Entries of home, tool and die firm probed by police

Break-ins at a home and an office and an attempted entry of another local business were reported last week by Springfield police.

Police are awaiting a list of missing items from the owners of a home on Woodside road which was burglarized and reported between 8:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Monday. The home is owned by Ed. Edlin and Ed. Edlin Glassman are investigating that case.

A Tupperware, toy calculator, small refrigerator containing liquor and an unidentifiable "taken from" were reported stolen from a warehouse on the 3000 block of Woodside road between 8 p.m. Monday and 8:30 a.m. Tuesday from the Cecil Tool & Die Corp. SA Padern and investigating officer Rodney Pedersen said entry to the building had been gained by jumping over a rear door.

An attempted entry was made sometime over the weekend at the Scheible Oil Co., 102 Mountain ave. Ed. Edlin Hardy reported a warehouse had been broken open and oil was made to force open other doors, but nothing has yet been recovered missing.

Controversy stirs over dropping two from girls' varsity

DAYTON STUDENTS—Students from the Dayton Regional High School are seen in a rehearsal for the play "Up the Down Staircase" at the Springfield State Bank.

Contingent from Dayton backs coach

Hour of discussion at Board meeting

By ANNE GOLD

Controversy over coaches' regulations regarding dropping girls' varsity athletes from the team was discussed at a meeting of the Dayton Regional High School District Board of Education Tuesday night at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School in Clark.

The audience of about 40 persons included a dozen members of the Jonathan Dayton Regional High School girls' basketball team, along with several parents, as well as two faculty members who spoke on a related matter.

The Dayton contingent spoke in opposition to an appeal of the board from an administrative ruling which supported the dropping of two members from the team.

The board rejected some progress in obtaining county funding for food control work on the Dayton property, a parent representative expressed concern over a program for youngsters with learning disabilities at Park Elementary in Dayton.

The board also discussed a proposal to limit the number of students who could be admitted to the school, and a proposal to limit the number of students who could be admitted to the school.

Junior Olympics draw 200 town youngsters

The 10th annual Springfield Junior Olympics will start today with a record number of 200 youngsters, say two record athletes and a number of outstanding individual performances.

The record breakers included Michael Smith, who won the 100-yard dash, and Tom Art, who won the 200-yard dash.

Other winners included Michael Smith, who won the 100-yard dash, and Tom Art, who won the 200-yard dash.

The Springfield Recreation Department will hold a regular meeting on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Building. The meeting is open to the public.

Dayton students in rehearsal for 'Up the Down Staircase'

Theresa Jonathan Dayton Regional High School students will take the stage in Haley Hall at 8:15 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, May 1 and 2, to portray students and faculty members of Calver College High School as the Dayton All-School Players and Drama Club present "Up the Down Staircase," a comedy by Neil Kaufman.

Drama coach Joseph F. Trinity and Staff Williams, student director, are directing the following players for faculty roles: Ira Brown as Dr. Maxwell Clarke; Lucy Crown as Sylvia Barrett; Robert Carver as Mr. Carver; Lon Berwin as Rex Schaefer; Nancy Epstein as Paul Barringer; Basil Smith as J. J. McElroy; Gwyn English as Ella Preisberg; Abbe Becker as Francis Kahn; Tom Morrison as Charlotte Wolf; David Hingsberg as Samuel Dexter; and Marcia Robinson as Sadie Finch.

Students in Miss Barrett's room include: Bill Birnbaum as Leo Martin; Deborah Hayes as Lenore Neumark; Wendy Stark as Carrie Blaine; Rick Alexander as Alice Blake; Janice Krieger as Vivian Palmer; Jay Bizz as Rusty O'Brien; Debbie Chickenger as Linda Rosen; James Halper as Joe Rodgers; Lisa Blumenthal as Carrie Blaine; Mitch Siler as Harry Kagan; Mary Roth as Jill Norris; Moura Halpin as Rachel Gordon; Patti Liberman as Elizabeth Ellis; Mark Vabonsky as Charles Arrows; Suzanne Granger as Edward Williams; and Leon Ravitz as Joe Frazzini.

Other students and friends are portrayed by: Nancy Robinson as Helen Abruzzi; Stacy Stralover as Francine Gardner; Debbie Arachonko as Katherine Wolow; and Barbara Lan as Ellen. Tickets can be obtained at the door or from cast members for $1.50.

Seven-year-old writes top essay

Springfield's mother of the year is Eileen Dalton of Madison Terrace, who will receive a plaque and certificate for her 7-year-old son, the winner of this year's Springfield Leader "Mother's Day" contest.

Seven-year-old John Dalton was selected from among many youngsters who entered this year's "Mother's Day" contest.

John Dalton's essay, "My Mother," was selected as the winner of the contest.

ADULT AID ASKED FOR WALK-A-THON—An appeal for adults to help with the May 11 walk-a-thon planned by local youngsters is being made by the Springfield Recreation Department. The walk-a-thon will be held on May 11, 1975, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Springfield State Bank. The walk-a-thon is open to all ages and is a great way to raise money for the children's center. For more information, contact the Recreation Department office.

Tennis attendant applicants sought

The Springfield Recreation Department this week announced that it is seeking applicants for the position of tennis court attendant. The position involves weekend duties supervising one or more of the town's tennis courts. Any adult interested in the position may contact the Recreation Department at 100 North Broad Street, Springfield, N.J. 07081, or call 210-122 for more information.

Applicants are also being sought for the position of tennis court attendant for the summer season at the Springfield Municipal Pool. Applications may be obtained and returned at the Recreation Department office.
