"As You See It"

This feature, in which residents are asked to give their views on varied subjects, will appear in the SUN from time to time. Suggested questions are welcomed.

QUESTION: What time of the day do you look forward to most when you get up in the morning?
PLACE OF INTERVIEW: First National Bank Building, Springfield, and the gym of the Mountainside School during a dancing class rehearsal.

DR. HENRY MULHAUSER, dentist, 285 Morris avenue.

"My favorite time comes when the day has rolled around, and my work is complete. Then I can relax and read and listen to the radio."

"When I sit down to my coffee in the morning, I think I'd say is the favorite time of my day."

Rambling Around Town

RETURN TO NORMAL SERVICE of the "town clock" on the tower of the Presbyterian Church this week was greeted with favorable comments from residents around town, who have missed its sounding of the hour and have been confused by the "ten minutes of nine" hands, particularly in the early morning, enroute to work or school . . . the tower clock was repaired on Wednesday . . .

One of our good friends in the Warner tract suggests that attention be called to the jetties of residents who make it a habit to leave ash and garbage cans, in front of their homes, long after the collectors have emptied their contents . . . he thinks the township should either enforce its ordinance in this respect, or if it is not contained therein, to amend regulations so as to insist that a few hours later, the appearance of township streets not be spoiled by such an unsightly condition . . .

With a whirlwind of music, jokes, novelties and surprises, the American Legion's variety show, "Stuff and Nonsense" is entering its last week of rehearsals, for it will be shown at the High School on March 29 . . . local personalities will be made the butt of several jokes, and among the surprises will be an exhibition by two exponents of jitsu-bug, a magician, and a grand finale that will create a new standard in local entertainment . . . so much good charitable enterprise has been handled through the Legion, that the Rambling-Reporter advises all to get your tickets early, and get plenty of 'em . . . for proceeds will go toward welfare and Finnish relief purposes . . .

Budget Adopted By Townfathers

The 1940 municipal budget was adopted by the Township Committee Wednesday night, following approval with slight detailed changes from State Commissioner of Local Government Walter R. Darby. It provides an estimated tax rate of $5.08, a drop of 33 points below last year's.

Board members expressed an optimistic viewpoint toward tax collections this year, after a report from Collector Charles Huff for the first two months, showing $67,119 received in all funds as compared to $57,043 last year. Committee-man Wright pointed out that revenue costs in January and February, totalling $1,304, are about half of those for the same period in the two preceding years.

An ordinance was introduced, providing for sidewalks on the south side of Morris avenue from the street, from Baltusrol way to the Summit line. It replaced an ordinance originally brought up in February, which fell short of the distance later sought by residents affected by the walk.

Fire Chief Pinkava reported five calls last month and his recommendation for hydrants in the new Spring Brook Park section, at Crest place and Spring Brook road, and Park lane and Spring Brook road, were concurred in. Permission was granted the Community Troupers to hang a banner across Morris avenue, at the rest office, to advertise a play for the group.

Car In Which 3 Were Killed

Remains of the coupe which crashed into a standing 10-ton trailer truck Monday on Route 29, instantly killing the driver and fatally injuring two other passengers.

Vendor Heavily Fined In Court

A fine of $100 was the price Benjamin London paid last Friday for having "passed himself off" in Springfield as a salesman working in conjunction with the Women's Auxiliary of the Hillsdale Post, V. F. W., while distributing a line of shampoo, vanilla extract, hair tonic, and other such items here during the month of January. At that time, David Kaminsky of Plainfield was arrested as an accomplice and was fined $22.50, and $2.50 costs. London was not apprehended then, however.

Several days previous to the arrest last week, however, local police learned that London was operating in Westfield on a similar plan. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest last Thursday and although his actions in Westfield were sanctioned by police there, they arrested him here over to the Springfield officials. He was tried the same night on the charge for which Kaminsky had been tried, that of operating without an itinerant vending license. With the knowledge that he was the one behind the scheme in Springfield, Recorder Everett T. Spilling upped his fine to $100.

Complaints which had led the police to investigate started coming in January, soon after London's crew started working in the vicinity. Among the complaints were those from officials of the State office of the Auxiliary. The police found Kaminsky in an office at 269 Morris avenue where he had employed three girls to telephone prospective customers for him.

Several cases of the preparations were seized and are still being held in the jail room at Police Headquarters. Many of the bottles do not have labels on them, and some doubt has been expressed that the labels on the bottles actually signified the true manufacturer of the articles.

'Night Must Fall' To Be Presented
If someone told you that "night must fall" on the evening of April 5 you would think he was a little bit off and answer with "No kidding?"

Two Features At Summit Hospital
Two new features for the convenience of both guests and patients have been announced this week by Overlook Hospital, in Summit. The first is a new reception room which has been made possible by the gift of Mrs. Marcellus Hartley Dodge of Madison. The second is a tea room which will be opened tomorrow at 2:30 P. M. as a convenience to the many patients and visitors that have requested it.

Building Report Over $40,000 in 2 Months
The 1940 building report for the first two months of the year shows a total of $41,767, presenting an optimistic outlook on operations for the coming year. Inspector Reuben H. Marshall's report to the Township Committee Wednesday night included applications for eight new dwellings during February. The detailed report follows:

Ray Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. August H. Schmidt of 33 South Maple avenue will spend this weekend at his home before leaving for Indianapolis, where he will play in the National Basketball Tournament as a member of the team of Springfield College, Springfield, Mass. Schmidt, who was recently elected captain of the team for the coming year, is a guard, and one of the mainstays of the quintet. The team has a record of 16 wins and two losses for the past season. Two debuts were received from Tufts by four points, and St. Johns by three points. The Springfield team has been picked as the championship five of New England to compete in the national tournament.

