JIGSAW PUZZLES AT LAST FIND a way into this column as the Rambling Reporter, ever alert to connect a local incident with the latest of fads, was rewarded this week to be on hand at the spot when a puzzle was in the act of being assembled in the rear of the leading hardware store in town. It seems an enlarged puzzle, measuring about three by five feet, was about to be placed in the store window a few minutes prior, supported in a narrow frame with only moulding to bind it when ker-plunk and into ragged pieces fell the jigsaw puzzle. Freeholder Charles H. Huff, the able and patient proprietor, was last seen working on the puzzle hours after the picture was not yet completed. He vows care was the watchword when the picture actually reached the display space in the window. Believe it or not but in this hey day of reckless extravagance, Springfield taxpayers will receive a keen benefit by the action of local volunteer firemen to purchase a new truck out of funds raised by private enterprises of the company and donate the truck to the township. We've learned a second candidate will be soon forthcoming from Springfield for a seat on the small Board of Freeholders. Peter H. Meisel threw his hat into the ring last week and there seems to be an assurance this new candidate, whose name will be announced next week, will have considerable support in the other end of the county in addition to votes in this section. By the way, Committeeman George B. Gaskill, lone Democrat on the Township Committee, has been heard to say that friends have asked him to seek his party's nomination. President G. Arnold Wright is slated to be renamed to the position at the Board of Education organization meeting to be held next week. No radical changes are anticipated. Sensational doings predicted for the Governing Body session Monday night brought out new faces but they were doomed to disappointment as the expected notoriety they'd heard around the Center failed to make its appearance. Everything went along in orderly shape and a quiet and dull evening was enjoyed. Save your pennies for the Block-Aid drive which starts within a week and do your share to stamp out want!

Presbyterian Society Pays to Fix "Town" Clock

Members of the Christian Endeavor Society have co-operated in repairing the town clock on the Presbyterian Church by meeting the expense to adjust the strike so that it sounds hourly. Until a year ago, the clock was silent until church groups united in having the clock strike on the hour. More recently, the strike was irregular until the clock-maker was engaged. Now the time-piece faithfully sounds correctly every hour due to efforts of the young people of the church.

Firemen to Make Gift of New Truck to Town From Volunteer Funds

One-and-a-half Ton and Half Hose and Chemical Engine to Replace Present Old Machine

WILL BE DELIVERED WITHIN TWO WEEKS

At no cost to taxpayers, Springfield will have a new one-and-a-half-ton fire truck, a gift from members of the Volunteer Fire Department. A committee named to arrange the purchase of a new truck met Monday night and decided to buy the apparatus and turn in the department's small truck used for carrying hose and other equipment. The truck will be paid for by the thirty-five volunteer firemen from a fund accumulated from benefit affairs. The present truck, of which the body was formerly drawn by a horse until 1919 when it was rebuilt into a motor-driven vehicle, had outlived its usefulness. Traveling on the truck was too much of a risk to meet and in view of prevailing conditions, the committee felt this was the best time to purchase a new truck. The new truck will be delivered within two weeks. The old truck will be stripped of all equipment to be used on the new machine.

Somewhat larger than the Reo, the old truck in question, the new engine will be almost the size of the present small "Mack" hose and chemical combination. It will also be a combination truck and in addition have provision for carrying a ladder, making it completely equipped for firefighting purposes. It will be able to carry 1,200 feet of hose and one chemical tank. The truck will be of the most modern and up-to-date type, 158 inch wheelbase, all-steel body, four hydraulic brakes and four speeds ahead. One of its features will be a specially-made double floor, the bottom floor being six inches lower in which accommodation is made to carry brooms when fighting grass fires.

It is not felt that the purchase of the truck will be a luxury in view of the present condition of the old truck, for which a small allowance will be made on the trade-in.

The new truck will be presented to the Board of Fire Commissioners upon its arrival and will bear a small plate with an inscription of its donation from the Volunteer company.

Town Concert to Be Held March 29

The Springfield Choral Society has set Wednesday, March 29, as the date to present the initial Community night program of the season, it has been announced by Mrs. Frank A. Saile, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

An interesting and unique program is being prepared by Herald A. Jones, society director. All will be given an opportunity to give their voices a good workout. The affair will be informal and the entire community is invited to participate. Several specialty numbers will be presented by members of the chorus.

A group of school children, directed by Miss Ann Herche, teacher of music in Springfield schools, will also perform. Announcement will be made next week of the instrumental soloists who will take part.

