A PROCLAMATION!

"Billions of dollars must flow into the treasury to provide the necessary funds to prosecute the war. The sons and daughters of thousands of cities, towns and villages must be sustained in their efforts to win the victory. The Fourth War Loan drive is on. The money is needed to provide food, clothing, arms, tanks, ships, planes and thousands of other things required to carry the United Nations to victory. You are offered the opportunity of investing in one of the safest bond issues in the world. Combine patriotism with thrift! Buy bonds for victory and to provide against later financial need! The Air Raid Wardens of the Township are giving of their time and talent in a house to house canvass. They are helping you to put your dollars to work. The road to success has been opened by the courage, strength and sacrifice of the men on the battle fronts: They offer their lives, minds and bodies as a sacrifice for America. Their only cry is for the supplies to go forward. For us to hesitate or procrastinate in doing our part in this drive would make us unworthy of the sons, brothers and friends on the firing line. Success in the drive helps to show a united front to our enemy." WILBUR M. SELANDER, Chairman, Township Committee

Brother Held by Nazis

Flying as a staff Sgt., the brother of Helen Kenney, of 717 Hunterdon Street, Newark, was taken a prisoner of war when his flying fortress was shot down over Germany. And that's one of the reasons Helen has been so eager to put her best efforts into her job of inspecting vital radio tubes for the armed forces made at the RCA plant in Harrison.

"I like the work," says Miss Kenney, "especially because the equipment we're making is going to the front where it will help bring my brother back home soon."

Apply for a war job at the RCA employment office, Sussex and Fifth Streets, Harrison, New Jersey, daily between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m.; or Thursday until 8 p.m.

BETTIQUETTE

WE came across this very clever advertisement of a greeting card company, and are passing it on to you.
I AM MORALE
"My duties as a greeting card are many. I unite separated friends. I've been known to mend more than one broken heart. I've been the spark of more than one romance. I am morale because I am the acknowledged spokesman of millions. I'll be your personal message bearer, obedient to your every requirement, faithful to your every trust."

KITCHEN SABOTEUR
Not all saboteurs sneak about in grimy overalls to do their foul deeds under cover of darkness. Some of our best-intentioned apron wearers commit a little unconscious sabotage because they don't think.
A kitchen saboteur—
HOARDS—hoards canned goods, spends her food dollar on foods in cans to hoard. She ignores the fresh fruits and vegetables in the markets, passes up fresh citrus, grabs those cans! She hoards sugar for gooey desserts when she might better serve fruit again.
IS LAZY—won't shop for bargains but complains of rising prices. Doesn't ask her meat man to help her select thrifty cuts nor learn to cook them. Pays no attention to new ways of cooking to conserve vitamins.
WASTES—throws out water in which vegetables were (over probably) cooked; tosses to Fido a meat bone which might have made soup. Doesn't use left-overs, nor extend them to serve again.
DOES NOT PLAN—won't plan before she goes to market, doesn't read the newspapers, listens to the radio programs which help her with her food problems. Hasn't learned to buy when there's a bargain, use it up during the week. Hasn't caught up with the nutrition program.
DOES NOT COOK—so there'll be clean, polished plates on her table, no waste, no turn-down of good, vital foods.
A nation-wide drive to make empty deposit bottles do double duty is under way. The milk, beer and carbonated beverage bottles that piled up during the winter, will be back in circulation after they have been thoroughly sterilized.
Rubber gloves unavailable, the modern housewife dons a "glove" of protective cream before doing her "dirty work." The cream when used this way, prevents the skin from becoming stained as "spring housecleaning" is being done.
Furniture scratches are easy to remove and should be taken care of immediately to keep irreplaceable.

FAVORED PEOPLE
When the war ends, the world will be exhausted. Sacrifices to the point of starvation already are being made by many people in many lands. Hunger has taken a hand in the game with Sweat and Blood and Tears. Property of untold value has been destroyed already, cities sacked and burned, and the end is not yet.

When bankrupt nations begin building back their world, who is going to pay for it? Who will be expected to buy rehabilitation bonds and stamps to fabricate new cities and patch up old ones? Last November 9, an agreement was signed by representatives of 44 nations, all on our side, and they seemed to have ideas how the load should be distributed. Thus:

United States	40
Great Britain	15
Soviet Russia	15
China	5

These leaders among the United Nations head the list. They are arranged according to what will be expected of them in the reconstruction years. The figures show what part of the cost (whatever that may be) each one will undertake to raise. If the big four meet their respective quotas, the job will be three-fourths done, no matter what the other 40 countries raise, and the United States will contribute more than the other three high ones combined.

