"When you've got some great brand names sitting on the shelf, that's the time to think bigger!"

Well, there they are. Brand names that companies have spent millions making into household words, gathering dust and sitting on the shelves. But it doesn't have to be that way. You can put some of these sales muscle to work for you through your Yellow Pages advertising. (They're consulted about 400,000 times a day in New Jersey!)

Now, your ad program is probably fine as it stands. After all, one of our advertising specialists worked with you to put it together. And we're all pros. But perhaps, just to say a few bucks, you passed up some of our suggestions. Like listing yourself under any major brand names you're authorized to sell or service, in addition to being listed alphabetically.

So think about it. And if you agree a multiple listing might give you a better chance to get a bigger share of everybody else's business... call the Yellow Pages, toll free, at (201) 649-2171.
