

Waldt's bid unopposed

Township President Natalie R. Waldt has been re-elected to the Union County Regional High School Board of Education since 1987, in a unanimous vote. She made the following statement this week:

"I am a candidate for my seventh three-year term as the Springfield representative to the Union County Regional Board of Education. In 1987, I decided to seek a position on the school board because I wanted to help make improvements in our four high school's instructional programs so that each student could be assured of a quality education. All through the year, I have tried to help further the educational programs in the state of New Jersey in any way I could.

"Besides being a member of the regional board, I also serve on the county level and am presently a member of the board of directors of the New Jersey School Boards Association. At times, it has been a difficult task and yet most challenging; but very rewarding in knowing that I am in a position to have an impact upon the lives of our young people. I feel privileged to serve as an advocate of quality education for all of our students.

"In seeking re-election again, it is my hope and desire to continue to have an important role in the educational life of our students and our community.

"If re-elected, I pledge to continue to serve the high school students of Springfield in a manner which will prepare them for the important decisions and challenges they will have to face in the years ahead."

Waldt, a resident of Mountain Avenue, is employed as a travel consultant by Landmark Travel, Springfield. She wants to emphasize that there are two elections Tuesday - for the local and regional school boards. "Our budget is just as important," she said.

Bids received for road work

The first step toward improving roads in parts of the township was taken Tuesday as eight firms submitted bids ranging from $81,000 to $104,500 for street improvement work to the Springfield Township Committee.

The bids, which are to be reviewed by Township Engineer Walter Koub in time for the committee's next meeting April 9, are for resturfacing and repaving work. Streets slated for the work include part of Tree Top Drive, part of Briar Hills Circle and Possum Pass, Marcy Avenue, Blacks Lane, Colonial Terrace, Battle Hill Avenue, South Maple Avenue, part of Cain Street and part of Old Shingles Road.

In other business, the committee unanimously approved an ordinance on second and final reading which authorizes a 1.5 percent increase in the state-mandated cap limitation from 7 to 8.5 percent for municipal spending in the township's 1985 budget.

A second ordinance was tabled until the committee's next regular meeting because of faulty language in the measure. The ordinance, designed to authorize a capital improvement appropriation of $6,000 for reconstruction of a sanitary sewer, was advertised as an appropriation for a storm sewer. The ordinance will be re-advertised. The sanitary sewer to be repaired is located at the rear of residences on Garden Oval.

The committee also authorized Township Attorney Anthony D'Alaisio to prepare specifications for scavenger services.

Where's Karlsberg murder suspect?

By KEITH A. DRUMBORE
Who's on first. What's on second. But where is Hanna Ghanem?

Ghanem, a 33-year-old Palestinian alien, is accused of the 1982 stabbing-death of Sylvia Karlsberg, 83, of Springfield.

According to police reports, Ghanem killed Karlsberg in the kitchen of her Milltown Road home three years ago, using a kitchen pot as one of the weapons in the attack.

Ghanem was arrested at his mother's Plainfield home in December by members of the Springfield police force and the Major Crimes Unit of the Union County Prosecutor's Office.

He was charged with murder, possession of a weapon and possession of a weapon for unlawful purposes.

According to Patrick Durning, assistant Union County prosecutor, Ghanem was released from the Union County Jail, Elizabeth, last week in lieu of $200,000 bail.

Ghanem has since been picked up by federal marshals because of his illegal alien status and is currently being held in the Manhattan Federal Correction Facility, New York City, Durning said.

"All our sources say that Ghanem is being held in Manhattan," Durning said.

A spokesman for the Union County Jail unit said, however, that Ghanem is still in the local prison.

"He's right here in the calaboose," the spokesman said. Efforts to reach the media liaison with the New York City facility and Ghanem's attorney, Henry Furst of Brown, Brown and Furst, Newark, were unsuccessful.

Dayton ready for a 'damn' good show

"Damn Yankees" is a carefree musical comedy based on America's favorite national pastime, baseball. It will be presented at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield, tomorrow and Saturday, at 8 p.m. in the school's auditorium, Bailey Hall.

"Damn Yankees" tells the amusing tale of a middle-aged fat drives in desperation by the consistently poor record of his home team. Steve Barison plays the man who sells his soul to the devil for the chance to lead his team to league leadership. Mark Shanaman, a senior at Dayton, is the entertaining and sinister buyer of souls.

Senior Brian Dalley has the part of the devil, who throughout the story must resist Caitlin Haughey, cast as Lola, the devil's seductive assistant. She lures the young ballplayer with the song, "Whatever Lola Wants, Lola Gets" and describes her abilities in "A Little Brains, A Little Talent."

While the struggling baseball team's players are, relieved and happy to have found their hero, only senior Cheryl Somenzi, who plays Gloria, an alert feminist sportswriter, suspects that something is out of the ordinary. Looking for an angle to the sudden appearance of the mighty hitter, Gloria fashions his image in the song, "Shoreless Joe from Hannibal, Mo.," but later exposes the Devil and his plot.

The 1985 Dayton musical is directed by John Calton, with musical direction by Brenda Kay.

Others members of the cast include Suzanne Crane as Meg, the understanding wife, and David Simon as Van Buren, the team manager.

Cindy Smith has choreographed such popular numbers as the "Shoelace Joe" baseball sequence, "Two Lost Souls" and the "Who's Got the Pain" mambo.

Tickets to the musical are available from all cast members for $3 and are also available at the door. Additional information can be obtained by calling Kay at 376-6300.

'SIX MONTHS' of frustration that Steve Barison suffers during a losing baseball season are heard by Suzanne Crane, as Meg.

Tough choices

There has been a significant change in Springfield. Unlike past campaigns, this year's race for three seats on the Springfield Board of Education has been marked by a dispassionate discussion of the issues in a non-divisive and constructive manner.

For this we commend all of the candidates. Because of this, decisions on whom to support have been most difficult.

We endorse the election of incumbent Ned Sambur and Joanne Filippone and Cynthia Matta.

Ned Sambur, who was unanimously chosen by the board to fill a vacancy in July, has shown independence, a willingness to learn and expertise in several areas, including finance. His background as a comptroller and a former junior high school teacher are tailor-made qualifications for service.

Joanne Filippone is aware of what it means to be a professional in education. She has been an employee of the Irvington public schools for 17 years as a teacher and guidance counselor. Her involvement in that district's monitoring process is a unique asset that is difficult to ignore considering Springfield's recent problems in receiving certification.

Cynthia Matta's overriding qualification is caring for children. Her work in initiating the Helping Hand program is testimony to her diligence, which we are sure she would continue to display as a board member.

We also urge support for both the local and Union County Regional district school budgets. The reality today is that school budgets will continue to rise, mainly due to the increase of fixed costs such as contracted salaries, state-mandated programs and building maintenance.

While the campaign has been a relatively quiet one, don't let it lull you into apathy. By voting Tuesday, you will be making a very important decision on a very important matter — the future of the township's children.

Letter to the editor

Election offers 'difficult choice'

I like reading the Springfield Leader, especially when it's election time for the Board of Education. Unlike past election years, this year the campaign seems to be the way democracy should work. I've read about three people in the Leader so far who are running, Myrna Wasserman, Ned Sambur and Lou Monaco. They came out with what I thought were very positive statements about their qualifications to be elected to the board.

Seven superb people with only three posts available is a difficult decision for all of us to make. It is a happy dilemma though, one in which there will not be any real losers! This choice is a hard one as I said, but a far better situation than the township voters have faced in past elections.

How to deal with a freshman's stress

By BETH GIORDANO and FRAN SULLIVAN

Editor's note: The following is the first of a new column with reader questions about education.

Q.—My daughter is in her freshman year at a large, out-of-state university and she's experiencing a great deal of difficulty adjusting to her new life. Her grades, which were always excellent, have begun to slip, and it seems she does not care. In high school, she was always a high achiever, and she was always a high achiever.

A.—To a degree, what your daughter is experiencing is normal. Entrance to college is a stress situation and many students become depressed and maladjusted. The most common cause of depression among college freshmen, according to a paper presented at the Annual Convention of the American Psychological Association in August 1982, is loneliness and interpersonal distrust.

Q.—I'm a divorced father of an 8-year-old girl who lives with her mother in a distant state. It was a bitter divorce and although I am on speaking terms with my ex-wife, I am not supplied with sufficient information about our daughter. I'm concerned about how she is adjusting at school and I would like to be more involved somehow. I cannot depend on my ex-wife to see that I get information. Is it acceptable to contact the school for help? How would you go about this?