Some thoughtful citizen with a banker's turn of mind is certain to adjust his glasses, scan those figures twice and say "Look! Whose war was this? The United States has only one-sixteenth of the world's population. Why are we expected to pay 40 percent of the world's repair bill after the war? Can that be fair?"

Another Viewpoint
But down in Uruguay the citizen will not react the same. He may view the matter from another angle and say, "Well! Uncle Sam, with half of all the wealth in the world is getting off pretty easy, no? Only paying two-fifths of the bill." Nations as well as individuals have a hard time seeing themselves as others see them. So much depends on the point of view. Just when we begin feeling put-upon, somebody is likely to accuse us of shirking our duty.

Personal experiences have helped me much to feel just how rich America is. Coming from a stay of 11 years in the Orient, I landed in New York in August, 1935. That is what some people call the pit of the depression. The WPA, the CCC and the NYA were going strong. There was much unemployment. Quotations of business men, even in the press, were full of bewildered discouragement. But to me and to my family, Manhattan was a dream of prosperity.

Children Impressed
My two daughters, born in China and trained in Chinese schools, gazed in wide-eyed wonder at New York's broad streets, tall buildings and clean, happy people. They knew where $10 a month was a kid's ransom for a gain with a family. They had recalled with children who never knew

YOUR RED CROSS

An interesting account of what the Red Cross clubs and clubmobiles are doing for the service men and women in England and North Africa is contained in the report of G. Stewart Brown, vice-chairman of the American Red Cross in charge of public relations. Mr. Brown accompanied National Chairman Norman H. Davis on his recent trip abroad to inspect Red Cross facilities. They visited most of England, all of North Africa and Sicily.

There are 80 Red Cross clubs in England, all equipped with most adequate conveniences, and there are twenty-four clubs in North Africa. Rainbow Corner in London has become the rendezvous for soldiers; over 18,000 visit it daily. There are also clubs for WACS and for officers.

Clubmobiles furnish another service, which is proving indispensable to soldiers, especially to men in the Air Force. Clubmobile girls are up by 5 o'clock in the morning to meet crews on their return from bomber missions. The Air Force has requested that clubmobiles meet and feed the men, even before they report to intelligence on their missions. Practically everywhere the Air Force

Without benefit of bugles

YOU don't read much about the "paper workers" on the home front... but one big reason for the effectiveness of America's war effort is the skill and steadfastness of the workers at desks and telephones and business machines behind the fighting and production lines.

Their job is to keep the records straight—to do the paper work, and handle the negotiations and contacts so important to the organized effort of producing and delivering the munitions and supplies our fighting forces need.

There are 4,100 "paper workers" in New Jersey's telephone service alone, taking care of the details of the task of serving the users of over 940,000 telephones.

Every month, for example, business office representatives handle over 460,000 contacts with the public... telephone accounting people prepare over 1,200,000 separate statements for military, business and residential service... directory clerks check 400,000 listings of telephone numbers to assure accuracy... installation, repair and supply service workers handle nearly a million orders and reports.

Without benefit of bugles, the legions of men and women in America's army of "paper workers" are carrying on their part in this great emergency, doing a job that is of vital aid to winning the war.

WHO'S WHO in MOUNTAINSIDE

HARRY BLIWISE

MOUNTAINSIDE—Harry Bliwise might well be termed one of Mountainside's first "entrepreneurs," coming here 30 years ago and opening a small general store which has blossomed into the Bliwise Food Center.

From 1903 to 1913, Mr. Bliwise resided in Springfield, where his father had a store. In 1913 he married the former Katie Linn and they lived in Newark for a year. The next year they came to Mountainside, which was then more or less a wilderness, and began building up their business. At that time there were probably 200 people in town and about 35 voters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bliwise have seen the borough grow into what it is today, from dirt roads to state highways and wagon tracks to county roads.

They have three sons, Harold, Daniel and Arthur, who are all married, and two grandchildren.

