Rigby Appointment Attacked by Senator Loizeaux

Rambling Around Town

ON THE LOCAL POLITICAL horizon the important matter of interest is the appointment of Lee S. Rigby as under-sheriff . . . we understand that several Springfield personages are not as happy or pleased over the appointment as they should be . . . they were of the opinion Rigby's efforts were going astray before the selection was made . . . now they should be able to accept the choice and forget it . . . the Rambling Reporter has been on the so-called "carpet" on many occasions for injecting in to the column stirring political battles, innuendoes and sidelights on local people about town and it is to be compared to water dripping off the duck's back . . . but when the issue concerns members of the fair sex, that's a different story . . . husbands have flocked to the penthouse apartment (eleventh floor?) of the R. R. throughout the week to learn the identity of "the fair and gentle one who makes all the masculine hearts from ten to eighty flutter" about the center of town . . . two of the husbands thought it might have been their better halves . . . hereafter, such talk will not be tolerated in this column . . . the Rambling Reporter seeks news but when it reaches the point of breaking homes, that's out . . . the strange sight of a bowler in stocking feet at the weekly municipal league matches afforded entertainment for everyone in the alleys but the individual himself who must have been "under the weather" to dare remove his shoes there . . . there is an improvement in the local building field as evidenced by the new service station being built in Mountain avenue and plans of Mike Dandrea to start work on a new meat market in Morris avenue . . . it appears to indicate, perhaps, the return of better times which may or may not mean a thing . . . the Christmas concert of the Choral Society December 21 is on the threshold of being an annual affair . . . last year's program at holiday time, the first informal appearance of the society, will be remembered by many residents invited to hear the singers . . . there should be a full house in the "Town Hall" December 21 . . . will we see you there?

"College Flapper" to Be Shown in James Caldwell School Tonight

LADIES OF THE EVENING

"The College Flapper" with its "flappers" portrayed above in "Ladies of the Evening," opened before a large gathering last night in the James Caldwell School. The comedy, sponsored by the Springfield Amateur Actors Club, is being held to reduce the deficit of the George Washington Bicentennial Committee.

Almost 200 were present and a large crowd is anticipated tonight, the final performance. There will be dancing with music provided by Al Strand's Orchestra.

Headed by Ken Niebuhr who played the role of Jerry Watson to be converted into the "housemother," all the characters came in for considerable applause.

Watson, a star football player, is found in the sorority house of his girl, played by Janet Reger. He masquerades as the housemother and then begins the riot.

In addition to the flapper business men and others, there is the Alumni Glee Club, consisting of members of the local Choral Society; a girls' chorus of thirty-two and a babyland opening scene of children of the lower school grades.

Tickets are fifty cents at the door. Miss Marilu Owens is director of the show.

Tax Collections Good For 'Times'

Springfield tax and assessment collections due December 1 indicate an excellent showing for the township, according to figures the SUN has received from Tax Collector William Hopppaugh which are up-to-date to December 6.

The total for 1932 was $250,270.38 as compared to $213,625.53 for the year before. An item of $59,821.12 for sewer assessments collected is included however in the larger amount, which shows a balance of $108,458.26 in true comparison with the 1931 total since there were no sewer assessments due at that time.

Current taxes collected in 1932 are $137,808.24 compared to $161,541.70 the previous year, a drop of $23,643.46. This is offset to some degree by the following increases:

Taxes of 1931 collected this year, $38,010.27; taxes of 1930 collected in 1931, $27,065.39; increase this year, $11,350.91.

Taxes of prior years collected this year, $0,000.47; taxes of prior years collected in 1931, $4,397.05; increase this year, $4,011.47.

The franchise, bus and other taxes collected in 1932 was $0,251.40 as compared to $7,568.55 the previous year due to increases in valuations.

Since the last three items total an increase of approximately $17,500 to place against a difference in current taxes of $23,665.36, the actual drop in tax monies is about $6,000. Considering the economic condition and the added burden of $50,821 taken in sewer assessments, the report is encouraging, Mr. Hopppaugh stressed.

Taxpayers Seek 20 Per Cent Cut in Expenditures

Association Approves Action to Further Reduce Taxes by Lower 1933 Budget

Revision of the municipal budget by effecting twenty per cent reduction on the total expenditures of the Township Committee and revision or adjustment of salaries to provide a saving of thirteen per cent are the principal recommendations of the Springfield Taxpayers Association approved last night at a meeting in the Municipal Building.

