'Feasible and prudent' key concepts in Rt. 78 decision

Members of the board included the transportation department concerned with Rt. 78, including the Office of Community Involvement, Bureau of Environmental Analysis, Division of Transportation Systems Planning, and the Division of Design, among others.

In summary, the spokesman said, "We cannot keep building more highways and expect mass transit to be effective." The committee has been protesting the completion of Interstate 78 because of its "adverse environmental impact on Watchung Reservation and the community, and the decline of the residential quality of Springfield and other nearby towns."

Environmentalists cite alternates to interstate

A spokesman for the Springfield Impact 78 Committee this week stated: "We are supporting the No Build alternative for Interstate 78, but this does not mean no action. We are instead suggesting a toll or bypass system to accommodate interstate travelers from points west into the Metropolitan area."

"The Impact-78 Committee in Springfield disputes the Union's contention and cites a study finding that by 1990 Rt. 78 will be unable to handle all the traffic attempting to use the interstate highway. Instead, the citizens' group recommends that existing 'bottleneck' interstate highways (Rt. 297 in particular) be used to bring traffic to and from New York City."

Lead poison clinic is established at Elizabeth hospital

A clinic to treat patients suffering from lead poisoning has been established at Elizabeth General Hospital. It was reported this week by George F. Billington, president.

"The establishment of the Lead Clinic" at Elizabeth General satisfies a particular need of residents of our service area, especially children," Billington said. "Since our hospital is a center for pediatrics, this was a natural addition to our services, and one which surveys showed to be badly needed."

"This is the only clinic of its kind in Union County, he noted. It is under the medical directorship of Dr. Norman Zanger, a pediatrician on the hospital's medical staff who has had extensive experience in caring for children suffering from lead poisoning.

"We can successfully treat a child for lead poisoning if we know about it soon enough," Dr. Zanger explained. "Once treatment is started, we ask the parents to bring the child back to the clinic so we can monitor the results of our treatment and determine whether the child is showing any signs of further exposure to lead. If untreated, lead poisoning can lead to permanent brain damage and, in severe cases, death."

To eliminate the source of the lead and to help educate parents in the causes and prevention of lead poisoning, the hospital works closely with public health authorities. A public health nurse from the Department of Health, Welfare, and Housing of Elizabeth attends each clinic session to coordinate efforts between the hospital and the city.

"While many people think that peeling paint with a high level of lead, when eaten by children, is a cause of lead poisoning," stated Dr. Zanger, "there are other sources, such as lead-contaminated fumes from car exhausts and industrial plants."

The most of the patients treated for lead poisoning are between the ages of 1 and 6, the period of greatest risk. They are referred to the hospital by physicians, public health nurses, school officials, and others. All residents in the Union County area are eligible for services at the lead clinic.

Those who wish to make an appointment or obtain additional information about the clinic may call the hospital at 293-6600, Ext. 380.

Commissioner John J. Horn of the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry was the speaker at the United Way of Union County Labor Participating Dinner last Thursday at the Town and Campus Restaurant, Union.

Horn was appointed commissioner four weeks ago. He resigned as State Senator and as District Director of the United Hub Workers of America, AFL-CIO, on assuming his duties with the Department. He was chairman of the Senate Standing Committee for Transportation and Communications.

United Way President R.L. Weeks, a vice-president of Exxon Research & Engineering Company, told the group of industrial labor leaders from AFL-CIO, Teamsters, and UAW Locals that employee contributions to United Way had increased 94 percent since 1969 when it was organized.

"Some of this remarkable achievement can certainly be attributed to labor's involvement in the United Way drive," Weeks said.

Mrs. Dell Baudelinas, executive director of United Way, said that this year United Way's all over Union County effort to raise $27 million from employers, corporations, local business and residents. The drive benefits 78 non-profit voluntary service agencies.

Mozzoni was presented by Freeholder John Molozzi and Carl "Spider" Lockhart told the audience of more than 200 people amusing incidents in his football career with the New York Giants.

"Driving becomes more hazardous as daylight hours grow shorter," John H. Hughes, acting executive director for the New Jersey Highway Authority cautioned motorists as he launched the 15th annual "Lights On, Please" campaign this week on the Garden State Parkway.

"The greatest danger to Garden State Parkway motorists occurs when we go off Daylight Saving Time to Eastern Standard Time and shorten the day by another hour," said Hughes.

"This year, the changeover to Eastern Standard time takes place Sunday at 2 a.m. Our campaign to alert drivers to the early darkness driving began with a program of special signs and leaflets.

"All toll plazas and attended entrance ramps will have "Lights On, Please" signs warning motorists to switch their lights on early."

Visits scheduled for recycling van

Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Co. will send its van to the parking lot of The Two Guys in Union four times next month to collect aluminum. The van will be at the stores from 10 to 11 a.m. Wednesday and at the same time Nov. 10, 17 and 24.

During the first nine months of this year, the company paid out $5,900 to individuals and organizations who sponsored aluminum collection drives.