Mr. Bliwise was a member of the Board of Education for a number of years, and also belongs to the I.O.B.A. Lodge in Newark and the B'Nai Beshur Temple, of Newark. For diversion he and Mrs. Bliwise enjoy the movies, theatre and trips to New York.

When the SUN asked Mr. Bliwise if he had ever had any political aspirations he "chuckled and said he had run for councilman a couple of times but was defeated."

"Even so," he feels, "I have had a definite part in the growth of the town and hope to remain here the rest of my days."

(Editor's Note.—A sketch of Mountainside personalities in borough affairs, "Who's Who" will appear each week with a different subject, man or woman, in public office or a local personage worth knowing something about.)

Annual Meeting Held At Children's Country Home

MOUNTAINSIDE—Officers elected at the annual meeting of the Children's Country Home were: President, Mrs. Louise H. Kniffin; vice-presidents, Mrs. Walter L. Day, Mrs. Otto R. Huster, and Mrs. Christopher S. Warner; secretary, Mrs. William H. Orr; treasurer, Mr. A. M. Lambertson; and chairman of executive committee, Arthur N. Pierson.

Mrs. Kniffin stated that the various chapters would report on the work done at the Home during the past year or year and a half, since it was in August 1942 that the first infantile paralysis patient to receive the Sister Kenny treatment was admitted to the Home. Since then they have cared for 68 poliomyelitis patients. Also in September of that year they opened a unit given over to the treatment of cerebral palsy patients under the direction of Dr. Whitrop M. Phelps of Baltimore. These two departments supplement the regular orthopedic ward where all types of orthopedic cases are cared for.

The work with polio reached the stage in February 1943, when the Home was definitely recognized by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis at which time Sister Kenny and her niece, Miss Mary Kenny, spent several hours here examining thoroughly each one of the patients and making constructive criticisms. In September Dr. Don Gudakunst, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in New York, also spent several hours with the patients and since then has recommended the hospital to his inquiring doctor friends.

Home Was Honored

In January, during the March of Dimes drive the National Foundation also honored the Home by giving Mrs. Kniffin ten minutes of radio time over W.A.P.T., part of which time was devoted entirely to the Home. Mrs. Kniffin stated that she wished to emphasize the fact that the Children's Country Home has proven that a convalescent hospital is definitely a place for the after-care of infantile paralysis, the long painstaking care of cerebral palsy patients, as well as all kinds of orthopedic cases, including cardiac and rheumatic heart. She also stated that completely redecorated ward at the Children's Country Home is a place, and they desperately need another building.

Mrs. William Rousen, in her report on the housekeeping committee stated that the Rose Cottage was put in ship-shape and completely redecorated. Hand-ware, after sixteen years of hard usage was replaced in the treatment room, kitchen and bathroom. Furniture, etc., were painted and repairs made where necessary. Last summer they started work on the Bridge-DeLameter cottage. With a minimum of 36 patients with infantile paralysis, all receiving the Sister Kenny treatment, it was necessary to replace plaster, loosened from storm. They also opened two vents to the roof, built in blanket racks and racks for Kenny packs, painted and repaired where necessary. In the midst of this they installed two motor stokers at an expense of $2,000, including coal bins and other necessary repairs.

Lists School Training

In her report on the Education Committee, Mrs. Robert Thomson states that the academic program of the Mountainside School of the Home includes the following subjects: Reading, writing, spelling, English, arithmetic, social studies, science, music and art. Most of the work must necessarily be individual because many have had little or no schooling prior to their entrance here. Educational films, supplementary to the school work, are shown every week by Charles Wadsworth principal. These films are provided by the Mountainside Board of Education. As a classroom activity this year they are studying the seasons in collaboration with their science unit. Since September the children have been learning about the autumn season, how plants and animals prepare for winter, learning songs, stories and poems and drawing. The children are also working on a school newspaper to be edited in November.

Good citizenship and character training in all grades have been stressed, so good behavior habits are practiced here as well as when the children return to their own communities. The project for the month of December was developed around the customs of the Christmas season. Holiday customs such as trimming the Christmas tree, using candles, palmists, holly and presenting gifts were discussed. An original play was written by the children and presented at the Christmas exercises. The winter season is the project for the month of January. In science the children will discuss how nature provides for and takes care of the animals, insects and birds. In art, a mural of a winter scene was made. The purpose of this is to correlate the children's winter activities with art values.

