EVIDENTLY LOCAL persons crave some excitement in the news columns... new-stand dealers reported to the publishers that their stock had been wiped out not long after copies of the Sun were placed on their shelves last Friday... advertisers, please take note... should there be anything exceptionally new and startling, we'll tip off the business houses to have their space in the local paper... interest in taxpayers association which will be organized next Wednesday night in the Municipal Building seems to be picking up comment in all parts of the township... in places the argument of its activity as a partisan body appears to be prominent but it may be safely held that the organization will not be dominated by active local political workers... here we are only about six weeks off from the November election and the heat of the local campaign isn't even hot enough to burn a straw... on the face of it, the expectation of the 1931 drive between both local parties may dwindle down to a whisper, despite the fact this is presidential year... Mayor Charles S. Cannon brought out at a Republican Club meeting last Friday night that the 1933 tax rate, unless unexpected developments occur, will be considerably lower than this year's figures... it cannot be denied that the local Township Committee was far ahead of many adjoining Governing Bodies in curtailing expenditures early this year when budgets were prepared... soon budget time will be here again and then it may be necessary to cut expenses still

Speaker of State Group to Talk at Public Gathering

Field Secretary Elwell Invited to Attend Session in Municipal Hall

A public meeting will be held in the Municipal Building Wednesday night at 8 o'clock to formulate plans to organize a Springfield Taxpayers Association.

The movement has been under way for a month and the meeting is expected to draw a large number of taxpayers interested in organizing into a local unit of the State and County Taxpayers Associations.

E. F. Elwell, field secretary of the New Jersey State Taxpayers Association, has been invited to attend and address the meeting on the need of the organization.

The meeting is open to all residents. Thomas J. Hankins, Jr. will serve as temporary chairman until permanent officers and a board of directors are chosen at the meeting. Other members of a committee arranging in the meeting include Walter S. Jacobus, George Bock, Edward A. Conley and George Wagner.

Patent No. 19 to Ex Mayor Larsen

GABRIEL LARSEN

Former Mayor Gabriel Larsen has just received a patent, his nineteenth, on an automatic propelling pencil. It was learned this week.

Mr. Larsen, chairman of the Township Committee for two years until last January 1, and a member of the board from 1926 to 1931, has been general superintendent of the Waterman Fountain Pen Company in Newark for sixteen years.

A mechanical engineer by profession, Mr. Larsen has been a member of the Waterman Company for twenty-eight years, having originally started in their employ in New York.

In commenting upon his latest patent, the former Mayor declared he has four or five other patents which have or will be submitted to Washington shortly.

Mr. Larsen resides at 47 Koeler street.

Town Committee Yet to Act Upon Day's Suspension

No Steps Taken by Governing Body in Cop's Case With Gaskill Out of Town

In the absence this week of Police Commissioner George B. Gaskill who has been out of the state, the Township Committee has undertaken no steps as yet in the recent suspension of Patrolman Manning Day, Jr.

With the exception of Gaskill, other members of the Governing Body declared they were ignorant of the suspension until they read a report in the SUN last Friday.

It had been reported the Township Committee would act accordingly depending on whether charges were preferred by Chief M. C. Runyon.

This is believed to be the first time Day "has been on the carpet" and that he probably will, should a hearing take place, be penalized a short period without pay.

Inside reports declare there is no reason to believe that the charges will be serious enough to warrant his being dismissed from the police department.

The Township Committee meets Monday night and further developments are expected to be heard at that time.

Principal Blames Conflict of Work Reason For Move

Has Been in Department With Municipal Director Macartney Since Start

Supervising Principal Fred J. Hodgson, local deputy director of emergency relief, tendered his resignation from the relief office today to Henry G. Nulton, county director.

His letter to Mr. Nulton reads as follows:

"While I have been glad to serve my town during the present emergency with whatever energy and resources are at my command, I have found during the years' experience that the duties of my regular work and those of Deputy Director of Emergency Relief are incompatible. I therefore tender this resignation from your organization."