A total of 172,000 pounds of aluminum was turned in for recycling during the period. Reynolds pays 15 cents a pound for such items as aluminum cans, pie plates, foil trays and containers, aluminum siding, gutters, storm door and window frames and furniture tubing. Items must be cut into lengths of less than three feet.

Divorce is subject at EVE workshop

Dr. Marcela Hanam of Short Hills, director of counseling and psychological services at Kean College of New Jersey, is the instructor for the "EVE" workshop—"Dealing With Divorce," which is being offered again this fall by EVE—Women's Center at Kean College of New Jersey in Union.

This afternoon workshop, which begins on Tuesday evening, Nov. 4, from 7 to 9 p.m., will give women and men who are facing or who have experienced divorce a chance to explore their feelings about the breakup of a family.

The fee is $40. For information, readers may call the EVE office at 377-2216.

Photo history of county to be presented Nov. 17

"Portrait of a County"—a photographic history of Union County—will be presented to the public by the county Cultural and Heritage Programs Advisory Board Wednesday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. in the Union County Court House rooms, Broad Street, Elizabeth. The occasion, marking the elimination of the project begun two years ago, will include a program of reminiscences and music, followed by a reception in the rotunda. The new publication of the board, "Union County Almanac," will be released.

The Board, a county agency supported by the Board of Chosen Freeholders, serves all residents of Union County through its cultural and heritage programs. At the Nov. 17 meeting, the Board will honor municipal liaison representatives, Bicentennial chairman, members of Bicentennial Committees and those who shared in the preparation of "Union County Almanac" and "Portrait of a County." Board member Zara Cohan, professor of Fine Arts at Kean College, developed the program when a cache of old photographs was discovered in the courthouse. After an exhibition of these pictures in the rotunda, each community gathered pictures and held a month-long exhibition, beginning in February and concluding in July 1976. Bicentennial chairman and municipal liaison representatives, in each municipality, cooperated with local libraries to collect material and mount exhibitions. The Board provided plastic frames and technical assistance.

The personal exhibition of "Portrait of a County" in the Court House rotunda contains photographs from all 21 municipalities in the county. Historical vignettes and photographs also are featured in the "Union County Almanac," a 32-page booklet written by Sid Frank of Springfield. Frank wrote the lyrics for "Gears, Wheels, Jers," "Jokes" and a new musical about North Carolina.

Many of the photographs in the new publication are the graphic arts of the Elizabeth Public Library, Exxon Research and Engineering, Sen-Land Corp., and private collectors. They were under the direction of Martin Holloway, Kean College Fine Arts Department, assisted by James Rednitz and other students of the graphic arts.

Copies of "Union County Almanac" will be available free at the Nov. 17 public celebration and following-the release, at the County Courthouse, the public libraries in Union County and the Cultural and Heritage Programs Advisory Board, Mackay Library, Cranford, 272-146.

NEW LEADER—Dr. Harbert W. Smanfield, right, of Scotch Plains, turns over gavel and duties of president of the American Cancer Society's Union County Unit to Irving F. Sturm of Roselle. In County Unit, he is trustee and the counsel of the New Jersey Division of the ACS.

'Carousel' to open at Kean on Nov. 12

"CAROUSEL," the musical directed by Dr. Jason Toran, assistant professor of Theater at Kean College, will open Friday, Nov. 12, at the Eugene Willis Theatre of Kean College, Union.

Set in Maine in the 1880's, "Carousel" is the story of carnival Barker Billy Blechman and Julie Jordan, the girl he eventually marries. The play depicts a community of colorful New England characters. Songs include "If I Loved You," "June Is Just Like This," "It's All Over" and the famous "Soliloquy" ("My Boy Bill").

The production is being directed by Dr. Jason Toran, assistant professor of Theater at Kean College. Among those in the cast are Wendy Wright of Linden, and Karen Maher and Rosalie Wylazowski of Roselle.

Members of band in 14 communities

Fourteen New Jersey communities are represented in the Municipal Band sponsored by the Union Township Recreation Department.

The band, which rehearses from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. each Monday at the Recreation Center, 881 Sycamore Ave., Union, is still looking for more members, according to Ken Pickett, director. There are openings in the clarinet, saxophone, baritone, horn and trumpet sections, he said.

Among those playing with the band are residents of Kenilworth, Linden, Elizabeth, Westfield, Colonia, New Providence, Rahway, Cranford, Watchung, Edison, Fanwood, Warren and Hackettstown as well as Union. Anyone interested may call the Union Recreation Department at 684-2936.

Book festival lists varied attractions

A community Jewish book festival, the largest event of its kind ever planned in the Metropolitan New Jersey area, will be held at the YM-YWHA at Metropolitan New Jersey, 700 Northfield Ave., West Orange, from Nov. 13 through 21.

