Levine paced all scorers for this game as he tallied 11 of his team's total of 12 points. A hot final period by Levine put the game into a tie.

Johnny Belliveau led the Pistons with seven points, while Joe Pepe took play-making honors for this game.

Ricky Schwerdt of the Pistons provided the play that put the Pistons over the top. With the Nats up by one point and time running out in the overtime period, Schwerdt stole an event. Nats passed and drove in for the score which won the game.

The championship game set for this Saturday will match two of the five teams that finished the regular season in a tie. The winner of this contest will be the team that truly has earned the league championship after a close and exciting small fry basketball season.

The Mielees Have Music Wherever They Go

By ADA BRUNNER
The members of the Raphael family have music wherever they go — throughout their home at work and even on picnics.

They have not only music, but also a complete record — in pictures and sound — of the high points in the family's life.

For Ray Miele, self-taught electronics expert, installation of the complex sound system in his split-level home at 57 Redwood rd., Springfield, is the fulfillment of a life-long dream.

"Actually, we have four different systems," he explained. One is the stereo system with built-in speakers and volume controls in the recreation room, in the dining room, outdoors in front and in back of the house and in the music room, the nerve center of the entire arrangement.

Another system, with speakers in each of the eight rooms in the house, handles general music from the radio.

TELEVISION SOUND is carried to all parts of the house through still another system. And there is also the intercom system, with five master units and four receivers. Miele commented that, "to make it useful, we have intercoms in the garage, at the front door, in the basement, the kitchen, the living room and the bedrooms." Miele installed all the wiring himself while the house was under construction in 1958. Working evenings from a "log" which he had drawn up, he completed the job in about a week and a half.

He did all the work himself. "I didn't want others helping, because they might have installed the wiring in the wrong place," he said. His wife, Antonette, designed the 12 by 16-foot cabinet which covers an entire wall of the music room and which Miele described as "a bookcase with speakers built in."

THE MUSIC ROOM houses only the stereo and tape equipment but also a piano, a set of drums, a trumpet and a saxophone — and Miele knows how to play them all.

His interest in music has been inherited by his three children. Andrea, 9, and June, 6, are looking forward to taking piano lessons, and young Ray, 2½, can already pick out tunes on his toy guitar.

The opportunity for having the music room and a home-wired for sound was one of the major reasons why Miele and his wife decided to purchase the Springfield house.

Another was "the animals." The Mielees, who lived in an apartment on W. Chestnut st.

in Union before moving to Springfield, at that time had two Chihuahuas. One of the dogs has since died, but the other has been joined by a Doberman Pinscher and a Siamese cat.

Miele, who is associated with his father, Ray Sr., in operation of the Miele Iron Works at 614 Colonial ave., recalled becoming interested in technical equipment at the plant when he was still a young child.

WITHOUT EVER taking a single formal course in electronics, he taught himself, reading technical publications and "talking to people in the field." Now company treasurer and secretary, he has installed an intercom system at the factory as well as a sound system which carries music throughout the plant.

At home, he supplements the sound system with another remote control make it possible for the Mielees to have music for their picnics.

When they go on picnics away from home, they take portable equipment with them, so that the music follows them on their outings.

At Christmas time, Miele broadcasts carols for the entire neighborhood through two speakers set up about 40 feet apart on the front lawn.

He has recently added a reverbulator to the system, so that "you get the same effect as in a concert hall," he explained.

In one form or another, there's always the sound of music wherever the Mielees are. "It's not good for the amplifiers not to be used," Miele said.

At 57 Redwood rd. in Springfield, there's no danger of that.

Opera Understudy Is Springfield Man

A Springfield man has been selected as the lead understudy for the religious opera, "I Am The Way," which will be presented April 11 at Montclair State College, Montclair.

Ian Struthers, of 48 Colfax rd., will be responsible primarily for the role of "Matthew" in the music drama written by Jerome

Hines of South Orange, Internationally-known bass of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The Springfield tenor will be the lead male voice in the chorus in support of 16 soloists, including Hines and his wife, soprano Lucia Evangelista.

This marks the 10th season and 48th performance of the opera which is sponsored by the non-profit Christian Arts, Inc., and aided by the artists who donate their time and talent.

