Asks switch to highways

To close Baltusrol ave. prevent through traffic

The Township Committee Tuesday night formally requested that the State Highway De-partment make Baltusrol ave. a dead-end street adjoining Routes 24 and 78. Under this proposal, Baltusrol ave. would not lead into the bridge across the highway area which will link the two ends of Baltusrol way. The plan is intended to save the residential character of the neighborhood. The resolution climaxed a lengthy discussion of problems related to highway con-struction in Springfield. Members of the governing body had a great deal to say about the cooperation they had received from the Highway Department--none of it favorable. The state agency has indicated, however, that it "probably" will agree to the request for a dead-ended Baltusrol ave. Committeeman Robert D. Hardgrove noted that the change will save the state the cost of a ramp con-

In other action, the committee voted three to two to deny a variance for an addition to the White Diamond Diner on Morris ave, near Millburn ave. The addition would have been used for expanded kitchen facilities, as recommended by the Board of Adjustment, Committeemen Jay Bloom and Hardgrove nd Mayor Robert G. Planer the permit. They were opposed by Committeemen William Koonz and Arthur M. Falkin. Bloom said that he could not find any "special reason" required for a variance to extend a nonconforming use. Mayor Planer also re-ferred to "undesirable elements" among the r's clientele.

DISCUSSION OF HIGHWAY construction problems stemmed from a report by Mayor Planer on a meeting which he and Walter Kozub, township engineer, had with Highway Department officials last month. They had promised a reply within two days, he said, to a request for relocation of storm sewers from Park lane to the highway right of way: their letter of denial has just arrived, a month

Although the township has strongly opposed blasting through rock in the Park lane area, he noted, the contractor is going shead with plans for blesting. The mayor had urged use of air hammers, even if this would increase

He cited the need this year for emergency school buses to carry children through the construction area, as well as "many other instances where this community has been badly imposed upon. There has been one problem after another. They very often start work in an area, then leave the project. fallow, with roads torn up and unpaved."

Committeeman Bloom commented that, on

Young people grow with achievements in the forest

in Stokes State Forest in Sussex County. EXPERT TAILORING - DR 6-0544

By ABNER GOLD
A group of 125 boys and girls, eighth graders at the Florence Gaudineer School, left last week for the five-day "Experiment in Living" t Stokes State Forest, in the northwest corner of New Jersey.

They came back as young men and women. intellectually and emotionally, following an unbellevable, series of challenges, academic and physical, presented by a quintet of Gaudi-neer teachers who-combined the functions of ton sergeants and den mothers 24 hours aday. Many scenes are still vivid in the memory of this exhausted and exhilarated parent who was an enthralled observer, and sometimes was an enthralled observer, and sometimes inept participant, for the entire period.

There was the pretty blond teen ager, perched high in the fork of a tree, her long legs stretched along a branch, at the edge of a magnificent lake, writing poetry as though the rest of the world had vanished.

. There were the boys and girls, after racing through the forest for five miles, accurately re-creating the activities of a farm from ruins a century old.

There was the unfallingly cheerful girl, under constant check by the teachers because her doctor was concerned about possible recurrence of a physical disability--who succeeded in falling into a variety of streams and lakes at least eight times in the three days of field trips.

Perhaps most impressive were many boys, the big, active ones who had faced nothing but constant frustration within the four walls of a school. In the woods, presented with responsibilities and assignments which would strain the abilities of most adults, they respond ed with confidence and maturity. They came home, many of them, with a new-born sense of self-respect, as well as the respect of their teachers and fellow-students, which could well last a lifetime.

EACH OF THE FIVE TEACHERS taking part was in charge of a field trip and a seminar aroup. Each student took part in every field trip and, more intensively, in one seminar.

THE COMMITTEE UNANIMOUSLY turned down an appeal by Frank Racioppi from the Planning Board's rejection of subdivision plans filed for the Morrison tract in the Baltusrol Top area. The reasons cited were inadequate provisions for drainage and unsatisfactory shape and alignment of the lots.

Racioppi later noted that he hadalreadyre-ceived approval for seven of the 15 homes, and that he had filed revised plans for the remaining eight.

He fared better a little later in the meeting, however, when he was the successful bidder, for the price of one dollar, for a parcel of town-owned land. Kiwanis discusses drug safety topic with CIBA worker

Harold Coombs of the CIBA Pharmaceutical Company, Summit, discussed "The Anatomy of Drug Safety" at the meeting of the Mill-burn-Springfield Kiwanis Club this week. According to Coombs, "even after adrug has sen tested for many years, it may possibly have a bad reaction on certain people, due simply, Coombs said, to the chemical make-up of the human body. This is not to say, however, that such a drug should be withdrawn from the market. The various so-called "miracie" drugs have not only practically eliminated the dread polio infection, but have reduced by 68 percent the number of deaths previously and since 1950 there has been a 50 percent decline in the death rate due to high blood pressure and related heart diseases.

"Many years of research have created a good record of safety for the wonder drugs. Little or no difficulty with serious side-effects was experienced in the development of penicillin, for instance, but streptomycin and cortisone needed various refinements before they could be put into general use. Even thalifornide, which achieved notoriety a few years ago because of its ability to cause deformities in the human embryo, is noted as an unsurpassed sedative for many difficult cases.

"Each new drug is tested for an average of five years before being offered to the public, in the past ten years only seven have actually been marketed, out of 10,000 compounds pre

"Research is now developing further compounds against other dread diseases which up to now have resisted treatment by previous great drugs, but new government controls threaten to make it so difficult for the manufacturers to market them that we may never have the practical benefits of them. The natural in, unfortunately, is for the producers to "pull in their horns" when it comes to risking great expenditures of money for drugs which may not even reach the public, " Coombs said.

Similar in purpose to the yellow pages in the back of the local telephone book, the "International Yellow Pages" provides tele-phone listings of suppliers and services in countries throughout the world, including Iron Curtain countries. Listed, for example, are companies which deal in products as varied as beeswax from Angola and molasses from the British West Indies, or vodka suppliers in Russia and safarl services in Kenya.

The "International Yellow Pages" is arranged by country, product and town, and printed in English, French, German and Span-ish, Included in each listing are the name, address, and telephone number of the business concern. Other features of the directory include maps, brief statistical resumes of countries, and listings of addresses and phone numbers for chambers of commerce, Offices of foreign consulates are also listed at the beginning of the section on each country.

"The "International Yellow Pages" is available for use in the reference section of the Springfield library. Editorial Opinion

No more Stokes trips?

The front page of this issue features an ecstatic report on last week's trip by 125 eighth graders to Stokes State Forest, written by an editor who was a deeply impressed spectator. The universal excitement of the students and the few parents taking part was marred by only one factor -- a recurrent rumor that this might be the final chapter of the "Experiment in Living" conducted by the Florence Gaudineer School at Stokes for the past six years.

The rumor, impossible at this moment either to verify or disprove, stated that the decision by the Board of Education not to provide additional pay for the teachers taking part could bring about an end to the program.

Board members who have never taken part in this expedition are logical enough in holding down costs. After all, the teachers are simply teaching during the regular school. week, even if the setting is somewhat removed from S. Springfield ave.

What may not be so apparent is that this is a small band of men and women who do far more than teach. They give of themselves, their hearts, their love, their anger (only when deserved and then strongly tempered with affection), from dawn until midnight for the entire week. Their contributions can never be measured or counted, but they can be felt.

The sight of 125 young people ending their chatter in mid-syllable and crowding into a semi-circle with eager anticipation when one man raises his hand -- for a board member this could make a year of committee drudgery worth-while.

