SUNDAY MINIATURE GOLF RAISES CONTROVERSY

SUNDAY BAN IS CURB TO TRASH, CLAIM SUPPORTERS

Favor Ordinance to Keep Undesirables From Opening Here

MAINTAIN TOWNSHIP WILL BE OVERCROWDED

Supporters of the miniature golf course closing on Sunday part of an ordinance to be given its final reading next Friday night by the Township Committee, claim that unless sufficient regulation is set forth, Springfield is to be overcrowded with at least fifteen or more golf courses.

If the ordinance be tightened in its regulation of golf courses and permit Sunday golf, they claim, many undesirables who would not open a course here, would rescind their action and apply for a permit.

It appears most of those favoring Sunday closing do not link their actions with the Sunday Blue Laws, but believe it is for the best interest of the town if they be prevented from coming here. They argue that the novelty will not last long, and that much serious dickerling and squabbling is not deserving of such an amusement. Although some maintain parking and traffic problems would come up, others are of the opinion that to open a miniature course, the proprietor must provide ample parking space.

No written statement has been made as yet by any in favor of Sunday closing, and it is heard that the Sunday closing supporters will also be present at the meeting of the Township Committee next Friday when the ordinance is considered for passage. With a group expected to be there in favor of opening on Sunday, some arbitrary measure is expected to emerge from the conflict.

JUNIORS INSTALL OFFICERS TONIGHT

Officers will be installed into Battle Hill Council 126, Jr. O. U. A. M., at a regular bi-monthly meeting to be held tonight in the Municipal Building at 7:30 o'clock.

The new councilor is John H. Baker, and the other officers to be seated are as follows: vice-councilor, Neal Blankart; recording secretary, Montague Martyn; assistant recording secretary, Joseph Shomer; conductor, Arthur Menz; warden, Arthur Koenig; inside sentinel, John Maschuch; outside sentinel, Elwood DeBerjeois; trustee for 3 years, Nelson F. Stiles; financial secretary, William McCarthy and treasurer, Otto M. Hopler. The delegate to the State Convention in Asbury Park in October is Edward Handville, past councilor, and the alternate is Nelson F. Stiles, also a past councilor.

IT'S A BOY

A boy was born Monday noon to Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Bunnell, of Stuyvesant avenue, Union, in Overlook Hospital, Summit. It will be named Robert Street Bunnell, Jr. Mrs. Bunnell was Miss Ethelind Cain, daughter of Mrs. Catherine M. Cain, of Bryant avenue.

B & L Meets Monday

The Battle Hill Building and Loan Association will hold its regular meeting Monday night at 7 o'clock in its headquarters, the office of Bunnell Brothers, at 4 Flermer avenue, in the Brookside Building.

LOCAL WOMAN'S CAR IN UNION ACCIDENT

An machine, operated by Mrs. Marion Ebbson, of the Farmer's Hotel, in Morris avenue, Springfield, was in an automobile accident in Morris avenue, Union, Monday afternoon. The driver of the other car, Charles Lilenthal, of 818 Townley avenue, Union, received abrasions of the left hand, and Mrs. Ebbson escaped injury.

GASOLINE TRUCK CATCHES ON FIRE

Volunteer firemen prevented a serious explosion late last Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock when a truck owned by the Texaco Gasoline Company, carrying 1,000 gallons of gasoline, caught on fire in Shunpike road, near the Baltusrol Club house.

Chemicals poured on the machine quickly put out the flames. The cause was said to have been due to the brake bands igniting when the brakes were suddenly used, after the driver attempted to stop the truck as it came down a hill. The car was headed for Springfield, when it caught fire. Luckily the fumes and heat did not reach the storage tanks above, sooner or the vehicle might have been blown to pieces.

With the possibility that the 1,000 gallons of gas might suddenly explode, the lives of the firemen battling the flames were in danger. The machine was slightly damaged.

FIREMEN CALLED TO HOUSE BLAZE

Firemen were called to a house fire at 9 Rose avenue Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The owner of the dwelling, Ernest R. Clark, was away at the time, and a neighbor, Charles Holland, saw the smoke and summoned Firemen Charles Pinkava at the firehouse, and he, in turn, immediately sent in an alarm.