Woman, Two Men Dead After Crash

Vendor Heavily Fined In Court

Were Riding In Coupe When It Collided With 10-Ton Trailer-Truck
VICTIMS INCLUDED HUSBAND AND WIFE

Two men and a woman were killed Monday morning at 5:30 when a coupe in which they were riding crashed into the rear of a 10-ton trailer truck at South Springfield avenue and Route 29. The truck had stopped for a red traffic light, facing toward Union, when the accident occurred.

The driver of the coupe, Edward P. Hardy, 37, of 715 Elmwood avenue, Irvington, died instantly, being pinned behind the steering wheel. His wife, Mrs. Beatrice Evelyn Hardy, 37, and a friend, Edward M. Crossman, 36, of 32 Olympic terrace, Irvington, were taken to Overlook Hospital, Summit, in the municipal ambulance but were dead upon arrival.

The coupe, crashed into the truck under the tailgate which was lowered, and its roof was completely sheared off by the impact, leaving the car a tangled wreck. Damage to the truck was slight.

Evain Lovell, 27, of Muncy, Pa., driver of the truck, and his helper, Gordon Ryan, 23, of Lairdswood, Pa., were delivering a load of furniture from Pennsylvania to New York. After questioning by police, Lovell was cleared of any responsibility for the accident, it having been determined that the trailer was properly equipped with sufficient tail lights.

Patrolman Lamb was first to reach the scene of the accident, although Mountainside authorities had also been summoned, due to the proximity of the intersection to that community. Patrolmen Sturm and Pinkava followed and succeeded in removing Crossman and Mrs. Hardy to the hospital.

Hardy was the last to be taken from the machine and the body was removed to Brewster's Morgue, Summit, after examination by Dr. Gabriel J. Lull.

It was reported that the Hardys had gone to a tavern in Stuyvesant avenue, Irvington, where they met Crossman. They left at 3 A. M. after telling the bartender they were going to another place in Route 29, but did not specify where. It was surmised that Hardy probably fell asleep at the time of the accident, which was about the time of the approaching dawn.

The Hardys leave two small children, Virginia and Jacqueline. Mr. Hardy, a native of Newark, was graduated from Barringer High School, Newark, and was a constable with offices in the Raymond-Commerce Building—of that city. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Clara A. Hardy of Maplewood. His wife is survived by her father, Aran Cohen of Newark; a brother, Samuel Kahn of Irvington, and a sister, Mrs. Ruth Tyler of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Crossman has been a chauffeur with Smith & Smith, Newark funeral directors, for 12 years. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Helen Coryell; two children, Betty Lou and Edward; his mother, Mrs. Katherine Schaler of Irvington, and a brother, Charles, of Roseland.

GROWERS TO MEET AT REGIONAL HIGH
The monthly meeting of the Union County vegetable growers will be held at Regional High School Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The subject announced by Fred D. Osman, county agricultural agent, will be "Marketing" and will be discussed by K. R. Stamp, marketing specialist from the New Jersey Agricultural College at New Brunswick.

A sound film "Feeding the Multitude" will be shown. All vegetable growers are invited.

DANCE RECITAL SOON
MOUNTAINSIDE—The sixth annual dance recital of the Mountainside dancing class will be held May 15 and 16 in the Mountainside school auditorium. The recital which will feature special dances, tap routines, ballet dancing, and novelty numbers, is sponsored by the Mothers' Club of the school and the girls are coached by Miss Kay Monahan. Over 75 girls will take part in the program, some of them having been in the classes as long as the six years it has been taught.

FOUR ON JULY
Edgar Jacobs of 166 Morris avenue, William L. Morrison of 112 Mabel avenue, Walter Schramm of 27 Brook street, and Wendel Bentz, Jr., of 107 Tooker avenue, were drawn Monday for petit jury service in the January county court term before Judge Edward A. McGrath of Elizabeth.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS BY JOSEPH W. LABINE
Battle Over Income Questions Threatens Entire 1940 Census; In Europe; Peace Talk Revived

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) Released by Western Newspaper Union

SHOEMAKER ROSSELLI AND HIS COBBLING SHOP "I'm answer census questions when they put polite."

CONGRESS: Census Censure Front Washington to his Rachel, Wis. office Census Director William Austin rushed a telegram: "Withdraw Roselli charges immediately. You have disregarded instructions that before taking legal action such cases must be submitted to Washington office for disposition. You will be held strictly responsible for this procedure."

THE WARS: Peace in the North? Early March found Finland's warriors valiantly trying to save Viipuri from the invading Reds, who left off excess steam by "deliberately" bombing a hospital in south-central Finland. Biggest news of the Russo-Finnish war, however, was the effort all Europe scorned making to bring these belligerents to peace.

This was closed the latest in a series of eruptions which threaten to wreck Uncle Sam's 1940 decennial census. James Roselli, a Kenosha, Wis., shoe repair man, had been handed a federal warrant for refusing to answer census questions about his business. The census taker also charged Shoemaker Roselli had thrown him out. Answered Roselli:

"I'm answer census questions when they put polite. Everying can be explain. I walk out on him, yes. But I don't chase him." Gaining steam at Washington was the fight of Sen. Charles Tobey (Rep., N. H.) to have personal line questions stricken from the 1940 nose count. Franklin Roosevelt had denounced it as "an obviously political move," and the census bureau was willing to let citizens refuse the question if they wished. But Senator Tobey was adamant. Said he: "The American people cry out, 'Hold! Enough!'"