Beth Giordano and Fran Sullivan have combined teaching, writing and research experience. The column is published bi-weekly in the newspaper. Readers with questions about education are invited to write to Ask the Teacher, PO Box 1570, Cranford 07016.

Letters to the editor

Endorsement goes to Matta

As campaign manager for Cynthia Matta, a candidate for the Springfield Board of Education, I would like to present to the community several facts regarding her qualifications.

She is an independent candidate, with her family solely conducting her campaign. The discriminatory statement, as stated by Mrs. Scilla of Salter Street, is most offensive. A statement of this quality is typical only of the past few elections.

Cynthia Matta is a listener, collective of several opinions before making rational and logical decisions. Her endeavor is to bridge communications between the board, administration, faculty and parents. She is a determined individual, as seen in her three-year pursuit for the Helping Hand Program in Springfield.

It is with great personal pride I endorse Cynthia Matta, for one of three seats on the Springfield Board of Education.

FRANK RIOUX Campaign manager for Cynthia Matta Essex Road

Filippone 'desperately needed'

I have known Joanne Filippone on a professional and personal level for some 20 years. I can say without hesitation that Joanne is exactly what the Board of Education needs.

While her education and experience speaks for itself, she is, above all, level-headed and logical. Her experience in teaching and counseling forces her to be objective and flexible.

Joanne deals with school personnel and parents everyday, and manages to balance them so that they work together for the only cause that really counts — our children.

It would be a serious error to neglect to vote for Joanne Filippone. We desperately need the kind of solid education Joanne believes in and her kind of concern and care for our children.

I strongly urge the voters of Springfield to cast their vote for No. 1, Joanne Filippone, on Tuesday.

MICHAEL GIOVINAZZO Pitt Road

'Opportunity to set new course'

On Tuesday, we will have the opportunity to set a new course for the Springfield Board of Education. We will be able to put behind us the divisive past that has impeded true progress, and work together to restore reason and unity, which will again inspire the confidence of the entire community in the board's ability to provide the best possible education for all the children of Springfield.

A candidate who can best effect this revival is Myrna Wasserman, genuinely pledged to the best interests of our children, unburdened by the restraints of "taking sides." As a true independent, and with the experience of having served previously on the board, Mrs. Wasserman can be a positive force toward bringing back the pride and educational excellence that Springfield deserves.

I am convinced that most board members, and candidates as well, are capable of rising above factionalism, and are desirous of serving all children equally. This is what all Springfield citizens yearn for. We the Myrna Wasserman can make an important contribution toward achieving this harmony of purpose.

ELLEN GABINELLE Rolling Rock Road

More than one independent

Recent articles and letters to the editor have implied that there is only one independent running for the Board of Education. Nothing can be further from the truth.

I am not sure about the other candidates, but as for myself, I am an independent and always have been. I am beholden to no one. Any support that I have been given by voters "accidentally" within the town has been coincidental.

the most susceptible. The ability to confide in another can greatly alleviate loneliness. Writes Noreen E. Mehan in the November/December 1982 issue of Nursing Research, "Self-disclosure is a personal variable people bring to encounters with others. The interpersonal desire to escape loneliness, to find support, reassurance, and appreciation, generates a need to disclose feelings and thoughts with others while the inability to disclose oneself may result in loneliness."

Lessen the emphasis on the grades for now and encourage your daughter to reach out to others. One way may be for her to join an organization whose interests are also hers. And perhaps she would feel more comfortable at a small college, where she would be more of a person than a number, where it might be easier to get to know people. Let her know this is an option.

The grade equivalent plots your child's development in terms of grade and month. For example, a score of 4.2 means your child is the equivalent of a fourth grader, second month.

Your child is also compared both nationally and locally. I'm thinking of enrolling my 3-year-old son in Montessori classes, and ask that a copy of her grades be sent to you. Make things easier for the teacher by providing stamped, self-addressed envelopes for this purpose.

Second, arrange for a time that is convenient for both the teacher and yourself for a telephone conference about your child's progress. Ask the teacher for suggestions about how you can help your child progress in school.

You can also join the PTA long distance, which is a good way to remain informed about your child's school activities.

Be alert to passive or aggressive behavior — either can signal that your daughter is having problems.

Q.—I just got my son's S.A.T. scores and I'm confused about the results. They are reported in percentile, stanines, and grade equivalent. What exactly do they mean?

A.—The three scores represent three interpretations of the same result. For example, if your "child" was in the 25th percentile, he has performed 25 percent better than all the other children taking the test.

The stanine simply means nine. If your child scores in the first, second, or third stanine, it is considered low.

The fourth, fifth or sixth stanine is average range, while the seventh, eighth and ninth is high.

Real life spy story

By ROSE SIMON

The following are reviews of books currently available at the Springfield Public Library.

CON-MAN'S RISE AND FALL "The Death Merchant," by Joseph C. Goulden and Alexander V. Ruffalo.

The story of Edwin P. Wilson starts off normally enough; an Idaho farm boy, born in 1938, marries and attends Portland University graduate with bachelor of arts degree in psychology, Marine in Korea and Japan, married and joined the CIA in 1965 as a junior security officer. During his service, Wilson became expert in using "proprietary" companies serving as fronts for U.S. intelligence projects.

Here his life changes. He learned how to take advantage of people and events in order to further his greed and ambition. He invested in real estate extensively, with his wife, entered into shady deals using his connections with the CIA, even after his dismissal, with military officers and congressmen, and organized his own company, "Consultants International, Inc. His "James Bond" character was fixed by this time.

As a wheeler dealer, he found little to hinder his illicit business plans. Eventually, again through contacts with other questionable (or innocent) characters, he became a top man in the nefarious bloody schemes of Maumir Quaddafi. For him and his friends, Wilson went to jail.

The unbelievable tale ends with the luring of Wilson from his haven in Libya to the Dominican Republic, to New York, to his trials in indictment, and imprisonment until at least the year 2000.

Novel is topic Judith Resner's 1983 novel "August" will be the focus of the next book discussion at the Springfield Public Library Tuesday, at 8 p.m., in the Library Meeting Room.

The book discussion is free and open to the public. The next meeting, scheduled for May 7, will deal with Philip Roth's "The Anatomy Lesson."

Program under way

Registration has begun for an after-school activities program that is to start April 15 in both Sandmeier and Caldwell Schools, Springfield. The program is sponsored by the respective Parent Teacher Associations.

Helene Sambur, chairwoman of Sandmeier School, said that the response for registration has been overwhelming.

The Springfield program is patterned after a program that has been in existence in the Short Hill/Milburn schools for a number of years. The program is intended to provide an enrichment opportunity for the children, a chance to try new things, gain new skills, and to have fun, Sambur said.

WE'VE GOT A PLAN TO LOWER YOUR GAS BILL:

Conserve & Save

Working with the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities and Department of Energy, we've developed a plan to make it easy and affordable to install practical conservation measures. The plan is called "Conserve & Save" and includes:

LOW-COST HOME ENERGY AUDITS
These audits, valued at $70 each, are part of the New Jersey Department of Energy's Home Energy Savings Program, and cost you only $15. It is free to Lifeline recipients.

A specially trained auditor will inspect your home for energy wasting conditions, and issue a detailed report on how to correct the problems and reduce your energy cost.

A free weatherization kit is included. Free literature and do-it-yourself audit instructions are also available. This program is available for gas heating customers residing in one- to four-family dwellings.

NO INTEREST/ LOW INTEREST LOANS
If you own and live in a gas-heated one- to four-family dwelling, you may be able to pay for qualifying conservation measures with a no-interest or low-interest loan from a participating bank, provided you have an approved HESP audit.

No-interest loans are available to homeowners with family incomes under $30,000. Those with family incomes over $30,000 are eligible for loans at half the current consumer loan rate.

Loans will range from $500 to $4000, for terms of four to six years, subject to credit approval by the lending institution and determination of the cost-effectiveness of the improvements.

ASSISTANCE TO LOW-INCOME HOUSEHOLDS***
Working through selected social service agencies, we're providing low-income gas-heated households with free weatherization kits and free installation of cost-effective weatherization measures.

*Low-income households are defined as those not exceeding the following income limits: family size in parentheses: (1) 17,470, (2) 21,020, (3) 24,670, (4) 31,300, (5) 37,910, (6) 320,520. Add $2.610 per family for each person over 6 total in family.

