DEMOCRATS ARE UNITED WITH NO PARTY TILTS

George B. Gaskill and Howard L. Potter, Committeeman and Freeholder Nominees

With Primary Election Day here Tuesday, the latest developments show three Republicans seeking the nomination as Township Committeeman, while all other candidates in both Democratic and Republican ranks are unopposed, except a minor contest for Republican County Committeewoman in the second district.

Committeeman Fred A. Brown, who has served six years, is seeking a third term, and is opposed by John J. King and Wilbur Selander. Each candidate has a strong organization, and the results of the primary are difficult to predict. Although Mr. Brown has been in office six years, and served as police and roads commissioner for the past two years, it appears that certain groups are attempting to remove him from office, and a struggle is evident.

The Democratic candidate for Committeeman, George B. Gaskill, is unopposed, as is the Freeholder nominee, Howard L. Potter, who is seeking to fill the one year term left vacant by the resignation of Peter H. Meisel. Charles H. Huff, who was appointed in 1929 by the Township Committee to fill the unexpired term until the next election, is running as a Republican.

William Hopponah, Township Tax Collector and Treasurer since 1919, is running for reelection for three years, as a Republican. There is no candidate for the position on the Democratic ballot.

Mrs. Robert D. Treat of Bryant avenue, present County Committeewoman in the second district, is opposed by Mrs. G. M. Buttweiler of 15 Rose avenue. Mrs. Treat, who has served eight years, has never had any competition before.

at Meisel and Morris avenues. The winner will receive the award tomorrow night, and be given a fitting at the shoppe during next week. Besides the dress, the most popular girl will also be given a wrist watch, valued at $50.

The Betty-Nan Shoppe carries an interesting line of exclusively priced dresses for sports and formal wear, and the young women in charge are both experienced in their business. Miss Floyd having formerly owned "Ye Bungalow Shoppe" at 3 Union avenue, Madison.

SEEK REVOLUTIONARY RELICS FOR EXHIBIT DURING CELEBRATION

Local residents possessing rare Colonial and Revolutionary relics are asked to place them on exhibition at the headquarters of the celebration June 21, 22, and 23 in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Benjamin M. Woodruff, chairman of the exhibits committee, wishes to assure those who loan various articles, that each will be covered by insurance, and that a policeman will be on duty and night at the exhibition quarters to prevent burglary. While it is true money will not reimburse those who lose precious antiques, the best of care is being guaranteed, states Mrs. Woodruff.

announced that his solicitors' committee were doing well, and that he will apply to the Township Committee for a donation of $500. At a meeting of the Township Committee Wednesday it was decided to consider the matter and inform Mr. Schmidt of their decision. Additions to Mr. Schmidt's (Continued on page 2)

DRUGGIST OPENING TOMORROW

Tepper's Drug Store will open tomorrow at 273 Morris avenue, next to the Postoffice, with a completely equipped prescription department, carrying a line of drugs, chemicals, herbs and anti-toxins. David H. Tepper, registered pharmacist, proprietor of the new drug store, has had fifteen years of experience, and announced that he will maintain an up-to-date frigidaire sofa, fountain and mechanicals as well as a full line of sundries, toilet articles, novelties, candies and cigars. He also stated that souvenirs will be distributed on the opening day. The new establishment will provide a delivery service with no extra charge.

ALICE REED FIRST IN GIRL CONTEST

Leading Popularity Race With Final Announcement Tomorrow—Ray, Pinkava Next

Latest returns in the Girl's Popularity Contest show Alice Reed first with 580 votes and Ruth Ray second, twenty votes to the rear. Marion Pinkava, who led up until this week, dropped to third place with 491 points. Other standings are as follows: Evelyn Ross, 379; Gladys Chennells, 283; Virginia Anderson, 209; Grace James, 121; Helen Welter, 90; and Lillian Parsell, 69.

The contest ends tomorrow night and the winner will be given a wrist watch, valued at $50 and the Betty-Nan Dress Shoppe at Morris avenue and Salter street announced this week they will present the winner with a sport dress of her own choice.

The votes in the "Most Popular Girl" contest serve as ballots at a grand drawing tomorrow night at the carnival grounds for an electric refrigerator, valued at $375.

The carnival has been handling many persons all during the week. The first night was slow, due to the rainy weather, but with Tuesday then all roads led to Meisel and Morris avenues. All booths reported activity, sugar, groceries, fountain pen, candy, baseball, enamelware, novelties, merry-go-round and the electric aeroplane ride.