Complain to Get Cop at School Walk

Board of Education and Resident Ask Town Board to Guard Crossing

Effects of economy measures to eliminate special police service at the Raymond Chisholm School crossing were re-echoed at the Township Committee meeting Monday night as complaints were read from the Board of Education and a resident, that the police service be resumed.

In view of a reduced police appropriation, it had been necessary to drop special police officers and shift regular patrolmen to watch crossings. On several occasions, sick leave and other duties necessitates leaving the crossing unguarded. A janitor had been handling the crossing.

Committeeman George B. Gaskill, police chairman, said the school board and residents should have complained when the department's 1933 budget was approved, it having been given considerable publicity that certain services would be dispensed with.

Chairman Charles S. Cannon believed the department should handle the situation as there were "enough police in the township." The matter was referred to the police committee.

A letter was received from Wilbur D. Schuster, secretary of the Taxpayers' Association, asked the board to publish an itemized report of all receipts and expenditures in the lowest detail in the Springfield SUN. The subject was referred to Committeeman Alfred G. Trundle, finance chairman.

A request from A. B. Anderson to use the Township Hall Monday, March 6, for a Block-Aid campaign preliminary meeting, was granted. Overseer of the Poor Lewis F. Macartney, who is also municipal relief director, was increased in his term as postmaster to five years at $250 a year instead of on the yearly appointment at the same salary.

Nab Three Here In Bus Hold Up

Three men alleged to have taken part in a bus holdup in Kenilworth Sunday at midnight and robbing Joseph Valenti of Kenilworth of $10 have been apprehended by Springfield police in a house, at 133 South Maple avenue and turned over to Kenilworth authorities.

Sam Ringled, twenty-four, was picked up at the South Maple avenue address by Patrolman Day on a warrant Tuesday at 11:30 P. M. George Jonas, nineteen, and his brother, Frank, sixteen, were taken to headquarters Wednesday at 5:20 on complaints made by Chief Conklin of Kenilworth.

It is said that truth is stranger than fiction. This statement is largely true and is a very good reason for reading non-fiction biography or travel.

The juvenile shelf has added an interesting book of travel, "Rear Admiral Byrd and the Polar Expeditions" by Coram Foster. This is of interest to adults as well.

Irving Batchelor presents a most unusual view of early Hebrew life and Saul of Tarsus in particular in his book, "Dawn."

To descend to the ridiculous from the sublime, read Will Rogers' "Literate Digest." We recommend it as an antidote for any depression.—F.P.L.

"KING KONG" AT MUSIC HALL, ROXY

"King Kong," recognized since its sensational dual opening at the Radio City Music Hall and the New Roxy Theatre, as the most amazing thrill-spectacle in motion picture history, is now drawing huge crowds to the two great Radio City Theatres.

This adventure in showmanship, opening ten thousand seats five times daily to one big film, is justified by the enormous audiences that are filling the Radio City theatres each day.

Over two years in production, "King Kong" represents the ultimate in film thrills. Its theme is built around a gigantic ape, over fifty feet high, who is lured to civilization from the jungle by the attraction of a beautiful girl.

Fay Wray, Robert Armstrong and Bruce Cabot play the leading roles. Others are Frank Reicher, Sam Hardy and Noble Johnson.

A small red star, half-inch across, to be worn on the right breast-pocket of each member of our troop indicates the significance of this badge.

The Ancient Art of Sharing

THE idea of sharing is as old as history. Foremost among the examples of those who have shared are the Hebrew people. It is bound up in their traditions. Every seven years there was a national clearing house, debts were forgiven, and people took on a new hold on life. It was a year of open markets. The Hebrew farmer was forbidden to reap "wholly" the corners of his field. The corners were left for the needy to glean.

When after captivity in Egypt the Hebrews were bidden to go out to another land there came the visitation of the last plague on the Egyptians. A Death Angel was to pass over the land by night and slay the first born in every home; but there was one exception, wherever the blood of a lamb marked the door post, the Death Angel was bidden to pass that house. And because there were some very needy families among the Hebrews there was given an express command that "If the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next unto to his house take it according to the number of souls." It was the ancient Hebrew idea of sharing—and because they shared there were no first born slain that night in the house of Israel.

Something like the Death Angel, in the shape of want, is passing through our own land at this very moment. The door posts must be marked lest it enter into some home in this community. Every day homes are being passed over by this Angel of death because of the work of some kindly individual or group which has learned to share.