A spark from a cigarette is believed to have ignited a stuffed chair in a room on the first floor of the house. Smoke hindered the volunteers, but chemicals quickly extinguished the flames. The damage was slight.

Mrs. Julia R. McDowell and family also reside in the house.

4-YEAR-OLD BOY IS HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Richard Reeve, four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reeve of South Maple, is recovering from injuries he received Wednesday afternoon of last week at the corner of Morris avenue and Ingersoll terrace, Union, when struck by an automobile. He suffered a broken ankle and bruises.

The boy was waiting for a bus at the corner with his aunt, Mrs. William C. Davis of Salfar street, Springfield, when according to witnesses, he ran in the street, thinking the bus was coming. He was treated at the office of Dr. J. E. L. Imbeau, of Morris avenue, Union. The driver of the automobile was Joseph Gondy, 1314 Elizabeth avenue, Linden.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my appreciation and sincere gratitude to the members of the Springfield Volunteer Fire Department for their excellent work last Sunday afternoon from preventing serious damage to my house, at 9 Rose avenue, when fire broke out. Also I wish to thank Charles Holland, a neighbor, who called the firemen when he discovered the flames.

ERNEST R. CLARK.

Police Court Affected by "Summer Depression"

Firm supporters of that queer idea of "a summer depression" have something further about which to rave. Police business was unusually dull last week in the matter of issuing motor vehicle violation summonses. For the first time in many months, no court cases were heard Monday night by Recorder Everett T. Spinning.

SCHOOL BOARD LETS PAINTING CONTRACT

The contract for painting the exterior of the rear extension of the James Caldwell School and work on the janitor's house adjacent to the school, was awarded to Horace L. Wright, of 37 Molter avenue, at a meeting of the Board of Education Tuesday night. The amount was $375 and the lowest of three bids.

The committee on the school site reported that the options on the new elementary school site in South Springfield avenue, which ran out July 15, were to be renewed, and that the school board would take title to the property before October 15 of this year. They also stated that an application had been made to the Fidelity Union Title and Mortgage Guaranty Company of Newark, to search and guarantee the title.

The actual size of the two plots purchased, and their price was announced, after a survey had been taken, and the figures were as follows: from Mrs. Jennie B. Murray, 3.97 acres, at $3,500 an acre, or $13,907.60; from John A. Schaeffer, 1.71 acre, or $2,275.65.

The three school janitors were re-quoted for the school year, Frank Quinzel and Harry C. Dunnell, of the James Caldwell School and John J. Tamm, of the Raymond Chisholm School.

Walter White, chairman of the Committee on School Government, reported that arrangements had been made to provide for the transportation of school children this fall.

FIREMEN ON DEEP SEA FISHING TRIP

Charles and Joseph Pinkava, George W. Parsell, Jr., and John Kelly, all members of the Volunteer Fire Department, were on a deep sea fishing trip all day Wednesday at Beach Haven. Their catch was a large one, consisting of fifteen fish, ranging from three to eight pounds. The boat in which they were riding was as far as thirty miles from the shore.

RITE HELD FOR ROBERT H. STILES

Funeral services for Robert Stiles of Morrison road, who died Wednesday of last week, in his fifty-ninth year, were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Young's Funeral Parlor, Main street, Millburn. The Rev. William Hoppaugh, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church and the Rev. Dr. Winfield C. Snodgrass, retired, both of Springfield, officiated. Interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

Mr. Stiles, who had been ill for a year, passed away at the Elizabeth Hospital, following an operation of ulcers on the stomach. He had been a patient at the hospital for three weeks.

He is survived by his wife, Henrietta Freeman Stiles; a daughter, Florence; a sister, Miss Josephine Stiles of Succasunna; and five brothers James C., Lewis, Frank, all of Springfield, Archibald of Westfield, and William, of Clarksburg.

PLANS CARD PARTY BENEFIT P. O. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. French of Clinton avenue, will hold a card party at their home next Tuesday evening for the benefit of Camp 209, Patriotic Order Sons of America. All games will be played, and members and friends are invited to be present.

Presbyterian Pastor, Wife Leave for Trip to Alaska

The Rev. Dr. George A. Liggott, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield, accompanied by Mrs. Liggott, left Monday morning for a two-months trip to Alaska. They are traveling by rail to Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, and will leave for Alaska on July 26 on the "S. S. Princess Alice."

They will visit the Presbyterian Missions in Alaska, and on their return, through Salt Lake City, Utah, will tour the interesting sights in the Western States, including the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone Park. The Liggotts have been in the West before, spending a summer there several years ago. They have also been in other parts of the world, having toured the Orient, Asia Minor and many countries in Western and Southern Europe.

SPRINGFIELDERS AT EASTERN STAR RALLY

A group of Springfielders were present at an annual Rally Day held all-day Wednesday at Asbury Park, for members of the Order of Eastern Star of New Jersey. Headquarters were maintained at the Hotel Alvon. Local persons present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Searles, Mrs. John L. Mayer, Mrs. Charles A. Mundy, Mrs. Wilbur M. Solander, Mrs. Robert D. Treat, Mrs. Norman McCollum, and Mrs. Thomas P. Christensen. All are members of Continental Chapter, O. E. S., of Millburn, and Mr. Searles is patron. Members at the rally from the Millburn Chapter numbered about twenty.

Appears at Theatre in Newark

Peggy Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bellingrath, of Remer avenue, is appearing at the Brantford Theatre all this week, beginning today, in a stage presentation with Eddie Garr, master of ceremonies at the Newark playhouse. She will sing several numbers, and do a little skit with Garr. Miss Rogers recently appeared at the Shubert Theatre in Newark, and has been on the stage since she was five years old. She has sung over radio stations WGCP, WAAM, of Newark, and WOY, of New York City.

The pupil of Mme. Victorine Sherwin, vocal teacher in East Orange, the local songstress has appeared in the "Sherwin Repp Revue."

FACTION THINKS "BARRIER" MADE ABOUT TOWNSHIP

In Letter to SUN, Writer Asks That Sunday Play Be Permitted

CITES SUNDAY GOLF AT BALTUSROL CLUB

Considerable comment has been raised during the past few days, opposed to the miniature golf course ordinance, introduced by the Township Committee, placing a ban on opening miniature courses on Sundays, and a delegation of local residents is expected to attend a meeting of the committee a week from tonight, when the ordinance is considered for final passage, and ask the board to permit Sunday play.

A reader has sent in a letter to the SUN, in favor of Sunday opening and it reads as follows:

July 16, 1930.

To the Editor of the SUN:
With regard to the action of the Town Committee on miniature golf courses within the township limits, the writer wishes to make a few remarks.

The action of the committee in requiring a fee of $100 to operate a course is praiseworthy and surely must meet with the approval of all citizens of the town; the stand taken by the committee, however, in preventing owners of miniature links from using the same on Sundays does not meet with the approval of this citizen. Why discriminate? Why should the less fortunate be deprived of a pleasure—a health-giving recreation, when the wealthy and influential can play all day Sunday and within the township's borders.

Yours for clean sport and healthy recreation,
T. B. L.

An argument is presented from one source that with other municipalities so close as Millburn and others permitting opening on Sunday, Springfield is building a "barrier" around its borders and refusing others to come here and operate a business of some sort when it would assist in boosting the township.

Adherents of Sunday opening claim that Springfield's money will be spent elsewhere if the local places are closed; that the revenue obtained for operating now vacant lots will increase the town's fund; that no law can prevent a church-goer from playing golf instead of attending church if the statute closes a place of recreation; and that the Sabbath Day is a day of recreation for many who labor the other six days of the week, and ask for some personal liberty on their day off.

RETURN HOME FROM 3,000 MILE TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dowling and daughter, of 103 Tooker avenue, returned home last Sunday after a 3,000 mile automobile trip to Biloxi, Mississippi, where they visited Mr. Dowling's parents.

Mrs. George Dray and daughter, Elsie and Edith, of the same address, accompanied the Dowlings in their own car, and visited Mrs. Dray's brother in Biloxi.

Mr. Dowling reported that they encountered good roads throughout the trip, with the exception of Alabama, where the highways were in a deplorable shape. He advised those who plan to tour the South to make a wide detour around Alabama.

THREE-RING CIRCUS TO EXHIBIT MONDAY

Hunt's Shows to Pitch Tents Near Five Points

Hunt's Circus, a three-ring production, transported upon their own fleet of fast moving motor trucks is to pay Union a visit on July 21 and will erect their tents on the old Lynch property, Chestnut street between Washington avenue and the Five Points.

According to the advance agents, this show presents a program with as many novelties and innovations as any circus upon the road today, having everything that the big railroad shows have, and presenting as many feature acts, as the cost of transportation is so much cut down that it allows the management to spend more money in the production of the main program.

Hunt's circus has been a tented organization for the past thirty-five years and has always accorded its patrons a good, clean, moral entertainment, and as the advance agents say it needs no special introduction to the show-going public as they know that they will see nothing that is not absolutely worthwhile in every respect and from every angle.

Hunt's Circus slogan is "Not So Big, But So Good."

Miniature Golf Courses

With miniature golf courses springing up in every town and village in this section, Springfield is well-equipped to prevent itself from becoming overcrowded with them. An ordinance, regulating Tom Thumb courses, was introduced at the last regular meeting of the Township Committee, and will be considered for passage July 25. Fortunately, the ordinance has enough "teeth" to prove effective in preventing a rash of courses on the township.

Located on the principal highways, where thousands of motorists pass daily, every vacant lot here would occupy an eighteen hole "course" if some measure were not enacted to curb the future condition.

The license fee set forth in the ordinance is $100 per year, and Sunday playing is prohibited. The hours for business are from 7 o'clock in the morning until midnight.

One of the principal reasons for objecting strenuously to miniature courses in other places has been due to the heavy traffic problems which are apt to result. Springfield will not be burdened with that question, if an ordinance regulating parking is adopted. Another complaint is brought out that it may bring a bad element to town, and that it will expand into a loud, boisterous, gambling resort. However, counter claims prove that there is not as much gambling as expected, and that the noise complaint is without bearing, since one of the vital rules of the game is to maintain silence while playing, whether it be on a miniature or regulation layout. Therefore, as a result, most of the clamoring comes from interested passers-by, and no law may be enacted to prevent their merriment at watching the actions of some golfers.

There are many who enjoy golf, and the majority are playing the game for its clean sport and other sterling qualities, and it would be difficult to restrain them from a personal recreation. To allow full enjoyment to those who play, it is necessary that they be fully regulated, and be licensed to function without becoming unbearable.

Unexpected support of Sunday golf has been gathering strength during the past few days, and the arguments presented by those favoring it, carry weight as well as practicability. They argue that if Springfield's courses be closed on Sunday, money which would have been spent here, will be added to the coffers of out-of-towners, since several nearby municipalities have ordinances in favor of Sunday golf. They also state that to keep miniature courses out of the township is not a liberal-minded idea, and that it is, in its true sense, literally building a "barrier" on the town's borders. And important of all claim. The Sunday golf adherents, that money which would come to the Township Fund as a license fee, is a revenue which is being cast aside, when it might assist in relieving part of the tax bills.

Refuting a common thought that the churches are in favor of having the Sunday ban in effect, a sensible constructive plan is brought out by a local resident that the miniature courses be opened after 12 o'clock noon, so that church-goers would not be absent from the places of worship. While no law in the land will prevent a God-fearing individual from indulging in Sunday golf except the law of the individual's own mind, nevertheless, this will satisfy without a doubt church officials and pastors, claims the suggestor of the part-time plan.

One of the strongest arguments furnished in favor of Sunday golf is in the form of a question which is difficult to answer. It is part of a letter addressed to the SUN by a reader and goes on to say, "Why discriminate? Why should the less fortunate be deprived of a pleasure—a health-giving recreation, when the wealthy and influential can play all day Sunday and within the township limits?" He refers to the only golf course in Springfield, the Baltusrol Golf Club.

From the opinions rendered, and we might add no comment has been made by the supporters of a Sunday ban, it remains for our readers to decide whether they favor Sunday golf or are opposed.

The Business Depression.

Optimistic phraseology was depended on for a while to give a rosy tint to the perceptible decline in business. With lowered activity in real estate, decreased production, reduced sales and lessened employment, the facts could not be dissipated by words. People resigned themselves to the reality of a depression.

Discussion has centered on the cause, which is sensible, because to remove a result it is necessary to know the cause. Among the things blamed are the stock market collapse, inflation in previous years, disturbance in world relations, an insufficient gold supply to do the world's financing, the greatly increased productivity of machines and failure to make adjustments accordingly.

Contrary to the objective of most people for elimination of ups and downs and the maintenance of an even tenor in business, one New York business man of note, contributes the opinion that such smooth and undisturbed progress would not be good, that it would tend to dry rot and decay. It is his idea that progress can only be made in cycles, the expansive periods giving enthusiasm and urge for progress, and the depressions serving to sort out weaknesses and to give people, through spur of necessity, the impetus to accomplish things.

One factor is a powerful motive force for an early revival, and that is the rapid consumption of surplus goods. In a time of abated activity, creating a surplus viewed with trepidation, and business feeds on what it has.

Goods that have been piled up are being exhausted. They will have to be replaced. Already there is indication in many industries that the replacement period is at hand, and that surplus supplies are waning.

Many business leaders predict with confidence that the end of the summer will see the final consumption of reserve goods and the necessity for production again on a large scale. Such an occurrence will mark the definite turning of the tide.

Co-eds and Professors

The University of Minnesota has a strange rule. No matter how efficient a girl may be in the arts or sciences, she is not supposed to merit a diploma until she has learned to swim.

Mary Humphrey saw her degree slipping away from her because, no matter how hard she tried, she simply couldn't learn to swim. She is a land animal and all her efforts to become amphibious were futile. The dean told her cold turkey a few weeks ago that she might as well reconcile herself. No swim, no diploma.

But Mary's troubles leaked into the newspapers and the dean, shocked by the publicity she has received, now has decided that she may graduate after all. While the idea of one of its graduates facing the problems of life without being able to swim probably is shocking to the university authorities, they would rather sacrifice Mary's future than bring further journalistic joshing down upon themselves.

We predict that Mary will be able to struggle along fairly well without knowing how to swim, provided she stays out of canoes. Few employers will scan her diploma and then turn her down because her fingers spread when she tries the Australian crawl and water in her nose makes her ill.

Rambling AROUND SPRINGFIELD

Rambling Around Springfield
Now it appears some are in favor of miniature golf playing on Sundays and some are not....the new ordinance prohibiting play on the Sabbath will be considered for final reading a week from tonight, and....a group of residents will be present to ask that Sunday golf be permitted, for the reason that the Baltusrol course is opened also on that day....perhaps the license rate will be raised from $100 to $300 if the Sunday clause be added to the ordinance....Chief of Police Runyon had a minor operation early this week for sinus trouble....speaking of the police department, an unusual happening took place there Monday night....no court cases were heard by Recorder Spinning....a prominent local realtor was beaming big smiles Monday afternoon....his wife had just given birth to a bouncing boy several hours before....the realtor in question, was distributing cigars to most everyone he met....too bad the Rambler couldn't pull a "Lon Chaney" or a "Houdini" and appear in different roles....might have stopped smoking cigarettes and took on "stogies" the boy will be named Robert Street Bunnell, Jr. ....the mother, daughter of Mrs. Catherine M. Cain of Bryant avenue, is feeling well at Overlook Hospital....the Merritt house at the corner of Mountain and Flemer avenues, sold several weeks ago, was moved from its site early this week....it will be located hereafter in South Mountain avenue....rumors say a gasoline filling station will take its place....we see "Tommy the Barber", old-timer here, who moved away last year after cutting hair in Springfield 12 years, is back....opened shop last Saturday in Morris avenue....understood old patrons used to follow him to Union to get tonsorial treatments....to satisfy a curiosity, interviewed the "Barber of Seville" in question....easily discovered his magnetic appeal....doesn't say much, very rare, indeed!

