THE JULY 4 CELEBRATION

Among the silver linings of the dark clouds of gasoline rationing, is the fact that Springfield, along with other municipalities, is going to have one of the biggest July 4 celebrations it has had in years. The celebration is especially fortunate for a township like ours which is growing fast and in which, each year, new people are making homes; people who must be made to feel the neighborliness and friendliness of the town. The celebration gives just that opportunity. It will give us to feel the warmth and community spirit that is the essential ingredient of American living.

We are fortunate also that, although we are growing, we have not yet become so big that we can't know each other. The celebration in that respect serves a double purpose. It will both strengthen the old ties of comradeship and neighborliness, and provide townspeople with the opportunity to make new ones.

BLOOD DONORS ARE NEEDED

The deadline for registration for the Red Cross Mobile Blood Bank, which is coming to town on July 28, is approaching fast, and the expected number of registrants has not yet been reached. It is important that those who wish to contribute their blood to the bank, should not neglect to register. Get your blanks at either Police Headquarters, the Library, or Bunnell Brothers' office. All your good intentions of giving blood will serve no good purpose if you wait until the day the unit arrives. Register and make your appointment NOW!

GOLFING FOR THE RED CROSS

Golfers will be afforded an opportunity tomorrow to practice driving and at the same time make a contribution to the local chapter of the Red Cross. And even for those who are unfamiliar with the game, tomorrow will be a good time to learn the thrill of swinging an iron and watching the little ball sail gracefully down the fairway.

Of all the pleasant methods to raise money for the Red Cross, the Baltusrol Hills Golf Range is arranging one of the most pleasant. The owners of the driving range, Al Blair and Pat Lordi, have graciously offered the local Red Cross chapter their establishment tomorrow and the entire proceeds of the day will be turned over to the women-in-charge. Not only will they donate the range and equipment, much of which is brand new, but Blair and Lordi have also offered the soft drink concession proceeds to the Red Cross. Considering that Saturday is probably one of the range's busiest days, the gesture on the part of the owners is both patriotic and exceedingly magnanimous. It is your duty now, as a supporter of the local chapter, to respond. Come out and learn to swing an iron for the Red Cross!

By-Laws Adopted By Battle Anniversary Coffax Civic Group To Be Commemorated

By-laws were adopted and five trustees were elected at a meeting of the newly-organized Coffax Civic Association in the Legion Building on Tuesday evening. Over forty members were present at the gathering, at which committees and committee chairmen were also appointed.

The following trustees were elected: Irving Gridley, John Hopf, Daniel Sheehan, Leonard Howarth and Christian Klausemann. It was decided to omit the word "manor" from the title of the organization.

Committees and chairmen were appointed as follows: Grounds committee, Bruce Lineck; membership, James P. Platter; social, Jay Longfellow; and public relations, Chester McEvoy.

Mountainside Plans Salvage Drive Soon

MOUNTAINSIDE—On Sunday, June 28, the Mountainside Defense Council will again canvass the borough in another collection of all scrap materials, rubber, rags, paper, iron, etc. In this connection, F. H. Steinhilber, chairman of the local salvage committee, urges that rubber of any and every description, except battery boxes and parts thereof be turned in either at local service stations of the major, all companies before June 28 when it will be purchased at nine cent per pound, or made available for the collection by the Defense Council on June 28.

Clinton M. White, executive secretary for New Jersey of the automotive section of the Bureau of Industrial Conservation, has followed up on President Roosevelt's recent appeal with a telegram asking every New Jersey community to push the rubber salvage campaign to the utmost. Mr. White's telegram concludes by saying: "I ask your full cooperation in helping me put New Jersey at the top of the list throughout the nation in this two-week rubber collection campaign."

MEN IN SERVICE

Pvt. Frank Bolger, who is stationed at Fort McClellan, Ala., sent us a letter this week. "Just a line of appreciation," Bolger writes, "from one more of Springfield's soldiers. I can't really express just how much it means to me so far from home to keep up with the town that one has learned to love and call home. I really miss good old Springfield, and I sincerely hope to be able to pay one more visit before getting 'mashed off.'"

Pvt. Robert Rubin writes to thank us for sending him the SUN and tells us he has been transferred from Camp Berkeley, Tex., to Fort Sill, Okla. He is working in a psychiatric ward and finds the work "extremely interesting and exciting."