"Lillian Dixon," said the teacher, "has any one seen her? She hasn't been at school for two days. I wonder if she is sick—Lillian would never miss school without some good reason." And then to herself the teacher said, "I must ask the school nurse to visit the home."

"Miss Goodenough will you kindly visit the home of the Dixons? There is a little girl there whose name is Lillian that I have missed from my classes—Can you do it

What the SUN Advocates

Believing that the following improvements are vital necessities to nourish Springfield's betterment and substantial progress, the SUN advocates:

1. A high school.
2. Removal of delapidated buildings which are "sorespots."
3. Sidewalks wherever needed.
4. Encouraging clean factories, to increase the ratables.
5. An active Board of Trade to stimulate "Buying in Springfield."
6. Postal-carrier delivery.
7. Reduced bus fare within town limits and to Millburn R. R. station.
8. Full time position for the township clerk's office.
9. Set of Building Zones, before township is developed.
10. A county park.

today?" "Well," replied Miss Goodenough, "I'll go as soon as possible, and I suppose I might as well go today because every new day is a busy day right now."

It was getting dark when Miss Goodenough, the school nurse, approached the Dixon home. "I'll just bet they are at supper," thought the nurse, "but I am here and I must have a report for tomorrow." Ringing the door bell, she waited for at least a minute before it opened, and then a woman appeared at the door who was no doubt the mother in the home. "Good evening, Mrs. Dixon, I am Miss Goodenough, the school nurse. I have come to inquire about Lillian." "Oh, come right in," said the mother. "Can you find a chair? I am sorry there is no light but something is the matter with the wires and so we are in darkness. Getting quite cool isn't it—my husband has carelessly let the furnace go out, he's a pretty poor fireman some-

MATTER of OPINION

For the second time within the space of a few months, death has removed a figure of national prominence. Stricken as suddenly as was Calvin Coolidge, Senator Thomas J. Walsh's passing has taken from public life a man whose ability, integrity and honesty made him one of the most admired men in official circles in Washington. Married only five days, and returning from Cuba with his bride, Senator Walsh was looking forward to his work as Attorney General in the new cabinet of the coming Democratic Administration. President-Elect Roosevelt voices the universal feeling when he says that the country has sustained a "grievous loss."

Plans for the Block-Aid campaign in Springfield are being furthered by a representative group of local citizens. It is safe to say that it is impossible for the person who has never found himself at the end of his resources, to imagine the state of mind of the man who through no fault of his own finds that because he cannot get work he is no longer able to provide food, shelter, raiment or fuel for his family. This is the season of self-denial. For twenty weeks those of our citizens who have work or have a steady income, are asked to assist in financing the cost of providing work relief, so that none of our neighbors shall go hungry or cold. Do not make harder the task of those who are assisting in the campaign. They are not asking for themselves, they are asking for those who need your help. Give if you can and what you can, but do not give the canvasser an argument.

Now that we have a zoning board, would it not be fine if some of our people who are successful gardeners should form a garden club? Could there be any more attractive plan for helping us to forget that a depression is on? The March Ladies' Home Journal contains an article which sets forth forty-four things a Garden Club can do. This article is respectfully referred to the gardeners who entered the N. Y. Tribune contest last year. How about it, gentlemen?

times." "Will it be possible for me to see Lillian?" said the nurse. "Of course," replied the mother "she is out in the kitchen just now. You know it is supper time." Seated around the table, wrapped up in coats sat the family. The children each had a piece of bread and of course there was water. (What better meal could a child ask than this!) and from one piece of bread each child was trying to appease his keen childish appetite. Appalled at the sight the nurse said, "Will you please excuse the very brief visit, I have just thought of a place I must go this very minute. But I'll come back again, soon."

Hurrying to the nearest telephone the nurse called out, "Central, give me HELP

6-1000." "Is this the Emergency Relief? Well, listen please until I'm through. Say, get off the wire, you are interrupting important business—Director, somebody tried to cut us off, are you still listening? Send some wood to the Dixons on Pleasant Place. Can you get it there at once, oh, you'll take it on your own car? Well, that's fine—also send some milk for the baby—can you get hold of some meat for soup? All right. And, oh yes, it might be well to get some eggs and of course bread. But say, I forgot, can you get the emergency gas man at once. That meter must be turned on before they can cook! All right, thanks ever so much!" Then to herself, "Now I guess I can enjoy my own dinner and sleep better tonight. The electric light can be taken care of tomorrow—I guess the children won't mind the darkness now."