A special committee of directors including Thomas J. Hankins, Jr., president; Charles S. Quinzel; Edward Jaeckel and Charles Schaffernoth met with the Township Committee Monday night to discuss expenditures and appointments for 1933.

Items of the budget were discussed and a list of recommendations presented by the directors of the taxpayers' group which list salary revision to total a saving of $4,085. The second saving requested totaled $20,405 in total budget expenses. The Governing Body was asked to raise by general taxation $50,000 instead of $70,405 as was done in 1932.

The report of the special committee said, "The recommendation for the revision and adjustment of salaries was drawn up on a present day salary basis. Inasmuch as the earning power of the taxpayers has been reduced about fifty per cent, it is absolutely necessary that salaries paid to our township employees be adjusted to be consistent with present day conditions.

"The second recommendation was based on present day costs. It is believed that by careful economies these recommendations can be met."

The report was approved and a motion made to have a detailed list of the saving prepared for discussion at the next meeting in January.

The association passed a motion, that in view of prevailing conditions, to oppose an appropriation in the 1933 budget for the Springfield Free Public Library.

Executive Group Chairmen Defends Method as "Fair"

Dr. Egel of Westfield Claims Under-Sheriff's Selection as Made Properly

Appointment of Lee S. Rigby of Springfield as under-sheriff of Union County by Sheriff C. Wesley Collins after the executive committee of the Republican County Committee had recommended him as one of three candidates was bitterly attacked by State Senator-elect Charles E. Loizeaux Wednesday, the next day after Rigby had been sworn into office by County Judge Lloyd Thompson.

Loizeaux announced he has broken with the Republican organization leaders of the county for the manner in which the Springfield man was selected for the $6,000 a year post.

In characterizing the appointment, he said the executive committee arrived at its choice by an "unfair and vicious" method and "repulsive to the Republican voters as well as to those who have faithfully served the party."

Loizeaux's attack was believed to be directed at Surrogate George H. Johnston, Republican leader of Union County, and County Chairman Edward Bauer.

Rigby was named last Friday when the executive committee at a meeting the night before cast the highest vote for him on the only ballot taken by the forty-three committee members present of the total of forty-five.

The local man received twenty-seven votes and Freeholder Richard J. Harrigan of Plainfield, whom Loizeaux was supporting, received twenty-three, Rudolph R. Engisch of Elizabeth, secretary to Assemblyman Charles Otto, received twenty-one votes. Seven other candidates trailed along after the first three.

Each member of the committee was told to vote for the three candidates best suited in their opinion. Loizeaux claims there should have been more than one ballot and the selection made through elimination. He also charged that the delegation favoring Rigby so manipulated the selection that only one ballot be taken to insure their candidate's selection.

Method Defended
Dr. Chauncey M. F. Egel of Westfield, chairman of the executive committee, in a statement yesterday defended the method used to name the candidate.

"I challenge any man or woman to say that any of my rulings as chairman of the executive committee were not fair. I assume all the responsibility for the method of voting for the three names presented by the committee as suitable timber for Under Sheriff," Dr. Egel said.

"The men and women composing the executive committee come from all parts of this county, and are of high standing. Senator Loizeaux is ex officio, a member of the committee, but he failed to attend the session. Senator Loizeaux's anxiety to aid his former campaign manager, Freeholder Richard J. Harrigan, of Plainfield, a contender for the Under Sheriff position, may have led him to make some rash statements as to the conduct of the executive committee. I believe I am sufficiently well known throughout the county for the number of years I have been a member of the Republican party to have people believe that I am fair in my dealings, both in business and in politics.

MATTER of OPINION

A Woman Looks at Springfield

Have you been shopping lately, in the large city stores? Not much sign of "depression," if the crowded aisles are significant. However, some of the shoppers may be "lookers." Some of the stores are sounding a new note in the Christmas advertisements. Sale prices are said to prevail instead of the jacked-up values of other holiday seasons.

At last there is concerted action as a result of the agitation against high rates for gas and electric service. Newspaper reports state that at least one municipality is moving to appeal to the Utilities Commission for a reduction.

"He who runs may read" that cuts in salaries of public employees are inevitable. The City of Elizabeth, which some fifty years ago was bankrupt by reason of extravagance and graft in the municipal government, is again troubled about its finances. For many years the people of Elizabeth were forced to put up with conditions trying to their very souls, such as miles of unlighted, unpaved streets and lack of the conveniences which even at that time were deemed necessary in a worth-while community. After a long period of stringent economy the city's credit was again established. Retention is now again demanded, and the employees of the various city departments are putting up a united front against a cut. It has very sensibly

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SPRINGFIELD

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received from 8 to 8:30 p. m. on Tuesday, December 20, 1932, at the Board Room on the second floor of the James Caldwell School, on Mountain Avenue, in the School District of the Township of Springfield and then publicly opened and read for SUPPLIES FOR INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE USE OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF SPRINGFIELD.

Specifications may be examined at the office of the District Clerk on the main floor of the Municipal Building, Springfield, New Jersey, between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m., and 2 to 5 p. m., Mondays to Fridays.

The contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, the right being reserved to reject any and all bids or to waive in favor of the same.

By direction of the Board of Education of the Township of Springfield in the County of Union and State of New Jersey.

WILLIAM HOPPAUGH, District Clerk.

world a new book it interests the most discriminating reader. One may not agree on his viewpoint but he is a truthful writer. "Flowering Wilderness" is Galsworthy's latest book, dealing with contemporary English life. As is usual with him, this book is related to its predecessors but not in a way to spoil the reading.

"Hot Water" by P. G. Wodehouse is the kind of book for Mr. Tired Business Man after a hard day. You can fire the Stenographer, study the red figures on the monthly statement, come home to find a note on the table to get your own supper from the ice box and then pick up "Hot Water" for a delightful evening of fun.

To be compared favorably to an already successful and timeproved writer is to have no small reputation. Emily Newell Blair writing in "Good Housekeeping," says in commenting on "Robin Hill," that "Louisa M. Alcott never wrote so delicately and deftly as does Miss Larrimore, of gardens and moonlight, of heartaches and youth." What more can be said?

"So Many Miles" by Ruby M. Ayres is an appealing romance where love and necessity seem to be in conflict but are finally reconciled. Not an impossible tale because it is all within the realm of possibility.

Some twenty years ago Jeffery Farnul wrote "The Broad Highway," which we have on our free shelf. Now he has picked up the same characters and placed them in a new book, "Charmian Lady Vibart." It takes an artist to age his characters twenty years and make a great seller of the work.—F. P. L.

Sheriff Tells Why He Made Choice of Rigby

In naming Lee S. Rigby of Springfield under sheriff, Sheriff Collins said early this week it was with the specific idea he had the necessary qualifications to carry on the affairs of his office with an efficient manner.

Mr. Collins said: "I made the appointment of Mr. Rigby early with the specific thought that it would prevent influence from any quarter. Mr. Rigby, I feel, is a high type, able man, with the necessary qualifications and capabilities to carry on the affairs of his office. I know he will meet with the general approval of the citizens of the county, especially after more persons get to know him. He received sixty-three per cent of the vote of the county executive committee with no apparent political backing, signifying that the county committeemen and women were impressed with his personality and general make-up."

School Finance to Be Discussed

Dr. John K. Norton will speak in Millburn next Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock in the High School Auditorium under the auspices of the High School Parent-Teacher Association. He is best qualified to speak on public school finance. For fifteen years he has been Research Director of Public School Finance in California, Washington, D. C., and Columbia University. He has conducted many financial surveys for Boards of Education and is at present conducting a survey in the city of Chicago.

At this time Dr. Norton is in great demand by school officials everywhere for his assistance in the present trying times for the support of public education.

What economies can properly be made without lowering standards of education to the children of Millburn and this vicinity? Every parent and every citizen is interested in this vital question. Dr. Norton's address will go far to help solve this problem.

His most important publication is "Educational Research: the Ability of the States to Support Education."

Residents of Springfield are extended an invitation to hear Dr. Norton.

List Soloists in Christmas Concert

The feature selection of the program to be presented by the Springfield Choral at its Christmas Concert in the Presbyterian Church December 21 will be the cantata, "When the Christ Child Came."

The poem, by Laura Spencer Porter, is an unusual interpretation of the beloved Christmas story which has come down through the ages. The music, composed by Joseph W. Clokey, is a fascinating arrangement, written in modern style and particularly popular with the young folk. This is attested by the fact members of the East Orange High School Glee Club, which also presents the cantata in its Christmas program, are reported to continually hum or whistle favorite excerpts at home or school, to the exclusion of more popular music which usually comprise their repertoire.

Ann Horner of Springfield will be the soprano soloist for the selection. Mrs. Horner, who will be remembered for her work in the Spring Concert this year given by the society, has done considerable solo work in church and lodge programs and was formerly soloist in the First Reformed Church in Union City.

Winifred Vogolius of Bloomfield will sing the alto parts. She has appeared in concert and oratorio work with noted opera stars and in addition to performing on the radio, is also soloist of the Central Brick Presbyterian Church of East Orange.

Alfred Fleming of Springfield will be the baritone soloist. Mr. Fleming has sung in many operatic roles with the Opera Club of the Oranges, is a member of the Colonial Quartette and soloist in the Presbyterian Church of Roselle.

Thaddeus H. Conick, a member of the society, was to have been the tenor soloist. But in the untimely death of his brother in Syracuse, he has been called away and the tenor soloist will, therefore be named later.

John Potts, president of the Choral society, has appointed the following committee to handle arrangements for the concert: Chairman, Mrs. James M. Duguid, Mrs. Alexander E. Ferguson, Miss Margaret Gunn and Clifford Walker.

Rigby Reelected G. O. P. President

The Springfield Republican Club reelected all officers at the annual meeting Friday night in the Lions Club Rooms.

They are: president, Lee S. Rigby, recently-appointed under-sheriff of Union County; first vice-president, Charles S. Quinzel; second vice-president, Mrs. Anna J. Oelling; recording secretary, Ernest F. Swisher; corresponding secretary, Clarence W. Gillis, and treasurer, Reuben H. Marsh. A resolution was adopted recommending

"Santa Brings 'The Missus'"

For the first time in history, Mrs. Santa Claus has ventured out of her North Pole home. She's at the Kresge Department Store in Newark where thousands of children are shaking her hand and receiving her motherly smile. She brought her own bagful of gifts with her and a number of other curious things, such as a bottle of arctic snow, a whale's tooth necklace and a phial of magic polar oil. She and her genial husband are ensconced on thrones in the store.

Regional Meet Held by Lions

About eighty persons attended the Regional Meet of the Lions Clubs of Orange District in the Half-way House Wednesday night. Springfield Lions were hosts and the Rev. William I. Reed, president, presided.

Lions of South Orange-Maplewood, Valleyburg, the Oranges, and Summit clubs were present and presidents of the respective clubs told of activities in each group. The Rev. Hugh W. Dickinson, chaplain of Millburn Rotary, offered the invocation. Dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock.

Alfred S. Clark, deputy district governor, introduced the principal speaker, George W. Anderson of Plainfield, immediate past governor of New Jersey, and Walter C. Sedam of New Brunswick, district governor of New Jersey.

Other talks were given by Leon O. Mumford of Summit, immediate past deputy district governor and Mr. Reed who welcomed the gathering. Summit Lions won the attendance cup with eighty-nine per cent present. Door prizes were awarded and the meeting closed with remarks from the visitors that Springfield had done remarkably well on the occasion, the gathering being one of the most enthusiastic Regional Meets ever held in the state, several speakers mentioned.

to the Springfield Township Committee that it include in its 1933 budget an appropriation for the Free Public Library.

A second resolution was passed extending the thanks of the club to Sheriff C. Wesley Collins for appointing Rigby Under-Sheriff.

A committee was named to present an amendment for adoption at the club's next meeting in January to permit all Republicans to be members of the organization, regardless of whether they paid dues.

Method of Naming Under-Sheriff is Defended by Egel

of voting for three names was introduced by Frederick Nichols, of Roselle Park, and was seconded by former Assemblyman John W. Clift, of Summit. An unlimited discussion was allowed. Joseph G. Garty, of Plainfield, voiced opposition to the plan, speaking in behalf of Mr. Harrigan.

"The vote to adopt the plan of presenting three names to the Sheriff was thirty-seven in favor and seven against. It had been agreed that any ballot which contained less than the three names would be void. Tellers were named, and the roll called. Each member of the committee deposited his ballot, and the result was that Lee S. Rigby, of Springfield, received twenty-seven votes, Richard J. Harrigan, of Plainfield, twenty-three, and Rudolph R. Engisch, of Elizabeth, twenty-one.

"Before the meeting I had consulted with the chairman of the various delegations from each municipality as to their views on the recommendations. It was agreed that three names should be presented to the Sheriff, to permit him to select the man he thought should receive the position and not tie him down to one recommendation.