Distinguished actors, scholars and authors will present a variety of programs for adults, teenagers and children during the nine days of the book festival, which will offer an extensive book sale, a multi-media essay, family story telling hours, book reviews, mini courses and other events. The event is co-sponsored by more than 25 organizations in conjunction with the Adult and Family Services Dept. of the Y. All events of the festival will take place at the YM-YWHA. There is an admission fee for some events. For more information, readers may call 726-2226, ext. 64.

Halloween film offering

As a special Halloween presentation, the Science and Technology Department of the Elizabeth Public Library will show the motion picture, "The Fall of the House of Usher," Saturday at 7:30 a.m. based on the story by Edgar Allan Poe. The film features Vincent Price as Roderick Usher, a man obsessed by his fears and his desire to destroy the evils created by his ancestors—even at the cost of his sister's life. A visitor to the house attempts to save both Roderick Usher and his sister from destruction.

The motion picture will be presented at the Elizabeth Public Library, For further information, readers may contact the Science and Technology Department, 354-6060, Ext. 712.

Marriage still thriving

Contrary to some opinion, marriage is still a going proposition in this country. More than two million marriages took place last year, many of them remarriages. According to government statistics, the average lifetime span for men is 74 years and for women 78 years. This is less than a generation ago when it was 55 for men and 62 for women.

Mrs. Bayh to talk at Cancer Society weekend meeting

Marvella Bayh, wife of Senator Birch Bayh of Indiana, will be the featured speaker at the annual Volunteer Conference of the American Cancer Society's New Jersey Division Saturday and Sunday at the Chalfonte-Haddon Hall Hotel, Atlantic City. Mrs. Bayh, who underwent breast cancer surgery five years ago earlier this month, served as ACS National Cancer Crusade Chairman in 1974.

More than 250 volunteers representing Public Education and Cancer Crusade efforts in the New Jersey Division's 21 county units will participate in the conference's workshop sessions. Awards also will be presented to county units for outstanding achievements in the areas of education and fundraising.

Dr. Donald H. Loria is directing a study to further define the incidence of cancer in New Jersey since statistics of the period from 1958-69 showed the state to have the highest death rate in the nation due to some types of cancer.

Modern dancers booked at Mei Y

Rosalind Newman and Dancers, a young modern dance company that has received critical acclaim throughout the country, will appear at the Mei YWA of Metropolitan New Jersey, 78 Northfield Ave., West Orange, on Wednesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m.

The Newman dance group will be the first of five that will perform at the Mei Y as part of the Festival of the Arts Dance Series. The Dance Series is funded in part by a grant from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts in cooperation with the National Endowment for the Arts.

A teacher and choreographer as well as dancer, Rosalind Newman has instructed both children and adults in modern dance technique, composition and improvisation in several universities and dance centers in the United States.

VFW head addresses post meeting in area

R. D. "Bulldog" Smith, who was elected commander-in-chief of the VFW at its national convention in August, addressed a meeting of Irvington Post 1941 Tuesday.

He spoke on the membership campaign, veterans benefits and legislation and the coming elections.

He also presented concerts of her own choreography in New York and throughout the country, at the Paris International Dance Festival, the American Dance Festival, and the Wolf Trap Dance Festival.

Thespians gather at Upsala College for drama festival

For the second straight year New Jersey high schools and professional talent will join hands on the campus of Upsala College, East Orange, on Dec. 8, 9 and 10 for a three-day drama festival designed to help improve the quality of high school drama in New Jersey.

Upsala's drama department, sponsor of the event, is inviting high school drama groups to present scenes from plays—musicals and non-musicals no more than 20 minutes in length. At the end of each day a panel of professional playwrights, actors, directors and media drama critics will give constructive, critical appraisal of each performance.

Last year's festival drew more than 25 high schools from Bergen-to-Camden Counties and the panelists included many professionals from the Broadway stage. Upsala drama professor Robert Marozzo said the idea was conceived not only to give high school students a rare chance to be appraised by professional talent, but to give them an opportunity to see what others are doing.

"Most high school performances are staged before parents and friends," said Marozzo. "This will give actors and actresses an opportunity to perform before professionals who will look at the plays objectively and who will give honest and frank appraisals."

The programs will be given at Upsala's Workshop 90 Theatre, starting at 9:30 a.m. each day and continuing until late afternoon. Free lunch will be given to all participants (actors, directors and technicians) in the Upsala College Center and complimentary tickets will be given to all participants who wish to attend the college's production of "Steambath" that night.

The deadline for applications is Monday, Nov. 15, and they will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Further information may be obtained by contacting Ms. June Puffer, Upsala special events coordinator, at 266-7183.

ACS gets record donations with aid from Legionnaires

Contributors to the 1976 Cancer Crusade totaled $7,725,000—the highest amount in the 31-year history of the American Cancer Society's New Jersey Division. Contributing to the total were more than 480,000 raised by members of the American Legion who joined in this year's Crusade to support cancer research.

The 1976 Cancer Crusade Committee was headed by Arthur C. Fried of Westfield, public relations director of the Blue Cross of New Jersey. Frank D. Ricciardi of Jersey City, commander of the New Jersey Department of the American Legion during the fund drive, served as honorary crusade chairman.