Corporal Robert W. Marshall, son of Plumbing Inspector and Mrs. Arthur L. Marshall of 74 Washington Avenue, is with the Quartermaster Detachment at Fort Laverack, N. J. He wrote this week, "Please allow me to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to you for sending me the SUN every week. Let me assure you that I know of nothing that makes one feel at home, more than current news from the good old home town."

WATER COMPANY PLEA EXPLAINED

Commonwealth Manager Says Maintenance Costs and Taxes Justify Temporary Increase

W. I. McNamee, manager of the Commonwealth Water Company, in commenting on the company's recent application for an increase in rates, which was filed with the New Jersey Board of Public Utility Commissioners this week, stated:

"The Commonwealth Water Company, which serves thirteen communities in Union, Morris and Essex Counties with water for public and private uses, or at wholesale, has found it necessary to apply to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners for a 15 per cent increase in its charges for water and water service. In its application to the Commission the company has contended that this increase is a temporary one to carry it through the war period. For some years the water company has been faced on the one hand, with rising costs and taxes and, on the other, a fixed schedule for its service to customers.

"The principal factors contributing to our reasons for seeking an increase in rates are:

(a) Higher wages;

(b) Increased cost of operation and maintenance, materials and supplies such as coal, fuel oil, and practically all other materials entering into the cost of water service;

(c) Greatly increased taxes, including, except property taxes, local franchise taxes and, not to mention, federal income taxes;

(d) Imposition of new taxes such as social security taxes and state unemployment taxes;

(e) Additional expense for guarding the company's property as a result of the War;

(f) Investment in the property of over a million dollars since 1935, on which the company is earning little or no interest.

"As I have indicated, we have determined what we believe is the minimum increase which will permit this company to live and furnish service through the war period. The company proposes that the increase in rates are to be effective through a 15 per cent surcharge added to all bills computed at the present rate, commencing June 15.

"The increase in rates does not take into consideration further increases in federal income taxes which the company, inevitably, will have to meet."

A hearing will be held before the Public Utilities Commission in Newark, June 25.

Collections of Golf Range For Red Cross

To say that Mrs. Robert D. Treat, who, as the chapter's Roll Call chairman, receives all contributions which come from any source, to be added to the treasury for the financing of the local work, is pleased about the splendid offer made by the proprietors of the Baltusrol Hills Golf Range, would be an understatement. Tomorrow, weather permitting, teams of Red Cross workers, who will work in hourly relays from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., will receive the cash returns from customers who use the range, and will also have charge of the soft drink concession. In case of rain on Saturday, the Red Cross workers will operate the range during the same hours on Sunday, June 21. "We hope," said Mrs. Treat, "that all those who have the patriotic desire to help the Red Cross do its great work in these war times, will visit the Baltusrol Hills Golf Range on Saturday. They will then also be showing their appreciation of the generosity and public spirit of the management of the range. The spirit shown brings much encouragement to the volunteers who have assumed the many duties which must be carried on by the organization in time of war."

Army Says 'Lights Out'

Announcement was received last night by the proprietors of the Baltusrol Hills Golf Range that because of Army regulations, the floodlights of the range must be extinguished at least one hour after sundown. This means that all golfers who are planning to come out tomorrow for the Red Cross benefit operations at the range will have to play in the dark. Operations at the range will cease as soon as it is necessary to use the artificial light.

Commencement Held In Caldwell School

Combined graduation exercises of the James Caldwell School and the Raymond Chisholm School were held Wednesday evening in the auditorium of the Caldwell School with sixty-three boys and girls receiving diplomas. The diplomas were awarded by Charles Phillips, president of the Board of Education after presentation of the class by Supervising Principal Fred J. Hodgson.

Mrs. Charles Danmann, president of the Parent-Teacher Association, presented scholarship awards to Valfrid Palmer of the James Caldwell School and Marilyn Crane of the Raymond Chisholm School. American Legion awards were presented by Charles A. Zoeller, commander of the local post, to Clara Densinger and Robert Runyon of the Chisholm School, and Betty Berkert and Wilbur Thomas of the Caldwell School.

School honor awards were presented to Betty Berkert, Wilbur Thomas, Valfrid Palmer, Doris Bonnet, Clara Densinger, Marilyn Crane, Catherine Tittle, Carol Hart, Doris Reeve, and Robert Runyon.

