Pool fees are raised $10; '84 budget is project

By VICKI VREELAND
The Springfield Township Committee passed on final reading Tuesday night an ordinance to increase membership fees for the Springfield Pool by $10. The committee also introduced ordinances concerning the municipal budget.

General appropriations for the 1984 budget are projected at $5,500,000, along with $1,420,000 estimated for municipal capital improvements.

Proposed projects under capital improvements include: purchase of equipment, installation of lighting and parking meters to parking lots, reconstruction of streets and sidewalks, installation of a generator at Joanne Way; purchase of the Raymond Chisom School for municipal services, renovations for the municipal building and pool, and improvements for parks and playgrounds.

The major capital expense items provided are a new $700,000 fire truck, municipal building renovations anticipated at $300,000, street and sidewalk renovations for $400,000 and $80,000 to reinforce the apron of the municipal pool and to refinish the paddle ball courts. Stanley Kaish, councilman, said that the budget reflects a 24 percent tax increase. The estimated tax rate for property assessed at $50,000 will increase by $120.

The percentage breakdown of the budget is as follows: local school district, 1.18; regional school district, 1.65; county taxes, .87; and local purposes, .83. Kaish said the municipal portion of the budget went up 4c, while the county portion increased 8c. The committee introduced an ordinance to increase the cap for 1984 by 1.5 percent. The committee also bypassed by resolution the inclusion of two special items of revenue in the budget: the municipal pool, and interests earned on a revenue sharing fund.

The budget will be published in the March 29 issue of this paper. Final hearing on the budget will be conducted April 10.

Mayor Philip Feintuch proclaimed March as Red Cross Month and appealed to residents to support the Summit Area Red Cross. William Tuocco, committeeman, in a separate appeal, asked residents to donate time to the Springfield First Aid Squad which is in dire need of volunteers.

Residents from Rolling Rock Road and Chimney Ridge Drive presented the committee with additional suggestions to reduce traffic on Hill Circle. Roy Lobovitz asked the governing body to consider making left turns illegal onto Chisom Road. A "DO NOT ENTER" sign should be posted at Charles Road.

Ira Geller, the official towncrier, has devised recommendations he would like to see implemented at the municipal pool this season. Geller suggests that the pool remain open on weekends in September and that closing hours be expanded to 8:30 p.m.

He also suggested that hop scotch, cricket, croquet, and pitch and putt areas be designated.

Pimental wins silver for carpenter's skills

Joe Pimental, Jonathan Dayton's amateur carpenter, recently won second place in the New Jersey Vocational and Industrial Clubs of America Skill Olympics.

Pimental, a resident of Springfield with only a 1 1/2-year of woodshop training behind him, returned to Dayton bearing a silver medal.

Pimental represented the regional district as one of the 37 vocational programs entered in the competition. He was selected by his shop teacher, Edward Metz, as an "outstanding craftsman" and because of his classroom performance. Joe's personal reasons for competing were, "I wanted to test my knowledge and skills."

Participants in the "Cabinet Making-Mill Work" category, entered the competition blindly. The amateur woodcutters were not told what the assigned project would be, nor were they allowed to use power tools. They were originally assigned a four hour deadline to complete the project, but it was later extended a 1/2 hour.

Prior to the building competition at Mercer County Vocational School, the entrants were required to pass a skills test of identifying 10-15 types of joints. They were assigned blueprints to build a stool out of pinewood, using only hand tools. The students were judged on their accuracy, their ability to adhere to safety guidelines, and their construction skills.

Joe's shop class occupies three periods of his school day. Since the competition, he is considering going into the field following his graduation. Joe said it is an area, "that uses your brain," and where there is competition.

Metz said that the amount of time assigned for the project was so short, "that the students couldn't go into anything elaborate. The project was just a testing vehicle for their knowledge."

Stanley Grossman, director of vocational education services, said that this was the first year the district participated in the competition, and that he plans to make it an annual event.

Grossman also said that 100 percent of the members of the district's vocational programs belong to VICA.

Other district students who participated were: Cynthia Grossman, Donna Martini, Gian Savona, from David Brealley, and Tamir Scheinok, of Jonathan Dayton.

P.U.D. permits owner leeway for developing

The Springfield Planning Board has proposed a new zoning ordinance to permit a Planned Unit Development for a 32-acre tract of land off Route 22, Springfield.

T. Walter Kozub, township engineer, said that the P.U.D. would be the only major change in the township's updated zoning plan. Kozub said a planned unit development allows a landowner a certain amount of leeway for developing the land.

Kozub said the zoning ordinance originated with the planning board after a year's discussion. According to Kozub, the owner on record of the property is Bamberg's and Alexander's department stores, however, he believes the ownership will soon change to a local developer.

The planning board has recommended the ordinance to the township committee who renders final adoption.

In other planning board business, the owners of the Echo Plaza Shopping Mall, Paragon Enterprises, have requested approval to construct an office building on the property's parking lot. The owners also applied to refurbish the mall's store fronts.

The Planning Board is still hearing the application.

Three are charged for drug possession

Three persons were arrested on various drug charges last week when police observed their vehicle driving erratically on Route 22. Together, the occupants had suspected cocaine, marijuana, and pills in their vehicle.

The three Plainfield residents, Carol Nelson, the driver, 24, Shawn Harvey, 23, and Ellie Jones, 26, were all charged with possession of 37 Infol packets, which police suspect to be cocaine, possession of marijuana, and possession of a controlled dangerous substance.

Harvey and Jones were charged with possession with intent to distribute. Nelson was charged with possession of drugs in a motor vehicle. Patrolmen Steven Stock and Judd Leventon made the arrest at midnight last Tuesday.

More drugs were confiscated the following night when Patrolman Leventon stopped three out-of-state persons in a vehicle on Route 22. The Virginia residents were charged with possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of open alcoholic beverages in a motor vehicle, and possession of under 25 grams of marijuana.

In addition, James Finley, 20, was charged with possession of an unlawful weapon; David Hughes, 29, was charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance. The other occupant, Dawn Curry, 21, had a total of three charges filed against her.

The three were released on their own recognizance.

In a special session of municipal court Thursday night, John Lesofski, 51, of Skyway Road, was found guilty of having a suspended vehicle registration. Lesofski also pleaded guilty to allowing an unlicensed driver to operate a vehicle. Judge Malcolm Bohrod, presiding, imposed $700 in fines.

David Leach, 36, of Summit, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol and refusal to take a breathalyzer test. For each charge, Leach received a six-month driver's revocation and a $250 fine.

Diane Pisano, 26, of Toms River, formerly of Springfield, pleaded guilty to driving with a suspended license. She was fined $765.

During municipal court Monday night, Joanne Tubito, of Union, pleaded guilty to having an open alcoholic beverage in her vehicle. Tubito was fined $15.

Thomas Rieder, 57, of New York, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was fined $265 and received a six-month license revocation.

Thomas Rieder, 57, of New York, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was fined $265 and received a six-month license revocation.

A Kenilworth man has filed a complaint against Patrolman Ivan Shapow on grounds of bodily injury and harassment. Ronald Cera, 21 South 11th Street, stated in the complaint that Shapow, "grabbed his hair, twisted his arms, and pushed him into a wall."

Cera was arrested in January and charged with physically interfering with a police officer carrying out his duties and simple assault of a police officer.

The township committee has retained an attorney for Shapow's defense.

Cataldo is guilty of violating district policy

Anthony Cataldo, an ex-psychologist for the Union County Regional Board of Education District 1, has been found guilty of violating district policy in 1981. Administrative Law Judge Stephen Weiss made the decision March 2, concluding three years of deliberations.

Judge Weiss found Cataldo guilty of discussing confidential child study team findings with parents and students; refusing to make his own findings available to other study team members, and allowing students to visit him without proper passes and to smoke in his office.

Cataldo was suspended while a psychologist at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School, Clark. He was originally dismissed by an administrative law judge in March, 1982 and paid a stipend and dismissal settlement in May, however, the acting state commissioner of education ruled that a further hearing should be held.

A series of court actions followed, involving State Education Commissioner Saul Cooperman and the state board of education. Cataldo's salary settlement is still being debated.

Dr. Donald Merachnik, commented, "This has been a very long involved litigation." Merachnik, like other staff members, testified in the hearings.

In Springfield Municipal Court, Cataldo has filed a complaint against Dr. Merachnik (see representative of the school board) for not being compensated. Judge Malcolm Bohrod, who reserved his ruling until the outcome of the latest administrative law action, is expected to rule shortly on whether or not the case will be heard in municipal court.

Taxes will have to be increased due to regional school shortfall

A $772,494 shortage in state educational aid due the Union County Regional High School District No. 1 at full enrollment levels will require residents of six communities to make up the difference in tax levies next year.

Anticipated categorical aid was not provided as expected. Transportation and vocational education aid were short by more than $50,000.

The residents of the Regional District will be asked to approve the budget of $2,339,055 for the 1984-85 school year on April 3. The amount reflects an increase of 1.16 percent over the current budget.

However, according to Harold Burdgo, the Regional District's Board Secretary, the local property tax levy needed to support the new budget increases by 5.24 percent, or $1,055,937 over the current budget. The amount to be raised by taxation is $1,882,575.