Mrs. Alfred Moser in her statistics, reported that since August, 1942, a total of 68 infantile paralysis patients have been admitted to the Home. Of this number 43 were from Union County. There are 21 infantile paralysis patients at the Home at the present time, which means that they have discharged 47, of which 32 of whom were from Union County. Nursing personnel at the Home at the present time consists of a director of nurses, two assistants, two night nurses, a relief nurse, two other graduate nurses, four undergraduate nurses, four physiotherapists, two Kenny and two cerebral palsy, several Red Cross Nurses' Aides and 70 Children's Country Home volunteer aides.

The Needlework Guilds of Orange, Rahway, Westfield and Cranford have supplied the Home with many articles such as undergarments, diapers, stockings, sleepers, knit shirts, slippers, sweaters, polo shirts, caps, mittens, etc.

Firemen's Party Attended By 140

MOUNTAINSIDE—About 140 persons attended the firemen's card party last Friday night in the local school and there were at least 30 tables in play. The amount realized from this party will be put into their general fund. A ham which was raffled off was won by Mrs. Bligh of Central avenue, who also won the silver prize of a pound of butter. Two pounds of butter were also raffled off and won by Roland Jacobs. There were almost as many bridge tables as pinocle this time, which was unusual. Committee in charge of arrangements was: Chief Herman Honecker, Joseph Hershey and Harold Engelman.

RATION REMINDERS

Gasoline—A-S coupons are good through February 8.

Fire Inspection—Deadline for A coupon holders is March 31. For B and C coupon holders, deadline is February 28.

Sugar—Stamp No. 30 in Book Four is good for 3 pounds through March 31.

Fuel Oil—Period 2 coupons are good through February 7.

Meats, Fats—Brown stamps R, S, T, and U are good through January 30. Brown stamp V is good through February 28. Brown stamp W becomes good January 30 and remains good through February 28.

Processed Food—Green stamps G, H, and J in Book Four are good through February 20.

Civilians will get more coffee, chocolate and cocoa in 1944 than in 1943, according to the War Food Administration. Four pounds more of coffee and one-half pound more of cocoa beans have been allocated for each civilian.

Sales of certain (chiefly novelty) types of women's shoes rationed—free, at three dollars or less a pair, have been extended an extra week—through February 5, OPA has announced.

Twelve red stamps in Book Four, which are numbered "S" and lettered from "A" through "M," may be used for buying pork and other rationed meats from fairs, slaughterers. These stamps will not be used by consumers in general until February 27. They will have the expiration dates for purchases from farmers as in city markets. The stamps are worth 10 points each for making a total value of 120 points. This does not give the individual who buys from a farm slaughterer a larger meat ration than anyone else. It merely allows him to buy a fairly large amount at one time. In addition, brown stamps in Book Three may be used ahead of their regular validity dates when used in buying from farmers.

Employees of the Department of Agriculture were the first government group to inspect the U. S. S. American—Mariner, new Liberty training ship for the U. S. S. Mar-chants. These and see how the War Bond money was being spent. This ship is the largest ever to sail up the Potomac River to Washington, inside R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture, told the employees he expected to make a total of $4,779,602 and pointed out that they had oversubscribed their Third War Loan quota by almost 25 per cent.

A plan whereby gasoline ration coupons are mailed to individual motorists from carefully guarded central issuing stations is now being established by OPA. The plan is expected to eliminate thefts of ration coupons, give OPA a check of issuance, and eliminate a great load from local boards. To further fight black markets, about February 1 OPA will issue a notice urging endorsement of coupons to be inserted in newly issued gasoline ration books.

In about 60 days, steel springs for upholstered wood furniture will be on the market, according to the War Production Board. Manufacturers may use a limited quantity of steel springs under a new WPB ruling.

When the War Dog comes home, he will return in his pre-war state of docility with an honorable discharge certificate and service record. The War Department has announced. Dogs are "reprocessed" to assure their welcome return to the community, and are taught to be friendly with all other than the few to whom they were officially

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

By FRED D. OSMAN
Union County Agricultural Agent
Gardeners sometimes become concerned when trees bleed after they have been pruned but this condition is not serious nor is it encountered to any extent when pruning is done early. Getting this job out of the way before the spring gardening rush descends is not mandatory, but it is an excellent practice if it can be followed conveniently and if the weather is favorable.