The annual card party will be held on April 15 at the Guy Rosworth Post, American Legion in Millburn. Mrs. June DiFino, president, appointed Mrs. Stanley A. Wisniewski as chairman for the event.

STATION BREAKS

By MILT HAMMER

What is your idea of a top young singing idol? Long hair, dirty, disheveled, ill-mannered? Wrong!

Bobby Vinton, who guested on the recent Danny Thomas Special, is a handsome, well-dressed, well-groomed six-footer and a college graduate to boot.

Despite the fact that he does not sing rock 'n' roll, his recordings reach the phenomenal total sale-of-five million copies annually, and last year he was named "the nation's No. 1 male vocal" by Cash, Inc.

Just returned from representing the United States at the San Remo International Song Festival, Bobby is glad that his singing has appeal for all ages. "My albums are doing pretty well," he grins, "and that shows that adults are learning my style too."

Despite the fact that he has yet to make a recording that falls to hit the charts, Vinton realizes that true success is a struggle.

"I'm not kidding myself by thinking I'm a success," he admits. "Just because I've made some hit records and a movie, that doesn't entitle me to say that I've arrived."

"New York and Hollywood are rough towns, darn rough, and I haven't even started to break through."

"Some people think that I'm one of those here today, gone tomorrow singers who struck it rich with nothing but luck. They're wrong and I think I can show them that Bobby Vinton isn't just another teenage fad."

With a schedule that has him booked through next year and a new film contract in the works, Bobby needn't worry.

Clinton Theatre Offers Students Special Prices

The Clinton Theatre Festival, Inc. of Clinton, announced this week it is offering special reductions for students who wish to attend performances by The Acting Company at the Music Hall in Clinton. In addition, students who attend in groups of 40 or more will be given an afternoon of lectures, discussions and workshops with members of the professional company's staff and casts. Tours of Clinton's nearby historical museum and the Hamilton Art Center will round out an interesting and educational field trip eliminated by a performance at the theater.

The first four plays, each running two weeks Tuesday through Sunday at 8:30 p.m. and matinees Saturday and Sunday at 4 p.m., were chosen as stimulating fare for both adult and student audiences. Students may purchase subscriptions to all four plays for $3 and in turn be eligible to attend Friday Saturday afternoon workshops (every other week) at the theater.

Each session will open with a discussion on the current play by its director or a principal member of the cast; then there will be a seminar on one phase of a theater craft led by a different staff member each Saturday. The third portion of each workshop will be given to interested groups elected by each student according to his special interest.

These groups will be formed according to the demand from categories of acting, dance and movement, reading, scenery design and construction, press relations and promotion, playwriting and directing. This work will continue from session to session and is designed to complete projects during the eight week period.

"You Can't Take It With You" opens April 12, followed by "You Never Can Tell" (with Anna Russell), "The Fantasticks" and "The Glass Menagerie" (with Dorothy Stickney, Howard Lindsay directing). Write Thom Portelli, Box 5241, Clinton, for more information.

Tips for TODAY'S HOMEMAKER

From Carolyn Yuknus, County Home Economist

Shopping for new bed pillows? As a consumer, you will be confronted with a variety of prices, fillings and sizes.

The major portion of bed pillows on the market today are filled with synthetic fibers, feather down or foam rubber. The most common sizes are 20x26, 21x27 or 22x28, but there are also many more sizes available.

A wide range of prices from as low as $3 to as high as $25 will also raise many questions as to value.

As a shopper, you will want to know which type of pillow to buy, the following guide lines may be helpful.

First of all, look to the label for helpful information. By law it must state what the filling is.

If the filling is a synthetic fiber, it is usually a polyester such as Dacron, Kodel, Fortrel or Acrilan. These fibers are usually firmer than feather down pillows but feel more like down-filled pillows than foam rubber pillows do.

Synthetic fiber filled pillows are lightweight and are less allergic than feather pillows. They are usually reasonably priced in comparison to down filled pillows. Look especially for washing and drying directions for this type of pillow.