Those in authority will do well to face the issue. After several days of this, the senate commerce committee voted 10 to 5 to postpone temporarily its consideration of an anti-personal question resolution. Meanwhile Census Taker Austin wrong his hands, for his house-to-house canvass is to start April 2. Should congress continue to squabble, he knew not what would become of the decennial census.

Also in congress: Wagner Act. Twenty-one changes in the present act were recommended to the house by a special investigating committee, but defeat was predicted. Chief proposal: Divorcement of NLRB judicial and administrative functions.

"Clean Politics" Act. The senate killed a move to repeal the Hatch law's prohibition of political activity by federal employees, then began arguing a proposal to extend the act to state workers who get part of their pay from federal funds.

Agriculture. While the President signed legislation extending the farm mortgage moratorium, five Democratic senators introduced a bill to restore independence of the farm credit administration, recently placed under the department of agriculture.

TREND How the wind is blowing...

RELIEF—Patterned after the successful surplus foods stamp plan, a cotton stamp plan for distributing clothing among relief families will be started this month in five of six cities.

AGRICULTURE—According to Chicago crop authorities, U. S. winter wheat prospects in early March showed "some improvement" over the December 1 condition thanks to better-than-normal winter moisture and snow protection against sub-zero weather.

ARMY—The war department announced surplus and "unstandard" munition supplies were being sold to neutral nations. Item: 80 six-inch World war guns stored at Aberdeen, Md., proving ground since the World war, were sold "as is" and "where is" to Brazil.

JEWELRY—To prevent Arab uprisings, Britain restricted sale of Palestine land to Jews. When riots followed, Neville Chamberlain's government won its first wartime census move in the house of commons. By 292 to 129, the house upheld the Palestine decree.

RUMANIA: Prayers Keystone of Balkan security is Rumania's neutrality, often threatened the past six months by the economic war-between Russia, Germany, France and Britain. Cognizant of this, Pope Pius prayed in early March that Rumania might be preserved "from the scourge of war." What happened in the next three days made no sense, but it did indicate that Rumania was also praying.

First day: Rumania was reported rushing a little Maginot line along her Bessarabia border fronting Russia. Second day: It was announced by Russia that Soviet Premier V. I. Molotov will soon visit Bucharest to initial a non-aggression pact. This was a shocker, for Russia has no secret of her designs on Bessarabia.

Third day: King Carol opened his parliament, promising to maintain a permanent 1,000,000-man army regardless of cost. Adding it up, observers wondered if King Carol might not at last be weathering under-pressure from allies.

POLITICS: Biggest Barrage For months Franklin Roosevelt has carried "light term" questions. But each party's more difficult for each press conference brings more definite questions. In early March the President returned from his Caribbean vacation to face the biggest barrage yet. Only the day before his name had been entered in Pennsylvania's Democratic primary and correspondents were hungry for a comment. But they got nothing except his remark that all of the four newspaper categories suggested by Thomas Jefferson: (1) news; (2) probabilities; (3) possibilities; (4) lies.

Nobody knew into which of these categories the latest rumor fell, but it bore authentic earmarks. Out of Washington came reports that Franklin Roosevelt's feud with John Nance Garner would burst into flames before Illinois' April 9 primary, first crucial Roosevelt-Garner contest support. Somehow, the wisecracker learned Mr. Roosevelt will plump this month for a New Dealish presidential slate, thus forcing an answer from the sphinx-like Mr. Garner.

Welles Mission Completing the first half of his European fact-finding junket, U. S. Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles left Berlin, gathered his strength and his luggage in Lausanne, Switzerland, then headed for Rome. In Rome he had talked with a Milanese friend named Mussolini. In Berlin he had met a tough and determined Adolf Hitler.

Still on the calendar were two more visits. Mr. Welles was to fly from Paris to London, where Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain would probably restate his war aims. Principal aim: (Destruction of the Nazi rule. Then Mr. Welles would return to Rome for more conversations with Il Duce before catching the Conte Di Savoia for home. Before he walks up the gangplank, observers thought Sumner Welles could not possibly avoid planting his foot in the potentially dangerous British-Italian coal squabble.

Other Sources: 1/2 MILLION TONS ITALY'S COAL SOURCES More from Britain?

A new wave of torpedoings, bombings and mine explosions cost the neutral Dutch 12 ships. But Britain's foe—the week was Italy, which protested furiously when the allies clamped an embargo on Italian coal imports from the Reich. Within 48 hours 14 Italian ships were hauled into British ports and their coal cargoes discharged. Rome threatened the situation would become serious unless Britain backed down, but there was no sign of this. Already getting more than a fourth of her coal from Britain (see chart) Italy seemed faced with the choice of declaring war (an improbability) or swapping her munitions and airplane motors for British coal.

NEAREST TRICK—Britain's 28 million dollar Queen Elizabeth ended her maiden voyage in New York. TOUGHEST JOB—A mammoth testing machine installed by New Kensington, Pa., by Aluminum Company of America, showed its versatility first by smashing a solid oak log, then by tapping an egg so softly that a baby chick jumped out.

NAMES in the news...

GEN. GEORGE C. MARSHALL, U. S. army chief, was welcomed to Hawaii by a flight of 60 army planes. Embarrassing note: Two ships collided in mid-air, but pilots parachuted safely.