A complex state imposed formula determines the percentage share of regional taxes paid by each community. Garwood benefits by this formula by paying only 5.03 percent of the budget even though 7.66 percent of the Regional District's student population comes from that town. Kenilworth also benefits by this formula by paying only 12.67 percent of the total tax levy even though 14.78 of the Regional High School student population comes from Kenilworth.

As a result of a larger percentage share of Regional High School enrollments coming from Garwood and Kenilworth, as well as the serious reduction in antedated state aid, they will experience tax increases of seven and 11 points, respectively.

Lynch said due to new criminal scientific techniques that were not available two years ago, police have taken another look at the case. New investigators have also been assigned to provide a fresh outlook.

Objects found at the scene of the murder have been examined by laser light. The results have convinced police that they have "definitive physical evidence" to link the killer to the murder.

Authorities are convinced that they have determined the motive in the stabbing murder of Sylvia Karlsberg in her Springfield home two years ago.

Lieutenant Raymond Lynch, head of the major crimes unit of the Union County Prosecutor's office said recently that, "Investigators are on the right track. We are looking closely at some people."

The motive for Karlsberg's murder had police baffled for two years. Until one could be established the case remained open, but with few leads.

Lynch said in the past two months, the investigation has become, "very intense." "Upwards of 40 people have been interviewed, and some were not the original people questioned."

AWARD WINNER—Jonathan Dayton Regional High School's Joe Pimental shows skills during recent industrial arts class. Pimental recently won silver medal in statewide competition for his work. Candidates night set March 26

SPRINGFIELD—An open forum for Springfield Board of Education candidates, sponsored jointly by the PTA's and the League of Women Voters, will be held Monday, March 26, in the Gaudineer School girls' gym, at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting will give each of the six candidates, vying for three positions on the school board, a chance to make position statements and to answer questions from the audience. The candidates are Elaine Apter, Lee Eisen, Ken Palaganian, Edna P. Packer, Dr. Richard Laciari, and Elizabeth Simpson-Fritzen.

In addition to the Candidates Night, the PTA's and LWV are preparing a candidate information sheet. It will be distributed free through the local schools, the library, and the senior citizens center next week.

Battlelines are drawn

The battlelines have been drawn for the Springfield Board of Education election on April 3. With three seats open, there are three candidates from the C.A.U.S.E. faction and three candidates from the C.A.R.E. faction. Since the present count gives C.A.U.S.E. a 5-4 majority, obviously just a slight swing in the voting could dramatically change the direction of the board.

What we find interesting is that of the six candidates, they are all affiliated with either one of the two groups. It is analogous to Republicans vs. Democrats. The only problem we have with that is, unlike general elections, the board of education election is "supposed" to be above politics.

In most towns, concerned people just run for the board of education. There is no label put on them; they are not representing a specific group. Candidates do not have to get on "party lines" to run for office.

However, that almost seems to be the case in Springfield. It is hard to believe there are no "independents" in this election. There were three of these non-affiliated candidates last year, but they all lost.

We believe the township is worse off not having any "independents" on the April 3 ballot. There are three seats vacant, but only two choices.

Hitting them so it hurts

Sometimes the only way to make a point is to hit a person where it hurts: in the pocketbook. And it looks like that is just what the New Jersey Division of Motor Vehicles has in mind.

Effective this week, thousands of drunk drivers will receive notices that they must pay $1,000 by the time their renewal is due, or they will lose their license. The $1,000 is officially referred to as a "surcharge". But it really is a stiff penalty that just might make more than a few drivers cold sober.

We applaud the state's effort to crack down on drunk drivers and force them to pay dearly for their illegal, reprehensible behavior. The surcharge affects all who have been convicted and charged since Jan. 1, 1983. Besides making the offenders of the past year pay up (and, hopefully, wise up) it should make those who were charged before the effective date feel fortunate and not commit the same crime again.

Drunk drivers are like moving time bombs. Without warning, they can ruin people's lives.

Just to charge a drunk driver with points, or the threat of revoking a license, has proven not to be enough of a deterrent. Putting a hole in somebody's pocketbook just might turn out to be the most effective penalty possible.

Studies have shown that many drunk drivers are repeaters. As the law now stands, offenders will also have to pay $1,000 for each additional conviction. That's a good start, but we would like to see it go a little further.

For each repeat offense, the fine should be doubled. Now that would definitely hurt the pocketbook.

Letter to the editor

Sets the record straight

In a letter to the editor last week, one individual used a catch phrase, "church and state," to entitle a local rabbi for expressing his First Amendment right of speech. It is truly sad that people who do not understand what our Constitution and laws provide are so ready to mislead them.

Separation of church and state deals with keeping freedom of religious choice separated from state rule. The First Amendment to the Constitution (and here some would argue that it is not only numbered first, but it is first in importance) allows individuals the right of freedom of expression. In the instant case, the rabbi is to be applauded for wanting people to be informed.

Scene around the towns

This week's Scene around the towns, above, is a worm's-eye view of a presently little-used location in Union. If you recognize it, let us hear from you by 9 p.m. Monday. Write to Scene, in care of this paper, P.O. Box 3109, 1291 Stuyvesant Ave., Union 07083.

We received three correct responses to last week's Scene, at all three, each a resident of Springfield.

recognized it as the memorial statue in front of the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield on Church Hill.

Two readers, Barbara Reitsnyder and Stephanie Ruelle, both noted that the area where the statue stands is the smallest state park in New Jersey. The former added that "I am very proud to be a member of the church." All three, Stephanie, a 15-year-old, noted, "I used to attend this church and went to nursery school right down the street."

Reader John Dahmen called last week's Scene "a piece of cake."

"I see it almost every day," he explained, "when I cruise by with my friend driving. He didn't recognize it because he's usually watching the road."

Letters to the editor

'New heights'

Sometime in December I voiced an opinion through this newspaper that education would suffer as a result of political infighting about the Springfield school system. The destruction of that school system has now been verified by the State of New Jersey.

The basic issue involved at the outset of the dispute was what school to close? The complexities of the issue now obscure the first dispute. Lawyers' fees, bodily threats, lawsuits are now added. The State of New Jersey has discovered that everybody was so busy arguing about the school system that it is now near death from too much attention to the real estate aspect. Have the feeling that more intense battles are about to come as C.A.R.E. and C.A.U.S.E. vie for power in this election. Both groups are now set to clash again, only this time I believe that the fure will play to new heights.

The present minority (C.A.R.E.) now smells blood because Springfield schools did not get certified. The C.A.U.S.E. general staff is using its political machine with demagoguery to refute the criticism of the State of New Jersey and C.A.R.E. May I offer this word of caution to C.A.R.E. leaders and candidates: C.A.U.S.E. is alive and kicking and unless a try at reconciliation is made, C.A.U.S.E. candidates will win again. The C.A.U.S.E. voters have been obligated by their leadership. The generals of C.A.U.S.E. will seek support from their followers for re-election on the basis that they have delivered on their promise of closing Walton. Their use of harsh tactics that has appealed to a certain group of their people. On election day they (C.A.U.S.E.) will drive the seniors to the polls as they have in the past to gain the votes of the older residents and in my opinion, they will play up the class differences in Springfield. Again, capitalizing on demographics.

Mr. Petino, Mr. Monaco, Mr. Gomes and Mr. Pepe are very formidable political opponents and state certification or not, unless C.A.R.E. approaches harmony instead of revenge and hostility, the metaphorical majority (C.A.U.S.E.) will govern the board again. C.A.R.E.'s main political appeal should be made to the politically apathetic to vote an election day, and certainly those college students who are away at school should receive absentee ballots. C.A.R.E. people must drive seniors to the polls just like C.A.U.S.E. workers do.

The "main event" — the school system battle is yet to come, for in this election, the ramifications of the outcome are too serious for all of us whose children attend public schools in town, or who own property in Springfield, to take lightly. Hostility and revenge are apparent in the letters to the editor of The Springfield Leader by C.A.R.E. and C.A.U.S.E. people alike. What is needed among the battling parties in Springfield is not the attitude of vengeance on the part of C.A.R.E. or the inability of C.A.U.S.E. voters to admit they made an error in electing people to the board who couldn't handle the job. Let C.A.U.S.E. pursue the political path they have pursued in the past and they are sure to be defeated, for people are not fools, they can see the damage. C.A.R.E. must realize that they are the home team, and will win just as many teams win, on the opponent's "errors."

Placing the blame

I have read with interest the recent editorials and letters attacking the current Board of Ed majority. I find it appalling how soon past members of the board forget the problems of dealing with the school system. I have lived in Springfield for many years, and for some time I have questioned the administrative capabilities of the chief school administrator.

Past boards have had problems with him, but no board has been able to deal with him until now. Yes, Springfield, the superintendent is responsible for the "through and efficient" education of our children. Years of neglect during his administration have finally been exposed. He is the paid administrator, $20,000 per year. He is responsible for planning, implementing and educating. He has failed.

The C.A.R.E. political group attacks the board rather than the superintendent because he testified on their behalf in the many court cases they have instituted against the board for their own political reasons. C.A.R.E. supporters know the superintendent is responsible, but they will overlook this "failure" if he supports their "position" against the board.

His educational plan was rejected by the county superintendent, he never applied for utilization of classrooms in the Sandimer and Caldwell Schools (these buildings have been used for years, but they have not been approved), he has staff working in positions for which they are not certified, he has allowed the buildings to fall apart due to a lack of a maintenance plan. The present board has tried to improve the buildings, new windows, new roof, new lights for the FMG Cafeteria (this was approved almost three years ago, and never implemented by the superintendent. Now it has been approved again by a total new board.)

