BETTIQUETTE SAYS

We recently came across an article called "First Salute to the Flag" in the March issue of "Ships." We are passing it on to you.

"A red, white and blue flag rippled in the crisp breeze that swept across Quiberon Bay, France. It excited comment, aroused curiosity among the French. It was flown by the Frigate Ranger, Captain Paul Jones, commanding a ship of the Navy of the United States of America, then the newest nation in the world—and just about the most friendly."

"A brisk command came from the decks of the Ranger and the harbor rolled to the thunder of the thirteen guns saluting the Bourbon flag flown by the ship commanded by the French Admiral, La Motte Piquet, one gun for each of the states."

"The men aboard the Ranger waited breathlessly. Presently, white smoke belched from the guns of the French frigate, nine guns responded to the American salute. Plans was history made. The date was February 14, 1778."

"For the first time the flag of the United States had received a salute from a foreign power."

Incidentally, shipbuilding is currently one of America's oldest major industries. It was really launched when the Mayflower arrived in 1607, settlers on the Maine coast patiently and painstakingly built the first American ship ever constructed for ocean-going service, the Virginia, a craft of thirty tons, which made at least one profitable Atlantic crossing.

"Coins are often placed under the mast of a ship during construction within the mast to insure its safety, beneath the foremast and the mainmast. All the coins were placed there by the officers while the ship was being built."

The tradition dates back to antiquity. One explanation is that it stems from the old Roman custom of burying coins with the dead to pay Charon's fees for ferrying them across the River Styx.

work he wants most to do . . . using all his strength and skill and experience to serve his country and the railroads in the repair of virtually irreplaceable equipment.

There are thousands of Bills . . . in locomotive shops, repairing giant Peacock engines . . . in car shops, keeping the rolling stock as good as new . . . in freight terminals and yards, making up and inspecting trains loaded with foodstuffs, oil, tanks, engines and other vital war materials . . . in a thousand different jobs, accepting responsibility for the lives, the safety, the welfare of millions.

Thanks to the American way of building and cooperating, the railroads are meeting the transportation demand in this war of gigantic movement. And with the continued all-out efforts of over a million loyal, patriotic American workers, the railroads will keep right on—keeping 'em rolling.

BEING an American mostly. Ask him what that stands for and Bill wouldn't give you any Fourth of July oration. But he'd tell you, proudly, "I got a fine job, with good wages and a chance to get ahead. My home is my own . . . and nobody comes busting in unless I ask him. My kids can get an education without being filled full of bunk. I can listen to what I want to on the radio . . . and I can go to church when the spirit moves me, which happens pretty often. I'm an American, see . . . a free man."

No, not very eloquent. Just homely and simple . . . and terribly profound.

Bill's happy, too . . . doing the kind of

Your Victory Garden This Week

BY FRED D. OSMAN, County Farming Agent

Preparing the Soil—The hardest job for gardening is preparing the soil. If you have to do it, there are two cautions. One is, don't do the job too soon and don't try to do too much at one time.

Tools to Use—First of all, a spade or many people prefer a long-handled shovel is the best tool to use where the soil is in sod or hasn't been worked for some time. For a garden that has been dug recently, a spading fork is a good tool. If they would only make them with long handles for long leaved people it would be fine.

When Is Soil Ready?—Of course, you cannot dig when the frost is in the ground although many inexperienced gardeners will probably try to do so. If the soil is dug before it is in condition to work it may be unsuitable for gardening.

How to Improve the Soil—When the soil is in condition to work, first spread the manure evenly over the surface and then the lime and fertilizer required. These should be worked into the soil. Then, if you do not expect to dig the entire garden in one day, apply the

CHEESE TAKES PLACE OF MEAT TODAY

MARY W. ARMSTRONG
Home Demonstration Agent

From here the days when a well-filled cheese board polished off a hearty meal? Gone for the duration, at least—for today's war-minded consumer comes home from market with either meat or cheese checked off on that valuable little book, which determines what and how much of some things the family shall have to eat. Meat or cheese—but not both!

