ENCOURAGING BLACK MARKETS

Our survey of the fresh vegetable situation in Springfield this week was frankly discouraging.

To a man, dealers said that vegetable prices are still going up, and they do not expect the situation to improve.

Customers do not help the honest store-keeper as much as they could. While we were talking with a dealer, a customer chimed in that he had plenty of time to shop, and points or no points, he could get anything he wanted whenever he wanted it.

The OPA is trying to do a man-size job, and they should be encouraged and aided by the people as a whole.

The place to stop these practices is at the source, which OPA is trying to do, and can do better if customers support honest retailers, who refuse to deal with the black market.

DOGS AND GARDENS

Dogs are always somewhat of a problem to gardeners in the Summer. We don't pretend to know why Fido likes to bury his bones in the string beans, or why a pack of dogs pick the flower beds in which to play tag, but it is animal nature and the dogs are not responsible if their owners are careless.

However, this year more than ever it is going to be the responsibility of owners to see that their pets are tied up to prevent damage to Victory Gardens.

The Township Committee, at their meeting on Wednesday night, ordered Dog Warden Fred Muehsgun to enforce existing laws on the confinement of pets.

This is wartime. Strict enforcement of these laws is necessary. Tie your pet up and avoid entanglements with the law.

Plan Information Center, Exchange; Mrs. Nye Is Chairman

The Consumer Interest Committee of the Springfield Defense Council will open, in the next few weeks, an Information and Exchange Center at 298 Morris avenue.

In connection with the Information Center, the Committee is also planning to operate a clothing exchange, having in mind the many things that children outgrow, such as rubbers, over-shoes, etc., that would be passed on to good advantage.

The Committee is not asking people to donate expensive articles of clothing, such as men's overcoats, children's snow suits, and the like, but rather to sell them through the Center.

Books and magazines will also be accepted. Anyone desiring to sell or buy household articles may notify the Center, and an advertisement will be placed on the bulletin board.

Lt. Bolger Cited For Fire-Fighting

Lt. Francis J. Bolger, Springfield volunteer fireman, now stationed at Headquarters, 505th Parachute Infantry, Camp Mackall, N. C., is still a good fireman.

Recently a fire broke out near the magazine shed, and Lt. Bolger promptly assumed command of the efforts to extinguish it.

Subject: Commendation To: Lt. Francis J. Bolger, Co. "E", 505th Pchnt. Inf., Camp Mackall, N. C.

You and your men were, at all times, in the thick of the fire, yet at no time did you lose control of the situation, although difficulties of control similar to those that exist in actual combat, it is this type of leadership that is desired in our officers.

It is with deep satisfaction that I commend you for your excellent performance of duty in a manner which is in keeping with the high standards of this regiment.

(SGD) ROY E. LINDQUIST Colonel, 505th Pchnt. Inf., Commanding.

SUN SPOTS

MUST HAVE BEEN an advance flyer that led the Defense Council to have a special meeting Tuesday, when we had a surprise black-out. We wonder if the black-out shades were drawn this time?

DOGS AND BUNNIES are not included in the new ordinance designed to protect Victory Gardens. Must be because our four-footed pals can't read that they were left out.

THE PLAN OF THE Consumer's Interest Committee to have an Exchange is a swell idea. It's no joke trying to get rubbers and over-shoes for children, and many a mom whose suits are snarled, besides. It's really a shame to throw out these articles only because the child has outgrown them. More power to the committee in their fine undertaking!

A call to the SUN, Mountain 6-1256, will bring a representative to estimate on your job painting requirements—adv.

CONGRATULATIONS

All the interested parties in the following birth announcement are residents of Springfield. This being so unusual, we move the story up from its place on Page 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith of 151 Meisel avenue announce the birth of twins, Penelope Ann and Lloyd Sanders, on Tuesday at Overlook Hospital, Summit. Grandparents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of 69 Battle Hill avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKelvey of 31 Washington avenue.

Lieut. Allen Killed In Southern Air-Crash

Word has been received here of the death of Lieut. Thomas P. Allen Jr., 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen of 24 Michigan avenue, Kenilworth.

Lieut. Allen lost his life last Saturday in a collision between two Army medium bombers at Englewood, Fla. Twelve other men died in the crash.

