REV. WILLIAM I. REED TO LEAVE METHODIST CHURCH

Pastor Will Move to Church in Dunellen—District
Supt. to Come Here

The Rev. William I. Reed, pastor of the Springfield Methodist Episcopal Church for five years, will be transferred to another pastorate by decision of the Newark Conference, it was announced last Sunday night at the church. The change is regarded as recognition of able service and Mr. Reed's place will be filled by the Rev. H. Y. Murkland, D. D., Elizabeth district superintendent.

Mr. Reed has had a remarkable breadth of service for the Methodist Church. During the World War, he was appointed by the Church for special work in the camps, continuing that type of social service until he served as State director for Near East Relief in Maine for five years.

At Mountain View, N. J., from which place he transferred to come to Springfield, he practically rebuilt a church and as a result revived the congregation. Wherever occupied, he has always been in constructive work. Coming to Springfield in 1929, his efforts were turned to good use, not only in his particular congregation but in township activity at large. His college training at New York University has given Mr. Reed the needed vision and manner in which to carry on his work, which is attractive to loyal workers who naturally rejoice in well-directed effort.

As chairman of the Sesqui-centennial celebration of the Battle of Springfield in 1930, Mr. Reed directed an event far greater than that anticipated by enthusiastic sponsors of the affair. It was more elaborate than previous celebrations of that type in this section of the country. Three days of well-planned and appropriate pageantry, public speaking and church celebrations was sufficient to attract attention in an unsolicited editorial in one of the country's great newspapers, the New York Times.

LEGION POST TO HOLD DANCE THIS EVENING

Continental Post, American Legion, will hold a dance tonight at 8 o'clock in the Haunted Lodge, Immergreen Park. Music will be played by an orchestra from Argonne Post, Elizabeth.

Clifford Walker is general chairman and tickets are one dollar per couple. Proceeds will be used for the post.

THREE NEW PERMITS GIVEN TO SELL BEER

Three additional permits to sell beer, making twelve in all, were granted Monday night by the Township Committee. They were given to Herman Shack of Morris avenue, for selling bottled goods, and to Carl J. Muehsaig of Evergreen avenue and Fred Betz of Route 29, to be consumed on the premises.

Horster Named to Road, Garbage Job

Charles D. Horster of 49 Mountain avenue has been named "general utility man" by the Township Committee to supervise the newly consolidated road and garbage departments, it was learned this week. He will be paid $25 per week and local unemployed men will work as assistants. In addition to handling road and garbage, Horster will also be available at all times for sewer maintenance.

Action was taken Monday night by the Governing Body in executive session after the Board of Health meeting. Horster will replace Charles H. Ruby as road department employee.

Two or three unemployed men will assist Horster and will be paid partly in food orders and part in cash. Ruby received $5 per day and $7.50 when he used his team of horses. The new township road and garbage truck, ordered last week, will be ready for use by June 1 when the new system goes into effect.

The move to consolidate the road, garbage and sewer departments is being made for economy reasons, the Township Committee points out.

Springfield Man Third After Harrigan and Bauer for 3-Year Term; 5 Out of 9 'Regulars' Win

PETER H. MEISEL

William I. McMane Finishes Fourth With 8765 Votes to 9,713 For Meisel

Peter H. Meisel of Springfield, former director of the Board of Freeholders and recently ousted county purchasing agent, was successful for the Republican nomination for freeholder for the three-year term at the primary election Tuesday. Freeholder Richard Harrigan of Plainfield finished first, Charles L. Bauer of Elizabeth was second and Meisel was third. William I. McMane of Summit, present director of the Board of Freeholders, finished fourth, just short of placing.

The "old guard" of the Republican party was successful in securing five out of nine freeholder places. Meisel was not one of the organization candidates. The "old guard" also placed three of four choices for Assembly and Register Edward Bauer was renominated for that office.

Harrigan received 10,790 votes; Charles L. Bauer, Jr. was credited with 10,319 votes and Meisel had 9,713 votes. McMane was next with 8,765 votes.

For the two-year Republican freeholder nominations, former Freeholder James A. Brokaw of Elizabeth was first with 11,834; Rudolph Engisch of Elizabeth, organization candidate, was next with 9,986 and Mayor Alfred C. Brooks of Rahway, other organization candidate, third with 8,752 votes.

