Family celebrates 60 years seeing double

By Bea Smith

Two sisters registered identical pleasure when they attended a surprise 60th birthday party Saturday, Aug. 22, at Valentino's on Morris Avenue, Union. Identical twins, Joan Kelly of Florida, formerly of Springfield, and Jean Wernock of Bayonne, were mutually surprised and delighted when 52 family members greeted them in the Crystal Room.

"We've been planning this party for a long time," explained one of Joan and John Kelly's daughters, Mary Rothberg of Springfield. "And the whole family is thrilled to be a part of the conspiracy," she laughed. "My mother, Joan, and my aunt, Jean, thought they were just going out to dinner to celebrate their birthdays.

"They have a wonderful history," she continued. "They were the first set of identical twins to be born in the Margaret Haig Hospital in Jersey City on Aug. 24, 1932. The hospital is no longer in existence. They were born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles McHale, who were living in Jersey City at the time. They were educated there.

SAT scores improve slightly; Educators downplay importance of test results

Educators in the Union County Regional School-District are pleased with the performance of the 1991-92 student body on the Scholastic Aptitude Test, but will continue on the course of improvement, according to Superintendent Donald Merachnik. "I'm happy to see the results improve," said Merachnik this week upon the release of the figures.

Donald Merachnik 'Happy with results'

Performance on the math and verbal sections of the exam improved 35 and 45 points respectively. Jonathan Dayton Regional High School registered a combined increase of 13 points, improving by 4 points on the verbal section, and 9 points in math. The Springfield school's total rose from 920 in 1991 to 933 this year.

Regional Board finds ways to save

By Susan Krakowicki

Cost containment was the major topic of discussion at the Union County Regional Board of Education meeting Tuesday night. Board member Carmine Vones, chairman of the Cost Containment Committee, presented the recommendations of the committee to the rest of the board. They included staff reductions, a change in pay rate, and a plan to charge a fee for the use of school facilities by some groups and organizations.

Rain dampens pool attendance

By David Brown
Managing Editor
Water sports are the staple of summer, but too much water can put a damper on things. According to Recreation Director Brian McNary, attendance at the Springfield municipal pool dropped off slightly due to the string of rainy weekends this summer.

"You just can't predict it," McNary said. "The first year was a little rough, as with any new program," said McNary. "There were things that needed to be ironed out, but we have a handle on it."

Bicycle safety rodeo slated in Mountainside

Cycling enthusiasts of all ages are invited to learn that "safety is no accident" at the HIP/Rutgers Mountainside Health Plan Bicycle Safety Day and Rodeo.

The event is planned outdoors at HIP/Rutgers' Health Care Center at 1450 Route 22 West from 9 a.m. to noon Sept. 19.

Riders will sharpen their skills, have their bikes inspected, learn the benefits of helmet protection, receive a free T-shirt and be eligible for drawings of helmets, bike safety videos and other prizes.

Local and county law enforcement officials will discuss the new law requiring children under the age of 14 to wear a bicycle helmet when riding and will be available to fingerprint children so parents can maintain identification records.

HIP/Rutgers Health Plan is New Jersey's largest non-profit, multi-specialty group practice health maintenance organization.

Sponsors include Dorsey Pharmaceuticals (a division of Sandoz Consumer Pharmaceuticals), The New Jersey Health Injury Association, AAA New Jersey Auto Club and Jay's Cycle Center. Assistance will be provided by the Central Jersey Bicycle Club.

The event is free, but pre-registration is encouraged. For more information or to register, call (908) 469-5228.

Firefighters' vigilance to be marked Sept. 7

The Labor Day tradition is a celebration of this country's workforce. Most Americans spend the day leisurely, enjoying "time off" with family and friends. Local firefighters continue to "labor" to ensure the safety of all.

In appreciation of these men and women this Labor Day, The Olive Garden Italian Restaurant will deliver a complimentary Italian feast to the Springfield Fire Department, 65 Caldwell Place, at noon Monday.

"Firefighters are really heroes of our community. And many times, the 'unsung' heroes," said Steve Siegel, general manager of the Springfield Olive Garden Italian Restaurant.

"This is just one small way for us to show our appreciation and to say thank you for a job well done."