Principal feature on the program was a playlet, "The Dizzy Ration," written by Mrs. Ruth E. Greenman and Miss Ruth M. Johnson. In the cast were Ruth Tilly, David McCarty, Virginia Schramm, Betty Berkert, Robert Runyon, Doris Bonnet, Donald Scherwell, Danny Pelton, and Fred Reiss.

The address of welcome was given by Alfred Winters, and Rev. Charles F. Peterson, pastor of the Methodist Church, gave the benediction.

SUN SPOTS

THE DEFENSE COUNCIL wishes to announce that the sounding of the fire whistle is at no time to be mistaken as a signal for an air raid warning. It appears that during the last air raid practice there was some confusion in the minds of residents on the matter. The fire whistle, let it be known, is used only in connection with the requirements of the Fire Department and the sounding of said whistle at any time is not to be construed as an indication of an Air Raid Alarm. If you don't know the proper air raid alarm by this time, you ought to be ashamed of yourself.

THE LOST FLAG, which was reported missing last week, was reported found this week. Through a mix-up in competencies, the flag had been placed in the Presbyterian Cemetery instead of the old cemetery on Plumer Avenue. The dead, we trust, are none the wiser.

Springfield Motorist Given Jail Sentence

Edward Sobin, 31 years old, of Evergreen Avenue was given a ninety-day sentence to the county jail by Recorder Everett T. Spilling in Police Court Monday night when he was found guilty of a second drunken driving offense. His license was permanently revoked. An additional sentence of 20 days was imposed in default of $200 court costs.

Sobin, a machinist, pleaded not guilty. He was arrested Saturday night after his car was in collision with one driven by Raymond T. Edwards of 84 Shiford Street, East Orange, as Sobin was turning from South Springfield Avenue into Evergreen Avenue. He was examined by Dr. Henry P. Douglar and pronounced under the influence of intoxicants. Police reported that he had been found guilty of drunken driving in Newark in 1938.

Springfield Ration Board Puzzled Over Consolidation Plan

Whether the Springfield rationing board will be merged with Summit and New Providence or Union and Hillside is a question not even local rationing officials are able to answer. The consolidation of the local board with either of the neighboring boards is supposedly part of the proposed consolidation of the nineteen rationing boards of the county into seven enlarged units. The consolidation is a State-wide effort to merge boards as a measure of simplifying clerical and supervisory work.

The status of the Springfield rationing board under the plan has not been announced, according to local officials. Conflicting reports have it that the board will be merged with Summit and New Providence with headquarters at Summit, and that it will be merged with Hillside and Union with headquarters at Union.

"We have had no definite word as yet about being merged with either," Charles H. Huff, member of the local board, declared. He stated that if a consolidation of the board's took place, the Springfield board will probably be merged with Union and Hillside, which he added, would be more convenient for Springfield residents. He also pointed out that Local Draft Board No. 2 of Union also takes care of both Springfield and Union.

February Vacation Provided in Schools

In approving the school calendar for 1942-43 at its monthly meeting Tuesday night, the Springfield Board of Education voted to provide for a week's vacation in February in addition to the regular Spring vacation. The change will mean the elimination of school holidays on Columbus Day, Election Day, Armistice Day and Lincoln's Birthday.

Schools will open after summer vacation on September 5. The February vacation will begin on the 15th and the Spring vacation on Good Friday.

The Board accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. Henrietta S. Dreyer from the faculty of the Raymond Chisholm School. Mrs. Dreyer gave as her reason for resigning a desire to return to private life.

Reappointments were made by the board of District Clerk A. B. Anderson, Custodian Charles H. Douglar, School Physician Henry Mulhaver, School Dentist Henry Mulhaver, and Miss Florence M. Gaudinor, school nurse, all at current salaries.

All janitors of both the Raymond Chisholm School and the James Caldwell School were re-employed at current salaries. They are James Reddington, William F. Wagner, John P. Hoagland, and George Smith.

The Raymond Chisholm School will be painted outside, and both schools will have classrooms repainted and decorated. It was decided that a section of the Springfield Defense Council for use of rooms in the James Caldwell School during the summer was granted with the reservation that schedules be arranged to allow the decorating.

Discontinuance July 1st of the government's free insurance of public buildings from bomb and similar damage resulted in deciding to take out $200,000 insurance on James Caldwell School and $123,000 on Raymond Chisholm School. The premiums will be about $275 a year.