In discussing the increasing amount of clerical work requested by the state since its new policy of practically wholly financing relief work, Mr. Hodgson told a representative of the SUN he would gladly remain in office but he finds himself at times embarrassed in discussing school problems with parents, whom, it may have been found necessary, to turn down on relief aid.

Mr. Hodgson has served as deputy director under Township Committeeman Lewis F. Macartney, municipal director, since relief was started in the fall of last year. A successor will be recommended by Mr. Macartney to be approved by the county director.

Early this year, both Mr. Macartney and Mr. Hodgson sought to resign from office but through an organized appeal from residents and editorial comment in the SUN, the men decided to remain on duty and the Township Committee heartily approved their decision to stay.

It had been originally felt that the original appointments would terminate in June of this year, and the relief work would be completed but instead conditions have made it necessary to continue with a state-wide relief program.

BICENTENNIAL GROUP TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Springfield George Washington Bicentennial Committee will hold a special meeting Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the P. O. S. A. Hall, 230 Morris avenue. All members of the committee, representing various local organizations, are urged to be present.

EDITORIAL

LOWER THE UTILITY RATES—

THE proposed Springfield Taxpayers Association has a multitude of problems before it. Most of these we believe will center about reducing expenses, chiefly those relating to our governmental expenditures.

At present there is becoming more and more apparent a movement to lower public utility rates and we believe that in this field our local organization has a chance to swell the rapidly mounting chorus of protests against price standards, which affect all of us, and which have been subjected to no "cuts."

The New Jersey Taxpayers Association, with whom our local body will become affiliated, intends to take up the utility rate problem shortly. Mayor McKee of New York has ordered his commissioner of water supply, gas and electricity to submit a plan by which that city can get lower rates for electricity. A proposal has been made to survey telephone rates in New Jersey with the view of revealing any direct evidence of excessive charging.

All of these indications are cheering to the small consumer upon whose burdened back is placed a load which is becoming heavier as the days go by, while relief waits. Most of our local citizens have been subject to reductions in salaries but they can see no justification in this policy unless living costs, in all departments, are likewise reduced.

An organized taxpayers appeal to the Public Utilities Commission for alleviation should bear weight. To such a task our recently organized body should devote serious attention.

Working For Everyone

THE New Jersey Taxpayers Association is working for you, and you, and you.

Everyone who pays taxes of any kind in this state should be vitally interested in this organization which has as its aim the protection of the taxpayer through forcing greater economy in government.

During the past eleven months, according to N. F. S. Russell, president of the Burlington County Taxpayers Association, which is affiliated with the state organization, the county taxpayers have been saved $110,000 through efforts of that group of men who are interested in the financial welfare of all those who foot the bill.

The financial problem of state, county and municipal governments should be met, the state association believes, not through discovery of new sources of revenue, but by curtailment of governmental expenditures.

The waste of taxpayers' money in New Jersey is appalling. That waste is the target at which the state organization aims. Your support will make that aim truer, because the organization will carry greater weight in direct proportion to its increase in membership.

Plans are being made now for formation of municipal units in each county town. Those units will keep eyes on municipal expenditures, as the county and state organizations do on county and state governmental costs.

Get in touch with members of the committee in your taxing district, and apply for a membership blank. It is to be emphasized that everyone who pays taxes of any kind is eligible for membership. It is not essential that

SPRINGFIELD
 Population—1930 census 3,725; 1920, 1715. Assessed valuations—1931, $6,481,774. Tax rate, 1932—Township, $3.22; state and county, $1.06. Incorporated 1857; settled early in 1700's. Springfield is essentially a township of homes. It is 55 minutes from New York City on the electrified D. L. & W. Railroad and has excellent bus connections to Newark, Elizabeth, Summit and Plainfield. The railroad stations at Millburn and Short Hills are less than a mile from Springfield Center. The Railway Valley Railroad has a freight station in Springfield, giving service for factories, commercial and industrial purposes. State Highway Route 29 makes it convenient to reach New York in thirty minutes by car when completed. Numerous state and county highways pass through the township. It has good streets, water gas, electricity and a newly opened sanitary sewer system. Of interest in Revolutionary history with its historic Presbyterian Church where Rev. James Caldwell cried, "Give 'em warts, boys," in the midst of the Battle of Springfield fought on June 23, 1780. Several colonial landmarks are to be found in Springfield, one of the oldest communities in Union County.