REBATE TOWARD CLOCK THERMOSTAT PURCHASE
If you buy and install an energy-saving clock thermostat, we will give you a $10 rebate. You will soon receive a rebate request card with your bill. Please fill it in and return to us to get your $10 rebate coupon, which you will use when purchasing your clock thermostat at any retail outlet.

FREE LITERATURE AND INFORMATION
Free conservation information and literature is always available at any of our offices. Be sure to ask for our new "Conserve & Save" pamphlet that outlines this and all of our programs in detail.

WHAT HELPS YOUTH HELP UNION

ARE YOU REALLY BEING ROBBED ?

Are you aware of these facts about Union's schools?
(Source: N.J. Department of Education and N.J.E.A. Research)

- Union's property tax rate for Education is lower than 7 other districts in Union County.*
  - There are 11 other districts with smaller class sizes than those in Union.
  - Union spends only 3¢ of every tax dollar on administration.
  - Union spends over 57¢ of every tax dollar on instruction.
  - Union spends an additional 6¢ of every tax dollar on other activities directly related to children.
  - Union spends 17¢ of every tax dollar to keep all of its buildings in tip-top shape.
  - Union has less staff members per student than 9 other districts in Union County.
- *(Among 13 Kindergarten-Grade 12 districts)

Ask yourself these questions:

- 1 - Have you forgotten why you still live in Union ?
- 2 - Would you like to sell your house in Union to move to a neighboring community ?
- 3 - Do you go to sleep at night worried about the value of your home ?
- 4 - Could you go anywhere else and get a more affordable, quality education than what Union presently offers ?
- 5 - Would you deny your child 11¢ a day to insure his or her success ?

ARE YOU REALLY BEING ROBBED ? Only if you vote NO on the School Budget ! VOTE YES !

UCEDC OK's $1M job grant

Ralph Klopfer, executive director of the Union County Economic Development Corporation, has announced that at its initial 1985 meeting, the Overall Economic Development Program Committee, appointed last month by the Union County Board of Freeholders, established priorities for applications within the county for U.S. Economic Development Agency grants in 1985.

Corporation serves as the administrative staff for the Overall Economic Development Program Committee which presently numbers 15 members. The function of the OEDP Committee, a broadly based cross section of Union County citizens having a minority representation of at least 25 percent, is to provide priority approval of applications for projects within Union County which are submitted to the federal EDA for funding.

UCC Health Fest '85 planned

"Health Fest '85," the second annual health-fair sponsored by Union County College, will be held Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the College's Cranford Campus.

Free health screenings and health related information will be available. The offerings: screenings for vision and hearing, blood sugar, sickle cell, lung capacity, and blood pressure. The New Jersey Safety Council will be on hand with the "seat belt convincer." It stimulates the stopping of an automobile and emphasizes the importance of wearing seat belts. The half-hour film, "Room to Live," will accompany this presentation. It will be shown at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

"The screenings, in most cases, will be conducted by UCC nursing students from Elizabeth General Medical Center or Muhlenberg Medical Center and Muhlenberg Hospital. Other exhibits will be presented by Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Union County Council on Alcohol, Union County Cancer Society, Union County Prevention of Drug Abuse and the Environmental Protection Agency.

A natural food display, with free foods and juices will be set up by "Autumn Harvest" of Scotch Plains. The public is invited and "Health Fest '85" is free.

Copies of the brochure are available by contacting the Association for Retarded Citizens/Union County, 1220 South Avenue, Plainfield, 764-5910.

Month for retarded declared

The Association for Retarded Citizens of Union County, in conjunction with Governor Kean's recent Proclamation designating March as Mentally Retarded Citizens Month, is offering "Problems of Retarded Citizens" to parents of young children and other interested adults. This brochure describes the activities a child may engage in from one month to 2 years of age. Recognition of delayed development is often the first step in the treatment of retarded children who have developmental problems.

Who Really Gains From Rent Control?

In the long run, most studies and statistics seem to agree that the local effects of rent control are a losing proposition for all. Property maintenance standards suffer, values decline, tax base erodes, town vacancies limp along, schools struggle for funds. Greater burdens are placed upon the individual homeowner and finally the whole complexion of a town or neighborhood undergoes radical change.

So, who is best in the short term gains from rent control? Only renters, many of them short term residents, are able to keep their shelter costs low while everyone else is burdened a portion of the burden miraculously avoided by the renter. Keep in mind that this local avoidance of injury does not affect those senior citizens in housing for the elderly, nor does it affect residents of low income housing. You, the federally assisted housing is exempt from local controls. These rents are adjusted annually, based upon an income expense basis. By making your income to vote against the proposed change in rent control, you are asking that a person to consider the amelioration of rent control, you will be hurting no senior citizens or low income housing. You will be assuring your right to rent that all residents of Irvington share the cost of government in a fair manner.

Colorado Firm Discovers Replacement For Number Two Fuel Oil

Make no changes in your heating system. Just burn ThermOil instead of your regular home fuel oil

A new home heating oil which has recently entered the marketplace reportedly saves homeowners significant amounts of money on their heating bills. According to an independent research firm, use of ThermOil "results in a decrease of fuel-oil consumption of 10-15%."

Currently ThermOil is in use in California, Nevada, New Jersey and Virginia.

Area homes tested

Economic Systems of Colorado conducted studies in two areas of New Jersey between December 15, 1980 and March 9, 1981. The study was originally initiated to confirm laboratory results obtained by the Environmental Protection Agency. Results showed that the participants gained savings ranging from $75 to $350 per home on their annual fuel costs when they burned ThermOil instead of their regular number two fuel oil.

ThermOil burns more efficiently than number two home fuel oil

In order for a furnace to provide heat, the energy stored in oil must be released through the process of combustion. Combustion needs air to occur but with ThermOil, "Combustion can be achieved with less air," says Economic Systems. Since extra air is one of the main causes of high-fuel consumption, ThermOil helps end the wasted energy that occurs with ordinary number two heating oil.

ThermOil burns cleaner than your usual heating oil

Another benefit of ThermOil use is increased cleanliness. The catalyst in ThermOil reduces the temperature of free carbon from 1085°F to 860°F. This reduction in temperature means that existing soot is eliminated and further build up is prevented. Homeowners find they have a cleaner furnace when they use ThermOil.

Now available to the public

Hundreds of homeowners in New Jersey have already been using ThermOil for several heating seasons. More and more are switching every week. You can take advantage of this cost efficient home fuel oil by contacting CPO for free information and literature at 288-1000 in Rahway, N.J.

Homeowners Protect Yourselves

For most of us our individually owned homes are our greatest asset. When demands are made for the enactment of increasing rent control, individual homeowners take to the streets for income properties, taxes are based on rent rolls. When rents remain low, taxes are not adjusted upward to help pay for the costs of local government. Who takes up the slack? For the most part it is the "man-in-the-middle," Mr. Average Homeowner. Mr. Good Guy.

When your taxes keep increasing, the attractiveness of your property is in danger and certainly not as easily sold as it might have been. High taxes discourage buyers for your property, you, the individual homeowner, that the cost of local government is actually shared not distributed for you because they appear to be organized and ready to speak out. Keep your taxes in line, keep your local services coming, support your town because it supports you, make your wishes known to your councilperson (no more rent control, no hardening the application of rent control on houses for renters who may or may not be here tomorrow).

Help your representatives maintain Irvington as a clean, progressive, nice place to live. Let them hear from you. And always remember, local rent controls do not apply to senior citizens or low income housing. You will not hurt any deserving person by asking that rent control be ended or eliminated. Call Town Hall, tell your representatives what you want.

MR. AND MRS. LOESSEL

Dombrowski selected as Citizen of the Year

Julius Grossman, president of the Linden-Roselle Lodge 908 B'nai B'rith, and Dorothy Gordon, president of the Tabor Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women, have announced that Henry "Hank" Dombrowski of Westfield will be the recipient of the Citizen of the Year award for 1985.

Dombrowski will be honored for his "outstanding work which has brought a higher living standard to the community." The award will be presented April 18 at 8 p.m. in Congregation Anshe Chesed, Orchard Terrace and St. George Avenue, Linden.

Dombrowski and his wife, Helen, were the proprietors of Hank's Starlight Lounge in Linden. During that time, they were hosts to 125 senior citizens on two occasions at an afternoon of dancing and refreshments, free of charge. Facilities of the lounge were donated on fund-raising occasions, including those for the Marine Mothers, the Boy Scout Mothers and the Linden's Lions Club. They also will establish a committee to raise funds for the transportation of Polish children from Canada to the United States, where they received life-saving heart surgery at Deborah Hospital, Browns Mills. All food, bar and door proceeds were donated, and the total donation came to $29,000.

