WASHINGTON AND GHANDI

In church services, radio programs, and special meetings across the land, Americans are celebrating this week the birthday of George Washington, the man who led his fellow men in the struggle for freedom from the oppressive rule of foreign imperialism.

But also in February of 1943, many American people in speeches, news columns, and idle talk are condemning the actions of another leader of the people, Ghandi of India.

In 1776, Washington led the strike against England by means of a violent revolution. The colonies won, due probably, in part, to the distance between England and them, and the consequent inadequacy of British supplies.

But the Indians are seeking their freedom by means of a non-violent revolution. Violent reprisal, even if it were desired, is impossible in India. The British are far superior in ammunition and fighting supplies.

The principal of non-violent direct action involves the use of such methods as strikes, fasting, refusal to work, non-payment of taxes and other forms of civil disobedience, and non-cooperation by flat refusal to suffer injustice.

It seems logical that one group of men cannot force another group to conform without the second group's tacit acceptance, especially if the second group is willing to sacrifice their individual lives for justice, as most men feel they are doing in these days.

In other words, oppression requires the cooperation of the oppressed. Defeatists deny this with a shrugging "What's the Use?" but the Indian people have proved it. Ghandi's personal suffering has time and again won concessions from the English government.

Ghandi's actions have many times been denounced in cartoons, etc., by people (who think they are a thinking people) for his "queer" mode of dress, actually functional in India's hot climate. These are people who can see nothing beyond the stiff conventionalism of American dress, a conventionalism that puts a row of useless buttons up men's sleeves and bunches of feathers on women's heads.

In a blind loyalty, the "thinking" American masses lump the Indian masses into a stupid insensitive bunch of "natives." But suppression did not satisfy freedom-loving Americans in 1776 and it is obviously not satisfying Indian-nationalists, men and women who are suffering torture and imprisonment for their ideals.

So while we're honoring George Washington this week, let's not forget Mohandas K. Ghandi, India's Man of the People.

Questions & Answers Help You Understand Car Driving Rules

Based on the more than 2,700 phoned queries per day received from motorists at the Newark OPA office, the following questions and answers have been prepared:

All essential driving permitted under the pleasure driving law is subject to the "adequate alternative transportation" clause. That is, if you can perform the errand by using the bus, trolley, or train, you may not use your car.

Q. It takes me twenty minutes to drive to church in my car but it would take me one hour to go by bus. May I use my car to drive to church?

A. No. As long as adequate alternative means of transportation are available you should use them. The availability of a bus would make your driving inadvisable.

Q. May I use my car to go down town shopping?

A. Yes, if it is essential shopping and if no other means of transportation are available. If you can use a bus you cannot use your car. However, if you must carry home a large number of packages, too bulky to carry on a bus, driving your car is permissible. You should limit your shopping trips to a minimum.

Q. What do you mean by adequate alternative means of transportation?

A. Bus, trolley, trains, and a lift in your neighbor's car if he is driving on a permissible business. Such facilities must be used even though it would take substantially longer to make a trip which comes within the definition of "non-pleasure" driving.

Q. May I use my car to visit my doctor three times a week?

A. Not if you can reach his office by using other means of transportation.

Q. May I drive to visit my son, who is a patient in the hospital?

A. No. You should make use of public transportation facilities.

Q. May I drive to a dinner which was planned last November and for which tickets were sold out before January 1, 1943? The proceeds of the dinner are to be given to the USO and the Army and Navy Relief.

A. No.

Q. I am a member of the Air Corps Auxiliary which is holding a meeting at which Army officers are to give instructions. May I drive to the meeting?

A. Yes, provided you cannot reach the meeting by bus or by doubling up with someone else or by other means of transportation.

Q. I buy my week's groceries at one time at a store two blocks from my home. The grocer does not make deliveries. May I use my car for such shopping?

A. Yes.

Q. I have just been inducted into the Army. May I drive my car to say "good-bye" to my friends and relatives?

A. If you have an order, letter or other written document signed by a commanding officer at the Induction Center, Yes. If you have no such official writing, No.