The firefighters will be served an Italian meal of fresh lasagna, crisp garden salad and hot garlic breadsticks by The Olive Garden employees.

The Olive Garden Italian Restaurant, which specializes in Northern and Southern Italian cuisine, will be open Labor Day.

Paperback books will sell for 10 cents each and hardcover books will sell for 25 cents each. In addition to the books, we will have antique treasures for very little money."

Katz chosen to head GOP campaign

Judy Blitzer and Harvey Frucher, Republican candidates for Springfield Township Committee, today announced the appointment of Deputy Mayor Jeffrey H. Katz as their campaign manager.

"We are delighted that Jeff has accepted the position of campaign manager. His experience, coupled with our enthusiasm, should make for an exciting and energetic campaign," said the candidates.

"Judy, Harvey and the campaign committee have been planning this year's campaign for several months. Frankly, I think Judy and Harvey are an easy sell. Both have so much to offer. It will be nice to have two more people working almost full time on things that matter," Katz said.

"Instead of just two or three of us doing the work of five elected commissioners, we'll have four or five pulling in the same direction," said Blitzer and Frucher. "That really makes a difference in moving Springfield ahead and keeping us competitive with other communities."

"Judy Blitzer and Harvey Frucher bring fresh insights, fresh approaches," said Katz. "Since 1988, Springfield has been well served by a Republican majority on the Township Committee. We'll be working hard to make sure everyone realizes how vitally important it is to elect the team of Blitzer and Frucher to continue the progress," Katz stated.

"What this election boils down to is simple economics and candidate credibility," Katz continued. "The very best the Democrats can boast is their 18 point tax increase in 1986 and their

"The door-to-door campaign has begun," Katz continued. "And this year, for the first time, the candidates will be available by phone to answer questions for those voters who may not be home when the candidate stop by."

"We look forward to seeing everyone along the campaign trail," said Blitzer and Frucher.

He and more than 1,200 classmates are being taught "basic skills" in seamanship, sailing, close-order drill, hand-to-hand combat and Navy customs and traditions. As a freshman, he began classes Aug. 24 after a pre-commissioning cruise from summer training cruises throughout the world with the Navy and Marine Corps.

After graduating from the Naval Academy, the four-year undergraduate college of the Navy, McGrath will receive a bachelor of science degree and will graduate as a commissioned officer.

Utilities Authority receives $170,000 in settlement of trash disposal suit

A four-year lawsuit against a garbage hauler ended last month when the Union County Utilities Authority agreed to a $170,000 settlement. The suit, initiated by the UCUA in 1988 against A. Fiore & Sons, Inc. of Newark, is the authority's largest waste flow settlement to date, UCUA Chairman Angelo Bonanno said. "Appropriately, this money will be used to recover the expenses the authority has incurred while pursuing this case as well as being used to offset the costs associated with investigating and litigating other cases that are similar in nature," Bonanno said.

"Some electricity between the press and the public is historic and probably inevitable if we are doing our jobs."

-Lou Boccardi

Many questions, few answers

The Springfield Republican Committee's 15-point resolution censuring Mayor Philip Kurnos last month raises some serious allegations against his colleague, but the timing and the charges made raise more serious questions about the local GOP's motives in issuing the document than whether or not the mayor has abused his power.

Certainly, if the mayor stepped beyond the bounds of his power, he must answer those charges, some of which may be ethical and others which may be criminal. In this country, no man need prove his innocence, and if his guilt is to be determined, it must be in front of an objective jury.

Kurnos has been charged with making a self-appointment, appointments of family members, giving himself a parking space at the municipal building, acting in collusion with his Democratic colleagues, violating the membership laws of the Springfield Pool and, most recently, wheeling and dealing with a local bank for the benefit of his daughter's career. Springfield residents must demand an investigation into these incidents by a local ethics board or the Prosecutor's Office, but in the meantime, voters must understand that most of what is occurring is the beginning of what is expected to become a very bitter campaign in a very partisan community.

A study of the charges presented by the Republican Committee makes one wonder about motive. Bringing forth these charges now, months after they occurred, and censuring Kurnos could be the local Republican Committee's way of disassociating itself with a fellow Republican who has been outspoken against his party's candidates and therefore poses a threat to a GOP victory in November. It could also be the committee's way of discrediting a forceful figure who has all but embraced his Democratic colleagues, when only a year ago he was in the habit of degrading them.

