

Fire department cools rent ordinance hearing

More than 1,000 persons appeared at Springfield Township Committee meeting Tuesday night, for the first hearing on an amendment to the rent leveling ordinance, but the hearing was postponed after the fire department said the packed courtroom, hallways and stairwells presented a health hazard.

The hearing has been rescheduled for Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Mountain Avenue.

At Tuesday night's meeting in the Municipal Building, the angry residents began shouting "no" and "we came for rent control, we want to be heard at the mayor and committee meeting after the postponement was announced by Mayor Robert Wehbeck.

"You know there was going to be a big crowd," shouted one woman from the audience. "We'll remember this when it's time to vote," she added.

"We are not trying to bury this (the rent leveling ordinance amendment," Mayor Robert Wehbeck said. "The only way we can hold a meeting is if it is an orderly meeting," said Committee Chairman Stanley Kaish, at the end of the hearing.

Residents continued to shout down Township Committee after the hearing was adjourned.

There was a tremendous sense of outrage when the tenants heard about the amendment, Kaish said.

He said she received a letter dated April 19 from the Township Committee informing her of the public hearing on the ordinance. She sent a letter to all Summit Hill tenants urging them to "protest this completely unanticipated and cordial meeting."

Most Springfield tenant's organizations were represented at the meeting, Kaish said.

The amendment raised the ceiling on rent increases from the 2 1/2 percent to 5 percent. The ordinance also allows a 9 percent increase. The rent increase will be determined by a formula based on adjustments in a landlord's operating costs, taxes, utilities and fuel prices. It was modeled after a formula used in Fort Lee and was chosen by the Township Committee as candidates for the June 3 primary election.

"I'm not a landlord," said Dr. Pearl Leff, president of the Summit Hill Tenants Association. "I'm a tenant and I'm not going to support this ordinance because it would prevent apartment buildings from being converted to condominiums."

During the public hearing of the ordinance, Kaish asked questions about the amendment and made suggestions about the upcoming meeting.

Linda Aliza of Evergreen Gardens asked the Township Committee to sponsor the amendment and was told it was not going to be sponsored. Kaish introduced it, but the committee voted unanimously to support it.

In other business, the Township Committee passed a resolution concerning the completion of Route 78 through the Watchung Reservation.

A resolution opposing the sale of the Hardsville Quarry's 20-acre tract on Shampike Road and Mountain Avenue, 15 1/2 miles from the Department of Transportation's 1979 plan, was passed unanimously by the Township Committee. The quarry would be used by the Hardsville Quarry as a source of aggregate material and as a source of aggregate during construction of the Route 78 right-of-way.

The Hardsville Quarry had developed a comprehensive plan for the development of the land for single- and multi-family housing last year. It also had approved the plan, which would include construction of housing there, which is critically needed, the resolution stated.

Portuguese included in Heritage Festival

EDITORS NOTE—International Heritage Day on June 22 at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School will feature ethnic food, dancing and arts and crafts from some of the cultures which helped settle North America. The event is part of the Heritage of Springfield weekend which includes a parade through Union, Springfield and Millburn June 21 and a 20th anniversary re-enactment of the Battle of Springfield on Meisel Field, Springfield, June 22.

This is the first of a series of stories about the history and culture of some of the ethnic groups which will be represented at the International Heritage Day Festival.

Portuguese dancing, arts and crafts and foods such as codfish cakes, coconut cups and sponge cake will be displayed at the International Heritage Day Festival, according to Laura Cunha, chairperson of the Portuguese delegation.

Portuguese explorers set sail from the mainland in the early part of the 15th Century and eventually reached the uninhabited islands of Madeira, Azores and Cape Verde. That was the beginning of an extensive Portuguese maritime exploration, conducted under the direction of Prince Henry the Navigator, according to

Township Committee hopefuls GOP—Condon, Horn Dems—Kaish, Cieri

Ray Condon and Herbert Horn were chosen last week by the local Republican screening committee as candidates for the Township Committee in the November general election. Today is the filing deadline for the June 3 primary elections.