Q. I am to be best man and an official witness at a wedding. This is to be a formal affair. May I use my car to get there?

A. Yes, but only if you cannot reach the wedding by other means of transportation. However, other guests at weddings may not use their cars to attend. Only the principals—minister, bride and groom—and official witnesses are permitted to use their cars if no other means of transportation are available.

Q. My mother suffered a heart attack while visiting my brother who is in the hospital and who cannot take care of her. May I drive to his home and bring her home in order that I may take care of her?

A. Yes.

Q. Our church ladies aid society meets every week to plan affairs for the church and to raise money for the church. We live in a rural community. May we drive to such meetings?

NAMED CORPORAL

WILLIAM H. TITLEY

William Henry Titley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Titley of 31 Bryant avenue, inducted December 6 as an aviation cadet, was promoted to a corporal on February 2. He graduated from Regional High School in 1938 and attended Marine Corps College for three and one-half years.

In high school his main extracurricular activities were centered about the band, wrestling, and football of which he was manager. Majoring in social studies and minor in physical education, Titley continued his athletic career in college. During his freshman year, he wrestled in the 135 pound class and won six out of seven matches. A substitute catcher on the varsity baseball team, he was also a member of the band and the junior choir, was awarded a varsity letter and was elected to an organization of varsity letter men.

As a sophomore, he again wrestled, this time in the 145-pound class, won five out of seven matches, and was again substitute catcher for the varsity baseball team.

In Titley's junior year, a broken arm curtailed athletic activities other than the Jaycee football team, and he served as a staff member of La Campana, a year book. He was also boys' director of YMCA activities. Varsity football and election to the senate, one of the oldest organizations on the campus, were his senior activities until his induction.

Request Service Of Nurses' Aides

Service of Red Cross volunteer nurses' aides in Army general and station hospitals has been requested by Major General James C. Magee, surgeon general of the U. S. Army.

The Nurse's Aide Corps is the second Red Cross Volunteer Special Services Corps to enter Army hospitals, the other being the Red Cross Hospital and Recreation Corps, better known as Gray Ladies, whose members have served in Army hospitals since the World War I.

The Surgeon General's request has been approved by Lt. Gen. Brent B. Somervell, commanding general, Services of Supply. The order will apply to the United States, Alaska, the Canal Zone, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The new program will not interfere in any way with the Nurse's Aide program in civilian hospitals, where aides have received and will continue to receive the greater part of their training. Only aides who have completed 150 hours of pre-employment service in addition to their 80 hours of required training will be assigned to Army hospitals. Exceptions will be made only where a Red Cross chapter is unable to furnish a Nurse's Aide program and the need of an adjacent Army hospital is acute.

Sheriff Reports $30,382 Revenue

Total revenues for 1942 in the office of Sheriff Charles E. Ayers were $30,382.83, his annual report released last week, discloses. As the anticipated revenue as contained in the county budget of last year was fixed at $29,000, this shows an increase of $9,382.28 over that estimate.

Source of revenues follows: Service of processes, $9,049.68; Chancery Court executions, $5,262.72; common law executions, $1,850.02; wage executions, $184.65; fines, $13,700, and miscellaneous, $275.11.

During the year, there were 1,910 processes filed, necessitating service on approximately 5,500 defendants.

Sheriff Ayers points out that provision was made in last year's budget in the amount of $24,500 for jurors' fees, but by careful cooperation with the various courts economies were effected by urging veniremen not to report for service when it became apparent cases would not come to trial. The actual fees paid out therefore amounted to $22,952.96, or $1,547.04 less than the appropriations.

Fines collected were those imposed by the judges of the different county courts.

County Officeholders Looking To Primary

Although there still remains some doubt whether the Primary will be in May or next September, Republican candidates for county offices are already beginning to make preliminary plans for the election.

County Register Edward Bauer and Surrogate Charles A. Otto Jr. will definitely be candidates as they have indicated—that the Republican ticket this Primary will show a group of strong, experienced office holders.

Indications last week pointed to the official support of Bauer and Otto. Prochloids John H. M. Dudley, Clifford G. Gehring and William I. McMane.