In 1977, Dombrowski was honored as a Polish Citizen of the Year at a dinner by the New Jersey State Conference of American Poles.

Awards had been presented to him from the Union County Boxers Association, the Linden Lions Club, the Polish Post, Eagle newspaper, Deborah Hospital and the Boy Scout Mothers of Linden.

The performing artists, who will donate their talents, include pianist Elizabeth Tipton of Westfield, soprano Charlotte Phillee, accompanied by pianist Eugene Phillee, both of Union, and violinist Kelly Tyma.

The Volunteer Auxiliary will sponsor the concert and can be contacted for tickets and additional information by calling 225-2222.

It was reported that Spaulding for Children has found homes for more than 670 special needs children. It is certified as a non-profit adoption agency by New Jersey and has offices in East Orange, South Jersey and Westfield.

"An Afternoon of Classical Music" will be presented Sunday at 3 p.m. to benefit Spaulding for Children, the free adoption agency for older and handicapped children. The concert will take place in the sanctuary of the First Congregational Church of Westfield, 125 Elmer St.

The performing artists, who will donate their talents, include pianist Elizabeth Tipton of Westfield, soprano Charlotte Phillee, accompanied by pianist Eugene Phillee, both of Union, and violinist Kelly Tyma.

The Volunteer Auxiliary will sponsor the concert and can be contacted for tickets and additional information by calling 225-2222.

It was reported that Spaulding for Children has found homes for more than 670 special needs children. It is certified as a non-profit adoption agency by New Jersey and has offices in East Orange, South Jersey and Westfield.

Rehearsal set by Arts group

The Choral Arts Society of New Jersey will hold rehearsal for its spring concert scheduled May 18. Handel, born the same year as Bach, is being celebrated on his 300th birthday, and as part of the celebration, the Choral Arts Society will present Handel's "Israel in Egypt."

The work requires a double chorus. It was announced that anyone interested in performing the choral masterpiece is invited to attend the weekly rehearsal on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church of Westfield, Broad Street and Mountain Avenue.

Additional information can be obtained by calling membership chairman Francis Bremer at 232-9222.

The chorus is directed by Evelyn Bleeke.

Unionite is named finalist in pageant

Christine Nightingale of Union was a preliminary round winner in the Miss Meadowlands Grand Prix contest last month at the Woodbridge Hilton.

Last year's Miss Meadowlands Grand Prix, Patricia La Terra, went on to become Miss New Jersey and represented the state in the Miss America Contest.

Miss Nightingale advanced to the contest finals, which will be held April 9 at the Meadowlands Hilton.

Clubs in the news

The Junior League of Elizabeth-Plainfield recently welcomed new members. They included Mary Donovan and Gemma Lyons, both of Mountaineer. The League is a nonprofit volunteer organization with more than 400 members in the Union County area. Additional information can be obtained by calling 232-1101.

THE 27th ANNUAL art show and sale of the Greater Westfield Chapter of Hadassah and Metra Group of Hadassah will open Sunday at Temple Emanu-El, 756 East Broad St., Westfield. Fine art will be displayed in a variety of media. The show, which will have a preview on Saturday evening at a champagne party for patrons, sponsors, benefactors, philanthropists, humanitarians and master builders, will be open to the public Sunday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Monday and Tuesday from noon to 10 p.m. and Wednesday from noon to 9 p.m. Individual artists and sculptors exhibiting include Budd Hopkins, Adolph Konrad, Henry Gasser, Don Bloom, Arthur Glickman, Riva Helfand, Jean Schwallier, Hella Ballin, Reuben Karol, Natalie Becker, Betty Strope, William Combs, Pat Denman, Helen-Frank and Ben Lewis. There are 75 individual artists and approximately 1,000 pieces of art in the show. The show is professionally hung by William Thomas, III, decorator for Time-Life Building, and Richard Clark, who is the curator for museum exhibitions pertaining to Mountaineer. The show is a limited edition of four eight-inch figurines. Each figurine in the series will be designed in classic period dress from each quarter century of the GFWC's existence. The second edition of the rare collectors' item, "1915 Series," can be ordered by calling Mrs. W. Joseph Blackwood of the Mountaineer Woman's Club, at 232-7583.

The club will meet April 10 at noon at L'Affaire, Rt. 22 E., Mountaineer as an annual event to elect officers and to report on departments and committees. The meeting also will serve as the club's "Creative Arts Day," when members display items they have made during the year. Some of the items will be sent to the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs in Union, N.J., for the annual "Creative Arts Day" April 23 at the Metuchen Reformed Church. Dr. Lester Mount of New York will speak on "Prologues." Phyllis Rev. Led has announced that the club is looking for Teddy Bears for needy children, and she may be contacted at 854-5170. Reservations for the meeting must be made by the Friday before the meeting by calling Florence Britton at 232-1872.

LINDA PERARA, president of the GFWC Junior Woman's Club of Connecticut Farms, Union, has announced that the next general business meeting will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Boys and Girls Club, Jeanette Avenue, Union, on the second floor. Valerie Baker, hospitality chairman, has announced that hostesses will be Marie Kaplan and Ellen Tompko. The club is an all-volunteer service organization in Union "dedicated to helping the community." It also is a social club for family-centered activities. It is a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs in Union. Membership is open to women, 18 to 40 years of age. New members are invited to attend the meeting. Additional information can be obtained by calling 608-2578 or 608-9488.

Who Really Gains From Rent Control?

In the long run, most studies and statistics seem to agree that the local effects of rent control are a losing proposition for all. Property maintenance standards suffer, values decline, tax bases erode, town services limp along, schools' ratings falter, greater burdens are placed upon the individual homeowner and finally the whole complexion of a town or neighborhood undergoes radical change.

So, who at best in the short term, gains from rent control? Only renters, many of them short-term residents, are able to keep their shelter costs low, while everyone else in town shoulders the burden of the burden misdirectedly levied by the renter. Keep in mind that this local reluctance of infamy does not affect those gentler dilemmas facing the elderly, who lose it all effect residents of low income housing. You see, the federally mandated housing is exempt from rent control. These rents can be adjusted at will, based upon an income/expense book.

By asking your councilperson to vote against the proposed changes in rent control; instead asking that a person to consider the general effect of rent control, you will be hurting no one's citizen or no low income family. You will be asserting your right to insist that all residents of a neighborhood share the cost of government in a fair manner.

Roselle and Roselle Park will sponsor a 6.7 mile Cropp Walk on Good Friday, April 5, at 9:30 a.m. beginning at the Church of the Assumption, Westfield Avenue, Roselle Park. Supporters pledge to donate a certain amount for every mile walked by a walker. Seventy-five percent of the proceeds will go to "Church World Service" and the Relief and Development Agency of more than 30 Protestant and Orthodox denominations in the United States. Twenty-five percent "stays locally. Where it goes is determined by the Interfaith Council, which last year, donated it to the food pantry of AME Heard Church."

A church spokesman noted that more than three decades of experience in feeding the hungry, healing the afflicted and sheltering the homeless have underscored the need to attack the root causes of these critical problems. The goal of Church World Service's development project through colleague agencies around the world is to help people create for themselves a better quality of life. It is done by sustainability and balanced saving in benefits and burdens." Additional information can be obtained by calling the Church of the Assumption at 245-1177.

Indiana, Michigan tied in Linden PAL action

Indiana and Michigan remained tied for first place in the Linden PAL's Pee Wee League after March 18 action, with both registering impressive victories.

Michigan defeated Princeton, 6-4, behind Wally Dixon's 32 points, Bowers and Kevin Young with two each. Donald McNeill led the Celtics with 32 points, while Rahim Brown had 18, Reggie Summer 12, Kyle Stratford 10, Eroy Sherman six and Robert Cesaro five.

The Bucks moved ahead of the Knicks in the standings by beating the Knicks, 76-77. Derrick Reynolds led the winners with 27 points, while Sheldon Champagne had 23, Anthony Caldero 14, Rodney Allen 12, and Chuck Solon two. The loss overshadowed a 41-point effort by Lamont Mack of the Knicks, Kenny Kosiba added 21, Wesley Lassiter five, Rahim Bowman four, Lamar Cook and Corey Durbin two each and Shawn Bacon one for the losers.

The standings: Pee Wee League Indiana 8-1; Michigan 8-1; Notre Dame 5-4; Princeton 4-5; Rutgers 2-6; Purdue 0-9; Midgett League Celtics 6-3; Nets 5-4; Bucks 4-5; 605 South Wood Ave.