The local GOP leadership has a right to be concerned about Kurnos' alliance with the Democrats. One only has to look at how quiet the usually outspoken Democratic Committee members have been during this tirade against Kurnos. The mud thrown against the mayor has become food for a political feast by the Democrats, but they haven't called for an investigation.

The Republican constituency should also be concerned. Their concern should be with the direction its leadership has taken because of personality conflicts. Many Republicans voted last year to maintain the GOP majority on the Township Committee hoping they would get good, responsible, cost-effective government.

Finally, the general citizenry of Springfield should be concerned with the recent happenings involving the governing body. The good government everyone seeks from elected officials is slowly deteriorating for the sake of the current political campaign.

His criticism is inconsistent

To the Editor:
If the expression "Those who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones" were to be dedicated to anyone, it would be Bruce Bergen, Springfield's Democrat Boss and attorney at law.
Boss Bergen, Esq., in a recent letter to the editor, criticized my lawsuit against Union County. He called it "frivolous." He said to your readers, "That was your money — tax dollars — which Pappas forced our county officials to waste in defending his baseless suit." What Boss Bergen, Esq., failed to mention was that my case is still in the court system — and he knows it. And I fully expect to win my case.

However, let's get back to Bergen's glass house and his very large bag of stones. How does Boss Bergen, Esq., defend his own candidate, Jo Ann Holmes, and her lawsuit against the Springfield Board of Education a few years ago over her being fired? Is he ready to go on record that Holmes' lawsuit was "frivolous" and a "waste of taxpayers' money" as he claims mine is? As the story goes, Jo Ann Holmes was teaching third grade at Sandmeier school at the time. She was called into the principal's office following an evening workshop at the school and was told that the district would not rehire her the following school year. Her contract would not be renewed. Mrs. Holmes filed a lawsuit to regain her job and benefits. I understand that the basis of her lawsuit was virtually the same as mine.

The court ruled in favor of the Board of Education. Mrs. Holmes was not rehired and someone else replaced her.

Because I believe strongly that anyone who suffers an injury or injustice deserves to have their day in court, I have no problem with Mrs. Holmes having taken legal action. I do have a problem with Mrs. Bergen. Esq. As an attorney he knows that justice is blind at times...but not nearly as blind as he is. I challenge Boss Bergen, Esq., to explain his inconsistent criticism of my reasoning. Just how can he criticize me and not criticize Mrs. Holmes for making our Board of Education spend taxpayer dollars to defend that case and win? Will Boss Bergen, Esq., now come forward and criticize Mrs. Holmes for having filed her lawsuit? Will he say that she was "frivolous" and a "waste of taxpayers' money" as he did with mine? "That was your money — tax dollars — which Holmes forced the Springfield Board of Education to waste in defending her baseless suit," as he did with mine?

In the eyes of the great Boss Bergen, Esq., it was OK for Holmes to sue, but not for me. And her case is totally finished. Mine is still in the courts! Boss Bergen, Esq., is nothing but a flaming hypocrite who talks out of all sides of his mouth whenever the purpose suits him. And this is the man who can't wait to become the next township attorney if his candidates win in November!

Crying 'foul' is no defense

To the Editor:
It's only natural for someone who is formally censured to cry "foul," to claim that "it's all lies," to portray himself as the victim, and to claim that it's all just political hype. That's exactly what Phil Kurnos is doing.

We in the Republican Party consider misconduct by public officials to be very serious. When one of our elected officials no longer understands the difference between right and wrong, between lawful and unlawful, between self-sacrificing and self-serving, our party does not just stand by and permit it to continue. Our responsibility to the people of Springfield is greater than that. Honesty, integrity, and upright conduct are more important than maintaining some public perception that all is well among the three members of the Republican "majority" on the Township Committee.

Nothing is more important among our elected officials, regardless of party affiliation. No matter how many mistakes he may make, no matter how many letters he may fail to answer, no matter how many constituents he may help or disappoint, an elected official commits no greater sin than to lack integrity. By his words and actions, Phil Kurnos has demonstrated he has been compromised and he has yet to explain his conduct to the public or to his party, except to admit publicly that he "missed his power."