FRANK ASHTON-GWATKIN, Britisher, and CHARLES RIST, Frenchman, constituted a special allied apple-polishing expedition to soothe U. S. anger over difficulties arising from the German blockade. Biggest complaints: (1) censorship of U. S. mails; (2) taking U. S. ships into contraband control ports. Arriving in Washington, the delegation was escorted with Secretary of State CORDELL HULL.

MOST REV. SAMUEL A. MOSEY was enthroned new Roman Catholic archbishop of Chicago.

Britain Guards Northwest Gate, Fearing Attack From Russia

Through Afghanistan and the Khyber pass, Soviet troops could invade British India. Growing fears have led the British to fortify their "Northwest Frontier." Lookout towers are manned constantly.

Above is a closely guarded frontier post dividing Afghanistan and India. With Britain busy fighting Germany, Russia's ally, it is possible that the Soviet might seize a chance to capitalize on Britain's weakness elsewhere. But Britain is not weak in India or any other part of her near Eastern frontier. Below: Men of the Indian frontier constabulary on patrol.

Picture Parade Taking no chances of having some sharpshooting hill-man potting them, men manning the Northwest frontier do their patrolling in light tanks. These patrols were increased recently when Soviet troop activity was reported.

Above is the Khyber pass itself, showing the trouble confronting an invader aiming to penetrate it. A remarkable serpentine road winds through the narrow defile for 33 miles. There is also a railroad, completed in 1925. It is a marvel of engineering, 26 miles long with 34 tunnels and 92 bridges and cutovers.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

Reviewed by CARTER FIELD Second-choice commitments, if Roosevelt doesn't run, are complicating the political situation... Carter Field presents two little riddles in the game of national politics... United States government is giving every encouragement to makers of planes.

WASHINGTON—"Of course I won't be here this time next year," President Roosevelt smiled to a dinner partner recently. The lady was convinced, but her husband wasn't, when she told him about it later.

"They'll draft him," he said glumly. He is one of the growing group that hopes Roosevelt will name him as his successor, if and when.

But a lot of people are operating on the theory that Roosevelt really does mean to take himself out of it, and stay out. Which explains the enormous interest right now in second-choice commitments.

Men and women who are going to be delegates—and the bosses in some instances who will control delegates—are being implored all over the country to give second-choice commitments—promises that if Roosevelt doesn't choose to run, they will vote for this or that candidate.

Curiously enough, the mere growth of this pledging contributes not to the logic that Roosevelt will not run, but to the logic that he will. It must be admitted that the logic all-along has been—that Roosevelt would run, though many of the insiders insist that he will not.

Second-Choice Commitments Closing In on Situation "But this second-choice commitment development is closing in on the situation. It is an extraordinary break on Roosevelt's hoped-for demerit of the convention if he isn't going to take the nomination. For instance, the Georgia delegates, according to present intentions, will be for Roosevelt if he runs. But if he does not run the plan is to go to Cordell Hull. The Massachusetts delegates will be for Roosevelt first, but for James A. Farley second.

The point is that when Roosevelt says he will not serve again—assuming he should say this—but that the man he wants chosen to carry on his policies is Robert H. Jackson, or whoever, the Georgia delegates will say to the messenger: "Sorry, but we are pledged to Hull if F. D. R. doesn't take it." The Indiana delegates will say: "Sorry, but we are pledged to Paul McNutt if Roosevelt isn't a candidate."

Meanwhile, "Tommy" Corcoran, Ben Cohen, Bob Jackson and others of the "inner circle" are working feverishly to get unattached delegates, but men who are for Roosevelt. In fact, some highly placed New Dealers are sure that they would not be quite so active if the White House had not given them the green light. But they are making very little progress as against the second-choice commitment situation. Nor is it very likely that their efforts would be successful in this direction.

The reason is very practical. Most of the men and women who will be delegates, or who will control delegates, are interested primarily in keeping the Democratic party in power for four more years. Most of them care only in an academic way about any particular New Deal policy.

Wadsworth Rejects New Post Office for District When a congressman opposes a federal building in his own district it's like a man biting a dog, but it is characteristic of James W. Wadsworth, now a member of the house and for 12 years a senator, that he wouldn't think of it as of an interest.

What happened was that a constituent wrote Wadsworth that the government was about to build a new post office building in Mt. Morris, N. Y., just a few miles from where Wadsworth has lived all his life. This constituent said he thought it was a waste of government money, for he didn't think Mt. Morris needed a new post office.

Neither did Wadsworth. So he wrote Postmaster General James A. Farley and told him so, adding that "Mt. Morris doesn't need a new post office any more than I need a new silk hat, and you ought to see my old one."

Then Wadsworth sent a carbon of his letter to Farley along with his reply to his constituent. But later the same day, as is his wont, he told local newspaper correspondents from western New York that he didn't know a thing that was worth printing!

Of course that letter to Farley was too good to keep, so the chap who originally protested to Wadsworth showed it to everybody he saw, including, eventually, a local correspondent for the Buffalo Evening News. So it was printed, and the first the correspondents who talk to Wadsworth every day knew about it was when the edition of the News containing the story reached Washington.

"You'll never learn," one of them said to Wadsworth, bitterly. "No wonder. Bob Wagner—retired you from the senate!"

Then There's the Case of Cummings and Alcatraz But if that's hard to understand, how about this one. Remember how proud Homer S. Cummings was of Alcatraz? He thought it solved a real problem in dealing with desperate gangsters and other criminals. Along came Frank Murphy, whose sensibilities seemed to be shocked. To take its place he wanted a prison in the farm belt of the Middle West, with the prisoners allowed to get a bit of sunshine as they worked in the fields instead of getting prison pallor in the fogs of San Francisco bay.