- What the SUN Advocates
- Believing that the following improvements are vital necessities to nourish Springfield's betterment and substantial progress, the SUN advocates:
1. A high school.
 2. Removal of dilapidated buildings which are "sorespots."
 3. Sidewalks wherever needed.
 4. Encouraging clean factories, to increase the ratables.
 5. Establishment of a Taxpayers' League.
 6. Postal-carrier delivery.
 7. Reduced bus fare within town limits and to Millburn R. R. station.
 8. Full time position for the township clerk's office.
 9. Set of Building Zones, before township is developed.
 10. A county park.

RELEASED IN BAIL FOR TIPSY DRIVING

James A. Coen, 43, real estate broker, of 51 Oberlin street, Maplewood, was released yesterday morning by Recorder Everett T. Spinning in $250 bail for appearance October 3 on a charge of drunken driving.

Patrolman Wilbur C. Selander preferred the complaint yesterday after stopping Coen a few minutes after midnight. A passing motorist called the policeman's attention to a car which was moving in zig-zag fashion. Dr. Henry P. Dengler pronounced Coen unfit to drive.

Criticisms are welcome. The publishers are open at all times to constructive suggestions in making this newspaper more interesting.

MATTER of OPINION

A Woman Looks at Springfield

It is necessary to look to psychology reasons for the behavior of people in these trying times. Much is being done for the under-privileged. Behind the greedy and grasping spirit displayed by some who are being helped, one sees that devastating emotion, fear. It is fear that the immediate future may be still more difficult, that present resources, however small, may be still smaller, or entirely disappear, that makes some people behave as they do. The trained social worker is injured to fault-finding, complaints of favoritism, and lack of appreciation, knowing that in the stress and worry about having food, shelter and clothing, these unworthy traits come to the surface. The volunteer worker to whom this service is new, finds that he needs all the resources of philosophy and a sustaining sense of humor, to offset the thought that he is doing a thankless job. It is true, of course, as has been asserted, that some of the relief work is used as a means of political preferment, and for graft. Nevertheless, the great majority of the army of welfare workers, both paid and volunteer, are doing a conscientious and honest job. They are sometimes deceived, they are not always able to detect those who are meanly abusing the spirit of charity, but in the main they are doing well a difficult and trying work. The constant strain of listening to the stories of privation and want, of knowing how impossible it is to grant people the one thing they most need work—is the hardest part of emergency relief.

Determined efforts on the part of depositors of the Asbury Park and Ocean Grove Bank, closed some months ago, may result in indictments, it is reported in the press. It is stated that "loans to directors have figured largely in the demand for Grand Jury action." Judgment must be suspended until the evidence is made public. There is a strong feeling, current that bank directors who violate the fundamental rule of banking by borrowing for their own purposes the funds of the depositors, to the extent of jeopardizing the safety of the bank, should be punished if they cannot make good their loans.

In the latest issue of the New Jersey Library Bulletin there were mentioned four fiction books as the most popular in demand. It is interesting to note that two of these may be found on our pay shelf. These are "Good Earth" by Pearl S. Buck and "The Fountain" by Charles Morgan. The other two popular books are on order and expected as soon as copies are available.

They are "Undertow" by A. H. Gibbs and "Magnolia Street" by Louis Golding. Our book committee is certainly on the alert to get the best for Springfield book-lovers.