And, although they neither look nor taste a bit alike, they have a lot in common. Both, for instance, are excellent sources of protein. Most homemakers are well acquainted with the food value and various uses of meat, but cheese has not been so fortunate. Many consumers may not know that it's the combination of protein and fat that gives cheese its lasting quality and makes it a hearty food. That cheese is from 90 to 99 per cent digestible. That calcium and phosphorus contained in cheese are indispensable to the building of bones and teeth. That a high degree of Vitamin A is found in cheese, and it is a good source, too, of B and G.

Many consumers may not be very familiar, either, with some of those tempting dishes which depend so much on cheese for their rich goodness—dishes like the three which follow:

Cheese Strata
12 slices whole wheat bread
1 1/2 lb. Cheddar cheese
2-3 cups milk (hot)
4 eggs
3 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/8 tsp. paprika
Trim the crust from day-old bread and in a buttered dish lay alternate slices of bread and cheese until the surface is covered and all the bread and cheese are used. Beat the eggs, add seasonings and milk, stirring constantly until well blended. Pour the mixture over the bread and cheese, letting it soak into the bread so that all the butter is used. Place the baking dish in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven about an hour, until the custard is set and the bread is puffed and brown.

Macaroni and Cheese Timbales
1 cup Cheddar cheese
1 1/2 cup milk
2 eggs
1/2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cups cooked macaroni
salt
Divide the cooked macaroni equally among 6 custard cups and fill cups with the grated cheese, milk, well-beaten eggs and seasonings, mixed together. Set in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven until firm.

Cheese in Ramekins
1 cup grated Cheddar cheese
1 cup bread crumbs
1 cup cooked peas (pareed)
1 tsp. cooking fat
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. paprika
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
2 eggs
Blend the cheese, bread crumbs,

New Permanent Wave At DeSantis' Salon Requires No Heat

The exclusive method of permanent waving at DeSantis' Beauty and Styling Salon, 7 Maple Street, will give you the Wella Cold permanent wave, something "big" in the world of hair styling. The new system of putting curls out of straight hair requires no heat and future years will very likely completely replace the old heating method. Felix DeSantis has recently completed taking instructions at the Wella Studio, Fifth Avenue, New York City, qualifying him to give the wave.

It will be a relief to womenkind who have suffered through years of heat permanents to be able to sit on a warm spring day with none of the trappings which come with wave. It eventually, says Mr. DeSantis, by the untended method. The new wave requires no heat or need for machines, tin wires, and is replaced by wooden curlers and solutions which never get hot. No stretching of the hair is required. Natural curl, means no pulling.

Another important advantage to the Wella Wave, says Mr. DeSantis, is the fact that with the lack of heat the curl can be given close to the head, a great help with very short hair. This factor will be of interest to the women who can only enjoy a feather cut for a few weeks due to the rapid growth of their hair. With a close wave a little cutting will not create havoc and produce straight ends.

Another group of permanent victims who will be advocates of the wave are those who never can get satisfactory results from permanents because they belong to those unfortunate with fine quality locks. The sun dries their locks and permanents pretty nearly kill it with the heat required to make it curl. More than any others they will reap benefits from the heatless method. They will, perhaps for the first time, be able to enjoy the comfort of a natural curl without the accompanying dryness any heating process effects no matter how well executed.

The lucky ones with strong, sturdy heads of hair will find that their hair will have that naturally curly appearance always desirable but not always a result from the average waving device.

It's a happy day for all who have to rely on artificial means for hair beauty and comfort that this recent discovery is now being launched.

An ad placed in the classified columns brings results.

Femininity for Easter Feature at Carroll's Department Store

Carroll's Department Store, Springfield Avenue, is stressing the point of feminine togs in contrast with the uniforms worn by female workers in defense plants, for they contend, and rightly, that the girl with a frill or ruffle on her dress when off duty is able to relax more completely from the strain of her particular job.

The suit dress, popular in striped seersucker, is a feature at Carroll's where they also provide you with a wide selection of blouses and dickeries which may be worn with this strictly tailored outfit. For those who choose there are blouses of famous "Star Dual" crepe, French crepe or washable celanese. Good looking shirt maker variations have proved very useful in woven ginghams, striped chambrays and seersuckers.

Dainty "Tilly" or "collars" come in high neck styles, lift, V, or square designs to suit the fancy and the style of the dress you want to dress up.

The famous "Wear Right" gloves in imported chambray are to be found at Carroll's in the new gauntlet style and in a variety of colors including white, bon bon, silver red, emerald green, jaggare, pebble sand and black.

To dress up the new Easter coat a petite hand curled garden made to Carroll's own specifications come in white, egg, aqua, red, copon, dusty and maize.

Hats at Carroll's are individually styled and selected with care. Flowered hats are suggested for your Easter suit, bumpers for your tailored coat, sailors, appropriate for either model, large cartwheels for your party dress and casual spectators for the all round wear.

Hosiery and lingerie are a specialty at Carroll's where now the feature is the "bare leg" no seam stockings. No worry of keeping them straight and they're daintily sheer.

Your Easter outfit would not be complete without several smart hand bags. If you choose the small handle pouch or the flat under-arm type they are on hand in large and small sizes at Carroll's.

For those who saw the selections are as large at Carroll's Department Store as can be found in metropolitan stores. 54-inch wide seersucker—plaid—plaid—plaid checks and novelty weaves suitable for dresses, skirts, suits, jackets and coats make it easy for the lady who is her own dressmaker to have a professional looking wardrobe. Also to be found are rays in gorgeous colorings including the new bordered-prints and bordered rayon jerseys, spun rayons, French crepes and other weaves. For the summer wardrobe the home sewer may have washables in "Fun and Frolic" seersuckers, plain and stripes, hatterton "Powder Puff" muslins, sabardines, ginghams, dotted swiss, percales and many other fabrics.

Frumkin's Feature Everglades Blouses For Sheer Fluff

"Suitable" is the word for blouses to be found at Frumkin's. You'll wear their classic shirtwaist, tailored and tubular, for hunting down a breakfast or working on surgical dressings at Red Cross Headquarters. At Frumkin's you'll find it in the ever popular white and pastel crepe, with saddle stitching on the collar and cuffs if you like, and in checked rayon or ginghams with a bequilling ruffle around the collar.

For sheer serenity at the cocktail hour and right on through the evening nothing can surpass an Everglades blouse. It's crink and frill are hand worked down Puerto Rico way for feminine flattery.

In these days when there's so little time to fuss, you'll find yourself building a complete wardrobe of these blouses, plus a few flirty jackets and the ever-practical dickerie.

And Frumkin's has the suits you'll want for spring. Suits made in tailored or dressmaker in monochromes, tweeds and plaids.

And don't forget accessories, hats, gloves and purses. You'll be "fashion right" when you match them up at Frumkin's.

V-Mail Receives Priority Rating

A plan for the use of V-mail as the speediest and surest means of getting letters to men at sea or at foreign shore stations was issued today by Third Naval District Headquarters.

The appeal is part of a nationwide Navy campaign to build up the use of photograph-reproduced V-mail and to emphasize its importance in the war effort.

The message from the Navy is this: V-mail gets there—it gets there fast! It's simple to use, and it saves priceless cargo space.

Generally, V-mail is considered about as important as ammunition. No. 1 priority in loading goes, of course, to ammunition. And V-mail rates a No. 2 priority over all other types of personal mail. It is sent ahead of air mail.

V-mail has arrived from Australia in seven days from Hawaii in three days and from Africa as fast as planes have been able to speed it across the stretches of water.

