Two armed robberies — at the Lotus Garden Restaurant and at Echo Lanes Bowling Alley—were reported early this week by Mountainside police. In the first, the gunmen escaped with an undetermined amount of cash from an office safe; $4,300 in cash was taken from the bowling alley.

Police said the manager of the Lotus Garden told them he answered a knock on his restaurant's second floor door at 4 a.m. Sunday, and found two of his dishwashers, who asked to speak to him downstairs. After accompanying them to the kitchen area, he was confronted by a third man, armed with a gun, who ordered him to the office area.

He charged that national adjustments. Of the 22 routes involved in within the postal service. So please remember of local service. Williams stated: "As president of my branch, Local 3795 of the National Association of Letter Carriers, and in the sincere interest of a better postal service, my branch wants to inform our postal patron: I the carriers' position concerning certain postal policies. It is not our intent to criticize ur employer, not by any means, but being dedicated letter carriers we feel that we must acquaint the public with truthful facts concerning "your poor mail service." "Management has decided that it could serve the public better if carriers" only" took out first class mail and daily newspapers in the mor-ning, leaving behind all your second and third class mail for next-day delivery. Managemen irther feels that it would be a great saving to the postal service if the mail boxes throughou the town were collected only once a day.

"This means that if your carrier collected mail from the mail box near your house at 9:30 on Monday morning and you put a letter in that same box for your neighbor next door at 9:35, that mail would lay there until 9:30 Tuesday morning when your carrier came by again Your letter would have stayed there 23 hours and 55 minutes. 'Now if that seems like poor service, I have not finished yet. Your carrier picks up your letter and he carries it with him all day until he returns to the post office around 2:30 p.m. You letter is trayed and sent to Elizabeth where it will be postmarked for processing back to Springfield, "by way of Newark." When will your neighbor get that letter? God only knows. "There is a daily average of 11 million pieces of mail which are not delivered. Why? Because management has "stopped' the carriers from forwarding the mail. Forwarding of the mail is now being computerized. When we the letter carriers, used to forward the mail and a letter came to us misaddressed or without any ad dress it got delivered or forwarded. Our emory through years on the job told us where that letter went. Today your letter goes to "Unknown—no such number", and eventually back to you or the "dead letter section". "Some of the postal patrons have said, "How vonderful of your boss to give you jeeps to ride around in." If they only knew how their won-derfulness came about. Well it came by eliminating three jobs, and putting their work on the rest of us, and to make sure that we do it supervisors are required to spend at least two hours daily driving (spying) around our routes at a cost of millions of dollars to the taxpayer. Vitold Lukaitis of Cranford, chairman of the 1974 drive, said that the campaign is running approximately $15,000 behind last year, and that follow-up notes are being mailed to all tributors who have not yet responded to the Christmas Seal appeal. "There may be an identity problem," he stated, "because our Association recently changed its name from the TB-RD group to the Central New Jersey Lung Association, a name which reflects our primary goal-the revention and control of lung disease.

"We are the authorized Christmas Seal agency in Union County," he continued, "and we have served the people of this area for more than 50 years. Their support is vital if we are to ontinue to help others live and breathe, Lukaltis noted that Christmas Seal funds are used locally to assist hospitals to develop and expand their lung disease diagnostic and treatment services; to present intensive training programs in adult and child respiratory care; to award respiratory therapy scholarships; to support medical education and training in lung disease; to keep-the public informed about the danger signals of lung disease; the pitfall of smoking and to conduct air conservation programs. If you have not answered your Christmas Seal letter, the association requests you to do so before the holiday season passes. Red Cross cites hazards of skating on frozen ponds too early in season

The advent of winter prompted the Red Cross THE SAFEST WAY to rescue someone who is ject, dig it into the ice to get a grip on the this week to urge skating enthusiasts to stay off. has fallen through ice is to lie flat on the ice, lakes, ponds, and rivers until there are solidly edge forward and extend the rescue equipment size. and safely frozen over

"To forestall accidents on the ice it is necessary to know when and where skating and ice boating are safe," Erma Raksanyi, safety programs chairman of the Eastern unty Red Cross Chapter, cautioned 'The first ice of the season is attractive to is quite smooth. But it also can be deceptively thin and not uniform in thickness.

"It presents a special danger for small children who are fascinated by a glazed over body of water but too young to recognize its perils. Every year we read or hear of tragedies n which children are attrracted to a newly,icecovered body of water, walk or play on it, fall bodies of water should be especially aware of such dangers, and should instruct older children and teen agers in rescue techniques in case of an ice accident."