READY FOR THE SEASON—The St. Joseph's Boys League of Roselle is getting ready for the 1985 season, which begins April 27. Helping Roselle Mayor Elmer Ertl (holding bat), prepare for the season are, from left to right, Bob Trenery, Jr., Bob Trenery, Ed Zalinkanskas and Steve Morales. The league, which is comprised of 19 teams and 240 boys and has a Saturday clinic for 50 boys, is beginning its 33rd season.

Signups for Linden league continue

The Linden Recreation Department is now accepting registration for the Youth Baseball League. The league is for boys 13-16 years of age as of May 1. All boys must register, and no late registrations will be accepted.

Sponanza, Sierra's take titles

Sponanza and Sierra's have captured the respective "A" and "B" division titles in the Adult Basketball League, sponsored by the Linden Recreation Department.

Pink Panthers honored

The Roselle Park girls basketball booster club sponsored the first annual awards dinner recently to honor the teams of the middle school and high school. Over 100 parents, coaches, players, school administrators, relatives and friends attended the dinner, held in the high school cafeteria.

The RPSIS girls varsity team had one of its best seasons ever, winning 16 and losing four, finishing second in the Valley Division of the Mountain Valley Conference. The Pink Panthers also reached the quarterfinals of the Union County Tournament and were seeded first in the state Section II, Group I playoffs and reached the semifinals before falling to Kinnelon.

The junior varsity team also had an outstanding season, winning 13 of 18 games, losing only in the UCLT. As for the middle school, they finished 8-5 and placed fourth in the Dunellen March of Dimes tournament.

Pat Hamisch, head women's coach at Kean College, was guest speaker. Senior awards were given to Karen Antonucci, Carol Guerrizio, Diane Cushman and Elleen Weller by head coach Virginia Gilcrest. Middle School participation award certificates were given by coach Anne Morrison to Amy Endler, Lori Zeglarski, Michele Finizio, Cheryl Fagnetti, Roseanne Salzarulo,

Boys & Girls Club launches a fund drive

The Board of Trustees of the Boys and Girls Club has launched a capital campaign drive to raise $750,000 for the purposes of both expanding and renovating the present facility.

"We will be constructing a new one-story multi-purpose community

'Shrub Care' topic of Tuesday lecture

A free lecture on "Shrub Care" will be offered by the Union County Cooperative Extension Service from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Program Associate James Nichnadowicz will present the lecture which will be held at the Union County Administration Services Building, 300 E. North Ave., Westfield. Additional information is available by calling 233-9366.

All Extension Service programs are open to the public without regard to race, color, national origin, sex or handicap. The meeting room has handicap access.

center of 8,700 square feet. This facility will give us the space that we need to conduct our continuously growing programs and fund-raising activities. A cheerful, roomy and efficient community center will enable the Club to attract new members of the community," Russell Triolo, executive director, said.

The facility also will be available to all adults, senior citizens and accessible to the handicapped. Large open areas will permit the present staff to supervise the activities of twice as many youngsters. With movable partitions, the center can also be divided into smaller areas for quiet activities. Comfortably furnished areas will be available for informal meetings, or for a variety of activities, including classes and workshops on physical fitness, nutrition, marriage and family relations, child rearing and self-awareness. While the youngsters are in school, the center will be open to adults for all programs. With an adjoining kitchen readily available for food preparation, this large room can also provide the ideal setting for banquets, parties or other club and community functions or fund-raisers, such as flea markets and chinese auctions, Triolo said.

As part of the capital campaign, the Boys and Girls Club will also be conducting a major renovation program of our olympic size swimming pool. The two major costs in our pool refurbishing program are the heating and ventilating system and a new automated water treatment system. Other projects in the capital campaign include a complete renovation of our present Boys and Girls Club facility.

"One cannot place a price tag on the value of the benefits to be derived from the new community center to serve all of our township residents (or now and for generations to come. Our community center will be a building with a big heart. It will be a shining symbol of our public concern for the well-being of our citizenry in Union. Those who see the strength and stability of our community reflected in the kind of young people developed here will want to contribute generously toward the $750,000 Boys and Girls Club of Union capital campaign fund," Triolo said.

"In the tradition of the many men and women who have worked tirelessly through the years on behalf of the Boys and Girls Club, the community at large can show clearly, that when it comes to our children, everyone in Union really cares. Who should subscribe? Every household, every business and industry, every club and organization in Union have a good reason to join together in this once-in-a-lifetime program. Everyone benefits!" he added.

Every resident will receive a donation card by mail and all are urged to respond with a donation as soon as possible.

NJTO raps state probe into rent agreements

The 82,000-member New Jersey Tenants Organization (NJTO) has charged that a "probe" being conducted by the Kean administration could void rental agreements in several municipalities and cause thousands of tenants to become victims of landlord rent gouging.

In a letter sent to Gov. Kean, Phyllis Salowe-Kaye, president of the NJTO, the oldest and largest state-wide tenant organization in the country, said,

"The NJTO is extremely distressed to learn that the attorney general's office is conducting a probe into rental agreements that have been signed by municipalities, landlords, and, in some cases, tenant associations, to limit rents in several New Jersey communities."

The attorney general's office has subpoenaed records in several towns as part of an investigation into possible antitrust or price-fixing violations.

"If these agreements are voided," Salowe-Kaye continued, "thousands of tenants will be without rent protection. Even if this doesn't happen, municipalities and landlords are already hesitant to renew existing agreements in light of the pending investigation, leaving tenants unsure of their ability to afford the apartments that they are now occupying."

Who Really Gains From Rent Control?

In the long run, most studies and statistics seem to agree that the local effects of rent control are a losing proposition for all. Property maintenance standards suffer, values decline, tax bases erode, town services limp along, schools' ratings falter. Greater burdens are placed upon the individual homeowner and finally the whole complexion of a town or neighborhood undergoes radical change.

So, who at least in the short term, gains from rent control? Only renters, many of them short term residents, are able to keep their shelter costs low, while everyone else in town shoulders a portion of the burden miraculously avoided by the renter. Keep in mind that this local ordinance of infamy does not affect those senior citizens in Housing for the Elderly, nor does it affect residents of low income housing. You see, the federally assisted housing is exempt from local controls. These rents can be adjusted at anytime, based upon an income/expense basis.

By asking your councilperson to vote against the proposed changes in rent control, indeed asking that a person to consider the elimination of rent control, you will be hurting no senior citizen or no low income family. You will be asserting your right to insist that all residents of Irvington share the cost of government in a fair manner.

This advertisement was paid for by the Irvington Property Owners Association, 1044 Clinton Ave.

Once More A Season Upon Us

Every few years, a small group here in Irvington get out their old banners, their old slogans, and their old hats. A touch of spring may be in the air and their longings turn once more to fantasy and the world of make-believe. And so they reason, there is an election upon us, let's catch some politicians into joining us in singing that old tune called "Rent Control". Never mind that Irvington enacted and has benefitted from a very fair ordinance for the past years. Now is the time get more.

Now, not all our Town Fathers are fooled. Most know of the faults and evils of rent control. But, they are looking for guidance. Since you don't call them and let your feelings be known, they assume that everything is all right. Call them, write to them, show up at meetings and tell them what to do. Tell them you want everyone to pay a fair share of the cost of government and that includes renters as well as everyone. Being a renter does not entitle anyone to shirk their part of the burden. Now we want renters in or town and the mix of people that results from having a balanced population. However, individual homeowners insist that everyone pay their fair share. When rent control takes over, we middle people, owning our homes, often end up paying or subsidizing others. Now, there is nothing fair about that!

Resident of senior citizens or low-income housing are not affected in anyway by local rent control. Thus, cancelling our rent control will not hurt any deserving person. It will make the cost of local government more equally shared.

Call that councilperson-writer that letter-go to that meeting and let your wishes be known. This is America and this is the way we grew and became a great nation.

This advertisement was paid for by the Irvington Property Owners Association, 1044 Clinton Avenue.

Homeowners Protect Yourselves

For most of us our individually owned homes are our greatest asset. When demands are made for the enactment or increasing of rent control, individual homeowners take it on the chin. For income properties, taxes are based on rent rolls. When rents remain low, taxes are not adjusted upward to help pay for the costs of local government. Who takes up the slack? For the most part it is the "man-in-the-middle", Mr. Average Homeowner, Mr. Good Guy.