English Law Demanded Attendance at Church

Sunday holiday makers and trippers will be interested to know that a statutory law in England years ago prohibited such frivolity, says the London Daily Mail. The Act of Uniformity, 1552, requires: All persons, except those dissenting from the worship or doctrines of the Church of England and assiduously attending some place of worship not belonging to the Church of England, are, if they have no lawful or reasonable excuse for absence, to endeavor to attend their parish church or accustomed chapel, or, if reasonable, prevented from so doing, some other place where the divine service of the Church of England is performed, on all Sundays and other days ordained and used to be kept as holy days, and to abide there orderly and soberly during the time of common prayer, preaching, or other divine service there performed. Failure to observe this law renders the offender a "pensioner or inhabitant of a parish" who is not legally exempt from attendance at divine service on Sundays and holy days. "Habeas in proceedings taken against him in the ecclesiastical courts to be secured for the offense, admonished as to his attendance in the future, and to be condemned in the costs of the proceedings."

Ancient Builders' Idea of Humor Quite Modern

The builders of the old churches in England were not so serious but that they now and then perpetrated a joke, even in stone. On more than one of their creations they carved in relief a scene representing a monk preaching solemnly to a flock of geese. The same humorous spirit is sometimes to be detected in the domestic architecture of early times.

Just upon the boundaries of Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire formerly stood an old rambling farmhouse. The living-room was long and low, and on the center beam that went across the ceiling was inscribed this legend: "If you are cold, go to Hertfordshire."

This seemingly inhospitable invitation was explained by the fact that one-half of the room was in one county and one-half in the other. The fireplace was in Hertfordshire.

OFFICERS INSTALLED BY D. OF A. COUNCIL

Installation of officers was held last Friday evening in the Municipal Building by Pride of Battle III Council No. 17, Daughters of America. The officers seated were as follows: Junior past councillor, Ora Buetell; assistant past councillor, Martha Ross; councillor, Lillian Small; assistant councillor, Mildred Eckerman; vice-councillor, Ina Haberle; assistant vice-councillor, Viola Munsch; conductor, Carrie McDonald; warden, Lilly Selander; inside sentinel, Elsie Felsing; outside sentinel, Martha Hopler; treasurer, Ida H. Martyn; financial secretary, Anna Eldel; recording secretary, Adella E. Melsel; assistant recording secretary, Anna Breitwig; trustee for 18 months, William Searfield. Councillor Lillian Small appointed the following as chairman of the standing committees: entertainment, Mrs. Ida Martyn; refreshment, Miss Carrie M. McDonald; publicity, Mrs. Adella E. Melsel; and flower committee, Mrs. Mildred Eckerman.

HELP WANTED

Do you want a job? Have you a job to offer? Let the SUN help you solve your employment problems. To alleviate the unemployment situation, this newspaper will publish free of charge situations wanted and help wanted classified ads. According to the census returns there were 108 persons in Springfield on April 1 who were without a job and physically able to work. The SUN will be glad to connect potential employers and employees. Phone Millburn 6-1256 and if your want ad falls under this heading, you need expect no charge. The SUN is not an employment agency, and we request that all either use the mail or else inspect our files at the office. We cannot find that job unless some one informs us of it.

EVERY HAT A PRETTY HAT, LIKEWISE A FLATTERING HAT THIS SEASON

It will be seen at a glance that in the group illustrated fashion plays no favorite with brimmed or brimless, the bere and fitted cap shapes holding their own along with the hat with a brim. For the little molded-to-the-head toque shown at the top the modiste uses a black bako crown inserting motifs of white felt, adding a bow of the same.

A smart black ballbunt hat featuring a wider-at-one-side brim, also accenting the mushroom tendency (very smart in Paris) is pictured at the top to the left. Its undertrim of uncurled ostrich is a last-minute style feature.

The black lace straw hat confirms the vogue for wide-brims for dressy afternoon wear. It also has an under-brim trim of ribbon and a black-and-white flower.

Crochet straws, especially in black and white, draped in a manner as shown centered to the left in the illustration, and in the concluding model complement the new black crepe frocks which are so attractively enhanced with touches of white or gaudle this season.

If there were space for more pictures we would like to show one of those very new, coarse straws, which are light in weight and ever so glossy. They are immensely attractive and less demier cel from Paris.

Glove Mode Is Varied; 24-Button Model Used

The glove that the modish lady throws into the arena of fashion this spring, what are its special attributes? How does it differ from the glove of a year ago? In the first place it has been feminized just as everything in the world of clothes has felt the influence of a mode that softens and flatters. It has become widely diversified. Fancy has run its merry course with the cuff styles, fitting them to the natural contour of the arm, slashing them for har monizing inserts, ruffling them in gay ripples over the hand, notes a fashion authority in the Kansas City Star.