And let's be perfectly clear on this. It does not matter how important or how "petty and playful" Phil thinks these instances of misconduct may be. What does matter is that they occurred at all.

All Phil says is, "It's all lies." Well, if "it's all lies," then if even one point in our resolution of censure is true, it is Phil Kurnos who is lying. Phil claims the resolution was adopted by just a handful of people. What Phil forgets to mention is that the entire county committee is made up of 26 people. Seventeen were present for the start of the meeting and were, therefore, eligible to vote. Three more members asked to vote by proxy in support of the resolution. Four more arrived after the meeting had adjourned, and after reading the resolution, asked that their names be added to those voting in favor. So, at least 24 out of 26 members support the resolution. The 25th and 26th members were either away on vacation or had another commitment. The vote was unanimous. Our bylaws do not permit voting by proxy and it would have been improper to request the members after the meeting had adjourned. We abide by our own bylaws and rules of procedure because it is proper, honest and ethical to do so.

And that's what this is really all about. We teach our children that we are a government of laws and not of men. We teach our children that when elected officials use their power within the bounds of the law and in positive ways, they command admiration and respect. When they use their power outside the law and in negative ways, they deserve censure, condemnation and prosecution. Phil's use of power outside the bounds of the law is inexcusable. Phil's abandoning his party is inexcusable. Phil's failure to adhere to the high standards expected of Republican elected officials is inexcusable. And that's why our party is solidly united against him...not the Ruocco party, not the Pappas party, not the Katz party, not the Kurnos party, but our party.

One other thing is inexcusable. Phil has developed an unhealthy, unjustified and unsupported hatred for Committeeman Harry Pappas, whom Phil personally recruited to run for office last year. But this hatred fits in quite well with Phil's own "It's the King, don't mess with me, one man show" attitude. Harry has the audacity to question and Phil doesn't like to be questioned. And Harry has the audacity to believe that the power of one's office should not be used for personal gain as Phil has used it.

There is no room in our party for personal gain and, if it does exist, we move quickly to clean house.
Phil even went out of his way to start at least two baseless and disgusting rumors about Harry over the past few months. And when the facts were investigated and made known to those who believed Phil's communique, he apologized formally and sincerely apologized to Harry. Phil used those people well. Phil is even using municipal employees to help spread another nasty rumor. According to them, Phil has whispered that if the Republican candidates are elected, those employees are out of a job. Responsible elected officials do their best to keep our municipal employees out of the political fray.

Phil is motivated primarily by two things. First, he is bitterly jealous of Harry. Harry won his very first election last year by a plurality of nearly 400 votes. Phil's combined plurality for two elections totaled about 200. That's tough on the ego of someone who believes he's the most beloved person in Springfield. Second, Phil is deeply "hurt" that his hand-picked candidate, Jo Ann Holmes, wasn't selected as a Republican candidate in April. He refuses to remember that she not only failed to show up for the screening, but had already signed a nominating petition for the other party several days before.

Our party, our Township Committee, and the public want elected officials who are honest, ethical, law-abiding and true to their constituents. We don't want or need vindictive officeholders who vilify and cry "foul" when they are caught with their hands in the proverbial cookie jar.

William A. Ruocco, Chairman
Springfield Republican Municipal Committee

Is even Beau safe?

To the Editor:
In last week's Springfield Leader, Marc Marshall let loose another barrage of venom against my family and me. The only one he hasn't mentioned so far is our dog, Beau, and the way the lies are spewing forth, I'm not sure that Beau will remain unscathed. It wasn't the fact that he lied that was so upsetting — however difficult, I have come to accept that — but the scope and the viciousness of those lies were really startling.

In his letter, he described all those allegations listed in the resolution against me as "a matter of public record" or "supported by fact." Nothing could be further from the truth and he knows it! As a matter of fact, I answered each and every one of those ridiculous yet vile accusations, and I sent those answers to elected officials throughout the county.