Springbrook Members Plan Picnic July 19

Plans for a picnic were discussed at a meeting of the Springbrook Park Association in the Legion Building on Monday evening. Although the location for the picnic was not chosen, the date was set for Sunday, July 19, and a committee will be appointed to make arrangements. About 40 members were present at the meeting.

Members of the association who are representing it on the Citizen's Committee for the July 4 celebration reported on the activities of the Citizen's Committee, and it was agreed that Springbrook Park would wholeheartedly cooperate in working for the celebration's success.

Plans have been completed by the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church for their picnic on July 23 at Echo Lake Park, Mountainside.

Richards, who rates a Centennial all to herself this very month when the American Home Economics Association holds its annual meet in Boston and celebrates her 100th birthday because Ellen practically started the profession.

BLOOD FOR THE ARMED FORCES

Planned here are American Red Cross volunteers delivering blood plasma to an Army plane destination unknown. But this much is known: the blood of patriotic American citizens is saving the lives of many of the nation's valiant defenders. Nearly 55,000 persons have donated blood at Red Cross blood donor centers since Pearl Harbor.

Springfield will give its blood for the armed forces July 28, when a mobile blood bank unit of the Red Cross will set up headquarters at the Legion Building. Voluntary donors are already giving their names to Mrs. Chrysis Phillips and Mrs. Leslie Joyner, in charge of local arrangements for the donation of the unit. It is necessary, in order to volunteer, that an applicant be made, and the local chapter hopes that at least 200 residents will respond to the call. Special arrangements will be made to accommodate business and professional people who are unable to make an appointment during the day. Now is the time to volunteer. If you cannot bear arms for your country, you can at least bare your arm for an equally noble contribution.

YOUR RED CROSS

Graduation exercises are holding the public attention this week, and the awarding of certificates Wednesday afternoon at Legion Hall, to the two classes in home nursing conducted by the chapter's nurse, Mrs. Marjorie Gulick, drew an appreciative audience. As Mrs. Frank T. Geiger, chairman of nursing activities, commented, "It was a very nice party." Two elegant and amusing skits were presented by class members. One, entitled "It's A Woman's Privilege" was written by Mrs. Wm. Bausnitz; the other by Mrs. Wilbur Schlander. Certificates were presented by Mrs. Gulick, and small corsages by Mrs. Geiger. Refreshments were served after the completion of the program. The graduates were: Thir-

Holding "Open House"

Rev. Charles F. Peterson, pastor of the Methodist Church and Mrs. Peterson are holding "Open House" for members of their congregation today from 3 to 5 p. m. and from 8 to 10 p. m. Members and friends will be welcomed at the Methodist parsonage, 46 Main street.

important recreational facility, as many soldiers cannot otherwise avail themselves of leave privileges. Red Cross officials appear to be reluctant to provide these accommodations, except on a basis of NO CHARGE (the boldface is ours—EDC) to service men, unless specifically requested by the Commanding General in that area to provide them at some cost to the recipients.

"The War Department appreciates the motive of the Red Cross with respect to this matter and its established policy of free service, but under the circumstances it is believed impractical, unnecessary, and undesirable that food and lodging be furnished free. It is understood that all similar allied clubs in the British Isles make suitable charges for this particular service. It is advisable that American soldiers be required to pay at least the actual cost of meals and lodging furnished for their convenience and benefit while on furlough. Such procedure is considered a sound business arrangement and conforms to local practice. It is therefore believed that such procedure should be adopted because of its merit rather than because of the local military commander's requests that charges be made for the proposed services.

"The War Department recommends that the Red Cross authorities in the British Isles be authorized to provide these services at such cost as they deem appropriate.

"Sincerely yours,
(Signed) HENRY L. STIMSON,
Secretary of War."

Red Cross Asked To Aid Overseas

In the belief that the families of men in our armed forces who are serving overseas in Iceland, Great Britain and Australia are interested in all measures that are taken to guard the welfare and morals of the service men, Mrs. Leslie Joyner, chairman of the Springfield Red Cross, has released to the SUN the text of a letter addressed by Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, to Norman H. Davis, chairman of the American Red Cross, as follows:

"United States military authorities in Great Britain have requested the Red Cross to establish clubs in certain cities in that area with a view to providing, as circumstances dictate, sleeping accommodations and meals in addition to the usual recreational facilities. The provision of food and lodging for enlisted personnel while on furlough, and at prices within their means, is a most im-

A WEEK OF THE WAR

A summary of information on the important developments of the week made available by official sources through the Defense Advisory Committee of the National Editorial Association.