Sleeves and the caprices of sleeves have had a very definite effect on gloves and glove fashions. Since sleeves are accepted in every conceivable length gloves have been hard put to it to keep up with them. Long gloves for evening and day wear heralded months ago from that capital of fashion, Paris, have been accepted wholeheartedly and with charming results. Black gloves for the brighter colored evening gown and white for the pastels, that is the rule for evening.

And a lace mitt? A year ago lace mitts in smart society would have indicated but one thing—a costume ball was in progress with some winsome lass masquerading in the mode of a hundred years ago. But 1930 has done willful things with the lace mitt and fitted them into a modern scheme.

Daytime gloves are simple. In addition to the classic suede slip-on—which has taken the hint from a lengthened mode and become slightly longer—there are many glace kid gauntlets, cut with a slight flare, which may be turned back to show a contrasting lining. White kid with chain embroidery effects in black and white is a favored glove. Stitched patterns are important as always, the diamond motif being much in demand.

HOW TO LIVE LONGER

By John Clarence Funk, A.M., Sc.D.

Director of Public Health Education,
State of Pennsylvania

Forgetting

IT HAS often been said that memory is the real power of great men. Certainly it has played an important part in the lives of many of the world's outstanding figures. And perhaps the opposite is equally true. Forgetfulness is a monstrous handicap to overcome and is one of the main reasons for failure.

Fortunately a poor memory can be noticeably improved. Contrarily a good memory, in some particulars, can deteriorate, or at least be detoured.

As an example of this point, not long ago a brilliant lawyer, known the country round for his amazing memory, died. At the time of his death he was but fifty-four years old. But for the fifteen years prior to his demise he had so forgotten the sensible methods of living as to consume a pint of whisky daily, to eat enough food for three average men, to smoke fifteen cigars a day, to sleep only six hours each night and to avoid fresh air and exercise altogether. It therefore naturally followed as an inevitable result that he forgot to live!

It is bad enough to lack a good memory, but no matter how weak it may happen to be, it is sufficient strong not to forget that:

- 1—Enough, rather than too much food, is one of the secrets of longevity.
- 2—The body was made for daily exercise, therefore requires it and suffers if deprived of it.
- 3—Adequate sleep in a properly ventilated room is a necessary requirement.
- 4—The annual physical examination will promptly discover insidious disease onslaughts.
- 5—Brains, money, position and fame amount to nothing if health is lost.

Therefore, whether the possessor of a good or bad memory, don't forget these things. One is dead a sufficient long time without hastening the day through forgetfulness.

Stars Score Four Runs in 11th, Beat Linden, 6 to 2

Plainfield Acmys, in First Place, Play Here Tomorrow

The Plainfield Acmys, sensations of the second half of the Union County Baseball League, will play here tomorrow afternoon at Flermer Oval against the Springfield Stars, to retain their first place standing in the circuit.

The Acmys are tied for first place with the St. Joseph's Club of Roselle, after both teams, opening the second half of the league last week end, were the only ones to capture both contests. Springfield is tied with five other teams for third place with a percentage of .500, one win and one defeat.

Cecil Spittler, crack local southpaw, who beat his old teammates,

Linden, last Sunday, will toss them up against the Plainfield team. The Stars, to have any chance whatsoever of playing the winners of the first half, Hillside A. A., for the championship of the league, must not lose again. Spittler will be facing Plainfield for the first time this year, Jack McHugh having pitched against them twice during the first half, winning the first, 6 to 2 and losing the second by the same score.

The Stars will travel Sunday to Bayway Field, in Elizabeth, and meet the Elizabeth Braves. Bill Mullen, a newcomer to the local team, will pitch against the hard hitting Betsy-towners.

LOCALS LOSE OPENER TO ST. JOSEPH'S, 5-3

The Stars got off to a bad start in the second half of the Union County League last Saturday at Flermer Oval by losing to the St. Joseph's Club of Roselle, by the score of 5 to 3. Jack McHugh, pitching for the home team, gave twelve safe bingles, and the Stars made only five hits off Johnny Kapsch, St. Joseph's star right hander, of which three were for extra bases.