Condon, a GOP candidate for Township Committee last year, is an account executive for New Jersey Bell. He and his wife, Phyllis, are nine-year residents of Springfield and have two daughters, 12-year-old Kimberly and nine-year-old Lara. Both attend Springfield schools.

Condon is a long-time member of the Jaycees and served as president of the Jaycees, 1974-1975. He was selected among the top 19 presidents of local Jaycees in the state.

He served as county vice-president for the Jaycees, 1975-1976 and he was chosen as the outstanding district vice-president in New Jersey. In 1976-77, Condon was chosen as director for the U.S. Jaycees for Union and Somerset counties. He also was chosen as the outstanding director among all New Jersey counties.

Condon is a member of the Springfield Temple Beth Ahm and the Temple of the Holy Spirit. He is also a member of the New Jersey Bell Pioneer.

His wife is a part-time medical assistant at the Suburban Medical Group in Fairwood. She also is a member of the Springfield JTA and a member of the Springfield Library. The couple has fund-raisers for Muscular Dystrophy, the American Cancer Society, and other charitable efforts.

The other candidate, Horn, is an industrial real estate salesman with Louis Schlesinger & Co. in Cliffwood and his wife, Marilyn, have a son, Salvatore, 13, and a daughter, Dorothy, 10.

Parents of the Year by United Synagogue Youth and Kadima Youth groups.

Mrs. Horn is a part-time secretary at Congregation Beth Shalom of Union. She is vice president of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Ahm and a member of the temple's work force.

President of the temple's Men's Club, he also has been justice, recording secretary and treasurer of the program, and vice president of administration of the club. The Horns were named "Parents of the Year" by United Synagogue Youth and Kadima Youth groups.

Electron in the Township Committee in November 1977. Kaish was also a member of the executive committee of the Union County Democratic Organization and served as chairman of the township Board of Adjustment for two years. He was mayor last year.

Kaish and his wife Lina have two sons, Harvey, a sophomore at Brandeis University, and Steven, a junior at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

A former member of the Temple Beth Ahm Religious School Board, Kaish also is a former trustee of Springfield's B'nai B'rith Lodge. He was an Army officer, stationed in Europe.

Kaish holds degrees from Cornell

University, the University of Pennsylvania and New York University.

The other Democratic candidate, Cieri, and his wife Loretta have lived in Springfield for 25 years. His son Bill is a graduate of the local school system and is an employee of the federal government. Cieri is a sales executive with the Hamant Macaroni Corp.

Kaish was elected to the Township Committee in November 1977. He was mayor his first year and serves on the Board of Health.

He is public works commissioner. Cieri is an officer of the Knights of Columbus, Springfield chapter.

A former member of the township Board of Adjustment, Cieri also is chairman of the Springfield Democratic Organization.

Cieri is an officer of the Springfield chapter of Olney and Lewis St. James (Ethnan Catholic) Church. He served with the Army in the Pacific during World War II.

Cieri served as a campaign manager in 1968, 1971 and 1974 for Edward Fanning, Joseph Ruppberg, Nat Stokes and Bob Wehbeck.

Board denies nine new school pacts

By SAM PINNELL

The Springfield Board of Education Monday night voted to terminate the controversial nine non-tenured teachers for the 1980-81 school year. Dr. Fred Baruchin, superintendent of schools, emphasized at the meeting that all or most of the teachers may be rehired but, in compliance with state law, must be notified by April 30 of the terminations to prevent the board from being obligated to employ them.

The 1980-81 budget is predicated on a reduction in staff of five teachers, Baruchin said. If the five vacancies occur through attrition and if certain state and federal funds are renewed, the rehiring can occur.

According to Seymour Margolles, board attorney, non-tenured teachers must be notified that they will not be re-employed for the following year by April 30, or the board has to re-employ them. "If you don't terminate them now, they can't be terminated," he said.