More than half a million dollars was allocated this year by the National ACS to research projects in New Jersey. A major recipient is the Department of Biomedical Sciences at Princeton University. Others receiving ACS grants are the Institute for Medical Research in Camden, the New Jersey College of Medicine and Dentistry in Newark and the Rutgers Medical School.

Forty percent of the funds raised within each state go to the national organization, which screens research applications and allocates grants to the most promising. Research funds allocated nationwide this year by the ACS exceeded $23,000,000. The American Legion's special research drive contributed more than one million dollars to allocations for 1977. Legion contributions in New Jersey were the highest per capita in the nation.

In addition to supporting research, the American Cancer Society provides funds for the service and rehabilitation of cancer patients, as well as funding public and professional education programs.

Last year, nearly 12,000 patients were assisted with services costing $233,000. In addition, scholarships were provided for medical technicians undertaking special training for treating cancer patients. Persons who have undergone surgery for breast, throat and colon-rectal cancer also were assisted in their recovery through rehabilitation therapy. In developing professional education

40,000 teachers to attend sessions in Atlantic City

The New Jersey Education Association Convention, which annually draws some 40,000 teachers to its hundreds of meetings in Convention Hall and surrounding hotels, will be held for three days starting Thursday, Nov. 4, in Atlantic City.

The Convention will have three general sessions in Convention Hall. State Education Commissioner Fred Burke and civil rights leader Jesse Jackson will address the first general session Thursday evening. NJEA President Judith M. Owens and humorist Art Buchwald will be featured at the Friday afternoon general session. Gov. Brendan Byrne will highlight the Friday evening general session, which also will include a special presentation to State Sen. Wayne Dumont Jr.

NJEA will present meetings on to critical issues over the first two days of the Convention. The issues include "Thorough and Efficient Education," "Discipline," "Reading," "Affirmative Action," "Testing," "Basic Skills," "Urban Schools," and "SAT Scores."

NJEA's policy-making Delegate Assembly convenes on opening day at Haddon Hall Hotel to consider proposals from NJEA's committee system and from the membership.

In addition, the convention program includes hundreds of seminars and meetings on subjects ranging from specifics such as the teaching of math, science, and reading to such special interests as bilingual education and women in education.

As in past years, the convention will include a number of clinics intended to upgrade the instructional skill of teachers, especially beginners experiencing classroom problems. Another cluster of seminars will seek to spread innovative teaching ideas. At a third series of meetings, educational publishers will arrange presentations by the authors of new textbooks.

The convention will conclude with the annual concert of the All-State Chorus and Orchestra at 8 p.m. Saturday in the ballroom of Convention Hall.

Film, discussion on divorce tonight

"Chris and Bernie," a documentary about two working, divorced mothers, will be shown at the first meeting tonight of the Archdiocese of Newark's Ministry to Divorced Catholics. The free public program will begin at 8 p.m. in St. Elizabeth's Church Hall, East Blackec street, Linden.

The Rev. Regis Wallace, associate pastor of the Linden church and regional moderator of the ministry in the Elizabeth-Linden area, said a panel discussion will follow the film, which deals with the hopes and frustrations that attend broken marriages.

"The program will prove to be a fascinating and helpful one for all single parents," said Father Wallace. "One of the most devastating problems of broken marriages is the emotional survival of the children. Our program will explore this difficulty in total candor."

Also participating in the program will be the Rev. Edgar Holden, archdiocesan director of the Ministry to Divorced Catholics.

Boat distress-call relay guide set up

GOVERNORS ISLAND, over CB frequencies and N.Y.—Guidelines have been relayed to the Coast Guard, set by the Third Coast Guard District, Third District groups that monitor "Citizen Band" (CB) radio for the purpose of relaying boating distress information.

The Coast Guard has established an extensive network of radio transmitting and receiving stations on the VHF-FM marine mobile band. Coverage, in general, extends up to 20 miles offshore and includes complete coverage of large waterways such as Long Island Sound and Delaware Bay. The service maintains a continuous watch on channel 16 (156.8 MHz), the international distress and calling frequency.

"While we do not encourage the use of Citizen Band frequencies for marine distress traffic, we are obligated in the interest of safety to respond to boating distress reports broadcast on this frequency."

To serve as an interface between the Citizen Radio Service and the Coast Guard, an organization should be equipped with a VHF-FM 16 (156.8 MHz), the international distress and calling frequency.

"While we do not encourage the use of Citizen Band frequencies for marine distress traffic, we are obligated in the interest of safety to respond to boating distress reports broadcast on this frequency."

Ad Council speakers available

Speakers on the American economic system will soon be available. In interested groups throughout the country through the joint efforts of the Advertising Council and the stock brokerage firm of E.F. Hutton and Co.

Requests for speakers will be coordinated by the council's newly formed National Speakers Bureau. Hutton will provide financial and economic experts to discuss the general economic matters such as inflation, taxes, employment trends, investments and the council's American Economic System Campaign.