IN EARLY WINTER, Mrs. Raksanvi addéd new ice is quite likely to be weaker toward the center of the lake or pond. Especially hazar lous at all times is ice that has formed over rivers and other running water. Currents can erode and melt ice from below and the levels of many creeks and streams tend to vary. It's important to watch out for the dark spots that generally indicate weakened ice.

As a rule, she said, four inches of ice or more is safe for skating and hockey. Even the skaters should stay reasonably near shore. Bu obiling, ice boating and other activiti of that kind require seven or eight inches

She listed these safety rules: 1. Whenever possible, skate at supervised areas, such as those operated by park systems Shallow-water locations such as ponds and farm lakes are safest. Ideally, the body of water-should be no more than worst, deep. . 2. Use the "buddy" system-skating with mion—and skate close to shore and never at night. Avoid gathering in large groups on the ice: ice fishermen should spread out also. 3. Always warn other skaters of dangerous ce conditions and areas when you know of their

4. Never build a fire on ice. And unless it is a foot or more thick and known to be safe, never drive a car, truck, or snowmobile on the ice. 5. In case of accident, simple rescue equipment such as a length of rope, a pole, ladder or plank should be kept at skating areas. Rescuers can improvise with a tree-limb, spare tire or sturdy article of clothing.

Stay with your own projects, tasks and missions. Also, get more advice than you give. Avoid the habit of too much "self analysis." Bluntly, you're prone to create problems that don't exist. . . . especially, with members of the opposite says the opposite sex. You're not one who likes to share you lems or worries. If you really, look into this you'll find that most of your "fears" based on self created uncertainties. AND HAVE MANY SPECIALS THIS WEEK ON Pride and anxiety are at the bottom of your problems, in general. Watch how well you perform with the attitude: Who much cares — a hundred years from now! It's a fact of life, distrust in others is one of your hidden problems. Allow for good intentions, you'll discover how persons will favor you in the long haul. KIDSI GIVE YOUR MOTHER A LIVING GLET ... A BEAUTIFUL PLANT OR TERRARIUMI GREEN SCENERY Balancing the scales, on sex questions, is not your strong point. Face reality when you weeks "good" against "bad." You'll be surprised with improved affairs of the heart.

Emotional "ups" and "downs" in your reaction toward others are, indeed, problematical. You'll discover a stabilizing effect if you seek to help persons, less fortunate than yourself... A big drawback? Misunderstandings and tact-lessness, on your part. The solution? If an apology doesn't work . . abandon the situa-tion that caused your problem in the first

Diffused interests, this year, might cause you a loss of direction. Consult your friends, when you become over anxious about a particular project, you'll abandon superfulous goals. There could be a lack of method in your pres-ent project. Don't attempt sudden changes, in the nost, several weeks. Reorganize, gradually! Otherwise, you'll heap confusion on confusion.

Fairleigh Dickinson University, "in recognition of the continuing energy crisis," will suspend most of the activities at its three campuses and the Wayne Extension from Dec. 21 to Jan. 5 Except for specific areas, offices will be closed and employees excused from work, with pay, during this period, The decision, taken in an effort to conserve energy and in particular to reduce the comsumption of fuel oil and natural gas, affects____ most of FDU's regular full-time and part-time employees. Any staff member who is asked to work during the two-week period will receive compensation time to be taken prior to the end of the university's fiscal year. Students and faculty members are unaffected since the closing occurs during the Christmas' holiday

During this period, buildings will be locked and thermostats set at a minimum temperature consistent with structural requirements. Offices remaining open-including admissions, registration, payroll, adequately heated. In addition, provisions wil he made to protect the greenhouses as well as laboratory areas in which animals are kept.

are more likely to show socially unacceptable dizziness, and poor sleeping habits; and To test his hypothesis about the relationship between left-handedness and aberra behavior, the Florida osychologist enlisted the help of Dr. Richard Jaeger, a professor of education at the University of South Florida Together, they devised a test, subsequent labeled the torque test, to determine han between the ages of 4 and 17. The results of the tests were consistent; left-handed and mixed handed children drew circles in a clockwise terclockwise. When Blau compared the fit dings of the torque test to the results of the children's psychological tests, to his interview servations, he concluded that his hypothesi that left-handed and mixed-handed childr would exhibit a tendency toward aberrant behavlor was valid. The bulk of research literature attributes handedness and functional laterality to cerebral dominance. Right-handed individ are influenced primarily by the left lobe of the brain. However, left-handed and mixed-hande individuals are not influenced primarily by the right side of the brain, but are influence by both lobes of the brain. Blau proposes that this mixed cerebral dominance may explain the ariety of traits ascribed to left-handers Dr. Blau's paper, "The Sinistre Child," was presented at a symposium at the 82nd Annual Convention of the American Psychological tember 2, 1974,