The nine teachers are Janet Frank, James Hubbard, Sandra Mannes, Barbara Johnson, Mark Kinosh, Peter May, Lynn Michaels, Marilyn Schneider and Mildred Tolnessen. The nine are all the non-tenured teachers in the district, Baruchin said after the meeting, and the nine were terminated to cover all contingencies.

In a related matter, the board accepted the resignation of Geraldine Remus, sixth-grade humanities teacher at the Florence Gustafson School, effective at the end of the school year.

Baruchin also reported that state permission to charge for certain summer school courses may not be granted to the board. Schools are allowed to charge for courses not related to the regular curriculum but the superintendent said the courses apparently are being deemed related. The board, however, had not planned to receive the money. Summer school offerings still are contingent on enrollment, he said.

In other business, the board voted to continue a resolution adopted by the Chesterfield Board of Education requesting "more equitable criteria for determining and verifying the district of residence" of students in state facilities. A recent state law requires districts to pay the tuition of students from their districts in state facilities as correctional institutions.

Baruchin said often the district of residence cannot be verified and the district in which the facilities are located must pay the tuition. Chesterfield has two correctional institutes. Springfield currently has no students in such facilities.

In financial matters, the board accepted a bid of $53,377 from B.C. Maupin Inc. for work on heating and ventilation systems at Gustafson.

Baruchin also reported that the recent state mandating of a family life program, which includes sex education, will not have much effect on Springfield because its family life program meets the legal mandates.

Deadline near for registration

Springfield residents not registered to vote must do so by May 5 to be eligible to vote in the June 3 primary. Residents may register at the township clerk's office, first floor of the Municipal Building on 57 Mountain Avenue, Room 1, 2 and 5 from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., Tuesday.

The office also will be open regular hours, 8 a.m. through 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, for registration. Springfield residents who are not registered are urged to do so, Buehler said.

SPRING FEVER—Ed Stein and Ricky Dultz, seniors at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, reach for a high-flying Pritchard during a luncheon game. 4 firefighters hurt in house blazes

Four Springfield firefighters were injured and one was hospitalized because of smoke inhalation during house fires on two consecutive days last week, Springfield fire officials reported.

Edward McNamy, 25, was admitted to Overlook Hospital with smoke inhalation injuries he sustained during an April 18 fire at 27 Pitt Road. He was released two days later, and was recuperating at home early this week. They were back at work this week, officials said.

The fire was started by an electrical light fixture and caused extensive damage to the kitchen, hallway, second floor and rafters to the wood frame home, fire officials said. The family now is living in a trailer supplied by their insurance company, officials said.

Firefighters arrived on the scene at 8:15 and were back to headquarters at 10:20 p.m. The fire was extinguished in about 20 minutes, but firefighters stayed to clean-up the charred structure, officials said.

The great earthquake of Nov. 1, 1775, caused more immigrants to move from Lisbon to Newport, Rhode Island. Some of the descendants of these immigrants became famous for writing, music and industry including computer hardware leader John Philip Sosa, writer John R. DosPassos and Revolutionary War hero Peter Francisco. James Lacey was another Portuguese who gained distinction by starting the industry of Castle soap, which was first made in Lisbon.

Springfield man killed

A 24-year-old Springfield man was fatally shot in the head in what police believe was a drug-related incident early Tuesday morning in New York City, Springfield police reported.

Richard Knowles, whose last reported address was on South Springfield Avenue, was killed with a .38-caliber handgun as he was sitting alone in the driver's seat of a car parked in Harlem at about 3:30 a.m., police said.

Knowles had a rifle in the car with him at the time of his death, which New York police said he had most likely fired at his killers.

New York police said they think Knowles was in Harlem to buy drugs, but no drugs were found in Knowles' car, Springfield police reported.

Knowles, who lived in Springfield all his life, was convicted of six violations of drug laws during the past several years, Springfield police said. He had drug-related cases pending in Union and Ocean County courts at the time of his death, according to police.

Knowles was a graduate of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

Sandmeier School sets sign-up deadline

The deadline is next Thursday for applications from Springfield parents who want their three-year-old children to attend prekindergarten with communication handicapped kids at the Thelma Sandmeier School next September. The prekindergarten is part of the nationally publicized DYDEE (Dear Youngsters Deserve Early Education) project. Springfield parents have been so eager to get their normal-hearing children into Dydee that a lottery is used to give all a chance, according to Sandmeier School Principal William Fallon.

Flea market set May 4

Rental spaces are available for a flea market planned by Springfield Historical Society Sunday, May 4, from 9 to 5 in the parking lot at the Morris Ave. on the corner of Springfield Avenue. The rental spaces equal to two car parking spaces are being offered to dealers as well as those who might like to display and sell items.

Car operation costs 21.2 cents per mile

The cost of owning and operating an average, intermediate-sized 1980 car is $3,176 a year, or 21.2 cents per mile, the New Jersey Automobile Club (AAA) reported today.

The AAA report, detailed in the motoring federation's new "Your Driving Costs" pamphlet, divided auto expenses into variable and fixed costs, explained Matthew J. Derham, club president.

Variable costs include gasoline and oil, 5.66 cents per mile; maintenance, 1.32 cents; and tires, 0.94 cents.

Fixed costs include insurance, $50 per year; license, registration and taxes, $82; depreciation, $1,033; and finance charges, $422.

Survey Driver, jogger must share road

Warmer weather means more joggers and more motorists to be captured, according to the New Jersey Automobile Club (AAA).

Derham suggests that motorists should be alert to joggers.

—Don't overdo your jogging to the point of exhaustion. When you're tired, you're no longer alert to traffic.

—Obey all traffic signals, signs and pavement markings.

—Be aware of drivers of the road. Remember to keep the edge line of the road to your right.

—During daylight hours, wear bright colored clothing, preferably with Day-Glow markings. In early morning or evening, wear reflective materials for visibility.

—Don't pick a course or time that conflicts with heavy traffic.

Cockroaches groom themselves to death

The war against cockroaches is producing some unexpected results. It was reported at a recent national meeting of the American Chemical Society.

The strategy of containing pesticides to ensure slow release to the environment and lowered toxicity to mammals, surprisingly has proved to be more effective against cockroaches than the same pesticide when applied in the conventional manner, said Dr. James R. Lowell of Parke-Davis, Inc., Fremont, Calif.

This result has been found with not only microencapsulated diazinon, but also with methyl parathion. Dr. Lowell and co-authors Gary D. Desjardis and Dr. Paul E. Wagner, Jr., have shown that diazinon-resistant cockroaches carrying a capsule on their face sprayed with a microencapsulated formulation of diazinon pick up capsules on their bodies. They ingest the capsules later in "grooming" themselves to remove foreign substances from their bodies.

"It is apparently the ingestion of the capsules containing diazinon which provides the localized dose producing stomach poison activity, rather than the contact activity associated with conventional formulations," Dr. Lowell said in a summary of the work. Lowell claims adding KNOX OUT, the capsule-diazinon formulation, has been available commercially for more than a year to fight cockroaches, silverfish, ants, and flies. The authors said. It exhibits lower oral and dermal toxicity to mammals compared with conventional formulations of diazinon, and is highly effective against cockroaches resistant to the conventional insecticides diazinon and malathion, as well as against "susceptible strains."

"The dermal or skin contact, toxicity is reduced by a factor of more than 8, and the oral toxicity is reduced by more than 16-fold by microencapsulation. This toxicity reduction is of obvious value for an insecticide used primarily inside dwellings and other inhabited buildings," the authors say in a summary of their report.

Tests demonstrated a reduced mortality after four days, and performance degraded substantially thereafter. KNOX OUT produced 93 percent mortality when cockroaches were placed on the treated surface eight weeks after application.

WITH GREATEST OF EASE—Jeff Knowles of the Dayton Regional High School track team clears the bar at 12 feet in the pole vault at the Union County relays.

4-0 boys' track team turns back Madison

The unbeaten Jonathan Dayton Regional High School boys' track team made Madison its third victim last Thursday, as 4-0.