It is time to place the blame where it belongs — with the superintendent. He is the paid administrator. It is his responsibility to support the board for which he works. Springfield's superintendent has never supported his board past or present. He has always been able to wear them down or create a smokescreen to cover his lack of implementation. Support this board. They are trying to make him work for a change. It's time he starts to earn the money we pay him as taxpayers.

C.A.R.E.'s strategy

The big lie: Recent letters to the editor by C.A.R.E. supporters contain the usual distortions, half-truths and insane hostility. They would have the public believe that the recent actions of the county superintendent reflect upon the quality of education Springfield students are receiving.

In truth, the education of our children was not a factor at all in the recommendation for decertification. Dr. Baruchin personally assured me that the possible decertification has nothing to do with the program or education that our children receive.

But the biggest untruth of the big lie is to criticize the C.A.U.S.E. board members for the expense accrued regarding the court actions initiated by C.A.R.E. The strains on multi-suits by C.A.R.E. One suit would have tested whether the Board of Education's actions were reasonable. The C.A.R.E. strategy is to disrupt the educational process as much as possible, cause dissension, create hostility and create an appearance of disorder as a means of achieving its own political ends.

— and the feigned outrage about the board — lawyers — in — attendance at meetings two and three at a time, arriving in chauffeur-driven limosines. In truth, the $3,300 a year paid as their retainer fee covers these services, no matter how many show up or how they get there.

— and the feigned outrage over the cost of a lunch while C.A.R.E.'s legal suits are costing our school system $162,000 in legal defense fees:

— their rudeness and bad manners at Board meetings have achieved the ultimate in bad taste. Observers at board meetings know that the C.A.U.S.E. majority have been subjected to relentless verbal abuse, name calling, and insults. The C.A.R.E. supporters participating in these abusive tactics now want Springfield to turn its educational system over to a group controlled by this type of mentality.

What started as a school closing controversy has evolved into divisiveness so deep that perhaps it will be years before the wounds are healed. Whether you like it or not, many people on both sides of town have heard rumors of ethnic slurs. They have no place in our lives, but unfortunately the rumors persist.

It is incumbent on all of the clergy in Springfield to address the issue. It is the role of every religious leader in our town to speak to their own congregations to put an end to this intolerable situation.

Our schools have obviously failed. Our school board cannot work together to correct the wrongs because they are philosophically divided. People in the town are angry at each other.

Perhaps the clergy can work together to help bring the people of Springfield together again. Just as it is the duty of the police to maintain law and order, it is the duty of every member of the clergy to maintain moral integrity.

Backs 'new majority'

At the last Board of Education meeting, I raised the question of what effect the loss of certification of our school system will have on us as Board President George Gomes. Mr. Gomes then took the opportunity to have our superintendent of schools, Dr. Baruchin, offer the answer.

There is an obvious attempt to placate me and the other 50 members of

Letter to the editor

Responding to letter

The "appall" which Peter Antonello professes toward me in his letter to the editor last week demands response. Mr. Antonello has seen fit to take me to task for selecting a member of my Temple, who represents one side of the school board controversy, to speak to my congregants on March 16.

This, Mr. Antonello suggests, is not only one-sided, but serves to exacerbate ethnic tensions in Springfield.

In my Temple, freedom of the pulpit is a privilege accorded to any of our members who is qualified to speak on a particular issue. In this case, the member serves the school board and is, thus, uniquely qualified to discuss the issues, albeit from his point of view.

Points of view come with the territory, since I have yet to meet a qualified speaker who is neutral in this controversy. Nor do I wish to create a school board meeting atmosphere of shouting and disrespect in my Temple, which almost certainly would be the case were both sides to meet on the same evening.

Nonetheless, had a member with opposing views requested the privilege to speak before our congregants, as had been the case for the March 16 program, I would have tried to accommodate that individual.

The ethnic tensions which I spoke of, came to my attention from Springfield school representatives when I first came to this community two years ago. I responded by speaking to our Religious School students of our heritage — demand for "tolerance and respect" for "people" of all faiths, backgrounds and viewpoints.

I also invited all Springfield ministers to a meeting with the school superintendent where the issues and tensions will be discussed in a constructive manner. Though only four religious leaders attended, I encouraged those who were absent to arrange another meeting.

Finally, I wrote to my own congregants, urging them not to seek alternatives to the public school system, to fully support Springfield's schools, regardless of personal views, and to find methods of healing the wounds created during the past years.

One last point: Mr. Antonello suggests that I have crossed the boundary of Church-State separation by discussing the controversial school board elections in my Temple. I am delighted to know that he shares my sensitivity to Church-State separation, particularly at a time when we are threatened by national legislation that would compromise its integrity.

But as much as I passionately support this cherished principle, so do I reserve my right to speak out about his or any other topic of significance to the community. No one has the credentials to tell me what is an appropriate or inappropriate subject to address from the pulpit.

Perhaps, if churches and synagogues had been more willing to exercise that right in the past, a greater degree of spiritual values might have prevented some of the more unfortunate chapters of our history.

Freedom of the pulpit is a right I will not compromise, even when it implies opinions I oppose. And, if that seems to challenge Church-State separation, Mr. Antonello, you're barking up the wrong tree.

CARE: Trying to add 'independent' voices

SPRINGFIELD—Springfield Board of Education candidates Dr. Richard Luciani, Ler Eisen, and Ken Faigenbaum met with Springfield residents recently to discuss the issues on the election.

Luciani said "The truth is that the state's failure to certify our school

CAUSE candidates take a look at the decertification of schools

SPRINGFIELD—In a statement released today concerning the recommendation by the County Superintendent to decertify the Springfield School District, the C.A.U.S.E. candidates say "the facts must be examined and shared with the concerned citizens of Springfield. Special attention must be given to where the responsibility for this situation belongs."

According to the statement, "Candidates Elaine Auer, Elizabeth Simpson-Fritzen, and Edward Franko have examined the documentation provided by the County office. After careful examination of the report, one item became clearly obvious: The three areas: Curriculum/Instruction, Student Attendance and Student Achievement on State Standard Tests all received acceptable ratings." Mrs. Auer commented, "This represents undoubted evidence that the educational program existing within the Springfield School District is sound."

The statement asks why the district was recommended for decertification. "Many of the elements cited in the report are superficial," stated Franko. "One example of this is the rating of the district unacceptable in the area of facilities primarily because of the failure of the Superintendent's Office to why we need a new majority — to stop C.A.U.S.E. from completely destroying the school system."

"I'm sure that C.A.U.S.E. will say that we want to spend taxpayers' money while they want to save it," stated Eisen. "We don't want to spend the taxpayers' money — we just want to operate a quality school system by spending the money wisely and efficiently. For example, the computer education program: computers were purchased last year and there were well thought-out plans for them. When it was time to buy software to make the program work C.A.U.S.E. took the money out of the budget. That's not fiscal responsibility, that's waste."

"They'll also say that we want to close Caldwell School — it's their favorite saying. No one wants to close Caldwell — that issue has been settled, it's not an issue anymore. Let's get past it to the real issue — quality education," concluded Eisen.

Incumbent Board Member Faigenbaum, said "They'll also tell you that we want to save tax dollars. Everybody wants to save tax dollars. I'm just asking the C.A.U.S.E. candidates 'How serious can you be about saving tax dollars after you spent a hundred thousand dollars' moving the Board Offices from Chisolm to Walton and finally to Gaudinier?"

"How serious can you be about saving tax dollars on lawyers fees. Fees that include chauffeur-driven limosines, Board Member lunches, and $120-an-hour for each lawyer to attend proceedings. That's $350 per hour just to have their lawyers sit and listening to their own witnesses testify in court."

Eisen added "I'm just pointing out that the campaign rhetoric broadcast by the C.A.U.S.E. candidates doesn't mention the real issues. It tries to disguise them by focusing on other things."

Luciani concluded, "We all know the issues. We need a new majority on the Board of Education to break the stranglehold that C.A.U.S.E. has on our school system."

not at the Board level.

"Boards of Education do not run school districts," stated Franko, a teacher and administrator for the past 14 years. "The school administrators, beginning with the Superintendent, are the key people, who determine the overall effectiveness of a school district."

The statement said, "an open channel of communication must exist between the school Board and the Administration as a means of guaranteeing a system that is conducive to developing and improving an effective learning environment."

According to the statement, of the 10 areas reviewed in the report, seven received a rating of unacceptable. Each of these areas has minimal, but recognizable impact on the overall educational program. The students are not suffering, but improvement is necessary within these seven areas. However, this improvement must originate at the Superintendent's office,

Social worker feted by group

Nancy Monti, Ph.D., of Roselle Park was named "Social Worker of the Year." Friday by the New Jersey Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) at the Holiday Inn, North Brunswick. Dr. Monti serves as the executive director of Catholic Community Services (CCS). Her social work career includes being a practitioner, supervisor and administrator.

The supervisor of Dr. Monti was appointed executive director of a Comprehensive Community-Mental Health Center, one of the first women in the state to achieve the position. As a leader and "outstanding advocate" in the social work community, Dr. Monti assigns priority to social action activity on behalf of those who are impoverished or disabled. She advocates for women's rights by her commitment and her example. Recognition of her expertise and knowledge of human services resulted in a non-political appointment to Gov. Thomas Kean's Transition Team "to evaluate and make recommendations for a smooth transition" of service delivery.