Feather and down filled pillows are available in a wide variety of mixtures of feathers and down. Pillows with the greatest percentage of down are the softest and most costly. Feathers and down from water fowl are the most satisfactory.

Foam rubber filled pillows usually have a removable cover so a shopper can see the foam. Shredded foam or small pieces of foam cemented together are not very satisfactory. Labels indicate the firmness of this type of pillow.

The ticking can often indicate the performance and durability of a pillow. Again by law the fabric content of the ticking must be on the label. One hundred per cent cotton is more durable and comfortable than other fabrics used for pillow coverings.

The ticking should be firmly woven but porous enough to allow the pillow to breathe. Balance a pillow on your hand and note whether it keeps its shape. If the ends droop, you know it was insufficiently filled. Such sagging usually tells of other poor qualities.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

By PHYLLIS GREER
of Rutgers... the State University
Specialist in Human Relations

For many reasons, parents are concerned with their teenagers' frequent dating. Many parents give keeping-up-with-school-work as their reason. Often, however, the popular youngsters are also the ones whose school work is good. They manage to do their work and have their fun too.

Before parents use school work as the reason for objecting to frequent dating, wouldn't they be wise to be sure that their youngster's school work is suffering? Unfounded objections only cause resentment and unhappiness. Frequently, the real concern is parental fears about the boy-girl relationship. Parents want their teen-ager to take life seriously. It is perfectly natural and normal for teen-agers to be pre-occupied with themselves and their relationships with others their own age—particularly those of the other sex. This is the time for boys to learn how to behave with girls and for girls to learn how to be attractive to boys.

No amount of reading, teaching or talking will take the place of the first hand learning acquired through dates. Adolescent friendships and love interests provide the foundation for adulthood. If they don't learn during their teen-age days, young people will probably never develop the ability to get along with others easily and naturally. This ability is very important, because much of life's success is dependent upon how well an individual can get along with other people.

Registration Starts For Summer Camp

George W. Hoffman, branch executive of the Five Points YMCA in Union, announced this week that registrations are being taken for boys' and girls' resident camping at Camp Wawayanda in Forest Valley, N. Y.

Four two-week camp periods begin on Sunday, June 26 and end on Saturday, Aug. 20.

Hoffman stated that the second and third periods in both camps are open to campers registering for more than one period. There are openings for two-week campers in periods one and four.

Camp Wawayanda also runs an out-door camping, Trail Blazer program for boys 14 years of age and over. This group spends most of its time canoeing and camping in the wilds of Canada.

In-camp activities include archery, crafts, camp fires, swimming, fishing, hikes, horse-back riding, boating, canoeing, riflery, trapshooting, games, discussions, songs and stunts.

An out-of-camp program is carried on with overnight and out-of-camp hikes. The camp has a licensed radio station, KGB 7374, and each group on overnight hikes is in constant communication with the camp by means of small, two-way transistor radios.

The camp also offers a program for older boys (18 and over) called the Construction Engineers. About three to four hours each day are spent in projects such as mapping trails, compass reading, first aid and surveying techniques. The boys learn basic fundamentals of civil engineering.

Camp Wawayanda is located near Liberty, N. Y., in Forest Valley. There are two camps, one which serves boys and one which serves girls, located on the same lake.

Persons interested in receiving information should contact Hoffman at the Five Points YMCA or call 867-5870.

The first week of a "Spring Festival" in the new Newark State Theatre for the Performing Arts will offer area residents a selection of programs ranging from ballet to Count Basie to Shakespeare.

The festival, open to the general public, will get under way next Tuesday following the black tie, invitation-only dedication and champagne reception to be held in the million-dollar theatre on Monday night.

Actor Arnold Moes will open the festival with two programs, a matinee at 2 p.m. and an evening performance at 8:30 on Tuesday.

He will present his dramatic monologue, "The Seven Ages of Man," featuring readings from Shakespeare, Walt Whitman, Lewis Carroll, Charles Dickens, Ring Lardner and others.

Admission charge for this program will be $1, college officials said.

The second program in the festival series will star Virgil Fox, world-famous organist, who will give a recital on the theater's Hammond 100 organ at 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

There will be no admission charge, it was reported.