Ford budget cuts unfair to elderly, Williams asserts

WASHINGTON, -- U.S. Senator Harrison A. Williams Jr. (D-NJ) said this week he opposes several of President Ford's proposed budget cuts which would place a "disproportionate burden" on low income elderly persons. "The President has proposed certain reductions in federal spending for the current fiscal year as a way of lighting inflation and, in principal,"I believe most members of Congress are sympathetic," Williams said. "As a matte of fact, Congressional, actions has already reduced this fiscal year's Pentagon spending by $3.1 billion. a Furthermore, we have established a whole new apparatus to oversee he appropriations process in the Senate and the House, with the objective of more tightly. controlling Federal spending. "However, we must be very careful that in cutting the budget we do not carelessly and arbitrarily snatch aid away from those Americans who need it most. And I believe that several of Mr. Ford's proposals would do-"In my judgement, the President's intentions to cut back food stamps, and his request for changes in Medicaid and Medicare would have severe repercussions for one of the most needy and deserving groups in our country, the lowincome elderly. The President's proposals would force these older Americans to bear a disproportionate burden of the effort to fight inflation, and I must therefore oppose them

Nurse raises family, 'digs' artifacts Upsala student back in school after 10 years

One of the busiest women on the campus of Upsala College; East Orange, is a South Orange nurse whose current activities include studying for a full degree, raising a family, renovating a 26-room house, driving a classic sports car and searching for pre-Columbian artifacts in the Mrs. Pat Hunter; who is Mexican-American and part Navajo Indian, moved to north Jersey recently from Manhattan with her husband Burton, a lawyer, and their two-year-old daughter, Zani. She is a native of Colorado, but was raised in the state of Washington where she received her R.N. degree. Her husband, a Harbard graduate, is an international lawyer for the Schering Corp. in Kenilworth. Upon settling in South Orange, Mrs. Hunter decided to pursue a full degree under Upsala's new program in which registered nurse are given credits for previous education. Among the courses she is taking are an introduction to anthropology and pre-Columbian civilization. Both tie in with the main hobby of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter-bunting in faraway places for antique artifacts dating back to the time precedin Columbus discovery of the New World.

They have a large collection, including an Ecuadorian piece from Valdivia cluture, going back to 4,000 B.C. Part of the collection now is on display in the Upsala College library.

Mrs. Hunter's interest in pre-Columbia. civilization was triggered by her husband who nad been collecting since he attended Harvard. Whenever they have an opportunity, they fly with their daughter to Mexico or other foreign countries and search for pre-Columbian art in areas tourists would not normally tread. Three years ago her husband found himself in a recarious position while they were exploring immersed in sand and Hunter set out on foot for help while his wife walted in a ruined Mayan

Strength and compassion are the key words in describing Al Wilson. He is a man who has maintained a sensitivity and warmth that has brought him to a very personal involvment in charity work and teaching. \(\) Musically, Al traces his style to no single influence. He patterned himself after no idol, no established performer. Pop, jazz, spiritual blues, hard rock and as he puts it, "funk" were all absorbed by him and are now infused into

As early as grade school, Al showed his creative bent as a actor in school plays. Later, he won talent shows as a singer and took first prize in an art contest. By the age of 12, he had earned money as a country and Western singer, formed his own spiritual quartet and There were many years of hard apprenticeship. After two years in the Navy, where he sang with an enlisted man's combo, M came to Los Angeles alone and unknown to nake the rounds of night clubs. He sang whereever and whenever he could. He worked at any job he could find until he decided he was going to live from his earnings as an entertainer, or quit.

He joined "The Jewels" (who cut the orriginal R & B classic "Hearts of Stone") in 1959. In 1960, he had his first taste of real success as a member of the "Rollers" whose single, "Continental Walk," hit the national charts. During this period Al added to his. vocal talents mastery of the drums and a standup comedy routine. When the "Rollers" broke up, he formed his own group, "The Souls", an instrumental quartet performing with such artists as Johnny "Legs" Harris. Al got his first real opportunity in 1966 when he was signed to the Soul City lable. His first role of the court jester in Verdi's opera based big his was "The Snake." He followed up with another smash in "Do What You Gotta Do" and was on his way.

"Summer Wishes, Winter Dreams," starring Joanne Woodward, Martin Balsam and Sylvia Sidney.

Just as in "The Sting," "Butch Cassidy and "Papillon;" the Sundance Kid," and "Papillon," "California Split" is concerned primarily with the friendship, antics and problems of two men.
Segal and Gould play compulsive gamblers n the film comedy, and their relationships with women are almost incidental to their need to bet on anything.

