HIS PROBLEM

Little Johnny should have been hard at his homework. As it was, his father found him listening to the wireless and sucking his pencil. "Well," asked father, "why don't you get on with your work?" "I can't, Dad," came Johnny's reply, "until I've heard the latest news bulletin. You see, I've got to draw a map of Europe."

HAM AND EGGS

When the well-known actor and producer retired, the son carried on with some of his father's honors. One evening in front of the father's theater an old friend of the family affectionately patted the son on the back and remarked: "A chip off the old block, eh?" To which the critic growled: "You mean a slice of the old ham!"

ONE-TWO-THREE-FOUR CAKES

Let's All Have Tea

There's something so social about serving tea. Friends and neighbors drop in for a bit of rest and relaxation, conversation flourishes, and the whole house is aglow with hospitality.

Serving tea is one of the simplest and most gracious ways of entertaining - whether you invite one guest or fifty. It may be a cozy, informal affair with only a few "handpicked" friends invited, and simple bread and butter sandwiches, with a cup of perfectly brewed tea for refreshment. Or, you may plan a much larger, more elaborate tea as a means of entertaining the Parent-Teacher association, the Garden club, or perhaps the Women's auxiliary of your husband's lodge.

Formal or informal, large or small, you'll find that beforehand preparations and carefully laid plans help to make this kind of entertaining easy. Admit the limitations of your budget, your equipment, your time and strength, and don't plan more than you can carry out comfortably and sensibly. Remember that a cup of tea and a slice of bread and butter can make a party if the tea is perfectly made, the bread enticingly thin, and the service dainty and attractive.

Keep sandwiches, muffins, cakes and cookies small and dainty. If your invitation list numbers a large number of guests, bake your favorite cakes in jelly roll pans, frost, and cut into small, diagonal pieces.

Ginger Cream Cakes.

To make these clever little cakes, use the thin ginger snap on cookies ordinarily sold on the market. Allow from three to five to a serving. Put together with sweetened whipped cream in the same manner as in frosting a miniature layer cake. Cover the top and sides generously with the cream, and chill thoroughly. Ground candied ginger may be sprinkled sparingly over the tops. One cup of whipping cream will make six cakes.

Orange Tea Cream.

1 tablespoon granulated gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1/4 cup orange juice
1/2 cup lemon juice
2 tablespoons orange rind (grated)
2 cups coffee cream
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs (beaten separately)

Soak the gelatin in the cold water for five minutes. Dissolve sugar in boiling water and add to the gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Add the orange juice, or a n e rind, lemon juice, coffee cream, salt, and beaten egg yolks. Fold in egg whites and pour mixture into freezing container of ice cream freezer. Assemble and cover. Then pack mixture of crushed ice and rock salt (use three parts ice to one part salt, by volume) around the freezing container. Turn crank slowly but steadily. When mixture becomes too stiff to turn, remove cover carefully, take out dasher, and pack down evenly with a spoon. Cover ice cream with wax paper and allow to harden at least one hour before serving.

IT'S POP CORN TIME

THERE is no confection so widely used and universally liked as pop corn. It is a perennial ice-breaker at almost any social function. Here is a recipe that is sure to be enjoyed:

Honey Pop Corn Balls

1 cup honey, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 cup water, 4 quarts pop corn, 1/2 teaspoon cream

Boil honey, sugar, and water with cream of tartar until it turns brittle when tested in cold water. Add butter. Mix with warm pop corn and shape into balls.

Immortal Minds

If we work upon marble it will perish. If we work upon brass time will efface it. If we rear temples they will crumble to dust. But if we work upon men's immortal minds, if we imbue them with high principles, with the just fear of God and love of their fellow men, we engrave on those tablets something which no time can efface, and which will brighten and brighten to all eternity. -Daniel Webster.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Cremulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to loosen germ laden phlegm, increase secretion and add nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Cremulsion with the understanding that you are to take the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.