When your taxes keep increasing, the attractiveness of your property is in danger and certainly not as easily sold as it might have been. High taxes discourage buyers. Your insisting, you, the individual homeowner, that the cost of local government be equally shared-not discounted for renters because they appear to be organized and ready to speak out. Keep your taxes in line, keep your local services coming, support your town because it supports you, make your wishes known to your councilperson - no more rent control, no hardening the application of rent control - handouts for renters who may or may not be here tomorrow.

Help you representatives maintain Irvington as a clean, progressive, nice-place-to-live. Let them hear from you. And always remember, local rent controls do not apply to senior citizen or low income housing. You will not hurt any deserving person by asking that rent control be curbed or eliminated. Call Town Hall, tell your representatives what you want.

This advertisement was paid for by the Irvington Property Owners Association, 1044 Clinton Ave.

Preparing for a new addition

By DORIT BENSCHAR
Preparing for your new dog is just as important as preparing for a new baby — short of diapers.

A bag of good nutritional food together with two dishes — one for food and one for water, should be set up in a designated area for your dog.

A few toys and chewbones should be on hand in order to prevent the little pooch from chewing on your furniture and woodwork.

Like the eating area, your dog should have a sleeping place set aside for him.

A small blanket or bed is sufficient. And no matter how cute and cuddly the puppy is, your bed or furniture are not the places for him to get comfortable. Make this clear to your puppy from day one that the furniture is off limits to him.

You will be grateful and glad that you started your puppy's training early enough before it becomes a bad habit.

Getting acquainted with your local vet is very important since your new puppy needs inoculations and a general check-up to assure good health. Your vet also will give some helpful hints on how to raise your new addition properly. Don't wait for emergencies; get to know your vet and let him know you and your pet.

The vet will play an extremely important role in your dog's life, just as a pediatrician for the children.

House training your new pup will be the most important subject on your mind when you bring the pup home. It can be done quickly and

...easily; or it can take away the pleasure of owning a dog by dragging on for months.

A dog crate will be the best thing to happen to your puppy, next to your love. It is his own little private domain and secure hideaway or simply a bed with a door. Because he instinctively wants his den kept clean, the pup will learn quickly to control himself and not soil his bed. When left alone, the crate will prevent the puppy from chewing and soiling the house. The benefit to you, of course, is the peace of mind you will enjoy when you are away from home.

Service helps elderly to stay at home

By RAE HUTTON
Three area women with experience in the field of aging have organized a "unique" service for older adults which enables them to remain in their own homes even though they are unable to do "many of the little things in life that we take for granted."

Older Adult Resources and Services provides "every conceivable service for elderly adults," who, according to Eleanor Rubin, one of the founders, are "most happy staying in their own home."

"Because we are private, we can fashion our services uniquely to the needs of the older adult," she explained.

Rubin, of Watchung, and Toby Rosen and Leah Weiss, both of South Orange, opened O.A.R.S. in January after researching similar services in Long Island, New York City, Florida and Boston.

"Although their offices are based in South Orange on Valley Street, their clients come from both Essex and Union counties.

"Their many years of volunteer service with senior citizens in the area led them to realize that many elderly people would rather stay in their own homes, but must look for new ways to cope with the basic needs of daily life — grocery shopping, doctor appointments, even going out to lunch once in a while.

In addition, Ruben explained, "we were aware of the services provided for people with lower incomes and are aware of services provided for people with money, but many of these services stop after initial consultations."

"With the elderly population increasing, many more services are needed, but not provided," she said.

O.A.R.S. is different from public, government-funded programs for senior citizens because it is flexible and not limited by geographic area, funds or services.

"We are careful to remain cost-effective. We do only what we do best," said Ruben, the immediate past president of the Senior Services Corp., a non-profit agency which provides services for senior citizens.

What O.A.R.S. does best, and initially, is consult with their clients — which means both the elderly parent and the adult child.

"Many times adult children do not include their parents in planning and until they do, we can't help them," Rubin emphasized. "They must have confidence in us and they have to get used to the idea that someone else do not know is in the house."

A consultation with the O.A.R.S. staff to evaluate individual needs, explore alternate methods of care or living arrangements and discuss community resources is the first step for clients.

"We can do a lot of what the adult children have been doing, but just don't have enough time to do it," Rubin explained.

And just what can O.A.R.S. do? Staff members can do grocery shopping, drive patients to the doctor, the bank or the post office, help them with their banking, prepare their meals ahead of time, put their groceries away, accompany them to the theater or just take them out to lunch.

"This personal assistance" is provided by trained staff members — college students, housewives, retirees — who have had experience with the elderly.

And if the staff is unable to provide a certain service — such as hair care for example — O.A.R.S. will find someone who can or direct the client to an agency that can.

Personal assistance is only one component of the services provided by the trio.

"Keep in Touch" is a weekly program which includes regular phone contacts, home visits to clients and liaison with out-of-town relatives. "Getting There" is a private transportation service.

Rubin said that while municipal programs provide transportation and companion services, much of it is limited to one municipality and the programs are not flexible.

O.A.R.S. has contracted with a delivery service which will provide transportation for older adults to the doctor or to out-of-town malls for example. And the drivers, she said, will attend to any needs of the customer.

"We're gearing this service to adult children who might want to give a gift to a parent," she added, noting that coupon books can be purchased for $50. This service eliminates the need for calling a taxi or a relative for transportation and gives the elderly person one more means of remaining independent," Rubin emphasized.

She noted that the elderly population in both Essex and Union counties is increasing all the time — in Essex, about 17 percent of the population is over 60, while in Union, the figure is nearly 30 percent.

With this increase in the population age, she said, more older adults need assistance with shopping, meal preparation, personal errands and transportation. In addition, more adult children, particularly women, are working and are busy with their own families, and are concerned that they are unable to spend enough time with their aging parents.

"It is in these cases that O.A.R.S. can be beneficial," Rubin said.

A member of the National Council of Jewish Women for 12 years, Rubin is on its board of directors and was a delegate to the White House Council on Aging. She is co-author of several manuals dealing with housing for senior citizens and has worked directly with older adults at senior centers. She is studying for a master's degree in Judeo-Christian Studies at Seton Hall University and is preparing her thesis on "The Religious Community's Response to the Needs of the Elderly in New Jersey."

Rosen is chairman of Older Adult Services for the YM-YWHA of Metropolitan New Jersey in West Orange and previously the chairman of senior centers for the Y and the National Council of Jewish Women.

Weiss, who holds a master's degree in social work, has been a caseworker in New Jersey and Massachusetts and is on the board of the United Way of Essex and West Hudson and a member of the Mental Health Association of Essex County.

All three are members of the Senior Services Corp. of Essex County and are associated with numerous community boards dealing with the elderly.

Further information about O.A.R.S. may be obtained by calling 763-8018.

NJ Transit's 'got the ticket' for your pleasure trips

NJ Transit is now your ticket to ski resorts, shoppers' excursions and entertainment in New Jersey and Manhattan. The statewide public transportation corporation's Department of Special Operations is offering rail transportation at discount rates to promote group travel.

The goal of the Department is to generate increased ridership on NJ Transit offpeak and weekend trains.

"We have big plans for this department," said Jerome C. Frano, executive director of NJ Transit. "There are many things to see and do in New Jersey and the operations unit can arrange catering services for a group. "The NJT-One is an attractively appointed rail car having wall-to-wall carpet, captain's chairs, a bar and kitchen area," Nogar said. For a reasonable cost a group can lease the rail car to hold meetings and parties.

"Just last New Year's Eve we provided the NJT-One to a group who requested the car be attached to one of our regular revenue service trains leaving from Hoboken to Port Jervis and returning to Hoboken," said Nogar.

New York Metropolitan Area. Not only will we work with groups regarding transportation to and from their destination, but we'll also, when necessary, make all other arrangements such as securing group tickets for Broadway plays.

"The department is something of a mini-travel agency," said David Nogar, manager of Special Operations. "Our office will plan almost any type of group excursion desired. For example, we recently planned a one-day, all-trip for a group offering them a very reasonable priced package that included a lift ticket, equipment and lesson."

The department also is responsible for booking private parties aboard NJT-One, a restored observation car owned by the statewide public transportation corporation. To this end, the special

DESIGN FOR HOME LIVING

Child's room fun to decorate.

Children's rooms can be the most challenging and fun to decorate, says Lyn Peterson, a designer who considers them something of a specialty. Her ideas have stood the test of her own three children as well as those of her many clients around the country.