The Office of Price Administration fixed July 1, 2 and 3 as the dates for motorists in the Eastern States and the District of Columbia to register for their new gasoline ration books. The permanent rationing system in the East becomes effective July 15, and the unit value of existing ration cards was doubled to six gallons to carry motorists to this date. The OPA said motorists who hold A, B or C cards and have used all the units on them will not be able to get any more gasoline for the next 30 days unless they show need to a local rationing board.

Only A books will be issued by school registrars. Supplemental B and C permanent ration books, and bus and truck B books, will be issued by local rationing boards any time between July 1 and July 15. These books will be "tailored" to fit needs of individual motorists and companies, the Office said. B books containing 15 additional coupons will have a variable expiration date; C books containing as many as 96 additional coupons will be issued for three months, but coupons in excess of motorist's actual needs will be removed before the book is issued. Bus and truck B books will be good for four months and will cover just enough fuel for the mileage allowed in forthcoming ODT regulations. Gasoline service station operators will be required to turn over to suppliers the exact number of stamps for the amount of gasoline delivered to their stations.

Rubber and Oil

President Roosevelt ordered an intensive drive this week and next to collect from houses, offices, farms and factories all articles of rubber that have been or can be discarded. The scrap rubber is being collected by the nation's gasoline filling stations, transported to central collection points by petroleum industry trucks and sold to the Rubber Recovery Corporation. Filling stations are paying a cent a pound for the rubber. Under Secretary of War Patterson reported Army and Navy crude rubber requirements during the 21 months after April 1, 1942, will be 800,000 tons, compared with the present U. S. reserve of 600,000 tons. He said he hoped the difference would be made up by the synthetic production program.

Commerce Secretary Jones said the RFC will finance the construction of a 24-inch pipeline from Loupview, Tex., to Salem, Ill., at an estimated cost of $35 million. The pipeline will be completed December 1 and will have a capacity of 300,000 barrels a day. It will require 125,000 tons of steel, the WPB said, but will not interfere with steel deliveries for Army, Navy and Maritime Commission needs. Mr. Jones said necessary personnel to construct and operate the line will be furnished by the industry.

Civilian Supply

The WPB limited the use of steel in the manufacture of baby carriages and prohibited the use of any other metal, except gold and silver, in such manufacture. The Board placed similar restrictions on production of electrical articles such as crucifixes, chalices and candlesticks. Deliveries of welding rods and electrodes were restricted to orders with high preference ratings, or to specified Government agencies and accredited schools of welding. The Board prohibited use of any but low-alloy steels in manufacture of chisels, hammers, punches and other tools, and prohibited, after September 1, production of mattresses or pads containing iron or steel.

Office of War Information Established

President Roosevelt created an Office of War Information, headed by Elmer Davis, writer and radio commentator, who was given authority to direct all the war information functions of the Government. The new agency will consolidate the functions and duties of the Office of Facts and Figures, the Office of Government Reports, the foreign information service of the Office of the Co-ordinator of Information, and certain activities of the Division of Information in the Office for Emergency Management.

Foreign Relations

The White House announced the President and Russian Foreign Commissar Molotov reached "full understanding with regard to the urgent tasks of opening a second European front in 1942" at discussions held in Washington from May 29 to June 4. In addition, the President and Mr. Molotov discussed measures for speeding U. S. war aid to the Soviet Union and the fundamental problems of post-war cooperation to safeguard "peace and security to the freedom loving peoples. Both sides state with satisfaction the unity of their views on all these questions," the announcement said. The State Department reported the U. S. and the Soviet Union have signed a Lend-Lease agreement similar to those between the U. S. and Britain and China.

The President announced the U. S. and Britain have established a Combined Production and Resources Board to bring together "the production programs of the United States and the United Kingdom into a single integrated program, adjusted to the strategic requirements of the war... and to all relevant production factors." Mr. Roosevelt also announced this country and Britain have established a Combined Food Board to investigate and formulate plans on any question, common to both countries, "relating to the supply, production, transportation, disposal, allocation or distribution, in or to any part of the world, of foods, agricultural materials from which foods are derived, and equipment and non-food materials ancillary to the production of such foods."

