They held Warren Hills to just four first down and 99 total yards — only 35 on the ground and 64 in the air. The deepest netration by the Warren Hills offense was to the Dayton 35-yard

Dayton, who had 12 first downs. gained only 152 total yards - 74 vards on the ground and 78 in the air. e offense was crippled early on as both Darren Iaione, who is Dayton's starting punter, halfback, and safety, and tackle David Cole suffered first quarter injuries and did not return.

Dayton's inability to score on two essions set up the defeat. It appeared that the Bulldogs would be able to capitalize on a big play turned in by junior cornerback Chris Clemson in the first quarter. He picked off a pass from Warren Hills quarterback Doug Shriver at midfield and returned it 47 yards to

An impressive crowd turned out for the first large scale production of a community-wide Thanksgiving celebration held Sunday at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School.

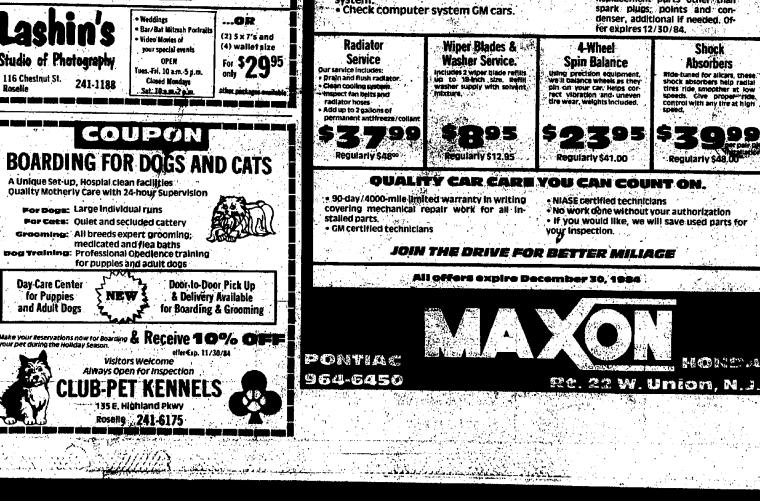

More than 400 residents attended the affair, along with more than 100 who participated in a variety of musical and poetic readings, cluding the Community Opera of New Jersey, and many township ons which set up booths to orga plain their programs.

The day's program explained its purpose, "This Thanksgiving purpose, Celebration is lovingly brought to you by the people who live, work and rich in heritage and very gifted people.

According to the Rev. Jeffrey Curtis, one of the program's coordinators, the idea was conceived by the Springfield Clergy Association several months ago.

Buildogs fall 6-0 Shocked by blocked punt in OT

On first and goal: prior to his in jury, laione dove ahead for a oneyard gain. On second and goal from the two, quarterback Matt Graziano muffed the snap from center, but recovered for a two-yard loss. On third and goal, the Bulldogs attempted a sweep left, but a were called for holding. Pushed back to the 20 by the 15-yard penalty, Graziano threw into the end zone but was intercepted, the first of four, and Warren Hills had stopped the threat.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs mounted another drive. On a trick play, Graziano threw behind the line of scrimmage to backup OB Tony Policare, who lined up in the Policare delivered a 35-yard strike to Tom Kisch for a first down deep in Warren Hills territory. Two short passes to split end John Lusardi followed and Dayton was on the 24-yard line. Graziano aimed for the end zone, but was again intercepted by Scott Stanliaus, his Dayton was again frustrated.

"We thought we had it then," recalled coach Tony Policare. "We had a lot of momentum at that time."

At the start of the overtime. Dayton chose to receive, but got poor field position deep in its own territory. Two sweeps went for no gain and then the Bulldogs were called for off sides. With the ball on their own five,, Policare opted for a quick kick on third down. Backup Levent Bayrasli's punt was Throckmorton recovered and went over for the score and the game.

"We just did not have a good day at quarterback," said Policare. "Three of Graziano's passes were knocked down at the line of scrimmage. Warren Hills has a good forcing defense." Policare also noted that after laione was injured, the Bulldogs were forced to go with a one-back offense. That back was Bayrasli who came into the game nursing an injury. "He was, only at about 80 percent." he said. Policare called Warren Hills ling." The 7-2 team's only "outstan losses came in a last-second decisio to Hackettstown and to a powerful Randolph squad. He noted that his opposite number, Jeff Swinson, called Dayton's the best defense his leam has seen all season.

Policare, though obviously disappointed is optimistic about the future. His souad, now at 5-4 for the season, is a young one which will have many players returning next "After the game," said vear. Policare, "I told them that I love them all and that we've got some talent. We played very good defense with seven kids who are underclassmen, including ' three sophomores. Franko, who accompanied the state inspector on a tour of the Caldwell School, commented, "As it stands now, we probably don't have any asbestos flying around in the air, but at any given time it could become a hazard." The PTA Council has requested the board to authorize the removal of asbestos in "all student-occupied areas," according to Franko.

The board also approved demolition plans for its newlypurcased property at 48 Caldwell Place. DiGiovanni said the olition work will not begin prior to 9 a.m. and will cease from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. The work is expected to begin within the next few weeks, DiGiovanni said.

The Helping Hand program got its go-ahead from the board, who is anctioning the program through the PTA's.

The district's three cafeteria workers were awarded an average increase of 45 cents per hour, ac-cording to Ken Faigenbaum, finance chairman, while the cafeteria manager received a $900 increase. Three substitutes were added to the district's list, including Ruth

Thanksgiving

Ave., Union, N.J. 07083.

Stuyvesan

We cherish several events in November, the month that opens with All Saints Day. On the first Tuesday of November, we elect the people who govern us, from the local level to president.

November is the month when Abraham Lincoln delivered his Gettysburg Address; that happened on Nov. 19, 1863.

According to the Old Farmer's Almanac, November also marks two "hot" events - Moses F. Gale patented the cigar lighter and John Walker invented the friction match, respectively, on Nov. 21, 1871, and Nov. 27, 1826.

And, of course, the third Thursday of the month is Thanksgiving.

No holiday, except the Fourth of July, is more American.

Thanksgiving Day is a continuing tribute to those brave men and women who celebrated the first Thanksgiving more than 350 years ago in a strange land. far from home, burdened by hardship and surrounded by unknown dangers.

Figuratively, at least, they are ancestors to all of us - whether it was our great-great-great-greatgrandparents who came to this country or whether we ourselves arrived on these shores only last week. fleeing from other hardships and other dangers.

'As our "ancestors," they are the roots of our American family tree – a tree that has since grown strong and flourished. They are among the things that, on this Thanksgiving Day, we are thankful for.

SERVING SPRINGFIELD, MOUNTAINSIDE, KENILWORTH - Wednesday, November 21, 1984 ----Division reports kosher fines

The New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs has collected $19,350 in penalties for violations of the regulations governing the sale of kosher food In addition to the prosecution of several cases involving the nisrepresentation of food as kosher, handled under provisions of the Consumer Fraud Act, the division has cited 15 establishments for "technical violations" of the regulations governing the display andling and advertisement cosher foods

"These regulations are designed to prevent lings o leception in the sale of koshe foods;" said Consumer Affairs Director James J. Barry. "We are concerned about deliberate fraud as well as any practice that could cause consumers to believe they are buying kosher foods when in fact they are not.

In one of the first cases, uncovered the same day that the regulations went into effect - April 2 - a Linder outcher admitted selling non-kosher chickens as kosher. The shop, Linden Kosher Prime Meat and Poultry Market, 626 St. Georges Ave., agreed to pay a $1,000 fine . In a suit filed by the division i August, but which was settled just as t was to go to trial, a Springfield utcher, Lempert, Cohen M&M Co., 719 Mountain Ave., agreed to pay $3,500 in costs. An April inspection ncovered two bags, 20 to 25 pounds, of chopped meat lying in 1 to 11/2 inches of blood, a violation of kosher law. During the inspection, it was alleged that the shop's employees locked the inspector in a mea freezer. The shop owner, David Neugroschel, said that the door was

UCC harrier trio has a tough time

Running in the national spotlight proved to be a tough assignment for the Union County College women's cross country team. A trio of runners from the college became the first Owls to compete in the 3-mile National Junior College Athletic championship Nov. 10, in Twin Falls, Idaho. Traci Karr of Springfield, Debbie Marafioti of Bayonne and Sue Stecher of Millburn were invited to the national championships

Dayton alumni invited to run

The eighth annual Jonathan Dayton Regional High School Cross Country Invitational Run will be held Saturday, at 11 a.m., at Meisel Field, Springfield.