Well Known Brands Proof Of Quality At Root's Dept. Store

Adolph Root, who opened his department store on Springfield Avenue in Summit in 1934, begins today a sale in celebration of his ninth anniversary in Summit.

Two years after he opened his department store, Mr. Root opened a Men's and Boys' Wear Store at the corner of Springfield Avenue and Maple Street. Since the opening days Mr. Root has constantly increased the quality of merchandise carried by his stores, until today he features dozens of nationally known brands. Among these are Kayser and Quaker Hosiery, Barlizon Suits and Underwear, Dr. Dentons, Carter's Underwear and many others. The Men's and Boys' Shop feature Kilt-Tex and Worst-Ed-Tex Jackets and Suits, Beau Brummel and Bolony-Tex, Dunlop and Lee Hats, Manhattan and Van Heusen Shirts, Swanik Jewelry, Tinterwoven Socks, MacGregor Knitwear, Tom Sawyer boys' wear and many others.

Many changes have been made in Root's Department Store in order to increase service to customers and to better display the merchandise. Additional selling space has been added by putting all business office personnel and equipment on a raised balcony in the rear of the store. Many new fixtures have been added.

Mr. Root wishes to let it be known at this time that he has more merchandise on hand than at any time in the history of his store in Summit. Obviously certain lines have become depleted due to war conditions, but appropriate substitutions have been made in many cases. This quantity of merchandise Mr. Root has on hand is the result of a policy begun almost three years ago to increase his stock so that citizens of Summit and nearby communities could shop at their greatest convenience.

The personnel of the stores remain unflinchingly constant, and almost all of his sales help have a most complete knowledge of the stock available. This, Mr. Root feels, is an added service to his customers. The windows are redecorated at regular intervals by professionals. As the result of renovations made last year, the Men's Store is able to serve its customers with the same high degree of efficiency that now exists in Root's Department Store.

Jeanne Advocates
Creme Oil Permanent,
Latest In Waving

The Creme Oil Wave, the latest in permanent waving, is featured at Jeanne Beauty Shoppe, 16 Maple street. This method conditions the hair with the creme oil to such a degree that the result of the wave is the ultimate in softness, giving the appearance of a natural curl.

Hair styling is more than ever a necessity these days to go with uniforms for war-time activities to say nothing of styling the locks to become the post spring bonnets. It is very important for care to be exerted in hair styling and Jeanne and his operators are all qualified and adept in creating the best hair comb for the individual type.

The ever important business of hair conditioning and care is not neglected by even the busiest of women. They realize that more time can be spent fussing with their hair when it is affected by dryness or excess oil than by the relatively brief span of time spent having a treatment by either the Parker and Huxley or the Huxley method of treatment, employed at Jeanne's. The results are so gratifying that any and all who experience the joy of healthy, well cared for hair, become confirmed advocates. The joy of waves and curls that do as they're supposed to do, rather than being at odds with one another, and springy locks, gleaming with a healthy luster, is the benefit reaped by spending a little time and thought on a woman's crowning glory.

Color and Variety Make Good News In Spring Hosiery

The hosiery outlook for Spring is a very pleasing one—in fact, an exciting one! Weaves, textures, color are being offered in great variety—and the stocking wardrobe has become increasingly "necessary" minded.

Cotton hosiery offers a wide selection of novelties, in lace weaves, diagonal ribs, geometrics and clocks for sheers. The new cottons fit any place in your Spring wardrobe because whether dressy, tailored or hard-working, there's a cotton hose to fill the bill. Rayons have become increasingly varied, too—in shadow ribs, tweedy mixtures, sheers and meshes that are very "new" and good-looking.

Don't be satisfied with just one type of hosiery for Spring—select your hose as you would your most dramatic accessory—with an eye to contour, color and originality.

You'll find all styles, shades and sizes at the Carroly Hosiery Shop.

Spitzer's features suits in Shetlands, gabardines in checks and tweeds, also twills in the permanent smart black and navy, new cocoa brown (a softly lively brown shade for big success) plus a whole range of pastels, good looking beige and greys.

Highlights of the new dressmaker suits include scottly rounded revers, clever shoulder yokes, deftly tucked waistlines, features that add to their figure-flattery. Slender-slim skirts are newest, although for those who prefer them, there are also kick-pleat, box pleat and multiple pleat skirts, all of which conform to the government ratings for fabric conservation.

Everybody will want and definitely need at least one casual suit this Spring, because they're practically the fashion uniform. Have yours in gabardine for Easter, love and live in it all through Spring. Beautifully tailored and featuring hand picked details, gabardine suits have a perfect genius in looking as snuggly right for day-time as they are for after-dark fun. Right in the same family as grand gabardines, are the good looking American grey flannels, the smooth light rayon shirtings—the bright shepherd checks and trim plaids.

Careful Consideration In Buying Wardrobe Important This Year

Chouline G. Nicholson at 297 Springfield Avenue is again featuring dresses for Spring which are up to her usual standards. At a time when quality and durability are considered more than ever before, the selection at Mrs. Nicholson's shop will ease the shopping problems of the busy women of today. Good clothes are more than ever in order for the time they come when they will have to do for more than one season. Buying carefully is a good policy to follow, but of equal importance is to buy the best you can afford, for that is where the real economy comes in. In good clothes you find lines, durability and that real smartness which is only achieved by fineness of workmanship and good materials. It is reasonable that better clothes should include all these features and it is also wisdom to consider these factors when doing your Spring buying.

At Mrs. Nicholson's shop are reasonably priced, attractive dresses—casual and the ever popular shirtwaists.

Ninth Annual Club Woman's Day Held at Hahne & Co.

On Friday, March 26, the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs gathered at Hahne & Co. for the ninth successive year. During the course of the day, they served throughout the store in various capacities, right up to that of president.

In addition to this active participation in the duties of the day, they met in the auditorium of this store at 12 o'clock, Mrs. M. Casewell Helms presiding. After being greeted by J. C. Durek, president of Hahne & Co., the group was addressed by Mrs. Arthur A. Catha, chairman of the "New Jersey Club Woman," official magazine of the organization; Mrs. Stephen J. Francisco, who spoke in place of Mrs. Charles S. Maddock, Jr., president of New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs; Ruth Sears, second lieutenant and recruiting officer in the W. A. A. C.

A skit, "Day's Work for America" by Alice Danayon, written for and donated to the Committee for War Savings, was presented by members of the Women's Club of Maplewood under the direction of Mrs. Chester H. Woodworth. A timely fashion show, with comments by Mrs. Dorothy Maynard, fashion coordinator of Hahne & Co., highlighted new fabrics for wartime. Children of some of the club women were among the models.

POPULAR LINGERIE TOUCH

Scientific Hair Care Makes For Healthy, Beautiful Heads

Lillian M. Furman, Beautician, 317 Springfield Avenue, is featuring this Spring the Nerite Opalescent Creme Wave. The lady in need of a permanent arrives at her appointment and receives her wave individually packaged in a neat box. All the paraphernalia necessary for a permanent is contained in the attractive package, the only thing not included being the machine. This particular wave is especially recommended for fine heads because it gives a tight but soft wave.

Lillian Furman uses the Parker Herber Method of individualized hair treatment, known to most women who are aware of the necessity of scientific hair care. The Parker Herber preparations are a group of specialized preparations, each directed at a specific condition of hair and scalp and used in different combinations according to the individual needs.

They simulate as nearly as possible the natural nourishment of the hair and stimulate the processes of nature to greater activity. Many of the liquids contain no alcohol at all, while the ointments are made from herbs of a "balmy" nature which stimulate the circulation of life-giving blood through the hair shaft to the papillae from which the hair takes its nutriment.

