Developer says design quality produces sales

The marketing success of the Shadow Lake Village has produced equally dramatic figures with low-cost design quality. The developer, Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc., says that the success of the project is due to the high quality of the design and construction. The project features a variety of unit types, including one, two, and three-bedroom units. The community is located in a desirable area and offers a wide range of amenities, including a clubhouse, swimming pool, and tennis courts. The developer emphasizes that the success of the project is a result of the high quality of the design and construction, which has produced a high level of interest and sales.

A Hovnanian home is a functional home, a luxury home, a safe home and an economical home. All under one roof.

A functional home.

Because beauty is only skin deep, you should look at a home's interior. In the Villages, all the homes are designed around a simple, functional, and economical design. The interior features a variety of finishes and fixtures, including hardwood floors, granite countertops, and stainless steel appliances. The homes are also designed to be safe and secure, with features such as burglar alarms and fire sprinklers.

A luxury home.

What else could you call a home that includes all of the above? Each of our single family homes has attached double car garages, full basement, and a finished second floor. The homes are also designed to be safe and secure, with features such as burglar alarms and fire sprinklers.

A safe home.

Part of the beauty of our homes is the Villages to that it's built to be safe. We have a state-of-the-art fire alarm system that includes fire detectors, fire extinguishers, and fire escape routes. We also have a burglar alarm system that includes motion detectors, door and window sensors, and a central alarm station.

The Villages

A Hovnanian's successful community for almost 52 years.

Builder sees turnaround in construction industry

Philip Frank, president of the Home Corporation of New Jersey, said today that he expects a turnaround in the construction industry in the next few months. He said that the industry has been in a state of decline for some time, but that he believes it is now beginning to recover. He pointed to several factors that he believes are contributing to this recovery, including a decline in interest rates and a general improvement in the economy. He also noted that the industry has been able to maintain a steady level of production despite the challenges it has faced.

Language of retirement Caprio leaving school post

Regional district programs, but because most are not "handicapped," as the concept of the district's constituent system.

Caprio, who has been in the district for 10 years, said he will leave the post at the end of the year. He has spent a summer in France as part of a study tour and will be in Europe for the next few weeks.

Caprio's departure is being welcomed by many in the district. He has been a strong supporter of the language courses and has worked hard to get them established.

Caprio has been a member of the district's executive committee and has been instrumental in many of the district's programs.

Caprio's last day of work will be on May 31. He will be replaced by a new member of the district's executive committee.

Study planned on shared school services

Committee to be named by board

Plans to name a study committee in the next week to consider legal and other aspects of the request by St. James School for a variety of shared services with the public schools were announced Monday night by August Caprio, president of the Springfield Board of Education.

The "roll in" overflow audience of approximately 200 persons at the board meeting at the Raymond Chatham School that the committee will consider these board members and parents is expected to be a very busy one. The committee will be charged with the task of studying the feasibility of shared services with the public schools. The committee will be named by the board in the next week.