Cummings read about this in the newspapers and rushed for the White House. It so happened that he was the only out-and-out third-term booster among the Democratic leaders of Connecticut, especially as Senator Francis T. Maloney, who comes up for re-election this year, thought the third-term idea would defeat him for re-election in Connecticut, however it might work out in other parts of the country.

When Cummings came out of the White House he was smiling. He told newspaper men that they could be sure Alcatraz would remain. Murphy kept his commitments, studying where to locate its successor, but now Robert H. Jackson is attorney general. Within a very short time of his assuming his place as head of the department he decided that this committee was just wasting its time.

So Alcatraz will stick. But now comes the pay-off. The Connecticut Democracy decides to send a delegation to the Democratic National convention at Chicago instructed for James A. Farley, and no such strings as the Massachusetts Democrats put on their delegates. The Bay state boys are to be for Farley if Roosevelt doesn't want it. The Nutmeggers are for Farley regardless. Riddle me that one, as John L. Lewis says!

U. S. Government Encourages Manufacturers of Planes With one eye on national defense, but the other on the desire to help Britain and France in the war, the government is getting ready to give every encouragement to rapid expansion of America's airplane-producing industry.

The efforts revolve around Secretary Henry Morgenthau, who has assumed the triple responsibility of co-ordinating Allied purchasing, rationalizing United States production, and seeing that the tax policy puts no brake on expansion.

Military and political importance of this program is obvious when it is realized that on the basis of only the expansion already under way, our aircraft production by the end of the year will be nearly 2,000 units a month—equal to the most favorable reports considered reliable as to German capacity. The exact extent of the new plans is not known, but persistent rumors of orders nearly tripling the present $650,000,000 backlog, all to be delivered within 18 months or so, indicate that production will have to go far enough above the 2,000 figure to put Uncle Sam far ahead of any other country.

Morgenthau's first move toward smoothing out the flow of aircraft production was an attack on the engine bottleneck. The big problem here has been the inability to get machine tools. The machine-tool industry has been swamped with orders, foreign and domestic, and has been handling nearly everything on a first-come, first-served basis.

As a result of Morgenthau's conferences, the machine-tool industry will now work on a priority system intended to give aircraft makers first call on tools.

Taxation and profit-limitation policies raise no serious obstacles to expansion for domestic war planes.

Expansion Is Paid for By Foreign Purchasers Expansion for military export is somewhat different. All this expansion is being paid for directly by the foreign purchasers. In fact, the Allies are quite aggrieved because United States manufacturers are virtually insisting on getting free plants as part of their contracts.

The usual procedure is for the British and French to make a loan covering the cost of the new plant to the manufacturer. The loss is charged off, as deliveries are made, out of deliberately inflated prices.

If the treasury department wanted to be nasty, of course, it could treat this transaction as gift and tax it accordingly. Actually, the treasury will take the deal at its face value. The department has already made a ruling, in the case of the Atlas Powder company, that such money "will not constitute taxable income to Atlas for the reason that such a transaction would be a loan evidenced by a note."

If your constipation, like that of millions, is due to lack of "bulk" in the diet, the "better way" is to try Kellogg's All-Bran. This crunchy-tasted breakfast cereal is the ounce of prevention that's worth a pound of emergency relief. It helps you not only to get regular but to keep regular, day after day and month after month, by the pleasant means you ever knew. Eat Kellogg's All-Bran regularly, drink plenty of water, and see if you don't forget all about constipation. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.

Garden Prize Won By Local Group

MOUNTAINSIDE—The exhibit of the Mountainside Garden Club at the Twenty-Seventh Annual International Flower Show in the Grand Central Palace, New York, won a second prize in its class as judged Sunday. It competed with exhibits of other garden clubs in New Jersey in Section 2 of the classes (club competition) class 5, entitled "A Garden Section." This was festricated to typical garden sections which were staged in front of an evergreen planting in the New Jersey Garden Club division of the show on the fourth floor. The Mountainside exhibit consisted of rhododendrons planted in peat moss in front of regulation evergreen back, with a large plant of blooming forsythia adding a colorful note of yellow in one corner behind them. Other flowers in the six by twelve feet standard size plot were bunches of yellow primrose growing under the rhododendrons on the left. To the right was a bird bath, and in the center of the plot, behind the bird bath, were the brilliant yellow blooms of two doricium plants. To the right, and forward of these, still in the shade of the rhododendrons, were plants of purple primrose. To their right was a cluster of delicate white grape hyacinth plants. Sod of grass covered the plot in front of all these plants. The exhibit was for seasonal arrangements, that is, all the flowers had to be blooming according to their regular custom in nature. Several weeks planning was behind the exhibit, for while it was entitled "Springtime," the plants in it had to be forced in a greenhouse to bloom ahead of season. Ordinarily these flowers do not appear until April.