In these days when most women go without hats and have at least two permanents a year, the wisdom of caring for the hair to avoid the dryness resultant from the sun and from heat waves is recognized. The results achieved from the above mentioned product make it well worth while to spend a little extra time every month in the pursuit of hair beauty.

Spring Calls For Something New At Your Window

Your shades have been a lot of action this winter—what with the nightly dimout and those surprise Blackouts. It's time then, to look at them with the critical view of an outsider in your home. Aren't the cords a little frayed, and what about those unsightly finger smudges along the edges? And your drapes and curtains. Don't they seem a bit heavy and oppressive now that warmer weather has set in?

If the answer is yes, it's time for a trip to the Window Shop at Maple Street—the shop expressly designed to cure your window ills quickly and inexpensively.

The government does not plan to relax its dimout regulations just because the days are getting a little longer so you'll want to start with fresh, bright looking shades. They have them in all sizes and they're washable so you can make that brightness last for years.

You'll want the lightest material possible in your curtains so the filter on the summer breeze can come right into your room. Organza is good and even better are Niroms—those straight silk curtains in neutral shades that are so hard to find these days. You'll find them though, in all shades and sizes at the Window Shop.

To brighten up your kitchen choose from a new spring line of cottage sets in cheerful colorings. You'll also find matching curtains, dresses and bedspreads in satsum, cotton, percale and for any room at all and just because it's Spring, don't neglect the cotton drapes in delightful posy prints.

Do this and you'll have windows you'll be proud to draw the shades on.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

"The American woman is a new person this spring," said Lillian M. Furman, manager of the women's shoe department at Nee Dell's Gold Cross Shoe Store, 317 Springfield Avenue. "She's a younger, more active, more purposeful woman . . . and the new shoes she'll wear for Spring reflect her new spirit, her new activities."

Yet these shoes, for all their smartness, easy grace, and classic simplicity, do not forget to be pretty and feminine and head-turning.

Black is an all-important color, as usual . . . with a new emphasis on the white. Some of the new styles to watch for are: Lighter, say-of blues . . . jacket blues, Air-Way blues are shown.

Gabardine and patent ylc with polished calf in importance. Pump are still in the forefront, followed by straps, sandals, oxfords. Heels, in many styles, reflect the smart come-down which has been long predicted and is now taking place.

The new Gold Cross Shoes, as shown in Nee Dell's "American Mirror of Fashion" display of this fashion's footwear, have the new classic, tailored feeling that can make a smart appearance, all day long, no matter where a woman's activities take her. Value For Dollars Stressed This Spring By Hahne & Co.

Women today are wise shoppers. Whether it is food or fabric, they now look for the most value for their buying dollars. They adhere to the advice, "Take a good long look at what you already have, then buy what you need and no more." Merchants will be fewer and less necessary now that there is greater emphasis on finer quality. You look for service and wear, for power in fabric, for beauty and good taste in styling.

Fashion is ever a part of current history and this spring, particularly, clothes are tuned to the times. Simple, smart, in good taste, practical as well.

For real service, a suit is an essential and an excellent investment. Suits have a lot of news this year with a good variety of details and types. There is the one-button man tailored suit, usually in a fine worsted; the versatile cardigan type jacket suit; the young and charming bolero; the classic sports type, and, of course, the softer dressmaker suit. All of these with the exception of the very tailored and the very dressy types, which are ensembles in themselves, may be smartly dressed up or down with accessories. This device of switching accessories is a favorite war-time game... and lots of fun. Its possibilities are endless and will stretch your wardrobe immensely.

Blouses are extremely important today, thanks to the influx of suits and the demand for greater versatility in wardrobes. Of course, you'll find the nicely tailored classic shirt in white and lovely pastels, and galaxy of softer, more dressy blouses in sheers, crepes and cottons. Many have crisp tailored ruffling, others have lacy trims. They're all beautifully feminine and becoming and will change your suit with your mood or the occasion.