Dancers Edward Villella and Patricia McBride will present a ballet concert at 8:30 p.m. next Thursday. They also will lead a symposium on their art. Tickets for this program are priced at $2 each.

A folk-jazz-pop concert will open the first weekend of the festival at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, March 25, when the admission charge will be $1.50.

The program entitled "New Faces of 1966," will feature Bob Carey and other young artists.

Count Basie and his orchestra will present a jazz concert in the new auditorium at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 26.

Admission charge for this program, which is expected to draw a capacity audience, will be $2.50.

The first week of the festival will come to a close at 6 p.m. Sunday, March 27, when Lawrence Davidson, Metropolitan Opera bass-baritone, will present a vocal recital.

A $2 admission will be charged, it was reported.

Tickets for all programs are available by mail order from the Information and Services Desk, Newark State College, Union. They also can be ordered by telephone by calling 289-4800, extension 284, or 354-4100.

Remaining tickets will be sold at the box office at each performance. Area residents attending any of the programs also will be able to purchase tickets at the box office for future program.

Throughout the festival, an exhibit of work by alumni of the fine arts department will be on display in the lobby of the theater.

The theater, which seats 975, has a 52 by 40-foot semi-circular stage with a circular curtain similar to one designed by Frank Lloyd Wright.

Planned as a cultural center for the entire community, it will offer varied events open to the general public.

Only the dedication ceremonies Monday night will be limited to invited guests. At that time, actress Helen Hayes and Mrs. August Belmont, founder of the Metropolitan Opera Guild, will receive honorary doctor of letters degrees. Miss Hayes also will present a reading.

Derby Director Gives Hints To Local Entrants

In Soap Box Derby racing, an early start is a good start. Towards the championship. Experience of the 282 local champions who took part in the 1965 All-American proves it.

"Each boy spent an average of four and a half months planning and building his racer," Ross Todaro, director of the Union County Soap Box Derby said, reporting from a survey conducted by All-American headquarters.

"The Union County Derby is scheduled for June 5 in Union, and I urge boys who are planning to enter to take a tip from the champs and register early," Todaro added.

The Champions point out in the survey that an early start allowed them time to:

- Study design and construction rules carefully.
- Assemble all the necessary building materials.
- Build at a careful pace to avoid errors.
- Thoroughly test their cars and make adjustments.
- "Boys 11 through 15 years of age are eligible to enter the coasting competition, which has attracted more than a million participants since the first Derby in 1934," Todaro said.

He said that the local Derby committee anticipates a record field for this year's event.

"Each year brings greater stature for the Soap Box Derby," Todaro said. "More boys become aware of the fun and satisfaction that can come from building a car and racing against the best in the community."

First place winner in the Union County race is a $400 savings bond, handsome trophy and an expense-paid trip to Akron for a shot at the 1966 All-American championship.

The first nine place winners at Akron will share $30,000 in college scholarships, posted by Chevrolet, national Derby sponsor.

'Time Running Out' For July Coverage

Almost all persons 65 and older who receive social security or railroad retirement benefits will automatically qualify for the hospital insurance part of Health Insurance, commonly known as Medicare, Ralph W. Jones, social security district manager in Elizabeth, said this week.

But, a person can obtain voluntary medical insurance, which pays for doctor bills and other medical services, only if he enrolls. Anyone 65 before 1966 will have medical insurance in July only if he signs up by March 31, 1966, Jones said.

"If you are in one of the following groups, time is running out. Inquire now so that you can avoid that last minute rush," he said.

1. Those of you 65 and older and still working, need to apply if you want both hospital and medical insurance. It is not necessary for you to retire to get benefits under the health insurance program.

2. Those of you 65 and older who have never worked under social security, can have hospital insurance and medical insurance, but you will have this protection only if you apply. You or some member of your family can obtain more information from the Elizabeth Social Security District Office.

3. Those 65 and older, who receive social security monthly benefits, are automatically eligible for hospital insurance, and an application card for voluntary medical insurance was mailed to you. Be sure to fill it out and return it before the March 31 deadline if you want medical insurance.

"For more information about Medicare visit the Elizabeth office, 368 N. Broad st. Ask for the free booklet number two which gives a brief explanation of Medicare. The telephone number is 351-3200. Jones added.