Much of the material was trucked into the Grand Central Palace Saturday. It was set up by Sunday noon for the show opening Monday. The plants are watered every night after the doors to the show are closed, and if they start withering any time while the show lasts until tomorrow night, they have to be replaced. Mrs. Stephen G. VanHoesen is chairman of the group arranging the local exhibit, assisted by Mrs. Wilfred H. Wolfs, Mrs. E. E. Powell, Mrs. A. E. Van Doren, Mrs. Robert Davidson and Mrs. Elliot Ranney. Besides her work on the local committee, Mrs. VanHoesen acted as information and publications chairman for the State garden club organization, and Mrs. Ranney and Mrs. Davidson served as co-chairmen of the lighting committee for the State exhibit. They attended the horticulture dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Tuesday evening. Some of the committee members including Mrs. VanHoesen, have been staying in New York at hotels all week in order to be near the exhibit. The Mountainside Garden Club is composed of only 25 members, and is one of the smaller of the 388 such clubs in the State. Two individual members also displayed entries. Mrs. Ranney won a blue ribbon in the artistic arrangement division with a wooden cranberry picker holding geraniums and pine branches. It was displayed on a mat made by Mrs. Ranney's mother in a combination of red, brown, and green. Mrs. VanHoesen showed an arrangement of flowers, foliage, and small fruit in an epergne.

What IS this FHA PLAN for BUILDING HOMES? BETTER HOUSING PROGRAM

It's really very simple. We lend you money to build. Just how much depends on your circumstances, but frequently the building lot is sufficient to cover the down payment, which may be as low as 10 percent. You repay this loan out of your income. The payments are fixed monthly sums, similar to rent. They are based on what you can afford to pay. With the new 4 1/2 percent interest rate, they average as low as $5.81 per thousand, which includes principal, interest, and FHA insurance. ($26.15 a month can pay off a $4,500 insured mortgage on a $5,000 home!)

These convenient payments make you a Home Owner.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON.—One of the strangest paradoxes of the European war is the attitude taken by the state department toward several hundred American medical students, who have sought permission to go abroad to complete their studies at British universities.

They have been refused passports on the ground that their lives would be in danger on English soil. But while taking this restrictive stand toward seekers after learning, the department is allowing a number of these very same students to go to France to drive ambulances at the front!

Official explanation for the contradiction is that driving a war ambulance is "humanitarian" work. So far about 50 students have been given passports for ambulance service.

NEVER AGAIN.
The biggest laugh during Sen. Burt Wheeler's speech at the Hill-nous National Press club banquet, where nine presidential possibilities told why they should NOT be elected, was prompted by an unexpected sharp remark.

"I haven't a chance," the Montanan was saying, "because John L. Lewis is for me. Another reason is that I was the running-mate of 'Old Bob' LaFollette in 1924. Still another is that Norman Thomas, who is here with us tonight, supported me. If he should do that again this year I'd be sunk sure."

"Don't worry," dilly-called-out Thomas, 1936 Socialist candidate, "I won't. I only support liberals who stay hitched."

Note—Scrappy SEC Commissioner Leon Henderson, a third-term booster, offered to bet Tom Dewey $5 to $1 that the next President "is not in this hall," but the young New Yorker smilingly declined the offer. Henderson had no better luck with any of the other aspirants.

Rated by the newsmen as the wit-fleat speaker of the evening were Democratic Bob Jackson and Republican Bruce Barton.

STATE DEPARTMENT FISH
Joe Davies, ex-ambassador to Belgium and now special state department adviser, has been put in a tough spot by his wife's food company operations.

Mrs. Davies, the former Marjorie Post Hutton, is the aunt of Barbara Hutton and the largest stockholder in General Foods, probably the biggest food manufacturing and distributing company in the world.

And it has just been revealed that General Seafoods, a subsidiary company, has negotiated a deal with the government of Newfoundland whereby Newfoundland fish, canned and frozen by Newfoundland labor, will be able to run many New England fisheries almost out of business.

What makes the situation embarrassing for Ambassador Davies is that the deal was negotiated with the cooperation of the state department official, of which he is an influential official. What happened was this:

General Seafoods negotiated a contract with Newfoundland whereby the company set up a factory in Newfoundland to can, freeze and process fish. The Newfoundland government subsidized General Seafoods to the tune of $200,000, and in return, General Seafoods agreed to employ only Newfoundland fishermen to catch the fish, and Newfoundland labor in the factory.

Kathleen Norris Says:

If You Want to Help the World—
Do Something About It

(Bell Syndicate—WNU Service.)

Our hearts are sick with discouragement and failure today. War is a forest fire that spreads in all directions and may blow across the Atlantic.

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

FIVE hundred women have written me passionate appeals to "do something" about the present war situation, and if 500 have taken such trouble it means that about 5,000 feel that way so here are some suggestions that may help you satisfy the craving that we all feel to help if we can.

This feeling is partly fear, partly shame, and partly despair. It is naturally true, for war is a forest fire that spreads in all directions and may blow across the Atlantic any day. It is shame because a sensible world, and a world more over that professes to believe in the doctrines of Jesus Christ, in forgiveness and meekness and goodness, has somehow let things get to such a pass. It is despair because we who remember 1914 truly believed that matters would never reach this point again.

"What is left for us to do now?" we ask in bitter discouragement, we who have given our time and our energies during these 20 years in a vain effort to show war up in its true colors to those who must fight and die in the ranks, to establish better national understanding everywhere, to clear the way for lasting peace. For a few days last August I, seemed to us as though black darkness had enveloped the whole world, and Christianity and all the other lesser codes that preach love and forgiveness had failed, and there was no hope for civilization or mankind.

But now the smoke of battle has cleared away a little, and it is for us to treat this calamity as we do all the less important calamities of life. To fix our eyes ever more steadily upon our ideal, pick up the shattered pieces of wrecked hopes, and go forward again.

For those of us who feel that we know God at all, know absolutely that His first law is love and that love is peace. We may be slow and stupid and blind about making our goal, but as long as it is His, it is there beyond us, and we draw nearer to it every time we wipe out one single little speck of hate and revenge in this world, and put in its place forgiveness.