Recently, Gov. Kean appointed her to his Educational Leadership Commission, which, under the leadership of Rutgers University president Edward Brodnick, will conduct a "massive study and evaluation of the public school systems in New Jersey."

Bill Goodman's AIR WAVES

NBC found itself in a peculiar situation over the weekend. They billed it as a "Championship Weekend" showing conference title basketball games from the ACC and SEC. But NBC knows, as well as everyone watching, that the conference tournaments were merely a prelude to the NCAA's. And for the next three weeks, the NCAA tournament was going to be on CBS. So, in essence, NBC was promoting an event that was going to be on CBS.

During the early weekend rounds, however, the tournament belongs to ESPN. The 22-hour sports network (business news is shown 6-9 a.m. weekdays) televised five preliminary round games consecutively Tuesday night and will show a half-dozen tilts tonight and again tomorrow night. Throw in reruns, there will be little else but NCAA basketball on ESPN for hours.

CBS should change its priorities at the outset of golf coverage. The network spends the first several minutes of a broadcast introducing its staff, and giving closeups of the holes. But the most important thing is the leader board. Give us the update of the players' standings, and then do the obligatory stuff. Who's covering the 15th hole is not as important as what Nicklaus is shooting.

Sometimes the unexpected, or shortening of a scheduled event can lead to better programming than what is planned. After Mark Medel knocked out Earl Hargrove in four rounds Sunday on NBC, the network, with time on its hands, ran some interesting features which wouldn't have seen the light of the air waves if not for the early knockout.

Registration under way for spring soccer league... The Youth Soccer Association is entering its fifth season of play, making it one of the most successful of the YMCA sports leagues in the area. Sportsmanship, participation and fair play is the emphasis of this instructional league; there are no standings kept, no awards or playoffs, and much of the success of this program is due to the high level of parent participation.

Kenilworth youth booters roll... The Kenilworth Youth Soccer Association recently sparked an invitational indoor soccer tournament held by the Clark Soccer Club. The tournament featured three age divisions entered: 14 and under, 12 and under and 10 and under. A total of 38 teams played. The team consists of Coach Joel Reid and the following players: Joseph Tripodi, Jason Fennes, O'Donnell, Joseph Scurozo, Ronald Romano, Philip Ruggiero, Joey Corbo, Matthew Voorhees, Nicholas Choko, David Villalobos, Rusonello, and Jon Michael Ciravolo.

Siragusa ousted from state mat

Tony Siragusa of Deavid Bearley Regional High School suffered his only loss of the season last Wednesday in the preliminary round of the state wrestling tournament. The Bearley heavyweight who roared through all his competition this year during the dual meet season, and then continued undefeated in annexing the District and Region 3 championships, was edged in a close decision by Jeff Waldron of Newton, 11-10, ironically, Hugh Barber of Union, who Siragusa defeated, 8-6, for the Region 3 championship, won his preliminary match and is still alive in the tournament. The top two matmen in each weight class advanced to tomorrow night's quarterfinals were Roselle Park's Jamie Shriner and Union's Gerry Fluet at 188, as well as the aforementioned Barber.

Placed seventh last week at 180 pounds at the NCAA wrestling finals at the Meadowlands Arena, declassified Anthony Fabiano of Middletown North, 17, in his opening bout. Tomorrow, he will face Joe Benis of Pennsylvania. Fluet just got by Fernando Rodriguez of Madison Central, 6-7. In his first match and will next face Bridgewater East's Jeff Werthmuller in the quarters. Barber came up with a 13-7 win over Thor Beveridge of Voorhees in his bout, and will now face Bill Hires of Pennington tomorrow. Farmer, who finished second in the regionals, got a break in that he didn't face tough Joe Melchiorre of Highland in the opening round, but he got another good one in Pete Gonzalez of Ridgefield Park in his opener. Gonzalez pinned Farmer in 3:38. So with the NCAA over with, the high schools can now focus their attention on crowning its state champions. And by Saturday afternoon, maybe Shriner, Fluet or Barber could be standing on the awards platform.

Sports this week Gerry Fluet at 188, as well as the aforementioned Barber. Ousted last week, besides Siragusa, was Linden's first ever state qualifier, Faith Farmer at 123 pounds. Shriner, whose older brother Bob placed seventh last week at 180 pounds at the NCAA wrestling finals at the Meadowlands Arena, declassified Anthony Fabiano of Middletown North, 17, in his opening bout. Tomorrow, he will face Joe Benis of Pennsylvania. Fluet just got by Fernando Rodriguez of Madison Central, 6-7. In his first match and will next face Bridgewater East's Jeff Werthmuller in the quarters. 'Double D' honorary chairman for a 'special' week at hospital

New Jersey Nets center Darryl Dawkins is proving he's not just a player on the basketball court as he is on the 6-1 center has been named Honorary Chairman of Children and Hospitals Week, March 18-24, at Children's Specialized Hospital in Mountainside. In his ninth professional season with the National Basketball Association, Dawkins devotes a significant amount of his personal time to charitable efforts, especially those involving children.

Dawkins came to the Nets in the 1983 season after eight successful years with the Philadelphia 76ers. He sets a Nets record with a .500 field goal percentage. "Darryl Dawkins' affinity for children is well known and he doesn't allow his "superstar" status to prevent him from interaction of every available opportunity," said Richard Ahlfeld, director of administration at Children's Specialized Hospital. "We are pleased that he accepted this chairmanship, and hope that his leadership will be a model for others to become involved with the special needs of special children."

Children and Hospital Week, sponsored by the Association for Children's Health, strives to educate health professionals and the public to the unique needs of children and their families in health care settings.

Rinaldo to get award at 'Candlelight Ball'

Congressman Matthew Rinaldo (R-Union) will receive the Humanitarian Award of the Association for Retarded Citizens, Union County Unit at the organization's 10th Annual Candlelight Ball, Saturday, April 7, at L'Affaire, Route 22 East.

A long-time advocate for mentally retarded and handicapped citizens, Rep. Rinaldo reauthorized in 1983 the Education of the Handicapped Act, a measure providing funds for research, technical assistance, training, and a model project for the training of handicapped students. In addition, the act created new programs to help handicapped persons make the transition from school or college to the working world.

The congressman also secured an extension of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act for five more years. This measure provides federal grants for the rehabilitation of physically and mentally handicapped people, plus funds for supplemental services to help the handicapped become more independent.

A member of Congress since 1972, Rinaldo has worked closely with the Association for Retarded Citizens, Union County Unit for many years. In 1980, he served as honorary chairman of the association's capital fund-raising campaign, which resulted in the purchase of a building in Plainfield to house the organization's general offices and thrift shop.

The Candlelight Ball is the ARC, Union County Unit's major fund-raiser of the year. Proceeds from the dinner are used to support the association's various programs.

For further information, contact Mrs. Gabri at 754-5910 or the ARC, Union County Unit, 1220 South Avenue, Plainfield.

Seasonal craft seminars scheduled for spring

Celebrate Spring with seasonal crafts seminars at the Trailside Nature and Science Center, Coles Avenue and New Providence Road, Mountaintide.

The April/May schedule is as follows: April 4 (Wednesday) 7:0 p.m. Shaker Boxes. Create a gift by decorating a hand bent Shaker style cheese box. Line with country-style wallpaper and decorate the outside with ribbon and dried silk flowers.

April 13 (Friday) 9:30-11:30 a.m. Rattan Rosettes. Decorate the center of your rattan circle with dried and silk flowers, then weave the perimeter with pastel ribbon and finish with a matching bow.

Trailside Nature Center plans special Arbor Day presentation

It will be a very special Arbor Day at the Trailside Nature & Science Center, Coles Avenue & New Providence Road, Mountaintide, as county officials and citizens gather to dedicate the first Union County Arboretum at 2 p.m., Sunday, April 29.

The Union County Arboretum, which when completed will include 112 species of native New Jersey and exotic horticultural specimens, is being installed in front of the Trailside Visitors Center to add to the recreational/educational/aesthetic aspect of the center. According to Debra L. Judd, a planner with the Union County Department of Parks and Recreation, designs for the arboretum have already been completed by Jude Laeta, a self-employed landscape contractor and architect from Elizabeth and the first 20 trees have been donated and will be planted by the Union County Park Maintenance Division. Park Maintenance employees will also install an arboretum trail and provide ongoing maintenance at the site.

This is where an individual, or club or organization, can help. While the county has committed itself to this project by contracting for design costs and planting the first 20 trees, current county funding priorities preclude the purchase of all selected planting materials. Donations of trees or cash are actively being sought by the Parks Department, Judd said. All forms of support in this effort will receive full and appropriate recognition in the final project.

To date, some $2,000 has been donated to purchase Arboretum specimens, Judd said. Among those who have made significant donations are the Scotch Plains Garden Club, The Summit Nature Club and numerous private citizens who have donated trees in memory of deceased friends and loved ones.

Why not join those who have remembered a friend or relative or commemorated a family name by planting a tree or donating to the arboretum. Once completed, the arboretum will enable visitors to stroll, picnic or jog through the labeled specimens and the path will also be accessible to the handicapped. Donations in any denomination are in great need, Judd said.