Recent additions to our free fiction shelves are: "Finches Fortune" by Mabel Dela Roche; "Judith Paris" by Hugh Walpole; and "The Ten Commandments" by Warwick Deeping. These books are particularly popular and we are fortunate to have them for our readers.

For the children we have been given fifteen volumes of the "Oz" books. They are beautifully illustrated and appeal to the youngsters. As a matter of interest these were donated by several children that they might share their pleasures with other children.

This spirit is the motive of our volunteer system not only in the donation of time, effort and thought but in the giving so bountifully of books as well as money.

It is interesting to recall in passing only a short year ago this association was not yet formed. How much can be done when a large number of persons put their shoulder to the wheel to reconstructive work is illustrated in our library.

Choral Group to Resume Activity

The first rehearsal of the Springfield Choral Society for the second fall season will be held in the Municipal Hall Wednesday evening, October 5. The organization is planning a concert of music appropriate for the Christmas season, to be presented December 31.

Herald A. Jones will again be director of the society and Edward J. McGinley will continue as accompanist. The society through its president, John Potts, invites all who sing to become members, the aim of the group being to develop musical talent in the township as well as to create music appreciation.

Rehearsals in the past have been conducted so as to emphasize recreational atmosphere rather than arduous rehearsals in which many singing societies indulge. The director will continue the regular policy this season as last year.

The rehearsals begin usually at 8 and last not longer than 9:15 o'clock. To those who sing well, the society offers an opportunity of service to the community and personal enjoyment and to those who have not had the opportunity to develop their talent, a profitable evening weekly is promised.

A. A. A. RACES IN WOODBRIDGE

Bob Sall, Bryan Saulspagh and Lloyd Broshart, the three leaders in the Woodbridge Speedway 1932 point championship, will have to ride hard this Sunday at Woodbridge against a very strong field of daredevils to retain their present standing in the title race and the big prize money that will go to the three highest at the end of the current season. Saulspagh failed to add anything to his points last Sunday, being forced out in the gruelling 25 mile final which spilled Mauri Rose and sent Bob Sall to victory. Saulspagh now has the same 120 points; Lloyd Broshart, the Dunellen speed king is second with 100 points; while Bob Sall received 60 points for his victory in the main event last Sunday. Malcolm Fox is close to the leaders with 55 points, and Johnny Hannon is next with 50.

All of these stars have entered the A. A. A. races to be held this Sunday at the Woodbridge Speedway, Woodbridge, N. J. and some thrilling duels are in store for the fans.

They include a coal-burning kitchen range; a dining table and chairs; two bed-room dressers. These articles must be moved Saturday. Anyone wishing to have them should arrange, if possible, for the moving. However, if that is not possible, some way may be found to take care of this. For further information, call at once at the home of Mrs. Charles D. Horster, 49 Mountain avenue.

Denies Rumors of Republican 'Swap'

Rumors that the Springfield Republican Club was "making a deal or swap" to support only one of its two candidates for Township Committee in November were denounced by Lee S. Rigby, president of the club, at the first fall meeting in the Lions Club Rooms last Friday night.

Rigby said there was positively no truth in the report and that both Republican candidates, Frank C. Geiger, seeking reelection, and Wilbur M. Selander, would be backed wholeheartedly. He also stated he had heard the opposite political party was resorting this year to a "whispering campaign."

George Arnold Wright, president of the Board of Education and Charles S. Cannon, chairman of the Township Committee, urged the election of both Geiger and Selander and the entire Republican ticket.

"In all the nine years I have been in Springfield," Wright said, "I have never seen two better men supported by the Republican party than these two men."

Cannon said Geiger "is just the man for the job he holds now." The latter is chairman of roads and sewers on the Township Committee. "Unfortunately," the committee chairman added, "the sanitary sewer assessment controversy in the south neighborhood may be used against Geiger, but the same owners who are complaining now were only too anxious to prompt the system when it was installed several years ago."

He said, "There was no reason for a change at this time. If Republicans are removed from office, plans of the present committee will be hampered."