Directing the contour of shade trees is another important garden chore that can be taken care of in the winter months. The time to train these trees is while they are young, for if they are not pruned carefully they quickly become unsightly. Considerable dead wood forms on trees, and it should never be allowed to get in the way of thriving branches. The dying off of certain branches is nature's way of taking care of surplus wood, and any dead branches should be pruned judiciously. Most of these dead branches have suffered from lack of light.

It is especially desirable to prevent the formation of "V" crotches of branches equal in diameter. The way to remedy this situation is to remove one side of the crotch so that only one branch remains or to shorten one side back to a side branch. You will need a long, strong ladder, with a sharp saw—an iron having more "set" than would be used for dry lumber. Do the pruning on a day that is not too cold. Before the war it was comparatively easy to find skilled arborists to do this work, but nowadays most gardeners find they have to do it themselves if they wish it done.

If you find that your home grounds planting needs a few more shade trees, it is wise to give careful consideration to selecting trees that are deep-rooted and that will not compete with the grass that surrounds them. Then too, you will doubtless wish to select trees that will not disrupt the sidewalk eventually. Plant them on your own property rather than in any area between the sidewalk and the curb. Many of the nut trees are deep-rooted and will provide shade attractively. Selected varieties of hardy pecan, hickory and walnut trees are now available and they make excellent shade trees. After they are a few years old they will grow just as fast as maples, and they are longer lived and more satisfactory.

For home owners and gardeners who do not care for nut trees, there are several other possibilities. Honey locust, Kentucky coffee tree, and some of the ashes serve admirably as shade trees. Red oak is an excellent, rather fast-growing tree that is becoming increasingly popular for this purpose, too. All of these trees are fairly deep-rooted, they develop good tops, and they are comparatively free from serious insect attacks. For home owners and gardeners who do not care for nut trees, there are several other possibilities. Honey locust, Kentucky coffee tree, and some of the ashes serve admirably as shade trees. Urged to Give Home Donations

Members of the Springfield Lions Club, meeting last Friday at Orchard Inn, were urged by Roy Waldeck, general chairman of the coming year fund drive of the Red Cross, to encourage township citizens to place their Red Cross gifts in Springfield, instead of at their out-of-town places of employment. Other facts about the drive, Waldeck stated that $2,700 of the money collected would remain in the local chapter treasury, and pointed out that due to the exceptionally high spirit of service which actuates the volunteers in Springfield Chapter, the chapter has a high rating in the East Atlantic Area. He paid tribute to the faithful work of Springfield women in this respect. As a result, the speaker said, in order to maintain this high level of service, the budget must be increased. He again stressed the necessity for a $10 minimum in contributions due to the war emergency, and expressed confidence in the support of the people of Springfield in putting the drive over the top. The Springfield Red Cross needs volunteers. You can volunteer for any service where help is needed by calling headquarters, Millburn 6-2003.

Rahway Beats Regional In Sudden Death Period

An inspired Regional team, conations of the "beat Rahway at home" almost came through to victory against Rahway High Tuesday night, going down to defeat in a sudden death overtime session, 39-37.

The underdog Bulldogs forced Rahway to come from behind and the regular contest ended at 37-all. A three minute overtime session was scoreless, and the Scarlet gained the deciding goal with Pete Huggler taking the ball off the backboard and heaving it the full length of the court to Bill Jordan, who had been waiting under the basket for a lay up shot.

At the end of the third period, Regional held a three-point lead but Rahway went ahead by a point on a pair of field goals. Frank Cree made a foul shot good with less than a minute to play, tying it up.

Jumbo Gwathney unexpectedly joined the squad to play one more game before Army induction and he and Cree were top local scorers, with 8 and 13 points respectively. The jayvees lost their second game in 31 starts by a 28-26 count, their rally falling short in the final half. Lineups:

Regional Style of Past Seen in Plainfield Win

A Regional team which displayed a taste of teamwork of the type so reminiscent in recent games but sadly missing in previous games of the current edition, came to life in the Plainfield contest Friday night at home and won its fourth tilt of the season, 35-24.