The special Arbor Day program will include a discussion of the history and importance of Arbor Day and Union County's Arboretum. One tree will be symbolically planted and donors will be recognized. A nature walk with a Trailside naturalist will follow. The public is invited to attend free of charge and refreshments will be served.

To donate or find out more information, call Judd at 527-4912.

Families coping with alcoholic

together to understand and confront the problem, rather than simply keeping it in the closet.

This is not as easy as it sounds. Confronting the problem not only means bringing it to the attention of the alcoholic (and only when he or she is sober) but explaining the nature of the disease to the entire family. Alerting the alcoholic to his destructive behavior calls for level-headed discussion rather than venting anger and issuing "stop, or else" ultimatums. "Don't preach, nag, lecture and assume a holier-than-thou attitude with the alcoholic, the UCCA guidelines caution, and "never use emotional appeals, such as 'if you loved me, which only tend to increase feelings of guilt and the compulsive need to drink."

Most importantly, Kearns warns families not to expect alcoholics to make immediate recoveries, or to punish or threaten the alcoholic in the event that he fails to follow through on promises to reform. All this indicates that the process of recovery can be as difficult for the family as it is for the alcoholic. "Some of the family members that call us are hurting psychologically, almost as seriously as the alcoholic," Kearns states. "We're there to help the person who is hurting, because we view the family's emotional health as much of a concern as the alcoholic's."

Yet the UCCA does not attempt to intervene in the overall family situation beyond helping those clients who contact the center seeking help. "We don't attempt to call the alcoholic and encourage him to seek help as a result of a counseling session with a troubled family member," Kearns says. "That family member is our client, not the alcoholic—until the alcoholic decides on his own volition to seek our help. To do otherwise would be interfering in the family's privacy."

Yet, for those alcoholics who do seek out the center's services, the UCCA provides primary counseling—not treatment—in an attempt to urge problem drinkers to obtain further professional, medical or therapeutic help. With the alcoholic's agreement, the UCCA provides referrals to detoxification centers, outpatient programs and to local chapters of Alcoholics Anonymous. Family members needing further counseling and emotional support are referred to Al-Anon, an organization specifically geared to help educate those who must live with a problem drinker.

Ala-Call provides similar primary counseling and referral services through its 24-hour-a-day hotline number, (800) 322-5525. The hotline number "serves Union County as much as any area in the state," according to Elaine Durkin, an Ala-Call certified alcoholism counselor. Durkin said that the purpose of the hotline is to help the alcoholic and his or her family members. "We provide them with information on where they can go for help, and encourage them to attend the next Alcoholics Anonymous or Ala-Non meeting."

Alcoholism is a problem that cuts across all ethnic groups, economic classes and social strata, according to Durkin. "Some of the people that call us are bank presidents and some own their own corporations. They tend to be more sophisticated in covering up their problems and in coming up with reasons for their drinking, but equally helpless in fighting the problem by themselves."

Denial of the problem is the alcoholic's biggest obstacle to recovery, Durkin explains. "The nature of the disease is that the alcoholic stays in self-denial until he loses everything, unless he finally comes to terms with the realization that he's sick and he'd better get help—fast."

Benefit concert set in Cranford

A benefit concert, "Jazz in the Afternoon," will be given April 1 at 4 p.m. in the Campus Center Theater, Cranford, by the Friends of Union County College. Derek Smith and the Jazz Explosion will be featured in another of a series of events celebrating the college's golden anniversary year.

Among the performers will be Derek Smith, pianist; Ronnie Bedford, percussionist; Scott Hamilton, saxophone; George Duviolier, string bass; Don Elliott, vocal percussion, vibes, trumpet and mellophone; and Harry Leahy, guitar.

Refreshments will be served. Additional information can be obtained by calling 276-2800, ext. 404.

Tax checklist booklet set for senior citizens

A tax checklist booklet to aid senior citizens in filing their 1983 income tax return has been issued by Rep. Matthew J. Rinaldo, R-N.J., the ranking Republican on the House Select Committee on Aging.

The booklet features a checklist of deductions and hints to help the elderly file their federal income tax returns by April 15. Recent changes in the tax laws are covered in the publication, along with a listing of telephone numbers for tax payers seeking assistance in completing their state and federal tax forms.

Information is included on residential energy credits; exemptions for elderly; reporting income from the sale of a home; estimated tax payments; and gift and estate taxes. Rinaldo has issued a checklist and general information to help senior citizens prepare their federal income tax returns. Single copies may be obtained by contacting Congressman Rinaldo at 2338 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515, or his district office at 1961 Morris Avenue, Union, 07063. The district office telephone number is 687-4235.

Rinaldo said the booklet, compiled with the cooperation of the Aging Committee and the Internal Revenue Service, is intended to help senior citizens claim all income tax deductions and exemptions to which they are entitled.

"Too often," he said, "the elderly are not fully informed about changes in the tax laws and about benefits available to them. This booklet helps them avoid a situation where they end up paying more credits; exemptions for elderly; reporting income from the sale of a home; estimated tax payments; consecutive year that

From the pulpit

By REV. ROBERT PAUL

Some parents say: "We will not influence our children by making choices for them in matters of religion." Why? The ads will, the press will, radio and TV will, the movies will, the neighbors will, school teachers will, politicians will, their friends will, and the forces of evil will.

We will use our influence over our vegetable and flower gardens, over our lawns and our pets. Shall we ignore our own children? God forbid. Parents, take the time to teach your children in all matters of life, including the spiritual. "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6

Parents should set the example for Sunday school, church attendance, the Bible reading. A family altar will alter your home. The Bible says: "Children, obey your parents in the Lord for this is right." Ephesians 6:1

Label — envelope speeds tax return

Many simple errors that can cause weeks of delay in the processing of federal off label. If such is the income tax returns can be avoided if taxpayers use the label designed to expedite processing at IRS Service Centers.

One of the common and most troublesome errors that can be averted by the use of the label is the listing of an incorrect or illegible Social Security number. Such an error can take weeks or even months to correct, and is one of the major causes of delayed refund checks.

Be wary in picking fitness center

Each day more and more people make a commitment to better health. After checking with their local physician, consumers should list the specific objectives they wish to attain through diet or physical fitness.

The Union County Division of Consumer Affairs within the Department of Public Safety issues this consumer advisory on choosing a physical fitness center.

"Checking with your doctor is the first step to better health," advises Ellen Bloom, director of the division. "If a consumer has decided to embark upon a program which includes the purchase of a membership in a physical fitness center, certain things must be considered before they sign up."

A reputable health club offers many advantages such as a structured program of exercise, professional equipment, and social interaction.

Continuity is important in a program and because weather, purchase of equipment, and lack of commitment are generally deterrents to exercise, you may be better off at the right gym.

How should you choose a health club? The sensible consumer will take precautions similar to those suggested in other transactions—if it appears that the price is too good to be true, it probably is and should be avoided.

If someone tells you that there is no need to work hard or that they have an easy method involving a gimmick-walk away fast.

Eliminate locations that are too distant that do not offer the range of programs or time periods that are convenient for you. Be sure you will be visiting a safe area.

Diabetes group meets Monday

"Everything You Wanted to Know About Diabetes...But Were Afraid to Ask" will be the topic of the next meeting of the Union County Chapter of the American Diabetes Association, to be held Monday, 7:30 p.m., at the Westfield Rescue Squad.

Dr. Richard Paul and Dr. Harold Starkman, formerly Clinical Fellows of the renowned Joslin Diabetes Clinic, will be on hand to answer any and all questions as well as provide an update on the latest research findings. Both Dr. Paul and Dr. Starkman maintain private practices and are experts in the diabetes field.

The Union County Chapter of the ADA celebrates one year of existence this spring, and local interest has been enthusiastic. Plans for a fundraiser are underway and bi-monthly meetings scheduled covering a range of topics of concern to diabetics and their families.

and that the parking is close by and well illuminated at night. Look cautiously at the small, newly established spa or salon to be sure of their continuance of service.

Discuss your needs with friends, relatives and neighbors who belong to health clubs and if you have the opportunity take a member of the club you are considering aside to determine if his or her experience has been satisfactory and pleasant.

Call the New Jersey Consumer Hotline at 609-2285 to determine if complaints have been filed against that particular club.

There is an Association of Physical Fitness Centers (APFC) that supports fair consumer practices through a code of ethics. The literature provided by this organization is the major resource for this article. Check to see if the place you are considering is a member.

Visit the fitness center at the time of day you anticipate using same to be sure the facility is adequate for your needs.

Study the schedule of classes and special events as well. Visit a class when it is in session. What items are provided for personal care? Is everything in good repair? Is the facility clean? Check for signs of disrepair and poor maintenance, especially around the wet areas such as saunas, pools, showers, lockers and restroom facilities. Failure to keep these areas properly maintained and clean is an indication of the care given by the club generally.

Ask about the qualifications of the instructors and find out if there is nearby emergency treatment available in case of an accident. You should try a trial membership or workout before you join. This is the best way to find out, during the hours you desire, whether the facility meets your needs.

Do not be rushed or intimidated by the sales person and be sure to see a complete list of all types of memberships that are available with the price for each. If this location should close, would a nearby location accept your membership? There may be a membership for slow hours or senior citizens which may save you money and be perfect for you. Many prices are negotiable.

Think carefully! A small amount of money per month multiplied by many months can involve a large financial responsibility.

"Lifetime Member" may be for the life of the club, not your life, and should be carefully considered.