Motherhood has reinforced Lyn's belief in the connection between design and development. The new Marimekko Little People collection of wallcoverings and fabrics, her latest collaboration with the famed Finnish firm, offers an innovative approach to decorating with elements for education as well as good looks.

One example is the "Learning Wall," a mural in five parts that displays the complete alphabet. In bright colors that Marimekko calls "happy colors," each letter is paired along with a single image of a word that begins with that letter.

The pictures chosen are objects children can easily identify such as airplanes ("A"), boat ("B"), car for "C" and zipper for "Z." "Educate and decorate," Ms. Peterson says. Another mural features the numbers one through 10.

Both are an excellent way to put color and pattern to work fine-tuning a child's developing sensory network. And if one rule prevails in decorating a child's room, Ms. Peterson notes, it is a generous supply of color and pattern.

Ms. Peterson offers other suggestions:

- Don't get trendy. You may believe that Cinderella is every little girl's wish, but such fairy tale characters and comic strip heroes are too typical for a child to grow up happily ever after with. They soon prove an embarrassment about their room's decor. But, if Cinderella is just what the daughter ordered, then satisfy the whim with a framed picture or a few pillows featuring Cinderella.

- Borders are an easy way of adding graphic interest or a "storyline" without overdoing the theme or budget. Borders can highlight an area and accent architectural details such as an alcove, pitched ceiling or windows. Placed right at crib level, a border adds a ribbon of magical color and detail to baby's small world.
- Be resourceful. Big brother's old dresser can be up-dated for the next-in-line with a whitewashing and new bright-porcelain or plastic hardware. (The secret of a good high gloss paint job, according to Peterson, is sanding between coats of paint. Use very fine grained sandpaper, available in hardware and home supply stores.)
- Another way to make a bureau or night table look new is to cover the top and sides with vinyl wallpaper. The new vinyl adds a layer of protection, too.
- Maintain perspective. Furnishing a room in scale with a child's size doesn't require an expensive yearly overhaul, just a little ingenuity. A tylist's chair can be adjusted as a child grows.
- A length of plastic laminate or a hollow-core door placed on two single-drawer file cabinets or stacking plastic cubes creates a work surface at the proper height. Later on, two-drawer cabinets or another level of cubes can be added to raise the desk top.

Slick fingers and artistic crayons can spoil the look of non-vinyl wallcoverings, painted walls, and the patience and budget of any parent. "Opt for vinyl wallcovers," advises designer Peterson.

Since vinyl is resistant to scuffs and wipes clean, it is the number one choice for wall surface treatments for young tots up to school age. Even for the older set, vinyl makes the perfect surface for the latest rage in posters. Tape won't peel the surface of vinyl as it would painted walls.

In terms of pattern, a classic design will live longer. A striped motif, for example, can make the switch from romantic to high tech with a few small accessory changes. A pattern like Marimekko's new "Happy Stripes" or "Arithmetic III" keeps pace with a child's fast changing developmental stages.

"It's unfair to give children furnishings that require caution and care," says Lyn. The plastic laminate piece set atop brightly painted saw horses is a good example of what works best. Choose washable fabrics, vinyl wallcoverings, and plastic surfaces.

Plastic stacking cubes are another good durable way of providing storage, seating, and a base for shelving and desk tops. Pegboards like dad's workshop make an attractive wall storage unit with a good supply of wire bins attached with large hooks.

Children's rooms are generally small and box-like, but a simple floor plan and color scheme will lend a spacious feeling.

BO-BOO ('beep beep' in Finnish), Marimekko's most classic children's design ever, now appears on towels by Dundee and a new wallcovering and fabric pattern by Motif as well as a host of other products.

Replace patio doors with wood units

Many homeowners are replacing old, worn-out, drafty, metal patio doors with new wood units that offer the utmost in style, appearance and energy conservation.

Many are available in sizes designed to fit into the rough opening left when the old unit is removed. In many cases, says the National Woodwork Manufacturers Association, a new wood patio door can be installed quickly without reframing or re-siding.

Homeowners who plan to replace a patio door as a do-it-yourself project to save money may require two days to complete the installation: One to prepare the opening and the second to finish the job.

Available at local lumber yards, home centers or building supply stores, wood patio doors come in six, eight, nine and 12 foot widths.

Patio doors are ideal for families who like to entertain outdoors because they provide such easy access. The most common patio door consists of one stationary panel and one operating panel. The operating panel can either slide or swing open and closed.

Energy conservation is assured by the materials that are used in the manufacture of sliding or hinged patio doors. Wood is used in the frame of a well-made patio door,

Answers to some 'insulating' questions

Where can insulation be added? Insulation can be added to almost any house; and wherever structural framing is exposed (such as unfinished attic floors). You can install it yourself.

What kind of insulation should I use?

The most popular kind of insulation among homeowners today is fiber glass, which is available in rolls and batts for easy installation. Fiber glass is an extremely effective insulating material, because it contains millions of tiny pockets that resist the flow of heat.

In addition, fiber glass insulation won't deteriorate with age and, unlike some other kind of insulating materials, it is noncombustible.

Can I add insulation myself? Whatever wood framing is exposed—as in the joists of an attic floor or along an unfinished garage wall. Wherever the frame is concealed, however—as in finished walls—or if your home is not of frame construction, special equipment is necessary and the services of a professional insulation contractor are recommended.

Big year for remodeling industry

1984 was a very good year for Brickface company

1984 was one of the biggest years for the home remodeling industry and 1985 is expected to surpass it and set new records.

Garden State Brickface & Stucco Company, headquartered in Roselle, the nation's largest exterior remodeler, suggests that you plan your remodeling work in advance to ensure that you can complete your remodeling on schedule.

"I anticipate that the industry may very well be overwhelmed with work in 1985," said David Moore, chief executive officer of Garden State Brickface and Stucco. "In many situations, homeowners may find themselves waiting longer than usual to schedule their work. Remodeling companies of good repute will probably have full schedules, some for months in advance."

In order to avail yourself of the services of established contractors with solid track records, Moore suggests that you consider your remodeling needs early to avoid last-minute problems. "When business is slow, many contractors can respond to last-minute requests," said Moore. "But this year, it is probably unrealistic to assume that someone can put in a new patio, for example, for the Fourth of July, when the homeowner waits until June to schedule the work."

Aside from the boom in the remodeling industry, there's another factor which can throw tight schedules into turmoil — the weather. "A solid week of rain will surely wreak havoc on the most meticulously planned schedule," Moore noted. "In our business of sculpting and tending masonry surfaces, the weather can, and does, cause delays which are simply beyond our control. The same is true of other contractors as well."

Moore said that homeowners do not necessarily have to be ready to pay or even finance a remodeling job in order to make preliminary arrangements. "The best advice I can give someone is to avoid long delays in scheduling is to do advance preparation and follow this procedure:

- Think out just what remodeling you would like to have done;
  - Review contractor qualifications;
  - Make an appointment with the contractor to look at your project and draw up some qualifications and estimates of both the time involved and the dollars involved;
  - If the job must be completed by a specified date, ask when it is reasonable to schedule.
- Moore concluded with a word of caution: the remodeling boom will spawn a lot of "overnight" contractors with little or no credentials or work experience. "I'm not suggesting that all new businesses are not reliable," he added. "What I am suggesting is that many unqualified people will try to take advantage of the growth in the remodeling industry and go into business lacking in experience, manpower, financing, materials, and even insurances and bonding. By doing some homework and advance planning, you can be sure of scheduling the best contractors for your home remodeling."

Add windows for more light

A room addition isn't the only way to get some extra living space. Some people get it with a finished basement. Others use the attic.

Both areas, however, suffer the disadvantages of insufficient light and ventilation. One way to get around this problem in the attic is with dormers. But, they can be expensive and time-consuming.

An alternative that takes far less time and much less expense is the installation of roof windows. A newly-developed roof window, manufactured by Andersen Corporation of Bayport, Minn., can transform an attic into a well-ventilated living space with lots of natural daylight.

One or more roof windows, says the leading manufacturer of windows and gliding patio doors, can also serve as a source of passive solar heat when installed in a south-facing roof.

DESIGN FOR HOME LIVING

An interior designer: Really an artist

By NINA LEE
American Society of Interior Designers

An accredited interior designer should interpret your personality and your needs correctly. Comfort, suitability, individuality must all be inherent in a room to make it really satisfying.

The same principles are applied in interior design as those used by an artist on his canvas: mass, balance, rhythm and line. And the designer uses his knowledge of these to integrate shapes and materials, colors and patterns within the architecture of the room to create a livable and personal environment for the client. However, this can be best reached if you know how to work with a designer.