The next day Lillian was in school. Somebody had shared with the Dixons a lamb to mark the door posts and the Death Angel of hunger had passed them by in the night.

Amaranth Party Proves Success

Fidelity Court, Order of Amaranth, celebrated Washington's Birthday with a party in the lodge rooms last Thursday night in Millburn. About fifty persons attended and Mrs. Elizabeth Eberle was chairman. Refreshments were served.

Among the entertaining hits was a presentation of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Schuster in "When You and I Were Young, Maggie" and Mrs. Grace Friberger and Mrs. Hilda Koch were heard in a vocal selection. Mrs. Lincoln Wood, Sr. recited on "The Flag" with Miss Gladys Sterner as Betsy Ross. Betty Sorge and Betty Eberle presented dances and several children from Bloomfield performed an acrobatic dance. Four-year old Robert Wood recited "School days" followed by Mrs. Anna J. Oelling and Harry Eberle in bowery costume dancing to the tune of "East Side." Mrs. Evelyn Hyde was heard in several conical recitations and a skit, "Yankee Doodle," was given by Mrs. Margaret Veith. The program was concluded with a song, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" by John Schuster who was attired as an old mammy.

Mrs. Oelling won a cake donated by Mrs. May Gibson. The College Club Orchestra, composed of all Springfield members, played in their first public appearance. They included Don Gibson, leader, Grace Fritts, Thomas Cushing, Willard Day, Harry Anderson, Robert Briggs and Rochford Ern. The court will meet Thursday evening, March 9, at 8 o'clock in the Millburn Bank Building.

"Stump" Speaking

"Stumping for Harrison" was a common phrase during the log-cabin and hard-cider campaign of the ninth President of the United States, William Henry Harrison. Attributed to the Middle West, the term was indigenous to all districts where forests were being cleared to make way for settlements.

the CASH REGISTER

THE delicate clang of the cash register keys, accompanied by an insistent obligato of cash drawers opening and closing is music to the merchant's ears. What annoys most merchants today is the extremely slow tempo in which this commercial music is played on their cash registers. Today, as yesterday, accelerating the pace of your cash register is accomplished by tuning up on your advertising. The SUN reaches the Home, those purchasing markets that still make purchases, that still builds for merchants, that still read the local paper for news of bargains, seasonal merchandise, innovations, and competitive prices — markets that will keep your cash registers busy. To set your cash registers clanging, get the proceeds from advertising in the SUN.

Call or drop us a card, and we will send a representative who will explain in detail the benefits derived from advertising in the SUN.

A SURPRISE

Monday morning, a boy came to our room with a large box and a small package and placed them on the teacher's desk. At recess time, the teacher asked Kenneth Springle to go upstairs and open it. We could scarcely wait to see what was in the box. When we entered the room, there on the table was a big globe. It was a pleasant surprise for all of us.—ANNA WHITE.

P.T.A. Hears Talk On "Parenthood"

Members of the Parent-Teacher Association heard Mrs. Ira Bingham of the Newark Evening News speak at an afternoon meeting Monday afternoon in the James Caldwell School on the subject, "A Challenge to Parenthood." Mrs. Percy T. Hammonds, vice-president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Bingham, who is a member of the educational department of the Newark News, gave an enlightening talk and members declare it was as interesting as any heard by the association.

The Cadence Trio of the Women's Club of Millburn which includes Mrs. L. F. Macartney of Springfield, Mrs. Jesse Bole and Mrs. Glen A. Woodhouse, sang several selections accompanied by Mrs. Harry A.

Cobaugh.

Mrs. Alfred G. Trundle, hospitality chairman, was in charge of a social hour which followed.

Ruddy Duck Peculiar

The ruddy duck is peculiar among all ducks in having the 18 tailfeathers slender and stiffened with coverts much abbreviated, producing a woodpecker-like tail.

But He Does That Well

Once in a while you meet a man whose only function apparently is to serve as a mooring mast for a nickel cigar.—Lafayette Journal and Courier.

Artistic Bird

The satin bower bird paints its bowers by crushing charcoal in its bill and then taking a brush of wadded bark into its bill and setting to work.

Illogical to Bear Grudge

Forgiveness is required by reason," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown. "No one has ceased to enjoy honey because he has been stung by a bee."

Merely Superstition

The old superstition that sleeping in the moonlight will cause a person to go insane has no scientific basis.