Take the contract home to review before signing. Have spouse or family attorney check it to be sure you understand everything and before you are obligated to terms that may not be best for you.

Ask if there is a three day "cooling off" period, as is provided by members of APFC, giving the consumer a chance to re-evaluate the membership. If you do cancel, it should be by certified mail.

"Make up a checklist," advises Mrs. Bloom. "or take this article along with you so that you don't forget to inquire about everything before you make your decision. This will enable you to make an educated comparison of each facility and allow you to make a better decision."

Consumer education is only one phase of Consumer Affairs. If you have been unable to successfully resolve a problem dealing with a retail transaction, write Union County Consumer Affairs, P.O. Box 186, Westfield, N.J., including a brief letter describing the problem and including copies of receipts or contracts.

Seniors slate a car seminar

The Senior Citizens Council of Union County will hold a car insurance reform seminar on Saturday, April 28, at 9:30 a.m. at the F. Edward Biertumpfel Center, 2155 Morris Avenue, Union.

Evelyn Frank, Council president, said, "Car insurance increases affect all people, our committee should be representative of all people." Our council wished to spearhead a movement to have the public understand how they are affected by the current recommended changes. The State Government is trying to lower premiums but is increasing deductible and copayments. All we want is a chance for dialogue with our lawmakers to help make us knowledgeable and to protect recommendations if the proposed changes are unreasonable.

Arthur Guaritello of Union has been appointed to serve as chairman of the Car Insurance Reform Committee.

Guaritello is a retired Prudential agent and is an active agent/broker and serves as a volunteer deputy coordinator of Emergency Management Services of Union Township.

New Jersey legislators and the State Department of Insurance are being asked to participate in this seminar on April 28 and are now being contacted for additional information.

Computers to aid operators at Bell

Starting this month, directory assistance operators will get some help themselves as the telephone company introduces a computerized system for handling part of the requests for information.

New Jersey Bell's new Audio Response System (ARS) works like this: When a customer dials 411 or area code plus 555-1212, a live directory assistance operator answers and enters the name and down of the number desired into the computer; selects the most appropriate listing that appears on the computer screen and then drops off the line.

A computer voice then says to the customer, "The number is XXX-XXXX. Repeat, XXX-XXXX. If you need assistance, an operator will return." After a five second interval and if necessary, a live operator comes back on the line to assist the customer. With ARS, the computer selects the phone numbers customers request from a prerecorded tape of numerals, zero through 9, and plays them back to the customers in a nearly natural quality voice.

Twelve of the company's 20 directory assistance offices will be equipped with ARS which will be used to process an estimated 475,000 calls each day. Another 200,000 calls that require special attention will still be handled entirely by live operators at the 12 offices. Emergency calls, listings with more than one number, calls from customers with hearing impairments, and requests for dialing instructions fall into that category.

"Statewide, each day we handle about 875,000 calls to directory assistance and the number of calls is increasing about five percent a year," said Bill McKinlay, New Jersey Bell community relations manager in Union County.

"By saving time on each call we will increase productivity and we expect to handle this additional demand without increasing the number of operators. Increased productivity means lower operating costs for the company and that helps keep phone rates down," McKinlay added.

About 1,100 of the company's 1,500 directory assistance operators will benefit, too, he said, since the most routine part of their job, giving out the number and repeating it...will be eliminated. Instead, they will concentrate on the more interesting aspects of their jobs such as interpreting the requests and finding the correct numbers.

The first directory assistance offices to get ARS are in the 201 area code: River Edge, Pompton Lakes, Wayne, Rutherford, Jersey City, Newark, Elizabeth, Woodbridge and Freehold. In April 1984, the 608 area code offices in Ewing, Woodbury and Pleasantville will also be connected to the system's base computer in Madison.

UC slates cultural exchange day

Students in ethnic costumes, Greek dancers, Scottish bagpipers, a strolling juggler, ethnic food, demonstration booths, and displays from various countries will all be part of the International Festival to be conducted on April 8 by the International Cultural Exchange (ICE) of Union County College, it was announced by Dr. Adrienne Hawley of Westfield, faculty advisor to ICE and modern languages coordinator.

The third annual International Festival will be held in the College's Cranford Campus Center on Community College Day, Sunday, April 8, from 1 to 8 p.m. in conjunction with the year with the College's 50th Anniversary Celebration, according to Michael Hughes of Union, president of ICE and festival chairperson.

The International Fair will include international entertainment, displays of artifacts from various countries, and ethnic food prepared by students in the College's Institute for Intensive English.

In addition to the International Cultural Fair, the Cranford Campus will be the site that day of a college-wide Open House in observance of Community College Week in Union County. It will feature exhibits and demonstrations, musical and dramatic events, films, lectures, and tours of the campus. The Open House is open to the public at no charge.

Included in the program of international entertainment, which will take place in the Campus Center auditorium, will be dancers and musicians from northern Spain, Greek dancers, an American folk band, an Inlayrith South American folksinging group, Irish step dancers, the Ukrainian Dance Club of Elizabeth, and a Bavarian musical group.

Displays of artifacts from various countries, on loan from the Newark Museum's lending collection, will be set up in the Campus Center gymnasium, along with demonstration booths of Japanese flower arranging, American batik and quilting, and Ukrainian pysanky art egg decorating.

Ethnic food prepared by students of the College's Institute for Intensive English in Elizabeth will be served at a nominal fee to festival goers, who will be entertained throughout the day by strolling Scottish bagpipers, an Italian singer, and a juggler.

The Institute for Intensive English is a program of concentrated English instruction offered by Union at the College's Elizabeth Campus for more than 500 speakers of other languages. About 25 students from the Institute will participate in the festival's food preparations, according to Prof. Susan Khodabakshi of Colonia, co-advisor to ICE and an ESL (English as a second language) instructor.

"The Festival not only introduces the various cultures to the public, but also introduces and builds closer relationships between Elizabeth Institute students and those of the Cranford Campus," Mr. Hughes said.

ICE, established in 1975, is an organization composed of foreign and American students, which works to make students aware of the large number of foreign-born students at the College, and how much they can learn from each other. Currently the organization has about 35 members representing about 15 different countries.

The International Festival is open to the public free of charge.

'Thawing out' car door locks

"Recent weather patterns—taking us from a balmy 40 degree to frigid single-digit temperatures in rapid succession—have caused the condensation and subsequent freezing that lead to frozen door locks," states Matthew J. Derham, president of the New Jersey Automobile Club. The AAA Club is offering the following solutions to this aggravating problem:

First, you may wish to anticipate the problem by purchasing an inexpensive commercial lock de-icer and keeping it in your garage or office. Packaged in an aerosol spray can, these de-icers are generally a mixture of alcohol and lock lubricant, which is squirted into the key hole.

If you do not have a commercial de-icing product available, simply warm the key, using a lighter, match, or any other handy heating device. Use the heated key to try the lock. You may need to repeat the procedure several times to thaw the lock completely.

"Never pour hot water down the side of the car to thaw a lock," cautions Mr. Derham. "You might crack the window glass or mar the finish of your car. At the very least, the water will refreeze very quickly, making matters worse."

The works of John Button, a Romantic landscapist who transferred his ability to New York's cityscape, will be exhibited now to March 22 in the gallery at Kean College of New Jersey, Union.

"John Button: An American Painter," will be open free to the public from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays. Zara Cohen, gallery director, will be hostess at a reception in the gallery from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday.

Sculptor David J. Brooks will be guest curator for the Button exhibit.

New JCC location

Louise Yohalem, president of the Jewish Community Center of Central New Jersey, announced that the Center, formerly located in administration offices on South Avenue, Westfield, has moved into the former Shackamaxon School, 1391 Marlton Avenue.

2,000 students from Westfield go to concerts

Two thousand middle and high school students from Westfield schools will attend a pair of concerts given by the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, March 15, at 10 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. at Westfield High School. George Manahan, associate conductor of the NSJO, will lead the orchestra in a program of "Speaking of Rhythm," which will include major orchestral works by Bach and Mozart, as well as music by Brubeck, Pachelbel, Strauss and Milhaud.

The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra's Young People's Concerts are part of a full season, state-wide educational program, which this season includes more than 60 free concerts and instrumental workshops.

The Westfield program has been made possible by grants from the Robert Wood Johnson Jr. Charitable Trust, the Westfield Foundation, the Westfield Chapter of the NJSO League, and other local sources of funding.

The programs will be followed by a luncheon given by the Westfield Chapter of the NJSO League.

Admission to the concert for school children is by invitation only. Inquiries regarding NJSO Educational Concerts should be addressed to the NSJO's Director of Education, Judith Nachison, 215 Washington St., Newark, N.J. 07101.

Walking tour set March 15

"Theater Walking Whirlwind," a one-day walking tour of the theater districts in New York City, will be offered March 15 by Union County's College's division of continuing education and community services, Cranford.

Under the direction and supervision of Harry Joyce of Winfield Park, entertainer and member of the college's English department, tour members will see a rehearsal of a play and talk with the cast and crew of an Off, Off Broadway show.

The day will also include a stop for lunch where the actors go, and a stop for libation at Sardi's, Joyce says.

There will also be a visit to the Museum of Theater at Lincoln Center, and to a Broadway or Off-Broadway show.

An information seminar is planned prior to the walking tour at 10 a.m. Additional information can be obtained by calling 276-2600, Ext. 206 or 238.