Nils Anderson of Plainfield will be supported for state committee to replace George C. Warren Jr. of Summit. There are indications that several women will be in the race for state committeewoman when Mrs. Julia J. Hazzard of Cranford withdraws. Mrs. Josephine K. Levergood of Union, Mrs. Mary S. Griffin of Elizabeth, Mrs. Irene T. Reiss of Westfield, are among those being mentioned.

The present Assembly slate will probably get "the nod" of the leaders. They are Assemblymen Thomas M. Muir, Milton A. Peller, Clifford P. Case and Kenneth C. Hand.

Union County is expected to figure prominently in the selection of the gubernatorial candidate. There is a consensus here that the candidate should be a man who never participated in factional party scraps. While the names of Rev. Lester Clee, State Chairman H. Alexander Smith and Gill Robb Wilson, have been mentioned in Republican circles here as possible Primary candidates, the chief leaders in this C. O. P. stronghold are withholding comments until state discussions are held. State Sen. Herbert J. Pascoe will figure prominently in those discussions.

Know Your Red Cross

Provided by the Springfield Red Cross for the 1943 War Bond Drive in Conjunction with National Red Cross Headquarters.

Q. Do all Red Cross chapters use the same services, and, if not, who decides what shall be done?

A. All chapters carry on the basic services of Disaster Preparedness and Relief and Home Service. The nature and extent of a chapter's activities vary according to local needs and conditions. Neighboring chapters and the national organization furnish special aid as required, the regular activity being determined by the chapter's Board, aided by the national organization. Services conducted by the largest chapters include: blood-donor, disaster, first aid, water safety and accident prevention, home service, Junior Red Cross, Red Cross home nursing, nutrition, and volunteer special services, including the following: Canteen, home service, hospital and recreation, motor, production, staff assistance and volunteer nurse's aide.

Stanley Johnson, author of QUEEN OF THE PLAT TOPS, barely escaped with his life when the U.S.S. Lexington went down in a blaze of glory. He managed to save his notes and has written one of the most vivid accounts of modern naval warfare. Twenty-three Japanese warships were sunk and the invasion fleet dispersed, while our losses were small in comparison.

Johnson explains the strategy of the entire battle and the importance of the defeat of the Japs. For 15 years the Lexington was the pride of the U. S. Fleet and when the "abandon ship" order finally came her men did not want to leave her but they were a fearless and disciplined crew, so they parked their shoes in rows and slid down the ropes into the sea.

Abandoned and burning, a U. S. destroyer stepped in to administer the coup-de-grace. It took three torpedoes—She dipped her bow and slid under the waves, still on an even keel.

Your Victory Garden This Week

BY FRED D. OSMAN, County Farming Agent

This is the time to recondition your cold frames for the coming season's use. And if you don't have a cold frame, it would be wise to get one or build one now. A cold frame is one of the most valuable garden accessories and can be used by any amateur to great advantage.

Since a cold frame is just a hot-house box—the back three to six inches higher than the front to shed water—set on top of the ground and covered with glass in the form of sash, it is easy to make at home. The standard size is three by six feet, and most larger units are made in multiples of this. However, there are no priorities on cold frames as yet, and it is often better to buy them if they are available locally.

The proper management of the frame is important. If watering is needed—and it seldom is—use lukewarm water and only in the middle of a sunny day. The only source of heat is the sun and enough must be accumulated to hold the temperature overnight until the evening you provide. On the other hand, ventilation is also needed for stocky growth. Provide it by raising the end of the sash or removing it for

WANT GARDEN-LOTS?

Idle property owned by the township may be secured for use as vegetable gardens by application to Tax Collector Charles Huff, who has been designated by the Township Committee to assign lots on request from Springfield residents.

Approximately 200 acres now unused is available to township people to grow vegetables for their own consumption. Although nothing definite has yet been arranged, it is hoped that plans will be complete soon to borrow a tractor to plow the ground at the residents' own expense, thus lightening the labor for gardeners.