At one booth Tuesday night, a woman, formerly a resident of Springfield, took away with her about 100 pounds of sugar, six fountain pens and several pen sets. While someone estimated she had spent about $20, it appeared she was still in the good. Excitement was furnished again the younger boys when a generous candy winner threw away several boxes.

The carnival will be opened Sat-

MANY INSPECT NEW BANK QUARTERS ON OPENING SATURDAY

Larger Premises at Morris and Flemer Aves. Is Climax To Rise Since 1925

The First National Bank opened for inspection Saturday afternoon in its new premises at the corner of Morris and Flemer avenues, in the Brookside building, and many persons visited the building on the first day.

The appearance of the interior and exterior of the bank won the admiration of everyone inspecting the new quarters. Many extra facilities have been added. There are now special desks for the cashier and officials, as well as three large wire-enclosed cages, an improvement over the former open tellers' cages. The bank now has a large vault to keep safe deposit boxes and other valuables, while before, these articles were left in a large safe.

The bank was organized October 5, 1925, with a capital of $50,000. A majority of Springfielders predicted a pessimistic future for a new bank here, but in two months the deposits reached a total of $100,000. The cashier was Walter S. Jacobus, for many years with the Fidelity Union Trust Company of Newark, and Dr. Watson B. Morris was elected president, and Nicholas C. Schmidt, vice-president. Dr. Morris and Mr. Schmidt have always been officers of the bank since. Dr. Morris has been a practicing physician here for twenty-two years, and Mr. Schmidt is vice-president and manager of the Union County Coal and Lumber Company.

Other directors are as follows: Morris Lichtenstein, proprietor of the Springfield Pharmacy, one of the largest business firms in Springfield; Fire Commissioner Robert B. Ferguson, secretary of the Board of Fire Commissioners and an official of the Lackawanna Railroad for many years; Township Committee Chairman Gabriel Larsen, Springfield's Mayor and superintendent of the L. Waterman Fountain Pen Company, of Newark; Erwin L. Meisel, local builder and contractor; Robert S. Bunnell, president of Bunnell Bros. Inc., real estate and insurance dealers; Carl H. Flemer, president, secretary and treasurer of the F. & P. Nurseries; H. Freeman Bonnell, cashier of the People's National Bank and Trust Company, of Irvington; A. M. Henshaw, proprietor of the Henshaw Floral Company, of Springfield and New York City; and Dr. Stewart O. Burns, dentist, and president of the Battle Hill Building and Loan Association.

The cashier of the bank, Louis J. Wiman, has served in this capacity since April 16 of last year. He was assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Madison for four years before coming here.

He is a graduate of Columbia University and a veteran of the World War, serving as a second lieutenant in the artillery. He played no small part in the erection of the new quarters, and the members of the building committee for supervising the construction of the new premises, besides himself, consisted of Dr. Morris, Lichtenstein, chairman, assisted by Nicholas C. Schmidt, H. Freeman Bonnell and Dr. Morris. The architect was Frederick Elsassner of Union.

The capital of the bank was doubled to $100,000 in 1928. Patronage is drawn from Newark, Elizabeth, Maplewood, Millburn, Summit, Union, Cranford, Westfield, Short Hills, Mountaineer and Irvington.

As a special service, the bank will keep in safe storage silverware over weekends or vacations when the owners are away at the various resorts, or on trips. The bank also has an ample amount of safe deposit boxes for rent in its new vault.

THE PUBLIC IS ENTITLED TO KNOW THE FACTS About Shoe Repair Prices

NO SHOE REPAIR DEALER CAN GIVE YOU FIRST QUALITY WORKMANSHIP AND FIRST QUALITY LEATHER AT LESS THAN COST—INDEFINITELY.
 If he offers you cheap prices all the time—then he is either willfully deceiving you, or else he hopes to eliminate competition and later raise the price to make up for his loss—IN EITHER CASE THE PUBLIC IS DECEIVED AND PAYS THE BILL.
 Some shops handle three qualities of leather, first, second, and third, and the prices of each run in proportion.
BUT I DO NOT DECEIVE YOU. I HANDLE ONLY ONE QUALITY OF LEATHER—A-1, at the right price.
 If a dealer can reduce the price of his work for nearly half during an indefinite period, then he must have been charging an exorbitant price before. Common sense tells us no business man can do work without profit.
 I earnestly invite you to my shop for shoe repairing, and offer the following price system, which I believe is fair to my customers and to myself:
