TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS will cause the ruination of many an ambitious journalist but one in the last issue which went as far as to print in a letter from a reader "talk about cutting salaries of the town's unemployed" is by far the best the Rambling Reporter has seen in some time . . . of course the writer had not used the word "unemployed" . . . the correct word was "employed" . . . if only the editor of the Literary Digest page "Slips that Pass Through the Night" will pass over the SUN of last week and glance at the moon, instead, we will be satisfied . . . moon reminds us of another interesting incident concerning a letter but that will not be discussed . . . not so long ago he had told a political figure who was given as pretty, a double-crossing as could be expected that it was unwise to make much clamor or publicize the question to any great extent . . . now the tables are reversed and the individual given the advice laughs up his sleeve . . . what a funny world . . . here today and somebody else tomorrow primary election is not far off and the Rambling Reporter sees in a crystal ahead that there will be a most unusual campaign in both primary and general elections this Spring and Fall . . . if certain angles are fully developed before that time a most interesting contest should be contained in both elections . . . sounds vague but you wait and see . . . several local newspaper reporters are of the opinion the townfathers have not been faithful with them as they could have been . . . as a rule, scribes are known through customs passed down in years to be usually reliable and will return favors for confidence given in delicate matters . . . but to be made "goats" in engineered maneuvers, simply to create impressions that are not readily simple to attribute back to the source of the information, is the limit the boys claim and who said "boys will be boys" . . . the taxpayers get together in the Town Hall last week was as rare a spectacle as a rainbow in the hush of night . . . the greater portion of the audience was in jovial spirits . . . the committees all reported favorably on action of municipal and county governments to reduce taxes by economical measures . . . no dissension, only a few speakers who by now are becoming a habit at popping up every so often . . . we will never understand it . . . wonder what was the reason?

School Board Statement Decries "Basing Economy on Program of Despair"

President Wright, in Letter, States Budget Proves Extreme Scrutiny

The Board of Education Tuesday night authorized that a letter be sent the Township Committee answering a lengthy statement issued last week by Committeeman Alfred G. Trundle, finance chairman of the Township Committee.

Trundle had asked the board to co-operate in budget-making this year in view of a possible 25-point tax rate increase unless further economies are made. The Board of Fire Commissioners also received a copy of Trundle's letter.

The school board letter, dated January 17, was addressed to the Township Committee and was signed by its president, G. Arnold Wright.

It follows:

"The Board of Education in submitting its budget for the school year 1933-34 is pleased to advise you that it has been possible to compile this budget at a figure more than $10,000 below that of last year. This has been accomplished in the face of an anticipated increase in High School registration of twenty-four pupils. This will result in a High School population of approximately 140 pupils, and an increase in tuition and transportation expense estimated at $5,000. For the present school year the High School population is 116 and last year it was eighty-six.

"Since High School tuition and the consequent transportation is a large factor in our school budget, drastic economy in all other matters of expense has been necessary.

"Even with this extra High School cost it has been possible to present a budget to our taxpayers which represents a decrease of nearly twenty points in the tax rate below last year.

"You will recall that last year's budget decreased the tax rate for that year twenty-nine points below that of the preceding year and as a result the Board of Education has in two years decreased the tax rate practically forty-nine points while High School registrations alone have increased approximately 68 per cent.

"In addition to this the Board of Education, cognizant of the need for constant economy, last Fall suspended the department of Manual Training and Domestic Science affecting a further saving at least temporarily of nearly $8,000.

"The Board regrets to advise you that it

Edward F. Lonergan of 380 Millburn avenue, Millburn well-known hardware dealer of Millburn, was driving the other machine. His wife, a passenger, suffered from the shock. Both cars were towed away.

W.C.T.U. Branches Discuss Activity

Twenty members of the Young People's Branches of the Springfield and Maplewood W. C. T. U. met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Edwin D. Pannell of 318 Main street and discussed and compared their work on departments of civics, flower mission and relief work and the International Correspondence Bureau which creates more brotherly feeling between nations.

The watchwords, "Purity, patriotism and service" were commented upon and also the motto of the Jr. Y. P. B. of Springfield, "What know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. . . therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit." Games and refreshments concluded the program.

A dues-paying social will be held at Mrs. Pannell's home Tuesday afternoon. County officers will attend and a silver declamatory contest will feature.

Several local W. C. T. U. members will attend the tri-county workers' conference of Union, Essex and Hudson counties, in the Newark V. W. C. A. on Thursday of next week.

Grenville A. Day was named to the Board of Plumbing Examiners at the first meeting of the 1933 Board of Health Monday night. He succeeds Arthur L. Marshall as master plumber on the board, the latter having been elevated to plumbing inspector which automatically makes him chairman of the three-man board.

Edwin F. Lambert was renamed as journeyman member. Harry C. Anderson, former plumbing inspector, preceded Marshall as chairman. The name of former Mayor David S. Jenkins was offered for the vacancy as examiner but was withdrawn upon an explanation he was not a

School Tax Rate Drops 20 Points; Budget Approved

To Raise by Taxation Total of $82,520 as Compared to $92,730 Last Year

The 1933-34 budget approved by the Board of Education Tuesday night shows a drop in expenditures of $13,745 as compared to last year and a decrease in the amount to be raised by taxation of $10,200 compared to 1932-33 figures. This will effect a 20-point drop in the school tax rate, now $1.69.

The budget totals $121,420 of which $82,520 will be raised by taxation. The 1932-33 budget totaled $135,165 and $92,730 was raised by taxation.

Salary reductions agreed upon by teachers and employes in addition to the elimination of the Flermer Annex last year was responsible for the reductions. Temporary abolition of manual training and domestic science caused another saving.

The totals of the budget distributed, compared with last year, follows:

Current expenses, 1932-33, $106,170; 1933-34, $98,270; decrease, $7,900.

Library, 1932-33, $250; 1933-34, eliminated; decrease, $250.

Manual training, 1932-33, $3,300; 1933-34, eliminated; decrease, $3,300.

Repairs and replacements, 1932-33, $3,700; 1933-34, $3,750; increase, $50.

Land, buildings and equipment, 1932-33, $2,475; 1933-34, eliminated, decrease, $2,475.

Bonds, notes and interest, 1932-33, $20,270; 1933-34, $19,400; decrease, $870.

Although the budget shows a large reduction, a larger drop would have resulted since about $5,000 was added for increased Senior High pupils' tuition and transportation. There were 116 last year and about 140 are estimated this year.

In the current expense division, there is a saving of $7,000 in salaries of teachers. Teachers agreed to take a 5 to 10 per cent salary cut. Those under $1500 take 5 per cent and over 10 per cent. In addition to manual training and domestic science instruction out, a third teacher was dismissed when the Annex was removed.

The salary of the supervising principal was reduced from $4,700 to $4,230. In addition to a 10 per cent cut, an expense account is eliminated. The salary of the district clerk was reduced from $1,100 to $900. Janitors also accepted a salary reduction. The nurse's salary was reduced from $3,700 to $3,800 and that of the dental inspector from $1,000 to $700. The medical inspector's pay remains the same, $750.

Transportation charges rise from $8,300 to $10,000 and tuition from $20,000 to $23,000. A rent item of $1,200 for the Annex is eliminated. Fuel is reduced from $2,400 to $1,800.

Tax Ordinance to Be Heard; Savings Are Contemplated

Reaction on Police Proposal to Take Salary Cuts Not Yet Ascertained

The 1933 budget ordinance will be introduced by the Township Committee Monday night. Its contents have not been divulged but it is reported the budget is in shape for first reading.

Although not disclosed, considerable savings will be effected. Combined salary reductions of appointive officers as well as the proposal of police to take voluntary salary cuts will effect lower appropriations in administration and finance together with police departments.

Since the Governing Body has not yet accepted the police salary proposal or a report submitted by Chief M. C. Runyon which would show a saving of $4,317.05 in the police budget, it is not definite as to the actual saving on the budget figures since police is a large item.

Increased charges on the sanitary sewer are to be placed in the budget. Whether or not Walter R. Darby, state commissioner of municipal accounts, insists upon certain items in the budget to be raised by taxation, will have material bearing upon the total.

From certain sources, it is reported the tax rate of $4.28 this year will be almost the same in 1933. Increases due to interest charges will be offset by a 20-point reduction expected in the school budget. The fire tax of 25-points is not considered since the Board of Commissioners have not submitted a budget. They are expected to meet sometime next week since their annual election February 18 necessitates posting figures, according to law, by February 8.

Predictions of the state and county rates are unknown. It will be difficult to cut the county rate, despite reductions in the county budget, due to the decreased tax ratables of almost $4,000,000 this year.

Members of the Springfield Taxpayers Association will attend the committee meeting Monday night.

Name Speakers for Loizeaux Event

At a meeting of the Loizeaux Testimonial Dinner Committee held Tuesday night at the Elizabeth Elks Club, plans were announced for the dinner to be held on Thursday evening, January 26 at the Elks Auditorium, in honor of State Senator Charles E. Loizeaux.

Congressman Donald H. McLean will be toastmaster. Among the speakers will be Emerson L. Richards, President of the N. J. Senate; Charles A. Otto, Jr., Speaker of the N. J. Assembly; Harold G. Hoffman, Motor Vehicle Commissioner; Mrs. G. L. A. Thomson, President Elizabeth Women's Rep. Club; Lloyd Thompson, Judge of the Common Pleas; Edward Bauer, Republican County Chairman; Edward L. Whelan, Democratic County Chairman; O. Benson Wigton, Mayor of the City of Plainfield; J. Frank O'Donnell, Democratic State Committee; Mrs. Cornelius Beatty, Republican State Committee; Thomas Williams, Mayor of the City of Elizabeth. The committee has received assurances from most of the members of (Continued on Page 5) suggestion has met with the whole-stances to request all school employees to consent to a reduction in salary for the coming year. This has been done on a sliding scale comparable with salaries paid and ranges from 5 per cent to 12 per cent. This arrangement has been proposed on a basis which will not violate the future rights of those affected.

"The Board is pleased to advise that this suggestion has not met with the whole-hearted cooperation of the entire school staff.

"The Board wishes to further advise you that all matters of expenditure will in the future, as in the past, meet with extreme scrutiny and wishes to assure our citizenry that no possible saving will be overlooked. At the same time there will be no diminution in the efficiency of our school system nor any tendency to impair the education of our pupils.

"This Board has gladly received all citizens who desired to voice their opinions on school matters and will continue to welcome them in the future. Nevertheless, the Board wishes to point out that no undue influence has been brought to bear on it and while pleased with the cooperation of those citizens of varied opinions, this budget is the conclusion of the Board of Education and none else.

"We further wish to deny the prevalent psychology finding fertile soil in the minds of some that current conditions speak disaster for the future.

"Fact may be met with fact and the substantial character of our citizenry can readily distinguish the need for economy from a program based on despair.

"The Board has enjoyed the close cooperation of the Township Committee in the past and looks to a continuance of this in the future to the end that our citizens may obtain the utmost in school facilities and government at the lowest possible cost per capita."

To some of us whose heyday, in some ways, dates into the more formal past there come recollections of program dances. For sheer thrill, there can be nothing to equal for either one of the couple.

The girl, if all the dances and encores were taken, had a perfectly wonderful evening. The man had the satisfaction of knowing he escorted a belle of the ball. But, oh! The anticipatory misgivings and fears! "Invitation to the Waltz," by Rosamond Lehmann is a vivid picture of just such a period. Truly termed an "exquisite piece of work," this is one of the latest additions to our pay shelf.

On our free shelves is "Dusty Answer," another book by the same authoress, which also tells of youthful experiences.

Several inquiries have been made for "Faraway" by J. B. Priestly. This book seems to have caused more than usual favorable comment because of style as well as material. We are fortunate in acquiring this for the pay shelf.

"Never Ask the End" by Isabel Paterson must be an unusual book to provoke the comment from Sinclair Lewis "completely different from any novel I have ever read." This book deals with the probabilities of a reunion of three friends after years of separation. The reader may not agree with the results produced in the story but they are in no way impossible.—F. P. J.

In addition to Associate Scout Kenneth Hoagland and Rudyard Jennings, second class, was awarded a first class pin.

Cuckoo Patrol, led by Patrol Leader Robert Kohler and Willard Day, troop officer, conducted last Friday's meeting which included first-aid practice, drill, games and new marching with colors which came in for approval from troop officers.

The troop has a $25 deficit and if you scouts want to wipe out this black mark on the records, pay up those back dues. Scout Law No. 4 says, "A scout is friendly," and Troop 66 lives up to this law by sharing the "school gym" Friday nights with the Cub Scouts. In view of this, the meeting tonight will be held at 7:45 o'clock.—THE NEWS SCOUTS.

Good Work on Budget

REDUCING the budget of the Board of Education to effect about a 20-point drop in the school tax rate, in face of considerable saving a year ago, is remarkable evidence of the spirit of the board in preparing figures of expense for the 1933-34 school year.

When it is considered a 20-point drop was made in 1932 together with the new reduction this year, the care of the school authorities in paring costs is further appreciated in view of an increase over that time in Senior High School pupils of sixty-three per cent. Transportation and tuition costs are included in the added enrolment of students at out-of-town schools.

The board's letter explaining its actions contains two gems of thought which we refer to the attention of our residents. The first is that, "We further wish to decry the prevalent psychology-finding-fertile soil in the minds of some that current conditions speak disaster for the future."

The second states, "Fact may be met with fact and the substantial character of our citizenry can readily distinguish the need for economy from a program based on despair."

MATTER of OPINION

One need not be a student of human relations in order to realize that the families that are best weathering the depression are those in which the woman in the home is doing her share in keeping up the family morale. Pity the man who has a losing fight for his job or his business, and who must come home to listen to whines, reproaches and recriminations. With due respect to those wives who are pinch-hitting in bringing home a pay envelope, there are many women who are helping to keep their husbands' business going, just by adjusting themselves cheerfully to a drastic reduction in their scale of living. We recall the case of a young man who had made a name for himself as a builder of high class homes, not of the speculative type, but solely on a contract basis. The first serious blow that came to him was his inability to collect payments totaling $1,000 due him on a house he was building. The reaction of his wife was immediate. They were living in an artistic and attractive home of his own design and building, in a charming suburban community; there was a maid to assist in the work and the care of the baby. The thing to do, she said, was to rent the house, and board with some friends who would be glad to take the three of them in for $25 a week. Greatly heartened, the young builder went on with his business, keeping in touch with architects, and of figuring on all plans and specifications he could get hold of. He could cut his estimates to the bone, knowing his wife was taking the change in their fortunes like a good sport, and that his skilled workmen were loyally determined to give him a "day's work" for a fair wage. For more than a year, they have been living thus. Of course he is not making any money, but he is remaining in business, and he is providing work for a group of skilled mechanics who are thus able to support their families. Who can say how far-spread are the ripples of circulating money, set in motion by this builder "doing business as usual?" This is the true spirit of the golden rule in business.

One takes up the daily newspaper, with a feeling that no one knows what crazy thing Congress is going to do next. It seems too much after the behavior of Congress last year, that the country should be again afflicted with similar tactics at this session of Congress. We can only grimly go about the business of life, with the feeling that we can expect no help from these officials who are disgusting the citizens of the country by their seeming total lack of responsibility to the people who have sent them to Washington, where they are drawing high salaries for obstructing the return of better times.

Substitutes in Form as Locals Win Third Game

Coach John Neis' Junior High School quintet defeated Union Junior High at home last Friday, 33 to 16, to take their third victory of the year.

The half ended in favor of the local team, 12-8, Pieper who has been playing substitute this season, was pulled right out of the fire. Green's fine passing to Pieper made it possible for the latter to sink five field goals which led both teams in scoring. Ken Hoegland played a brilliant defensive game at guard and O'Neil, local player, made good use of his height advantage to score four field goals for a total of eight points.

Officers Renamed at Bank Election

Dr. Watson B. Morris was reelected president and other officers and directors renamed at the annual meeting of the First National Bank of Springfield Tuesday.

The officers are: vice-president, Nicholas C. Schmidt; cashier, Louis J. Wiman, and assistant-cashier, Carlyle H. Richards.

The directors in addition to Dr. Morris and Mr. Schmidt are: Robert S. Bunnell, Morris Lichtenstein, Erwin L. Meisel, Carl H. Flemer, Robert B. Ferguson, Gabriel Larsen, Dr. Stewart O. Burns and A. M. Henshaw.

STRIKES AND SPARES

Plenty of fireworks Tuesday night! Hose Company, formerly tied for the lead with Recreation, took three defeats from the strengthened Gypsies and Recreation shared the lead with the A & P team and Five Aces as the latter took the odd game from Recreation. Thus three teams are tied for first.

With the exception of the Juniors' first game of 781, every team bowled at least 800 and there were nine games of 900 and over. Not bad out of a total of twenty-four possible games!

The A & P displayed remarkable power in averaging 923 and a few odd pins for the night. Incidentally, the second game of their match was a thriller, the Hose Company losing by only one pin.

Dave Thornton, with a total of 634 pins, Dean Widmer with 633 pins and Ludwig with 620 pins were the high scores of the evening.

THINK!

Again these paragraphs point to the folly of purchasing out of town. Money thus spent is not only lost to this township, but such thoughtlessness directly affects the welfare of every citizen of Springfield.

Much money changes hands during shopping time. KEEP IT AT HOME. Our merchants deposit in Springfield. The money comes back to you through channels of home industry. It is lost elsewhere.

Neglect of these warnings for your own good will have the direst consequences. That should be evident to every community-minded resident and shopper. Think! Think! Think!