For one-year nomination, Col. John H. M. Dudley of Elizabeth was high, followed by Charles E. Smith of Westfield and former Freeholder Clifford B. Gehring of Rahway.

The successful Republican Assembly nominations were won by the incumbents, Thomas M. Muir and Herbert J. Pascoe and two new men were chosen, Hart S. Van Fleet of Roselle Park, who furnished a surprise, and Judge John J. Molson, Jr. of Linden.

County Register Bauer won by a large margin over Col. Olmsted and former Sheriff Frank R. Emmons.

In the Democratic Freeholder contests, the successful candidates were: three-year, Freeholder Richard Brady, John J. Collins and Michael Nitfoll; two-year, Freeholder Joseph J. Keelan, Dr. Frank Moore and Daniel J. Walsh; one-year, Sarah V. Ackerman, George H. Cooper and Joseph B. McGrann.

The Democratic organization candidates for Assembly, were also successful. Complete returns of Springfield voting will be found elsewhere in this issue. Only where contests existed, are the results posted.

sons, Herman, Jr. of Livingston, Frederick of Rutherford and Albert W. Meves who resides in Springfield. There are also two daughters living in Germany.

Mrs. Meves came to Springfield with her husband several years ago from Germany to make her home in this township with her son.

Miss Weber Wins Only Local Fight

Miss Dorothy B. Weber defeated Mrs. Anna Oelling, 46 to 37, Tuesday in a Republican County Committee contest for committeewoman in the Third District. There were no other contests. Miss Weber had the backing of the Republican organization and her opponent ran as an independent.

Elbert D. Johnson, Republican candidate for township committeeman, and Charles H. Huff, Republican candidate for tax collector, polled 435 and 465 votes, respectively. Milton G. Lott, Democratic Township Committee candidate, received 141 votes and Edward A. Conley, Democratic candidate for tax collector, 150. Peter H. Meisel Republican candidate for the new small Board of Union County Freeholders, was high among the freeholder candidates.

Local Republican leaders had not expected Meisel to carry Springfield, despite his last-minute indorsement by the Springfield Republican Club. The candidate, a former freeholder, was not reappointed this year as Union County purchasing agent, which position he had held several years. Approximately one-third of the township's registered voters went to the polls.

On the prohibition repeal referendum, there were 589 votes cast in favor of repeal and 107 opposed.

Mrs. Meves is Buried Yesterday

Funeral services for Mrs. Herman Meves, Sr., 76, of 33 Battle Hill avenue who died at her home early Tuesday morning, were held at the residence yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Tetzhold of Irvington, officiated. Interment was in the Springfield Presbyterian Cemetery.

Mrs. Meves had been ill for several weeks when she passed away. Beside her husband, she is survived by three

