HANDBILLS MAY BE BANNED

The ever-increasing annoyance of distribution of commercial handbills in hedges, door steps of Springfield homes and around township streets recently occupied the attention of the town fathers who toyed with the idea of restricting their use, either converting the same to using the mails or by means of local regulation.

But, the same officials were puzzled as to their future policies for they recalled that in Jersey City, Mayor Hague had been restrained through constitutional procedure against such handbill ban. For their edification the situation has been cleared up by action this week of the same United States Supreme Court, which once held as invalid a Jersey City ordinance aimed at keeping Civil Liberties Union authorities from advertising a proposed rally in Hudson County.

In a decision written by Justice Roberts, the right of municipalities to prohibit the distribution in city streets of commercial advertising handbills was upheld unanimously Monday of this week by the highest tribunal of the land.

Specifically the court sustained the action of Police Commissioner Valentine of New York City to prevent F. J. Chrestensen from Florida, from using such handbills to attract attention to a former Navy submarine he had on exhibit.

"This court," Justice Roberts wrote, "has unequivocally held that the streets are proper places for the exercise of the freedom of communicating information and disseminating opinion, and that while the states and municipalities may appropriately regulate the privilege in the public interest, they may not unduly burden or proscribe its employment in these public thoroughfares. We are equally clear that the Constitution imposes no such restraint on government as respects purely commercial advertising."

Justice Roberts held that it was up to "legislative judgment" to decide to what degree one could, on the public thoroughfares, promote a gainful occupation, and in what measure this would be a violation of public rights.

IT'S A REAL "ALL OUT"

The idea of "all-out" in this war is something that is being put into practice literally. By the end of next week practically all the manpower in the country will be harnessed for war effort. For then, in the fourth and largest selective service registration, the men from 45 to 64 will be enrolled. The registration will be conducted over a three day period, April 25, 26 and 27, in the same manner as the enrollment of young men in February. At its conclusion, the only citizens of the country, who will not be registered in direct service of the country will be the women, the children and the aged. And isn't there some talk in Washington now about enrolling the women? Should that come to pass, there are plenty of octogenarians still spry enough who will probably feel slighted.

STOCKINGS FOR DEFENSE

And now its silk stockings for defense. A few methods have been discovered to convert the fibres of silk hosiery into materials for war use, and women are being asked not to throw away their old silk hose. Only silk hose is requested, nylon not being as effective. Mrs. Lewis Macartney, chairman of the Consumers' Interest Committee of the Springfield Defense Council, is arranging to have the stockings collected, or a place to which they may be brought. So girls, when you start spring cleaning of your dresser drawers, conserve the hose that gave you a run for your money. Today they have a new value.

VICTORY BOOK DAY

Good books are precious friends, and precious friends are the best remedy for loneliness. Many a soldier, afflicted with that illness, will welcome a good book as a source of comfort and enjoyment, and many a household has such a book gathering dust on its shelves. Today is the time to get the two together. President Roosevelt has proclaimed today as Victory Book Day, and he has asked Americans everywhere to contribute as many good books as they can spare to the men in the armed forces, the soldiers, sailors and marines at home and overseas, who, while fighting and training to fight, still have time to while away their homelick hours with a good book. This is very little to ask. So take a few minutes off today and bring your book to the library, and also be the means of getting good friends together.

Ronald Pannell Joins Scouts As Executive

Friends of Ronald G. Pannell, former local nurseryman, who has been living for the past four years in Livingston, will be interested to learn of his appointment as day-school executive in the local Home Council, situated in Irvington.

In joining the Boy Scout organization professionally, Pannell leaves the nursery business after many years in that line, following his training with his father, Edwin D. Pannell, veteran nurseryman, of 310 Main street, Millburn.

For the past two years, Pannell has been Scoutmaster of Troop 14 in Livingston and being impressed by the interest, higher officials were influential in having him continue his studies at the 75th Training School for Scout Executives at the Schuyler Reservation, Mendham, where he completed his studies prior to joining the Scout movement.

The new Scout executive is a graduate of Millburn High School, Rutgers, and Columbia. He was active in dramatics of the Young People of the Methodist Church in the early 20's and played a leading role in the Bi-Centennial celebration of George Washington's birthday in Springfield ten years ago.