Kapsch fanned seven batters, and McHugh whiffed four, while McHugh walked one, and Kapsch passed six.

"Jake" Jackson got a triple, and W. Thorn and Artie Lamb each got doubles. Kapsch, Lettari, and Luthenauer, of the winning team, got three hits apiece, while Kapsch also scored three runs. St. Joseph's was always ahead from the start and sewed up the game in the seventh by scoring twice.

The score:

Antiquarians Puzzled

Antiquarians of Scotland are puzzled over a recent find in Stirling during the demolition of ancient buildings. They could determine that an old draw well had been under a house built 275 years ago and that window stones with the inscription "A. R." in flowing letters probably dated from the reign of Queen Anne. But a legend on a window is causing them to scratch their heads for they have no record of anything like it. The legend reads "I. B. II."

BUSINESS MEN IN PRACTICE BASEBALL TILT

Will Meet Springfield Stars at Flermer Oval Wednesday Night

A practice game between the Springfield Stars and a team consisting of local business men, has been arranged for next Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. Johnny Poldore will handle the reins for the Stars, and "Doug" MacIntosh, of Gibson's Diner, will manage and pitch for the opposition, which is termed the Springfield Giants.

On the Giants team will be L. J. Wiman, cashier at the First National Bank; Richard and Robert Bunnell, of Bunnell Bros., Inc.; Martin L. Woods, manager of the local Mutual Grocery Store, and many other local persons.

A large attendance is expected to be present, and according to the experts, a high score will be run up by both teams, and the winner of the contest cannot be as yet predicted.

It was originally planned to play the game last Wednesday, but due to a misunderstanding, the Stars were not ready to play.

SPITTLER, IN GOOD FORM WHIFFS TEN FORMER TEAMATES

With Cecil Spittler hurling good ball against his old teammates, Linden, the Springfield Stars took their initial win of the second half of the Union County League last Sunday by scoring four runs in the eleventh inning, to emerge on top, by the score of 6 to 2. The contest was held at the loser's field.

Up until the eleventh frame, Spittler and DeNike, Linden hurler, were engaged in a brilliant mound duel, with the locals scoring in the first and sixth, and Linden getting runs in the third and seventh.

Spittler, who comes from Linden and played with that outfit in the County League last year, struck out ten of his former teammates, and was a bit wild with free passes, handing out six. DeNike fanned two batters, and walked only two.

Besides winning the game with his arm, Spittler was effective with the bat, getting three singles. W. Thorne and Les Cole, Stars' right fielder and second baseman, each got a triple and a single. "Duke" Thorne, the Stars' classy center fielder, made a steal of two bases, hit for a single and scored enough runs, three, to win the game.

The score:

ROTH-STRAND, SUMMIT, N. J.

Will Rogers' introduction to the motion picture screen was engineered by Mrs. Rex Beach who induced Samuel Goldwyn to feature the famous wit in a series of comedies in 1920 and 1921. The pictures were entertaining, but the public wanted to hear Rogers talk. He talked in "They Had 'n' See Paris," and this picture has been acclaimed one of the best of the year. Now his voice is heard in the production, "So This is London," at the Roth Strand, Summit, today and tomorrow.

Songs from "The Cuckoos," the musical laugh hit coming to the Strand Monday and Tuesday, captured the fancy of virtually every star on the studio lot when the picture was being filmed.

Ten catchy song numbers were presented in this special production.

George MacFarlane, who enacts the role of the prison warden in "Double Cross Roads," is a former concert singer and musical comedy star. He recently played in "South Sea Rose" and "Happy Days," two Fox Movie-tone hits. The other featured players in this emotional picture, which comes to the Roth-Strand next Wednesday are Robert Ames, Lila Lee, Montague Love and Ned Sparks.

Cliff Friend and Jimmie Monaco, composers of countless popular song numbers, provided the two songs for "Not Damaged," the comedy with music next Thursday at the Strand Theatre. The numbers are: "Whisper You Love Me," which is sung by Lois Moran and Walter Byron in the picture, and a comedy song, "Nothing's Gonna Hold Us Down," sung by Inez Courtney and George "Red" Corcoran.