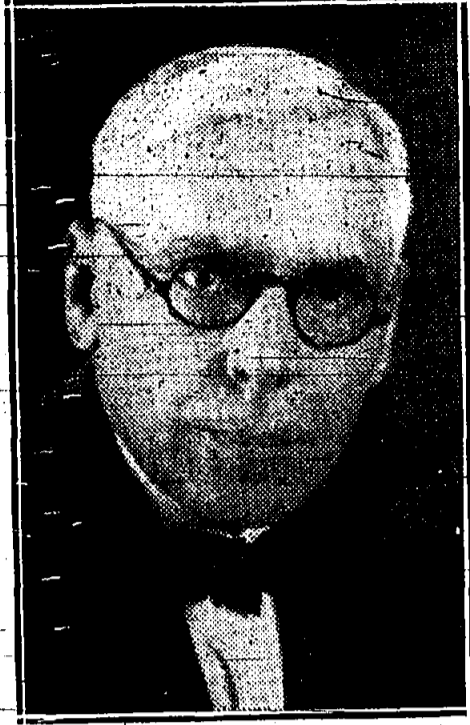

Rambling
Around Town

PETER H. MEISEL'S SHOWING IN the Freeholder race which saw him nominated out of a large field was the common gossip of interest around town yesterday afternoon. . . a most complex situation is now ahead as we see some of the Republican "lobster dinner" candidates nominated with independents also successful. . . the status of the local political aspect is somewhat tossed into the winds. . . it is a known fact that local political leaders worked at the nine-organization aspirants and P. Meisel, local candidate, was left out in the cold. . . now Meisel, ousted county purchasing agent, is nominated and some of the old members are out of a job, that is unless the Democrats pull a surprise and come forth victors at the November election. . . is reported around Elizabeth that the propaganda to be used in the general election this Fall will be of a most convincing nature if the Rambling Reporter knows what it's all about. . . all talk of inexperienced election wards holding up election returns and newspapers, candidates and others waiting two full days before actual results are posted, is again being sounded around the county. . . election machines, we've always heard, would be the correct method to use but it seems it will be a good number of years before Union County officials see their way clear to install the automatic machines. . . the district in Summit was counting votes until 8 o'clock Wednesday night, that seems imaginable. . . the only item to use, if voting machines are used, is for leaders in both Republican and Democratic parties to improve up.

of expansion for the Methodist Church in town, an improvement of note was made in moving the rectory further north on the church property. This provided work at a time when wages were sorely needed and gave a breadth to the church establishment. The property is ready for the next step in planned improvement as well as a spot of beauty. Main street, on which the church and rectory is located, is one of the favorable approaches to the center of town.

Recognition of Mr. Reed's signal public service and personal ability are reflected in his having been chosen president of the Lions Club, in which group he has always been active. He holds the office of president at this time.

The most recent activity under Mr. Reed's versatile leadership is the Block-Aid Campaign for emergency relief, which is more than a one-unit drive. Arrangements were made to hold a number of events including neighborly contributions collected in a house-to-house canvass, whereby local relief is financed without a strain on the public treasury.

Mr. Reed's friends are interested and wish him success in seeing his good work marked by a promotion to a larger and more important position in Dunellen, where he will be stationed.

Now that Springfield is about to lose one of its citizens and spiritual leaders, it is altogether fitting to wish Rev. William I. Reed tremendous success in the new and more arduous task before him. It is not surprising that the Newark Conference has larger and more important work for Mr. Reed, nor that they will transfer a district superintendent to fill his place. We congratulate Dunellen on our loss.

MATTER of OPINION

The second of the series of Springfield sewer bonds will mature on June 1, and Mayor Cannon has sent a written appeal to those property owners who have not yet paid this year's installment of their sewer assessment. Nothing is so easily destroyed as credit, and it is difficult for a town which is forced by lack of funds to default in the payment of bonds, to re-establish its credit, which means borrowing power. The interest of every property owner lies in keeping up the financial standing of the community. The growth of a town depends upon the favorable impression it makes upon people who are seeking to establish a home or a business, and newcomers do not care to establish themselves in a town of dubious financial standing. Our governing boards are doing their share in trying to supply as economically as possible the services, protections and improvements desired by the residents of a modern community of homes. A supreme effort should be made to pay before June 1 the sewer assessment installment now due.

Nothing could more pleasantly convince us that plans for the Rahway

River Parkway, are really making headway, than the announcement of the gift by the family of the late William Flemer of 600 young magnolia trees which are later to adorn the parkway. One visualizes a long stretch of these lovely blooms creating a vista of beauty with each recurring Springtime. No more fitting memorial to the late Mr. Flemer could be designed for his profession as was the beautifying of the landscape, and in Springfield he spent the most productive years of his life. He was the pioneer who first had the vision of developing this quiet old town into a modern residential community.

Mr. Macartney has earned a rest from his labors as Relief Director, but we can understand the reluctance of the Union County Emergency Relief Director to lose the services of an aide who has made such an outstanding record. In Mrs. Helen Smith, he has had a valuable and faithful deputy, who will undoubtedly be of great assistance to Township Committeeman Wilbur M. Selander, should he take over the work.

Go to Church Sunday

Join the Happy Throng

Have you ever noticed the faces of people as they emerge from church out into the sunlight? They are bright faces, faces with faith shining in them, their burdens are lightened, their joys are increased, because they have stopped for a moment in the House of God. Your church holds the same happiness for you, a happiness in being one with your Creator, a happiness derived from good fellowship and love of mankind, a happiness found in doing good—this is only a part of what your church will instill into your heart. If you want a balanced, happy life, join the happy throng on their way to church next Sunday.