Saturday at 8 p.m. this year's Bulldog squad will meet the players of yesteryear in the annual alumni game. Dayton will play host at provided the nucleus for the almost successful complete. Yanchus also installed a 1-3-1 Coach Ray Yanchus does not anticipate defense, which is referred to as the DEW line, making any significant personnel changes for the Saint Mary's game. He will be stressing and hoping, his players implement the basic basketball fundamentals related to defense, and of the court. This alignment was effective as it forced Clark into a number of turnovers, of which Dayton only made seven to provide more defensive pressure in the ebounding and passing. He will also work hard in the latter half. Yanchus attributes the with the team to alleviate the number of sharper defense in the second half to the unit's areless turnovers.

Last Friday night Clark scored the first cohesive movement, quicker reaction to the ball and the overall better protection of its basket of the game off the opening tap, and the opposition led, 6-0, before Dayton center Kevin Coach opening stanza. Clark stretched the lead to 14-3 by feeding its bigger men underneath the basket with short, crisp passes for easy buckets. Because of poor shooting from the field and the foul line the Bulldogs could not sustain a continuous offensive attack. The sustain a continuous offensive attack. The teams exchanged baskets for most of the quarter, but ayton slowly began to make up ground, led y the hot hand of point guard Ted Johnson. Clark, whose shooting began to taper off. reverted to a mini stall when its lead was cut to 52-41 with 3:27 left in the stanza. The stall worked as Clark began to open the margin once again. With seconds remaining on the clock a Clark player swished a 35-footer from the left

In the fourth quarter the Dayton defer ightened as the 15 point margin dropped to 11. Sensing Dayton's offensive, Clark stalled its offense for three minutes. When the Bulldogs broke the stall and succeeding ones, they fallied nine more straight points. Johnson(six points), Mercer (five tallies) and forward, Gary Presslaff, who served a hardward. STARTING THURS., DEC. 19th PEOPLE IN UNION CAN EAT AS CHEAPLY AS PEOPLE IN JERSEY CITY.

That's when Union can start buying groceries the way grocers buy them.

Tomorrow we double in size. For the past several weeks, Jersey City residents have been enjoying terrific bushel and case food prices at Grocers' Food Depot. Now the folks in Union are going to have the same opportunity when our second Depot opens tomorrow, Bushel and case food at bushel and case prices. Grocers' Food Depot is a whole new concept in food shopping. We sell only by the case, half-case and similar bulk quantities. And we sell only food: meat, produce, canned and packaged goods. Quality brands that you know and trust.

Because we buy and sell in such great quantities, we not only get lower prices, but we also have lower handling costs. And we pass those savings on to you. Our policy is if we're going to sell an item, we're going to do everything possible to have the lowest price in town.

Now, obviously, we don't expect to see you every week. But when you're ready for big shopping, (maybe with a friend to share the savings), we're ready to give you big savings. So come to Grocers' Food Depot soon. Check these bargains and get an idea how much you can save when you buy groceries the way your grocer buys them.

Committee to look into ambiguities

Retiring CD director is honored at meeting

Objections by a keen-eyed member of the udience with a clear sense of grammar led to he tabling of a major ordinance, dealing with changes in regulation of construction as it relates to flood control, at last Thursday's meeting of the Township Committee. Passage of the measure, which will have to be ceintroduced in January, is necessary for the township to qualify for extensive county floor

The questions about the ordinance came from Ed Rail, a frequent participant in town meetings and one whose comments are usually heeded by the committeemen. Rall said he found ambiguities in that portion of the measure which exempted one-family homes detailed site plans outlining storm water etention provisions.

After a long look at the wording, which had been presented to the township by the Union County Planning Board, Township Attorney Jay Bloom, said he also found it unclear, and he advised that the proposed ordinance be tabled The meeting, with more than 35 persons in attendance, included presentation of a plaque to Saul Freeman, who is retiring after 16 years as director of civil defense and disaster control Mayor Edward N. Stiso Jr. commended Freeman for his achievements in radio comnunications, in construction of fallout shelters elping during flood emergencies. Freeman stated, "I have had the great pleasure of working with many ad-ministrations, both Republican and Democratic, and I have had good relations with all of them. I hope that all future Townshi Committees will continue to support the world the Civil Defense organization and the Police

THE PROPOSED ordinance on storm drainage also drew questions from Marcia Forman and Alian Zeller, both members of the Springfield Environmental Commission conholes. It leaves too many exceptions up t lanning Board. Our job is to contain the runo from every future development, every single doghouse. I'm afraid this flood control bill just doesn't hold water."