Lieut. Allen was the fiancé of Miss Mary K. Messmore, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. George H. Messmore of 23 Marlon avenue. Their engagement was announced last January 22.

A graduate of Newark Academy, he entered the Army in February, 1942, and received his commission at Monty Field, Ga., January 11, 1943.

While a student at Regional High School, which he attended before going to Newark Academy, he was State pole vault champion, and one of Regional's most outstanding track stars.

Pair Ordered Held For Action By Grand Jury

Robert Perkins, 25, and William French, 27, both colored, of Newark, were ordered held for Grand Jury action on charges of carrying concealed weapons, when they were arraigned Monday night before Recorder Everett Spinning.

Patrolman Vincent Plankwa, who arrested the pair Sunday night, charged that they had a revolver concealed in the car. They were driving on Morris avenue at the time of their arrest. Perkins was also charged with driving a car after his license had been normally revoked. Recorder Spinning found him guilty on this charge, and in default of a fine of $102.50, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

How To Keep Bunnies Out of Your Garden

The Consumer Interest Committee of the Defense Council makes the following suggestion for Victory Gardeners:

"Now is the time for all good gardeners to take steps to keep the bunnies out of their gardens. A good way to do this is by setting a washing around the outside edges of the garden, keeping the line about one foot above the ground. Then hang on it a rope dipped in a creosote solution, and the bunnies will stay out, as they don't like creosote."

TO GRADUATE MONDAY

HENRY A. CUBBERLEY, 2 C, U. S. Navy, was home over the week-end visiting his mother, Mrs. Anna Cubberley of 6 Perry place. He entered the service in October, 1942, and has been stationed at Great Lakes, Illinois. He will graduate on Monday from Erie Central School and will then enter advanced school.

Are you serving in any Defense Council activity? Your help is needed.

DEFERRED AND WHY

"Deferred And Why" in big black letters heads the list of men deferred in the draft which was released yesterday by Selective Service Board No. 2. Vincent deP. Slavin, chairman of the Board said that the lists were being posted in both the Springfield and Union Post Offices and would be available for those who question various deferments.

There are 123 names on the list, approximately 11 of which are Springfield residents.

Since Selective Service Regulations do not prohibit the publication of such information, Local Board No. 2 for Union County, New Jersey, becomes the first Selective Service Board in the System to make known the names and reasons why single men and men who married since registration have not been called to the colors.

Most of the classifications listed were assigned by Board of Appeal No. 8 at Elizabeth, New Jersey, which failed to affirm the Class I-A assigned by Board 2. While the original intent was to grant an employe six months to replace an employe, many regulations, however, are not so simple. And the employes STILL show no evidence of replacing the men. Would you, if you were an employe and granted one deferment after another?

Registered listed as married men were not in the matrimonial State at the time they registered under the Selective Service Act.

The Board is currently inquiring married men who were not fathers prior to September 15, 1942.

The information should answer several inquiries made by visitors to the Board's office and anonymous telephone calls and letters."

VEGETABLE PRICES STILL GOING UP

Transportation and Black-Market Blamed; List Best Buys For the Week

Vegetable prices are still going up, and the dealers explained, but in most cases it is quality. Such is the picture painted by Springfield merchants this week. Best buys of the week were: Asparagus, 10 cents per pound; California carrots, 8 cents a bunch; Florida oranges and grapefruit, ceiling prices; string beans, 19 cents a pound; and peas, 23 cents a pound.

If you want to be really lucky, you can get best buys, priced at 35 cents per pound. Bananas are available in one store for 18 cents a pound. Potatoes have almost disappeared. It isn't that they can't be bought, the dealers explained, but prices are double ceiling prices, and they must be hoarded to obtain a hundred pounds of spuds. If you must have potatoes, they will probably be sweets, which are plentiful and reasonable.

RECEIVES SILVER WINGS

Miss Elliott in Charge The overall direction of the program rests with Miss Harriet Elliott, Associate Field Director, Women's Section; and with Mrs. Henry Morgenstern Jr., Chief of the Special Activities Unit of the Women's Section.