Considering the fact that up until a short time ago we were close, the vehemence of his attack against my family and me becomes even more startling. After all, it is true that my wife and I spent time with the Marshall family almost every weekend for over two years. And, it is also true that we were surrogate grandparents to their son. If he had found fault with me, doesn't logic dictate that he would have talked to me rather than stone up reasons to be displeased, and then write his displeasure in a letter to the newspaper? To show how ludicrous his now-found allegations are, two weeks before he supported that infamous resolution, he invited us up again to spend a Sunday with his family. Could it be that he found out all those "bad" things about me in just those couple of weeks? And, could it be that Marc Marshall is so self-righteous, such a paragon of virtue that he can no longer stand to be associated with me because of the piddling things he says I am guilty of?

Obviously, that can't be true. What is also obvious is that he suddenly decided to align himself with Pappas and Katz. These are the other "self-righteous" people who didn't begin their vicious campaign to discredit me until they found out that I refused to back the Pappas-picked candidate in this coming election. Then the Pappas style of gutter politics began — that is, throw enough mud up against the wall and some of it is bound to stick. In many ways, Katz and Marshall are worse than Pappas. Almost everyone knows what Pappas is and what he stands for, but Katz and Marshall wear the cloak of respectability. They are wolves in sheep's clothing and that's dangerous. There is no doubt that they have aligned themselves with the devil, and if even one of the Pappas candidates is elected this fall, we will have Pappas and his little group of lackeys in control of Springfield. Right now, I'm in their way because I refuse to "play ball" with them. That is the real reason behind the avalanche of lies and distortions being hurled against me.

The good part of all of this is that my name will never again be linked with theirs. Inevitably, they will turn on each other just as they have turned on me and they will eventually self-destruct. I just hope that when that happens, they won't be in a position to turn Springfield in the process. There are many people who believe that, depending on how we conduct ourselves on Earth, we get to spend the rest of eternity blissfully roaming around heaven or burning in the fires of hell. I hope they're right!

Marshall has selective amnesia

To the Editor:
Former Mayor Marc Marshall's letter to the editor of Aug. 27 shows a stunning lack of awareness of his own past actions. In 1986, a group of us formed SCOPE to prevent the construction of an amphitheater and to preserve open space in the former Houdaille Quarry. Marc Marshall and I were co-chairmen. Township Committeeman Jeffrey Katz, looking to curry political favor with the Kean administration, tried to stop this by spreading the story that we didn't allow construction of an amphitheater in the quarry, we would get a "raw garbage dump." This was a hoax based on an outdated report. Katz personally also warned me that "you will not be allowed to speak at any political forum with the Kean administration, tried to stop this by spreading the story that we didn't allow construction of an amphitheater in the quarry, we would get a "raw garbage dump." Ferroni's team didn't look too classic

Iowa and the Kickoff Classic just don't seem to go together. While Union's Mike Ferroni, a starting senior offensive lineman for the Hawkeyes, received his share of fan support Saturday night at the 10th annual Giants Stadium contest, Iowa could not hold off an upstart North Carolina State team.

N.C. State snapped a 14-14 fourth-quarter tie with 10 unanswered points for a mild 24-14 upset. The win inserted the Wolfpack into this week's AP Top 25 rankings at No. 18. The loss dropped Iowa to No. 23. Iowa became the first team to lose the Kickoff Classic twice (0-2) as it was beaten by Tennessee 23-22 in 1987's game. Not only do Big 10 teams have problems winning the Rose Bowl, but they are winless in the Kickoff Classic at 0-3. Ohio State lost the 1986 game to Alabama 16-10. Things don't get any easier for the Hawkeyes this week as they are preparing right now for Saturday's home game against Miami. The Hurricanes (AP National Champions in 1991) have the nation's longest winning streak at 18 games and have not been beaten since Notre Dame turned the trick during the middle of the 1990 season.

Ferroni, a 1988 Union High School graduate, and his teammates on the offensive line will have their hands full with Miami defenders, including the very talented All-America defensive end Rusty Medaris.

ANOTHER FORMER UNION STANDOUT IN THE BIG 10 is Purdue junior cornerback Jimmy Young. The 1989 UHS graduate is one of 20 preseason candidates for the Jim Thorpe Award, as released by the organization. Malik Jackson of Elizabeth, a safety for Rutgers, is another candidate.