Cannon predicted "a substantial tax reduction" in Springfield next year except in the event of "unforeseen circumstances."

The present Township Committee, he stressed, was doing all it could to effect his platform of improvements which he advocated in the election campaign last fall. On zoning, he declared, something will be effected shortly, as the township counsel has been instructed to prepare a resolution to go ahead with a preliminary inspection, which will be ready within two or three weeks.

He pointed out that the road appropriation was only $6,000 in the 1932 budget, as against $10,000 or over in previous years and stated that less than half of that amount had been expended by Geiger up to last week.

Selander said he preferred to stand on his record as a member of the School Board rather than make promises. He believed township residents did not want economy carried so far as to "lower the standards of Springfield" and that they were not "reactionary."

Township Committeeman Alfred G. Trundle said he expected much criticism would be directed against the committee for its enforcement of July 1 as the final date for hooking up to the new sanitary sewer. He explained that when permission to use the Rahway Valley trunk sewer was granted Springfield by the State Board of Health Rahway immediately obtained an injunction to prevent such use.

The injunction was lifted and the committee felt it unwise to offer Rahway any "loophole" for further action by extending the connection date to the township sewer.

Judge Henry L. Compton of Hillside urged election of all Republican candidates and asked that the four Union County Assembly candidates be not "overlooked" in the Presidential campaign.

Rigby spoke on the referendum of a small board of freeholders which will be placed before the voters this election. He told the gathering to oppose the measure in view of facts presented that the economy moves behind the change were ill founded, and that expenses would increase instead of decrease as set forth by proponents of a small board.

The club will hold a dance Saturday evening, October 1 in Evergreen Park and a Hallowe'en dance in the park on Saturday evening, November 5, on the eve of election.

Inventors No Longer Live in Attics

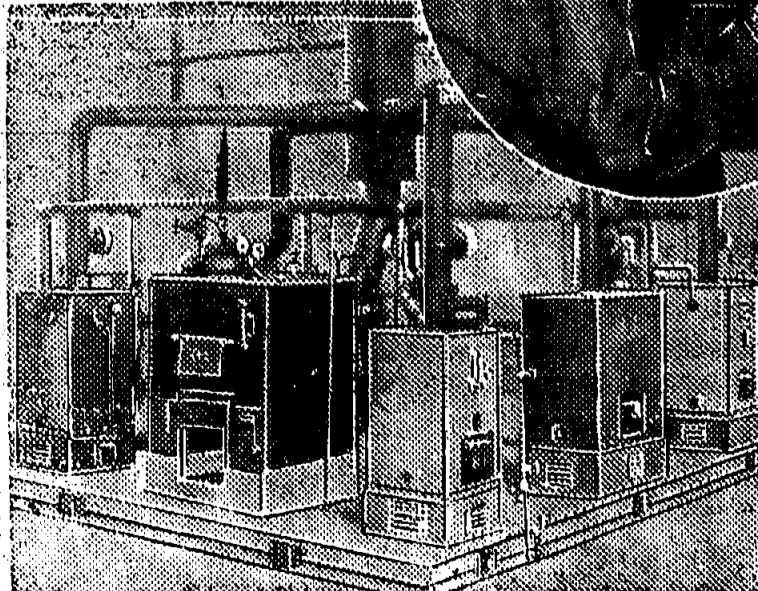

INDUSTRIAL research during the past quarter of a century has become highly organized with the result that no important invention has been made in this country during that time which has been the work of one man. Thousands of engineers and chemists now form the research staffs of the leading industries of the United States, and the inventions and discoveries being made are the result of the cooperative efforts of many. Inventors no longer live in attics. Research is no longer on a hit-or-miss basis. Industry knows exactly what it wishes to accomplish, and after the engineering or chemical problems relating to design and production are mapped out, a staff of experts are assigned to solve the problems.