Mrs. Pannell and sons, Allan, 12, and Glen, 9, expect to reside in Irvington, planning to leave shortly. Another former Springfield Scout leader, Greenway A. Day, is a Scoutmaster in Chester, Pa., which although 60 miles distant from Springfield is also in the same Region No. 3.

Commissioned Ensign

Charles H. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Anderson of 35 Maple avenue, received his commission as ensign in the U. S. Navy this week. Anderson is a major at Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken. He plans to continue his studies until called for active duty.

Warning Sent Out On Distemper Among Dogs

The discovery of three cases of distemper in the township within the past ten days has led to warning on the part of the Police Department to all dog owners to keep their dogs on their own property or locked up. This is in compliance with local dog regulations. If the situation becomes more serious, action will be taken by both the Police Department and the Local Board of Health to enforce prevention of the further spread of the disease.

Praise Extended To FFA Chapter's Work

High praise was accorded the work of Pioneer Chapter, Future Farmers of America, of Regional High School, by both Warren W. Halsey, principal, and Dr. Fraser Metzger, dean of men at Rutgers University, who spoke at the annual banquet of the chapter held at the school Tuesday night. Mr. Halsey commended, particularly the work of William Petzbeck, head of the agriculture department of the school, in developing his department to the point where it is one of the most popular in the school.

At the conclusion of the dinner, which was prepared by the Home Economics Department under the direction of Miss Carolyn Lehn, a regular meeting of the chapter was held and initiation of new members was held. Those initiated were Matthew and Frank Foyman, and Art Buser, who will be at the annual district meeting and will not attend.

The program, which was arranged by Mr. Petzbeck, included an impressive explanation by members of the chapter of the meaning of the FFA emblem. Talks were also given by Malcolm Baldwin, ex-president, who spoke on his training in the FFA, by Mrs. J. W. Stevens, and Charles Smith, Miss Josephine Lantz, accompanied the group singing on her accordion. Merrill Huntington presided.

Praise From Prosecutor

The following letter of commendation was received this week by Police Chief Chase Runyon from Prosecutor Abig J. David in reference to the excellent work of the Springfield Department in capturing three men the day after they attacked three 13-year-old local girls:

"I want to take this opportunity to commend your department on the efficient and thorough manner in which you performed your duties in connection with the rounding up of the defendants and the taking of statements in this case. It was a fine job and I appreciate it."

Girls in Union County park, near Springfield, last Wednesday. The two will face civil prosecution. They are Frank Jones, 25, of Eighth street, and Fred Pontney, 23, of 18th street, both of Kenilworth. John Grippo, 16, of Ninth street, Kenilworth, a first member, was released under $10,000 bond.

The arrest, made the day following the crime, were accomplished through the efforts of the Springfield Police Department, particularly, Officer Otto Sturm, and Special Officer Charles Schaffernoth, and Chief George D. Conklin of the Kenilworth department. The arrests were made after a nine-state alarm was broadcast for the attackers.

'COMPLAINT NIGHT' FOR BORO COUNCIL

Members of Newly-Formed Birch Hill Association Out Enmasse With Grievances, Grievances, Etc.

MOUNTAINSIDE—It was a "complaint night" at the meeting of the Borough Council Tuesday night with members of the newly organized Birch Hill Association, in addition to venting their complaints of the drainage situation in their neighborhood, criticized other sundry items of the borough such as street lighting, "poor roads" and "molestering dogs."

Mayor John Moxon, with the situation well in hand, responded wittily to all questions, and laughter rang freely among the unusually large audience, most of which appeared to be residents of the Birch Hill section.

"First complaint was against sewer facilities in Birch Hill. Character of which one resident described as 'definitely hazardous.' He requested the installation of lights on both Birch Hill road, and Oak Tree road. The mayor referred the matter to the lighting committee for investigation.

In answer to a reported protest against drainage conditions in the Birch Hill neighborhood, Councilmen Winfield Rau and William Parkhurst reported that "they had visited the section and found that insufficient attention had been paid to draining storm water, but also that driveways on several properties extended into the roadway, hindering drainage. Councilman Rau recommended that a catch basin be placed on Oak Tree road, that other basins be corrected, and that septic tank violations be curbed.