Letter From Canada.

Several members of the class have sent letters to pupils at schools in foreign countries. Two letters have been received thus far, one from Hungary to Alvera Mueller, and one to June Levsen from Canada, which is printed below.—BERNARD SCHRÄMM.

3542 Clarke St.,
Montreal, Quebec,
Canada.
April 26, 1933.

Dear June,

You wish to hear about the places of interest near my home and the wild flowers that grow here in the Spring.

Montreal is a very large city and naturally has many places of interest. McGill is a university where students from many countries come to study. The Art Gallery and McCord Museum, which contain only Canadian exhibits, are of interest to the general public. There are many other places of interest which I shall not mention in this letter.

Flowers are quite numerous in the Spring. The most common are violets, trilliums, snowdrops, and still more common, are buttercups and daisies. These flowers are to be found on Mount Royal.

The school for girls which I attend, is called the High School for Girls. There are 1,085 girls who attend the school. Our school is one of the most modern of its kind in the British Empire. It is equipped with a swimming pool, a library and music room. You asked if our school had an auditorium. Yes, it is a very large one, where we hold our school concerts. Our concert is to be given this month and all the school choirs and High School orchestra, composed of boys and girls who can play an instrument, will accompany some of the songs heard.

There is a great deal more about which I could tell you, but as I have not time, I will close.

Yours truly,
ELIZABETH ROBSON.

LIONS MET YESTERDAY.

Members of the Springfield Lions Club attended the semi-annual Regional Meet. last night in the Maplewood Country Club at which the South Orange-Maplewood Club acted as hosts. Al Clarks, district governor, presided. Rev. William I. Reed is president of the local club.

Mrs. Frank A. Salle of 188 Tooker avenue, entertained at a card party yesterday afternoon at her home for the benefit of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. James' Catholic Church.

Assembly Program.

Miss Purcel's class held an Assembly program Thursday of songs, dances and poems. Two of the dancers were Muriel Johnson and Anna White. They both danced well. Edith Cullen recited a beautiful poem. The 6B's sang "Welcome, Sweet Springtime" and the Junior High School band played a few selections.—LENA RUGGIERO, 6B.

Reading Chart.

We have a new reading chart. The chart is on the blackboard. The chart says Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. We put the names of the best readers on the chart each day. Dorothy, Mary and Brother's names are on almost every day.—Grade 1, R. C. School.

9c Notes.

The graduating class has selected its graduating rings. The Commercial Club has also selected pins for the club members. The cake sale held in the Legion rooms May 13 turned out successful. We have now enough money to do the things we want to do at the end of the year.

We are thinking about having a banquet, but it has not yet been decided upon. The 9C girls started a baseball team. They will play the eighth grade May 18.—IRENE MAYER, Secretary.

Studying Circus.

We are studying about the circus. We made circus pictures. Now we are making cages of circus animals. We have read many stories about them. Many of us have been to a circus.—Grades 1-2, J. C. School.

Sixth Grade Study.

Miss Wahl has assigned the sixth grade's homework to get myths, Greek, Roman or any kind. Audrey Hambrack told an interesting myth, "How the Sea Became Salty." I think Miss Wahl will enjoy these myths because she has never heard some of them before.—MARIE VOLK, 6A.

Studying Foods.

We have been studying about the foods we eat. Miss Smith brought us some pictures of grapefruit, orange and banana trees from Florida.—FRANCIS PARKIN, Grade 2.

7A Attendance.

7A has had almost perfect attendance since the beginning of the month. The only absentees were Raymond Kimball and Virginia-St. Marie. We hope to get the attendance banner from our rivals, the 7B class.—CHARLES ANDERSON.

Wrote Another Story.

We wrote another story for our story book. The story is about a little boy and his dog. We have many bouquets of flowers in our room. There are bouquets of lilacs, iris and lilies of the valley.—Grade 3, R. C. School.

8B News.

The eighth grade girls are playing the ninth grade in baseball next Tuesday and we hope to be able to walk off the field with the score in our favor.—DORIS MAINWARING.

EXPEDITION FINDS STONE AGE VILLAGE

Persia Yields Two Most Remarkable Discoveries.