Hated is Dangerous
Forgiveness is a hard word. It is not a natural thing to forgive. We need supernatural powers to love our enemies. We can get them from only one source, and too often we forget to turn toward it.

The other day I tried to settle a violent quarrel between two small children. One was four and the other two years old, and neither had ever known or seen or experienced hate; they had been as serene and sunny, a background as any two little humans could have.

The small one had ripped up a well-made doll's bed and flung its occupant and all the covers to the far winds, and he was unashamedly, exultant over the deed. The older child's simple desire was to maim her brother for life, tear his eyes out, wipe that smile away forever. She was trembling and pale with rage; she could neither breathe nor speak normally. Panting as she listened to the Gospel story she said, "I exactly them all—and five times, too!"

But after a few moments she calmed, and when persuaded of her own will to make her brother a present of a lollipop in token of forgiveness, she first re-made the disrupted bed, and then went and flung herself on her own bed, to burst into tears.

Now, if the difficult business of forgiving can so negate a scrap of boyhood, we must expect that if ever we are really to forgive our enemies, really, rebuild a blood-thirsty world along the lines of what we truly profess and believe, we must expect violent spiritual storms. We must expect to be reviled and scoffed at as a bunch of sentimentalizing women. We must realize that men are going to tell us that

GENERAL HUGH S. JOHNSON Says:

WHY WHIP-SAW WEIR?
It is hard for me to understand why Mr. Weir should be singled out for any whip-sawing by New Deal columnists because he accepted a fund-raising post on the national Republican committee.

If it is because he has a fortune, then the Democrats had better pour some ink-eradicator over their own record. Johnny Raskob didn't hold exactly that post in 1928 but he was responsible for the financial end of the party effort. I don't know how Johnny's fortune then compares with now, but it certainly wasn't hay. Among other things he had that year was to underwrite some of the Warm Springs obligations to make it easier for Mr. Roosevelt to run for governor of New York.

Fat Cats Not Missing.
Of course, it may be said, that Johnny wasn't a New Dealer. Frank Walker took over that responsibility when Mr. Roosevelt ran in 1932, and Frank is no potential pauper. The Democrats had their fat cats in both 1932 and 1936.

The New Dealers may kick such men around in the spotlight for the benefit of the audience—but they don't do it in the wings. Such lead-

NOT EXACTLY PAUPERS
John J. Raskob (at left) raised money for Democrats, now Ernest T. Weir will do it for Republicans.

The royal family itself is conspicuously overlooking no opportunity to get into the fat-cat class. All of which is O. K. and above criticism, but it doesn't justify cracks at men of different political beliefs for performing their political offices of citizens on the ground that they are far from being on WPA relief. Wealth is as yet no crime among us and neither is poverty of itself any particular passport to preference.

McAppared and Won.
Of course, the attack on Mr. Weir slides off into different ground. First, that he opposed collective bargaining; second, that William Green once said that he offered labor nothing; third, that he once resisted in the courts a workers' election conducted by the old NRA labor relations board.

The latter statement is true. He appealed to the courts against the action by that board—and won his case. Since when is that a disqualification? The other two statements are untrue. When the New Deal and especially NRA, began its crusade for better labor relations, especially in the then cruetaceous steel industry, they had no more sincere supporter than Mr. Weir.

His own labor relations were good. His was one of the first great companies voluntarily to seek an election supervised by government to determine the question of majority representation.

Agreed on Rules.
The board held a hearing and agreed with the company and its employees on the rules for this election—which was established procedure before the old NRA board—a creature of executive order rather than of statute. Mr. Weir went back to Weirton to carry out the agreement. On the eve of the election an officious young lawyer of the later or junimprair type of fourth New Dealer appeared to supervise it and announced a radically different procedure from that formalized and regularly decreed by the board.

At first hand, I don't know enough about developments since to say whether that soured his view or changed his attitude, but I do know that when the New Deal started he was considered by "the most liberal and progressive employer" in his industry.

U. S. KIDDED ON DEFENSE.
This is the testimony of army officers before a senate subcommittee: Question: "How many anti-aircraft guns will you have at the end of this fiscal year?" Answer: "I understand that there are 144 heavy anti-aircraft and 48 medium caliber anti-aircraft in the defense of London." The guns we have on order will be delivered by September 1941. All but 48 will be delivered by November 1940. (This figures a rate of delivery for the last 48 of a little over 4 guns a month.)

Plain Twills, Checks, Plaids Are 'Top' Wools for Your Suit

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

AS A starter to the new spring wardrobe one can make no better move than to invest in a stunning suit tailored of the perfectly gorgeous-wools that are bringing glory to the fabric realm this season. Not that the wool suit limits in any way, no indeed, not with the no-two-ailk look that designers have contrived to achieve in the multiplicity of types that run the gamut all the way from the simple jacket-and-skirt classic to the new long-jacket effects with pleated skirts, the smart long-coat ensembles, the casual sports two-piece with its flaring skirt and interchangeable jacket of vivid wool stripes or plaids.

A characteristic feature of tweeds this spring is that they present a finer, smoother texture and are lighter in weight. Their colorings take on new lures. The smart note this spring is the use of complement tweeds. The suit to the right interprets the idea. Here handsome tweed in gray and white herringbone weave is used for the suit. The topcoat is of gray and white plaid (huge plaids the thing this spring) that gives it definite color relation to the suit.