A fine wine is testimony to the giver

A bottle of fine wine is a popular year-end gift. And when the wine is champagne from France, it is testimony to the donor's good taste and flattery to the recipient's. and flattery to the recipient's. Few wines have the special glamour and prestige of cham-pagne. Keeping a bottle or two of the bubbly on hand at year's end is good advance planning. It makes and ideal "thank you" when visiting and a welcome addition to your own table when entertaining at one.

table when entertaining at one. Champagne matches every lifestyle and any dining preference. In the Champagne region, 80 miles east of Paris, it is regularly served throughout a meal. And if you want to add sparkle to your holiday meals this season, here are one service suggetions from the Champagne News and Informaton Bu · Brut champagne is the driest, th most versatile; and goes with tually every dish. When in doubt, serve or give brut. Brut non-vintage champagne with no year shown on the label, is blended to consistent house style year after year. A vintage brut the barvest - 1976, 1978 or 1979 - on the label.

•Blanc de blancs champagne made entirely from white char-donnay grapes. It is somewhat lighter than the traditional champagne blend of red and white grapes. one who customarily serve wine with meals will serve blanc de blancs champagne as an aperitif, before the meal, or with fish or shellfish when seafood is the appetizer or main course.

 Rose champagne derives its pini color from the skins of red grapes and is often considered the wine of romance. Give it to he sybarites on your gift list. At table, rose champagne is often served with game or red meat, as well as with cheese. • Extra dry champagne is for people who like a touch of sweetness in their wine. This style is the ideal accompaniment to desserts pastries or fruits of for after-dinne

• Super champagne or top-of-the-line bottlings are blended by most French producers. These are usually made from grapes grown in the highest rated vineyards, in vintage years, and are available in both golden and rose styles. Give these to the people at the top of your Christman list the highest rated vine Christmas list Along with a gift of France's most famous wine, you might like to in-clude a champagne-related ac-cessory. A champagne bucket, a small wine rack, a special recorker small wine rack, a special recorker for keeping the wine sparkling after the bottle has been opened, or some long-stemmed flute or tulip glasses are elegant extras for holiay giftgiving.

day's customs are today's uns, as Christmas trees are trimmed with grandmother's or naments and garlands of glistening, cranberries and popcorn, just like mother used to make.

Enterprising youths dangle boughs of mistletoe in unexpected locations, and the Yule log burns merrily in the fireplace. Gift-giving is an important part of the occasion, representing the op-portunity for choosing the perfect presents for the special people in your life. Many popular presents are temporary in nature - clothing wears out or is given away, home-baked cakes and cookies are eaten, spirits shared in timely toasts to the year to come. But fine jewelry is a gift which lasts as an ever-present reminder of your deep affection for those people closest to you. Elegant and lustrous cultured pearl jewelry makes an ideal gift for both women and men, as its beauty, appreciated since ancient times, li s timeless as the traditions of the season, as enduring as the Christ-

A cultured pearl choker, princes or matinee-length necklace is a fitting tribute to a special woman in your life - your mother, your wife, your daughter (what better way to introduce her to the pleasures of fine jewelry?) or simply a dear friend. Cultured pearl jewelry also makes a wonderful present for the men in your life. Tie tacks and cufflinks are enhanced by the subtle elegance of cultured pearls — both beautiful and masculine, and definitely festive. When choosing cultured pearl jewelry, pay careful attention to quality. Because cultured pearls are among the most reasonably priced gensiones, you can and should get good value for your money. Several criteria determine a ltured pearl's intrinsic value. These are: • Lustre - Not surface shine, lustre is the glow which comes from within the cultured pearl, and which within the cultured pearl, and which is revealed in the shadow area of the pearl. The greater the lustre, the higher the quality of the pearl. • Roundness — Perfectly, round pearls are both rare and costly, Relatively round pearls are both rare and costly. Relatively round pearls are seen by the human eye as pound and therefore a cleasing round, and therefore pleasing. Fanciful baroque pearls are dramatic, and generally less ex-pensive than round cultured pearls.