One of the most interesting industrial laboratories is that at Stamford, Conn., of the Petroleum Heat and Power Company, leading manufacturer of oil and gas burners and oil and gas fired boilers. This company has spent well over a million dollars in research, which has resulted in bringing home and industrial oil burning to its present high state of perfection. The first fully automatic oil burner was perfected only fifteen years ago under the direction of Morgan J. Hammers, now vice-president and general manager of the Petroleum Heat and Power Company. There are today more than 1,000,000 homes in the United States enjoying the comfort, convenience and healthfulness of oil heat. In the lower picture is shown a battery of domestic furnaces, where flame temperatures, flame characteristics, drafts, oil atomization and other factors in oil burning are studied. The center photo shows a chemist of the laboratory testing oil, which is standardized for the various types of oil burners. The upper photo shows a section of the testing laboratory, where oil burners are subjected to many scientific and performance tests. Sometimes a corps of experts work for months on a problem which to the general public would seem insignificant.

Geller; hospitality, Mrs. Trundle; publications, Mrs. Herald A. Jones; budget, Mrs. William Benkert; finance, Mrs. James A. Callahan; publicity, Mrs. John E. Gunn and child study, Mrs. J. Grant Thomas.

Members and parents interested are requested to attend. Plans will be furthered for activities during the ensuing year.

Police on Drive to Curb Speeding in Morris Avenue

Summon Number of Motorists to Court Monday Night—To Continue Watch

Police under Chief M. C. Runyon are on a drive to curb excessive speeding of autos along Morris avenue and other highways this week and up until yesterday, a dozen motorists had been summoned to appear in police court Monday night at 8 o'clock before Recorder Everett T. Spinning.

It is expected that between today and court night, an equal number of perhaps more may be added to the twelve alleged violators.

The speed in the cases apprehended this week ranged from forty to fifty miles per hour in a zone where twenty miles per hour is permitted. However, cars traveling under forty miles per hour are not molested unless they are operated in a reckless manner.

The danger of school children crossing Morris avenue in the vicinity of Proffitt avenue and the Severna park section with machines whizzing by at a terrific rate of speed is responsible for the drive which has been in force since September 12. No doubt it will be continued until motorists realize its effect.

Bowling League to Open Tuesday

The Springfield Municipal Bowling League will open its third season Tuesday night at 7:15 o'clock in Woodruff Alleys. There are eight teams in the league: Five Aces, Junior Order, Diner Indians, A & P Gypsies, Fire Department Hose Company, Fire Department Hook and Ladder Company, Battle Hill and Lions Club.

The opening matches are as follows: 7:15, Five Aces vs. Hook and Ladder, Hose Company vs. Indians; 9:15, Battle Hill vs. Junior Order and A & P vs. Lions Club.

Railroads Go to Sea: Good Ship "Seatrain" Will Carry a Mile of Loaded Freight Cars

THE railroads are going to sea. One day this coming October a big freight steamship will warp alongside her dock at Hoboken and immediately a huge crane on the dock will begin hoisting loaded and sealed freight cars aboard. On each of the ship's four decks will be a quarter-mile of railroad tracks to receive the cars, each of which will be locked securely in place. In ten determined that the system must be Americanized. The Shipping Board advanced a loan against two more ships and the Sun Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, of Chester, Pa., a subsidiary of the Sun Oil Company, contracted to build them. They are now almost complete, and following their launching late in September will start a regular New York-Havana-New Orleans service.

GRAHAM M. BRUSH INVENTOR OF SEATRIN

CARS BEING PLACED IN POSITION ON DECK

hours 100 loaded freight cars will be put aboard; the ship will have swallowed a freight train a mile long, and be ready for sea.

Out of New York to Havana, at 16 1/2 knots an hour, she will make faster time than any freighter afloat. At Havana another crane will lift the cars out to tracks on the dock, and immediately lift in another shipload of them. Within twenty-four hours the unloading and re-loading will have been completed; the incoming cargo will be in process of distribution along the Cuban railways; and the ship will be off to sea with a new cargo of loaded cars for New Orleans, thence to be distributed among the railways of the United States.