Expressions of dissatisfaction greeted the report on the part of Birch Hill residents, and the mayor asked Borough Engineer Malcolm Gady if he had investigated the situation. Mr. Gady reported that the pressure of business had prevented him from a thorough investigation, but that he had made an inspection and found that the condition was "in general to the building of houses" and the excessive "ground water" in the section.

"Held Promises Not Fulfilled"

M. C. MacMartin, a resident in the section, who declared that the water is "a regular stream" and that it was "making an island" out of his house, protested that the promises of the council had not

Merle Patten Again On Regional Board, Succeeds Dushanek

Following the surprise resignation of John Dushanek of Garwood from the Regional Board of Education Wednesday night, Merle Patten of Garwood, who has previously been a member of the board, was elected to fill the vacancy. Patten defeated former Mayor Louis J. Fontenell for the post by a vote of five to two.

Dushanek, who handed his resignation to President Joseph Mulholland after a short meeting, gave as an excuse for his resignation the fact that he is moving from Regional School district to Westfield. He has served since the board's inception, and his resignation was accepted with regret on the part of board members.

As successor, Dushanek suggested Patten who had served on the board from its establishment until February, 1941, when he was defeated for re-election by Henry G. Morry. Morry nominated Fontenell to oppose Patten. Patten, who is purchasing agent for the Union County Park Commission, is also custodian for the school board.

Several committee changes were made by Mulholland following Patten's resignation. Mulholland of Springfield replaces Mulholland on the athletics committee and Thomas Nolin of Clark becomes chairman of the supplies committee. Morry was made a member of the teachers committee.

A course in acronyms, recommended by State and National educational authorities, may eventually be established in the school. It was announced by Principal Warren W. Halsey.

Teachers' contracts were voted with most of the staff receiving a $100 increment and a $10-a-month bonus. On recommendation of Mulholland the board voted additional bonuses of $50-100-a-teacher, who had served as coaches.

Only 3 Violations Reported In Town For Test Blackout

With the exception of three minor violations, Springfield experienced the best blackout Wednesday night in a successful practice of all local units of the Defense Council.

"The only places reported by air warden check ups indicated that lights failed to be extinguished completely in the cellar of the National Golf Club, the Hershey Creamery plant in Plover avenue where a small red light on the giant refrigerator was on and a tool machine plant on Maple avenue where defense operations allowed the firm to continue without darkening its lights.

All dwellings were completely blacked out and when a police car hearing Mayor Wilbur M. Selander, Police Chairman Lewis H. McCreary, Chief Air Warden Richard C. Florner, driven by Patrolman Nelson Stiles and including Special Reserve Officer Robert Poppendorf, sped around town in the midst of the actual test of darkness, theirs was the only vehicle in motion within the entire confines of the township.

At the Municipal Building, all prepared for action, just as in the case of a real raid. The chairman of the Council, Henry C. McMullen and members of the Council, were assembled at headquarters there. Air raid wardens, aided by Boy Scouts as messengers, patrolled township streets under supervision of district leaders.

Following the blackout, the entire contingent of reserve police, firemen, disaster relief workers, air raid wardens, messengers and other officials assembled for refreshments at the Legion Building.

Chatham Man Fined For Tippy Driving

Recorder Everett T. Spinning found William Zinn, 36 years old, of 17 Bridge street, Chatham, guilty of drunken driving in Police Court on Monday night and fined him $200 plus $19.95 costs, and revoked his license for two years. Zinn was sentenced to thirty days in county jail in default of fine.

He was arrested March 29 by Officer Charles Schaffernoth after he had struck a parked car on Morris avenue. After being examined by Dr. Henry P. Dengler, he was pronounced under the influence of liquor and unfit to operate a car.

Eugene V. Alibach, 37, of 822 Park street, Plainfield, who pleaded not guilty to a drunken driving charge before Recorder Spinning, was released in $250 bail for appearance April 27. Alibach was arrested Monday night by Officer Schaffernoth after the car he was driving east on Morris avenue had collided with the vehicle operated by Mrs. Joan C. Hencken, 27, of Cramer avenue, Greenbrook Township, which was waiting for a light at the Plover avenue intersection. Alibach was examined by Dr. Dengler, who pronounced him under the influence of toxicants.