LINDBERG MISSING IN PACIFIC

Mountainside Army Aviator Lost Since January 5, Has Had Active Career In Fighting Japs

MOUNTAINSIDE—Parents of Major Arar Lindberg, 27-year-old Army aviator, have been telegraphed by the War Department of the possibility of Lindberg's having been killed in an air battle over the Pacific. He has been missing in action since January 5.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindberg, of New Providence road, Mountainside, the major is married to the former Ruth J. Mettack, who lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mettack of 411 Mountain Avenue. A brother, Staff Sergeant John R. Lindberg, is stationed at Camp Park, Ia.

A graduate of Pawling, N. Y., preparatory school, he was in attendance at Amherst College in 1928 when he entered the Army Aviation Service. Commissioned in 1932, he was a pilot in the 48th Army Air Corps and served as an instructor at several flying fields before he was sent overseas last September.

As a squadron leader, he participated in numerous attacks, including one at the airport at Buna and one at Rabaul. His Cassin was the greatest. It was reported last November that he had been forced to land on a barren island while returning from a raid on the Japanese North Solomon base at Faial. Native pearl divers directed Lindberg and others in his party to United Nations forces for return to Sydney, Australia.

Borough Association Marks Founder's Day

MOUNTAINSIDE—The Mountaintop Parent-Teacher Association held its annual Founder's Day tea at the school last Thursday in honor of the forty-sixth anniversary of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the twenty-first birthday of the local association. Rev. S. Thomas Barnes, pastor of the Mountaintop Chapel, spoke on "The Church and the Home."

Mrs. Charles Rinker, first president of the association and life member of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, was Founder's Day chairman. Mrs. Henry C. Weber, historian, read some of the early history of the organization and six past presidents served as hostesses, including Mrs. Rinker, Mrs. Robert Laing, Mrs. Thomas Doyle, Mrs. Leslie Lee, Mrs. Edward Menerth and Mrs. Henry Weber.

Refreshments included a yellow birthday cake. Mrs. Charles J. Wadsworth, hospitality chairman, had on her refreshment committee the following mothers of fourth grade children: Mrs. A. Dwyer, Mrs. George Manteo, Mrs. William Parkhurst, Mrs. E. Royal Zoller, Mrs. Joseph Komich and Mrs. L. A. Jennings.

Mrs. Theodore V. Mundy, president, presided over a short business meeting preceding the tea, announcing the reorganization of the luncheon project of which Mrs. Jennings is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. H. J. Kazmar, secretary; Mrs. W. P. Trayman, bookkeeper; Mrs. H. H. Minton, sanitation; Mrs. L. L. Sevebeck, menus. Forty-eight persons have assisted at the luncheon to date.

Mrs. Margaret Lester announced that 27 children and two teachers will attend an opera of the Metropolitan Opera Guild on March 12. Mrs. Edward F. Hansen, Mountaintop librarian, spoke about the Mountaintop library and the victory book campaign with which the Junior Red Cross will be active in the collection of books. Ten dollars was voted to the Girl Scouts to take care of registration fees. It was also voted to sponsor the boy Scouts for the coming year.

Principal Charles J. Wadsworth explained that registration for nation book 2 will be held at the school Tuesday through Friday from 2 to 5 P. M. and Saturday from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M.

SUMMIT MERCHANTS TO REFUND ROUND-TRIP FARES FOR THEIR

FEBRUARY

END OF MONTH SALE

Thurs., Fri., Sat., Feb. 25, 26, 27

In spite of the storm and snow blocked roads, the Summit merchants' first End-of-the-Month Sales Days were a success; so much so that the same merchants and a few more are going to repeat this Sale the 25th, 26th, and 27th of February. Those people who attended the first Sales Days will find a new assortment of bargains awaiting them. Those who were unable to attend the January Sales Days will be pleasantly surprised with what their dollars will buy in Quantity, Quality and Selection.

We, the undersigned Merchants, are offering you a three-day sale next THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY (Feb. 25, 26 and 27). Our shopping district, about four blocks long and two blocks wide, compares with a huge department store where you park once to shop; where you can buy everything from a safety pin to a motor truck—including War Bonds and Stamps).