The sight of a dozen or more young men learning, for the first time, that they can do a man's job and win the respect of their teachers -for a board member this could justify a year of labor in behalf of the entire community.

The sight of more than 50 girls sitting in bus seats and weeping in unison because their trip is over -- this should lead any board member to question a policy which might end a program very possibly unique in the state, if not the nation.

If the "Experiment in Living" should be ended, Springfield-will be a much poorer community.

This is not written as a formal suggestion; it is, rather, the purely emotional reaction-of an editor stirred

Tolls are unfair

We are opposed to the plans of the New Jersey Highway Authority to acquire the free section of the Garden State Parkway and to impose tolls on the stretch of roadway that originally was constructed with state and federal funds.

Union County governing bodies, led by the Union Township Committee, have adopted resolutions expressing their opposition to the proposal. The county's battle in Trenton is being spearheaded by Assemblyman Frank McDermott of Westfield.

We believe the proposal is basically unfair, since it involves what we regard as a breach-of faith with taxpayers, who already have contributed through their tax dollars to the construction and maintenance of the Parkway in Union County. The Highway Authority has already demonstrated by its performance in Essex County that it is interested primarily in the revenues of motorists using the Parkway. It should be recalled that in the early 1950s, when the road was first constructed, the Essex County Park Commission gave up Oraton Parkway only under condition that tolls would not be charged in Essex County. The Parkway Highway Authority promptly responded by slapping toll booth's just north and south of where Oraton Parkway had-

Then only last year, the Highway Authority insisted that it had to be allowed to charge tolls in Essex County if it were required to pay for part of the depression of the East-West Freeway. After permission had been granted, Federal Government agreed to foot the bill for the extra construction costs. However, the toll booths were installed and seem likely to remain there.

The Highway Authority has launched a high-powered publicity campaign to justify its plans to impose tolls on the free sections of the Parkway._ The Authority claims-that it must charge tolls on the free section in order to construct a by-pass to Toms River. The Parkway officials-maintain they have a responsibility to their bondholders not to divert. traffic from the road. They argue_that_toll-free sections in Union, Middlesex and Ocean Counties would divert revenue.

Moreover, the Highway Authority is building a cultural center that will cost nearly two million dollars. Although cultural center is a thoroughly worthwhile project, we do not believe it is fair to divert revenues for that purpose, then to impose additional tolls on the long-suffering motorist. The two actions are simply not compatible.

The Parkway officials maintain that imposition of tolls in Union County would weed out local traffic. However, they have made scant mention of how they would aid local officials to cope with the traffic that would suddenly inundate them should tolls be imposed. We would strongly urge interested Union County residents to register their opposition to the plan by writing their representatives in Trenton. Union County Senators are Nelson F. Stamler and Mildred Barry Hughes, Assemblymen are: Frank Mc-Dermott, Robert Henderson, Henry Gavan, Joseph Higgins and Nicholas St. John LaCorte.

critics in Congress contend that any reduction in the estimated deficit this year will be the result of injection of a series of one-shot revenue "windfalls" on the income side of the budget and foresaw another major spending breakthrough in the offering. On the other hand, the President charged that increases in appropriations being voted by Congress will raise his budget recommendations for the next fiscal year by $3 billion. On top of all this, Congress hastily enacted a new device which could distort both budget expenditure and deficit totals. This was the act authorizing the sale to private investors act authorizing the sale to private investors of "participations" in pools of loans and mort-gages of certain Federal agencies. Under Federal budgetary practices, proceeds from these "sales," estimated at several billion dollars next year, would be used to "reduce" fiscal 1967 Federal expenditures. In effect, observers say, the program would (!) distort the budget and deficit fotals; (2) provide a method for Federal borrowing from the public without such borrowings being included in the public debt, and (3) permit such borrowings to be made at rates of return which will exceed the statutory interest celling on long-term. Federal Tax Facts

Heve you noticed an increase in the mnount Here you noticed an increase in the amount of the social security tax you are paying? Most people have, Ralph W. Jones, social security district manager in Elizabeth, explained that on July 30, 1965, President Johnson signed the 1965 Amendments to the Social Security Act. The changes in the Social Security Act. Security Act established a program of health insurance for the aged and liberalized many other provisions of the law. To finance these changes, an increase in both the earnings base and schedule of social security taxes

Effective Jan. 1, 1966, the F.I.C.A. (Federal Insurance Contributions Act) tax was increased from 3-5/8 percent to 4.2 percent for both the employer and employee. The self-employment tax was increased from 5.4 percent to 6.15 percent. The earnings hase was increased from $4,800 to $6,600.

The Hospital Insurance Trust Fund and the Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Fund were created to finance the program of health insurance for the aged. These funds will be used to pay the benefits and administrative expenses of each separate program; they may be used for no other purpose, Each person's social security tax of 0.35 percent for the year will be used to finance hospital insurance and will be placed in the Hospital Insurance Trust Fund, Voluntary payments of $3 per month from people over 65, and an equal amount from the Federal Government, will be deposited in the Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Fund to finance medical insurance, The Government's contribution will

stands our noble Alma Mater built by Ballantine' centennial Year will be remembered as the time when the State University began its long-awaited move into new buildings designed for educational purposes.

Six-new-buildings, constructed with the aid of federal and state funds in one of the first university-centered urban renewal-programs of development.

Last fall Rutgers School of Law students Last fail knigers school of Law Samuel began attending classes at Ackerson Hall, a handsome three-story building which is the first unit of the complex in downtown Newark first unit of the complex in down to be completed. Other new buildings will include a student center, classroom building, laboratory building, a library, a physics and

The proposed physics and mathematics building also will house the institute of Animal Behavior, whose director Dr. Daniel S. Lehrman, is a world-renowned authority in this field of psychology. The new facilities will enable the Institute to expand its research, which has been aided in recent years by a number of sub-

Ackerson Hall, named in honor of retired

State Supreme Court Justice Henry E. Ackerson, includes the most up-to-date physical facilities for the study of law, and is considered one of the finest buildings of its type in the stantial federal grants.

The previous history of Rutgers in Newark and its predecessor, the University of Newark, or replete with instances when buildings were adapted to educational use and classes operated in a cobweb of addresses spread through the city. Since 1946, when the old university was incorporated, Rutgers has grown to have 24 distinct addresses, including a former razor blade factory, a barn, an insurance building and, for a time, the ballroom of the Military Park Hotel. tirely an unpleasant memory to many old graduates of Rutgers-Newark.

THE MAIN BUILDING of the Newark College of Arts and Sciences since 1946--first pur-chased by the New Jersey Law School in 1927 to house the pre-legal department--is a former brewery. Many students fondly recall the smell of malt on humid afternoons in the building at 40 Rector st. That situation, combined with a prolonged discussion about what to call the Newark branch of Rutgers, evoked the following suggested college song, written to the tune of "Far Above Cayuga's Waters:"

Down beside Passalc's water With its brackish brine Stands our noble Alma Mater Built by Ballantine.

Show our rapture, toll it loudly In a chorus great; Hail to thee which stands so proudly-Hail, all hall, Newark College of Arts and Sciences of Rutgers University, the University of the State! Newark-Rutgers may not be as long-lasting as Philip Roth's novel. "Goodbye, Golumbus," in Which the main character is a student at Rutgers in Newark. Some critics believe the novel will be read for years to come.