Irish dance slated Saturday in church

The Union County Irish-American Association will hold its first annual St. Patrick's Day dance Saturday from 7 p.m. to midnight, with music by the Pat McNeill Band, a popular group in the Catskills, at the Immaculate Conception Hall at 425 Union Ave., Elizabeth.

Additional information can be obtained by calling Theresa Water at 355-2372 or Ed Fanning at 467-0783.

'Pantomime' staged

"Pantomime" by Derek Walcott opened March 2 at the Crossroads Theater, New Brunswick: It is the fifth production of the season. Additional information can be obtained by calling 248-5560.

Disc & Data

By MILT HAMMER
Pick Of The LPs, "Different Style" by Musical Youth (MCA Records).

When a British import single called "Pass The Dutchie" started making the rounds at United States clubs and radio stations last year, little did anyone know that one of the most celebrated success stories in all of pop music was in the making. The record, an infectious reworking of a Jamaican reggae classic, recorded by five Birmingham, England school boys called Musical Youth, had reached No. 1 on the British charts and was still selling like crazy. When MCA Records, the label responsible for the big British hit, released "Pass The Dutchie" in the states, it took off and didn't stop until it reached No. 1 here also.

Critics, too, hailed the arrival of Musical Youth's spry and spirited sound. Their debut album, "Youth of Today," was considered one of the year's most impressive by a new band, especially one so young. Never before had a youthful group so effectively bridged the musical and cultural gaps between reggae, soul, pop and rock. When "The Youth", as they're affectionately called, sang "Unconditional Love," with Donna Summer several months later, they had quickly scored their second international smash hit.

Here were five young boys—all just big enough to balance the weight of their instruments—with a pair of international hits and a gold debut album. "Pass The Dutchie" had appeared out of nowhere selling more than 100,000 copies a day, eventually reaching the million sales mark and topping charts around the world. Appearances with Donna Summer and a critically-acclaimed headlining appearance at Jamaica's world renowned "Sunsplash" reggae festival, helped to make this past year a most memorable one for Musical Youth.

Now a certified music phenomenon, Musical Youth—Kelvin Grant, 12, guitar and vocals; his brother, Michael Grant, 14, keyboards; Patrick Waite, 14, bass; his brother, Junior, 15, drums; and lead singer-percussionist Dennis Seaton, 17—is back with the follow-up album, "Different Style," and the four lads from Birmingham continue their meteoric journey, breaking down musical and cultural barriers as they go.

With new album Different Style! the five some show that they also continue to deserve straight A's in music.

Pamela Frank set for concert

Violinist Pamela Frank, 16, will be guest artist in the Plainfield Symphony concert Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Crescent Avenue Church, Watching Avenue, Plainfield. The program will include the works of Mendelssohn, Smetana, Debussy and Stravinsky. It will be directed by George Marriner Maul.

Frank will play Mendelssohn's "Concerto for Violin in E Minor." Concert master of the Julliard Pre-College Orchestra, Frank has studied at the Fontainebleau Conservatoire in France for the past two summers. She is a recipient of the 1983 "National Concerto Competition," sponsored by General Motors and Seventeen Magazine, and is a member of the Youth Symphony.

Free concert set Saturday

The Livingston Symphony Orchestra will present its third free concert of the season Saturday at 8:30 p.m., featuring clarinet soloist Brian Farias at the Livingston High School auditorium.

Farias was the winner of the orchestra's annual Young Performer's competition last spring and performs as a soloist with the Livingston Symphony.

This year's Young Performer's competition will be held April 29, and is limited to pianists.

The Livingston Symphony Orchestra is conducted by Carolyn Hill, who is now celebrating her 10th anniversary in the orchestra, and at the end of the season, she will go to New York City. She also is director of the music program at the United Nations School, and is music director and conductor of the New York Music Society.

Now, their lives revolve around juggling stardom with math, English, history, and science. Sometimes, with their school's blessing, they miss classes to meet at least some of the huge demands for Musical Youth concerts, radio and television appearances. Happily, Dennis, Junior, Michael, Kelvin and Patrick continue to succeed in school.

With new album Different Style! the five some show that they also continue to deserve straight A's in music.

'Connections' art exhibit slated Sunday in Summit

"Connections—Science Into Art," an exhibition that examines ways in which contemporary artists are integrating current scientific and technological advances into their work, will be presented at the Summit Art Center, 68 Elm St., from Sunday through May 13.

The exhibit will include about 25 works by 15 artists. Holography, computer-generated art, still video photography, and neon canvases will be installed in the Palmer Gallery.

Also on view will be video installation and motorized and kinetic sculptures and conceptual works. The exhibition has been organized by Ann Kent and Perijane Zarembok.

A reception, free and open to the public, will be held Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. to inaugurate the exhibit. Ted Victoria, Todd Siler, and Dan Schweitzer will take part in a panel discussion at 3 p.m. A presentation, "Video Art Today" is scheduled for April 15 at 3:30 p.m. Tours of the exhibition can be arranged by calling 273-9121. The Palmer Gallery will be open on weekdays from noon to 4 p.m. and on weekends from 2 to 4 p.m.

grand opening

The world's first eyewear department store has opened on Route 22, Springfield. Experience it!

The day the first Eyelab opened, the lifelong dream of two dedicated opticians was fulfilled and the eyewear wearer was introduced to the world's first eyewear department store offering selection, quality, service, speed, and price—all in one unique and beautiful shopping environment.

Eyewear wearers reacted enthusiastically, coming into Eyelab in numbers far greater than any eyewear store anywhere had ever seen. And leaving feeling more satisfied than they had ever been before. As each passed on the experience to others, Eyelab began to grow and grow.

Now, the newest Eyelab has opened near you. A single visit will show you what the Eyelab experience is all about.

Regardless of what you read in this supplement, or what you may hear, you'll hardly be ready for the impact the moment you enter Eyelab. You'll see eyeglass frames in quantities and qualities you hardly knew existed... a sophisticated lens laboratory right in view—so you can see exactly how your lenses are made. You'll meet highly knowledgeable opticians and technicians in formal blue blazers who treat both you and their positions with utmost respect.

Truly a dream come true, your wishes fulfilled, in a showplace you will enjoy visiting even if you don't need eyewear right now.

The Price. The Real Price. And Nothing But The Real Price. So Help Us, Eyelab. Each year, Americans spend over 4 billion dollars in eyecare products and services. Eyewear is worn by one of every two adults. Yet, until Eyelab, the consumer has been served exclusively by small "mom and pop" sized stores, or equally small outlets of large chains.

Under this system, eyewear prices have risen 300%—in the past decade alone.

The need for change is apparent.

Now, the change is here—all under one roof—in Eyelab.

20% to 50% Off.

Eyelab promises to bring you the lowest prices possible, through its strong combination of (1) buying power and experience (2) the no-middleman efficiency of its on premises full-scale laboratory, and (3) the willingness of its founders to accept lower margins of business profit than has been common among "mom and pops" and chains. This will save you as much as 20% to 50% off ordinary retail prices.

If you are one who's been turned off by confusion or high prices in eyewear stores or advertising, just say "Help me, Eyelab." And, Eyelab will.

All Under One Roof.

This tabloid will introduce you to Eyelab—with its hislab and herlab departments carrying ten times the frames of any vision center—with Eyelab Presents: the world's first fashion showplace for fine quality eyewear—with Kidslab, an optical store within a store, just for pre- and early-teens—with Sunlab, carrying ten times the sunwear of even large department stores—with Lenslab, Eyelab's own high-precision lens making laboratory, filling almost any prescription while you wait.

All at Eyelab prices.

Eyexam 21 and Contacts 21 here too.

Within the same building as Eyelab, you will find the equally exciting service concepts created by two equally dedicated optometrists. Eyexam 21 is the new, more comprehensive, more valued eye examination. It includes a 21 point state-of-the-art eye examination. Contacts 21 may be the largest, most complete contact lens facility in the state. Both are here in this new Eyelab building in Springfield. Doctors are not affiliated with Eyelab.

You will see more frames here than you might have thought existed. You will have your prescription filled here faster than you might have thought possible. You will pay less here than you might have ever expected.

Eyelab is our dream come true. It will serve you as no ordinary eyeglass store or chain outlet ever could.

"Welcome!"

This message greets you as you enter the doors of Eyelab.

eyelab presents

Fashion Finds a Home.

To fine craftsmen, eyeglass frames, like fine jewelry and fine watches, are works of art. To top designers, frames help to dramatize, glamorize and personalize the wearer. To these craftsmen and designers, and to the quality-conscious people who follow them, Eyelab Presents: is dedicated.

Eyelab Presents: The Finest

Here is where eyewear fashion finally comes into its own, with presentations of complete designer collections, with frames of exotic and exquisite design and fabrication:

buffalo horn frames, tanned leather frames, wooden frames, snakeskin frames—even solid gold frames.

And each created with a striving for perfection you may not have known existed in eyewear.

Here you will see the craft of the Great Europeans: Silhouette, Rodenstock, Neostyle—side by side with master innovators: Ted Lapidus, Giorgio Armani, Nina Ricci, Yves St. Laurent and on and on.

Each must earn entry to Eyelab Presents: by passing Eyelab's Fashion Review Panel, and by no other means, be its name familiar or unfamiliar.

Aren't you pleased you'll be able to see the finest the world has to offer?

At Eyelab prices.

hislab/herlab

Spanning Eyelab are the eyewear departments, known as hislab and herlab, each with its own purpose and function. Within them, scores of designer and fine maker frames are organized, by sex, by style, by price (from

At the end of the frame counters are fitting and adjustment departments. Here, regardless of where you obtained your prescription, lenses or frames, the service department is free. And, if Eyelab's adjusters can't solve the problem, Eyelab's repair shop is right next door.

Behind every Eyelab counter stands a professional who cares. There are no trainees on the floor at Eyelab, no here-today, gone-tomorrow sales clerks. Whether you're looking for top fashion or bottom price, the conservative or the spectacular, Eyelab's optical specialist is equipped to help you all the way.

With some 10,000 frames from scores of makers and designers to select from, you'll be comforted to know you'll be shown the frames most suited to you.

All at Eyelab prices.

As one observer put it, "If you don't see what you want at Eyelab, you probably shouldn't want it."

Ten Times The Frames Of Any Vision Center.

contacts 21

Here are the tests and examinations of your eyes that you will receive at the Eyexam facility.

1. YOUR HEALTH HISTORY is recorded by trained optometric assistants.
2. YOUR PRESENT GLASSES Rx is analyzed, electronically.
3. YOUR VISUAL SKILLS are assessed in tests with present glasses.
4. YOUR DEPTH PERCEPTION is tested, using a subjective method.
5. YOUR COLOR PERCEPTION is tested, with numbers-in-color dot cards.
6. YOUR DISTANCE VISION is measured objectively by an eyexam computer.
7. YOUR VISUAL FIELD is measured (if you are over 35) by an AUTO PERIMETER. This planetarium-like electronic instrument has a high degree of accuracy in spotting early symptoms of glaucoma or other diseases that may affect your sight. (A small surcharge is made for this special examination.)

8. YOUR PRESCRIPTION is first determined by use of the traditional PHOROPTER. Results are compared with other Rx tests before your eye doctor writes your final prescription.

9. YOUR CORNEA is measured by use of a KERATOMETER.

10. YOUR CORNEA is inspected through a BIOMICROSCOPE.

11. YOUR EXTERNAL EYES are inspected for movement and for signs of disorder, such as inflammation, discharge, etc.

12. YOUR INTERNAL EYES are inspected for disease or any sign of eye disorder, such as cataracts.

13. YOUR REFRACTION is determined by examination with a RETINOSCOPE.

14. YOUR DISTANCE AND NEAR VISION are measured through a Subjective Test Series.

15. YOUR MUSCLE BALANCE is analyzed to determine how well your eyes perform, separately and together.

16. YOUR OPTICAL ACCOMMODATION is tested, measuring your response to changing distances of visual stimuli.

17. YOUR NEW PRESCRIPTION is made and tested through use of test lenses.

18. YOUR BLOOD PRESSURE is taken as an added index of your health.

19. YOUR EYES ARE SCREENED FOR GLAUCOMA by airpuff tonometry.

20. YOUR FINAL CONSULTATION to answer any questions you may have.

21. YOUR NEW EYEGLASSES are checked for accuracy.

Think "Contacts" Now!

If you've ever thought of trying contact lenses, this is the time to think even harder. Our contact lens department brings you the most modern facilities, with the newest innovations. Plus the greatest price values and the largest selection of contact lenses in the State of New Jersey, if not in the world.

Isn't it time to see what contact lenses can do for you?

Seven examination rooms
3,000 lenses

We utilize the finest and most up-to-date analytic and testing equipment and fitting instrumentation, and duplicate every piece of each of seven separate fitting rooms.

The experience is virtually unparalleled, with well over 1,000 lens fittings a month in the original Eyelab Building alone.

One of the main reasons for success is the vast assortment of contacts... with over 3,000 lenses in stock.

The Great Contact Lens Wall

The secret of good fitting and correct vision in contact lens service is carrying maximum variations of prescriptions to fit variations of the human eye. The Great Lens Wall will show you more about contacts than words could.

These lenses cover virtually every vision problem, from minor malfunctions to lenses for astigmatism who, until now, could not wear conventional lenses. There are even lenses for post-cataracts and for those suffering from monovision.

Every quality manufacturer is represented, including Bausch & Lomb, American Optical, Vistakon, American Hydron, Syntex-Polycon, Conforma, Hydrocurve, and more.

"Contacts" You Wear for Thirty Days.

You may have heard of the newest breakthrough in soft contact lens wearing. These new lenses, Permalens and Hydrocurve, may be worn for up to four weeks, day and night, without removal. Called extended wear contact lenses they are now in the Extended Wear Department.

Particularly if you have worn contact lenses before, you will appreciate the great convenience, practicality and comfort these lenses of the future can give you today.

Appointments are not required.

80% of what we learn comes thru our eyes. And 50% of reading problems in school-aged children can be attributed to unrecognized vision problems. These two statistical facts were enough to encourage the two founders of Eyelab to build a store within a store just for the eyes which will see America through its future.

To See Is To Know. To Know Is To Grow.

THE MOMENT A CHILD ENTERS KIDSLAB, HE KNOWS EYELAB IS ON HIS SIDE.

Simply identifying a vision problem is not enough. Good eye exams and proper lenses are not enough: The child must accept and wear the glasses. And, with the glasses many are "ordered" to wear, who can blame their balking.

In approach and in frame selection, Kidslab treats the child like an adult.

There are fun frames and serious frames, great European craftsman frames and designer frames and plenty of frames for the plenty of differences between kids. And, to help them, Kidslab is staffed with child-oriented specialists who are skilled in turning what at times seems to be a "bum rap" into a "good deal".

For the parent, the "good deal" is Eyelab's price.

KIDS COMBAT GLASSES.

For young sports, check out Eyelab's collection of "short-sports" and other lenses and frames for young athletes. They are a must for every sport from hockey to King of the Mountain. Warning: "Mr. Macho Man" may refuse to take them off at bedtime.

THEY MAY COME HOME WITH SCRATCHES, BUT THEY WON'T BE ON THEIR GLASSES.

Every kid can have lenses made at Eyelab with a special hard finish "Super Shield"™—an invisible protective shield. We call these "Can't Scratch Me" lenses and they're always in stock at Eyelab. At Eyelab prices.

Sun and Fun and Games and Gifts.

At last, a fashion showplace to fit the size of America's sunglass craze. In Sunlab are ten times the fine designer and quality maker sunwear usually seen in department stores. Ray-Ban is here and Colors in Optics and Porsche Design by Carrera in profusion.

Sunsensor Lenses® by Corning are here and mirror-coated lenses by Bausch & Lomb and the latest photochromatic glass coated with plastic by C-Lite™—everything under the sun.

But you won't find poorly made sunwear here, the cause of eyestrain, fatigue and accidents.

Sportslab/Funlab/Giftlab

Here, you'll also find Sportslab with all the frames for the games people play ... from racquetball to riflery, from mountain climbing to SCUBA diving and every place in between.

Here, in Funlab, you'll try on French Welder's Glasses and Night Shades and even Crazy Eyes for the kids.

And, in Giftlab, you'll find gifts that aid Man's greatest gift—eyesight—from magnifiers of every type to specialty lenses and accessories, to binoculars and even Eyelab Gift Certificates, in case you're playing it safe.

ALL THE LATEST LENSES

New ULTRA-THIN LENS

A breakthrough by the founders of Eyelab, Ultra-Thin is 25% thinner in the central body of the lens giving not only greater comfort through lightness but a more attractive look as well.

THE "INVISIBLE" BIFOCAL

Until recently, the only bifocal lens you could buy showed its not-so-attractive marks of distinction, a distinct line or box where lens power changed. Now, there is a new type of lens in which the power of the lens gradually changes from far to near vision. Magically, there is no dividing line. We call it, "The Invisible Bifocal", but it has very visible benefits, both in "the look" and in the looking.

New SILOR SUPER SHIELD™ New AMERICAN OPTICAL PERMALITE™

Breakthroughs in scratchproof lenses. Each resists scratching through an amazing new finish. Perfect for kids or anyone with an active lifestyle.

ALL AT EYELAB PRICES.

Ever since Man first discovered that lenses could aid his vision, he's been waiting for his glasses. Today, although some advertising claims imply otherwise, most prescriptions are fulfilled in an optical laboratory, far removed from the eyeglass store. In the majority of cases, the "short waiting period" for glasses will range from 2 days to 2 weeks. But, never at Eyelab.

And, heaven forbid the laboratory should make an error, for, then "back the lenses go" and your wait begins anew (but, never at Eyelab).

The Wait Is Over.

the lenses

The heart of Eyelab is modernized and computerized. Here, your lens passes through 18 stages of precision manufacture and at least 5 stages of quality control. All, if you choose, while you watch.

Just a few years before they began to build their "dream store", the founders of Eyelab founded and operated what became the most successful lens-making laboratory in the Eastern United States.

What they learned, they have now applied to creating a "dream lab". Computerized and automated, outfitted with the latest developments and finest precision lens-making equipment and instruments, it is right on the spot, under the one roof of Eyelab.

One result? What took two days or two weeks now takes two hours... or less. Another result? You can observe the precision craftsmanship and the superior quality control techniques applied to your lenses while they are being made. You not only know what you are getting but you can see where you're getting it from.

You'll see that in its experience, skill, precision, quality and concern, there is truly nothing to equal what you get from Eyelab.