Young earned first-team All-Big 10 honors last year with 38 tackles and six interceptions for the 4-7 Bolleymakers. He is a first-team preseason All-Conference pick this year for Purdue, which opens Saturday, Sept. 12 at home against California.

FORMER UNION SCHOLAR-ATHLETE MIKE JARMOLOVICHI, an inside linebacker, is one of four candidates for Maryland this

Gridiron Grapevine

J.R. PARACHINI

The 1987 UHS grad, who will play his senior season this year as a graduate student, led the Atlantic Coast Conference and was eighth in the nation in tackles in 1991 with 153. Maryland, which went 2-9 a year ago, will open the 1992 campaign Saturday at Virginia under the leadership of first-year coach Mark Duffner.

ACCORDING TO DRAFT GURU MEL KIPER JR., former Brearley Regional standout Mike Chlenski (6-4, 263) ranks fourth among defensive linemen in the nation. Kiper's latest rankings appear in this week's issue of College & Pro Newswatch Football.

Kiper ranks the top five at quarterback, running back, fullback, wide receiver, tight end, offensive lineman, defensive lineman, linebacker, and defensive back for who he feels are the blue-chip prospects available for the 1993 draft.

Chlenski, a 1988 Brearley grad, ranks ahead of Purdue nose tackle Jeff Zaonina (6-1, 279) and just behind Florida end Darren Mickell (6-4, 277), Florida State end Dan Footman (6-5, 280) and Toledo end Dan Williams (6-3, 275).

NICK VILLANI OF ROSELLE PARK, AN ALL-STATE PICK his senior season last year for the Panthers, is on the roster at Rowan College (Twenty Glassboro State).

Manigan anxious to bring continuity to grid program

Dayton mentor enthusiastic about campaign

By J.R. Parachini
Sports Editor

Although Dayton Regional High School did its best not to publicize the hiring of head football coach Ed Manigan, the former Seton Hall University gridiron mentor is anxious to make his presence felt.

"I want to bring some continuity to the program," said Manigan, who was officially named to the post at a Board of Education meeting back in April. "I couldn't have been more excited and enthusiastic when I was appointed."

Manigan, 49, is the third coach at Dayton in three years. Last year Tony Maglione replaced John LeDoms, who had held the post for four years. Maglione, who came over from Bridgewater West, resigned earlier this year citing that the commute from Clinton was too much.

"I'm anxious to get into the community and meet the people here," Manigan said. "I love the concept of family and town and hope to be able to lead a teaching position at Dayton. I would like to both teach and coach here."

Manigan, who found out about the job in the newspaper, had been an assistant coach at Millburn the past two seasons.

"I wanted to get back into coaching and saw this as an opportunity that might also allow me to teach," said Manigan, who, for the past two years, has been the assistant director of public safety at Seton Hall.

Manigan graduated from Columbia in 1961 and Bucknell University in 1965 and played football (offensive and defensive tackle) at both. During his senior year at Bucknell, 1964, the Division I-AA school won the Lambert Cup Trophy as the best team in the east (Best of the East).

He was an assistant under Dick

DeMasi at Morris Catholic his first two years out of Bucknell and was head coach at Seton Hall (the school's last) from 1968-1981. Manigan was also an assistant at Upland during the 1984, 1985 and 1986 seasons.

"I've spent an awful lot of time with the kids already (in the weight room this summer) and couldn't wait to take a look at last year's files," Manigan said. "We've got good kids here, kids that have shown me they will be here all the time. I don't foresee any discipline problems."

Maglione installed a wishbone attack last year and Dayton took to it like a dog to a bone. Seniors Andy Huber, Peter Kuznetz, Pat Conte and quarterback Clayton Trivet ran for most of Dayton's 1,900 yards on the ground.

After a 1-8 record and being outscored 163-43 in 1990, Dayton rebounded last year with a 6-3 mark and outscored the opposition 214-126. The Bulldogs, who won a share of the Mountain Valley Conference-Mountain Division title with immaculate, narrowly missed a berth in the North Jersey, Section 2, Group 2 playoffs and recorded their first winning season in three years.

"It was really impressed with what I saw of the team last year," Manigan said. "They had a lot of talented players who dedicated themselves."