SAVE MONEY

Save pennies and dollars by buying from these stores. Hundreds of items are being offered well below the regular prices. Of course, the quantities are limited, the sizes and colors not always complete. And most Summit stores have low ceiling prices, so regular lines of merchandise should be considered bargains now.

SAVE TIME

Food, clothing for men, women, and children, dress and suit goods, domestics, blankets and comfortables, drugs, novelty goods, books, stationery, hosiery, shoes for the entire family, infants' wear, furniture, draperies, china and glassware, floor coverings and lamps, sporting goods and toys, hardware, plus many other items—all right here in Summit within a few blocks. One trip to Summit's shopping center enables you to satisfy almost all your shopping needs.

FARE REFUND

ROUND TRIP (OR RAILROAD) fare will be refunded to out-of-town shoppers (within a radius of 25 miles) who attend SUMMIT'S FEB. END OF MONTH SALE. Your sales slips from any of the stores listed below dated Feb. 25, 26, or 27 is all you need. Bring them to the SUMMIT HERALD OFFICE, 359 SPRINGFIELD AVE., and get your refund.

PARK FREE

WHILE SHOPPING you may park your car free and for as long as you wish in either of Summit's TWO MUNICIPAL PARKING LOTS, one located at the rear of 37 MAPLE STREET and the other between the LIBRARY and V. M. C. A., also on MAPLE STREET.

Dimout Rules Fixed By Defense Council

According to a new dimout order issued by military authorities regulating street, business and house lighting, the Springfield Defense Council has outlined the following rules for the control of the lighting of all business establishments:

All exterior advertising signs, however illuminated, must be extinguished.

Any outdoor fires must be completely extinguished before dark.

All outdoor lights used for illumination of open areas, parking lots, gasoline filling stations, or places of amusement must be permanently shielded at an angle less than 45 degrees below the horizontal, and in no case can the light as measured on the ground exceed one foot candle at any point.

Interior lighting of stores, show windows, restaurants, bars, commercial and industrial establishments must be dimmed, shielded or otherwise controlled in such a manner as to prevent the source of light being visible, and also to prevent the escape of light from such building in excess of two foot candles of light three feet from any window.

These regulations must be in full force and effect from one-half hour after sundown each night until one-half hour before sunrise the following morning.

Mail On Truck Saved In Elizabeth Fire

A U. S. mail truck filled with Springfield mail stopped as usual for the red light at the intersection of Morris and Westfield avenues in Elizabeth about 8:30 Monday night. Otto J. Hoffer of 15 Evergreen court was at the wheel.

Suddenly Hoffer caught sight of flames leaping from the corner. Jumping out of the truck, he ripped the mail bags from the back and then called the Fire Department. As a result of the fire, the truck wires were burned out and the radiator was damaged, but the mail was saved.

It all started, Hoffer says, when a leak developed in the water hose and spark plugs ignited the alcohol. Mail and to be delivered by ear about a day and a half, but nothing further can be said, unless, of course, someone would like to pay the garage bill?

MERCHANTS OF LIFE

EACH Ciba employee is fully dedicated to America's all-out war effort. Into every medicament which has its beginnings in their questing minds to become actuality beneath their skilled fingers goes full knowledge that the substance they prepare may mean life to some lone American on some far battlefield.

Men and women of Ciba are proud of their ability to develop replacement medicinals for critical materials no longer available to the medical profession; of their production of prescription drug preparations on rigid and speedy schedules which more than meet requirements of the Armed Forces.

To military medicine of America and the United Nations, Ciba employees have given SULFATHIAZOLE*, the life saving drug for prevention and control of wound infection; CORAMINE*, powerful respiratory and circulatory stimulant; NUPERCALNE*, potent anesthetic; NUPERCALNAL*, modern, effective, anesthetic unguent for treatment of war wounds and burns; and VIOFORM*, a preparation useful in treatment of amebiasis and certain skin infections.

Ciba cherishes the "E" pennant way

ing over its Laboratories, just as it cherishes its Minute Man Flag. Ciba is fully conscious of its responsibility. Employees and management will not—can not—fail this sacred trust.