Stating the responsibility of every citizen in this campaign, Miss Elliott said: "Every housewife can encourage every working member of her family to pledge to the Unit in the Second War Loan. She can back that pledge by her every effort to budget for bonds. "Every woman wage earner, and there are now 15 million, must realize that War Loan investment protects her earnings, and will do her over the change to peacetime employment. "Sworn to with income tax security files and other returns should be rest in the Second War Loan to the fullest as a protection against inflation."

Raymond Chisholm School To Resume Classes On Monday

The Raymond Chisholm School will be re-opened Monday for the remainder of the school term, according to an announcement made by Fred J. Hollings, supervising principal of schools, yesterday.

The re-opening was tentatively scheduled for Monday by the Board of Education, which met last week, but official action was not taken until the finances had been running for a few days. There is sufficient oil to keep the school heated as long as necessary, A. H. Anderson, district clerk of the board, said.

The school was closed February 12 because of dwindling oil supplies, and a three week vacation for the children followed. It was then decided to establish a system whereby children from Raymond Chisholm could attend James Caldwell School, which is heated by coal.

Under the plan devised, children in lower grades from Raymond Chisholm attended classes in the afternoon only, while lower grade James Caldwell students went to school mornings only. Full daily sessions were held for pupils from fifth grade up, in both schools.

Advertising for bids for conversion of the oil burner heating Raymond Chisholm School to a mechanical stoker was authorized by the board. They also ordered advertising for bids for 100 tons of firewood, school supplies and manual training supplies for next year.

A salary increase of $100 per year was awarded each of the four janitors employed in the school system. They were also granted a bonus of five per cent of their salaries of last year.

A request of the Teachers Association for payment of 12 installments instead of the usual ten was granted.

Women Asked To Pay For Service Clothes

The national goal of the Women's War Savings committee in the Second War Loan Drive, has been set in terms of paying full clothing and equipment cost for two million enlisted men.

This means selling enough War Loan Bonds to buy all the shoes, coats, blankets, folding cots, steel helmets, and first aid pouches that the government regularly provides for that number of soldiers, sailors and Marines.

The total goal in terms of dollars will exceed 300 million dollars. "On the Outfit" will be the rallying call of the women's drive to raise their share of the nation's 13 billion dollars to finance all-out, total war.

Marine Tops List It costs $154.95 to equip and outfit a single soldier. A little over $36.50 will outfit a sailor. Marine tops the list with $54.94.

Funds raised by local women can apply toward equipping a deficit unit of enlisted men from a platoon of 48 men in a Corps of 32,000 men.

In each locality, administration of the drive rest with the Women's Section of the local War Savings Committee, which in turn is advised by the State War Savings Staff and the Women's section of the Field Division of the War Savings Staff.

Miss Elliott in Charge The overall direction of the program rests with Miss Harriet Elliott, Associate Field Director, Women's Section; and with Mrs. Henry Morgenstern Jr., Chief of the Special Activities Unit of the Women's Section.

Stating the responsibility of every citizen in this campaign, Miss Elliott said: "Every housewife can encourage every working member of her family to pledge to the Unit in the Second War Loan. She can back that pledge by her every effort to budget for bonds. "Every woman wage earner, and there are now 15 million, must realize that War Loan investment protects her earnings, and will do her over the change to peacetime employment. "Sworn to with income tax security files and other returns should be rest in the Second War Loan to the fullest as a protection against inflation."

CABBAGE ROOT MAGGOT AND CUTWORM CONTROL: SOWING SNAK BEAN, SQUASH AND CORN SEEDS

The subject of pests in the vegetable garden is one that is often overlooked. With so many new gardens this year, and gardens where vegetables have not been grown for a long time, many of the insects mentioned in this series of articles will not be a problem. However, there are a few that are sure to appear. Therefore, it is well to be on the watch for all of them, because effective control is that started when the first insect appears.

Sometimes it seems that insects are a blessing in disguise. Here is a specific animal that likes to eat the same plant we do. If we desire the plant more than the insect does, we shall take appropriate measures to see that we get the fruits of our labor. Looking for the insects, brings us into close contact with the plants, and so we learn more about them.