"This year's team, for the most part, will be center dominated like last year's. Unfortunately, not many of our seniors have a lot of experience, but they're all hard-working, good kids and the strong nucleus of our team."

At this point, five days before the team's first scrimmage, Manigan has juniors David Nitoko (5-8, 170) and Sharod Wright (5-11, 160) battling it out for the starting quarterback position.

Both are getting used to a Slot-1 and Power-I offense that Manigan and his staff have installed.

"With the wishbone, you either believe in it and run it, or you REALLY believe it can work consistently, or you try something else," Manigan said. "When Darryl Royal designed the wishbone when he was at Texas Tech I took a look at it, but I like a more wide-open offense. I like an offense with a little more option play involved."

The only assistant from last year that remains on the staff is Chris LaFargola. Last year's freshman coach, LaFargola will coach the linemen this year.

Greg Currie comes from Newark East Side and will coach the offensive line. Bob Barraco, a junior at Montclair State College and from Cedar Grove, is the new freshman coach. He'll be the scrimmage coach for Dayton followed by the regular season slate (off-scrimmage) at Millard Park vs. Millard Park and Essex Catholic.

Representing Springfield in the Youth Boys Division was Zubair Patel and in the Intermediate Boys Division Vincent Mei and John Cpin. Youthful Patel, Sunny Chung, Mink Kazemi and David Gubernet played in the Advanced Boys Division and Vincent Mei participated in the Advanced Girls Division.

During the regular season the junior tennis team completed its first undefeated season in the New Jersey

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

A dance studio marks 11th year

The dance studio, All That Dance, which recently moved from Ridgeway Avenue, Elizabeth, to its new expanded modern studio at 505 Morris Ave., Elizabeth, is beginning its 11th year in business.

"Our studio," said Michele Salvano-Kowalski, director of the school, "is equipped with two dance rooms, large waiting rooms, dressing rooms, lockers, dancewear boutique, air conditioning and on site parking."

All That Dance offers a complete curriculum ranging in courses for the pre-school student through the advanced professional. "We pride ourselves in giving great care and individual attention in nurturing the abilities of each student to their fullest potentials," she added. "Our certified instructors stress not only skills in dancing, but social development and effective interaction between pupils and teachers."

Available classes include ballet, tap, jazz, acro-gymnastic, lyrical, pointe, aerobic fitness and creative movement for tots. "Our new fitness program," she said, "will include aerobics, low impact aerobics, steps, hand weights along with the use of our jazzco, sauna and showers."

It was reported that the studio is a jump for the National Award-winning ATD Dancers, a student professional company under the direction of Kowalski. Their recent return from the Healders National Talent Competition in Virginia Beach, Va., took home with three gold, 17 silver and three bronze trophies.

Captains of the senior team, Wendy Henderson and Tina Williams, passed two auditions for the television show, "Star Search," and are awaiting an answer from California on their finale video audition. Williams also was named a Healders Dancer for 1992 by auditors. Along with cash and special awards, the company has achieved national recognition for the past 10 years.

Students pose during rehearsal of musical number at the All That Dance, 505-517 Morris Ave., Elizabeth.

German school due

The Deutsche Sprachschule, a 58-year-old nonprofit German language school in Union, will open Sept. 12 at 8:30 a.m. for registration and classes.

The school, which operates Saturday mornings from September to May, offers classes for children from kindergarten to the 8th grade as well as adults, said Alan A. Siegel, school president. Students come from Union, Essex, Hudson and Passaic counties.

Siegel said the school, which holds classes at Franklin School on Julian Terrace, also offers "more than 100 students the chance to participate in German cultural activities." Traditionally, said Siegel, most students attend the Garden State Arts Center's German Heritage Festival and march in September's Stuyvesant Day Parade in New York City.

Adult classes, which begin later this month, are held Saturdays in Union and weekly evenings at Zion Lutheran Church, Clark.

"Our school was founded by German-Americans who wanted to keep their language and culture alive," said Siegel. "But it has been sustained for all these years by parents, many of whom are not of German descent, who are concerned about the decline of foreign language instruction in the public schools."

For further information, one can write P.O. Box 2164, Union, 07083, or call Siegel at 469-2318.