Danny Domarasky placed second in the shot put and third in the discus. Matt Smith was third in the javelin. Anthony Cicelli, Paul Commarato, and Ed Francis swept the 100-meter dash. Cicelli and Francis went 1-2 in the 200 meters. In the 800-meter race, Jeff Knowles was first with Lou Salemy third. In the 1500-meter run, Keith Hanigan finished first and Adam Silverstein third. Paul Commarato, Cicelli and Smith swept the long jump. Commarato also won the high jump and Jeff Knowles was first in the pole vault.

Softballers top N. Providence in 21-18 game

Last Thursday, the Jonathan Dayton softball team outscored New Providence, 21-18 in 10 innings.

Dayton senior Theresa Young had seven RBI. Senior Jodi Gassaway had five. Junior Cathy Clark four and sophomore Linda Graziano went five for five. Clark was the winning pitcher.

Dayton later lost to a powerful Madison squad, 15-2.

The team's top hitters are Clark, Young and Gassaway with 580 averages. Sue Ellen Huelsing is (.438) and Linda Zook (.400). The team has been improving steadily and both players and coach are looking forward to the rest of the season, according to Coach Hope Valenti.

Millburn edges Dayton volleyballers

After losing to a strong Millburn team in the Jonathan Dayton volleyballers (2-1) return to action tomorrow against Benedictine.

Millburn, ranked sixth in the conference, defeated Dayton last Wednesday, 15-12 and 15-13. In the second game, time ran out with Dayton leading 15-12 and Millburn serving. The game was continued until one team led by two and Millburn scored three straight points to win.

Key players for the Bulldogs were junior defensive star Dorothy Sullivan and senior Terry Brand.

Coach Mike Fenton was pleased with his team's performance despite the loss. "It was their best team effort."

Soccer Scene

"Operation Soccer" goes into its second week. If you missed it last week or want to see it again, you can find out what we're doing.

Because Giorgio Chignaglo was greeted with boos in the Cosmos' home opener, I have asked you soccer fans to write me and tell me why you think Giorgio is being booed. If you think he does not deserve the bad reception, write and tell me so. Send your letters to: Bill Wild, in care of this newspaper, 1291 Pleasant Ave., Union N.J., 07083.

The only other information I would like to have is whether you became a soccer fan before or after the Cosmos moved to the Meadowlands and if you are over 16 years old.

The Union Lancer Midget team is still rolling in the "Innocence" games. Last Saturday, they defeated the Spadefinders, 19-0. It makes you wonder: how long will that team remain undefeated in spring?

Bulldog nine beaten by New Providence

The Jonathan Dayton varsity baseball team lost Thursday (1-4) to New Providence, 9-2. The Bulldogs' afternoon take on Millburn.

Dayton got only three hits against New Providence, two by sophomore Dave Crane and one by senior Tom Pollestrone, one and Crane, one.

Netters beat Roselle but lose to Millburn

For the third consecutive week, the Dayton varsity boys' tennis team split a pair of matches. Roselle, 3-2 and Dayton to Millburn 3-3, bringing their record to 3-3.

Alan Berlinger, at first singles, was defeated, 6-1, 6-1. Mark Dooley, at second singles, lost 6-3, 6-1. Dan Schlager, a promising sophomore, moved up to third singles.

Jeff Korina, defensive back of the football Giants, will conduct a racquetball/health clinic for those 18 and under May 10 at the Court House Racquetball Club, 30 Millburn Ave., Springfield.

Nine outlets have been designated to sell tickets for golf's No. 1 event: The Regency Bank in Springfield, Summit, and Elizabeth Trust Company in Summit, Heritage Bank in Morristown, United Jersey Bank in Garden State Plaza in Paramus, United Trustees Trust Company at Monmouth Mall in Fairton, and the following four branches of the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York City—Chase Manhattan Plaza, 410 Park Ave., Fifth Avenue and 40th Street, and 10 Rockefeller Plaza.