Launched earlier this year in an effort to increase public understanding of the American economic system, the campaign has stimulated requests for speakers by hundreds of schools, clubs, study groups and similar organizations.

Through the Speakers Bureau, talks of varying length and original will be available, as will printed material, including a 24-page booklet titled "The American Economic System...and your part in it." A special feature of this presentation will be chance to ask questions of the speaker.

Speakers for the Advertising Council suggest that interested readers may contact Joe Hutton, 1 Battery Park Plaza, New York, 10004, at (212) 742-5900 or Susan Turner, at Ad Council headquarters, 825 Third Ave., New York, 10022.

Consumer prices up

Prices paid by consumers for goods and services in the New York-Northeast New Jersey area rose 0.6 percent in September, it was reported this week by Herbert Gold, regional commissioner of the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Seasonally adjusted, the index edged up 0.2 percent between August and September.

Gold noted that the increase averaging 0.3 percent during the July-September quarter compared favorably with average monthly increases of 0.5 percent in the preceding three months and rises in line with an average monthly rise of 0.3 percent during the first quarter of the year.

Cook show back on TV

"Freside Kitchen" with Dorothy Connolly returns to New Jersey Public Television on Sunday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m.

The series on Colonial cooking, customs and folklore will air for seven consecutive Sundays on Channels 50 and 51.

Each segment is set at a different historic house or location in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, including Dey Mansion in Washington Crossing Park in New Jersey, Mechlin's Tavern in the Thompson-Nesley House in Waterloo Village, Greenwich, and St. Thomas of Alexandria Episcopal Church in Pittstown.

Seminar slated on cholesterol

"Lowering cholesterol—the why and the how" is the subject of a day-long symposium sponsored by the College of Medicine Office of Continuing Education and the Center for Coronary Risk Factor Control, also at CMD-NJ.

The seminar will be held next Wednesday at the Sheraton Heights Hotel, Easton, N.J., from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is open to primary care and cardiac care physicians and dietitians. Six points will be awarded to participants by the AMA, AAFP and ADA.

Late TD pass upsets Millburn, 16-10; Dayton 3-2; visits Verona Saturday

By MICHAEL PETRO
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School football team pulled a dramatic come-from-behind rally and defeated the Millburn Millers 16-10, last Saturday in Springfield.

The Dayton Bulldogs, who are now 3-2, will face Verona in an away game this Saturday.

The first half of the game was marred by errors and penalties as both teams failed to score. The Bulldogs gave the ball away four times while Millburn coughed it up twice.

Linebacker Joe Ragucci pulled down an interception on Dayton's 20 in the first quarter and ran it to the 24, but the effort was wasted as Millburn intercepted the ball five plays later.

On the same drive, tackle Bruce Wernberg recovered a Millburn fumble on Dayton's 28 yard line to kill a Millburn drive. But on the next play the Bulldogs fumbled the ball away and Millburn recovered on the 33.

Millburn marched to the 20 where they attempted a field goal after failing to get the first down. But Brian McNary burst through the defense and blocked the kick to keep the game scoreless. The half ended with neither team scoring.

The second half was different. Millburn, taking the ball on their 40, marched down to the three-yard line in five plays, and runningback Chris Buckley took it in for the score. The extra point was good and Millburn led, 7-0.

The Millers scored again on their next possession, this time on a 36 yard field goal which increased the lead to 10-0. Things looked bleak for the Bulldogs.

But just before the third quarter ended, Brian McNary returned a kickoff 60 yards to Millburn's 45. Dayton now began to move.

Highlighted by runs of six and 14 yards, Bryant Burke moved the Bulldogs to the 17 yard line where, on a third down play, he and tight end Brian Holloway with a pass in the end zone for a touchdown. A two-point conversion pass to Holloway was good, and Dayton had cut the lead to 10-8.

Time was fast ticking down on Dayton, though Millburn had the ball with less than two minutes to play after a Bulldog drive had failed. But a fumble recovery by linebacker Don Lasuardi gave Dayton the ball on Millburn's 46. On the very next play Burke hit Stidler with the pass that gave Dayton the victory.

Catch Dayton's other said the team played very well in the second half. "The first half we gave the ball away four times. But in the second half we finally began to play better."

The defense played exceptionally well. Led by Steve Pope and Don Lasuardi who recorded 18 tackles each, the Bulldogs forced numerous Millburn turnovers, who eventually led to Dayton's victory.

Other defensive starters were Pete Rosomondo and Mark Miller at ends, Bob Ventura at tackle, Don Lasuardi, Joe Ragucci, Skip Ragucci and Keith Owen at linebackers; Brian McNary and Dave Flood at halfbacks.

The offense, once it got going, was almost unstoppable. The starters included: Bob Conte and Andy Herklotz at tackles, Joe Ragucci and Skip Liguori at guards, Don Lasuardi at center, Brandon Gambles and Teddy Fawkes who ran for 62 yards at halfbacks and Brian McNary at flanker.

quarter comeback by Dayton, which had been losing 10-0.

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School gymnastics team whipped Cranford and Batin of Elizabeth last week, bringing Coach Nancy Dougherty's gymnasts to a 6-3 record—the best ever for the team.

The Dayton women will visit a highly ranked Millburn squad tomorrow and travel to Gov. Livingston in Berkeley Heights on Tuesday.

They scored 75.45 points against Cranford, winning by a margin of 8.15 and taking first place in all four events. Moira Hattin won top honors in floor exercises with a score of 7.7. Jill Lipton led in the uneven parallel bars with 7.25. Barbara Calanuso outdistanced everyone with 6.95 on the balance beam, and Carol Wingard led in vaulting with 7.4.

The Dayton squad whipped Batin, 77.65 to 30.7, sweeping the top three places in all four events. Coach Dougherty said that only a few falls kept the gymnasts from setting a team record; they did chalk up their second highest tally of the year. The winning margin was their largest ever.

Top scorers were Hattin, 7.35 in the floor exercises and 7.25 on the balance beam; Lipton, 6.85 on the bars; and Wingard, 7.3 in the vaulting.

Booters outscored 10-2 in three straight defeats

By MIKE MEIXNER
The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School varsity soccer team dropped three decisive last week, falling to Verona, 4-0, to West Orange, 3-0, and to Parsippany, 3-2. With a record of 1-7-4, the Bulldogs will play Madison away today. New Providence at home on Monday and Summit away on Wednesday.

Verona handed the Bulldogs their worst shutout of the year with a whitewash despite the determined Dayton effort. Despite the score, line performances were registered by fullback Mike Wittberg and Mike French, halfback John Frick and lineman Rich Weinberg. Sid Kaufman sparked in the nets.

The 3-0 loss at West Orange was marred by a series of injuries to Coach Arthur Krupp's booters. Joe Sangregorio hurt his ankle. Kaufman broke his nose, which was a severe blow to the defensive efforts—Junior Jay Hanigan moved into the goal, however, and responded by shutting out West Orange for the remainder of the game.

Matt Ross and Jeff Scholz helped Hanigan with the defense, and Ed McCaine and Alan Layton led the offensive charge.

Controversial officiating had a major influence in the 3-2 defeat at Parsippany. The Bulldogs lost four of their better players—Mike Meskin, goalie Shindler and halfback Galtman. Steve Galtman, Jim Week, Jeff Labash and Chris Shields also played well.

Jim Knobel scored the only goal for either side at West Orange, crossing from the left corner for his first tally of the year. The defense was flawless, sparked by fullback Meskin, goalie Shindler and halfback Galtman. The JV's then traveled to Parsippany, where they were swamped by a four-goal sledge on a small field. The home team scored twice before Dave Weinberg blasted in the first Dayton score. The Bulldogs then fell behind, 4-1, before fullback Mike Meyerer left a blower from behind midfield. It floated over the outstretched arm of the Parsippany goalie for the final score of 4-2.

With the team playing for the second day in a row, reserves saw more action than usual. Top performances came from Ilium Frank, Shaffer and Pat Knobel, halfbacks Don Jeka and Bob Schneider and fullback Dave Barnes. Luis Mayorga excelled on the front line.

The JV's now have a record of 5-5-2. The freshman booters, coached by Tony Falzone, have compiled a 5-4 record. Key men have been Billy Rose and Tim Harrison on the attack and Joe Huber, Ed Drummond and Billy Ward on the defense.

Gymnasts top two opponents for 6-3 mark

Soccer freshmen will be honored at awards dinner

The freshman soccer team of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School will be feted in recognition of their hard work, dedication and application at a privately hosted awards dinner to be held following their last season game Wednesday. Toastmaster for the affair will be a local William J. Burns.

The 20 member squad, led by Coach Tony Falzone and encouraged by their three managers, started off the season with winning efforts in their first two encounters. The initial defeat came at the hands of a strong New Providence club, a game marred by penalties. Coming off that defeat, they faced a powerhouse in Summit. The opening minutes of that clash saw seasoned goalie, Joe Huber, talent out of action with a head injury.

Reserve Warren—made a mighty effort—but Springfield fell to Summit's last offense, 4-0. For the first time in the season falling to get on the scoreboard.

Bouncing back after arduous practice sessions the Orange Tide beat Summit for a second time. A Friday victory against a normally strong Summit proved costly as center halfback Paul Jaska received a leg injury which has kept him sidelined to date. Playing against Verona on Tuesday without the services of Jaska, Dayton's leading scorer, Kerry Lesjauer, lost 1-0. Despite an all out squad effort on Thursday Springfield suffered defeat at the hands of West Orange, another game marred by penalties.

Still remaining on the schedule are games against Caldwell, New Providence and Summit. The team is working hard and determined to end the season with a winning record. Presently, they are 1-7-4.