Dresses are essentially simple depending on good silhouetting lines that are carefully tailored, and adding interesting trims for conversation. Seidom has the classic box coat, the sleekly fitted reefer, the soft tweedy coat been more popular. Here, again, is an example of the simplicity and versatility you expect in your clothes.

And the hats! Your very special chance to be frivolous and gay. Ever so romantic and immensely appealing, they do wonders for every costume. Hat materials are not among rationed items and therefore you'll find refreshing new fashions, touched up with fascinating trims, new shapes and new ideas. Outstanding this year is the little hat. It fits snugly and close to the back of your head or lifts firmly over your brow. The little hat is provocative and sure to please the masculine eye. Brims roll up, crowns mound a bit, they're completely feminine and devoted to making you look your prettiest.

Decide how you want to look this spring, plan your clothes, and then start out to find the best. For a complete and varied picture of fashions for spring, 1943, we recommend a visit to Hahne & Co. in Newark and Montclair.

Pleated Skirts Highlight Suits At de Leon's

The suit with the pleated skirt is the fashion note for Easter at the de Leon Shop. Recognizing that full-pleated skirts in suits are rapidly becoming scarce," said Mrs. Irwin, proprietress of de Leon's. "We deliberately sought suits with pleated skirts, the fuller the better—and we got them." The suits come in a wide price range and they are mostly all wools.

BOLERO DRESS FOR SPRING SILHOUETTE

The Spring silhouette at its loveliest. A trim little bolero dress with scalloped jacket and gently flaring skirt. Both in a nice sheer rayon crepe. Sheer peppermint striped blouse tops off the ensemble. Jacket and skirt, 29.95; blouse, 9.95. Hahne & Co., Newark and Montclair.

One number in particular is an outstanding value. It is a crisply tailored suit in the softest of pastels made of wool and rabbit hair. It is so light weight, it's amazing. Since most jackets have to be shed with the coming warmer weather, this suit is ideal, for it can be worn comfortably right through the summer.

Another featured item in the de Leon shop is the "Toni Tailored" jumper dress. Designed for work, fun, or play these smartly tailored jumpers are made of spun rayon in a gabardine finish. They are being shown in eight beautiful spring shades. A change of blouse and you have a change of outfit. They are ideal for spring and summer wear. These jumpers are now on display in the windows of the de Leon shop. Incidentally, the spring window display at de Leon's is chock full of suggestions in sportswear and lingerie for Easter wear.

Spring Shoe Styles in Practical Oxfords And Pretty Pumps

As you pass near the Summit Shoe Shop these days, you'll see heads turn to look in the window. Then, like an actor, feet turn in the door. The drawing card? The new Spring Ennis Jetticks.

Yes—and they certainly are an eye-ful. Spite-and-span oxfords with that ready-to-go look and feeling. Pumps and step-ins with pretty ways. Styles for just everything your busy day includes, from Civilian Service duties to an afternoon at bridge. And all with the walking ease you look for first today. All, too, with the practical, long-term endurance that's an equally important must.

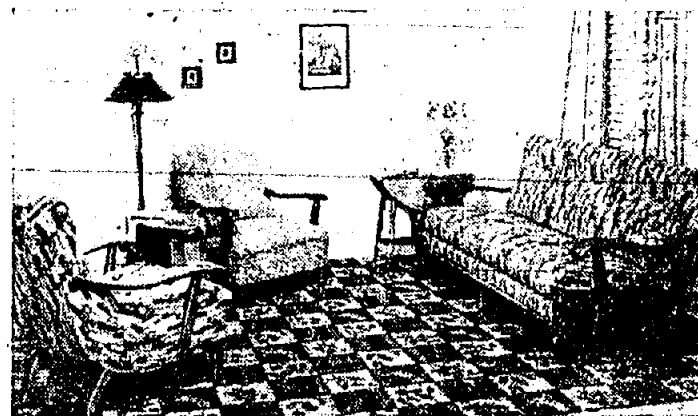

"We hope your feet will turn in this direction soon," says the shop's manager, "so that we can show you exactly what we're talking about—so that we can fit you accurately, fashionably, comfortably and thriftily in Ennis Jetticks."