The Armed Forces

The Senate completed Congressional action on legislation to raise the base pay of members of the armed forces to $50 a month, retroactive to June 1. The House passed and returned to the Senate a bill authorizing a basic allowance of $50 a month for dependents of members of the armed forces, $28 to be paid by the Government and $22 to be withheld from pay. The War Department reported arrangements have been completed for voluntary transfer to U. S. armed forces of Americans serving with Canadian armed forces.

The President asked Congress to appropriate $10 billion for the new 1st Army Supply Base, including approximately $14 billion for the Air Force, $340 million for Ordnance, $7 billion for Quartermaster and Transportation Services, $4 billion for Army pay, $1 billion for the Signal Corps, and $2 billion for the Corps of Engineers. The Senate passed and returned to the House an appropriation bill providing $550 million in cash and $2 billion in contract authorizations for the Navy Department. The House passed and returned to the Senate a bill authorizing the Navy to acquire a total of 200 fighter-bomber aircraft, an increase from 72 specified in the Senate legislation.

The War Department announced that previous flying experience has been eliminated as a necessary qualification for Glider Pilot candidates. Applicants must be between 18 and 36. Those without prior flying experience will receive five weeks instruction in light powered aircraft. The Department said applicants for WAAC commissions will not be accepted if they have persons who are dependent on their pay.

The War Front

The Navy announced the Japanese "have made landings on a small scale on Aka Island, at the extreme tip of the Aleutian Archipelago and... Japanese ships have been reported in the harbor of Kiska at the Rat group." Continuing Army and Navy aircraft attacks have forced the enemy to retire from the populated regions of the islands, the Navy said. These U. S. attacks are continuing, despite unfavorable weather conditions. The War Department announced arrival of additional units of the U. S. Army, including Negro troops, in the British Isles. Results of the Coral Sea battle showed U. S. naval task forces and land-based bombers sank one enemy aircraft carrier, three heavy cruisers, one light cruiser, two destroyers, several transports and small vessels; severely damaged and probably sank a cruiser and a destroyer; seriously damaged 20 additional vessels and shot down more than 100 enemy planes. U. S. losses were the aircraft carrier Lexington, the destroyer Sims and the tanker Neosho. In the battle of Midway Island two of the largest enemy aircraft carriers were sunk, two other medium-sized carriers were sunk, and at least 250 Japanese planes were destroyed by the Navy said.

Your Garden This Week

BY FRED D. OSSEN
County Farming Agent

There is still time for planting, but most gardeners have this work out of the way except for plants that are wanted for late bloom. It is getting a little late for setting out bulbs, roses and most hardy perennials, but with care, one can transplant many things at any time of the year. It is important to see that plants get enough water while new sets of absorbing roots are growing. In transplanting, most of the small hair-like roots that really pump water and nutrients into the plant are broken. Provision must be made to assist the plant until these new roots develop and start to function.

Shading is very beneficial in transplanting for it stops water loss and gives the plant a chance to get a new root system established. Reducing the leaf and stem area, also, is quite helpful, particularly in late transplanting when plants are in full leaf. Both of these aids give plants a chance to re-establish their root system.

Fertilizing plants is important now. Applying plant nutrients in liquid form is not a new idea, but instead of liquid manure we are now using chemicals which are easier to handle. You can buy some of the soluble fertilizing materials such as transplanting mixtures and starter solutions, or you can dissolve regular fertilizers in water and give plants regular applications of this solution. Plants respond very well to this treatment and it is a great saver of fertilizer. The strength of the solution will depend upon what you are using and how it is made. If you are using some highly concentrated fertilizers or one of the soluble plant food materials, the solution should be much diluted. About five to ten pounds of this to 50 gallons of water would be about right. If a regular fertilizer such as 5-10-5 is being used, you can dissolve about twice as much in 50 gallons of water. Apply this according to the size of the plants; for good-sized specimens of garden flowers, applications of the rate of one quart around each plant is satisfactory in most cases.

You will get an immediate response to this treatment and can bring back slow-growing plants quite rapidly. Don't use this too often, however. You can over-feed plants as well as dogs and babies. Use only once in two or three weeks if the plants are growing rapidly. By this method of fertilizing you can practically control growth and grow first-class plants and produce results. A hundred-pound bag of fertilizer will go a long way.