This idea of wools in "families," so to speak, is being promoted throughout current suit styling. Suits of color-related and weave-related wools go so far as to give you a skirt done in tweed, topped with either a flannel or wool Jersey blouse in vivid color contrast and for the long cape (cape suit is a last word fashion) or the topcoat that ensembles with the suit you are given your choice of a monotone luxurious wool or that which is strikingly new a wool in big, bold plaid that picks up the colors in blouse and skirt.

Illustrative of the new vogue for check used with plain, note the fetching suit to the left in the group. Here you see a bright checked button-up tweed blouse topping a black circular skirt with insets of the check introduced to give it the desired flare. This typically spring 1940 model comes in several color combinations. The hat of matching wool fabric is a smart item this season.

Pocket Belt

Pockets, pockets everywhere, and style at high tempo in every one! Straight from Paris to America sweeps the pocket fashion, and presto the pocket rage is on. The young woman pictured is keyed up to the "nth-degree on the pocket theme. She begins with two decorative pockets on the blouse of her rayon shirtmaker frock. Then what does she do? She does just as fashion would have her do—buys one of the new cash and carry belts, designed by Criterion, to complete her pocket ensemble. For your satisfaction we are telling you that within the recesses of this practical pocket attached to its matching belt, there is plenty of stowaway space for hunky, keds, money and other feminine gadgets. With such perfectly good arguments in its favor as being apparently smart at the same time that it is as utilitarian as can be, small wonder that this new "cash and carry" belt is registering record sales.

Do It With Mirrage

An evening bag that is a circle of silver metal cloth is given a jeweled look by the application of mirrors.

Collarbone Accents

Go in for Whimsy
You're going to have lots of fun this spring with the collarbone accents—this year's name for what used to be called lapel gadgets. You can wear them on the lapel of your new spring suit or set them near the collarbone of your frock (winter or spring).

Black With Color

For College Wear
Black frocks with accents of bright color are excellent selections with which to replenish the college girl's wardrobe at this time of year. Some, made of heavy black crepe, have wide, flared skirts with shirred border details around the hems, while others have simulated collars and cuffs of white beads. Short velvet skirts can be teamed with plain shirred white tops, and black wool skirts have white sweater tops embroidered in colored raffia.

Background Dress

Is Best in Colors
Because they combine with so many other fabrics, satins and smooth-surfaced crepes seem to be the most successful materials for the background dress for evening wear. With a satin background dress one can wear jacket or bolero tops in crepes, wool, velvet, fringe, feathers, marabou or beads. Dark, rich shades of sapphire, garnet red, deep sapphire, pine green—arc smartest; or, in a light shade, gold.

The Once Over H.I. Phillips

"A state income tax department is reported considering a suggestion that it cultivate the good will of taxpayers by sending them Christmas cards every year."

Mr. Twitchell looked at the pretty card. "Seasonal Greetings from the State Income Tax Bureau," was the inscription on it below a picture of a tally-ho. He put on his glasses and read it again. Then he called Mrs. Twitchell, excitedly.

"What's this?" he demanded, apprehensively.

"It's a greeting from the income tax department," said Mrs. Twitchell.

"There's something behind it," declared Mr. Twitchell with conviction and emphasis.

"There can't be anything behind a greeting card," argued Mrs. Twitchell.

"I'm calling my tax accountant just the same," snapped Mr. Twitchell.

"Is this you, Hemphill?" asked Elmer as he rang his tax accountant.

"Good! This is Twitchell. I think I had better see you at once."

"What's happened?"

"It's a communication from the Income Tax Bureau."

"Well, what does it say?"

It Must Be Admitted That Was a 'Fare Do'

Four men were seated facing each other in a railway coach. One of them seemed to be monopolizing the conversation. All of his talk was about himself as he told how clever he was.

This went on and on; mile after mile, till at last one fellow could stand it no longer, and without due apology he burst in upon the conversation of the boasting one.

"Say," he said, "tell us something you can't do, and I'll do it for you!"

There was a moment's silence, then up spoke the chap who had been interrupted, a smile on his face: "Well, I must admit that I can't pay my fare."

SPORT HIGHLIGHTS

By BILL PRICE

Bunnell Brothers are holding a three-game lead in the Municipal Bowling League these days and much of the credit for their showing may be attributed to the pinning of Dick Bunnell, whose average around 185 is right among the top of the individual scores.

Another championship comes to Springfield with Miss Molly Karevics, local girl, who came out first in the county table tennis tournament last week when she defeated Alice O'Connor of Newark, holder of the Women's State championship in the finals held in the Cranford High gym. Nice work, Molly!

Over in Millburn recently, Miss Betty Borkosi of the International team in the Women's Bowling League received the thrill of a lifetime when she made "double pinches," bowling's most difficult and almost-impossible shot. Observers, none of whom had ever seen the feat accomplished, watched Miss Borkosi roll for the 4-7 combination, make it and then see the 4 pin slide over to hit the 10 pin, wobble a few times and fall forwards to knock over the 6 pin. HOT-WATER-CONVENIENCE for Home Beauty Treatments

Hot water, maintained automatically by GAS, encourages the frequent use that should be made of it.

Regular shampoos, for example, are important to health and beauty. They take less time when there is HOT-WATER-CONVENIENCE - hot water at the faucet, day and night, automatically.

A modern automatic gas water heater provides this superior service without requiring the slightest thought or attention. The hot water is cheap - only a few cents a day. Ask Public Service or your plumber for an estimate based on your hot water usage.

PUBLIC SERVICE

Automatic gas water heaters may be purchased on low monthly terms with small down payment.