Set-Out Cabbage Plants Now
Gardeners may now safely set out seedlings of the various members of the cabbage family such as cauliflower, rutabaga, cauliflower, and kohlrabi. At the time of setting these plants, we need to take precautions against the first of the insects that may bother our plants—the cabbage root maggot. This may not be present in new gardens, unless cabbage has been grown in the neighborhood. The common club-vegetable growers use calomel (1 part) and starch (2 parts) in a dust on the stems before the plants are set. If the seeds are sown, a 1/2 ounce of calomel and 5 gallons of water is used. 1 gallon to each 25 feet of row. On transplanted cabbage and other vegetables in this family, use calomel on the soil about the base of the plants. This mixture must be kept agitated, as the MOUNTAINSIDE—A new slate of officers for the Library Board will be presented at the annual meeting of the group May 17 in Borough Hall at 8 p. m.

PLAN SALVAGE DRIVE

The Mountainide Defense Council has announced that a drive will be made in the Borough on Sunday, May 2, for the collection of all scrap metals, rubber, rags and paper.

Persons wishing to volunteer as workers for this drive are requested to call Francis H. Stedman, salvage chairman, at Westfield 2-1252.

Announcement has been made that the Library is now a member of the Civic Group, which automatically makes all residents of the Borough members of the Library with voting privileges.

All residents are invited to attend this annual meeting and participate in the selection of a Board.

All kinds of scrap will be collected, and the committee requested that scrap be placed on the curb. Newspapers should be tied securely and placed at the curb.

Edward Monerich, chairman of air-raid wardens, reported that there were a few violations during Tuesday night's black-out test, but the general situation shows improvement. Violations occurred on the all-clear signal. Wardens have been instructed to visit homes of violators and explain the difference between the second blue signal and the all-clear.

A meeting of all messengers and communications personnel was called by Charles Wadas, chairman, to distribute arm-bands and complete organization.

A series of movies portraying the work of various defense departments is being planned by Mr. Wadas. Movies on first aid and police reserves were shown early this month, and were very favorably received.

Police Chief Charles Honecker reported that a teletype machine is needed, not only in general police work but also for use in defense activities. At present, the Borough depends upon Scotch Plains for air-raid test reports.

Chief Honecker was instructed to inquire into the cost and availability of teletype machines and report at the next meeting.

Herman Honecker, in charge of the reserves, reported that arm-bands have been distributed to all reserves.

He is one of the finest men I ever knew but, like a lot of other fine men, he had the habit of smoking to such an extent that he was having trouble with his heart; also was not able to sleep but three or four hours each night. He now certainly looks a lot better. He and I are the closest of friends."

OPA ITEMS

Directors of schools of nursing rank country girls higher than their city cousins. Some of the qualities the directors like about their non-urban students are: they adapt themselves quickly to life in the school; they have learned to use their hands; they have a good supply of common sense; they are friendly and cooperative; they are conscientious, and, one director said, "They get up in the morning."

The need for nurses is urgent. War Manpower Commissioner Merritt has said: "One of the outstanding shortages of manpower in the war is in the field of professional nursing." Write for information to the National Nursing Council for War Service, 1790 Broadway, New York, New York.

Home owners who want to convert their oil heating equipment to use other fuels, or to install insulation, weather-stripping, storm doors, or storm windows, may get OPA loans on a delayed payment plan. Initial payments made between April 20 and September 1 may be deferred until November 1, 1943, if the entire loan is used for such work.

The burial price of American soldiers who fall on foreign soil will be properly recorded by the graves registration units of the U.S. Army. This service operates closely behind the combat area, burying the dead, recording and marking the graves, and collecting personal effects. Except when combat conditions, overseas burials are approximately the same as those conducted in the United States with full military honors, rendered. Rites

Smart Wins Honors In Opening Meet

Even George Smart's outstanding performance at the opening track meet of Regional High School failed to win for the local team. West-Quaker took the match by a score of 75-12 Monday afternoon at Newark.

Placing first in every event he entered, Smart was the outstanding runner of the day. He led Robert in the 100-yard dash. Both were clocked in 16.05.

Smart capped the 220, 440 and broad jump outright. His time in the 220 was 24.4 while he was clocked at 55.9 in the 440. He topped off his success in the running events with an 18-foot leap in the broad jump.

Other Regional winners were Johnson in the javelin throw, Davis in the pole vault and Nelson in the high jump.