House painters and furniture salesmen often call themselves "decorators." But interior designers are professional men and women qualified by study and experience. Anyone can buy furniture, but not everyone can correctly measure, draw floor plans and know the potential of each craft, materials, lighting equipment and architectural features, using this knowledge to avoid costly mistakes. Your designer should first be a professional. Membership in the American Society of Interior Designers (A.S.I.D.) is in itself an assurance of an educated person in the field from an accredited school. It also gives the client recourse to contact the national office in New York should any problems occur between designer and client.

Professional interior designers should be able to interpret all periods of design. They can begin with an empty space or use existing furniture. They can make the most of your favorite possessions by

Tenor casting call
The Green Lane-Scotch Plains Players of the Jewish Community Center of Central New Jersey will have a special casting call for tenors and ensemble today, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Green Lane Building Union, at 8 p.m. Additional information can be obtained by calling 289-8112.

giving them a new setting, reupholstering or refinishing. They can design furniture or built-ins to create special effects and will supervise its construction. They can design special floors, closets and all other installations as well as create special effect lighting.

They can save the client footwork because they know where to acquire anything you wish. The designer's choice is much wider than yours; his sources and reference books are endless. He knows which are the reliable workrooms and craftsmen. The designer is concerned with the "long haul" as well as the immediate effect.

A reliable interior designer makes himself responsible for everything connected with your job. If draperies arrive too short or a tile is badly laid, it is the designer's headache and not yours. He will supervise the job through completion.

Beware of the "pretenders." They still exist in some communities, frequently known as "10 Percenters," whose qualifications consist of a resale number and a friend's definition of "good taste." They usually have little study or professional experience. Their fees are usually minimal because their work does not warrant any more. When mistakes are made, they are at your expense.

Looking at pictures of past work helps little in choosing a designer, since each client's home, circumstances and desires are different. You cannot judge from other people's homes what the outcome of yours will be.

Instead you should request the names of clients whom you can call. Find out their opinions of the rapport, integrity and satisfaction they have experienced with a particular designer — that is far more important.

What about cost? The independent designer customarily charges a design fee when drawing board time is involved. This may include floor plans, detailed furnishings, changing the use of rooms, furniture placement all to scale. The design fee will be stated in advance.

Then for all the legwork, searching, planning, following up orders, supervision, installation and bookkeeping, the designer makes his profit by buying at a discount and charging you retail. The price-less ingredient of the unusual or surprise element that may be applied to your interior is yours for free.

Your agreement with your designer should be in writing, and should specify a retainer applicable to future purchases. You, however, should be in complete control over costs. After plans are made, character of the room established, samples and furniture shown, then and only then can a written proposal of cost be made. With this in hand, you may discuss, review, delete or modify. Then a downpayment is in order to meet expenses the designer will incur before you receive the merchandise. Fabrics, for example, must be paid for before the workrooms process it into draperies, spreads or upholstery. Your are then billed as merchandise arrives.

Your designer should be guided by as much knowledge about you as possible — your taste, customs, hobbies, interests and way of life — so your interior may be personalized and speak of you.

To "fool" your designer by pretending to wish to spend less than you can really afford is only cheating yourself. If your budget is really low, a lot can be done with tricks and camouflage with color for effect to achieve a very satisfactory appearance. However, the difference between a $5,000 estimate and a $10,000 estimate most surely will lie in quality, and it is up to you to choose.

Rebecca's forecast

For week of March 28 through April 4
ARIES (3/21-4/20) The early portion of this period revolves around domestic interests; elders are beneficial to many; and curb the tendency to be overly sensitive to other's remarks. Later, special wishes assume importance; your social life picks up momentum; and expect more demands in personal, health or job matters.

TAURUS (4/21-5/21) Contemplation of future plans may engulf many during this week; travel is lively; and details will prove to be most important. Later in this period, the emphasis is on home, family and property affairs; romance will flourish for many and be alert to behind the scene maneuverings in employment matters.

GEMINI (5/22-6/21) The financial theme continues to be a challenge for many during this week; 'refuse to dwell' on things you cannot change for the moment. Those at a distance assume importance and unexpected travel could be on the agenda. Later, work or health dilemmas crowd your thoughts; follow your instincts.

CANCER (6/22-7/23) You may be feeling moody and argumentative early in the week; private concerns escalate and mixing business with pleasure may be more profitable than you think. Later in the week, present your ideas to higher-ups; your intuition proves accurate; and don't get overly caught up in others' money woes.

LEO (7/24-8/23) The social theme ushers in this period; romance is in the air for many. Indulge yourself! Decisions that affect your personal life are on the horizon; dependants' interests crowd your thoughts and may deprive you of sleep. Later, financial matters assume importance for many; make long range plans.

VIRGO (8/24-9/23) Impulsive decisions or actions are best avoided early in this period. Local travel and visits are likely to be on the agenda for many; consider contacting those from your past. Later, communications assume importance; money matters are favored; and many will need more than tact in a touchy situation.

LIBRA (9/24-10/23) The accent remains on important alliances during most of this week; "take advantage of romantic opportunities that seem to pop up all-over and contact those at a distance. Later, be honest with another; private affairs flourish; and legal or partnership matters are favored. Domestic matters improve.

SCORPIO (10/24-11/23) Joint financial interests are favored early in this period; new sources of income are possible and gains through tax, insurance or pension are indicated. Later, be flexible to a change of plans or schedule; important meetings are indicated; and work related activities conclude this busy week.

SAGITTARIUS (11/23-12/21) This is not the best period for travel; mishaps are possible and last minute changes likely. Romance is so-so for many; work or health matters continue to present a challenge to many. Later, success is related to distance; and your career needs very careful handling for the moment.

CAPRICORN (12/22-1/20) Unusual or unexpected meetings are likely for many during this period. Look your best no matter what and do your best to dispel another's suspicion. Later, career/home dilemmas escalate; property matters assume importance; and interests at a distance may promote inner conflicts. Guard your privacy.

AQUARIUS (1/21-2/19) Local goings on dominate the early week. Allow extra time for travel and be very careful in driving; look out for the other driver. Finish up lingering tasks and projects. Later, you have the power of persuasion; behind the scenes interests assume importance; and defer financial transactions if possible.

PISCES (2/20-3/20) Romantic and financial activities are emphasized all during this week. New options or resources become available to many. Later in this period, the key to your success is in your approach; resolve longstanding inner conflicts; and pay attention to odd or quirky inspirations. They may be a goldmine!

FUN AND GAMES are the order of the evening for the Mental Health Association of Union County Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Scotch Hills Golf Clubhouse in Scotch Plains. Preparing for the event are, from left, Dorothy Capatosta, Joan Sxabo, Claire Cornett, Vera Stewart and Pat Kraus. Reservations and information on the 'Evening of Cards and Games' are available by calling 272-0300.

Mistakes delay returns

Many simple errors that can cause weeks of delay in the processing of federal income tax returns could be prevented if taxpayers would use the preprinted label and envelope that accompany the tax package, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

The peel-off label contains the taxpayer's name, address and social security number. It also has a series of numbers that are computer shorthand for the taxpayer's name, another series of symbols indicating the Postal Service local delivery route and the service center where the taxpayer filed the previous year. The two digit number indicates type of the tax package that was mailed to the taxpayer and a three-digit number allows the IRS to pre-sort and bundle the mail by destination for the U.S. Postal Service.

Many taxpayers are suspicious of these numbers on the label, mistakenly thinking that they are coding that will trigger an audit. They have nothing to do with audits, the IRS said. The coding on the label is designed to speed processing at IRS service centers and prevent common errors that delay issuance of refund checks.

If the return has a label on it, service center personnel know that the taxpayer's name, address and social security number are already in the computer and they need make an abbreviated entry of just 13 keystrokes into the computer.

However, if there is no label on the return, up to 97 keystrokes may be required to enter the taxpayer information from the name and address part of the return in the computer — a much greater expenditure of time and effort to accomplish the same result.

When you consider that IRS service centers process more than 170 million federal tax returns annually, more than 95 million of which are individual income tax returns all those additional keystrokes can really make a difference, the IRS said.

In addition to speeding up the processing of the return, the coded numbers on the label also prevent common errors that delay the issuance of refund checks.

One of the most troublesome errors, according to the IRS, is an incorrect social security number. Such an error can take weeks or even months to correct and is a major cause of delayed refund checks. Taxpayers should make sure that the social security number on the label is correct, and if not, mark through it and correct it on the label.