At the time of the merger in 1946, the three-divisions of the University of Newark--the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business Administration and the New Jersey Law School-had an enrollment of about 1,000 students. In September of 1946 the enrollment doubled, A decade later it had reached more than 6,000 students (including evening classes) and in September of last year 8,600 students showed up for the first day of class,

The Rutgers College of Pharmacy had been part of the State University since 1927; after the marger it became the fourth unit of the university of Newark campus. A two-year nursing program that began in 1952 grew into the College of Nursing within four years and increased the number of units--not including the University College division—to five.

The business school began to emphasize graduate study and in 1964 became exclusively cause Tunisia has always been an agricul-tural center and as such has had stable things such as markets, towns, schools, etc." Under Bourguiba several cooperative farms have been built and here hundreds of farmers raise their eyebrows at the beautiful Tunislan palaces, particularly the new one at Car-thage, the people of Tunisia are not suffering because of them. learn latest crop methods and the use of new farming equipment etc. Our Study Mission. Tunisis is developing slowly but surely and is taking the famous 1,000 Bourguiba steps in the positive direction and improving all the time. The people are industrious and progressive and have good technical training. When once 70 percent of the population was illiterate, now, a 30 percent budget in education, is reducing the figure each year. Only seven percent of the national budget ones in Group visited one such co-op and there, in the fields was some of our foreign aid-

TUNISIA IS SPECIAL in still another quality. It is oriented to the west—and says so. Bour—guiba has voiced his support of United States actions when his was the only voice to do so. He has stood by the United States at the United Nations. At the Casabianca Conference for Arab leaders in September, 1964, Bourguiba would not go unless Nasser agreed to speak only-for Egypt as one country in the Arab League and not as though it was the entire Arab League itself. He has been so outspoken within the Arab League, speaking up for some Western actions, recommending dialogue with Israel and other individual opinions, that Tunisia is no longer a member of the Arab League. But almost the most special of all, is the fact that there is no corruption in the govern-ment. Not many countries can say that. But the Tunisias didn't even say it. To make all this information more special these facts did not come from the Tunisians speaking about themselves. It came from the Americans, And

EVEN WITH ALL THIS, Tunisia has some-

HOTEL--The beautiful Hilton Hotel in Tunis, Tunisia, The balconies are hand carved wood and the hotel everlooks the entire city.

thing special for the tourists too. Usually a Hilton Hotel is a Hilton Hotel no matter where you go; it is comfy and warm and a weary traveler's haven for soap and Kleenex and equipment, but once you are inside, you cannot tell WHERE you are. There usually is no tell-tale atmosphere. They are modern, clean and sterile.

But the Tunis Hilton (and also the Athena Hilton I must admit) are special. Both hotels have all the above plus personality.

The Athens Hilton offers a view of the Parthenon from every room and certainly no other hotel can make that statement. The Tunis Hilton offers a view of the entire city from hand-carved wooden balconies at every room. Besides this "instant" decor of both hotels. there are restaurant night clubs in each that boast orchestras that no one can sit still to and food no one can resist. At the Tunis Hilton the restaurant club is at ground floor but it is softly lighted and eleganewith windowwells viewing out to the starry nights. At the Athens Hilton it is sky high on top of the hotel and absolutely beautiful

Add to this the fact that the rooms are large and delightfully decorated and fresh fruit and flowers arrive every so often, it is almost worth a trip to Tunis and Athens just to stay at the Hiltons.

WHEN HELD TO

MATURITY

Start small, if you want to, but start steady. The important thing is to have a regular program of setting something aside every payday.

What's most important: it's never too early to begin. You say that takes more will power than you can muster up on a regular basis? Then use the easy, automatic way: join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

This way your employer saves your money for you puts it toward the purchase of a U.S. Savings Bond.

Pretty soon you won't even miss the money. In fact, you'll probably forget how fast your savings are growing. Here's a for-instance: just $4.33 a week adds up to the $18.75 you need to buy a $25 Bond every month. That's $300, maturity value, a year. Not bad for a former spendthrift! What's more, those few dollars you're tucking away to grow will be working all the time to help keep our country strong and free. So start now, start young, building up the savings that count so much later on. Join the Payroll Savings Plan before next payday.

Bishop Taylor reports assignment of ministers committee meetings, ministers to 269 Methodist churches in North Jersey received official appointment to their pastoral charges Sunday afternoon in Madison

Bishop Prince A. Taylor Jr., resident head of the New Jersey Area, read the list of appointments on which he and four district superintendents had conferredfor many weeks. At the same time, assignement to such special ministries as teaching, missionary work and administrative posts was made.

The 109th meeting of the Northern New Jersey Conference opened on Wednesday. Joint neetings of clergy and lay delegates were held in Baldwin Auditorium on the campus of Drew University here.

Scheduled events of the live day meeting included two addresses by Bishop John Wesley Lord of Washington, D.C., on Methodist con-tributions to American life and problems currently facing the Christian faith. Dr. Henry

Kemplershoes

Lambdin, recently head of the Church Builders' after many years' service as pro-fessor of preaching on the Drew Theological faculty, spoke Thursday night on "200 Years of American Methodism.

The subject of a continuing supply, of personnel for the ministry and other Christian services received both official and sentimental attention in the presentation of candidates for Reception on Trial into the conference, election of others into full membership, in the annual conference and approval of requests of several ministers who had reached the permissive retirement age of 65 to be granted that re-lationship. The latter were honored at a special program reviewing their ministries and paying tribute to ministers who had died during the past year. Bishop Taylor delivered the memorial address.

Both clergy and lay delegates praised the possibilities for wider discussion and more reasonable decision offered by the workshop system which had been developed during the preceding year and had its first test during this conference session, it provided for review of all reports by any one of six groups of 100 delegates charged with approval or questioning of all proposed legislation. Visiting guests from the sister Southern New Jersey Conference indicated interest in the practicality of the system.

Facilities of Drew University made possible the serving of special luncheons and receptions during the conference. All retired minis-ters were honored at a luncheon in the University Center on opening day. Not only men in military service and veterans but others interested in the Church's adequate service in special areas heard an address by Rev. ld Roberts, former paster of Americans in Moscow. Chinese - American relations expert, Dr. Chang Hsin-Hai, speaking to the Christian Social Concerns luncheon; detailed the need for greater understanding on the part of both nations.

Almost the closing event of the week was an appeal by Presbyterian laymen Dr. Willard Heckel, dean of Rutgers Law School, speaking at the annual Laymen's Banquet, for up-dated methods in the Church's mission.

39 N.J. teachers get special grants

_ Thirty-nine New Jersey teachers have been awarded summer traineeships in special education by the State Department of Education.
Twenty-two of the teachers will pursue studies in mental retardation and 10 will study emotional disturbance. The remaining teachers will study in the fields of visual and physical handicap

The $35,100 grant enabling teachers to study at six New Jersey institutions of higher learning was made to the State Department by the U.S. Office of Education.

Teachers will study at Glassboro, Jersey City, Newark, Paterson and Trenton State Colleges and at Seton Hall University.

Grants were awarded to attract new personnel to the field of special education, to prepare personnel for supervisory positions and to help teachers meet certification require-

College last week after commuting five hours a day for a year from her home in Stan-hope to the Union campus, Mrs. Betty Harris decided to complete a previously interrupted college education in order to become a teacher and help her husband, Robert, and their children to college. This task will be under way nex September, when their oldest daughter, Beverly, begins to prepare for her own teaching career at Maryville College, Tenn.

Beverly, who is 18, will be graduated June 17from Sparta High School. Her mother will begin next September to teach second grade in an elementary school in Stanhope. The other two children are Susan, 8, and Paul. 6.