22-Thursday, October 28, 1976-SPRINGFIELD (N.J.) LEADER Players can meet college recruiters

The top 100 scholastic players in the state have been invited to attend the third annual New Jersey Football All-Star dinner Nov. 29 at the Pines Manor, Elstun. Guest speaker will be Frank Harris, head coach at Rutgers.

The players, selected by football writers, will be guests at the dinner, with Theodosios, head coach at Plainfield and dinner chairman, said.

The athletes will have a chance to meet with college representatives who attend the affair. The interviews with the college recruiters begin at 11 a.m. The dinner starts at 7 p.m. The first round of interviews will be presented to the all-stars.

More information may be obtained by contacting Theodosios at 1316 Marlborough Ave., Plainfield 07008 (telephone 753-1822).

Boxing program honors Fusari Springfield holds opponent to zero yardage in 0-0 tie

The fourth annual Maxie Fisher-Lou Halper Memorial NJAAU boxing exhibition will be held Monday in the Hillside High School gymnasium. The event is sponsored by the Maxie Fisher Foundation and the NJAAU. The first bouts begin at 8 p.m.

Charlie Fusari will be honored at the event. He had a total of 92 bouts, eight amateur and 84 pro bouts. When Fusari turned professional in 1944, he took 44 consecutive bouts before dropping to Tony Pelone. In a return bout, Fusari KO'ed Pelone. He was the New Jersey State champion in 1947, 48 and 49 and fought for the world championship against the immortal Sugar Ray Robinson and Johnny Bratton in losing decisions.

Dave Halper of Elizabeth is the coordinator of the event and tickets may be purchased at Halper Brothers, 502 York St., Elizabeth or by calling 555-6006. Tickets may also be obtained by calling Approved Travel, 5 Westfield Ave., Roselle Park, 241-6806. High school students are asked to call Glen Goldstein at 551-9178.

Great Smokies' haze akin to city smog Chemist claims pine stands release terpene

Question: How do the Great Smoky Mountains, towering over remote corners of North Carolina and Tennessee, and New York City, choked with cars and trucks, resemble each other?

Answer: Both are typically overkill by similar chemicals, even though you think you are breathing invigorating fresh air in the Smokies and foul and dirty air in the city.

Dr. Seymour T. Zelenchek is one of a relatively small group of analysts who have been investigating the problem of identifying and understanding air pollutants as a contribution to the overall problem of how to improve air quality.

THE IDEA THAT THE HAZE over forests and lush industrial smog were similar was spawned about 15 years ago. As the current explanation goes, the molecules of substances dispersed into the atmosphere join together to form larger groups (chemists say they form "polymers") which become particles. These particles, when large enough, become heavier than air and settle to the ground. One estimate of the amount of such material deposited on the world is "many hundreds of millions, or even several billions" of tons each year.

Dr. Zelenchek points out that many different "research people" have confirmed in separate studies the similarity of the processes that produce haze in the forests and smog from automobile exhaust products.

A surplus of uranium... Uranium is probably the world's most abundant nuclear metal. Other include thorium, beryllium, niobium and tantalum, caesium and rubidium, and rare earths. Development of nuclear power and its related industries has expanded the search for the production of these various metals, although at the present time there is a surplus of production of uranium.

Motorists warned to watch for deer

This is the time of the year when New Jersey motorists should use extra caution to avoid collisions with deer, the state Division of Fish, Game, and Shellfisheries said this week. During the fall, deer cross roads often since they are on the move during their normal rutting period. Human activity is high in the woods, and dogs frequently disturb the deer. Drivers must always be alert for more than one deer as they often travel in groups.

Deer-car accidents are hazardous and expensive, even to owners of fully insured autos. And, such accidents often result in a waste of a high-priced natural resource. The division advises motorists to slow down on rural roads and watch for the warning of "deer area" signs.

The membership of the association consists of certified public accountants and public accountants who have qualified themselves through statewide examination to be licensed by the State Board of Certified Public Accountants as registered municipal accountants or a public school account.

Can we afford four more years without effective leadership?

There is a critical decision to be made on November 2nd. It goes far beyond the question of which Presidential candidate can govern with integrity and honesty. We must determine which candidate has the ability and strength to lead our country out of economic chaos, and the vision to see that all Americans—not just the powerful and influential—have a better future.

During the past two years, the middle class has paid far too dear a price for a President lacking that ability. Since Gerald Ford took office, the unemployment rate has risen 50%, from 5.5% for 5 million people, to 7.9% for 17-1/2 million jobless Americans.

Today's inflation rate of 6% is higher than it was at any time between the Federal government the most bloated, confused, wasteful bureaucracy ever created. There's no way to get an answer out of Washington and no way to understand what's going on there. We need to reorganize completely the executive branch of government, making it fair, efficient, effective, and responsive to our people's needs.

Jimmy Carter has the strength to take charge of our government. If you are tired of paying the high price of Republican ineffectiveness, you have only one choice on November 2nd, and that choice is for change.

Vote for JIMMY CARTER. A leader, for a change.

