benefits waiting week is waived

Unemployed workers in New Jersey, who have or are filing claims for memployment insurance benefits will be compensated for the first week of nent because of action taken by John J. Horn, acting rommissioner of the N.J. Department of Labor and Industry, at the direction of Governor

Brendan Byrne.

"Our standard procedure requires that there be a waiting week before a claimant begins to earn benefits. This waiting week is now being waived and workers will receive their full schedule. benefits by these new procedures.

At the urging of state labor union officials, including representatives of the State AFL-CIO, the auto workers, and the building trades, Governor Byrne recommended to Commissioner

Horn that the waiting week be waived. He said, "In addition to the waiving of the waiting week directive, I have in-structed our local unemployment of ices to remain open in the evenings ar on Saturdays, as necessary, to handle the avalanche of claims we are now receiving Every effort will be made to expedite claims of the unemployed workers and to insure that they will not have to stand outside our local offices in

In the early days of capitalism, the work of socialization took place largely in the family. The patriarchal family, in which the father's authority was inquestioned, was responsible not only or imparting ethical norms - standards of right and wrong — but also for instructing the child in the prevailing social rules. It thus served as the primary agency for shaping the child's character.

The capitalist made little effort interfere with this central position of the family. He attempted to supervise his workers' lives on the job, but his control ended when the workers left the factory at closing time. Only a handful of employers in the early 20th century understood that the success of the mass production economy now required, not-only the capitalistic organization of production, but the organization of consumption and leisure as well. recognize the need for a new kind of social education for the young was Edward A: Filene, the Boston depart-

MAKING GOVERNMENT WORK We hear so much these days that government and officeholders have nothing to contribute to the wellbeing of our society that I think it is important to the society that I think it is important to th take note of the things that prove government can and does work. The vast majority of the laws which come out of Congress are designed for for the good of the people. But they are exercises in futility if, after they go on the books, their purposes are not fully carried out due to administrative incompetence or neglect. ## A roben Letter item the Bresident of United Counties Trust Company

UNITED COUNTIES TRUST COMPANY

The Executive Order recently issued by Governor Byrne to cope with the present energy crisis will dramatically affect the economy and every resident of the State of New Jersey. Alread several thousand companies have had to close or substantially curtail normal business activities because of fuel shortages.

The officers of United Counties Trust Company recognize that the lives of many customers will suffer because of forced unemployment or loss of income. We sincerely hope this emergency will be of short duration.

In keeping with the Governor's dictum, we have announced banking hours at our 29 offices which we hope will result in a minimum of inconvenience to our customers. We are concerned, however, about the prospect of more serious problems which may face borrowers whose incomes have been affected. If our present emergency has created a worrisome payment situation for you, we extend a "warm" invitation to come in and discuss the problem. Please call the appropriate number below, and we'll do all we can to help you make any necessary adjustments. Even if you are not a customer, we would like the opportunity to assist you are not a customer, we would like the opportunity to assist you in this time of emergency. We assure you we will be understanding and helpful.

Very sincerely.

Seniors given two deductions

James J. Pennestri, director of the State Division on Aging, has been informed by the State Division on Taxation that many senior citizens over Taxation that many senior citizens overage 65 are filing State tax returns without taking advantage of the double deduction to which they are entitled. Pennestri said people are not checking off the regular deduction to which they are entitled as well as the over age-65 deduction and therefore are listing a claim for only one deduction instead of two.

Any seniors who have claimed only one deduction by checking the one "over age 65" block may correct the omission by filing a correct return clearly marked "amended" and by checking both Item 5 for the regular deduction and Item 6 for the over 65 deduction and listing the number of deductions in Item 12 as 2. Seniors filing joint returns where both are over 65 would claim a total of four deductions