A WEEK OF THE WAR

A summary of information on the important developments of the week made available by official sources through the Defense Advisory Committee of the National Editorial Association.

War Production Chairman Nelson said pending conversion orders plus those already issued, will virtually halt production of civilian durable goods within the next two months.

Chairman Nelson said expenditures for munitions and war construction during March exceeded $2,500 million, with an additional $400 million for pay and subsistence.

President Roosevelt, acting under the Second War Powers Act, authorized the War, Navy and Treasury Departments, Maritime Commission and the Bureau of Economic Warfare to inspect war plants and to audit their books.

In their most impressive performance of the season, the Springfield Dive Bombers spring a major surprise, saving of a last quarter rally and edging out the Shamrocks, 40-37, in a thriller on the Summit "V" court, Saturday night.

The impressive victory closed a successful season for the Springfield Dive Bombers, with 13 wins and 2 losses. It lengthened their winning streak to 10 games and ended a series of 15 straight games in which the Dive Bombers have outscored their opponents in the final period.

The locals fell behind at the half but began a driving offense in the third period, led by Schramm, Williams and Kae. They swept the Shamrocks off their feet, taking a 28-22 lead.

The Summit team came charging back and with the help of Xie Park, Williams' set-shots, tied the score at 30-30. The Dive Bombers quickly dropped in two consecutive field goals for the winning points. The Shamrocks scored a final 25 seconds to play, which ended the scoring.

TROUT ANGLING NOT CRIPPLED BY ARMED SERVICE

While men in the various branches of military service and other engaged in work vital to the defense effort of the nation were unable to go astray for the opening of New Jersey's trout season, yesterday, cutting the number of those being the banks for the opening gun at almost in half, there were still great numbers of fishermen—some for the season's first catches.

New Jersey's State Fish and Game Commission, headed by George C. Warren, Jr., of Summit, announced this week that at least 250,000 local-size trout have been placed in the streams of the state.

As an added incentive to catch the largest fish this year, if reward is required to lure the state's fishermen to the streams, there are prizes being awarded through the Governor's fishing tournament for the largest catch in each species. Details of the contest were published in THE SUN last week.

Pheasants and Quail Freed in Reservation

Liberation of sixty-six English ring-neck pheasants and twenty quail in the wooded area at Watchung reservation during past weeks was revealed at Friday's meeting of the Union County Park Commission by W. Richmond Tracy of Summit, engineer and secretary.

A first-aid class for park workers is under way, according to Mr. Tracy, with more than fifty employees enrolled.

Saddle horse exhibitors expressed the greatest interest in the local show. Other events will have enough entries to insure spirited competition, according to the results of the postal poll.

Stocked Streams

Streams stocked in Union County by the New Jersey State Fish and Game Commission for the opening of the trout season yesterday includes the following:

Rahway River—Springwood to Rahway, 2,125 brook trout, 1,350 brown trout, and 300 minnow trout.

Green Brook—Scotch Plains, 200 brook trout, and 50 brown trout.

Regional Notes

Repeating 'Charley's Aunt'

The fifth annual school play will receive its second performance at the Elizabeth High School this evening. This year the play is the hilarious comedy hit by Brandon Thomas, "Charley's Aunt" which had a long successful run in New York recently.

Kenneth Bell, Springfield, has the role lead, Lord Fawcett, Bablerly and Florence Smother, Garwood, is Charley's aunt. This year's play is being directed by Mrs. B. McCarthy and John McCarthy, a Springfield student in general.

The supporting cast includes: John Teuscher, Robert Swisher, Harold Shaw, Alice Valentine, Sherman and Paul (to be named), Springfield; Edward Howarth and Ruth Swartz, Garwood; Eleanor Nelson, Kenilworth; and Gertrude Kordecki, Clark Township.

"Charley's Aunt" has played elsewhere than any other drama except Hamlet, and has earned $25,000 in royalties since its first showing in London in 1892.

Home Economics Trip

All field trip plans for the Home Economics Department have been called off. There are no buses available for anything but routine work.

The girls are a bit disappointed but are comforted by the thought that this small sacrifice is helping to win the war.

The plans included a trip to the Good Housekeeping Institute, and Institute of Dietetics, both in New York.