Linking rail and ocean transportation in a unity of shipping facilities, the Seatrain system is the conception of Graham M. Brush, thirty-eight year old shipping expert. Already Mr. Brush has one ship of this type, Seatrain New Orleans, operating between New Orleans and Havana. Built in England because American capital was dubious, it proved a phenomenal success, and he "Seatrain" expands the freight container idea to the scale of the freight car. Eliminating packing expense, it also does away with loss and damage. It requires only one-fifth of its time in port as against half the time of the regular freighter. The savings in time, packing, handling and warehousing expense are vitally important because so much of American industry is located far inland while European industries are commonly close to the sea. Thus both railroads and industry will gain; the coke and lumber markets of Cuba, formerly well nigh closed to America, have already been substantially taken over by this country through the service of a single vessel of this type; as more are added the gains may be expected to continue.

Following their launching at Chester, Pa., Seatrains New York and Havana will begin in October weekly service to New York, Havana and New Orleans. For the launching of "Seatrain New York," members of the President's cabinet, the Shipping Board, Governors of states touching the Delaware, and other notables have been invited.

Those interested are asked to communicate with either Frank Bolger of 50 Center street or Theodore Ganska of South Springfield avenue. In the event there is an insufficient number of entries, the race will be abandoned, since entry fees are expected to meet all necessary expenses.

Suffers Fatal Attack in Arms of Local Postmaster at Parade

Overseer of the Poor James C. Stiles occasioned a nerve-racking incident last Saturday night at the state Junior Order parade being held in Broad street, Newark, when a friend, whom he had greeted a few minutes before with a hearty handshake, collapsed at his feet with an attack of heart trouble and died almost instantly.

The man, John Weber, sixty-six, of 8 Taylor street, Millburn, a member of Runyon Council of Newark, was about to enter the parade march when he greeted Stiles with a few words. He carried an American flag and complained of a minor foot ailment. As the Millburn man reached forward to the ground, Stiles thought his friend was describing the hurt.

A few seconds later, the local postmaster ascertained Weber to be dead. Later nurses in the gathering confirmed his belief and the body was removed.

Stiles is a former councillor in Success Council of Millburn. Funeral services were held yesterday at the home. Lodge exercises were held Wednesday night.

NEW MARKET RACES

The New Market Speedway is in excellent condition for the coming events on Sunday when the fans will witness their hero's coming to the tape first or else the position will be held by a new rival.

The main event last Sunday was won by Ray Compton with his Silver Bullet No. 2. Vernon Cook who had given up his racing career was back again, but motor trouble prevented his entering the races. Race cars come from far and near. Last Sunday an entry was made from Boston and in several other events thereto have been stars from Baltimore, Mr.

outside of the many race cars from Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

Last Sunday's surprise was sprung by the Promoters Sam Little and Harry Munro when they presented a stock car race. This attraction held the interest of all. The event was won by H. Angeloni of New Brunswick. Again on this coming Sunday there will be another stock car race.

Come and enjoy the auto race events together with a special event this coming Sunday.

Selander and Pat Kelly Comprise Queer Team at P. B. A. Session

Patrolman Wilbur C. Selander, representing the Springfield police, attended the state Patrolman's Benevolent Association convention in Atlantic City early last week with Sergeant Pat Kelly of Summit, the world's "largest policeman," measuring a mere 385 points.

Selander, one of the smallest cops in stature in the state, weighs but 150 points and stands about 5 feet 5 inches in height, but insists he accompanies Kelly, as he has been doing for the past three years, as the Summit cop's bodyguard!

The truth is that not only does Kelly sometimes need assistance in dressing himself, due to the girth about the waist but he enjoys the local officer's company. One night Kelly dropped into a bed, Selander relates, and a minute later, the furniture gave way. No offense, Pat.