"I wish there were room on the diploma for all the names that should be recorded there," Mrs. Harris said last week. "My husband and children were so cooperative." And then there is my mother. Her name belongs there, too, because she took care of the children while I was away." Her mother, Mrs. Bessie Hart, lives next door. Her husband is a signal-main-tainer for the Erie Lack-

Mrs. Harris's counselors and teachers at Newark State have identified her as an outstanding prospective teacher. "She should be an inspiration to other mothers who would like to complete their educa-tions," they have said.

A graduate of Newton High Schoo, Mrs. Harris attended Glassboro State College for two years before leaving to get married. She devoted herself for many years to her family and to service as a Sunday School teacher and Girl Scout and Brownie lead-

In 1954 she began to teach under an emergency certifi-cate and worked for four years in elementary schools in Lake Hopatcong and Byram Town-ship, in a letter to the college the superintendent of the Lake Hopatcong schools described Mrs. Harris as a "fine, competent and sensitiveteacher sion to return to college was a difficult one to make, be-cause she had to travel by car, train and two buses to get there. COUNTY GOVERNMENT COUNTY PLANNING BOARD COUNTY PLANNING BOARD
The Union County' Planning Board was created by a resolution of the Board of Free-holders on March 4, 1965, thus becoming the 20th County in the State to have a Planning Board of Planning Department. The original resolution was revised on January 1, 1966 to increase the membership of the Board from seven to nine. The Board is now composed as follows: the Erceholder Director, one Freeholder member appointed by the Director, the County Engineer, and six citizen members appointed by the Director with the approval of the Board of Freeholders. The citizen members serve three year stag-gered terms, and all members serve without compensation.

In October, 1965, the Board of Freeholders, after receiving the recommendation of the Planning Board, passed resolutions creating the position of County Planning Director and amploying a salaried professional to serve as Director, in addition to the Planning Director, the present staff consists of an Administrative Assistant, Clerk-Stenographer, and Planning

A Planning Board attorney has also been appointed whose duties, in addition to normal legal work required by the Board, are to research and disseminate information on the Varied Federal Ald programs available to the municipalities and the County. The professional Staff position of Assistant Planner-has-been approved by the Planning Board, and funds have been provided in the 1966 County Budget for osition.

The purpose of the County Planning Board is to formulate a long-range county planning -program and to-provide planning assistance to the municipalities within the County, The primary function of the County Planning Board s to develop a comprehensive plan for Union County which gives sound planning guidance to the general development of the county and to devise and administer_the basic machinery for the implementation of the plan.

Limited by the enabling legislation, the Board, for the most part, makes recommendations and acts primarily as an advisory body. One major duty is to roview subdivision plots in regard to their design and future imsact on the community. Also, the enabling logislation empowers the Board to approve or disapprove these subdivisions as they affect drainage on county roads.

Other primary duties are to gather information and pursue special studies of the over-all growth-and development of the County and to make this information available to the general public, Also, the Board advises and consults with the Board of Freeholders and provides special services or information when

IMAGINE If you can, in this day of Medicare, of a woman who would do almost anything she could to save a few pennies even to the extent of eating cold porridge, so she would not have to heat it, thereby saving what she could.

this woman's life came a tragedy that would make almost anyone shudder. Her son revealed the need to have medical care for a leg that had become infected,, and then the search began for a medical clinic where care, could be had FREE. She went from one place to another with-OUR SUCCESS

Finally after a long and exhaustive search a clinic was found where treatment would given without cost and so her son was finally to have the care he so desperately needed. He was brought in and his case turned over to a doctor, who after preliminary diagnosis, and treatment, was forced to tell the mother-with deep regret, "Your son has been brought to me too late"...and so the mother was forced to experience the agony of having her son's leg ampurated because a free clinic could not be found in time, Years later, when this mother passed away, her last will and restament was away, her last will and testament was found in an old tin box, together with four pieces of soup she had kept to keep from ing precious money, Her estate was $31,400,000,000 was found, and the entire estate totaled $95 Million...This was the mother who would not spend the money to have her son treated....The notorious miser as you probably nowhave guessed... Those who maintain that inflation is not serious, or that it won't last, or that the high cost of living is limited to foods, especially beef and pork, are kidding themselves.

When those who take this position are government officials — and there are many of them do -- then they are risking real harm to the country because of their resulting rectance to take effective steps to stop in-

Inflation is a fact of life today, and it is a dangerous one. The truth of this conclusion is inescapable when one examines what is actually happening to the prices people must pay for the goods and services they need.

With the cooperation of my constituents in Union County, I have been gathering this kind of basic information. In my most recent newsletter, I asked my constituents to tell me about specific examples of higher-prices they have encountered. Already I have reed dozens of replies. They reveal clearly and unmistakably that price increases cov a wide variety of foods, not just beef and pork; that price inflation extends to many other products and affects many of the services we ed in our daily lives; that prices have been increasing for some time and are continuing to go up; that some price rises, at least, are difficult to justify on the basis of higher costs; and that many people are being forced without basic necessities in order to pay the higher prices. Let me cite a few examples from among the many I have received:

A wife and mother in Fanwood, after re porting increases in the prices of powdered milk, tunafish, and scouring pads, among other things, notes that her husband earns a good salary, $10,000 a year. But, she adds, even though they rarely go out, never hire a baby-sitter, and she makes all her own and her children's clothes, they still can't save any money because every salary increase her husband receives is wiped out by higher to $270. ... A widow in Kenllworth, who suffers from a heart condition, tells me that she is trying to save her home but that the high cost of sickness, mounting food prices -- of which she gives several examples -- and taxes are making it almost impossible.

A Linden mother reports that her 12-yearold son experienced inflation at first hand when the price of his lunch-time hamburger went up from 35 to 40 cents. A woman in Clark writes that her husband was forced to take a second job in order to give their daughter a chance to go to college, but that rising prices, especially the cost of dental care — which is a price increase mentioned by several people — now mean that unless their daughter can earn enough to pay for tuition, books and transportation, she may have to forego a college education. A man in Union complains that diabetic oods, even though they don't contain sugar, have been going up in price. A nurse in Elizabeth informs me that many older people with whom she works are finding higher food prices a real hardship on their small retirement incomes.

An Elizabeth businessman reports that his wife's weekly grocery bill has gone up from an average $14 or $16 last year to more than $20 this year.

The price of horring and smoked fish have risen by more than 50 percent, a Union house-

Another housewife, this one from Roselle Park, submits a long list of price increases including higher prices for paper towels and furniture polish. She concludes that she has reached the point where she has to do without necessities to stay within the amount of money she has to spend on food. A retired couple in Plainfield notes that price increases have been so fast and frequent that

A businessman in Hillside reports substan-tially higher prices for paper cups, plastic spoons and other products he uses, and notes that even chocolate, which is supposed to be in excess supply, has gone up:

This is only a small sample, but it is obvious that people are being hurt-by-inflation. Somehow, we must convince Congress and the 'Administration that the time for action is now. As an economics major at Princeton summed it up, it is not fair to those who have carried the burden of rising prices to fall to stop the inflation that is already here.

New Jersey Commissioner of Education Frederick M. Raubinger, in an introduction to the report, notes: "Unless all children can. find school rewarding and can find a measure of successful accomplishment in the school the drop-out problem will continue to plague society."

Dr. Raubinger also states that teachers, when seeing pupils not coping with the curricu-lum, should examine the causes of pupils' incapacities and ask if the incapacities or the curriculum could be modified.

The report focuses on the historical, socialcultural, psychological-psychiatric andeducational components within groups that help shape the emotional climate of a school. The important role of the self-image is

Senator HARRISON A. WILLIAMS Reports

The last of the once numerous excursion boots to the Jersey shore may be on the way to the mothball fleet.

Apparently, only a last-ditch intercession by myself and Congressman James Howard can rescue the "City of Keansburg" from being involuntarily retired, and there's no certainty that our best efforts will succeed. founded the line.

Back in the early 20s, before New Jersey had really embarked on a highway building program, the popular way to travel to the Jersey shore was by train or by excursion boat. At one point there were 10 steamboat companies engaging in the trade.

With the improvements in automobiles and

She, however, has been doing surprisingly well. From late June through Labor Day, the "City of Keansburg" makes a morning and afternoon trip carrying passengers from Jersey City, the Battery and 69th st., Brooklyn to Keansburg and one trip back at night.

GEHLHAUS SAYS the boat carries an average on landing at Keansburg, many remain there, but many take buses, operated by the Keansburg Steamboat Company, to shore points as far south as Long Branch.

Most of the boat riders come down for the day, intent on picnicking, bathing and a walk on the boardwalk. There are, however, a number who stay for a week. Surprisingly, there are a growing number of tourists from elsewhere in the country who take the roundtrip ride for the sea breeze and the view of the New Jersey-New York waterfront and harbor.

Gehlhaus says his company is doing very nicely on the balance sheet, thank you, in addition to providing permanent or temporary work for approximately 200 employees. In addition, the passengers on his boat provide a real shot in the arm to the sum economy of Keansburg and other nearby re-

My husband comes from the deep south. Once a week, he calls his folks long distance and all they talk about is the weather. They never call him!

He doesn't cat white bread, only hot rolls, hot biscuits, hot corn bread and hot cereals. He likes to sit in his favorite chair in broad daylight with a big light on,
I would not mind all this but he is a poor provider, Please give my your advice,

Discouraged

Dear Discouraged: If economizing is your kick, suggest that he talk about weather via the U.S. mails... and there's nothing wrong with putting the heat on white bread in place of more costlier goodies.

Lastly, if the President can shut off the lights in his house (the White House, that is) when he thinks it's wasteful, your husband

Dear Amy:
About that letter you received from the youngster who wanted a catalog from a mail-order house. I would like to say that these companies know that there are kids around. Only recently, my child returned from school with a catalog (one of hundreds) that had been sent to the school to interest the children

The way it worked was that the children would shop via the catalog (all in fun, of course) and then they would have to fill our the order form, add up their purchases, compute the shipping charges, figure the taxes, if any, and then submit the order form to the teacher for the correctness of addition, sub-traction, multiplication, etc.

What a way to bring arithmetic to the children! My child just ate it up. He was fascinated by the pictures and it gave the teacher an insight on the child's personality, likes, and ambitions. Of course the mail-order house also enjoyed the advantages of this novel way mail-order buying in these young minds,

L. Donald-Klement is wed Saturday to Springfield bride

Miss Caroline Ann Freudenberger, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lehre of Salter st., Spring-field, and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip Freudenberger, was married Saturday to L. Donald Klement, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Klement of Brasser lone, Kenilworth. Rev. James R. Cooper Jr. officiated at the ceremony in the Community Methodist Church. A reception followed at the Kingston Restaurant, Union.

Howard Murphy served as best man, Ushers included Henry Tavener, brother-in-law of the groom and Stanley Jakubiak.

Mrs. Klement is an alumna of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield.

Auxiliary closes season: honors executive slates

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Battle Hill Post 7683 of Spring-field had its final meeting Wednesday at the Florham Park Inn, Florham Park, to honor both the in-coming and out-going officers. Mrs. June Del'ino, Auxiliary president, made a toast to the out-going officers for their excellent work in the past year, and to those who participated in the poppy drive and the Memorial Day parade. On Wednesday, Sept. 14, the auxiliary will resume its meetings.

Young people grow with achievements in the forest

culture to effects of the glaciers millenia ago and plans for invasion of the 20th Century into the state's last forest areas. The remaining two hours were spent in the forest, running full tilt up and down almost -vertical slopes, with brief lectures every now and then, or sliding, rump-wise, down several cliffs, with Mulvihill catching the youngsters, and a few-terrified adults, at the edge of the hereafter. This writer's scars are available for showing, by appointment.)

Fred Bartlett, art instructor, also marched his field trips into the forest. Once there, he handed each young person a pad or paper and paint, crayon or other materials, and turned them all loose with the glories of nature. The results, often from students who had never before shown artistic ability, were awe-in-

William Lonney, English teacher, led his young people into another part of the forest, away, from their inhibitions about the written word. Urged into an examination of their own souls and the soul of the world, they settled down in the forest, on the banks of a lake and "stream, and frequently in the stream itself, and, often magnificently, they created,

Mrs. Ilmi Meddangh, also an English teacher, sat her youngsters down in a wooded glen and had them join in reading aloud the play. "The Glass Menagerie. by Tennessee Williams. The good readers, those with facility in literary expression, chopped into each scene like wood peckers, as might be expected.

EVEN MORE EXCITING was the effort of many others, for whom the written word has been a problem, as they stretched and grew and made the problems of the play come alive.

Merle Murphy, social science teacher, marched his troops on what he fondly, and ac-curately, termed his "Bataan Death March," through five miles of heavily wooded terrainruins of a farm dating back to the Revolutionary period.

Their problem was two-fold; to identify each building from its rulns and determine each building from its ruins and determine its purpose, to find the grown-over fields and pastures and dedice the crops; and to set up a community organization which could survive in the midst of the forest.

Each teacher, as noted above, also was in charge of a seminar group, which went into its tasks more intensively, the same young people working together overy evening for two hours or more.

Lonney and Mrs. Meddaugh shared two writing groups, leading, and sometimes prodding, the exciting and excited students into many forms of expression they could never achieve widun four walls.

Bartlett had his covey of young artists, all of whom responded to the unspoiled setting with maturity and sureness of craftsmanship. The number of pointings and sketches which were more then merely satisfactory was oba source of pride in the instructor, and the flood of true art struck the casual observer like a tidal wave.

Murphy was concertmaster for a folk singing seminar, which blended vocal cords and guitar strings into a deeply moving concert on the final evening.

MULVIIIL HAD HIG OWN special type of "seminar," blending a crew of technicians and impressively capable workers into a commando force which dealt with everything. The young people dashed through woods to set up loudspeakers and spotlights in the most unlikely places.

They set up and took down bridges; built tremendous, and well-designed camp-fires; set up and took down chairs and movie screens; loaded and unloaded trucks — all with quiet efficiency and a stark minimum of adult supervision.

The other, and invaluable, staff member. was Patricia Green, school nurse and medical officer for the expedition. A blonde Diana with a bottle of calamine lotion, she spent her time crisply dispensing competent treatment and a minimum of sympathy — except where it was needed.

As noted at the beginning of this report by a completely overwhelmed observer, there

There were 50 sleepy youngsters huddled on a rock atop a cliff before dawn, thrilling ogether to a reverent sunrise service.

There were throngs of screaming, laughing boys and girls, reverting to the bliss of early childhood as they crept out along a precarious rope bridge -- only to be dumped vociferously into a rushing mountain stream. There was the entire group, at the end of a day matching anything the Marines face at Parris Island, unwinding with a frenetic "go go dance" until midnight.

AT THE BEGINNING of the "Experiment in Living," Mulvihili told the young people that each one would get out of the week exactly as much as he-put into it. With a scant oneor two exceptions, each young person put an incredible amount of himself or herself into this work of expanding horizons—and received in return an equally incredible amount of exnerience and manurity.

Outstanding among all the memories is that of one boy, one of those always at odds with the educational authorities for one minor offense after another, one for whom formal education has always been difficult.

Give summer look to your home; hang light, airy curtains

Grandma always had two sets of curtains for the windows. One set was for winter and the other for summer. This was her way of keeping her home in season.

Today's homemaker may want to take Grand-ma's idea a couple of stops further to achieve two objectives; one, to make the house look cool, inviting and different and two, to keep housework to a minimum during the hot

Not only light, airy curtains are a welcome relief from the heavy, warm draperies, but window treatment can be completely changed to shades or the easy to clean vertical venetian blinds.

Warm weather also allows a different furniture arrangment that means a sofa or chair can be put in front of radiators while the heat is off, or permits an arrangment near window areas that are too cold and drafty during the wintertime. Don't be too insistant upon removing some of the pieces of furniture to give a more open look. Although if you don't actually need an extra chair or table, less furniture will make work easier.

Politics, study set for 1,300 students at 'State' program

Spirited political campaigns, more subdued introductions to government in the classroom and a busy schedule of social and athletic activities will absorb the energies of more than 1,300 high school students on the Rutgers University campus starting June 26 when the annual Jersey Boys' and Girls' State programs

Before the programs end on the following weekend, city and county offices and two mythical governorships will be contested at Rutgers and Douglass Colleges in programs designed to give the students a chance to samle politics and democracy in action.

Both programs will have record numbers of participants with 886 to take partinthe 21st annual Boys' State and some 440 delegates to attend Girls' State's 20th anniversary event. Boys' State, sponsored by the N. J. Department of the American Legion, will have Gov. Richard J. Hughes as the speaker at its opening day luncheon. Men from several levels and branches of government will speak during the week.

Among those scheduled to speak at Girls' State, sponsored by the N.J. Legien Auxiliary, are William R. Huggard, N.J. Department Legion commander; Edward Tiller, Union County freeholder; Cuy Calissi, Bergen County pros-ecutor, and former gubernatorial candidate and state senator, Wayne Dumont,

Although the two programs are run separately, they will be conducted in much the same way. Delegates will be divided into mythical political parties and will seek elec-tion to various offices on the city, county and state levels. Delegates to the programs represent every

The six-week program will be held from 8:30 a.m. until noon during the regular summer session at the college June 27 through Aug. 5.
The course provides six graduate or under-The course provides six graduate or undergraduate credits. Regular registration will be held next Tuesday and Thursday from 2 to 6 p.m. at the college.

The course will be conducted by two faculty members, Carl Burger, who is also a pro-fessional artist, and Mrs. Estelle Ritchie, who is also a professional actress, it has been designed to provide basic instruction in theatre and to assist teachers in charge of school productions.

Mrs. Ritchie, a resident of New York City, has had 20 years of experience as an actress and singer for the off-Broadway stage and in stock and repertory companies. She has played lead and featured roles in a variety of productions that run-a-gamut from Shakespeare and Wille to Albee and Williams. She has tau, ht speech, voice and classical theatre to suddents at The Theatre Studio in New York City, a professional training school run by actor-directors Curt Conway and Lonny Chapman.

Her part in the summer workshop will be to teach acting and directing, using pro-fessional techniques that will begin with exercises in relaxation and concentration and proceed through improvizations to the actual reading of scenes.

Burger will provide instruction in scene design and construction, costume design, and lighting. He has worked as stage designer at the Cape May Playhouse, Cape May, and at the Triple Cities Playhouse in Binghamton.

His water color and oil paintings have won numerous awards and have been exhibited at the Trenton Museum, Montelair Museum, Hunterdon County-Art Center, the Westfield Art Association, the Summit Art Association and the Ford State Show at Mahwah.-He has won a reputation as a painter of abstract designs with themes of social protest.

New lights tower over Parkway tolls

The first iostallation of tower lighting on the Garden State Parkway has been completed to intensify Illumination of traffic-stopping areas, the New Jersey Highway Authority reported this week.

Fourteen 80-foot-high pole towers surmounted by 1000-watt mercury vapor lamps have been erected at the Raritan Toll Plaza in the Sayreville-South Amboy section as the possible forerunner of such increased illumination units along the Parkway.

Authority Chairman Sylvester C. Smith, Jr., said the installation is designed to floodhight the installation is designed to mod-light the pavement of an area where traffic must come to a stop along the road. The lamps are glare-free to avoid light-blinding of drivers approaching or leaving the area.

In order to provide an easy transition for motorists' eyes from the designed illumination level of over two foot candles at the plaza to the unlighted section beyond it, approach lighting of decreasing intensity has been installed at the same time.

The big new lamps are controlled to prevent any possible spilling of illumination into nearby off-Parkway locations. Each tower has either two or three of the 1000-watt lamps on its top.

'The 80-foot-high steel-pole towers have no external climbing rungs, but the lamps will be maintained by means of a portable service trolley car which is hung from a cable in the pole and can be raised or lowered electrically.

The installation resulted from a lighting survey of the Parkway ordered by the Authority more than a year ago.

Highway officials plan added lanes for NJ Parkway

The New Jersey Highway Authority this week drew plans for further widening of the Garden State Parkway after adding third lanes north and south to another seashore stretch of the

The newly - widened Parkway section, between Interchanges 96 and 100 in Monmouth County, went into full travel use before Memo-rial Day to provide a continuous course of some 63 miles with six traffic lanes for separated northbound and southbound traffic.

Remainder of the 173-mile Parkway follows the basic design of two lanes for each direc-tion of travel, but the Authority is preparing to broaden the divided roadways north of the present limits of three-laned arteries at Interchange 159 in Bergen County.

At the same time, the Authority has ordered design for expansion of the Parkway's critical traffic area north of the Raritan River between Rt. 9 and the New Jersey Trunpike to 10 lanes in all. The 63-mile stretch of six lanes runs through here from Interchange 96 at Rt. 34 to Interchange 159 at Interstate Rt. 80. The Union and Essex Toll Plazas, the-Parkway's two biggest collection facilities, will also be expanded from 12 to 18 lanes each this year.

Work on the widening projects north of Interchange 159 is scheduled to start next year, with third lanes being added in each direction up to Interchange 161 at Rt. 4, Paramus, as the initial step. The Authority has widened the Parkway for some 50 miles in each direction since the toll road was first opened in 1954-55.

Golf season successful, with an eye on next year

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School golf team, under the direction of Adam La-Sota, made another line showing this season as it swept to the Watchung Conference title and narrowly missed the other jewels of the "Triple Crown" by placing second in both the state tournament and the Union County

This year's team varied greatly from match to match, as LaSota attempted to give all of the players an opportunity to gain vital exper-ience. As a result, the team's over-all record is far below the actual ability of the squad, while at the same time it served to prepare and improve many of the younger golfers in varsity competition. This factor gives the Bulldogs hope for another fine season next year.

The nucleus of this year's squad, and the group that competed in the triple crown events, consisted of Mike Zidonik, Art-Weber, Bill Hrank, Jim Belliveau and Rich Cohen.