Chicago.—Two chapters in the epic of human advance over a span of nearly four thousand years from the remote Stone age to the magnificence of Cyrus the Great have been dramatically revealed by discoveries of the Persian expedition of the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago, which have just been reported to Director James Henry Breasted by Dr. Ernst Herzfeld, field director of the expedition.

At Persepolis, the Versailles of ancient Persia, the Institute expedition has discovered some of the most magnificent sculptures ever uncovered by archeology. Within two miles of the ruins of the ancient palaces to which Alexander the Great in 330 B. C. set the torch during a drunken debauch, Doctor Herzfeld has found a Stone age village of approximately 4000 B. C. in a state of preservation surpassing any such discovery heretofore made.

"The discovery at Persepolis is one of the greatest and most important in the history of archeological research," Doctor Breasted said. "It not only far surpasses any archeological disclosure ever made in the history of such research in Persia, but there has never been any discovery like it anywhere in western Asia since archeological excavation began there almost a century ago."

Wall Sculptures.
Doctor Herzfeld has uncovered a series of wall sculptures which, if set together, would form a vast panel of reliefs five or six feet in height, and almost a thousand feet in length. The carvings include a series of historical inscriptions of the greatest historical importance.

The walls of magnificent palaces which stood on the gigantic terrace of Persepolis, overlooking a mighty plain encircled by mountains, were of sun-dried brick. But the colonnaded halls, the windows, and the great doors were done in black stone which was polished like ebony.

The sculptures were done here and there on this black stone. Those discovered by Doctor Herzfeld depict a magnificent durbar, or concave, of a great group of Persian and Median officials standing with the brilliantly uniformed palace guards of the Persian emperor drawn up at one side to receive the ambassadors of twenty-two subject nations who approach from the other side bearing their tribute to Persia.

The execution of the scenes, Doctor Herzfeld reports, displays unparalleled beauty and refinement of detail.

It was the disintegration and fall of the great mud-brick walls that preserved the newly discovered sculptures, and protected them from the ravages of weather and vandalism through the nearly two thousand five hundred years since they were created. The carvings are as fresh as the day when the sculptors' chisels touched them for the last time. No other works of old Persian art have ever been found in such perfect preservation.

Stone Age Village.

Doctor Herzfeld found the Stone age village beneath a small mound some three hundred by six hundred feet in area and only ten or twelve feet in height, within two miles of the ruins of the great palaces.

The walls of the adobe houses are preserved in places to a height of six or seven feet. There is a narrow street or alley extending the length of the little settlement, and a modern visitor walking along it can look over into the houses. Through the doors and the earliest known windows ever found, he can see mural decorations of red ochre water color still discernible on the walls.

Standing about on the floors are household utensils of pottery, fireplaces with burned clay fire-dogs still in position, and pottery vessels still containing the remains of food, especially the bones of probably domesticated animals. In some of the dishes lay the flint knives with which the ancient people had just eaten some six

Jeanne D'Arc of Royal Blood, Says Magazine

Paris.—What was the famous "secret" of Jeanne d'Arc, France's heroic woman savior who was burned at the stake by the English?

Is it true that this famous "secret" of which the Maid of Domremy spoke so frequently was the fact that in her veins ran the royal blood of France?

In a sensational article, the Mercure de France, a monthly magazine that corresponds in dignity to the Atlantic Monthly, asserts that this relationship existed, that the Maid of Orleans was, in fact, of the blood royal.

This is what she whispered to Charles VII, this is why the king's confessor had her escorted to headquarters by all the grands seigneurs of France, this is why implicit obedience was so willingly given her.

In presenting this question, together with proof and deduction, the Mercure de France has loosed a controversy that is attracting wide attention.

NEW PASTOR TO GREET PARISH SUNDAY

The Rev. H. Y. Murkland, D.D., new pastor at the Springfield Methodist Episcopal Church, will greet members of the congregation at services Sunday morning. Dr. Murkland, superintendent of the Elizabeth district, is coming to this township to replace Rev. William I. Reed, who will change to Dunellen.

Since the Elizabeth district is being abolished for economy reasons, Dr. Murkland is retiring as superintendent and will come to Springfield at his own request. The congregation of the Methodist Church is enthusiastic over the prospects of having so high an official in the Church as pastor of the local church.