"In my consultations with various delegations, I found there was a sentiment that inasmuch as Plainfield had held the position of Under-Sheriff and for six years it would be unfair to the other municipalities to have a man from that city become Under-Sheriff for three years and perhaps Sheriff for three years more. It can be readily seen that the smaller municipalities would not agree to anything of that sort.

"Plainfield has a large share of the county patronage. The county contains twenty municipalities. Westfield gave Senator Loizeaux a larger majority on election day than his home city Plainfield, and the Democratic opponent of Senator Loizeaux is a resident of Westfield.

"I have never sought public office. My only interest in the affairs of the Republican party is to see that capable men are chosen for offices, or as party candidates. I am sure no one will seek to question the integrity of Mr. Rigby, named by Sheriff Collins as his Under-Sheriff. He cannot be attacked as to his ability.

"In giving the Sheriff three names we left him his prerogative of making the selection of the Under-Sheriff. We could not force him to take one man or another. The method we adopted is the procedure required by law in selection of members of the State Board of Medical Examiners.

"In calling the procedure unfair and vicious, Senator Loizeaux must take into consideration the membership of the executive committee.

9C ASSEMBLY

As the curtains were pulled in the auditorium it was filled with applause and laughter as a play was given by the 9C class of Mr. Williams.

Harold Ross turned on the radio and after much static and the voices of Kate Smith and Chandu were heard, he finally got station NUTS, where the Tootsie Corn Cure program was just beginning. The correct time was given by Marie Curcio and the "mike" was turned over to the Humming Birds, made up of Evelyn Houck, Elizabeth Hinze, Edna Cardinal and Alberta Linscot who sang, "Moonlight on the River Colorado." Then Madam Madelyn, or Madelyn Martyn, did a toe dance first presented over a radio station.

After two dialogues were given by Kenneth Hoagland and Gordo Day, a poem was given by June Mayer and Winifred Lawrence. Dr. Alonzo Mitchelloff or Arthur Kasperen, spoke on why not to use Tootsie Corn Cure.

Then the feature of the program was presented by Bing Columbo or Jackie James, who sang "Fit as a Fiddle," and could he "sing!" It was then brought to a close by the Humming Birds who sang a selection. — EVELYN HOUCK.

AN ORDER FOR SANTA

Everyone writes letters to Santa Claus. Why doesn't someone write to the Snow Man? We get sleds and ice skates for Christmas but how can we use them? So when we write our letters to Santa Claus we are going to ask for an extra large load of snow. — VITO STRICCHIOLA, ALWINA EICKHOFF, HARRY SPEICHER, Grade 2.

GRADE 4 NOTES

There is a boy in our class, Frank Ri-ter, who knows a taxidermist and watches him stuff things like foxes, wild cats and pheasants. This man went hunting and shot a pheasant to pieces. Frank has the wing. He said it was a grouse cock pheasant. — WELLINGTON BUCKALEW, Grade 4.

The Springfield Football Club, coached by Ed Ruby, closed the 1932 schedule at Flemer Oval Sunday by defeating the Irvington Pheasants in a return contest, 7-0, in the roughest game played at the local oval this year.

A number of Springfield players suffered injuries the most serious being Frank Bolger with a broken ankle and Charles Ruby, Jr. with a battered nose. Several other local men also were in for minor hurts.

The Pheasants played here Thanksgiving Day against the Springfield F. C. which had in its lineup strictly local players, the others not being in town for the holiday. The teams ended in a scoreless tie. A return match was booked and the locals in winning, chalked up their ninth victory in ten games.

The local eleven enjoyed an enviable record, scoring 145 points to six for their opponents, the latter being scored by the Stud A. C. of Newark in the eighth game.

SPRINGFIELD HUNTER BAGS 175-POUND DEER

Paul Prince of South Springfield avenue, accompanied by Frank Ganska, both of the Shady Creek Farm, accomplished the dream of many a hunter on a trip to Potter County, Pennsylvania, last Friday when he bagged an eight-point deer weighing about 175 pounds.

In relating the experience, Prince had released one shot of his rifle at a range of seventy-five yards and the deer, wounded, rushed toward him. The buck was only twenty yards away when the local man finished him with several shots.

Prince and Ganska were on a week's stay and the catch, coming at the close of the trip, finished the event as successful.