This is Continental Post's second season in American Legion baseball. The team is supin town. The team will play ten games with various American Legion teams in Union

The schedule is: June 17-Friday, Westfield ar Springfield; June 24-Friday, Roselle at Springfield; June 26-Sunday, Springfield at Springfield; June 20-Sinday, Springfield at Rah-Roselle; June 27-Monday, Springfield at Rah-way; July 1-Friday, Union at Springfield; July 6-Wednesday, Kenilworth at Springfield; July 7-Thursday, Springfield at Westfield. Two postponed games to be played during June and July are with Rahway and Union, which games were deferred due to scholastic play-offs in Union County. All homegames will be played at the Ed Ruby Field at 6 p.m. The team roster for this year includes: Dennis Swick, infielder; Bob Sofie, infielder, and Nick Passomota, pitcher from Summit; George Mos, pitcher, Ken Moore, pitcher, and Larry Fabrizio, outfielder from New Manager Anthony Fabrizio said, "With the two fine co-coaches we have-in-John Siman and Hank Jachim, both from Springfield, and associated a long time in baseball coaching, and with the fine group of young players, this season presents a bright picture for the Legion team. In spirited practice sessions, the players look good. There is good depth in all posi-tions, and if solid pitching performances are turned in the Springfield Legion baseball team will be a team to be reckoned with in-Union County competition". He urged all citif the town to support the team by attending the games, both at home and away, in what was an essentially poorly-played Watchung Conference meet on a very soggy course at Baltusrol, the Bulldogs scored a large triumph over the closest contender. Westfield, of nine strokes, 523-532. Zidonik led with an 81, and Weber and Hrank followed with 83 and 84, respectively.

Then came the state event at Forsgate, Country Club in Jamesburg, Dayton fell victim to the tradition that somewhere says that no school is state champion twice in a row. Day-ton did its best to buck that, placing second only to a very strong West Essex club, 327-333. The final Buildog scores were Belliveau, 44-39-83; Bill Hrank, 41-39-80; Weber, 40-43-83; Zidonik, 45-42-87.

The team then bogied in its efforts to winthe elusive Union County championship. Despite years of championship teams, Dayton has not been able, in recent years, to take the county tremely fast course that is not suited to the Buildog's over-all link style, the results showed the Dayton squad in a tie for second with Plainfield, a bare four strokes behind winning Westfield. But the gap of 19 strokes from Dayton's 328 to fourth place Union's 347 shows the superior form of the local team. In individual honors, Bill Hranktied a Plainfield linkman for second with a 35-43-78. Other individual scores for Dayton where Mike Zidonik, 43-37-80; Jim Belliveau and Art Weber.

both 44-41-85. The probable nucleus of next season's team will be Bob Belliveau, who did well this sea-son in general play, Art Kravetz, Dave Rich, Gary Simson, veteran Dave Cohen and a freshman, probably either Joel Schwartz or Bob __

In addition, Eli Dreyfus, Gary Anderson and Rich Jarman all show potential for next season. This year's strategy has given these linkmen invaluable experience and could place Dayton in a position to maintain its high level of golf play over next season.

Feminine athletes play this weekend on swim pool field

Girls' softball returns to Springfield this Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, when the Marauder Girls will oppose strong league rivals at the municipal swim pool field. This Saturday night, the Marauder Girls will face their arch-rivals, the Linden Arians, in a single game starting at 8:15. They will meet the Springfield, Mass., Rifles in two games on Sunday afternoon at the same diamond, start-

Many Springfield fans enjoyed last Wednes. day's benefit game for the Mickey-Mantle Hodgkins Disease Foundation, and have expressed the desire to see more girls' soft-ball, according to the Recreation Department.

The Marauders have only these three scheduled assignments here, all in league activity, and hope to draw the patronage of A large crowd was on hand last Wednesday evening at the municipal swim pool field to see the Raybestos Brakettes of Stratford, Conn., four-time world champions, engage the Marauder Girls of Elizabeth, in a benefit game for the Mickey Mantle Hodgkins Di-sease Foundation. The Brakettes won, 6-0.

The fans were treated to big-time softball, especially the pitching of Bertha Ragan Tickey, who has authored more than 150 no-hitters

Future in track listed as bright for high school

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School track team has completed its best season in years. Although just short of a winning record, with 4-6, this is a far cry from the previous year's 0-10. Considering the relative youth of the team in general, and the numerous inturies that beset it throughout the season, the example set by the track team is one of great effort and deserved success.

The season began on a good note, with a strong defeat of Linden High School. The team was spurred on by beating both Arthur L. Johnson of Clark and Governor Livingston of Berkeley Heights to win the Union County Regional District championship. There was also a victory over Pingry.

a victory over Pingry.

There were many individual triumphs as well, as Mike Lester won a conference title in the high jump, and star shorput and javelin tosser Ernie Erskine compiled a set of honors, as did Greg Baskin in the discus and shorput. Baskin and Lester will return next season, as will many other fine personnel, particularly in the running events. cularly in the running events.

Although weak this season, next year holds great promise for the runners of Springfield. The big gap will be in the sprints, the 100 and 220, left wide open by graduation of fourletterman Danny Ginter.

However, returning for the other races are Red Harrelson and Ron Wilson in the 440, Ken Shatten in the mile, and Ron Fry and Bill Apgar in the mile and two-mile events. Leaving for the new Kenliworth Brearly Bears are Bob Middleton and Don Knott, in addition, there is a fine group of freshmen coming up.
In the field, besides Baskin and Lester,

Summit 'Y' lists plans

Highlights of two summer programs for high school girls, to be held during July, were amounced by the Summit. YWCA this week. Senior high school girls may register for either or both programs, A summer enrichment program concentrating on the career possibilities in the social work field and another entitled "Trips A Go-Go," featuring twice-a-week trips to Broad-way musicals, the beach, mu-seums, jazz concerts, will be offered from July 5 through 31. Cirls enrolled in the social work group will meet from 1 to 4 p.m. on Mondays through Thursdays, and will go on fun-trips from the "Trips A Go-Go" schedule on Pridays from

Dr. Preston Wilcox, of the Columbia University School of Social Work, will be the first speaker in the social work en-richment program on July 5. He will introduce girls to the opportunities in the field, the kinds of social work, the requirements for social work careers, the types of people needed. The first three weeks include visits to the Rutgers School of Social Work, the Summit Welfare Department, Steve Jupa was the winning pitcher as Carter Bell beat Elks, 5-1. His league pitching had been limited this season, since he was a mound regular for the Dayton Regional freshmen. Saturday he showed why, striking out 16 men and giving up a single-hit, Mitch Wolff, a 13-year-old, yielded only two hits in a losing cause.

In the nightcap, the Elks lowered their antiers on the Carter Bell nine, goring the losers by a score of 14-1. Dave Cohen was the winning pitcher, and he helped strengthen his argu-

The St. James Major League teams are experiencing a similar surprise in the second, half. Springfield House, which won the first half readily by winning six straight, is now trailing Morris Motors, which defeated them by a five-to-three score Thursday, Gaylin Buick took the measure of the First State Bank, four-to-three.

Standings of the top two teams are: Morris Motors, won four and lost one, and Springfield House, won three and lost two in the second when these teams battle it out today.

Nagel's wins two in baseball action

Nagel's defeated Park Drugs by a score of 7-2 last week in the Springfield Babe Ruth Minor League, Ira Schulman pitched consistently for Nagel's, going all the way for the victory. Lee Adlar provided the batting punch. Billy Weiss pitched well for the losers, with little help from his team-mates.

the Bulldog's leading position in the bottom of the seventh. Until that time, Dayton had son, with only one error, and some excel-lent plays. Then Sayreville second basemin George Armstrong doubled in a run and his pinch-runner, Joe Castellano, scored on a wild pitch, Now with runners on first and third, but-two out, Sayreville braced itself for pos-sible victory. Bulldog pitcher Bob Issier mades short work of the threat, striking the batter and boosting his record to 9-4, as Dayton

THE FREEHOLD CONTEST, also held at Rutgers, also finished with a score of 5-4, but this was a heartbreaking loss for the Bull-dogs, Who continued their fine combination of strong mound work by laster, solid hitting and, once again, fine fielding.