WIDE FURNITURE SELECTION AT DOYLE'S

Lightweight Hats Are Smartly Styled At McElgunn's

Men will find a good range of hat styles when they go to McElgunn's to buy their lightweight felts this spring. The new hats are smart and there are plenty of types from which to choose. All the best-hat colors are still with us, plus such new shades as Forestry, Pearl, Carline and Bison. Felts have stayed about the same, that is they vary from the wide-brims favored in some sections of the country to the narrower brims that are more noticeable in some cities. The width of this year's felts is chiefly a matter of choice.

A style that recommends itself particularly in the spring season and one that is growing fast in Summit is the Knox Vagabond, a lightweight felt with a narrow band. In the spring a change to the lighter color effect is also out, and this particular style is one that lightens and brightens without being overdone. Style-conscious hat buyers have taken it up in a big way. The pre-blocked felt gives a man a perfectly shaped hat and assures him of the smartness the designer had in mind. Most pre-blocked felts have a hand-blocked look, and you'll find them at McElgunn's this spring.

Follow Simple Rules In Buying Furniture, Says Harry Doyle

"Buying the right kind of furniture need not be difficult if a few primary principles are kept in mind" according to Harry Doyle, Furniture Company in Summit.

"Fortunately it is not necessary for a home maker to qualify as an expert in order to buy intelligently," Mr. Doyle states. "She can make her purchases easily and with an assurance of satisfaction by following these three rules:

First, buy from a merchant known to be reliable; second, select the product of a reputable manufacturer; third, know your needs.

One feature of our store is two nationally known manufacturers which insure quality, design, and fact that we offer the products of durability.

In selecting it is pointed out in a manual recently issued by home furnishing experts that it is highly important to know the comfort preference of the person who is to use it. Comfort being a matter of individual reaction.

Illustrated by the presence of a member of the family for a certain chair in the living room.

High quality is the best investment when it is to receive ordinary continuous use, the manual advises. "It will more than pay for its extra cost in larger service and in addition it will give greater comfort during its life.

The 2nd War Loan Starts April 12

13 billion dollars must be raised!

THE GOVERNMENT of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. We can do it. And we must do it. Every American must realize the truth:

In this, our toughest war, we've made a good start. We've trained a lot of men—made a lot of weapons—built a lot of ships.

But it's only a start. No man or woman among us would contend for a single instant that we're doing enough now to win this war!

We've Got to Build More!

We broke all records building 3 million tons of shipping last year. But grim-faced Army and Navy men will tell you that the 13 MILLION tons we're building this year still won't be enough!

We've Got to Fight More!

From now till this war is won, America must be on the offensive. In ever-increasing numbers, your sons, brothers, husbands must go into actual battle. Our losses have already begun to mount—and they will not grow less.

And We've Got to Buy More War Bonds!

Sure we're all buying War Bonds now. But we've got to help pay for our increased fighting and building . . . We've got to match, as best we can, the sacrifice of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on a dozen battlefronts—with the bloodiest yet to come. The blunt fact is this: to keep our war machine going, we've got to dig up 13 billion extra dollars this month. 13 billion dollars over and above our regular War Bond buying!

In the next few weeks you may be visited by one of the thousands of volunteers who are contributing their time and effort to this Drive. But don't wait for him. Make up your mind now that before this drive is over, you're going to march right down to your nearest bank, Post Office, or place where they sell War Bonds, and do your duty. And don't ever forget this: in doing your duty, you're doing yourself one of the biggest favors of your life!

For United States War Bonds are the greatest investment in the world—bar none. They're investments tailored to fit your particular situation. And they give you the chance of a lifetime to order and get the kind of world you want to live in after this war. Every cent you put in War Bonds now will help to guarantee plenty of peacetime jobs making peace-living for every one of us.