Defense Stamps

Regional High School has collected approximately $1,000 in the sale of War Stamps from January 26 to April 13. Every homeroom in the school is participating. The largest amount that has been collected from one homeroom is $134.

Each week the five homerooms with the greatest sales receive credit for the achievement. Stamps are now sold purely on a homeroom basis with the teachers in charge of money collection. The Guidance office purchases and distributes the stamps. Throughout the school campaigns the new terminology "war stamps" is being used.

Assemblies

The students of Regional High School this morning witnessed a Good Will Program in commemoration of Pan-American Week. This program was one of the year's budget ticket offerings and was arranged by the Assembly Club. The students saw the exotic native Latin costumes, dances, and an exhibition of handwork.

Lolita Velazco of Honduras sang "Argentina" and other South American songs, while Beora Bibe Montanin of Brazil accompanied her on the piano and guitar. The Conza, Rhumba, and other dances were demonstrated by Ramon and Lucinda. At the end, the audience had an opportunity to ask questions and request numbers.

Keep Your Telephone Always Ready for Use

EVERY WEEK over 2,000 telephones in New Jersey are temporarily out of service—not because there's anything mechanically wrong with them, but because the receiver has been left off the hook for is held up by a book or other object that prevents the switch hook from going all the way down.

When this happens, those telephones register "temporarily out-of-order" at the central office. No one can reach them until the trouble is corrected, which may be a few minutes or even hours.

Today, keeping every telephone always ready for service is highly important, for the telephone is being used to a record-breaking extent to help speed our nation's war effort.

Heads Prize Committee On Watching Horse Show

MOUNTAINSIDE — Norman W. Walley of the Borough has been named chairman of the prize list committee for the sixteenth annual horse show which the Watchung Riding and Driving Club sponsors on May 16 and 17 at the Watchung Stables, Summit. The club took a postal poll among potential exhibitors before deciding to hold the show, several modifications of which will be noted in the prize lists.

Response from saddle horse exhibitors was good, although not so much optimism was shown among hunter and jumper exhibitors. The forecast, however, is for enough interest to maintain these divisions at their usual high level of competitive interest from all standpoint. War stamps, this year, will be awarded instead of trophies, in all the usual challenge events.

Get Your Money's Worth

With the increased cost of living and the additional expenses that will come our way, it's more important than ever that we get our money's worth. Extravagance is definitely outmoded.

You made a good investment when you purchased your automatic refrigerator. If you want good returns from it, keep it in good condition. We'll tell you how to keep your appliances in first class working order. We'll show you how to operate your refrigerator economically. Save gas wherever you can because saving gas means saving oil and we must have oil to win this war.

Your Garden This Week

BY FRED D. OSMAN
County Agricultural Agent

Patience home gardeners will be on their own this year. They won't hire day labor, for workers can be of much greater use in war industries or on farms. Even the garden owners themselves may be engaged in home defense activities—all the more reason for getting an early start by beginning active gardening operations as soon as the ground is dry enough to work.

This is the time to get woody materials transplanted. Look over your rose bushes and replace the plants which have died or are weakened. Reports indicate that this winter caused quite a heavy loss of roses. Although the winter was not severe, there were two or three cold snaps when the plants were not hardened thoroughly. You can get roses from a nursery nearby at reasonable prices and the earlier you plant them the better.

You can sow seeds of all legume animals and potterials directly in the open ground now, and this should be done as soon as possible for best results. Don't plant warm weather annuals such as zinnias and single dahlias until later, unless you sow them in a coldframe. In handling perennial seeds, it is a good thing to put some covering over them until they have germinated. We used to use old hats, but hark! Researcher how. You can use salt hay or straw free from weed seeds, however. This covering keeps the moisture at the surface of the ground until the seeds have germinated. Remember to look under the covering regularly and remove when the seeds have started to germinate. Otherwise, the plants become yellow and will be killed when exposed to the sun.

Eddie Cantor in Another Hit Show

Eddie Cantor is back on Broadway and there is joy unconfined in the Hollywood Theatre, where he is currently playing to crowded houses in the gay and glittering musical comedy hit, "Banjo Eyes." The wide-eyed minstrel, who has never been to anything but a smash hit in New York, is starting in his first stage production since Ziegfeld's memorable "Whoopie." Eddie expresses his appreciation in a certain speech after each night's performance.