The visitors were ahead for three-quarters until Frank Cree, Regional forward, dropped a shot to give the local a 25-21 lead at the start of the final stanza. Here the Bulldogs paced by Jumbo Gwathney and Ray Burns, rang up three field goals in succession to take a 28-21 advantage.

Plainfield retaliated with a basket for its sole two-pointers of this session and the Bulldogs moved ahead quickly to decide the issue. The victory avenged a previous Plainfield win, although the Queen City boys got off to a 4-0 lead, but Gwathney, playing his final Regional game before Army induction next week, went wild with seven points in this session and the locals were on the short end of a 10-0 score when the first quarter ended.

The next stanza found Regional senseless until two minutes before the half when Callahan tallied for the locals' only score. Plainfield was concentrating on stopping Ray Burns, and in the meantime, Gwathney and Cree got a pair of field goals apiece, with the Regional five drawing up to a 21-20 count, when the third period bell sounded.

Regional's jayvees rang up their ninth win in ten starts by defeating Plainfield's squad, 29-20. The teams were evenly matched until the final period, in which Regional blanketed their opponents.

Pin-up picture for the man who "can't afford" to buy an extra war bond...

You've heard people say: "I can't afford to buy an extra War Bond." Perhaps you've said it yourself... without realizing what a ridiculous thing it is to say to men who are dying.

The very least that you can do is to buy an extra $100 War Bond... above and beyond the Bonds you are now buying or had planned to buy. In fact, if you take stock of your resources, you will probably find that you can buy an extra $200... or $300... or even $500 worth of War Bonds.

Sounds like more than you "can afford"? Well, young soldiers can't afford to die, either... yet they do it when called upon. So is it too much to ask of us that we invest more of our money in War Bonds... the best investment in the world today? Is that too much to ask?

tie C.B. production, "The Life of a Seabee," which will be released (and we mean released!) the afternoon of 30 January 1944 on the North Theatre Stage. The drama, written by E. A. Cardinal and Jerry Donnelly, is being directed by Cardinal and timely tells the story of a Seabee from the days that makes his big decision in the recruiting office to the date (much later, of course) when he finds himself on that most popular of resorts known as dear, old Island X by the sea—keep gripping!"

Robert E. Swanson, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Swanson of 446 Morris avenue is enrolled as an aviator cadet in the pre-flight school at Maxwell Field, Alabama, an installation of the Army Air Forces Training Command. Here the cadets are receiving nine weeks of intensive military, physical and academic training. Aviator Cadet Swanson graduated from Regional High School in 1941.

His appreciation for receiving the SUN for the past seven months, while in foreign service, has been to write a letter from Corporal Robert Potter. The letter is as follows: "Just a few lines to let you know that I appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending me the SUN for the past seven months, while I was in foreign service. I usually received four or five of them at the same time, which gave me quite a bit of news from home all at once. I am now back in the United States with the Air Corps, for gunnery training, after which I expect to be shipped out again. I hope I can stay in this country for a while and enjoy some nice weather for a change. I have been in the North Pacific for the last seven months and didn't see too much sunshine or nice weather and I really am enjoying the climate here in Arizona, but would certainly like to get back to Springfield for a while and see some of my friends and probably will very soon. I would have written sooner and thanked you, but I didn't have too much time to write letters, but I am taking this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to you." Corporal Potter is stationed at the Kingman Army Air Field, Kingman, Ariz. He is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Potter of Evergreen avenue.

Apprentice Seaman Clyde Spiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Spiller of Milltown road is home on a 14-day leave from the Naval Training Station at Sampson, N. Y.

Aviation Cadet Albert W. Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Douglas of Morris avenue began his pilot training recently with a new class at the 62nd Flying Training Detachment, Army Air Forces Contract Flying School (Primary), at Jackson, Miss. Reporting at Maxwell Field, Ala., where he underwent two months of arduous toughening-up exercises and study at the Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School (Pilot).

Receiving the SUN regularly, Cadet John Kroehling sends us the following letter from Chicago, Ill. where he is in training: "I want to thank you very much for the SUN. I receive it regularly. It means an awful lot to someone who is away from home for any length of time to read about the old home town, and all the other things that are going on. We are kept so busy that we have very little free time, but I always find time to read the SUN and keep informed about home. Thanks again for everything." Cadet Kroehling is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kroehling of 216 Milltown road. He is a graduate of Regional High, class of '42.