Dayton took an early lead, Second bases, man Steve Hartz doubled, scored two runs in the second inning, and third baseman Gark Kurtz repeated the feat in the third. Then, in the fourth inning, Freehold put in pitcher. Dick Whitt in relief. From then on, Freeze hold's performance was strictly a one-man show. Whitt shut out the Bulldogs for his stay on the mound, and smashed a single double and triple in his three times at bate.

In the fifth, White's triple drove in one run, and then outfielder Bob Davis delivered the hit of the season, a 400-foot home run to centerfield, giving the game to the Colonials, and ending the hopes of the Buildogs.

All in all, it has been a good season for coach Ed Jasinski's team. Ending up with a record of 13-9, Dayton showed some strong contention for the Watchung Conference Championship, placing second, and another forceful bid for the Group III Central Jersey Championship, defeating teams with much better season records in first-class play.

Despite losses to Union's Al Santorini (At-Despite losses to Union's Al Santorini (Atalianta's first-choice draft pick) and Linder early in the season, Dayton went undefeated, for the first eight conference games, including a dual victory over Scotch Plains. Fanwood in a double-header.

The second game of that series was a no-hitter by issier, who also pitched another no-hitter against Hillside. Then, however, came losses to Arthur L. Johnson of Clark, and the dropping of a double-header to West-field, which led the Blue Devils to the conference title. Hard times set in, and with a serious slack in defensive play, the Bulldogs record plummeted. The Edison contest sparked the team to its spectacular close, with the only late loss being the semi-final-contest with Freehold.

As for next year, the outlook is filled with uncertainties. The entire infield except for Gary Kurtz will be leaving, as will all of the outfield. The pitching staff will be headed by Gartlan, who is also a top catcher, and Dave-Hollander, a pitcher who distinguished himself with the junior varsity and gained one victory himself on the varsity.

Also remaining are Dominick Fabrizio accatcher and Brian Sheehan and Tom Brownite for slots in the outfield. As with this year next year's regulars will be largely inexaged blousers. perienced. However, if they can do as well, as this year's squad did despite its handican in the experience department, Dayton can look, forward to another fine diamond season in

Holiday Poconos Community Guarded By Electronic Gate

Electronic gate and reception office at Holiday Poconos, vacation year fround community in Albrightsville in the Pocono mountains. Wooded homesites sell from $99.5 to $5000 with facilities of two large lakes available to landowners and

Now a man can carry in his wallet a magic card which acts as a wand to open the gate to a forest-hidden resort and retirement community in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania.

Holiday Poconos, a Vacation and year 'round' community in Albrightsville just off Route 903 in the Poconos, is believed to be the first community on the East Coast and only the second one in the United-States, to have this trespasser-proof arrangement.

Holiday Poconos is entered through a stone and wrought iron gateway. There is actually no gate in the old fashioned sense, but an electronic barrier which is raised and lowered automatically.

Every land owner and resident of Holiday Poconos receives a one-of-a-kind card impregnated with a magnetic code which is his key when he buys a homesite there.

When the card is inserted in a slot in the gateway convenient to the driver's side of the automobile, lo! The gate rises and he -can pursue the noiseless tenor of his way through-wooded and laurel-bordered pavedroads to his snug, secluded retreat.

This is the only way an automobile can enter Holiday Poconos, Visitors and casual passers-by must apply at the reception office by the entrance to inquire about homesites or seeing friends.

Holidayers and year-round residents at Holiday Poconos enjoy the facilities of two large lakes with broad sand beaches and boat docks which are within the confines. of this sequestered community. These, too, are accessible only through the gateway and are for the sole use of Holiday Poconos property owners and their invited guests.

Wooded homesites at Holiday Poconos are for sale from $995 and up., Lake front lots range up to $5000.

Holiday Poconos 1000 acres of sylvan lakes and virgin-forested acres are surrounded by Hickory Run State Park and state game lands that total over 20,000 acres.

Some of the Holiday Pocono homesites particularly sought after by hunting and fishing enthusiasts abut these preserves.

For the skier who wants a winter weekend home Hiday Poconos-backs up to Big Boulder ski area and is 5 minutes by car from the ski tows and slopes.

A lake well stocked with brown trout is a lure to the man_who has that-electronic card in his wallet and knows that it opens the gate to the lake that holds the fish. A magic wand, indeed.

Holiday Poconos is but a two hour drive for New Jersey Residents via the new Interstate Route 80.

The trend to earlier retirement and more leisure time has led to a surging "second home" market in

New Jersey and neighboring states. This is evidenced by lake and shore communities offering weekend or vacation living.. or all-year living for many retired persons.

A selection of these homes and homesites will be featured each week for the next few months in this newspaper.

Safety tips for power mower use

Power-lawn mowers are one of the many modern convenineces that make home ownership more enjoyable. More than 25 million of them will be in services throughout America this summer, and the prospect is for even more next

These highly popular and extremely efficient time savers are also potentially hazardous, warns the New Jersey State Safety Council. Although the power-driven-reel mower has taken its toll, the less expensive and more popular rotary type is the chief offender. The rotary blade, whirling at up to 3,000 revolutions per minute, is as potentially lethal as a power saw and should be handled accordingly. Mowers--both reel and rotary-type--may cut toes and sheer fingers that probe while the blades are turning. In addition, rotary mowers can throw stones and metal obects at great speeds. Lethal injuries are comparatively in-frequent, but the so-called minor ones can be costly and

--all to often--disabling.

How can we cope with these useful but potentially dangerous garden appliances? The New-Jersey State Safety Coun-cil makes the following suggestions based on information supplied by the National Safety Council: Before starring, clear the lawn of metal objects, stones and sticks. A mover can pick up and hurl bits of yard debris at speeds up to 180 miles an hour. The blade can also break off after striking a rock or tree roots and hurtle through

When starting the engine, stand firmly with feet away from the blade. Know the controls, and make certain that self-propelled mowers are not

Mow-only when the grass is dry. Thousands of toes are amputated or mangled every year when feet slip under the blade housing.

Keep away from moving parts. Wait a moment or two after shutting off the engine to be certain the blades or rotor have stopped.

Wear shoes. Bare feet and sandals offer no protection, and ordinary house shoes only Ilttle. Steel-tipped safety shoes do much to thwart the blade's cutting action.

Be careful on slopes, surof your footing, balance, and control of the machine. Going downward it's too easy to slide your feet into the blades of rotor, and on the upward trip there's the hazard of having the mower roll back on you. Proper technique is to mow sideways, as in contour farm

Stop the engine whenever you leave the mower.
Children and young teenagers should never be allowed to operate power mowers. They cannot appreciate the hazards of this machinery, nor do they know how to handle it properly. Keep children away. They are likely to run into moving parts or against the hot ex-haust pipe. More than one child has been killed by a piece of-wire, bottle or other debris propelled by a whirling rotor Refueling a mower while it is running, or even while the engine is hot, can cause fire engine and muffler to cool then always refill out of doors where gasoline vapors can escape into the air. Before cleaning or making adjust-ments, stop the engine-and al-ways disconnect the spark plug

The power lawn mower. case histories show, is just as hazardous as a buzz saw. But, the New Jersey State Safety council says, "you can save yourself from being maimed or killed if you treat it as such," sharpest decreases.

Among New Jersey's principal labor areas, Perth Amboy and Trenton had the lowest jobless rates, while Philipsburg and Plemington registered the lowest rates among the smaller areas registered the lowest rates among the smaller areas. Although the number of people at work is expected to rise during June and July, an increase in unemployment is also anticipated, due to the large number of students and other summer jobseckers who will be entering the work-