Plan Provides Urban Facelift

A potent fountain of youth is available to aging municipalities through the Community Renewal Program, a long-range, community-wide plan for the elimination and prevention of urban blight.

With advisory and monetary assistance supplied by the Division of State and Regional Planning in the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development and federal funds obtained under Section 103 of the Housing Act of 1959, New Jersey municipalities, regardless of size, can develop such rejuvenative programs.

Through the Community Renewal Program, communities determine the general type of urban renewal action necessary for various areas and establish preliminary actions, investigate financial and other resources for continuing renewal plans, and coordinate urban renewal programming with other community improvements. The federal government will provide two-thirds of the cost of preparing the program, with the municipality supplying the remaining one-third. New Jersey supplies one-third of the local share of the cost, or one-ninth of the total cost.

To be eligible for the Community Renewal Program, a community must already have a completed master plan, or have one completed Program for Community Improvement, as well as a resolution of the governing body approving the preparation of the program, which is directed and coordinated by the municipal planning board.

At present, 14 New Jersey municipalities are engaged in Community Renewal Programs. A number of other communities have submitted applications to the federal and State governments for participation in the Program or are preparing such application. Information and assistance for other interested municipalities is available from the Conservation Department's Division of State and Regional Planning, Box 1978, Trenton, N. J. 08625.

Detailed Survey Of Jersey's Outdoor Recreation Underway

The first total and detailed survey of New Jersey outdoor recreational facilities, both private and public, is underway this month by the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

In announcing the start of the survey, Conservation Commissioner Robert A. Roe said, "We are interested in an inventory of New Jersey's recreational facilities so that we can determine how well they serve the needs of our present population and the additional residents expected five and 10 years hence. Since New Jersey vacation resources also regularly serve great numbers of visitors from other parts of the United States and the world, the New Jersey survey will help the federal Bureau of Recreation—in its study of outdoor recreation resources throughout the nation.

"Until now," he explained, "there has been no clear picture of the extent to which private, county and municipal facilities might supplement the State's efforts to provide recreational needs. This inventory is expected to enable the State to suggest an integrated program with the widest possible participation. With such joint effort, recreation facilities of far greater magnitude and variety could result.

"Although information on the recreation facilities of local agencies has been incomplete until now, the State did develop its recreation plan, some years ago, primarily concerned with park lands," Commissioner Roe added. "The Department of Conservation and Economic Development also has a Land Use Committee, composed of representatives from each phase of the Department's activity, which meets regularly to consider the widest possible compatible uses of State lands; so that game habitat, for example, may be provided in forest areas also designated for wilderness camping, canoeing, nature area tours, and other suitable public recreation, while permitting timber harvests, economic forestry management and protection of the woodlands from forest fires.

One Of Few
"New Jersey is one of the few among the original 13 colonies which continues to grow both in population and industries," he added. "Because of our long history of development and the fifth smallest land area in the nation, we have had to take the lead in analyzing our resources and needs and making the best possible plans for the future."

He cited as an example the Green Acres program, instituted by State referendum in 1951 to acquire public lands for future multiple recreation use. Approximately 50,000 acres of such lands already have been acquired by the State and local governments, to date, he said. Plans for development will follow.

New Jersey's Green Acres program was cited by Interior Department Secretary Stewart Udall in setting up that federal department's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation. The New Jersey program also has served as a model for a number of other states.

In September 1965, New Jersey was one of the first states to answer the federal request for comprehensive outdoor recreation program. This initial guideline is expected to be greatly reinforced, after the current survey is completed.

The study now being launched is unique and the aid of many agencies is sought so that every municipal, county, private and quasi-public facility (such as those operated by clubs) will be included. Joseph J. Truncer, Chief of the Conservation Department's Bureau of Parks and Recreation and supervisor of the survey, said that in order to find the most efficient techniques, a spot-check was made in four counties of New Jersey some months ago by a company employed by the federal government. The sources used by this organization, plus classified telephone directories, county clerks lists, tax assessor lists, and information known to local planning officers, county agricultural agents, Soil Conservation officers, and others, will be consulted.