In addition, tickets may be purchased in person or by mail from Baltusall Golf Club.

Calwell tops Dayton golfers

The Jonathan Dayton Regional High School golf team suffered a disappointing 240-239 loss to Cidwell last week at the Mountain Edge Country Club.

Martin Swanson shot a 42 on the par-30 course. Tod Leonard shot a 45, Jay Davis 46, Ted August 52 and Frank Kelly 55.

The team will compete in a triangular match against Calwell and Union at Baltusall Golf Club.

WATER MAIN CLEANING NOTICE

SPRINGFIELD AREA

Periodically it is necessary for us to clear our water mains of a non-harmful sediment which has accumulated since our last "Housecleaning" program. The cleaning is accomplished by opening fire hydrants in an orderly progression from the original source of water. The main cleaning program is scheduled to begin April 28, 1980.

You may experience a temporary discoloration and loss of pressure in your water supply. It will be only for a short period of time. If you have any problem, call our office. Our number is 376-8800.

Thank you for your understanding during this period.

Senator's wife writes 'Woman of Courage'

By ROSE P. SIMON
The Springfield Public Library has the following titles among the books recently received:

WOMAN OF COURAGE
"Marvella," by Marvella Bayh with Mary Lynn Katz.

There are 11 many women who have had the spirit, the courage, the love and faith, to withstand a life punctuated with misdeeds, willfulness and tragedy. As a young girl brought up on an Oklahoma farm during the Depression, Marvella—popular and active in school politics—was destined to become a public speaker or to be involved in public life.

At a speaking contest in Chicago, she met the handsome, talented Birch Bayh. The attraction was mutual, they fell in love, married, and moved to his home in Indiana. During Birch's campaign for the State Legislature, they both survived an automobile accident.

Marvella's courage and tenacity were rewarded with honors. New responsibilities for her home and son Tom, Marvella plunged into the political stream with enthusiasm, writing Birch's speeches and speaking for his election later for the U.S. Senate. Marvella candidly tells of her deep involvement in her husband's career. In the denial of her own talents and desires, her overwhelming burdens and painful loneliness, their close friendship with the Johnsons, Kennedys and others. This new public life played havoc with her health, and her marriage, from time to time, but she never gave up. In addition, she led to combat the death of her mother, absorption in her adored father, the becoming an alcoholic and her own tragic losses. Her willpower to overcome all these placed her in a special niche.

ATTAINING CONTENTMENT
"The Path Through the Trees," by Christopher Miller.

When he was 19 in 1909, Christopher, son of A.A. Miller, of "Winner the Poet" fame, began to make choices for himself, in the process of becoming "his own man." He had been under the strong influence of his mathematical-minded father and his competent-headed mother, Timid, lacking confidence (the stammerer), he looked forward to a life of action when he left Cambridge for service with the Royal Engineers.

Our computerized eye exam assures you of the right prescription

Remember all those "divisive" decisions you had to make during your last eye test? Well, we now use a new "eye computer" in our office which makes the whole vision test easier, faster, and much more accurate. It was invented to test the NASA astronauts.

You simply look into the computer through a small window. Then, it instantly measures your eyes and prints out the calculations in "visual words" that you can understand. To schedule your computerized eye exam, please call or visit our office soon.

Call today for your appointment.

Hydrants cleaned

Elizabethtown Water Company has begun its annual hydrant-flushing program. In a five-week operation, water pipe residue is washed from lines throughout the water system.

In homes immediately around the hydrants, water may become temporarily discolored. This should not cause concern, said a company spokesman. The water is still potable and the discoloration disappears quickly.

Actually, spring hydrant-flushing prevents longer periods of discoloration that could occur when the heavy use of water increases its velocity through water mains, which is most likely during summer.

Working its way along the water system, Elizabethtown's night service crew will turn on hydrants for five to 30 minutes, flushing out the residue. To eliminate as possible a hazard to children, to reduce homeowner inconvenience and to avoid traffic delays, the company confines hydrant-flushing between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m.