It was the first meet of the year for Regional, the meet with Summit, scheduled for April 24, having been postponed until today at Summit.

SAVE... Freedom of Speech

You live in a little town. The sheriff's your next-door neighbor, and the mayor calls you by your first name. Second Thursday every month there's a town-hall meeting. You get up and have your say; about the teacher being unfair to Willie; or how about paving the street in front of your store; or why aren't there more police around the war plant to safeguard the girls going home from the night shift?

That's Freedom of Speech. You have your say, and you speak your mind. What you say isn't earth-shaking. But it's important because it's a reflection of your thinking about—needing—wanting—one thing or another related to your own or some other person's rights as a human being.

It doesn't matter whether you live in the little town; or a large one; or in one of America's biggest cities. If you don't stand up in a town-hall meeting, you write to your mayor . . . your congressman . . . the President of the United States.

Maybe your criticism goes further than little Willie. It may be about all the textbooks used by the Board of Education; or that pipeline to Alaska; or post-war planning. Any way, yours is the privilege—to have your say and speak your mind. That's Freedom of Speech! You wouldn't want it wrested from you by fascist fanatics; so you've GOT to save it! That makes this YOUR WAR, no matter who YOU have to do to win it. . . .

One of the revised, now famous, illustrations of The Four Freedoms, painted originally in color for The Saturday Evening Post by Norman Rockwell who, says President Franklin D. Roosevelt, "has done a superb job in bringing home the plain every day truths behind them."

Originally accompanied by text from the famous pens of Booth Tarkenton, Will Durant, Carlo Emilio Gadda and Stephen Vincent Benet, when they first appeared in the Post, the Rockwell illustrations now are being distributed as posters by the Office of War Information, and are published herewith with new text, as a service to our country's cause.

TREAT YOUR FAMILY TO ASPARAGUS

By MARY W. ARMSTRONG
Home Demonstration Agent

From now on through June, South and Central Jersey will be yielding up their annual harvest of asparagus. The most Garden State household will agree that there's no better fare these Spring days. Fortunately, asparagus is cheap and freshest when it is most plentiful, so homemakers who are keeping a watchful eye on their budgets will use plenty of the familiar, tender green stalks while they are in season. The best asparagus is firm, heavy and green for at least two-thirds the length of the stalk. Asparagus is a good source of vitamins and minerals, and the greener it is, the richer in Vitamin A. The stalks are eaten raw, boiled or steamed. It is usually boiled for 15 to 25 minutes, depending upon the condition of the asparagus. The correct method calls for part of the stalks to be left in the boiling water, with water reaching half way up the stalks and cook until tender. Asparagus is a favorite with many people when served in the Hollandaise sauce. Not only can it be used as a vegetable in a dinner, but when combined with eggs or a cheese sauce, it becomes a substantial meal. Eggs in Asparagus Ring Drain cooked asparagus well; increase in well-soaked ring mold and let stand in warm oven until eggs are prepared. Turn the ring into the water and asparagus ring out on round plating. The ring and the stalks should become tender and serve at once.

Our shopping district, about four blocks long and two blocks wide, compares with a huge department store where you park once to shop, where you can buy everything from a safety pin to a motor truck—including War Bonds and Stamps).

FARE REFUND
ROUND-TRIP OR RAILROAD fare will be refunded to out-of-town shoppers (within a radius of 25 miles) who attend SUMMIT'S APRIL END OF MONTH SALE. Your sales slips from any of the stores listed below dated April 29, 30, or May 1 is all you need. Bring them to the SUMMIT HERALD OFFICE, 357 SPRINGFIELD AVE., and get your refund.

PARK FREE
WHILE SHOPPING you may park your car free and for as long as you wish in either of Summit's TWO MUNICIPAL PARKING LOTS, one located at the rear of 37 MAPLE STREET and the other between the LIBRARY and V. M. C. A., also on MAPLE STREET.

SAVE MONEY
Save pennies and dollars by buying from these stores. Hundreds of items are being offered well below the regular prices. Of course, the quantities are limited, the sizes and colors not always complete. And most Summit stores have low ceiling prices, so regular lines of merchandise should be considered bargains now.