Golf, Tennis . . .
Among the outdoor private and public recreational facilities to be included in the survey are those providing swimming, boating, picnicking, camping, hunting, fishing, golf, tennis, horseback riding, rifle and archery ranges, skating, snow and water skiing, sky-diving, skin or scuba diving, hiking, mountain climbing, guided cavern archaeological and geological tours; field sports such as football, soccer, baseball and softball; vacation facilities at dude ranches and on farms; and such spectator attractions as stadiums and field houses, zoos, aquariums, botanical areas, nature walks, showgrounds, fairgrounds, and race tracks. Along the seashore and other waterways, a full list is sought of boat liveryes affording party boat fishing, boats for rent, launching ramps, designated fishing piers, boat berths and related facilities.

About 60 Department employees will devote part of their time to interviews in their local areas so that all data can be accumulated before May 1.

To make certain every facility is included, Mr. Truncer invited any individual or agency operating a private or public outdoor recreation facility of any kind in New Jersey to notify him so that he can be certain it is included in survey listings. He should be addressed as Joseph J. Truncer, Recreation Survey, N.J. Department of Conservation, Box 1889, Trenton, N.J. 08625.

Up, up, up . . . have gone the costs of just about everything since 1916. But over the years the cost of calling long distance has gone way down. Today, a three-minute night station call to Los Angeles costs only $1.00, plus tax. Continuing research at Bell Laboratories, advanced manufacturing techniques at Western Electric, and the work and skill of the people at New Jersey Bell all helped make the change. It's a record we're proud of—and still trying to improve.

1956 Union Class To Hold Reunion

The Union High School Class of 1956 will hold a class reunion, Saturday, June 4 at the Coronet, 925 Springfield Ave., Irvington.

Reunion chairman, John Nicholas of 37 Ridge rd., Clark, has announced that his committee is still trying to locate 13 former classmates. They are: Jack A. Curtis, William H. Harter, Ortrud Meskat, Irene B. Metzger, Myrna C. Meyers, Harriet Morlon, Odette Perkhani, Gregory H. Peche, Eugene C. Rhodes, Carol Ann Roschot, Edward L. Susslow, Donald Schaefer and David G. Srinia.

Anyone who has information concerning their whereabouts should contact Nicholas at 382-3712.

them as dependents even though the student had income of $800 or more during 1965 and is required to file his own tax return.

Joseph M. Sholtz, IRS District Director for New Jersey, explained that the son or daughter must have been a full-time student during some part of each of five calendar months during 1965.

Enrollment in night schools or correspondence schools does not meet the requirement. Age is not a determining factor, where fall students are involved.

In determining whether more than one-half of the child's support was provided by the parent, the amount of support provided is compared with the entire support which the child received from all sources, including support provided by the child's own funds.

A student who has $800 or more gross income is required to file an income tax return, like any other taxpayer. He claims his own exemption on his return, even though he may also qualify as a dependent on his parents' return.

Because of the new minimum standard deduction written into the 1964 tax law, a student will not owe any tax unless he earned more than $800 during 1965. He must file a tax return to receive a refund due him for any withholding tax deducted from his earnings. Refunds are not automatic.

Income tax returns requesting refunds should be mailed directly to the Internal Revenue Service Center, 1601 Roosevelt Boulevard, Philadelphia, Pa., 19154.

More detailed information on the tax status of students is contained in Document 5013, which may be obtained free at any IRS office.

Baseball Leagues Set Registration, Try-Outs For March 26

No boy will be assigned to a team in the Springfield Youth Leagues or Babe Ruth Leagues unless he registers at the try-out session, Saturday morning, March 26, at Meisel Field. It was stressed this week by Jack Williams, business director for the leagues.

Each boy will also be required to pay a $2 insurance fee at the time of registration and tryouts in April 3.

TRYOUTS will not be necessary for boys who played in the Youth Leagues, major or minor, last year, and who are returning this year, and for those returning to teams in the Babe Ruth Major League. League officials stressed that all boys trying out for the Youth Minor Leagues will be assigned to teams. The number of teams has been increased from 12 to 16, to eliminate the need for a clinic program.