Public TV forum series to discuss aspects of equality in American life

Aspects of equality in American life will be examined during November in a television documentary and a series of public forums arranged by New Jersey Public Television. The film, "Equality in the 20th Year," will be shown on Channel 28 Nov. 3 at 8 p.m., Nov. 7 at 3 p.m., Nov. 24 at 8 p.m. and Nov. 26 at 2 p.m.

The television special will kick off four public forums. The first three will tackle, separately, race equality, sex equality and economic equality. The fourth forum will be a general discussion. All of the forums will be taped and broadcast on Wednesdays, Nov. 10 and 17 and Dec. 1 and 8, at 8 p.m., with repeats on the following Sundays at 3 p.m.

Willed Beckel, dean of the Rutgers University Law School in Newark, will be moderator for the forums. The first forum will be held Nov. 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Ocean County College, Toms River. On Nov. 7 at 7:30 p.m. race equality will be the subject at the First Presbyterian Church of Montclair. The Walt Whitman Poetry Center in Camden will be the location for the forum on economic equality, Nov. 24 at 7:30 p.m. The fourth forum will be held Dec. 1 at 8 p.m. in the New Jersey Public Television studio in Trenton.

The documentary film was conceived by Kenneth Stein and filmed by Visionaries, an independent filmmaking company, for New Jersey Public Television. Previous collaborative efforts, "Work, Work, Work," won the Silver Hugo Award at last year's Chicago International Film Festival. It was produced for New Jersey Public Television.

Paul Buck and Art Crocco, the principals of Visionaries, began filming "Equality in the 20th Year" last year. The film was shot in New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia and Missouri. They visited the East White Commune in Missouri and found it a "utopian" society.

Mr. Carter has the strength to take charge of our government. If you are tired of paying the high price of Republican ineffectiveness, you have only one choice on November 2nd, and that choice is for change.

Springfield Democrats celebrate local victory with champagne toasts. The Democrats lost narrowly in the 13th and 20th districts in the 4th, always a citadel of Republicanism—but party veteran Yale Greenbaum, posting totals on the wall commented, "We haven't won; we've just lost."

County park commissioners criticize Route 78 planners

The Union County Park Commission, in a resolution critical of the N.J. Department of Transportation's draft environmental impact statement for construction of Rt. 78, declared last week that "the integrity of the Watching Reservation is not to be violated."

HEADING DOWNTOWN—This is how Morris Avenue looked, facing west from Springfield Avenue, about 1910, with tracks of the Trolley line running from Elizabeth to Morristown. The second building on the right was the Springfield Post Office during the 1890s.

78 percent of registered cast ballots. Ruocco wins here but loses in county. Democrats Robert Wetchek and Nat Stokes won reelection to the Springfield Township Committee Tuesday by a margin of more than 600 votes over Republicans Jerry Cohen and James J. Senter Jr. At the same time, however, Republican President Jerry Ford won locally by more than 250 votes over Democrat Jimmy Carter.

Springfield Democrats celebrate local victory with champagne toasts

Champagne was flowing in an Avon road recreation room Tuesday night as Democrats Robert Wetchek and Nat Stokes learned the dimensions of their victory, but the mood was quiet, tempered by the realization that Jimmy Carter was losing in Springfield by 250 votes. District statistics began arriving within 15 minutes after the polls closed at 8. The first news from two Republican strongholds, Districts 3 and 2, and the two Democrats lost in each by only 20 votes.

THIS MAP of Springfield voting districts is presented to help in understanding the election tabulations printed elsewhere on this page. Districts 1, 3, 4 and 5 are traditionally Republican; Districts 6, 9, 10, 11 and 12 are usually Democratic. Results of the municipal election are usually determined in the swing districts—2, 7 and 13. The pivot this year could be District 6, with its heavy concentration of apartment developments.

County park commissioners criticize Route 78 planners

The report said that although the tunnel alignment is the most costly and "somewhat unorthodox," it will "provide the required roadway link with inalterable impacts to the Watching Reservation. Further study may even result in a minimization of these impacts which are presently associated with the alignment."

GOP loses 'uphill battle' but pledges to continue

Supporters of Springfield's Republican candidates for Township Committee thought this might be the year they "would do it," but shortly after the polls closed at 8 p.m. Tuesday it was apparent that they had failed in their bid to unseat their incumbent opponents. "We started out as newcomers," said James J. Senter Jr., who garnered 3,404 votes. "We knew it was an uphill battle, but we were confident and we were going to win."

Mayor's gavel goes to Rajoppi

Springfield in the coming year will have its first woman mayor, according to Stanley J. Rajoppi, the town's Democratic incumbent. "I am pleased to add the party workers celebrating the victory of Township Committee incumbents Robert Wetchek and Nat Stokes. You have also elected Mayor Rajoppi for 1977."

Library to screen 'Count' next week

The Friends of the Springfield Public Library will present the original screen version of "The Count of Monte Cristo" in the meeting room of the library Wednesday at 8 p.m.