Team rosters for the Youth Majors will be posted at the registration session.

THE LEAGUE OFFICERS this week also listed sponsors and managers for teams in the two major leagues.

Lions, Murray Levine; PBA, Jack Weiner; Creamline, Ben Colantoni, and Jayne's Motor Freight, Jim Adams and Dick Herman.

Minutemen Set To Compete In 1st Annual Tourney Here

Plans for the first annual Springfield invitational basketball tournament were announced this week by the Recreation Department and the Springfield Optimist Club.

Tournament plans call for two games on Saturday afternoon, March 26. The following afternoon will feature the championship game and a consolation contest.

Springfield entered the game with the additional burden of being without the services of its co-captain and leading playmaker, Fred Gold, who was home battling the flu bug.

Yale Takes Crown In Tally Of Scoring

The regular basketball season in the Recreation Department's Ivy League was concluded last week without determining a clear-cut league champion.

Princeton was without its top rebounder, Gary Fox. This left the boards open for Bob Janukowicz of Yale. Bob took every advantage as he paced his team to the league crown.

Bob Janukowicz, giving away two years in age and four inches in height, led all scorers in this game as he tallied 20 points. Bob is only a seventh grader and will be back next season to pace the Springfield squad again.

Boys' Team Wins Game At Nutley, To Play Saturday

The Springfield Minutemen captured their eighth victory in 15 starts last Monday evening with an impressive 59 to 45 victory over Nutley. The Minutemen produced the victory on the Nutley court.

David Epstein, starting his first game of the season for the Springfield squad, got the Minutemen off and running in the right direction.

With but four weeks remaining in the 1966 recreational girls' bowling season, the Rockin

GIANT OF THE SEA — Sandy Becker of Springfield displays a seven foot, two inch tallfish he caught recently off Miami. A junior at the University of Miami, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Becker of 6 Robla court. Becker is a graduate of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

Dayton Diamond Prospects Still Hidden In Crystal Ball

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School baseball team, after starting practice early last week, faces an unknown future.

mitted any significant amount of defensive practice, and even less work in hitting.

county, particularly if he comes through in batting. Defensively, he is our prime asset.

Coach Of Basketball Predicts Good Year

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School basketball team looks forward to next season with great optimism for a much-improved record over this year's 5-14.

Two players to graduation: team captain Kerry Tompkins and Ron Boscard. While some of the team has had only a minimum of experience, there has been a significant improvement over the relatively fresh team that began this winter.

"There is a wide assortment of players out for the positions open: second, third, and possibly shortstop; Harold Hansen, a senior, out for his first season; Steve Hartz, another senior; Tom Brown and Dave Hollander, juniors; and Gary Kurtz, a sophomore. Hollander is also being considered for a berth on the pitching staff.

Two Teams Tied

Carol Shor, with an 111 average in the Temple-Beth-Ahm Sisterhood League at Hy-Way Bowl, last week bowled 184-411 to win a partial photo.

"Our biggest deficit will remain height. Mike Lester, however, should compensate for this, and Brian Sheehan and Larry LaSota could also assist.

"It is too early for any predictions. We have many untried players who have not yet been tested in regular varsity competition.

League Title Going To Rockin Bowlers

With but four weeks remaining in the 1966 recreational girls' bowling season, the Rockin

Bowlers seem to be sure bets to wrap up the league championship. The Rockers split a pair of games last week but held tight to their six-game lead over the rest of the league.

SOFTBALL GROUP SLATES MEETING TO PLAN SEASON

The Springfield Recreation Adult Softball League will meet this Monday evening at 8 at the offices of the Recreation Department in the Municipal Building, Springfield.

The Strikers moved a slight step closer to the league leaders when they scored a double victory over the Alliettes last week. Diane Ogonowicz paced all bowlers in the match and led the Strikers as she rolled a 239 series. Nancy Urban at 166 for two games was also effective for the winners.

Three Games Set To Close Season In Youth Leagues

Three games next Thursday, March 24, will conclude the youth basketball program for the 1966 season.

Lorraine Cicconi continues to pace all bowlers in the league. Lorraine has established a far distant 136 season average and will coast to the scoring crown.
